Easter Pageant Rehearsals Enter Last Phase Before Presentation

AROUND 40 PERSONS TO TAKE PART IN PROGRAM AT METHODIST CHURCH

Rehearsals are being held regularly for "The Life Eternal," a musical Easter pageant, which promises to be the most entertaining presentation in recent years.

The pageant, under the direction of Mrs. H. R. Beck, will be given at the First Methodist church the night of March 24. The presentation will revolve around the life, death and resurrection of Christ, and is expected to reach a new high in interest.

For many years the Methodist Church choir has been producing special programs of Easter cantatas, and augmented this year with some of the best singers of the Baptist, Presbyterian, and other churches, interest in the rendition of the musical selected portrayal of the wondrous Easter story is at a new level.

It was not learned specifically but all churches in Clarendon are expected to cancel Easter night services to cooperate with the producers of the production written by Fred B. Holton.

Written by Dr. Ira B. Wilson. A complete program could not be obtained this week from Mrs. Beck who accepted the direction upon the resignation of Mrs. J. L. Grow. However, approximately 40 persons, featuring Clarendon's most talented singers, will take part.

PAUL GREENE IS NEARING END OF AIR TRAINING

LOCAL BOY TO COMPLETE RANDOLPH FIELD WORK ON MARCH 22

Completion of their basic phase of flight training as Flying Cadets of the U. S. Army Air Corps at Randolph Field, Texas, is near at hand for thirteen Texas men, including Paul J. Greene of Clarendon.

About 240 student pilots will be transferred from the "West Point of the Air," Randolph Field, to the Advanced Flying School, at Kelly Field, about March 22, for a final three-month course of flying instruction before being awarded their wings and commission as Second Lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserve.

A total of 5,500 airplanes and pilots to fly them will be on hand by June, 1941.

Sixty-five hours of flying time were logged by the Cadets during their first three months of training, more than half of it being solo. They were then transferred to Randolph Field for another three months course.

Aerial acrobatics, night flying and instrument flying are stressed during the Randolph training which consists of 75 hours flying time, only a small portion of it being dual instruction.

The final step in the training of these future military pilots is the three months course at Kelly Field, where formation flying, day and night navigation, and advanced instrument flying are the main subjects of the curriculum.

During the nine months of the training course, Flying Cadets receive a salary of $75 per month in addition to their commissions in the Air Corps Reserve, these new pilots will be assigned to tactical squadrons of the expanding Air Corps.

Unmarried men between the ages of 20 and 27, who have two years of college education are exempt from the mental examination for appointment as Flying Cadets.

Mr. and Mrs. James Trent were in Fort Worth this week.

Mr. Jack Molesworth left Tuesday for Fort Worth where he will attend the Fat Stock show.

In the School election, O. C. Watson, president of the board, and Clyde J. Douglas are up for re-election. Both have indicated they would not be candidates but a movement, by friends to draft them for the office is underway.

Clarendon Milk Judgers Win State Judging Contest For Second Time

The Clarendon Future Farmers of America Saturday captured the state milk judging contest held at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show and will represent Texas at the American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City next October.

Compiling a record breaking score for the contest, the locals outpointed seventy four other Texas judging teams, to mark up the second conservative state title for Clarendon.

Trying for a low score of perfect zero, the Clarendon team finished with only 43 points against them. They were headed by Forest Helton who also established a record breaking individual score. Other members of the team were Carl Morris and Harice Green. Morris finished seventh in individual scoring while Green was ranked in eleventh place.

Last year the Clarendon team won the contest with a total of 53 and a fraction points.

Tahoka finished second and Marshall third.

BOND DENIED TRIO HERE TUESDAY FOR FIREARMS HOLDUP

THREE MEN AND GIRL FACE STIFF CHARGES FOR HOLDUP OF FILLING STA.

Returned to Clarendon Tuesday where they are wanted on charges of robbery with firearms, Hubert Lee Sisco, 22, and Carlisle Shelton, both of Skeltytown and Frank Agee of White Deer, were committed to the county jail without bond pending the action of the grand jury Monday.

Arraigned before acting justice of the peace, R. Y. King, in their jail cell, the trio, who allegedly highjacked the Clarendon Phillips 66 filling station with arms in November, waived preliminary hearing.

The charge carries a maximum penalty of death.

The three, together with 16-year-old Lois Oliver, have been formally charged with robbery with firearms from the filling station holdup in which palu Huckins and the station's till were looted of approximately $30.

The case was broken the night of November 29 when officers of Donley, Gray, and Carson counties and the state highway patrol made a round-up of suspects near Pampa.

In a coupe that netted the arrest of persons wanted in connection of at least highjackings in the Panhandle, Cisco signed a volunteer statement confessing the local robbery before Sheriff Guy Pierce of Donley and Sheriff Cal Rose of Gray, Sisco named the other two men and the girl as accomplices. Miss Oliver later signed a statement in Clarendon before officers in which she outlined the details of the crime.

DR. RAINEY ON JUNIOR COLLEGES

Support for the junior college movement in Texas, with increased state financial aid for such institution, has come recently from a surprising source. Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president of the University of Texas, told the Houston "Exes" at their March 2 reunion that the work of the university should be supplemented by at least 30 state-supported and denominational schools. The belief of such educators, generally speaking, is that the junior college movement is a menace to four-year institutions, something to be combatted and discouraged.

