UNION SERVICE AS WELCOME TO NEW MINISTER

UNION SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING AT METHODIST CHURCH HEARS MILLER

As a formal welcome to Rev. M. M. Miller, recently moved here from Plain Dealing, La., as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, the pastors' association of the city arranged a union service Sunday evening at the Methodist Church, where he was presented for the message of the hour.

Rev. H. C. Gordon, host pastor, presided, and introduced Rev. Perry King, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who made a welcoming address to the new minister, conveying the hearty good wishes of the churches and the citizenship in his work here. Mrs. Miller was also presented.

The Rev. Mr. Marshall Miller made a brief response and preached a thoughtful sermon on the text, "Sirs, we would see Jesus." Singers from the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches were in the choir and sang Snelling's arrangement of the Pilgrim's Chorus, from Thannhauser, "Rejoice and Sing."

DISTRICT COURT PASSED ANOTHER QUIET WEEK

SUSPENDED SENTENCE ASSESSED, ONE CIVIL CASE DISMISSED

W. S. Scivally, 54, was given a two-year suspended sentence by Judge A. S. Moss Monday to mark the only major case as another light week of district court was completed.

A civil suit, styled Mrs. Lucille Hill vs. Donley County, was dismissed by Judge Moss. In the petition Mrs. Hill charged her farm land was damaged by water caused by road grading. The suit was over one year old.

A special venire of fifty names has been drawn for Monday of next week as the state prepares to bring Joe Dean of Hedley to trial on a statutory charge. The charge carries the death penalty.

The grand jury will be recalled November 2 and will consider a burglary charge against three Mexicans who allegedly burglarized the farm home of M. W. Mosely near Hedley.

THEFT OF FEED REPORTED BY HEDLEY FARMER

Frank Jones of Hedley yesterday morning reported to officers of the sheriff's department that thieves had taken about a ton of meal, three sacks of cottonseed meal and cottonseed cake. Jones said he noticed the theft when looking for the sacks of feed he had stored in a barn the night before.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson spent the week-end in Spurr, visiting relatives.

The Donley County youth grossed approximately $200 on the calf. He received about $70 in premium money and sold the calf for 14 1-2 cents.

Donley County "Better Swine" Program Marches On As F. F. A. Boys Add State Fair Winners

Climaxing a swine improvement program started by the Clarendon F. F. A. members three years ago, representatives of the Clarendon group returned from the State Fair, Dallas, last weekend with a total of $495 in premium money on 91 head of pigs entered in the show.

The local chapter won 35 per cent of all the premium money offered in the club division of the fair and the loan's share of the premium offered in open competition.

The present swine program started in 1937 with the arrival of J. R. Gillham as instructor of the local vocational agricultural department in the schools. Eight registered sows and gilts used in the spring of 1937 have grown in numbers until the fifty chapter members now have sixty-five head of registered sows and gilts. In addition to the females, the chapter owns and cares for six registered boars, all of which have been bought cooperatively.

There are thirty-five registered Hampshires, twenty-two registered Poland Chinas, and eight registered Duroc sows and gilts in the present female group. The majority of the Hampshires have been acquired from the E. S. Ballew farm. The Polands have been secured from the John Adams and the Tierra Blanca hog farms and the Duroc Jerseys from the Texas A. & M. C. experiment station.

Self-feeding and pastures are featured with home grown grain in the chapter's feeding program. Forty-two self feeders are in use and forty-one pastures were obtained in 1939 to fatten out 500 pigs. Rations of grain cottonseed meal, alfalfa and tankage played an important part in the feeding.

The local youths have won extensively in the 1938 and 1939 Amarillo Fairs and Stock Shows, the 1939 Fort Worth Stock Show, and the 1938 and 1939 Dallas State Fair. The following is a list of premiums won at the 1939 State Fair.

According to information from the area office, the local chapter is one of the few in this section of the state to have 100 per cent participation in these activities.

LIONS CLUB IN GREETINGS TO REV. MILLER

NEW PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER PROVES TO BE ACTIVE LION MEMBER

Members of the Clarendon Lions Club found at their regular Tuesday luncheon at the Hotel Clarendon, that Rev. M. M. Miller, newly arrived pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, from Louisiana, was an active Lion, having been a member of the Plain Dealing, La., Lions Club, where he was Presbyterian pastor. Program - Chairman - of the Month, H. T. Burton introduced Rev. Miller, who told two humorous stories about what had been said to him when it became known in Louisiana that he was moving to the Panhandle of Texas. Rev. Miller gave interesting side-lights of the work of his Lions Club in Louisiana and voiced hope that he might be a part of the humanitarian work sponsored by the local club, along with all the other religious work of the community.

Lion Burton gave some interesting data on the approaching "Navy Day", and outlined the objectives of the Navy clubs of America in seeking to promote an equal strength navy in the Atlantic to that we now maintain in the Pacific, declaring that the peace and security of America lies in its power to control the seas adjacent to our coast-line.

The club gave a rousing standing cheer for Lion John Gillham and the work done by the local FFA and 4-H club boys under his and Lion Breedlove's direction in the recent notable winnings at the Fair of Texas and the national stock show at Kansas City. Lion Gillham responded by some interesting details of the achievements of the boys, who won heavily in honors and cash prizes at the two big shows. The football games of the Bronchos and the Junior Hi-teams against McLean and Groom on Friday and Thursday evenings, respectively were announced and full support invited.

Clarendon High School Broncs Take Conference Thriller Over Wellington 'Rockets, 25 to 19

A battling band of Bronchos rose to great heights Friday night to take a 25 to 19 3-A conference game from the Wellington Skyrockets on Powell Field in Wellington.

The Bronchos struck with devastating swiftness and before the gala crowd was settled comfortably diminutive Bob McWhorter picked a lateral pass from off the finger-tips of intended Moulton and scampered for six points.

With the frenzied fans still limp from the stunning play, the Bronchos wasted no time in running over a second touchdown and the first quarter ended with Clarendon 12, Wellington 0.

Slight Johnny Grady, playing the game of his life, took personal charge of Clarendon's scoring. It was Grady that skipped over for the second touchdown from the two-yard line. It was Grady again in the third and then in the fourth for the winning six points.

Following Boyd Williams' touchdown, just on a kickoff in the second quarter, the Rockets gave the Clarendon fans an anxious moment when they tied the score in the third and fourth frame. In the third Williams dropped back and tossed a pass to Stafford who crossed over from the 29. Williams hit the line for the extra point and the score of 19 to 13 was posted.

The Rockets knotted the count in the final period with Williams again passing Stafford for the counter.

Outside of Grady's spectacular play, the entire Clarendon eleven comes in for stardom. Time and again the Bronchos rugged forward wall hacked the Rocket defense to shreds or smothered a Wellington play before it could get started. The backs leading the play for the Pony ball lugging were also doing a fine job.

In the way of official figures the summary shows that Clarendon outgained Wellington with ground plays by 223 yards to ninety-one. They piled up thirteen first downs against the Rockets six.

Score by periods:
Clarendon ----- 12 7 0 6 25
Wellington ----- 0 6 13 0 19

The lineup:
Clarendon - McWhorter and Spier, ends; Lumpkin and Hermsmeyer, tackles; Bulls and Gibbs, guards; Huffman, center; Hartzog, quarterback; Morrow and Grady, halfbacks; Allison, fullback.

