PITY NOT THE HEATHEN.

By contrast with the white man's farming problems, the Tama Indians of Iowa recently celebrated with ancient dance the prospects of their biggest crop prospect in many years. The Mesquakies, a tribe reduced to farming and stock raising many years ago, are giving thanks to their Great Spirit for past favors and appealing for a bountiful harvest. Queer folk, these heathens. They know nothing of the supposed blessings of civilization that include economics, quotas and the like, and care less. Ignorant of the modern white man's ways, they rejoice in the prospect of plenty.

TAXES CAN BE LOWERED.

Nebraska is one among the few states to win enviable reputation for its low tax rates, lack of nuisance taxes and balanced budgets. Nebraska is going along trying out for the third year the unicameral legislature of one house instead of two, a subject being discussed much in Texas at this time. Frank G. Arnold, president of the county taxpayer association units of that state, is having quite a bit to say about their successful plans of operation. In each county an intensive study of expenditures is made by trained tax experts and charts are prepared from which minimum costs for the various items may be estimated instantly. Wasteful administrations stick up on this chart system like a sore thumb, and the voters attend to the matter at the polls.

The chart system of tax valuation assessments is the first step in several counties of Texas. Equitable, just and fair renditions alone are possible by the chart method, Mr. Arnold explains.

Why not a similar plan for old Donley county along with other counties where taxpayers are groaning with an excess burden of tax impositions while purchasing necessities likewise burdened with hidden taxes?

HOW WAS THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER SELECTED?

France originated the idea of honoring an unknown soldier as a symbol of all those who lost their lives in defense of their country. Other nations soon followed her example.

On September 9, 1921, in compliance with a joint resolution of Congress, the Secretary of War instructed the quartermaster general of the Army to select from the unidentified American dead the body of a member of the American Expeditionary Forces to typify the Americans who lost their lives in the World War.

The selection was to be made so as to preclude the remotest possibility of future identification as to his name, rank, organization, service or the battlefield on which he fell.

Four unidentified American bodies were exhumed from four different cemeteries—from the cemeteries at Meuse-Argonne, St. Mihiel, Somme and Aisne-Marne. Every precaution was taken to make certain that these bodies were those of members of the Expeditionary Forces who had been killed in battle. The cause of death was apparent from gun-shot wounds on the body, and the uniform, equipment and original burial place determined that the person belonged to the American Expeditionary Forces, but there was absolutely no evidence or clue as to identify.

These four bodies, after being embalmed and placed in similar caskets, were placed in a small improvised chapel in the city hall at Chalons-sur-Marne, France.

On October 24, 1921, Sergeant Edward Younger, who was chosen from the American soldiers present, went into the chapel alone and designated one of the four bodies as the Unknown American by placing a small spray of white roses upon the casket.

The body was then immediately placed in a specially prepared casket and conveyed to the United States in the U. S. S. Olympia. After lying in state in the Capitol in Washington, the Unknown Soldier was interred in front of the Memorial Amphitheater in Arlington National Cemetery on Armistice Day, 1921, with solemn ceremonies.

Elmer Palmer made a business trip to Borger Tuesday.

Mrs. J. L. McMurtry returned to Clarendon last week-end after several months in San Antonio.

ACID FEET?

Feet That Sweat, Burn and Give Off Offensive Odors
Tonight do this—give your tired aching feet a good hot foot bath using a good soap; rinse and dry thoroughly. Next pour about a teaspoonful of Moore's Emerald Oil into the palm of your hand and rub thoroughly over the foot, rubbing well into the soles—repeat the rubbing in the morning. This brings relief and quickly, too. That tired aching burning soreness goes and you go about your work again happy and comfortable.
Moore's Emerald Oil does not stain—is economical and sold satisfaction guaranteed or money back. Any progressive drug store will be glad to supply you.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Just back from a trip accompanied by the Missus, the old Apostle traveled around 1,500 miles seeing Texas, her historic spots and great dams. Along with all this, he collected hundreds of fossil specimens for the local museum while the Missus protested while seated in the car where mosquitoes and heat were terrific.

The most interesting spot was the location of Fort St. Louis established by LaSalle on the Guadalupe river below Victoria. A large monument marks the spot which has to offer only the remnants of a foundation of native stone on the location when the first Spaniards visited there to chase the French out of that section. Some remnants of nails and spikes, badly rusted, were picked up to be placed in the Donley County Museum.

