"POWDER RIVER" TO RE-ECHO HERE TWO BIG DAYS

FELLOWSHIP AND REMINISCENCE TO HOLD THE BOARDS HERE

The first Clarendon College Homecoming will get under way Friday Nov. 11. A large number of ex-students, both of the old Methodist College and the present Junior College, will be here for the two-day celebration.

Registration for the event will begin Friday at 9:30 o'clock at the buffet supper Friday night at $1.25 will be charged. This fee will cover admittance to the football game Friday afternoon between the Clarendon High School team and the Vega team, the buffet supper Friday night at 7:30 at the girls' dormitory and the barbecue Saturday at noon. Any one not caring to attend all three events may pay only for those he wishes to attend. A green and white badge will be given all who register for the Homecoming.

The town is rapidly becoming entwined with green and white decorations, carrying out the colors and theme of the reunion. Many of the business houses are decorating their windows and stores with various sorts of green and white schemes. A large banner is stretched across Kearney street bearing the insignia and greetings.

One of the features of the two days will be the bands which will be here Saturday to lend color and spirit to the occasion. The Shamrock drum and bugle corps and the Memphis band will be here Saturday and will play at the barbecue. The West Texas State College band will come one of the days. It is probable that other bands will also take part in the festivities. As an extra feature these bands will be shown through the college building and have its advantages and history pointed out.

The buffet supper Friday night will provide opportunity for the ex-students to find out just who is here and renew old friendships. Saturday morning the Exes will find delight in an old-fashioned chapel program which will follow as closely as possible those of the old days. Stuart Condon, former dean of the school and now head of the department of government at W. T. S. T. C. at Canyon will be the main speaker at this hour but others are also expected to give short speeches. The group will sing the old songs and otherwise behave exactly as they did way back when.

The barbecue Saturday will climax the reunion. It will provide further opportunity for fellowship. Much interest is being evinced in the reunion. People from Houston Fort Worth, Dallas, Vernon, Wichita Falls, Shamrock, Amarillo, Lubbock and many other West Texas points will be here during the reunion. Everyone is looking forward very much to seeing their former schoolmates. Who married, who and what they are doing now, whether they realized their school-

QUICK JUSTICE IS METED HERE TO NEGRO RAPIST

TRIAL HERE TUESDAY BRINGS DEATH VERDICT IN RECORD TIME

In what was perhaps the shortest trial of a capital crime in court annals of Texas, Morris Norman, negro attacker of two local white women, was sentenced in District Court here Tuesday to die in the electric chair at Huntsville Dec. 16th. Judge A. S. Moss pronounced sentence at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, following the jury verdict brought in at 2:25. Norman delayed acceptance of the verdict only a few minutes and the case was concluded in a little less than five hours from the time it was called Tuesday morning, the case going to the jury at 1:40 p. m.

Only two witnesses were examined—the 47-year-old victim who was attacked while returning from church, Sunday night Oct. 30th, and County Attorney R. Y. King, who took the negro's statement admitting the assault. The confession was admitted in evidence, uncontested. Judge Moss appointed J. R. Porter, John C. Knorpp and W. T. Link, all local attorneys to defend Norman, who was without funds to hire counsel.

After the verdict the condemned man was hurried away to Huntsville to await the day of execution. In spite of the deep feeling prevailing here against the perpetrator of the horrible crime, there was no hint of mob violence, and the court officials and jury were generally congratulated on their dispatch in dispensing swift justice according to the law and evidence. General satisfaction prevailed as to the verdict and penalty.

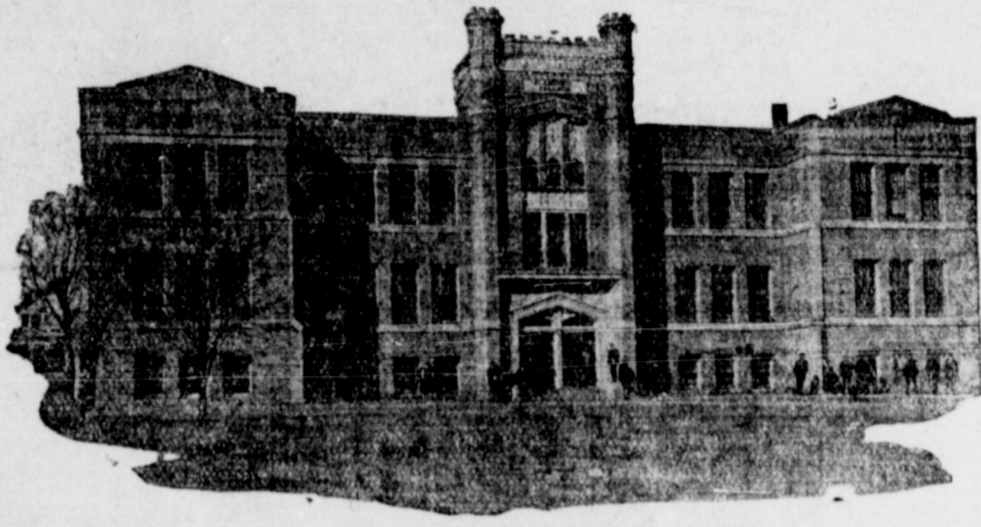

Greenbelt Poultry Judging Contest Invitations Out

Forty Panhandle high school poultry judging teams have been invited to participate in the annual Greenbelt Poultry Judging Contest. The contest is one of the outstanding contests of the entire year and is participated in by more teams than any other poultry contest throughout the year with the exception of the area contest at Lubbock. Ribbons will be awarded to the ten high individuals in addition to the Chamber of Commerce trophy to the winning team.

Byers F. F. A., coached by A. A. Tampke, won the contest last year and have indicated that they will be on hand to defend their trophy won in the last event. Tulia, Silvertown, Claude, Pampa, Quitaque and other outstanding teams will probably attend.

day ambitions are subjects of current interest and conversations. Among the younger set, much speculation is going around about all these former students about whom they have heard so much. Many families will hold family reunions as most of the children attended Clarendon College and this homecoming gives them an excellent excuse to make two visits at once with the homefolks and with their schoolmates. A number of former members of the faculty will also be present to see how their prodigies turned out and to renew friendships.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET SET FOR NOV. 29TH

ANNUAL EVENT PLANS PUSHED BY PRES. ALLEN BRYAN AND AIDS

The executive committee of the Father-Son Group announced this week the plans for the annual banquet. The affair will be held Tuesday, Nov. 29, at the First Christian Church. Dr. B. L. Jenkins, founder of the banquet, will be toastmaster. The principal speaker and other parts on the program have not yet been selected but will be some time this week.

The executive committee is composed of Allen Bryan, J. D. Swift, Jr., Cap Morris, J. R. Bartlett, Billie Patman and Claude McGowan. The Father-Son banquet is an outstanding affair in Clarendon and is looked forward to by all fathers and sons. Prizes are given for the youngest and oldest father and son and the father with the most sons. Competition in this is very keen and furnishes much enjoyment for all.

Two Negroes Die In Collision With Clarendon Truck

Two negroes were dead and another was not expected to live after a car in which they were riding collided with a truck driven by Don Mattheson of Clarendon on Highway 5 about three and one-half miles west of Chillicothe early Sunday morning.

The negroes' car was completely demolished, the body being torn from the chassis. Mattheson was uninjured, and his truck was not seriously damaged.

