Red Cross Roll Call Quota For County Only Fifty Percent Achieved

ANNUAL RED CROSS DRIVE REALIZES $181 FIRST WEEK

DONLEY CITIZENS ARE URGED TO COMPLETE QUOTA OF $400

The annual drive for memberships conducted by the local chapter of the Red Cross got under way this week. So far it has been quite successful, but there is still a great deal to be accomplished in order to fulfill the quota for Donley county this year, which is $400.

According to Mrs. A. T. Jeffries, roll call chairman, $181 has been collected to date. The drive has been conducted in the downtown section by workers this week. Thursday, a group is planning to go to Hedley and other communities, to pursue the drive.

While the response this year is larger than in several years past, it is still far from being complete. The Red Cross is a universal cause which is supported by people of the world over. It is the symbol of ministering to the suffering which reaches all people throughout the world in times of distress and disaster. This organization is the only peace group which is wholeheartedly backed by everyone at all times. When disaster strikes, it is the Red Cross which answers the call first.

Although the people of Donley have never had to call on the Red Cross, they should bear in mind its willingness to help immediately and support it in its work. Each citizen is asked once each year to contribute to this, the most worthy of causes. It is a privilege which should not be overlooked. The drive will continue until Thanksgiving. Donley county is being urged to complete their quota within the next few days.

Bronchos To Meet Pampa B Team For Benefit Game

The Bronchos will meet the Pampa Gorillas next Wednesday on the local field at 2 p. m., for their final game of the season, receipts of which will go toward buying sweaters for the boys who lettered this year.

Heretofore, boys who lettered have been buying their own sweaters, and many of the boys who were outstanding players were unable to get their sweaters because of finances. This year, however, an attempt is being made to buy the sweaters for those who earned their letter.

The Pampa Gorillas are a strong B team and a good game is expected.

School officials urged a good attendance, and those attending will be supporting a good cause, and will, no doubt, see a good game.

Registration starts at 12 noon, followed by an address of welcome by Mayor John R. Miller, an address by Legionnaire Tom Ward, a trip through the oil fields, a parade, a 40 and 8 wreck, a stag party at the V. F. W. Hall, a dance at the Legion Hall, and many other features of entertainment yet to be announced.

Sunday will follow with a school conducted by Fred Young, department adjutant, church services, barbecue, and a business session.

Hotel reservations are coming in fast, indicating that maximum attendance can be expected.

Every Legionnaire is expected to bring his wife to attend the concurrent meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary which organization has entertainment planned in conjunction with the Legion.

Annual Session of Northwest Texas Methodist Conference Opened At Memphis Wednesday

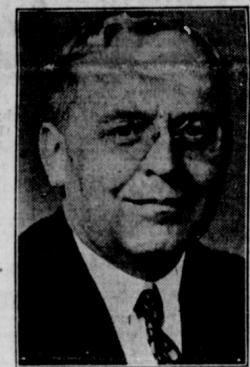

With a number of local people in attendance the 29th annual session of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference opened at Memphis Wednesday afternoon, with Bishop Ivan Lee Holt presiding and in charge of the devotional service, built around the Holy Communion of the Lord's Supper, and the organization of the body for the coming quadrennium.

Dr. Barcus, presiding elder; E. D. Landreth, pastor; J. R. Porter and Sam M. Braswell, delegates; Dr. G. S. Hardy, superannuate, and a number of others were present from Clarendon, and many others will attend during the meeting which will likely close Sunday afternoon with the assignment of ministers to their pastoral posts for the next 12 months.

Four hundred and ten congregations will be affected by the appointments.

The three presiding elders who have served their quadrennium, and, according to the church law, must return to pastorates are Rev. J. O. Haynes, of the Amarillo district; Rev. T. S. Barcus, of the Clarendon district, and Rev. Sam

New Bishop

BISHOP IVAN LEE HOLT

H. Young of the Sweetwater district.

The opening of the conference signals the succession of Bishop Ivan Lee Holt to the post in which Bishop Hiram A. Boaz has served for the last eight years.

Attendance at the five-day conference is expected to include some 250 ministers and hundreds of laymen.

Bishop Holt, it is expected, will appoint a successor to Dr. Tom W. Brabham, president of McMurray College, Abilene, who resigned about a month ago with the expressed desire to return to the ministry.

This conference will also elect delegates to a unification conference to meet next year in Kansas City, at which time the three large branches of Methodism are expected to be made one great denomination.

The Northwest Texas Conference—one of the five in Texas—was organized at Stamford in 1909, being detached from what is now the Central Texas Conference. It has around 75,000 members, having shown an increase of 8,722 during the conference year of 1936-37, of which 2,777 were on profession of faith. During the period, 29 candidates were licensed to preach, making a total of 133 lay preachers; 584 infants and 1,880 adults were baptized.

The conference has 326 church edifices, valued at $3,825,148, with indebtedness of $379,894; 187 parsonages, valued at $596,350, with indebtedness of $33,476.

Women members of 329 missionary societies number 7,226 and they raised during the year $39,794 for local and $19,719 for foreign missions.

The denomination has 329 Sunday schools under its exclusive control with 4,667 officers and teachers and a total enrollment of 49,412. Members paid their nine pre-

REV. L. L. SWAN, FORMER PASTOR, DIES IN KANSAS

COLORFUL MINISTRY IS ENDED; SERVED HERE 1921-34

Rev. Lewis Laidlaw Swan died in Wellington, Kan., early in the morning of Armistice Day, November 11, 1938, and the Southwest lost one of its most picturesque ministers.

He was born in Ceylon, South India, July 7, 1857, was educated at Rugby School, England, and had the M. A. degree from Oxford. He was a skillful organist. Coming to this country he studied at the Kansas Theological School of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was ordained deacon in 1896 and priest in 1898 by Bishop Millsap. He was a zealous missionary. In his youth he was a friend and associate of the present Archbishop of Canterbury.

Mr. Swan was married in 1882 to Miss Ella Mary Ray of which marriage two children were born. Following the death of his first wife the Reverend Mr. Swan was married to Miss Gertrude Caldwell, who survives him. Rev. R. R. Brown, San Benito, Texas, Episcopal minister, is a grandson of Rev. Mr. Swan, and his brother is studying for the ministry.

His pastoral charges have been in Kansas, Indiana, Oklahoma and Texas. In this state he has been resident minister in Paris, Gainesville and Clarendon. He came to Clarendon in April, 1921, and served continuously until his retirement in 1934. During this pastorate he has had charge also of Dalhart, Childress, Quanah, Vernon and Shamrock.

Bishop Seaman appointed him to a position on his Council of Advice, which is the bishop's cabinet. In this capacity he was a confidential advisor of the bishop and served most loyally. Bishop Seaman says of him: "He was a joy and a source of much strength to me. His thorough education, deep consecration, broad sympathies and inexhaustible humor made him a great force in this missionary district of North Texas, and in his home he and Mrs. Swan loved to dispense a cordial Christian hospitality."

Since 1934 they have lived in Wellington with Mrs. Swan's parents and the retired minister has helped in various ways the bishop of Kansas. The funeral was held the morning of November 14, conducted by Bishop Fenner, coadjutor of Kansas, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Attwater and West of Wichita, and Rev. F. A. Foster, Amarillo, representing the district of North Texas to which Rev. Mr. Swan was still canonically attached.

Bishop Seaman was en route from his missions on the Pecos river and could not get to Wellington for the funeral.

Rev. Swan visited in Clarendon this fall. Upon his return home, he became ill and failed to recover. He is well-remembered here by everyone for his cheery kindness. He had made several visits back to Clarendon since his retirement for he regarded it as home.

During the year $38,315 and pastors $274,856, and paid to the orphanage at Waco $14,892. Total raised for all purposes during the year was $881,164, compared with $728,207 the preceding year.

Three veteran ministers will become superannuate, it is definitely known. They are Rev. Ben Hardy, Tahoka, with 41 continuous years in service; Rev. C. E. Fike, Stratford, 26 years, and Rev. T. J. Rea, Woodson, 27 years. They will retire from active service.

Memphis will entertain ministers and delegates at the Harvard plan. Rev. Orion W. Carter is host pastor. Rev. Cai C. Wright, presiding elder of the Vernon district, will act as secretary of the sessions.

CHORAL CLUB AND ORCHESTRA HERE FRIDAY EVENING

ORPHANAGE GROUP AT METHODIST CHURCH FRIDAY NIGHT

The Choral Club and orchestra from the Methodist Orphan's Home at Waco, consisting of some forty young singers, musicians, and entertainers, will appear in concert at the First Methodist Church Friday evening at 7 o'clock. These young people will come here from an appearance before the Methodist Annual Conference at Memphis. They always have a very attractive program. No admission will be charged and the entire public is cordially invited to enjoy the program.

The Methodist Home for orphan children is located at Waco, Texas, and is supported by free will offerings from the Methodists of Texas. There are more than four hundred children in the home and the annual expense budget amounts to $100,000.00. The local Methodist congregation contributes approximately $300 annually to the support of the home.

R. R. Commission Sets Hearing Nov. 22, Austin

Mayor Tom Connally received a telegram from Judge Olin Culbertson this morning with the announcement that the Texas Railroad Commission will hold a final hearing Tuesday, Nov. 22, at Austin on the City of Clarendon vs. City Gas Company on the lowering of the gas rate. Clarendon will be represented by members of the City Commission and others, Mayor Connally said.

A previous hearing scheduled for October here was postponed by the commission because the gas company failed to present new evidence. A hearing set in September in Austin was also postponed on request of the gas company. The case has been pending since last spring when the commission heard both sides present evidence here.

City officials feel that the commission is favorable to the city and will give a verdict as soon as they hear all the evidence. Unless new developments come up, the commission will probably render its decision next week.

