Congressional Contests

Interest in the Texas congressional races centered Monday on the third district where Congressman Morgan Sanders, high ranking member of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, was running second to Lindsay Beckworth, Gilmer, in a five-cornered contest. Sanders will go into a run off with Beckworth, unless Brady Gentry, Honey Grove, now in third place, passes Sanders when all votes are in.

Paul Kilday defeated Congressman Maury Maverick in the San Antonio district. Ed Gossett, Wichita Falls, led Congressman W. D. McFarlane, Graham, but lacked a majority.

Thompson Carries Potter

Ernest O. Thompson was the only candidate for Governor of the five leaders to carry his home county, except O'Daniel in Tarrant County. Thompson received a handsome majority over the field in Potter County.

While McCraw was losing Dallas County to O'Daniel, the same thing was happening to Tom F. Hunter in Wichita County, and Karl A. Crowley in Tarrant County.

Burton Urges All School Transfers Be Made At Once

H. T. Burton, Clarendon school superintendent, in a prepared statement to the Donley County Leader today urged the immediate transfer of rural school pupils that have completed their work and must attend school in other sections of the county.

His Statement: "According to a recent ruling of the attorney General's department, county board transfers are not legal so far as the equalization law is concerned. The attorney General's office has further ruled that students whose grades are not taught in the home district and are not transferred cannot attend high school unless the parent pays the tuition or the sending school.

If the sending school pays the tuition these students will not count on the teacher-pupil load given in the state aid application. Or in other words, the sending school will not be reimbursed for those students who have failed to transfer. August 1st is the last day for transfers. It is very important for parents and trustees of sending districts to be sure that all transfers are made by August 1st."

CLARENDON MEN ATTEND BANQUET

Senator Connally Principal Speaker at Memphis Feast Wednesday Night

Citizens from some twenty different towns gathered by special invitation at a banquet table in the Country Club building in Memphis Wednesday night. Farmers, doctors, lawyers, business men made up the large gathering around banquet tables.

The Senator's talk to the reunion crowd was pronounced most nearly like that of Wm. J. Bryan of anything heard there in many, many years.

Like all others to visit the second oldest town in the nation, Doss Palmer comes back from a vacation spent in the Sunshine State thrilled with Santa Fe. When asked what he found most interesting, Mr. Palmer said, "the Shriners' Temple in Santa Fe."

Some time was spent in Albuquerque, but Hot Springs has its charms where Doc Gallaway takes in charge his numerous friends coming along and directs them to the champion fishing grounds of the state at Elephant Butte dam. It was there that Ray and Mrs. Palmer enjoyed the fishing experiences even more than Mr. Doss Palmer. Man Topples From Train; Now In Jail

James Sullivan, one of those humor derelicts who roam the world atop a box car, fell from a train near the Lelia Lake community at 1:30 this morning resulting in the arrest of about a dozen other bums, wild shooting of firearms and the loss of sleep of a sheriff's posse and residents in the immediate vicinity.

Sullivan, enjoying the luxury of the inside of a box car along with several travelling companions, walked to the door and proceeded to fall out to the dismay of his friends who reported the incident when the train reached Clarendon.

Thinking he would probably be the worse for wear, Sheriff Guy Pierce called Byron Scott for an ambulance while a searching party was being formed.

Meanwhile, Sullivan, evidently tired from his roll from the fast moving train, decided he would rest so he called upon the Thompsons. Showing consideration, he used the back stairs to gain a second story room.

His consideration was not returned, however, by Jud Thompson who asked him to come out, punctuating his remarks with bursts of gunfire.

Hearing the shots, county attorney R. Y. King and Stovall, who were with the posse, rushed to the house, but Stovall was the winner, bringing forth the man at the point of a gun.

Sullivan, uninjured, is now in the county jail where he is booked for vagrancy. His companions, being held in Amarillo, were released at the time of the capture.

Forms For Cotton Subsidy Payments Being Filled In

The payments are expected to amount to approximately $212,000 and may arrive here by the latter part of August.

With a smashing vote of confidence that rolled up a majority for all local political places with the exception of two, over 2,200 Donley County voters Saturday landed their favorites into office in the Democratic Primary.

