General Rains Boost Farm and Ranch Outlook Over Donley Area

RANGE AND CROP PROSPECTS LOOK BEST IN YEARS

RAIN REPORTED IN PLENTY FROM EVERY SECTION OF COUNTY

Old Man Weather, who has smiled on Panhandle farmers and stockmen more often this spring than in many years, grinned again this week, as low-hanging clouds dumped another "million dollar" general rain over almost all of Texas, the Panhandle, and Donley County.

In the Donley area, rainfall began the latter part of last week, and continued until Tuesday afternoon. Clarendon received 2.15 inches of rain during the period, most of it on Sunday and Monday, according to weather observer Joe Goldston. Over the county, rain was reported even more plentiful than in the city, with residents of the Lelia Lake community talking about a real "gully-washer" in that area. Farms and ranches north of Clarendon also received heavy rains, and though no measurements were taken, reports indicated that the total during four days was more than Clarendon received.

Other sections of the Panhandle and the state were equally fortunate in rainfall during the week, and heavy rain and electrical storms in the Wichita Falls area interrupted electrical and transportation facilities several times Monday and Tuesday.

In rural areas of Donley County, farmers and stockmen looked forward to a bumper year for crops and exceptional feed water and pasture conditions as a result of the rains. A good season for spring and summer growth of grass and row crops was already in the ground from previous rains this spring, and with the additional moisture, it seemed that the tide was definitely in favor of a money-making year from every standpoint.

To top off this week's weather, today's forecast for the Panhandle and Donley County was—more rain.

CLARENDONITES HEAR DR. LEE MONDAY NIGHT

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS SMU HEAD IN SPLENDID ADDRESS

A large and appreciative audience gathered at the First Methodist Church Monday evening to hear Dr. Umphrey Lee, president of SMU at Dallas, in one of his typical addresses, and remained after to meet him personally in an informal reception in the fellowship room of the church.

The Clarendon Hi Band, under the direction of Ray Robbins, presented a short concert at the beginning of the evening's program, playing several state contest numbers, which they will render in competition at Waco next week. Local folks got a new idea of the finish and ability of the band from their colorful ensemble work.

Introduced by Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, Jr., pastor of the church, Dr. Lee made a brilliant address bristling with humor and logic as he pleaded for the true and lasting elements of character in a distraught world. Many declared it was one of the finest addresses ever to be delivered in Clarendon.

At the informal reception that followed the receiving line was made up of Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Quattlebaum, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. George S. Palmer, and the guest of honor, Dr. Lee. Fruit punch and cookies was served by a bevy of young ladies of the church and community. The women's society and Sunday school classes had charge of the reception arrangements and decorations.

CITY CLEAN-UP HELD OVER FOR ANOTHER WEEK

Due to this week's wet weather, progress of Clarendon's annual spring Clean-Up program has been somewhat delayed, and will be extended through next week to allow for a complete job, Mayor Tom Connally announced Wednesday.

City trucks were to start making their rounds Monday, to pick up trash and rubbish collected by local residents in cleaning up their premises. Not many rounds could be made until the middle of the week, and it was thought wise to allow local householders a chance to complete their housecleaning and set out the accumulated rubbish.

LIONS PROGRAM IS VARIED IN INTEREST

A brief session of modern music, interpreted on the piano by G. B. Hanchey, Clarendon College instructor, formed the principal program feature at the Clarendon Lions luncheon Tuesday.

The club piano underwent a thorough workout as Mr. Hanchey played through arrangements of "Twelfth Street Rag" and another popular tune, much to the enjoyment of the assembly. The program was arranged by Ernest Kent, chairman of the program committee for April.

Lion Robbins expressed the appreciation of the Clarendon Band for the part Club members played in pushing the band's drive for "On to Waco" funds over the top. While $150 had been set as the goal, it was explained, $270 was subscribed to finance the trip.

C. E. Strain, band instructor at West Texas State Teachers College, extended an invitation to Clarendon parents to allow their children to participate in the annual College band course.

A reminder to Lions that the new government Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps will go on sale to the public May 1 was given by Lion Patrick, who reported that all local banks as well as the post office will be ready to render service to those interested in saving for defense through purchase of the stamps.

Guests in addition to Messrs. Strain and Hanchey were Walter J. Flynn, Donley County ACA Chairman, and W. R. McAllister of the News.

The club's latest new member, Dr. Keith S. Lowell, was introduced.

DAIRY CATTLE SHOW TO BE HELD MAY 10

Donley County's first annual Dairy Cattle Show will be held in Clarendon May 10, J. R. Gillham, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce announced today.

The show will be for registered cattle only, and heifers, bulls, and cows will be eligible for entrance in classification competition. There will be classes for heifers and bulls under six months old, six months to one year old, one to two years, two to three years, and three to four years. Cattle over four years old will be entered in a special class.

About thirty head of registered Jerseys will be exhibited by members of the Clarendon F. F. A., and these are expected to provide strong competition for the adult competitors in the show. Gillham says that about thirty head of cattle are likely to be entered in the show.

SCHOOL CAFETERIA NEEDS $80 TO COMPLETE SPRING SESSION—CONTRIBUTIONS INVITED

CHURCH OF CHRIST REVIVAL SERIES IN PROGRESS

Considerable interest is being shown this week in a revival which began Sunday at the Clarendon Church of Christ. Rev. J. L. Moyer is evangelist for the series of Gospel meetings, which is scheduled to close May 7.

Rev. Moyer, a clear and forceful speaker, has brought a worthwhile and inspirational series of messages during the week, and he will speak tonight on the subject, "Life and Death".

The general public in Clarendon and surrounding area is cordially invited to attend these services, which will be held daily until the series is closed.

BRONCHOS, EXES TO PLAY ANNUAL GAME TUESDAY

Clarendon's Broncho football team will wind up a session of spring practice with a real trial of strength Tuesday afternoon, when they face ex-Broncho team members in the annual "Exes" tussle.

Spring practice has been in order for the Broncos for the past month, with coaches Warden and James demonstrating the fundamentals of the game to an almost entirely untried team. Three lettermen from last year's squad form the nucleus of the 1941 eleven, and considerable training still will be needed to line up a winning eleven, according to reports from the training. The spring squad numbers about 30 men, and their pep and energy has simplified the job of the coaches considerably. In the last few days of training, scrimmages have highlighted the practice sessions, with two well-matched teams mixing it up.

Only one casualty has resulted in the training session thus far, Max Rhea, squadman from last year, has been out for two weeks with a broken arm suffered in a practice scrimmage.

Broncho starting eleven with positions and weights for the Tuesday battle follows:

Basil Smith	QB	155
W. G. Adams	HB	135
Ray Allison	F	142
Dennis Ratton	HB	150
Bill Thornberry	LE	155
Lesley Wardlaw	LT	215
Chester Talley	LG	152
Chester Gregory	C	142
J. F. White	RG	190
C. G. Kirkland	RT	185
Jim Taylor	RE	135

This lineup, with some changes, will probably start off the game, but a number of other boys will likely get into play before the afternoon is over. These include Shaw, May and Cornell, at backfield slots; and Moreland, C. Smith, Beard, Mooring, Williams, and Reynolds, at line positions.

The "Exes" will be coached by Colie Huffman, Weldon Melton, and L. B. Hartzog. The boys are said to be in fine shape and are even rougher than they were at the close of last year's season. Five team members are former All-District men, and the team will be almost of college caliber when it gets into action.

Team members include Colie Huffman, Weldon Melton, L. B. Hartzog, Bud Hermesmeyer, Tooter Johnston, J. W. Goodman, Maurice Risley, Ray Bulls, Jack Rolf, Robert Summers, George Reeves, Ollie McCrary, Jim Lumpkin, Eugene Patman, and Johnny Grady.

SCHOOL AUTHORITIES AND MRS. EDYTHE MAHER, WPA LUNCH PROJECT SUPERVISOR, HAVE NOTIFIED THE NEWS THAT AT THE PRESENT RATE OF WEEKLY DEFICIT IT WILL REQUIRE $80 TO OPERATE THE CAFETERIA UNTIL THE CLOSE OF THE SCHOOL YEAR.

In early March a call was made for funds to take care of a small deficit in the sponsor's operating fund, and the money was immediately forthcoming, but with favorable weather the daily receipts of the lunch room fell off still more, and the deficit has been running more than ten dollars per week and shows no signs of recuperation.

Interested local citizens are therefore invited to make contributions that the sponsoring community's part may be brought up in current good standing and that the cafeteria may continue to serve the children until the last day of school.