While the trip included the coast country, San Antonio offers more attraction than any place. The Alamo, and Museum nearby, the Witte Museum and Zoo near the Sunken Gardens, all combined, requires several days of study. Buckhorn Tavern, now a cafe and trinket store, has hundreds of sets of horns and many other attractions to the tourist.

The Indian collection at the State University is great. Two days was spent in looking over the collection, and we left with reluctance. Austin is a pretty city, but

San Antonio offers far more of interest. The Confederate and Texas museum exhibits in the old Land Office building where O. Henry formerly was employed in the 90's, is most interesting.

Bucanan Dam farther up the same river is completed and in operation. It is constructed on a little over half the scale of what Marshall Ford dam is to be. Bucanan dam cost about four million and Marshall Ford is to cost twelve million.

While searching for fossils on the river south of San Antonio, I came to a large granite marker which gave a bit of history of Stephen F. Austin's camp on that spot before taking San Antonio from the Mexicans September 10, 1835.

All of which goes to show how badly we need some markers in the Panhandle. We could begin with Coronado, include the French who settled Spanish Fort in Clay county before the Spaniards took it over and renamed it. The French came up Red river and visited Palo Duro canyon. Artifacts found verifies old history assuring us of this honor to our section. West Texas and the Panhandle has far more to offer the tourist if we but make it accessible. We would have to leave off the brush and mosquitoes, perhaps, but in a pinch, we could stop them in a canyon on a hot, sultry evening and give them plenty of both.

Marshall Ford dam on the old Marshall ranch placed at the old ford before they constructed a bridge near it some years ago, is about one-fourth completed. Work began in January of 1937. This dam will be 2,200 feet long, 270 feet high and 130 feet wide. The lake will be around 4 1/2 miles wide. The location is on the Colorado river 15 miles northwest of Austin, a paved highway almost completed to the dam location and little town already started. Austin took time by the forelock, or perhaps the bull by the horns, extended the city limits so as to include the dam. A suit is in court now over that expanation move, it was learned.

Curious as it may appear, the wooded sections seem to have a tendency to make hill-billies of her folks. Visitors to parts of San Saba, Mills and Brown counties will likely agree with me in this respect.

Down in the Rio Grande valley they are canning the juice and grinding the dried rind of citrus fruits for stock food. In other sections, they are making store roofs from the cotton cloth used in road building. In other places they are sawing a soft white building stone and shipping it into a dozen different states. The entire building is sawed to measure at the quarry. Some of the folks down that way are certainly taking advantage of their natural resources.

The force agreed to write this column last week. Otherwise, you could have read the same old bull.

Miss Zell McCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCracken of Clayton, is here this week spending a vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McCracken.

CONGRESSMAN SPURNS $1,200

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Representative Frank R. Havenner (Prog.) of California made congressional history Saturday even if he did not establish a precedent—he turned back to the Government $1,200 allowed him for traveling expenses.

The Californian said he did not feel justified in keeping the money. He received a similar amount for traveling to and from the special session of Congress last December and, although he went home for Christmas, he said he had enough of the money left to get home after this session.

Members of Congress receive a travel allowance of 20c a mile. Some contend this leaves them in the red because they have to bring their families with them.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stenciel of Los Angeles arrived Monday for a visit with Mrs. Stenciel's mother, Mrs. W. N. Blackwell, before the Blackwell's move to Ft. Worth.

"REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM" IS SHIRLEY'S BEST-OF-ALL MUSICAL

On a Happiness Hook-Up with Stars All Around Her, Shirley Temple Will Surprise You Down on the Farm That's a Streamlined Radio Center Now!

You'd never know the old farm now—it's a streamlined Radio Center, with Shirley Temple on a happiness hook-up in the title role of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," her best-of-all musical. The first star of the screen is supported by her starriest cast, sunniest songs, swiftest dances and a hey-hey load of laughter in this new 20th Century-Fox musicomedie hit opening Sunday, June 5th at the Pastime Theatre.

Tap at Tap-Speed

When radio appears down by the old mill stream it raises a bumper crop of song and fun, with Randolph Scott and Gloria Stuart united in glorious romance, Jack Haley and Slim Summerville making merry, and tap-king Bill Robinson and Shirley at tap-speed. Phyllis Brooks, Helen Westley, The Raymond Scott Quintet, Alan Dinehart and J. Edward Bromberg also are featured, and when all is said and sung, could you ask for anything more?

