Christmas decor contest sponsored by Chamber

Christmas is a season for good cheer and celebration. This year the Chamber of Commerce is planning several activities to encourage the community to celebrate this special time together. Everyone can participate by decorating their homes to reflect the joy of the season. The Chamber is sponsoring a contest for the best decorated houses. There will be three categories, with a winner selected for each one: Most Beautiful, Most Original, and Best Religious Scene. It is not necessary to spend a large sum of money, but let your imagination and creativity go! In addition to these three awards, there will also be the "People's Choice." Everyone will have a chance to vote for this category. Judging will take place on Tuesday, December 17.

Everyone who wishes to participate in this event should pick up an entry form at the Chamber of Commerce office or call Patsy Leflew at 874-2421 for more information. We hope to see all Clarendon residents decorate their homes for Christmas to help make the season a special one for our community.

HARRY B. GARVIN

First Baptist Church to host Missions Conference

This Saturday and Sunday, November 23 and 24, the First Baptist Church will host a Missions Conference. The conference will begin Saturday evening with a Missions Banquet at 7:00. We want you to be a part of this conference. Give the church a call at 874-3833 and make your reservations for the banquet Saturday evening and then make plans to be with us in both services Sunday. There is no charge for the banquet but we do ask that you call so we will know how many to prepare for.

The speakers for this conference are Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Garvin, missionaries to Uganda. Harry Garvin was born in Anson, Texas. He is a graduate of Howard Payne College in Brownwood and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He pastored the Dixie Heights Baptist Church in Fort Worth before being appointed by the Foreign Mission Board for work in Uganda and Kenya in December 1969. He is stationed in Soroti, Uganda, where he served as mission chairman and church developer. Mrs. Doris Garvin was born in Hamby, Texas, and is a graduate of Howard Payne College and has completed some work at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. For the past 15 years they have served the Lord in Kenya and Uganda and only recently, due to political unrest, have returned to the states. They have sown their lives in that part of the world and now they are experiencing a great harvest of souls. This conference will be one of those great spiritual experiences which you will never forget so please plan to be with us Saturday night and Sunday.

First Baptist Church to show film

First Baptist Church will be showing a motion picture release of International Prison Ministry in Dallas, Texas, entitled, "Honey, Your Mama's in Prison."

The film is a unique look at the importance of the family and the tragedy of family break-up as seen through the eyes of mothers who have been imprisoned for murder, assault, trafficking in drugs, forgery, and embezzlement.

It was filmed inside one of the largest women's correctional facilities in the United States - Florida Correctional Institution, Lowell, Florida. The entire prison population of 650 inmates were involved in the making of the 45-minute documentary as were the officers and staff of the institution. Family members of some of the inmates were also interviewed.

International Prison Ministry, the producer of the film, is a non-denominational organization whose principal work is providing free Bibles and books to prisoners in over 6,000 prisons and jails in the United States and Canada.

The film is free to the public and will be shown at the First Baptist Church on Sunday, November 24, 5:00 p.m.

Funeral services held for Mrs. Ora Jane Aten

Funeral services for Mrs. Ora Jane Aten, age 84, were held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 19, 1985, in the Calvary Baptist Church with Rev. Gary Pinion, pastor, officiating. Interment was in Citizens Cemetery with the arrangements under the direction of Robertson Funeral Directors.

Mrs. Aten died at 12:15 p.m. on Sunday, November 17, 1985 at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. She was born on November 20, 1900 at Eastland, Texas and was married to the late Lamar Darrell Aten on June 5, 1923 at Los Angeles, Calif. He died in 1972. Mrs. Aten had been a resident of Donley County for over 60 years moving here from Uvalde, Texas. She was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Survivors include a daughters, Mrs. Chester (Betty) Scott of Amarillo, Texas; a son, L.D. Aten, Jr. of Victoria, Texas; a sister, Mrs. Cullen Rogers of Joshua, Texas; a brother, Jim Guy of Austin, Texas; four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Casket bearers were Dan Hall, Doyle Hall, J.C. Moffett, Tony Colburn, John Hall, and Craig Pillard. Honorary bearers were Curt Aten, Monty Aten, Garland Peek, and Clayton Lisenby.

Memorials are to be to the Scholarship Fund at the Calvary Baptist Academy.

Over 65 homeowners may postpone payment of property taxes

By simply filing a sworn affidavit with the Donley County Appraisal District, homeowners age 65 and over in Donley County can defer payment of property taxes on their homesteads.

If an elderly taxpayer has already been sued to collect delinquent taxes on his homestead, he can still take advantage of the "over-65 tax deferral" by filing an affidavit with the court in which the suit is pending.

Charles SoRelle, chief appraiser of the Donley County Appraisal District, explained that once an over-65 taxpayer properly files the tax deferral affidavit, state law prevents taxing units from initiating or pursuing delinquent tax suits on the homestead for as long as the applicant owns and lives at that property.

SoRelle said that elderly homeowners can obtain forms for the deferral affidavit at the Donley County Appraisal District office. The homeowner should fill out the form and have his signature witnessed by a notary public or other official authorized to take oaths, he added.

SoRelle stressed that tax deferral only postpones tax payments, it does not dismiss them. "Elderly homeowners should understand that the taxes, penalties and interest will continue to add up," he explained. "Once the homeowner no longer qualifies for the deferral -- that is, if he no longer owns or resides at that homestead -- all those deferred amounts must be paid. At that time taxing units may sue to collect the delinquent taxes, penalties and interest, and foreclose on the property."

More information is available by contacting the Donley County Appraisal District at the Courthouse Annex or by calling 874-2744.

Revival of Saints' Roost Sage

In the middle of the 1870's, a settlement was established on Carrol Creek in the Texas Panhandle. Its closest neighbors, Mobeetie and Tascosa, ridiculed Clarendon's Christian background and high standards with the nickname Saints' Roost. Ninety years later Virginia Browder wrote Saint's Roost Sage: A Historical Drama Under the Stars to tell of Clarendon's beginnings and development. The cast numbered 150, and participating in the "drama" provided memories for the actors and audience. Now as part of our Sesquicentennial observation, Miss Browder has given her permission to modify the presentation to an indoor state and a smaller cast. This presentation of Saint's Roost Sage under the direction of Leslie Schnauffer will be held December 3, 7 p.m. at Clarendon College's Harned Sisters auditorium. Whether or not you were part of the original show, don't miss this opportunity to review Clarendon's history. Admission will be $2 for adults and $1 for students. College students with ID's and the Celebrate Clarendon! class members will be admitted free. Mark December 3rd on your calendars for an evening of wholesome entertainment.

Taxpayers Bank-Roll Foreign Agriculture

Rep. Beau Boulter from the Texas panhandle has found out that through the World Bank, the American taxpayers support foreign farmers with zero interest loans so they can become more competitive with U.S. farmers.

And, he doesn't like it. Mr. Boulter is introducing the Foreign Agriculture Investment Reform Act which will require the Secretary of Treasury to instruct U.S. executive directors of international financing institutions to oppose loans for ag production of a commodity when

A) the commodity is already surplus on world markets and B) when the export injures U.S. producers/exporters of the same or similar or competing commodities.

Mr. Boulter's bill would also reduce the contribution to international financial institutes by an amount equal to the proportionate share of U.S. funds that went to countries which subsidize their ag exports or produce commodities for export into surplus markets.

Boulter's research showed that Communist China, for instance, received a $47 million zero interest 50-year loan for ag development from the World Bank for timber production. Other interesting World Bank loans were: China, $40 million, seed production; China, $25 million, 15 agrotech extension stations upgraded to help with food and cash crops, livestock and fisheries. Egypt: $139 million for rice production; $7 million, irrigation and water resource development; India, various loans in the amount of $200, $165, $150, $49, $39.1, $31.8, all in millions, for water, trees, rice, etc; Uruguay, $60 million to... "increase export (livestock) incentives."

Yugoslavia gets $40 million and $35 million to help "rural development," including roads, and improvement of forestry products.

How do you like them apples? Copied from American Agriculture Movement newspaper.

pionship Show.

Only 28 coveted world titles were awarded during the August 4-10 event, held at the Tulsa State Fairgrounds in Tulsa, Okla.

Miss Page bested 84 other competitors to claim the world champion honors in the hunt seat equitation and hunter under saddle classes.

Additionally, the duo claimed reserve world champion honors in western horsemanship, besting 80 entries, and placed sixth in western riding with 66 entries.

A total of 1,356 entries from 40 states and Canada participated in the 14th annual event, where prizes valued in excess of $40,000 were awarded. The Show was sponsored by Levi Strauss & Co.

The American Junior Quarter Horse Association (AJQHA) boasts 10,000 members, making it the world's largest youth horse organization. AJQHA is the youth division of the American Quarterhorse Association, headquartered in Amarillo.

The AJQHA World Champion Show agenda also included several social activities along with the annual convention. Committee meetings, the nomination of six national officers and other business was conducted during the August 4 convention.

Miss Page is a graduate of Pilot Point Selz High and the daughter of Dave and Sue Page. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Yankee and the great granddaughter of Mrs. Blanche Gray.

All you need to do is go into these stores and ask them to see their indoor specials. As you can see from the above list, these have been excellent bargains for your every day and Christmas shopping. Shop our Clarendon merchants first...

Cancer support initiates Christmas card sales

Cancer Support, Inc., a non-profit organization, is a group of volunteers who are business and professional leaders in the community. Each individual shares in the commitment of support for people with cancer and the people who care about them.

The purpose of the organization is to assist patients and their families with health care expenses and programs that are directed towards improving the patient's quality of life. The method for establishing and maintaining the finances needed to support the program is through the annual sale of Christmas cards.

This year, 1985, begins the third edition. The art design for the Christmas cards was provided by school children. A contest was held during November 1984, and the cards were displayed at the Harrington Cancer Center during the month of December. A panel of judges selected four winners. Each child whose card was chosen received an award of $100. Businesses and individuals also selected designs for exclusive cards. Each year a contest will be conducted to provide new art for the next edition of Christmas cards, and all Panhandle schools are invited to participate.