Union Services For Thanksgiving At Baptist Church

Union Thanksgiving services will be held Wednesday night, November 23rd, at the First Baptist Church, with Rev. Robt. S. McKeen, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, bringing the message.

The decision was made to hold the services on Wednesday night so that those who planned to be away Thanksgiving might attend, without the service conflicting with their plans.

The McDowell Music Club will be in charge of the music with Miss Anna Moores directing.

The offering taken at the service will be given to the Adair Hospital.

All are urged to attend the Thanksgiving service which is the service for all churches.

C. B. CHUNN RECEIVES LIFE-SAVING MEDAL

C. B. Chunn, former Clarendon man and brother of Dick Chunn of Clarendon, was presented with a life-saving medal at Amarillo last Wednesday night.

The award was given for the first aid Chunn gave to a young girl in White Deer who was overcome by natural gas. He applied artificial respiration for 30 minutes and the girl recovered.

Chunn is manager of the Southwestern Public Service Company at White Deer and the medal was presented at a meeting of the employees of that company by the National Safety Council.

Sidelights of First Clarendon College Reunion Show That Exes Have Not Changed in Spirit

Jess Stanford's speech at chapel had all laughing and crying at the memories evoked by his descriptions of former days in C. C.

Dorothy White Campbell of Los Angeles, Calif., and Joe Jones of Chattanooga, Tenn., vied for the honor of the Exe coming the greatest distance to the homecoming. Leonard King of Austin and Eugene Taylor Stephenson of Houston were others who traveled a long way to be present.

Clay Thompson of Stamford will probably hear from his spouse when he gets home about the way he was escorting Laura Pace Campbell of Wellington and Ruth Pirtle of Lubbock around up here.

J. R. Porter and all the others on the platform during chapel got excited just as they used to over these dormitory girls sitting down in front.

Charles Dean of Plainview and George Ordway and Fred Madison of Amarillo replayed the Plainview-Amarillo game they witnessed that afternoon at the buffet supper Friday night.

The oldest ex present, Stella Bugbee Hearne of Seattle, Wash., class of 1900, had to be introduced by her niece, Katharine Patrick Bugbee, as she was too modest to get up all by herself when that year was called at chapel.

All the girls hoped to be remembered by George Close, handsome football star.

Very few exes saw much of the Clarendon-Vega football game Friday afternoon. They were too busy recalling all those games they used to play themselves.

Milton Price and Ruby Price, Breckenridge, introduced themselves all around as Pinky Price's little brother and sister.

Five of the members of the first football team, Jess Stanford, R. H. Ceeke, John McLean, Bib and Verga Glenn, were present at the reunion. They were of the class of 1905.

Four members, Cap Morris, Will McDonald, Fred Madison, Coopwood Perry, who were in the class and on the team of 1908 were also present to recall old times.

B. C. Davenport of Memphis was mistaken so many times for his younger brother, David, that he almost decided he was an identical twin.

Leonard King was out a lunch because John Callaway purportedly mislaid his pocketbook when he registered. At least that was John's story.

Eva Patching was another who was mistaken. Everyone thought she was her little sister, Ruth Patching Craig. Both were present so it was quite a mix-up.

Faye Henry of Pampa got up so early to come to the reunion Saturday that she was almost asleep by noon.

For once no one minded waiting in line for something to eat as there were so many to talk to that waiting was made pleasant. Arthur Parker of Paducah was quite curious to know what had become of all those good-looking girls he went to school with.

Jack Zurich, Former Clarendon Resident, Dies

Jack Zurich, former Clarendon resident, died at his home in Stead, N. M., Tuesday. Funeral services will be conducted today in Clayton and interment will be made in Kenton, Okla.

Mr. Zurich is survived by his widow, one son, John of Clapham, N. M.; four daughters, Mrs. Tupper Smith, Denver, Miss Jess Zurich, Tucumcari; Mrs. Ferrol Smith, Rosebud, N. M., and Miss Maybelle Zurich, Stead, N. M.

Mr. Zurich had lived in the Panhandle since 1882 and was a prominent cattleman. He was manager of the Cross LL's Ranch with headquarters at Kenton, Okla., at the time of his death. His ranch home is one of the show places of the cattle country with a fence of colored petrified logs around it. His family lived here for several years and the children attended Clarendon College.

DR. J. A. HILL TO SPEAK AT FATHER AND SON BANQUET

WELL-KNOWN EDUCATOR TO GIVE PRINCIPAL ADDRESS NOV. 29TH

Allen Bryan, chairman of the Father and Son Annual Banquet for 1938, announced this week that Dr. J. A. Hill, president of WTSTC of Canyon, has accepted the committee's invitation to deliver the principal address for the banquet program here on the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 29th.

The executive committee is rapidly perfecting its plans for one of the most interesting programs ever presented at the annual banquet, which has become one of the worth-while institutions of Clarendon and community. The menu for the banquet will be built around turkey and all the trimmings—just what boys—and the older boys, too—enjoy in and around Thanksgiving time.

Banquet Speaker

DR. J. A. HILL
President West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon, Texas

Dr. B. L. Jenkins, the man who founded the movement in Clarendon, has been secured as the toastmaster of the evening, which guarantees that the program will be kept within the bounds of proper brevity, and that the movement will not lag.

Tickets will soon be on sale, and fathers will be providing tickets for themselves and sons, while other men without sons will be enjoying the privilege of being host and "dad" to some boy who has no father. Mark your calendar, now, for Tuesday, Nov. 29th, and make arrangements to be there when the jolly bunch of dads and sons, sit down for a wonderful feed and an inspiring program.

Clarendon Masons Have Interesting Meeting—Visitors

Increased interest in Masonic circles of Clarendon culminated in the regular meeting of Clarendon Lodge, A. F. & A. M. No. 700, Friday evening, November 11, with several out-of-town Masons to enjoy the degree work and fraternal fellowship. Visitors present were: E. T. Hughlet, Jones R. Christian, Claude; Troy Irby, Pictou; Deputy District Grand Master Cecil Buckler, M. A. Graham of Pampa.

At a special meeting Monday, Nov. 14th, visitors in attendance were: Troy Irby, Pictou; W. J. Williams, H. G. McCleswy, John Fraser, Sr., Groom; Fred Patching, Goodnight; B. N. Roberts, E. M. Benesch, Amarillo. Secretary R. C. Weatherly, of the lodge, reports splendid local attendance at these meetings.

Mrs. H. C. Hanson of New York spent several days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Porter.

BRONCHOS TIE VEGA FOR LAST GAME 13-13

VEGA BACK RETURNS KICK-OFF SEVENTY YARDS FOR SCORE

Although a small crowd was present to witness the last game of the season, the Bronchos gave the spectators a thrilling game for the entire 50 minutes of play, the score ending 13-13.

The Broncos out-played the Vega gridsters the entire four quarters of the game, scoring in the first and second quarters, and penetrating to the 5-yard stripe several times during the last two quarters, but lacked that final punch to cross the pay-line.

In probably the first eight minutes of play, Allison carried the pig-skin into the end zone for the first touchdown of the game and then missed the conversion by a very small margin.

In the remainder of the first quarter neither team made any yardage to speak of, but in the beginning of the second quarter, Johnson, Broncho guard, intercepted a pass and carried it over for the Bronchos second and last touchdown for the game. The conversion was good, making the score 13 to 0 in favor of the Bronchos.

However, in the latter part of the second quarter, the Bronchos let themselves get caught short on a bad punt, and Vega took the ball over for their first score, but failed to make the extra point, when they tried to pass over.

The Bronchos started a long march down the field when their gains were lost at the end of the half.

The highlight of the game was a 70-yard return of the kick-off by Campy, Vega's star back, at the beginning of the second half. He received the ball on the 30-yard line and skirted all the Bronchos for their second score and then completed a pass for the extra point.

The balance of the game was as tight as any match of the season, both teams holding tight with practically no gains of any importance. However, during the third and fourth quarter, the Bronchos spent most of their time in Vega territory and were stopped twice within the 10-yard stripe.

The starting line-up of the game was as follows:

Bronchos		Vega
Speir	LE	Johnson
Lumpkin	LT	Millican
McWhorter	LG	Hooten
Lane	C	K. Robinson
Hartzog	RG	Priest
Blackman	RT	E. Robinson

Donley Cotton Falls 1,500 Bales Short 1937 Crop

According to the Department of Commerce in a preliminary report of cotton ginned in Donley county this year, up to November 1, the number of bales was short, 1,540, in comparison to the number ginned to that same date in 1937.

There were only 5,385 bales ginned in the county up to November 1, this year while in 1937 there were 7,925 bales ginned.

The Donley county crop compared favorably with surrounding counties however, with only one county adjoining us, running more than the ginnings at the same time last year.

Hall county ran over 2,000 bales short of the number of bales ginned to November 1, last year, Gray ran 700 bales short, Briscoe ran 800 bales low and Collingsworth county ginned nearly 4,500 bales more this year to date than to the same date last year.

Clarendon gins have been running steadily for the last two months and though the totals are expected to run considerably short of the 1937 total, fairly good crops are reported.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Payne of Plainview visited Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain during the week-end.

SPEAKING OF MILK AND ELSE

A lot of readers of Texas newspapers will likely write in to urge their editors to drink more milk, since a newspaper man in Washington accounts for the brilliance of mind and body, ascribed to him by his fellows, as coming from two quarts of milk a day. He helps to maintain the national average of 153 quarts annual per capita consumption. The Milk Industry Foundation in its new and very interesting "Milk Facts" booklet, gives figures that show the average milk consumption in the Netherlands 120 quarts, annually; New Zealand, 112; Great Britain, France and Germany, 92. In the land of Italian grapes it drops to 28 quarts.

The United States is the greatest dairy nation. Milk, cheese, butter, ice cream and other dairy products create an estimated annual output of 3 1/2 billion dollars.

