F. F. A. SWINE SHOW IS HUGE SUCCESS

THIRTY FAT PIGS ARE SHOWN AT ANNUAL AFFAIR SATURDAY

Fifty dollars in cash prizes were distributed to the winners in the annual Future Farmers of America Swine Show held in Clarendon last Saturday, and observers were very high in their praise of the stock shown, stating that the specimens were just as good as would be found in larger shows.

The animals were all of good quality and the success of the show will encourage the boys to feed two litters of pigs each year. J. R. Gillham, vocational agriculture teacher and sponsor of the local F. F. A. chapter said.

Thirty fat pigs were shown and were divided into 20 singles, four groups of three, and two litters and were judged by Ray Dunap, vocational agriculture teacher at Iake View, and former Texas Tech livestock judging team member, who made the following awards:

Singles first, Johnny Leathers, Hampshire barrow; second, Earl Shannon, Hampshire barrow; third, Frank Mahaffey, Poland China barrow; fourth, Darrell Bailey, Poland China gilt; and fifth, Earl Shannon, Hampshire barrow.

MALODORANT TO BE PLACED IN GAS

GAS COMPANY TO COMPLY WITH ACT PASSED BY LEGISLATURE

In order to comply with a law passed by the recent legislature, the City Gas Company will on and after September 25, continuously odorize the gas furnished to Clarendon customers, by the introduction of a malodorant into its gas, according to an announcement made public by Denzil Davis, local manager.

The law requiring a malodorant in natural gas lines was passed by the legislature following the catastrophe befalling the New London School several months ago when several hundred school students lost their lives in an explosion attributed to gas leaks.

The gas company notice says that if an unusual odor is detected at or near the premises, it will be an indication of a gas leak, and should be reported to the gas company and to call the plumber or gas fitter to make the necessary repairs.

LEWIS INSURANCE ACCOUNT CHANGED TO PATMAN CO.

The business of the late Rev. Leon O. Lewis, Fire Insurance Agency will be continued by the J. T. Patman and Son Insurance agency, according to an arrangement made with the Lewis heirs.

Mr. Patman stated that the protection given Rev. Lewis' clients would continue uninterrupted.

BRONCS TO BATTLE WELLINGTON TEAM

SCHOOL OFFICIALS WANT CARS TO TRANSPORT TEAM AND PEPSQUAD

The Clarendon Bronchos will journey to Wellington Friday night for the first conference game of the year with the Wellington Skyrocks. It is the second game of the Bronco's schedule. Accompanying the team on the trip will be the Clarendon High School band and the pep squad, and a number of local fans.

The game is expected to be a spirited one as the Wellington squad is considered by some to be strong contenders for the district championship. The Skyrocks walloped the Wheeler team last Friday to the tune of 36-6. The Wheeler team was district champion last year.

Superintendent H. T. Burton and Band Director Ray Robbins have issued a plea for cars to transport the team and pep squad to Wellington Friday night. Any car owner willing to assist the schools is urged to call Burton at telephone 194-J.

Milking Class B Football And Jeopardizing Its Future

AN EDITORIAL

For a number of years there has been a rising tide of sentiment that football in Texas high schools was over emphasized—something that The Clarendon News has not concurred in as yet.

However, there has transpired certain events which has brought huge added cost to the sport in all our Texas towns, and today many school trustees and a growing number of school superintendents and teachers are being driven to the conclusion that football in the ordinary high school will have to be abolished on account of its excessive cost and the burden of oversight on the part of the school heads.

During the flush times preceding the depression officiating high school games cost about ten or twelve dollars, but there has come about such a commercialization of the sport that today the officials in this territory—maybe others too—are being paid upwards of $25 per game. Football equipment is being sold on such exorbitant profits and such unnecessary terms, that with the heavy investment in football fields, stadia and lighting equipment, the sport is being made to carry a cost that is breaking down of its own weight causing many erstwhile ardent supporters and fans to lose their enthusiasm for the game, to the point of becoming open and active in their opposition to it as the all-absorbing major sport of the high schools of the state.

In every town and community there are those who make no bones of attempting to "horn in" on the games without paying admission—something which has added to the terrors of the situation for the school authorities and shortened the cash receipts for paying off the mounting costs of the sport.

Now fellow-citizens of the Panhandle, something is going to have to be done to cure so many evils of the situation, or football outside of cities of less than ten thousand people is doomed.

Ten or fifteen dollars per game can be cut off the expense by the officials restoring "expense" basis to their charges, which will mean a restoration of football to something nearer amateur standing. Football equipment can be purchased by an authorized committee on a basis nearer the worth of the merchandise, and other activities included in the sport can be done by supporters of the team, as much of the work is now being done by citizens who give of their time to promote the sport in the community. We know men in every Panhandle town who donate their time, their automobiles, their effort to keeping football afloat in the community.

This milking of football on the field by officials—many of whom would be present to scout the game anyway—by unashamed gate-crashers; by profit-mad athletic goods houses—and every other avenue of commercialization, must stop or the breaking point is not far away.

The future of high school football is at stake. It cannot carry on like it is today, almost on the same basis as the college sport, without creating a rebellion on the part of school trustees and authorities which will sound the death-knell of one of the finest sports this nation has ever known.

The News has always supported football and other athletics—it is supporting football today, but there are certain signs of danger present which will ruin the game for us all if they are not checked.

