SECOND BODY OF EAST LELIA LAKE CREEK VICTIMS RECOVERED SUNDAY

Bert Freeman Found By W. R. Christal In Shallow Pool 12 Days After Flood Waters Engulfed Car On Highway 5; Funeral Services Were Held In Crosbyton

The body of Bert Freeman, 30, was found early Monday morning less than two miles from the highway bridge on East Lelia Lake Creek where he, his wife and 3-year-old son were lost when their car was swept into the water by a head rise Wednesday night, June 15th.

W. R. (Billy) Christal, Lelia Lake farmer, discovered the body about 7 o'clock, as he was crossing the creek on his way to a field. The pool is about 100 yards from the stream.

Face downward, Freeman was badly decomposed but much of the flesh was still firm, indicating, it was believed, that Saturday's washing rain had dislodged his body from a drift.

Identification was made by a wallet in his trousers. Besides papers, the purse contained a small amount of money.

The body was clothed in a shirt, trousers, underwear and one sock.

The finding of Freeman's body leaves only that of the small boy's yet to be recovered. Mrs. Freeman was taken from the sands of Salt Fork river Sunday, June 19th.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist Church in Crosbyton, the home of Freeman's father and where his wife and another child are buried. Buntin & Son, Clarendon, were in charge of the arrangements.

This will be the second quarterly session this year. The meeting will be held in the West Baptist church beginning the program at 10 a. m. Singers from surrounding counties are to appear on the program. Donley's vocal talent is all set for the big day. Because of the entertainment provided at these sessions, and the central meeting point for next Sunday, an extra large crowd is expected.

The public is cordially invited to attend and take well-filled baskets to make sure that visitors from a distance are amply provided for at noon. Don't forget the date. Hedley, Sunday, July 3rd.

Old-Timer Again Visits In Clarendon

Among Leading Merchants Until Thirty-Four Years Ago. Now Californian

Among the interested visitors here this week is Mr. T. J. Noland, father of our esteemed townsman, Eugene H. Noland. The elder Mr. Noland left here in 1904, but has made periodic visits back since that year struck him to "go west" and take up residence in California. He now resides in San Diego.

The general merchandise store of T. J. Noland & Company was located in a large building on the site where the McElvany service station is now located. The firm did a flourishing business with ranchers and was rapidly taking on the new business brought here by the early settlers who were to become the agricultural pioneers of a rapidly developing section.

Reading from an advertisement of T. J. Noland & Company about the turn of the century, the expression is typical of the business man of that day. It reads: "20 percent off on all clothing. Get our prices on shoes, capes, jackets, shirts, skirts, ties, quilts and blankets."

Mr. Noland finds much of interest here in addition to visiting his relatives, and his legion of friends among the old-timers always have a glad hand extended to the man who had so much to do with the early development of Donley county.

RUDELL CONTINUES ILL

A telegram from the firm in San Antonio preparing and placing the marker received today reads: "Truck and crew left yesterday (Wednesday) with marker." Earlier in the week a letter was received from the firm reading in part as follows: "It is the intention of the Historical Commission and the Board of Control to mark the exact site of historical events. We will make every effort to erect the marker prior to the 4th of July in that we have been told a dedica-

Speaker

GERALD C. MANN

... a candidate for attorney general, "Jerry" Mann will speak over the Amarillo radio station at 8:15 tonight. Mann, a former assistant attorney general, was secretary of state. He resigned at the request of a body of citizens who insisted that he make the sacrifice to represent Texas in securing her share of funds for WPA, highways, state tax survey and other projects. His efforts were crowned with success, millions of dollars being allotted Texas through his ability and influence.

Mann, a graduate of S. M. U. of Dallas and the Harvard law school working his way through both schools, is making five to ten speeches a day in his tour of the Panhandle.

Clarendon Golfer Qualifies For a 67 In Vernon Tourney

VERNON, Texas, June 28.—Sharp-shooting Billy Cooke of Clarendon posted a blistering 67—3 under par Wed., to loom as the possible medalist in the first annual Hill Crest Country club invitation golf tournament.

The youngster's brilliant performance overshadowed the steady qualifying play of the Green Belt titlist, Frank Mitcham Jr., of Shamrock, and the efficient stroking of Babe Judd of Vernon. Both posted par 70's.

