Budget Controversy Continues

The Library's future continues to hang in the balance while the city and county prepare their respective budgets. At least part of the library's problems appear to be due to communication problems between the two governments.

As of press time, the City had not released any figures. At a hearing on Tuesday, (August 20), more than 50 people turned out to listen to representatives from the Texas Panhandle Library System explain state and federal requirements for continued participation in the System. Under those requirements, the library must maintain a budget of at least $26,600 or lose the services that the System provides.

The Texas Panhandle Library System contributed services to Donley County last year equaling $13,200. Those services are paid for by tax dollars that have already been sent to Washington and Austin. If the library fails to meet System standards, then those services (and the dollars that pay for them) will go elsewhere.

Losing participation in the System would also mean the loss of the two terminals and their computer. Each of those terminals cost $28,000 and were purchased with grant money. In the event they are lost, their replacements would have to be purchased with local funds. If purchased on the open market, System's services would cost an estimated $30,000 to $50,000.

At least one county politician claims that the county has not cut the county budget for the library. That is true in a technical sense, but it may not tell the whole story. In fact, the county expended considerably more on the library in the last two years than the old figure in the County budget. And their action would certainly cut the library's budget (as opposed to the County budget).

The County Commissioners also protest that they were not consulted in setting the library's budget, and were not even given a copy of the library budget. That charge brings red faces to City Hall. In visiting with former librarians, The Clarendon News has learned that library budgets were prepared by the City in the past. Apparently the City assumed the library was relaying the budgets to the county, while the library assumed City Hall was passing the budgets along to the Commissioners. Both the Aldermen and the librarians acknowledge that the budgets should have been given to the County in time for explanations and joint meetings. Both governments appear to agree that there was a major breakdown in communications at this point. The new librarian has resolved to see that the problem does not occur again.

At least one County Commissioner has repeatedly stated that the library was "thousands of dollars over budget". In fact-- like almost all public documents--the library's budget is available for public inspection at City offices, as is the record of the library's expenditures. The library's budget has increased gradually, to keep up with inflation, but the library has stayed within its budget.

Part of the confusion appears to stem from the fact that the County did not have a copy of the budget. Part may come from the fact that there are actually three budgets involved: a county budget, a city budget and a library budget. When someone says "the budget", it is not always clear which budget.

The statistics are not really that far apart. The library has asked for $31,544, up $1,297. In order to continue to participate in the Texas Panhandle Library System, the library's budget cannot fall below $26,661. The County initially proposed spending $11,000, or a budget of $22,000, a figure first budgeted several years ago.

One librarian in most Texas cities would have a salary equivalent to the entire budget of the local library.

The County has proposed to raise taxes in the the proposed County budget by 3 per cent. County employees, (including County Commissioners) are scheduled for a 5 per cent raise. Although the City has not released its proposed budget, their figures are expected to be similar. Those figures are near or below the rate of inflation.

The Library's requested budget--if it got everything it requested--would be up by about 4 per cent.

School's Open Already!

School is in full swing in Clarendon, even though students may not have been ready for summer vacation to end. School started early this year courtesy of the Texas Legislature. (Mark Twain once said that no one was safe so long as the legislature was in session.)

The year started with an open house, complete with homemade ice cream courtesy of the PTA. Students got to meet several new teachers and renew acquaintance with several familiar ones.

School trustees met Monday night to work on a budget. Flags and twirlers are practicing, as well as players.

Law enforcement officers urge area drivers to exercise extra caution. Students--particularly younger ones--may be too excited to watch for traffic.

Athletes Face Danger

Sudden death for football fans is only a tiebreaker. But for families who have lost young athletes to sudden death from heart complications, it is a tragedy.

Hypertrophic cardiomyopathy, long Q-T syndrome and Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome are just some of the "quiet" killers of a segment of today's teenage athletes, says a Baylor College of Medicine pediatric cardiologist.

"What is devastating is that most of these young people appear perfectly normal but then, during the stress of athletics, they die from heart failure," said Dr. Jeffrey Towbin, an assistant professor of pediatrics and molecular genetics at Baylor. "Many were aware they had heart conditions, but how many were never evaluated and monitored? If we knew they were at risk, we could recommend therapies and possibly prevent them from participating in sports."