Dr. Rainey's views are in keeping with those of leaders in the junior college movement itself. He told the Houston audience that by supplementing the existing schools with a statewide system of junior colleges, many students, unable to complete a four-year course, would obtain at home the training whereby they could obtain better jobs. Pointing out that 70 per cent of those enrolled at the university do not go beyond the first two years, Dr. Rainey said that the junior college could absorb part of this load. He also mentioned the special opportunity of the junior college for vocational training.

Those who know that the junior college has a useful, well-defined part to play in the educational plan will welcome the accession of the university's president to their ranks.

The rub, so far as the taxpayer is concerned, is in the idea of adding to the number of schools supported by state funds. He knows that Texas is spending already more than it can afford for higher education, and looks askance at any proposal for additional outlets.

It does not follow that the total expenditure needs to be increased. A system could be worked out under which much money now wastefully used for senior colleges could be made to purchase much more learning, through the junior colleges. We would not want to see state support provided for the junior colleges except under a plan that increased the buying power, so to speak, of the state's higher educational dollar. That can be done. It is gratifying to learn that the state's foremost educational figure wants to see it done. — Wichita Falls Daily Times.

STANDING UP FOR NEUTRALITY

First of all, the United States seeks to be neutral, and for that purpose we have withdrawn our best merchant ships from the best ports, and forbidden them to engage in profitable trade. Great Britain has been taking some of these neutral ships, that are plying in neutral waters, into the War Zones and searched them for mail and articles of merchandise intended to reach the enemy countries.

The United States Department of State has vigorously protested to the British, and that Government has been very slow to stop its unneutral trespasses upon our neutral rights. Perhaps the English remember similar circumstances before the World War when they counted on the good nature and forgiving spirit of our Government. President Wilson overlooked the violation of our rights and that put an end to the diplomatic breach.

IT CAN'T BE ESCAPED

No matter what color it is painted, a public debt is a debt, and it boils down to the fact that the people pay no matter what method the government takes to reduce it, whether by higher taxes, inflation, confiscation of property, cancellation or reduced rewards for labor.

JUST HUMANS

By GENE CARR

"How Much Do Yo Suppose He'll Take T'beat It?"

THE JOB MUST BE DONE

The popular conception is that most men who do public, civic or charity work always profit by it in dollars and cents somewhere along the line. Because a man is at the head of his company or fairly successful, it is felt that he is sacrificing nothing when he takes time off to attend committee or group meetings.

The reverse is far more true than the popularly held opinion. A prominent Dallas man recently told of a church building program that required weeks of work by a committee of men who met not less than twenty-five times just for decisions alone. This did not take action and preparation of reports into count. "The business of practically every one of these men," said he, "required their time 110 per cent. But they managed to get to the meetings, somehow."

It may have been years ago the head of a business could set up a line organization and not be required to give it time, but in recent years a man who keeps a business moving along has to give it a lot of thought and must wrestle with its problems. When a business head leaves his office for several hours to give of his time and brain to a public or civic cause, he is definitely taking something away from his business instead of adding to it. The toll is terrific. If now and then a man capitalizes or a publicity seeker crashes the committee, no less credit should go to those citizens who pitch in to make their city a better place in which to live.—CAPS and lower case.

"NON-INTOXICATING"—A SERMONETTE

The average Christian spends less than five minutes of each day in communion with his God, or in quiet meditation and prayer. Based upon a 16-hour day, this leaves less than one-half of one per cent of the time spent with God. During our Prohibition era, the law defined a beverage that contained less than one half of one per cent by volume as non-intoxicating. And by the same measure, anyone who spends less than one half of one per cent of his time in communion and prayer cannot become intoxicated with the blessings that Almighty God supplies.—Rev. John Gray Ross.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By J. L. GARDNER JR.

AUSTIN — With the announcement of Jerry Sadler, Railroad Commissioner, that he will be a candidate for Governor, the field of announced candidates now numbers four, with two others — Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel and Rail Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson — regarded as certain added starters, the field becomes fairly well defined.

The sales tax will be the chief issue. O'Daniel, whether he declares for it or not, will be classified as the sales tax candidate, in view of his sponsorship of the celebrated "transaction tax" brainstorm and later, of SJR 12 — the sales tax constitutional amendment measure. Both Sadler and Harry Hines, Highway Commissioner, have declared against the sales tax, and Thompson has likewise opposed it although he has not yet made his announcement for Governor. Albert Derden, legislator from Marlin, who led the fight against SJR 12, naturally is anti sales tax, too.

Lots of Music

There is likely to be lots of hill-billy stuff in this campaign, too, O'Daniel doubtless will stick to the band and the flour barrels, because they were so successful last time, and because his complete ignorance of governmental matters, so often illustrated, would leave him way out on a limb if he attempted to conduct a serious campaign, and talk about issues.

Sadler, too, had a hill-billy band, and has emphasized his "country boy" characteristics since he won the Railroad Commissioner's race.

Thompson and Hines will furnish the dignified, serious note to the campaign. Hines is an unusually gifted speaker, and his announcement talk indicated he will be a serious, conservative candidate. Thompson's previous campaigns have been marked by a dignified presence, and a serious discussion of issues. Political observers here are wondering whether or not the time has come for a shift of public sentiment from clown stuff to a serious discussion. The pendulum of public favor swings from one extreme to the other. And the politician who can anticipate the shift comes out on top, as a rule.

More Candidates

The free-for-all Railroad Commissioner's race adds new starters every week. This week the Hardin twins, with a hill-billy quartet and a slogan "Put Hardin in the Harness," took the field with one of them a candidiate for railroad commissioner. Pierce Brooks' press agents revealed that terrific pressure is being brought to bear on Pierce, and he doubtless will break down and announce within another week or two. Earlier entrants, including Olin Culberson, former head of the gas utilities division of the commission, are actively campaigning. Commissioner Lon Smith hasn't announced yet, but after about 40 years in public office, he is not expected to drop out. There were rumors that Emmett Morse, speaker of the House, from Houston, might get in this weekend.

