ANNUAL GREEN BELT 3-DAY POULTRY SHOW OPENS HERE

OVER 200 FATHERS AND SONS GATHER FOR ANNUAL BANQUET TUESDAY NIGHT

Dr. J. A. Hill, W. T. S. C. President Is Principal Speaker Jack Reeves Elected President; Rev. McKee Vice-Pres.

Present day parents are faced with the challenge of whether the road "from the forks of the creek to the White House," is kept open for American youth or whether the rapidly changing times and politics will kill that democratic tradition, Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State College, told over 200 fathers and sons gathered for their annual banquet at the First Christian Church here Tuesday night.

Rapping the loose living of many parents, Dr. Hill asked, "how can a father expect his son to live a worthy life when cocktail parties are held in the home?"

The father and mother must live example lives, for the impressionable child is governed more by what he sees than what his parents tell him, the Dr. said in substance.

In his advice to the sons, Dr. Hill said: "Any fool can drink, and it is deplorable to see the youth of today indulging in whiskey in order to leave the impression that he has grown up and is smart."

Other speakers on the program were Jack Reeves who spoke and toasted the fathers and the Rev. R. S. McKee who toasted the sons.

Dr. B. L. Jenkins, member of the organization since its founding in 1921, acted as toastmaster.

Music was furnished by Ray Robbins and his orchestra. The Rev. J. Perry King gave the invocation and Judge Sam Lowe delivered the benediction. R. E. Drennan led the group in singing.

With five sons, G. G. Reeves was the father present with the most boys. He also had the youngest son present, an eight-months-old baby.

Hugh Brown, age 81, was the oldest father present.

In the business session, Jack Reeves was elected president; Rev. R. S. McKee, vice president; Billy Patman, John Burton King, W. J. Greene and Ralph Andis, directors.

Retiring officers are Allen Bryan, president; J. D. Swift, Jr., vice president; C. B. Morris, J. R. Bartlett, Claude McGowan and Billy Patman, directors.

The turkey dinner was served by the ladies of the First Christian Church.

Faithful Church Worker Had Reared Large Family

Complaining of a pain in her left side late Friday night, a physician prescribed for Mrs. L. D. Perry. Her daughter then put her mother to bed with that care and attention of a loving daughter's devotion. Saturday morning the shock came when it was found that the mother had never changed her position in bed and had expired during the night.

Mrs. Perry, aged 75, had been a resident of Clarendon since 1910. She had been unusually active for several days in preparation for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Fanny, to Mr. Walter Wilson to take place Sunday.

Plans had been made for Mrs. Perry to accompany the bridal pair to California where they expected to visit other members of the family.

Six children survive. They are L. D. Perry and Mrs. Elizabeth Hanks, Los Angeles; Sam and Charles, Denver; Rev. B. C. Perry, Elmer, Oklahoma, and Miss Fanny, with whom the mother had long made her home.

Palbearers for the funeral were J. T. Patman, W. M. Patman, Joe Horn, Dave Johnson, Victor Smith and M. R. Allensworth.

In charge of the flowers was Mrs. Perry's Sunday school class, assisted by Misses Clynnelle and Billy Lou Gilbert, Margaret Allen, Emma Ayers, Irene Rhodes and Rosa Lee Grady.

Kuteman Test Is Waiting Cable

Hindrance in drilling on the Nello Kuteman No. 1 oil test near Hedley has caused quite a bit of delay the past two weeks. A collar was lost at around 4,000 feet. While pounding this to pieces and fishing out a piece at a time, the cable broke. A new cable was purchased and drilling will be resumed upon arrival of the cable. Some gas showings continue in the Pennsylvania shale, it is said.

In speaking of the matter, assessor-collector elect, J. W. Adams, said he had eighteen applicants from the very best citizenship of the county, and found it a difficult matter to select just one from the list. This was done only after several days of careful study.

Bennett Kerbow, former hardware and furniture merchant of Clarendon for more than a quarter of a century, will be Mr. Adams' right hand man when he assumes office January first as Donley county's next assessor-collector.

Old Courthouse Cornerstone Yields Variety of Relics

In October, 1890, a few hundred proud residents of Childress county saw members of the Masonic lodge place a few trinkets in a home-made tin box and place it under the cornerstone of this county's first brick courthouse.

