Registered Stock Will Feature First Annual Donley Dairy Show Here Saturday

40 REGISTERED DAIRY ENTRIES WILL BE SHOWN

DONLEY FOLKS WILL BE GIVEN CHANCE TO TRY HAND AT SHOW JUDGING

Donley County's first annual Dairy Show, an event which is expected to grow into one of the most important county agricultural events in coming years, will be staged in Clarendon Saturday, with registered dairy cattle from all sections of the county on exhibition for judging and classification.

Howard Ferguson, Amarillo Dairy Specialist, who has been superintendent of the dairy division of the Tri-State Fair for many years, will judge entries in the show, according to J. R. Gillham, local F. F. A. advisor and ramrod of the event.

The show will open at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, and all cattle to be exhibited must be on hand by that time. Judging will not be done by comparison, as in most stock shows, but by classification. In other words, cattle will be placed in one of six classes, according to set standards used by all registered cattle breeders. The basis of classification will be as follows:

- Excellent—an animal that will score a total of 90 or more points on the official scoreboard for that breed. Very Good—Scoring from 85 to 90 points. Good Plus—Scoring from 80 to 85 points. Good—Scoring from 75 to 80 points. Fair—Scoring from 70 to 75 points. Poor—Score of 70 to 75 points.

Most registered cattle associations recommend that cattle in this class be not registered.

As an added attraction to Donley County people, a judging contest will be held at 1 p. m., with the field open to anyone. There will be no charge for the privilege, and all who care to can try their hand at judging four classes of four cattle each. Cash prizes totaling $15 will be given to the top-ranking amateur judges, and this part of the show is expected to attract much interest.

Only registered cattle will be entered in the show. Local F. F. A. boys will enter about 30 heads, which will make up the bulk of the entries. Special interest will center around a number of excellent Jersey bulls owned by F. F. A. members and by farmers who have recently organized bull circles under the direction of H. M. Breedlove, County Agent.

Charles and Williams Sullivan, Pete Morrow, Frank Cannon, Ray Pittman, H. A. Harrison, Carl Morris, C. W. Howard, Calvin Naylor, F. S. Clark, J. R. Gillham, J. W. Sullivan, and several other Donley County cattle owners are expected to exhibit their cattle in one of the classes. At least forty head of fine stock will be entered.

Small cash premiums will be paid for every head of cattle entered, and all cattle will be released to their owners by 3 p. m. Saturday.

George Green left Wednesday to spend a few days in Dallas visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Newton Bentley. From there he will go to Trinidad, Texas, where he will visit with his son, William Green, and family.

CENTRAL TEXAS HEARS ABOUT CLARENDON'S 1941 CELEBRATION

News of Clarendon's Annual Celebration and Ranchers' Rodeo went all the way to the heart of Central Texas as this week, as the caravan of cars carrying Clarendon Hi band musicians made its way to Waco.

Each car in the caravan—there were sixteen cars—carried a bumper sign advertising the Celebration, giving dates and place of the event, and giving highway motorists something to think about as they drove along.

County Food Dealers to Discuss Food Plan In Meeting Here Next Monday

A county-wide meeting of food dealers and their employees, will be held at the Donley county court house Monday night, for the purpose of discussing the Food Stamp Plan which is to be inaugurated here May 16.

The meeting has been called by Walter Clifford, head of the county grocers' executive committee, and the Plan will be discussed by Wortham Seale, Surplus Marketing Administration representative who is setting up the plan in Donley and Briscoe counties. County grocers are deeply interested in the Food Stamp Plan, as it will provide a substantial increase in their gross business, through increasing the purchasing power of underprivileged families in the county.

The Food Stamp Plan has three major objectives:

- 1. Aid to American farmers through creation of larger markets for domestic farm products; 2. Aid to the underprivileged through increasing their purchasing power so that they may buy more food and have a wider variety of the necessary wholesome foods essential to good health; and 3. Aid to business by utilizing normal trade channels for the distribution of food products to families certified for public assistance.

Stamps for use in the county issuing office were ordered this week, Mr. Seale said. The stamps come in only a 25 cent denomination, and in two colors, blue and orange. Orange stamps are purchased by the user, and will buy any food article taken home for human consumption. Eligibles to the plan are expected to spend about the same amount for orange stamps as they ordinarily would for groceries.

Blue stamps, on the other hand, are given away by the government, with purchases of orange stamps. In some cases one blue stamp is given for each orange stamp bought; in other cases the ratio of blue to orange is somewhat less than one to one. Blue stamps will not buy any and all food stuffs, but are good only for purchases of certain designated surplus commodities.

The May list of these surplus commodities includes fresh grapefruit, oranges, apples, carrots, Irish potatoes, butter, raisins, pork lard, all pork except that cooked or packed in glass or metal containers, corn meal, shell eggs, dried prunes, hominy grits, dry beans, wheat flour, and whole wheat.

The list of commodities changes from time to time, and commodities may be added to or taken from this list in weeks to come.

The group will enter only two contests, performance of a standard contest number, and marching. The stake will be a chance to go on to National competition and competition will be the keenest the Clarendon group has faced in its career to date.

In the musical portion of the contest, fifteen other Class C bands are entered, from all sections of the state. Other cities represented are Grandfalls-Royalty, Union Grove, Iraan, Hull-Daisetta, De Leon, Galena Park, Hearne, Carlisle, Kermit, Lancaster, McCamey, Spearman, St. Jo, and Crane, Texas, and Wynnewood, Oklahoma.

Marching entries will be on hand from twenty-three cities in Class C, in addition to Clarendon. They are Crockett, Cypress-Fairbanks, Frankston, Union Grove, Galena Park, East Mountain, Itasca, Tahoka, Troup, Seminole Archer City, Crane, Grandfalls-Royalty, Iraan, Hearne, Carlisle, Kermit, Lancaster, McCamey and Spearman.

PLACES WON IN STATE MEET BY HOMEMAKERS

Three Clarendon Hi girl homemakers, with their sponsor, Miss Maurice Berry, spent a pleasant and educational weekend in San Antonio last week, on the occasion of the State Homemakers Rally. The meet attracted over 2,500 girls, representing 446 Texas schools. Sarabeth Lowry, Frances Phelps, and Betty Ann Craft made the trip with the sponsor.