Wellington - Stafford and Moulton, ends; Belw and White, tackles; Cox and Bryan Williams, guards; Brewer, center; Boyd Williams, quarterback; Harper and Smith, halfbacks; Ingram, fullback.

Clarendon substitutes: Melton, B. Grehar, R. Grehar, Gordon, Johnson.

GAME BIRDS INCREASE IN CLARENDON AREA

Game birds are on the increase in this region, according to Capt. Austin O'Neal, state game warden, who said quail and prairie chicken are numerous in certain sections of the county. In a recent survey here he said that the white tail deer had recently drifted to the embankments of Salt Fork along the Donley County line.

A few Black Tail deer recently observed in Palo Duro Canyon are a surviving remnant of the original frontier stock, according to O'Neal.

Ducks, which are now numerous on the plains should be plentiful here after the first cold snap, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tomb of Sweetwater are here visiting, today.

Curtis Cryer and Ruel Smith of McLean visited in Clarendon Monday.

FIRING A VALUABLE PUBLIC SERVANT—AND STRAWS IN THE WIND

Last week's firing of Olin Culberson, director of the gas utilities division of the Texas Railroad Commission by Jerry Sadler and Lon A. Smith, has lost to Texas one of the most courageous and efficient public servants it has had in the past decade.

In his tenure of office Culberson has effected rate savings of half a million dollars a year to Texas consumers, with refunds of nearly $200,000. More than that if the state wins the suits prepared by him and now pending in the courts, annual rate savings will exceed $1,000,000, and refunds will total $3,000,000. Clarendon is only one of many Texas cities that will benefit by rate savings and refunds in this last class.

It is significant that Ernest Thompson knew nothing of the ouster of Culberson until he read in the daily press of his pre-emptory removal by Sadler and Smith. Sadler was the prime mover in the unceremonious firing of Culberson and when asked why Culberson was fired, Sadler said:

"He was dismissed for failing to carry out the Commission's orders that he take action against United Gas Company and others. They have been singling out Lone Star Gas and a few others, but what we want is justice for everyone."

Checking of the Commission's own records show that Culberson has been cooperating with Clarendon and other West Texas cities for more than a year in a drive to force rate reductions from United Gas Company and on August 24, 1939, Culberson's engineers and auditors began a thorough audit of United book in Houston.

More than that, records show that no action has been taken against Lone Star Gas Company by Culberson's division this year.

In his drive for lower gas rates, Culberson had earned the enmity of Lone Star Gas Company and others, and they were glad to see him ousted. Observers wondered if the utility question, as demonstrated by the Culberson incident, might not rise to plague Commissioners Smith and Sadler in their respective races for re-election and for governor next summer.

Clarendon folk, after having observed Culberson in action have no illusions as to why he got the gate. His devotion to the people's interest is too apparent.

The News predicts that before many months Texas is likely to be shamed by developments resembling those in Louisiana, and in our opinion the action of Sadler and Smith is the opening wedge which will bring rapid focus to a chain of happenings that will give the state two new members on the commission in next year's primaries and election.

GIVE YOUNG OFFENDERS ANOTHER CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD

The News editor ran across an intimate little bit of reminiscence of former State Senator Claude Westerfeld of Dallas, who was a prosecuting attorney before he gained the upper house of the legislature. There is so much milk of human kindness, love and understanding of youthful humanity in it that we want to present it for the thought and consideration of our readers:

The colorful senator has a vast impatience with the law, dating back to county attorney days. "You have a fellow come in charged with carrying a pistol and you know he has been in eight times before, but you can't convict him, while some poor devil charged with something not half as bad hasn't got a chance.

"I got so I wouldn't prosecute a lot of 'em; believed in giving 'em a second chance. There was a kid once brought in for stealing bicycles; he'd stolen 28 bicycles. Couldn't have been more than 16 because he still had on knee pants; kids wore knee pants then until they were at least 16. Don't know why he picked on bicycles except that he once was a messenger boy and rode one all the time.

"I took him into my office and talked with 'im. Told 'im I was going to give him another chance. Well, I never did see that boy again until a few days ago, on the streets of Dallas. I saw this red-headed, nicely dressed fellow staring at me. He came over and said: 'You don't know me do you?' and I said 'No,' and he said, 'I'm the boy who stole the bicycles, and you gave me another chance to make good, and I've made good and there they are,' and he waved down at three bright-looking kids with him. I tell you, that moment was worth more to me than a lot of money.

"Maybe our laws ought to be like the Chinese laws. Their code is not so unelastic as ours. The judge, if the culprit hasn't actually damaged something or somebody, tries to help the culprit out instead of sending him to prison for punishment."

A SPECTACLE SADDER THAN USUAL

At the State Fair in Dallas the other day we ran across a man whom we had known for a quarter of a century, and to our surprise noted that he was definitely under the influence of intoxicants.

Here was a man, who for nearly a half-century had been a prominent churchman and consistent Christian, and yet had fallen in recent months to the age-old fallacy that "everybody's doing it," and in the late days of middle age had turned his back on life-long principles, shaming his family, his profession, his church, and his God.

It is always a sad spectacle to see a man, created in the image of his Creator, under the influence of alcohol, but to us that was a sadder spectacle than usual, for this man had known happy, victorious days—triumphant in the living of Christian ethics, but now, in late life to have descended into the hog-pen of degrading, censuous levels.

POWERS LOANED MUST BE RETURNED

"On the horizon of public policy new controls affecting the citizen's freedom of action are beginning to appear. They will come to definite form and substance in the name of emergency. Whatever the logic for their acceptance and application, the people must see to it that when the emergency is over, on that day the temporary loan of their independence be returned to them, and in the full measure in which it was borrowed.

"Our destiny as a people transcends the plan of a political lottery ruled by administrative whim. It is still possible in this country for the citizens to determine the national interest and the commitments which will best achieve that interest. If we lose our representative government it will be because it is abandoned at home and not because of alien confiscation."—Merle Thorp.

Enlighten the people generally and tyranny and oppressions of both mind and body will vanish like evil spirits at the dawn of day.—Thomas Jefferson.

I desire to see the time when education, and by its means, morality, sobriety, enterprise and industry, shall become much more general than at present.—Abraham Lincoln.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPERS JR.

AUSTIN — The firm belief that there will be no special session of the Texas legislature was virtually unanimous among political observers here, following the visit of Lieutenant Governor Coke Stevenson, of Junction, and his statement to the press after the conference with Gov. O'Daniel. Stevenson told reporters that unless an agreed plan of taxation can be worked out in advance of a special session, it "would be a waste of time" to call the session.

Stevenson is a conservative in his legislative views, holding to much the same beliefs as the large interests which have been seeking ever since O'Daniel was inaugurated to revise the fundamental law of the land. He represented a conservative constituency, made up of large ranch owners while in the House. He believes in a sales tax, and his strenuous runoff campaign against P. Pierce Brooks, the large interests of the state which have sought to replace ad valorem state taxes with a sales tax, came loyally to Stevenson's aid. Governor O'Daniel endorsed Stevenson, and the belief of many observers here is that the endorsement was a major factor in Stevenson's election.

There is some disposition to wonder, however, how the Lieutenant Governor, who is an able lawyer and a real authority on the Texas constitution, can consistently advocate that the legislators abrogate their constitutional oath of office, waive their rights as law makers, and commit themselves blindly in advance to a taxation bill proposed by the chief executive. Observers feel reasonably certain that a majority of neither house nor senate will do so. The logical step then, for O'Daniel, is to announce this fact, declare he cannot get the legislators to agree, and refuse to call a session. The political strategy of such a course is good. The vast majority of laymen do not understand the legal separation of the functions of the executive and the legislative branches. They do not know that the legislators are supreme in matters of taxation, and that the constitution inhibits any such subversive course as O'Daniel requests, even if they were willing to accede to his request.