Here in the Panhandle, The News believes there are capable officials who are lovers of the sport, who can be brought to see this menace and who will be willing to contribute their services for the good of a great amateur game on "expense basis." The other items will be subject to the determination of the school boards or athletic committees doing the purchasing of supplies and equipment.

Let's stop the milking of football and keep it for our wholesome entertainment and for all the good that is in it.

Donley Has 235 Birds Exhibited

LOCAL MEN DRAW PRAISE FOR ASSISTANCE GIVEN C. OF C. MANAGER

The Donley county poultry exhibit at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair this week has 235 birds of 16 breeds and varieties distributed among 33 exhibitors, and has attracted much attention at the fair according to Donley county people who have visited the exhibition.

Success of getting the exhibits to Amarillo in two large loads was due to the hard work of Gilbert Mann, E. V. Quattlebaum, Lee Mears, Frank White, Jr., Bill McDonald and Sam Tankersly, J. R. Gillham, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said; and through the columns of this newspaper wishes to express his appreciation for the assistance of these men.

Gillham further said that he would receive all premiums awarded and give them to the exhibitors Saturday afternoon when the birds are returned to Clarendon. He asks that exhibitors call at the old Caraway building across the street from The Clarendon News, late Saturday afternoon for the birds.

The Future Farmers of America poultry judging team, composed of Beatty Hillman, Joe Williams and Eugene Putnam, placed second in the poultry judging contest held at the Tri-State Fair.

In the individual awards, Putnam placed sixth, Hillman ninth and Williams eleventh.

The team was second on examination, second on White Leghorns, second on Barded Plymouth Rocks, and first on Rhode Island Reds.

The FFA dairy judging team was composed of Jack Reeves, Jelly McGowan and Homer Speed, placed high but was not given ranking due to misplacement of placing cards by one of the team members.

Redecorations Are Underway at Bank

An extensive redecorating program now underway at the Donley County State Bank when completed will greatly enhance the beauty of the bank interior. The ceilings of the various rooms are being recovered with weather-proof insulating tile board.

The interior will be completely redecorated and painted in smooth harmony shades. A new roof covering has just recently been completed, officials of the bank said.

CHASE ELECTED TO SCHOOL POSITION

NAMED ACTIVE ASSISTANT SECRETARY BY SCHOOL BOARD THIS WEEK

The Clarendon Independent School Board at a meeting this week elected A. L. Chase as active assistant to W. W. Taylor, secretary.

Mr. Chase was chosen for the position because of his executive ability and his long years of association in business circles in the city and the splendid years of service he has rendered in civic affairs.

The position will be a combination of the duties heretofore performed by C. C. Powell, as tax collector and assessor; W. W. Taylor as secretary; and a special tax collector. Mr. Chase will maintain the school board office at the Clarendon Abstract Co. office.

Cotton Pickers Coming In

The expected shortage of cotton pickers in Donley county will in all probability be overcome if the presence of Mexican families in the city Wednesday are indications of more families coming to the county to pick the fleecy staple.

Three Mexican families were in the city yesterday making inquiries as to the cotton crop and where jobs could be obtained.

It is fully believed that the local relief laborers and others who will come to the county will amply provide enough pickers for the entire crop.

WESTERN UNION TO BE RELOCATED

OFFICE TO BE MOVED FROM ANTRIO HOTEL TO DOUGLAS & GOLDSTON DRUG

A contract has been signed by the Douglas and Goldston Drug Co., and the Western Union, whereby the Western Union office will be located in the drug store about October 1, officials of the drug store announced early this week.

For the past several months the telegraph office has been located at the Antrio Hotel, since it was removed from the office in the First National Bank building.

An engineer will come to Clarendon about Oct. 1 to supervise the moving of the instruments and rewiring at the new office.

City Commissioner, T. H. Pyle, who has been in a clinic in Temple for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. His condition is reported to be improving.

ASK GOVERNMENT COTTON CLASSERS

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE JOINS FARMERS IN URGING OFFICIAL CLASSER

Modification of the warehouse guarantee plan on cotton offered for government loans was urged here Wednesday in a wire to the department of Agriculture at Washington.

The Clarendon Chamber of Commerce joined the plea of Donley farmers for the appointment of an official cotton classer by the department since the warehouse and compresses were not willing to take the risk of final classification taking nothing but strict-middling cotton of fifteen-sixteenths staple, which means only about 20 per cent of Donley County cotton eligible under such conditions. Several compresses in the territory refuse to handle the cotton at all and only one accepting on the above strict terms.

The protest wire declared the warehouse position as detrimental to the whole loan plan of the government and urged immediate appointment of the government classers to handle the crop.

Donley Pigs Win Favor at Amarillo

Fat pigs that were shown here last Saturday at the F. F. A. Swine Show, and later taken to the Tri-State Fair, were complimented by prominent hog breeders who stated that the pigs were among the best in the country. Earl Shannon had a litter of five Hampshires at the fair while Johnny Leathers had a Hampshire barrow and Frank Mahaffey, a Poland China barrow.

According to Justice of the Peace W. A. Davis, two civil and one criminal cases are scheduled to be called on Monday morning, at the regular term of Justice Court.

BURTON EXPLAINS FOOTBALL FINANCE

APPEAL IS MADE TO CLUB FOR ASSISTANCE TO INCREASE REVENUE

Instead of a regular program at the weekly Lions Club meeting, Tuesday, Lion President, H. T. Burton explained the financial condition of the Clarendon High School Athletic Association, in that a heavy debt from the installation of lights was carried over to this year, and a portion of the current season's profit is to apply on the indebtedness.

