750 CALVES SOLD KANSAS RANCH

CHAMBERLAIN & SHELTON DELIVER TRAINLOAD OF CALVES WEDNESDAY

Fifteen cars of Donley county calves were shipped to the Sherman Ranch at Crawford, Kansas Wednesday by Chamberlain and Shelton, on a contract deal aggregating about 750 calves. A large number of the calves were purchased by Chamberlain and Shelton from the Browder, Bell, Bairfield, Brumley, Jefferies, Sawyer and Howard Ranches. John H. Wilson, manager of the Sherman Ranch, who supervised the loading, said the calves would be fattened on the Kansas spread before being placed on the northern markets. Special arrangements were made with the Rock Island railroad for loading the shipment here at Clarendon, Wednesday, and making a fast run to Crawford, arriving there this afternoon about 5:00 o'clock.

NEGRO FINED FOR THROAT CUTTING SCRAPE SUNDAY

A fine of $25 and costs was assessed Dan Smith, negro, in county court this week for aggravated assault on Elizabeth Moore, negro, Sunday afternoon. The negro received a cut throat which was sewed up by physicians, who said she will recover. The affray followed an alleged drinking brawl, sheriff department officials said.

Cotton Picking Is Resumed In Donley

Cotton picking throughout the county was resumed Tuesday following a week's delay caused by light rains last week and a heavy rain Saturday. A few bales were brought in to the gins by farmers Tuesday with a substantial increase shown in the number of bales ginned Wednesday. With favorable weather the better part of the week crop gathering employment is expected to reach a high peak this week. The movement of cotton and cattle this week will provide Clarendon merchants with expected heavy sales Saturday.

PREHISTORIC RELIC ADDED TO MUSEUM

CALIFORNIA SABER TOOTHED TIGER SKULL LOANED TO MUSEUM

Placements this week at the Donley County Museum include a valuable fossil loaned by Will Chamberlain, amateur paleontologist, and Will Lewis. This prehistoric relic is the skull of a Smilodon or saber toothed tiger. It was found in the Rancho La Brea quarries in California and was given to Chamberlain and Lewis by the University of California in exchange for a prehistoric specimen found in Donley county.

Mrs. Sam M. Braswell placed some Confederate money in the coin collection case, two bills of twenty-dollar denomination and one of five. A ten-dollar Confederate bill was loaned by Fisher Johnson. Thirty-five visitors registered at the museum Monday afternoon, including Dr. L. H. Faulkenbach of New York and Dr. Everett DeGroot of Lusk, Wyo., field men representing the American Museum of Natural History and supervisors of paleontology work to be carried on in the county this winter.

A. A. Mayes was a business visitor in Aluts, Okla., Wednesday, inspecting farming property. Mr. Mayes stated that the section around Aluts received about three inches of rainfall last week, which was badly needed.

Yams Exhibited By W. M. Pickering

When it comes to growing large yams, W. M. Pickering could in all probability carry off top honors. Displayed in the county agent's office is three extra large yams grown by Mr. Pickering, the largest topping the scales at eight pounds.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE IS SET BY LEGION

100 VETERANS IS GOAL SET BY POST IN EXTENSIVE DRIVE

The Aubyn E. Clark Post, No. 126, of the American Legion is conducting a membership drive and has set the goal at 100 veterans, according to B. C. Antrobus, post commander. Other activities are planned for the fall and winter season, Antrobus said, and a home production play will be given in November or December. Several legion-sponsored dances will also be given during the membership drive, and a committee is at work on a patriotic program for Armistice Day. Officers of the Legion besides Antrobus are: J. C. Gibbs, first vice commander; G. G. Reeves, second vice commander; L. E. Thompson, adjutant; Dick Chunn, chaplain; Tom Tucker, sergeant-at-arms; C. B. Morris, service officer; H. T. Burton, historian; Joe Holland liaison officer; Ralph Andis, C. J. Douglas and C. Huffman, executive committee.

The Aubyn E. Clark Post is in its eleventh consecutive year since it was organized, and has about 25 members who have been active since the reorganization without a lapse in their membership. Stocking said that over the last 125 years, only eight meteoric falls have been recorded in Texas, according to an authentic list published by Prof. H. H. Nininger, Denver, Colo. The four and one-half pounds of meteorite discovered by Bolton brought him 75 cents per pound. Stocking has 11 other meteorites representing three falls in as many states.

