Annual Red Cross Roll Call Opens In Donley Tuesday, Nov. 12th

Donley Sets Record General Election Vote As 2045 Cast Ballots

MRS. JEFFERIES IS CHAIRMAN FOR DONLEY COUNTY

INCREASED NEED CALLS FOR LARGER ENROLLMENT THROUGHOUT AMERICA

Under the experienced leadership of Mrs. Allen Jefferies, the 1940 Red Cross Roll Call, will open in Donley County, Tuesday, Nov. 12th and plans are under way to secure the increased quota within the week. Mrs. Jefferies is calling for volunteer workers all over the county, and is already receiving such volunteers for a speedy termination of the work.

Sunday evening of this week at the American Legion Union Memorial Service at the Methodist Church, some attention will be given to the worthy call for mercy as embodied in the Annual Red Cross Call, with the idea of inspiring the most intelligent and wholehearted response from the citizenry of the county and city.

Mrs. Jefferies announces that all volunteers are to meet at the First National Bank in Clarendon on Tuesday morning, Nov. 12th, where supplies and instructions will be furnished for a whirlwind campaign throughout the county.

The American Red Cross is still the greatest servant and exponent for administering the relief for human misery throughout the world and every Donley citizen of mature years is invited to invest his membership dollar in this appealing cry for help from a stricken world humanity.

QUESTIONNAIRES BEING MAILED REGISTRANTS

FIRST 100 ARE SENT THROUGH U. S. MAIls THIS WEEK

The Donley County draft board began this week sending out questionnaires which will develop information for determining the eligibility of registrants for a year's service in the United States army.

Given a limited initial assignment, local selection boards have started the job of filling the army's first requisition calling for 30,000 men to report between Nov. 18 and Dec. 1.

The eight-page questionnaire looks more complex than an income tax return and is filled with questions of every description—many of them quite personal.

The questionnaire must be filled out by registrant and returned on date specified by local board. Willful failure to do so is punishable by fine and imprisonment.

The first hundred registrant to receive questionnaires are:

No. 1 John Francis Blocker, Clarendon; No. 2 Henry Clarence Reynolds, Clarendon; No. 3 Alva Mitford Dennis, Ashtola; No. 4 Charley Williams, RFD 1, Clarendon; No. 5 William Tarpy Wood, Clarendon; No. 6 John Mark Allen, Clarendon; No. 7 J. Duke, Lelia Lake; No. 8 Lydie Herd Stevens, Wildorado; No. 9 J. W. Byes, Lelia Lake; No. 10 Clyde Doyce Barker, Hedley; No. 11 Henry Page, Lelia Lake; No. 12 Alexander Sellkirch McAnear, Clarendon; No. 13 Walter Knorrp Fraser, Groom; No. 14 Bill Dodge Cole, Clarendon; No. 15 Arthur Clyde Pittman Clarendon; No. 16 Roy Alven Key, Lelia Lake; No. 17 Ernest Clay Inman, Groom; No. 18 Sterling Auburn Eddings, Clarendon; No. 19 Jesse James Beach, Hedley; No. 20 Charlie Henry Hill, Memphis; No. 21 Thomas Williams.

Joint Community Christmas Pageant Will Be Presented Here Dec. 20

BRONCS TO PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT AT MEMPHIS

An old traditional grudge battle between the Clarendon Bronchos and the Memphis Cyclones will be resumed Friday night on the Memphis gridiron.

The Memphis - Clarendon grudge game is an event that has highlighted the grid seasons for each school as far back as most grid fans can remember.

The Bronchos will have to be at their best in this contest although they are rated as a better team in the conference to date. Last year Clarendon poured it on the Memphis gridsters by downing them 55 to 0 on the local field, and the Cyclones will be out for revenge.

Like previous contests, the Memphis game is expected to be plenty rough and tumble as the Cyclones are usually at their best when they meet the Bronchos.

In conference standing, Clarendon holds firmly to second place, having been beaten only by Shamrock. On the other hand, Memphis is in sixth place, having won one game, lost three and tied two.

But when the two teams meet conference and season play will be forgotten as the traditional foes will wage a battle of life and death.

A large delegation from Clarendon, including the band and pep squad is expected to see the Bronchos in action at Memphis.

A more elaborate Christmas celebration than ever before in Clarendon is seen in the announcement of the Ministerial Alliance that a Community Christmas Pageant will be presented at the Methodist Church on Dec. 20.

The pageant is strictly a community effort, and the ministers are merely taking a lead in organizing it. They desire to bring to the people the Christmas story—the story of the birth of Christ. The Alliance feels that at this time in the history of the world, that a fuller acceptance of Christ as the Saviour is the hope of the future.

In many communities a joint Christmas pageant, such as will be presented here, has been given for years, and when the ministers questioned its continuance, they were told that there has been a big public demand for its presentation.

The following committees will be needed: One, committee on characters with characters such as Mary, Elizabeth, Joseph, Innkeeper, Angel Gabriel, six or eight other angels, eight or ten shepherds, two trumpeters, three kings to be presented by pastors; two, committee on publicity; three, costume committee; four, committee on lights and proper ties; and five, music committee.

SPROLES EXTENDS FREIGHT SERVICE TO AMARILLO

PURCHASES ANDIS BROS. MOTOR FREIGHT LINE THIS PAST WEEK

Ed Sproles, president of the Sproles Freight Line, Inc., announced today that through the purchase of the Andis Bros. Motor Freight Line here he had extended his direct line from Houston via Waco, Dallas, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, into Clarendon, the line terminating at Amarillo.

The purchase of the Andis line will enable the shippers and receivers of freight in Clarendon to receive fast transportation service available to all points between Houston, and Amarillo.