"Around 25 million cows are milked daily," says the booklet, "and more than 45 million quarts of milk are delivered to homes and stores. In the distribution of the milk dollar, as shown before the New York Legislature, 44.3 per cent goes to dairy farmers for milk; 26.16 per cent for labor; 8.75 per cent for supplies, and 7.62 per cent covers taxes, depreciation, salaries and profits.

That's the dollar that is distributed along the milky way and gets around so that eventually as many people get a slice as the number who get their part of nourishment and refreshment out of the daily milk bottle—and mentioning bottle, there are 350,000,000 new milk bottles purchased annually, that being the answer to the question "what do you suppose becomes of the milk bottles."

Milk is our most widely used food. It is likewise conceded to be the most nearly perfect food. Milk is the largest single source of cash farm income. Successful dairy farmers love their cows, and keep them clean, healthy and comfortable in stables that are as spic and span as a new trailer. Millions of our city population never have seen a cow, but nevertheless they are on the main lines of daily deliveries where milk bottles replaced pails for delivery some forty years ago.

TEXAS AND THE SOUTH MAY LOSE

Stunned at the last Democratic National Convention by the loss of the two-thirds majority rule on presidential nominations, Texas Democrats and those of many Southern states are beginning now to realize just how much New Deal jockeying cost them in power and prestige. Here in Texas there is a renewed demand for the restoration of the two-thirds rule, as 1940 draws nearer, with many conflicting ideas as to plans and possibilities for attainment.

It was a sad day, indeed, when Southern Democracy allowed Jim Farley and cohorts to wrest from them a birthright of power delivering them into practised hands of the East and North.

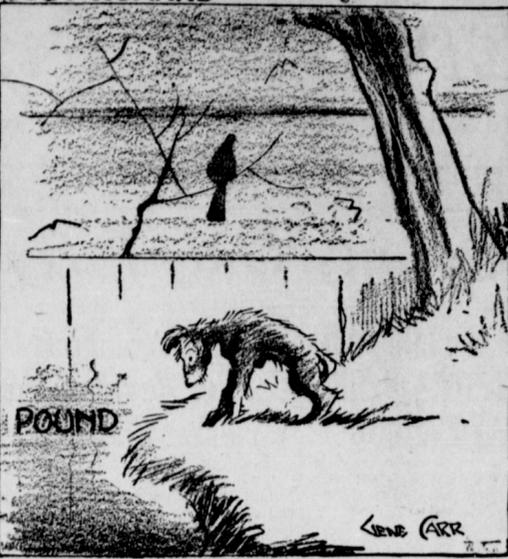

No wonder, cotton growers of the South stand by and see their world markets go glimmering account of tariff walls which party platforms promised so solemnly to break down. Without the two-thirds rule there is no power and prestige in party councils left with us.

ALL GAMBLING HURTS BUSINESS

An editorial from the Chicago Daily News entitled gambling hurts business has been widely copied by newspapers. On which we comment:

From it people should take a second sober thought about gambling. There is a proposal to bring race track gambling back to Texas. Most of us believe that the Texas Legislature and the new governor will think several times before they give countenance to any such proposal. As the Chicago News aptly says, it is not the rich or the idle rich who support gambling. The district attorney's investigations in New York have shown plainly enough what kind of money it is. It is wrung from heartache and poverty. Baby never got those new shoes that the gambler is always calling on the dice or the roulette wheel, or the lottery to bring home.

It would be a godsend for Texas if every business man, in any line, devoted to our moral code, would say, "Gambling rackets in business must stop, and I will begin by stopping all chance and lottery schemes that might be in mine." Curiously, picture shows in New York, picked up in attendance when many of the bookie and other gambling joints were closed. They and all other businesses had been suffering. Gambling is gambling, and must be paid for by the gamblers in some sort of manner, no matter under what guise a lottery is conducted, or a chance is given on some so-called free premium in a merchandising business.

If lotteries of any character are permitted to run, we should not try to outlaw the companies that guarantee you will win whether present or not. Gambling is gambling whether it comes through the agency of a slot machine, or any other method, such as policy, roulette, bank night or what not. The elimination of it all would add materially to the economic power of the state, and money would flow into legitimate channels. Men who have civic betterment at heart could do no better than to put an immediate stop to all forms of gambling in their community.—Colorado Record.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

AUSTIN.—A lengthy message, reporting in considerable detail upon the "state of the commonwealth," reviewing the accomplishments of the past four years, and making recommendations for the coming biennium, will be sent up to the Legislature by Gov. James V. Allred when the 46th Legislature convenes in Austin January 10. This is in accordance with constitutional procedure. The new governor, who will be inaugurated January 17, will send up his first message shortly thereafter, if he conforms to custom. Thus the solons will have the benefit both of the out-going governor, and the ideas of the incoming governor, to formulate a legislative program.

ALLRED ALREADY AT WORK

Allred already is at work on his message. He will dwell only briefly upon the triumphs of the past, but will outline rather extensively, according to informed sources, his idea of needed legislation. Paramount among his recommendations, these sources say, will be that the Legislature go forward toward completion of the unfinished phases of the social security program brought into existence in Texas during his administration. He will urge payment of teachers' retirement, aid for blind, aid for dependent children, and probably the creation of a permanent welfare organization, to deal with what is now recognized as the permanent problem of relief.

Another important recommendation, his advisors say, will urge the Legislature to clarify the conflicting legal procedure for setting the state per capita school apportionment. There has been a conflict of authority between the State Automatic Tax Board and the Board of Education, resulting in confusion, which Allred wants cleared up.

WOULD REVISE COMPENSATION LAWS

Allred has an expert at work studying the present code governing payment of benefits to injured workmen, under the workmen's compensation act, and he is convinced there are glaring injustices under the present system. Employers themselves are displeased with the present set-up, and the governor is expected to urge an extensive revision of the present laws, based upon the findings of the expert's study, not yet completed.

Allred will also introduce another innovation, when he prints and binds all of his messages during the past four years, and indexes the volume, so that his successors may easily see what has been said or done about specific gubernatorial questions. No such arrangement now exists, and the only way a governor can find out what his predecessors have done is to dig through many volumes of the Senate and House journals, and then rummage through musty files. The governor hopes his successors will continue the plan he will inaugurate.

A copy of Allred's message will go to Gov-Elect W. Lee O'Daniel well in advance, so O'Daniel may have the benefit of Allred's suggestions in preparing his own message.

INDUSTRIAL FINANCE PLAN

Austin was interested this week in the proposal of O'Daniel to set up a "State RFC" to lend $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 to new industries starting in Texas, as outlined by the governor-elect in a newspaper interview. Observers here pointed out the following salient facts about the plan:

1. The Legislature cannot pledge the state's credit or lend state funds without an authorization by the people through a constitutional amendment.
2. With an $18,000,000 deficit in the general fund now, and a $35,000,000 or more pension plan being urged, where would the capital come from to finance the loans?
3. If, as O'Daniel said, loans would only be made to "sound enterprises" with good prospects of success, wouldn't the banks take care of such loans, with investors everywhere seeking profitable outlets for surplus cash with which banks are filled?
4. O'Daniel proposes to charge 6 per cent interest, plus a bonus of one-half the common stock, in such enterprises as might be financed by the state. Business men point out that the margin of industrial profit could not justify such an exorbitant financing charge, and point out that banks and other agencies will lend money to "sound enterprises" at a far lower rate now, without hesitation.

SPECULATE ON APPOINTMENTS

Speculation as to who will be the new member of the Highway Commission under O'Daniel still occupied Austin observers this week. Despite the apparently well-founded report that Carr P. Collins of Dallas would be offered the post, active booms are under way for several others, including R. L. Lucas, Fort Worth mortician; Paul Whitley, Austin former contractor; Oscar Burton, Tyler independent telephone executive; R. J. Potts, Waco gravel dealer, and several others. Some of these campaigns are evidently based upon the belief Collins will not accept the place, if it is offered him.

STATE DEMO COMMITTEE MEETS

The State Democratic Committee held its first meeting at Mineral Wells, for the announced purpose of electing W. A. Spert, of Hallsville, brother-in-law of Carr Collins, as secretary, and beginning organization plans for a campaign to pledge delegates to John N. Garner for president in 1940. It did neither.

Friends of Vann M. Kennedy, retiring secretary, mustered sufficient votes to block election of Spert, and wanted to re-elect Kennedy. But the Austin newsman declined the honor, and the committee, including 31 new women members who proved a decisive factor against Spert, elected Clarence Butcher, of Plainview, brother-in-law of W. Lee O'Daniel, as secretary. Spert was named vice chairman of the committee as a harmony gesture.

The Garner boom was dropped at the request of backers of the vice president, who felt the time was inopportune, too early to launch a campaign. Chairman E. B. Germany, of Dallas, presided and won plaudits of all the delegates and visitors, who praised him as a worthy successor of Myron Block, of Marshall, chairman for the past four years.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

Judy Garland and Freddie Bartholomew in "Listen, Darling"

A rollicking story of romance, adventure and laughs in a trailer brings Bartholomew and Judy Garland to the Pastime screen starting Saturday night preview, Sunday and Monday, in "Listen, Darling." Others in the cast of the new picture include Walter Pidgeon, Alan Hale and Scotty Beckett.

"Listen, Darling" Comedy Of Romance In a Trailer

"Listen, Darling," which comes to the Pastime Theatre Saturday night preview, Sunday and Monday, featuring Freddie Bartholomew and Judy Garland, is a rollicking comedy of adolescent youth.

Adapted from Katharine Brush's magazine story of the same name, it deals with the exploits of two members of the younger generation who take it upon themselves to find a suitable husband for the mother of one and run into an amazing set of complications in so doing.

