Homes, Businesses To Be Awarded For Decorations

It's almost spook time -- and this year, you and your family are invited to join in all the fun. The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is sponsoring a Halloween Decorating Contest for all local businesses and homes. Muleshoe CoFC Manager Toni Eagle said a trophy will be given for the "Best Business" and another for the "Best Home."

The winners will be announced on Tuesday, October 30, said Mrs. Eagle, and the winners as designated by a voting public will receive a trophy for their efforts.

All a business must do to enter is decorate. If you wish to enter your home, call the CoFC office or come by and designate your home as an entry. All local news media will be listing the locations of the homes, so they can be seen and voted for.

A voting box will be placed at the Chamber office in the City Hall or you may mail your entry to the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture at P.O. Box 356, Muleshoe, Tx 79347. A ballot will be in the Thursday, October 11 issue of the Muleshoe Journal, and again on Sunday, October 14 in The Bailey County Journal.

Mrs. Eagle commented, "The Chamber urges all businesses and families to participate and all citizens are asked to please cast a vote for your favorite home and business."

Despite a second half rally Friday night, the Floydada Whirlwinds failed to come back in time, leaving the Muleshoe Mules with a 27-12 victory over the winless Floydada team.

Muleshoe took the opening kickoff and three plays later, the ball was fumbled away to the Whirlwinds, who failed to capitalize on their possession.

First quarter in the game became a back and fourth see-saw game, with the Mules stubbornly moving back and forth without finding the end zone.

Finally, with just 27 seconds left in the first quarter, Mule quarterback Todd Jones found Lester Burke, who latched onto a pass good for a 42 yard touchdown. Ray Vinson booted in the extra point to make it a 7-0 game.

Exploding in the second, the Mules added three more TD's. At 6:41 of the second, Jones again connected with Burke, this time for a 29 yard TD, but this time Vinson's PAT failed.

With the 'Winds failing to move the ball, and failing to take advantage of an interception with 3:41 left in the second. Derrick Jenkins intercepted for Floydada, but on the first play from scrimmage after the interception, Floydada lost the ball to Smile Orozco, who intercepted an attempted 'Wind pass.

Mark Moton shoved over from the three at 1:33 of the second after the two interceptions. Vinson made it a 20-0 game with his kick.

Moton, who showed up with a total of 144 rushing yards, also made his second TD after his first of three interceptions for the game. He intercepted a Whirlwind pass and returned it for 46 yards and a touchdown just 1:01 before the first half ended. Again, Vinson booted through the extra point.

The Mules got quite a shock in the second half, when Michael Saens took the opening kickoff and returned it from near the goal line for more than 95 yards and a touchdown. The clock showed 11:43 when he reached the other end of the field and paydirt. Derrick Jenkins attempted to run in the ball for two points, but was stopped short of the goal line. This was the second touchdown of the year for the Floydada Whirlwinds.

At 3:04 of the third quarter, Vinson attempted a 44-yard field goal which went to the left, and hit the goal post, bouncing. Con't Page 6, Col. 1

4-H Youngsters To Be Awarded During Banquet

The Bailey County 4-H Achievement Banquet will be held Tuesday, October 9, at 7 p.m. in the Bailey County Civic Center. Featured speaker for the special event will be Jim Bob Carver, District Two 4-H Council chairman and a member of the Texas 4-H Council. He resides in Abernathy.

Deanna Finck, County Extension Agent, said 4-H'ers will be receiving recognition for outstanding project work which was done during 1983-84.

To be presented will be the 'I Dare You' award, which will be given to two outstanding young leaders. The Gold Star award will be awarded to Bailey County's two most outstanding 4-H'ers of the year. This is the highest award a 4-H'ers may receive, said Miss Finck.

School Will Conduct Informational Forum

Are you interested in education? What about the future for your child and your school? Wonder where your school taxes are going and what they're paying for? Like to know more about the curriculum reform law (House Bill 246, passed in 1981, and now implemented) and House Bill 72 passed in the Special Legislature this year?

These answers, and more, may be available at a public forum, to be conducted by the Muleshoe Independent School District officials and school board members on Monday, October 15, at 8 p.m.

Muleshoe School Superintendent H. John Fuller says this may be the most important meeting conducted by the local schools in the history of the school.

School officials will be discussing the 'sweeping changes' mandated by the legislation, and how it will affect not only the students in the schools, but the teachers, the methods of teaching, and the future for the schools.

"We have had a lot of changes, and we have a lot more changes to come," said the superintendent. "We do not believe the people of the community are fully aware of the many changes, and we must make an effort to inform all parents, and anyone interested in our educational system, what is taking place as we still have a lot of local decisions to make."

"We desire local involvement. In the past year and a half, we have seen a lot of improvement in the school, but we need to let the people know about things where we have no choice but to implement the changes."

For instance, there is no 'social promotion;' students will receive no credit if they have five unexcused absences from a class; there is no longer exemptions from final examinations, including for seniors; new classrooms will have to be added to take care of students who are not allowed to be promoted, and other changes.

Superintendent Fuller said the 45 minute overview will be followed by a question and answer session. School board members and the administration will be dividing up into classrooms, and persons may visit each of the officials to question

Lyndon Huckaby New Leader For Kiwanis

Tuesday night was a special night for the Muleshoe Kiwanis Club, who held their 11th Annual Officer Installation Banquet.

Incoming president, Lyndon Huckaby presided over the banquet, with Lee Dunbar welcoming special guests, including media representatives and Dr. Sam Reeves and his wife, Carol Ann, along with John Pristarcak, all of Amarillo.

Dunbar also said he would like to specially recognize the wives of the Kiwanis members, "who have really put up with a lot from all the members of Kiwanis." He expressed appreciation for the support of all the wives of the members.

Recognized were charter members of the Muleshoe Kiwanis Club, including Cleve Bland, R.A. Bradley, Lee Dunbar and Clinton Rogers, who are all still active in the club since it was chartered on March 24, 1973.

He also recognized Kiwanis Sweetheart, Trish Burgess.

Giving special remarks was Lt. Gov. Sam Reeves, who told of the beginning of the Kiwanis Club. He said that in August, 1914, Allan S. Brown of Detroit, Mich. formed the first organization, which was a fraternal club, predominantly for health insurance for the members. The original name was Supreme Lodge Benevolent Order of Brothers.

