Donley Men Buy Registered Bulls

As a result of a recent trip to the Plainview dairy show and of local interest in the development of better Jersey Cattle, two registered bulls have recently been bought in the Ashtola community. C. J. Cobb and Pink Marshall bought one of the bulls, and Slayton Mahaffey purchased the other. A number of registered heifers and cows are being secured in the community.

A recent check has shown that the Ashtola community is one of the leaders in the shipment and selling of cream.

MRS. A. F. WALDRON DIED THIS MORNING

LOVED PIONEER SUCCEUMS TO HEART ATTACK AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Shortly before going to press, The News learned with deep regret of the passing of Mrs. A. F. Waldron, aged 72, who died at the family residence in Clarendon at 11:20 this morning. A heart attack came late yesterday afternoon, from which she never rallied.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the Baptist Church at 2:30 o'clock, with interment at the Citizens' Cemetery, with her pastor, Rev. J. Perry King in charge.

Mrs. Waldron came with her late husband to Donley county in 1905 from Knox county, and for all these years has held a large and respected place among the pioneer families of this community. She has been a Christian and a loyal member of the Baptist Church since she was eighteen years of age, and her many virtues and works are well-known among her large circle of friends, with whom the News joins in sorrow at her passing.

She is survived by six daughters and five sons, all of whom were present except two, Miss Vada Waldron, missionary in South America and Mrs. Richard Wood of Long Beach, Cal.

Last Gap On Hy. 5 Paving Completed

Asphalt surfacing on a 12-mile stretch, the last unpaved gap in state highway 5 from Texline to Texarkana, was opened to traffic Sunday between Nocona and Gainesville, E. C. Woodward, division highway engineer at Wichita Falls announced Monday.

The final work on a section from Saint Jo to Muenster, was completed Saturday night and the barricades were removed.

A celebration is being planned early in June to dedicate the road improvement, and every city in the Wichita Falls division and other cities on highway 5 outside the division will be invited to participate. The Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce officials have announced.

The elimination of the gap on highway 5 is the second unpaved leave-out on a major state highway to be remedied in the Wichita Falls Division.

J. Frank Heath was a business visitor in Amarillo Monday.

Hopes Here For Gas Rate Verdict Before Many Days

In a letter answering an inquiry by Mayor W. H. Patrick of the City of Clarendon, Chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission Hon. C. V. Terrell, advised that the Oil and Gas Division of the Commission had promised a report and recommendation on the Clarendon Gas rate matter within the next few days, and that the Commission would then be in a position to render a verdict promptly.

Chairman Terrell explained to Mayor Patrick that the commission had been the target of so many suits in the varying questions of utility rates that they had been somewhat delayed, but begged the patience of the citizenship here, promising an early order in the case as indicated above.

Mayor Patrick wanted the people of Clarendon to know that the City Commission was doing all in its power to bring about an early reduction of the local gas rates, and that body joins in the hope of a decision that will be in line with the justice of the arguments presented in the recent hearing held in Clarendon.

Outstanding Bonds On Jail Are Called

Other actions taken by the court in session was the appointment of judges to serve in all special and general elections at Rowe, Bray, Wilson and Watkins-Oller, because of error in consolidating voting boxes of Bray and Watkins-Oller and the voting boxes at Rowe and Wilson.

The judges appointed were: Rowe: E. V. Quattlebaum and Mrs. Edwin Eanes.

Wilson: H. P. Longan and Miss Kate Meader.

Bray: Ben Keyser and R. L. Duckworth.

Watkins-Oller: Ernest Wood and Cicero Turpin.

G. A. Sahli, Amarillo accountant, who has served the past year as auditor of Donley county was reappointed for 1938.

PLAN OIL TEST NORTH OF RIVER

"There's oil north of the River," declared C. H. Wisdom this week and it is this same firm belief in the oil producing future of Donley county that drives Mr. Wisdom and a number of associates in their determination to see that a deep test is made in the Goldston Country, and which has culminated in the formation of a drilling block near twenty thousand acres in that vicinity. Several contractors are interested in the project and the group hopes to close up before many days.

It is the plan of the promoters to be satisfied with nothing less than a 5,000-foot test, and from the showings in the old wildcat well east of Goldston several years ago is based the firm belief that a test to that depth will give Donley her first producer.

Final details of a drilling contract in the Hedley country still hang fire, but 1938 is no doubt the year when the county will see several test go to conclusive depths in search of the golden fluid.

Two Rural Schools Close This Week

Elementary exercises at Chamberlain will be next Wednesday night and a play will be presented Thursday night.

FIRST BRONCHO INJURIES FELT

The coming football team of Coach Emil Hutto had the exes beat until the last few minutes of play when a couple of fast plays were pulled that spelled the downfall of the regulars.

"A promising team," was the verdict of Hutto following the game. He said the boys had shown excellent spirit and good teamwork during previous practices and after the game Monday afternoon said Clarendon High would have one of the best teams in the 3-B Conference.

The first injuries of the season were sustained during the past week. George Henry Vineyard, promising right halfback, received a broken arm in practice Thursday and Joe Frank Heathington broke an arm during the first play of a practice game Monday.

HOPPERS HOPPING SURVEY REVEALS

PLAGUE EXPECTED TO EXCEED THAT OF LAST YEAR; TWO STATIONS

Reports from farmers in various parts of the county are that grasshoppers are rapidly hatching out and the infestation this year will be worse than last year.

Two grasshopper stations will be operated this year, one at Clarendon and the other at Hedley, Texas. H. M. Breedlove County Agent, also reports that in a telephone conversation with R. R. Reppert, of College Station, an order was placed for six car loads of bran to be shipped to this county as soon as possible. Breedlove expects one of the biggest fights against grasshoppers this year that has ever been staged in Donley county.

The play-off between Glenn Churchman and John Gillham had not been made Wednesday to see who would play C. Huffman, winner over Geo. Norwood. "Pud" Bain downed Otto Beach to be paired against Clarence Whitlock, winner over W. G. Word.

Deceit Gets Trucker Stiff Fine On Charge

Due to an attempt to deceive law enforcement officers, Jim Burks, Sudan, was assessed a heavier fine by County Judge S. W. Lowe, for overloading a truck than is ordinarily given for that offense.