THREE TEAMS LEAD IN DISTRICT RACE

CLARENDON, MOBEETIE IN FRIDAY CONTEST FOR CELLAR POSITION

The Shamrock Irishmen, the Wellington Skyrocks and the McLean Tigers came up with top-heavy scores in Friday night's District 3-B grid games to retain their 1,000 per cent standing in the district race. The Memphis Cyclones dropped from the leading column. The three leaders had an easy time defeating their weaker opponents, the Irishmen running up 43 points to Mobettie's 6. The Skyrocks of Wellington romped all over their home field downing the Paducah Dragons 47-0 in a non-conference tilt. The McLean Tigers were held in check, defeating the Memphis eleven 21 to 6. The Lakeview Eagles, with both their ace ball toters back in the line-up, upset the dope with an 18- to -12 victory over Wheeler's Mustangs. The Clarendon Broncs continued their bad streak of luck and took a 47-0 defeat from the LeFors Pirates.

The standings of the teams are as follows:
TEAM W. L. Pct.
Shamrock ----- 4 0 1.000
Wellington ----- 4 0 1.000
McLean ----- 3 0 1.000
Memphis ----- 3 1 .750
LeFors ----- 2 3 .400
Wheeler ----- 1 3 .250
Lakeview ----- 1 3 .250
Clarendon ----- 0 4 .000
Mobettie ----- 0 4 .000

W. C. Stewart, plumbing contractor, was lowest bidder on the installation, and the contract was awarded at $1,025. Work on the new system will begin at once.

Clarendon Let's Join In Cheering Our Valiant Bronchos On To Victory Here Friday Night

An Editorial

Last week The News called attention to the seeming lack of loyalty and backing for the CHS Broncho Football team on the part of our home folks. Friday evening—tomorrow evening—at the lighted College Field, Clarendon people have another chance to prove their home loyalty and sound sportsmanship by rallying to our football boys in their game here with the Mobeettie Hi outfit. Entering into the last half of the 1937 Season, the Bronchos will honor their parents at the Friday night game, by the fathers and mothers of the players being special guests, and local fans will not only have a part in giving the Broncs their backing at the game, but will with their presence join in honoring the guests of the evening. Come on Clarendon—let's give the Bronchos the largest crowd of the season tomorrow night. Let's back them to the limit. Let's enjoy seeing them respond with smashing play that will earn a real victory. Let's give the home boys the impetus to make the last half of the 1937 Season one fully worthy of the Maroon and White and accounting for every ounce of ability that the courageous, though inexperienced Broncs possess. Clarendon fans you are expected Friday night. Do not disappoint. The Broncs will do their part.

Eight fragments of meteoric stone were received Monday by Jerome D. Stocking from E. V. Bolton, Crosby county farmer, who plowed them up in a wheat field. The pieces were identified by Oscar Monnig, amateur astronomer of Ft. Worth, who delivered them to Mr. Stocking. Monnig stated the stones were in a fine state of preservation and are from a known fall that pelted this planet about the turn of the century.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the City Library held at the city hall Friday afternoon at two o'clock, presided over by Mayor W. H. Patrick, ex-officio chairman, two vacancies on the board were filled. Under the plan set up when the city accepted the library from the Pathfinder Club, there were to be three women and two men on the board besides the Mayor, who sits as ex-officio chairman. Mrs. C. A. Burton was one of the original board members named, but as elected librarian, the board named her as ex-officio member, so her seat as regular member was thus vacated. Mrs. Jas. Trent was elected to fill this vacancy. Mr. Patrick, a duly named member, became ex-officio chairman on the death of former Mayor J. T. Sims, creating another vacancy on the board, and Sam M. Braswell was elected to the post. Report of Librarian, Mrs. Burton, was heard and plans were laid for increased support of the library, which has grown under the present plan of operation from a total of a little over one thousand books to near six thousand, serving an increased volume of patrons all the while.

The Clarendon football squad failed to break their record for a scoreless season thus far in district 3-B Friday night, and failed also to stop the LeFors Pirates as the latter romped to and fro on a muddy field for a 47-0 victory before a small crowd. Jackson and Ellington were luminaries in the Pirate attack which spent the hour in running through the Broncho line. McNab dashed 80 yards in the first quarter for the first LeFors touchdown. Previously mist had made the field soggy, and neither team made much effort to use forward passes with a muddy ball. The Pirates scored one touchdown in each of the first two periods, three in the third and two in the fourth. Nicky Stewart who is attending Texas Tech at Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Randel of Panhandle spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart.