When the name was changed to Nun Kiwanis, it was believed the name was interpreted as "We trade." However, it was later found that the Indian name actually meant "We Have a good time. We make a lot of noise."

On January 21, 1915, the second Kiwanis Club was formed, at Cleveland, Ohio. At this time, a special concern for children began, according to Dr. Reeves. And, in 1924, Kiwanis became Kiwanis International. At this time, said Dr. Reeves, there are more than 311,000 members of 78,000 clubs around the world.

Presented a plaque as the 'Outstanding Kiwanian' for the year was James Roy Jones, for his work on the flag project.

Other plaques were presented outgoing officers including President Eddie Barron, who also received the retiring president's pin; R.A. Bradley secretary; Nick Bamert, secretary and Herman Morrison for his work as a committee chairman on the fireworks project and Melvin Griffin for his work as committee chairman on the flag

Wednesday Rain Fall Adding Up

Early Wednesday night, rain started falling in the Muleshoe area, and although the official measurement was 1.74 in Muleshoe, up to three inches was reported south and east of Muleshoe.

Mrs. J.D. Bayless reported from Enochs Thursday morning that an inch and a half was recorded at Enochs. However, she said three inches were reported from Needmore, thirteen miles south of Muleshoe. Also, said Mrs. Bayless, two inches was recorded southeast of Bula.

The moisture was expected to be a great boost for wheat producers, as the bone-dry eastern part of Bailey County received at least three inches of rain, saturating the dry wheat.

From Muleshoe, reports varied from the nearly two inches at the official reporting station at the radio station, to three and two tenths inches in the far northeast part of town.

Western Bailey County had reports of more than an inch of rain on Wednesday night, in the rainfall that continued through the night and up to three inches were reported to the east of Lazbuddie.

The Jennyslippers, a division of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture will meet on Tuesday, October 9, at 7 p.m. in the back room of the Muleshoe Public Library.

To be discussed will be projects to cover the rest of this year. All members and interested women are encouraged to attend this meeting.

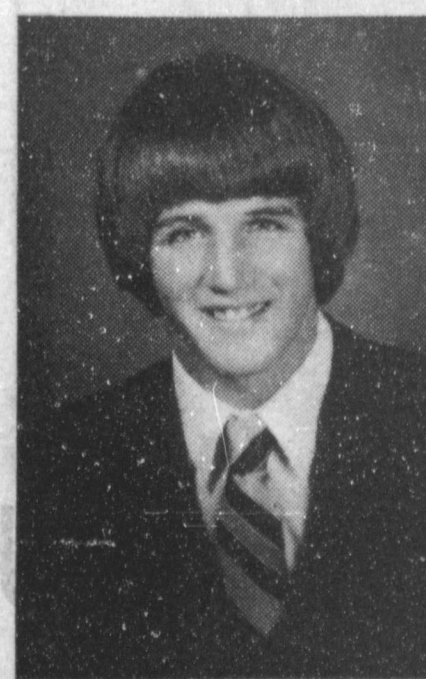

SFC Randy L. Williams, son of Cleta Williams, is now reported to be in the recuperation process at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C.

He is reported to be in very good condition and is currently undergoing therapy. Sgt. Williams is expected to return to Panama and his family in the near future.

Bobby Burris is recuperating from triple heart bypass surgery at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. He underwent the surgery at mid-week and should be returning to his home in Muleshoe late this week.

Roby Wilson Killed In Wreck Near Canyon On Thursday

A 1983 graduate of Muleshoe High School, Roby Lewis Wilson, 19, was killed, apparently instantly, in a two-vehicle accident near Canyon around 6 p.m. Thursday evening.

ROBY LEWIS WILSON

According to DPS officers, Wilson and another occupant of a late model pickup were on highway 87 4.9 miles south of Canyon when the driver apparently lost control of the pickup, veered off the roadway, back on and then rolled over a small car from Tulia.

Both Wilson and Tommy Lynn Sexton, 20, also a local resident, were thrown from the vehicle, with Wilson being pronounced dead at the scene of the accident. As yet, officers are unsure who was the driver of the vehicle.

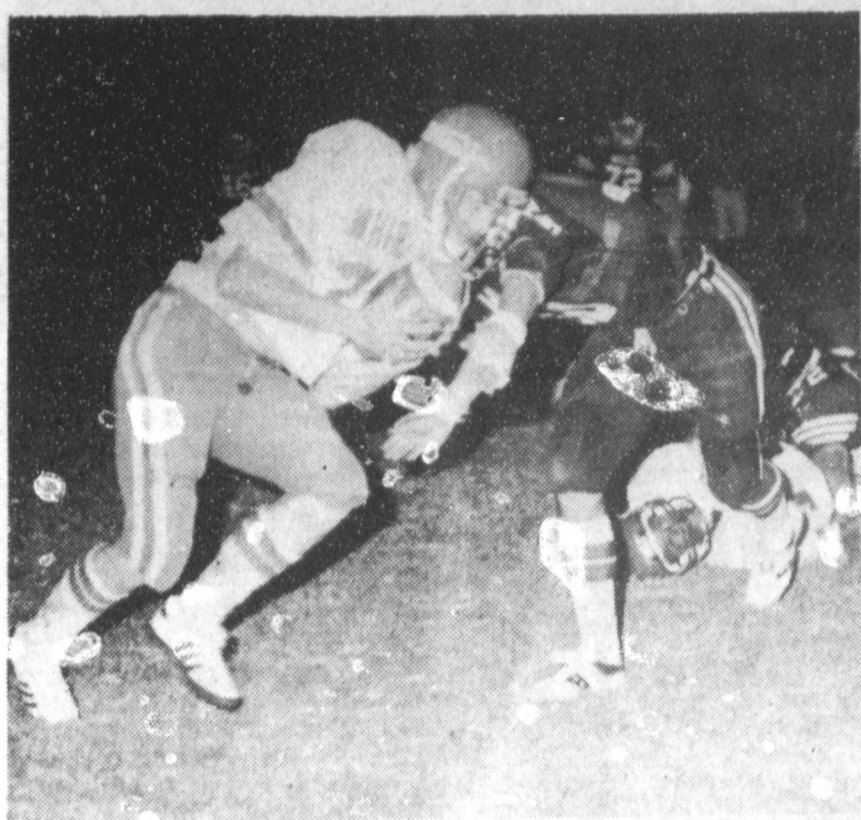

Sexton was taken to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo, where at press time, he was listed in extremely critical condition. Sexton underwent surgery at the hospital late Thursday night. His injuries include internal and head injuries.