Burks was fined $20 and costs after a guilty plea on the charge made by highway Patrolman, George Pierce when testimony revealed that by operation of a lever attachment on the truck Burks was unable to drive his truck onto a public scale. The attachment had permitted Burks to deliberately disengage the clutch operation in his attempt to evade the officer weighing the truck. Pierce testified the truck was carrying more than 5,000 pounds excess load.

A charge of driving a commercial vehicle without a chauffeur's license was dismissed after conviction on the overloading charge.

ARRIVAL TIME SET FOR MAIL PLANE

SPECIAL CACHE STAMP TO BE PLACED ON ALL AIR MAIL LETTERS MAY 19

A feeder air mail plane will land in Clarendon at 12:37 p. m. next Thursday to pick up air mail from the local post office and carry it to Amarillo where the letters will be promptly dispatched on west and east bound air-mail planes.

Postmaster Forest Taylor announced this week the exact time the plane would arrive in Clarendon.

On the same day four planes will leave Amarillo during the morning to stop at 20 towns and pick up air mail letters gathered from approximately 50 Panhandle towns, to climax celebration in this area of Air Mail Week, May 15 to 21.

Taylor called on all Clarendon and Donley county citizens to mail one or more letters by air mail on or before May 19, so that a large volume of air mail letters would be dispatched from Clarendon. Letters may be mailed at the Clarendon postoffice that day as late as 12:00 noon for dispatch on the feeder plane.

A special rubber stamp has been provided the Clarendon postoffice to stamp all Clarendon posted air mail letters to further advertise Air Mail Week, and Clarendon. The special imprint will be two and one-half inches wide and two inches deep, and will show an outline of the United States. On the Canadian border line between the Great Lakes and the Pacific coast is a winged circle with "Via U. S. Air Mail," while in the lower California region is a heavy circle inscribed, "We're on the trail of the U. S. Air Mail." LIONS CLUBS TO CONTINUE WORK FOR SAFE DRIVING IN THIS TERRITORY

At Lubbock this week the District Convention of Lions Clubs re-emphasized its position of a year ago in the matter of education on safe driving, and called on its clubs over the territory to continue its activities for safer traffic through all available means, which includes the teaching of traffic rules in the schools. This is another step to promote public awareness of the need for safe driving as was given by the National Safety Council as the probable reason for the marked decline in traffic fatalities that has occurred since November, 1937. The Council gives the press of the nation a large measure of credit for creating this "awareness."

Newspapers and magazines have joined wholeheartedly in the efforts of public safety agencies and organizations such as the American Legion and Parent-Teacher groups, to cut down highway slaughter. Tales of gore and horror, of mangled bodies and broken homes have confronted the potential drunken and reckless driver at every turn. Apparently these "messages from the dead" have had the desired effect. In addition to this form of "education," automobiles and highways have been made safer from an engineering standpoint, better laws have been adopted and enforcement has been more rigid.

If the present downward trend of automobile fatalities continues, those who have died in automobile accidents will not have died entirely in vain. Their sacrifice will have served toward putting an end to needless slaughter of human life on the highway. But, in the months and years to come, there must be no relenting, no let-up in the drive to make our highways safe. The automobile must be "broken" as a domesticated animal, and made to serve man—not destroy him.

RELIEF—THE FOURTH LARGEST BUSINESS

America is a land that prides itself on its high standard of living. And it is not a false pride, for Americans have more comforts and conveniences than any other people—all because America has pioneered in the development of these modern things through industrial expansion. With that expansion millions of jobs were created so those millions could buy the things they produced.

Now, however, America finds itself alarmingly going backward instead of forward toward an even higher standard of living.

Consider the hundreds of ways in which 130,000,000 people of our country earn or receive their living. Broken down into classifications, we find now that relief—at the expense of the taxpayer and the public purse—ranks fourth. That means that more people are now being supported on relief rolls than by such industries as mining, public utilities, transportation and construction. Only manufacturing, farming and the service trades rank above relief.

Why, people ask, has relief become a "big business"? There are many theories, but it is interesting to note that it has advanced materially during the past five-year era of government pump-priming and indiscriminate "emergency" spending.

Since 1933 the staggering total of more than $16,000,000,000 has been poured into the relief channels. By July 1, 1938, according to current government spending estimates, the total will amount to at least $20,000,000,000.

Some people say Federal spending is a political expedient. Perhaps it is, but we wonder if, in the long run, industrial America and its high living standards can survive if relief finally becomes the first ranking business.

IT LOOKS DIFFERENT FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF THE FENCE

JUST HUMANS

By GENE CARR

"Hey, This Aint No Ash Tray!"

AID FOR KING COTTON

Last year's cotton crop was the biggest ever harvested—18,750,000 bales. By the time the 1938 crop is in the bale a surplus equal to two year's normal consumption will be weighing down the market—unless something extraordinarily effective is done to aid King Cotton.

Cotton is grown widely in only 18 states—but its ups and downs are reflected in the standard of living of all America. Shoes from Massachusetts; oranges from California; automobiles from Michigan; flour from Minnesota—the money derived from cotton by the growers in that great Southern area where it is the principal crop, buys a large part of the total production of these and all other commodities. Thus, the cotton emergency is of importance to all America—her trade, her commerce, her industry. And all America is interested in plans to effectively aid the cotton growers.

Following a series of conferences, a thoroughgoing plan to help move the cotton surplus has been scheduled for the week beginning May 30. Groundwork will be done in the meantime to stimulate the sale of cotton goods and other allied products. Participants in the drive are the nation's chain stores—the variety systems, the food system, the "five and ten," the drug systems, and the shoe systems. Practically every important chain in the country has pledged its cooperation. One of the groups involved has alone 11,500 outlets, and last year sold almost $750,000,000 worth of cotton products.

Promotional effort of all kinds will be given to making the drive a success. Advertising, window and inner store displays, recommendations by clerks, handbills—every possible medium will be used to move cotton in great quantities. Nothing will be left undone that might help relieve the present critical condition.