Six Songs

To the roster of romancing stars, dancing stars, comedy stars and singing stars are added six sunny

new song hits, in addition to a medley of Shirley's famous hits of the past which she sings again. The new songs are "An Old Straw Hat," by Gordon and Revel; "Alone With You," "Happy Ending," and "Crackly Grain Flakes," by Pollack and Mitchell; "Come and Get Your Happiness," by Pokrass and Yellen; and "Toy Trumpet," with music by Raymond Scott and lyrics by Pollack and Mitchell.

TROUBLE

Everyone we know has trouble. But our own don't seem so bad. If we look at those around us. And view some that others had: For too much of introspection Warps ones view-point there's no doubt,

But working hard with cheerfulness Will put the worst gloom to rout,

And trouble, somehow, seems to shun Those who order it away,

But with grouchers and with whiners It seems glad to make its stay;

Some forces that we cannot see Always work for good, or ill, Results are largely up to us

In our attitude, and will! —Chas. S. Culver.

Y. A. Rankin did not like Ochiltree county so much and has been transferred to a coast county. Rankin was formerly highway foreman here.

THE MODERN PRODIGAL SON

Cityward starting one fine spring day, He answered the old man's plea to stay:

I hate to leave you dad and go, But country life is for me too slow. Why should I follow a plodding team?

I will harness the lightning and yoke the steam,

While you plough through mud and the worst of weather,

I will walk the streets in patent leather,

If the weeds grow up and the fences fall down.

Rent the old farm and move to town.

He had walked the streets for days together,

On the uppers of his patent leather, And the only answer to his suing

Were these dreary words, "There's nothing doing."

Footsore, weary and out of cash, He hungrily sniffed at the lunch house hash.

Like a white oak chip his sandwich tasted.

And he longed for what the farmers wasted;

For the stalesst hunk of the home made bread,

For the milk that to the pigs are fed.

Were I once again with the sons of toil,

You may bet the vituals wouldn't spoil.

The hired man's plate is heaped with potatoes,

Beef and cabbage and stewed tomatoes;

He follows these plain substantial by

A quarter section of apple pie. At last by the picture overcome,

He borrowed a stamp and wrote back home;

If you have a job for this prodigal son,

Send twenty-five, the thing is done.

County Agent Explains Soil Building Program

Circular letters to Donley County farmers were mailed this week from County Agent H. M. Breedlove outlining rules producers must obey to be eligible for payments under the government soil building program.

The letter said: "The soil building payment is determined by multiplying the rented acres that you are to plant in 1938 by 50c per acre and each acre of the pasture land by 2c and for every 16 acres in your pasture you are to receive $1.00. You then add the total of the rented acres at 50c an acre, plus 2c an acre for the pasture, plus $1.00 for every 16 acres in your pasture and this will give you the highest amount of money that you can receive as No. 2 payment, which is called the soil building payment.

The number of units required to obtain this payment is calculated by multiplying the amount of payment by two-thirds. This will give you the number of units you must carry out to receive the soil building payment which is the No. 2 payment. Example: A producer has 50 rented acres at 50c an acre would be $25.00. He has 48 acres of pasture at 2c per acre which would be 96c. Each 16 acres at $1.00 per acre would equal $3.00, making a total of $28.96. The $28.96 multiplied by two-thirds would equal 19.3 units which would be 19 units that he would carry out to receive the $28.96.

Units will be determined by the soil building practices. For instance, every 8 acres of contoured land would count as one unit and every 4 acres of strip cropping would count as one unit and every 200 feet of terraces equals one unit. These units are listed in the enclosed pamphlet beginning on page 5 and ending on page 10. I believe after reading this you can select the practice that you wish to carry out."

TOMORROW'S BRIDGE

Tomorrow's bridge as I look ahead Is a rickety thing to view, Its piers are crumbled, its rails are down, Its floor would let me through.

The chasm it spans is dark and deep, And the waters foam and fret I have crossed that bridge a thousand times, Though I never have reached it yet.

It has crashed beneath me to let me through, Although it is miles away; But strange, the bridges that I have crossed Have all been safe today.

Perhaps I shall find when I reach the one That lies in the distant blue, Some hand may have mended its rickety floor, And its piers may be stanch and new.

And I can pass over, lighthearted, free, As a bird on the buoyant air. Forgive me, God, for my fearful heart,

My anxious and foolish care. —Grace Noll Crowell, in Christian Herald.