Following an investigation, Sheriff Malon C. Owens said that the negroes were apparently driving on the wrong side of the road.

Mattheson was absolved of any blame.

Dr. and Mrs. Rodney Hearns and son and daughter of Seattle, Wash., visited relatives here the past week. The Hearns are former residents of Clarendon.

James F. Bartlett has returned from Austin where he has been attending the University of Texas and will enter C. J. C.

Local C. C. Exes Asked to Register Early Friday

All local ex-students who are going to register for the Clarendon College Homecoming are asked to please register Friday morning as early as possible. Registration will begin at 9:30 at the college building.

If the local group register early, there will be no jam when the out-of-town group arrive to register. This will greatly facilitate matters and the executive committee is asking the cooperation of all Clarendon Exes.

Groom H. S. Tigers Eat Horse Meat Friday Night

By WALTER KNORPP

There was a demonstration at College Field last Friday night, proving that Tigers do like and eat horse meat. In other words, the Groom Tigers defeated the Clarendon Bronchos 20 to 7.

Clarendon kicked off to Groom who returned the ball to approximately the 30-yard line, but on the first down the Groom center passed the ball too high and a Broncho recovered it. The Broncho scored from that point for the first touchdown of the game in about the first three minutes of play. The score was made by a right-end sweep by Allison and the conversion was made good by Green.

From this point on, until Capt. Huffman was taken out of the game because of injuries received, it was a nip and tuck battle between the Tigers and Bronchos.

From the time Huffman was taken out, the Clarendon boys lost ground, their morale broken up, and Groom was allowed to score. The Tigers took the ball on their own 18-yard line and steadily advanced over the stripe to a score without once losing the ball, making the score 7 to 6. They failed to make the extra point.

Groom carried the game the rest of the period, ending with the score of 20 to 7. Clarendon had five first-string men injured and taken from the field during the game.

So Tigers eat horse meat! Beryl Longan, Broncho first-string man suffered a broken collar bone in scrimmage Wednesday afternoon at the high school field.

This makes six Bronchos to receive injuries in a week's time, however some of them will be able to play in the game scheduled with Vega Friday afternoon.

The game with Vega will be the last game of the season for the Bronchos. A large crowd of local fans and Clarendon College exes is expected to be out for this last game.

Rev. V. W. Allen of Lelia Lake Hurt In Dallas Accident

This morning's Dallas News carries a new item of a collision of two automobiles in Dallas yesterday in which Rev. V. W. Allen, pastor of the Lelia Lake Baptist Church sustained a serious head injury. Rev. Allen was in Dallas attending the State Baptist Convention, and his two sons were in the car with him at the time of the accident, but neither were injured. The minister is in the Baptist Hospital recovering from his injuries, but further information is meagre.

A. H. BAKER GOES TO MINERAL WELLS

Mr. A. H. Baker who has been seriously ill was taken to Mineral Wells Sunday by his daughter, Mrs. Henry Tice and Mr. Tice, who live in Mineral Wells. Mr. Baker will stay in that city for several weeks in an effort to improve his health.

TEXAS BAPTISTS FLAY WORLDLY SINS OF DAY

DANCING, DRINKING, BETTING AND THE LIKE OPENLY POINTED OUT

DALLAS, Nov. 8.—Gambling, dancing, liquor, "bank nights," and "darkened theaters" received the condemnation of the Rev. T. A. Binford, Corpus Christi minister, at opening of the Baptist and laymen's conference today.

Mr. Binford's address, one of several speeches at a conference preceding opening of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, warned "virtue is not safe in the atmosphere of a ballroom."

He flayed the tendency among "adult delinquents" in the church to accept dancing and warned that the practice must be kept out of the denomination's colleges and universities where pressure is being brought to have it sanctioned.

He warned against sex immorality and decried the increasing evidences of low conversation and lewdness indicative of weakening moral fibers.

Cocktail parties, he said, are agencies for drawing more and more persons toward liquor through the guise of accepted social practice.

Mr. Binford said "there has been some show of cleaning up the movies," but added that suggestiveness in themes or pictures and the fact that they are viewed "in darkened places" was retained. He criticized "bank nights" as gambling, and scored gambling generally from "matching for drinks" to betting on horse races. The latter he scored as "making reprobates and paupers" out of bettors while "the operators get rich."

The daughter born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stegall at Wickett weighed 5 lbs. and 14 ounces, and is named Mary Manette.

Phillips Gentry, II, who is attending school in Booneville, Mo., spent the week with his parents. He had a week's furlough.

Colored Folks Of Clarendon Thank Sheriff

The colored folks of Clarendon wish to commend Sheriff Guy Pierce for the prompt and efficient manner in which he handled the recent disturbance occurring in our section of town.

We regret that one of our race was criminally connected with the offense.

We wish also to express our appreciation for the very safe and sane advice given us by Sheriff Pierce during the trouble and for the considerate and constant assurance that no harm would come to those of us who respected law and order.

DONLEY CO. RED CROSS ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

MRS. A. T. JEFFERIES AGAIN HEADS ROLL CALL WHICH BEGINS FRIDAY

The Donley County Chapter of the American Red Cross will exert its maximum strength in the 1938 Roll Call, which opens all over the nation Nov. 11 and closes Thanksgiving Day according to the usual custom.

Mrs. Branham, field supervisor for the Red Cross met with the local officials in their meeting Wednesday afternoon in the school tax collector's office, and chided Donley County somewhat for its falling behind in recent years on the annual Roll Call. It developed that last year Donley county, based on population, had a record of only 1.18 per cent membership per hundred. Hutchinson county had over 13 per cent, while Gray county had around eight per cent. Donley stood 181st in the 254 counties of Texas.

Vice-Chairman Odos Caraway presided at the meeting and after explaining to the group how County Chairman A. H. Baker was sick and incapacitated for the time being, called for nominations for officers for the coming year.

Elections were as follows: Chairman, Sam M. Braswell; vice chairman, Odos Caraway; secretary-treasurer, J. D. Swift; roll call chairman, Mrs. A. T. Jefferies; sub-chairman, Homer Mulkey; home service, Mrs. C. A. Burton; home and farm accident prevention, Chas. Lowery; first aid, W. A. Riney; Junior Red Cross, Mrs. Bess Strickland.

The need for a County Red Cross nurse was discussed with the general consensus of opinion that such a service was badly needed, and should be secured if it could be financed. A committee composed of H. T. Burton, chairman; Mrs. Strickland and Joe Goldston was appointed to study the matter and report to the

SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR ARMISTICE SUNDAY NIGHT

A special Armistice program will be held at the First Baptist Church Sunday night, with Rev. J. Perry King bringing a special Armistice message, according to H. T. Burton, chairman of the American Legion program committee.

Special music will be furnished by Mrs. Allen Bryan's Orchestra at the beginning of the program, and the Music Club, of which Mrs. Howze is president, will render some special songs under the direction of Miss Anna Moores, accompanied by Mrs. Millard Word and Mrs. Allen Bryan.

Miss Naomi Morris will give a reading, "Flanders Fields."

All Legionnaires and wives are especially invited and the public is cordially invited.

MUSEUM WILL BE OPEN TO REUNION

The Donley County Museum will be open Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11 and 12, so that all ex-students who attend the reunion may have this opportunity of viewing the many interesting and valuable articles of pioneer days in Donley county, of which the college was such a vital part. Relics of the school may be seen in this collection.