Ben Andis, traffic representative for Sproles Freight line, explained that the reason for this fast service was due to the shorter routes that Sproles travels in serving the cities and towns along their line, and also due to the superior late model equipment used by Sproles line.

L. T. (Tommy) Thompson, general sales manager for Sproles stated that it was the plan of his organization to employ all the employees of the Andis Bros. organization and that Andis Bros. are to be Sproles' representative in Clarendon.

The merger of Sproles and Andis Bros. brings together two pioneer truckers of the north-south section of Texas with the Panhandle of Texas.

President Roosevelt, the first ever to be elected to a third term, was leading today in 39 states with an electoral vote of 468.

Although he gained the biggest popular vote ever given a defeated candidate, Wendell Wilkie led in only nine states with an electoral vote of 63.

ROOSEVELT GIVEN 1575; WILLKIE'S TOTAL IS 213

480 VOTES CAST AT COURT HOUSE; 385 AT CITY HALL

Donley County set a new high record for balloting in a general election Tuesday, when 2045 voters trekked to the polls to cast their votes.

Complete returns from the 18 boxes in the county gave President Roosevelt a total of 1575 to Wendell Wilkie's 213. Six votes were cast for the Prohibition Party electors and five for Socialist Party electors.

County and state democratic candidates, with the exception of J. E. McDonald, candidate for state commissioner of agriculture, were given a heavy endorsement.

Election returns through the United States Thursday morning showed President Roosevelt leading in 39 states with 468 electoral votes, as against Wilkie's lead in nine states with 63 electoral votes.

McDonald's name was scratched by a great number of Donley democrats because he had announced previous to the election that he favored the election of Wendell Wilkie.

At the Court House here, 480 votes were cast for president, 413 for Roosevelt, 64 for Wilkie and three for the Prohibition candidate. The city hall reported a total of 385 voting, 333 for Roosevelt, 50 for Wilkie, and two for the Prohibition candidate.

Four boxes in the county were 100 per cent Roosevelt. These were Watkins, with six; Brey, with 31; Wilson, with 19; and Smith, with 25.

The town of Hedley cast a total of 306 votes for president, 259 for Roosevelt and 47 for Wilkie. Lelia Lake cast 161 for Roosevelt and 14 for Wilkie.

In one county box that of Naylor, Wilkie ran a good race, receiving eight to Roosevelt's nine.

Other boxes in the county voted as follows: Goldston, 50 for Roosevelt, six for Wilkie; Giles, 23 for Roosevelt, one for Wilkie; Rowe, 25 for Roosevelt, seven for Wilkie, one for the Socialist candidate; Jericho, 32 for Roosevelt and six for Wilkie; Martin, 46 for Roosevelt and one for Wilkie; Skillet, 50 for Roosevelt and four for Wilkie; McKnight, 26 for Roosevelt, none for Wilkie, four for the Socialists and one for the Prohibitionists; Ashtola, 67 for Roosevelt and five for Wilkie.

The candidate receiving the largest vote was John H. Sharp, candidate for associate justice of Supreme Court. He received a total of 2066 votes.

The number one Amendment pertaining to Red River County was defeated in the county, 424 against, 168 for; the Number two amendment providing that Notaries Public be appointed by the Secretary of State won, the vote being 375 for, 287 against; the number three amendment providing that Article 16, Section 30, of the Constitution shall not apply to appointive offices of any municipality placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service, resulted in a tie vote, 265 for and 265 against; the Number four amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for appeals direct to the Supreme Court in instances involving the constitutionality of certain laws and orders, carried by vote, 386 for and 191 against.

ONE GAIN ASSURED, AT LEAST

One gain in the re-election of President Roosevelt, at least, is assured. The promised resignation and eclipse of John L. Lewis is a large contribution to Americanism. We trust the CIO sinks with him.

A MIGHTY JOLT TO DICTATORS

What a mighty jolt to Mess. Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin, etc., the recent American record of volunteers for the armed services must be! The dictators of the earth cannot understand how free citizens will step out and volunteer their services to their flag, without the lash of compulsion behind them.

Now since it seems there will scarcely be any men called for the first draft, because of the eager promptness of American manhood, there'll probably be more Brenner Pass conferences—and more headaches for the dictators. They can't understand a country like this—they can't understand Democracy—that's why they hate it.

RESPECT FOR INDIVIDUALS AND THEIR RIGHTS

A certain homespun philosopher declared that "one man was as good as another, and some times a darn sight better," as his concept of practical democracy. We might smile a bit at the facetious turn to his sentiment, but the fact is that he was hitting right down the alley.

If we are to become a united people in the problems of America then we are going to be forced to have more respect for the economic viewpoints of our patriotic citizens in all sections of the country. The laboring man must not be set against the capital and management of business. The great middle-class of Americans must not be made to feel that they are beset on either side by the "haves" and the "have nots", and left in the position of the "forgotten man".

America was builded and molded by a unity of interest and sympathy of class for class, and despite some occasional wrongs, the American system outstripped every other system the world has ever known in bringing freedom, high standards of living and social well being. Of course, we can't stop improving every phase not up to standards we have set for American equality. We would cease to be free Americans if we did.

To go forward every American must set his face against every man and every agency that would seek to divide our people, and array class against class. "One for all and all for one," is still the rallying cry for Americans. May we achieve a new unity for the good of mankind here and abroad.

IDEALS!

One short word. One exclamation point. Six short letters—not Sanskrit—not Greek—not mystical symbols—just letters known to and understood by the poorest man in London, the richest man in Wall Street, any sailor on any ship on any one of the seven seas, the trapper farthest north, the sheep-herder down under, the explorer in Little America and the mid-western corn farmer. One word and one exclamation point to tell the story of man.