Freight Rate Action
Jerry Mann, the triple threat Attorney General, scored another large gain for the farmers of Texas, unless the courts later declare the play offside, when he filed suit against eleven rice milling concerns, charging violation of the state's anti-trust laws. Mann accuses the rice millers of collusive buying and price fixing in their purchase of rice from producers. He asks penalties ranging from a minimum of $863,000 to a maximum of $25,905,000, but did not seek cancellation of charters. His staff worked two months gathering evidence of the alleged conspiracy, Mann declared.

Cotten Takes Gas Post
Senator Clay Cotten of Palestine, announced he will accept appointment as chief of the gas utilities division of the Railroad Commission, tendered by Commissioners Lon Smith and Jerry Sadler, after they had summarily fired Olin Culberson, who has held the post since 1933. Sadler declared Culberson was discharged because he failed to file rate reduction suits against the United Gas System. Culberson cited the record to show that United had accepted rate reductions ordered by the Commission without litigation, and had settled many individual rate controversies with city councils. Cotten will resign from the Senate. The appointment pays $5,000 a year, and will probably take Cotten out of the race against Judge Tom Beauchamp of the Court of Criminal Appeals, named last week by Gov. O'Daniel to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Morrow who resigned. It is likely however, that Beauchamp will have other opponents, including Lloyd Davidson, state prosecutor before the highest criminal court.

A. C. A. OFFICE PREPARING '39 APPLICATIONS

By HAROLD LEACH
A. C. A. Secretary

The county A. C. A. office is preparing at the present time to begin signing applications for 1939 Agricultural Conservation payments within the near future. Considerable work is necessary before signatures can be accepted but in all probability we will be ready to begin accepting signatures within the next few days.

You will notice that this is beginning some two months earlier than in the past which will make it possible for payments to be received in the county considerably earlier. Although Parity payments were made at a very rapid rate by the State Office this year, we cannot expect our Conservation payments to be made at this rapid rate due to the fact that a great deal more calculation is necessary in regard to Conservation payments before they can be paid.

At the present time only applications on those farms which have carried out enough Soil Building practices to earn 100 per cent payment on the farm can be submitted to the State Office. On farms where all the Soil Building practices have not been carried out or will not be carried out in 1939, the applications must be held until a later date. A report on the Soil Building practice that you have earned on your farm in 1939 will be mailed to you from the County Office just as soon as possible and your prompt attention to the report asked for in our letter will enable us to complete the calculation and checking on your farm and thereby, assist us in preparing your application for submission to the State office at an earlier date.

You will be notified as soon as the application on your farm is ready for your signature and we will appreciate your signing as soon as possible. Please bear in mind that these applications cannot all be prepared at the same time and the fact that your neighbor receives a notice that his application is ready for signature does not mean that your application is ready also. If you have any question regarding the completion of Soil Building practices on your farm for this year, we will be glad to assist you in working out this problem any time it is convenient for you to come to the office. These applications will be prepared and submitted just as rapidly as possible and your cooperation and attention to notices received from time to time will be greatly appreciated.

The Low Down FROM HICKORY GROVE

Some good comes out of just about everything. And this moss across the Ocean, it is clarifying the air.

And some Professors, and others, who have been expounding and riling up the waters about the difference between Nazism and other isms, they can fold up their tents, since Germany and Russia climbed into bed, together. There is no wind left for their sails—and that is a break for the U. S. A.

But if I happened to be a blood-purger of the Berlin or Moscow species—not just a political purger—I would hang my holster on the bed-post, before crawling in with the other duck.

When you get right down under the epidermis of the ism guys, you will find the same kind of person, no difference which ism he brays about. The only important plank in his own personal platform, it is how to stay in office—and on the P.P.R.—and P. P. R. means public payroll.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

TEXAS TURKEYS LEAD NATIONS IN PRODUCTION

OVER $6,800,000 EARNED
ON 3,285,000 BIRDS
DURING 1938 SEASON
ON 3,285,000 BIRDS

COLLEGE STATION, — for the past 30 years Texas has led the nation in total production of turkeys.

At the same time, in 1938 Texas' 3,285,000 turkeys returned $6,800,000 or $2.09 each, while California's sale of 2,625,000 brought $8,348,000, or an average of $3.19. The average 1938 United States price was $2.75 per bird.

On the basis of these figures, recently released by the American Institute of Poultry Industries, A. H. Demke, executive secretary.

In it is depicted the adventure and romance of building civilization on the world's frontiers and of taking comfort and aid to America's own benighted and underprivileged. While the episodes deal particularly with the heroes of the Baptist and Methodist churches,—"Heralds of Destiny" stories are typical of the experiences of missionaries of any denomination.

The series, presented by the radio station on a sustaining basis, was inaugurated in 1937 by the Methodist church agency. This year, the Northern Baptist Convention accepted the invitation to join in the sponsorship, thus adding a wealth of material to the store from which material is drawn and increasing two-fold the interest in the series.

Secretary of the Texas Poultry Federation, has estimated that Texas turkeys are penalized from 4 to 6 cents a pound on eastern markets. The aggregate penalty amounts to between two and three and a half million dollars a year.

Texas turkey growers began an improvement campaign in 1930 that is gradually bringing results. Prior to that time little attention was given to feeding and breeding programs.

Turkey demonstrators are following the recommendations of Geo. P. McCarthy, poultry husbandman of the Texas A. and M. Extension Service, and are selecting their breeding flocks now.

The most fully developed birds, and those that show the most desirable type, are being separated from the market birds and fed a developing feed rather than a fattening ration.

County agricultural and home demonstration agents have been trained in the selection of breeding flocks and their services are available to turkey growers.

AAA CHECKS TO REACH PRODUCERS EARLIER

COLLEGE STATION, — A new payment process which will speed up delivery of checks 60 to 90 days and stimulate soil - building operations under the AAA farm program was announced here this week.

The new arrangement will apply to 1939 conservation payments, scheduled to start flowing to approximately 600,000 Texas farmers and ranchmen about October 20, B. F. Vance, assistant state AAA administrator, said.

DOCTOR OUTLINES HOW TO PREVENT DIPHTHERIA

1279 CHILDREN VICTIMS OF DISEASE DURING
LAST FOUR YEARS

AUSTIN — One preventable disease, diphtheria, has been responsible for 1,279 deaths in Texas during the past four years, according to the records of the Texas State Department of Health. The majority of these deaths were among children, less than four years old, and were all preventable had these children been properly immunized to contracting the disease.

Prevention of diphtheria in children is a simple matter of inoculation with toxoid. If your child is six months old or more, take him to your family physician and have diphtheria toxoid administered. The technique of inoculation causes the child no discomfort. In approximately 90 per cent of children receiving toxoid, there will be established a lifetime immunity to the disease.

To be sure that this immunity has been established in your child, six months after the first dose of toxoid, he should be taken to the physician to be Schick tested to determine his positive immunity against diphtheria. The test consists of injecting a few drops of diphtheria toxin between the layers of the skin. If the child is immune no reaction will be noted. If not, there will appear some redness at the site of injection in three or four days.