Miss Margaret Kerbow spent the week-end in her home in Memphis board at a later meeting.

Mrs. Jefferies was heard on the need of workers for the Roll Call Nov. 11-12, and urged that every aid possible be given her work between those dates. An organization meeting of the workers will be held in a day or so.

Chairman Braswell announced that a full meeting of the board would be called at an early date to make final disposition of the County Red Cross nurse proposition.

Clarendon Methodist Delegation Will Go To Annual Conference At Memphis Wednesday, November 16th

Headed by Dr. T. S. Barcus, presiding elder, and Rev. E. D. Landreth, pastor, Clarendon Methodist delegates will go to Memphis Wednesday morning, Nov. 16th, to attend the annual session of the Northwest Texas Conference in that city. Both presiding elder and pastor have completed their four years' service under the law of the church and while the pastor could be returned under an exception of the law, Dr. Barcus must go to another field of labor, other than the eldership. Both ministers and their families are favorites in Clarendon and their going will be regretted in all circles.

Reports from Clarendon District are approximately at the level of 1937, according to Dr. Barcus, while the report of the local church shows benevolences in full, and a small deficit in the general budget today, which the board of stewards hope to wipe out by the help of the membership by Monday evening's last session of the board for the year, according to Judge J. R. Porter, chairman.

Rev. Orion W. Carter of the Memphis church, who will be host to the 29th annual meeting of the conference, has announced the program of the conference. Bishop Ivan Lee Holt will preside over the conference. Chas. E. Schofield, president of Mill School of Theology, Denver, will deliver three addresses and hold two forum meetings during the conference.

Rev. Kermit Hollingsworth of SMU will be conference song leader. A male quartet composed of two members from SMU, and two from McMurry College, Abilene, will be present throughout the conference to assist with the song program.

The conference will open at 2 p. m., Nov. 16, with a communion service led by Bishop Holt.

The conference will get under way with business reports from preachers; meeting of all conference boards and their reports; and passing upon the character of all ministers present.

Ends Four Years

Ordination service for deacons and elders will be had, also a love feast, and memorial service.

Educational missionary policies of the church will be planned, and the quadrennial boards nominated by Bishop Holt will be named by the conference.

Several hundred ministers, laymen and visitors will be present for the four-day meeting of the conference.

WELCOME, HOME-COMING C. C. EXES

Permit The Clarendon News to extend its heartiest welcome to the hundreds of Clarendon College Exes who gather here this week-end in the first "Home-Coming" since the close of the Panhandle's first institution of higher learning.

Clarendon people will never forget the happy old days when you were here in the exuberance of your youth, and The News will never cease to regret the passing of the school.

So, this week-end we are all happy at your return and hope you will come again each year in a like event.

FLOOD AND SOIL CONSERVATION—LEST WE FORGET

In an editorial Monday, T. E. Johnson, editor of The Amarillo Times, queries, "What Price, Recreation?" and proceeds to show that under the sponsorship of the Panhandle Water Conservation Authority there has been expended by federal bureaus nearly $6,000,000, with a generally accepted idea that most of the lakes and dams thus provided for are for recreational purposes.

It will be recalled that The Clarendon News began some months ago to call attention to the evident switch of emphasis in the PWC group from soil and water conservation to recreation, and like the Times pointed out, we did not then, nor do we now, object to the recreational facilities as by-products of the plan, but we must reiterate our unalterable stand against the complete overshadowing and neglect of the sound principles upon which the movement was launched and won its general approval.

There is no county in the PWC area where flood control and soil conservation is so vital a problem as Donley County, account of its location in the breaks of the caprock and the prongs of Red River. A disastrous flood proved our contention within a few weeks of our first statement of that truth, with the result that thousands of acres of our best farming land was washed away, the crop loss being the most negligible result, with rail and highway bridges lost to add up a huge damage in one year of over a million dollars.

Yet, in spite of this horrible toll sustained by one of the great farming counties of the Panhandle, could Donley get consideration of her plight? Was the destruction of her fertile acres given a thought? Seemingly not. At least the PWC went merrily along in its plans for more recreational projects, and in its most recent meeting if Stricken Donley had even a mention, it was along with that vague sop thrown out about "all other counties would eventually get a lake."

The News pleads for fulfillment of the original aims and ideals of the PWC—without political maneuvering—that the people of the Panhandle may have more faith in those supposed to represent the best interests of Panhandle counties—that there be no "fiddling" or "recreating" while a more devastating spectacle than Rome in flames, stands as an accusing fact not to be ignored.

EVERYDAY RELIGION

By C. E. BRYANT, JR.

Why this column? With modern means of transportation, the shortened working week, and the growing desire of our population to take vacations over the week-ends, we are faced with the alarming situation of a nation neglecting God and the church.

History shows us time and time again how, through the centuries of the world's existence, disaster has befallen the nation that forgets God. We find it in both Biblical and modern times. Present world turmoil is being caused by a nation and its leader that taboo Christianity.

Illustration of the work of God with a nation is the striking contrast, in cultural and economic respects, of nations where God has been honored and nations where Christ is unknown. Think of the cultural and economic differences in America and Africa!

Our own nation, founded on the basis of making God supreme, rapidly became the leading nation of the world. But isn't there reason, in the light of history, to believe that we may lose the distinction, that we may lose our culture and liberty, if we forget God?

This columnist and the editor of this paper feel some responsibility in making the people of this nation to continue to put God first. The people must be kept in contact with Christian ideals, but we feel that the task of reaching the people cannot be handled from the pulpit alone. The press—principal source of information and molder of thought in today's world—remains as a solution.

"Everyday Religion" will continue to come to you weekly in what we shall do our best to make instructive fascinating reading. Comments, contributions and suggestions from readers will be appreciated, and should be addressed to "Everyday Religion" in care of this newspaper.

Long-Time Prexy

They made history and love—Errol Flynn as Robin Hood and Olivia de Havilland as Maid Marian in the Warner Bros. Technicolor production, "The Adventure of Robin Hood," coming to Pastime Theatre.

Errol Flynn Has "Robin Hood" Role

Filmed entirely in Technicolor, "The Adventures of Robin Hood," starring Errol Flynn, is set to have its local premiere on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 16-17, at the Pastime Theatre.

Long-awaited, this beloved legend, concerning the gallant deeds of a Saxon noble who turned outlaw with a band of followers and plundered the rich Normans to feed and protect the poor and oppressed, has long been a favorite to movie-goers of all ages.

But for this Technicolor treatise, Warner Bros. has drawn on much new material rich in the lore of this legendary figure. The original screen play, based on these legends, is by Norman Rel-ly Raine and Seton I. Miller. Erich Wolfgang Korngold did the musical score.

Flynn, who starred in "Captain Blood" and "The Charge of the Light Brigade," heads a cast of hundreds.

The lovely Maid Marian is portrayed by the beautiful Olivia de Havilland, Prince John is played by Claude Rains; Sir Guy of Gisbourne is brought to the screen by the sleek Basil Rathbone; King Richard the Lion-Hearted is Ian Hunter; Friar Tuck is the rotund Eugene Pallette; and the lovable little John is sturdy Alan Hale.

