RAIN IN COUNTY DELAYS PICKING

TOTAL PRECIPITATION OF .66 INCH TO MATERIALLY AID WHEAT.

Moisture to a total of .66 received in Donley county since last Friday has materially slowed up cotton picking, but is a boon to wheat, farmers say.

A heavy shower of short duration but with a measurement of .06 was received last Friday night, then .10 Monday night and .50 Tuesday, with only a trace for Wednesday, according to Joe Goldston, weather observer.

Overcast skies predict more precipitation for the week, with weather forecasts indicating warmer weather in the northern portion of the Panhandle, following the norther experienced the first of the week.

The rains brought much colder weather into the Panhandle for the week, with Amarillo reporting a low of 38 degrees for Wednesday morning at 7:00 a. m., with a high of 47 at 4:00 p. m.

CARROL CREEK DAM SITE IS FAVORABLE

PRELIMINARY ENGINEERS REPORT DETAILED STUDY TO BE MADE.

The possibility of a dam site out on Carrol Creek in the Goldston community, for irrigation purposes is further evidenced by reports of preliminary engineers who investigated the feasibility of the project and stated that engineers of the Land Use Division of the Farm Security Administration would come to this county to make a more detailed study of the irrigation prospects.

The section on Carrol Creek has been said to have all indications of it being possible to construct a dam that will be practical and will hold water with a minimum amount of seepage.

The construction of a dam, or series of dams, at this point would be worked out by the Farm Security Administration in its program of conserving moisture for crop benefits.

Feed crops in this locality that have been irrigated by pumps, have shown remarkable increases in tonnage per acre over crops in nearby fields that have not been irrigated.

Aggie Boys Rebuild Football Bleachers

The lack of seats on the north side of the football field for the use of visitors and their pep squads, gave impetus to the hard-working F. F. A. boys, who remedied the problem by rebuilding the old bleachers that formerly occupied this position.

The bleachers had been removed by workers of the WPA project and the used lumber stored. The lumber was in rather poor shape, but the boys built the bleachers with an unusual amount of reinforcement to make them much stronger than they were.

Lions Club Members Get Quiz On Texas

The program at the weekly Lions Club meeting Tuesday was in the form of an informal quiz on facts about Texas that provided instructive information and entertainment for the club members.

A 90 per cent attendance was reported by the secretary, Rev. Robert S. McKee.

J. R. Gillham announced the boxing carnival that was held Tuesday night for the benefit of the F. F. A., in order to send two boys to the national convention.

LIGHTS TO AID SAFE DRIVING

TRAFFIC LIGHT AT BANK CORNER SIGNALS GREATER SAFETY EFFORT HERE

Mayor W. H. Patrick announces that the traffic light on Kearney Street and Highway 5 intersection at the bank corner, will likely be in operation by the first of next week. Part of the equipment is here and when one or two items are received the installation will be speedily made, since the supporting posts were set in place and are ready for their burden.

"The city has gone to considerable expense in the installation of the traffic light" said Mr. Patrick in a conversation with the News editor, "and we are hoping that the public will recognize that the light is for their own safety, and accord their very best co-operation." The green and red lights are set on twenty second intervals, with the usual amber neutral period between. Every effort will be made to educate the motorists in obeying properly the signals, and after a period of kindly correction to those who fail to observe the stop signals, the "lid will be clamped on" and violators will be hailed to the City Hall for fines, with graduated penalties on incorrigibles.

This effort on the part of the city to protect local and through traffic at the most dangerous intersection in the city, is a part of a nation-wide safe driving campaign under the co-operation of the state highway patrol, the sheriff's department and the city.

Watch the traffic light as you approach the bank corner from either direction and observe its warnings in the interest of life and limb and no fines.

J. H. HURNS IN SLIGHT CAR ACCIDENT FRIDAY

Returning from Clay County last Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurn and Mrs. Sarah Stocking met with a car mishap when a Memphis car ahead turned abruptly from the highway at Carey without signal. The Hurn car smashed two left fenders and in swerving to the right crushed the right front fender on a tree, before the car could be brought under control.

Fortunately no one was hurt, and the Memphis man paid the bills for both damages.

