Local Shriners Give $7,000 for Crippled Children

by John Sarich

Al Morrah Shrine Club held their annual hamburger supper at the Lion's Club building in Clarendon. This was the appreciation supper for all the people who had worked or helped in any way on the 4th of July Shrine Barbecue.

On behalf of the local Shriners, John Sarich presented a check for $7,000 to the Illustrious Haskell Beaver, Potentate of Khiva Temple. The money will go to the Hospital Travel Fund.

Monies for the Hospital Travel Fund are used exclusively to pay for air travel for the crippled child going for treatment at the Crippled Childrens' Hospital at Houston or the Burns Hospital at Galveston, and a motel or hotel for the parent while the child is being treated. There is no charge to the parent for any of these services.

All children from infancy to 18 years of age are eligible for treatment, if, in the opinion of the Chief of Staff, there is a reasonable possibility that treatment will benefit the child and that treatment at another facility would place a financial burden on the patient's family or guardian.

Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children are open to all children regardless of their race, religion or relationship to a Shriner.

There are 19 Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children, equipped and staffed to care for children afflicted with congenital orthopaedic deformities, problems resulting from orthopaedic injuries and diseases of the bones, joints and muscles. Some of the common orthopaedic problems treated at

The Council currently consist of nine certified volunteer tutors who have complete a tenhour workshop in the Laubach (pronounced Law-bock) method

Dr. Frank C. Laubach developed this particular way to teach while he was a missionary in the Philippines during the 1920's. Taught in a one-on-one setting, this method has proven to be extremely effective. In 1955, Dr. Laubach founded the Laubach Literacy International (LLI), which supports literacy programs in foreign countries. He was honored by the issue of a U.S. postage stamp, one of the "Great American" series, in 1985 for his contribution in the literacy field.

Laubach Literacy Action is the United States publishing and program arm of the LLI. Headquartered in Syracuse, New York LLA serves more than 627 communities in 45 states. This organization works with a wide variety of groups at the local, state and national levels. Partners in local programs include public education agencies, libraries, prisons, mental health centers and service clubs. LLA also works closely with the U.S. Department of Education and the media to expand and promote the national literacy effort.

In the past few years, volunteers have taught more than 85,000 adults, most of whom entered the program with a reading level below fourth grade. The students leave the course of study with improved skills and a higher level of self-

The Donley County Adult Literacy Council urges all citizens to spread the word to adults who would benefit from this program. Letter to the

This letter is written in response to last week's "Letter to the Editor", in which the writer referred to our Junior High students who attended the Gruver -Clarendon game as a "gaggle of geese" wandering around the stadium, and apparently not watching the game.

There were a number of parents and other fans present at the same game who DID NOT share the same opinion. The young men and women we observed were a very spirited group who supported the Colts with energy and enthusiasm. We feel that they represented our Junior High well and we were proud that so many students and supporters came to watch the Colts play.

In defending the actions of the Junior High students, it might be helpful to point out a few additional facts. 1) there is no organized school pep squad. Students who wish to support the teams at out-oftown games attend only if parents or other supporters offer their time and money to get them to the games. 2) our students attend the games because they want to be part of the Colts and there are no rules that govern where or when they sit. Parents are generally responsible for this. 3) These Junior High students spend a great deal of time during the day performing academic tasks that require mental energy and being "seated". They all need some release time after school whether it be at home, at ball games, or in any setting. 4) Students respond much better to constructive criticism than "name -calling".

The Colt Mothers are an organization for anyone who has a student involved in athletics. We encourage and invite all who are interested and have a 7th or 8th grade student to come to the meetings.

In closing, last week's writer Estlack Electric. asked why our students dress in red and white and shout cheers. Very simply stated, they do so because they are proud to be CLAREN-DON COLTS and Colt fans. They like being part of a group that takes pride in being the best they can be.

Our kids are going to make mistakes but we as adults have a responsibility to guide, discipline and support them in sports, their endeavors.

Colt Mothers

Dear Editor.