Gentry Raps Bond Law
Highway Commission Chairman Brady Gentry, of Tyler, apparently is paving the way for a campaign at the next session to repeal the Bond Assumption law which the county judges association lobbied through the last session, under which the State assumed responsibility for paying about $200,000,000 worth of county lateral road bonds. Gentry, in a series of Chamber of Commerce annual banquet speeches in East Texas, points out that the gasoline tax money which the counties got, divided among more than 1,000 county commissioners' precincts, won't amount to enough anywhere to do more than gravel a few miles of road each year. If it were permitted to go back to the Highway Department, he said, where it was intended to go when the Legislature levied the gasoline tax, the department could build a substantial mileage each year of permanent highways, until the State gets a real system of permanent highways.

School Change Looms
There is a growing sentiment throughout Texas for legislation consolidating the thousands of school districts, outside the cities, into single county districts, so that state aid can be equitably distributed on a county-wide basis and the hundreds of 1-teacher schools abolished in favor of a fewer number of first-class schools. The change will be slow in coming, but with taxpayers and teachers both for it, it is surely coming in Texas one of these days.

Mr. C. D. Murphy and Charlie Murphy went to Weatherford on business Saturday.

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD

Without Laxatives — and you'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nuts
The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or chew poorly — your stomach often pours out too much fluid. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, sick and upset all over. Doctors say never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes those little black tablets called Bull-ans for indigestion to make the excess stomach fluids harmless, relieve distress in no time and put you back on your feet. Bull-ans is so quick it's amazing and one size package proves it. Ask for Bull-ans for indigestion.

129 DEATHS FROM TETANUS IN TEXAS DURING 1939

PUNCTURE WOUNDS ARE MOST DANGEROUS STATE HEALTH OFFICER SAYS

AUSTIN — Texas had 129 deaths from tetanus (lock-jaw) in 1939, according to vital statistics records of the State Department of Health.

A significant factor in tetanus prevalence is that the disease develops usually from a trivial wound or injury which too often is neglected until complications set in.

"In the course of the disease convulsions may be frequent and set off by any slight stimulation to the central nervous system. Stiffening of the muscles of the jaw is one of the first symptoms of tetanus, a characteristic which gives the disease its name.

"Preventative technique against lockjaw should include care of all minor injuries and wounds. Closed wounds should be made open wounds and kept thoroughly clean. Anti-tetanus serum should be given after a puncture wound. Gunpowder wounds are also frequently followed by lockjaw.

Girl, Housewife And Farmer Out-Guess Cattlemen

A girl, a housewife and a farmer Saturday had a laugh on Clarendon and Donley County ranchers when they won the free prize given by Russell's Market for guessing nearest to the total weight of seven 4-H and F. F. A. calves penned on south Main Street.

Beside that, the winners, Margaret Jean Leathers, Mrs. S. M. Harp and G. G. Reeves, guessed within five pounds of the exact weight while many of the cattlemen were way off.

Nearly 500 persons registered guesses which ranged from 2,893 to 8,000 pounds.

PARTICIPATION IN AAA MAY BRING $89,362.75

TO EARN THAT AMOUNT ALL FARMERS MUST COMPLY IN EVERY PHASE

COLLEGE STATION. — Full participation in the AAA program in 1940 would bring Texas farmers and ranchers $89,362,705, E. N. Holmgreen, state A. A. administrator, reported to the state Agricultural Conservation Association committee meeting in College Station.

To earn that amount, Holmgreen explained, all farmers in the state would have to comply in every respect with the program, with each doing enough soil-building work to earn the maximum available, and with each ranchman putting enough range-improvement practices into effect to earn the maximum available.

Holmgreen listed the maximum amounts which could be earned by Texas producers as follows:

- Cotton parity payments, $23,852,440. Agricultural conservation payments for cotton, $24,640,950. Wheat parity payments, $2,932,626. Agricultural conservation payments for wheat, $2,651,415. Rice parity payments, $78,541. Agricultural Conservation payments for rice, $302,079. Peanut payments, $134,133. Commercial vegetable payments, $591,576. General crop payments, $14,275,730. Maximum range - building allowance, $6,415,616. Balance available for increasing small payments. Probably 90 per cent of the money available for all types of payments will be earned by participating farmers, Holmgreen estimated.

DONLEY BOYS GET GOOD PRICE IN CATTLE SALES

Led by Johnny Leathers' reserve champion and best Panhandle calf which brought $31 per hundred - weight, Donley County Club boy calves sold in the ring at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show Thursday brought an average price of $12.69.

Almost thirty local calves sold with the low price reaching only ten and one half cents per pound.

The Farmers State Bank, and Russell's Market were the only Clarendon firms buying Donley County calves.