This program was initiated by local individuals who were aware and had participated in similar programs of Wadley Institute of Dallas and M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston. Both of these programs have been successful. M.D. Anderson sold one million cards in 1982.

The financial assistance provided by this program is available for all individuals who live in the Panhandle area and are treated in any of the Amarillo health care facilities or programs.

Cancer is a traumatic experience to every family it touches and the financial burden can be devastating. Today, cancer touches one out of every three families.

Your purchase of the Christmas cards provides the opportunity for you to share in helping your friends and family who may have cancer as well as enjoy sending the beautifully designed cards by children who have given their talents of love because they care.

The Christmas cards will be available through December from the Edith Ballew Circle of the First United Methodist Church of Clarendon.

For further information for purchasing the Caring Touch selections contact Freddie Jo Moreman 874-2071 or Doris White 874-3866.

Lilly Knox visited with Naomi Hinder at her home in Memphis. Lillian Peters drove Lilly down and back.

Mary Green was in Memphis for business Thursday. She visited with the Haskell Talleys.

Katherine Green was able to return home from the hospital Thursday. Her parents, the Charles Dunns, are with her and the children.

Jason visited his mother and Lori in Amarillo over the weekend. Rhonda came for him Friday and returned with him Sunday.

Christel Green celebrated her 10th birthday with a trip to Amarillo Saturday. She and her mother spent her birthday money and had lunch.

Naomi Green met Ellen Patterson at Vernon Sunday and picked up Stephanie, who came home with her for a few days.

Naomi said, "I nursed a sick baby Monday, and high winds took out her telephone Tuesday, and the only news is the Greens."

City receives sales tax revenue

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday sent checks totaling $115.2 million in local sales tax to the 1,010 cities that levy the one-percent city tax. November checks represent taxes collected on sales made in September and the third quarter and reported to Bullock by October 20th.

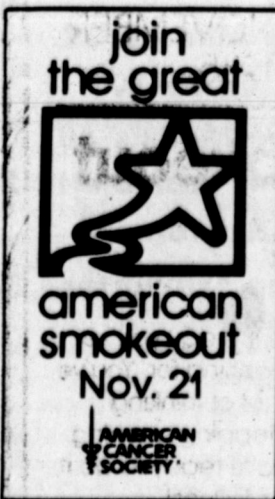

Collingsworth, Hall and Armstrong counties as well as Donley have shown a decline in sales during 1985. The counties are beginning to show signs of pulling out of the decline.

Armstrong County showed a 6.9% increase this reporting period. Wellington had a decline of .11%. Donley had a decline of 1.38% (Hedley -5.70%, Clarendon -1.24%, and Howardwick -14%). Hall County had an increase of 11.37%. This is partly due to increased revenue in Estelline of 46.77% (Lakeview -27.45%, Memphis 11.08%, Turkey -0.03%).

Cities in Donley County have received $91,686.69 for 1985. This compares to $92,971.90 for the same period last year.

Broken down into the cities revenue received this period Clarendon received $9,853.90 and same period last year was $9736.33; Hedley $1,260.65, 1984 $937.87; Howardwick, $1009.05, 1984 $560.71.

This is the first time in several months that the cities have received checks more than the same month the previous year.

This Land Is Your Land

Garry Mauro

Texas Land Commissioner

The Texas Legislature has taken a commonsense step towards efficient management of all the state's public land with passage of Senate Bill 43 creating the Asset Management Division of the Texas General Land Office.

Since the General Land Office currently maintains an automated inventory of all Permanent School Fund lands and those held by the State Boards of Lease agencies, this is the next logical step in managing all of Texas state lands, especially those not being put to their best and highest use.

The Texas Department of Corrections is one of those agencies whose lands have fallen under the General Land Office asset management umbrella and serves as a prime example of the intent of the new law.

The federal courts have ordered the TDC to build new prison units to meet federally mandated prison standards but, during these fiscally tough times, the TDC cannot afford to finance these new units.

However, TDC owns a great deal of land near Houston--6,000 acres--mostly being used as farm land. This large block of land lies directly in the path of development to the southwest of Houston near Sugar Land and could be better used for residential and industrial development.

This will be the first "test" of the General Land Office's new ability to assess other state properties for the concept we at the Land Office call the highest and best use of assets.

This property is to be sold at sealed bid auction, about 3,600 acres this year and the remainder next year, to raise money to purchase land and build new prison units to meet the federal court mandate. The General Land Office expects to raise at least $125 million this year for new prison units from land that is lying fallow or just being used for agricultural purposes--some of which is worth more than $3 per square foot.

By applying modern business techniques to inventory state land use, the General Land Office's new Asset Management Division can serve as a partial solution to the state's current fiscal crisis. By better utilization of the state's assets, we can keep Texas among the lowest per-capita in taxation.

All American Buckle Up

Whereas, motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of violent deaths for people between the ages of six and 50 in the United States--more than 50,000 in 1980, and 44,241 in 1984; and

Whereas, motor vehicle crashes account for ten times more fatalities than all other forms of transportation combined; and

Whereas, safety belts could prevent 40 to 50 percent of the traffic fatalities and reduce the number of serious injuries by 45 to 55 percent; and

Whereas, the use of safety belts and child safety seats are known to be the best defense against the drunk and drugged driver and;

Whereas, the current nationwide economic losses resulting from traffic crashes exceed $65 billion each year; and

Whereas, the All-American Buckle Up is a nation-wide challenge asking citizens to make safety a lifetime habit by using child safety seats and wearing their safety belt every time they get into a motor vehicle; and

Whereas, the All-American Buckle Up, designated for November 24-30, 1985, will give communities and organizations an opportunity to develop special programs to focus public attention on the utility of safety belts in saving lives; and

Whereas, the All-American Buckle Up provides the opportunity to increase safety belt usage in the United States;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the City of Clarendon will join in this important national event, and calls upon all citizens to establish a goal of always using occupant protection systems while traveling in motor vehicles.

Proclamation

Whereas, the Great American Smokeout is a lighthearted effort to encourage cigarette smokers to give up their habit for 24 hours on Thursday, November 21, and

Whereas, many smokers have indicated a willingness to participate in this event, and

Whereas, the health benefits of not smoking are substantiated and well-known, and

Whereas, there are additional civic benefits such as a reduction of the risks of accidental fire,

Now, therefore, I James L. Kuhn, Mayor of Clarendon, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 21, 1985 as the day of the Great American Smokeout in Clarendon, and in so doing urge all cigarette smokers in the community to demonstrate to themselves and their friends that they can quit if they wish.

In witness whereof, etc.

SUDDENLY EVERYONE AND HIS BROTHER WANTS TO BE YOUR BANKER.

Every day, someone else compares himself to a banker. Stockbrokers say they can manage your transactions like bankers. Savings & Loan people say they're able to give you financial counsel like bankers. But can they? No one else has the banker's hundreds of years of banking tradition. Bankers also have very special training in the management of people's money. That's why the only place you'll find a banker is The Bank. Look for the Full Service Bank* emblem. When others go so far to say they're like a banker, aren't you glad that the one helping you is a banker?

Watt's Happening in Hedley

by Peggy Watt

Bob and Jessie Roland spent the weekend in Amarillo. Their son Bobby had surgery in an Amarillo hospital Friday. I don't know how serious it was, but I think he's doing all right, or they would not have come home, and I noticed they were there when I came home from church Sunday night.

Etta Mae Cherry had a nice surprise this weekend. Her son Aubrey and Francis Cherry of El Paso were in Lubbock for a ballgame, and they came on to Hedley to visit with his mother. Her grandson Ricky and Audrea Cherry of Perryton met them here.

Woodrow and Ora Pearl Farris and grandson Otis were in Amarillo Saturday to visit with Woodrow's sister Ruth Davidson, who is in Northwest Texas Hospital where she had surgery recently. They visited with their other grandson Shane Farris while they were there.

Betty Gilchrest was in Lubbock for two days last week attending a postmaster's meeting. I understand it was a training session of some sort. I thought perhaps they were teaching her how to mishandle the mail, but she said not.

Royce and Thelma Hall of Clarendon visited with his brother D.K. and Beulah Hall last week. The ladies enjoyed lunch at the Senior Citizens Center, but their men folk stayed at home.

L.C. and June Johnson spent a weekend recently in Dallas with their children, the Kenneth Word family. I asked L.C. if they were coming for Thanksgiving, but he wasn't sure.

Jane Long visited in Memphis at the nursing home there. She visited with all the Hedley people who live there.

Ethel Klaslow is at home in the nursing home following a rather long stay in Hall County Hospital.

Nella Gamble was taken to Hall County Hospital Saturday. I didn't find out how bad she is. Hopefully she won't have to stay there too long.

Ruby McKee was in Clarendon last week and visited with her brothers Truett Behrens and Orgie Behrens and sister Mrs. B.C. Jones.

On Sunday, J.C. and Mary Upton, Casey and Tim visited with her mother Mrs. Ruby McKee. The Uptons live in Amarillo.

I talked to Nell Land a few days ago and she told me that her son-in-law and daughter Johnny and Edie Fisher were about ready to leave for Texas. They are in California disposing of some unessential belongings. They are in the process of moving to Hedley from California.

Mrs. Cassie Owens went to the doctor for a check up last week. Her son and daughter-in-law Doug and Kay Owens and Casey came Friday and took her and stayed until Sunday. How fortunate she is to have so many of her children close and willing to come and stay with her.

Sharon Wheatly was in Amarillo last week to attend a School Counselor's Workshop for financial aid for college bound students.

If you haven't noticed the new ramp at the Methodist Church, you must have been going around in a daze. There are a lot of people who worked on the ramp and even more who gave moral and verbal support to the project. Earl Morrow of Clarendon did the work of building the ramp and Hobart Moffitt donated the pipe for the hand rail and Bill Waddell welded the pipe to make the hand rail. I noticed that several people used the ramp at church Sunday morning worship services. It will really be an aid for those like myself who have trouble climbing the steps on the other side of the church. Actually, I have more trouble going down the steps than I do going up.