AN ANSWER OF ABSOLUTE FINALITY TO THE "SITDOWNERS"

Proving that there is such a thing as a final, irrefutable answer to the problem of "sit down" strikes, the Ford Motor Company this past week deserves the 1937 medal for National Economic Service, when it simply announced the closing of its Kansas City, Mo., factory plant and the removal of the equipment to some other location.

This effective answer to the "sit downers" at Kansas City came after repeated appeals for police protection failed and workers had been unable to get into the factory and take up their duties on account of the illegal occupancy of the CIO faction.

This newspaper has never been too ardent in its admiration of Henry Ford and his policies, but this is one time that Ford has shown the way in a most impressive manner. Some three thousand workers who had good jobs at well-known Ford fair wages, are now definitely "out" at Kansas City. Their jobs are vanished and they are now charges on the unions or the government relief.

This is a pointed declaration that cities and states who refuse proper police protection against illegal methods of the unions are due to lose the effected industries, for other concerns will at once perceive the wisdom of the Ford policy of abandonment under such circumstances. Any city or state refusing to protect the rights of a concern known to pay good wages, certainly deserves to lose that concern.

Give Henry Ford credit for finding the shortest and best answer to the illegal "sit down" strike. In so doing he has performed a national service.

SOME REASONS FOR OPTIMISM

All of us do too much "momentum thinking." When times are good we refuse to see any bad signs. We not only insist on letting our thinking carry us right along the same direction we have been going, but we fail or refuse to change planes as economic and other conditions change levels.

This "momentum thinking" is responsible for many of us failing to see, or at least to grasp opportunities that are presented year in and year out as conditions fluctuate. For instance, at the present time there are a good many reasons to be optimistic over the coming months, and to prepare for one of the greatest selling seasons in recent years.

The Royal Typewriter Co. is planning its advertising, merchandising and sales on the following reasons for optimism submitted by nationally known economic authorities and statisticians:

Farmers will average an income of $25,000,000 more per week this year than last—a total gain of $9,000,000,000 or 15 per cent, making this the best year since 1929.

Factory workers this year will make $50,000,000 more per week than last, an aggregate gain of $11,300,000,000 or 30 per cent, also the best year for them since 1929.

Dividend checks will be $4,400,000 more this year than last, an average of $10,000,000 more per week, or an increase of 13 per cent, making 1938 the best year since 1931.—Dalhart Texan.

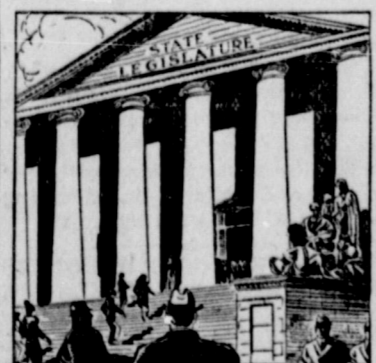

People Retain Power

Why and how do "we the people" retain power over our government? "The framers of our Constitution," wrote the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, "did not believe that any man or any body of men could safely be entrusted with unlimited power. They thought, and all experience justified them in thinking, that human nature could not support the temptation which unlimited power always brings."

It is for this reason that our Constitution is made paramount to the government itself, restricts the power which it grants to our government, distributes what powers it does grant among three branches—Congress, the Executive and the Federal Courts; makes each branch independent of the others; declares that all powers not granted in the Constitution "are reserved to the States or to the people," and provides that amendments may be made not by Congress or the Executive or the Court but only by the people direct or through their State legislatures.

The reason for these provisions is our Constitution is to prevent our government or any one branch of it from becoming all powerful, autocratic and despotic.

HELPING THE MOUNTAIN CLIMBER

GIVE YOUR AID TO LOCAL OIL TESTS

One of the very best ways now open to citizens of Donley County in the promotion of development and prosperity is to give every help and co-operation in securing acreage blocks for drilling tests for oil.

In years past Donley has made a poor record in the matter of discovery of oil in paying quantities, and we ought to be willing to go to extra lengths in order to re-instate this territory as attractive wildcat territory in the minds of the big companies. As a matter of fact there would be no wildcat drilling anywhere in Texas now if it were not for the big oil companies who have the finances to risk in the search for new oil territory.

If you have refused to lease your land to any block promotion, you have shut the door to any development in this county, for today it takes larger acreage blocks to gain the attention of the big companies in territory like Donley County where tests have failed so unanimously, than ever before.