There is a biological tale to tell concerning man but it is only a variation of the tale one might tell of a grasshopper, a frog or a baboon. There is a chemical tale to tell concerning man, but it, too, is but a part of the tale about all matter. There are many stories of mankind but they are only parts of longer stories and except for the fact that there is also a story of ideals, there would be no sense in any story. A grasshopper would not step forward if volunteers were called for to accept typhoid germs so that new experiments could be tried, a frog would not devote its life to a study of invention to the end that better machines might be built, a baboon would not write music or seek out historical data from records of past generations. If men were merely physical beings there would be no money other than one that might be told about any living creature.

Ideals! Goals to strive for,—patterns for generations yet unborn,—sacrificial projects arranged for the sake of others,—proposed scientific research to make greater happiness possible! The magnificent story of man!

One word—six letters—tells the tale and fixes the objective for educational, social, and spiritual endeavor. The important story of humankind has been and must always be one of purposeful creation.—Raymond E. Manchester, Dean State University, Kent, Ohio.

WE CHALLENGE COMPARISON WITH ANY GROUP

The News is sick and tired of politicians—very little politicians—bemoaning the newspapers of America, and seeking to undermine the confidence they enjoy in the minds of the public today.

We challenge comparison with any group of politicians, office holders, or what not in the matter of unselfish patriotism, and we are not flaunting that challenge in a boastful, vaunting way, either. We are well aware that somewhere in America there might be found a newspaper totally unworthy of the confidence of patriotic men and women, all right, (such a newspaper could not long survive) but would one have to look far to find a politician unfit for the respect of his countrymen? You know this is a fair offer of comparison, and you know that most newspapers day-in and day-out, week-in and week-out, serve their readers in a signally fair and capable manner without respect to the beliefs and ideas held by their managements.

No group of public business and professional men in America is today giving more unselfishly of their time and talent to the promotion of sound, patriotic progress of this republic than do the men and women who conduct the nation's newspapers—and this nation is one of the few spots in the world where news is yet free and undisturbed. There are those who seek to muzzle the newspapers so they may work their will to destroy American liberties—we know that, too.

Have faith in your newspapers—keep them strong and free—and Liberty will not perish from the earth. Otherwise, otherwise.

Economic Highlights

Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Happenings That Affected the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

To most Americans, the government at Vichy in so-called "free France" is a pathetic spectacle. You can draw a parallel with it here, working on the supposition that we have industrial areas, and close to half of our territory occupied by a ruthless enemy, and are faced on all sides by enemy troops against whom we have no military defense. That is the position France is in today. And, under those circumstances, Marshall Pétain's announcement that France would cooperate with the Axis powers to "restore peace in Europe" should not have come as any great surprise.

Whether or not this makes France a definite ally of the totalitarian states is not yet clear. But it does make clear the unpleasant fact that France will do—officially at least—whatever Hitler and Mussolini want. Few observers think that Hitler's promise not to use the French Navy against England is not worth a hoot—most of them think that before long what is left of that Navy may be at sea, fighting for the Axis. Every French resource will be placed at Hitler's disposal when he wants it. It is no doubt true that the average French citizen hates Germany and prays for British victory, but he is helpless. Every precaution has been taken to make organized resistance impossible.

The action of France is simply one more of those many actions which have been dividing the entire world into two distinct and opposed groups. On one side are Germany, Italy, Japan and those other peoples the Axis is able to control. On the other is Britain and the United States. Latin America remains the question mark, and during the next few years both sides are going to use every weapon at their command—flattery, bribery and threats—to win her support. This war is no ordinary war. It is a world revolution. And "woe to the vanquished" will be the motto of the ultimate victor.

There is little talk now of the war ending soon. Rumors are again making the rounds concerning peace proposals, and France was supposed to have drawn into the Axis for that purpose. But it is extremely difficult to see now how any agreement could be made that would be satisfactory to both Hitler and England—to say nothing of this country, which seems determined to have a say when it comes to redividing the world around a conference table. The chance for a negotiated peace, in other words, might be called an exceedingly improbable possibility.

The only other alternative is peace through complete military victory, which is what both Hitler and Churchill have often said is their sole aim. Churchill has also said that England will have air superiority within another year and will take the offensive then. But the events of the past year have certainly indicated that air warfare is far from decisive. In brief, as good a guess as any now is that this war may go on indefinitely.

The theory used to be that neither side could command sufficient resources to keep the war going for four or eight or ten years. Time seems to have dissipated that theory. Germany's conquests have given her a wealth of raw materials. She lacks very little that is necessary to war, and what she does lack she has a good chance of getting—as, for example, tin from the East Indies, to be obtained for her by her ally, Japan. England, so long as she controls the seas, may have to go on short rations, but she is able to bring the necessities to her ports. Even if we accept German claims of sinkings of British-owned or controlled shipping, it is obvious that hardly a dent has been made in the Empire's merchant marine.

The questions of plague and famine remain. But Germany and Italy can no doubt last a long time by gutting the food supplies of the conquered peoples. All reports indicate that the Reich is doing just that now. Plague is a more difficult factor to discuss. Rumors of it come from England, due to conditions in air-raid shelters, food rationing, and the deleterious physical effect of continued bombings, etc. But so far plague has not appeared, and it may be that modern medicine may be able to prevent it on a great scale.

Summing up, it looks like a very long war—a war of attrition. It may be that the final decisive factor will be a let-down in morale on one side or the other—a widespread feeling of "what's the use of going on?" At any rate, the best experts think that this country might as well get used to half a world continuously at war, whether we become belligerents or not. Even if we do keep out of war, we will become an increasingly important factor in its progress, in our role of armorer to Britain. No one can yet see the end of the Far Eastern situation—Japan has backed down a bit, but her army and navy clique are still restive and they rattle their swords on every possible occasion. Forces such as the world has rarely known are unleashed now, and to forecast the future has become the most hazardous of undertakings.