Burton, as superintendent of schools, asked the Lions for assistance in reducing the outstanding debt, and to prevent persons getting into the playing field without paying. The manner in which scores of people have gone into the playing field without paying has caused the athletic committee to take steps toward eliminating this discrepancy; with the president of the Lions Club naming Sheriff Guy Pierce, chairman of a committee to guard the field entrances and patrol the fences. A group of Lions headed by P. B. Gentry, Ralph Andis and C. B. Morris will perform these duties at the home games. T. H. Stewart and L. B. Pennick were voted members of the club.

A. W. Hicks, chairman of the football sponsorship committee reported that $180.00 had been secured through Monday with many more calls to be made.

D. O. Stallings, chairman of the attendance contest committee, reported, and Ray Robbins, school band director, asked for cars to carry the school band to Amarillo Wednesday, which was Clarendon day at the Tri-State Fair.

R. E. Drennan announced that the Claude football game grossed $112.00, but that necessary expenses would reduce the amount to a very small net profit.

TIMELY SLOWING UP OF PUBLIC SPENDING

Many millions of serious minded Americans applauded President Roosevelt's executive order Tuesday closing the books of the Public Works Administration, and shutting off further PWA grants and loans. "Passing the economical extremity" was the reason assigned by the president for this major slowing up of the orgy of public spending which has burdened the American taxpayer for the last five or six years.

To the News this is one of the most heartening signs on the economic horizon and marks again the final impact of business on politics. Finally there can be no political action which is not based on sound business principles, and the commercial interests of the nation will be heard on all matters which effect the economic structure.

President Roosevelt has earned the approval of the spending must be stopped, and his action in shutting off the PWA agency which has pumped nearly three billions of dollars into thousands of communities is regarded by the wiser observers as the first step in bringing public spending back into line with national tax income.

President Roosevelt has earned the approval of the entire nation by this decisive move towards governmental economy.

WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN

There never was a better time for Clarendon people to "write your congressman" than right now. For a long time it has been traditional in America for citizens desiring any particular favor to "write their congressman," and with Clarendon having been given the mild "run-around" on the new postoffice building, now is the time to write Hon. Marvin Jones just what is in your heart about the matter.

Clarendon held supremacy during the black years of the depression over the other towns of the district in postal receipts—that is towns without federal postoffice buildings—and to be denied the postoffice now when funds are available just because one town got a few hundred dollars ahead on receipts last year (this is unconfirmed hearsay) is just too much for an expectant and trusting citizenship to undergo without considerable agitation and resentment.

There is a way to get Clarendon's postoffice—and the immediate path is by urging Congressman Jones to do the necessary things to bring it to pass.

Write your congressman. Tell him plainly what we want.

OIL TESTS FOR DONLEY COUNTY

The News has been conservative in heralding too much details of the activity in blocking acreage for oil drilling tests in Donley County, for fear that it would cause some people to delay the projected tests by holding out for cash on leasing their acreage within the proposed blocks.

Now it ought to be kept in mind that there is no cash being paid for acreage in such wildcat territory as Donley County still is, and it ought to be the aim of every land owner within a project to lease his land in the hope of bringing oil development to this county. If oil is discovered there will be profits enough for all—and there can be no discovery unless tests can be made.

There are more than half a dozen projected tests in the county at present, and they deserve the full co-operation of all interested parties, which they must have if the big companies are to be induced to drill in this wildcat territory.

Let us all pull together to give Donley full tests for the oil that most observers believe is present. The effort will be money in the pockets of the whole citizenship.

"LEND A HAND"

This year Fire Prevention Week will be observed from October 3 to 9. The slogan for the week, featured in posters and news releases issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, is "Lend a Hand."

This slogan is particularly apt. For if fire is to be prevented and controlled—and the hundreds of millions of dollars and thousands of lives fire destroys each year, are to be saved—all of us must lend a hand. Fire is largely an individual problem—each one of us, with the exercise of a little effort and care, can easily eliminate the common hazards on our property.

Fire Prevention Week is a few days away—but no one need wait for it. It is a simple matter to put on an individualized fire prevention period of your own, starting today. How long has it been since you cleaned out basement and attic—old newspapers, furniture, clothing and other odds and ends that are prolific sources of fire? In a few months maximum demands will be made upon your heating plant—before then, have it inspected by an expert, and if necessary, repair and replace parts. Remember that amateur electrical repairs may be the cause of turning your home into a heap of ash and wreckage, unless properly installed and inspected.

Yes, it's always time to "Lend a Hand" when fire is involved.

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL by MAX BERNI

Our Federal Courts

Why does our Constitution provide for a system of federal courts? "There are in the Constitution," says Daniel Webster, "grants of powers to Congress, and restrictions on these powers. There are also prohibitions on the States. Some authority must, therefore, necessarily exist, having ultimate jurisdiction. . . . The Constitution has itself . . . established that authority . . . by declaring that 'the Constitution and the laws of the United States, made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land. . . . No State law is to be valid which comes in conflict with the Constitution, or any law of the United States passed in pursuance of it."