Time will tell just how effective this campaign will be—but it is a very safe prediction, based on the past precedent of chain store promotional campaigns in behalf of other products, that an unprecedented amount of cotton will be sold, and that the cotton growers will be saved losses that might prove ruinous to many.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

AUSTIN—Most significant news event of the week in Austin is the report of Comptroller George Sheppard, showing the State had an income, during the first eight months of the current fiscal year of $147,940,427. This is within $6,279,603 of the total income for the entire preceding fiscal year, indicating an increase in State receipts which may yield a total as high as $200,000,000 when the year is completed. It verifies in many respects the claims made by several important candidates for office that new or higher taxes are unnecessary in Texas, with the increase from present sources due to increasing business, being available for gradual retirement of the general fund deficit, now totaling around eleven and three-quarter million dollars. Sheppard's analysis showed higher income from various sources, including thin gasoline tax, cigarette and liquor taxes, gross oil production taxes, gross receipts taxes and sulphur taxes.

Simultaneously, members of the Senate's special subcommittee drafting preliminary state budgets were at work here, and Morris Roberts, of Pettus and Harold Beck, of Texarkana, members, declared their belief substantial reductions could be made in appropriations without impairing service. Roberts declared his studies already had convinced him that consolidation of duplicated work done by various departments, elimination of useless employees, and savings in buying supplies, can effectuate at least a 20 per cent cut in departmental budgets, which last biennium totaled about $23,000,000. If Roberts' plan is adopted, a saving sufficient to retire the general fund deficit within two years, without additional revenue, could be made.

DEAF SCHOOL PROBE

Refusing to adopt a resolution offered by Rep. Lonnie Smith of Fort Worth, calling for resignation of T. M. Scott as superintendent of the State School for the Deaf, a special house committee has agreed to check further into the situation. The Board of Control, which supervises the State institutions, after listening with the committee to 25 charges of inefficiency against Scott, voiced by the Texas Association of the Deaf, also agree to look thoroughly into the matter. Scott, long a state employee in various departments, has been superintendent 15 years. The complaints charged he had refused to use the sign language in teaching deaf children, and that the school had a low standing. They declared Scott with only a high school education, is not qualified to direct the institution. Scott said he did no teaching, and therefore, did not require high educational qualifications. He declared the school enjoys a high ranking and said sign language teaching was unnecessary.

PRESS AGENTS THRIVE

No campaign in the history of Texas has seen such a profusion of press agent as the current struggle for votes. Nearly every serious candidate for State office is equipped with at least one, several with many. The result has been a demand which far exceeded the supply. Anybody who even claims to be a press agent has been able to land a job in Austin these days, and some of the weird copy ever seen has been poured out upon long-suffering editors.

The best press agent yarn of the season was the one about the ex-Centennial publicist, who wrote Speaker Bob Calvert, candidate for attorney general, asking for a job and advising Calvert that he "was the man who put Sally Rand on the map." He suggested $100 a week as compensation. Calvert, who is tall and exceedingly thin replied that "in view of the difference between my style of architecture and that of Sally Rand, I'm not sure you would be the best press agent for me. Anyway," added Calvert, who has a sense of humor, "If a press agent costs $100 a week, why don't you run for attorney general, and give me the job as your press agent?" Calvert then announced he would be his own campaign manager, press agent, card passer and chauffeur.

McCRAW HAS BIG STAFF

Bill McCraw, gubernatorial candidate, has the most extensive press staff, which includes Buck Hood, Austin newsman on leave of absence; Harry Crozier, ex-Capitol correspondent; Monty Montford, Fort Worth reporter on leave; Stuart Long, ex-Austin reporter; Garland Adair, of Austin. Ernest Thompson's press relations are looked after by Gordon Fulcher, Austin editor, and Sam Kinch, Fort Worth reporter, both on leave of absence for the duration of the campaign; Lt. Gov. HIGHWAY MEETING

Virtually assured against any cut in Federal highway money in the 1940 and 1941 fiscal years, by reason of the action of the House of Representatives in making allocations for these years (with quick Senate concurrence expected), good roads boosters of Texas will meet here May 24, to hear Lowry Martin, Corsicana publisher, outline the four point program of the Texas Good Roads Association. Martin was recently named president. The program he offers includes safeguarding of highway revenues, promotion of highway safety, and exploitation of scenic, recreational and industrial resources of Texas. In addition, Martin will seek a goal of 50,000 active members, an increase of two-thirds. Martin will be introduced by Sam Harben, veteran secretary of the Texas Press Association.

How Quanaah's Cemetery Started

Last Tuesday it was exactly 59 years ago when the first body was interred in the Quanaah cemetery.

A roving band of Kiowa Indians were responsible for this burial, the victim being Joe Earl. J. H. Estes of Corpus Christi gave the following account.

Fred Estes (my brother) and I left Cooke county in 1879 to go to Leadville, Colo., and fell in with Joe Earl at or near where Harold is now. We were in a two-mule wagon and he on horseback. He made the proposition that we let him go with us and he pay us if he made anything when he got to Leadville, as he had only about two or three dollars in money. We traveled along till we reached the R2 ranch at where Chillicothe now is. The ranch was then owned by Belcher & Easley, but was sold in a few days to Worsham & Co. We camped there on Wanders Creek Thursday night, April 12, 1879, and got to where Quanaah now has its cemetery. The next day about 12 o'clock Earl was some 300 or 400 yards ahead of us when we discovered a band of Indians. He saw them at the time, dismounted and squatted down in the road. The chief came up to us in the wagon and saw that we couldn't get away, so gave orders to rush on to Earl and get him. As soon as they reached him, they secured his horse and proceeded to kill him by shooting with pistols and bows and arrows. While this was taking place, Fred and myself got busy by getting our mules out from the wagon and mounting. We made off in the direction of the mouth of Wanders Creek. The Indians following and shooting at us for probably six or eight miles. My mule threw me before we made the first mile, but Fred caught him and I mounted again and rode away. When we got to the creek we turned up to the R2 ranch and got four other men and returned to the wagon and the body of Earl. We found that the Indians had saturated his clothes with coal oil and burned his body. His scalp was taken the head split open, the forefinger of the right hand was cut off and an arrow shot through the hand about ten inches long left sticking there. Five or six bullets and three or four arrows had penetrated the breast. We left the body until next day, when he was wrapped in a blanket and buried. His grave is in the Quanaah cemetery with a lot of rocks piled on it. I visited the cemetery after the town had built up and pointed out his grave.