Competition in various events at the meet was extremely keen, and Miss Berry and the Clarendon girls were rather proud of ranking places they attained with entries in three contests.

A tailored garment entered in second year competition by Miss Lowry was ranked "good" by the judges, while Miss Craft's twirling performance in an "Amateur Hour" event received "superior" rating. A radio script entry submitted by Nelda Sue Burton was given "excellent" ranking by the judges. Miss Phelps entered a dress in first year competition, but was not successful in placing among the ranking entries.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown left Wednesday for Douglas, Arizona, where they will make their home.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO PUSH DEFENSE SAVINGS BONDS

Sales of the new Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps in Donley County will be planned and encouraged in the future by a special Defense Bond Committee, named this week by Frank Scofield, State Administrator for the National Defense Savings Staff in Texas.

The committee, which includes also Mrs. Frances Taylor, J. L. McMurtry, J. D. Swift, W. H. Patrick, Sam M. Braswell, Wesley Knorpp, J. C. Estlack, Mrs. K. Patrick Bugbee, Miss Charlotte Molesworth, Tom F. Connally, and H. T. Burton, for Clarendon; and J. W. Noel, W. C. Pogue, C. E. Johnson, and Mrs. Mabel E. Jones.

National Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps, issued by the government to serve the joint purposes of national defense financing and private saving at reasonable interest return, went on sale over the United States May 1. The bonds and stamps are available or on order at practically every bank and all post-offices in the nation.

Rehearsals were well along this week on "All the Comforts of Home," Park Board benefit play which will be presented at the College Auditorium on the night of May 15.

Described as the "show that help Charley's Aunt make the Gay Nineties gay," "All the Comforts of Home" purports to be a comedy melodrama of the last century, complete with all the laughs and properties which rolled play-goers in the aisles back in '90, when it was first produced. It was written by William Gillette, and is being directed for production here by Mesdames Ira Merchant and John Knorpp.

The production is being presented to Clarendon not only as an unusually diverting way to pass an evening, but also as a means of providing funds for a worthy local enterprise, the city park fund.

The cast is a large one, and the directors have drawn upon the best histrionic talent Clarendon offers to complete the dramatic personae. Dick Shelton, Ernest Kent, and Kenneth Brown share masculine leads, with Rebecca Eanes, Vivian Taylor, and Avis Lee McElvany providing part of the feminine angle. The play revolves about a number of complicated situations, and the finished production depends upon every character to the extent of making his or her part a major one.

Other players are Walter Knorpp, Mrs. Joe Ritter, Rev. M. M. Miller, Ira Merchant, Joan Thompson, Tom Connally, Isador McEllinger, John Knorpp, Nettie Sims, Mrs. Mike Stricklin, and Clyde Slavin.

Elery W. Wason, who has recently completed a course in higher mathematics at the University of Florida, has been named Navigator in the United States Army Air Corps and will do four months duty in Hawaii after which he will be commissioned as a second lieutenant. He has been visiting this week with Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Stricklin.

Laurence Neese, former Donley assistant County Agent, and now of Pampa was in Clarendon over the weekend.

HEADS DRIVE

F. E. Chamberlain, Clarendon, banker, appointed this week to head a Donley County drive for sales of new Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps.

DEFENSE SURVEY MAY BE MADE OF PANHANDLE AREA

The National Defense Program, which daily is growing to influence more and more of American life, may soon extend itself to draw on the vast resources of the Texas Panhandle.

That possibility was advanced this week in a report of Cong. Gene Worley, who wrote constituents in the 18th District that a close survey of all the resources and possibilities of every county in his district had been promised by Washington officials, to see if the resources of this area could be fitted into National Defense plans.

With Senator Tom Connally, Judge Marvin Jones, and Col. E. A. Simpson, John Boyce and Carl Hinton of Amarillo, Cong. Worley made the rounds of Washington officialdom last week, asking that the Panhandle territory be considered in National Defense plans. The group asked for consideration of all the Panhandle impartially, so that if any National Defense resources were available, they might be exploited to the good of the nation.

The officials contacted finally agreed to make a survey of the area, Cong. Worley said, though he could not say definitely when or where the survey would start or end. To assist the officials who will plan the survey, Cong. Worley said that he furnished the name and location of at least one town in each county in his Congressional District.

Cong. Worley suggested that representatives of each section or county in the Panhandle cooperate with the officials and with one another, to furnish all available information as to resources and National Defense possibilities, so that not one of the Panhandle's advantages may be overlooked when the survey is completed.

Pressure from another source in the Panhandle's behalf was directed on National Defense authorities Wednesday of this week, when the Texas House of Representatives passed a resolution requesting serious consideration to location of munitions plants in the Panhandle area. Addressed to the war department and Office of Production Management, the resolution called attention to natural resources located in and near the area, transportation facilities, and other factors which might be of importance in locating defense industries. The resolution was offered by Rep. Ennis Favors of Pampa, Jack Little of Amarillo, Richard Craig of Miami, Tom Deen of Floydada, and Paul Eubank of Matador. It was passed unanimously by the House, and went on to the Senate for concurrence.

WHEAT SITUATION TO BE DISCUSSED AT AMARILLO SATURDAY

Wheat farmers from all over the Texas Panhandle will make their way to Amarillo Saturday, to attend an important meeting called by Grover Hill, former Amarilloan who is now assistant secretary of agriculture.

The meeting has been called, it is reported, so that Mr. Hill can explain the general wheat situation, with special reference to market quotas on wheat. Wheat referendums are to be held in all wheat-growing states May 31, and this subject also may be discussed at Saturday's meeting.

The session will open at 2 p. m. Saturday, in the Amarillo City Auditorium. The public is welcome, and wheat-growers are especially urged to be on hand.

MARTIN COMMENCEMENT

Friday night at 8:30 the Martin School will present its annual school closing exercises. The program was to have been presented last week but was postponed because of bad weather.