But who shall decide this question of interference? To whom lies the last appeal? This the Constitution itself decides also, declaring [Article III] that "the judicial power [of the Court] shall extend to all cases arising under the Constitution and laws of the United States."

session, in the Judicial Act, a mode for carrying them into full effect and for bringing all questions of constitutional power to the final decision of the Supreme Court. It then became a Government. It had the means of self-protection and, but for this, it would in all probability have been now [1832] among the things which are past." Copyright 1937 by Max Berni

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

By Mrs. C. A. Burton

"Modern Lyrics," compiled by Dickinson, "Plays for Young People," compiled by Marsh, "A Book of Ballads," compiled by Katherine Lee Bates, and "The Golden Legend," by Henry W. Longfellow are our new acquisitions...

Every person who reads extensively is interested in what critics consider the best books on various subjects. A recent article in the Nelson Bulletin for Librarians tells that last summer on a London train an American librarian asked an English librarian why Americans read so many more modern English books than Englishmen read of American books...

In response to the challenge brought by this conversation, Grace O. Kelley and Harriet M. Baumgartner of the Readers Advisory Service of the Queensboro Public Library at Jamaica N. Y. have compiled a list of books on America by Americans, books written between 1920 and 1936...

artistic or appropriate expression of the author in addition to the usual criteria demanded of novels and other books of literary quality.

They have listed the books sectionally, and I was greatly interested to find how large a number of them were on our shelves.

From the northwestern states seventeen books were listed as representative and we have the following: "As the Earth Turns," Gladys Hasty Carroll; "Mary Peters," Mary Ellen Chase; "Drums Along the Mohawk," Walter D. Edwards; "Bonfire," Dorothy Canfield Fisher; "Blowing Clear," Joseph A. Lincoln; "One More Spring," Robert Nathan; "The Last Puritan," George Santayana; "The Rolling Years," Agnes Sligh Turnbull; "Age of Innocence," Edith Wharton. Besides these James Boyd, John Dos Passos and J. P. Marquand were mentioned as authors of certain books which we do not have, but we do have other books by these authors.

From the Southern States 13 books were given of which we have the following: "Happy Mountain," Marston Chapman; "Vein of Iron," Ellen Glasgow; "The Romantic Comelians," Ellen Glasgow; "Lamb in His Bosom," Caroline Miller; "Gone With the Wind," Margaret Mitchell; "Scarlet Sister Mary," Julia Peterkin; "South Moon Winks," Rawlings; "Time of Man," Elizabeth Madox Roberts; "So Red the Rose," Stark Young. Besides these we have other books besides the ones mentioned.

From the North and South Central States thirteen were given of which we have the following: "Cimarron," Edna Ferber; "Now in November," Josephine Johnson; "Main Street," Sinclair Lewis; "Giants in the Earth," O. E. Robaag; "The Folks," Ruth Suckow; "Alice Adams," Booth Tarkington. And we have other books by Margaret Ayer Barnes and Zona Gale.

From the Western and Southwestern States, eight were chosen and we have the following five: "Death Comes for the Archbishop," Willa Cather; "Honey in the Horn," H. L. Davis; "Laughing Boy," Oliver La Forge; "Enchanted Canyon," Homer Wilson Morrow; "Wild Geese," Martha Ostenso.

In the non-fiction class we have "The Epic of America," Adams; "The Rise of American Civilization," Beard; "John Brown's Body," Steven Vincent Benet and other books by Emerson Hough, Ludwig Lewisohn, H. L. Mencken, Christopher Morley and Edith Whorton.

Of course these are only a few of the many books on America by Americans. Many others equally as good are on our shelves. One of the outstanding achievements in translation has recently been made by Rev. Mr. Stiltz of the M. E. Church South in a translation of the New Testament into the Ottatela language—the language of an African people in the Belgian Congo. 4500 copies are being printed in New York.

A detective story contest has recently been announced by Dodd Mead & Co., of New York. A prize of $1,000 plus royalties will be awarded. The competition closes Dec. 31, 1937.

It is always pleasing to find talent in our midst, therefore the announcement that Miss Mary Cooke of Clarendon has won honors in the short story contest sponsored by the Tri-State Fair was of especial interest to us all.

FRAGRANT, REFRESHING, RELAXING—THIS 5-MINUTE BEAUTY BATH

That zero hour at the end of a strenuous day! When you're so tired you'd give up almost anything if you didn't have to get dressed up and go out that night.

"If only I had time for a beauty nap," you think. You haven't—but a Lux Toilet Soap beauty bath is a wonderful substitute. And it takes just a few minutes!

Unwrap a fresh cake of fragrant, white Lux Toilet Soap. Draw a tubful of fairly warm water. Step in—relax a minute or two until the pores become opened. Then cover yourself all over with the rich, perfumed lather.

The lather is ACTIVE, sinks deep into your pores. It removes stale perspiration, every trace of dust and dirt. You step out of the tub feeling like a new woman!

Your skin is smooth, sweet—you're sure of daintiness. A delicate lingering fragrance clings about you. Put on your prettiest dress—you're ready for the gayest evening now!

Hollywood screen stars—the loveliest women in the world—use Lux Toilet Soap. Jean Parker, Carole Lombard, Bette Davis and many others find it makes a luxurious beauty bath. The fragrance of Lux Toilet Soap pleases their critical taste—34 costly ingredients, gathered from all over the world and blended by experts, are used for its perfume. Yet it costs but a few cents a cake!

9 out of 10 screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap for their complexions, too. The ACTIVE lather guards against Cosmetic Skin—tiny blemishes, enlarged pores.

Smart women everywhere follow the screen stars' way to protect their charm. They keep this luxurious beauty soap always in their bathrooms—use it regularly for bath and complexion.