If you are the one holding back this development for your neighbors—for Donley County—for yourself—correct that error today. Put your land in. Close up the block. If oil is found you'll get plenty and the whole county will profit. If oil isn't found, it hasn't cost you anything, anyway.

THE PEOPLE HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW

We still insist that there should be a law in this state requiring every state senator and representative to file an affidavit showing his corporate connections. There are too many members of the legislature drawing pay from corporations for "legal services," if current reports are to be accepted. If there are lawyers in the legislature representing the liquor interests, the racetrack gambling interests, the public service corporations, and other interests having axes to grind, the people have a right to know it. And the lawyer in the legislature who piously draws his cloak around him and pleads that his honor is being questioned every time some one suggests that legislators be required to reveal their corporate connections will do to watch.—Lynn Co. Band Clinic Will Be Held At Canyon

CANYON — Plans for an all-Panhandle band clinic were formulated here when a group of band directors of this section met with President J. A. Hill.

The clinic, which was tentatively scheduled for January 7-8, would be under the direction of noted band instructors and would be open to all bands of the Panhandle. Though details for the clinic are not complete, the possibility of two ninety-piece bands, to be formed from the memberships of those bands here for the clinic, was discussed. The clinic would be sponsored by the college.

"Other sections of the state have held similar clinics and have received much benefit, and the Panhandle clinic will fill a need of long standing," Glenn A. Traux of Shamrock, president of the Panhandle Band Directors Association, said.

Directors here for the meeting with Dr. Hill included Mr. Traux,

Mr. Leeds, McLean; Oscar Wise, Amarillo; Ralph Smith, Hereford; Marshall Riemenschneider, Canyon; Wallace R. Clark and C. E. Strain of the College faculty.

Animated displays of national parks and other western scenic features will fill the Vacationland palace of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on San Francisco Bay.

The Rest of the Record

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

The last week of the special session has rolled around and throughout the State there are sightless eyes, withered hands, and helpless baby arms raised in supplication to the Legislature of Texas. There are others going about the daily classroom duties of educating the youth of the State, bending under the weight of years, and wondering "if" a retirement system will be set up for the teachers.

These are the ones who have watched the legislative session from a distance. Unable to come to Austin, some unable to vote, they have waited patiently for the Legislature to do its duty and raise revenues for old age assistance, aid to the needy blind, dependent children, and for the teachers' retirement fund.

There has been another group stalking the corridors every day since the session began, crowding the legislative galleries, and intently watching the effects to raise revenues by taxing the pipe line companies, the oil, sulphur, and other natural resource groups.

It has been the biggest, most powerful lobby Texas has ever witnessed in Austin. It is confidently and complacently awaiting the verdict of "no taxes."

Meanwhile the destiny of our unfortunate people lies in the hands of the Legislature.

The people have been told that I want to lay heavy taxes upon all the people. That is not true. A "hullabaloo" against this session has been raised and the cry swelled in volume that we must not levy taxes for the social security program voted by the people. When did this "hullabaloo" first arise? I'll tell you when it was!

After the Legislature voted these appropriations and went home last June, every one knew then that we were going to have another session in September to raise the money to pay the bill. But when I announced six or seven weeks ago that I was going to recommend taxes on the big pipe line companies, and others who have been growing pompous and prosperous by draining our natural resources—then the hue and cry started.

When I said that I had recommended these same taxes before, that the program had been scuttled and that I was going to find out at this special session who was running Texas—that's when the selfish interests, through their mouthpieces, started a campaign of propaganda.

They tried to make real estate owners believe that the people's program would raise their taxes; but they overlooked that fact that I had helped to lower these property taxes to the lowest point in over twenty years. They announced a great taxpayers march on Austin. 68 marchers finally rolled into Austin in Cadillac and limousines, headed by a man whose chamber of commerce organization receives two thousand dollars a year contribution from the sulphur company alone.

The attitude of these people may well be judged by the leader they have chosen in the Senate against taxes for the needy. He is the same man who last year voted for a sales tax upon the poor; and then, when an income tax on the earnings of the rich was proposed

SUMNER SAYS CREDIT NEAR DANGER POINT

AGRICULTURAL PROGRAM TO GIVE FARMER MORE INCOME PRIMARY NEED

An agricultural program to give 30,000,000 farmers their share of the national income and increase their buying power is needed to prevent another depression far worse than that of the early thirties, Congressman Hatton W. Sumner told members of the Dallas Agricultural Club Monday in the Jefferson Hotel.