As members of the pep squad, or the so called "gaggle of geese" we would like to thank the mothers who have taken their time to support us by taking us to the Junior High football games. We would also like to express our feelings toward the "Letter to the Editor" in last weeks paper. First of all the Pep Squad IS NOT school sponsored. We pay for our own meals and our way into the game. Whether we sit together or on the other side is up to the parents who take us. The Pep Squad and other parents wish to show school spirit and do not complain. Trying to bring down the Pep Squad does not show school spirit. Does It?? We apologize to the eighth grade mother who disagrees with our am apologizing for the letter printed last week about the junior high pep squad, I had not been able to see the well-behaved children because of the crowd fronting the group. Many concerned parents have informed me that good behavior was very much present among the students. It seems like my letter came at a very bad time. I did not know this group is so new that it is in already a precarious position. Parents in support will come out in the paper, too, but I also support this group and was very worried about some child getting hurt THAT particular night. I wish now I had not felt so compelled to wake anyone up--it was not meant as a negative and yet I phrased myself poorly so that was another mistake I mad. Parents do care, I have been accurately set straight on that fact, so I hope the children realize that their group is an excellent support system making parents proud of their involvement. Please let your child continue to show school spirit and go along to the games yourself. We are lucky to live in a small town with parents and teachers so staunchly united behind the pep squad and players.

Dear Editor,

■ ast Thursday evening I had an opportunity to see a football game, not just "a" game but one that was special for a variety of reasons. Many people began leaving Clarendon around 3:00 p.m. to travel to watch the 7th grade, 8th grade and Junior Varsity play Motley County.

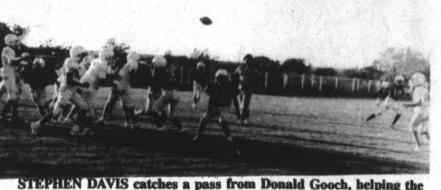

I have admired the enthusiasm I have witnessed in the boys involved in this football program. They take it very seriously. The 7th and 8th grade games are the only ones I've gotten to see so far because our job calls for us to be here most of the time but we have been able to get away so far for these games. I only said that to say this, I

Ag Workers can get Training on Chemicals

A training program on workplace chemical is now available for agricultural laborers in Donley County.

The training conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is among the requirements of the Agricultural Hazard Communication Act, said Ronald Gooch, County Extension Agent. commonly referred to as the "Right To Know Act", the measure was enacted by the legislature in 1987 to promote the safe use of pesticides and protect the health of farm workers, farmers and farming communities.

The law applies to agricultural employers who: Hire migrant or seasonal workers with a gross annual payroll of $15,000 or more, and who annually use or store 55 gallons or 500 pounds of any pesticide; or Hire permanent agricultural workers with a gross annual payroll of $50,000 or more, and who annually use or store 55 gallons or 500 pounds of any pesticide.

The intent of the Act is to make sure all agricultural laborers get information on chemicals to which they may ge exposed. Training focuses on how to limit exposure to chemicals in the workplace through good work practices and on use of protective clothing and equipment.

The training program covers chemical labeled under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act and fertilizers with chemicals that are listed or defined in certain federal regulations as hazardous. Receiving training on the hazards of these chemicals and on protective measures is among the rights guaranteed by the Act to agricultural laborers,

The training program will be conducted periodically by county Extension staff. Dates, locations and times of the training sessions will be announced in the coming weeks.

Fourth Graders Receive "Feeling Good About Me"

Students in the fourth grade at Clarendon Elementary School have received the gift-book entitled "Feeling Good About Me'. It is a handsomely bound book of stories about learning traditional values and self-esteem.

"Feeling Good About Me" contains eight stories about realistic problems young people might encounter and how, using traditional values, they are resolved.

Each story has a full-color illustration and teaches such lessons as right and wrong, appreciation of family, what it means to be a good citizen, living up to one's full potential, and why (and how) to stay away from drugs.

In the first story, "A Day With Granddaddy", young Wendy is mad. The most popular girl in school has invited her to a slumber party but SHE has to go to her grandparents house on the lake, a visit she usually enjoys.

During a conversation that takes place as Wendy fishes with Granddad, she learns the relative importance of the party and the visit (her values are put into perspective) and she feels good about herself and visiting her grandparents.

Other stories involve the meaning of friendship, family relationships, respect for others, loyalty and the importance of being your own unique self, lessons not always covered in school curriculums. They reflect positive influences that build a child's self es-

In another story that takes place in a video arcade, Brian and Darrick must weigh the chance to get free games dishonestly against the effects of such action. With the help of a lesson learned from Darrick's dad, honesty wins out.