"No woman can afford to use a soap that isn't pure and gentle," says lovely Irene Dunne. "I value Lux Toilet Soap especially because of its ACTIVE lather."

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST

H. V. Crumley, Minister

The subject for the Sunday morning sermon will be, "What is the Church Worth to me, And What am I Worth to the Church." From God's word we find that the Church is a priceless institution. Its price is far greater than most of us think. God never has, nor will He ever, fail to bless and preserve this great institution which contains the redeemed of the earth. But on the other hand what am I worth to the church. If all the members were just like me, what kind of a church would this church be? Hear it discussed.

Sunday night at 7:30 there will be a rather odd but interesting lesson discussed, namely: "Some Hard Sayings of Jesus." There are some things that seem hard to some people, but are they really hard or is it because the heart is hard. Jesus said, "Few will be saved." Does this sound hard and narrow? Yet it is truth. No, Jesus' sayings are not hard, it is our heart. Hear it.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

There Is Always Worship Fellowship—Service

Next Sunday will be promotion Day at the Baptist Church. Following the regular promotion day services each of the Department Superintendents will present a complete list of the officers and teachers in their departments for election by the church, and set goals for the coming year. We have had very fine constructive year's work. The attitude and spirit of the membership indicates that we are beginning one of the best years in the history of our organization. Everyone is responding in a most unusual manner, offering themselves, their money and means for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom around the world.

There will be another baptismal service following the Sunday evening preaching service which begins at seven thirty. The Training Union will begin promptly at 6:45 p. m.

Train up yourself in the way you should go, and when you are old you will not regret it. It will be our great joy to fellowship with you in all the services Sunday.

J. PERRY KING, Pastor.

Miss Jo Ella Stewart Becomes Bride of Mr. Ralph E. Randel of Panhandle

Miss Jo Ella Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart, became the bride of Mr. Ralph E. Randel of Panhandle, this morning at ten o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

The ring ceremony was read in the living room, by the Reverend J. Perry King, Baptist pastor before an improvised altar of green and white. The background for the ceremony was pampas grass and trellis covered in a clematis vine. The door from which the couple entered was arched with Queen Ann's lace. Seven tier candelabra of silver with white tapers flanked either side of the artistic arrangement. Rose buds and dahlias decorated the connecting rooms.

Mrs. Sam Cauthen and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry accompanied by Mrs. Allen Bryan rendered pre-nuptial music. Mrs. Cauthen attired in a black and white sheer woolen tailored suit, played a violin solo, "Sweet Mystery of Life," and Mrs. McMurtry, who wore a black Arthur Weiss frock sang, "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Bryan wore a black tailored crepe dress with rhinestone buttons.

Tapers were lighted by Miss Berkeley Ryan who wore a blue sheer woolen dress and Miss Evelyn Murphy, who wore a black woolen tailored suit. They entered to the strains of "Traumerie."

Mrs. Bryan played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the couple entered unattended. The bride was lovely in a black velvet frock made along simple lines with a standing collar of white starched lace. Tiny covered buttons on white lace accentuated the front hemline. Her accessories were black and she wore a black velour felt turban with a modish veil. The bride's corsage was White Joanna Hill Roses. According to the age old custom she wore "something old and new, and something borrowed and something blue."

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Los Angeles, Catalina, San Francisco, The Painted Desert, and Salt Lake City.

As they left on their trip the bride was attired in a gray woolen costume suit. Topping a simple gray dress was a swagger coat of matching material banded in caracul. Her accessories were black and gray suede.

Mrs. Randel is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart, having been reared and educated in Clarendon. She attended Clarendon Junior College and for a number of years has been associated with The Clarendon News as Society Editor and News and Advertising Manager. She also was formerly associated with the Memphis Daily Democrat and Paducah Post.

Les Beaux Arts Club Opens New Year With Luncheon at Home of Mrs. Evans

The Les Beaux Art Club had a very auspicious opening for the year of 1937-38 at the luncheon Saturday, with Mrs. R. L. Bigger, Mrs. L. S. Bagby, and Mrs. J. W. Evans as co-hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Evans.

The home was beautifully decorated with cut garden flowers which were artistically arranged to carry out the Club colors. The tables were laid with lovely lace covers and place cards marked the places for each guest.

A most delectable three course luncheon was served and the menu consisted of grapefruit ice, individual steak, hot buttered rolls, rice, tomatoes, coffee, and tea, and doughnuts.

Mrs. Word, who is the outgoing president gave a very appropriate toast to the incoming president, Mrs. J. D. Swift, who responded very gracefully, and outlined some of the plans of the work of the Club for the coming year.

The program consisted of a monologue "Club Women on a Diet," which was given by Miss Anna Moores in a very clever and interesting manner.

A short business session followed the program and was presided over by the newly elected president, Mrs. Swift. The club voted to sponsor the establishment of a park as a memorial to Mary Anne Goodnight, wife of the late Col. Charles Goodnight. Mrs. Goodnight is said to have been the first white woman to take up residence in the Panhandle country, settling with her husband in the Palo Duro Canyon when the JA Ranch was founded.

Luncheon was served to one guest, Miss Mary Jane Bennett of Dallas, and the following members: Mesdames J. D. Swift, Walter Taylor, U. J. Boston, W. G. Word, Ralph Kerbow, T. S.

Barcus, C. C. Powell, J. D. Stocking and Misses Temple Harris, Anna Moores, Mary Howren, and the hostesses.