While the number of sudden deaths among both athletes and non-athletes under age 22 is low--less than 1 percent--statistics show that a city of 1 million will lose 15 to 20 young people in a year. For school losing a star quarterback or a popular basketball player, the emotional toll can be considerable.

"These are kids in their prime," Towbin said. "Their numbers may not be great, but their deaths are very noticeable." Chief among the causes of sudden death is hypertrophic cardiomyopathy, a genetically transmitted heart condition causing defects in the left ventricle--the main pumping station for the body's blood supply. Death occurs when the ventricle thickens, impeding blood flow or from heart rhythm disturbances called arrhythmias.

Recent studies by the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute showed that, in one study group of 29 athletes who died between the ages of 13 to 30, 76 percent had cardiovascular disorders, mainly hypertrophic cardiomyopathy.

Long Q-T syndrome is the most sinister of silent heart conditions

Man Charged with Attempted Murder

A Donley County resident has been charged with attempted murder as a result of a shooting incident August 25. According to Donley County Sheriff Jimmy Thompson, Chester Moore, 61, of Lelia Lake was arraigned Monday on charges of attempting to murder of Loy ("Red") Davis and J.O. Chandler. As of press time, Moore was in Donley County jail with bond set for set for $10,000 an each of the two counts.

Davis and Chandler allegedly purchased a horse for $500 from the District Court as a result of Moore's divorce proceedings. Moore reportedly gave the men permission to load the horse, but then later began shooting at them.

In other matters, local law enforcement officers recovered a car stolen from Memphis minutes after it was reported missing. A man from Dumas and one from Houston were arrested for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

County Budget Hearing
Monday, Sept. 9, 1991 1:00 p.m.

Dear Editor:

As a tax-paying citizen of this county and a resident of Hedley, I firmly oppose the axing of the library. It seems evident that we too often forget the welfare of our precious children who are the future homemakers and job holders in this county or perhaps elsewhere. Isn't there somewhere else so called cuts can be made that would not deprive us of this much needed services?

Dorothy Whitaker

Dear Editor:

Approximately thirteen years ago, when I was asked to help organize a Summer Reading Club for Clarendon's children, Burton Memorial Library was housed in two small rooms in the County Courthouse. During that same year, construction work started at the site on Kearney Street where it is currently and conveniently located. I, along with many others, have watched the library expand from two small rooms with overcrowded shelves to the attractive and useful library that it is today. This was made possible through the work and dedicated efforts of many concerned citizens, supported by adequate funding. This support has enabled Burton Memorial Library to continue to provide and improve its quality services, not only to our immediate community, but to all of Donley County. These services, which are now in danger of being destroyed because of drastic funding cuts by the County, have not only greatly benefited adults throughout our town and the surrounding area, but have been a factor in "upgrading" our library to the extent that it has become one of the finest of its size in the Panhandle. After the progressive steps for our community that the library has made during the last several years, it is not understandable why anyone might want to see it regress.

The fact that Burton Memorial Library was able to become a member of the Texas Panhandle Library System, which functions for the state, has been an asset for Clarendon. It is through this Library System that services such as films, talking books, large print books, best sellers and state-sponsored Reading Clubs have been granted. If Burton Memorial Library cannot maintain the standards required by the Texas Panhandle Library System, its membership from the system will be revoked, thus removing the quality services that have been previously mentioned. If funds are lowered, services will be lowered.

As a private citizen, I am pleased to be able to enjoy these services. As an elementary teacher in our public schools, I am especially please that these services are available to students, and I know the students use them. I take my students to the library more than once a year for research as well as pleasure reading. They become acquainted with and utilize the services that are now threatened. Quality library services are valuable tools for learning. I hope our community and county will not be denied these tools for literacy improvement because of unconcern and insufficient funding.

Chamber To Hold Meeting

The third Thursday of September there will be a meeting to plan the program of work and activities for the fall and winter. All groups and individuals are invited to attend. The meeting will be at Clarendon Jr. College in Room 101 at 7:00 p.m.

Training Scheduled

The Texas Department of Human Services will begin its next foster/adoptive parent training at 6:30 p.m., on Tuesday, September 17, 1991, at the Texas Department of Human Services building, 6200 I-40 West, Amarillo, Texas.