The Indians were a roving band of Kiowas headed by a son of the old chief, Sun Bow.—Quanaah Tribune-Chief.

SANITARY MILK CANS MUST BE USED FOR CREAM

According to laws and regulations handed down by the State Department of Health, local produce houses are prohibited from accepting cream from producers in any container other than regulation milk cans. Farmers have been advised against bringing in their cream in syrup pails, coffee cans and other similar containers. Fruit pars, mayonaise jars cannot be properly sterilized and also should be discarded.

The State Department of Health decrees that all rusty containers must be abolished and under no consideration should cream or milk be received in containers which have been previously used for handling oil or petroleum products.

State, City and Federal authorities are active in the enforcement against buying poor cream and Clarendon produce houses insist that all producers make it a point to secure proper containers and discontinue bringing in containers that will not be acceptable by the State Health Department.

WHEEL BALANCING!

Car Owners today expect their cars to do sixty miles an hour without vibration, shimmy or tramp. And the cars will do it—if the wheels are kept in proper balance. Seventy-five per cent of the cases of shimmy result from lack of wheel balance.

Tire life of 20,000 miles can be increased to even 30,000 miles by proper balancing.

A wheel one ounce out of balance at the tread develops a twelve-pound vibrating force at sixty miles an hour. Yet it is not uncommon to find wheels six to twelve ounces out of balance.

Safety in Numbers!

New Figures on Road Maps Help Drivers

New Conoco Maps Make You Think in Hours Instead of Miles

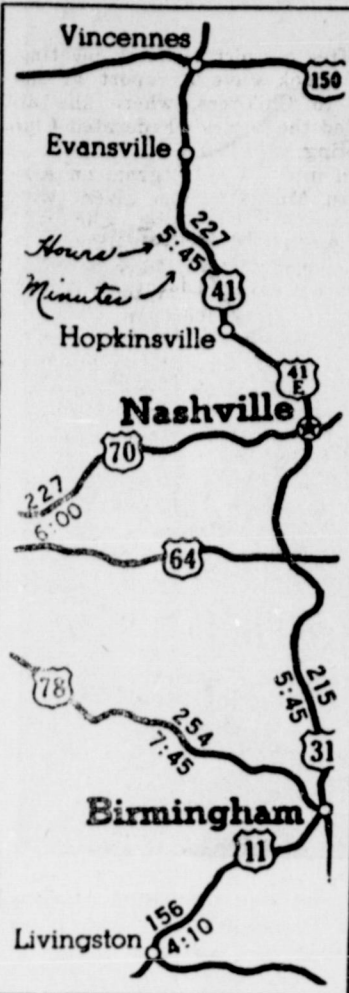

POUCA CITY, Okla. — Numerals that indicate the average driving time from town to town in hours and minutes have been added to United States maps issued by the Conoco Travel Bureau, America's largest free travel service which is maintained by the Continental Oil Company. This new automobile safety development is the most advanced road map improvement in recent years.

The new driving time figures, which are printed in red beneath each mileage figure, are expected to save the driver the trouble of calculating his own probable time and to encourage him to think in terms of reasonable time of arrival instead of the distance he has to cover.

Continental's driving time figures are the result of long investigation and careful checking of practically all of the well-travelled roads in the country. The hours and minutes as they appear on the new maps represent effective but reasonable speeds under normal traffic conditions and over dry roads.

In each case, consideration has been given to the nature of the route and to whether there are an unusual number of hills, turns or other features. For example, where a distance of 182 miles of flat straightaway in Arizona requires only 4 hours and 30 minutes at a safe pace, the same distance in the West Virginia hills requires 5 hours and 27 minutes.

The driver is expected to make allowances if he is in the habit of driving unusually fast or slow or if he encounters bad weather or heavy traffic. In test use, motorists seem to have no difficulty in learning how much allowance to make after a few trials, and the easy calculation of the probable hour of arrival appears to set a standard that removes some of the uncertainty and makes for more comfortable driving.

Huffman Makes Statement On Candidacy For Sheriff

C. Huffman, who announced last week for the office of Sheriff of Donley County, makes the following statement to the voters:

"In making a statement on behalf of my candidacy for Sheriff of Donley County, first, I want to thank the people of Donley County for the nice vote given me two years ago.

"I have lived here some ten years. I was born at DeLeon, in Comanche County, Texas, and have an average education. "I served in the army during the World War, serving in the occupation of German territory, and returned to the United States uninjured. I am indeed proud of my army record.

"I would like to serve you as your sheriff for the next two years. I know that I can get the job done, and all I want is a chance. I stand for enforcement of all the laws on our statute books and of elected I will especially clamp down on drunken driving, Gasoline and liquor wont mix! If you will elect me your sheriff for the next two year I will carry out rigid enforcement of the laws in Donley county. "I will assure you that any and all consideration given me in the election will be greatly appreciated."

Mrs. Fayne Kent Complimented

Honoring Mrs. Fayne Kent, recent bride, the ladies of the First Christian Church entertained with a lovely miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Homer Mulkey last Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

After the guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. E. C. Herd, they were ushered into the living room where they were registered in the bride's book by Mrs. Robert E. Austin. The bride's book was artistically designed and presented to the bride by Mrs. J. Perry King. After registering they were invited into the dining room where they were served punch. The dining table was laid with a beautiful lace cloth and centered with the punch bowl which was encircled with lovely cut flowers. Mrs. Lee Bell and Mrs. Mulkey presided over the punch bowl.

The guests were then seated and each given a miniature umbrella cut from paper and were told to write advice to the bride on how to keep a husband. Garden Glances Presented weekly by the Garden Club

"America the beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners"

Ice and frost have visited us since last week but the hardy beauty of some spots are unmarred. Have you seen those gorgeous clumps of peonies in the Meredith Gentry yard, and the tender green candles or blooms on those lovely pines? This new growth, or blooms, on the pines and spruces in several yards is quite noticeable as it makes the two shades of green.