Playing with Judd, Cooke was out in 36 and blazed a 31 coming home.

Tournament officials announced today an exhibition match had been arranged for Saturday, with Morris Norton of Wichita Falls, Joe Bihl of Lubbock, Mitcham, and Saxon Judd, participating.

NYA HOME RESIDENCE PROJECT IS VIRTUALLY ASSURED FOR DONLEY

Commissioners Court Votes to Pay House Rent, Gas And Lights; Chamber of Commerce And Ladies Clubs To Sponsor Movement For Needy Girls

WANTED!!

A number of bedsteads, bed-springs, dressers, tables and chairs must be secured to furnish the N. Y. A. home for the girl's residence project. The material may be old or new, anything you might have, as the girls will rework and re-finish the old materials as part of their project. If you have anything that might be used at the home, call either the Chamber of Commerce office or the officials of any of the womens clubs. The materials will be used for a period of six months and returned to the owners at that time.

Donley County was virtually assured a NYA Home Residence project when the commissioners court voted to pay rent, gas and light bills and the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce signed an application as sponsors.

The City will donate the water free of charge. Womens clubs in Clarendon will assist in the project by securing bedding, bedsteads and other furniture.

The project, which would house, train and employ 44 underprivileged girls in this section, will be operated as a cannery.

Under the set up, 44 girls, working in shift of 32 for two-weeks each, will be employed in the cannery for three days, while three days will be spent in home economics training under a government supervisor.

Each girl will be paid $18.76 for their two weeks work. From this amount they must repay the sponsors $8 or $9 for board, rent and materials for domestic training.

The sponsors must guarantee house rent, lights, gas, water, furniture, materials to be used in home economics and storage for foods to be canned.

The project will give Clarendon an additional payroll of $5,506 for six months.

According to J. R. Gillham, secretary for the project, the home is expected to be opened by July 11. The government supervisor will be here about the first of July, he said.

Green Grabs Vacation While Grabbing Is Good

Men skilled in a particular line are hard pressed for vacation time when too often another skilled man cannot be had on the spur of the moment. The past week while his son Robert was visiting here, G. L. Green, local express man, took out a few days to do some necessary fishing while Robt. Green looked after the express business, a line of work learned through his "growing-up" period. Robert resides at Munday where he has lucrative employment with a lumber firm, and was on vacation himself.

Two things were done in the closing days of the recent session of Congress that are of especial interest to our section of the country.

Parity Payments

Provision was made for parity payments on the major farm commodities. It is estimated that these payments will amount to about 10 cents per bushel on wheat and 2 cents per pound on cotton. These payments will be in addition to the regular soil conservation payments that have heretofore been provided for. I feel that we were particularly fortunate in being able to win this fight.

Interest Rates
The President vetoed the bill which provided for a continuance of the 3½ percent land bank interest rates. The Congress passed the legislation over his veto. It thus becomes a law, notwithstanding the action of the President in vetoing it.

It was my privilege to make the motion and lead the fight by which the measure was passed over the veto of the President. I felt and still feel that these low interest rates should be continued.

These are the lowest farm interest rates that have ever prevailed in this country, and they mean much to the entire Southwest.

What's the use? By the time you get a thing paid for, they've brought out a new model that makes yours seem junk.

WORLD'S BIGGEST LANDLORD

The Washington braggers aren't bragging about it (and for obvious reasons) but Mr. U. S. Government is fast becoming the biggest private real estate proprietor in the world.

Right now he has approximately 142,000 private homes and about 10,000 farms on his hands—acquired via his real estate holdings as of March thirty-first shows:

Home Owners Loan Corporation has seized 141,543 houses and properties valued at $551,200,623, and is acquiring more at the rate of about 5,000 every month; is renting many of them for a monthly income of $1,500,000. The Farm Credit Administration has 9,969 farms valued at $36,722,630. The Federal Housing Administration (with the best record) was holding on that date 187 properties valued at $518,299. Defaults in the HOLC operations are running about ten per cent and in the FCA about fifteen per cent.

Thus, in a country where more people own their own homes than in any other nation, Uncle Sam is now coming to the fore as the world's biggest private landlord.

the congratulatory messages from readers of this column.