Should cotton again fall to 5c a pound, wheat to 30c a bushel and corn to 20c, that depression is not far off, Sumner said. This time the Nation is in worse shape, for the Federal credit is at the danger point with a debt nearing forty billion dollars.

"If you don't think the situation is serious, just think," he added. "We are faced with the second largest cotton crop in history, domestic consumption only a little above average, but exports far below average."

"The first thought is to restrict acreage. But when you take millions of acres out of cotton, what will become of those unemployed tenants—thousands of them—who will be thrown on the streets? We have simply lost our way in a walked the floor and ranted that it would ruin Texas.

"I'm not the only chief executive criticized for calling special sessions. When a few days ago President Roosevelt called a special session of Congress to help the farmers, he said: "I know that many enemies of democracy will say that it is bad business, bad for the tranquility of the country, to have a special session..."

"I'm glad the President has called Congress to try to do something for the farmers of the nation; and I have no apologies for calling this special session to help our own needy."

I say that when we have placed a just tax upon our natural resources, 85 per cent of which goes outside the State, when we have passed an income tax levied upon the earnings of twenty pipe line companies who made over seventy-eight million dollars net profit in one year, when we have done these things, then it will be time to talk about a sales tax.

I didn't have to call this special session except for my conscience; I could have taken the easy route; and then these special interests would have called me 'great.' But I've gone about the State, and I've seen misery and want.

I've done my part. I've called this Legislature in special session and made my recommendations. For these things I shall continue to fight. But the destiny of our unfortunate people lies in the hands of Legislature.

dense jungle and there is no easy boulevard leading out."

Sumners blamed the high protective tariff for many of the farmers' ills prior to 1932. High duties give the industrial East protection for their products and high prices, but the farmer is forced to sell on an unprotected market.

"By all means we must develop a program that will regain our cotton export market. Any domestic policy that will discourage exports is unwise," Sumners said. "It is easier to hold a market than to regain a lost one."

Sumners said the only alternative is to give the farmer who exports surplus products a subsidy or his buying power will fall. And when 30,000,000 farmers have their incomes drained and the whole system is thrown out of commission, he continued.

"We must guard against the mistakes causing the 1932 disaster," Sumners pointed out. "If another depression comes—and I am not so sure it won't—we are in danger of losing such heritages as free speech, press and religion. When these go there is no public opinion left and a dictator takes control."

"I never want to see the day when the American people are directed by one man living in Washington or any other place. But that is inescapable unless we use all our ingenuity in working out of impending difficulties."

The speaker said one encouraging sign is the way the American people are thinking along economic lines—thinking for themselves. He said there had been more constructive thinking on what is good government since 1932 than in the twenty years prior to that date.

"As long as you are interested in pulling out of these holes, there is no danger. You 110 businessmen and farmers gathered here are evidence of the interest. Ten years ago when times were good and there were no fears you couldn't get twenty-five out to a meeting to discuss the farm problem because no one thought there was any."

"This is our main weapon to use in this fight to survive—enlightened public opinion, a desire for better self-government."

"It must be applied to the farm problem. By increasing his income the debt can gradually be erased and we can breathe more easily," he concluded.

The largest agricultural meeting in Dallas in several years is scheduled at a dinner given by the club next Monday night in the Jefferson Hotel when 700 guests will hear thirty-one Congressmen from the Southwest discuss 1938 legislation for the farmers to be considered in the special session of Congress called by President Roosevelt Nov. 15.—Dallas News.

cheon speakers discuss it at club meetings.

Key figures in the drive will be postmasters who will have direct supervision of distributing the cards in every city and town and along every rural mail route in the country.

CONTINENTAL'S GIFT TO D. A. R.

The house, built by Continental at a cost of $60,000, will be the meeting place for the chapter as soon as the organization takes charge at the close of the exposition, Mrs. Cloyd H. Read, regent of Jane Douglas Chapter, said. A public presentation ceremony is planned for the last of this month, at which time a bronze plaque will be hung at the house in commemoration of the event.

The air-conditioned building contains a large reception room, lounges for men and women, and office space. Shelves which now hold Conoco travel literature will become museum shelves, and additional cases will hold a genealogical library.

Conoco Hospitality House is a handsome two-story structure with green shutters and white pillars in typical Colonial style. The interior is done in pickled pine and is handsomely furnished throughout. The miniature dioramas, which are now a feature of the exhibit, will be returned to Conoco Travel Bureau headquarters in Denver.