The brave old bore infected locust are blooming in several places, and are especially pretty in the valley near the South Ward school. You should glance at that row of Carolina Poplars at the Eddington Apartments, and the shapely American Elm on the Court House lawn near the jail.

There are so many lovely columbines blooming in the yards now that you must be an admiring neighbor of Colorado's state flower. Mrs. Fink has been very successful in growing these plants and her original ones came from seed secured from her sister's lawn in Dennison, Iowa.

When you take a few minutes off and glance at the many attractive spots in Clarendon you will marvel that it can happen here regardless of the weather.

C. H. D. Club Meets With Mrs. Fink

The Clarendon Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. O. L. Fink, Friday afternoon, May 6, with sixteen members present.

The Club president, Mrs. O. L. Fink, presided over the business meeting and opened the meeting with the club prayer. Members answered the roll call with monthly reports. Two new members, Mrs. Elmer Hayes and Mrs. G. W. Antrobus were elected to membership.

Quitting proved a pleasant pastime during the afternoon. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. W. A. Davis in an all day meeting, Friday, May 20.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames C. L. Benson, John Black, A. L. Chase, W. A. Davis, H. J. Eddington, J. C. Estlack, M. A. Hahn, Cap Lane, C. D. McDowell, A. W. Simpson, Ed Speed, W. D. VanEaton, Mattie Hudson, and Misses Etta and Ida Harned and the hostess, Mrs. Fink.

Garden Club Has Interesting Study

The members of the Garden Club met in regular session last Monday afternoon with Mrs. Cliff McDowell as hostess.

The attractiveness of the Spanish living room was enhanced by a garden basket of cut flowers and a potted blooming rose.

The program consisted of informational discussions pertaining to spraying and treating plants for the prevention of diseases and the killing of insects. Mrs. George Ryan stated in a charming manner some facts in regard to cut flower arrangement, a subject which should be more generally studied.

The names of Mrs. O. L. Fink and Mrs. J. H. Howze were added to the club membership list.

The hostess served delightful refreshments to Mesdames John Potts, Cap Morris, Joe Goldston, Lon Rundell, O. L. Fink, J. H. Howze, Lee Bell, A. L. Chase, George A. Ryan and Ben Prewitt. After the club adjourned the members enjoyed seeing Mrs. McDowell's rock garden and lawn which indicates much planning and encouraging results.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

Rayburn Smith being a stupendous boy of 17 year of age has filled his life with accomplishments any boy should be proud of. Rayburn spent many successful years in Voc. Agri. where he was recorded as being the high point man in the Texas Tech. poultry contest. He also was a contestant for the county essay contest and was a senior patrol leader for the Boy Scouts of America. This extraordinary senior student possesses dark brown hair, grey-blue eyes and along with 5 feet 7 inches of height he carries 130 pounds of winning personality.

Max Wilson is another outstanding F. F. A. student who has been judged on the Dairy Products team at the Tech contest and judged dairy cattle in several contests. Max has a mass of chestnut brown hair, weighs 155, and is 5 feet 8 1/2 inches tall.

Jolly McGowen is 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 180 pounds. He has blue eyes and blond hair. He is well known for his competitive spirit in athletics of all kinds. He lettered four years as a football man. He is another of the numerous agriculture boys and has been in judging contest. He is good in swimming and dancing and is also a member of the F. F. A.

Beaty Hillman is also a boy who takes great interest in F. F. A. work. He judged on the 1938 poultry team that met with great success and is the assistant president of the chapter. He has played in several basketball games and has entered track for the past 3 years. His height of 5 feet, 6 1/2 inches and weight of 113 pounds makes him the smallest senior boy in the class. He takes in all outdoor sports being a good swimmer, hunter and rider.

Ray Palmer, a student who not only is very popular in sports and in school, but is the most outstanding senior in this year's social activities. In sports he lettered in football and played tennis and basketball. Ray has a very engaging way and a beaming personality. Oh yes, he is also known as "Baby Ray, the boy bandit king."

Nicky Stewart, student at Texas Tech, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart.

EXES DEFEAT REGULAR BRONCS IN FOOTBALL 14-7

In a close game Monday, May 9, the ex-Bronchos defeated the next year regulars 14 to 7. The regulars had the game won until they made some costly errors. Coach Hutto states that he was well pleased with the playing of the Bronchos, as they played cleanly and well, in spite of greenness. However, they show the results of their three-month spring training.

SOPHS-JUNIORS PICNIC AT TROUBLESOME CANYON

The Sophomore and Junior classes of C. H. S. enjoyed a picnic at Troublesome Canyon on Wednesday, May 4. It seemed to be a big success, even though neither class wanted the other along at first.

It was hard to tell whether Miss Cope was a teacher or a little girl the way she took part in all the hiking. She was in many of the snap-shots taken.

Yvonne, Katrina, and Jack Rogers were the center of attraction when they rolled each other in the water.

Does Lella Ruth really have enough energy to climb a hill? Well, she did it. Mary Elizabeth Ziegler of course had to sprain her ankle, but it healed quickly when she saw there were no tall, dark and handsome boys near.

Could you believe that Elgin Risely and Velma were not on the go? They were sitting down looking lonesome because Johnnie was off with Emily.

Did Manjanita McClenny have to fall off the truck for the driver to pick her up?

Everyone had a grand time, in spite of a few bruises and soreness later, and they really did enjoy eating.

BR-ASSEMBLY

The assembly program Friday at the fourth period opened with everyone singing "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" and "Old Black Joe."

Since it was National Music Week, the program was composed entirely of musical numbers. Lawrence Heckman and Kenneth Sloan played several guitar and fiddle duets, including "Goodnight Waltz," "New Shoes," and others. We were glad to have on the program a trio, Mrs. Howze, Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Landreth, accompanied by Mrs. Bryan who sang "Dance of the Pine Tree Fairies," and "Glow Worm." A trumpet quartet composed of John Burton King, Darrell Meaders, Raymond Johnson, and Basil Kirtley played "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise," and "Mighty Like a Rose."