Become a foster or adoptive parent and bring understanding, trust and love to a child in need. Childhood should be a happy, carefree and secure time, but for many children, it brings worry, fear and upheaval. Removed from their homes because their families are unable to care for them, they have suffered emotional rejection and in some cases, physical abuse and neglect.

Who are these kids? They come from every neighborhood and every social and economic level. They range in age from newborn to teenagers and are from all racial and ethnic backgrounds. We have a great need for adoptive homes for children ages seven (7) to seventeen (17). Some of these children may have special medical needs. They all share a common loss and a desperate need--home and family.

The foster/adoptive parent training is co-led by Shirley Reel, a licensed foster parent and adoptive parent; Joy Foster, a Texas Department of Human Services foster home developer and Sandra White, a Texas Department of Human Services adoption specialist.

For additional information on how to become a foster or adoptive parent contact the Texas Department of Human Services at 806-358-6211.

Dental Floss: Selection and Proper Use

Dental floss comes in a variety of types, flavors, and colors. The varieties stocked in most pharmacies and other outlets include waxed, unwaxed, ribbon, and tape. If you have not used dental floss, discuss the different types with your dentist or dental hygienist. According to the Handbook of Nonprescription Drugs, studies show no difference in plaque removal or the prevention of gum disease from the use of waxed or unwaxed dental floss. The American Dental Association offers six suggestions regarding the use of dental floss:

- (1) Break off about 18 inches of floss and wind it around one of your middle fingers. Wind the rest around the same finger of the opposite hand.
- (2) Use your thumbs and forefingers with an inch of floss between them to guide the floss between your teeth.
- (3) Holding the floss tightly, use a gentle sawing motion to insert the floss between your teeth.
- (4) When the floss reaches the gumline, curve it into a C-shape against one tooth and gently slide it into the space between the gum and the tooth until you feel resistance.
- (5) While holding the floss tightly against the tooth, move the floss away from the gum and scrape the side of the tooth.
- (6) Repeat this procedure on the remaining teeth.

Remember to floss at bedtime so that food particles will not remain between the teeth all night.

Thanks to Shirley Pitts for voluntarily taking on the task of mowing the big growth of grass and weeds around the warehouse and bus ports. He was truly an angel in disguise that day. A special "Thanks" also to B & R Thriftway for being "good neighbor" to us last Wednesday when our big refrigerator developed a problem. We had to transfer all the food from it to Thriftway's walk-in refrigeration for 24 hours. For that reason we had to switch Thursday and Friday's menus. Thank you all for bearing with us in this crisis.

The Board of Directors meet Wednesday, August 21st, in regular session. The July operating report was reviewed along with all our insurance policies for a coverage up-date. Hazel Guy gave the fundraiser report to date. Jerry Chambliss reviewed the Energy Inspection done by West Texas Utilities Engineer to recognize areas in which the Center can reduce utility costs. President, Doug Burgess, then read a letter of resignation from director, Thelma Rudder, who has re-enter the work force and would not be available to complete her term. The Board of Directors accepted her letter with regret. The Board duly appointed Elmo Fortenberry, runner-up in the November election, to fill the un-expired term. Welcome aboard, Elmo. "We will be open, Monday, September 2nd, on Labor Day.

The Lions Tale

By Gene Alderson

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday, August 20, 1991 at the Lions Hall. Sixteen members and three guests were present. The meeting was called to order, following the meal by Boss Lion Robertson who led the pledge of allegiance. Lion Hicks gave the prayer. Our guests included a former member, Ronnie Gooch, who currently lives at Perryton where he is the County Agriculture Agent. Lion Smith distributed tickets for the Annual Pancake Supper to the members for our pre-sale. Meeting Adjourned.

New Law Changes Vehicle Registration

In September, the simple matter of registering a motor vehicle in Texas will become a little more complicated. The change is a result of insurance reform enacted by the 72nd Legislature.

Beginning Sept. 1, the owner of a motor vehicle must submit current proof of financial responsibility with an application for initial registration, renewal of registration or transfer of registration. Also for the first time, Texans will have to show proof of insurance to receive or renew their drivers licenses and vehicle inspection stickers.

"Many state have found that trying these responsibilities to proof of insurance increases compliance with mandatory liability laws," said Arnold Oliver, engineer-director of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation. "But the Legislature was really responding to public pressure. Insured drivers--that's about 75 percent of us--wanted to tighten enforcement on the other 25 percent."