From the other vehicle, three members of a Tulia family were listed Friday morning as being in good condition, stable condition, and the third, listed as very serious to critical.

MULES HOLD WHIRLWINDS GROUND GAME--Friday night, the Muleshoe Mules toughened up, and although the Floydada Whirlwinds made good pass yardage, the Mules held their ground yardage to only 43 yards. Here, a Mule slams into a Whirlwind and stops him still.

Chancellor explains Proposition 2 on November ballot

COLLEGE STATION — Mothers of Texas A&M University students have been briefed on Proposition 2 on the November ballot and asked to help spread the word about the provisions of the proposition and its proposed higher education assistance fund across the state.

Speaking before the Federation of Texas A&M University Mothers' Clubs — a combined group consisting of representatives of more than 50,000 past and present Aggie moms — Texas A&M University System Chancellor Arthur G. Hansen said Proposition 2 "would not only benefit present and future Aggie by assuring the future of the Permanent University Fund (PUF), it would benefit all college students by assuring state institutions resources for growth."

Proposition 2 calls for expanding provisions of the PUF, an endowment derived from oil and gas fields that has historically benefited Texas A&M and the University of Texas at Austin and, to a lesser extent, certain other institutions within the A&M and UT Systems. It also will establish a separate higher education fund to finance construction for Texas' 26 public colleges and universities that are not a part of the A&M or UT systems.

Proposition 2, Hansen said, is the culmination of legislation passed earlier this year (House Joint Resolution 19) that marks a high point in cooperation, compromise and conciliation among scores of groups interested in higher education.

"Now all those groups are spreading the word to help in the passage of the amendment, which will benefit all Texas students. What better group to seek support from than our Aggie Moms, who have traditionally worked so hard to make life better for the students at this institution," Hansen said.

He was quick to add that passage of Proposition 2 will not necessarily mean additional taxes, "since building and related requests are now being made on a piecemeal basis and general revenue is currently being used for such purposes."

George P. Shultz, Secretary of State:

"I wouldn't put a lot of money on the prospect that the United States and the Soviet Union will hold arms control talks in Vienna next month."

Letter To The Editor Policy

The Muleshoe Journal and Bailey County Journal welcomes letters to the editor on issues of concern to readers. Such letters must meet certain qualifications in order to be considered for publication.

Letters must bear the writers signature, address and phone number in order that the authorship may be confirmed. Under some circumstances we will delete the name of the writer, if, in our judgement, the request to do so is justified.

Letters should not exceed 250 words and must meet standards of good taste as well as legal guidelines. Letters attacking another person, a church or specific religion will not be published. Comments on issues are encouraged in order to maintain a forum for discussion of public views.

SEATS FOR SAFETY

AUSTIN — It took four attempts before the Legislature to find a workable child safety seat proposal, but during the summer's special legislative session the law was enacted. It goes into effect October 31st. Texas is to become the 49th state to require children under the age of 2 years to be secured in safety seats and children between 2 and 4 years to be in safety seats or secured by a seat belt when riding in cars. It doesn't take a major accident to kill or injure children who are riding in cars. Even in minor collisions children who are not secured can be tossed around the auto and the result can be serious injury or death.

This year in Texas, with this law on the books and enforced, we can expect to save 25 children from death. Two points that kept the Legislature from acting earlier were the potential hardship that the expense of mandatory seats would cause on indigent families, and taking the freedom of choice from the parents.

The final determination was that infants and small children cannot make their own decisions and should be protected just as they would be against child abuse.

Many cities are instituting safety seat loaner programs to assist those who would otherwise be unable to afford the $20 to $80 cost of the seats.

Texas State 4-H Fashion Show Winners

Six 4-H members won top awards for clothes they made and modeled at the state 4-H "Fantasy of Fashion" held at the San Angelo City Auditorium Sept. 18.

Fifty-six 4-H'ers competed in the state finals as a result of having won first place in local, county and district shows, said Alma Fonseca, Texas A&M University Extension Service clothing specialist and coordinator of the show. About 11,000 youth participate in clothing projects annually across the state according to the specialist.

The first-place winners in the four main categories were Donna Smith, Lamb County, for active sportswear; Deana Dohmann, Calhoun County for nontailored daywear; Teresa Anthony, Denton County, for tailored daywear; and Jimmie Scarborough, Montgomery County for evening and speciality wear.

Each winner received a $300 scholarship from Cloth World, Inc., a scissor set from White Sewing Machine Co., the New Vogue Sewing Book from Butterick Fashion Marketing Co., and a plaque from West Texas Utilities.

Special awards were also made for the best wool or mohair and the best cotton garment in the show. Sharon Kissire, Mills County, received the first place award in the wool/mohair division, and received a $100 bond from the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, wool fabric from their Women's Auxiliary, and mohair fabric from the Mohair Council of America.

Jacquie Nance, Dawson County, captured top honors in the cotton division, and received $100 from the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers' Association and corduroy fabric from Crompton Co., Inc.

Runners-up in the main divisions were Sarah Ann Henley, Childress County; Jacquie Nance; Melissa Matus, Wilbarger County; and Dana Detton, Potter County. Each second-place winner received a $225 scholarship from the Mary Kay Ash Charitable Fund, and a plaque from West Texas Utilities.

Teresa Anthony of Denton County won the second place and a $50 bond in the wool/mohair division, and Melissa Matus, Wilbarger County, won third. Both girls received wool fabric from the Women's Auxiliary of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association.

Deana Lane of Sherman County received $50 from the Texas Cottonseed Crushers' Association for her second-place win in the cotton division. Amy Wise, Madison County, placed third in the division. They received cotton fabric from the Crompton Co., Inc. and Wall Coop Gin.