Devoted to the Students of Clarendon High School, Junior College and Junior High School

NO. 1

The Broncho Range

Published exclusively each week in The Clarendon News by students of the Junior College, High School and Junior High School.

STAFF

Editor - Jeanne McDonald
Asst. Editor, Marian McCormack
Sports Editor - Wesley Powell
Contributors to this issue: Mary Charlotte Word, Charles Murphy.

EDITOR'S CORNER

The staff and students wish again to thank The News for the use of this space for the Broncho Range.

If C. H. S. and C. J. C. are to have a newspaper this year, somebody is going to have to do a little work. As the staff is somewhat limited in number, not to say brains and initiative the services of other students will be asked. If you are interested in newspaper writing and have a good idea for an article, write it up and turn it over to Miss Hendrick or the editor.

You may be sure it will be printed if it is at all printable. But, all reports must be in by Tuesday morning the second period if they are to be printed in that week's paper.

FIVE NEW STUDENTS ENROLL IN HIGH SCHOOL

Five new students enrolled in high school this week. They are Billie Horton, Betty Blanch Neaves, J. H. Spier, Jr., Lois Heatherly and Wauling Haynes.

There are four students from Hedley attending C. J. C. this year. All are freshmen. They are Fred Wells, Margaret Davenport, Theresa Bain and Inell Biffle.

Now that we have some tennis courts, why don't the students start playing tennis during the grand fall weather? If the courts are played on continuously they will be in better condition when spring competition begins.

June McMurtry went to Vernon last week-end.

Non-Fiction Books Being Added to Clarendon High School Library

Several new books were received in the library last week.

Most of these books are essays and autobiography or biography. Included in these groups are G. K. Chesterton's "All I Survey," a typically Chestonian volume of literary criticisms, and anecdotes; Hilaire Bello's "On Nothing."

Virginia Wolf's "Common Second Reader," a collection of literary criticisms; George Gissing's "The Private Papers" of which in reality is an autobiography of Gissing; Joseph Conrad's last book, "Last Essays"; "And Even Now" Essays by Max Beerbohm; "The Inn of Tranquility," a very charming group of essays by John Galsworthy; "The Nemesis of American Business," a collection of articles which have appeared in various magazines by Stuart Chase; "Old Junk," by H. M. Tomlinson a modern English Author; a volume of "Selected Modern English Essays," which also contains several by American writers; a new copy of the old favorite, Lamb's "Essays of Elia," the hilarious best seller "Life With Father," by Clarendon Day; and a book on American History by James Adams, "The Epic of America."

Essays, particularly by modern writers, are a group which has been sadly lacking in our library. The addition of these new books will give the students a wider selection of reading material and enable them to get a better idea of the essay, especially the modern type.

WE WONDER

Why June McMurtry isn't on the football team—she ran faster than anyone else on the sidelines.

Why Junior (Oklahoma) Warren's theme song is "Moonlight and Shadows"?

Why Janice Porter Can't study in the 5th period study hall?

Why Billie Cooke is called "Main Street Hill"?

Why Skeeter Davis and Allen Hardin never come to school?

Who Ralph Grady's red-headed girl friend from Goldston is?

Why Homer Tucker can't stay away from Tucumcari?

What Wanda Nell Smith gets so tickled at when she gives a current event in History IV?

If Charlie Murphy, Peggy Word, "Stopper" Powell and Joan Thompson have to make all that racket the first period in the morning?

If Mildred Atteberry got the "Point" when she sat on the sandbars?

If Ray Palmer still believes that George Washington cut down the cherry tree?

Why Katrina Carlile had to be put on the "Amen" seat in fourth period study hall?

Why Betty Jo Caraway prefers brunettes from Ashtola to a certain blond in town?

Why Dan Boston writes to an Amarillo girl—our guess is as good as yours.

Why Oscar Butler swipes watermelons from his own W. M. patch?

Story of The Sea Coming Saturday

Through the wizardry inherent in film processes, the producer of pictures is now in a position to conquer most barriers which years ago handicapped him so severely. Today he is master of time and place; without traveling, he can "shoot" Hollywood actors against Algerian backgrounds, and weather no longer bothers him.

Only one natural handicap remains to thwart the Hollywood genius for offsetting nature's obstinate disregard for production budgets, the comfort of actors and the urgency of finishing on time. So far, Hollywood has had its hands full in attempting to conquer the high seas.

Pictures dealing with rugged sea backgrounds have been prime favorites with the theater-going public ever since the first serious dramatization of this subject in "Down to the Sea in Ships." Since then sea pictures have been amazingly popular. Last year's "Mutiny on the Bounty" was one of the industry's sensations, and

Range Rider

It looks as if the Bronchos are starting the season in pretty good form. As for stars in the game Friday night there were none; however, if one were to be selected I would pick Longdon as the outstanding player. The playing of the Bronchos was ragged and uncertain. The offense worked twice. Two touchdowns were the result. The defensive work the Bronchos made only a fair showing. Longdon, Palmer, and Green shouldered the defensive burden of the line. Lane, Grady, and McWhorter did the defensive work for the backfield. Perhaps some of you noticed that Palmer, as light as he is played a better game at tackle than the regular tackles. We are, expecting the regular tackles to do a better job. The ends had better watch themselves next Friday night. If they play the same type of game they played last Friday, Wellington is going to have a picnic. Wellington is famous for running spinners that wind up with the runner going around end.