Yesterday afternoon that tin box was opened for the first time in more than 48 years. The courthouse burned in 1891 and was rebuilt the following year, but the original cornerstone, and the tin box were not disturbed.

When the box was opened yesterday by Masons, the yellowed leaves of two old newspapers, some tarnished coins, a Bible and a few other articles were all that remained recognizable. The bottom of the box was filled with rotting paper and cloth.

A copy of the first edition of the Index ever published, dated July 28, 1888, was in the box, but it is badly decomposed. Also in the box was a fairly well preserved copy of the Fort Worth Daily Gazette, dated Oct. 2, 1890.

Rotting leaves of papers, bearing names of officers and other unreadable data on the Masonic order were found in the box.

Among the remaining articles was an 1877 25-cent piece, an 1888 five-cent piece, a token coin, pieces of red cloth, believed to have been part of a flag.

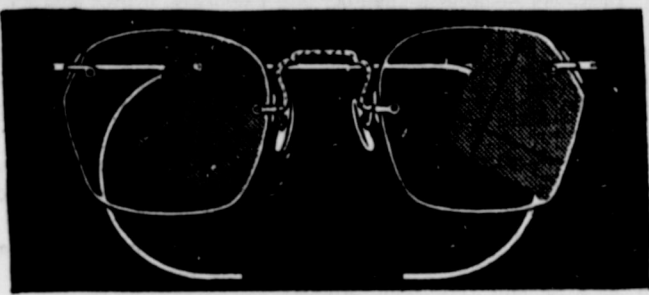

Best preserved was a small piece of stone carved into the shape of a book. The date, 1890, and the initials GRS or CRS, is carved on the front. Old-timers who attended the ceremony did not remember today what it represented.

The old cornerstone and the articles from the box will be kept and placed in an appropriate place in the new courthouse building.

Sell Registered Hogs

During the past month, local F. F. A. members have sold twenty-one registered Duroc, Hampshire, and Poland gilt pigs, young boars, and gilts. Each of the animals was sold at a nice premium above market value for breeding stock. The demand for Durocs was especially strong. Joe Williams, young Duroc breeder, sold four gilts and one boar to a Dallas hog breeder who plans to use the five animals for his foundation stock in building up a registered Duroc herd.

Quail, Estelline, and Panhandle F.F.A. Chapters have each bought a number of stock from the local youths. The sales have largely resulted from publicity received as a result of local pig shows, and the winnings of local youths at Amarillo and Dallas.

Hickman Leads

Cecil Hickman has a narrow lead over Herman Higgins in the "Aggie" pest eradication contest. These two hold a comfortable lead over Jr. Spier and Forest Helton in third and fourth place respectively. The contest opened the latter part of October and closes December 15th. Several hundred rabbits, mice, rats, hawks, owls, and other pests have lost their lives as a result of the contest.

The five leaders in the contest will each be awarded a F.F.A. emblem. The first place winner will receive a chenille emblem; a leather emblem goes to second place winner, and three felt emblems to third, fourth, and fifth places.

Boxing Finals

The feature of the finals in the F.F.A. boxing tournament was the draw bout between Jr. Spier and Jack Rogers. Another highlight was a battle royal between four fighters each of whom had one arm tied to body and used only one glove.

Clyde Peabody won a decision over Bailey Estes, Weldon Warren over George Reeves, Ralph Morrow over Carl Morris, Pete Morrow over L. B. Hartzog by a default, Carroll Peabody over Bob McWhorter by default, and Freeman Helton and Frank Cannon fought an exhibition bout.

Hog Feeders

Sixteen self feeders were built by the two vocational agriculture classes during the past two and one-half weeks. Six of the feeders were built for patrons who furnished the materials, and ten were made for class members. In addition to the feeders built in class, fourteen self feeders have been completed by students as supervised practice jobs. Over thirty chapter members are now feeding their pigs a balanced ration from self feeders.

The local "Aggies" have found that their pigs will eat more feed, will grow out faster, and there will be less waste of feed and time when self feeders are used.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH

Speaking of climate change in the Panhandle, an old-timer tells us that the fall days are getting milder and milder. He was reminded that while the days were getting milder and milder, the nights were getting wilder and wilder.