Chambers County received special recognition as the county with the highest percentage increase in clothing project completion for the past year. Chambers County Extension agent Daniah McDaniel was presented a sewing machine from the Bernina Sewing Machine Co., for use in 4-H projects.

"The fashion show is one of the educational activities of the overall 4-H clothing program," said Fonseca. Part of each contestant's score is based on clothing construction, she explained. The 4-H members learn sewing techniques from adult leaders or older 4-H members supervised by their county Extension agent.

Contestants are also judged on poise and grooming which they develop through modeling in local and district public fashion shows, adds the specialist.

Nursing Student Displays Art Works

If there is an art to nursing, it should be no surprise to find an artist in nursing school.

Debbe Brooks, a sophomore at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Nursing, combines her vocational goals in nursing with an avocational interest in art with rewards of its own. Eight of her watercolors and one pastel drawing have been selected for display and sale in the Mezzanine Level Gallery at Hemphill-Wells department store in downtown Lubbock. Her works are on display under the auspices of the Lubbock Art Association and Hemphill-Wells.

Brooks has been painting and selling paintings for more than 10 years. Her work portray rural scenes, household vignettes and, occasionally, impressionistic interpretations of southwestern scenery.

The product of an agricultural upbringing in Muleshoe, Brooks is equally at home on a tractor, on horseback, in the college classroom, on duty in the hospital or wielding a brush and palette of color at her easel.

The challenges of capturing images on paper are similar to the feeling Brooks has toward a career in nursing. "I need challenges and situations calling for creative solutions," Brooks said. "Nursing is the kind of field where that happens."

Brooks' career plans include specialty training and graduate work following completion of the bachelor's degree in nursing.

Brooks has charted her career. She also has developed plans for expressing her creative talents through continuing her art work and posing new challenges to herself. "Ultimately," she said, "I want to build my own adobe house."

HAIR CARE HINTS

Mousse mania is combing the country. Mousse is a light, frothy foam that eliminates fly-away hair and takes styling options to the max.

It makes dramatic effects possible whether hair is permed, tinted, blow or finger dried, set with heated rollers or curling irons.

Layered styles tousled with mousse look sexy and chic; short shapes look snappy. Even fine hair gets the extra body it needs, for as one New York stylist says, "What good is the cut if you can't hold the shape?"

Endorsed by Monsieur Marc, hairstylist to stars like Brooke Shields and Nancy Reagan, L'Oréal's Free Hold Styling Mousse was developed in their French laboratories. M. Marc says mousse makes hair shiny and holds it, replacing the stiffness of spray.

For expert advice about hair care, call L'Oréal's toll-free GUIDeline at 800-631-7358.

DISPLAYING ART WORK—Debbe Brooks of Muleshoe, a sophomore student in the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Nursing in Lubbock, hangs a watercolor painting in the Mezzanine Gallery at Hemphill-Wells Department Store. Ms. Brooks' watercolors and pastels were chosen by Hemphill-Wells and the Lubbock Art Association for display and sale. She finds time for her art, her nursing studies and to help out on the family farm.

Forty-eight booths will be filled with an exciting array of items which include floral arrangements, stained glass, wooden items and toys. Almost every medium of painting will be represented: acrylic, oil, tote and china.

Gifts items can be found in jewelry, brass, stoneware, and stuffed baskets. Hand sewn items such as doll clothes, dolls, purses, vests, afghans, and cross stitch items will be shown. Many other crafts, too numerous to mention, will be available.

The Littlefield Young Homemakers are sponsoring this special event. The one dollar admission donation will be used for charity in the Littlefield community through Young Homemaker projects. The admission fee also entitles one to a chance for door prizes from each of the booths drawn periodically throughout the day.

A queensize Log Cabin quilt handmade by members of the club will be given in the away without going between the uprights.

Defensive action, fumbles and interceptions kept the teams from the end zone until 29 seconds were left to play in the game. The Whirlwinds had moved to the one foot line, and Jenkins made it in from that point. Again, he failed to run in the extra points, and the scoring ended at Muleshoe 27, Floydada 12.

At halftime, a very different band presentation was given. Band Director Anthony Gibson announced that the performance would be dedicated to Casey Wilson, brother of Roby Wilson, who was killed in an accident near Canyon on Wednesday night, and to the entire Wilson family, with sympathy from the band. The band then performed with the "missing man" formation where Casey Wilson usually marched.

During the game, Mark Moton rushed for 144 yards; Jerry Gleason had 50 yards; Smiley Orozco carried for 11 yards and Jarrod Embry had 12 yards.

The Mules had 15 first downs and Floydada had 13 first downs. The Mules had 186 yards rushing and 26 yards passing for 212, while Floydada had 43 yards rushing and 164 yards passing for a total of 207 yards.

Muleshoe lost three fumbles and the Whirlwinds lost one fumble. The Mules had 11 penalties for 70 yards, while the Whirlwinds had six penalties for 35 yards.

Muleshoe had four punts for an average of 33 yards, while Floydada had five punts with an average of 31 yards.

Muleshoe is now 2-5 for the season and 1-1 in district play.

Conservation Sets Election For Director

An election for a director to serve in Zone One on the Blackwater Valley Soil and Water Conservation District Board is scheduled for October 9, at the Beck Gin in the West Camp community, announced James Wedel, chairman of the board. The election will be held at 9 a.m.

State law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a soil and water conservation district director's election, a person must own agricultural land within the sub-division where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or any part of which is in the district and the voter must be 18 years old.

Legal qualifications state that a candidate for the office of a soil and water conservation district director must own land in the zone he represents, be 18 years of age and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. He must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district.

Zone One of the district includes the Progress and West Camp communities and the south boundary is FM746-Arch Highway.

The purpose of the Blackwater Valley SWCD, with headquarters in Muleshoe, is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The district board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator.

them concerning the legislation, and how it may affect their particular student.

They can explain the new career ladder for the teachers, and the testing required under HB72 for all teachers. Four levels will be used for the career ladder and under the system, it will be up to the teacher as to how far up the ladder they want to go.

Starting pay for teachers will go from $12,110 to $16,200; and after that, they have the potential to go as high as $33,800 in salary by moving up the four levels on the ladder.