GREEN CLAD IRISH TROUNCE BRONCS

CLARENDON ELEVEN TAKES ON POWER IN THIRD QUARTER FOR THREAT.

The Shamrock Irishmen, the team that claims to be without a star, used effective aerial and charging attacks to blast their way to a 27 to 0 victory over the Clarendon Bronchos under threatening skies last Friday night at College Field.

The Irishmen, in their brilliant green suits, took the first kickoff, and charging their way through the Broncho line scored 2 touchdowns in the first quarter of playing. Brothers kicked both extra points.

The third Irish quarter came in the second period following a speedy display of forward passes, Byars finally going through the center of the line.

Late in the third quarter the Bronchos recovered an Irish fumble on the Irish 12-yard marker to drive from there to their only serious scoring threat. McGowen made 2 yards, then the Bronchos drew a 5-yard penalty. McWhorter made 3 yards, with McGowen following up with another 3 yard gain. McGowen made 8 yards, then 1 yard, for a first down on the Irish 1-yard line. Four thrusts at the line failed to take the ball over for the touchdown. The ball went over to the green clad boys who kicked out of danger.

Soon after the lone Broncho threat and the Irish taking possession of the sphere they drove to their final counter with Brothers, outstanding Irish back, making the final distance to the goal line.

The game was almost abruptly broken up at the end of the third quarter by spectators being driven to their cars when the low-hanging clouds opened up for a heavy downpour of rain that lasted only a few minutes.

County Agent H. M. Breedlove and George Ryan were business visitors in Silverton Tuesday.

Grand Jury Returns Seven Indictment Bills This Week

Seedless Melons Are Grown Here

Seedless yellow-meated watermelons grown by John Howard on the Hayter place, and pulled from two vines perplexed the grower, the county agent, observers, and samplers of the melons and promises to send A. & M. agricultural experts into a huddle.

Such melon was brought into The News office the latter part of last week, and samplers declared it to have a good flavor, have solid meat and to be above the average as the eater was not bothered by seeds.

A sample was sent to A. & M. College to be tested in the college laboratories, and to see if experts could solve the paramount problem, how the variety can be reproduced.

Seven true bills of indictment were returned by the grand jury Wednesday afternoon, following their three-day session.

The indictments are as follows: Chas. Risley, drunk driving.

October Payments Old Age Pensions Slated For Cuts

Discontinuance of old age assistance after October, or a proration resulting in a sharp reduction in grants, was forecast this week by the Texas Board of Control in an official communication addressed to State Representative Harry N. Graves.

The official statement indicated the possibility that payments to the needy aged might not be made in November, December, January and, probably, in February. Cause of the crisis, as explained by the members of the Board of Control, which is the Old Age Assistance Commission, is that all, or nearly all, of the present available state assistance funds will have to be used to take care of $1,627,000 owed a Dallas bank and due not later than January 1.

Further, it was pointed out, the income from present state sources is $100,000 less each month than Texas funds paid to the needy aged, which necessitates a drastic reduction in the size of the average grant. Grants average about $14 per month.

COUNTY AGENT DEFINES LOANS

LOAN COTTON IS NOT ELIGIBLE FOR SUBSIDY PAYMENTS LETTER SAYS.

In order that cotton producers will not confuse the difference between 'loan cotton' and 'sold cotton,' H. M. Breedlove, county agent, has mailed each producer in Donley county a letter explaining the difference in relation to the Commodity Credit Corporation.

This cotton is not considered "sold cotton" but is merely in the loan, and is not eligible for subsidy payment until sold, which must be before July 1, 1938. A producer may not order the Commodity Credit Corporation to sell his cotton for him, but he can at any time pay the note, interest and other charges thereto, and sell his cotton. When he does this he will receive a subsidy payment not to exceed three cents on his cotton on the day it is sold. He will receive the difference between the average of the ten spot markets and twelve cents, not to exceed three cents in subsidy. If a producer does not sell his cotton that he places in the government loan, before July 1, 1938, no subsidy payment will be made. Cotton Sale Certificates must be executed on cotton sold, and not on cotton placed in the loan now," the letter said.