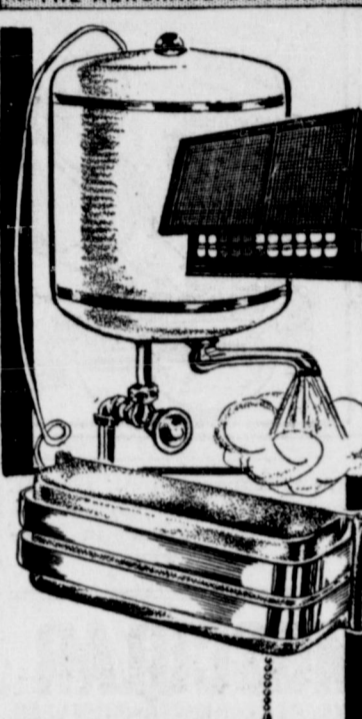

In the entire sale, 166 calves sold to Mrs. Miles Bivins for 31 cents per pound. Before the auction the young Donley County feeder was presented with $50 gold watch by M. T. Johnson, president of the Panhandle Livestock Association, for showing the best Panhandle calf. Because he won the same award last year, he was given, at his own request, a lady's wrist watch, which he gave his mother.

BACK STAGE HISTORY

Another chapter was added to the backstage history of the College Auditorium Thursday night, when the Senior class gave it's howling success; "Honey-moon Inn."

Only a glance at the walls and curtains behind scenes was needed to trace the history of the preceding classes and class plays. One of the earliest class plays displayed on the walls was "Closed Lips" of the year 1933.

Many other plays histories were given such as, "The Man in the Green Shirt," "Murdered Alive," "Crooks for a Month," "Crazy Politics," "Coast to Coast," "The Black Ace," "His Ozark Cousin," and others.

There is no doubt in my mind now that Clarendon it literally bubbling over with acting ability.

We hate to be vain but "Honey-moon Inn" seems to have the choice spaces on the walls, ceilings, and curtains.

Glance over the list of plays and see if you remember that hero part you played back in the year 19—!!!

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that there are steps in our building?

Did you know there were 240 students enrolled in our High School and College?

Did you know there are 33 prison doors in our building?

Did you know I don't know what I'm talking about?

Did you know there are twenty-two rooms in our building?

Did you know that in the typing room there are twenty-six machines?

Did you know fifteen teachers rule us?

Did you know that in the auditorium there are 58 rows of seats?

Did you know that also in the auditorium 6 posts keep the balcony off our heads?

Did you know there are 142 windows in this building of ours?

Did you know Mrs. McGowan has a store across the street?

Did you know most of the class rooms have only one exit?

This makes it tough for those who don't have their lessons.

Of course there's always the window that you can exit thru if you should really get scared enough.

Did you know that by cutting across the yard instead of going by the sidewalk, you can save 25 steps?

Did you know that I'd better stop before I tell a story?

DESK CARVINGS

Do you remember when Clarendon Junior College was new and had its first desks? The only room with its original desks is Miss Hall's English room on the southeast side of the third floor.

Desks in a school are like teeth in one's mouth. Often they have to be replaced, some of them are false and some are the originals.

Those desks in English class are original and have more carvings than the "false" desks of the building.

Some of the initials are those of the parents of students now attending school either in C. J. C. or C. H. S.

The study hall desks seem to have the most writing on them. This may be due to idle dreamers. Some of these dreamers are made up of one of each of the following pair:

Robbie Zoe Moreland, A. W.; C. P. L., Mity Lee Losson; Naomi, Chick; Roy Bulls, June Melton; Maryline Sawyer, Tetter Jonson; Johnny Grady, Ethelyn D.; Carroll (Peanut) Cordelia; George Reeves, Miriam G.; Pete Morrow, Billie Ruth; Colle Kay; John King, Wanda; Rusty, Joan; Margaret, Carlton; Dorothy, Waldron; Cordelia, Doc; L. B.; Miriam; and J. W. G. B. J. B. Decide for yourself who did the writing.

It is amusing to notice that some names appear several times — sometimes with one name then with another. It seems that since the writings were put on the desks, some of the owners have change their "ideas" or their "ideals."

An interesting bit of writing on some of the desks are the letters WSCPB and W6GSX. It has been found that these are call numbers to amateur radio stations. The letters were probably put on the desks by the proud owners because they signify great deal of hard work and much study.

Don't be too definite in your carvings now, because you might change your mind later.

WE WONDER

Why Zoe wants her classing back from Al Word. If Rachel had a good time Saturday night.

If Ivon really likes Billy Goodman. Who Nelda Peabody dreams of in Economics class.

If Johnny Grady honestly likes to air his feet. He's always hanging them out the window.

When we look at Wanda if there were ever a prettier Miss. Why Miss Wallis doesn't forget "The Economic" viewpoint of things.

How most of the girls felt about February 29, and if what that date stands for had anything to do with the unusually large number of girls who had dates at the play.

Why so many Seniors insist on Maroon and White caps and gowns for graduation. We'll all be called "Seniors running signals!"

Why not be a little more conservative? — If you ever wonder!

Why Clyde Peabody likes Anna Lynn Barons? What tall brunette thinks Durwood Mears is so cute?

If it's Clyde Benton that Iva Ruth is so often seen with in the halls? If Kitty Ruth isn't giving giving Clyde the go-by for Carlton.

Who that Mr. Bass is that Miss Bogard moons about in Home Ec.

The Low Down FROM HICKORY GROVE

A kind of horseback opinions on what is wrong with this country, it is, we have gotten away from eating breakfast.

A faint nibble of toast is about all our tired inwards will now stand for at 7 a. m.

This country when it was growing up, would swap some stories in the evening, around the fireside — with a bushel of apples close at hand — and by 9 or 10, it would be in bed.

And at 6 in the morning, the aroma of bacon and the other grand kitchen smells, they would wait in, and they meant something. They got the household together, clear-eyed and clear-headed, and in a cheerful mood. Sourpusses at breakfast time — they didn't have them.