Increased education of the general public on the importance of diphtheria inoculation has resulted in decreased death from diphtheria. Year by year mortality from diphtheria is decreasing, as witness the fact in Texas 457 children died of diphtheria in 1935; 351 in 1936; 238 in 1937; and 233 in 1938.

You can help the Texas Department of Health attain its goal of not one death a year from diphtheria, and protect loved ones by seeing that they are immunized at once.

An equal menace to safety is the drinking pedes who staggers into traffic and keeps a rendezvous with death.

NOTICE: A program will be shown at the Cozy each Thursday and Friday for the next several weeks.

"After all," says Ann, "a girl cannot ignore such attention." Eighty per cent of Ann's fan mail is from high school boys and girls or from those of high school age. They represent a solid front and rarely miss one of her pictures. To the boys, she is the ideal girl. Many allow their enthusiasm to run rampant. Some have asked her to marry them when they grow up. To the girls, Ann represents a model that they try to copy. Hairdress, some new fashion or mannerism are adopted and emulated by them. All this they admit in their letters to her. And Ann is just as loyal to them. "I want to play high school girls as long as I can," she says. "The kids are so loyal and appreciative that I feel I have an obligation to them. While I fall in love with a college boy in 'These Glamour Girls' it is more of an adolescent love for an older man. I don't think it will interfere with my first love—Andy Hardy."

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Our copy of "The Rains Came" by Louis Bromfield has been very much in demand lately because of the showing this week of the Zanuck production of his story. Several other Bromfield stories are on our shelves. And we have been interested in the fact that Dale Carnegie, author of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" is to be in Amarillo soon. Mr. Carnegie has just returned from a trip to the Orient, having sailed July 10 and returned September 20. He visited Japan, Manchuria, China and Korea, and was warmly received as a great exponent of friendship. He says he saw little evidence of actual warfare — that foreign news men are banned from war areas. His book has been read and appreciated by many of our readers. From the Press we learn that Hitler's "Mein Kampf" is still being sold in England in spite of the war, but that the publishers have announced their intention of giving all the author's royalties from the sale of the book to the British Red Cross Society during the war. But from the Press, also, we learn that Hitler has already received $821,500 royalty on it. The report comes that libraries on wheels may soon be substituted for the sixty-one sub-stations in drug stores and similar places. Large air-conditioned trailers, each with a capacity of 2,000 books would visit sections

Serving Sectioned Apples

By BETTY BARCLAY

Apples can now be cored and sliced by a single motion, through a new stainless steel kitchen utensil. Serving these sectioned apples to guests adds a thoughtful (and novel) touch to the apples-and-popcorn evening at home. To give a very festive air, a tray of sectioned red-skinned apples can be arranged, flanked by wedges of cheese, popcorn or popcorn balls, salt wafers, or nuts. Just a tip: sprinkling lemon juice on the cut apples will prevent discoloration. Of primary importance, of course, is the convenience of the slicer "gadgets" for everyday usage, as it expedites the preparation of apples for sauce, pies, and all recipes calling for apples. This utensil is available through leading grocery stores, who offer it for a very nominal sum with purchases of certain outstanding brands of Pacific Northwest apples. Women who already have slicers are getting them for friends as gifts. Many recipes utilize the slicer-cut apples (cut in eighths) without further slicing. A couple such recipes follow:

Apple-Carrot Casserole
Cook carrots, that have been sliced once lengthwise, until nearly done. Remove water and place with slicer-cut apples in a buttered casserole. Sprinkle about a tablespoon of brown sugar over the top; dot with butter. Bake in moderate oven until apples are tender and sugar has melted through.

Apple-Oatmeal Breakfast Dish
Cook slicer-cut apples in syrup made by boiling one cup sugar with one and one-half cup water for five minutes. Drain, and mix apples into hot cooked oatmeal. Serve with cream and sugar.

Fried Sausages and Apples
Fry sausages slightly. Add slicer-cut apples and fry a few minutes, until brown and tender. Remove sausages, and add one heaping tablespoon of brown sugar for each apple used. Baste apples with syrup formed in pan, and serve with sausages.

of the city one day each week. A trained librarian and assistants would compose the staff on each. Denver and some other cities have tried the plan and report it less expensive than some other plans.

"Write poetry and feel better," advises Miss Elizabeth Reynard, assistant professor of English at Barnard College. She says the therapeutic value of writing poetry has been proven among patients suffering from heart trouble, tuberculosis, and other ailments. Sounds interesting, doesn't it?

Carl Sandberg, poet, Major General Frank R. McCoy, U. S. A., retired, and Dr. George Washington Carver, Negro agricultural Chemist are the 1939 recipients of the Roosevelt medals, to be awarded on Theodore Roosevelt's birthday, October 27th. Dr. Geo. W. Carver is the son of slave parents but has devoted his life to helping the South through its peanut and sweet potato crops. From the common peanut he produced 250 useful products, from face powder and cheese to axle grease and an infantile paralysis medicine. And from the sweet potato he made 118 useful products — this Negro man who is a professor in Tuskegee Institute. We find ourselves interested in the fact that Carl Sandberg won the award as a poet, but more interested in the achievements of George W. Carver.

Again we find that the Amarillo Association for Childhood Education is sponsoring the Grove Tree Major plays for children. This time they will present "Rip Van Winkle."

Word has been given out that the world premiere of "Gone With the Wind" has been set for December 7 in Atlanta — subject to change. Also that of the 700 oral passages in the script of "The Grapes of Wrath," 650 are lifted straight from the Steinbeck story without change — according to Munnally Johnston, who adopted the story. He said the fifty changes were necessary because of censorship, lapses of time and condensation. Our copy of the book has a waiting list. In a report of the week's ten best sellers from Chicago, New York and San Francisco the first on the list was "Grapes of Wrath," with "Escape" by Ethel Vance second, while in New York the position of the two was just reversed. "Inside Asia" by John Gunther, and "County Lawyer" by Bellamy Partridge led in the non-fiction.

Since beginning my notes the news has come of the death of Zane Grey, at his home in a suburb of Pasadena, California. I think one might safely say that Zane Grey was the best known author in the U. S. I have often remarked in the library that a good many people didn't know that any one but Zane Grey wrote books. Most of his books are on our shelves and most of based on the life of the pioneer Ohio figure to whom he was related. Before this he had written fishing stories for Field and Stream. He had never lost his interest in fishing, and spent half of each year aboard his yacht, The Fisherman, one of the most elaborate pleasure-crafts in the world. He did most of his writing on the yacht, writing in longhand at the amazing rate of 100,000 words a month, leaving the revision to his wife. More than 17,000,000 copies of his books have been sold. Although his writings had made him a millionaire yet he cared little about the business side of his work, leaving all that, too, to his wife. He is survived by three children, two sons and a daughter, Betty, whose marriage at Catalina Island took place only a few years ago. The Viking Press reports that 177,000 copies of Carl Van Corman's Pulitzer Prize biography, "Benjamin Franklin," have been sold in this first year of its publication. It is reported that John Steinbeck is visiting in New York and while there he plans to write a series of three articles on "Unemployment; Its Cause and Possible Steps for its Alleviation." The series will be brought out by some magazine and later in book form.

We have a few new books — including "The Grapes of Wrath," by Steinbeck, "The Sound and the Fury" by T. S. Stribling, "Samuel Pepy's Diary," "The Way of All Flesh" by Samuel Butler, and Kipling's "Kim."

Launched in 1937 with University and Rockefeller grant money, The University of Texas Bureau of Research in the Social Sciences has conducted 67 surveys in social science, ranging from archaeological studies and county government surveys to research in Texas history and studies of Texas prison management.