The most common evidence of financial responsibility is a liability insurance card issued to the policyholder by the insurance company. Examples of other types of acceptable proof include insurance policies and binders, pool coverage documents, certificates of self-insurance, and certificates of bond.

The new law applies to registration handled in person or by mail. The original or a photocopy of the evidence will satisfy the requirement of proof of financial responsibility. All original documentation will be returned.

Questions about proper evidence of financial responsibility for vehicle registration may be directed to your automobile insurance company, your county tax assessor-collector, or to the local Division of Motor Vehicles regional office. For information about driver's licenses and vehicle inspection stickers, contact the Department of Public Safety.

because, in children, there are rarely symptoms prior to sudden death. The disorder results from irregularities in the heart's natural rhythm leading to seizures, sudden fainting and death.

The "Q-T" refers to the measurements of heart rhythm from electrocardiogram (EKG) readings. People with long Q-T measurements are at high risk for cardiac problems.

"Although they may show no prior symptoms, long Q-T patients can be diagnosed early on," Towbin said.

Another cause of sudden death in athlete, Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome, also results from abnormal heart rhythms caused when the left ventricle is stimulated prematurely by electrical waves gone awry.

Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome may disappear with maturity, but arrhythmias associated with the disorder sometimes occur later in life and can cause sudden death.

All three heart disorders can be detected in infancy through EKG readings and electrophysiological studies. One common symptom is syncope or sudden, unexpected fainting.

"Syncope results from exercise, loud noises, extreme surprise, anger or from no apparent reason," Towbin said. "The victim just drops with no warning sometimes resulting in injury. The faint may last for more than a minute."

Although no guidelines have been established for pre-screening of young athletes, Towbin stresses increased awareness of heart disorders when considering demanding activities such as sports.

county area he serves including Childress, Carson, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall.

He handles an estimated 20 child abuse cases annually and has never lost one in his 11 years as district attorney.

In his most recent case in Carson County, he obtained a verdict of life and a 10,000 fine for an individual who sexually assaulted a young girl.

"I have a keen and acute awareness of the necessity for treatment of those who cannot defend themselves (children)," McCoy has often commented.

McCoy's grant is through the Children's Justice Act Grant Project to Texas. The original announcement called for only two Texas prosecutors, but interest was so keen that four were chosen for the special training.

McCoy graduated from law school at the age of 35, having spent 12 years in college going to night school and supporting a family of seven while attending undergraduate school and Baylor Law School. He was licensed in November, 1979 and filed for district attorney in January, 1980--and has been reelected ever since, running unopposed.

In the training seminar agenda, officials stress that no area of criminal justice has changed so rapidly over the past 10 years as child abuse. Few cases are as complex or stressful.

Across the country, prosecutors face record caseloads involving child victims, changing laws and growing demands for improved coordination of social services, medical and family court agencies.

The National Center for Prosecutors of Child Abuse recognizes the needs for front line prosecutors to respond quickly, sensitively and skillfully to child maltreatment. Its training program brings together experienced trial attorneys, investigators and medical experts to provide a comprehensive introduction to the substantive and procedural issues child abuse prosecutors face.

1991 Property Tax Rates in Hedley School District

This notice concerns 1991 property tax rates for Hedley School District. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$ 176,249
Last year's debt taxes	$ 0
Last year's total taxes	$ 176,249
Last year's tax base	$ 18,423,373
Last year's total tax rate	$.95666 /$100
This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 172,488
+ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)	$ 18,024,050
= This year's effective tax rate	$.95698 /$100
× 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing	$.98568 /$100
This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 172,488
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 18,024,050
= This year's effective operating rate	$.95698 /$100
- .72 for school district (or zero)	$.23698
× 1.08 (or add $.08 for schools) = this year's maximum operating rate	$.31698 /$100
+ This year's debt rate	$ 0 /$100

(A school district must insert the following lines)
= This year's rollback rate before adjustment	$.31698 /$100
+ Rate to recoup lost revenue	$.04259 /$100
= Adjusted rollback rate	$.35957 /$100
= This year's rollback rate	$.35957 /$100

SCHEDULE A: Unencumbered Fund Balances

The following balances will probably be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the current fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

Type of Property Tax Fund	Balance
Checking	$1,176.00
Savings	$10,854.00
CD's	$94,584.00

This notice contains a summary of actual effective and rollback tax rate calculations. You can inspect a copy of the full calculations at Donley Appraisal District.