National Spelling Bee

For the 41st year West Texas State University in Canyon and the Amarillo Globe-News will again sponsor the National Spelling Bee for young students in the area.

Named as director for Donley County is Floyd Guinn, principal of Clarendon Junior High, who has served since 1977. The director will coordinate the Bee program with the private and public schools and select a date for the county competition. The Amarillo Globe-News requests that each county finalist be named by March 18, 1989. The Scripps Howard National

by Amy Thornberry

On Thursday, September 29, 1988, Gilbert Imamin Abdoul Achmed Faried visited the 5th grade classes at the Clarendon Elementary School. Gilbert, a 26 year old native of Surinam, South America, was invited by Amy Thornberry and her parents, Bobbie and Sandy Thornberry, to speak to the classes about his homeland.

Gilbert came to the United States in March in order to learn about growing and farming peanuts. His host family is Everett and Gladys Williams of Antelope Flat. On the Williams' farm he has learned first hand about peanuts from planting to harvest. He plans to go back to Surinam and farm The ACT Assessment, which consist of four academic test that measure

Gilbert had many interesting things to tell about Surinam as well formation relevant to educational and career planning, is recommended or as Holland where he also lives. The required by more than 3,000 postsecondary institutions and scholarship class asked what the schools were like in both countries. "They are similar to schools in the United senior year, so their results will be available in time for use in planning for States," she said, "but a student begins high school after 6th grade and continues high school for four years." The schools have no cafeteria and students must either go home for lunch or bring their lunch and eat in the classroom. In Surinam some of the schools require students to wear a uniform, but in Holland the students dress like American school children.

When asked about holidays, Gilbert said that they celebrate Christmas and Easter like Americans, but there is a holiday especially for children celebrated on December the 5th. On this day all the children go down to the harbor and wait for the arrival of the saint who comes by way of a steamboat from Spain. The children believe that if they are nice, they will receive candy and gifts from the saint, but if they are bad, he will put them in a bag and take them back to Spain.

The 5th graders were fascinated by the variety of animals Gilbert talked about in the jungles of Surinam, such as boa constrictors, parrots, deer, monkeys and cheetah.

The 5th graders thoroughly enjoyed Gilbert's visit and they learned a great deal about the lives of people in Surinam and Holland. The class wishes him good luck with his peanut production in

DOORPOSTS Deuteronomy 6:7-8

WHAT IS THAT IN YOUR HAND?

by Jon Leggitt

In the fourth chapter of Exodus, Moses continues to resist the Lord's call to lead Israel out of Egyptian slavery. "And the Lord said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod" (verse 2). In the next two verses, God tells Moses to throw down the rod. It becomes a snake. Moses is to pick up the snake by the tail. He does, and it becomes a rod again. Why? In verse 5, the Lord says, "That they (the Israelites) may believe that the Lord God of their fathers----hath appeared unto thee." Something little, something so very common as a shepherd's stick, something seemingly insignificant, becomes tremendously useful in God's ser-

What is that in your hand? Ask the question of the conquerors of Jericho. "Nothing but a trumpet," they reply, almost as bewildered as the citizenry of the besieged city looking down upon the weaponless army. But in obedience to the Lord, the trumpets are blown, and mighty Jericho falls (Joshua 6).

What is that in your hand, O men of Gideon?"

"A lamp," some reply.

"A trumpet," others respond. "A pitcher," answer yet another dumfounded group. "A common, empty, clay pitcher! What does Gideon expect us to do with a pitcher?"

They soon find out. The lamps are held high, the trumpets are blown, the pitchers are broken, and in the confusion, the host of Midian is utterly defeated (Judges 7). Make no mistake about how Israel prevailed. The soldiers used God's tools in God's way, and God won the victory (Verse 22).

What is that in your hand, little boy?"

"My lunch," he answers the quiet disciple with the kind eyes.

"Just five little loves and a couple of fish." But in the hands of Jesus the little lunch becomes a bounty, and the crowd ate as much as they would" (John 6:11).

"What is that in your hand, Christian?"