POEMS

By Homer Charles Speed

Reville

Bugles blow that arise
The morn—
Echoing far from life
At scorn—
To place in rank as we Really are—
Drilled together to face
The war—
Marching forward to shells
On high—
Carrying courage for life
To fly—
Packing bundles that Carry will—
Bundles of rank that God
Will fill—
Outward life that has
To run—
Our eager class has Just begun—
Life of today and life
Tomorrow—
Will find our joy and not
Our sorrow.

In Appreciation

The concave soil with its waving of green,
The hillside love with its Metallic sheen,
The twisting gullies and sparkle of sand,
As passes the water from a Distant land.
The fading music of a feathered friend,
The rustle of leaves from the branches bend,
The chirp of crickets in a last hide,
The gypsy shadows of eagles glide,
The greatest reach of the sunsets glow;
The quietness of life for the moonlight's flow;
The dancing of stars as they shine above;
The light of the night and the beauty of love.
But the greatest work that Students can see
Is the sight of man, a gift from thee.
Which brightens the life in most every way.
The work of your eyes in the light of day.

SENIORS GIVE GOOD CLASS NIGHT PROGRAM

One of the most varied and interesting class night programs ever presented by a C. H. S. class was given Friday night, May 6, by the 1938 Senior Class. Piano duets and solos, a chorus of girls, a dance duet, poems written by a member of the class, as well as the program which was well executed by all who took part. The prophecy, statistics, and will revealed funny and unheard of things about the members of the class. The history was unusual in that the historians, Francis Morris gave an individual history of the school life of each of the members of the class.

Rules For Restoring Life From Drowning

AUSTIN—May is the month when most Texans take a look at the thermometer, make a dive for their bathing suits and hunt the nearest swimming pool or lake. Swimming is a fine sport but it does involve certain hazards. It is tragically enough to have a drowning accident, but far greater if no one present knows how to save life by artificial respiration.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises that the "Prone Pressure Method" is the accepted one for restoring life from drowning. The method involves the following steps:

Place patient stomach down, one arm stretched above the other bent, with face resting on it. Resusc measures should begin at once and continue rhythmically until natural breathing is established. This may take four or more hours. The procedure is:

1. Kneel, and straddle the patient below the hips, placing hand on small if the back with fingers over the lowest ribs, tips of fingers just out of sight.
2. With arms straight, while counting one, two, swing forward bearing the weight on the body firmly but not violently.
3. Swing backwards while counting one, straightening up and thus relieving pressure. This allows air to be drawn into the lungs.
4. Rest in this position for two counts.
5. Repeat these movements rhythmically, forward and backwards, without interruption, about twelve to fifteen a minute until natural breathing is restored.
6. Meanwhile, if assistance is at hand, a physician should be sent for, patient's tight clothing should be loosened at neck, chest or waist, and patient should be kept warm.

Patient should not be moved from this spot until he is breathing naturally and then should be carried in a lying position to a place where he can be kept warm and receive expert medical attention.

News of Interest to Donley Farmers

Prepared by Extension Service
Texas A. & M. College

COUNTY RATES ANNOUNCED FOR CROP INSURANCE

COLLEGE STATION—Crop insurance which will guarantee insured wheat growers three-fourths of an average wheat crop in 1939 will cost farmers of Donley county an average of 1.5 bushels per acre, according to figures announced at the state wheat meeting recently held at Amarillo.

For insurance that guarantees one-half the average crop, the rate will average .7 bushels per acre in Donley county.

Cost in nearby counties is shown in the following table:

County	per cent bushels	per cent bushels
Armstrong	1.8	1.0
Briscoe	1.1	.5
Childress	1.1	.5
Gray	2.1	1.1
Hall	1.3	.7

The county rates reflect the average per acre loss in this county during the 10 years, 1926-1936. The premium that an individual wheat grower will have to pay for insurance will depend half on this county rate and half upon the crop losses on his own farm. The rates for each farm will be computed in the branch office of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

The cost of insurance is not based on the average amount of yield, but on the year-to-year variations in yield.

"Two farmers with the same average yield for the 10 year period would not necessarily pay the same premium for the same percentage," E. N. Holmgren, administrative officer of the Texas AAA office at Texas A. & M. College, who attended the meeting, pointed out. The farmer who suffered but little crop losses would pay less than the farmer who suffered frequent and heavy losses, even though their average yields were the same.

The figures farmers need for calculating their insurance will be available for farms which took part in wheat adjustment programs in the office of the county agricultural agent and the county committee, about which the county crop insurance program will center. Farms on which figures are not available will be appraised. The premium a farmer pays covers only the actual insurance. Administration costs and costs for storage of insurance reserved will be paid by the Corporation.

BALANCED FARM AIRM OF TEXAS FARMERS

COLLEGE STATION—"The average Texas cotton farmer this year will devote around 33 percent of his acreage to cotton, 37 to feed crops, and 30 percent to hay and soil improvement crops," according to H. H. Williamson, director of the Extension Service

REG'LAR FELLERS

American News Features, Inc.

That's A 50-50 Division

By Gene Byrnes

of Texas A. & M. College, who believes that these figures indicate that Texas farmers are balancing their crops and their farm activities in good fashion. "Out of the Texas farmer's present economic difficulties may come a sounder system of farming," the director pointed out. "In addition to the usual cash crops, farmers this year are planting larger proportions of home food and feed and soil improvement crops.

"Texas is fortunate in having a number of 'triple threat' crops from which to choose. Cotton and wheat, with grain sorghums, are of course our big cash crops, with rice in the coastal section, and flax showing some promise in southern and southwestern counties. It is probable that no other state enjoys such a wide variety of choice among crops for food and feed uses. In hay and soil improvement crops, we have a fair pick in the grasses, sweet sorghums, cowpeas, soybeans, velvet beans, hairy vetch, and some of the other clovers."

Williamson declared that our long seasons of high temperatures burn up humus more quickly than is the case in more temperate sections, and that this makes conservation work especially important here. County agricultural agents have estimated that more than five million Texas acres will be affected by soil improvement crops and conservation practices in 1938, of which about a million will be terraced and two and a half million contoured but not terraced.

LIBRARY NOTES (By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Again let me remind you of my used magazines—such bargains! Come and see. And if anyone has late copies of the American or The Woman's Home Companion to give us, please bring them in.