We held our annual charge conference at church to elect the board of officers for the church for the next year. Dr. Melton who is the District Superintendent of the Pampa District presided at the conference. I guess I have met Dr. Melton before, but I don't remember it. He is a fine preacher and in a few minutes preached as good a sermon as many I heard which took an hour to preach.

Murrell and Dorothy Whitaker celebrated Dorothy's birthday in Childress last week with their friends Bill and Ollie Drake. Murrell told me he didn't know how old Dorothy was, but I think he was afraid I'd put it in the newspaper. I wouldn't. Anyway, happy birthday Dorothy.

Clyde Hoggard had a birthday recently. So did Junior Gilchrest.

Sharon Wheatly will be having a birthday on November 22. I know how old she'll be. I told her once that I knew she was older than I am because she's a grandmother already and I'm not.

Jerry Holland was surprised with an early birthday party last week. Her brother Haskel Foster of New York and sister Drucilla McBrayer of Fort Worth will be leaving later this week, and they wanted to help her celebrate. Those attending the party were Buford, Darrell and Clara Holland, Stephanie, Calvin, Tanya, and Rhett; Glyndol and Kathy Holland and Lynn, Johnny and Gail Hill, Karen and Lisa; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Foster, Drucilla McBrayer, Haskel Foster, Kyndel Longan, Mark Maloy, and the birthday girl. Happy birthday Jerry.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Leon Foster had several visitors. His sisters and nieces from Clarendon, Borger and Amarillo all came. I've lost my list of notes somewhere between town and home so I don't remember their names. Sorry.

Mother went to Amarillo to the doctor last week. He told her to keep on doing as she's been doing and come back in six months.

I went to the doctor in Wellington last week and he gave me enough prescriptions to keep some pharmacist going for some time. Oh well, it could be worse. He could have told me to start taking a shot every day. I really don't think Fred is up to that.

HEDLEY SCHOOL MENU

November 25-27
Monday-Spaghetti meat sauce, green beans, tossed salad, cheese, apple, milk.
Tuesday-Beef stew, cheese strips, cornbread, crackers, pineapple, milk.
Wednesday-Hot dogs, chili, cheese, french fries, peanut butter cookies, milk.

If you haven't been down to the highway at last as far as the Giles turn off, you should do so. The trees along the creeks at Giles are absolutely gorgeous. They usually lose their leaves before they get really pretty, but this year the leaves are still there and are worth seeing.

The classes at school are busy taking their second six-weeks tests. It doesn't seem like it's been 12 weeks since school started, but it has.

The basketball season started Monday night as the junior high teams took on Kelton here. The boys won 32-17 and the girls lost by the same score.

The high school teams began their season Tuesday night by playing Clarendon at home. As I write this, I don't know how the games will turn out. Everyone wishes the teams and their coaches the best of luck. In both the ballgames and in the six-weeks tests. If they don't do good on their tests, they won't be eligible to play in the games.

HEDLEY SENIOR CITIZENS MENU

November 25-29
Monday-BBQ chicken, sweet potatoes, mixed vegetables, cabbage slaw with vin., roll, oleo, chocolate cake, milk, tea, coffee.
Tuesday-Burritos, chili with beans, french fries, lettuce-tomato salad, corn muffin, oleo, sliced peaches, milk, tea, coffee, juice.
Wednesday-Oven fried pork chops, northern beans, steamed turnip greens, jelled fruit cottage cheese salad, apricot cobbler, milk, tea, coffee, juice.
Thursday-Thanksgiving Day.
Friday-Salmon patties, french fries, steamed cabbage, carrot-raisin salad, butterscotch pudding, milk, tea, coffee, juice, corn muffin, oleo.

Hedley Reunion Banquet

The Hedley High School Ex-student committee announces the annual reunion banquet.

A buffet dinner will begin at 7 p.m. on November 30th, 1985 at the high school.

The class of 55 will host the event and invites you to fellowship with them in the afternoon from 2 to 4 just prior to the banquet.

Reports from Washington

THE FACTS OF DEFICIT REDUCTION

I'll be the first to agree that there are two sides to every coin, and that politics is mostly a matter of opinion. Sometimes, however, even politicians can't ignore facts, and those facts dictate which side of the coin is facing up.

Fact: the nation's budget deficit is the number one concern among the American people today.

Fact: a recent Lou Harris poll found that by an almost 2-to-1 ratio the American people support a mandatory deficit reduction plan introduced in the Senate by Texan Phil Gramm.

Fact: the Gramm/Rudman Emergency Deficit Reduction Program would balance this nation's budget by the year 1991.

Fact: the Gramm/Rudman Emergency Deficit Reduction Program was approved in the Senate by a vote of 75-to-24.

FICTION: the alternative deficit reduction plan submitted by House Democrats, and passed by the House of Representatives, is a fair and balanced approach to deficit reduction.

The Democrat alternative, which I voted against, has been labeled by some as "a masterful stroke of political work and a totally fraudulent proposal." I couldn't agree more. To garner support and come out looking like the good guys, the Majority plan exempts from any kind of budget cuts over 60% of the budget. It caters to special interests and starves our national defense.

By exempting so many programs from any reduction, while still claiming the ability to achieve major deficit reduction, the "alternative" decimates the programs that are left.

In effect, the pool of programs from which savings can be achieved is so small that in order to achieve the kind of across-the-board cuts required, those programs are slashed. The program total under the Democrats' plan is only half the size of the program total under Gramm/Rudman.

In other words, a $25 billion deficit reduction under the Democrats' alternative would require a 10% cut across-the-board, as opposed to a 5% across-the-board reduction required under Gramm/Rudman.

An example here may make this more clear. Veteran's Health Care. Because the Democrats' plan leaves only a few programs to be cut back, a $25 billion deficit reduction would produce a 10 percent cut in veterans' health care expenditures and the potential layoff of 19,400 Veterans Administration employees, 3,300 nurses, and 1,200 doctors. These reductions would probably mean the elimination of hospital care for 140,000 American veterans and the elimination of outpatient care to 400,000 veterans.

The long and short of this: Tip O'Neill and the House Democrat leadership want you to look at the side of the coin that says "we aren't going to touch these programs because they are good, worthwhile programs." But in fact, the side of the coin that needs to be facing up is the side that shows the programs which are left to be gutted. Over the next ten months the Democratic alternative calls for $30 billion worth of budget cuts — two-thirds of which would come straight from the defense budget just as our President leaves to try and negotiate an arms control agreement.

Fact: We've got to control government spending.

Fact: The Democratic alternative is not the way to do it.

Clarendon College Events

Coming events this week that involve Clarendon College students include: Friday, November 22, 4 p.m. Bulldogs meet Choise College in NMMI Tourney at Roswell; Weekend Lady Bulldogs play in Seward County Tourney; Sunday, November 24, all afternoon or until we get it right rehearsal for Saint's Roost Saga in auditorium; Tuesday, November 26, Intramural 3 on 3 basketball 6:30 in the gym; Wednesday, November 27, intramural turkey trot, 5 km. race at 1 p.m.

Intramurals enjoyed by large number of students

Clarendon College's athletic intramurals were kicked off Tuesday, November 12, with a men's faculty vs. student basketball game. The faculty team which was comprised of Ken Martin, James I. Edwards, Johnny Floyd, Kelvin Sharp, Joe Mondragon, and Dexter Irvin was never in danger of losing; Jerry Hawkins was the scorekeeper. Edwards expressed optimism for a successful outcome as long as "we can have free and frequent substitutions." With only a six man team, substitution was not as frequent nor as free as hoped, but some of the quarters went by very quickly; Jerry Hawkins also kept the clock. The student team which exhibited exemplary sportsmanship, respect for elders, and free and frequent substitution was composed of Trevor Peterson, Mike Leyba, Shawn Farrar, Richard Kiker, Clint Huff, Shane Wimberly, Lupe Reyna, Phil Garvin, Tim Bryant, Wayne Jiron, Phil McKinley, Delbert Hollis, Frank Sisneros, Ricky Rogers, John McKee and Jigger McKinley. Aretha "Peaches" Brown and Rocky Victor bravely officiated.

Immediately following the faculty vs. students fiasco, the first "for real" intramural game was played by the Clippers and the DLOs. The DLOs were Ricky Williams, Jigger McKinley, Jeff Detten, Mike Kennon, Kevin Vineyard, Ed Suthers, Frank Sisneros, Phil McKinley, Joe Wayland, Shane Wimberly, John McKee, Bob Macina, and Wayne Jiron. The winning Clipper team was led by Captain Ricky Rogers who led Jay Cartwright, Lupe Reyna, Mike Leyba, Clint Huff, Terry Pepper, Phillip Garvin, Trevor Peterson, and Shawn Farrar.

The college gym was the site Wednesday night for two more intramural basketball games. The Leftovers, Grady Myer, Tim Harbin, Don Birkenfeld, Troy Skarke, Kevin Cansler, Curtis Allen, Mark Kleman, and Pat Lenz, were defeated 34-44 by Jerry's Kids. Lance Caviness, Shawn Farrar, Robert Meadows, LeRoss Apple, Warren Metzger, Earl Broesh, Richard Kiker, Tim Bryant, and Craig Aycock were clearly the winners according to officials Jay Cartwright and Phillip Garvin.

The women's teams, The Mad Dogs and The Outsiders, played a game much closer than the final score indicated. Mary Dowd and Keyla Waters led the scoring for The Outsiders in the 37-27 victory. Other Outsiders are Jennifer Estep, Tracie Ross, Michelle Conally, Audrey Holman, Alma Harris, and Nancy Lenz. Kye Grau and Tiki Jackson were high point for the Mad Dogs, and other MDs were Gwenna Gudgell, Lyssa Brooks, Connie Schollenbarger, Missy McKinley, and Carol Brandenberger. The official and always exciting officials were Sticks Davis and Tim Lee Moore.