COMMISSIONERS APPROVE TAX ROLL, ANNUAL BUDGET

POULTRY SHOW TO BE HELD DALHART OCT. 22-23

NEW EXHIBITS GIVEN MUSEUM

FORTY-FOUR NAMES ARE ADDED TO REGISTER OF VISITORS.

The Donley County Museum continues to be a feature attraction each Monday afternoon, as officials state that within the last three weeks forty-four new names have been added to the 1,800 already in the register.

Officials said the museum would continue to be open during the fall and winter from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m., each Monday.

The museum was recently moved to the basement of the old girls' dormitory, entrance to which is by the east door of the building, because of the many new additions of curios and heirlooms, requiring larger quarters.

According to Mrs. L. S. Bagby, custodian, over 2,000 items are now on exhibit, about 100 of which have been entered in the last six months.

Among the latter loans and gifts are an old Blue Back Speller, some hand woven baskets and some moss from the Brook-Green gardens of South Carolina, all donated by Mrs. J. D. Swift who recently presented a brass helmet worn by a soldier in the World War, and an odd shaped gourd found on the Gilbert place. Bob McKee presented a piece of barbed-wire dug from the ground at the site of Old Clarendon.

The museum board is eager to secure a loan of furniture for the production of a bedroom in a pioneer home. Any information as to where such pieces may be found will be gladly received by the officials, Mrs. Bagby said.

At the last meeting of the Les Beaux Arts Club, the program was interestingly dedicated to the growth of the museum, and at the close of the meeting, the club visited the museum in a body, and were enthusiastic over the new arrangement.

The custodian urges all who

THE NATIONAL SITUATION AT A GLANCE

Gleaned from reliable sources The Clarendon News is presenting a side-glance of the national political situation and its general relation to the economics of the country. Certain deductions offered seem reasonably probable:

If a president submits a legislative program to a congress, and it is defeated or tabled in whole or in part, he has several choices of future courses of action. He can use the immense power of the presidency in an attempt to influence senators and representatives who oppose him—something that has been done many times, with varying success, ever since patronage became a major political weapon. Or he can accept his defeat with more or less equanimity, as Hoover did when confronted by an unfriendly House after the election of 1930, and trust to time to prove him right or wrong. Or he can "go to the people" with his program, and try to muster sufficient strength in his support to sway the congress—which always keeps an ear to the ground.

On at least two previous occasions, presidents—faced with splits in their own parties over major policies—have gone to the people. Taft did in 1909, when the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, which all but closed America to imports, was passed, and resulted in the defection of many prominent Republicans from the Administration. Taft failed, the Republican Bull Moose bolt followed, and in the next election the President received the worst beating ever taken by an incumbent, carrying but two small states.

Then came Wilson and the League of Nations issue. The Senate refused to ratify American participation in the League—and the war President, fresh from his European triumph, determined on a swing around the country. The tragic results of this are history—Wilson collapsed physically at Wichita, and from then on until his death, was a sick man.

And now, in the view of practically every newsman, President Roosevelt, after a Congress which turned down one of the most far-reaching Administration programs in our history, has also gone to the country. As Jay Hayden writes, "The one thing that can be said with reasonable certainty respecting President Roosevelt's nationwide swing is that it is primarily concerned with the rebellion of congressional Democrats . . ."

Men close to the White House say the defeat of the Court bill rankles bitterly in the President's mind. He regards it as essential to his objectives. And it is widely believed that he intended to talk in support of the bill in the halliwicks of its Democrat opponents, such as Wheeler and O'Mahoney. The fact that he did not refer to it is credited to the Black Ku Klux Klan disclosures, which forced a change of plan. It is felt that the President's future declarations on the subject will be deferred until it can be determined what will be the country's reaction to the Black appointment, and Black's radio speech in what he admitted past Klan membership and at the same time declared his faith in racial and religious freedom.

Futhermore, Presidential advisors fear that there may have occurred a serious loss in the Executive's public popularity. A Fortune survey indicates that he has lost supporters in all the economic divisions, and that the

The Chains of the Constitution

Why does our Constitution limit the powers it grants to our Government?

All recorded history—thousands of years of it—show that governments with unlimited powers always become autocratic, oppressive or despotic. The American Colonies suffered from this, rebelled against England and then framed our Constitution to safeguard us from that evil. By actual experience as well as from history they learned to fear an all-powerful government and so made ours a government with limited powers—with such powers only as "we the people" enumerate in our Constitution.