Teachers, when hired, will be on one year probation, and may after the first year, be required to go back to school, or into a remedial program recommended by the school. Unqualified teachers will not be able to go from one school to the next in the future, without first being certified as to requirements.

The superintendent suggests that all interested persons be prepared to ask questions about any phase of the new legislation, and they can be informed as to what the school can and cannot do under the legislation.

Video tapes will be available, and a Spanish interpreter will be available for those persons who find difficulty expressing themselves or understanding the English language.

"We are reaching the point in the schools that we have a school we can be proud of," added the superintendent, "many districts are having many problems implementing the new legislation. I keep hearing this as I attend the many meetings required. Please attend the forum and learn what we have to do as mandated by the legislation."

Refreshments will be served those attending.

Youth To Celebrate National 4-H Week

4-H has a proud 75-year heritage that forms the basis of this year's National 4-H Week theme, "4-H: Building on Experience," says Kirby Rankin, county 4-H program coordinator.

National 4-H Week, October 7-13, is a special time for 4-H members and leaders to promote the nation's largest youth organization and to bring some recognition to its contributions, points out Rankin, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Over the years millions of 4-H'ers have gained valuable leadership experiences and learned practical skills that have improved their quality of life, notes Rankin.

Today, over 500 youth from Bailey County, between the ages of nine and 19 are gaining valuable learning experiences through 4-H. Bailey County's 4-H program reaches boys and girls through three community based clubs and many other short-term project groups, and curriculum enriched programs in schools.

During National 4-H Week, many businesses in Bailey County will have collection cans at their cash registers bearing the emblem "Quarters for Kids." Money collected in these cans will go toward improving the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood, Tx. Every member of the Bailey County 4-H asks that you leave your change in the can when you trade with these businesses.

4-H'ers are engaged in many different project areas in which they gain lifelong skills through the program's "learning-by-doing" concept, points out Rankin. These projects had their beginning in 1908 when Corn Clubs were organized for boys in Jack County. First focusing on such traditional areas as crop and livestock production and canning and sewing, 4-H projects now deal with a wide range of subjects, including small engines, rocketry and veterinary science—even the use of computers.

The 4-H program is conducted in Bailey County through the Cooperative Extension Service and is backed by the state's land-grant university (Texas A&M University for the Texas program) and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Some 90 adult and teenage leaders shoulder much of the responsibility for the 4-H program in Bailey County, says Rankin.

State Education Board Gains Federal Approval

By Governor Mark White

AUSTIN—The U.S. Justice Department has removed the last major hurdle to implementing Texas' new program for education reform by approving the switch to a 15-member State Board of Education appointed by district.

Federal approval of the shift from a 27-member elected board to an appointed board will mean a swift, orderly implementation of House Bill 72 and its state-mandated changes in academic requirements, class size in the early grades, teacher pay increases, and school finance.

As Governor, I faced a difficult task in narrowing the list of 45 qualified board candidates recommended by the Legislative Education Board.

My choices for the new State Board of Education include three hispanics, two blacks and five women, and all 15 members have extensive experience in business management or education. Serving on the board are people with experience in classroom teaching, higher education administration, serving on local school boards, and working in the special education field.

I believe this non-partisan board will work closely with the Legislature and other groups to achieve a more efficient and accountable public school system—one that provides a quality education for each child from the wealthiest to the poorest district. Once the new board begins work, I expect it will dispel any confusion or lingering questions in local districts concerning implementation of House Bill 72.

Serving on the appointed State Board of Education until January 1989 are Volly C. Bastine, Jr. of Houston, an associate with the Henry and Ross law firm who has served two terms on the elected State Board of Education; Mary Helen Berlanga of Corpus Christi, attorney with Bonilla, Read, Bonilla & Berlanga, Inc. who has served on the elected State Board of Education since 1983; Jon Brumley of Fort Worth, president and chief executive officer of Southland Royalty Co.; and Fred Bucy of Dallas, president and chief executive officer of Texas Instruments and a regent of Texas Tech University.

Other appointed board members are Rebecca Dawson Canning of Waco, a former consultant with the Texas Youth Council and former high school teacher; Dr. Emmett Conrad of Dallas, a physician and past member of the Dallas school board; Carolyn Crawford of Beaumont, director for guidance and psychological services for the Beaumont public schools; and Charles Duncan of Houston, independent businessman, former president of the Coca-Cola Co. and current chairman of Rice University.

Also serving are Paul C. Dunn of Levelland, a dentist and member of the Levelland school board; Maria Elena Flood of El Paso, assistant professor and director of operations at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center; William McBride of San Antonio, a retired U.S. Air-Force general and current president of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce; and Pete Jose Morales, Jr. of Devine, an independent businessman and former board member of Devine Independent School District and St. Mary's University.

Rounding out the State Board of Education are John Prescott of College Station, professor and director of the Institute of Occupational Medicine at Texas A&M University; Katherine Percy Raines of Cleburne, a financial planner, former teacher, and trustee of the Cleburne Independent School District; and Jack Strong of Longview, attorney, owner of a real estate firm and former state senator.

Beginning in 1988, Texas voters will elect a 15-member State Board of Education. Although the newly appointed board faces many difficult decisions, the success or failure of the effort to improve our schools rests ultimately with the parents, teachers, administrators and students of Texas.

LUBBOCK, Friday, September 28, 1984

Availability of advance payments will definitely serve as an incentive to early signup in the 1985 cotton program, says Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

"Farmers always are strapped for cash at this time of year," he notes, "and most can use advance payments to either stop the interest on existing loans or avoid new borrowing for harvest or other expenses."

The 1985 program, announced September 14, as a condition of eligibility for program benefits calls for 20 percent voluntary acreage reduction and 10 percent paid land diversion. The paid diversion will equal 30 cents per pound times the farm's established yield times 10 percent of the enrolled base. One-half of this amount plus one-half the estimated target price deficiency payment may be requested at signup, which begins October 15 and runs through March 1, 1985.

The deficiency payment, which is based on the difference between the average price paid to farmers in 1985 and the 81 cents per pound target, is estimated by USDA at 19.8 cents per pound. Producers at signup may request an advance of 9.9 cents times established yield times the acreage they intend to plant or their "permitted" acres.