The members of the Beaux Arts Club have secured quite a large number of copies of the Bulletins which they promised to place in the library, such as Roses for the Home, Herbaceous Perennials, Injurious Insects, Beauty-fying the Farmstead and others. We hope the women who are interested will use them. They need not even have a membership in the library to use these.

One marked result of the World War was an increased interest in world literature. In attempts to understand the French, the German, and the Italian points of view during the war, an interest in European writers was aroused. This interest has continued and authors who had been national, now have become international. One of these is Thomas Mann, who became a voluntary exile when Hitler came into power and over the radio came the announcement that when Thomas Mann returned to the United States from a lecture tour in Canada, he meant to take the necessary steps in applying for citizenship in this country.

Mann is best known in this country by his Biblical trilogy which has recently been translated from the German for the first time by H. T. Lowe Porter. The first volume is "Joseph and his Brothers," then "Young Joseph," followed by "Joseph in Egypt." In these three volumes, the author follows the familiar Bible story, making it the symbolic expression of man's fate in the broadest and deepest terms. He sums up the things that are true for every man because they seek to express the final response of the heart to its own mysterious life.

The story of Thomas Mann's life is interesting. His mother was the daughter of a German planter in Brazil and his Creole wife, the offspring of a Portuguese-Indian marriage. From his mother he has inherited the romantic streak in his mind; from his father, a senator of the Hanseatic free city of Lubeck and member of an old patrician merchant family, he inherited the well-known German trait—intellectual balance. He was born in 1875 in Lubeck. When he was fifteen years old his father died and four years later, his mother moved to Munich. Here he worked in insurance for a time. Then he secured work in a newspaper office. His first really significant book was written when he was twenty-six. His book, "The Magic Mountain," has been accepted as one of the great books of the modern world and it was largely because of this that he was awarded the Nobel prize, the most coveted of all literary prizes, in 1929, though the prize is never awarded for just one book, "but to a mind concerned with the gigantic problem of humanity." He is now writing a short novel dealing with one of Goethe's love affairs, which he expects to have ready for fall publication.

Helen Keller has a new book, "Helen Keller's Journal." It is the journal kept by her in the months following the death of her teacher and life-long companion, Anne Sullivan Macy, and is a record of her readjustment to life without this friend, her travel at home and abroad and her work for the blind.

A Texas writer who is becoming well known for her light readable stories and who lives in Dallas, is Helen Topping Miller. Two of her stories are on our shelves and are enjoyed by our readers—"The Way of an Eagle" and "Blue Marigolds." She has a new one running serially in Good Housekeeping called "Next To My Heart," and her friend, Alice Booth writes this of her: "I never see Helen Topping Miller's name on a manuscript without thinking of what she did with her first check. She bought a straw hat with red cherries on it to wear to the county fair with her new beau, a fire-eating young country editor with a crusading light in his eyes. Evidently the hat worked, for he was Roger Miller, and that's why Miller was added to Helen Topping's name. Since then his work has taken him to Georgia, North Carolina, Washington, D. C., Florida and Texas. Everywhere they go they buy a house and immediately that house is filled with young people."

Time Magazine lists the current best sellers in the United States as "Action at Aquila," by Hervey Allen, "The Yaeling," by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, and "The Citadel," by A. J. Cronin in fiction, and "Madame Curie," by Eve Curie, "The Importance of Living," by Lin Yutang, and "The Summing Up," by W. Somerset Maugham in non-fiction.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headaches, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Only Your Mileage Merchant OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE

Do you need any reminder of what oil you bought? Not if it delivers smooth long mileage that you can't forget! Then here's the real big value of the little drain tag you get from Your Mileage Merchant:

he marks it with your mileage today as you change to his patented Conoco Germ Processed oil, and then you can keep tabs on how far you go before you ever need another quart in your OIL-PLATED engine.

OIL-PLATING is exclusive with Conoco Germ Processed oil. The patent-guarded Germ Process forces this oil to "magnetize" on to the working parts in the form of implanted slippery OIL-PLATING. The parts that used to wear worst and make your oil "rub out" fastest, now possess this all-over, deep-seated OIL-PLATING. It can neither drain down while your engine is stopped, nor let loose in all the whirl of 4,000 revolutions a minute. Therefore OIL-PLATING, done only by Your Mileage Merchant, distinctly tells you why your Germ Processed oil and your car money won't be doing a "disappearing act." Continental Oil Co.

FSA Established New Farm Lease

Seeking to establish a greater mutual trust and confidence between landowners and tenants to their mutual advantage, the Farm Security Administration will soon introduce a new written flexible farm lease, according to Bob Land, County Rural Rehabilitation Supervisor in Hall and Donley Counties.

The tenure improvement leases will be made available to all landlords and tenants in this county, Mr. Land said, and will supplement the FSA's tenant purchase program.

Mr. Land said the new lease forms are designed to improve relationships between tenants and landowners generally; to advance tenants more rapidly on the ladder toward farm ownership; to strengthen the regular rehabilitation loans and supervision to low-income tenants; to increase the security and the length of tenure and reduce the economic loss involved in the annual transfer of approximately a million tenant families from farm to farm.

One of the major possibilities offered in the new lease form, he said, is that of providing an incentive for greater interest on the part of the tenant and his family in the care and preservation of the property of the landowner and thus promoting the preservation and improvement of that half of the nation's agricultural land which is operated by renters.

Calling attention to the recent study of the nation's soil and human resources conducted by D. P. Trent, chief of the Farm Security Administration's tenure improvement section, Mr. Land said the problem of unproductive land is serious, but the problem of unproductive lives people must live upon unproductive land is incomparably more serious.

"Worn out, eroded, gullied, lifeless and barren farms," he continued, "are important from the standpoint of national welfare and the dilapidated houses on many farms are a matter of serious public concern, but the hopeless and fruitless lives of the people who occupy these dilapidated houses and who struggle for existence upon these impoverished lands assume the appearance of a national tragedy hence the problem demands consideration from the standpoint of conserving the nation's human resources." Mr. Land said these new flexible farm lease forms which will soon be on file in his office will be made available to every landowner and tenant farmer in this country.