Concerning this, Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence and our third president, says: "Confidence is everywhere the parent of despotism. Free government is founded in jealousy and not in confidence! It is jealousy and not confidence which prescribes limited Constitutions to bind down those we

"In questions of power then," concludes Jefferson, "let no more be heard of confidence in man but bind him down from mischief by the chains of the Constitution."

Copyright 1937 by Max Berns

great part of this loss followed the Court bill fight. But the tide of public thought can change fast, and the Administration hopes that any losses can be repaired, and that the best cure lies in Mr. Roosevelt making himself seen and heard by as many voters as possible especially in the Mountain and Pacific Coast states, where, it is thought, losses have been most serious.

A reporter on the Presidential train recently wrote that all the experts aboard felt sure that the President plans on calling a special session of Congress this November. Main object of the session will be farm legislation—an apparently large and vocal part of agriculture seems to want a new AAA. If the Administration thinks the time is right, and if the hoped for change in public sentiment follows the tour, the Court bill will likewise be introduced again in the special session. Otherwise it will be held over until January.

So on the one hand the Administration finds its standing in the public eye materially below the level attained last year. And on the other, as political realists point out, the magnitude of Federal unemployment and farm relief activities has created a vast army which is financially under obligation to the New Deal. Also important, in the view of some experts, is the fact that there is no outstanding opponent of the President—no Republican has shown that he can exert any real pull on the voters. An opposition without good leadership always faces hard going.

"Business lumbered along with a heavy foot this week," says Business Week. That is true of all recent weeks. There have been few important setbacks in production. There has been a setback in sentiment, due to the market slump.

Lumber orders are down, and steel mills have curtailed operations. Construction is slightly under the level of a year ago.

General consensus seems to be that there has been a halt in the previously fast march of recovery, but that no major new drop is to be expected.

LET'S SUPPORT OUR FOOTBALL BOYS

The News is frankly disappointed at the attendance of local people at the football game last Friday evening, when our High School Bronchos battled the strong Shamrock outfit on College Field.

Clarendon, this is no time to ease off on our support of the home team. The Bronchos are young and green this year, and if ever at all now is the time when they need home backing. They are bravely battling in a circuit of strong competition this year, and while we know we must be content with low standing, we should also remember the years when we were strong and the other schools of the district had to absorb unishment at our hands.

Let's be good sports and "take it" this year, for it is our year to be the "under dog." Let's support our Bronchos. Let's turn out in usual strength to all the home games.

If the Bronchos can "take it" out on the field for sixty minutes, surely we can in the stands.

REAPING ILL-GOTTEN PROFITS

We claim that any editor who allows liquor ads to run in his newspaper is knowingly or unknowingly reaping profit on drunkenness and youth delinquency as liquor is today one of the major causes of youth delinquency.

We further claim that any advertiser who runs ads in liquor advertising mediums is also thoughtlessly assisting in this game of "greed and youth delinquency."

Youth does not naturally rush towards roads of drunkenness and crime, they are urged by ads, propaganda, environment, pictures and many other subtle methods to travel these roads by "greed" who profits by the traffic.—San Gabriel Valley, Cal., Press.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

AUSTIN. —Taking the economy bull by the horns, the Texas senate this week defied Gov. Allred in his refusal to permit it to consider reduction of appropriations, and took up consideration of Grady Woodruff's economy bill, which would slice $4,000,000 off departmental appropriations for the next two fiscal years.

Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul broke one of the rare tie votes in the senate this week to vote in favor of state employees who are being victimized by Austin loan sharks.

NAMES AND NEWS.

Curtis Hill, formerly a district attorney in East Texas, and one of the ablest assistants attorney general, has resigned to enter private law practice with a Dallas law firm.

BRAIN TRUSTERS RUN WILD.

Over on the house side, spectators were treated to a strange sight. Dominated by Allred's ring of youthful brain-trusters—the majority of them kids just out of their teens, some still studying law—a subcommittee of the taxation and revenue committee sat for a continuous 13-hour hearing.