"Not much. I wish I had so much more to help those I meet." May God grant you "much more" as you go through life. In the meantime, surrender that very little amount, that very common thing to Him and watch it grow at

His touch and fill some need around you. "If only I had," we often say, filling in the blank with material things, talents, abilities, whatever.

But take that one talent, refusing Satan's temptation to hide it in the earth, and hear the Lord say, "Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a tew things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord" (Matthew 25:23)

Be sure to use it all here. Be sure to use it all for Him. "You can't take it with you," the timeworn old saying goes. It's still true: and someday the question will be "What is that in thine Hand?"

The answer should be, in the words of Augustus Toplady's old hymn, "Nothing in my hand I bring: Simply to the cross I cling."

4-H Food and Nutrition Program Outlined

Selecting the right foods for proper nutrition is the basis for the 4-H Food and Nutrition Program.

This 4-H program is one that can benefit boys and girls ages 9-19 and can help them enjoy healthier lives. Learning activities will reflect work done in three of the six areas of the food and nutrition project. These areas include: Nutrition, Food Buying, meal Planning. Food Preparation, Food Safety and Social and Cultural Roles.

Objectives of the program are: Learn the importance of including foods from each of the basic food groups in the daily diet; understand the principles of nutrition as they relate of health, physical fitness and appearance; learn about the scientific principles of nutrition; and acquire and demonstrate skills in planning, purchasing, and preparing and serving tasty, attractive and nutritious meals and snacks.

If you are 9 years old or in the third grade, you are old enough to participate. Our projects are in need of older 4-H'ers, especially 14-19 year olds.

The first Donley County Food and Nutrition Project meeting will be Monday, October 10th at 7:30 p.m. in The Grocery Store. This will be a five week project with project groups meeting once a week.

The Donley County 4-H Food Show will be Saturday, November 12, 1988, at the Clarendon School

4-H Programs offer Variety

Young people with a desire to learn more about their world have the opportunity to participate in a fast-growing organization--4-

The 4-H program offers a variety of activities for youth who are in the third grade through 19 years of age, said Floyd, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Ser-

Young people can get involved in project groups, special interest groups or service groups that appeal to their interests.

While 4-H meetings cover a variety of subjects and activities and are held periodically, project groups work on one specific subject and last only until the project is completed.

Project subjects may include foods and nutrition, consumer decision making, baking, raising and caring for and animal, safety and clothing, rifle, citizenship, leadership, and livestock judging to name a few, said Floyd. These project groups are usually directed by a volunteer leader.

Special interest groups are a vital part of the 4-H program and may deal with subjects as drugs, dating, etiquette and ecology. These group studies help youth learn more about the world in which they live and help them to better adapt to changing environments, said Floyd.

Service groups work to help improve the community and may engage in fund raising projects for the needy and disadvantaged or work on neighborhood beautification or with underpriviledged youth.

The 4-H program is a good way to get involved in today's world, said Floyd. For more information on this action-oriented youth program, contact the county Extension office 874-2141.

Rack, Tack and Tails to meet

The Rack, Tack and Tails 4-H club meeting will be held Monday night, October 10, 1988, at 7:30 p.m., in the Clarendon College Classroom Building, Room 102. This will be an organizational meeting to enroll new members and reenroll former 4-H members. Officers will be elected.

4-H is a non-profit educational program which is open to youth ages 9-19, or in the third grade, regardless of race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

There is no membership fee but each member is usually responsible for financing his or her own projects. 4-H is the youth phase of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Late But Not Forgotten

By JACK MOREMAN

On July 27, 1987, I received a hand written letter from Kevin Johnson, age 13, the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Johnson, of Hedley. In Kevin's letter he stated that he wanted to see if I could get the medals that his father S. J. had received while serving with the U.S. Army in Korea. I wrote to the Department of Defense and included Kevins letter.

The Department of Defense was as impressed with Kevins letter as I, that a young man today was still interested in his fathers service time. The trend has been more a lack of interest in the youth of our country.

This week I received the medals that Kevin request, which has taken over a year to receive from the Department of the Army. received his Purple Heart, National Defense Medal, Korean Service Medal, 2 Bronze Stars, and the United Nations Service Medal. Though some 36 years have lapsed,