Over The Coffee

By BILL SHERWOOD

John Lewis, labor leader who came out for Wendell Willkie, now knows how it feels to be classified with the Literary Digest.

Where was Willkie when the lights went out? One Donley County voting box, Glenwood in name, gave 26 votes to President Roosevelt, four votes to the Socialists and one to the prohibitionists.

We told you so! Can't tell yet what percentage of the popular vote Mr. Roosevelt got, but we guessed about 60 per cent and an easy electoral vote victory. Way back last summer we predicted President Roosevelt would be nominated and re-elected to a third term. Just goes to show you, once you get on a winner, stick with him.

Charlie Lowry, local fossil hunter, believes he has solved the question of what kind of whiskey the old-timers here used to drink. While digging for fossils in Old Clarendon haunts, Charlie recently unearthed a whiskey bottle labeled, "Thunder and Lightning." Boy, no wonder some of those old boys were so tough!

We believe that we have really found a poet in our midst. Here's something our own Bennett Kirbow has formulated:

A Billy goat has an awful smell
A skunk is an offensive cat
But the most offensive thing I know
Is a Willkie Democrat.

You've gotta give Mr. Roosevelt credit for one thing. He was smart enough not to make anyone sore just before election by announcing on what date Thanksgiving would fall.

And speaking of Thanksgiving, it looks like some of the calendar companies were afraid to mark the traditional day of thanks this year. Guess that job will be one for the newspapers — at least while Roosevelt is president.

We voted for President Roosevelt Tuesday for two reasons: First, we believed that he would unquestionably be the winner and we wanted to be on the winning side; second, we knew that the dictators wanted Mr. Roosevelt defeated and again we wanted to be on the winning side.

Somebody said they were a Willkie-Democrat and a lady nearby thought they said Willkie-Polecat and asked what kind of a skunk they were talking about.

Mrs. B. P. Brents spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week in Memphis where she attended the funeral of C. D. Denney.

Womack Will Have Other Burial Associations To Advance Standards

It is proven that with the steady growth and advancement of the Womack Burial Association that other Burial Associations are gradually catering to the Womack Plan of more and better funeral service benefits. Eventually, all burial Associations in Donley County will need to offer the best quality of Men's Burial Suits and Ladies Dresses and Undergarments, hose and the miscellaneous garments, have the funeral notices printed notifying friends and acquaintances, provide a cherished memorial record and New Testament to the family properly edited. Then since the Womack Funeral Home Ambulance takes care of most of the sick and suffering to and from the hospital in Donley County as a free service to such a high point, then other funeral homes will add such a service, not as a courtesy and benefit, but because Womack's set the high point for such a demand for such a service. LOCAL GROCERY MAN LAUDS NEW HOYT'S COMPOUND

MUSCULAR ACHES AND PAINS, CONSTIPATION, POOR APPETITE, STOMACH GAS RELIEVED SAYS OWNER OF BROADWAY GROCERY
Mr. Valentine Supancic, 337 W. 7th St., Walsenburg, Colorado states: "I had suffered with muscular aches and pains in my arms, hips and legs. They were so bad that I could hardly lean the pain. I had a swelling in my right ankle. I was troubled with constipation and was generally run-down. My appetite was poor and food did not agree with me. I had a full feeling after meals. I have completed three bottles of Hoyt's Compound and I can hardly give it the praise it deserves. The aches and pains have gone completely from my arms, hips and legs, the swelling has left my ankle, my bowels are as regular and I feel rested and full of pep. The run-down and tired feeling has left, my appetite is good, and I do not suffer from gas after meals. It seems that Hoyt's Compound went to the very source of my trouble and I do want to recommend it."
Hoyt's Compound is sold and recommended by the Douglas & Goldston Drug Store and by all leading druggists in this section.

COY PIERCE BURNED WHEN PISTOL CAPS EXPLODE

Coy Pierce, 6-year-old son of Sheriff and Mrs. Guy Pierce, suffered severe burns on the left hand and left leg at a neighbor's home here last Saturday when some toy pistol caps in his left trouser pocket suddenly exploded while he was playing football.

The explosion of the caps evidently was caused by friction created when the youngster and one of the other children came together while executing football plays.

Like his daddy, who has been Sheriff of Donley County for the past 10 years, young Pierce always toted a gun and carried plenty of "ammunition" with him.

BRONCS WIN OVER LAKEVIEW TEAM FRIDAY 30-0

Featuring spectacular long runs by Capt. Hartzog, Tooter Johnson and Ollie McCrary, the Clarendon Bronchos rolled over an out-weighted and out-classed Lakeview eleven here last Friday night, 30-0.

The victory kept the Broncs in second place in the 3-A district play, a spot that places them in position for a possible conference tie.

Held scoreless in the first quarter, the Bronchos broke loose to score three touchdowns in the second period, one in the third and one in the final quarter.

Early in the second, Hartzog carried the ball over from the seven yard stripe on an off-tackle play to end a drive that started on the Eagle 28-yard line. Johnson failed to make the extra point.

Several plays later, Tooter Johnson, scooped up a Lakeview punt and dashed 75 yards down the field to pay dirt for the second Clarendon touchdown. Hartzog's kick was no good.

Seconds before the first half ended, Bud Hermesmeier presented his way through the center of the line on the three-yard stripe to hit pay dirt and run the score up to 18 points. The ball was put into scoring position by Johnson who ran 25 yards after Hartzog, McCrary and Hermesmeier had ripped off considerable yardage.

In the third period, McCrary plunged over from the one-foot line after Clarendon had worked the ball down field from their own 45. Hartzog again missed the extra point.