They bandied figures running into the millions of dollars about like pennies, defied a large delegation of solid citizens who came to protest higher taxes by granting them a scant 45 minutes in the wee hours of Thursday morning to voice their protest, and came out with a $10,000,000 omnibus tax bill that will hike taxes on the oil industry, sulphur, public utilities, cement, and amusements, including movie admissions—from 30 to 50 per cent and more.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

With the session half gone, it is becoming increasingly obvious that the Allred program of $15,000,000 of new taxes is sunk without a

State Health Officer Gives Cancer Warning

AUSTIN, Texas — "The increasing number of persons in Texas dying from cancer justifies a warning at this time against quacks and so-called cancer cures," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"While newspapers, as a rule, do not carry the cancer type of advertising, there are many other ways for misinformation to reach the public. Undoubtedly there are persons who, being thus detoured from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer are fleeced out of much money for a cure."

the two methods are combined. Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves and diets are valueless.

"The great bulkwork against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency and it is unfortunate that the majority of those with cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond a permanent cure. No hope should be placed in fake cancer propbets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to your physician of any symptoms which may be suspected to be the beginning of cancer, should be required. These symptoms are: any unusual bleeding from any body opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body; any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion. These conditions may not be cancer, but sometimes they are forerunners of the more common types of this disease. Where cancer is suspected, do not delay, but consult your family physician at once," Dr. Cox admonished.

There Is Always Worship Fellowship—Service

The problem of human suffering has bewildered men of all ages. Why do people have to suffer? The innocent as well as the guilty, the righteous together with the wicked, the just and the unjust, the rich and poor, the learned and illiterate, the privileged and underprivileged all suffer. Why? Something causes it. There is something wrong that needs righting. Wrong rules the land, and waiting justice sleeps, while the world mingles in selfish strife and freedom weeps. There is but one cause for human suffering upon the earth. Sin is the answer. The presence of sin brings about all sorrow. Sin is an everlasting disturber of the peace. It is back of every tragedy. The grim fact of sin is our trouble. How we do need to unite in our fight against sin.

Former Clarendon Man Marries

A wedding of much interest to his many friends in Clarendon was that of Mr. James R. Williamson, brother of Mrs. B. C. Antrobus, to Miss Charlene Johnson, the ceremony having been performed in Berger Sunday.

Before a beautiful background formed with lighted ivory tapers in brass candelabra, salmon pink gladioli, ferns and palms. Miss Charlene Johnson of Amarillo became the bride of Mr. James R. Williamson, also of Amarillo, Sunday afternoon, at the vesper hour, five o'clock, in the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Victor K. Aubrey, pastor, officiated at the ring ceremony.

Proceeding the nuptial vows, Mrs. C. R. Berrien, pianist, played Schubert's "Serenade," and Nevin's "Venetian Love Song," Mrs. Victor K. Aubrey read "A Birthday" and "Love Sonnet from the Portuguese" accompanied to the strains of MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose," Mrs. Clem D. Richardson of Fritch, sister of the bride, sang "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms."

The bride was attended by Miss Virginia Doty of Amarillo, maid of honor, Misses Jessie Pierce and Helen Hamilton of Amarillo, who lighted the tapers, and little Adelaide Ruth Berrien, of Berger who scattered rose petals.

James Newby of Amarillo attended the bridegroom and Charles and Tom Boyd served as ushers.

The bride wore a Wallis blue velvet made on princess lines and trimmed in baby Irish lace. She carried a bouquet of salmon pink roses and lace carnations and pompons, entwined with baby breath and fern and tied with a satin ribbon. The attendants corsaged were of white carnations.

HEDLEY P. - T. A. HAS "SAFETY PROGRAM"

Is your home safe as a busy highway for your child and is our school system taking precautions to prevent a replica of the "New London Disaster" was the theme of the Hedley Parent and Teacher's association in their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, October the seventh at four o'clock in the high school auditorium. In the plays, "Penny Wise and Pound Foolish" and "Mr. Brown Resolves to Have Safety in His Home," we realized that more serious accidents occur from carelessness and foolish thrift in the homes than on our streets and highways. We saw some good object lessons how to make our homes safe.