Matt Bader has been reelected superintendent of the Lacoate public schools with a two-year contract. Lacoate has just made a $17,000 addition to its school plant.

Hamilton Gibbs; "Brood of the Witch Queen," Sax Rohmer; "Bill Had An Umbrella," Louise Platt Hauck; "Mr. Reeder Returns," Edgar Wallace; "The Annexation Society," J. S. Fletcher.

Besides these, Rev. T. S. Barcus brought us quite a few books which will be helpful for reference.

Broadway is presenting "Hamlet" in a show beginning at 6:30 and lasting till 11 o'clock, with a 30-minute intermission. This is not an entirely new departure. A few years ago Eugene O'Neill's "Strange Interlude" began at 4:30 and lasted until 11, with an hour's intermission.

Stanford University ushered in its fall dramatic season last week with Shakespeare's "All's Well That Ends Well," for a six-night engagement, running an hour and a half.

"Young Doctor Galahad," by Elizabeth Seifert won the $10,000 prize. It is the story of a young American doctor in a small Midwestern town.

"Between Sun and Sod," Mrs. Willie Newberry Lewis' new book, is ready for our readers, many of whom have been waiting for it with pleasurable anticipation. To us it seems peculiarly a Clarendon book—a book written by the wife of a man whom Clarendon has long claimed as a citizen, printed by another citizen and business man, Clyde Price, and illustrated by our own Clarendon artist, Harold Bugher, and a book written about our own section of the West, including Clarendon and Clarendon people. All this means that our readers will specially enjoy the book.

The offerings of the publishers in the new fall books are certainly very attractive, both in children's and adult books. Anne Morrow Lindbergh has a new book, "Listen! the Wind." Every-body read her "North to the Orient," and this new book is called an epic of flight—the sensitive, simple narrative of the flight she and Colonel Lindbergh made from Africa to Brazil. At one time too much wind, at another not enough, her book is described as "an intense, close-knit drama, portraying man's eternal conflict with nature; man in the newest phase, has shifted from earth to air, but the same forces work to combat his progress. The unity of theme and the skill of the writer combine to make it a singularly effective and impressive work." Colonel Lindbergh has written the foreword and supplied the jacket design and map drawings.

Elizabeth Madox Roberts has a new book, too, "Black Is My True Love's Hair," another story of Kentucky. Two of her earlier books have been enjoyed by our readers for sometime—"The Great Meadow," the story of the very first settlements in Kentucky, and "Buried Treasure," which is also a pioneer story.

"And Tell of Time," by Laura Krey, another Texas story by a Texas author, climbed rapidly to first place as a best seller. Last Saturday Mrs. Krey was the principal speaker in a series of programs presented by Cokesbury Book Store and the Texas Institute of Letters in its third annual session at Dallas. Other authors attending were Karle Wison Baker, author of "Family Style," of which we have spoken; Hilton Ross Greer, Kenneth Kaufman, Grace Nell Crowell, John A. Lomax, and Stanley Vestal.

An interesting conversation on the train the other day in California resulted from mention of Charles G. Norris' new novel

"Bricks Without Straw," which has gone into its fourth printing less than a month after publication. A young nurse from the Stanford University Hospital, which is located in San Francisco told me that the son of Charles G. and Kathleen Norris is an interne in this hospital with whom she had worked for some months. She described him as an exceedingly pleasant, obliging young doctor, anxious to serve. He said he wrote more than his mother did, but nobody read it, except the publishers—as yet. He is their only own child, but they have an adopted son, who went to Spain as a war correspondent, and remained to fight. Kathleen and Charles G. Norris live at Palo Alto, but spend the summers at a mountain home. Her son told this nurse that his mother had never been satisfied with the light stories which she had always written at the insistent demand of her reading public, and that she still cherished the plan of writing a great novel some day.

William Lyon Phelps, professor emeritus of English at Yale, in his annual book lecture at Pointe Aux Borques, Mich., described Mary Ellen Chase's "Dawn In Lyonesse," as the "finest American novel of the year." He lamented the "chilly reception" given the late books of Sinclair Lewis, Pearl Buck, Hervey Allen and Edna Ferber.

Texas Hunting Season Starts With Opening of Duck Season Nov. 15

AUSTIN, Nov. 5.—Mid-November ushers in the big hunting seasons in Texas.

First on the list is the migratory waterfowl season, opening Nov. 15. Flocks of thousands of ducks and geese now flapping their wings on their southward migrations are evidence enough that the men who man the blinds will enjoy 45 days of excellent waterfowl shooting this year.

The lengthened season this year as well as the partial lifting of restrictions protecting certain species, is the result of an increase in the duck and geese populations resulting from a program of rehabilitating waterfowl breeding grounds, located mainly in Canada.

Under new federal migratory waterfowl regulations Texas duck hunters will have a 45-day open season this year compared to a 30-day open season in 1937; and in addition may shoot a limited number of species hitherto protected.

The open season on ducks and geese, Wilson's snipe or jack-snipe, and coot, is from Nov. 15 to Dec. 29.

The open season on rails and gallinules, except coot, is from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30.

Not only has the open season on ducks and geese been lengthened, but the possession limits have been doubled.

The bag limit on ducks, except the wood duck, is 10 in the aggregate of all kinds, the same as last season, but the possession limit has been doubled to 10 in the aggregate.

This season hunters may take three canvasbacks, redheads, buffleheads or ruddy ducks in their daily bag, or an aggregate of three birds of the different species. The possession limit for these ducks is six of any single species, or six in the aggregate.

The daily bag limit on geese and brant is five in the aggregate of all kinds, and the possession limit has been increased to 10 in the aggregate.

The daily bag limit on rails and gallinules, except sora and coot, is continued at 15 in the aggregate of all kinds. The possession limit is the same.

Bag limits for some of the other migratory game birds are: Sora, 15; coot, 25; Wilson's snipe or jack-snipe, 15. In each case the possession limit may not exceed the daily bag limit. A new federal regulation added this year forbids the rallying of coot for hunting. As was the case last year, waterfowl and coot may be hunted in season from 7 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Not more than two days' bag limit of lawfully taken and lawfully possessed ducks and geese may be transported in one calendar week. Transportation last season was limited to one day's bag.

Chief restrictions in this year's federal regulations that have been continued from last year are: Baiting of waterfowl and the use of live duck and geese decoys in hunting waterfowl are not authorized regardless of the distance between the bait or decoys and the shooter.

The three-shell limit on repeating or automatic shotguns, in effect the last three seasons, is continued. Hunters may shoot waterfowl with shotguns only, not larger than No. 10 gauge. Ross' geese, wood ducks and swans are still protected.

On Nov. 16, one day after the opening of the season on ducks and geese comes the grand opening of the state's deer and wild turkey seasons, which run concurrently through Dec. 31.

Many counties have special laws governing deer hunting. Sportsmen are advised to consult their game wardens, or a digest of the hunting laws before taking off for the field.

Wild turkeys, also found in most abundance in the hill country, are reported more plentiful than at any time since 1931. The bag limit on wild turkeys is three gobbler a season. Many counties have special laws on wild turkey shooting.

When the new is beginning to wear off the waterfowl, deer, turkey and bear seasons, sportsmen will be stirred to further activity by the opening of the quail and chachalaca season on Dec. 1. The season continues through Jan. 16, 1939.