The business that runs like clock work usually cannot sell on tick.

A lot of Americans feel sorry for the Jews of Germany, and should. But they don't feel so sorry for the Chinks because the Japs are buying war material in America. The same applies to England, France and possibly a number of other allegedly civilized nations.

"Arizona went democratic, but they had to pay the WPA workers a living wage to do it," a local republican stated Monday.

Member old Levi Garrett? He didn't leave his name on anything but a snuff bottle, but he has a granddaughter who has had five husbands and made the front pages of the dailies just as often.

Bachelor Bill says gossip is that breath of hell that goes in the ear and comes out at the mouth.

School marm in Alabama are prevented going in an auto week nights by a state law. Yep, and I'll bet she's a weak law, too.

A Kansas farmer complains that pheasants have become a nuisance on his farm. They kill quail in the pasture, chicks at the house and if they keep on, they will soon have the bulls cowed.

Well, that's going a long way when the leading democratic papers brag about the results of the election boosting business.

A few of the smaller negro boys are out soliciting "funds for the church." One came into my office but was unable to tell me "which" church, and finally owned up that he had heard his elders brag about making a raise that way.

Every December we print a large number of "letters to Santa Claus" for our little folks. Please write your letters and let us have them not later than December 10th. We can't print them after that date. Hand them in as soon as you can. Don't wait for the 10th. If you can't write plainly, please ask your mother or daddy to write it for you in your own language. School teachers can render their pupils a favor by seeing after the letters. How about the coming Friday? It is not necessary to date your letter. Just give the place where you live, and be sure to print your name plainly.

During the recent campaign in Kansas, the democrats advertised by direct mail methods. The republicans used the newspapers—and WON!

Nothing is quite so tough as vanity. It withstands scorn, sarcasm and a deluge of insults and continues to bob up again.

A $38,000,000,000 Threat

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN

Many noted commentators on public affairs have observed in the outcome of the recent elections a significant fact.

They have seen in the attitude expressed at the polls impressive evidence that the American people are determined to halt the mounting toll of extravagance and public debt charged against the workers' earnings and savings during the past few years.

This is a natural and logical conclusion. So serious, in fact, has the threat become that today the federal debt alone amounts to $38,000,000,000—an average of $300 charged against every man, woman and child in the country; $1500 against every family.

Nor is that all. In addition to the federal debt, the politicians have piled up state and local debts amounting to $19,000,000,000 more—making a total public debt of about $57,000,000,000—an average of approximately $1800 per family.

And that doesn't include the interest!

Who is going to pay those bills? The answer is obvious.

Not the politicians who ran them up, but the people—from the fruits of whose labor all public money is collected! Taxes, as everyone knows, constitute the source of government funds—and all taxes, whether paid directly or indirectly, must come out of the earnings and savings of the people.

Today the people have shown that they realize this fact. They have demonstrated that they want the politicians to realize it, too.

And if their demands are heeded—if the new Congress accepts its responsibility to put the interests of constituents and nation above those of party and faction—America can look forward with revived hope to the progress and recovery which her rich natural resources, and the intelligence and energy of her people, can and should assure.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—?

During the eighteenth century funerals were major social events in the German, Dutch, French and Swedish, as well as in the English settlements here in America.

Great quantities of wine, tobacco and food were supplied to the mourners. Strange and costly customs accompanied the rites. Mourning gloves had to be furnished by the late one's family for the clergy and for all who were invited to attend the funeral. Mourning rings, generally gold, and sometimes pins were presented to the officiating ministers, relatives, and close associates of the deceased.

When A. Faneuil, one of the outstanding Bostonians died, some three thousand pairs of gloves were distributed and two hundred mourning rings were given to ministers, relatives and life-long friends.

Impoverished though the vast majority of clergymen of that time might have been, they were, nevertheless, almost invariably rich in mourning gloves and rings. During the thirty-two years in which he was pastor of the Old North Church in Boston, Rev. Andrew Elliot received 2,900 pairs of these mourning gloves.—A. R. Armstrong.

Miss Pauline Roach who teaches school at Groom was home for Thanksgiving.

Average Family Pays $4.29 Weekly Taxes

DALLAS—Taxes paid by Texas residents have reached a point where they now are equal to $4.29 a week for every family in the state, according to a survey by the National Consumers Tax Commission.