RAINS AGAIN FALL IN DONLEY AREA

Beginning Thursday, three days of hard, intermittent rain falling on Clarendon and the Donley county area added quite a bit to the year's total rainfall last weekend.

Rainfall Friday, the heaviest day of the week, was 2.44 inches, weather observer Joe Goldstone said, and 1.66 inches fell during Saturday. A trace of moisture totaling .15 fell Sunday, and with .45 recorded for Thursday, the Clarendon area received 4.10 inches.

Other sections of the county were equally fortunate or more so, and crop indications at present were regarded as excellent. Much will depend on later moisture, farmers said, but range conditions and stored feed water could hardly be better for cattlemen.

STREET WASHED TO COMPLETE ANNUAL CITY SPRING CLEAN-UP WEEK

Clarendon city streets, those in the business section at least, shone with spring cleanliness today, after a city crew gave them a bath with fire department equipment this morning. Washing the streets wound up in good style the annual City Clean-Up Week, which ended this week. On the whole, the Clean-Up was successful, it was reported, and city trucks disposed of a considerable amount of last winter's refuse and trash set out by local householders.

Laurence Neese, former Donley assistant County Agent, and now of Pampa was in Clarendon over the weekend.

LIONS INTERESTED IN GRAND JURY REPORTS OF 1880S

GRAND JURY REPORTS WHEN COUNTY IS YOUNG READ BY LANE

Lion Walker Lane, as program chairman for the day, brought the Clarendon Lions Club, last Tuesday, transcribed sketches from early day grand jury reports in Donley County, dating from 1882 when the county was first incorporated into the old 35th judicial district.

Many of the notations were humorous from this latter day standpoint, and depicted progress in courts and justice, if not in the behavior of Donley citizenship.

Lion Keith Lowell announced the celebration of Hospital Week in Clarendon on the week of May 12th, as set for observance over the nation, and presented Lion Cap Morris, who briefly summarized the work of the Adair Hospital here, urged stronger support locally for the institution, and decried the mistal that might be argued apprehensions about the hospital by too much loose talking in the community. He invited the Lions to help in inviting the public to visit the hospital during "Hospital Week", and said the hours would be from 10-12 in the morning and 2-4 in the afternoon.

Lion Robbins announced the band caravan of sixteen automobiles leaving for Waco Wednesday, thanked the Lions and the community for liberal support and voiced a hope that that band might bring further honors to Clarendon.

DRAFT CALLS COMING; DONLEY VOLUNTEER SUPPLY GONE; SO...

The long arm of Selective Service machinery pointed toward Donley County young men for the first time this week, as the county local board announced that its supply of volunteers all would be gone before the May quota of selectees could be filled.

The local board filled one quota call Sunday, when three men were sent to the Ft. Bliss induction station at El Paso. They were Clarence Edwin Skeeter) Davis, Fred William Springs, and Winfred William (Wimpy) Wise.

On May 20, the second May quota of selectees has been called to report. Two men are in this call, Cecil Durwood Hightower and Perry Millard Cruze. Hightower is the board's last remaining volunteer, and to Cruze will go the distinction of being the first man drafted out of Donley County. His order number is 38. Replacements for the May 20 call are Alvin Durwood Yarbrough and Paul W. Schull. Yarbrough's order number is 41; Schull's, 59.

Donley County has been unusual among Texas counties in that no volunteers have been called until almost the entire selective service year which ends July 1, has passed. Most counties had fewer volunteers for one year or regular armed service duty than was the case here, and in these counties many men have already been drafted.

F. F. A. JUDGING TEAMS LEAD AT PLAINVIEW MEET

Clarendon's F. F. A. judging teams are becoming something of a mental hazard to other youthful teams in the Panhandle, by their continued victories, and this week two teams carried the chapter's winning stride through the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show in Plainview.

The local dairy products and dairy cattle judging teams, only entries from Clarendon in the show, walked away from all competition to win both events, becoming at the same time the first team in the history of that show to win first in two leading events. Five teams were entered in dairy products judging; seventeen in dairy cattle judging.

The dairy products victory was the third in the last four years for the Clarendon boys. The local group was second in judging milk, first in butter, and first in cream. Lee Christie and C. G. Kirkland were first and second high point individuals in the entire contest. Christie was third in milk judging, second in butter, and second in cream. Kirkland was first in butter and third in cream. Lubbock, Panhandle, Plainview, and Dimmitt finished in the order named. H. A. Harrison, Jr., was the other member of the team.

The dairy cattle team composed of Ray Robertson, Charles Smith, and Redell Henson outscored 16 other entries. The local boys were high in Jerseys and sixth in Holsteins. Ray Robertson was second high individual in the contest and high man in judging Jerseys. Charles Smith was 8th high individual in the contest, 10th in Jerseys, and 7th in Holsteins. Redell Henson was 9th individual in the contest, 5th in Jerseys.

The team brought home silver loving cups for each contest won, and a total of $37.50 in cash premiums were added to the chapter treasury.

SHERIFF GUY WRIGHT ATTENDS OFFICERS' MEET IN CHILDRESS MONDAY

Sheriff Guy Wright was among a large group of Panhandle and Oklahoma area officers who attended the annual spring convention of the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma Peace Officers Convention in Childress early this week.

Features of the meeting were an address by A. P. Kitchin, Dallas FBI agent, on fifth column activity in the United States, election of Sheriff Cal Rose of Gray county president of the Association for 1941-42, and a pistol shoot at the Childress Fair Grounds. The convention opened Sunday afternoon and lasted through Tuesday.

WANTS GALLON JAR BACK—NO MORE MILK UNTIL IT IS RETURNED

W. E. Hastings says the person that took the gallon of milk off his front porch last Friday night will have to return the jar before he gets any more milk. Since the jar wasn't his, Mr. Hastings is peeved—the loss of the milk is bad enough but he deplores having to make good the jar.

THE PROBLEM OF MADAM PERKINS

From every state in the Union, from hundreds of clubs and organizations, from literally millions of private citizens has gone up the demand to President Roosevelt for the removal of Madam Perkins as secretary of labor, and a member of the cabinet.