Of course, Johnson cautions, producers will want to keep two things in mind. First a producer who signs up and later fails to comply with the program will have to refund the total advance, plus interest, plus rather severe liquidated damages. Second, should the final deficiency payment rate come to less than 9.9 cents, a part of that advance also will have to be refunded.

In addition to planting no more than 70 percent of the farm's upland cotton base, participating producers also will have to devote to acreage conservation reserve (ACR) eligible cropland equal to 28.57 percent of 1985 planted acreage plus 10 percent of the enrolled upland cotton base. That 28.57 percent is derived by dividing maximum permitted acres into 20 percent of the cotton base.

For example, assume a 100-acre base. The maximum permitted 70 acres divided into 20 percent of the full base (20 acres) equals 28.57 percent. So in this instance if the producer plants only 50 acres, his ACR only has to be 14.3 acres (.2857 times 50).

To be eligible for ACR, land must have been devoted to a row crop or small grains in at least two of the last three years. Haying will not be permitted on ACR, USDA says, but the acreage may be grazed except during the five principal growing months as designated by each county's ASCS committee. Also, the Secretary of Agriculture has approved for 1985 a "standby measure" authorizing emergency haying and grazing in the event of natural disaster.

The loan rate for 1985 crop cotton cannot finally be determined until after October 15, but is expected to be about 57 cents.

As in 1984, signup will be in the form of binding contracts and producers who fail to comply with program requirements will be assessed liquidated damages. However, producers who sign up early may withdraw from the program without penalty at any time prior to the end of the signup period on March 1, 1985.

'The Community of Opportunity-Where Water Makes The Difference'

Section B

Sunday, October 7, 1984

Published Every Sunday At Muleshoe, Bailey County, Texas 79347

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK PROCLAIMED--Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green has proclaimed the week of October 7-13 as Fire Prevention Week in Bailey County. He recently signed the proclamation in the presence of, from left, Jack Dunham, Muleshoe Fire Department Fire Chief; Jeff Skipworth, Morris McKillip and Sam Harlan. Fire Prevention is encouraged each year and each day of the year by the Bailey County Farm Bureau.

Fire Prevention Week Highlighted

October 7-13, 1984 is Fire Prevention Week in Bailey County across the nation, with the theme - "Join The Fire Prevention Team! Learn Not To Burn."

According to J.L. Dale, President of the Bailey County Farm Bureau, Fire can be friend or foe, depending on the situation. Unfortunately, unfriendly situations arise all too often, costing lives and devastating property. Prevention is your best defense, but to minimize loss you must be prepared if fire starts. To avoid or reduce fire loss, Dale recommends these tips from the National Safety Council:

Test smoke detectors regularly. Change batteries within the recommended interval or when you see or hear a "low battery" signal from a detector. If you have yet to equip your home with these proven lifesavers, do so soon.

Post phone numbers of the fire department, emergency medical service and others who could help during an emergency. Teach youngsters how to call for help in case of fire or other emergency.

Prepare, then practice a home fire escape plan.

If you have no nearby water source such as a river, lake or farm pond, you can install water holding tanks for fire fighting.

Equip your house, outbuildings and motorized equipment with fire extinguishers of the proper type and rating. Type A fires (paper, wood, straw, etc.) are best fought with a pressurized water extinguisher. Type B fires (petroleum products, solvents, kitchen grease, etc.) require the smothering effect of a dry chemical or carbon dioxide extinguisher. Type C fires (electrical) also require use of dry chemical or CO2 extinguishers. A dry chemical extinguisher charged with tri-class chemicals can be used on Type A fires, but not as effectively as water.

Never use a water extinguisher on a Type B or C fire -- with a B fire you could spread the flames and with a C you could suffer an electric shock. A tri-class 2A-10B:C extinguisher is ideal for a shop, tractor, combine and/or truck where a fire might involve both deep burning and flammable materials.

Locate extinguishers near building entrances, and in areas with a higher fire risk such as a kitchen, shop, or petroleum storage. Those on vehicles and equipment should be accessible from both the operators' station and the ground.

Teach family members and employees how to use extinguishers. Check extinguishers regularly.

The national FPW theme encourages everyone -- both individuals and organizations to actively support and join with fire departments to promote and teach fire safety. Dale said "Farm Bureau has been a member of the fire prevention team for many years and we are continuing in this teamwork through our programs to provide assistance for firemen training and our educational programs."

Commissioners Will Consider Budget Change

Bailey County Commissioners will face a busy day when they meet at 10 a.m. on Monday, October 8, in the commissioner's courtroom.

Included will be payment of routine county bills; consider a budget amendment to the fiscal year 1985 budget; review departmental reports; consider Revenue Sharing Regulations and Procedures as well as other miscellaneous items.

Special Week Spotlights Handicapped

October 7-13 is National Employ the Handicapped Week, according to Wendell Warman-Adams, counselor, of the Texas Rehabilitation Commission.

Since 1944, when President Franklin Roosevelt declared the first National Employ the handicapped Week, time has been set aside each October to increase the public's awareness of disabled people and their strengths and abilities.

"There are disabled people living in every community in this country," Warman-Adams said. "There are disabled people right here in Muleshoe. Our job at the Texas Rehabilitation Commission is to help these people find jobs, improve the quality of their lives and allow time to contribute to society as taxpaying, productive citizens."

Warman-Adams is in Muleshoe on Tuesday one week, and Wednesday the next week, around 1 p.m. He can be contacted at the Bailey County Courthouse. Persons interested in talking with him can contact the office of Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green. He said he currently is working with approximately 10-20 handicapped persons in the Muleshoe area.

Warman-Adams said his office helps people with a wide range of disabilities, including people with spinal cord injuries, mental retardation, mental illness, epilepsy and other internal disorders, hearing impairments, learning disabilities and orthopedic impairments.

"We provide counseling, guidance, medical treatment, job placement, training and many other services to help our clients get and keep good jobs," Warman-Adams added.

In 1983, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission helped 14,060 disabled Texans get jobs.

For more information about the Commission or about National Employ the Handicapped Week, call the TRC office in Lubbock at 806/747-1625.