"Local, state and national governments drain more than $308,060,375 annually from Texas families," stated the report, made public through Mrs. Kenneth C. Frazier, of Dallas, president of the commission.

"Most families, paying no income or property levies, are lulled into a feeling of tax-freedom. Unfortunately, however, they as consumers carry the burden of the state's tax load. They pay 63 percent of it through indirect, or hidden taxes, passed on to them in the form of higher prices on every purchase, including the necessities of life.

"When hidden taxes take their daily toll out of the pocketbooks of low-income families, buying power often is reduced to a point where some of the necessities must be given up. Living standards consequently are lowered."

Mrs. Frazier is the leader in Texas in the commission's nationwide crusade against taxes that "penalize consumers by increasing the cost of living" with Mrs. Volney W. Taylor, of Brownsville, the Texas national committee member.

More than 1,200 commission units, she said, already are active in many states. Plans call for spreading the campaign here to every community in the state.

Horse And Mule Production To Be Encouraged

Horse and mule prices reached the highest point in 17 years in 1937, but during the latter part of 1937 and well into 1938, prices dropped 10 to 15 percent below those of the previous year, according to figures released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

"Even so, prices of horses and mules, when compared with prices of all farm products, were higher during the first 8 months of 1938 than in any other period since 1916," Jack Shelton, vice-director and state agent of the Texas A&M College Extension Service, commented, "This price relationship is expected to encourage colt production for the next two years or so."

The 832,000 horse and mule colts produced in 1937 were about 400,000 head short of the number of work animals disappearing that year. The downward trend in horse and mule numbers probably will continue for several years, the outlook report stated.

"We can't help but think that the disappearance of work animals has gone on at a faster rate than would normally be expected," Shelton said. "The droughts of 1934 and 1936 forced the sale of horses and mules in some areas, and sleeping sickness and old age increased the death rate of workstock. For a number of years almost no colts were produced, and we must remember that this has resulted in most of our workstock being either very young or very old."

"No one can deny that power equipment is the thing for some farms and for some operations. At the same time, there is going to be a continuing demand for workstock, and our county agricultural agents are encouraging the production of colts in cases where farmers and ranchmen can raise them profitably," the state agent pointed out.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Merchant attended the funeral of Mrs. Carhart Friday at Panhandle.

DONLEY COUNTY LEADER

Presenting Clarendon Junior College

By DORTHEA WATSON

Physical Education was once, and unfortunately still is in some places, simply the adaption of classroom discipline to the playground.

Modern society has reorganized the error of this attitude towards physical education and is changing its ideas on the subject. It has realized that play is natural. It is the spontaneous, physical exertion of one's personality. Educators have come to believe that a child in his life processes is a "play-bull" animal: that it is natural for him to run and jump, hang and climb; and that it is essential for him to use these fundamental, big-muscle movements for character training. Indeed, play is nature's way of educating the child.

The aim of modern physical education, then, is more, than mere physical and psychological development. It has gone further; it now includes mental stimulation and character training. Its high purpose is to educate the individual to function harmoniously in all aspects of his being, and it is with this idea in mind that the teacher of physical education now takes up his work.

Open fields and fresh air should be the heritage of youth, but unfortunately this is not always possible. Many schools, built in crowded areas, have small playgrounds. Perhaps the buildings are modern and sanitary, but at the same time the possibilities for good physical development are curtailed.

Despite these drawbacks, our schools are functioning effectively in their endeavor toward hygienic living and wholesome physical development.

Students of physical education in Clarendon Jr. College study, discuss, and attempt to solve these problems. This course is required for students desiring a teachers certificate.

METHODIST CIRCUIT NOTES

J. G. Walker, P. C.

Your pastor on the Clarendon circuit arrived Thursday, and are located in the parsonage on the hill where we are glad to be in our place. We have not yet learned much of the bounds of our work, but have learned enough to know that the geographical area is pretty large. Naturally, the questions before us: Are we able to possess or overcome, as we write, two solutions are offered. One by the enemy of righteousness saying, "It can't be done. The area is too large, the preacher is too weak and the people are financially unable to give necessary support." This would certainly be true if we were dependent upon our physical attainments. Another solution comes to us from Jesus, saying, "I will be with you in the sixth trouble, and in the seventh (last) I will not forsake you." Again He said, "All power is given unto me both in heaven and in earth, go preach the gospel to every creature, and lo! I am with you always even to the end (compass) of the earth." We are inclined to accept the solution offered by Jesus in His name only, we enter this field of service, John Wesley must have had this spirit when he declared "The world is my parish."