Random Reflections

By DICK COOKE

You have no doubt read "Punch Brother Punch" by Mark Twain. It's a story about a jingle that once heard would stay in one's mind until recited to someone else.

The Clarendon Band Mothers have thought up something worse than that. That is it's hard on one mentally but probably it will be right nice lucrative.

Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain originated it here and it goes something like this:

Twenty band mothers each invite four ladies to go some place to coffee, bridge or something. These three persons must pay 10 cents for the entertainment then invite three other ladies to something else and for 10 cents she may have a good time and then invite one. We've been figuring all week and our paper wouldn't get 60 in any class. However, it's supposed to net the band about $130 and I do hope they make the right answer public when the money is counted.

Saw an old friend, Preach Goldston, the other day and the former Clarendonite said he was "hard rock mining" up around Bisbee way. After trying to dig a living out of Donley County soil for many years, Preach declared he was fully qualified to knock the gold out of any kind of quartz.

Another Clarendon boy that is climbing the ladder of success is Dr. Wade Youngblood of Stamford. His picture and a story in the Sunday Wichita Times tell us that Youngblood, president of the Stamford Exchange club, was recently named a member of the board of control of the Texas Exchange clubs. Dr. Youngblood received the honor of the state convention in Beaumont. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Youngblood now living in Hall County.

No man who was in childhood ten or twenty years ago read of the death of Zane Grey without deep regret. Grey, who failed miserably as a professional man in early life, took us on many entertaining and exciting outings over the great western country. Probably his greatest book, "Riders of the Purple Sage" was thumbed threadbare by many rapt youngsters.

All children between the ages of 7 and 16, inclusive, must enter school Monday and stay there for the next consecutive 120 days, the Clarendon independent school board announced this week.

The compulsory attendance was announced to comply with the state law.

Not all of Donley County cotton is below par, according to County Judge R. Y. King who recounted yesterday a field with stalks from 37 to 40 bolls the size of small peaches. Conservatively, the judge estimated, the field will produce at least a bale to the acre. It is the Calhoun farm near the Collingsworth County line and is tenanted by Oma Hill.

Wesley Carroll, flying over California in an effort to surpass the 30-day world's endurance record, is a native of Clarendon. He is the brother of T. W. Carroll, prominent Clarendon physician, who was killed in an automobile accident here several years ago. Mrs. Kate B. Carroll, his mother, resides in California as does two other brothers and a sister. Another brother, George, lives in Gainesville. Should young Carroll remain aloft until Thursday night, they will have been flying one month.

B. B. Hill and daughter, Billie spent the first part of this week in Lubbock, visiting friends.

Miss Dorothy Jo Taylor of Pampa spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor.

METHODIST NOTES Clarendon Circuit

Our Quarterly Conference at Lelia Lake Sunday was a success. Superintendent Palmer brought us a timely message at 11 o'clock. The attendance was good. Several visitors from other points on the work. Then showing a common interest in the whole circuit as well as our own home church. The lunch at noon proved to more than a lunch. It was a real feast. Lelia Lake people in church work some times have the aspect of dry bones; but when it comes to furnishing eats they are very much alive. In Romans 12:20: "If thine enemy hunger, feed him"; and 1 Peter 2:1, "Feed the Flock of God." Suppose the conditional clause "If hungry" should be supplied in the last quotation. The flock acted, from District Superintendent on down to the least of us, just like it must have been a hungry flock. Many thanks to the Lelia Lake people.

Their financial report was good also. All points to beginning of a Spiritual recovery. May the Lord add His blessings to the movement. All churches represented had good financial reports. We hope the churches not represented will soon report finances paid in full.

Our assessment on Benevolence has been met. The full amount is in the hands of pastor now. We have always thought the assessment was meager; and we are hoping that before we are off to the Conference that the ones who have not paid will see the need of helping to make an addition to this amount.

It has been the easiest matter to raise this budget that I have ever had. Our people have great big hearts. We want to be able to stand at the Conference and look the Bishop in the face and read loud enough for everyone to hear: "All assessment of the Clarendon Circuit paid in full."

Next Sunday we go to McKnight, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Part of the morning hour will be given to program to be rendered by leaders and friends of the church. Be there; you will enjoy it. Call around and see us in the parsonage home on the hill.

MARTIN SCHOOL PARTY AND CARNIVAL MONDAY NIGHT

The date for the carnival and social party at the Martin school has been set for Monday night due to conflicting events, it was announced this week.

Entertainment will include bingo, dominoes, fortune telling and games for children, the arrangement committee said.

Coffee, pumpkin pie and sandwiches will be served and everyone is cordially invited, the announcement concluded.

Mrs. Robert Linder of Floydada is visiting here this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell.

Bowling League In Full Swing

The Bowling Alley Rats, Parsons Brothers and The Clarendon Hatchery bowling league settled down to grinding this week.

The Rats, although standing no better in the percentage column, are out in front with three games won while Parsons and the chick raisers have played only one league game each.

The Standing: (Does not include last night).

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Alley Rats	3	0	1,000
Parson's Bros.	1	0	1,000
Hatchery	1	0	1,000
Mellinger	1	2	337
Texaco	0	2	000
Whitlock's	0	2	000

The Alley Rats have victories over Mellinger and Rosenwasser, and Texaco; Mellinger's won over Whitlock's Barber Shop. The Clarendon Hatchers beat Mellinger and Rosenwasser.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lamb and daughter, Brownie Nan, of Wellington, visited here with Mrs. Lamb's sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Duncan, Sunday. In the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and the Lamb family motored to Amarillo for a visit.

Sam M. Braswell was in Pampa Wednesday evening where he was the speaker at the quarterly banquet of the men of the First Methodist Church. Over a hundred men were in attendance. Dick Hughes was the toastmaster.

EARLY DAY RESIDENT VISITS CLARENDON THIS WEEK

S. J. Sibert and family of Webb City, Mo., stopped for a short visit with Jerome Stocking, one day this week. The Sibert family were on their way home from a visit to the Golden Gate Exposition. Mr. Sibert lived in Clarendon when he was a boy, moving away in 1901. This was his second trip back to Clarendon since moving away.

COLLEGE NEWS

The College classes held a meeting Friday, October 20 and elected officers for this year. The following officers were elected: Jack Reeves, president, Neel Thompson, vice president, Frances Grady, secretary and treasurer, and La Verne Goodman reporter. Definite plans are being made for the College Home Coming, November 10 and 11. This is the second annual reunion and we are expecting it to be a great success. The present college classes will give a luncheon and open house program Friday afternoon. The college execs will present the remainder of the program, during the reunion. As a climax to Friday's program we will attend the Clarendon - Memphis football game.

THE ASSEMBLY

Why do we have Assembly? If this question were asked you, what would you give for a reply? Many of us think of it only as a period set aside for us to meet in the auditorium for entertainment, while others think of it as a time when we can skip class, without having to account for ourselves later, or out of that expected exam. Why had some of us rather leave school or walk the halls than go to Assembly? We should all think of Assembly as a period of educational entertainment. Not only is it educational, but when we attend Assembly, we show a better attitude toward our school work. Assembly is one very important thing in our school work, therefore, we should all cooperate and try to make it a place where everyone will want to go. If all would take a part in this meeting and feel that he should help entertain, and not leave it for someone else, we would each show a personal interest that would help a great deal. If we would do this, it would help us to become better acquainted with the students as well as our teachers. This not only benefits the students; but when we show such an interest as this, it is deeply appreciated by the faculty. Let us insist on all students attending Assembly. We shall always find there an interesting and instructive program of vocal and instrumental music, lectures, and on occasions, addresses by ministers and prominent laymen of our city.