I said last week that we might have a college football team. Only eleven men came out regularly. If we could have had ten more men, we could probably arrange for at least three games. That would be pretty good for a start this late in the season, but it looks hopeless.

SCIENTISTS CHECK POPULAR TOILET SOAPS FOR MILDNESS

Test skins of all types—dry, oily and medium

Results show one of the well-known soaps over 20% milder than others

"Patch" tests for soap mildness were made on the skins of hundreds of women—blondes, red-heads, brunettes... men with oily skin, women with dry skin, women with medium skin.

In an effort to determine the mildness of many well-known toilet soaps, scientists recently made "patch" tests on the skins of hundreds of women—blondes, red-heads and brunettes... These included all types of skin—dry, oily and medium. This investigation showed that one of the popular toilet soaps was over 20% milder than the others tested. This soap was Lifebuoy...

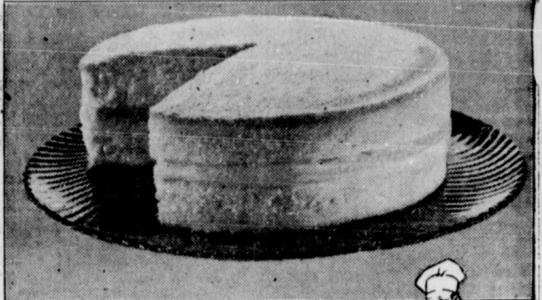

Tests were also made with popular olive-oil castile soaps, and again, Lifebuoy was found over 20% milder than these soaps so often used on babies' sensitive skins.

Questioned as to the reason for Lifebuoy's super-mildness, one of the scientists replied, "The major reason is that Lifebuoy contains a special purifying ingredient not present in the other popular toilet soaps." He went on to explain that this was the very same purifying ingredient that helps Lifebuoy stop "B.O." (body odor). "This remarkable ingredient actually increases the soap's mildness... Our tests—and they were exhaustive ones—checked in several laboratories of note—showed Lifebuoy over 20% milder."

In a check-up of soap preferences among women, it was discovered that more of them use Lifebuoy for the bath than any other soap... And that it is equally the favorite of men and children. These facts were revealed when 120,000 women in all parts of the country were questioned by eight leading magazines... Another check-up revealed that many of the women who started the use of this mild soap to stop "B.O." discovered its value to their complexions... Reports show that Lifebuoy's popularity as a complexion soap is fast equalling its popularity as a bath soap.

Lemon-Snow Cake Rivals Lemon Pie in Popularity

This delicate dessert the perfect climax to a hearty meal

Do you sometimes find it difficult to pick the right dessert for a substantial dinner? For light refreshment after an evening of bridge? Then you'll welcome this feathery-light cake with its tart lemon filling.

In fact, Lemon-Snow Cake is so delicious, so attractive, it's a thrilling addition to almost any meal, any occasion! Men go simply wild about its delicate lemon flavor and tantalizing filling! What's more, it's inexpensive and easy to make.

This tempting dessert is light as a feather, fine-textured, too. And it's white as snow. In fact, it's only with a fluffy, pure white shortening that you can make an amazingly snow-white cake like this. Don't forget, too, lightness and fineness of texture depend upon the kind of shortening you use. And Spry, the new vegetable shortening, makes cakes unusually fine-textured and marvelously light.

Surprise your family with this luscious Lemon-Snow Cake tomorrow! And don't worry if they take second helpings, for it's easy to digest. You can't miss success if you use these simple directions.

LEMON SNOW CAKE

- 1/2 cup Spry, new vegetable shortening
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 cup sugar
2 cups sifted flour (cake flour preferred)
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup milk
3 egg whites

Combine Spry, salt and lemon rind and blend. Add sugar gradually and cream until light and fluffy (no butter at all with ready-creamed Spry).

Sift flour and baking powder together 3 times. Add small amounts of flour to Spry mixture, alternately with milk, beating after each addition until smooth. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry, and fold carefully into mixture until well blended.

Pour batter into two 8-inch layer pans greased with Spry. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Spread Lemon Filling between layers and sprinkle top with confectioners' sugar rubbed with lemon rind.

LEMON FILLING

- 3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup hot water
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 tablespoons butter

Combine cornstarch, sugar and salt in top of double boiler and mix thoroughly. Add hot water and stir until smooth. Cook over hot water until smooth and thick (15 minutes).

Pour over slightly beaten egg yolks, return to double boiler and cook 1 minute longer. Add lemon juice, rind and butter and blend well. Cool and spread between cake layers. This recipe makes enough filling to spread between two 8-inch layers.

Screen Lined Cooking School Will Show Close-up of Modern Home News

THE CLARENDON NEWS OFFERS TIMELY AND PROFITABLE ENTERTAINMENT OCT. 4, 5, AND 6 IN THE PASTIME THEATRE

Streamlines are a familiar sight this season.

But the latest news in Cooking School conventions, as discovered by The Clarendon News has screen lines.

All of which means that long lines of eager pupils will be going to school again Oct. 4, 5, and 6, when this newspaper presents the much-discussed motion picture course in home economics in the Pastime Theatre.

Going to school in a theater! It's a grand way to combine fun, inspiration, a neighborly reunion and valuable instruction, all in one free package. It's a grand way to get out of the rut that often threatens the best and most conscientious of home managers.

Just as fresh inspiration for the old job is one of the by-products of the familiar Cooking School, which presents a lecturer in a model kitchen, so are new ideas and keen incentive born in the film class for homemakers, with its novel approach and modern setting.