Supt. W. C. Payne assured us that all precautions were being taken by the school body to avoid any disasters.

Our next meeting will be on November 4, 1937.

TO MAKE BETTER MINDS
(An Editorial)

Every year the number of persons entering mental hospitals is almost as large as the number who graduate from colleges and universities. That is, for every educated young man or woman added to our adult society, one person has to be taken away because his mind or nerves have been unable to stand the strain.

In every social gathering, in every office, in every factory are people who are queer or difficult to get along with. Some are irritable, unreasonable; some are timid or jealous and bad-tempered; some are oversensitive and moody; others are too aggressive. And so millions of dollars are now being spent in an attempt to discover the causes which lead to mental breakdown.

We know, first of all, that mental hygiene must begin in the home. If family life can be made more harmonious, if parents can understand themselves and their children better, many pitfalls that hinder normal development can be avoided. The school also can do much preventive work. Here the child first ventures into the real world in which he must fit into an environment not shaped primarily to satisfy his personal desires. He must stand on his own feet and learn how to get along with others. The teacher should regard the task of developing stable personalities as more important than turning out mathematicians or historians. It is a good omen that child guidance clinics are becoming an integral part of the more progressive school systems.

Even though we have made phenomenal progress during the past thirty years, much remains to be done. We need more intelligent community planning so that there may be an abundance of recreational centers, playgrounds, opportunities for music, drama and handicrafts. These provide outlets for mental, emotional, and social development and they ought to be freely available to people at every income level, in every social class and in every range of intelligence.

By putting to use the knowledge we already have and the new knowledge we are gaining, we can give millions of Americans steadier nerves and better minds and so make life happier for them and for their families.

SOPHOMORES INITIATE FRESHMEN THIS WEEK

CHS Press Club Is Organized Monday

Seven students met with Miss Hendrick on Monday afternoon, October 11, for the purpose of organizing a Press Club.

Officers elected are: President, Charles Murphy; Vice-President, Marian McCormack; Reporter, Mary Charlotte Word.

It was decided that the club would meet each Monday afternoon and programs are to be planned for every other meeting. All students who are interested are urged to attend the next meeting. Class and club reporters especially are urged to come.

S & NS

No wonder people lose faith in the human race and become hermits. After I go to all the trouble to show exactly how the Bronchos can beat Shamrock, what happens! Those Irishmen do nothing but make a liar out of me and my figures. And there was not a flaw in all of my calculations. (The old manias).

I did, however, do better than our sports editor. He tried to beat around the bush by predicting that the team that fought harder would win. The Bronchos fought harder. It was not necessary for Shamrock to fight; all they had to do was to get the ball. So I am not the only one that was wrong.

The Bronchos did make several very nice runs, trying to catch up with the Shamrock ball-carriers.

Joke of the week:
Her pa: Say, it's past midnight. Do you think you can stay ere all night?
He: Gosh, I'll have to telephone mother first.

But mostly on the just because
The unjust has the just's umbrella.

No, little one, the Fish are not crazy. It's only Freshman Week. I wish to commend the Fish on their excellent job of transporting the Sophs to school. If your ears were just a bit longer.

"That will be enough out of you," said the doctor as he stitched the patient together.

F. F. A. SPONSORS BOXING TOURNAMENT HELD TUES.

The Future Farmers of America with Mr. Gillham as sponsor held a boxing tournament at the College Auditorium Tuesday, October 12. Fifteen matches of three one-minute rounds each were fought by the boys ranging in weight from 78 to 200 lbs. The winners of these matches will meet Tuesday, October 19, and on successive Tuesday until a winner is declared. The winners in each weight division will receive Golden Gloves as award. An admission charge is made of ten and fifteen cents.

Carbon Paper at The News.

This week the annual initiation of the Freshmen is being conducted by the Sophomores. The poor Fish are having quite a time and are also having a lot of fun. The rules are as follows: all Freshmen must stand up when a Soph enters the room; a Freshman must do anything, except in regard to money matters, that a Soph asks. Monday, the Fish had to carry tapemeasurers and find these dimensions: Mr. Drennan's Height; 6 ft. Length of Mr. Burton's foot (13 inches), Mr. Stewart's chest expansion (5 3-8 inches), Mr. Harris' waist (38 inches), Mr. Larimer's bald spot (7 by 3 1-2 inches) and the length of Miss Hendrick's arm.