But today it is vice versa — nothing gets steamed-up until around midnight. And the next day, with a fuzzy tongue and a muddled noggin, we are ripe for any duck who happens along with some new ism or recipe for Govt., where everybody basks in the shade — and prospers.

This country needs more bacon and eggs for breakfast. Yours, with the low down, JO SERRA.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

AUSTIN, March 6.—While the season on bass and crappie has been closed since March 1 and will remain so until May, anglers desiring to fish for other species should consult the game laws of a game warden, the executive secretary of the state Game Department warns. Many counties have special laws which close the season on all species of the finny family.

Briefly, the special laws are as follow: Kimble, Uvalde, Zavalla counties, closed to all species of fish from January 1 to May 1. Hays, San Patricio, Jim Wells Live Oak, Gonzales, McLennan, Bosque and Hamilton counties closed to bass, crappie, calico perch and bream, from February 1 to May 1. March, April and May are the closed months for all species of fresh water fish in Bandera, Kerr, Edwards, Real, Sutton, Mason, Menard, Blanco, Kendall and Gillespie counties. Bass, crappie perch and catfish cannot be taken from Feb. 1 to May 1 in Comal, Guadalupe, Bexar, Medina and Wilson counties. Harrison and Marion counties close the season on black and white bass and crappie from Feb. 1 to May 1. Young County does not allow fishing in water stocked by the state from Feb. 1 to May 1.

Majority Allow Hunting

The false impression that all the game preserve demonstration areas set up in Texas by A. & M. College are closed to hunting still persists, but should be dispelled by the annual report of the college, which shows that of the 23,280 farmers and ranchers who are co-operating only 7,917 do not allow hunting at the present time. That leaves the land owned by 16,163 co-operators open to sportsmen for controlled hunting and fishing.

Got His Fish, Anyway

A little thing like a shark stealing his twenty five pound redfish didn't keep G. P. Hardy, Jr., of Bay City, Texas, from feasting on redfish recently.

On a recent expedition to Brown Cedar cut, Mr. Hardy caught a big red. He staked the fish and resumed his angling. A few minutes later he pulled in his stringer for a prideful look at his neat catch, but nothing remained of the red except its head. Disgruntled, Mr. Hardy went on fishing and in a few minutes tied into a whopper. After a battle, he landed an eight-foot shark. Upon cutting the shark open the fisherman was amazed to find his huge redfish in its stomach. Mr. Hardy later announced that the fish's unusual adventure in no way affected its flavor.

National Wildlife Week

When more than 11,000,000 Americans get behind a movement which is non-profit and non-political that's news; The National Wildlife Federation, formed for the purpose of uniting effort toward restoring the depleted natural resources of the United States, is certain that many persons will co-operate in the staging of the National Wildlife Week, March 17 through the 23rd. This will be the third annual observance and wildlife stamps, the proceeds from which are used to finance the nationwide restoration program, will be on sale.

Evidence of the value of hollow trees to wildlife was shown conclusively recently when a Texas farmer cut down a big tree. He got three opossums, each weighing seven pounds, five fat squirrels and twenty pounds of honey out of the tree.

Texas Leads Nation In Junior Colleges

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4. — Texas is second in the United States in number of its junior colleges and third in junior college enrollment, according to the Junior College Directory for 1940, just issued by the American Association of Junior Colleges. There are 40 of these institutions in the state, with 12,804 students.

Among them in Clarendon Junior College, Clarendon, Texas, with 114 students.

California leads, with 64 junior colleges, enrolling 73,669. Second in enrollment is Illinois, with 14,711 students in 23 junior colleges.

Enrollment in junior colleges in the country has doubled in the last seven years, according to Walter C. Ellis, secretary of the nation association, and in the last year has increased from 155,588 to 196,510. This 41.122 increase, which is 26.4 per cent, is the largest annual growth ever reported. There are now 575 junior colleges, as compared with 556 reported a year ago.

A junior college, it is explained, is one which does work of college or university grade for two years beyond high school. Twenty seven junior colleges in the country include the last two years of high school with the first two years of college.

There are 33 junior colleges in the country with enrollments of more than 1,000. Among them are the North Texas Agricultural College at Arlington, with an enrollment of 1,894, and the John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville, with an enrollment of 1,511. The size most general is between 100 and 200, in which group 153 are reported. There are 212 junior colleges with enrollments between 200 and 1,000. The average for all is 349.

Texas' carbon black, used by tire makers to toughen rubber, is made from sour gas, unfit for other commercial use.

Malaria mosquitoes hibernate in sheltered places, but the common northern variety of mosquito does not.

The presence of oil in Texas was first reported in 1543 by survivors of the De Soto expedition.

DENTISTS OF THE PANHANDLE TO CELEBRATE

Members of the Panhandle Dental Society will join dentists throughout the country during March in the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the American dental profession. Several from Clarendon will attend.

The Panhandle Dental Society will hold a centennial dinner on March 11 to commemorate two important events in the history of dentistry: the founding of the first dental school in the world and the establishment of the first national dental association. The national celebration will reach a climax on March 18, 19, and 20 in Baltimore, Md. where, in 1840, the first dental school in the world was founded.

Tribute will be paid to Drs. Horace A. Hayden and Crapin A. Harris, who founded the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery and were guiding forces in the establishment of the first dental society and the first dental journal, forerunners of the American Dental Association and the A. D. A. Journal.

Drs. Hayden and Harris and a few of their associates in the early part of the nineteenth century visualized dentistry as a scientific and separate profession. As a result of their inspiration and pioneering spirit, American Dentistry has developed to a point where it is regarded as the best in the world today.