F. F. A. NEWS

The following F. F. A. boys attended to State Fair at Dallas, October 7th through 22nd: Wilson Rector, Horace Green, Rex Shannon, Roy Bulls, Lee Christie, Cecil Heckman, Joe Williams, Maschil Cole, Johnny Leathers, and Carl Morris.

The highlights of the trip were: Driving and weighting pigs in the rain and mud until two o'clock in the morning.

Going to bed at ten o'clock at night and getting up at four-thirty in the morning.

Waiting in the "bread-line" for the free meals furnished by the State Fair to all the F. F. A. boys.

And last but not least, we regret to report that someone appropriated Mr. Gillham's best suit without his consent, not even leaving his tie. As a result, he now has a nice new, green suit which he purchased the next morning before sun-up at one of Dallas' most exclusive suit stores.

We can assure you that the F. F. A. boys had enough things to do to keep them out of trouble. It was certainly not a pleasure trip.

The Dairy Products judging team that went from this chapter to Kansas City's National Contest as "Texas" best won second place. The three members, Johnny Leathers, Maschil Cole, and Joe Williams were among the highest ranking individuals of the contest. Cole was fifth high man; Leathers was twelfth; and Williams was fourteenth.

The team, you must remember, was competing with the best teams in the U. S. A. and it placed second. We are indeed proud of the boys.

Our hogs at the State Fair took away thirty-five per cent of the premium money for hogs in club division, amounting to $495.00. Clarendon won nine championship ribbons, including Reserved Champion pig of the show and Grand Champion pen of three.

In the National F. F. A. chapter contest we were second. We are hoping to win the Texas Swine Production Contest, which carries with it a prize of $100.00 in cash.

It won't be long now until this chapter will be staging its annual boxing tournament. We have to elect a chapter sweetheart, also, very soon. We only hope that she will be as faithful to the chapter as the retiring sweetheart, LaVerne Goodman, has been during the last year.

BRONCHO PERSONALITIES

Alton Cobb is one of the most regular and dependable members of the Broncho Squad. Alton is small, but he is plenty rough and tough. He can really hit hard. Alton is a backfield man and he is as shifty, and snake hip as anyone we have. He can really go places when he gets a grip on that old pigskin. Topping the scales at a hundred and twenty-five pounds, he is the most explosive 125 pound pack of dynamite in action. On the defense, he can break up plays with regular ease and surety. We are proud of the boys like Alton, and we have great faith in their ability and courage.

J. W. Goodman, rangy center is a great Broncho, and a man of great courage. He can always be depended on to do his best at all times. He is a one year letterman who is proving his ability each day. J. W. can center, block tackle, break up interference, or block punts with true Broncho regularity. J. W. is 5 feet 10 inches tall and tops the scales at a hundred and fifty pounds. He is a great asset to the team while on defense. He is in on every play with a bone-crushing determination. J. W. has one more year. We are going to expect great things from him next season.

IN YEARS TO COME

In looking through the news paper we find that Thad and Dorothy Nell were united in marriage and going to their exclusively decorated mansion on Long Island.

Kitty Ruth Bailey has just signed a long contract with Metropolitan Opera Co.

We find that J. D. Campbell well known mechanic, has just invented a new kind of motor, but he is still trying to trisect an angle.

Laverne Johnson is still having those sneaking ideas, and has just hit Broadway with his Hill Billy band.

Dona Adams has just made her debut as America's No. 1 glamour girl.

J. A., well known commentator, as just returned from Europe on assignment for the New York Times. He will continue his radio broadcast.

PAT AND PAM

Dear Pam:
Greetings gates - let's vacate. Don't get me wrong, I don't mean play hooky, but the blue skies and autumn leaves "shure" make it hard for anybody to concentrate.

All good things must come to an end. Any way the flame has gone out between W. J. W. and R. H. Someone has been trying to light one up again. Reckon they'll be successful?

Lost - Cordelia P's heart. If you happen to find it on main street just take it and return it to Tick B.

In the ranks of the Sophomores, rumors have been going around about Ella Gene Speed getting that funny feeling every time Beefus Grehr comes in her sight. Millard Miller does not believe in love at first sight. He believes in taking a second look.

Yours with,
Cobs of stuff and goo. Pat.

JOKES

Mr. Warden: What did you find out about the Salvary gland?
Russel G. I couldn't find a thing, Warden. They're too darn secretive.

Lewis C.: Has the joke editor got my joke yet?
Naomi M.: Not yet but he's trying hard.

THAT'S A FRIEND

And for you he'll always endeavor.

He may be dirty as a tramp
With ragged clothes on his hide,
But he shines bright as any lamp
On the great inside.

He probably isn't dressed so rich
He might not have money in gobs,
But he's with you till the last ditch
He's different from a lot of snobs.

He may be "broke" from the crash
Or he may be lousy with dough
In high society or low.

He may sleep in a lower berth
Or to the upper he may mount,
But the traits a man has in his heart
Are the ones that really count.

SENIORS, WE HOPE

Pete Morrow, vice president of the Senior class, is 5 feet 10-1/2 inches tall, weighs 150 pounds. He has dark brown hair and blue eyes. He is a hard hitting, fast, and bucking Broncho. But wait girls he has already been lassoed. The unlucky girl is Billie Ruth Bullman.

We are very proud to admit into the senior class Millard Miller from Klein Dealing, Louisiana, who has just recently moved here. We hope he likes all of us. We also wish that he could help our Bronchos buck right on into the line-up for district.

The Senior committee composed of Janior Spier, Betty Jo Caraway, Joan Smith selected from a group of about fifty styles of invitations, three styles. A class meeting was called and the class took a vote on the most popular. The one selected is a book invitation on mother of pear paper with a Bronco and the class of '40 on the front of it.

Seniors are always doing funny things, such as; Dorothy Jean has taken the air of "Yes, eight will be fine." Marjorie "Of course I'm true to you." Mary Lee Losson has taken the homey air. Don't forget she made a quick trip to Oklahoma the other day. Bud Hermsmeyer "Any wise guy can change his mind."

It was quiet a show the other day when a number of the Senior class was gathered on the front steps discussing old times. Especially when Dan mentioned something about the Froggie play. Quiet a contrast.

ASSEMBLY

Last Friday's assembly was especially entertaining because some unknown talent was disclosed to the student body.

James Earl Holt had a time reaching the high note in "Somebody Stole My Gal," but the solo and the smiles were enjoyed by all the students - especially the Sophomore girls. Frances Holt accompanied her brother.

Kitty Ruth Bailey shouldn't come to assembly with only one song, especially when she sings it the way she sang "South of the Border." We like encores, Kitty Ruth.

Nor did we know Billy Thornberry was so talented. The way he played "Beer Barrel Polka" caused some excitement.

LaVerne Johnson and Thad Lyle played some more of their snappy guitar numbers. "The World Keeps on Turning" and "Saint Louis Blues."

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

The Junior Class this week has settled down to class work as the second six weeks has started. Most of them are happy about their grades, and hope to continue their good work.