Quail and chachalaca may be shot with rifles if sportsmen desire. If shotguns are used they must not be larger than No. 10 gauge, and must be permanently plugged to a three shell capacity.

Improved Demand In Farm Products Predicted For 1939

COLLEGE STATION. — Texas farmers are expected to share in the improved demand for farm products and increased farm income in prospect for 1939, according to W. E. Morgan, who has just returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended the national conference on the 1939 agricultural outlook held by the U. S. Department of Agriculture Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Morgan, economist in agricultural planning of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, said the 1938 cash farm income for the nation was down about 13 per cent from that of 1937. Some pick-up has been noted in recent months with a general improved demand for farm products.

The improvement is expected to develop further in 1939, mainly in products such as meat animals, dairy and poultry products, and fruits and vegetables, the first items to respond to increases in purchasing power.

"The outlook for cotton is unfortunately not as encouraging as is the case for most other agricultural commodities," Morgan stated. "Record supplies of American and foreign growths, contraction of export demand, and the technological advances in the

Aggies Prepare Show Pigs For Feeding

In the past week and within the next two weeks, forty vocational agriculture students will have treated over 300 pigs for stomach and intestinal worms of various sorts, which is the first step, after weaning, in the preparation of the pigs for feeding for the spring show.

Each Aggie feeding pigs for the show is encouraged to treat his pigs, because this treatment fulfills the requirements for one of the production of synthetic fibers account for the discouraging cotton situation, both as a short time proposition and as a long time factor." Prices, he said, are expected to be the same or perhaps slightly higher.

General economic conditions in the United States are "mostly favorable to recovery," according to the outlook report. A material increase in industrial production in 1939 is expected to be reflected in larger consumer incomes, which in turn will mean a stronger demand for products from Texas farms.

The increase in net cash income will be greater than the total cash income increase, Morgan believes, for the things farmers must buy in producing a crop are expected to show little change and may be lower in price. The average farm wage is expected to be about the same as in 1938, while prices paid for farm machinery, automobiles, fertilizer, feed, and seed will probably be lower.

his supervised practice jobs and adds approximately 20 points to the second six weeks' grade.

In one individual case during the summer of 1938, one Aggie found that 14 cents worth of worm medicine given a pig caused the pigs to weigh more than 100 pounds more than his litter mate, not wormed, but fed in the same pen and from the same feeder.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

E. D. Landreth, Pastor

Next Sunday will close this conference year, and possibly our labors in this community. The four years that we have had the privilege of living in Clarendon have been among the happiest years that we have ever spent. We would like to see all of our friends at the services Sunday. The pastor will preach Sunday morning, and an invitation will be given to parents to bring their babies for baptism. An invitation will also be extended for people to unite with the church. The pastor and Mrs. Landreth will sing a duet.

Sunday evening beginning at 7 o'clock the pastor will lead the congregation in the beautiful communion services. It seems fitting that we should close the year with the communion service. We invite all who will, regardless of church affiliation, to join us in this sacred service.

Your presence, or your absence, on this last day will speak eloquently of the pastor.

Mrs. Wesley Knorpp of Long Beach, Calif., has arrived for a visit with her family.

Mrs. A. T. Jefferies returned home Wednesday from El Paso where she visited her parents for the past two weeks.

Miss Pauline Betts who is attending school in Canyon spent the week-end here with her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Burton.

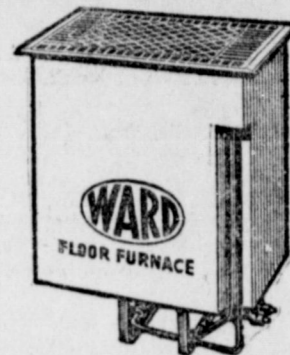

Misses Betty Younger of Amarillo and Jane Younger of Dumas were week-end guests of their grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Martin. Their parents, Dr and Mrs. Bob Younger spent Sunday here.

Miss Nell Riney of Panhandle visited her brother, W. A. Riney and Mrs. Riney over the week-end.

A DOCTOR Looks at Winter Warmth

Dr. W. P. B. (name on request) writes this about his Ward Floor Furnace... "Your heater has given me more comfort and satisfaction AT LOWER COST than any other method I have ever tried. I appreciate your 10 year guarantee, too, because I know of many Wards that have given excellent service for so much longer than that." This doctor is just one of many who prescribe WARD'S healthful, vented warmth to their patients. In many hospitals when accurate warmth control is absolutely essential you will find Wards. Ask us about how a WARD can solve your heating problem.

ASSEMBLY

Assembly opened Friday the last period with the singing of "America, the Beautiful," "Massa's In De Cold, Cold Ground," "Sweet and Low," and "Old Black Joe." Following this was a prayer by Rev. Robert McKee. Mr. McKee was also the speaker for the program. He chose as his theme the saying of Democritus "I'd rather discover the true cause of one fact than become the king of the Persians." In his talk he stressed the importance of learning facts other than those in textbooks and of discovering as many facts as possible about a subject. The program was concluded by some announcements by Mr. Drennan, followed by cheers for the Bronchos.

BAND HAS BUSY WEEK-END

The band motored to Amarillo to hear the Navy Band Friday afternoon. Friday night they assisted the Groom Band in furnishing the music for the game. At the half the band met the football queen in the center of the field and played "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," while Co-Captain J. H. Green placed a helmet on her head.

Saturday found them in Canyon playing for the annual WT homecoming. They were said to be the best band there with the exception of none.

This week the band is presenting Stuttering Sam.

They will play for the first CC homecoming and will serve as hosts to several other bands of the Panhandle who will be here Friday and Saturday.

The first grade rooms are starting their Thanksgiving work. In Mrs. Headrick's room the pupils have finished their first book in reading.

Thomas Holligan, who is in Miss Cross' room, is sick and it is hoped he will be back to school soon. This room is studying story writing. All stories are original. This week we are printing the best one. It is by Portia Hay:

"My cat is gray and white. We feed him milk. We like our cat. When I go out on our back porch to play with my dolls, my cat comes and rubs around."

Miss Stephen's room is studying Indians. The pupils have made a very interesting poster. It shows the Indians who lived in forested areas and those who lived in plains areas. The poster also represents the cliff dwellers. Richard Van Kennedy is sick, but it is hoped that he will be back in school soon.

Miss Mongole's room is studying Indians. Geraldine Jackson is a new pupil in this room.

Mrs. Hart's pupils won the dollar for selling the most tickets to the Tom Thumb Wedding and the Baby Show.

Mrs. Prewitt's room is planning a play for Book Week.

A Citizenship Club was organized in Mrs. Penick's room. Officers were elected as follows: Dick Boyd Reeves, president; Billy Ray Barnard, vice president; Richard Maxie, secretary.

The fourth and fifth grade ball game that we mentioned last week was a scoreless tie.

Ruth Patman and Bobby Hilliard sold the most tickets to the Tom Thumb Wedding and Baby Show in Miss Hall's room. They were awarded with a free pass to the show. Betty Sue McDowell was a visitor to this room.

Every month Mr. Mulkey presents a free pass to the picture show to the boy and girl of each room in South Ward that show the most improvement in their writing.

In Mrs. Lane's room, Billy Neal Bogard and Dorothy Jean Hilton showed the most improvement in their writing.

The Tom Thumb Wedding was a grand success Thursday night. The auditorium was full.