Mary Astor plays the mother and the prospective suitors are portrayed by Walter Pidgeon, Alan Hale and Gene Lockhart.

The story of "Listen, Darling," will delight the hearts of hundreds of trailer enthusiasts since it is in the family trailer that Judy and Freddie "kidnap" Miss Astor and set out in pursuit of the elusive eligible male.

Eight-year-old Scotty Beckett is the only "menace" in the story but he makes up in childish ingenuity whatever he may lack in size. As a thrower of monkey wrenches into the machinery of love, Scotty is said to be well nigh unsurpassed.

Judy Garland sings three numbers in the picture, "The Bumpy Road to Love," "Zing Went the Strings of My Heart," and "Ten Pins in the Sky." Freddie, Miss Astor and Scotty make their singing debut on the screen in one number.

Dr. Thomas W. Brabham has resigned as president of McMurray College, effective December 1, to re-enter the active ministry.

C. M. Elwell, former assistant state superintendent, more recently secretary to Congressman W. R. Poage, is to be a sales representative of the Silver Burdett Company in Texas.

Watch For Symptoms Of Scarlet Fever

"The seasonal rise in prevalence of scarlet fever is here, Doctor Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, reports. Each year as cold weather approaches, reports of scarlet fever cases tend to increase in number. This year, a slight increase in recorded prevalence was noted in September, with a large rise recorded for October and the first week of November.

Fever, headache, sore throat vomiting are early signs of invasion by the scarlet fever germ. The incubation period, or the phase between exposure and onset of illness, is usually from two to six days. On the second day, as a rule, a rash appears which may cover the entire body.

The rash of scarlet fever is usually but not always present. The patient who has symptoms and signs of the disease, but without rash, should be isolated as well as the patient who shows the rash.

A disease such as scarlet fever is dreaded whether in severe or mild form, because of the frequent development of secondary complications, especially those of septic nature. Among complications, the most frequent are those affecting ears, neck glands, kidneys or the heart. Convalescent human immune serum prepared in laboratories can be used in many cases to prevent and modify the disease.

Scarlet fever is a disease of the colder months and may be expected to continue until late spring. The current increase in prevalence is not cause for alarm but emphasizes the importance of early recognition, prompt reporting of cases and careful isolation of infected persons.

Hardin-Simmons Has Increased Enrollment

Hardin-Simmons University, at Abilene, founded in 1891, has an increased enrollment for its forty-seventh year, recently begun. The freshman class is the largest in H-SU history, said Dr. J. D. Sandefer, dean of senior college and university heads in Texas, who is beginning his thirtieth year as president at Hardin-Simmons.

The student body enrollment includes undergraduates from 105 Texas counties, thirteen states, and the foreign countries of Mexico and Brazil. Taylor county, with Abilene as county seat, leads with 266 students.

Enumerated by classes, students at H-SU this year from Donley county are: Ruby J. Tidwell, senior, Clarendon, Simpson L. Tidwell, senior, Clarendon.

"Aggies" Sponsor Pest Eradication Contest

The local vocational agriculture classes are sponsoring a pest eradication program for its members which started October 28, and which includes rabbits, owls, hawks, rats, mice, prairie dogs, roadrunners, crows and a number of other pests.

The program is in the form of a contest and members will be required to bring evidence of their pest destruction to be checked by their group captains, with each pest counting a certain number of points. The contest will end December 15.

There will be five winners, each based on the point system, with each pest counting a certain number of points. The winners will be awarded F. F. A. emblems. The first place winner will receive a chenille emblem with CHS and his initials attached; the second place winner will receive a leather emblem, and the other three winners will receive felt emblems, and each emblem will have CHS and the boy's initials attached.

EVERYDAY RELIGION

By C. E. BRYANT, JR.

On a Saturday night, the manager of a prosperous department store in Philadelphia, called into his office all his staff of clerks.

"We are doing a large amount of business," he told them, "but it is possible for us to do more. Many other businesses are running their stores on Sunday and are realizing a profit from it.

"All of you report to work tomorrow morning just as you do on week-days."

One clerk in the group objected. Sunday was the Sabbath and he felt he should obey the command of God in the observance of His day, and so told the manager. The manager talked with him and offered him an increase in salary for the extra work he would do on Sundays.

Still the clerk was strong in his objections and said that he personally would not be at work the following day. Upon such decision, the manager paid him and told him not to report to work at all.

Several months passed, and a large bank in Chicago queried the Philadelphia store keeper to recommend to them a man for a position of trust. The Philadelphian recommended Stephen Jarrard, the man whom he had fired.

"But," objected the bank officials, "You fired him from your employ. Why do you recommend him to us?"

"Jarrard went out of my employ because of principle," came the reply. "He has principle, he is a man you can trust."

Everyone admires the man who has principle, regardless of whether that principle is in line or in opposition with their own ideas.

Man in modern society, however, is developing more and more the cursed trait of running with the crowd, of doing that which is popular and that which brings about the least resistance. Leaders are not made that way. The criminal, everyone will admit, became a hardened fugitive from justice because he stood up against society.

Cannot Christian people become leaders and lights for Christ by standing up wholeheartedly for Christ in defiance of an indifferent world order?

Stamford citizens have authorized a $49,500 bond issue for school improvements.

THE AWFUL PRICE YOU PAY FOR BEING NERVOUS

Quivering nerves can make you old and haggard looking, cranky and hard to live with—can keep you awake nights and rob you of good health, good times and jobs.

What you may need is a particularly good woman's tonic—and could you ask for anything whose benefits are better proved than famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and thus help calm your shrieking nerves, give more energy and make life worth living again. More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to go "smiling thru" trying times like it has other grateful women for the past 3 generations? IT MUST BE GOOD!

CHAUFFEUR'S LICENSE
MAY BE RENEWED BEFORE
OLD ONE EXPIRES

The driver's license division of the Department of Public Safety has adopted a ruling, for the convenience of persons needing to renew their chauffeur license, that allows license examiners to issue renewal licenses as much as three weeks before the old license has expired and to date the new license to begin the day after the old license expires.

The ruling will not allow persons requiring chauffeur's license to obtain a renewal of their license before they expire and will prevent the possibility of these persons being caught driving without a valid chauffeur license.

All operator licenses now in effect are good until April 1, 1939, and no date has been set, as yet, to commence the issuing of the new licenses.

Barstow is soon to spend $102,029 in a school building program; $47,029 of this amount comes as a federal grant. The remaining $55,000 comes from a bond issue.

132 Registered at Museum During Homecoming

The Donley County Museum was an attractive center of interest during the days of the College homecoming. One hundred and thirty-two ex-students enrolled their names on the museum register. All of them were exceedingly interested in the various objects on display.

The register now contains names from twenty-five states.

Each week new loans or gifts are made. Mrs. J. W. Evans has donated a fuling iron about 65 years old and an old burnt wood picture made by herself several years ago.

Mrs. Jack Molesworth presented the museum with a part of a wash-stand set for the pioneer bedroom. This set was brought from England many years ago.

Mr. J. C. Estlack has placed on display an ancient chopping block of the Paleolithic age, showing ax imprints in the petrified wood.

A saddle loaned to the Museum by Mrs. J. T. Patman, whose nephew, Clifford Dyer, gave it to her has attracted much attention. It is the saddle that belonged to Jim Owens, a guide in the Grand Canyon, and was ridden at different times by Will Rogers, Theodore Roosevelt, Zane Gray, and Rex Beach.

The Museum Board wishes to express thanks to all who bought membership tickets during the recent drive. The opportunity is still open to any who wish to join the Museum organization.

JR. ART CLUB WILL SPONSOR PICTURE EXHIBIT NOV. 29

The Junior Beaux Arts Club will sponsor an exhibit of masterpieces of fine art here the week of Nov. 29. One hundred and fifty fine prints directly from the originals by the world's great painters will be shown. These will include the old and modern painters representing the French, Italian, Flemish, English, Dutch, Spanish, German and American Schools of Art. The exhibit will be held downtown so that everyone will have an opportunity to see it.

Since the main purpose of the exhibition is to acquaint school children with these famous pictures, each grade will be taken sometime during the week to view the exhibit. They will be told something of the artists and the meaning of the picture. In order to get the pictures, the club must charge a small admission fee. Any profit realized from the exhibit will go toward buying a picture for the school.

A contest will be sponsored in the South Ward building. The grade selling the most tickets to the contest will receive the picture. Adults as well as children will enjoy seeing these pictures. The prints show not only the original colors but also the brush strokes.

CJC Dramatic Club To Present Play

Last week it was announced that "His Ozark Cousin" was to be presented Nov. 18. The date has been postponed until Tuesday, Nov. 22. The curtain rises promptly at 8 p. m. at the College Auditorium. The story is about a family living in the Ozarks, who are very nice, refined people, receiving a letter from some New York relatives, telling of a short visit they are coming to make for some geneology information. The New Yorkers think the Rankins are typical hill-billies because they live in the Ozarks. They have never seen each other. For a good joke, the Rankins dress up and talk like mountaineers to greet the relatives. The play is full of comedy and romance, and is a continuous laugh from beginning to end. The cast is as follows:

Mrs. John Rankin - typical mother of today; Inell Biffle - Jack Rankin, college type of young man; Jack Reeves - Glenda Rankin, serious, yet with sense of humor; Ruby Tucker - Sue Rankin, more of a care free type; Anna Sue Williams - Ned Richman, a friend, an easy going college; Jelly McGowan - Kay Kirby, a friend, likeable, inquisitive, impulsive; Dot Watson - Gary Stark, a newcomer, more of a reserved type; Gail Adams - Guy Haines, eastern cousin of Mrs. Rankin; Charlie Murphy - Betsy Haines, his wife "with a mind of her own;" Theresa Bain - Randall Haines, a son, modern young man; Craig Johnson - Frances Haines, a daughter, all around American girl; Ephyln Drennan - Uncle Zeb Tyler, typical Ozark mountaineer; Bob Wilson.