Hedley News

By Earl

The City of Hedley's woes continue. Since Hedley will soon have to begin hauling trash to a different landfill, Hedley has purchased about 75 dumpsters. Now the City must have a truck to haul the trash and pickup the dumpsters. The City of Clarendon was contacted to see if they would pickup the trash, but the fees demanded were considerably higher than what Hedley has been charging. The dumpsters cleaned out Hedley's reserves, and the new sewer system will require a chunk of cash. So Hedley went to the bank to get a loan, but was turned down. The bank insisted the City raise fees so they could generate enough cash to pay off the loan. So the City's next trash disposal system is in a state of limbo.

Blackie Johnson reports that the same camera crew shooting a commercial in Clarendon was supposed to come to Hedley but they never showed. There were reports that one of the television stations from Amarillo was in town last week, but no one could tell me what for. Whatever it was for, it is supposed to be shown in September.

Rumors are flying that Bobby Bramblett is going to start a movie production company called "Flat-Out Productions".

Bobby Bramblett is Blackie Johnson's Deputy Marshall. Marshall Bramblett had to go to the hospital in Amarillo to guard a prisoner. Bobby was reported as saying that if the prisoner had tried something he would have had to manhandle him because there wasn't anybody else there except for the nurses. Bobby and Blackie escorted the prisoner to Huntsville when he was released from the hospital.

Blackie says that Huntsville is not one of those Country Club prisons you hear about.

Virgil McPherson reported the Senior Citizens were going to see the play "Texas".

The Hedley Health Club has had an active summer. Various members have been walking out on the Quail highway and the cemetery road. On ambitious nights they have walked as far as the McLean turnoff.

IN School News:

Sheila Wade and Becky Hill taught a reading maintenance program this summer. Fifteen students enrolled in the 12 week program. Matt Talley, Melissa Gibbons, and Christi Ann Sanchez had perfect attendance. Oscar Sanchez, Lindsey Brinson, Christina and Evange Ramirez just missed one of the weekly sessions. These students and some of their friends were treated to a swimming and watermelon party at the Howardwick pool. Students who completed their weekly homework assignments got to put their names in the hat for a fifty dollar grocery certificate. The drawing took place at the party and the lucky winner was Kendra Martin. The program was funded by Hedley I.S.D. and Chapter One.

County Crops Tour

Donley County farmers and ranchers are invited to the Donley County Crops Tour to be held on Tuesday, September 3, 1991. The tour will include demonstration work done in the county by farmers and ranchers in cooperation with the Extension Service.

Those wanting to participate will need to meet on the north side of the Courthouse between 8:30 and 8:55 a.m. Starting at 9:00 a.m. participants will leave from the Courthouse and go look at demonstration work on LEPA irrigation on cotton and peanuts, nutsedge control in cotton, reduced planting rate, mesquite control, post-directed weed control in cotton, lakeweed control, and cotton varieties. Two CEU's will be available for private applicators that attend.

Experts that will be on the tour to discuss demonstration plots and other topics include: Dr. James Supak, Extension Agronomist and Cotton Specialist; Leon New, Extension Irrigation Specialist; J.F. Cadenhead, Range and Brush Control Specialist; and Dr. Brent Bean, Extension Agronomist and Weed Control Specialist.

A meal at the Bar H Dude Ranch will follow the tour for participants. Contact the Extension Office at 874-2141 or Tim Trimble at 874-3204 by Saturday, August 31, if you plan to stay for lunch after the tour.

Cotton Insect Situation

Bollworms hit cotton in full force this past week particularly west of the Lelia Lake area. By now I would expect that most cotton fields in Donley County have damaging or near damaging populations of worms. Some fields last week had as many as 3 to 5 worms per stalk while other fields had light infestations. Bollworm moths have continued to increase which will likely mean a continued egg lay and hatch at least through this week. Producers should be checking fields very closely for worms and make control decisions as soon as possible. Worm activity for the most part is much heavier than past years and delayed control or no control could mean a substantial yield loss or a complete crop loss.