If you will contribute from fifty cents to $5.00, please leave your money for the cafeteria at either Douglas & Goldston's, Norwood's or Caraway's Cafe. These firms will see that your money is placed in the fund to continue the operation of the cafeteria until the last noon-day period the last day of school—and thanks to everyone who responds promptly.

FROM THE ADAIR HOSPITAL FRONT

Late developments on the Hospital front in Donley County this week, was the cancellation of the membership of the Adair Hospital in the Texas Hospital Association.

A letter dated at Amarillo, April 25, 1941 is as follows:

Superintendent
Adair Hospital
Clarendon, Texas

Dear Sir:

It is our understanding that since paying your 1941 Association Membership dues that there has been a change in the management and policy of operation at your institution.

It is, therefore, necessary that we cancel your membership in this association until such time as your hospital has been inspected and approved for registration by the A. H. A. This is a requirement for all hospitals before they are eligible for membership in our Texas Hospital Association.

I am instructing our Secretary to have a check sent to you in the amount of dues paid for in 1941.

When you have met the requirements of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Texas Hospital Association, we will be pleased to consider your application for re-attainment.

Yours very truly,
Harry G. Hatch, Pres.

LAKE McCLELLAN TO BE OPENED MAY 18

Lake McClellan, Panhandle recreation spot in southwest Gray County, will be formally opened to the public for the summer May 18, it was announced last week by the McClellan Boat Club, after a meeting in Pampa.

One of the favorite fishing and boating resorts in this section, Lake McClellan has grown in popularity with Panhandle sports lovers yearly since its opening.

A special program of boating surf board races, swimming, and diving has been planned for the opening day, it is said, and the lake has been improved in several respects for more comfortable use by the public. Improvements include two boat docks, 40 and 48 feet long, to serve an increasing number of boating fans who enjoy the lake facilities.

BAND WILL LEAVE FOR WACO MEET WEDNESDAY

"TAG DAY" DRIVE PROVIDES AMPLE FUNDS TO SEND GROUP TO WACO

The Clarendon High band will point its talents toward state-wide recognition next week, when it enters Class C competition at the state band meet in Waco on Thursday. With district hurdles safely accomplished in Amarillo recently, the group will go on to the state meet with high hopes of scoring a high mark for group performance again.

Finances of the group's trip to Central Texas were more than adequately taken care of Saturday, when Clarendon citizens almost doubled the amount needed by contributions to a "Tag Day" drive. The trip could have been made on $150 as a minimum, according to Director Ray Robbins, but local citizens made up a purse of $270 before the drive closed, allowing a nice margin for contingencies.

The group will leave Clarendon Wednesday, traveling in a caravan of private cars. They will spend the night at Waco, take part in concert and drill contests during most of Thursday, and return home Friday.

Renditions of contest numbers have been worked up to a peak of perfection during the past two weeks, with regular and special rehearsals in order daily. Competition will be much keener at Waco than at Amarillo, and rehearsals since the Amarillo meet have been directed toward improving the standard set at that time.

CITY POSTOFFICE MOVED INTO NEW LOCATION

Patrons and staff of the Clarendon post office were adjusting themselves to a change today, following removal of the post office facilities to a new Kearney street location, between Bryan Clothing Co. and Green Dry Goods buildings.

Fixtures and equipment in the new building are in new condition, and will afford a decided improvement over those in use for many years at the old location. Arrangement of mail boxes is about the same, but changes were made necessary as regards box numbers in some instances, because the new box layout was not numbered in the same sequence as the old. Every effort has been made, however, post office staff members said, to avoid as far as possible any confusion in connection with the change of locations.

CLOSING PROGRAM ANNOUNCED FOR LOCAL SCHOOLS

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS WILL BE DESKINS WELLS AND DR. J. A. HILL

Details of the closing program for Clarendon High School and Clarendon College were announced this week by school authorities, after engagements of commencement speakers for the two graduating classes were confirmed.

Baccalaureate services will be held jointly for both College and High School graduating classes, on Sunday, May 18, at the Methodist Church. Rev. M. M. Miller of the Presbyterian Church will deliver the address.

Commencement exercises for the sophomore class which graduates from Clarendon College this year will be held on Thursday night, May 23. Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon will deliver the commencement address.

High school seniors will receive their diplomas at commencement exercises on Friday night, May 23. Deskins Wells, Wellington newspaper publisher, will deliver the principal address.

METHODIST DIST. CONFERENCE AT LAKEVIEW

LOCAL GROUP ATTENDS 1942 SESSION WON BY WELLINGTON

Led by District Superintendent G. S. Palmer and Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, Jr., local pastor, a number of Clarendon Methodists attended the annual session of the Clarendon District Conference at Lakeview Tuesday. Dr. Palmer presided over the sessions and introduced Dr. Umphrey Lee, president of SMU at Dallas, for the annual sermon at ten o'clock. Reports of the ministers of the district were heard and a general thriving condition of the churches was indicated.

At noon a cafeteria lunch was served the delegates in the school gymnasium by Rev. Frank Story and the Lakeview congregation.

Participating in the conference from Clarendon in addition to the ministers named above were Rev. A. S. Forch, Mrs. C. A. Burton, Mrs. J. O. Quattlebaum, Jr., Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mrs. G. S. Palmer, Miss Patty Quattlebaum, Mrs. J. R. Porter and Sam M. Braswell.

Wellington was selected over Hedley for the 1942 Conference.

ISSUING OFFICE BEING SET UP IN CITY HALL

LOCAL OFFICE WILL START ISSUING STAMPS TO ELIGIBLES MAY 16

Donley County's Food Stamp setup was being made ready for action this week, and preliminary organization of the county plan had progressed to the point where a definite day—May 16—could be announced when the first food stamps will be sold.

The issuing office for food stamps has been set up in the City Hall, and a staff of local workers was busy there this week under the direction of Wortham Seale, Surplus Marketing Administration official. Much preliminary organization yet remains to be done by the staff before actual operation of the plan can begin. Heading the local office is A. C. Donnell, issuing officer. He is assisted by William D. Wood, Earle D. Jones, Mrs. Harriet S. Kilgore, and Miss Callie Walters, stenographers and file clerks.

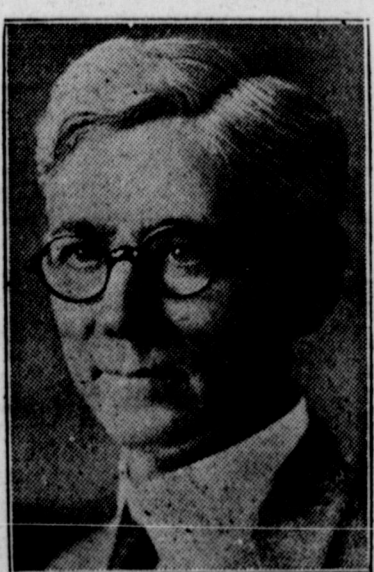

Most important part of the Food Stamp program which remains to be done is the interviewing and certifying of eligibles. This work is going on this week at the relief office in the Donley courthouse, and all persons eligible for any kind of federal aid must be interviewed at that office before they can receive Food Stamps. Since the Food Stamp plan will take the place of the present Surplus Commodities setup in the county, it is important for all those who depend on that source for food and certified before the some of their food to be inter-Food Stamp plan goes into effect.

Food Stamps will be issued by the office in two colors, blue and orange. Orange stamps must be purchased, with the cash the person or family would ordinarily spend for food. They are good at face value in purchase of any food for human consumption. With orange stamps bought, the office will give blue stamps free, in varying ratios up to a maximum of dollar for dollar. Orange stamps can be exchanged for any one of a number of surplus commodities, such as are now distributed to federal aid clients by the Surplus Marketing Administration. To start the plan going in Donley County, $2,000 in blue stamps and $11,350 in orange stamps were ordered this week, with the money for purchase of blue stamps coming from a "revolving fund" set up by the county. The supply of blue stamps will last for several weeks, while the order of orange stamps should be enough to supply local demand for three months or longer, it was said.

Stamps will be issued at the Clarendon office every week day except Wednesday. Starting May 16, on Wednesday of each week, a mobile issuing office will visit Hedley and Lelia Lake, as a convenience to residents of those sections of the county. Eligible persons residing in the county will be free, however, to come to the Clarendon office to receive their stamps, no matter which part of the county they live in.

Full information of the Food Stamp plan will be furnished to each eligible person before the plan actually goes into operation, and further details of the setup will appear from time to time in later issues of the News.

Commencement Speakers

Commencement addresses to the high school student body on May 23, while Dr. Hill is scheduled to bring the commencement to Clarendon College sophomore on May 22.