An Amarillo citizen stated Saturday that "Carl Hinton has such pulling power with the big wigs that he can climb a tree and bring down a dam."

A thing of beauty has kept many a husband broke forever.

Shakespeare Said It.
"Reputation is a false conception upon the part of the public, oft gotten without merit."

Enforced Liberality.
Due to the high tax rate and low property value, there are numbers of vacant lots in our city that could be turned into city parks. They could be had for nothing. I'll start this gift procession off by offering the City four choice lots on an elevation above flood line. The City may have a deed to them any day free of charge so far as I am concerned.

That's a bum idea. A lot of folks may start offering the City their homes and business houses in order to escape the high tax situation.

Gossip's Text.
"Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. Read Luke, 12:3.

A sign seen on several Austin streets read: "We love our children, please drive slow."

If people said half of what they would like to say, they would be arrested. If the other half told all they knew, the whole works would get arrested.

First Air Conditioner.
The first air-conditioned affair in the Panhandle was a table affair with a trough built around the upper edges into which emptied the lead pipe from a windmill. Tow sacks were draped downward from the troughs on four sides (some used three sides only) being tacked to a platform between the legs of the table. Upon this platform surrounded by sacks was placed milk and butter. The sacks caused the water to seep over the jute surface. The natural wind did the rest. It was the best cooling system ever invented because it cost nothing to operate it, and it rendered a real service to the pioneers who liked good butter and milk.

Feminity in Three Stages.
Grandma listened for the beat of a horse's hoofs. Ma kept her ear tuned in for the honk of a horn. Daughter scans the sky and wonders where he will land.

A letter from a reader in Louisiana says: "We have a phisic show in town this week, and they have the best banjo picker I ever heard."

The wise man conceals his ignorance, while the nut attempts to display his knowledge.

A foot on the brake is worth two in the grave. Even the highway department advocates good, serviceable brakes!!!!

The best way to break up the monotony of any job, is to study up a plan to improve it.

A lot of folks claim they have the best gardens in years. Few see-tions enable the grower to have the variety that we have here, and our gardens are in their prime until late in summer, some varieties all summer.

GROOM, TEXAS

It's not the nice things that the professional politicians are always doing during the campaign, it's their thinking that we are too dumb to catch on to the scheme that gripes.

It was old Josh Billings way back yonder who said "if you don't know how to lie, cheat and steal, turn your efforts to politics and learn." That statement was made over forty years ago. Since then, we have learned nothing, forgetting all a fakir's past when he comes out for office.

Red Kian says this "patty foy grass" that you read on the menu at the swell cafe is nothing but what they call goose liver only it ain't. It is hog and cattle livers ground up at the packing house and put out under a name the Frogs use in France.

Hunting clean copy paper out of free space sheets mailed out by office-seekers, is like hunting votes. Ain't there a decent mimeograph manufactured that will help the publisher in this respect?

Oh yes, "Pappy's Day" was a great day with several of the kids home for dinner and the shirts, socks and ties, many of them mailed in. Along with that came a lot of cards, all of which were appreciated. Especially do I want to thank

THE ANCIENT CALL

The sheep's in the meadow, the cow's in the corn,
The crowd's in the street where dreams are few.
So little boy blue, come blow your horn.

And lead us back to a dream that's true.
Soft and low, like a far wind sighing,
Sound one note with the old-time cheer.

Most of our dreams are dead or dying,
So take us back to a vanished year.

Little boy blue you will never know
Just how far we have wandered away
From the little horn we used to blow

In the golden faith of a golden day.
Faint and dim, like lost winds calling,
Soft and low like a mother's prayer.

Now we stand where the dusk is falling,
Groping for dreams that are never there.

One by one we have searched for the crown,
Or followed the phantom wraith called fame.

And one by one in the lonesome town
We've turned our eyes to the ancient flame

Of home hearth glow, with reindeer leaping

Over the hills in their northland flight,
Over the hills where dreams come creeping,
Back to the berries of scarlet and white.

By farm and city we turn again,
Where shadows gather along the wall.

Where wee feet patter across the den,
And voices come with a ghostly call.