A fumble by Lakeview on their own 47, set the stage for the final Broncho touchdown in the fourth period. On four long dashes, Hartzog took the pigskin 53 yards, plunging through the line for eight yards and making the score, 30 to 0. Johnson's kick failed.

The whole Clarendon line played heads-up football, paving the way for much yardage in every period.

Although completely out-classed the Eagles fought hard until the final whistle, but were no match for the heavier Bronchos.

Clarendon made 13 first downs to Lakeview's four, and made 268 yards from scrimmage to the Eagle's 80.

Miss Luarell Holland spent the week-end at Brice visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Holland.

SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. AYERS HERE ON SUNDAY

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Gracie Ayers, 31 years old, who was fatally shot last Friday night at her home here.

The services were conducted at 2 p. m. at the Church of Christ by the pastor, Claude C. Smith, assisted by the Rev. J. Perry King. Interment was in the Citizens Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Verna Lusk, Wayne Estlack, Alfred Estlack, Dan Brazille, L. L. Wallace and John McMahan.

Beside her husband, Gilmer Ayers, she is survived by two small children, a girl, Laquita, 5, and a boy, Gayle, 4; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bales of Hedley; a sister, Mrs. Bob Ayers of Memphis; and grandmother on both sides of the family.

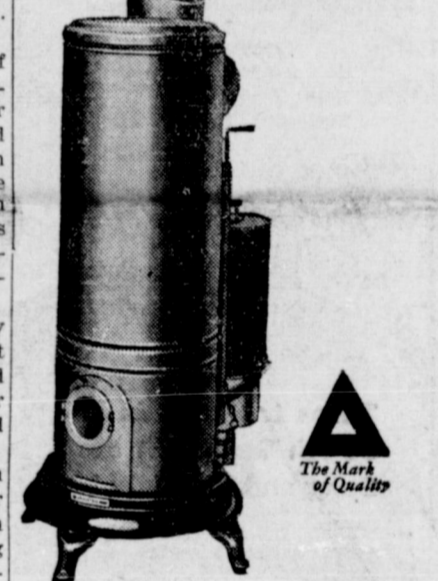

Mrs. Ayers was found dying by her husband upon his return home from the football game about 11 o'clock. She died about twenty minutes later, shortly after the doctor arrived.

Coroner R. C. Weatherly returned a verdict of suicide. A small .380 automatic coil was found just under her elbow. She had been shot through the forehead.

Members of the sheriff's department and state police investigated the shooting.

Mrs. Louie Thompson and Mrs. Ed Dishman attended the funeral of C. D. Denny in Memphis Thursday afternoon.

ELIZABETH GORDON BECOMES BRIDE OF SURMAN CLARK

Saturday evening, November 2, at 8:30, Elizabeth Gordon, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Gordon of this city, and Surman Clark, of Post, Texas were united in marriage in the First Methodist Church with Rev. Gordon, pastor of that church and father of the bride, reading the vows of the beautiful double ring ceremony as the nuptials knelt before the altar on a white satin pillow.

The church was effectively decorated with large banks of fern and a lovely assortment of white flowers. On either side of the altar was a tall candelabrum with seven white tapers and in back of the altar was another candelabrum containing six white tapers. A tall vase of white dahlias adorned the piano and huge baskets of white chrysanthemums stood around the altar.

Ushers, L. B. Hartzog and Ray Bulls, preceded the bride in entrance and lighted the tapers which gave a soft glow to the surroundings. The bride then entered on the arm of her brother, Carlton Gordon who gave her away, wearing a black suit with black accessories and soft white blouse and carrying a bouquet of white carnations. Marlam Gordon, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore a lovely dress of soldier-blue and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Jane Williams sang "Because" and Kitty Ruth Bailey sang "I Love You Truly" to the accompaniment of Mrs. Rayburn Smith on the organ who also played "O Promise Me" during the ceremony. Mrs. Gordon, mother of the bride, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the processional afterwards taking her seat with the family.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Gordon home for the wedding party and other close friends who attended the wedding. A lovely three tier wedding cake and frosted punch were served presided over by sisters of the groom.

Mrs. Clark was graduated from Snyder High School after which she attended Weatherford College and then entered nurses training in the Methodist Hospital in Fort Worth.

Mr. Clark was a graduate from Post High School and is now employed with a lumber concern in Post where the couple will make their home.

HARVEST DAY AT METHODIST CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

Sunday is Harvest Day at the Methodist Church, according to the plans of the board of stewards of the church, and invitations are being made to every Methodist family to be present at Sunday school and church services next Sunday. An unusual attendance is anticipated.

At a meeting of the board of stewards Monday evening at the home of the chairman, J. Roy Bartlett, when he and Mrs. Bartlett were hosts at a dinner to the officials including the pastor, Rev. H. C. Gordon, and the district superintendent, Dr. G. T. Palmer, a canvas showed that there was lacking $375 to pay every obligation for the conference year in full. With what might be collected from those still to pay, it was decided to ask every adult member of the church to bring a dollar next Sunday on the Harvest Day occasion, and every child to bring 50c. With a general response and a large congregation Chairman Bartlett and Secretary-Treasurer Patman, feel that the indebtedness can be wiped out Sunday without a public special collection.

Rev. H. C. Gordon goes up to conference with good reports on all activities of the church, and the board feels that the membership will rally Sunday to clear the financial obligations of the congregation.

THE ELECTION

A practice vote was held Tuesday morning so the students of Clarendon High School and College could learn the method of voting. The Republican and Democratic parties were the only parties represented on the ballot also an amendment. Some voted "Split" tickets. But when counting, only the votes for the president and the amendment were counted. The results were for Willkie; 219 for Roosevelt; 143 for the amendment; and 59 against the amendment.