Jo Ellen Kennedy, teacher in the Leslie schools, visited her mother, Mrs. Ruth Kennedy, over the weekend.

Helen Louise Green, who is employed in the Farm Security office at Claude, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Green Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Ray is in McCamey visiting with Mrs. Rolle Bromley this week.

NOT WITHOUT LOGIC

That Georgia draft board which refused to certify any more men from their jurisdiction until strikes and sitdowns in national defense industries stopped, might at first glance be set down as just a little lacking in patriotic duty, but on second thought, were they?

Taking a fair look at the situation it appears that their action was not without logic—and a logic that demands a prompt and satisfactory answer from the government at Washington. Our boys in Georgia, Texas and any other state, are under the law, no more amenable to national call and patriotic service than are any other citizens of the United States. Membership in a union gives no person exemption from patriotic service in times of national stress.

If certain federal officials don't get their thinking on straight right away, there will be a national upheaval that will make them rue the day they embraced doctrines false to American freedom.

IMBUED WITH PROPHETIC FERVOR

There is something so close akin between religion and patriotism that oftentimes they are indistinguishable—especially when patriotism is for the principles of nobility, decency and freedom, propagated by Christ.

There was such a tone in the address of Winston Churchill Sunday afternoon, last, when he spoke so frankly, bravely and cheerfully to the free peoples of the world. Indeed, his address was filled with unquenchable faith in the ultimate triumph of the Christian way of life. It was imbued through and through with prophetic fervor.

Britain is fortunate that providence has raised such a leader for the most critical days in her long history.

IT WAS EVER THUS

An important point overlooked by the gentlemen who are now preaching funeral sermons over the British Empire is cited in a statement just issued by the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies. It is directed at the so-called America First Committee, under the auspices of which Colonel Lindbergh spoke in New York Wednesday night.

"What Lindbergh, Wheeler, Nye and the others of the America First Committee and their defeatist associates do not understand—and it is as old as human history," says the statement, "is that in a struggle between the forces of tyranny and the forces of justice, the forces of tyranny are usually stronger at the outset and will win the first battles.

"Being essentially cowardly, the forces of tyranny dare not take a stand against equals, hence it follows they are better equipped. At first the forces of liberty are on the defensive, fighting valiantly but losing. Until they summon their full strength they seem without striking power comparable to those of tyranny.

"But the forces of righteousness, armed with the superior courage of a just cause plus good equipment, win the struggle for human freedom. Lindbergh does not know history, and he has a blind spot which prevents him from seeing the value of moral imperatives.

"If the Lindbergh-Wheeler type of reasoning had prevailed through history, the colonists would not have had the courage to win their independence from superior forces, and Napoleon would have succeeded in holding all of Europe.

"The retreat in the Balkans, the menace to British shipping, and the growing threat to civilization will challenge Americans to a greater effort to send aid to their hard-pressed and courageous British comrades. Defeatism and appeasement will be limited to the timid, the subversive and the morally blind.

That, we believe, expresses the dominant sentiment of Americans, but that sentiment ought to be marshalled and given nation-wide expression in public demonstrations.—The Texas Digest.

Economic Highlights

Happenings That Affected the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

Americans who for many years have been talking about the burden of taxation, are shortly to discover that they "ain't seen nothing yet." They are about to learn, in short, that to live in a world whose main energies are being given to preparing for war and waging war, is an incredibly expensive business.

The new Administration tax plan to add $3,500,000,000 to the government's annual income, was announced on April 17. Both Republican and Democratic congressional leaders approved it, in general, almost automatically. It has long been evident that the moderate tax increases adopted by the last session amounted to little more than a drop in the bucket. Our defense and aid-to-the-democracies program is likely to cost upwards of $40,000,000,000, even if we don't become involved in war ourselves. Much of the cost will be deferred for future payment in the form of a national debt. But it is universally recognized that we must pay for as much of it as possible as we go, and that substantial tax increases, reaching almost every income group, are no longer avoidable. Surveys show that the American people at large are grimly willing to shoulder the additional burden. It is a strange time indeed in which advocating higher taxes has actually become "good politics," even as it is good economics.

Key to the new tax program is found in a statement of Treasury Secretary Morgenthau, in which he said it would be an "ideal thing for everyone to pay one-third more next year than he did in the last year." It is probable that one of the first steps taken by Congress will be to up income taxes, on corporations and individuals both, by at least one-third. Some advocate doubling the base rate, which is now four per cent, and increasing surtaxes and lowering exemptions for full measure.

Higher income taxes will not be all of it, by a long shot. While there seems little likelihood of a general sales tax being put in place—the President is believed to be considering such a move—the new sales taxes will be put into effect, and existing sales taxes increased. The taxes for instance, on liquor, tobacco and there is talk of levying and gasoline are likely to go up. Taxes on such hitherto overlooked items as soda pop, the humblest of beverages. Some government officials have also been considering the possibility of a general payroll tax, to be levied against all employers. That tax, in a period such as the present, would be a gigantic revenue producer, and would be comparatively inexpensive to collect. Main objection is that it would be a tax on expense, rather than a tax on income. A concern might have a tremendous payroll and still be earning little or no profit, or even operating at a loss. At any rate, the payroll tax still lies in the future, and is not apt to be considered at this time.

Still another suggestion is to have taxes paid by the month instead of quarterly or even by the year, on the theory that it is less painful to pay a relatively small amount at frequent intervals than a large amount at long intervals. Some have also proposed that the employer deduct employees' taxes from pay checks. This may be urged in the interest of simplification and of reducing collection expense.

Whatever the details, it seems certain that the new program will go through in jig time and with a minimum of debate. It will place upon the American people, in all brackets reached, a tax burden unprecedented in our history. It will bring grim visions of the possibilities of our eventually reaching England's tax level, where a man earning $5,000 a year pays more than a quarter of his gross earnings in income taxes alone. Soon some twenty-five per cent of this country's national income will be going out for war materials and military expenses in one form or another. Mars is a costly visitor.

The American people, though they are almost unanimously in favor of all-out aid to England, are still heavily opposed to sending troops abroad. That is the gist of a recent Gallup Poll. Seventy-nine per cent of those

The names of the district highway foremen are posted on signs beside the roads — As you approach a curve or sharp turn, there is a marker that tells you the top speed that it is safe to make — Odd name: Sell-a-Million filling station — Driving through a forest, guess what the Guesdon picture show is advertising? "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Honest.

Approaching Hot Springs, you see a roadside inn which proquired were against sending part of our army to Europe to help the British. Smaller majorities were against sending American air and naval units.

At the same time, there is no question but what many men close to Washington affairs fear that American participation in the actual shooting is coming. Some think that if Britain loses in the Balkans and Egypt and is driven out of the Mediterranean, this country will be unable to longer postpone the decision. For then the British Empire's life-line would be broken. Hitler's U-boats would be supplied with the finest kind of bases, and the final stage of the Battle of the Atlantic would begin.

Congressional sentiment is undoubtedly against a declaration of war now, though a number of members are urging that fateful step. The President has shown no change from his position of all aid short of war.

claims, "Wisconsin cooking" and I always thought it was cheese that State was famous for — A poet must have named "Green Pasture Camp."

Hot Springs is a picturesque city, the business district (with a very long main street) nestling in a valley with steep hills on all sides. There is a Hollywood sort of atmosphere: here is an old Indian with long, plaited hair; there are two young men with bushy whiskers, and watch out for that cripple in a wheel chair which he propels along the sidewalk at a fast rate with two canes which he uses like a pair of oars.

The row of bath houses is impressive. People with folding metal cups get drinks from the fountain of hot water on the street. A man is sitting on the steps of a bath house and is resting his arm on a sign, "Do not sit on these steps."

Hot Springs is a city of huge hotels, Happy Hollow where children ride burros, lace and jewelry shops, sight-seeing buses, shooting galleries, instantaneous photo stands.

You need never lack for something to do in Hot Springs—climb the hills or drive through miles of scenery, boat on Lake Iramilton and dine at the cafe built in the form of an old stern-wheel river steamer, play golf, go to a night club, see wrestling matches or boxing.

A young man from the city was sent to take an inventory of a farm. He hadn't had any experience in this type of work, but he managed to make a list of all the chattels and stock until he came to an animal which he was unable to identify—a goat.

So he phoned his boss and said, "What do you call this thing that's around here with a rough coat that's worn out in spots, a beard, and a long, sad face?"

"That, you fool, is the farmer!"