CHURCH OF CHRIST H. V. Crumley, Minister

"Ourselves, Then Others," will be the sermon subject for the Eleven o'clock worship hour. Ourselves, Then Others, is the divine order that God has given. One must edify oneself before he can edify others. Remove the beam in thy own eye, says the Master, then you can remove the mote in thy brother's eye. One must be saved before he can save others. One must have a knowledge of the truth before he can teach others. When thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren, said the Christ to Peter. True, then is the statement, "Ourselves, Then Others." Hear this discussion Sunday Morning.

Home For Dependent Children Is Offered

W. A. Zischang, superintendent of the Children's Home in Amarillo was in Clarendon last week and conferred with County Judge S. W. Lowe, County Attorney R. Y. King and Rev. R. S. McKee pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and offered the services of the home to certain dependent or neglected children which may be brought to his attention by citizens of Clarendon or of this county.

Some of the interesting things brought out by the superintendent included, that although the home is known as the Presbyterian Home for children there is not a child in the home that comes from a Presbyterian family. The former superintendent, Rev. Ervin was a Methodist minister and active as such until his death. The present superintendent was an active minister of another denomination before he came to the plains country two years ago.

On the board of trustees of the home are two Catholics and two non-church members. The home is conducted to meet the needs of the Panhandle and plains counties by providing a home for dependent, neglected, deserted and orphaned children regardless of class or creed.

There are now 42 children in the home.
R. H. Givens of Oklahoma City is employed as mortician at the Buntin Funeral Home this week in the absence of L. T. Burton, Jr., who is attending a convention of state funeral directors at San Antonio.

Ardis Patmar Is Signally Honored

Ardis Patman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patman, and senior at West Texas State College at Canyon, will be the first to have his name engraved on the Epsilon Beta plaque for outstanding scholarship, leadership and service to the college.

He is president of the Spanish Club, and was president of Stafford Hall last semester. He is also a member of Tri Tau, a social club.

Convention Lowers Lions' Attendance

Attendance at the regular weekly meeting of the Clarendon Lions Club Tuesday was somewhat depleted due to 12 members being in attendance at the convention of District 2-T at Lubbock, Monday and Tuesday.

In the absence of H. T. Burton, president, Vice President W. H. Patrick presided.

Odos Caraway reported to the club that the school cafeteria, a project started by the club, would need approximately $50 to finish the season. He said the required amount was covered by pledges.

Report of the year's activities, as prepared for the Lubbock convention, was read. McHenry Lane reported that framed Moral Codes had been placed in all schools of the county and chairman C. J. Douglas explained the Major Activities Committee's duties.

The addition of several registered bulls and cows to Donley county dairy herds as a result of several farmers attending the dairy show at Plainview recently, was the report brought by J. R. Gilham.

There Is Always Worship Fellowship—Service

Quality and efficiency are characteristics which seem to occupy the thinking of people in many walks of life today. Better cattle, hogs, horses, chickens, cotton, corn, education, living conditions, transportation and organization all are prominent and primary in the world's program. It is well enough. No fault to be found in such forward looking. Progress is made in such program in the material world. However, such progress will not reach its climax unless the people seek to improve the quality and efficiency of childhood and the youth of the land, who tomorrow will be in places of leadership and responsibility. Christ taught that the life of a child was of much more value than the life of a sheep. Investing in life and improving life, the life of humanity, was uppermost in the teachings of the giver of all life. Your church seeks to carry on such programs. Failure to follow Christ in things spiritual will mean final failure in things material. Let us, all of us, place first emphasis upon the characteristics which will improve the quality and efficiency of our children.

Adam Risley escaped serious injury last Thursday night when the car in which he was riding overturned on Highway 88 just south of the river crossing.

Mr. Risley was coming to Clarendon and was forced to step on his brakes when a truck in front of him suddenly slowed down. The quick action on the brakes caused one side to grab causing the car to be overturned. The car came to a stop right side up, with little damage sustained.

Soil Conserving Method Profitable

Two of the most popular methods of carrying out units under the Soil Conservation Program for 1938 in order to receive money for the soil building practices will be contouring and terracing and strip cropping, H. M. Breedlove, county agent said this week.

Soil conserving acres for 1938 will be paid at the rate of 50 cents an acre. The number of units required to receive this 50 cents an acre can be determined by multiplying the total of the rented acres by 50 cents and then multiplying the sum of money by two-thirds, which will give the number of units required to receive the 50 cents an acre.

Terracing is rated at 200 linear feet for one unit. Every four acres of strip cropping land on the farm will count as one unit, and every eight acres of contouring land will count as one unit. Various other phases of the soil conserving practices will be carried out on the farm in order to obtain the required units.

Quality and efficiency are characteristics which seem to occupy the thinking of people in many walks of life today. Better cattle, hogs, horses, chickens, cotton, corn, education, living conditions, transportation and organization all are prominent and primary in the world's program. It is well enough. No fault to be found in such forward looking. Progress is made in such program in the material world. However, such progress will not reach its climax unless the people seek to improve the quality and efficiency of childhood and the youth of the land, who tomorrow will be in places of leadership and responsibility. Christ taught that the life of a child was of much more value than the life of a sheep. Investing in life and improving life, the life of humanity, was uppermost in the teachings of the giver of all life. Your church seeks to carry on such programs. Failure to follow Christ in things spiritual will mean final failure in things material. Let us, all of us, place first emphasis upon the characteristics which will improve the quality and efficiency of our children.

CAR OVERTURNS WHEN TRUCK IN FRONT SLOWS DOWN HERE THURSDAY

Adam Risley escaped serious injury last Thursday night when the car in which he was riding overturned on Highway 88 just south of the river crossing.

Mr. Risley was coming to Clarendon and was forced to step on his brakes when a truck in front of him suddenly slowed down. The quick action on the brakes caused one side to grab causing the car to be overturned. The car came to a stop right side up, with little damage sustained.

Mrs. Ruth Teat and Miss Mantie Graves will leave Sunday for El Paso to attend the graduating exercises at the Loreta School where Miss Jean Teat is graduating from high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hilliard of Childress visited her mother, Mrs. R. M. Morris, Sunday. Because of the illness of Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Hilliard remained a few days.