Next Sunday will be the beginning of our fifth year in Clarendon, as pastor of the Baptist Church. These years have been brief and fast passing. Were it not for the endearing friendships formed in hours of happiness and in times of sorrow it would seem but yesterday that we came to live in your midst. Your attitude toward Mrs. King, John Burton and me has been excellent beyond compare. We feel under renewed and everlasting obligation to every one of you. There is nothing good that we would withhold from any citizen of this town and surrounding community. We feel that you are entitled to all that you have and a great deal more. It would be our great joy to see every one of you supremely happy. Therefore, we shall renew our efforts at helpfulness in the beginning of our new year as pastor of the church, and as builder of a community in which we are all vitally related.

The gift and tender expressions of appreciation in last Sunday's service shall be a halo of delight throughout the coming days of our lives.

We are to spend this week in a State wide conference at Seminary Hill, Fort Worth, with some twelve or fifteen hundred other pastors looking forward to, and praying for a great revival season in our state.

Regular services next Sunday at the Baptist Church. The time will be 7:30 for the Training Service, and 8:15 for the evening preaching service. The morning services as usual. Your presence will be helpful to the service.

Mrs. Margaret Goodner, teacher in the local schools, left last week for Dallas where she will stay this summer.

36,000 REFUGEES OF THE DUST BOWL REMAIN IN POVERTY ON WEST COAST

PORTLAND, OREGON, June 1.—Like a great plains dust cloud that drove them to the Pacific northwest, poverty still smothers thousands of dust bowl refugees that remain idle in the green hills of the coastal region.

In the seven years following 1930, 36,000 families left their dust bowl homesteads and turned battered automobiles westward. About 19,000 arrived in the 18 months prior to July 1937. And still they come.

These newcomers, many without funds, have largely settled on lands where adequate incomes are impossible. Of 29,917 recent arrivals, 24 per cent occupy previously abandoned farms. Another 43 per cent chose to wrest subsistence from small tracts of unimproved land. Only 28 per cent managed to secure going farms or subdivisions.

Equal numbers of those discouraged with farming have poured into metropolitan areas, where work is increasingly scarce.

About 10,000,000 acres, or 150,000 new economic farm units, may ultimately be added to the cultivated area in Oregon, Washington and Idaho through irrigation, drainage, clearing and flood control. However, unless present construction schedules are speeded, only 10,000 new farms will be added in the next five years—2,000 short of the number needed to care for those arriving in the last eighteen months.

Possibilities of relief were seen by the commission in irrigation and industrialization projects such as the Grand Coulee dam, Columbia and Snake river basins development and economical land clearance.

The Pacific northwest, the commission said, "must either go vigorously forward with land development and reclamation programs, or it will just as rapidly sink backward with an ever expanding area of poverty-ridden communities."

Mrs. L. L. Wallace was in Amarillo Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shelton and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Robinson of Denver visited in Clarendon last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Patman and Misses Helen and Mildred Martin are attending the West Texas State College graduation exercises in Canyon today. Ardis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patman, is a member of the class.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I, E. P. Deahl, do certify that I am the father of Elaine Deahl, who was afflicted with Chorea (St. Vitas Dance) for three years and seven months; confined to her bed, unable to walk at all. In fact, she could not raise her hand, and after three treatments from Dr. Milling and staff she walked across the lobby of the Sanatorium, and after five treatments she was able to walk up a flight of stairs, and after a series of treatments over a period of only a few weeks she has been much improved, and has gone to school ever since, making her grades and doing well in school.

My wife was also afflicted with Leakage of the Heart, and after a few treatments from Dr. Milling and staff she was much improved, and was able to drive a car after one week's treatment.

Myself and my family have received such wonderful results from the treatments we received at the Milling Sanatorium that it is impossible for us to say enough in praise of his fine work and the good he and his staff are doing humanity. It is our earnest belief that they can help anyone they will accept in the Sanatorium.

GARDEN GLANCES

"America beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners"
This Garden Glancer discovered so many beauty spots this week while on a pilgrimage, that it's difficult to summarize them.
In the northeast part of town, the Nat Wood's lawn with its thick bermuda grass, running spray, and numerous trees was very restful. But near there was the McCrary sodded lawn with the most gorgeous rose garden in town just back of the green grass, and farther back just over the fence a well kept vegetable garden. The entire lawn was surrounded by lovely young trees.