Tuesday suitcases had to be carried and the signature of every teacher secured on an egg. The girls could not wear any makeup and the boys had to wear ribbons in their hair.

Wednesday, the boys and girls had to trade hats, wear socks on their shoes, and the boys had to ask Miss Cope for a date and the girls Mr. Hubbert.

Thursday, the Fish put on a chapel program under the direction of the Sophs and that night a party was held at the Parish House, at which all the Fish who did not carry out the regulations were punished.

COLLEGE CLUBS

The C. J. C. Curtain Club held a meeting last Friday morning the first period. Mr. Drennan was elected sponsor for the year and plans for a program in the near future were discussed. It was decided that the club would meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays in the Auditorium. Every college student is eligible and is urged to join the club.

The Alpha Sigma Chi Science Club held its first meeting last Wednesday night to entertain the pledges. Mr. Stewart reviewed an article, "The Purpose of Science Clubs," and Raymond Wood entertained the group with guitar and vocal selections. Randall Accord read the club rules to the pledges. The next meeting will be Wednesday, October 20, when the new members will be initiated. Anyone who desires to join the club but did not attend the first meeting should give his name to Randall Accord before the next meeting.

Range Rider

An improved team of Bronchos trotted on the field last Friday. The Bronchos, although crippled, showed a spirit that will make a winning team. The improvement that was most noticeable was the power displayed by the ponies. The work of the quarterback was argued by the many side-line coaches. They thought that a pass or an end run would have gained some yardage. I don't believe either would have gained any yardage, but either would have spread the defense. With the defense spread the line plays would have had more success.

The player who has shown most improvement this year is Meyers. He runs with more natural drive than any other player on the team. He is left handed and his passing is very deceptive. He needs more practice, however, in his punting.

At the first of the season when everyone predicted a fair team, there were boys enough for three teams. Since the Bronchos have been beat several times, the boys keep dropping out. If my sayso means anything, I'd say that it is very poor spirit.

While I'm at it I might say if the writer of S & NS makes any more predictions, like the one he made last week, somebody will hand him a free ticket to Wichita as non compos mentis. If he juggles figures this week, he had better watch his step.

ASSEMBLY

An Assembly was held Friday, October 8, the fifth period. The speaker for the hour was the Rev. E. D. Landreth of the Methodist church. He gave an interesting talk, stressing the things which were most important to choose: to have friends, to be honest, to be on time, to be clean, and to be big. Mr. Landreth also told several clever anecdotes which were very much to the point.

A brief pep rally was held and Mr. Drennan and Mr. Burton made their announcements.

Isadore Mellinger was in Dallas over the week-end.

Junior High School Has Football Team

An organization which has been needed greatly in the Clarendon school system has been organized. This is a Junior High football team. If the boys start training when they are in the lower grades, they will be players of some experience when they reach high school. Most schools already have this system.

Mr. Penick is coaching the team of about 25 boys in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. The team hopes to schedule some games with other teams soon.

WE WONDER

How June McMurtry likes to be thrown in sticker beds and why she insists on running around with just one shoe on? It sounds crazy, but just ask Bill Cooke, Peggy Word, Durward McCracken, Homer Tucker, or Mary Charlotte Word. They know all about it.

Why Jo Word was so excited Saturday night? It must have been that long-distance phone call. When Truett Holtzclaw got to be so good that he tries to keep other people from talking during assembly?

Why the Juniors are always talking to themselves? Somebody said they were just memorizing "The Man with the Hoe."

Why "Stopper" Powell didn't have better sense than to wear new shoes to a dance? Tsk! Tsk!

If everybody is as honest about gambling as Rayburn Smith?

Why all the college Freshmen were looking for tape measures Monday?

If "The Range Rider" couldn't get more school spirit and root for the Bronchos a little better?

What would happen if everybody took corners like Earl Porter does. Only he fools you—he never takes them.

Why Thad Lyle likes to go to Junior High for band practice.

Why Cleo Russell writes to a girl in California.

Whose picture Hazel Bingham fought for.