Around Austin: For over two years, Jim Carroll, former Houton Press oil editor, has waged an unrelenting campaign against the price-fixing fair trade bill. "Mr. Anti-Fair Trade", as he is frequently called, was happy the other day: "The bill's supporters have now admitted officially before a Senate committee that it will repeal the anti-trust law. My ambition was to expose the seriousness of the bill. If Jim Hogg's greatest contribution to Texas is to be wiped off the books, the people are entitled to know about it. And now the people have been given official notice."

There are no cuspidors in the gallery of the House and signs warns citizens against using the floor. Has a tobacco chewer no rights no more nowhere, not even in his Capitol.

N. H. Pierce, publisher of the Menard News, a while back, was asked to park in one of the spaces around the Capitol reserved for a state official. The guard shouted, "You can't park there". Pierce replied, "It is a big car, all right, but I believe it will go in"—and he backed the auto in and then walked off with an innocent air.

Lamar Stewart, who is working in Clarendon, visited in the John Stewart home over the weekend.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Another bargain sale of books has meant that we have more new books—some things that we have been wanting because they are quite worthwhile. They are: "The Bird In The Tree", Elizabeth Gonda; "If It Prove Fair Weather", Isabel Patterson; "Fields of Paradise", Ralph Bates; "Mr. Littlejohn", Martin Plavin; "The Beloved Returns", Thomas Mann; "Fame Is the Spur", Howard Spring; "The City On The Hill", Marian Sims; "Sylvia Lindon", Maude Diver; "The Fire and the Wood", R. C. Hutchinson; "The Foundation Stone", Sella Warren; "Mornings At Seven", Mae Foster Jay; "A Son of the Wild Pack", Arthur C. Bartlett; "Album of The Great", Rolf Klep; "Book of American Negro Spirituals", Weldon Johnson; "Canada", George Barnard Shaw; "The Star Wagon", Maxwell Anderson; "Why England Slept", John Kennedy; "Days of Our Years", Pierre Van Paassen; "Texan Who's Who", edited by Acheson and Gambell; "The White Cliffs", Alice Duer Miller; "My Sister and I", Dize Verder Heide; "The Wave of the Future", Anne Morrow Lindbergh; "The Standard Opera Guide", Barowski.

It was said that few books published in our generation have made so deep an impression on a wide reading public as "Days of Our Years". It was published in January of 1939, and at once became the best seller—remaining so for eighty consecutive weeks—a remarkable record for a book of non-fiction. More than 250,000 copies were sold. The question "What does Van Paassen think of the present and the future?" was so often asked that he has written three impassioned chapters, interpreting and analyzing political events, fearlessly indicating the external and internal forces responsible for the downfall of Democracy in Europe and trying to pierce the dark clouds of the future. This edition which we have just purchased contains these three additional chapters. Van Paassen has revisited Europe since writing the first part of the book and attempts to tell his readers what must be done if "good will to all men" is to return to the world. He firmly believes that out of all this will come a better world. He was born in the old world, educated in a strict rigor of a divinity student, but he has by sheer force of intellectual integrity become a citizen of the wider world and a product of our time. Of his book, some of the reviewers said, "One of the most significant books of the year", Advisory Board, Current History, "The most interesting book of the year," Faculty members of Princeton University, "No reviews can do this rich well written book full justice". "The Books of American Negro Spirituals" is two volumes in one containing 120 songs faithful to the true negro dialect and music, preserving scrupulously the quality that has placed the spirituals among America's greatest artistic achievements. It was edited by two great men of the race, a negro poet and a negro musician.

The thirtieth meeting of the Texas Library Association will be held in Galveston May 8-10. The theme is to be "Defense Through Books". The program as given in "News Notes" sounds very interesting, covering many phases of library work.

Booth Tarkington was one of the first winners of the Pulitzer Prize back in 1918. He has written thirty successful novels, usually stories of the mid-west where he has always lived. Quite a few of his books are on the shelves and now he has a new one, "The Heritage of Hatcher Ide".

Temple Bailey has been one of the most popular American writers of light fiction for quite a long time, but for the past few years her pen has been silent. But now she has a new story, "The Blue Cloak". Most of her former stories are on our shelves.

Another popular writer who has been silent for five years is Ellen Glasgow whose stories of the South and particularly of her beloved Virginia have been so popular.

Now she gives her public a new novel, "In This Our Life" which is said to be a searching story of the conflict between our age that is passing and an age that is coming to birth. Most of Ellen Glasgow's stories are on our shelves, including "Vein of Iron", her last until this one which we do not have as yet.

The Booksellers of America recently made their annual awards for their favorite books for 1940 as follows: "Who Walk Alone" by Perry Burgess; "How Green Was My Valley" by Richard Llewellyn; "As I Remember Him" by Hans Zinsser.

"Random Harvest" by James Hilton has taken first place as an April best seller. "For Whom The Bells Toll" as second place. "Sapphira and The Slave Girl" by Willa Cather, "Mrs. Miniver" by Jan Struther; "The Family" by Nina Federova; "Fame Is The Spur" by Howard Spring; and "Invitation To Live" by Lloyd C. Douglas are the recent books on our library shelves which are on the best seller lists still.

A book which we have thought our boy readers would like is "Building and Flying Model Planes" an Air Youth Handbook. It is said to be accurate and authoritative, describing in detail every step of both process, prepared by experts throughout their years of experience.

Dumas To Celebrate Annual Reunion On May 30 And 31

Dumas, (Special) May 30 and 31 has been set for the 7th Annual Presentation of the Dumas the show that has grown from Rodeo and Old Settlers Reunion, the prairie cowpen to one of the best western exhibitions in this section.

The show opens with a 3-mile parade at 11 a. m. Friday, May 30. In line will be leading high school bands, hundreds of mounted riders, stage coaches, chuck wagons, and every form of old time conveyance.

Featuring chihuahua bulldogging steers, fast elusive Brahma calves, genuinely tough bucking horses in a full 3 hour open amateur show. The rodeo proper is set for 2:00 p. m., May 30 and 31.

The Dumas celebration has consistently enlarged and built on its horse show until last year it was able to show at least $100,000.00 worth of the finest horse flesh in the southwest.

Riders of fine horses are individually announced and special attention is given all visiting horsemen.

A giant mid-way, old time and modern dances, a huge old settlers picnic, and all the features that can again typify western life as it was lived in pioneer days are brought into play for the 2-days celebration.

The Dumas show is wholly a municipal one, sponsored by the Dumas Business Club and the Dumas Rodeo Association. Membership in both organizations is entirely local and all committeemen and directors serve without pay.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

The Homemaking II girls have completed their study of breakfasts and have progressed well on their study of luncheon and supper. They have had a number of laboratories on salads, such as vegetable, meat, fruit and jello salads. Not only were they good but they were fixed very attractively.

They have now started on the study of meats.

The girls have been wanting to entertain their parents for a long time. Since they have nearly completed the study of luncheons, Miss Rumpy said she would be glad for them to give their parents a dinner. They may make a mother and fathers day celebration out of it.

Blue and gray samples of caps and gowns which had been received were looked over by the seniors at a class meeting last Monday. The gray color was chosen. Measurements are to be made and the order sent off soon.

At this meeting several other things were discussed and decided upon. They are making plans to start working on commencement and baccalaureate services in the near future.

They also decided to wait later in May for Senior Day instead of the second day of May.

SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts had a meeting April 25 on Nobles Creek south of Lelia Lake. Joe Roberts Leathers, John Nanny, and Cecil Woods finished the tenderfoot test. Jimmy Lee Butler and James Marvin Clark finished the second class test. The rest of the night was spent in cooking supper and playing. The boys are to be complimented on their time spent in being a boy scout.

It is something which will be a is well worth their while and in profit to them in the future. It the future may there be many more boy scouts.

INFORMATION PLEASE

We are all waiting to see just how it comes out. Will Anita ever get mad at Betty Jo for flirting with Chester Lee? Anita, just between us and you, we heard Betty Jo spent the night in the Scott home not so long ago.

It is going to be Imogene and Doyle, Virginia Gee and Ray or Imogene and Ray or Virginia Gee and Doyle? My, my you boys sure have a hard time making up your mind.

It is a secret but could some of it be REVENGE!

It all happened not so long ago. James Marvin had orders to be home by five to milk the cows. Of course, he would be but how could he know that was going to happen? You see, James Marvin has a laboratory and a very nice one. He and Jimmy Lee are becoming chemists early in life.

The other day they decided to put themselves to sleep. They tried chloroform but that did not work so they used ether. James Marvin put Jimmy Lee sound to sleep and he looked so peaceful that James Marvin couldn't resist putting himself to sleep.

Well James Marvin didn't get home in time to milk.