The name will be changed to Continental D. A. R. House, the same as that of the national headquarters in Washington.

BOYS ORGANIZATION USES COOPERATIVE BUYING FEED

Future Farmers of America boys using feeding projects this year are lowering their feeding costs and increasing their profits by co-operative buying of feed.

The boys have learned that by buying the feed they don't raise at home, in large quantities through local merchants, they can save from twenty to thirty per cent on feed costs.

Calf feeders are buying their oats, molasses and cottonseed meal co-operatively, while pig feeders are buying their tankage and minerals on the same plan.

Nov. 20 Deadline Jobless Census

WASHINGTON — One of the biggest publicity campaigns ever undertaken will precede the government's census of America's unemployed next month.

Frank R. Wilson, director of information at the national unemployment census office, said it would be comparable in scope to the campaigns organized to put across the NRA and Liberty Loan sales during the World War.

The drive, which will include a fireside talk by President Roosevelt, will be designed to get every person in the country who is wholly or partially out of work to fill out a census card and put it in a mail box. Postmen will distribute the cards to the nation's 31,000,000 families on November 16 and 17. The deadline for returning them is midnight, November 20.

The publicity campaign, Wilson said, will be based on the theory that "unemployment is a deficit on the balance sheet of everybody" and that all citizens, therefore, will benefit in obtaining an accurate survey.

To carry on the drive then the census office is counting on the cooperation of the mayors of 12,000 cities, 700 radio stations which will be asked to make a total of 1,700 spot announcements, 12,000 weekly newspapers, hundreds of daily newspapers and thousands of civic leaders.

In the making today were plans to have ministers talk about the count from their pulpits and lun-

Editor's Corner

Let's all go see the Bronchos Friday night. It is a feeling common to all towns, but particularly so to Clarendon that if the football team is not winning there is no sense in going to see them lose. This is the very worst attitude that could be adopted, for when no one, especially their fellow classmates, shows interest and only jeers at their efforts, the team naturally sees no use in trying to play.

We think this has gone on long enough in C. H. S. Why don't you and you go out and cheer and help the Bronchos? Do we want to have football in C. H. S. or not? If the students do not show more interest, it may be dropped.

The students of C. H. S. and C. J. C. are to be commended for the way in which they got in and out

Freshmen Entertained by Sophomores Thursday Night

On Thursday, October 14, the Sophomores of C. J. C. entertained the Freshmen with a party at the Parish house to climax a week of initiation for the Freshmen. Games of forty-two and Dodo and singing provided entertainment. The two classes took part in a spelling match, which ended in a tie as neither side could spell "se-pulcher." Five Freshmen contested in a race which consisted in their pushing a peanut across the floor with their noses. Otis Rolls was declared the winner "by a nose." All Freshmen were led or forced into a dark room where their ability to take it was tested with the use of electric wires. Refreshments of cocoa and cookies were served to the Sophs while the Freshmen got only water, a cracker, and two peanuts at first. Mr. and Mrs. Drennan, Miss Howren, and Mr. Stewart chaperoned the party.

Our Book Shelf

One of the newer but little read books in the library is the Autobiography of Lincoln Steffens. Probably one of the chief reasons for this is the fact that the book contains 873 pages; however, the paper is thick and the print large, so there is not so very much reading. This book has very little literary value. In spite of its title, in the latter section of the book you learn little of the author. He lived and traveled extensively in Europe during and after the World War, and that he became an advocate of communism. The chief value of the book is in its presentation of different economic and political theories and how they work, and the author's opinion of them. The pen portraits of outstanding public figures such as Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, Mussolini, Lenin, and Kerensky are quite good and give some little-known facts about their characters. Steffens also clearly presents the foreign viewpoint, especially about England and America and their theories.

Although most events of which Steffens was an observer are interpreted in their true light and significance, he went far wrong in the last chapter on his predictions about Hoover and his handling of the depression. Steffens believed that Hoover would help the country through big business, but he helped big business which did not help the country. While Steffens cannot be blamed too much for his mistake, since almost everyone else made it too, it seems strange that he could not see Hoover was doing openly what all other politicians had done covertly, since Steffens seems to be such an authority on practices of this sort.

The only other outstanding fault of the book was that the author changed his method of relating his story. In the first part of the book everything was about himself, his thoughts, and emotions; the latter part was concerned chiefly with the people in general and their action and reactions and what prompted them. The book would have been much more coherent had Steffens followed one course or the other entirely. And since it is entitled an Autobiography he should have stuck to his subject.