The eerie roll of a toy drum lingers
Over a world where the fir tree waits,
Music blown from forgotten singers

Who've long since passed through the morning gate.
Little boy blue are you hiding still,
Under the haystack fast asleep?

Sound one note with the old-time thrill,
As dusk comes on were the dark is deep.

One clear call from a vanished morning,
Of sleigh bells ringing across the snow,

Where holly hangs on the wall adorning
The hearth of home that we used to know.

PIG IRON AND WATCH SPRINGS

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

There is a classic illustration of the value of skill which tells us that a ton of watch spring is worth several thousand times the value of the pig iron or steel from which they are made. The same kind of a transformation, though not in such spectacular proportions, occurs every day on the farm. A ton of hay is a truck load, worth a few dollars, and if it travels far the ride will cost more than the hay. Feed the hay to a cow, the butterfat it produces is worth several times as much as the ton of hay and will go to town in a can.

There is a classic illustration of the value of skill which tells us that a ton of watch spring is worth several thousand times the value of the pig iron or steel from which they are made. The same kind of a transformation, though not in such spectacular proportions, occurs every day on the farm. A ton of hay is a truck load, worth a few dollars, and if it travels far the ride will cost more than the hay. Feed the hay to a cow, the butterfat it produces is worth several times as much as the ton of hay and will go to town in a can.

A dollar a bushel would be a high price for barley, but Greer Creager of Wilbarger county sold 100 bushels of barley for $300. It wasn't a rare and valuable variety for seed—just ordinary barley, worth on the grain market at that time somewhere around 60 to 75 cents. It is no mystery and no fable. Mr. Creager had some pigs which had grown up on Sudan grass pasture and skim milk. He ground the barley and fed it to the pigs; it sold for $300 in the form of pork. Just another case of the bar steel and the watch springs.

These are extreme cases, but facts nevertheless. Why sell pig iron when you can make watch springs of it? Eggs and milk, meat and wool, are but the refined forms of grain and forage. Several acres of crops can be wrapped in a steer's hide; a good cow well fed will produce milk or butter fat equal to her own value every year, and raise a calf besides; a ewe will raise a lamb worth as much on the market as his dam in half a year, and pay for the privilege with wool.

Ten acres of "careless" weeds in Willacy county, Texas, sold for about $300 cash in 1919. A bunch of cows grazed it for three months, with no other feed, and the cream produced brought the owner of the cows $100 a month, better than $3 a day. The transformation did the trick. That weed-grown ten acres of old field paid the owner more than any ten acres he had in cotton, and cotton was worth 35 cents

Feed crops, whether of grain or roughage, are worth no more for productive purposes after a long ride by truck or train than they are on the farm where they grew. Clearly then the farmer who turns them into finished products right on the ground has a distinct advantage in the economy of production; and economy of production is the first step toward profitable sale.

MINERAL WELLS, TEXAS
AN INSTITUTION WITH A NATIONAL REPUTATION FOR THE TREATMENT OF CHRONIC DISEASES

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I, E. P. Deahl, do certify that I am the father of Elaine Deahl, who was afflicted with Chorea (St. Vitas Dance) for three years and seven months; confined to her bed, unable to walk at all. In fact, she could not raise her hand, and after three treatments from Dr. Milling and staff she walked across the lobby of the Sanatorium, and after five treatments she was able to walk up a flight of stairs, and after a series of treatments over a period of only a few weeks she has been much improved, and has gone to school ever since, making her grades and doing well in school.

My wife was also afflicted with Leakage of the Heart, and after a few treatments from Dr. Milling and staff she was much improved, and was able to drive a car after one week's treatment.

Myself and my family have received such wonderful results from the treatments we received at the Milling Sanatorium that it is impossible for us to say enough in praise of his fine work and the good he and his staff are doing humanity. It is our earnest belief that they can help anyone they will accept in the Sanatorium.

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

There is nothing in all the universe that will take the place of God in our hearts and lives. There may be, and has been, a substitute for gold, but there is no substitute for God. We render our best in service only as we give our best to God. Low-grade ambitions never lead to high-grade achievements. Great loyalties have blessed the world. Work that is done half-heartedly is never more than half done. We need to make a full complete surrender of ourselves to the Lord, so that the world may know what God can do with lives so dedicated. Affections set on things above will exalt life with its lights and delights, its friendships and fellowships, its privileges and purposes, its loyalties and laughter; its fun and frolic, its fidelities and infinites, its meaning and mission, its songs and solitudes. Life that is lived in God will linger longer and be happier and take on new meaning day by day as we journey to the great unknown. Let us rightly relate our lives to God. Church going will help greatly. Do not neglect that great privilege and duty. Thank you for your presence and helpfulness in the regular services at the Baptist Church next Sunday.