The voting was done just as it is done at the polls. It was done in perfect order and everyone rather enjoyed this experiment.

COLLEGE JACKETS

Some of the college students received their jackets last week. The jackets are green and silver with a three inch "CJC" and a six inch bulldog on the backs. Since these students are enjoying wearing the jackets so much, it is too bad everyone did not buy them.

A FEW IMPORTANT REPTILE SPECIES

Of the nineteen orders of reptiles only four are in existence at present, two of which are the snake and the lizard.

There are more snake species than lizard species. Some general characteristics apply to both orders. However, the snake species can easily be distinguished by these characteristics: the temperature is only 40 degrees Fahrenheit; no outward if present; there are no eyelids; their breathing is soft and irregular; they feed well in captivity, eating mostly meats and a few vegetables.

Long, flat scales across the belly which are attached by tiny muscles to the ribs enable the snake to travel. Shedding occurs irregularly and the snake is blind just before and during shedding. The rattle snake sheds several times a year while the bull snake may shed every thirty days.

The copper head, the coil and the cotton mouth are the only poisonous snakes in America.

Some of the poisonous snakes have round heads, some have triangular heads and others have slender tails which are supposed to be characteristic of poison snakes. The statement is untrue that the cotton mouth bites only under water.

Snakes reproduce by eggs and live birth. The Boa Constrictor has a sac for the young snakes are born and eggs are laid at the same time. The young hunts for their own food while the mother coils her body around the eggs until they hatch.

There are not so many kinds of lizard species as there are of snakes. Only two poisonous species are found in America: The Gila Monster and the Mexican headed lizard. The Gila Monster has a wide forked tongue and feeds on eggs. He stores his food in cell-like sacs in his tail. The poison glands are back of the jaw. They do not poison unless the reptile holds on for some time so as to allow the poison to flow into the blood stream of the victim.

There are two species of Iguana lizards. The Mexican Leopard Iguana is a dirty brown color with horny spikes along his back. The green Iguana is known as the Chinese Dragon. The Fiji Island natives eat iguana steak.

The Alligators are land lizards. They are able to live under water because they can close up their gill-slits to keep the water out. They grow to 30 feet and live 100 years. The young are hatched and when they are old enough to eat they eat flies and frogs. A large alligator attacks men and other animals and holds them under water until they drown.

The Alligator is the only living thing that resembles in any way the dinosaur.

PROFESSIONAL SNOOPER

By the way! Where did Gerry Clayton get that precious lock et? You know she had a birth day and — most important of all—a boy friend!

Wonder why all of Wilma Jean's Romeo's were Hallowe'en night? Not one could be seen.

Has Fred Lynn got "spring fever"? Or maybe it's the way Clea Fern Phillips affects him! I don't know! (Or do I.)

A new romance in the bud—J. A. Howard and Arena Small! Don't anyone pluck it!

Lewis Chamberlain would just love to know who threw mud on his car and soaped it at the dance Hallowe'en night! (We know.)

Seen at the midnight show Hallowe'en night, Dan Boston and Jean Taylor and Weldon Warren and Lou Alice Adams.

Why was it that there were no football heroes at the dance Friday night? Could it be 'cause Warden told them to be home at eleven? (Maybe, or was it the 65c.)

Who was the cute little girl from Lakeview that Thad Lyle started to take home Friday night? Could it have been Eddy Lynn? And why didn't he take her? (Maybe say, Mamma could have been the cause!)

Say—do you know Jimmy Lummkin's latest? It's none other than Neta Jane Cornell. Cause they were seen together at the game!

Louise Butler was with a hand some little somebody Friday night from Lakeview. It was none other than "July" Robertson.

Anna Lynn's greatest worry now is — when is the boyfriend from Quitaque coming to see her!

Wonder what's happened to Woodie E. and Bachel Longan? They aren't seen together as much? Could someone be interfering?

PEP SQUAD

Gerry Ryan, football queen and Sophomore queen of '39 was the representative from the Pep Squad in the "most popular girl in high school" contest. She won by a great many votes, and the Pep Squad are very proud of having her in their midst.

The Pep Squad is going to Memphis for the football game Friday night. But most important of all, we are going to yell for those Bronchos! If they don't win it won't be because we have not done our part of yelling, because Bronchos, we're for you all the way! Yea, Bronchos!

BAND PARTY

The band had a party on Hal lowe'en night at Mrs. R. L. Big ger's home. We had a room for dancing and a room for playing games. From seven forty five until nine o'clock we had a scavenger hunt. The crowd was divided up into groups of six. Each group was given a list of articles which they were to secure. Pat Grady's group, including Bill Andis, Naomi Morris and G. D. Shelley, Margaret Wagsworth and Carl Morris, had the most points and received the prize, which was a box of candy. Cookies and punch were served to about fifty people.

Some highlights of the party were:

Margaret and Clyde together as usual.

Pat was with Bill Andis; no Carl!

Mary Nell was worrying about — when she found he was not at the party.

G. D. Shelley and Johnnie Johnson dancing!

Billy Jack Shelley keeping Naomi and the victrola company

G. G. earning fifteen cents.

Ernest Thompson looking bored? G. G.?

Claude and Frankie were there too!

Betty Ann being rushed by Billy ears.

June and Tink coming in late.

Hott and Porter showed up on time.

We wonder who soaped — 's car?

NOTICE

The "B" Football Team will not play their scheduled game Thursday night with Memphis. It has been postponed until a later date.