Why Ruth Blackman and Nelda Peabody are so inquisitive.

Whom Elgin Risley is going after in such a big way.

Whom Mary Lee Losson likes to go riding with and why.

Why Lucille Goldston and Sue Stone didn't get run over last Friday at noon.

Why Jack Rodgers disagrees with Miss Cope about her curves.

If Dorothy Jean Bogard got the idea when someone showed her what "embrace" meant.

FRIGIDAIRE WITH THE METER-MISER

PROTECTS YOUR FOOD AND PAYS FOR ITSELF!

● It is a mistake to believe that cool weather guards food against spoilage. Temperatures too cool for your comfort may be too warm to protect your food. All year 'round, food must be protected at safety-zone temperatures between 32 and 50 degrees Fahrenheit. Above this mark, spoilage is rapid. Below, foods freeze. Nature seldom maintains safety-zone temperatures. So don't depend on makeshift or old-fashioned, unreliable refrigeration methods. Health can be endangered . . . money can be wasted . . . when refrigeration is inadequate. There is really no need to be without proper protection. Frigidaire with the Meter-Miser safeguards food day and night, and proves it! Does this while paying for itself and paying a profit besides! Don't be without Frigidaire another day. Romantic Stars In Rough-House Love: "The Lady Escapes"

Running away from love is all right if you're sure that you're being followed, and Gloria Stuart acts upon this sage advice as the lovely fugitive in "The Lady Escapes," Twentieth Century-Fox romantic comedy, opening Thursday and Friday, Oct. 21 and 22 at the Pastime Theatre with Michael Whalen in what he thinks is the role of pursuer.

When their marital life turns out to be a martial life, with the husband holding the wife in his arms only to prevent her from socking him, the charming couple agree to disagree, but soon find they can't escape from love.

Besides, the vase-throwing spouse finds that she has a naturally affectionate and gregarious disposition, and refuses to release her husband-target until he finds a second husband for her.

An insanely joyous search for a substitute ensues both in America and abroad, so that international complications of a hilarious nature, which involve George Sanders, Cora Witherspoon and Gerald Oliver-Smith, work up to a hair-trigger climax amidst a Gallic frenzy on the French Riviera.

Eugene Forde, who directed the film, with Leslie L. Landau as associate producer, set such fast-paced standards for the picture that an unusual number of extra days was required for the filming and sometimes an entire day's shooting would result in only one minute's satisfactory film.

This was necessary, declared Forde, to maintain the same rough-and-tumble light-hearted atmosphere which made the novel and play, "My Second Wife," by Eugene Heltai, an outstanding Continental success. The screen play was adapted by Don Ettlin.

MINE OWNER'S SKELETON IS FOUND IN MINE

PORTLAND, Ore. — Discovery of a hidden mine with its original owner secreted far away in a cavern, his body undisturbed since death overtook him in bed nearly half a century ago, was related by Frank Smiths, Olympia, Wash., miner.

Seeking a short route to a quicksilver claim, Smiths said he saw a hole at the base of a cliff. He squeezed through and found himself in an underground vault. For half a mile he followed it, climbing steeply.

Then, Smiths said, he came to a drop against which rested a wooden ladder. He lowered himself into another cavern and beside a stream he found an old sluice box, rear it a stove and a bed, and on the pillow the skull of a man.

Under the blankets lay the skeleton of a large man. On the wall hung a muzzle-loading rifle, three inches deep in rust, and a single shot pistol. There were pots and pans, a sack of flour green with age, a shovel, a big trunk, a Bible, and books. There were tintypes of a man and his children.

In a suitcase, Smiths said, he found a postcard addressed to Isaac N. Huffman, and a deed transferring land from Esther M. to Isaac N. Huffman, Washington Territory. Other papers from Virginia dated back to 1878.

UNDERGROUND TANKS REDUCE HAZARDS AT GULF COMPANY WAREHOUSE

The installation of two underground kerosene and Ethyl gasoline tanks at the Gulf warehouse was completed the first part of the week, Simmons Powell said.

The underground tanks were put in to eliminate inside pumps on barrels, and to limit fire hazards to a minimum. With this work completed, Powell said his warehouse had reached a high standard for being fire proof.