During the 1940 celebration, American dentists will emphasize the scientific advancement made in the treatment of oral disease in the last one hundred years, and, at the same time, lay plans for the future improvement of its services in the preservation of its personal and public health.

In the last century, American Dentistry has steadily advanced from an itinerant craft to a highly specialized profession, one that has become most important to the health and welfare of the American people.

More than 400 district dental societies from coast to coast, representing some 45,000 members of the American Dental Association will hold centennial dinners on the evening of Mar. 11. During the following week, 6,000 members of the profession will attend the Baltimore centennial celebration.

Dr. Lucien C. Brun, general chairman of the Baltimore activity, reports that outstanding members of the profession from this country and abroad will present scientific essays at the Baltimore session. Scientific, health and historical exhibits will depict the evolution of every phase of dentistry, while pageants will recall dramatically the founding of dentistry and the milestones in its advancement.

"Northwest Passage" Comes To Screen With Star Cast

Bringing to the screen Kenneth Roberts' adventure novel which was the largest selling book in the nation month after month, "Northwest Passage" opens at the Pastime Theatre, March 13-14-15 with Spencer Tracy starred and Robert Young and Walter Brennan in leading featured roles.

Filmed entirely in Technicolor, and made after six weeks of work in the wilds of Idaho and several weeks of studio filming, "Northwest Passage" is reported to be the greatest story of physical fortitude ever attempted by the screen.

Following the novel which first ran in the Saturday Evening Post before becoming a best-seller, the picture tells the story of a courageous, hardy band of Rogers' Rangers who in 1756 set forth on a secret mission to wipe out a village of marauding Indians. Among the Rangers are Robert Young as Langdon Towne, a young artist, and Walter Brennan as Hunk Marriner, a seasoned woodsman.

Battling against unbelievable odds, the Rangers lug heavy boats over mountains, trek for days through treacherous swamps, cross a river torrent by forming a human chain, attack and wipe out the Indians and then start a starvation forced march home. Their ranks depleted by Indian attacks and forced to eat lizards and owls, they fight their way back to safety.

Distinguished Cast
The picture is believed to afford Tracy, Academy Award

winner for the past two years, his greatest screen role. It is reported it will skyrocket Young to stardom and gives Brennan a role comparable to those which have twice won him awards for best supporting roles of the year. Also featured in the cast are Ruth Hussey and Nat Pendleton. The picture was directed by King Vidor of "The Citadel" fame.

Random Reflections

By DICK COOKE

Superintendent Frank Stubbs of the Swine division of the 1940 Amarillo Fat Stock Show, said that in all of his experience with the Panhandle exhibit, since its inception, no county had ever swept the entire field for honors as Donley County did this year. The local animals pocketed all of the major honors in the pig contest.

County Attorney John C. Knorpp and County Judge R. Y. King spent their spare time in friendly debate. Their subjects are usually on a high plane but the acme of elevation came last week when they waxed warm on a celestial object. They tangled about the moon with the question involved as to the direction in which it rises. This department eagerly hung upon each word in the hopes of learning, at last, the composition of the body. That, however, was never discussed and so we must continue to wonder. We hate to be an unbeliever but sometimes we must confess, we have had our doubts that the moon was really made of green cheese.

While eating a sandwich at a local drug store the other evening we upset the salt shaker and caused much mirth and subsequent kidding when we threw a pinch over our shoulder. We are not really superstitious anymore and the act was a hang-over from boyhood days. Superstition is passed now along with Horatio Alger, Jr., and other writers who made life bearable for boys. In the good old days, however, rabbits were not chased for food or their pelts, but for the left hind foot. The rule that only the left foot was good as a fetish was probably thought up by parents for any active boy had from 20 to 30 legs, usually the worst from warm weather, in his pockets. One can readily see what would have happened if all four feet counted. They would have probably had to dismiss school more often than they did.

Along in April when you are answering the million questions regarding yourself, all you know and much more you don't know, or wished you didn't, you may derive some pleasure in remembering that the 1940 census is costing the Government about $53,000,000. Census officials recently told a House appropriations subcommittee that the population count alone will call for the expenditure census and survey of business which will run the figure to $53,000,000. That little item will probably be counted in the deficit of the New Deal's spendings.

A. R. Letts and son, Eugene, were in Fort Worth for the Fat Stock Show this week.

Jesse Cornell, who is attending W. T. S. C. in Canyon, spent the week-end here with friends and relatives.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Bagby left for Dallas Monday morning to be gone for several days.

Howard Stewart and U. J. Boston went to Lubbock on business Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Noblet and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain were in Dallas this week.

H. C. Brumley was in Shamrock on business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bugbee attended the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Longan called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Womack in Hedley Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson and sons, Neil and Ernest, visited in Memphis Sunday.

THE PATHFINDER CLUB

March 9th, was "Texas Day" in the Pathfinder Club and the program was, perforce, of more than ordinary interest. The meeting was opened with the Club Collect which is beautiful and impressive.

The Club voted to endorse Mrs. J. W. Walker of Plainview for the presidency of the Texas Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Roll call was responded to with "Texas Heroes", and much brief but vitally interesting Texas history resulted. Then the Club stood and gave the pledge, first to the Texas flag, then to the Stars and Stripes and sang, "Texas, Our Texas."

Mrs. Bigger, program leader, gave a few facts about Laura Krey, author of the book to be reviewed, after which Mrs. H. T. Burton introduced Mrs. T. M. Harrison of Memphis, guest reviewer for the afternoon. She reviewed "And Tell of Time" which she said was sometimes called the "Texas Gone With the Wind".