The kitchen that passed the screen test for this picture had to meet the exacting requirements of nationally-known home economists, as well as Hollywood standards of charm, good taste and proportion.

No "false front" camera-beautiful kitchens satisfied these specialists. They insisted on working in complete, compact, modern kitchens, which actually reflect more scientific ingenuity and careful planning than any living room.

In these practical kitchens, streamlines is no idle phrase, for this simplified, sanitary, labor-saving equipment is keyed in style and purpose to a busy age.

Recognizing the demands of home experts, Hollywood signed all-star kitchens, with an all-star cast, adding a continual procession of close-ups, so that every seat in the Pastime Theatre is a good seat for this amazingly pictured household course.

The class isn't all work, for there is the constant play of sparkling humor, the appeal of tender romance, and the suspense of a coherent, intelligently-directed story, which dramatizes everyday happenings—the human sort of things that really do happen.

Binding the attractive story together is the romance of home-making, a subject that holds the interest of every woman young and old. Even The Clarendon News knows that all women—brides, business types and experienced housekeepers, respond to the fascination of looking in on another woman, when he is at work in the kitchen.

Particularly do they like it when they are allowed to sit quietly and watch her prepare some dish, in which she specializes. They know that if they watch closely, while she measures and mixes and completes the entire cooking operation, this close-up personal study will be more helpful than hours of reading recipes or blind experimenting.

Not only does every person in the audience share this close-up of each stage of the actual preparation, but the kitchen expert clearly explains her methods, so that the measurements on the free daily recipe sheets will make it possible to duplicate that feather cake and flaky pastry.

Chatting in true neighborly style with her listeners in the Pastime Theatre, the presiding home manager will pass on her own discoveries in labor-saving short cuts. There will be dozens of helpful hints and suggestions for utilizing valuable kitchen products and labor-saving equipment.

Busy women will thrill to the convenience of one-dish meals and economy in marketing and cooking possible through full use of the electric refrigerator.

Other homemakers may find special interest in the thorough screen study of laundry methods. French frying and shallow pan frying will be considered. There will be simple thrift meals, party and late supper dishes and guidance to entertaining with confidence. Even beauty secrets, so dear to every feminine heart, will not be overlooked.

Worried questions, put by the bride-pupil in this screen romance, are bound to solve many a problem for more experienced housekeepers. Peer into the mixing bowl with her and see how it's all done, or join her in a study of the wonders of frozen desserts and molded ice-box salads that taste even better than they look. Free recipe sheets will be distributed daily, so that the inspiration of the new recipes can be carried home accurately.

Although it won't be possible to lift those tantalizing culinary triumphs out of the picture, there will be plenty of daily gift bundles at this profitable 1937 school.

No one interested in home problems can afford to miss The New's free Cooking School, starting Oct. 4 and continuing through Oct. 5 and 6 at the Pastime Theatre.

THE CHS BRONCS TIE CLAUDE 14-14

LATE RALLY BRINGS TIE SCORE TO HOME TEAM FOR SEASON OPENER

Under threatening skies the Clarendon Broncs battled the hard fighting Claude Mustangs to a 14-14 tie at College Field Friday night.

Several hundred Broncho boosters filled the new grandstand seats to witness the opening game of the season.

The fast running Howe of the Mustang squad took the ball over the line in the middle of the second quarter for the first score of the game. Howe fumbled and recovered the ball on the Broncs' 18-yard line for a 3-yard loss, then pushed up to the 7-yard line where he threw a pass to Doshier to place the sphere on the one and one-half-yard line. Howe again fumbled and recovered the ball for a loss of one-half yard. Tyler another fast running Mustang, tried a left-end run for no gain, then Rowe took the ball over on the last down. Kick for a point was made good by Rowe.

Early in the second half, Clarendon's quarterback, Billy Cooke, met with success in an aerial attack and speedily evened the score with a pass to McWhorter who carried the ball over. McGowan kicked the extra point.

In the 3rd quarter, Tyler for the visitors went over the line after successive ground gaining runs from the Broncs' 45-yard line. Rowe kicked the extra point, with the Broncs following up with a touchdown after six plays to send Billy Cooke over the line standing up. McGowan kicked a goal for the tying score.

Balance of the maneuvers were located in the center of the field with the ball dying on the Broncs' 45-yard line in possession of the Mustangs.

Officials were C. T. Davis, Miami; Davis Hill, White Deer; and Mr. Cox of Memphis.

SOUTH TEXAS FAMILY ON VISIT HERE: RECOUNT WAGON TRAIN TRIP

Many pleasant memories of a six weeks wagon trip back in 1892 were recalled this past weekend when Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Jeffery and son, Jessie of San Benito visited in the home of D. W. Hinkle and family.

These two families made the hard wagon trip from Missouri to Texas back in the old days and reminiscences of the trip provided conversation for these families during their reunion.

The Cost of Not Asking

Recently there has come to our attention a number of cases in which people who have wanted to ask specific questions have failed to do so.

There is no high-pressure selling in our business. It is as unlike a door-to-door canvasser's as a symphony orchestra conductor is to a kazoo player. The business of improving a home is a serious one . . . a business which requires thought and deliberate discussion of personal requirements, materials, budgets, etc.

The cost of asking us questions is nothing. The cost of NOT asking us may be unwise spending or failure to achieve the results you desire through a lack of acquaintance with the TRUE FACTS.