Presenting Clarendon Junior College

By DORTHEA WATSON

This week, or any week, we shall endeavor to impress upon your minds the importance and meaning of education. The Clarendon Jr. College offers two courses of education; the first, known as Psychology for Students of Education is to be explained this week.

It is a course designed to give a general introduction to education and to present the fundamental principles of psychology which underlie learning and teaching. The field of elementary education is emphasized.

In the broadest sense, education is the production of useful changes in human beings. These changes may be classified into three divisions: Changes in knowledge, in skill, and in ideals. Probably all changes wrought in human beings which in any sense are educational, fall under these three heads. Obviously then, education is the most montous, as well as the most essential business of the human race; for the welfare of the race depends upon education as it depends upon nothing else. Which changes are useful and which are not is a question that cannot be answered as easily as it would seem at first glance. The term useful should not be limited narrowly to the things which are immediately applicable in making a living, but should include all changes which will broaden and enrich the life of the individual.

Psychology has been defined as the science of mind, the science of consciousness, and the science of behavior. After analyzing these three definitions, we find that they all sum up into one: The science of behavior. By behavior is meant the activity of the man or animal as it can be observed from the outside.

Thorndike has defined the purpose of education thus: "The aim of education is as well have been to change human beings for the better, so that they will have more humane and useful wants and be more able to satisfy them." Psychology is without doubt the fundamental of all education; thus, it is a most essential course.

BRONCHOS LOSE GROOM GAME FRIDAY, 20-7

The Bronchos kicked to Groom Friday night and started a sensational ball game. The Tigers fumbled and Clarendon covered the old apple. Big Boyd Allison toted it over for a score, and the try for extra point was good.

Colie Huffman was injured and had to be replaced. This loss crippled our defense, and it crumpled before the Tigers' tricky plays.

The Tigers scored three times and converted twice before the end of the game. But forget it Bronchos and roll Vega for a loss Friday afternoon.

A DAY IN THE PRIVATE LIFE OF A BRONCHO REPORTER

Another week. That means another paper. A Broncho reporter usually arises in the morning wondering if that gossip about Margaret Pipes and Katrina Carlile, or the weekly travels of Dorothea Riley, isn't a little too strong. Reporters really do have a conscience! On the way to school, he sometimes observes Dona Adams taking her good easy time as it is only 9 o'clock, or Lois Marie Taylor trying to decide whether to ride with Freddie or walk with Allen. All those things never miss a reporter's eye. Glennie Deal is often seen trying to thumb a ride to school.

Then at noon, a reporter may be rather disgusted until he sees a new romance budding between Jimmie Watters and a cute co-ed, or hearing Neel Thompson say he is quite bored with life. A reporter naturally takes advantage of this newsy stuff and wonders if the public shouldn't know all about it.

Then there are the boys and so late Friday night?

Why does Jack Gardenhire act scared in English.

We wonder if Max Rampy is really turning into a sheik?

girls who are always coming with "have you heard?" Sometimes this is appreciated but a reporter gets all the blame if it should have been Betty Jo Caraway that went with Dan Boston instead of Madeline Kelly, and all that sort of mix-ups.

A reporter is often the most unpopular person in school. Every time Maggie Lee Davis and Kittie Ruth (Queenie) Bailey, or Joan Smith and Mildred Phelps see a reporter jotting down notes on their conversation of "the night before," they cease this popular subject and begin talking about the weather. It's just the same thing day after day, but we can take it!

PRESS CLUB HAS REGULAR MEETING

The Press Club met in regular session Monday afternoon after school in Miss Headrick's room. An interesting program was given. "Fiction" was discussed by Billie Lou Gilbert. In her discussion, Billie Lou showed that some forms of fiction have their place in a school newspaper. Glenna Deal, in her talk on the subject, "Correspondence," pointed out that in some school papers space is devoted to letters of criticism from students in the school.

After the especially prepared program was given, a general discussion of the school newspaper took place. For the next meeting a lesson on "Leads" is planned.

A $55,000 school building program was approved by Slaton voters on September 15.

EYE to EYE in your own living room, Your Mileage Merchant would unblinkingly talk this same good sense about saving your car's battery and oil by changing now to WINTER OIL-PLATING

NO BRASH "sounding off" by Your Mileage Merchant, because he can easily be specific about his patented Conoco Germ Processed oil. It specifically OIL-PLATES your engine for winter... no other oil does. And winter OIL-PLATING specifically cuts down on draggy "starts," battery exhaustion and oil extravagance, for these specific reasons:

The Germ Process adds in to this oil a patented man-made substance that sets up a strong force of attraction between Germ Processed oil and every engine surface it touches. Even the upright surfaces instantly attract and hold Germ Processed oil in the form of lasting OIL-PLATING. This OIL-PLATING can never drain down—any more than chrome plating—during the longest, coldest parking. No question then, about winter OIL-PLATING speeding your starter from the first, because before you've even got out your key, your engine is ready-lubricated by slippery OIL-PLATING. Never letting loose, OIL-PLATING can't shoot out of the engine, but remains a constant help to your oil-level—one of the smartest reasons for changing to Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco Germ Processed oil. Patented—your one way to change to WINTER OIL-PLATING!

Stubble Grazing Is Dangerous

Stubble left on a field when the crop is harvested furnishes protection from wind erosion if not overgrazed. Too much grazing removes the protective cover of vegetation and trampling by livestock pulverizes the soil and permits blowing. Upper picture shows a stubble field being overgrazed. Bottom picture shows an overgrazed field which has suffered soil losses and is becoming hummocked.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

AUSTIN.—Financial affairs of the state of Texas engaged public attention in Austin this week, as various reports for the fiscal year ended August 31, 1938, became available. Outstanding developments included these facts revealed by the audits and reports:

Income and expenses of the state government reached an all-time peak, with total receipts of the state amounting to $197,715,961, of which only $175,311,068 was classed as "revenue receipts." Expenditures for the fiscal year totaled $157,747,877, an increase of about $13,000,000 over the previous year.

SCHOOLS COST MOST

Education led all other governmental costs, with $52,829,722, and highways were next, with $48,014,442.

Every dollar of state revenue spent included the following major items: Educational purposes 35.48 cents; highways 30.43 cents; public welfare, including old age pensions and Confederate pensions, 18.6 cents.

A decline in costs for the year over the previous year were reflected by five governmental departments, including the legislative, executive and administrative, highways and parks and monuments. Government functions which cost more this year were judiciary, protection of life and property, regulation of business and industry, public health, conservation of natural resources (supervision of oil and gas production), eleemosynary and correctional institutions, educational service, and debt service.

GAS TAX NETS 42 MILLIONS

The gasoline tax proved the largest single source of revenue for the year, yielding $42,228,405, or 63.69 cents of each revenue dollar received. Gross receipts taxes brought in 12.91 cents per dollar and ad valorem property taxes brought only 8.84 cents. Automobile license taxes brought in 4.08 cents per dollar, while the chain store tax, a new levy, yielded 1.13 cents.