Giving the background of the story which was Georgia immediately after the close of the Civil War, she followed the fortunes of the Chief Characters through the coming to Texas, the Reconstruction Days, and then through the early days of Texas history—carrying her listeners with her in absorbed interest. The "Stars and Stripes" and the "Stars and Bars" were in evidence to add to the patriotic atmosphere.

The hostess, Mesdames Sella Gentry and A. T. Cole, served refreshments to the guest receiver, Mrs. T. M. Harrison, and Mrs. Byron Baldwin, another guest from Memphis, Mrs. George Ryan, and a large member of the membership of the Club.

DO YOU BELONG TO C. J. C.?

By Jimmy Thompson

Are you a member of Clarendon Junior College? Yes, you attend classes, and gossip in the halls, but do you really contribute or receive any real value out of belonging to C. J. C.?

Do you actually support the program of your class? Of course it is to be considered that many of the entertainments sponsored by the college favor only a few. That is occasioned by the fact that only a few demand this type of entertainment. This situation can be remedied only when the majority of the class organize to force the leaders into their way of thinking.

College students, are you helping to promote a trip to Carlshad; are you going to attend the banquet; support the faction with which you are in sympathy; and work for that faction in order that it may succeed?

Do you belong to this College?

GOING PLACES

Margaret Fay went to Hedley with John Burton King last Friday afternoon.
 Cordella went with Carrol to Dripping Springs Sunday afternoon.

MORE SOPHOMORES SELECT SCHOOLS

It appears that Canyon will receive the majority of sophomores interviewed this week.

Those who plan to be in Canyon next year are: Calvin Reed and Bill Peeder who choose Mathematics as their majors. Frances Grady will also major in Physical Education; Edith Shelton, in Primary Education; Forrest Adamson, in Physical Education and History; and Glenn Bruce in agriculture of some type.

At Abilene Christian College we will find Wallace Riffel majoring in Mathematics, and Led Jay, who has chosen Education as his major.

Zackie Salmon plans to go to T. S. C. W. in Denton, and major in Library Science.

Phebe Ann Buntin, somewhat undecided, looks ahead to Texas University with Journalism as her major.

A. & I. in Kingsville, with a major in Business Administration, is the next step into the future for Royce Lummus.

An interesting and different major is that of Ralph Grady, who plans to go to A. & M. and study Animal Husbandry.

Another interesting future is that of Ruby Tucker, (if it works out right) who wants to be lucky enough to get a job and bring some "do ra me". After all that is what we're most interested in at present.

Earl Shannon plans an Agricultural major at Texas Tech. in Lubbock.

BOLTS AND NUTS

Bolts and Nuts, a 3-act comedy by Jay Tobias, has been chosen by a college student committee as the play to be offered to the public within 4 weeks. This is comparatively new and an excellent one. The setting is around a sanitarium for "mental cases," hence "Nuts". The winner of the sanitarium is Rebecca Bolt, and with her lives her lovely niece, Benita Bolt. Therefore Bolts and Nuts.

The time is in the present and the action is swift.

The cast will be chosen by a faculty committee, and work toward production will begin immediately.

Mr. Hutto spent the week-end in Canyon.

Y CLUB MEETING IS GREATLY ENJOYED

On Monday evening, March 11, at 7:30, the Y Club had its regular semi-monthly meeting. There were thirty-eight present, seven of which were visitors. Adam Forsch, Helen Pie-den, and June Miller were received as new members.

The program was begun by the singing of two hymns, "To the Work," and "The Old Rugged Cross."

J. R. Naylor led the devotional. The scripture, taken from Romans 14:7-14, emphasized the importance of our setting a Christian example in our everyday lives for others.

Rev. Smith, pastor of the Church of Christ, addressed the group on "Reasons for Believing That the Bible Is the Inspired Word of God," which certainly held the interest of all present.

We were so very glad to have Mr. Smith as our guest, and wish to express our sincere appreciation for his inspiring address.

At the business part of the meeting, it was decided that all forthcoming meetings would begin promptly at 8:00, rather than at 7:30. Also, a picnic was planned for March 25th. Full details of this affair were not planned at the meeting.

BILLY RALPH ANDIS ENTERTAINS

One of the most delightful events of the season for the younger set was a dance given Friday night with Billy Ralph Andis as the gracious host. Two rooms were cleared for dancing, and both radio and records were used for music. Although sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and some freshmen attended the dance, everyone had a delightful time.

Some highlights of the evening were:

J. W. Goodman looking very flustered when he came in with Betty Jo Bartlett.

Wanda Craft falling down the stairs. OOPS!

Bacil Kirtley, Lewis Chamberlain, and Billy Thornberry trying to dance.

To make the evening perfect, delicious refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Andis and Billy Ralph.

HOME EC. COMPLETE WORK ON DRESSES

The second and third year girls have just completed their dresses. Most of the second year girls used silk material. There were a few woolen garments made. The second year dresses were of tailored designs. Each girl tried to make her dress as individual as possible. In the spring there will be a style show of these dresses.

The third year girls used silk, taffeta, and organdy. There were several evening dresses completed. These were made of organda and taffeta. This work was taken up early so the girls could wear their dresses to the Junior and Senior Banquet, March 29. Several silk afternoon dresses and one taffeta was made.

One of the most outstanding characteristics of the dresses was covered buttons. They were mostly used on evening and afternoon dresses. The girls used saddle-stitching in making the tailored garments.