AN IDEA OF THE FOOTBALL GAME

Friday night the football game started off with a bang: Now, a gun didn't go off I'm sure. But I know I saw lots of feathers flying around and they happened to be Eagle feathers. It seemed as though the Bronchos were turned wild on those birds. It might have been called a stampede with the Eagles getting the worst of the deal. It was funny, the way the Bronchos never backed up. I've heard that donkeys were stubborn, but that whole flock of Eagles couldn't budge the Bronchos. Just as soon as the Eagles' feathers wilted, the Bronchos decided to have some fun. They raced down the field going so fast that the Eagles hid behind their wings to keep the heel dust out of their eyes. The goal post was a main attraction. The Bronchos seemed to like it, at least that's the way it looked because they stayed down there half of the time.

Undoubtedly the Bronchos had loose house shoes on something because they just couldn't kick that ball over the post.

This game could have been much better because, you know that it takes some competition to really make the Bronchos fight.

INTERESTING BIRDS

A zoology bird show was put on in Clarendon Thursday for the High School and College students. The object of this show was to show what can be accomplished through kindness and patience with animals and birds.

Birds are divided into two classes, meat eaters and vegetable eaters. The meat eaters are the ugly birds such as the crow, buzzard, hawk and others. The kinds belonging to the vegetable eating class are the pheasant, pigeon, dove and hummingbird.

There are about 13,000 birds in the world and only about 800 in the United States. The number of birds are decreasing every year. They are also very beautiful by the farmers putting out poison.

Birds are very valuable. They kill thousands of insects every year, they are also very beautiful and sing sweet songs. It takes 200 ants to make a meal for one flicker.

The smallest bird, which is the hummingbird, migrates thousands of miles each year. They get their food from sweet-smelling flowers.

The Australian Zebur Flicker is a small bird that sings sweetly. He lines his nest with his own feathers and interlines it with spider webs.

The Parakeet is the smallest member of the Parrot family.

In training birds you take the food they like away from them a few days. Then after he begins to learn give a small portion of the food back to him each time you feed him.

In training birds one should be very kind to them.

BAND NEWS

The band is going to Memphis next Friday night, where we will put on a stunt with the Memphis Band and Pep Squad. We are going to form the letters "U. S. A."

We are already preparing for the contest in April, which will be held in Amarillo. We are having a lot of individual practice especially in the second and third sections. Everyone is working hard because we feel like we can get another first division.

We are doing fine with our rummage sales. We would greatly appreciate it if you would see if you have any. Please phone a band member who will come for it.

SADIE HAWKIN'S DAY

Rebecca Eanes

On the campus, in the hall, just most any place at all, we see L'I Abner 'n Daisy Mae Standing all around today. Noon-time found each in his place for the Sadie Hawkins race. The race would really have been fun— But the boys wouldn't run!

WHY NOT COOPERATE?

Why not cooperate with the Press Club? Everyone is always saying the paper is for a select few. It's your paper, too. Why not cooperate? If you have any choice gossip give it to proper member of the Press Club. And why don't we get some etiquette questions? This column is for you. I know everyone has some social problems. Just write them on a slip of paper and give them to Bill Andis, Miss Wallis or Wilma Jean. If you, the students of High School and College would cooperate with the Press Club we would have a better organization. You would enjoy the paper more because you would have a part in it.

ASSEMBLY

The assembly program Friday was started off by Mr. Drennan leading the assembly in several songs. The football game was announced and L. B. Hartzog and Coach Warden made short talks on the game. Miss Webb who was to sing was unable to attend.

LIBRARY NEWS

Each year we celebrate Book Week sometime in November, this year Book Week is from Nov. 10-16. We celebrate Book Week to emphasize the important part that books play in our national life. The national slogan this year is "Good Books—Good Friends." And one may interpret this in terms of the companionship of books and lasting friendship with their characters.

During Book Week our library will have a display of new books and a poster drawn by Iva Ruth Gibbs, our school artist.

ENGLISH III STUDENT RECEIVES PRAISE FROM POET

Mrs. Goodner asked her Junior English class to read a volume of poems; then they were to criticize fifteen of the poems. La Rue Shadle chose Grace Noll Crowell's "Radiant Quest" for a study. She turned in an excellent paper in which she gave her reasons for liking and disliking some of the poems.

Mrs. Goodner sent the paper to Mrs. Crowell, and Mrs. Crowell wrote La Rue an encouraging letter. She said, "I feel that you are truly remarkable in your criticism. I value your severe denunciation of my work as greatly as I do the praise. You are looking through fresh, unclouded eyes, and you are evidently a lover of beauty and of truth. I hope you may go far."

Mrs. Crowell enclosed a picture of herself for La Rue.

 Lost Her Sluggishness

Gained a More Shapely Figure and the Increase in Physical Vigor and Vivaciousness, Which So Often Comes With Excess Fat Reduction.

Thousands of women are getting fat and losing their appeal just because they do not know what to do. Why not be smart — do what thousands of women have done to get off pounds of unwanted fat. Take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water first thing every morning to gently activate liver, bowels and kidneys—cut down your caloric intake—eat wisely and satisfyingly—there need never be a hungry moment!

Keep this plan up for 30 days. Then weigh yourself and see if you haven't lost pounds of ugly fat. Just see if this doesn't prove to be the surprise of your life and make you feel like shouting the good news to other fat people. And best of all a jar of Kruschen that will last you for 4 weeks costs but little. If not joyfully satisfied—money back.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg, pelvic, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body acids. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

FEEL PEPP RELIEVE THAT AWFUL BACKACHE

DOE TO FATIGUE AND EXPOSURE

Feel like stepping out again by relieving that backache (due to fatigue and exposure). Just rub on some Euc-arco and instantly it begins its four-fold work of helping soothe that back. Pleasant. At all drug stores or send for trial size to National Remedy Co., 55 W. 42 St., N. Y. C. Dept. X.