The run-off election Saturday, August 27, will find only Joe Bownds, incumbent and Jess Adamson in the race for tax assessor and collector. Bownds had a total of 930 against Adamson's 863, Saturday. The third man in the race, Will Chamberlain, polled 460.

In the only other race for election, next August, will be John Hermesmyer, incumbent and J. D. Wood for precinct 1 commissioner. Hermesmyer had 115 votes Saturday to Wood's 103. John Goldston was eliminated with 41 votes.

R. Y. King, present County Attorney, out stripped S. W. Lowe, incumbent and A. H. Baker in the County Judges race. King piled up a majority of 1133 against the total vote of 1112 for the other two candidates.

Guy Pierce retained the office of sheriff by a 497 majority over C. Huffman, Bill Johnson and Milt Mosley.

With a clear majority of 1,160 votes, W. G. Word will hold the office of county clerk for two more years. Word's supporters cast 1360 ballots to 634 for E. P. Shelton and 246 for R. W. Moore.

In the Clarendon precinct (No. 2) the present commissioner, G. G. Reeves, retained the office with 686 votes to 366 cast for V. V. Johnston.

THEM THERE MOUNTAIN HILLS!
 QUITE A LINGO THEY SPEAK IN

Real hillbillies from the Ozarks have a language of their own that is far different from the talk used by the imitation mountain boys of vaudeville and the radio.

So declare Leon, Frank and Elvira Weaver who are featured in the Warner Bros. comedy "Swing Your Lady," which comes to the Pastime Theatre next week. The synthetic hillbillies wouldn't even be understood in Missouri or Arkansas, the Weavers say.

They not only acted in the picture, but were technical advisors as well, helping Director Ray Enright get the authentic hillbilly touch to the dialogue and the action.

"One day Mr. Enright asked me what hillbilly expression would fit a certain situation and I said 'keen as a briar,'" Leon explained. Somebody else who had never been closer to a hillbilly than his radio loudspeaker said 'Sharp as a tick.'

"We have always been ourselves, just played natural in our act, but when Elvira sang a number for 'Swing Your Lady' she was told to do it more nasal. That wasn't natural for her and she couldn't do it. We've never acted, we've just been ourselves.

"We have a language that no screen writer could hope to pick up unless he spent a long time among our people. We speak of 'lasses, 'ma'ers, 'backer and 'taters, and things are 'larrupin' good."

"If a neighbor wants to cross your property he will say, 'You-uns care if we-uns go through you-uns medder?' And if you ask him where he's going he'll say 'wood's walking' which means, of course, that he is going for a hike through the woods.

"I kinda felt sorry for the little old lady extra with the very broad English accent who plays a hillbilly in the picture and says 'Great Day' and a few lines of accent marked so-called hillbilly lingo. You'd look a long time in Missouri for a hillbilly with an English accent.

"The movie folks tried to get me to talk faster and get excited in speaking my lines, but I couldn't. Waldo Davis, the character I portray, might get excited if his store burned but nothing else would excite him."

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Radios have taught us two things, if nothing more. We have learned of a number of old cowboy songs never before known, and we have learned that the old-timers never sang them right the ones they did know.

And George "Cotton" Moffet was elected a state senator Saturday. Down in the lower end, GW campaigned for him among her thousand and some odd relatives and George went over strong in that section. He was a wheelhorse in the legislature, and will be a valuable man in the senate. Hurrah for old George!

Sunday I sat by the radio and enjoyed a sermon preached in the First Baptist church in Amarillo during the morning service. The minister's subject was "prayer." Who was he? None other than our esteemed Rev. J. Perry King of Clarendon. He preached a very fine sermon that was heard by hundreds over the radio, as well as the large congregation.

Back in ancient times when the people got the Ten Commandments, they cried for a King. Saturday when the voters were piling up a big majority for the Ten Commandment candidate, W. Lee O'Daniel, they also got a King right here in old Donley. Yes sir! R. Y. King was elected judge.