"MEDITATION"

You've served me almost all my years

Yesterday was happiness; today is tears,

But tomorrow seems to hold enough

If one can stand profound rebuff.

Can I set my course alone
Without you, school, to lean upon?
Can I make tomorrow pay
Out happiness as did yesterday?

On April 26 the senior class went to Canyon to attend a vocational clinic. During the morning the group were shown around the campus. They then were taken to the auditorium where they listened to several speeches. Then each went to a room where different vocations were being discussed. Lunch was served in the Burton gym. After lunch everyone went to the auditorium to see a movie "The Flying Cadet". A tea was given for the girls and a swimming party for the boys. Everyone present reported a nice time and appreciation for the chance to learn more of the vocations of today.

Have you heard—
That Yvonne is doing some nice flirting nowadays?
That Rosa would tell a girl to make a certain girl jealous?
That Pop Reed is capable of telling stories?
That Kathlyn is really interested?

GUESS WHO

A lively girl in the senior class—has light brown eyes—reddish brown hair—always wandering why she cannot make better grades in school—never wants to stay at home but wants something to be going on at all times—finds something to laugh about in everything she hears—always saying things to people that she wishes she hadn't said, but usually means it. She puts life into the senior class.
The answers to last week's guess are Floyd Lewis and Evelyn Dean Johnston.

PARITY PAYMENTS UNDER AAA FOR 1941 ANNOUNCED

With the recent determination of 1941 parity payment rates, Donley County farmers can now estimate the amount they can earn through full participation in the 1941 AAA farm program, according to Walter J. Flynt, Secretary of the Donley County ACA.

Parity payments, based on the normal yields on allotted acreages, will be made at the rate of 1.38 cents per pound on cotton, 10 cents per bushel on wheat, and 32.4 cents per barrel on rice, the ACA official said. Farmers who participate in the 1941 ACA program and plant within their farm acreage allotments of these crops are eligible to receive payments at these rates, he declared.

In addition to parity payments, cooperating farmers will receive conservation payments based on the normal yield of the farm acreage allotments. As previously announced, conservation rates for 1941 are 1.37 cents per pound on cotton, 8 cents per bushel on wheat, 8.91 cents per barrel on rice, 11.25 cents per pound on peanuts, $1.30 per acre on commercial vegetables, and an average of .87¢ per acre on general soil-depleting crops for Donley County. All payments are subject to deductions if acreage allotments are overplanted.

Farmers, also, may earn payments under the Agricultural Conservation Program for carrying out approved soil-building practices up to the maximum allowance available to the farm. In most cases, this information has been made available to the farmer on his 1941 farm plan sheet.

Parity payments in Texas are made to producers of wheat, cotton and rice to give them more nearly a fair share of the national income and to bring farm income and purchasing power nearer the 1910-14 level. At that time, before the first World War, prices of agricultural and industrial products were in comparative balance. Both conservation and parity payments help farmers to adjust production to meet all market needs and to farm in such a way as to maintain and build up the fertility of the soil, Flynt explained.

Funeral Held Here Friday For Ft. Worth Resident

Funeral services were held here Friday afternoon for Miss Willie Leona Stephens, 18, who died suddenly at her Ft. Worth home Thursday.

Round Of Social Events Features Annual Bugbee Family Reunion

The children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sherman Bugbee met in Clarendon for a 1941 reunion, on April 25 until May 1. The six daughters and one son present were Mrs. George T. Cook, Pebble Beach, California; Mrs. Thomas William Carroll, Long Beach, California; Mrs. Rodney L. Hearne, Seattle, Washington; Mrs. Herbert G. Officer, Austin; and Mrs. William H. Patrick, Mrs. Wesley Knorrpp, and John S. Bugbee of Clarendon.

Other out of town guests present at the reunion were Dr. R. L. Hearne, Seattle, Washington; Mrs. Thomas E. Bugbee, widow of the late Thomas E. Bugbee; Miss Mary Isabel Bugbee, and Miss Kitty Carroll all of Long Beach, California; George B. Carroll of Gainesville, Texas.

W. H. Patrick, Wesley Knorrpp, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bugbee, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bugbee, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Knorrpp, Mr. and Mrs. John Knorrpp, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Knorrpp all of Clarendon were present and contributed much to the happy event.

In celebration of the occasion numerous parties were given.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Knorrpp entertained the family at a dinner in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patrick gave a family dinner party in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knorrpp, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Knorrpp, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Knorrpp all were hosts at family dinner parties.

Mrs. Carroll Knorrpp and Mrs. Walter Knorrpp also entertained at a luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bugbee invited the family to a tea at their ranch home near Goodnight.

Another family dinner was given at the home of John S.

Bugbee. Mrs. W. H. Patrick had some of the Clarendon friends in for tea and to visit with her sisters. At this large 1941 reunion twenty-eight members of the Bugbee family were present, seven children, one daughter-in-law, three sons-in-law, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

There are now fifty-eight members of the Thomas Sherman Bugbee family, many of whom are residents of Clarendon.

The T. S. Bugbees came to the Panhandle in 1876 and moved to Clarendon in 1897. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bugbee are interred here.

MARJORIE BEVERLY AND T. W. BELL, JR. MARRY

Miss Marjorie Beverly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Beverly, pioneer Donley residents, became the bride of T. W. Bell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bell, prominent ranch people of Turkey, on Saturday evening, April 19.

Nuptials were spoken in the parsonage of the Methodist Church in Memphis with Reverend E. L. Yates performing the single ring ceremony.

Attending the couple was Wilford Midland of Turkey, friend of the groom.

The bride wore a black crepe dress trimmed of white. Her accessories were of black and white.

Mrs. Bell is well known in this city, having attended and graduated from the local high school and was attending Junior College at the time of her marriage. Mr. Bell is a graduate of the Turkey high school and attended business college in Ft. Worth.

The couple will be at home on the Bell Ranch near Turkey, where the groom is associated with his father in the cattle business.

MUSIC PUPILS WILL BE PRESENTED IN RECITAL

Mrs. Allan Bryan will present her piano students in a recital at the College Auditorium on Monday night, May 5, at eight o'clock. Mrs. Bryan will be assisted by the band pupils of Ray Robbins, local band director.

Those appearing on the program will be Amazene Smith, Luvva Hunt, Dorothy Ann Castleberry, Mae Morris, Dick Kennedy, Vondell Hommell, Lynn Leathers, Mary Ladelle Cox, Fred Molesworth, Jimmie Dean Howze, Ochinata Heath, Janet Sweeney, Geraldine Hommell, Delene Blair, Nadeema Barkett, Gene Bryan, Elise Norwood, Dorothy Jean Tatum.

All friends who are interested in this recital of young music pupils are invited to attend.

BEATRICE DICKEY MARRIES

Beatrice Dickey, former head nurse of the Adair Hospital, was quietly married to Kenneth E. Krug, Jr. of Brenham, Texas, April 19, at her home in McKinney with Reverend C. S. Weaver officiating.

The bride was attired in a powder blue spring ensemble with tan accessories. She wore a corsage of tiny pink rosebuds.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Alice Dickey of McKinney. She is a graduate of McKinney high school and the McKinney City Hospital School of Nursing. Since her graduation Mrs. Krug has been in active services with various hospitals throughout the state.

The groom is the older son of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Krug, Sr. of Brenham and is a graduate of Brenham High School and Texas A. and M. College.

The couple will make their home in Galveston where the groom is employed as junior engineer for the Wahlfeld, Dalton, Dellon Construction Company.

MESDAMES WALLACE AND PATTERSON ARE C. H. D. HONOREES

The Junior Home Demonstration Club met in the club rooms Thursday, April 17, with Mesdames Marie Patterson and Mary Wallace as hostesses. The business meeting was presided over by vice-president, Mary K. Todd, due to the absence of the president. Following the business session, Mary Wallace gave a fascinating demonstration of loom weaving.

Attending were Mesdames Alice Bain, Aileen Bain, Mattie Bailew, Hazel Lusk, Mildred Larimer, Nora Decker, Mary K. Todd, Dr. Harris, and the hostesses, Mary Wallace and Marie Patterson.

MRS. JOHN BLOCKER, JR. IS HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. John Blocker, Jr., who, with her husband, has recently moved to the Blocker Ranch, was the honoree at a bridge luncheon Saturday, given in honor of her birthday by Mrs. John Blocker, Sr.

The Blocker town home was cleverly decorated with mixed spring flowers. The table was centered with a bowl of beautiful multi-colored tulips.