Mrs. Jefferies' lawn has very colorful flower beds, and numerous shrubs and trees. Mrs. Rufus Chamberlain has many clumps of spider wort in her back yard that is a mass of blue in the mornings. There is also a wild flower treat on every vacant lot, and street side in that part of town. In fact the vast fields of them remind one of the color plates in the National Geographic.
Have you ever seen such beautiful clumps of hollyhocks as are growing here? New Mexico may rival ours in height, but not in variety and beauty. Notice those growing on the lot between the Burton and Shelton homes.
Someone has been very patient in training the English rvy at the Light Plant as the north walls are beautifully over grown. The green grass, rustling trees, and general up-keep of the grounds remind one of a park.

It is astounding how many lovely places one can discover in Clarendon when looking for them. Most of these beauty spots have been created by those who enjoy doing their own lawn work, too.

THE LAYMAN

Leave it to the minister,
And soon the church will die;
Leave it to the women folk,
The young will pass it by;
For the church is all that lifts us
From the coarse and selfish mob
And the church that is to prosper
Needs the layman on the job.
Now, a layman has his business,
And a layman has his joys;
But he also has the training
Of his little girls and boys;
And I wonder how he'd like it
If there were no churches here
And he had to raise his children
In a Godless atmosphere?
It's the church's special function
To uphold the finer things,
To teach the way of living
From which all that's noble springs
But the minister can't do it
Single-handed and alone,
For the laymen of the country
Are it's church's corner-stone.
When you see a church that's empty
Though its doors are open wide,
It is not the church that's dying;
It's the laymen who have died;
For it's not by song or sermon
That the church's work is done;
It's the laymen of the country
Who for God must carry on.
—Edgar A. Guest.

TWO COWS PER FARM

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

There are 121,000 farms in Texas which have no milk cows. This announcement from the Bureau of Agricultural Economics came as a distinct shock to Texans, for this state not only has more cattle, but more cattle per capita, than any other state. Nearly one-fourth of our farm families are doing without milk, butter and cheese, or buying them or their substitutes with hard-earned money from cotton or other cash resources. Naturally, most of them are doing without, to the detriment of health and strength, especially of the children.
Since the new farm law requires the diversion of some land from cotton, and neither landlord nor tenant can afford to permit this land to lie idle, it will be planted in food and feed crops. Under the law the diverted acreage may be grazed or fed to dairy cows whose product is to be used on the farm, or less than ten per cent of which is sold. Two cows per farm may be added and the farmer will be eligible for the full cash benefits on cotton or other soil depleting crops on which he has an allotment. So far as these 121,000 farms are concerned the best disposition of part of the diverted acreage is clear.
A farm family with two well fed ordinary cows will also be a well-fed family with considerably less cash outlay for groceries, and this means a direct cash return by saving so much of the income from cotton sales. The intangible gains in better health cannot be measured in dollars.
Farms which already have dairy cows may also increase their herds to the extent of two cows above the "normal" number under the same conditions of use and sale. Instead of increasing the number of cows, however, more liberal and better balanced feeding will often result in a greater profit. The greatly increased acreage of feed crops, both grain and forage, should discourage the stunting of feed which was sometimes found necessary when less feed was grown. It is well known that many a cow has never had a chance to show what she could produce because she has never been well fed through a whole lactation period.

Green pastures, either native or planted, permanent or temporary, are the best and cheapest source of milk. When green feed is not available in the fields and pastures, silage is the best substitute. The trench silo provides a cheap and efficient means of storing succulent feed indefinitely, which is in reach of every farmer, whether tenant or owner. Any of the forage crops may be successfully ensiled, either cut or in whole stalks. Corn, grain sorghums, sweet sorghums retain their full nutrient value in the silo, which they do not when stored dry in stacks.
Mrs. T. A. Falconer filled a silo in 1936, but good grazing on the wheat and oat fields the following winter kept her livestock in fine condition, and the silo was not opened. The past winter was not so favorable for grain grazing and the silage put up in 1936 met the needs of 1938. When southwestern farmers thus store feed in the surplus years the perennial dread of drouths and hard winters will be greatly minimized.

TAX PROPOSED ON PROFITS OF RADIO CHAINS

Fabulous Earnings Cited By Texas Solons In Slump Years

A tax on the gross income of radio broadcasting stations was advocated last week by Chairman Frank R. McNinch of the Federal Communications Commission. The suggestion brought yells of anguish from propagandists for big business. In Congress, however, the proposal received a warmer reception. Congressman W. D. McFarlane (Dem., Texas) insisted that the tax had been too long delayed and emphasized a number of reasons why it should be incorporated in tax legislation now pending before the House.