Significantly, the state auditor made public a report of an audit of the affairs of the state Department of Education which contained some pointed criticism, and recommended that a centralized bookkeeping system be installed, with one individual responsible for the accounting of

Sketches of California

The Portuguese In California

The Portuguese race can be seen throughout California. They are a very simple and friendly people, mostly of Catholic faith. Most of the older people came directly from Portugal, where they led very simple lives. Some of the men came here to get out of their army duties. Portuguese men have to serve a certain length of time in the army. Also, living conditions are so much better in this country that the Portuguese are lured forth.

have Pentecost celebrations which are given by their Catholic church. At these celebrations, the Portuguese have a roaring good time, forgetting all about their worldly troubles and drinking much beer and wine; their spirits are very high.

For their living, most of the Portuguese raise sweet potatoes and milk cows. In Atwater, a typical Portuguese town, they also run cafes, packing houses and grocery stores.

They live similar to any American family; some of them have very nice homes and receive fair educations. After all is said and done, one can say that the Portuguese race is a very interesting and friendly people.

George Kelly has resigned as superintendent of the Yorktown school to enter the United States immigration service.

DEFICIT LOOMS BIG

The deficit in the state's general fund reached a high point of $18,426,353 as of Oct. 31, but Treasurer Charley Lockhart predicted a decline, as the 1939 payments on Texas "bread bonds" have already been set aside from the fund, and revenue coming into the general fund for the 1939 fiscal year will go to reduce the deficit. Texas is in excellent shape so far as bonded debt is concerned, as the last of the $20,000,000 of bread bonds issued during the depression will be retired within four years, ahead of schedule.

HIGHWAY OFFICIALS COMING

Texas will be host to the highway building brains of the nation next month, when the American Association of State Highway officials, including representatives from every American state, convenes at Dallas Dec. 5-8 for their annual parley. Following the convention, the highway builders will be conducted by Texas road officials on a three-day tour, visiting the East Texas rose and oil fields, the Gulf Coast, the famous King Ranch, and colorful San Antonio. These annual meetings provide an opportunity to exchange ideas developed throughout the nation on advanced highway building practice and policies, and Texas with the largest highway mileage of any American state, will welcome the roadmen. C. H. Purcell, chief engineer of the California highway department, is president.

MONTGOMERY IS SPELLER

Julian Montgomery, chief engineer of the Texas Highway Department, is declared by his friends to be the most erudite public official in Austin. He is not only a crack engineer but such a good grammarian and speller that he is the despair of the stenographers in the highway department. At a recent conference of division engineers, Montgomery started an old-fashioned spelling bee, and spelled down all the engineers, tossing off the usual "trick" spelling bee words with the greatest of ease.

NEW PARK TO BE DONATED

Future generations of Texas will enjoy one of the most beautiful scenic sections of the Trans-Pecos region under plans now under way by the State Park Board and the Legislature to set aside a tract of 1,600 acres in the Guadalupe Mountains as a state park and wildlife sanctuary. The land has been offered as a donation by J. C. Hunter, Wichita Falls oil man. It includes beautiful McKittreik Canyon, and El Captain, famous peak. The country contains bighorn sheep, mule deer, and a colony of elk numbering 400, introduced from Yellowstone Park's herd several years ago. The State Highway Department will develop plans for a road into the area if it becomes a state park and game preserve.

NEW PLAN TO ENCOURAGE LARGER EXHIBITS HERE DEC. 1-2-3

No entry fee will be charged for birds entered in the annual Green Belt Poultry Show this year in an effort to encourage a larger number of poultry men to exhibit their birds. In the past a small entry fee has been charged but officials felt that removal of the fee would increase the number of birds in the show. Other plans for the show are progressing nicely and special premiums will be awarded to best solid and parti-colored pens, cockerels, cocks, pullets and hens. Ribbons will be awarded for each of the first four places.

The show will open December 1, and the birds will be judged on December 2. Birds will be checked out any time after 4 p. m., December 3. An attempt is being made to secure R. B. Gallows, of Amarillo, as judge for the local show.

Local Aggie students are expected to furnish strong competition for older breeders. The youths have placed extremely well in both the Amarillo and State Fair shows.

Mr. Hugh Brown spent the week-end in Amarillo with his daughters.

Aggie Class Members Busy Building Hog Feeders Now

Members of the regular and part-time Aggie classes have been busy the past week building hog feeders for themselves and patrons to encourage the proper feeding of hogs. Ten feeders have been built and approximately ten more will be built. F. F. A. members have found that self-feeders cause the pigs to eat more regularly with less waste.

One hundred per cent of the second year class are using self-feeders in feeding out their pigs for the spring shows. The first class expects to be 100 per cent within the next few weeks.

NOVEMBER FFA MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT

The first regular meeting of the local F. F. A. chapter for the month of November will be held in the chapter room, Thursday, Nov. 10, at 7 p. m. Music, songs, and yells by the greenhands will feature the meeting. Cooperative buying of feed, plans for spring shows, plans for poultry show, and training of judging teams will form the major portion of the program.

The local group have purchased a number of new games recently and the first part of each meeting period is devoted to recreation. All patrons and others interested in F. F. A. work are invited to attend the meetings.

TRAIN BACKS INTO AUTO AT CROSSING

Tuesday, about 1:30 p. m., a Fort Worth and Denver freight train crashed into an automobile driven by M. D. Lattimore of Hedley. The train was backing up at the time and apparently since it was moving slowly, Lattimore did not see it. The car was almost completely demolished, but Mr. Lattimore was not injured other than being shaken up.

J. Frank Heath, O. L. Poss, Clay Phillips, W. A. Baten and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Warren attended a Maytag sales meeting at Pampa last night.

PTA Baby Show And Wedding Is Outstanding Hit

The Baby Show and Tom Thumb wedding sponsored by the Sims Parent-Teachers Thursday night was a success from every point of view. A full house attended the affair and thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the program.

Naturally the evening was marked by things that weren't supposed to happen but did and these provided many laughs for the audience. The children in the wedding who were supposed to represent royalty were very regal in their bearing and some appeared to be quite bored as the program continued. The highlight of the show was the actions of the ringbearer and the flower girls during the wedding ceremony.

The wedding was beautifully staged with thrones of royal purple and gold centering the stage which was decorated with many fall flowers. The costumes of the wedding party were lovely, of gay colors and fine materials. They were cleverly designed and made. The children who represented real persons were appropriately clad in evening clothes with the girls' hair done in modernistic style.

Armistice Day

We Honor Anew The "Unknown Soldier" On This Armistice Day

America Marches to Honor Her Dead

"Known But to God"

By HERBERT E. SMITH
 Again this Armistice Day the army of the United States and World War veterans' associations will pay homage at the shrine of America's Unknown Soldier of the A. E. F. Our Nameless Warrior rests in a beautiful marble tomb in Arlington Cemetery, across the Potomac from Washington, and on that tomb is inscribed:

Here Rests in Honored Glory
 An American Soldier
 Known But To God
 Truly is "he" known but to God. Every possible precaution has been taken to insure the Unknown Soldier's perpetual anonymity. No one will ever know who he is, where he came from, the organization with which he served "over there" when struck down, or anything about his background, history or racial strain.

All America knows of and honors its Unknown Soldier who represents the many hundreds of unidentified and unidentifiable dead among the more than 50,000 American soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice in battle action during the World War. But few Americans know just how, when and where this One Unknown was chosen, and under what impressive and dramatic circumstances the final selection was made.