An attractive two-course luncheon was served to the twenty-four guests who made up the six tables of bridge. Attending were Mesdames Ira Merchant, Carroll Knorrpp, John Knorrpp, Meredith Gentry, Dr. Harter, W. W. Noblett, Walter Knorrpp, Paul Slaton, Floyd Lumpkin, George Norwood, Kelly Chamberlain, H. M. Breedlove, U. J. Boston, Forrest Sawyer, B. F. Kirtley, Jimmie Miller, Edith Maher, Tom Murphy, Barbara Antrobus, Eva Rhodes, Sam Dyer, and Misses Charlotte Molesworth, Kaki Westmoreland, and the honoree, Mrs. John Blocker, Jr.

Tea guests for the afternoon included Mesdames Lloyd Benson, and John Lynch.

Mrs. John Blocker, Sr., was hostess to a dinner party in her home Saturday night. The evening was spent in the playing of 42.

A lovely two-course dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Will McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Blocker, Sr.

MRS. DURWOOD JONES IS HONORED AT TEA

Mrs. Durwood Jones, a recent bride, was complimented with a tea Saturday afternoon, April 24, by Mesdames Hershel Heath, Grover Heath, and Stanley Carlisle in the Grover Heath home.

White Iris, bridal wreath, and tulips decorated the Heath home, providing a beautiful setting for a delightful program consisting of piano selections by Ochanita Heath, a reading, "His Mother's Cooking" given by Sylvia Faye Morgan; a French horn duet by Billie Jack and G. D. Shelley; and two musical selections, "Moonlight and Roses" and "Lilacs In the Rain," by a trio composed of June Miller, Jean and Billie Cook. They were accompanied by Nelda Sue Barton.

As the guests entered they were greeted by Mesdames Hershel Heath, Durwood Jones, Melvin Cook, and Miss Nova Cook. They were escorted to the feaster by Mrs. Heath.

The lovely bride's book was presided over by Mary E. Sheffield.

Misses Jo Ann Smith and Estelle Thornberry presided over the refreshment table which was laid with a lace cover and centered with white Iris, bridal wreath and tall white candelabra.

Mrs. Jones is the former Nell Cook, having married a short time ago.

STUART CONDRON IS GUEST SPEAKER AT PATHFINDER

Stuart H. Condron, prominent panhandle lecturer and head of the Department of Economics at West Texas State College at Canyon, brought to the Pathfinder Club Friday, April 18, an interesting and enlightening talk on State and National Government. The topic of his discussion included amendments before the State and National government and the changes to be made in the Constitutions as time itself changes.

Mr. Condron stated that "every government is faced with two enemies; the Radicals and the Conservatives. In order to combat these two foes, the people must adjust themselves to the current needs of the government."

Mr. Condron, one of the most highly informed men on governmental functions in the entire Southwest, has been selected to take part in the round-table discussions heard over KGNC every Monday night.

An ice course in spring motif was served to seventy members and their guests. Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Lena Antrobus, H. R. Beck, Tom Goldston, C. B. Morris, and Miss Maurice Berry.

MRS. A. B. STEVENS IS COMPLIMENTED

Mrs. A. B. Stevens, the former Racheal Logan of the Midway Community, was complimented with a tea at the home of Mrs. John Goldston Friday, April 25.

The entertaining rooms in the Goldston home were artistically decorated with ferns, tulips and poppies. The lace covered table was centered with a crystal bowl of bridal wreath and surrounded by tall white tapers. At the table Pearl Derrick poured tea and Betty John Goldston served the bridal cake. Plate flavors were tiny corsages of pansies.

Acting as hostesses, Betty Naylor, Thelma Jean Williams, Roy Guy, Pearl Derrick, and Betty John Goldston presented the gifts to Mrs. Stevens. Mrs. J. B. Cole presided over the cleverly appointed bride's book.

Those attending were Mesdames A. B. Stevens, Sr. of Matador, Bill Hardin, Allen Hardin, Everett Stevenson, Charles Logan, Bob Williams, Arne Harlan, Donald Harlan, Glenn Williams, T. K. Stone, Tomlinson, W. D. Higgins, A. J. Garland, Elizabeth Evilsizer, Romie Derrick, W. M. Pickering, John Naylor, Gene Chamberlain, and Misses Mona Churcham, Peggy Jean Logan, LaVada Naylor, Johnnie Chamberlain, Bobby Cole, Betty Naylor, Roy Guy, Thelma Jean Williams, Betty John Goldston, and the honoree, Mrs. A. B. Stevens, Jr.

Those sending gifts were Mesdames W. K. Davis, Frank Hardin, J. A. Meadors, Losson, Slayton, Mahaffey, Neise Robinson, Otis Naylor, R. E. Drennan, and Misses Katie Meadors, Reba Higgins, Mary Ann Bromley, and Mattie Rhodes.

MARTIN GARDEN CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

The Martin Garden Club met Friday with Mrs. J. H. Easterling for an interesting program on window boxes and shrubs.

Mrs. Scivally brought to the club a talk on window boxes, explaining to the members what kinds of flowers should be planted in them and how they should be cultivated.

Mrs. Phelps gave a clever reading on shrubs and how to prune them.

Those present were Mesdames Jordan, Shafer, Scivally, Sibley, Stogner, Thomas, Eddings, Gibbs, J. T. Easterling, Helton, Phillips, and one guest, Mrs. Claude Easterling.

Next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. J. T. Easterling on May 9.

JO ANN SMITH ENTERTAINS CONTRACT CLUB

Jo Ann Smith was hostess to the TNT Contract Club at her home Thursday night. Tillie Pratt and Majorie Beverly were guests of the club.

High was awarded to Majorie Beverly and second high to Madeline Kelly.

An attractive sandwich plate was served to Misses Avis Lee McElvany, Joan Thompson, Ruth Palmer, Estelle Thornberry, Madeline Kelly, Vivian Taylor, and Mesdames Maurice Lane, Mike Stricklin, Willard Skelton, and the hostess.

AUXILIARY NOTES

Junior Girls Auxiliary met April 28, with Portia Hay, president, presiding. The meeting was opened with songs "Let The Beauty of Jesus" and "Only Believe" and the group was led in prayer by Sybil Head. Portia Hay led in the scripture Ruth 1-5. Another song "We've a Story To Tell" and another scripture reading led by Alice Mae

MRS. BUEL SANFORD ENTERTAINS NEEDLE CLUB

Mrs. Buel Sanford was hostess to the Kill Kare Klub in her home Thursday afternoon, April 24.

The afternoon was spent in the making of rugs and fancy work. A lovely salad course was served to guests Mesdames Charles Loving and daughter, Nancy, Frank Whitlock, George McCleskey, Mark Stricklin and members Mesdames Eva Draffin, W. B. Sims, R. R. Dawkins, W. A. Massey, Homer Mulkey, J. P. King, J. R. Bartlett, Gene Noland, W. A. Land, Harry Brumley, and the hostess, Mrs. Buel Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stricklin and Mrs. Mark Stricklin spent the weekend in Altus, Oklahoma, visiting with Mrs. Mark Stricklin's sister, Mrs. Taylor Boles.

Dr. Humphrey Lee of Southern Methodist University was guest speaker for the occasion.

Ethelyn Drennan, Frances Grady, Frances Morris, and Jo Word of WTSC at Canyon were at home over the weekend. Ethelyn Drennan had as her guest, Sue Davis also of Canyon.

Garden Glances

Presented weekly by the Garden Club

"America the beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners"

All over town the flowering shrubs have transformed this Spring into a magnificent "Festival of Beauty." The College Boulevard so colorful with rows of glowing red bud trees. The lilacs, white and purple, have been exceptionally beautiful. The superb Persian lilac in the Ryan's yard and the massive lilac hedge at the Pewitt's commands attention and comment.

The Jim McMurtry's tulip bed flaunts a mass of gay colors. Enticing to all who view it is the tulip garden of Mrs. Gray's. The long graceful sprays of lavender wisteria had turned Mrs. SoRelle's fence into a bower of sheer delight. Unusual and truly beautiful is the tree wisteria in the Joe Goldston's yard. The tamarix with their long slender sprays of pink flowers can be seen in many yards.

Help the dirt gardeners keep our town a beauty spot this summer.—Contributed.

TO THE ANNUAL STAFF

Rebecca Eanes
 To you and your faithful work we owe
 A debt of gratitude
 For an annual that's the best we know.
 And for your attitude.
 You've labored faithfully and well
 To make it a success;
 And now we feel we ought to tell
 You that it's of the best.
 In offering my thanks to you I'm not the only one
 Who realizes what you're due
 For all the work you've done.
 Although this tribute may be small
 I wish to represent
 My class and tell you for us all
 How much this book has meant.