Winter Pasture Can

Provide Stock Aid

Winter pastures are high quality, are expensive and offer a potential for profit if managed properly.

Wheat, oats, barley, triticale, rye or ryegrass are all high in protein and digestibility during their vegetative growth period, says Spencer Tanksley county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. It's not unusual for the leafy growth of these plants to be 25 percent crude protein and over 65 percent digestible.

Winter pastures are also highly palatable to livestock. With their high quality and acceptability, winter pastures have the potential for a high rate of gain.

Winter pastures are expensive pastures because they have to be planted yearly. Current budgets show from $70 to $110 per acre as the cost of winter pastures, including seed, fertilizer, labor, equipment and land rent. At a sale price of 60 cents per pound of gain, 117 pounds of gain would be needed to repay the $110 cost. Additional gain would be required to pay livestock expenses and any interest charges.

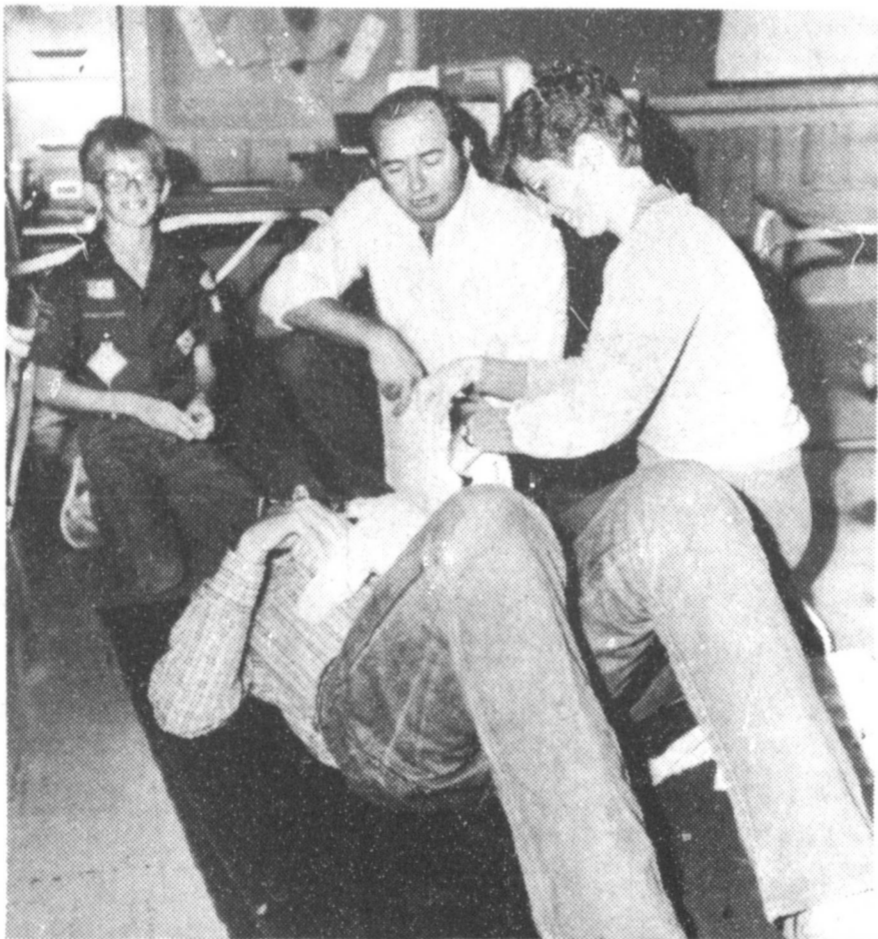

However, winter pastures do show the potential for profit, notes Tanksley Stocker calves commonly gain 2 pounds per day on winter pastures. These calves are grown from 400 to 750 pounds on winter pastures. With a constant stocking rate of 1 to 1.5 calves per acre, a profit can be realized.

Using winter pastures for cows calls for a different approach, Tanksley says. Stocking at one cow per acre and continuously grazing would result in a cost of 49 to 69 cents per day per cow. Limit grazing cows can reduce this cost. By limit grazing cows for two hours per day with four head per acre, the cost is reduced to 12 to 17 cents per head per day.

With limit grazing, cows get all their protein and mineral needs but do not get an adequate energy supply. So they should have standing dry forage or hay available while off the winter pasture, says Tanksley.

Winter pastures are extremely useful to livestock producers. They furnish high quality forage that all classes of livestock can use and perform well on. While they are relatively expensive because they require yearly establishment, winter pastures can be profitable to livestock producers willing to use them effectively according to the type of animal being grazed.

School Changes Show Up In Report Cards

Report cards will be sent home on Wednesday, October 3, 1984. Accompanying these computer print-outs will be an explanation sheet. The following information will be beneficial to aid parents in analyzing their child's progress.

1. Report cards must be signed by parents and returned to the teacher.
2. Parents of students failing a subject need to have a parent-teacher conference. Three choices of dates will be given to you by the teacher.
3. A student who has not maintained a grade average for a school year equivalent to at least 70 on a scale of 100 may not be advanced from one grade level to the next. Under the new law, school districts may not grant social promotions.
4. Students failing a subject may be required to attend tutorial services from 3:45 to 4:30 each Tuesday and Thursday. Students failing that do not attend may be retained the following year. School districts are not required to provide transportation for these students.
5. No student from Muleshoe schools will be allowed to participate in any school sponsored extra-curricular event such as athletics, cheerleading, UIL, 4-H, FFA, Student Council, etc. unless the student is passing four (4) academic subjects.
6. No student from Muleshoe schools will be allowed to miss any school time for any extra-curricular purpose unless the student is passing all subjects. (This means that a student failing one or two subjects but still passing four (4) academic subjects is eligible to participate in a school sponsored event, but the student cannot miss any school time for the event.)
7. Effective January 1, 1985 a student, other than a mentally retarded student, failing any academic class cannot participate in any extra-curricular activity during the next six (6) weeks. Students failing any academic subject during the third (3rd) six weeks cannot participate in any extra-curricular activity during the next six weeks and so on. Academic courses are defined as all courses approved for credit except for P.E. and Athletics.