This widespread demand for the resignation of a cabinet officer is so unusual that it deserves the careful and immediate attention of the President, because the demand is based on the belief that the presence of Madam Perkins in the cabinet and in the important labor department, is today the most difficult obstruction in the problem of national defense.

One of the most recent demands for her removal came a few days ago from the national committee of the American Legion, who spoke plainly in their public declaration, and coupled with it the proposal for the conveying of war materials to Britain by the Navy.

Madam Perkins is the Number One National problem, just now, for her presence in the federal administration gives aid and comfort to the obstructionists, and the subversive leadership in industry engaged in building the arsenal of Democracy.

The first step back to patriotic effort in the required labor tempo of 1941 is the passing of Madam Perkins from any official connection with the government.

WAR GARDENS THIS SUMMER AND FALL

Do you remember the "war gardens" back in the World War No. 1? Vacant lots and front lawns were glorified by the presence of onions, radishes, tomatoes, beans, squash, etc., and even the laziest amongst us felt impelled to publicly wield the hoe and rake, and spray the growing shoots in the rows, along with such Maude Muller's as joined in the healthy exercise.

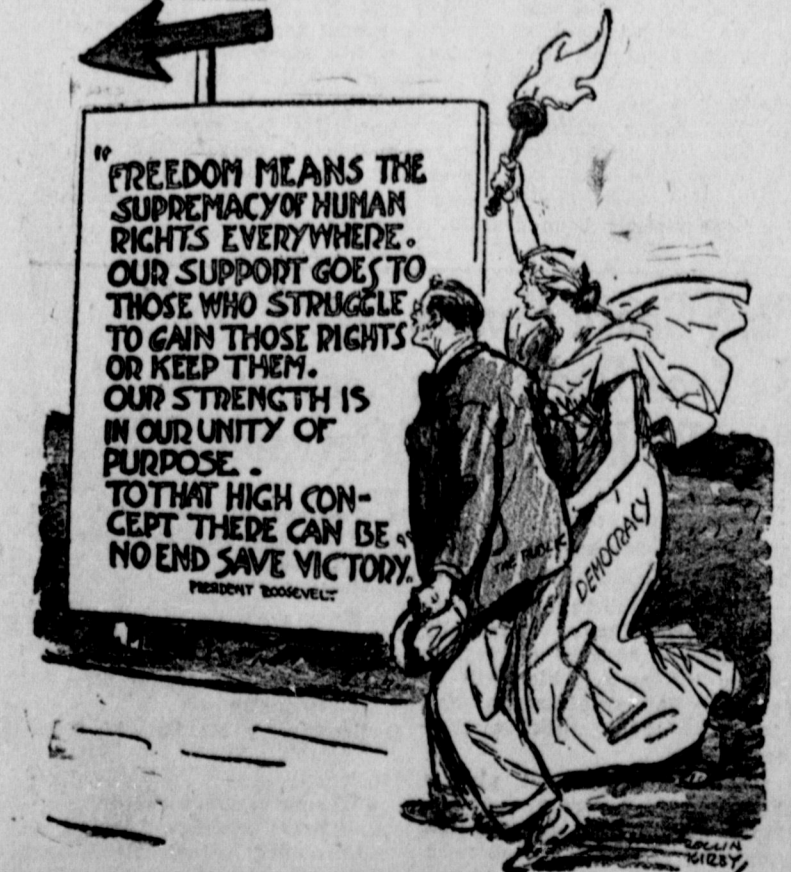

Well, the war gardens of twenty-odd years ago may come back to us, and it might be well for them to come back in 1941. The recent copious rains over the Southwest set a perfect stage for bumper crops in the summer and fall gardens.

Events across the seas give more than passing reason why Americans should raise "war gardens" in 1941—before any war is declared in the old fashioned way. The U. S. may never declare war at all, but, at that, we might need the foodstuffs of the gardens, declaration or no declaration.

TEXANS WILL NOT BE STAMPEDED

Texans will not be stampeded in their voting for a senator to fill the vacancy account of the death of Morris Shepherd, by one candidate declaring that he is the "annointed" and chosen of the president of the United States. They will not be stampeded by the declaration by another candidate that his defeat would mean the end of federal action against aliens in the nation, that his defeat would be a triumph of the anti-American influences that beset us.

Texans, like voters in other states, feel that they are fully competent to select their own representatives in Congress, and will proceed

"THAT'S IT!"

JUST HUMANS

By GENE CARR

"Gosh, How Time Flies. It Was Only Yesterday You Was a Kid!"

to do so in an orderly manner. One of the candidates mentioned might be elected to the senate, but it will not be on account of their specious campaign declarations, but rather, in spite of them.

Texas voters will not be stampeded.

Happenings That Affected the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

As various authorities, including the President, have lately observed, an American characteristic has been to buoyed up into clouds of optimism by British victories, and to be cast down into the depths of despair by British defeats. This, the authorities believe, is a mistake. In a great war, the tide of victory never runs one way. The achievements must be accompanied by the failures. And so, it is argued, the British-Greek-Yugoslavian debacle in the Balkans, bad as it is, should not be exaggerated.

The decisive battle of this war is the Battle of England and the Atlantic—Hitler may go far elsewhere, but until England herself falls, he cannot win. Looking back won on the Balkan campaign, it seems apparent that the British either underestimated the German power, or overestimated the effectiveness of their allies. It was felt in military circles that Yugoslavia, with the aid of her difficult terrain, should be able to last many weeks—she actually fell in 13 days, and long before the end her armies were in swift retreat, and were cut off from each other. It was felt that the mountainous country of Greece, among the severest in the world, would slow the German mechanized advance. Yet the German small tanks went over precipitous mountain passes almost as easily as if they were traveling on roads, and the Greek army found that personal valor could not compensate for the immense superiority the Germans possessed in equipment. The same thing was true in the Anzac troops of General Wavell's army, which were transported to Greece from Africa. Man for man, the reporters on the scene wrote, they were far better than their German foes. But the greatest of courage is a frail weapon indeed against a tank.

On top of that, it is apparently true that, again, the Germans demonstrated a far greater efficiency in staff work. There was no unified Allied command in the Balkans, and the respective General Staffs had little opportunity for consultation and cooperative planning. As usual, the German campaign was blueprinted to the last detail, and it went off according to schedule.