Mrs. Knox Dunlap and daughter, Mary Pauline, of Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, arrived Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shelton.

Miss Evelyn Rush spent the past week in her home in Moebette.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Friday afternoon we saw the last game in a fairly successful football season for the Clarendon High School Bronchos. We are proud of the Bronchos; they have proved the merit of good old CHS. They came back from the bottom team of the state to a team that anyone would be proud to claim. They have not won all their games, nor have they failed to make mistakes, but they have tried and that is the primary purpose of the game anyway. Authorities say that the coach has only a small part to do with the success of a team, but they weren't thinking about our coach when they said that. We take off our hats to you, Coach; many thanks for what you've done.

Everyone realizes that the football team has done great work this year, but do they realize what the CHS Band has done? Our band has played at all pep rallies, they have followed the Bronchos to all their games but one, and they have been the most enthusiastic supporters of the squad. When the school wants the band for something, they are there.

The CHS Bronchos have finished their season, but the CHS Band season is the '38 year. Here's a pat on the back, Band. Much obliged and keep up the good work.

Twentieth National Book Week Is Observed in CHS This Week, Nov. 13-19

In observance of the twentieth annual National Book Week, Mrs. White, school librarian, has added some interesting features to the library. A unique house made of the jackets from books recently received makes the library interesting to look at as well as being useful in selecting a new book to read. This unusual display is serving as a guide to future reading as students have already called for many of the books. A few of the recent books are on exhibit on a separate shelf where the students may carefully examine them before making their choice.

For the past three years in order to encourage reading, Mrs. White has awarded prizes to the students reading the greatest number of books by National Book Week. This year a book was presented to a student from each grade. For the High School, Rex L. Moore and Orville Johnson each received awards for the Sophomores; Gaynelle Tidwell Juniors; Glenna Deal, Seniors. For the College, Mildred Barker was the fortunate Freshman and Jeanne McDonald, the Sophomore.

OPEN LETTER TO THE STUDENTS OF CHS

Dear Fellow Classmates: What's the matter with our school? There doesn't seem to be any life at all in what we call "loyal students." Why doesn't someone do something? What we need is good entertainment for this high school bunch. What is better than a few parties or dances for a group of high school boys and girls? We have some teachers in this school who would be glad to help us if the students would show any sign of wanting something to do except to roam around town wishing for a place to go. That is just what we don't want in our school, but it is impossible to avoid this if there is nothing else to do.

What do you say, students? Shall we go with no real entertainment, or shall we show the people that we are still that Clarendon crowd that knows how to have real fun? Who knows but that the teachers would enjoy this too. Come on, let's see what we can do about it!

Yours for more pep,
BRONCHOETTA.

WE WONDER

We wonder how old Lee Christi is?

We wonder what would happen if Ruth McDonald was unable to talk to Wanda Craft in the third period study hall?

We wonder if Theresa Bain is trying to change her name to Marie?

We wonder what color of finger nail polish the girls will be wearing next? Almost every color of the rainbow has been seen: Red, black, green.

We wonder who Inez Heathington is always writing to?

We wonder why Elbert Horton is always late to class?

We wonder what girl's ring Jack Lackey is wearing?

We wonder why Jo Alice Lane likes to hear poetry?

Seniors Select Class Rings

The Seniors met in the auditorium Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock to choose their class rings and class invitations. An oblong ring, having a large "C" with the inscription "High School" underneath it, was chosen by the class. Most of the students chose the gold overlay rings as they were cheaper.

The students were very democratic in choosing both the rings and the invitations. Goldston Brothers, local jewelers, are to order the rings. Mr. Joe Goldston has announced that if the Seniors want the rings by Christmas, they must make the down payment on them by Thursday, November 17. Although the style of the invitations was selected at this meeting, the invitations will not be ordered until sometime next spring.

FIRE DRILL

The college building was full of black and white smoke Thursday morning, but it was empty of any persons only a few seconds after the alarm was sounded. The fire drill committee wanted to find out just how the student body would act if there really was a fire. That real fire was supplied by the chemistry students when they set two pots of burning crude oil at two of the stairways. The full student body and faculty filed swiftly but orderly out the north door. Although some received quite a scare when they smelled the smoke and saw it pouring from the basement stairs, they also had some real practice in fire control.

BAND STARTS "SHOW TICKET" CONTEST

Mr. Mulkey is going to give six show tickets to the band each month. Those tickets will go to the following:
The disciplined player.
The most improved player in discipline.
The player with best attitude.
The player who best watches dynamic markings.
The player most improved in watching dynamic markings.
The girl that works the hardest.

The first Monday in every month the band will vote on the six winners. No member can win more than one ticket each month, but he or she can win in some other division the next month. The same member cannot continue to win in a division more than one month.

The new contest promises to be of much interest to the band members and patrons and it will help to improve the band.

GOSSIP BY THE BUSY REPORTER

Joe Hays and Jack Reeves were seen walking down country lanes with rifles Thursday night. It is rumored that they were looking for Dan Ezton.

Ethelyn Dronman is really a good person for a reporter to follow. She is called Cutie, Whirlwind, and Queenie. She also has a new romance. What a scoop for an ambitious reporter.

Theresa Bain was once again saved by fate. Ruth (Country) Cornell and Neil Thompson are seen quite frequently together.

Mary Lee is still on the run from the mad Dorothea. Yvonne Smith is saving shoe leather by playing up to her present boy friend. She has a ride to and from school all the time now.

The gossip we had about Katrina and Margaret was censored by your editor, but let us tell you it was bad.

Lois Marie is still having a hard time deciding between Fred and Allen.

Who is Colie Huffman's new heart flame. It's really serious this time.

Is it notes or fan mail that Betty Jo Caraway is seen reading each afternoon.

University Park and Highland Park, Dallas, recently voted bonds in the sum of $175,000 for the improvement of elementary and high school plants.

Junior High Colts Complete Season

The Clarendon Jr. High Colts turned in their football suits at the close of a successful season. They won four of their five games played, scoring a total of 74 points on their opponent's 20. Memphis Juniors fell prey to them three times, and the Amarillo Maverick Club split games with them. Some of the Colts will move into the corral with the Bronchos next season and we hope they pitch as well there as they did with us. Several Colts will be back next season and with recruits from the lower grades they should have another good season. We hope the knowledge and experience of football these boys get as Colts will benefit them when they become Bronchos. More power to the Colts and Bronchos.

In harmony with the autumn colors is a gold wool sweater worn by Glennie Deal, and a real blue sweater with tiny ruffles running parallel on it worn by Rue Zell Ryan.

Wedges are still all the go in shoes. Suede, alligator, and kid are common on the campus. Marjorie Beverly has a pair of alligator Oxfords with Dutch heels. Ruth McDonald has a pair of brown pigskin Oxfords trimmed in kid that are "fashion personified"

Probably the garments creating the most interest in school are white Indian head blouses with signatures of friends embroidered

ASSEMBLY
Assembly was held the fourth period Thursday, November 10. The opening songs, "Star Spangled Banner," "The Long Trail," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," were led by the College chorus, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Allen Bryan.

The program was put on by the F. F. A. Greenhands. Joe Williams turned the charge of it over to L. D. Hartzog, the president of the Greenhands. Numbers on the program included: Four F. F. A. yells, three songs; the F. F. A. creed, and four short talks, "Why I Like My Teachers," "Why I Don't Like My Teachers," "Why I'd Rather Be a Boy Than a Girl," "Why I'd Rather Be a Girl Than a Boy," given extemporaneously by four of the Greenhands. After an announcement concerning the boxing tournament, Mr. Gilman took charge and said that the F. F. A. boys had intended to present Mr. Mulkey with an honorary membership key, but were unable to do so at that time.

After the pledge was repeated, Mr. Burton concluded the program with some announcements and a few comments on the meaning of Armistice Day.

Colorful Styles Pervade Campus

In viewing the styles this year, of course it is impossible to write about all of the attractive things worn by our co-eds, but there are a few that certainly demand attention.

Probably one of the most attractive new coats that has appeared on the campus this fall is a rust wool coat with a vest zipping up the front of matching color. This coat is worn by Thelma Hardin.

Dirndl is the leading style in dresses. Jessie J. Tomlinson has a new black crepe dress trimmed in multi-colored wool thread cross stitched around the hem and sleeves. Pauline Riley also wears a dirndl of black crepe with square military shoulders and a square neck.

Dorothy Jean Bogard has a rust dirndl blouse which she wears with a navy blue tweed skirt and rust cross country hat.

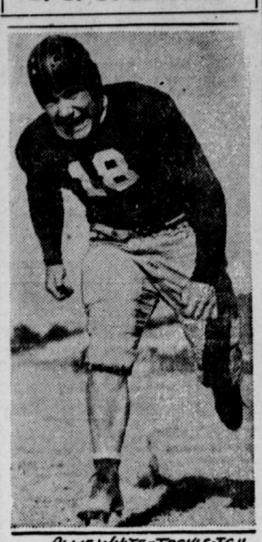

The new dirndl type dress is also to be seen in prints. Dorothy Nell Oller wears a pale blue print with blue in the background and white flowers predominating. The opening in the front is bound with small white buttons, and the waist is gathered with blue elastic thread.

Mary Ella Williams has a new light tan two-piece tweed suit, with which she wears a Roman striped blouse. Both the blouse and suit zip up the front.

ALLIE WHITE

His name doesn't make the headlines as often as some others, but his 204 pounds of right tackle is one of the reasons why the Texas Christian Horned Frogs are in the top spot in the Southwest Conference. His name is Allie White and he is playing his last season for the Frogs. He played his high school string at Masonic Home, Fort Worth, and was all-state three years and all-Southern his senior year. The players call him "Chief," because of his Indian blood, and Coach Dutch Meyer says that handle fits his rating as a lineman.