Coaches Mondragon and Irvin expressed surprise at the high level of skill in these intramurals. Most of these players played basketball in junior high and/or high school in a small town school where they got plenty of play time. And they still retain a love of the sport while now being involved in judging teams or drama or straight academic subjects. Intramurals are an excellent opportunity for students to work off tension and energy, get acquainted with other students and be an active part of the college extracurricular. The next games will start November 19 at 6:30.

Senior Citizens News

Everything is running pretty much on normal right now. Been having good attendance at Monday night dance practice. Didn't have very many out for the second Tuesday dance last week. The threat of cold weather could have been a factor. Those that were present had a good time.

Board of Directors met in regular session on Wednesday, November 13th with all members present but one. Members of the Board elected to keep the same officers as last year: President-Robert C. Jones; Vice President-J. Creed Smith; Secretary-Murle Butts. Jean Baten, director, recommended the travel expense article of the current personnel policies be changed to eliminate additional bookkeeping. The Board elected to make this change effective on November 13, 1985. Next meeting will be on December 11, 1985 at 12 noon. Had five tables busy on game night, Thursday, November 14th. Have room for more -- get your group together and come on down.

Missed some of our locals at jam session Friday, November 15th. Thanks to the following for making it a real good session for about twenty listeners: Clyde Hoggard, J.B. Yates, Johnny Hancock, Jack Davidson, Fred Fortenberry, Carrol Thompson and I helped a little.

We will have our Thanksgiving dinner at the Center this Thursday, November 21st. Come and enjoy this dinner with us. The Center will be closed for the Thanksgiving holidays on Thursday and Friday, November 28 and 29, 1985. For all you lovely people that always call to see what is wrong, I won't have an article in next week's paper as I plan to be gone for a few days. The menu and calendar of events will be there. Have a nice holiday and be thankful for all we have.

Don't forget to look for the Senior Citizens Arts & Crafts table at the Christmas in November Bazaar on Saturday, November 23rd at the community building. They have so many beautiful things to sell. Sometime during the day they will have the drawing for the quilt. Tickets will be available at the table.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

November 21-27
 Thursday-Exercise 11 a.m., Thanksgiving dinner, game night 6 p.m.
 Friday-Exercise 11 a.m., musical jam session 7 p.m.

Lelia Lake Community Center

Lelia Lake Community Center will have a covered dish supper Saturday, November 23, 7 p.m.

Girl Scout activities

Clarendon Girl Scouts Shannon Myers, Andrea Edwards, and Lynn Wiggs earned the Atomic Energy Merit Badge sponsored and directed by Pantex of Amarillo.

Three girls from Quivira Council were on the "A" team, made up of the top two students in each class. They were Shannon Myers and Andrea Edwards of Clarendon and Marty Boatman of Canadian.

Approximately 320 boys, girls, adults, and instructors participated in the merit badge seminars which were held for four Saturdays in October. There were classes, lab work requirements, homework assignments and passing of required tests in order to qualify for the merit badge. The climax of the work was an AFMRS Test in Albuquerque and Los Alamos, New Mexico in which Shannon Myers and Andrea Edwards of Clarendon and Ginny Boatman of Canadian participated.

The group left Amarillo early Friday morning, November 1 and proceeded to Kirland Air Base. There they visited the National Atomic Museum, the Weapons Museum at Sandia and several classified areas. After lunch they visited Old Town in Albuquerque.

The night was spent at the Air Base and the next morning, after breakfast at the NCO mess hall, the group went to the Los Alamos Museum, several classified areas and to observe demonstrations at the rifle range before returning to Amarillo.

WORD FROM WASHINGTON

Retiring a Plan

Congress is considering ending or curtailing a popular retirement savings plan. It's known as 401(k), named for a section of the Internal Revenue Code. The plan is offered by employers for their employees.

Many companies help their workers save for retirement. The government wants to make it harder, by eliminating or restricting 401(k) plans.

Participating workers can elect to defer receiving a portion of their salary and instead contribute the amount to the plan. Money put into a 401(k) is not included in the employees' income during their working years. The tax on the contribution is deferred until the money is withdrawn, usually at retirement, when a person's income is lower.

Employers often match employee contributions wholly or partially, or provide other incentives to encourage broad participation in a plan, according to the American Council of Life Insurance.

These plans have become extremely popular in recent years. The Department of Labor estimates 80 percent of the nation's 1,000 largest companies already have or are planning to introduce 401(k) plans. Where plans exist, 81 percent of the workers participate.

Some people say eliminating or curtailing the plans discourages people from saving for the future, and will increase the strain on the Social Security system and other government services as these people retire.

Interest in model railroading as a hobby began after the Chicago World's Fair of 1933-34. Model railroad exhibits at the fair spurred this interest.

Chamber News

Chamber of Commerce officials from across West Texas convened in Canyon on Thursday for a leadership and personnel workshop at WTSU's east dining hall. The meeting was sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Local Action Committee.

The half day meeting was designed to increase skills and effectiveness of Chamber members and leaders.

Mike Skagg, executive vice president for the Hurst-Eudless-Bedford Chamber of Commerce was the featured speaker at the luncheon. Michael Lawson, executive vice president for the Wichita Falls Board of Commerce and Industry, and Larry Milner, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce executive, also appeared on the program.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is the largest regional chamber in the nation with a service area that extends from Arlington to El Paso and Dalhart to Del Rio. It was founded in 1918 and is headquartered in Abilene.

The Clarendon-Donley County Chamber of Commerce is a member of the WTCC and Patsy Leffew, Chamber Manager, attended this informative and worthwhile meeting.

DPS cautions drivers for holidays

Major V.J. Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety said, "With Thanksgiving approaching many families are thinking about the traditional family reunion with turkey dinner and all the trimmings, but for many, this occasion will end in tragedy because of a traffic accident."

Statistics indicate at least 50% of these accidents will be attributable to the drunk driver. One or two beers may not make a person drunk, but consuming any amount of alcohol will increase that person's odds on having an accident. Add a little speed with these drinks and the results are tragic.

"Almost 98% of all people killed in traffic accidents were not wearing seat belts. Approximately 25% of the deaths and 80% of all injuries could have been prevented if people would just use their seat belts," Major Cawthon stated.

Major Cawthon concluded by saying, "If the motoring public would use seat belts, child restraints, reduce their speed and not drink and drive, this would go a long way toward keeping this Thanksgiving a pleasant one."

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q. I have a commercial driver's license and drove a tractor trailer for several years. Can I move my own mobile home across the country, or do I need a special license?

A. If you have a valid commercial operators license, it is legal for you to transport your own mobile home across country. The drivers license laws changed January 1, 1984. There are now new designations. You need a "Class A drivers license" to operate all the vehicles you could previously drive with a commercial license. The Texas Department of Public Safety supervises licensing. You can call the nearest office for information.

Q. Last year my Social Security benefits were discontinued because I had made too much money and had not filed an annual report. I did not know I had to do such a thing. What am I to do? Why was I not informed I was making too much money?

A. You must make an annual report to the Social Security Administration when your earnings exceed $175 multiplied by the number of months in your taxable year. If you fail to make such a report, you can be penalized and your benefits discontinued unless you can show good cause for failure to report. Before this could happen, however, you would have been advised of the penalty and given an opportunity to explain you were confused about the requirements, or did not understand them. Apparently you are not being penalized, but benefits are discontinued because of your earnings.

Q. We have a sizable estate, but no will. Some of my husband's insurance policies are made out to his estate. Who will get this money?

A. If you would hire an attorney to prepare wills, your insurance would be reviewed and corrected. The owner of an insurance policy can direct the proceeds to any beneficiary he chooses. Insurance should be planned partly according to the survivor's needs and partly to satisfy tax requirements in a large estate. In many cases, it is wisest to cancel insurance, but only an estate planner could help you make this decision. Your attorney together with your insurance agent and your accountant can help you make decisions that will save the estate major payments and prevent uncertainty and expense for the survivor.

Q. Before our divorce, my ex-husband and I set up a custodial account at the bank for our grandson. This money was to be invested until the child grew up, and all interest was reported on the child's Social Security number. At the time of the divorce, the judge awarded the money to my husband. How could the judge do this?

A. The answer depends on the terms of the deposit agreement with the bank. If you and your husband were holding the money informally, as trustees or co-signers, you still owned the account. Therefore, the Court can and must divide the fund as part of the marital estate.

If the money was actually given to the child, then your husband was only awarded the right to manage it, not take it as his own.

Send your questions to "You and the Law," State Bar of Texas, P.O. Box 12467, Austin, 78711. Answers may appear in columns in hypothetical terms; personal answers not possible.

RETAILERS TARGET TEEN DRINKING

When Congress raised the drinking age to 21 last year, Congressmen knew that alcohol retailers would have to play a major role for the law to be successful.

To meet that challenge, the National Association of Convenience Stores (NACS), representing the 57,000 store industry, has launched a two part campaign to prevent alcohol sales to minors.

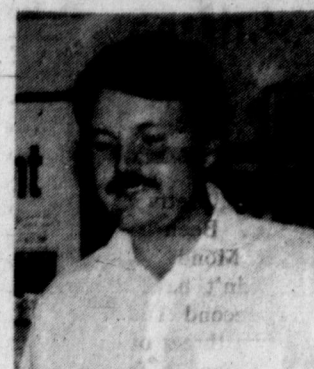

A sophisticated program called Techniques of Alcohol Management will train clerks how to spot false IDs and to refuse illegal sales.

A communications program will reinforce public awareness of the legal drinking age and the retailers determination to uphold it. Clerk buttons and beer cooler decals say "ID Please, 21's the LAW." Different ages are available for states not yet in compliance with the federal requirement. A decal "ID Please, It's my JOB" is a message from clerks to customers.

QUICK QUIZ

How much do you know about ways to save for retirement? Taking this little test can help you tell.

1. If a working person invests money for his or her retirement through a plan known as 401(k), the money is (a) tax deferred; (b) taxed twice; (c) tax free?
2. Employers usually contribute to which of the following: (a) Personal savings account; (b) 401(k); (c) IRA?
3. There are proposals to do away with which retirement plan: (a) IRA; (b) 401(k); (c) Keogh?