Although, however, it is a book which is well-worth anyone's time and serious consideration, for it gives so many sidelights on modern history and enables one to better understand recent trends.

Boxing Tournament Arouses Interest

A deep interest in boxing has been created through the tournament sponsored by the F. F. A. Last week a fair-sized crowd attended the first round. The most exciting matches are those of the bantam-weight boys. These youngsters make up for their lack of weight by their fierce scrapping. Tuesday, October 19, another round of 15 matches of three one-minute rounds each was held. The winners of these matches will meet next Tuesday for another round. The price of admission to these affairs is ten and twenty-five cents.

FISH TALES

As everyone knows last week was Freshman Week. Some very strange events took place and we are recording them; so don't blame the author if these sound fishy.

Margaret Davenport never did like onions anyway and when two Sophs forced her to eat a whole one—well Margaret still doesn't like onions.
Two "Fresh" girls felt funny after they asked for a date, got it, broke it, and then he turned up at the party alone!
Otis Rolls gets the vote for looking the cutest in a girl's hat, (Wanda has good taste).
Warren Hardin is far-sighted or something. His guess on the length of Miss Headrick's arm was 33 inches. That rivals Mr. Burton's catches.
But even the Brilliant Sophs can't spell any better than the Fish. Sepulcher stumped the brightest of them.
All Fish who can't play forty-two resolved to learn how before the next college party.
Peanuts are the favorite dish of Madalyn Taylor, Otis Rolls, Fred Wells, Rebecca Welch, and Ruth Cornell now.
Why did Marian leave one shoe on the stage after the shoe race? Gerald must be ashamed of his leg—else why did he wear boots when he had his pants leg rolled up?
Dog-collars are an exceedingly scarce article in Clarendon, or so the Fish girls say. We also heard that they (dog-collars) keep your neck warm.
According to Mr. Larimer, Lipsticks are not standard measuring tools. Girls, please note.
Does Jesse Cornell have an Ideal Woman and if so why is he so ashamed of her that he won't talk about her in public?
We hear that Gene Butler can do any sort of dance except a Spring Dance. He is just too modern for that.
Ruth Cornell is not sorry that she learned Chaucer's Prologue now; she even remembered it better than anything else except her name.
Lola Bryant must be an exception; we thought every Fish knew a Nursery Rhyme of some kind.
Some outstanding vocalists have been discovered in C. J. C. They are thinking of going in for opera when they have mastered "Down by the Old Mill Stream."

"Chan at the Olympics," Race-Paced Mystery, Breaks Thrill Records

In a mad relay of thrills, shudders and bafflement, with a hundred thousand wildly cheering spectators, every one a suspect, in the stadium, Death holds the stop watch, starting Charlie Chan on his greatest case in the Twentieth Century-Fox mystery hit, "Charlie Chan at the Olympics," opening Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 27 - 28, at the Pastime Theatre with Warner Oland in the title role.
"Even champion athlete cannot outdistance murder!" observes the wily Chinese sleuth, adapted from the character created by Earl Derr Biggers, in the race-paced thriller pitting him, at appalling odds, against a murderous spy ring.
Striking at canny Chan through his "number one" son, again played by Keye Luke, the ruthless gang, headed by Katherine de Mille and C. Henry Gordon, is successful in stealing from under the very eyes of the government a secret airplane radio-control device, not omitting murder in the process.
To save his son, Chan follows the fleeing thieves to Europe, overtaking their ship, which is also carrying teams to the Olympic Games, by transatlantic Zeppelin.
Among the athletes aboard are Pauline Moore and Allan Lane, a romantically inclined, muscular young pair selected by the spies as proper dupes to smuggle the radio device ashore.
In the cleverest bit of sleuthing of his long, infallible career, Chan succeeds in rounding up the criminals by the substitution for the secret robot of a radio direction-indicator, which reveals their hide-out to the police.
Directed by H. Bruce Humberstone with John Stone as associate producer, the film was adapted for the screen by Robert Ellis and Helen Logan from an original story by Paul Burger.