To add to the tailored look of shirts and sweaters, Clarendon Broncho pins and gold footballs are worn.

Payroll, Or Dole?

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

It makes a whale of a difference whether people are on the payroll or on the dole, and it makes just as much difference with livestock. It may be necessary, sometimes, to go on a "drouth" ration, doing out just enough food or feed to keep life in the animal, but neither man, beast or fowl goes long on a bare "maintenance ration" without losing something that cannot be regained. If the ration is unbalanced the body must draw on its reserves for the deficiency elements, resulting in depleted vigor. If the ration is balanced—that is if it contains all the essentials—and is yet too skimpy, the result is worse, for it takes more to regain the loss than to hold normal growth in the first place.

Feed has only one purpose—to be fed. The worst possible disposition to make of it is to peddle it on a cash market for less than cost of production; the next most wasteful use of feed is to dole it out stingily or to feed it in the wrong way to the wrong kind of stock. It takes a certain amount of feed to keep up normal body functions, and unless more is fed and digested there will be no gains in weight, no eggs, or no milk.

It is especially important at this time to keep turkeys on a full balanced ration until they go to market, and laying hens must have what it takes to produce eggs during the next few months, when the price is best. If all the elements of a good ration are not produced on the farm—and it is seldom that they are—whatever is lacking must be purchased. The primary purpose of course is to sell home-grown feed to the best advantage, and the ration should be built around the feeds that are available. But it is not possible to get the best returns from one kind of grain alone, or from any other unbalanced combination.

There is no excuse for haphazard feeding methods when the information can be had from county agents or from bulletins of the agricultural colleges which enable the feeder to work out a ration which uses as much as practicable of home grown feeds, and yet the best results from their use. Everyone now knows that a protein supplement makes corn or other carbohydrate grain go farther in pork production, and it is therefore economy to buy whatever is necessary rather than fatten hogs on corn alone.

The same principle applies in every kind of livestock and poultry. Growing and laying mashers are used by every good turkey raiser and egg producer, according to the needs of the fowls. To withhold either quality or quantity in feed is to reduce the profits in the long run, even if at the moment it saves cash outlay.

In these short sketches it is impractical to discuss details, or to lay out rations for general use. Such a variety of feeds is grown in the Southwest that it would take a book to explain their uses with various types of animals and fowls, and for the several purposes of breeding, growing, fattening, and egg or milk production, for which livestock is kept. Every farmer must decide for himself how to best use his feed, and if he has not already learned how to figure a ration based on what he grows and the kind of livestock he has, he can secure the information by going to the right sources.

The F. F. A. boys and the 4-H Club boys are learning these things in their daily work under vocational agriculture teachers and county agents, and they have made proud records in livestock the poultry production, which their fathers may well emulate.

Cotton Growers Are Told the Allotment Plan Is Poisonous

The South's perplexing cotton problem was attacked on three fronts in Dallas Thursday, Oct. 27, at meetings concerned with improving the lot of the producer and the industry in general, but with a wide variance in the solutions offered at the different gatherings.

The existing federal agricultural program was termed Communist and unconstitutional at a meeting of the Domestic Allotment League, favoring a system by which growers will have prices sustained for domestically consumed cotton, and left to produce at will for foreign markets.

The league voted to ask Secretary of Agriculture Wallace to submit on Dec. 10, along with continuation of AAA quotas, the domestic allotment plan, and at the same elections. The league urged Texas congressmen and senators to support the allotment plan in drafting a new farm bill.

County agents, county committeemen and others administering the AAA, at another meeting, called the present program the South's salvation and explained the 1939 cotton plan.

Another group—the National Cotton Council—effected a temporary organization in Texas to combat the decline of the cotton industry by finding new uses for cotton, lowering tariff walls, controlling insect pests and other methods of benefitting the cotton business.

The immediate goal of the Domestic Allotment League is to cut down the favorable vote for imposing allotments for 1939 in the December referendum elections, said Ralph Moore, Grange resident of the group, and master of the State Grange. To impose cotton quotas, two thirds of the farmers participating must favor it. Leaders of the domestic allotment plan movement to replace the AAA pointed out if more than one third of the farmers vote against quotas, the government will be forced to present another plan, possibly the one favored by their group.

"Who believes reducing income, as the AAA does, makes the farmer's condition better?" shouted Knox Bass, Pittsburg, county judge of Camp county and treasurer of the Domestic Allotment League. "The AAA is communistically formed and embodies some of the Marxian principles. "Congressman Martin Dies and his committee are uncovering the most damnable stuff ever shown. He's proved that the nation is crawling with folks who have committed their lives to the destruction of democracy."

Other speakers against the AAA were Dudley Ferris, Ennis cotton grower; Mike Thomas, Dallas, and F. E. Morriss, secretary Texas Retail Dry Goods Association.

Sufficient funds have been raised to start active organization work over the state next week, officers said. District meetings will be held. President Moore announced the following committees: Finance, Dr. J. M. Travis, Jacksonville, chairman; Dudley Ferris, Ennis, and County Judge Knox Bass, Pittsburg, publicity; John A. Miles, Dallas, chairman; George W. Wilburn, Tyler, and George B. Terrell, Alto; program, State Senator J. L. Sulak, LaGrange, chairman; Claud Griffin, Palmer, and Peter Loran, Munday, Knox county.

County agricultural committee chairman, who will administer the 1939 farm program, pledged to carry on the preliminary work in the counties as rapidly as possible so the state office at College Station will be able to furnish quotas and other information at an early date.

This action was taken at a district meeting of county agents, home demonstration agents and administrative forces of the AAA in the Jefferson Hotel. G. W. Orms, district administrative agent, presided.

Ralph Price, College Station, administrative assistant to the AAA in Texas, explained the 1939 program. Frank Vance, assistant state administrator, spoke.

The federal range conservation program, limited in 1938 to West Texas areas, will be extended to cover the entire state in 1939, A. W. Smith, special representative in this work, announced. Ranchers are paid for conserving range land by removing obnoxious growths, terracing, building tanks and other work. The range program is popular, Mr. Smith said, in spite of reduced payments for 1939.

A movement launched eighteen months ago by the state-wide cotton committee for Texas, headed by Burrell C. Jackson, Hillsboro, was carried along here Thursday into a national movement. The organization will engage in no controversial matters, such as the AAA and the domestic allotment plan, but seek more uses for cotton and other means of improving the industry.

The state-wide cotton committee for Texas, which is seeking the federal cotton research laboratory for this state, will continue to function, Mr. Jackson said.

J. R. McCrary, Calvert, was named temporary chairman of the Texas Cotton Council at a meeting in the Baker Hotel attended

EDITOR'S CORNER

Friday afternoon we saw the last game in a fairly successful football season for the Clarendon High School Bronchos. We are proud of the Bronchos; they have proved the merit of good old CHS. They came back from the bottom team of the state to a team that anyone would be proud to claim. They have not won all their games, nor have they failed to make mistakes, but they have tried and that is the primary purpose of the game anyway. Authorities say that the coach has only a small part to do with the success of a team, but they weren't thinking about our coach when they said that. We take off our hats to you, Coach; many thanks for what you've done.

Everyone realizes that the football team has done great work this year, but do they realize what the CHS Band has done? Our band has played at all pep rallies, they have followed the Bronchos to all their games but one, and they have been the most enthusiastic supporters of the squad. When the school wants the band for something, they are there.

The CHS Bronchos have finished their season, but the CHS Band season is the full year. Here's a pat on the back, Band. Much obliged and keep up the good work.

Twentieth National Book Week Is Observed in CHS This Week, Nov. 13-19

In observance of the twentieth annual National Book Week, Mrs. White, school librarian, has added some interesting features to the library. A unique house made of the jackets from books recently received makes the library interesting to look at as well as being useful in selecting a new book to read. This unusual display is serving as a guide to future reading as students have already called for many of the books. A few of the recent books are on exhibit on a separate shelf where the students may carefully examine them before making their choice.

For the past three years in order to encourage reading, Mrs. White has awarded prizes to the students reading the greatest number of books by National Book Week. This year a book was presented to a student from each grade. For the High School, Rex L. Moore and Orville Johnson each received awards for the Sophomores; Gaynelle Tidwell Juniors; Glenna Deal, Seniors. For the College, Mildred Barker was the fortunate Freshman and Jeanne McDonald, the Sophomore.

OPEN LETTER TO THE STUDENTS OF CHS

Dear Fellow Classmates: What's the matter with our school? There doesn't seem to be any life at all in what we call "loyal students." Why doesn't someone do something? What we need is good entertainment for this high school bunch. What is better than a few parties or dances for a group of high school boys and girls? We have some teachers in this school who would be glad to help us if the students would show any sign of wanting something to do except to roam around town wishing for a place to go. That is just what we don't want in our school, but it is impossible to avoid this if there is nothing else to do.

What do you say, students? Shall we go with no real entertainment, or shall we show the people that we are still that Clarendon crowd that knows how to have real fun? Who knows but that the teachers would enjoy this too. Come on, let's see what we can do about it!

Yours for more pep,
BRONCHOETTA.

WE WONDER

We wonder how old Lee Christi is?

We wonder what would happen if Ruth McDonald was unable to talk to Wanda Craft in the third period study hall?

We wonder if Theresa Bain is trying to change her name to Marie?

We wonder what color of finger nail polish the girls will be wearing next? Almost every color of the rainbow has been seen: Red, black, green.

We wonder who Inez Heathington is always writing to?

We wonder why Elbert Horton is always late to class?

We wonder what girl's ring Jack Lackey is wearing?

We wonder why Jo Alice Lane likes to hear poetry?