HOME ECONOMICS

The suspense of who was to win places for Home Economics dresses was ended last Wednesday, when Mrs. J. G. Stewart and Miss Lillian Ewing judged the dresses for the final decision.
 The first year dresses, which were simple wash dresses, were made by very inexperienced girls. Most of them were sophomores and very few of them had operated a machine at all.
 The second year girls made tailored garments of wool, rayon, and alpaca. There is a great improvement shown in these dresses over those made by the same girls last year.
 The third year girls made dinner gowns or afternoon gowns of chiffon and other sheer material.
 The dresses were judged as to the material used, suitability of the material to the person, durability, and suitability and individuality of color and design.

Those winning places were:
 First Year
 First place Imogene Spencer
 Second place Mary Nell Keys
 Third place Frances Phelps
 Second Year
 First place Sara Beth Lowry
 Second place Betty Goldston
 Third place Annie Ree Porter
 Second Year—Pre-School
 Child Garment
 First place Betty Goldston
 Second place Rowena Crutchfield
 Third place Naomi Morris
 Third Year
 First place Pearl Derrick
 Second place Thelma Horton
 Third place Wilma Cole

F. F. A. NEWS

The Clarendon F. F. A. didn't do so bad at the Memphis District Encampment. In fact, they were beaten by four points by Estelline, and in a contest of this kind this isn't very much.
 Even though they got edged out a small bit, they had the best ping pong player, Horace Green, and the best baseball team there. All other teams were second.
 Plans are now being made for the annual F. F. A. picnic. No definite day has been set.
 J. R. Gillham and "Flip" Breedlove have been working the past few weeks on selecting calves for F. F. A. and 4-H club members for the spring fat stock show. Their work has been very effective.
 The Clarendon Dairy Cattle and dairy products teams are expected to do excellent by the Tulsa and Plainview contest next week.
 At the last F. F. A. meeting, Tuesday night, plans were discussed for the summer trip. The group will go to Yellowstone National Park this year.

TURKEY

By Emil Lengyel
 Turkey, once the bloody battlefield of the crusades, may again determine Europe's fate. The book, Turkey, is a history of the Turks from the middle ages to 1941.
 To the American reader Turkey is an unknown country, except as the battlefield of the crusades and a history variegated with wars. This is virtually the first contemporary book written about her people, her history, and her destiny. Nothing could be more timely or informative than Emil Lengyel's vivid account of the emergence of the enigmatic man of the East into the democratic ways of the life of the West.
 Some of the choice descriptions of the Turks are:
 "The Turks are Sumerians and Hittites, Nannites, Elamites and Persians"—(and many other unpronounceable nationalities).
 "They are long-bearded, round headed, brown, brunette, gray, and bald. Some of them are tall, others are short, stout and thin, flabby and sturdy. They are religious and atheistic, charitable and selfish, timorous and bold, harmless and dangerous, kind and cruel, and good and bad."
 "They are married, divorced, single, widowed. They are diligent and lazy, clever and stupid, creative and destructive, useful and useless. They are just human beings."
 "This clever, descriptive, concise, and enlightening book is in the library.
 Read it! But hurry; school is nearly out."
 "BOBBYS" HITS THE HIGHLIGHTS—AGAIN
 Billy Ray Bell says Bobby has the best "green sodie pops" in town—or country.
 Both booths were loaded with the students looking over with other's shoulders. Yes, they've just gotten their annuals.
 Lewis and Margaret Faye seemed to be doing O. K. at Bobbys Friday night. They were refreshing after the senior play.

Flash! Wilma Cole was swinging out with another cowboy Friday night. They like sandwiches.
 We've heard a lot of things you could get at Bobby's but a Pekinese dog is the limit. Ask Fern.
 While looking in a dictionary it was found that Winnie Jean was NOT with George E. last Sunday night.
 Anna Lynn drew everyone's attention (even those eatin' peanuts) when she displayed the watch that the Amarillo boy friend gave her. Zoom! the crystal fell out.
 Doesn't Dorothy Nell feed her husband well? Anyhow he always comes in for his "daily cream cone".
 A few discouraged girls found that Ted no longer has his route. Weldon and Lou Alice still go to Bobby's so that he can see well, hear all, and tell all!
 The pioneer days seem to be coming back. Dorothy Jean and Johnny were on horses getting curb service.
 Caille Mae says she must go down and see what goes on because she's never been to Bobby's.
 Speedy was playing "I Give You My Word, I'll Never Love Again", Saturday but came up Sunday with a black onyx ring with a diamond—Oh my goodness!
 Fern was seen with a good looking "guy" Friday night.

ANNUALS ARRIVE

A beautiful maroon Annual called the "Broncho" was put in circulation Tuesday morning. Congratulations to the annual staff for such a wonderful accomplishment.
 This is looked upon as another of the great feats that makes this year "1941" the most outstanding year in the history of C. H. S. and C. J. C. The Annual was dedicated to Dean R. E. Dreunan, in appreciation of his unselfish motives, his cooperative spirit and his personal example of uprightness, and mankindness.
 The band members and Mr. Robbins want to thank the people of Clarendon for their loyal support in the drive for money. They have enough money to go to Waco.
 The tag day was a great success and they ran out of tags way before they wanted to.
 The band played at the Methodist church Monday night, preceding Dr. Lee's address. They played some marches and other short selections.
 The band members are truly working hard. They are having a marching or playing practice every afternoon or night. Friday they are going to practice all afternoon from 1:00 p. m. on.

EXCHANGE

T. C. U.'s mixed chorus has started on its annual tour, which will take the chorus through 14 West Texas Cities on an 11-day schedule. They are having a trumpet soloist accompany them.
 T. C. U. says the typical American coed goes to T. C. U. likes chocolate sodas, and boys with new haircuts.
 McMurray is carrying on the tradition of being host to a Festival of Arts. This will last from May 4 to 11. The Festival of Arts will be made possible largely, through the efforts of the Speech, Music, and Art Department.
 Eleven students and eight faculty members from Mary Hardin Baylor made an extended trip through parts of Mexico April 10th.
 Billy Joe Lawrence from Kansas enrolled in the sixth grade.

ASSEMBLY

Due to the fact that the stage was arranged for the Senior play, the Home Economics girls did not model their dresses and present the previously arranged assembly program. However, Miss Berry announced the winners.
 Songs were sung and Mr. Burton gave us a good talk on the word situation. The highlights of his talk were based on studying and making the best of opportunities while it is possible.

GLEE CLUB SINGS

The High School-College glee club will sing in the Presbyterian church this coming Sunday night. It will be accompanied by two bases and one tenor from the regular choir. It will be a complete male choir.
 A special, "The Lord Is My Shepherd", will be given. Several other inspirational hymns will be given with the congregation participating.

PRESS CLUB DANCE

Friday evening, May 2, the Press Club will entertain in the high school and college with the last dance of the school year.
 This dance will be a gala affair. It is to be formal. There is a decoration committee to decorate the gymnasium for Friday evening.
 The Press Club wishes to urge every student to come and make this the best dance of the whole school year.

SENIOR PLAY

"The Last of the Ruthvens" was presented with great success, Friday night, April 25, by the senior class.
 This play is another accomplishment that marks 1941 as the greatest year in the C. H. S. history.
 Congratulations to directors Mr. Payne and Miss Hall and all the cast for a wonderful job that netted the senior class thirty-seven dollars.

LIBRARY

Mrs. Glasco reports that the Jr. High library has an addition of thirty new books. They include Science, National History, Travel and Adventure, Fiction, Biography, and Poetry.
 The most outstanding of this collection are biographies of Will Rogers, Stephen Foster, and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Also included are books of Zane Grey, Jack London and John Fox Jr.

FIRST

The first grades are working for the exhibit. Guy Ollan Wright has gone to Arkansas for two weeks.

THIRD

The third graders are fixing a beautiful border of tulips for the exhibit.

FIFTH

Phyllis Gamble has withdrawn because of illness. Mrs. Lane's room won the dollar for P. T. A.

PICNICS

Believe it or not Spring is here. That should remind you of picnics. Does it? Then let's do something about it.
 Refresh your minds with just one picnic, then you will realize how much fun they are. Enough said so take action.

Otto Beach, proprietor of The Lion Auto Supply, was in Amarillo on business Friday.
 Phoebe Ann Buntin of WTSC in Canyon visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buntin, here over the weekend.