In France are six military cemeteries of the A. E. F. Another such "God's Acre" of our overseas fighting forces is in Belgium, and another in England. The six A. E. F. military cemeteries in France are known as Aisne-Marne, near Chateau Thierry; Meuse-Argonne, near Romagne; Oise-Aisne, near Fere-en-Terenois; Somme, near Bony; St. Mihiel, near Thiaucourt, and Surmesnes, on the outskirts of Paris. The cemetery in Belgium, known as the Flanders Field Cemetery, is near Waergem, and the hallowed spot in England is located outside of London and is known as Brookwood Cemetery.

Most of the little white crosses in our overseas military cemeteries bear an identifying legend showing the name, rank, and organization of him who sleeps beneath the sod of that country which he died to help defend. But on many of those tiny white crosses there is nothing but a pitiful little number, and the same legend, "Here Rests in Honored Glory An American Soldier Known But To God," which appears on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery, Virginia.

Late in October, 1921, one body of such an unknown soldier was disinterred from each of four of these overseas cemeteries—Aisne-Marne, Meuse-Argonne, Somme, and St. Mihiel. Tenderly, these four bodies were conveyed by a special military guard of honor to the quiet town of Chalons-sur-Marne, where, at the Hotel de Ville (City Hall) four catafalques had been made ready and a major of the Quartermaster Corps, U. S. Army, received the caskets containing the bodies.

As each officer in charge of a body turned it over to this major he also handed in the form pertaining to its burial. Another officer, in the presence of the major, then solemnly destroyed this form containing all the bare fragments of information about the dead man; where, when and how he was found dead on the field of battle, what efforts had been made to identify him, etc., and in what A. E. F. cemetery he had been buried. At the same time the duplicate records pertaining to each of these unknown soldiers, known only by assigned numbers, were destroyed in Paris and in Washington. Thus even the bare record was in each instance forever destroyed. Once the four caskets were placed upon the catafalques in the Chalons-sur-Marne City Hall on the morning of October 24, 1921, it was impossible for any one even to tell from which of the four A. E. F. cemeteries any one body and casket had originally come.

Later on the morning of October 24th the Quartermaster officer with a specially selected detail of French and American soldiers—the latter from United States Army units then stationed in and about Coblenz, Germany, with the American forces in Germany—rearranged the caskets, placing them about the room in such a fashion as they saw fit and thus further insuring that none could be identified by its previous location. The detail then left, and joined the military guard of honor which, with a French army band, was drawn up in hollow square outside the City Hall.

There was, then, no possible way of telling one unknown soldier from another. Each of the four caskets rested on a like catafalque draped with an American flag. Palms and potted trees, and the intertwined colors of France and the United States were the simple impressive decorations in the chamber of the City Hall.

The military guard of honor outside came to "Present Arms." One American soldier entered the chamber, alone. He was Sergeant Edward F. Younger, of Headquarters Company 2nd Battalion, 50th Infantry, a man who hailed from Chicago, Illinois, had fought in the American Expeditionary Forces as private, corporal, and sergeant, and who had been twice wounded in action at the front.

In his hand, as he entered the chamber to make his selection of the One Unknown, Sergeant Younger carried a spray of French roses, the gift of M. Brasseur Bruffer, a former member of the City Council of Chalons-sur-Marne, who had himself lost two sons in battle.

While the French military band outside played a hymn Sergeant Younger paced slowly about the four caskets in the chamber. Several times he walked about the chamber before, finally, he halted before one of the caskets. Gently placing the spray of French roses upon this casket he had chosen, Sergeant Younger then stepped back and came smartly to salute. So was our Unknown Soldier selected, for time and all eternity to be "known but to God."

Terracing Arouses Interest of Local Farmers

Marine Corps To Celebrate 163rd Birthday Monday

On November 10th, the United States Marine Corps will celebrate its 163rd birthday. On that day in the year 1775 a corps of Marines was created by a resolution of the Continental Congress. Since then, many thousand men have borne the name Marine. In memory of them it is fitting that the Marines should commemorate the birthday of the corps by calling to mind the glories of its long and illustrious history.

The record of the corps is one which will bear comparison with that of the most famous military organizations in the world's history. From the Battle of Trenton to the Argonne, Marines have won foremost honors in war that our country and its citizens might enjoy peace and security.

In every battle and skirmish since the birth of the corps Marines have acquitted themselves with the greatest distinction. With it, the Marines also receive from the eternal spirit that which has animated the corps from generation to generation and has been the distinguishing mark of the Marines in every age. So long as that spirit continues to flourish Marines will be found equal to every emergency in the future as they have been in the past, and the nation will regard them as worthy successors to the long time of illustrious men who have served as "Soldiers of the Sea" since the founding of the corps.

as soon as crops will be removed from the fields, this promises to be one of the biggest years in a good many years for terracing and contouring. According to requests now on file in the county agent's office terracing and contouring lines run on farm land in 1938 should total approximately 20,000 acres. This goes to prove that farmers are thorough-

Motorists Warned To Check Against Threat Of Monoxide Gas

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—To minimize the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning during winter weather, motorists are urged by Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, to check up now on the exhaust systems of their automobiles for defective connections and leaks.

"This unseasonable weather will give way to winter soon and it will be necessary to drive in closed cars. Carbon monoxide may seep inside from leaky connections and overwhelm occupants of the car," Doctor Cox warned.

He said that "warming up" a car in a closed garage is the greatest cause of carbon monoxide deaths. Leaks from manifold connections, cracked manifolds, defective mufflers, leaks from loose connections ad leaks from hot air heater connections are potential sources for release of carbon monoxide and should be checked, Doctor Cox pointed out.

"Pay particular attention to these items and remember that proper carburetor adjustment causes minimum production of carbon monoxide and that the highest proportion of this gas is produced by an idling motor.

The state health officer said that headaches which occur during long drives may be an indication that carbon monoxide is leaking into the car. Sleepiness, dizziness, fatigue and in extreme cases, paralysis are other symptoms of carbon monoxide leaking into the car. Truck drivers making long drives are particularly vulnerable, he stated.

Doctor Cox described this gas as being colorless, odorless, and tasteless. When in the air it gives no sign of its presence and is taken into the blood instead of oxygen. Suffering or collapse result from lack of oxygen.

ly convinced that terracing and contouring and strip cropping pays big dividends.

Goodnight Memorial Committee Completes Erection of Marker

BURIAL PLACE OF A TRAIL BLAZER—The grave of Col. Charles Goodnight, dead almost a decade, finally has been marked. A headstone identical with that he placed at the grave of his wife in the small cemetery at Goodnight and a memorial marker has been erected by a committee of Plains citizens headed by W. H. Patrick of Clarendon. The marker bears the names of Charles and Mary Ann Goodnight, and this inscription: "Together they conquered a new land and performed a duty to man and to God. . . . He was a trail blazer and Indian scout. She was a quiet home loving woman. Together, they built a home in the Palo Duro Canyon in 1876. They developed the cattle industry, they fathered higher education and civic enterprise. To them the Panhandle pays reverent and grateful tribute."

ARMISTICE DAY

The First Armistice Day To Be Observed As A National Legal Holiday

TWENTY YEARS OF PEACE for America ... may we have many twenty-year periods of Peace. There is no tribute that can recompense our lost ones for what they have contributed. But we can manifest to them today that they are not forgotten. They died for Peace not War. We must keep the faith. We must dedicate to them our everlasting thought and energy to insure their posterity the goal they sought and the sacrifice they made TWENTY years ago.