OUR F. F. A. AND THE FAT STOCK SHOW

Clarendon was well represented at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show this year. For a list of F. F. A. boys who attended you might consult any teacher's "absent list." Clarendon F. F. A. and Donley County 4-H members are bringing home more than their share of prize money. They did unusually well in hogs, taking fifty per cent of the premium money. Clarendon was at the top with its calves, too.

There were only a few engaged in the sheep-raising business, but they made a creditable showing, anyway.

The boys who exhibited sheep were Horace Green, Ray Robertson, Frank Cannon, C. G. Kirkland, and Lester Bell. They won second on their county carlot besides several individual prizes in the Rambouillet class.

Many of the boys paid their expenses by doing some sort of work around the Fat Stock Show. Many made more than enough to cover their expenses.

Most of this work consisted of washing Club calves and the Hereford breeder's bulls. Boys who engaged in the "cow laundry" business were Maschil Cole, who says he made about four dollars; Junior Spier, Pete Morrow, Lee Christie, and Ralph Morrow.

Lee Christie also went into the "laundry" business. He says that so far as he could count, he washed two dozen pigs. He usually got a dime for a good pig shampoo.

It has been reported that Maschil Cole sings in his sleep. What the tune is has not been disclosed as yet.

It might be of interest to know also, that the boys who reported this sleep-singing incident; namely Junior Spier and Eugene Putnam, had just gotten in from a dance at the Amarillo Hotel.

Howard Gibbs has found a new type of amusement; rolley-skating. Tuesday night, he and a few other boys went to the skating rink. When some one suggested going home, Howard insisted that he make two more rounds. On the second round his feet went out from under him and his head and feet were still in the air when he landed on the floor. No damage was reported, but Howard certainly took a beating so I'm told.

CLARENDON MILK JUDGING TEAM WINS STATE CONTEST

Setting two new records, the Clarendon FFA milk judging team won the State contest, Saturday, at Fort Worth. The team will receive a beautiful plaque similar to the one given last year. This is the second time for the Clarendon team to win the state contest. Besides the plaque, the team will receive an expensive-paid trip to Kansas City.

Forrest Helton was high-point man of the contest. He set a new record on individual scoring, rating almost perfect. The other team members were Carl Morris and Horace Green. Morris placed seventh and Green, eleventh. The team had the highest score ever made at the contest. The Clarendon team won over seventy-four other teams from all over Texas.

"A program of industrial development centers around the manufacture of raw materials into finished products"

LOCATED in all sections of Texas, 141 refineries manufacture into finished petroleum products 80 per cent of the State's crude oil production.

In contrast, Texas processes only 3 per cent of its cotton production and none of its wool or mohair.

Petroleum refining now constitutes 41 per cent of the value of all Texas manufactures.

Of the 225,000 Texans regularly employed by the oil business of the State, 25,000 skilled workmen and 5,000 office employees (a $50,000,000 annual payroll) are employed in this one division of our oil industry.

All of the Texas oil refined in our State, whether used in Texas or shipped to other states, paid last year in taxes an average of 9.8 cents per barrel.

Here's What Census Taker Will Ask When Enumeration Starts

With the date for the beginning of the population census becoming nearer, April 1, Carroll Smyers, district supervisor, has listed the information which will be asked at each household during the "nose-counting."

"If every family would devote the conversation at one single dinner hour to a discussion of the coming population census, it would be a great convenience to the family, and an aid to the community and to the government," Mr. Smyers said.

"The census man is coming to every home early in April," Mr. Smyers said, "and some member of each family should be designated by the family to act as spokesman when the census taker comes."

Citizenship of any foreign-born facts which the enumerator will want, according to a statement from Mr. Smyers, are as follows:

- House number and street. Home-owned or rented; home value, if owned; monthly rental, if rented. Live on farm? (Yes or no.) Name of every person in household and relationship to head of family; sex, color, or race; age last birthday; single, married, widowed, or divorced. Whether attended school or college since March 1, 1940; highest grade completed. State or country of birth.

Where did each person live five years ago—April 1, 1935? (This is asked for a study of internal migration.)

Each person must state whether he was at work for pay or profit in private industry during the week of March 23-30, 1940. If not working for private industry, or non-emergency governmental work, or regular governmental work, the person must state whether during that week he was working for WPA, NYA, or CCC. If neither at work nor assigned to public emergency work, each person must state whether or not he is seeking work; if not seeking work, he must state whether he has a job or business from which he is temporarily away.

OVER 200 MILES OF SHELTERBELT TREES PLANTED

ADDITIONAL APPLICATIONS MAY BE TURNED IN TO COUNTY AGENT

WICHITA FALLS. — Over 200 miles of shelterbelt have been approved for planting in Northwest Texas, reported W. E. Webb, State Director of the Prairie States Forestry Project on tree belts have already been planted this year.

Wherever necessary replacements are also being made on the older belts in order to place them in a more satisfactory condition. This will take care of the losses suffered in the unseasonably dry weather this past summer. The unusual amount of snow and rain during the past 10 weeks has done wonders in putting the ground in shape for the planting. The moisture has gone down over 20 inches in most places.

Mr. Webb further reports that more than 700 applications have been made for tree belts in 32 counties. The foresters, have their hands full in examining proposed areas for shelter belts, meanwhile keeping over 25 crews in operation. However, they will continue to accept applications for the next few weeks. Applications may be turned in to the County Agents or Forest Service Officers in Wilbarger, Hardeman, Childress, Cottle, Motley, Hall, Collingsworth, Donley, Gray and Wheeler Counties.