We do not claim that we are altogether responsible for all the area within the compass of our work, because the First church of Clarendon is in our midst. Just where its influence ends, I do not know. I think the compass is imaginary rather than real. I believe and request that Clarendon Methodism be made one in spirit. That First church's influence reaches the outer circle of the whole area and we will do our best to make ours reach the inner.

We went to Lella Lake Sunday. Congregation small, but we had two fine services. Went to Naylor in the evening. Found the doors closed.

Our first quarterly meeting will be held next Sunday at Ashtola. Presiding elder will preach at 11 o'clock and hold conference immediately after. Every member is requested to be there, and especially all the officers of the entire circuit. Important business to be attended to. The pastor will preach at the evening hour.

You will hear from us each week if this does not find its way to the waste basket.

John Barrymore, as a madcap newspaper publisher, and Lynne Overman, as his wise-cracking editor, form the comedy team of Paramount's Alaskan drama, "Spawn of the North." With George Raft, Dorothy Lamour and Henry Fonda heading the all-star cast, the picture opens at the Saturday night Prevue at the Pastime Theatre, December 3rd.

Raft, Fonda, Lamour Star in Alaska Epic

George Raft, Henry Fonda and Dorothy Lamour form Hollywood's newest trio as the cast leaders in "Spawn of the North," Paramount's sensational drama of Alaska, which will have its first local showing next Saturday night at the Prevue, at the Pastime Theatre.

Raft who won coast-to-coast applause for his performance in "Souls at Sea," has a similar role in the new picture. He plays a robust and devil-may-care Arctic fisherman, whose disregard for law and danger is in sharp contrast to his devotion to the highest ideals of loyalty and friendship. Fonda, who now plays Raft's lifelong friend and final reluctant enemy, comes to the screen from his triumphs in "Jezebel" and "Blockade."

Miss Lamour, cast as a frontier Alaska woman who loves Raft and Fonda equally, has a role distinctive on two scores. It not only marks the biggest dramatic role in her spectacular motion picture career, but in addition she appears minus the famous "Lamour sargong," which she made famous in "The Jungle Princess," "Hurricane" and "Her Jungle Love." Prominent in supporting roles are John Barrymore, Akin Tamiroff, Lynne Overman, and Hollywood's newest star discovery, pretty Louise Platt.

Based on the well known novel by Barrett Willoughby, "Spawn of the North" tells a sweeping story of two lifelong friends caught in

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. CHRISTMAS MONEY IN REWARD

Some one here will make a nice sum for Christmas spending if they happen to locate a "Mini Photoscop" lost on the street or between here and Memphis recently. TAKE TIME TO MAKE TIME

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

These long winter nights may be so used as to save time and labor next summer when the growing season demands that every hour and every stroke of work be made to count. There will be no time for thoughtful planning then, but thoughtful planning now will pay large dividends later. Whether there is a government program or not, and whatever government program may be in effect in 1939, forehanded farmers lay out the major lines of their year's operations ahead of planting season.

In every community may be found farmers who thrive better than their neighbors under the same conditions, and in every case, whether or not they consciously sit down and map out a system of farm management, it will be found that their thrift is not luck, but good judgment in making the best possible use of their facilities and utilizing the available labor to a better advantage. In its simplest terms good farm management is "man use plus land use."

Certain crops call for a peak of labor at the same time, and if they are not to suffer from neglect, labor has to be hired. This is a cash outlay which must be deducted from the gross profits from saleable products, reducing the farmer's own net returns proportionately. Good farm management plans for spreading the operator's own labor over a longer period, and this involves crop diversification. Crop diversification to be successful demands livestock to utilize the feed crops, and livestock grow, multiply and produce while the operator sleeps.