There are critics in England as well as here, who believe and say that the British should never have transferred troops to Greece—that defeat was foredoomed. This criticism was answered by Mr. Churchill in his world-wide talk of April 27. He said that one of the greatest strengths of Britain lies in the admiration and respect she has gained in the United States and elsewhere, and that if she had let her allies down, after encouraging them to fight and pledging aid, much of that regard would have been lost. There was, in other words, a great question of national honor involved, in the British government's view. And so the desperate gamble was taken.

What achievements we may next expect of Hitler remain to be seen. In his talk, Mr. Churchill was not sanguine about the immediate future—he intimated that the Axis may dominate the Black and Caspian seas, may overrun Turkey, and seize or otherwise obtain the great wheat and oil lands of the Soviet Union. He pointed out that General Wavell's African forces, which chased the Italians out of Libya, and have since suffered reverses from strong German detachments, were smaller than most realized—30,000 men, with relatively little mechanized equipment. However, Britain does have great forces in Egypt, and the Germans should find the going far harder there.

In the meantime, it was a great day for Britain when President Roosevelt decided to extend American naval and air patrols as far as Greenland, and said that lurking submarines and raiders, when spotted, would be reported to merchant ships. This means that Britain will have to patrol a great deal less of the Atlantic, and can concentrate her none-too-numerous naval forces in the areas where they are most vitally needed. The loss of shipping, after all, is far more dangerous to Britain's ultimate hopes than is the loss of local campaigns in Europe or Africa. For, if Hitler can isolate Britain from the New World, and shut off the war materials and the food she must have to survive and fight, he will win the war. It is in the Atlantic, almost all authorities think, that the war must finally and irrevocably be told.

The new tax bill, as proposed by the Treasury, was a great deal stiffer than early reports indicated, and most columns, including this one, erred on the side of understatement when forecasting what it was to involve.

In the lower and middle income brackets, the Treasury proposed would up income taxes in the neighborhood of 600 per cent. The bill also involves a large number of excise taxes on various commodities.

The tax bill would do more than raise money. It would hold down consumer purchasing power, which would be a bar against inflation, and which would indirectly prevent materials needed for war purposes being used for consumers' goods purposes.

MONEY in the ground

Billions of barrels of Texas oil reserves mean money in the bank for you as a Texan.

On constant deposit in underground vaults, they assure continued wages for Texas workers, lease and royalty payments for Texas farmers and ranchers, and tax revenues for our State and local governments.

Nearly 11 billion barrels of known oil reserves are on tap in 161 counties of our State. Texas oil men are now searching for new fields in 90 additional counties. They discovered last year almost three times as much oil as they produced.

These oil reserves can be cashed only through their production and processing by Texas workers.

As a means of safeguarding this backlog of economic security, you as a Texas citizen can and should expect:

(a) Sound conservation practices, (b) A reasonable taxing policy by State and local governments to permit healthy development without loss of employment through abandonment of properties, (c) Increased use of this great fuel source through creation of new Texas industries.

These oil reserves provide security for you and every other Texan

THE WHIRLWIND!

Published by the Students of Lelia Lake High School, Lelia Lake, Texas

The seniors have been planning a big amusement before they have to say farewell to dear old Lelia High.

On Friday night, May 9, the seniors, with the help of the other classes, are planning a good time for everyone. It is the last big event of the year and everyone is invited to help make it a big success.

The proceeds will go to the athletic fund and it will help pay for jackets given to the graduating basketball players.

The classes are entering in this jolly event with the seniors who have planned the entertainment. The seniors wish to express their thanks for this school spirit. As each of these classes become seniors may the lower classes continue to enter in with the school spirit of 1941.

The picture show is one of which the entire family will enjoy. The differences between Joe E. Brown and Jeanette McDonald is like the difference between an airplane and a black-eyed pea. They just don't have a thing in common. Put them together and you have something, or do you? Well, come on out to the Lelia gym Friday night and see for yourself and boys, the admission is only five and ten cents; so bring your girls, mamas and kids and you'll have the best and biggest time you have had since the last time you were in the Lelia gym. AND you are going to get to vote on a girl of your choice for queen. When you buy one of the boxes which the girls are going to fix with a lunch in them, your money which you pay for the box will count a penny a vote on any girl you want to be queen. Then if you want to add votes you can pay one cent for each additional vote.

Senior Day will begin next Thursday and continue until the evening of the 16th. The seniors are planning to go to Lake McClellan for an all-night outing.

The senior class is going to sponsor the program Friday night. Be sure to come and the seniors promise you plenty of fun.

Be sure to come to the high school gym Friday night to see "Lottery Bride", starring Joe E.

Brown, Zazu Pitts and Jeanette McDonald. Admission is 5c and 10c. Be sure to come and join in the fun.

The seniors are planning an informal commencement program. The plans for commencement and baccalaureate exercises have really begun. The committee which will choose a pastor for baccalaureate service is Jophine Espey, Virginia Carroll, and J. R. Williams. The committee for the commencement program is Mildred Floyd, Claude Bain and Virginia Gee Leathers.

Tuesday night the freshmen had a picnic on Leathers Creek. The sophomores are planning a theatre party next Tuesday night.

The pupils of the elementary grades from one to six are planning to have their program Friday night, May 23, at 8 o'clock.

The program will be divided into three parts. An operetta, "The Coming of Spring", a patriotic play, "The Flag Makers", and a play telling of the folk-fashions of various nations. "Old the entertainment. All call for songs and many colorful costumes.

We cordially invite all of our patrons and friends to attend.

It is going to be interesting to see whose sack is going to erase the school debt tonight. If we could only get two or three of the girls to bring several sacks and divide their time among several of the boys, our troubles would be over.

Mrs. Oby Polk and children of Dallas are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGowan.

Imogene: "I told him I didn't want to see him anymore."
Jophine: "What did he do?"
Imogene: "He turned off the lights."

Lois: "Why is that man over there snapping his fingers?"
Meldon: "He's a deaf mute with the hiccups."
Geraldine was fishing and caught a very small fish. She wound it in until it was rammed against the end of the rod.