ANSWERS

1. (a) The money is invested directly from a person's pay and is not taxed until it is withdrawn, usually when the worker retires and is in a lower tax bracket. 2. (b) Many companies contribute toward their workers' retirement income by putting money into their 401(k) plans. This plan allows larger contributions than IRAs, explains the American Council of Life Insurance. 3. (b) The government is proposing, as part of tax reform, to eliminate 401(k) plans, or severely restrict contributions to them. Some people think the government may have to pay out more when workers retire if they're not allowed to save for that time now.

The rate of energy consumption in the U.S. slowed during the 1970's.

Six youth vie for honors at District 4-H Food Show

Area 4-H'ers will vie for top honors when 160 youth from 20 surrounding counties compete at the District 4-H Food Show December 7 in Dumas, Texas.

Exhibits of food entries will be on display for the public from 1:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. at Dumas High School. The awards program will begin at 1:30.

Entrants from each county in senior and junior divisions will seek top honors and senior winners will earn a slot in the state contest set for June.

Both divisions feature four entry classes, which are main dish, fruits and vegetables, breads and cereals and nutritious snacks and desserts.

District contestants won first place in their county contests. Six Donley County youth will be among the contestants. Competing for senior division top places will be Chris Leathers in the Nutritious Snacks and Desserts category and Lesia Fuston in the Main Dish category.

In the junior division will be Christie McAnear in Fruits and Vegetables, Laura McAnear in Main Dish, Kimberly Wootton in Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, and Kimberly Altman in Breads and Cereals.

Judging will focus on knowledge of nutrition, meal planning, food buying and meal service -- along with the ability to prepare food.

District 4-H Food Show is sponsored each year by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System, and The Morrison Milling Company of Denton, Texas.

Participants of the Donley County Food Show were as follows: Seniors - Chris Leathers, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Blue Ribbon; Lesia Fuston, Main Dish, Blue Ribbon; Juniors - Christie McAnear, Fruits and Vegetables, Blue Ribbon; Laura McAnear, Main Dish, Blue Ribbon; Kimberly Altman, Breads and Cereals, Blue Ribbon; Kimberly Wootton, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Blue Ribbon; Mandy Floyd, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Blue Ribbon; Price Nixon, Fruits and Vegetables, Blue Ribbon; Trina Judd, Fruits and Vegetables, Blue Ribbon; Kim Hodges, Fruits and Vegetables, Red Ribbon; Julie Altman, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Red Ribbon; Kim Stavenhagen, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Red Ribbon; Jennifer Thornton, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Blue Ribbon; Sheri Hall, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Blue Ribbon; Amanda Ward, Breads and Cereals, Red Ribbon; Katrina Leathers, Breads and Cereals, Red Ribbon; Michael McKinney, Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Red Ribbon.

Two 4-H'ers winning special awards were: Matt Drager, Best Chef, and Amanda Ward, Rookie of the Year.

Congratulations to each 4-H'er for doing an excellent job!

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. Johnston:

The Canyon Long Term Care Unit survey team visited Medical Center Nursing Home, Highway 70 North, Clarendon, Texas, on July 23, 1985. I am pleased to report there were no health deficiencies noted in your facility.

The Texas Department of Health commends you and your staff in your efforts to provide the highest quality care for the elderly and infirm in your community.

It is significant that you have met the standards that were set in State and Federal regulations. This indicates that with diligence and dedication better care can be given.

Thank you for the opportunity to write this congratulatory letter.

Sincerely,
Robert Bernstein, M.D., F.A.C.P.
Commissioner of Health

Last week in my article I began to discuss the difference between the public school philosophy of education (Progressive Education) and the Christian school philosophy of education (traditional education). We discussed last week what we meant by the term Traditional Education. This week I want to briefly define the term Progressive Education before making a comparison of the two philosophies.

The term "Progressive Education" is a misnomer and it is misleading. Proponents of this philosophy, which incidentally includes practically everyone in public and private education today, would lead you to believe that all other educational philosophies are regressive, and that the only true progress lies within progressive education. The fact of the matter is that progressive education was wrong from the beginning and it has grown "progressively worse." You will understand what I mean as we look at a brief history of both philosophies.

It may come as a surprise to some that the very first public and private schools in our country had a traditional approach or philosophy of education. Harvard, Yale, Andover Newton to name a few were fundamental in theology, and they were traditional in their educational philosophy. They were in business to train preachers and these preachers were some of the first teachers in our public school system. What did they teach?

It may come as a surprise to some that the very first public and private schools in our country had a traditional approach or philosophy of education. Harvard, Yale, Andover Newton to name a few were fundamental in theology, and they were traditional in their educational philosophy. They were in business to train preachers and these preachers were some of the first teachers in our public school system. What did they teach? They did teach the academic subjects but more importantly they taught the Bible!

It is enlightening to look at some of the old text-books that were used in our public schools even fifty years ago. It won't take long to realize that most of the educators of years past recognized two foundational principles of traditional education: the sinful nature of man and the absolute authority of faith and practice of the Word of God. This approach to education was not known at that time as "traditional." However, in the light of the Bible and good common sense, it was the right and effective approach to learning and it aided in producing a high quality of character among our citizens.

The Bible has not changed; it is still the same. If you look hard enough you can still find folks who have some good common sense. The traditional philosophy of education will work today, and indeed it is working today in Christian schools across America. It is producing the good educational foundation and character training for our students that progressive education can never give.

The very heart of the traditional philosophy of education is based on four very important principles.

1. Traditional education is God centered.
2. Traditional education is authoritarian in its approach.
3. This results in good Scriptural discipline and
4. Godly character training.

All these combine to set the stage for an excellent education.

What are some of the things that you learn through the traditional philosophy of education? Just to list a few:

You learn the Bible. You learn that God created. You learn the worth of your soul. You master the 3 R's and other subjects. You sit up straight and pay attention. You learn that it is not right to cheat. You learn to recite when called upon. You learn honor and respect for your parents. You learn that a man's word is his bond. You learn that a job worth doing is worth doing well. You learn personal initiative. You learn pride in America. You learn that the free enterprise system is still the best system. You learn that competition is healthy.

This list is by no means complete. It serves, however, to illustrate the fact that the strength and greatness of America was not an accident, but that it was the direct result of fundamental theology and a traditional philosophy of education. The two go hand in hand.

Progressive education - a brief history, next week!

Construction to be let on 287 between Hedley and Clarendon

Rehabilitation of the northbound lanes on U.S. Highway 287 between Clarendon and Hedley was approved recently by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission, according to Childress District Engineer Lewis H. White of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

The 12.9 mile project is part of a major rehabilitation program to improve more than 1,000 miles of statewide roadways. Nearly $306 million in State funds will be spent on the projects, most of which will be completed within the next year.

Planned improvements on U.S. 287 in Donley County include rehabilitation of the existing base, strengthening with additional base, and resurfacing with hot mix asphaltic concrete. Only the northbound lanes of the divided four-lane highway are scheduled for rehabilitation in the approved program of work.

"We plan to let the work to contract in February of 1986," White said.

Cost of the schedule improvements is estimated to be $3,600,000.

Rabbits are rarely found deep in forests. They prefer places where bushes or clumps of tall grass are available for hiding.

Christmas Preview

Yes folks, it's Christmas time again. Seems like each year it comes around faster than the year before. The Chamber of Commerce has lots of activities planned to make this Christmas season ring with a little more spirit and brush away the baugh-humbugs from your mind.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE DECEMBER 1

Kicking off the Christmas season will be the lighting of the Community Christmas Tree on the courthouse lawn. Lighting is being obtained on a donation basis. If you have any outdoor lights you would like to donate please bring them to West Texas Utilities. If you have any questions contact Jim Sharrar 874-2666 or Jerry Chambliss 874-3564.

COMBINED CHOR

The area churches will have a combined choir entertaining with all your favorite Christmas carols. Anyone needing further information should contact Bill Hodges 874-2321 or Paul Heil 874-3833.

DOOR PRIZES There will be a drawing for door prizes which are being donated by area businesses. You will sign up that evening and must be present to win. Anyone wishing to make a door prize donation should contact Helen Woody at 874-2259. Door prizes will need to be wrapped and the business identified on the inside.

REFRESHMENT STANDS

There will be refreshment stands set up serving free hot chocolate, hot coffee, hot cider, popcorn, baked goods and lots of other good stuff to keep you warm inside. Any club or organization wishing to participate by setting up one of these booths should contact Stacy Mooring at 874-3142.

SANTA

Santa Claus will be on hand with lots of things for the children. Alpha Upsilon Epsilon will be furnishing Santa and his helpers for this evening. Anyone wishing to help with the Santa should contact Judy Bland at 874-2445.

LATE NIGHT SHOPPING

The late night shopping will be on the first three Thursdays in December. The dates are December 5, 12, and 19. The area businesses are in the process of lining up the activities for these evenings. Businesses having ideas or suggestions should contact Jim or Kathy McElroy 874-3443.

CHRISTMAS DECORATION CONTEST

This year there are a couple of new things we have incorporated into our Christmas kickoff. There will be a contest for the best decorated businesses. There will be three plaques awarded to this category. The judging will be done during late night shoppers evening December 12. Entry forms are available by contacting the Chamber office 874-2421. There will also be a contest for the best decorated houses. This will be judged Tuesday evening, December 17. There will be three prizes for this category. Entry forms are available by contacting the Chamber of Commerce office 874-2421. Let's all get a big dose of Christmas spirit and get out the ladders and the lights and decorate our houses and yards. Get out and drive around and pick out your favorites.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AFFAIR

If you have anything you would like to do for this festive evening please contact Patsy Leflew at 874-2421. We would like to see the clubs and organizations as well as businesses and individuals get involved in this worthwhile project. If you have a skit or program we will be glad to include you in this community service affair.