We have two new pupils who enrolled in the Junior class last week. Laverne Phillips, who attended school here last year, is back and June Miller from Louisiana has enrolled for the first time in C. H. S. We cordially welcome them to our Junior class and hope they will enjoy their year in C. H. S. as much as they have before in their previous schools.

WHOOSH

We wonder why Freddie Chamberlain refused to introduce his lovely companion to the other boys, Sunday night.

Eugene Putnam wants his gray Ford returned. "It was a date-getter," says Gene.

Noami Norris and Clyde Benton make a charming couple at dancing class.

Kitty Ruth Bailey appears to be successful. Maybe, all the girls should sing in chapel.

We wonder why LaVerne Goodman was so anxious that A. and M. defeat T. C. U. last Saturday.

Jr. Spier and Dorothy Jean Bogard have been seen together a lot lately.

Pete, that isn't a girl that you hurry to see each noon it?

CHI-DELTA-CHI

The Charter Members of the Chi-Delta-Chi met for the election of officers, Friday, October 20. There were twelve members present and they engaged in a lively election. Ethlyn Drennon was chosen as President; Forest Adanson, vice president; Frances Grady, secretary and treasurer; and Jack Reeves, reporter.

A system in which to admit new members was agreed upon. We will take a list of all college students and vote on each individual. The vote must be unanimous or the person is not admitted.

Dr. Drennan and Coach Hutto are the sponsors. A successful year is being planned, and we are confident the plans will become successful. Several plays will be presented, and socials will provide plenty of amusement.

COLTS

The Colts will go to Groom this coming Thursday night. They will try to beat Groom again. This will be their last game this season.

DO YOU KNOW--

That the first wearer of a top hat was John Hetherington, who strutted the streets of London in 1797, and created such excitement that he was arrested for disturbing the peace. The summons accused him "of wearing in a public thoroughfare a tall structure of shiny lustr, calculated to frighten timid folks."

IN OUR LIBRARY

While looking over the new books which we have in our library this year, I noticed several that haven't been off the press very long. Included in this list are the following:

Nora Wain's "Reaching for the Stars" is already one of our most popular new books because it deals with the conditions in Germany as they existed from June 1934 to 1938. Mrs. Wain lived and made friends in the Rhine Valley, Saxony, the Black Forest, Vienna, Czechoslovakia, and at Dresden. She found within the Nazi barriers, the warm and friendly German character, love of music, the forest walks, the "Gemutlichkeit" of inns and the happy and healthy family life. It was shocking to Mrs. Wain to find the great contrast between the tenderness of the German people and the blind cruelty of their national policy. "Is Germany dead, or does she lie as Snow White in a trance from eating a poisoned apple," she wondered. Mrs. Wain answered these questions without prejudice, bitterness, or malice in her book.

William Lyon Phelps' "Autobiography With Letters" gives the full flavor of Mr. Phelps extraordinary personality. He was the most popular lecturer Yale ever had. America's most popular lecturer on literature, as well as letterwriter, literary critic, authority on Browning, conversationalist, and traveler, he was truly an American institution. The autobiography is humorous, unaffected, and very delightful to read. His education seems unlimited as well as his abilities. Letters from many of his literary friends, Conrad, Galesworthy, Walpole, and Hardy are also published in his autobiography.

Margaret Halsey's "With Malice Toward Some" is a travel diary of a professor's wife, (Mrs. Halsey), who traveled in England, Paris, Norway and Sweden. She gives to us life as it really was in the small English villages - some of it calling for applause and some for malice, a quality in which Mrs. Halsey is uproariously proficient. The favorite subject for her nitric acid is the English landed gentry whom she places in woeful contrast to a class labeled by our favorite coined phrase or word, the "ungentry". We have to thank Mrs. Halsey for the jolliest reading we have had in some time.

Edna Ferber's "Peculiar Treasure" is the autobiography of the author and is, in her own words "the story of an American Jewish family in the past half century, and as such is really about America which I know and love."

William Allen White, says of the book, "A gorgeous autobiography, as American as Ben Franklin or Mark Twain."

Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings' "The Yearling" has been awarded the Pulitzer prize for 1939. It has, indeed, been one of our most loved and best read novels. It is a simple story of simple, but by no means incomplex people, living in the scrub regions near the St. John River in Florida. The period is the decades after the civil war. This is a boys' book or rather it is a book about a world in which the important happenings are part of him. But it does not lack emotional interest. It is not a novel in the ordinary sense. The plot is very simple, and in the latter third of the book the reader will have to get his excitement out of two great hunts and the constant interest of the personalities. Evidence of the books popularity is shown by the fact that it was not only one of the most popular novels of the year, but it received 26 out of 54 votes in the Saturday Review's poll of book reviewers and literary editors throughout the country, as has already been announced.

Pearl S. Buck's "The Patriot" portrays twelve portentous years of Modern China in the story of a young Chinese, influenced by the revolutionary spirit that sweeps his country. He is sent to Japan for safety, marries a Japanese girl and only returns when war comes to his own country. No book could be more timely, and it is one of her very best.

Besides all these new books which I have mentioned, we have several books, new and very interesting, which pertain to Texas. We will especially enjoy these, I think. They are as follows:

Acheson, S. H. Jr.; Gambrell, H. P.; "Texan Who's Who". This is a biographical Dictionary of the State of Texas.

Eagleton; Davis Faute; "Writers and Writings of Texas".

"1939-40 Texas Almanac".

Forrester, Esse; and O'Brien; "Art and Artists of Texas".

Toomey, A. P.; Hamill, C. C.; "Texas Cattle Brands". This book is a catalogue of the Texas Centennial Exposition Exhibit.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. — Progress in game restoration by the use of scientific methods continues in Texas. During the past three months, nineteen game restoration areas have been constructed by game managers and other specialists of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. These areas are intended for the restoration of quail, turkey, beaver, and muskrat.

The State-wide quail project with which the Game Department hopes to increase the crop of bobwhites three or four hundred per cent in some areas is going forward. The Department has two specialists in the field who are working with the ten regional game managers and biologists in securing sites for the building of areas in which quail can be increased.

In February five years ago, there were delivered to John McInnes of Byrds, Texas, four doe deer, and one buck. All four of the does have each dropped fawns since that time and indications are that this small planting is doing much to populate Brown county with deer.

Duck hunters who have planted any kind of wild duck food in the past five years in order to improve conditions for waterfowl are being requested to get in touch with the local game warden or the Austin office of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. The purpose of the request is to provide a record of what grows and what doesn't grow in every part of the state.

Game managers or biologists of the Department will inspect sites that have been planted with duck foods and judge the value of the many species that are being sold to Texas sportsmen. Because of unwise plantings considerable sums are wasted each year whereas wise plantings would have improved conditions for ducks.

Already biologists of the Department have accumulated considerable information on the use of native plants as duck food plantings. At the completion of this study sportsmen will be able to obtain accurate recommendations for improving their lakes and marshes for waterfowl.

To keep Texas' fields and streams first in the thoughts of hunters and fishermen, both in the State and out, the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission during the past twelve months increased its restocking program and promoted interest in wildlife through a state-wide game management project, it was pointed out today in the Commission's Annual Report for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1939.

A total of 20,000 bobwhite quail were distributed to sportsmen and landowners as compared to 14,075 distributed during the 1937-38 fiscal year, the report states. The Commission distributed the birds on a cooperative basis, a quail being given free to each purchaser of one.

In addition, 533 wild turkeys and 194 white-tailed deer were distributed to depleted areas over the State. During the preceding year no turkeys were distributed because the crop would not justify it.