Geraldine: "What do I have now?"
Buford: "Climb up the rod and stab it."

And then one day she turned and saw that he was smiling at her! She smiled back at him! No, he didn't turn away, he didn't disappear—he looked at her more intently than before! "Smile like that again," he said.

She blushed and dimpled. And he laughed and laughed. "Just as I thought," he said. "You look like a chipmunk."

Slippery ice—very thin;
Pretty girl—tumbled in;
Gave a shriek—then she sank;
Boy on hand—heard her shout;
Jumped right in—pulled her out;
Now he's hers—very nice;
But she had—to break the ice.

Miss Doris Davis spent the weekend in Canyon visiting friends.

"The Romancer"
She paints her lips cherry red. And powders her face until its fair. She hides the corners on her head. By frizzing up her hair. She ignores her appetite To keep her figure trim, And still her placket makes a sight; Because she's not so slim. Her beau receives the hints Of her coming when he hears The danger of the ornaments Dangling from her ears. And you'll find she never fails To blind the wooer with her nails.

Ruben: "Did I get my last hair cut in here?"
Barber: "I couldn't say. We've only been in business here for two years."
Mr. Wilson: "How far were you from the correct answer?"
Kenneth: "Only three seats, sir."

There are, to me, two kinds of guys And only two that I despise: The first, I'd really like to slam— The one who copies my exam. The other is the dirty skunk Who covers his and lets me flunk.

$100.00 REWARD

$50.00 for OLDEST Electric Bill

$5 Each for the 10 Next Oldest

(All entries must be fifteen or more years old)

Nothing to Buy!

Just Send or Bring Us Your Old Bill — and 100-Word-or-less Letter Describing Electric Service at Time Bill was Paid

MAYBE you still have the first electric bill you ever paid! If so, you will recall that the service wasn't so good compared to present-day standards of efficiency and dependability.

If yours is the oldest we receive, it is worth $50 to you. If it is one of the ten next oldest, we will pay you $5 for it. It must be for service in the home, dated 15 or more years ago, and must be accompanied by a letter, 100 words or less, telling something about the kind of service and the cost for the appliances and light you used at the time the bill was paid.

Why Do We Want Old Bills?

So we can compare today's improved service and lower cost with yesteryear's! We want to figure what the kilowatt-hours used at present-day low rates would have cost in the "good old days" when oil lamps were first being displaced by BETTER LIGHT.

We all know that not so many years ago electricity was on only part of each day and night; and that interruptions in small isolated oil engine plants were at times frequent. We all know, too, that the transmission line type of electricity has resulted in greatly lowered cost and improved service so that people today are using two or three, or even five times, as much for about the same or less money.

Look Through Your Old Receipts Today

This offer is good until June 15. But don't put it off—dig up that old bill today. If yours is one of the oldest eleven we receive, payment will be made as soon after June 15 as possible.

All PRESENT customers of the West Texas Utilities (excepting employees) are eligible. The old bill may be for service rendered from a predecessor of the company in this community; that is, for any bill paid before the coming of West Texas Utilities cheap and dependable electric service.

Mail or Deliver in Person Your Entry to Our Local Office

West Texas Utilities Company

We will do our best to return your entry if it isn't one of the eleven oldest bills. We reserve the right to publish photographic copy of winning bills and letters and names of winners.

Your tax dollars should be used for those items essential to national defense. Electric Service NOW is ample and sufficient to meet the emergency without government subsidies or expenditure of tax money for this purpose.

TODAY IS THE DAY!!!

Today is the day when sixty C. H. S. band students and director Ray Robbins will experience their ambition to have a part in the coveted honor, the National Contest.

Bouquets of all kinds to Mr. Robbins for his wonderful leadership which has placed the band before the eyes of Texas. It goes without saying he is the best Director in this part of our world.

The C. H. S. band has already set a wonderful record for this year and this is to let all know that the school and town are backing the organization for a bigger and better band next year.

"Blood, Sweat and Tears"

Winston Churchill Here is the great history of the English war to date. It is an incomplete and partial history, of course, a history which cannot interpret, which consists of explanation, exhortations and prophecy. It has recently been added to the school library. It was the Book - Of - The - Month selection for May and a best seller.

Mr. Churchill says, "I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears, and sweat". It is here for free men to read, ponder, and posterity to cherish, with those unforgettable pronouncements on the progress of the war, the defense of England, the Democracy's fight for life which has rallied England's people to their present heroic stand.

"You ask, what is our policy? I will say: it is to wage war, by sea, land, and air, with all our might and with all the strength that God can give us; to wage war against a monstrous tyranny, never surpassed in the dark, lamentable catalogue of human crime. That is our policy. You ask, what is our aim? I can answer in one word: Victory—victory at all costs, victory in spite of all terror, victory, however long and hard the road may be; for without victory, there is no survival." These are the words of Mr. Churchill in answer to the questions of many people.

AMBITIOUS POET

Another poet of untold ability has come into the spotlight after two years of hard work.

The "Broncho Range" takes pleasure in being the first to place into print G. D. Shelley's poems. Mr. Shelley is a Junior in C. H. S. and has taken for his pen name "Elliot Dyke".

WHY?

Why do your kisses thrill me as other's never do?
 Why do your glances fill me with longing born anew?
 Why do I dream of you all through the lonely nights?
 Why can't I live without you nor bear you out of sight?
 Why do I long to hold you and keep you always near?
 In case I haven't told you it's because I love you, dear.

"LITTLE DROPS OF RAIN"
 O little drops of rain,
 From where dost thou come?
 Some say from the cloudy sky,
 Others from the sea far away.
 But I know a more likely place,
 They come from the Lord on high.

"THE MISTAKE"
 "O poetic fool, with thine eyes so hazy,
 Why dost thou crave a Saxon beauty?"

One whose waving hair of rars't gold,
 One whose eyes are of the sky's own blue,
 One who stands out in the vast world of beauty,
 And is radiant god for all to see.

O fool, art thou not crazy?"
 "I may be a fool as thou hast said,
 And crave a Saxon beauty.
 But even a fool is a human,
 And sometimes think of other things than duty.