Seniors Select Class Rings

The Seniors met in the auditorium Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock to choose their class rings and class invitations. An oblong ring, having a large "C" with the inscription "High School" underneath it, was chosen by the class. Most of the students chose the gold overlay rings as they were cheaper.

The students were very democratic in choosing both the rings and the invitations. Goldston Brothers, local jewelers, are to order the rings. Mr. Joe Goldston has announced that if the Seniors want the rings by Christmas, they must make the down payment on them by Thursday, November 17. Although the style of the invitations was selected at this meeting, the invitations will not be ordered until sometime next spring.

FIRE DRILL

The college building was full of black and white smoke Thursday morning, but it was empty of any persons only a few seconds after the alarm was sounded. The fire drill committee wanted to find out just how the student body would act if there really was a fire. That real fire was supplied by the chemistry students when they set two pots of burning crude oil at two of the stairways. The full student body and faculty filed swiftly but orderly out the north door. Although some received quite a scare when they smelled the smoke and saw it pouring from the basement stairs, they also had some real practice in fire control.

BAND STARTS "SHOW TICKET" CONTEST

Mr. Mulkey is going to give six show tickets to the band each month. Those tickets will go to the following:

The disciplined player.
The most improved player in discipline.

The player with best attitude.
The player who best watches dynamic markings.

The player most improved in watching dynamic markings.

The girl that works the hardest.

The first Monday in every month the band will vote on the six winners. No member can win more than one ticket each month, but he or she can win in some other division the next month. The same member cannot continue to win in a division more than one month.

The new contest promises to be of much interest to the band members and patrons and it will help to improve the band.

GOSSIP BY THE BUSY REPORTER

Joe Hays and Jack Reeves were seen walking down country lanes with rifles Thursday night. It is rumored that they were looking for Dan Boston.
Ethelyn Dromman is really a good person for a reporter to follow. She is called Cutie, Whirlwind, and Queenie. She also has a new romance. What a scoop for an ambitious reporter.
Theresa Bain was once again saved by fate.

Ruth (Country) Cornell and Neil Thompson are seen quite frequently together.
Mary Lee is still on the run from the mad Dorothea.

Yvonne Smith is saving shoe leather by playing up to her present boy friend. She has a ride to and from school all the time now.

The gossip we had about Katrina and Margaret was censored by your editor, but let us tell you it was bad.

Lois Marie is still having a hard time deciding between Fred and Allen.
Who is Colie Huffman's new heart flame. It's really serious this time.

Is it notes or fan mail that Betty Jo Caraway is seen reading each afternoon.

University Park and Highland Park, Dallas, recently voted bonds in the sum of $175,000 for the improvement of elementary and high school plants.

Junior High Colts Complete Season

The Clarendon Jr. High Colts turned in their football suits at the close of a successful season. They won four of their five games played, scoring a total of 74 points on their opponent's 20. Memphis Juniors fell prey to them three times, and the Amarillo Maverick Club split games with them. Some of the Colts will move into the corral with the Bronchos next season and we hope they pitch as well there as they did with us. Several Colts will be back next season and with recruits from the lower grades they should have another good season. We hope the knowledge and experience of football these boys get as Colts will benefit them when they become Bronchos. More power to the Colts and Bronchos.

ASSEMBLY

Assembly was held the fourth period Thursday, November 10. The opening songs, "Star Spangled Banner," "The Long Trail," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," were led by the College chorus, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Allen Bryan.

The program was put on by the F. F. A. Greenhands. Joe Williams turned the charge of it over to L. D. Hartzog, the president of the Greenhands. Numbers on the program included: Four F. F. A. yells, three songs; the F. F. A. creed, and four short talks, "Why I Like My Teachers," "Why I Don't Like My Teachers," "Why I'd Rather Be a Boy Than a Girl," "Why I'd Rather Be a Girl Than a Boy," given extemporaneously by four of the Greenhands. After an announcement concerning the boxing tournament, Mr. Gillam took charge and said that the F. F. A. boys had intended to present Mr. Mulkey with an honorary membership key, but were unable to do so at that time.

After the pledge was repeated, Mr. Burton concluded the program with some announcements and a few comments on the meaning of Armistice Day.

Colorful Styles Pervade Campus

In viewing the styles this year, of course it is impossible to write about all of the attractive things worn by our co-eds, but there are a few that certainly demand attention.

Probably one of the most attractive new coats that has appeared on the campus this fall is a rust wool coat with a vest zipping up the front of matching color. This coat is worn by Thelma Hardin.

Dirndl is the leading style in dresses. Jessie J. Tomlinson has a new black crepe dress trimmed in multi-colored wool thread cross stitched around the hem and sleeves. Pauline Riley also wears a dirndl of black crepe with square military shoulders and a square neck.

Dorothy Jean Bogard has a rust dirndl blouse which she wears with a navy blue tweed skirt and rust cross country hat.

The new dirndl type dress is also to be seen in prints. Dorothy Nell Oller wears a pale blue print with blue in the background and white flowers predominating. The opening in the front is bound with small white buttons, and the waist is gathered with blue elastic thread.

Many Ella Williams has a new light tan two-piece tweed suit, with which she wears a Roman striped blouse. Both the blouse and suit zip up the front.

In harmony with the autumn colors is a gold wool sweater worn by Glennie Deal, and a real blue sweater with tiny ruffles running parallel on it worn by Rue Zell Ryan.

Wedges are still all the go in shoes. Suede, alligator, and kid are common on the campus. Marjorie Beverly has a pair of alligator Oxfords with Dutch heels. Ruth McDonald has a pair of brown pigskin Oxfords trimmed in kid that are "fashion personified."

Probably the garments creating the most interest in school are white Indian head blouses with signatures of friends embroidered

The players call him "Chief," because of his Indian blood, and Coach Dutch Meyer says that handle fits his rating as a lineman.

To add to the tailored look of shirts and sweaters, Clarendon Broncho pins and gold footballs are worn.

Payroll, Or Dole?

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

It makes a whole of a difference whether people are on the payroll or on the dole, and it makes just as much difference with livestock. It may be necessary, sometimes, to go on a "drouth" ration, doling out just enough food or feed to keep life in the animal, but neither man, beast or fowl goes long on a bare "maintenance ration" without losing something that cannot be regained. If the ration is unbalanced the body must draw on its reserves for the deficiency elements, resulting in depleted vigor. If the ration is balanced—that is if it contains all the essentials—and is yet too skimpy, the result is worse, for it takes more to regain the loss than to hold normal growth in the first place.

Feed has only one purpose—to be fed. The worst possible disposition to make of it is to peddle it on a cash market for less than cost of production; the next most wasteful use of feed is to dole it out stingily or to feed it in the wrong way to the wrong kind of stock. It takes a certain amount of feed to keep up normal body functions, and unless more is fed and digested there will be no gains in weight, no eggs, or no milk. It is especially important at this time to keep turkeys on a full balanced ration until they go to market, and laying hens must have what it takes to produce eggs during the next few months, when the price is best. If all the elements of a good ration are not produced on the farm—and it is seldom that they are—whatever is lacking must be purchased. The primary purpose of course is to sell home-grown feed to the best advantage, and the ration should be built around the feeds that are available. But it is not possible to get the best returns from one kind of grain alone, or from any and the industry in general, but with a wide variance in the solutions offered at the different gatherings. The existing federal agricultural program was termed Communitistic and unconstitutional at a meeting of the Domestic Allotment League, favoring a system by which growers will have prices sustained for domestically consumed cotton, and left to produce at will for foreign markets. The league voted to ask Secretary of Agriculture Wallace to submit on Dec. 10, along with continuation of AAA quotas, the domestic allotment plan, and at the same elections. The league urged Texas congressmen and senators to support the allotment plan in drafting a new farm bill. County agents, county committeemen and others administering the AAA, at another meeting, called the present program the South's salvation and explained the 1939 cotton plan. Another group—the National Cotton Council—effected a temporary organization in Texas to combat the decline of the cotton industry by finding new uses for

Other unbalanced combination. There is no excuse for hazardous feeding methods when the information can be had from county agents or from bulletins of the agricultural colleges which enable the feeder to work out a ration which uses as much as practicable of home grown feeds, and yet the best results from their use. Everyone now knows that a protein supplement makes corn or other carbohydrate grain go farther in pork production, and it is therefore economy to buy whatever is necessary rather than fatten hogs on corn alone. The same principle applies in every kind of livestock and poultry. Growing and laying mashers are used by every good turkey raiser and egg producer, according to the needs of the fowls. To withhold either quality or quantity in feed is to reduce the profits in the long run, even if at the moment it saves cash outlay. In these short sketches it is impractical to discuss details, or to lay out rations for general use. Such a variety of feeds is grown in the Southwest that it would take a book to explain their uses with various types of animals and fowls, and for the several purposes of breeding, growing, fattening, and egg or milk production, for which livestock is kept. Every farmer must decide for himself how to best use his feed, and if he has not already learned how to figure a ration based on what he grows and the kind of livestock he has, he can secure the information by going to the right sources. The F. F. A. boys and the 4-H Club boys are learning these things in their daily work under vocational agriculture teachers and county agents, and they have made proud records in livestock and the poultry production, which their fathers may well emulate.