SHOP LOCALLY

Keep in mind this season that your area businesses are good people serving good neighbors, that's what community shopping is all about. Shop your local stores where you find a variety of merchandise and services and where the Christmas feelings are alive year 'round.

Betty Muse would like to invite you to

QUICK QUIZ

Know what you're drinking: That's the message you might get from taking this short quiz.

Questions: 1. Typical servings of beer, wine and liquor: (a) contain the same volume of liquid; (b) vary in alcohol content; (c) are equal in alcohol content.

2. If you're trying to lose a few pounds, or like to watch your weight generally you should (a) switch from beer to wine; (b) switch from liquor to wine; (c) count your calories.

3. To slow down the effect of alcohol: (a) drink more slowly; (b) eat something substantial beforehand; (c) snack while you drink.

Answers: 1. (c) Typical servings of beer, wine, and liquor contain equal amounts of alcohol. A 12-ounce bottle or can of beer, a 5-ounce glass of wine, and a drink containing 1 1/4 ounces of liquor all have about the same amount of pure alcohol: 0.5 ounces.

2. (c) If you're watching your weight, count your calories. According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's measure, a five-ounce glass of wine contains about 114 calories, a bottle of regular beer about 148, and 1 1/4 ounces of spirits, 88 calories.

3. (a,b,c) Drinking slowly, eating beforehand, and snacking as you drink all slow down the effects of alcohol. On average, the body needs about one hour to burn off any typical drink, whether beer, wine or liquor. The best way to slow the absorption of alcohol into your bloodstream is to eat something substantial—preferably food high in fat and protein—15 to 20 minutes before you drink, and keep eating while you drink.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT EFFECT ON THE ENVIRONMENT AND NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS

City of Clarendon

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

On or about December 9, 1985, the above-named City of Clarendon will request the Texas Department of Community Affairs to release Federal funds under Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 as amended, to be used for the following project: Activity - Water Line Improvements/ Fire Protection Improvements and Sanitary Sewer Improvements. Texas Community Development Program - Contact No. S705869. Project to be located in the City limits of Clarendon, Donley County, Texas. A more detailed description of the project and a map showing the specific locations of the proposed improvements is available for public examination at City Hall, 119 Sully Street.

Finding of No Significant Impact It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the above-named City of Clarendon has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

The reasons for such decisions not to prepare such Statement are as follows: WATER AND SEWER FACILITIES - Health and safety hazards currently exist due to inadequate fire protection and improper sewage disposal. The proposed project should eliminate those health and safety hazards. Construction activities will produce certain amounts of air and noise pollution, however, the effects will be short term and low intensity.

An Environmental Assessment respecting the within project has been made by the above-named City of Clarendon which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Assessment is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request in the office of the City Secretary between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Public Comments on Finding All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the City of Clarendon, to the office of the undersigned. Such written comments should be received at City Hall on or before December 6, 1985. All such comments so received will be considered and the City of Clarendon, will not request the release of Federal funds or take any administrative action on the within project prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

Release of Funds The City of Clarendon will undertake the project described above with Community Development funds from the Texas Department of Community Affairs under Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The City of Clarendon is certifying to TDCA that the City of Clarendon and James L. Kuhn in his official capacity as Mayor consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental assessments, decision making and action; and that those responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval the City of Clarendon may use the Texas Community Development Program funds and TDCA will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

Objections to State Release of Funds Texas Department of Community Affairs will accept an objection to its approval only if it is on one of the following basis: (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the certifying officer or other officer of applicant approved by TDCA; or (b) that applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision finding or step applicable to the project in the environmental review process. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure [24 CFR Part 58.75] and may be addressed to Texas Community Development Program, Texas Department of Community Affairs, 8317 Cross Park Drive, P.O. Box 13166, Capital Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Objections to the release of funds on basis other than those stated above will not be considered by TDCA. No objection received after December 27, 1985 will be considered by TDCA. The Chief Executive Officer of the City of Clarendon is James L. Kuhn, Mayor. 47-1c

Congressman Beau Boulter Reports from Washington

PRO-FAMILY TAX PLAN NEEDED

I like the idea of tax reform. I think most of the people in the 13th District of Texas would like to see simpler, fairer taxes. And I was originally a strong supporter of the President's plan for tax reform, revised in June.

Since then, however, the meddling, and weasling, and readjusting hands of the Congress have worked their will on tax reform. Although no final product has been reported out of the tax writing Ways and Means Committee, there is strong suspicion that it won't be the type of pro-family, fair plan that I originally supported. The President's plan has become tax "deform" rather than reform.

In fact, this week I have signed a letter to President Reagan, asking him to abandon the tampered-with Tax Plan, and start from the very beginning.

The most damaging change that has been discussed in the Ways and Means Committee would lower the personal exemption from $2000 to $1500. This was probably the best aspect of the President's tax plan, and is certainly not one that should be tampered with.

A higher personal exemption is clearly a pro-family kind of tax reform.

There is also much talk coming out of the Committee to raise the proposed maximum 35% tax rate to 40%, and to push the other rates (15% and 25%) up as well. By pushing people into higher tax brackets, the Democrat's proposal will only serve to stifle savings and investment. In short, the bill threatens to inhibit the kind of economic growth that is essential to a strong economy.

Actions by the committee in areas such as depreciation, the corporate rate structure, and capital gains treatment indicate that, once again, the Democrats are taking an approach geared more toward redistribution of income than encouraging growth.

In light of all this, the letter which I have signed asks the President to abandon the committee bill so that we can rededicate ourselves to genuine pro-growth and pro-family tax reform.

Tax reform is a worthy cause, and I stand ready to fight for good, fair tax reform policies. But as it was stated in the letter to the President, we, the signers, "do not believe that this historic opportunity should be bargained away with a party more interested in appeasing special interest groups than in strengthening families."

The last pole of the transcontinental telephone line, linking the east and west coasts was erected in 1915.

THEN NOW!

American Democracy In Action

(Left) November 26, 1789, was a day set aside to celebrate the adoption of the United States Constitution. (Right) This November, American democracy is once more in action as we share expertise and technology with the African nation of Cameroon.

November is a notable month in the history of democracy. In November, 1777, the Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union, uniting the states under a common government were adopted by the Continental Congress and submitted to the states for ratification. November 26, 1789, was another special day in American history: President George Washington set this date aside as a day of national thanksgiving for the adoption of the United States Constitution.

November, 1985, may well someday be considered another landmark date in the history of democracy. Representatives from the Trade Commission of Cameroon, an independent republic in Africa, will be in the United States to buy American products and technology in an effort to strengthen their economy. The mission is led by minister of Industry and Commerce, Minister Ongolo. The Cameroonians are seeking to diversify their sources of raw materials and equipment and to benefit from US expertise in various areas of business and marketing. Several joint Cameroonian and American investment projects are expected, involving the dairy, housing and natural gas industries, among others.

Many Americans welcome the visit by the Cameroon Trade Mission. The Cameroonians want to buy American—and that means more exports and a more favorable trade balance. That's good news for our economy and may mean more jobs will be made available in many industries.

A free booklet describes the Cameroon economy; important demographics and geography. Write: Cameroon Trade & Investment Mission, c/o van Kloberg & Associates, 1100 17th Street, NW Suite 1000, Washington, D.C., 20036 or call (202) 463-2820. Telex: WASH-IPC 89-2580.

The reason there are so many surnames of Smith today is that during the Middle Ages the name was used for all metalworkers, or smiths, which means "to beat."

YAC readies Clarendon for Great American Smokeout

Members of YAC (Youth Against Cancer) met November 12 to finalize plans for Clarendon's Great American Smokeout, held in conjunction with the national event on Thursday, November 21. The group coordinated plans in the grade school as well as in town to encourage caring people to "adopt" smoking friends for 24 hours on smokeout day.

Members of YAC are to assemble survival packets which are to be distributed at Bivens Pharmacy and Gibson's Discount Center. A goal of distributing 100 survival kits was set, and the group broke into two teams with the conviction that the team that passes out the most material will be treated to a hamburger supper by the opposing team.

Individual members volunteered to present programs to Clarendon school children in grades kindergarten through fifth in order to stress the hazards of smoking. Fifth graders are being asked to send a greeting card to a smoking relative or friend. Fourth grader students will be given a short pamphlet entitled, "Huff n' Puff," a short story in which the wolf loses because he smokes and does not have enough breath to blow down the house. All other students are to receive the "Kiss Me I Don't Smoke" frog sticker.

The group concluded their meeting with plans for YAC to "adopt" their favorite smoker.

Women to be a special focus in Great American Smokeout

The Great American Smokeout is aimed at all smokers, but this year, because of a grim "First" expected to occur in 1985, women are a special focus of the event. According to the latest annual estimates announced by the American Cancer Society, lung cancer is expected to overtake breast cancer as the leading cancer killer of women for the first time in U.S. history.

National Smokeout Chairman Larry Hagman, who is serving his fifth consecutive term as the event's leader, urges everyone to make a particular effort this year to reach women who smoke -- from the very young to the very old. "We've got to put a stop to this unnecessary waste of lives," says Hagman.

The American Cancer Society estimates that between 1950 and 1982, the lung cancer death rate rose 373% for white women and 335% for non-white women. If lung cancer statistics are excluded, death rates for all other cancers fell 16% for white women and 14% for non-white women.

Firebelles has meeting

The Clarendon Firebelles held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, November 12 at Clarendon College.

Darlene Spier introduced Onita Thomas who presented a very informative talk and film on breast cancer and self-examination. We would like to thank Onita for an interesting program.

After the program JoDee Mincey, president, called the meeting to order. Minutes from the previous meeting were read and approved. Everyone was reminded we need to be selling tickets for the TV to be given away December 19.

Also discussed was donating kitchen items for the new kitchen being built at the fire station by the firemen. We also discussed the volleyball tournament to be held in February and our Christmas dinner with the firemen.