What Would HAPPEN—

If Ethelyn Drennan could keep both of her shoes in typing.
If Fred Wells would settle down to one certain girl.
If Frances Grady had to be chief cook at every buffet dinner of the Home Economics department.
If Christine Knox and Dorothea Riley did not argue about Texaco and Gulf gas.
If Earl Porter was not the center of attraction for Jo Ann Smith.
If Yvonne Smith didn't sharpen her pencil so much in the second period.
If Billie Lou Gilbert's two front teeth would appear.
If Phebe Ann Buntin didn't have a car.
If we could all find A's on our report cards instead of F's.
If Johnnie Rhodes showed her preference for a phone call every night or a letter from Claude.
If Ruth Cornell could find better nicknames than "Chunky" and "Squirrel Tooth."
If Rayburn Smith studied his history lesson.
If the library had been full of Hart's Contemporaries Thursday.

RAMBLINGS—

Why is everyone so happy? It is because the six weeks tests are over, or is it the lovely weather? It might be the happy prospects of the Bronchos winning at least one game next Friday.
It's rather interesting to sit in the study hall and watch certain people. It's really impolite but when a person is idle he will naturally gaze. For instance, there's Raymond Hay who just shot Dempsey Robinson with a paper wad. Doesn't he look innocent? There's Fred Chamberlain gazing into space probably wondering what he's gonna get for Christmas. Carl Morris, straining his neck to see Max Rappy, wishing he was that tall. Dona Adams, looking dreamy eyed, wondering if Joe Clyde will be up tonight.
Just wondering where Billie Cooke's destination was when he left main street in such a hurry.
There's nothing like a Camel or Lucky Strike on Thursday nights at Pep meeting to clear the throat, eh girls.
If your nerves are jumpy, for your own sake, don't take typing! If the typing does not run you crazy, other typists will.
Billie Cooke, the galloping ghost and passing quarterback, was called out of typing class to report to duty in the Broncho corral once again.

"BAKING FAILURES UNNECESSARY," DECLARES HOME ECONOMICS EXPERT

Baking failures have become far less frequent as more and more housewives learn the first rule of successful cookery—to use standard, high-quality ingredients in accurate recipes with explicit directions.
Take, for example, the "balanced" recipes developed and proved by Mary Ellis Ames, Director of Pillsbury's Cooking Service. These recipes are tried again and again until every possible source of failure has been corrected. When they pass the final test, they are as nearly failure-proof as possible. A selection of some of the most popular, practical and novel recipes is then assembled in a recipe folder which is packed inside every bag of Pillsbury's Best Flour.
Baking Failure Costly
Mrs. Ames knows how costly a single baking failure can be. Eggs, milk, shortening, flour and all the other ingredients are lost—as well as the time of the busy housewife. That is one reason why Mrs. Ames stresses accurate measurements and gives step-by-step directions in her recipes.

Pillsbury's Best Flour is milled from a mixture of many choice wheats, which are carefully blended to produce a "balanced" flour suitable for all types of baking. Wheats may vary, but the flour never. Because of Pillsbury's Best and uniformity of the recipes provided by Mrs. Ames, the bugaboo of housewives—baking failure—is practically eliminated.
Pastry "Do's" and "Don'ts"
Another important thing to remember, according to Mrs. Ames, is that pastry should not be turned over when it is being rolled. After rolling has been started, it is better to keep a right and wrong side to the pastry and the dough should go "right" side up in the pan.
A piece of heavy canvas or duck makes a good rolling surface for pastry or cookie dough. Sprinkle a little flour on it and rub it into the meshes of the cloth. A white, ribbed cotton stocking—a child's stocking with the foot cut off—slipped on the rolling pin and lightly floured is a simple precaution against sticking.

Why National Advertisers USE THIS NEWSPAPER. People are interested in other people, especially in people they know. That's why hundreds of families in this community subscribe to this paper year after year. On these pages they find the names of fellow townspeople, often their own. So besides the ordinary interest of nation-wide news, this newspaper offers the even greater reader-interest of local community doings. National advertisers believe that by using these columns they are reaching the greatest number of substantial families in this community, reaching them at home and in an effective and friendly manner. But this newspaper performs another important service. By displaying the advertising of local merchants side-by-side with the products of national advertisers these national products become identified with the local market, with local merchants. In this way, on these pages is forged the important last link between the manufacturer and his local community dealer and their customers. TWO WAYS TO ROB YOURSELF

There are two ways in which you may do yourself injustice; by under-insurance of your property or over-insurance.

By refusing needed additional insurance you are in danger of assuming a fire loss beyond the limits of your present policy protection. In other words you are inadequately insured! On the other hand you may be wasting good money year after year for too much insurance.

Your needs change from year to year. Let us examine your policies and help you.