While in Georgia this summer, a vacationer from the Panhandle met up with an interesting character who said: "You from the west? Why I went west when a boy." How fur didje git?", asked the Panhandler. "I got to Johnson City, Tenn.," he said. "Well I'll be durned," said our neighbor. "If we'd had cars then, there would have been a bust-into each other. I went east the same time and got as far as Oklahoma City."

There was a time when a woman could make her husband a necktie out of her silk skirt but now it is the other way round.

"Buying cheap products to save money is like stopping the clock to save time."

"Can't you control your nose?" the lady snapped next to the old man on the train. "Not wen I 'ave hay feder," the old man said. "Bud I can keep it out of udder folks bidness."

A fellow is said to be a good driver when the road turns every time he does.

Life might not be so bad on our state prison cotton farms if the convicts could be held there long enough to get used to it.

It looks like those who have been wishing for "Horse & Buggy Days" have gotten their wishes. In part at least. We have "buggy" days.

If the fellow who has delirium tremens would go to bed as they did in the old days, our highways would be a lot safer.

Donley leads in everything. Passing a car on the highway Saturday night I saw a young lady driving a car while holding on her hat, holding down her dress, smoking a cigarette, yelling at the passing motorists and talking politics to the crowd in her car all at the same time, and never missed a curve.

Chiang says China hasn't woke up yet. Well, they are doing a good job of walking in their sleep.

One half of the nation wonders where the other half gets its tax money.

Getting back to saner things, now is the best time to prepare the fall garden, one of our best farmers tells us. He suggests peas, beans, turnips and other kinds of greens be planted now. He says that rape will supply an all-winter greens in this climate with a little protection during the coldest spells.

I have a few choice peach seeds from seedlings brought from Clay county. They will be given to the first interested party to call. No better fruit is grown than these and the trees live longer and bloom later than others.

Lastly, there is another primary August 27th. And there is an amendment in the Leader this week. You are to vote on this change in the state constitution at the general election. Better read it as we won't have any extra copies later when you call around to see what it is all about.

Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Lohman of Perryville, Mo., visited in the Rathjen home last Thursday.

Billie Don and Wanda Nell Martin of Amarillo spent the week end with their grandmother, Mrs. Edd Barnes.

Lillian and Gaynell Tidwell are vacationing in Colorado.

WATERMELON FEAST

The Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church held their monthly meeting at the Church Monday evening when they entertained their families with a watermelon feast on the church lawn.

Under the supervision of Wauwata Robinson, the Donley County NYA home resident project, which will give employment and training to needy girls in this section, officially opened Tuesday.

Eighteen girls between the ages of 18 and 25 spent their first day in the NYA Resident Training Home Tuesday. The first two days were devoted to arranging the home and acquainting the girls with plans for the six months work and training program co-sponsored by the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, County Commissioners Court and various ladies clubs. The girls will work in the canning plant, which is the work project operated in connection with the home, on Thursday and Friday of this week. Beginning next week the canning plant will operate four days a week.

The project will be attended by two groups twenty or twenty-two girls each. The first will return to their homes after two weeks, while the second group attends the project for two weeks, thus alternating for the duration of the project.

During the time the girls are not working on the work project, they will participate in training activities under the supervision of the supervisor, a graduate home economics teacher. This training will be in cooking, sewing, marketing, budgeting, health and hygiene, citizenship, home beautification, and related home arts and handicrafts.

A well-rounded recreational program will be provided for the girls.

According to Phil B. Wilson, District Supervisor, diligent care has been exercised in the selection of youths to attend the project. The youths background, desires, formal education, and general ability are such that they can be expected to profit by the work and training offered in the home, as well as to fit into the operation of the project.

The public is invited to visit the home on regular visiting days, which will be named by the home supervisor.

Hubert Reavis To Change Stride For 1940 Olympic Run

Duke Star and Captain Here For Visit With Relatives

Hubert Reavis, 1939 captain of the Duke University track team said here today that he would forsake the high and low hurdles, the run that made him famous, to concentrate on the 1/4 mile and the 400 meters.

The change is being made, Reavis said, to prepare for the 1940 Olympic games.