Members present were Debbie Hollan, Connie Pitts, JoDee Mincey, Darlene Spier, Wanda Smith, Connie McAnear, Tammy Taylor, Debbie Blackburn, Neva Spier, Molita Greer, Edie Robertson, Annette Osburn, guests Onita Thomas and Dawn McAnear.

The Firebelles' next meeting will be December 10 at Molita Greer's. They will hold election of officers.

The Clarendon-Donley County Chamber of Commerce will be taking $1.00 donations on this Texas Sesquicentennial Winchester Commemorative Carbine. The carbine is to be given away May 22, 1986 when the Wagon Train arrives. You do not have to be present to win. To purchase a donation ticket contact the Chamber of Commerce office 874-2421 or the Clarendon Press 874-2259.

This Model 94 Winchester Carbine in 38-55 caliber has an 18 1/2" barrel with gold plated barrel bands and receiver. The receiver is roll engraved with scenes from Texas history and from the present with original engraving done by Genovelli of Italy, master engraver known worldwide for his unique skill. The rear-sight is partridge and the front sight is post. The Carbine style stock and fore-end are satin finished select walnut checkered with a unique spade pattern.

This Texas Sesquicentennial Winchester Commemorative Carbine is the first ever made in this caliber and barrel length even though the 38-55 was one of the original 94 calibers. The gold plated medallion embedded in the butt-stock shows the Winchester Wagon being pulled four-up by mules and has 1936-TEXAS-1986 and SESQUICENTENNIAL outlines along with the Texas Sesquicentennial and The Texas Wagon Train logos.

Etched in gold on the barrel near the receiver is "1936-TEXAS-1986" adding to the collectability and value of this rifle.

The Texas Sesquicentennial Winchester Commemorative Carbine comes packaged in an art "sleeve" surrounding protective styrofoam. The art "sleeve" is reproduced from an original oil painting by Mr. B. Herd of Dallas, Texas and depicts events from Texas rich history and heritage.

Serial Numbers of the Texas Sesquicentennial Carbine are TEX-1 through TEX-15,000. A number of this issue have been reserved for presentation to various mayors, museums, and public officials as part of the Texas Sesquicentennial Celebration.

Production is strictly limited to figures stated and no more will ever be produced.

STATE NAME: From "tejas," Indian word meaning "friends" or "allies."

STATE MOTTO: Friendship

STATE NICKNAME: Lone Star State

Since the earliest days of Texas, a five-pointed "lone star" has been prominent among Texas symbols. The state seal features the star wreathed by live oak (left) and olive, adopted by the Congress of the Republic, December 1836.

The mockingbird, an exceptional mimic that can imitate even farm tractors, became the Texas state bird in 1927. From the highest twig of a tree, the bird's exhilarating songests are accompanied by joyous aerial flips and rolls.

Country Cooking

By Linda L. Nixon

Pies - a favorite at country fairs, church suppers, and Grandma's Sunday dinner. Few can resist a slice of rich custard pie topped with a mile high meringue or a tangy fruit pie with a perfectly browned crust. Having heard old tales of pies stolen off of window sills where they were left to cool, one can certainly relate to the temptation of the culprit while sympathizing with the cook. Perfect pies are really no mystery if one masters a few pastry secrets. Learning these keys to successful pie baking can earn the cook quite a reputation. The following hints from prize winning cooks should help you create your own blue ribbon pies.

When preparing pastry dough use a pastry blender to cut shortening into the dry ingredients. This will ensure that the tiny particles of shortening which are important to form a flaky crust don't melt before baking. Using your hands to cut in the shortening can melt the shortening, resulting in a tough crust. Too much flour used in rolling the dough will also toughen the crust. A cloth covered rolling pin absorbs most of the flour and releases it bit at a time, just enough to prevent sticking. (You can make your own cover from a new child's ribbed cotton sock. Cut off the foot portion and slip remaining ribbed portion over rolling pin.) Covering your board with a course textured dish cloth also helps. French chefs recommend a marble surface for rolling dough. A good substitute for marble is a Formica counter top which has been rubbed with a bag of ice. Whichever surface you choose for rolling, be certain to handle the dough as little as possible. If dough is too sticky, chill it for 20-30 minutes before rolling out. To put the top crust onto your pie easily, roll it out until it is ready to be put on the pie. Cut slits for air vents, then pick up one edge of the crust on your rolling pin and roll to wrap the entire crust loosely around the pin. Then "roll" the top crust over your pie. To fit a crumb crust into a 9 inch pie pan, place the crumb dough into the pan and press down with an 8 inch pie pan. The crust will itself between the two pans. To help a crust keep its shape, before baking, line the pricked pastry with foil and fill it with dry beans. You can also line the pastry, carefully, with a double thickness of heavy-duty foil. (The weight keeps the pastry from puffing.) Bake crust in 450° oven for 5 minutes. Remove beans and foil and bake crust 5-7 minutes longer or til golden. To prevent a soggy bottom crust if your pie has a juicy filling, brush the crust with an egg white or melted butter before adding the filling. Be sure the filling is very hot. To prevent spills when preparing to bake a custard pie, place the pie pan on oven rack and then pour filling into it. When pie juices spill in your oven, sprinkle the spill with salt to prevent smoke and smell.

BASIC PIE DOUGH

For a one-crust 9 inch pie, use 1/2 the recipe below. For a double crust, 9 inch or a single crust pie with a generous lattice, use the following. Sift, then measure 2 cups all-purpose flour. Resift it with 1 teaspoon salt. Measure 1/2 cup shortening and 1/2 cup chilled butter. Cut the shortening into the flour mixture until it has the grain of cornmeal. Then cut the butter into the dough until it is pea size. Sprinkle dough with five tablespoons water. Blend the water lightly into the dough. Lift the ingredients with a fork allowing the moisture to spread. If needed, add a bit more water to hold ingredients together. When you can gather the dough up into a tidy ball, stop handling it. Roll out as desired.

RAISIN PECAN PIE

1/2 cup raisins
3 eggs
2 tbsp yellow corn meal

1/2 cup chopped pecans
1 cup water
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
Unbaked 9" pie shell

Combine raisins and water in small saucepan. Cook over high heat until mixture comes to a boil. Reduce heat to low and simmer 5 minutes. Drain raisins and let cool. Combine eggs, sugar and corn meal in bowl. Beat 2 minutes, using an electric mixer at medium speed. Blend in butter. Stir in pecans and raisins and pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in 375° oven 40-45 minutes, or until top is golden brown. Cool on rack. Makes 6-8 servings.

MACAROON PIE

3 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1 (3 1/2 oz.) can flaked coconut
1 cup sliced almonds
1 cup light corn syrup
2 tsp butter or margarine, melted
1/8 teaspoon salt
Unbaked 9" pie shell

Beat eggs in bowl til blended, using a rotary beater or wire whisk. Add corn syrup, sugar, butter, almond extract and salt; beat until blended. Stir in coconut and almonds and pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in 350° oven 50-55 minutes or until a knife inserted halfway between the center and edge comes out clean. Cool on rack. (6-8 servings)

SOUR CREAM APPLE PIE

Pastry for 9 inch lattice top pie
1 large egg
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
5 medium-sized tart apples, peeled, cored, and sliced thin
1 cup sour cream
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons all-purpose flour

Topping: 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon, 1 cup finely chopped walnuts or pecans

Heat oven to 375° F. Roll out 1/2 of pastry 1/8 inch thick and about 2 inches larger than the pie pan. (Refrigerate remaining pastry.) Arrange pastry in the pan, leaving edges untrimmed. Beat together until well-blended, the sour cream, sugar, egg, salt, and vanilla and flour. Add apples and stir to coat well. Spoon into prepared pie pan. Make topping: Mix brown sugar, cinnamon and nuts and sprinkle evenly over the apple mixture. Roll out remaining pastry to a 10 inch circle and cut into 1/2 inch strips. Arrange in a lattice on top of the pie, trim ends of strips and edge of crust and crimp decoratively. Bake in center of oven until crust browns and apples are tender and bubbling, about 50 minutes. (Cover lightly with foil if crust begins to over-brown.) Serve warm or cool.

SWEET POTATO PIE

1 cup cooked, mashed sweet potatoes
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
dash salt
2 eggs, well beaten
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/4 cup scalded milk

Combine sweet potatoes, brown sugar, cinnamon, ginger, salt, milk and eggs. (If fresh sweet potatoes are used, add 1/4 cup granulated sugar.) Cool and fill pie shell. Bake at 375° for 20 minutes. Sprinkle with topping. Continue baking for an additional 25 minutes. Serve with whipped cream.

Topping: 1/4 cup butter or margarine, softened, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/4 cup finely chopped pecans.

Centuries ago the "Christmas pye" was a mixture of fowl, fruits and spices, this combination being the forerunner of our mincemeat. Over the years the pies grew smaller and at the same time the meat content was reduced until the pies became a mixture of fruit, spices and suet. Here's a recipe for a mincemeat pie with a new twist.

MINCEMEAT APPLE PIE

1/4 cup all-purpose flour, divided
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup water
1 (18 oz.) jar prepared mincemeat
1 unbaked 9" pie shell
1/2 cup sugar
1 tsp butter, softened
2 tsp red cinnamon candies
3 tart apples, pared and sliced

Sprinkle 2 tablespoons flour in pie shell. Combine remaining flour, sugar, salt, and butter; mix until crumbly. Combine water and cinnamon candies; heat, stirring constantly, until candies are dissolved. Set aside. Spread mincemeat in pie shell. Cover with layers of overlapping apple slices; sprinkle with sugar mixture. Spoon cinnamon syrup over top, moistening as much of sugar mixture as possible. Cover edge of pastry with strip of aluminum foil to prevent excessive browning. Bake at 425° for 40-50 minutes; remove foil last 15 minutes of baking. Yield: one 9 inch pie.

Littlest Angel Choir visits Medical Center

The Littlest Angels Choir of the First United Methodist Church visited the Medical Center Nursing Home on Wednesday afternoon, November 6. The 15 four and five year old children entertained the residents with their version of "The Story of Noah's Ark." Directed by Jamie Deyhle and accompanied on the piano by Gayla Davidson, the cast of 14 different animals and five-hundred year old Noah boarded the Ark and sang their way from the flood to the rainbow at the end of their journey! The story was narrated by Haley Hamilton.