Thou ask if I art crazy to think of such a thing,
 Maybe so, but who knows better than I?
 Once I was loved and loved in return,
 That was a while ago,
 But alas her love has died,
 And I remain a Poetic fool to sit and think of the past,
 And write to console my heart.
 She was of the most loving nature,
 Always kind and understanding.

Until the fool that I am unite it all by writing."

BR
 "KID DAY"

Last Monday the high school seniors had their annual kid day. They came dressed in their short dresses and knickerbockers. The girls had their hair done in pigtails and were carrying their dolls, while the boys were carrying their toy cars and guns. Both boys and girls had plenty of all-day suckers and apples to eat. Every one in high school enjoyed the kid day as much as the seniors.

ON TO WACO

The band left Wednesday morning for Waco. They will meet at the band room at 7:00 o'clock and do some practicing. Everyone is taking a picnic lunch to eat at noon time, Wednesday.

They play at 8:30 Thursday morning. Probably while this is being read, they will be marching. They are the fourth band to march that night. This is quite different from being thirty-third, like at Amarillo. The best of luck!

The band practiced Sunday afternoon from 1:30 until 3:30. They marched half of the time.

EXHIBIT

The annual school exhibit was held last Friday, from two o'clock until four. The weather was bad, but quite a few parents and friends of the students attended.

The High School Exhibit was held in the various rooms. Each room contained the exhibit pertaining to the subject taught in that particular room.

Mrs. Goodner's English classes contributed a very interesting part of the exhibit. Both phases of English, literature and grammar, were represented. Many booklets, charts, pictures, dolls, and all forms of wood-work were present.

Miss Hall's English classes presented an exhibit pertaining to English literature and grammar. An outstanding work of art in Miss Hall's room was a scribe at work which was carved by Earnest Eudy.

In Miss Wallis' room was found the Spanish and American history exhibits. An outstanding article in the Spanish exhibit was a Spanish shawl which came from Old Mexico.

In the chemistry laboratory there were many fascinating and which displayed interesting specimens a trick device which supposedly burned pure air.

In the biology laboratory there were many interesting devices. Among them ment of plant and animal life.

There was a very interesting exhibit in the library. Books of many lands were displayed in the reading room. Each country was represented by a doll dressed in the particular costume of that country. These dolls were from Mrs. White's large collection.

The plane geometry exhibit was held in the Junior home-room. Many drawings and booklets were on display. Mr. James' economics classes exhibit was also held in this room. It was highlighted by many maps and graphs. The home economics exhibit was held in the home economic department. The exhibit showed what fine work the girls are doing.

BR
 PRESS CLUB DANCE

The most elaborate dance of the season was held Friday night, May the second, at the gym and was given by the Press Club. The room was decorated as a May Pole, but instead of the Pole, a lattice arch decorated with vines and flowers was there. At each side of the arch were placed beautiful chains and the whole building had the appearance of Spring.

At ten o'clock a short floor show was presented. First number was a dance divinely done by Fred Lynn and Geraldine Clayton. The second number was a reading by Miss Gladys Wallis. Third was a dance by June and Millard Miller. The dances were enjoyed by all. The guests want to thank our sponsors, Miss Wallis and our editor, John King, for backing us so kindly in such a swell way.

The Press Club has entertained at five dances. Once at Mrs. Biggers', twice at Betty Jo Caraway's and twice at the gym. Thanks to everybody for such swell cooperation and may next year be as successful in the way of entertainment.

F. F. A.

The Second Year Agriculture Class won the Chapter conducting contest of Area 1, Chapter Conducting team composed of twelve members. This entitles them to go to the State F. F. A. Convention at Marshall, Texas, July 16-17.

C. G. Kirkland also won the Area 1 Newswriting Contest. Both of these contests were held at Memphis.

Mr. J. R. Gillham, with a dairy cattle team who are Redell Henson, Ray Robertson, and Charles Smith, went to the Panhandle dairy contests held at Plainview this week. They are expected to near the top in the contest.

A definite date has been set for the annual F. F. A. picnic. It is to be May 12.

SENIOR PICNIC

The college and seniors will have their picnic together Thursday the eighth at McClellan Lake. The picnic has been planned for two weeks and everyone is looking forward to a gay time.

They are planning to leave at eight-thirty, and will stay until time when the buses arrive.

The sponsors are Mr. Payne, Mr. Drennan, and Mr. Warden.

The top tune of this week is "Amapola". The two in second and third places are "The Wise Old Owl" second, and "There'll Be Some Changes Made" third. Here are the words to the top tune.

"Amapola"
 Amapola, my pretty little poppy
 You're like that lovely flower so sweet and heavenly.
 Since I found you my heart is wrapped around you
 And loving you seems to beat a rhapsody.

Amapola, the prett ylittle poppy
 Must copy its endearing charm from you,
 Amapola, Amapola, how I long to hear you say I love you.

Adair Hospital Says No Change In Management—Returns Fee Claiming Membership For 1941 In THA

Following the letter of cancellation of the 1941 membership of the Adair Hospital in the Texas Hospital Association, as printed in The News last week, the Hospital made answer denying the statements in the letter of President H. G. Hatch, returning the membership fee and claiming membership for the year 1941.

Clarendon, Texas May 1, 1941 Harry G. Hatch, President, Texas Hospital Association, Amarillo, Texas Dear Sir: We hereby acknowledge receipt of your letter of April 25, 1941 in which you state that you understand that since paying our 1941 Texas Hospital Association membership dues there has been a change in management.

You also state you understand there has been a change in the policy of operation of Adair Hospital. We have, according to our by-laws and constitution copied verbatim from the state law governing such institutions as ours, made it possible for all reputable physicians, legally registered by the state of Texas, and registered in Donley County, to be members of our hospital staff, and practice in the hospital. Any other course, we believe, would be a violation of the laws of our state.

We also have a letter from the Texas Hospital Association along with the check we are returning signed by Eva Wallace in which the following statement occurs: "Only Hospitals registered by the American Medical Association are eligible to membership in the Texas Hospital Association."