The former Clarendon lad, who made a name over Texas as the Clarendon Junior College one-man track team, amassed a total of 97 points over the cinder paths for the Blue Devils last spring, to lead all collegiate individual scorers.

Here for a visit with relatives, the Duke leader said he would rest until September. In 1939, he declared, he would point for the Princeton and World Fair events.

Most of the accidents were recorded from 9:01 p. m. to 10 p. m. with vehicles driven by 1,368 males small number of 192 women.

The days of our meeting have been brief and fast passing. Friday evening will be the last service with our visiting help. We are sorry they have to leave so soon, but they are busy workers for the Master and their duties and obligations with their own people calls for their services at home next Sunday. Our greatest regret is not giving up these wonderful workers for next Sundays services, but it is the fact that many have failed to avail themselves with the opportunity of coming under the blessed influence of their ministry during the days of our meeting. We pass up unheeded so many of the good things of life. There has never been a more patient, painstaking, persistent, profitable pair of workers in our city. They have been Christian in every sense of the word. The influence of their ministry will never cease in Clarendon.

There will be no services Saturday, but we hope to carry on through Sunday with unabated interest in the fine spirit generated in this meeting, then on through the coming days of the life of our church. The baptismal service will be at the close of the preaching hour Sunday evening. Be one of hundreds to bring this meeting to a remarkable climax in all of the services throughout the day Sunday. We need you and are happy to believe that you will be blessed in your efforts to be of service.

FRIENDS

Not he that counts my errors, Not he that holds me back With doubting words to show me Wherein and home I lack; Not he that sees my failures, And seeing them, is free To take my measure by them— He's not the friend to me. But he that learns my virtues, Who takes me at my best; Who notes my greatest failings, And overlooks the rest; Who after I have striven And have not failed, is free With words of commendation— He is the friend to me. —Author Unknown.

To Voters of Precinct 2:

I am grateful to my friends for their loyal support in the past primary, and I assure those who did not support me, that I hold no malice toward anyone.

MOTHER: "Then, John, there's no use waiting any longer for that all-electric kitchen!"

DAD: "Nope. You're right—no use waiting. In fact, I talked to the West Texas Utilities Company today. All you've got to do is go down tomorrow and pick out what you want."

CHILDREN: "Pop, you're a wonder! Now Mommy will have time to pay some attention to us!"

Faith in the future of this community... confidence in its prosperity... and a desire to render a service to its citizens prompts us to remind you of the long-time purchase plan on electric merchandise. In most cases, you have two years in which to pay for Electric Servants, such as refrigerators, ranges, hot water heaters, dish washers and similar labor-saving appliances. Convenient payments may be arranged on air conditioning, I-E-S lamps, irons, percolators, etc. Please ask today about the Electric Servant you've waited years to buy!

Texas Elk Herd Increases In Davis Mountains

An elk herd is doing well in the Guadalupe mountains, reports Bob Snow, Game Department field investigator. Forty-four were imported in 1929. Now the herd numbers more than 300, he said. In the daytime they loiter at waterholes, and at night climb the mountains. They won't jump at automobiles, but they are afraid of horses and men.

You can't shoot 'em. They are protected by law.

Sadler Flashes In R. R. Commission Race With Terrell

A new star flashed into the political sky of Texas last Saturday when G. A. "Jerry" Sadler, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, descendant of a hero of San Jacinto, fought his way into a run-off with C. V. Terrell, dean of all the office-holders in Texas.

Sadler, a native of the Hickory Grove community in Anderson county, and now a practicing attorney in Longview, is a great grandson of Captain W. T. Sadler, who fought with Sam Houston at San Jacinto. Sadler is 30 years of age and his life story is one of triumph over hardship and adversity. His youth included farm life, working as a bell boy to go to high school, labor on pipe lines, drilling rigs, in refineries and studying law at nights.

Sadler has conducted his campaign on the basis of his own qualifications and his belief that Texas needs new blood on the Railroad Commission. He has never before been a candidate for either elective or appointive office.

His campaign slogan is "Put Sadler in the Saddle."

Secretary for the Memphis F.F.A. district for 1937-38, Williams was recently selected as Area historian for 1939. He will apply for the American Farmers degree in 1939.