The 1985-1986 Littlest Angels are: Walker McAnear, Kyle Judd, Candi Hoggard, Nicki Lumpkin, Jason Archuleta, Lowell Ellerbrook, Jon Davidson, Melissa Campbell, Jenny Roberts, Debi Hall, Nathan Sears, Lindsay Green, Blake and Leia Deyhle.

Bluebonnets, several species of Lupine native to wide areas of the state, are the beloved state flower of Texas. In late March-early April, masses of them mantle roadsides, meadows and hillsides with acres and acres of sky-blue color.

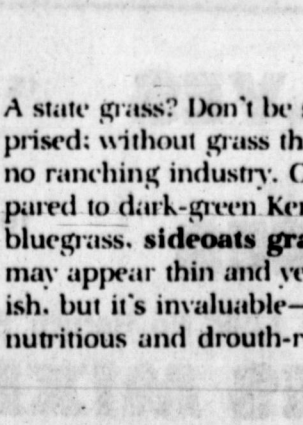

Pecan trees, (many specimens are centuries old) thrive beside Texas rivers and streams. A former Texas governor so loved the tree, he directed one be planted by his grave, and the nuts distributed to the people for planting throughout the state.

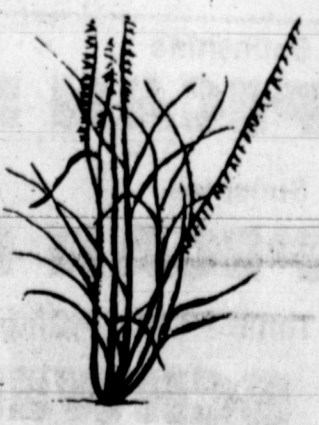

Texans love a bowl of red... that is, chili, the official state dish. Virtually every Texan thinks his own recipe is the best, leading to innumerable Texas chili-cooking competitions, including the World Championship Chili Cookoff each November.

Topaz, a brilliantly transparent, pastel blue variety, is the state gem of Texas. Collected in several areas of the Llano Uplift, a region of ancient igneous formations, the most prized, gem-quality specimens are found near the town of Mason.

A state grass? Don't be surprised; without grass there'd be no ranching industry. Compared to dark-green Kentucky bluegrass, sideoats grama may appear thin and yellowish, but it's invaluable—richly nutritious and drought-resistant.

Geologic ages ago, palm trees thrived throughout most of Texas in a moist, jungle-like climate. Today, petrified palm wood—from jet black through a rainbow of delicate colors to white—is the popular state stone of Texas.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

In response to several letters recently published in your newspaper, I am concerned that the letter writers may be passing along inaccurate information. I can find no confirmation of information they cite as "stated facts."

The hostility of those who oppose Planned Parenthood is especially perplexing since family planning is basically preventative health care and education. Without contraceptive health care, more families would face the heartache of unwanted pregnancies and many would ultimately choose abortion.

Planned Parenthood has been providing education for many Panhandle churches and schools for as long as 16 years. The education department provides workshops geared to the specific needs of the audience whether the group is more comfortable with a parent/child, father/son, or mother/daughter format.

I dare say, the churches and schools would not repeatedly request programs, if in fact, the programs were not of high quality and supportive of both ideals and morals.

Supporting family planning programs is a wise investment. In 1981 alone, family planning helped women avert more than 800,000 unwanted pregnancies which would have meant an additional 282,000 births and an additional 433,000 abortions using reliable statistical data. Several independent studies agree that for each dollar invested in family planning, two dollars are saved the following year in public health and welfare costs associated with unwanted births.

Teenagers are getting pregnant at an incredible and distressing rate. In 1982, more than 10% of teenage girls, about 1.1 million of them, got pregnant. The rate of teen pregnancy in the Texas Panhandle is even higher than the national average. Although these statistics are disturbing, they still do not reflect the even larger proportion of teens who are sexually active. From all indications, the availability of education and family planning services is having a positive effect on the pregnancy rate.

Teens who come to Planned Parenthood for help, have as a rule, been sexually active from 6 months to a year before seeking contraceptive care. Approximately 50% of the teens make their first clinic visit with their parent's knowledge.

Because Planned Parenthood provides such high quality education and medical services, the organization has earned respect from a wide variety of health-care professionals, volunteers and community leaders.

Having children can be one of life's great joys. And that is what family planning is about -- trying to make sure that giving birth is a joy.

Health hints for today

By R.L. GILKEY, M.D., D.A.B.F.P.

GASO - The Great American Smokeout is this Thursday, November 21st. If you're a smoker, please participate. You'll be glad you did. When this program was first initiated here, several years ago, I went the day without smoking but started again the next day, and paid the price with development of lung cancer. If you smoke, do without this Thursday. If you can make it one day, you can make it longer. If you want to try the nicotine gum, let me know and I'll give you a prescription for it.

Influenza has started here but is not too widespread yet. The other disease in school is scarlet fever. Scarlet fever is no longer a serious disease if treated. Any good antibiotic will kill the germ that causes it. Remember, the child is usually running fever, a bright red rash, and usually a sore throat.

MAC stands for maximum allowable cost. This is the maximum cost that the state of Texas will allow a pharmacy to charge for drugs for medicaid patients. For all practical purposes this means that the pharmacy may have to limit their supply of drugs. Since there are 400 or so new drugs being placed on this list December 1st. You will notice that your prescriptions will usually be written for generic drugs whenever possible. This will also mean a savings to you.

The pneumonia vaccine is now recommended for those over 65, or those with chronic diseases. This year enough vaccine was made so it is available if you want it. It will immunize against the twenty most common types of pneumonia and only has to be given every three years. Medicare "says" that they will offer partial reimbursement for this immunization only.

For better medical attention, please let your physician know you're coming in advance. Otherwise he won't have much time for you. Appointments do help you, not just your doctor.

Smokers - participate in GASO - you can only win - there are no losers.

Crabtree & Hardin listed outstanding men in America

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Men of America Awards program announced that Marvin Crabtree and Wayne Hardin have been selected for inclusion in the 1985 edition of OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA.

These men were selected from nominations received from Senators, Congressmen, Governors, Mayors, State Legislators, University and College Presidents and Deans as well as various civic groups.

In every community there are young men working diligently to make their cities, as well as their country, better places in which to live. These men, having distinguished themselves in one or more fields of endeavor, are outstanding and deserve to be recognized for their service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments and civic and political participation.

These two men along with fellow Outstanding Young Men throughout North America will be featured in this prestigious annual awards publication.

GIVE YOURSELF MORE

TO BE THANKFUL FOR

On this Thanksgiving Day you can give yourself more to be thankful for by deciding to stop smoking and then doing it. The Surgeon General reports that smoking is responsible for 100,000 deaths from lung cancer and 170,000 deaths from heart attack each year.

Here, from the experts are some of the dangers of smoking cigarettes, and the benefits of quitting:

*Two pack a day smokers die, on the average, 8.3 years younger than nonsmokers. By quitting, the risk drops daily. After 10 to 15 years, it is close to that of those who never smoked.

*By quitting cigarettes, your risk of coronary disease drops sharply after one year; at 10 years it is about the same as someone who has never smoked.

*When you quit smoking, your risk of lung cancer recedes steadily. After 10 to 15 years it is down to normal.

*The risk to smokers of death by emphysema and bronchitis is four to twenty-five times as high as non-smokers. When you quit, coughs disappear in a few weeks, lung function improves, deterioration stops.

4-H News

By ELIZABETH McANEAR

On Wednesday, November 6th, the Donley County 4-H K-9 Korp had its graduation in sub-novice and novice obedience. Those receiving certificates in sub-novice were Bob and Vera Andis, Chan Bilbry, Elizabeth McAnear, Janan and Amy Koontz, Shawna Skelton, and Christie Smith. Taking the first place ribbon was Amy Koontz; 2nd Bob Andis; 3rd Christie Smith; 4th Shawna Skelton.

In the novice class, those receiving certificates were Tiny Alderson, Debbie Tolbert, Todd McAnear, Max

Rodriguez, Brenda Rodriguez, Juan Rodriguez, and Judy Cole. Taking first place was Tiny Alderson; 2nd Judy Cole; 3rd Brenda Rodriguez; and 4th Max Rodriguez.

There was only one graduate in graduate novice class. That was Gwyn Tolbert and she took 1st place in her class.

The most improved dog was Chan Bilbrey's dog Trixy; most improved handler - Juan Rodriguez and high in trial award went to Amy Koontz and her dog Gengis.

Congratulations to all the graduates!

We began our new classes on Wednesday, November 13th, but if you are interested in enrolling, just contact Judy McCully at 3419.

Don't Let Your Energy Dollars Escape This Winter

Increase Your Energy Savings By Following These Conservative Tips:

SET THERMOSTAT AT 68°

Set your thermostat at 68 degrees or lower. Turn it down at night and use an electric blanket. Turn it down even lower when you leave home for an extended period of time. Every degree you lower your thermostat will help to increase your energy savings.

KEEP DAMPER CLOSED

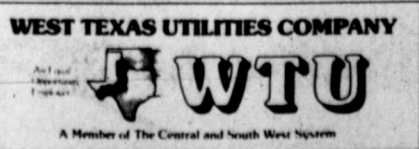

Tightly close the damper in your fireplace when you're not using it. The same draft that is needed to help make a fire burn could circulate through your fireplace and pull warm air out of your home.

OPEN DRAPES & BLINDS

Keep drapes and blinds open during the day so the sun's energy can help warm your home. Be sure to close them on cloudy days and at night so they can help insulate your home against the cold.

CHANGE FILTER REGULARLY

Check the filter in your heating unit regularly. Cleaning or replacing a dirty filter will often make a difference in your system's performance. Also, make sure air vents aren't blocked by furniture or drapes.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy - but only YOU can use it wisely!