VIVID COLOR PICTURE HITS NEW PEAK IN "HER JUNGLE LOVE"

Every now and then a movie comes along that marks some technical advance so tremendous that even audiences applaud it, but Hollywood is still talking about Paramount's new Technicolor production of "Her Jungle Love," the picture that critical technicians say smashed five photographic "firsts" all at one time. The new Dorothy Lamour-Ray Milland film, which opens at the Pastime Theatre on July 6, presented several difficulties that at first seemed impossible to overcome. But when the "rushes" came through, the cameramen themselves were amazed at the work they had done.

They had succeeded in filming for the first time in Technicolor actual jungle shots, bringing the tropics to life in a riot of blazing colors. They managed to film in color such high speed action as an earthquake and an airplane crash. "Her Jungle Love" brings to the screen a color montage never before believed obtainable and exteriors were filmed in full natural hues without the benefit of blazing lights. It is also the first time that songs were recorded directly on the sound track while the action was being shot.

Although each of these "firsts" are of purely technical nature, experts said that movie audiences seeing "Her Jungle Love" cannot help realizing that they are seeing a momentous new departure.

Supporting Miss Lamour and Milland in this jungle romance are Lynne Overman, J. Carrol Naish and Dorothy Howe.

Tornado Seen But Not Heard Along River Saturday

A black twisting cloud, thought to have been near Salt Fork river, was seen by Lelia Lake residents Saturday about noon, but no damage could be traced.

Bert Smith, Clarendon, who was in Lelia, described the cloud as a small tornado, but said the funnel failed to reach the ground. "It worked up and down from the cloud for perhaps 5 minutes," he said, "before it disappeared."

No thunder or lightning accompanied the cloud, Smith said.

New York Publisher Writes Up Wedding In 1867

If you are inclined to find fault with the way weddings appear in the columns of your paper of today, you may get some consolation from the article below. This is the way a certain wedding appeared in a New York weekly back in 1867:

"Miss Jennie Jones and Bob Henry were married at the Jones mansion last night. The bride is a daughter of Constable Jones, who has made a good officer and will undoubtedly be re-elected this spring. He offers a fine horse for sale in another column in this issue. The groom runs a grocery store on Main street and is a steady patron of our advertising columns. He has a good line of bargains in his ad this week. All summer he paid two cents more for butter than any other store in town. They were married by Rev. Josiah Butterworth, who last week called at this office and gave us a nice order for handbills. He is also going to give some time to the real estate business and will write fire insurance. So say the business cards we recently printed for him. Jennie and Bob left on the 10 o'clock train for Milwaukee to visit with the bride's uncle who we understand has lots of money and a cancer."

A HUNDRED HENS

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

"I have found that 100 hens is about the right number as a farm flock," says Mrs. Greer Creager of Wilbarger county, Texas. "I can take care of that number without their interfering a great deal with other duties, and they pick up a large part of their feed around the place. I usually buy or hatch 300 chicks, sell off the roosters at frying size, and sell the cull pullets down to the 100 best ones for next winter's layers. They are bringing me several dollars a week in egg money."

Mrs. Otto Obenaus of the same county agrees with Mrs. Creager. Mrs. I. B. Ray of Wilson county says practically the same thing. So does Mrs. Schneider of Hays county, and "Pat" Geisselbrecht, Clifton banker, backs them all up with the statement that "a farm flock of chickens or turkeys is the safest security; if they get into large numbers it takes more time and special attention than most farmers and their wives can give them, and are less profitable per hen than in the farm size flocks which make a part of their own living by picking up what would otherwise be wasted."

Every one of the ladies quoted have the usual household duties of a well-rounded farm—housekeeping, cooking, butter-making, etc. They all buy starter mash and other special mixed feeds as needed, since no farm produces all the elements of a first-class chick or laying ration. But—and here's where the farm flock shows its great advantage—there is waste grain, green feed, insects and plenty of room for healthful conditions for a hundred hens where 200 would be on a deficiency diet.