Successful live trapping of antelopes in West Texas was reported. It was the first antelope trapping program ever attempted in Texas. Thirty-three of the wary animals were trapped, placed in padded crates and transported to areas in West Texas. The program, to be resumed within a few weeks, ultimately will result in the establishment of about 15 seed herds in West Texas, the report says.

WATER IS BEING UTILIZED IN TEXAS PANHANDLE

LIVING CONDITIONS GREATLY IMPROVED UNDER FACILITIES

AMARELLO. — Water, the basic essential of successful agriculture in the semi-arid Texas Panhandle — is being utilized more and more to place farmers and ranchers of this area on a more sound economic basis and to improve living conditions under the water facilities program of the Department of Agriculture according to Ross Floyd, administrator of this work in the Southern Great Plains.

Three agencies within the Department of Agriculture are cooperating in carrying out the water facilities program, Floyd explains. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics does the general planning. The Farm Security Administration handles the financial side, contributes farm and home management plans and counsel. The Soil Conservation Service, which is directly responsible for detailed planning and installation of the facilities, supervises construction leadership for the program as a whole.

The program provides facilities for storage or utilization of water for farm gardens, for crop and lay lands, for ranges and pastures, for stock, and other agricultural purposes through the use of ponds, reservoirs, wells, pumps and windmills, spring development, water spreaders, stock water tanks, flood irrigation and diversion of water.

The water facilities program has been set up to benefit farmers and ranchers, within selected areas, who need assistance and who agree to furnish portions of the labor and materials, and to practice sound management which will provide soil and water conservation, a subsistence for family and livestock, in income to cover living expenses, operating costs, and loan payments.

Facilities are available to land owners, tenants and groups. Assistance may be given to a soil conservation district, a cooperative association, a mutual water company, or irrigation district, or other appropriate organization.

Actual construction and installation of the facilities can be handled either by having the Department of Agriculture do the job, or by making the necessary funds available to the benefiting farmer or farmers who will do the job with the technical guidance of the Department of Agriculture and pay for materials and equipment.

Benefitting farmers and ranchers are expected to repay the cost of labor, equipment, materials, and supplies furnished by the Department of Agriculture, and funds, advanced to them. Repayment at three percent interest may extend for the useful life of the facility, but in no instance can the loan run for more than 20 years.

Water Facilities Program Aids Plains Farmers

Under the Department of Agriculture water facilities program hundreds of farmers and ranchers in the semi-arid portions of Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma are being aided in the development and improvement of water resources with a view to promoting better use of the land and advancing human welfare. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics selects suitable areas for such development, the Soil Conservation Service furnishes technical aid and does the actual construction, while the Farm Security Administration makes loans to farmers when necessary. Under provisions of the program farmers are provided with irrigation pumps of the type shown at upper left; small irrigation systems, an example of which is shown at upper right; stock water ponds, such as the one at lower left; irrigation systems for home gardens, shown at lower right, and windmills for general farm needs. Aid also is given in developing springs, installing water spreading systems and similar improvements for the utilization of water resources.

The program, which now has been in operation more than a year, already is proving of great benefit to many residents of the Texas Panhandle, Floyd reports. Many have been in operation a year. Many have been relieved of the necessity for hauling water long distances for livestock and home use. Home gardens, made possible through irrigation, have provided fresh vegetables during the summer and a canned reserve for winter use. Range conditions have been improved through the use of stock ponds, tanks, spring development and water spreading. In numerous instances, development of water facilities has meant the difference between success and failure on a farm.

Ann Rutherford, sweetheart of America's high school boys, has deserted them — temporarily. Andy Hardy's romantic vis-avis, the demure Polly Benedict, has put up her hair and gone col-

But Ann really is true to her scholastic admirers. She will be back with them in the next Hardy picture. And why shouldn't she? The male student bodies of sixteen American high schools have voted her their favorite motion picture actress in the last three months!

NAGGING BACKACHE

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action. Don't Neglect It!

Modern life with its ceaseless hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking, exposure, contagion, rheumatoid, keeps doctors busy, hospitals crowded. The after effects are disturbing to the kidneys and oftentimes people suffer without knowing that disordered kidney action may cause the trouble.

After colds, fever and similar ills there is an increase of body impurities the kidneys must filter from the blood. If the kidneys are overtaxed and fail to remove excess acid and other harmful waste, there is poisoning of the whole system.

Symptoms of disturbed kidney function may be nagging backache, persistent headache, dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of strength and energy. Other signs of kidney or bladder disturbance sometimes are burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide approval than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. They have been winning new friends for more than forty years. Be sure to get Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Barkett Store In Third Anniversary Sale This Week

Beginning Friday of this week, Barkett's Department Store celebrates its third anniversary in Clarendon with a reduction sale of great interest to local buyers. Mr. Barkett is to be complimented on the progress he has made here in the past three years, and according to his statement the third anniversary sale this year brings unusually attractive bargains on account of the unsettled conditions which came along with the war after he had already bought heavily for this winter. He says many items offered in the sale cannot be duplicated at wholesale since advances have taken effect in the market.

The News congratulates Mr. Barkett and his sales staff on their anniversary and wishes for them many prosperous returns of the occasion.

Bronchos See No Relief Ahead But Are Confident For Battle With John Bond and Company

There's no relief this week-end for the Clarendon High School Bronchos who have to journey over to McLean in the 3-A feature attraction on Tiger Field Friday night.

The Ponies, however, seem confident enough of another win. The Bronchos are facing the game in much the same condition as the last week tussel with Wellington for its goodbye until next year for district hopes if the Ponies drop to the tough Tiger-men.

With the powerful running of big John Bond, the boy that chalked up all 24 of the McLean scores, against Memphis, the Mc-

Lean club ranks ahead of the local in rating.

Although battered by the hard fighting Wellington eleven, the Bronchos will be in fair enough condition for Friday night's fray. Waldron Melton, kept out of the contest most of last week because of an arm injury, will probably return to the starting lineup to aid Hartzog, Grady and Allison.

The forward wall will probably be much the same that has opened the games all season. McWhorter, Lumpkin, Bulls, Huffman, Gibbs, Hermesmeier, Spier, will probably get the call aided by Morrow, the Grehar brothers and several more.

SHAMROCK IRISHMEN STILL IN FROM OF DISTRICT 3-A

Bottling up the Wheeler Mustangs so completely that even on their home field the horses could only make 29 yards, the Sham-rock Irish remained out in front of district 3-A football play after Friday night's games.

So completely did Shamrock dominate the play that they took the opening kickoff on a march to the Mustang 9-yard line with five straight first downs. Halted at the point it was only a matter of time before they put the game on ice.

Clarendon and McLean retained their respective standing with wins over Wellington and Memphis. The Clarendon - McLean set-to next Friday will highlight the district play.

BROTHER INSTEAD OF FATHER DEAD—ERROR IN UNDERSTANDING

In last week's News a story was printed of the reported death of H. C. Walker, aged father of Rev. J. G. Walker of this city, at Rambourne, Ala., the Sunday night previous.

It now develops that in the long distance call received here Rev. Walker misunderstood. It was a brother, J. C. Walker, that had died, and not his father as it appeared. His nephew, son of the deceased brother called, and referring to "Dad," Rev. Walker understood the nephew to be referring to his grandfather. The extreme age of his father drew a conclusion of the mind, which aided in the misunderstanding, especially as he had no word of any illness of his brother. The cause of sadness is thus transferred, and not lessened.