We wish to assure you that all legally licensed M. D. physicians have the same privileges they have always had to practice in our hospital. But we have in Donley County people holding

Texas Hospital Association policies who are using the services of legally licensed physicians other than M. D. physicians. They are paying taxes to support our hospital and according to clauses in the policies they hold which is the only plan endorsed by the Texas Hospital Association they are promised the following: "This plan does not confer on any hospital any right to select a physician for the subscriber or any dependent and nothing contained in this plan shall interfere with the ordinary relationship between the subscriber or dependent and his personal physician who is a member of the medical staff of or acceptable to the hospital selected by the patient."

"Service will be rendered under this contract only upon the authorization of the subscribers or (dependent's) physician or surgeon; and the subscriber (or dependent) shall be admitted to and treated in the hospital only by a reputable physician or surgeon duly licensed by the state board of medical examiners in the state where service is rendered."

Only by such action taken by our board can such a policy holder have the benefits for which they have paid and which has been promised them in their policies as quoted above.

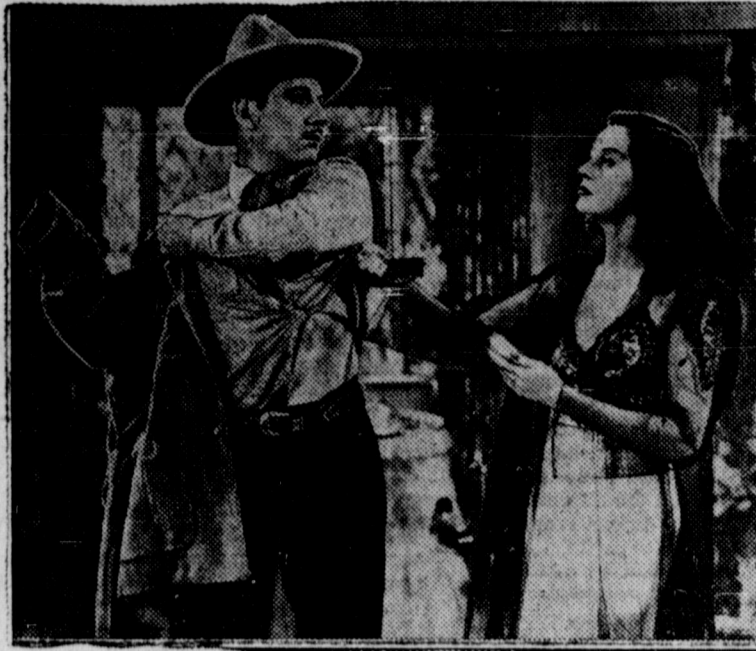

Therefore you can understand why we are returning check and ask that our hospital be retained as a member of the Texas Hospital Association. Copies to Madelyne Sturdavant Dr. E. A. Rowley Signed C. B. Morris Secretary-treasurer Adair Hospital

COUNTY MATTRESS PROGRAM IS NEARING COMPLETION

With the Donley County Mattress Program almost completed, County Agent H. M. Breedlove as soon as the material arrives, who received cards from his office to make their mattresses, please report to either the Hedley plant or the Clarendon plant and make their mattresses at once, as the mattress program is almost complete and he wishes to close this program, so that the Comfort Program can start as soon as the material arrives.

Breedlove stated that when the mattress program is completed 1000 mattresses will have been made, and the same number of comforts will be made for each person who received a mattress. Breedlove also stated that it was not necessary for a person who would receive a comfort to make a separate application, as only those persons who had received mattresses would be eligible for comforts, and the mattress applications will serve as applications for the comforts.

Is Your Subscription Due?

The impatient gentleman above is Melvyn Douglas, who seems about to take his leave of Rosalind Russell. The why and wherefore of this parting will be explained, no doubt, as the plot unfolds at the Pastime Theatre's week-end attraction, "This Thing Called Love".

Early-Day Resident Here this Week

Gus Williams, an early-day resident of Clarendon, late of Durant, Oklahoma, was here a few days the first of the week in a house-trailer, enroute to Washington state where he will make his home.

Mr. Williams was born here in 1892 and left here in 1902. His father, August Williams, was a well-known baker of Clarendon in those days. The elder Williams' whereabouts has not been known for many years, being last heard from at Shawnee, Okla., where he was following his trade, and Mr. Williams is using all known means to learn if his father is still alive, and his present location.

Thomas Cook, a resident of Amarillo for the past two decades, and a brother of Fred Cook of Clarendon, died suddenly at his home Saturday afternoon. He was 54 years old.

Mr. Cook had lived in the Panhandle for 35 years. He was active in the banking business in Miami, Wichita Falls and Amarillo for many years, but had spent the last several years in the oil and gas industry. He was vice president of the Public Service Corporation of Texas, which is the operating company for many small Panhandle city gas systems.

Surviving relatives, besides the brother, are the widow, Mrs. Jennie Wren Cook; a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Cook; and a half-brother, C. M. Hockett of Texola, Oklahoma.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Christian Church in Amarillo. Rev. R. C. Snodgrass read the last rites, and interment was in Llano Cemetery.

You will enjoy our program of music. Since Sunday is Mothers Day, the services will be in keeping with the traditions of the occasion. Red and white flowers for all who haven't one to wear for the day.

WOULD RETURN HISTORIC BIBLE TO HEIRS OF ORIGINAL OWNERS

Mrs. O. L. Fink of Clarendon some months ago came into possession of a rare and age-worn family Bible, which had been left in the McDonald building on Kearney Street which became her property some years ago. She is anxious to return it to heirs of the original owners, who, no doubt, would prize it as a precious heir-loom if they knew of its whereabouts.

The fine edition of the Bible has lost its cover, but there is attached to it a part of the old style family record, on which is written briefs of marriages which may give a clew as to its origin and ownership. The first marriage recorded is that of "W. J. Arrington of Stephens County and R. E. Smith of Weatherford, married Dec. 13, 1885". Witnesses listed are: W. H. King, Nat Ross, Josephine Porter and Geo. W. Porter. The follows: "Sanders R. Lowery and Mary Georgia Arrington, married June 1, 1904".