Cotton Growers Are Told the Allotment Plan Is Poisonous

and the industry in general, but with a wide variance in the solutions offered at the different gatherings. The existing federal agricultural program was termed Communitistic and unconstitutional at a meeting of the Domestic Allotment League, favoring a system by which growers will have prices sustained for domestically consumed cotton, and left to produce at will for foreign markets. cotton, lowering tariff walls, controlling insect pests and other methods of benefitting the cotton business. The immediate goal of the Domestic Allotment League is to cut down the favorable vote for imposing allotments for 1939 in the December referendum elections, said Ralph Moore, Granger resident of the group, and master of the State Grange. To impose cotton quotas, two thirds of the farmers participating must favor it. Leaders of the domestic allotment plan movement to replace the AAA pointed out if more than one third of the farmers vote against quotas, the government will be forced to present another plan, possibly the one favored by their group. "Who believes reducing income, as the AAA does, makes the farmer's condition better?" shouted Knox Bass, Pittsburg, county judge of Camp county and treasurer of the Domestic Allotment League. "The AAA is communisticly formed and embodies some of the Marxian principles. "Congressman Martin Dies and his committee are uncovering the most damnable stuff ever shown. He's proved that the nation is crawling with folks who have committed their lives to the destruction of democracy." Other speakers against the AAA were Dudley Ferris, Ennis cotton grower; Mike Thomas, Dallas, and F. E. Morris, secretary Texas Retail Dry Goods Association.

Sufficient funds have been raised to start active organization work over the state next week, officers said. District meetings will be held. President Moore announced the following committees: Finance, Dr. J. M. Travis, Jacksonville, chairman; Dudley Farris, Ennis, and County Judge Knox Bass, Pittsburg; publicity, John A. Miles, Dallas, chairman; George W. Wilburn, Tyler, and George B. Terrell, Alto; program, State Senator J. L. Sulak, LaGrange, chairman; Claud Griffin, Palmer, and Peter Loran, Munday, Knox county. County agricultural committee chairman, who will administer the 1939 farm program, pledged to carry on the preliminary work in the counties as rapidly as possible so the state office at College Station will be able to furnish quotas and other information at an early date. This action was taken at a district meeting of county agents, home demonstration agents and administrative forces of the AAA in the Jefferson Hotel. G. W. Orms, district administrative agent, presided. Ralph Price, College Station, administrative assistant to the AAA in Texas, explained the 1939 program. Frank Vance, assistant state administrator, spoke. The federal range conservation program, limited in 1938 to West Texas areas, will be extended to cover the entire state in 1939, A. W. Smith, special representative in this work, announced. Ranchers are paid for conserving range land by removing obnoxious growths, terracing, building tanks and other work. The range program is popular, Mr. Smith said, in spite of reduced payments for 1939. A movement launched eighteen months ago by the state-wide cotton committee for Texas, headed by Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, was carried along here Thursday into a national movement. The organization will engage in no controversial matters, such as the AAA and the domestic allotment plan, but seek more uses for cotton and other means of improving the industry. The state-wide cotton committee for Texas, which is seeking the federal cotton research laboratory for this state, will continue to function, Mr. Jackson said. J. R. McCrary, Calvert, was named temporary chairman of the Texas Cotton Council at a meeting in the Baker Hotel attended by 35 leaders in various phases of the industry. Other temporary officers are V. C. Marshall, Heidenheimer, Bell county, vice chairman; Henry Wamble, Caldwell, treasurer, and W. T. Limerick, Dallas, secretary. A permanent National Cotton Council will be formed at a meeting in November, Mr. Johnston said. W. L. Clayton, Houston, widely known cotton exporter, attended the meeting and endorsed the organization, particularly if all parts of the industry co-operate. He pointed out the cotton interests are well organized separately, but lack union of purpose and action.—Dallas S. W. Farm News. 287 EX-STUDENTS REGISTER AT C. C. HOMECOMING

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION IS EFFECTED; GOOD TIME HAD BY ALL

The first reunion of Clarendon College ex-students was an unqualified success. Two hundred and eighty-seven persons registered during the two days, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11 and 12. At the chapel exercise held Saturday morning in the college auditorium, it was unanimously voted to organize a permanent ex-students group which will hold reunions at undecided intervals. The following were chosen for officers in the permanent organization:

- President, Clyde I. Price, Clarendon.
- First vice president, George Ordway, Amarillo.
- Second vice president, Herbert Hilburn, Plainview.
- Third vice president, Luther Griddle, Wellington.
- Secretary, Mrs. Katherine Patrick Bugbee, Clarendon.
- Directors, Clay Thompson, Stamford; Wayton Weathered, Pampa; Avis Austin Broughton, Childress; John Callaway, Henrietta; C. W. Ratliff, Lubbock; P. W. Walker, Eastland; Arthur Parker, Paducah; Coopwood Perry, Elmer, Okla.; and Heck Harris, Portales.

was thoroughly enjoyed by all the ex-students. Most of them enjoyed viewing old photographs in the Museum and the various programs which were given during the two days. The chapel program Saturday was high-lighted by the roll call of classes at which each year arose and gave their name and present address. Every year except the first two years were well represented. Another feature of the chapel was the dormitory girls who were chaperoned in by and sat together on the front seat with Miss Mary H. Howren.

The open house held Friday night was the outstanding occasion of the reunion. There the exes gathered in groups to recall old times and renew friendships. A delicious buffet supper was served during the evening, and although everyone enjoyed eating, they begrudged the time taken off from visiting.

The opinion was expressed by many that those two days were the most pleasant they had spent since they left Clarendon College and they would very much like to have more reunions, perhaps not every year and possibly only every five years. Many letters and telegrams of congratulation were received from those who were unable to attend. All of these expressed wishes for another reunion. These messages were posted on a bulletin board in the hall of the administration building where they might be read by all.

The executive committee of Clarendon is to be commended for sponsoring such a splendid reunion which has promises of

Six Wins and Two Draws in F. F. A. Tournament

The semi-final matches were held last night, and the final bouts are scheduled for next Wednesday night, November 23rd.

Scheduled final bouts are: L. B. Hartzog vs. Pete Morrow; Johnny Grady vs. Jack Rogers; Carroll Peabody vs. Cecil Hickman; Forest Helton vs. Bob McWhorter; Junior Hartzog vs. J. M. Peabody; Clyde Peabody vs. Laverne Johnson; Ray Isham vs. Bailey Estes.

Mrs. Inez Grotto of Tulsa, Okla., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shelton this week.

growing much larger in the years to come and means a great deal to all ex-students.

The spirit of Clarendon College is still very much alive even though the actual alma mater is gone. The splendid response to the reunion and the deep feeling with which everyone expressed his desire to meet again showed this.

WORK ON CITY PARK GOES FORWARD NOW

MEETING WEDNESDAY MAKES PLANS; GOOD REPRESENTATION

The City Park Board held a splendid meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the clubroom. Nearly every club in the city was well represented at this meeting which was held for the purpose of discussing the work already done and future developments of the park.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. George Bagby. This included the accomplishments of the organization to date. Mr. W. A. Riney discussed the wisdom of a park and the benefits derived from developing a community park. Mayor T. F. Connally spoke about the plans which are now in the hands of the committee and pledged the acceptance and support of the city in carrying them out. Frank White, Jr., explained how a WPA project could be obtained for the park.

The working committee, composed of Mrs. U. J. Boston, Frank White, George Ryan, Bert Smith and W. W. Taylor, was instructed to go ahead with completion of the project at the earliest possible date.

Mrs. J. D. Swift and Mrs. Bert Smith were appointed by the chairman as a finance committee. The planting of the park was directed to the direction of the different clubs as follows:

- Two top terraces, Garden Club.
- Two center terraces, Book Club.
- Two lower terraces, Mothers' Club.

Shrubs in new terraces, Les Beaux Art Club.

Special beds, Junior and Senior Demonstrations Clubs.

Grass planting, American Legion and Auxiliary, Chamber of Commerce.

Play ground equipment, Lions Club and PTA.

Drinking fountain, Pathfinder club.

Walker Lane has rendered valuable service by drawing plans and eliminating cost. The West Texas Utilities Company has installed a light in the park. Plans are now under way for removal of all the dead trees and terracing in order to prepare for tree and grass planting.

The following organizations were represented at the meeting Wednesday: State Highway Department, City Commission, Chamber of Commerce, Junior Demonstration Club, Mothers' Club, Garden Club, Les Beaux Club, American Legion Auxiliary, Parent-Teachers' Association.

A. N. Wood Writes Of California Politics and Sports

The following letter was received this week from A. N. Wood, former Clarendon resident, who gives some interesting sidelights on California politics:

"Maywood, Calif., 4217 E. 55 St. "Editor Clarendon News, "Clarendon, Texas.

"Dear Sir: "Well, we have come to the close of another beautiful Armistice Day. It was a little cool with a balmy breeze from the west. If you had as beautiful a day there I know of several of the boys that would have been out chasing the elusive golf ball, for instance Dude, U. J. J. T. and T. F., and others I could name but these seem to be a little more persistent in this sport.

"I am not yet physically able to participate in any sports except over the radio. I sure take in the most of the sports through this means. I sat here this evening and took in the football game between Baylor and the Los Angeles Loyola teams. Say those Texans sure did show these Californians how to handle that pigskin, 35 to 2. Pretty good defeat was it not?

"The election is just over and we sure made democracy safe in California. These Texas Demos handed the state over to the Democratic party for the first time in 44 years. I think these natives should be proud of us Democrats that have drifted in and made this condition possible. We also defeated the 'Funny Money' old-age proposition.

"We know not whether you are familiar with this plan, but would suggest that you occasionally tune your radio to California as we are having something new or strange almost all the time. There are some people here that lightly ridicule Texas and Texans, but they have no reason to call them 'Fly By Nighters.' I have been here less than two years and have heard more funny and radical propositions than I did in 58 years' residence in Texas.

"Of course, there are very few people in the U. S. A. that are thoroughly contented under the conditions that now prevail but here is one that still holds faith in our present administration and not yet ready to trade good old U. S. money for a piece of paper that you have to affix stamps to the back of to have any value.

"Am sending you certificate that some one has gotten up to have some fun out of the people that are for this plan. Say, just think there are almost a million people voted for this plan in California. Terrible condition to prevail in this land of liberty.

"Well the election and this