FORD GOOD DRIVERS LEAGUE

The school students were very glad to have Mr. Clark to speak on the "Ford Good Drivers League" Friday. The Clarendon College and High School students were given the opportunity to become members of the league.
 Mr. Clark gave the rules required to join the League, and the rules on entering the contest. In a few days all the students between 16 and 19 will receive material on the contest. This contest is sponsored by Mr. Edsel Ford. The purpose of this league is to cut down the wrecks in America and save as many lives as possible.

 A woman's bridge club is a place where the absent members get all the slams.
 What the modern girl with a streamlined body needs is some body to steer her straight.
 If you think money doesn't talk, just try to telephone without a nickel.
 "Doctor, my girl has varicose veins. What do you advise?"
 "Rubber stockings".
 "But doctor! How do I know she'll let me?"
 Many a girl whose heart is as hard as glass can have an impression made upon it by a diamond.
 If you play golf no matter how well you play, you always end up in the hole.
 There were three cats, Foot, Foot Foot, and Foot Foot Foot. One day Foot, Foot Foot, and Foot Foot Foot were playing football. Foot murt his foot so Foot Foot and Foot Foot Foot took Foot to the doctor to see about Foot's foot. Wee, Foot died. They one day Foot Foot and Foot Foot Foot were playing football and Foot Foot hurt his foot. So Foot Foot Foot took Foot Foot to the doctor to see about Foot Foot's foot. The doctor told Foot Foot Foot to be careful with Foot Foot because he already had one "Foot" in the grave!

POETRY CORNER

"The Younger Generation"
 Kids are the most contrariest things.
 Especially the younger generation.
 Sassin' their parents and cuttin' up.
 Don't give us not due veneration.
 Now you take Lucy my youngest daughter.
 (And you can keep her too).
 Won't even introduce me to her beau.
 Say's its as simple as two and two.
 Say's I don't get shaved enough.
 Say's I look like a bear
 What's the use of being old if you can't have a chintful of hair?
 I have just about decided that As you can plainly see The younger generation Will be the death of me.
 —Guida Myrl Miller.

I AIN'T TALKING; I DON'T KNOW

The girls were in a huddle Monday morning. They couldn't have been discussing Mr. Warden's new tuxedo suit! Well it is rather cute, but it would be cuter with the orange, green, red and brown striped tie. Oo well—
 Say, Betty John and John Burton are getting kinda, well, anyway they're gettin' that way. Course I don't know nothin'.
 Say, Gerry Ryan, Ila Kay Rhoades, and La Voise Armstrong give each other a lot of stiff competition. Poor J. B. Long. Oh well, as long as HE likes it, I guess it's alright.

 Gee, Weldon is courtin' Lou Alice every night or is she courtin' him? Any way she sees that he attends Church. Nice going, Lou, you might as well get him the habit now.
 Wilma Jean and her cacti! Well, it is a past-time. But what if you happen to sit on one,

Willie. What happens then? Sticky job, huh? We know.
 Was Fred really trying to court an "ex" in Amarillo? Any way it looked that way.
 Why were three certain girls chasing a certain truck out the highway Saturday? Maybe Ted Kates is the reason. Gee, Gate City ice cream is good.
 Billie Ruth has a new ring. Tick must be really serious. When's she gonna get hitched?

Side Glances On Texas History

By CHARLES O. HUCKER
University of Texas Library

OF BUFFALO, BEARS & BUGS
If some old-time Texas frontiersman could be revived in our time, he would have good reason to suppose that the days of adventure are over forever. Just think of it—no buffalo, no great black bear, no ferocious Mexican hog, no leopard to hunt!

Now, Texans enjoy good hunting today, better than most other people in the country, possibly. But in comparison with, say, the 1820's! For a born huntsman, those must have been the good old days.

Workers in the Texas Collection of the University of Texas Library know this. Its copy of Mrs. Mary Austin Holley's "Texas", dated 1836, has a section which treats pretty comprehensively of the wild life of the brand-new Republic. Just consider some of the things she knew exist in the territory.

First of all, of course, there were buffalo. Not a mere handful, either: they roamed in great herds of tens of thousands in the interior and now and again wandered southward almost to the Gulf coast. The Texas Indians lived on buffalo meat: it has been recorded that some of them ate nothing else whatsoever.

EVER SEE A MOOSE?
"The deer", Mrs. Holley noted, "are still more numerous than the buffalo, being found in every part of Texas in great abundance". Colonists in the coastal settlements could apparently shoot them almost from their back doors. And on the frontiers even moose could be tracked with considerable success.

Hunting panthers, wildcats and leopards seems to have been a favorite sport among the early settlers, who used an almost infallible hunting technique. They called it "shining the eyes". During the night they'd go for a walk through the woods, carrying a lighted torch. Attracted by it, the game would approach and the light of the torch was reflected so brightly from their eyes that the hunters found them perfect targets.

Mrs. Holley wrote that black bears, as well, could be found in the forests and cane-brakes along the coast and were "favorite objects of the hunt." And there were black wolves which "prove a great annoyance to the farmers, carrying away pigs and sheep and even, when rendered desperate by hunger, will venture to attack, and often succeed in carrying off, calves."

THE 'SABER-TOOTH' HOG
"The most dangerous wild animal in Texas", however, was the Mexican hog, which ran in gangs and thought nothing of attacking a man. "It is armed with tusks several inches in length," she wrote, "which curl back from the under jaw, and its aspect altogether is very ferocious."

Another nuisance was the alligator, which sometimes grew to a length of thirty feet, according to Mrs. Holley, and had an armor on its back which could not be penetrated by a rifle ball. "All the rivers and bayous," she remarked, "are infested with alligators, which follow the boats so closely that they can be struck with the oars." Several times they are known to have caught and eaten men.

But if all these made life in the open a risk, though a hunter's joy, life indoors wasn't the height of comfort, for mosquitoes, tarantulas, horse flies and red bugs were everywhere. And worst of all, ticks! Ticks so large and so industrious, according to Mrs. Holley, "that in one night's time, if not carefully guarded against, they will spoil the beauty of the fairest face in creation beyond the redemption of all cosmetics for days to come."

100 YEARS AGO IN TEXAS
"Our Sanctum is nightly divested of everything like gloomy sadness by the thrilling strains of the sweetest and most delightful music. The musical soirees so frequently gotten up in the Hall of Representatives, led by Mr. L. Walker, the Paganini of Texas, contribute in no small degree to our comfort. Indeed, we highly approve of this intell-

"Texas promissory notes are quoted in the New Orleans Picayune at from 15 to 16 cents on the dollar."

"Mr. Crawford, late English

Consul at Tampico, has received the appointment of Minister to Texas, and his arrival is daily expected on board the sloop of war Comus."—The Texas Sentinel, April 8, 1841.

CCC & Army Service Obligation To Be Coordinated

Members of the Civilian Conservation Corps who have been placed in Class 1 for Selective Service training prior to their enrollment and assignment to a CCC camp, will be permitted to report to the local Selective Service board nearest their camp for physical examination. General J. Wat Page, State Director of Selective Service, announced this week.

Director Page also pointed out that a recent War Department ruling enables CCC enrollees to report for these Selective Service examinations without loss of CCC pay and also protects their status in the CCC should they be rejected at an Army induction station. He said:

"If a CCC selectee for military training was classified and placed in Class 1 by his Local Selective Service Board prior to enrollment in the CCC, but had not received notification to report for physical examination until after he had been assigned to a CCC camp for the required examination. Also, the War Department has ruled that his CCC company commander will grant him leave of absence with pay for whatever time is deemed necessary to report to the Selective Service board."

In addition, Director Page said, if a CCC enrollee who has been passed for Selective Service training and discharged from the CCC be subsequently rejected at the Army induction station, he may be reinstated in the CCC camp from which he was discharged upon application made within 15 days of the date of his rejection. If he does not wish to return to the CCC, he may apply in person to the commander of the CCC company from which he was discharged who will give him the authorized transportation to his home.

All Right! Move Out in the Yard!

BOB (roaring): "Who snatched the bulb from my lamp? I might as well move out in the yard!"
JANE (fearfully): "Go ahead! The yard light is better than the tiny bulbs you get... I had to have some light in the kitchen, didn't I? YOU took the kitchen bulb for the garage..."

WHY Quarrel Over Light?

MOST everyone does it at some time or other—and unnecessarily, because light is CHEAP in West Texas. A 100-watt Mazda bulb costs only 15c; a 150-watt bulb, 20c; and a 3-way 100-200-300-watt bulb, 60c. Avoid bulb-snatching quarrels and arguments about who's going to use the light by keeping an extra supply on hand.

And about the yard—make night-time your play-time with a new flood light that also protects the home. Ask for demonstration.