By capitalizing government wage length permits for which they do not pay a penny, McFarlane pointed out, radio broadcasters have an annual income from advertising of $144,000,000. He added:
"Surely, when the government is in such need of new fields to tax, here is one of the juiciest that can be found."
McFarlane told the story of the Columbia Broadcasting System to illustrate that there is little value behind radio securities.
Securities and Exchange Commission records disclose, he said, that the total investment in the Columbia network is only $1,540,000, but that successive applications of water have inflated its securities to $52,140,100, a large part having been sold to the public.
Up to the last year Columbia paid dividends of more than $8,000,000, or more than five times its entire investment. Last year, from a gross income of $28,000,000, it reported a profit of more than $4,000,000, or 300 per cent profit in a time of depression!
"In the light of these figures," McFarlane asked, "can radio afford to pay a license fee of 10 per cent on its income? The answer is an emphatic 'Yes!'"

A better solution, he insisted, would be for the government to break the monopoly by taking over the great chains and operating them under government ownership.

THE OTHER GAME

We always fall to thinking
The other fellow's game
Is just a little better
Than that which bears our name.
But, time has always proven,
It's not the games that count;
It's getting down to business
That helps our scoring mount.
The birds that sing most sweetly,
Are not the ones that roam,
But those who find their pleasure
In winging close to home.

Plans Made For Second County Fall Pig Show

With over eighty pigs on feed by F.F.A. and 4-H club boys, Donley County is practically assured of a successful fall pig show, J. R. Gillham, sponsor, said today. The first show was held in 1937 with approximately 35 pigs entered and interest increased to the extent that eighty-two pigs were shown in the spring show.

Eight litter groups are being fed for the fall show by Earl and Rex Shannon, Carl Morris, Ray Isham, Joe Williams, Harice Green, Pete Morrow, and Clyde and Carrol Peabody. Eugene Putman, Max Rampey, J. H. Green, Joe Frank Heathington, Odell Davis, Clarence Davis, are each feeding groups of three's and singles.

The local show will be held on Saturday, September 17th. The winning livestock will also be exhibited at the Tri-State Fair, and there is a possibility that a number of the pigs will be taken to the state fair.

TRICKSTERS TRY POLITICAL HAND

AMARILLO—Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo declared this week that the entrance of Vernest O. Thompson of Dallas into the governor's race was "political trickery" intended to make the ballot confusing to voters.

Thompson, a member of the railroad commission and a candidate for governor, made the statement after the Dallas man paid his filing fee and officially entered the race.

The Panhandle candidate made the following statement: A man alleging his name to be Vernest O. Thompson has filed his application for a place on the ballot for the Democratic nomination of governor. He gave his business address as a hotel room in Dallas, but his application was mailed in from Tyler and with a cashier's check on a Tyler Bank.

Fair minded people are not going to appreciate this kind of trickery on the part of my political enemies. Of course, they hope that this name will confuse and mislead and deceive the voting public and that this new candidate may get votes that were intended for me. It is complete evidence that my political enemies recognize Ernest O. Thompson of Potter county as the leading candidate in this race.

Is such a program and such a move good sportsmanship. No one heretofore ever heard of this man having "Vernest" for a first name. He has always gone by other names up until now. Indeed, he has been carried in the Dallas city directory under another name. Is it not strange that this man who gives a business address as a hotel room in Dallas should suddenly decide to run for governor and that someone should send in his application from Tyler with a cashier's check on a Tyler bank. The real facts will be interesting to the public when fully revealed.

MUSEUM RECEIVES NEW SPECIMENS

Panhandle-Plains Museum Is Rapidly Becoming Point Of National Interest

CANYON, May 31.—Old razor-tooth, posed snarlingly in the annex to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum, is a favorite of visitors this month.

His scientific name is Smilodon Californicus. He's a saber-tooth tiger. Every bone is there, dark colored as it came from the famous asphalt beds of the Rancho la Brea. The tiger was huge, larger than the modern Bengal tiger, and stronger, and he is believed to have been the only animal that ever lived which was strong enough to kill the huge Imperial elephants.

The skeleton, one of the few available anywhere, was donated to the museum by the University of California because of courtesies and favors given University research workers by West Texas State College and Panhandle citizens. Prof. R. A. Stirton and associates of the California institution have done much work in this section.

Sharing in the interest lately is Equus Scotti, a fine skeleton of an extinct horse which lived a million years ago. It was as large and well developed as an average Texas cowpony, but had the head of a draft horse.

The skeletons were assembled and mounted by Harley Goetsche