SICK, CRANKY NERVOUS AT CERTAIN TIMES?

Then read how thousands go smiling thru "difficult days"

You women who suffer functional monthly distress such as cramps, headache, backache—nervous, cranky, moody spells should find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound simply marvelous to bring relief.

For over half a century Pinkham's Compound has been helping hundreds of thousands of such weak, rundown, nervous women—so try this famous woman's tonic not only to help relieve distress but also to help build up resistance against functional female disorders. Over 1,000,000 women have reported remarkable benefit by taking Lydia Pinkham's Compound. Try it!

FFA Judging Team To Compete At Kansas City

The Clarendon FFA state champion milk judging team will leave Saturday for Kansas City, Mo., to compete in the national FFA milk judging contest, which will be held in connection with the American Royal Livestock Show and the national FFA convention, Nov. 11-14.

The Clarendon boys' expenses will be paid by the State FFA as a reward for winning first in the 1940 milk judging in which 75 schools competed at Fort Worth last spring.

This is the second consecutive year for the Clarendon team to win the title and represent Texas in the national contest.

The team is composed of Harice Green, Carl Morris and Forrest Helton and will be accompanied to Kansas City by their coach, John R. Gillham.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Connally of Santa Fe, New Mexico are here visiting in the home of Mr. Connally's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Connally.

A. Howard of Memphis was here on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Bill Greene returned Sunday night from Olney where she has been visiting relatives.

FEASIBILITY OF STAMP PLAN TO BE STUDIED

A government official will come to Clarendon in the next week or two to determine the feasibility of the Food Stamp Plan for Donley County.

This announcement was made following the nine-county joint meeting on the stamp plan last week in Dallas which was attended by four Donley County representatives.

The official will go over the set-up required for operating the plan with the county court.

He will study the Donley county relief and comparative merits of the stamp plan with the surplus commodity distribution.

Clarendon Legion Members Attend Borger Meet

Members of the local American Legion post attended the 18th district American Legion and Legion Auxiliary convention at Borger last week-end.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Antrobus, Richard Cannon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holland, and Mrs. O. L. Fink.

The Legion posts of the 18th district went on record as favoring a new amendment to the national alien laws asking the deportation of aliens who have lived in the United States for five years or more and has shown no efforts or inclinations to become a citizen.

"That Fifth Avenue living is alright for a little while, but we're sure glad to get back and start living again like real Americans," D. E. Leathers, head of the American Typical Family, said in an interview here Monday.

The Leathers family, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Leathers, and two children, Margaret Jean and Johnny, arrived home late Sunday afternoon from their trip to the New York World's Fair where they were feted by fair officials and the Ford Motor Co.

The Leathers came back home via Ranger where they stopped and had dinner with relatives.

"Doggone happy to be back," was Mr. Leathers' first comment as he greeted friends on the street here Monday.

Asked about the rest of the family, Leathers said Mrs. Leathers was getting the "house" back in order, and the kids were resuming their school studies.

The family arrived in Fort Worth Saturday and left Sunday morning in the shiny new sedan presented them by the Ford Motor Company as one of the winning family prizes awarded them at New York.

It was all pretty wonderful, but as West Texans they were just a little homesick after two weeks of living a show window life.

What was the biggest thrill of all outside of winning the national honor itself?

For Leathers it was when Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor Company, presented him with the new car, a super deluxe model with a special license made in the Texas penitentiary at Huntsville and sent to New York. The number is a new high—5-977-737—the same as the engine number, well along toward the six millionth engine in the present series of Fords.

For the family as a whole, they agreed that perhaps they experienced their biggest thrill in meeting President Roosevelt when they visited him at the White House.

Most of their trip to the World's Fair was by airplane, and that was another "first" thrill, for none of the Leathers family had been in the air before.

Souvenir hunters virtually ran amuck during the last day of the fair, and the Texas family kept their highly-prized gifts out of sight.

"Why they even yanked most of the pickets off the fences around the house we lived in at the fair," Mrs. Leathers said.

RAYMOND BALLEW GETS ONE-YEAR JAIL TERM

Raymond Ballew of Memphis was given one year in the state penitentiary here late last Friday in district court on a charge of assault and murder without malice. The jury went out about 7 p. m., and returned shortly after 8 p. m.

Ballew, already serving a two-year sentence assessed at Memphis on the first charge of assault with intent to murder two Memphis policemen, was brought to Donley County for trial after the case has been transferred here.

The jury was completed Friday morning about 11 o'clock and testimony was heard during the afternoon with arguments made to the jury about 5 p. m.

Jurors were Joe Dill, Joe Green, C. C. Ayers, A. O. Hott, J. H. Helton, Clarence Bairfield, R. C. Bingham, J. O. Howard, C. F. Hermesmeyer, Clyde Grimley, M. P. Gentry and Jodie Helm.

Ballew gained state-wide publicity this last summer when he ran large advertisements in his home town paper announcing that he was closing out his business stock and going to prison.

Hedley PTA Carnival Draws $238.00

The Hallowe'en Carnival sponsored by the Parent and Teacher Association held in the high school building on Thursday evening, Oct. 31 brought in $238. $215 was clear. This large profit was the result of the donations by the patrons of the school and the merchants in Hedley, Memphis and Clarendon.

The carnival was a gala affair. The many Hallowe'en costumes gave the occasion seasonal color; the chamber of horror gave it the atmosphere. Bingo, fishing pond and doll throw, basket ball throw, cake walk, the house of wonders, and the Negro minstrel furnished plenty of recreation. Hamburgers, popcorn, pop, pie and coffee satisfied all appetites. The coronation of the carnival queen was sufficiently gratifying to the most discerning aesthetic tastes. The carnival was one of the most pleasant and successful events in years.