By planning ahead, a succession of grazing crops to be harvested by the livestock themselves may be provided, and under normal conditions some sort of green grazing may be had throughout the year in most of the Southwest. This is well illustrated on the W. F. Glenn farm, Grayson county, Texas, where sheep and cattle graze the year round. The cotton and corn fields are grazed in fall volunteer oats sometimes are also available. Fall sown wheat and oats furnish grazing throughout the winter, rye grass takes up where the grain fields leave off, and by the time rye grass seeds and dies down, native pastures and Sudan grass are ready to furnish summer grazing.

There is more to planning, however, than pastures, and one of the most constructive moves toward more profitable farming in the Southwest is the county planning programs worked out by farmer committeemen with the technical help of extension, experiment station, and vocational education forces.

In the State Fair at Dallas a striking exhibit was that of Hill county (Texas) which showed the enhanced returns from practical and scientific planning and set a goal for the planning of every farm in the county by 1940. Doubtless other counties have adopted a similar program, and where they have, the farmers who first cooperate will be that much ahead of their neighbors.

It is not necessary, however, to wait until there is a county-wide planning program, and the individual farm family, after all, must plan according to its own resources and abilities. Helpful bulletins can be had from the agricultural colleges on request, and they will repay careful study during these long winter nights when there is plenty of time to read and digest the information they supply.

County agents, vocational agriculture teachers, the Farm Security Administration will help those who wish to help themselves by planning ahead.

Negro Scientist Is Busy on Peanut Oil Paralysis Massage

DOTHAN, Ala.—Dr. Geo. Washington Carver, noted negro scientist, said Friday that three persons whom physicians declared would never walk because of infantile paralysis now are "playing football." He emphasized, however, that development of a peanut oil massage for paralysis victims still was in experimental stages.

Dr. Carver told a crowd here for the first national peanut festival that he had received more than 6,000 letters from paralysis victims asking whether they could visit him at his Tuskegee Institute laboratories since he started experimenting with the oils two years ago.

"I'm not a doctor of medicine," he said, "and tell them not to come to see me. When it is complete I will give it to the doctors, but first I must work out the facts."

Dr. Carver, who has developed many uses for the peanut and by-products, demonstrated milk, shampoo, vinegar, soap, beauty preparations, ink, powder, rubber and charcoal made from the lowly peanut or its shell. He estimated that more than 300 products had been made from the nut.

WHEN DISCOURAGED THINK OF LINCOLN

A national stamp manufacturer is using a type of advertising which is very effective to say the least. One piece of this advertising is so arranged as to catch any eye. It is written on Lincoln whose life was not exactly a bed of roses.

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man he ran for the Legislature in Illinois, and was badly swamped. He next entered business, failed, and spent 17 years of his life paying up the debts of a worthless partner. He fell in love with a beautiful young woman to whom he became engaged—then she died. Entering politics he ran for Congress and was badly defeated. He then tried to get an appointment to the United States Land office, but failed. He became a candidate for the U. S. Senate, but was badly defeated. In 1853 he became a candidate for the vice-presidency, and was again defeated. In 1858 he was defeated by Douglas. But in the face of all this defeat and failure, he eventually achieved the highest success attainable in life, and undying fame to the end of time.

STOP Coughing . and Stop It NOW

BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE certainly makes short work of relieving those stubborn old hang-on coughs and colds that other cough remedies fail to budge, according to Mr. H. A. Allen.

Mr. Allen says: "For years I suffered every winter with a terrible cough. I have had many sleepless nights and coughed until tears ran, and my stomach ached. I started again with the same old cough this year—but after a few doses of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE my cough was gone."

You can't go wrong on BUCKLEY'S—by far the largest-selling cough medicine in all cold Canada. One or two doses and stubborn tough hang-on coughs are often on their way. And it's only a few cents at drugists everywhere. Money back if not delighted.

Police Radio Station To Serve Panhandle Towns

The movement for a short wave police radio station, to serve law officers throughout the Panhandle of Texas, gained ground this week as county and city officials were signing affidavits not to petition the Federal Communications Commission for stations for the same wave length.

The City of Clarendon already has signed an affidavit and the county commission is expected to approve at the next meeting.

According to a letter by Ross Rodgers, Mayor of Amarillo, no county or city within the limits of the station will be requested for money. The only charge will be installation cost of automobile radios.

All were released but two who plead guilty to fighting.