8. Any student of Muleshoe schools missing more than 10 days of school during a semester for any reason other than extra-curricular activities become ineligible to participate in any extra-curricular activity sponsored by the school. Exceptions will be made for hospitalization and extended illness under a doctor's care.

9. All students are limited to ten (10) class absences per year for all extra-curricular activities.

10. A student may not be given credit for a class if the student has more than 5 days of unexcused absences during a semester.

Parents, we need your help. As you can see more responsibility for educating our children has been placed both on the home and the school. This is not all bad because to truly teach children require a combined effort of both. All students, depending on their grades, need to have a time allotted at home to study. Just because they have no homework does not mean they do not need to study, especially if they are making bad grades. If there is any way your child's teacher can help please let them know.

Yours truly,
Fred Mardis, Principal

Seventh Grade Mules Corral Frenship Tigers

The 7th grade Mules played the Frenship Tigers here, Thursday, September 20, 1984. The Tigers proved to be very big and tough defensively. The Mules defensive game provide the only score of the game; the Mules pushed the Tigers behind the goal line for a safety in the first period of the game. The Mules had many problems offensively and were stopped on several drives. They had the ball inside the 10-yard line three times and each time fumbled. The final score put the Mules on top 2-0.

Coach Donaldson indicated the Mules would be up against a much tougher Friona team for their next game. He said there would have to be fewer mistakes in order to win. Abel Leal led the team in tackles with 7; A.J. Liles had 5; all the Mules had at least 1 or more. This win made the season record of 2 wins and 0 losses.

The 8th grade met the Frenship Tigers on Thursday, finding them extremely tough. The Tigers were probably the best team that the Mules have faced in some time. They had it all: speed, size, quickness, and the determination to win.

In the second quarter, the Tigers went into the end zone only to have it called back because of an ineligible receiver downfield. It was a very good game defensively for both teams. It wasn't until the fourth period that the Mules were able to push across the goal line. A sweep around the left end by David Sanders set up the yardage for a TD run by David Wooten around the right end. Michael Dunham ran off tackle for the PAT. This put Muleshoe in the lead 8-0, but the Tigers threatened the Mules even to the final horn. Defensively, Michael Dunham lead the Mules with 12 tackles; Michael Duncan, Benny Parker, & Shane Burris each had 6; David Sanders had 5; David Wooten and Estevan Sandoval had 4; several other Mules had at least 1.

Congratulations to both the 7th and 8th grade Mules for an undefeated season!!!

Choosing In-Home Care For Children

Choosing an in-home caregiver for young children is a serious matter for parents.

Of the children in childcare, about 85-90 percent are cared for in their own homes or in small groups in a caregiver's home, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist Diane T. Welch. The caregivers are often friends, relatives or neighbors, she adds.

Parents often prefer in-home care because it can be less expensive for two or more children, it saves the time and cost of transporting children to a day-care center, and in rural areas, it may be the only kind available, she explains.

When the in-home caregiver is a friend or relative, parents often feel awkward about asking for an interview, notes Welch. However, it's just as important to spend time talking with a friend or relative about child care, she says, since you may find your views on child care are not compatible.

"Make the time to sit down and discuss your views of child care with your friend or relative," Welch suggests. "Don't take anything for granted and tell the person what you expect of the child and what you would like a caregiver to do for and with the child."

Just because the caregiver is a friend or relative, don't avoid the issues of work time, the fee and agreement on how to end the services, she cautions. Getting business matters settled may help preserve a positive relationship between parents and the caregiver.

According to the Welch, a family life education specialist with the Extension Service, any potential caregiver, whether a friend, relative or stranger, should be carefully interviewed before hiring. She suggests asking questions such as:

What kind of TV programs do you think children should watch?

What activities do you think are good for children?

What do you do when a child disobeys?

What do you do when you become angry with a child?

What are some things you do with children to help them learn?

What do you know about first aid?

How do feel about what children eat and drink?

What kind of facilities for play, naps and eating do you have available?

Parents should inspect the home for safety and cleanliness as well.

Before hiring an in-home caregiver, prepare a written agreement about what you expect and what the arrangements will be, says the specialist. Both you and the caregiver can refer to the statement later, thus minimizing misunderstandings.

A written agreement might include such things as days and hours the caregiver will work; the amount of payment, when it is due, how it will be paid, payment for additional duties or overtime and Social Security to be paid; agreement about visitors, phone calls, television and radio while the caregiver is working; other non-childcare tasks the person is to perform, and the amount of notice (and pay) necessary to end the agreement.

Interview more than one person and hire the one you feel most comfortable with, says Welch. "If you don't, you will find yourself worrying about how things are going at home."

Olympic helmets first tested in TEES wind tunnel

COLLEGE STATION — U.S. men and women cyclists who won gold medals on the opening day of Olympic competition were wearing helmets and aerodynamically-engineered clothing first tested in the Texas Engineering Experiment Station's wind tunnel.

Dr. Chester Kyle, professor of mechanical engineering at the University of California at Long Beach, headed a group which worked on ways to improve the performance of American cyclists by designing better equipment. The U.S. won its first olympic cycling medal since 1912 when Connie Carpenter-Phinney won the women's 79K event.

Oran Nicks, a former NASA engineer and wind tunnel director, said aerodynamic quality is important in cycling because at racing speeds of 30-40 mph, 90 percent of the cyclist's energy is expended cutting through the air.

The Texas Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) is part of The Texas A&M University System.

Plant oils not practical substitute for diesel fuel

The value of substituting plant oils for diesel fuel has been laid to rest by Texas A&M University agricultural economists — unless the price of diesel sky-rockets.

Recent articles in popular farming literature have called attention to the possibilities of using plant oils such as sunflower, soybean and peanut for diesel fuel as a potentially inexpensive energy source. But an energy report written by the economists and published by Texas A&M's Center for Energy and Mineral Resources indicates plant oils are not economical as substitutes for the fossil fuel.

Even under the most optimistic conditions, No. 2 diesel from plant oils will cost from 80 cents to $1.20 more than regular diesel, according to the report by Drs. Ronald Griffin, Ronald Laceywell, Glenn Collins and Hao-Chun Chang.