Mr. and Mrs. George Boehning of Wilson county have one of the most modern homes in the county, and all the electrical gadgets they want. They have reared a family of six, who are now out in the world on their own and making good. A farm flock of chickens, again about 100 hens, ranges all over the place, and has been one of the principal features of the Boehning menage all these years when they were paying for 231 acres of land and building and equipping that handsome home.

Eggs go up and eggs go down, like cotton and wheat and everything else. But the farm flock of hens will turn in a profit when the specialized egg factory is losing money. And the eggs they lay will keep almost any farm family out of debt for supplies, whatever the price.

Many Southwestern farms have no chickens at all. Most of them have less than enough to supply the family with all the eggs it can eat, and chicken on Sunday. If the ladies quoted know their chickens—and results show they do—most Southwestern farm families are missing out by not keeping more hens. Maybe 100 is too many for some farms, as they now are, but not if the farms are planted as they should be.

In the past generation scores of big "poultry farms" have been started, great expense incurred in equipment, the best of breeding stock secured, and skilled management employed. Few of them operate long. A good many farm folks get "the chicken bug" and true to the American spirit of doing big things in a big way, start with 500 or 1,000 chicks. Usually they also retire shortly, for reasons unnecessary to explain.

Meanwhile the farm flock goes on and on, and outside of a few special regions like Petaluma or in the environs of great eastern cities, the farm flock continues to supply the matutinal egg of the hungry urbanites of the nation. The answer is that the farm flock is less liable to disease, requires less expense and its care uses time that would otherwise be wasted.

When she comes off her nest each day to eat and drink and fuss around, the whole barnyard gets out the way and lets her dominate the ground. The meanest chicken-chasin' dog goes meekly off to other sport; the struttin' gobbler demigog reefs in his tail and steers to port; the proudest rooster ducks and runs, tho' he may be one of her sons.

No wonder with so set a mind she raises chicks from common eggs! The world needs humans of that kind—who wobble less upon their legs; who dodge and shirk and compromise before no foe beneath the skies; Lord give us just a few more men with backbones like the settin' hen!—Clipped.

Mrs. B. F. Kirtley and son Basil who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith and in the home of Mr. Kirtley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kirtley at Hubbard City the past three weeks returned home Monday. Mr. Kirtley motored to Hubbard City the week end and brought them home.

Men Finally Get Hot Weather Break

Neither Dame Fortune nor Dame Fashion have done much for the men folks here of late, but Dame Fashion appears to have decided to give the boys a break at last. The younger men down state are wearing a shirt that hangs outside the pants. The garments reminds one of an artist's smock and evidently came from the Chinese. Just why a fellow should have a wad of shirttail wrapped around his hips and wear a coat to be decently dressed has been a mystery for ages. The women folks learned some years ago to go in for comfort. Perhaps that had something to do with the male brains coming out for air.

Former Clarendon Boy Gives Amarillo Cops Hard Chase

People on North Fillmore street in Amarillo were disturbed Sunday night by police with sirens wide open chasing a badly frightened man out North Fillmore street.

After a hard chase for about eight or ten blocks they finally cornered the culprit, chained him to a post, then made him sell toilet paper at 5c per sheet.

When his cop friends finally had tired of tormenting him they took a badly embarrassed James Warren Jr. back to his new bride at the Congress Hotel where they found him.

Down at Lufkin, in the piney woods, they are breaking ground for the foundation of a paper plant to cost seven and a half million dollars. News print will sell at a much lower price in the South. Hundreds of men will be employed for some three years in the construction of the plant. DOUBLE-CROSSING THE POOR HEATHEN AGAIN

American manufacturers of bombing planes are selling most of them to Japan. Col. Theo. Roosevelt is national chairman of an organization, known as the "Bowl of Rice." June 17th will be designated as a national day for contributing to the Chinese victims of the bombing planes which America sold the Japs. The only difference is, a very few profit from the sale of bomb planes, and the damage so far as possible, will be paid for by the masses. Ain't we a civilized, christian nation? Or ain't we?
