World Prayer Day Observance Friday At Presbyterian Church—2:30 p. m.

Friday, February 20, will be observed as World Day of Prayer by millions of men, women and children over the world, and Clarendon will be among the many towns and cities making special arrangements for the day's observance.

Members of all denominations are invited to participate in the meditation prayer services to be held in the sanctuary of the Presbyterian Church at 2:30 P. M.

The first observance will be at 9 A. M. in the Negro school with all classes participating.

The grade school will have their program throughout the morning.

The Junior High will observe the day at 10:30 A. M.

The Senior High and College will have their observance at 1 P. M., and the general program for all those desiring to worship, at 2:30 P. M.

Observance of the World Day of Prayer is an interdenominational and international movement. People of all creeds, colors and languages are called to worship on this day. Starting at dawn in the Tonga Island on the international dateline, Christians around the world will unite in the universal day of prayer.

In the United States the day is observed in many communities with the closing of business establishments, hourly ringing of bells and worship services in hospitals, factories, homes, as well as in churches. People in more than 18,000 communities are expected to attend prayer gatherings. This is one of the most important days in the calendar year and it is the hope of church women that it may be prayerfully observed by Christians everywhere. Come and let us be united in prayerful effort for a better understanding among all peoples, and a greater love for God and our fellow men.

Canada Resident Visits Clarendon Relatives

Chas. B. Wilhite whose home is in Canada visited last week with his brother, L. C. Wilhite and his sister, Mrs. Mollie Hamrick. This was his first visit in a long number of years. It all came about in the following manner.

In the summer of 1892, Chas. B. Wilhite left the family home in Fisher County, Texas, in search of work. For many years he rambled, finally landing in Canada. After remaining there several years, he was naturalized and became a citizen of Canada.

This past summer, he decided to visit Texas relatives and friends for the first time in 60 years. His first stop was at Fort Worth where he visited several days with nieces, Mrs. J. B. Owens and Mrs. Bruce Dickey and their families.

F. M. Wilhite of Eastland and Jack Wilhite of Rotan, brothers, the latter whom he had never seen, went to Ft. Worth to meet the Canadian brother.

On February 4, Chas. H. and F. M. Wilhite came to Clarendon to visit their brother and sister here. The visit in Clarendon was climaxed by all of them attending church in a group Sunday, February 15.

On Monday morning of this week, the visiting brothers departed for Ft. Worth where they will entrain for Riverside, Calif. to visit another brother, D. W. Wilhite and family. After their visit there, Chas. H. will return to Vancouver and F. M. to Eastland.

Notes from --- CITY HALL

Our new sewer disposal system and new lines have been completed and are now in service. We had with us this week, one of the State Health officials, after making a thorough inspection of the new disposal plant, he approved it in a most satisfactory manner; also mentioned the fact that a city of our population was to be congratulated on a system of this size and nature and that it proved to him that we were making a foremost effort to keep abreast of modern sanitation methods.

We are progressing satisfactory with our water works improvements. All city wells and booster pumps are in tip-top condition and all are now automatically controlled. This is the latest in water system set-ups and is being put in service in many cities all over the country. We have had some very pleasing comments from state water and insurance officials in regard to our plentiful supply of good water, good equipment and water works in general.

We hope to have all extensions and repairs on water lines completed by early summer and street paving completed by not later than fall of this year. Major B. Hudson, Mayor.

AUSTIN—One step in the direction of solving the state's difficult highway problem was taken when the Legislature passed a resolution asking the federal government to abandon its two cents per gallon gasoline tax.

States now levying an income tax have agreed to give up that revenue source if the federal government will stop taxing gasoline. Texas has no state income tax, so Texas has everything to gain and nothing to lose.

The resolution was introduced in the House by Representative Lee Smith of Beaumont and in the Senate by Senator Johnnie B. Rogers of Austin.

A campaign to bring about retirement of the federal government from the field of motor fuel taxation was initiated by Governor Allan Shivers and the National Conference of Governors.

Farm and highway user groups are supporting the campaign. The resolution urges the governor to send suitable representatives from Texas to Washington to appear before congressional committees and urge repeal.

If the federal government abandons its two-cent tax, the state could impose that additional amount and thus, without actually increasing the gasoline tax as paid by the consumer, boost Texas' revenues by about $60 million a year.

That amount has been going to the federal government annually from Texas highway users. But Texas has been receiving only about $29 million per year in federal aid to highways.

Senator George Parkhouse of Dallas introduced a bill that would set up a district (similar to a water conservation district) Fort Worth-Dallas toll road.

In his message to the Legislature, Governor Shivers suggested that a commission be appointed to study whether or not the toll road is an answer to the vexing traffic problem.

Meanwhile, E. H. Thornton Jr., chairman of the state highway commission, says that in his opinion toll roads are not the solution, except possibly in isolated cases such as that of the Dallas-Fort Worth route.

"Toll roads," said Thornton, "are not the panacea unless we want to embark on a program of unjustifiable deficit financing and project to the next generation the problem of paying for the road needs of our day."

"I won't subscribe to such a program, and, I feel sure, neither will the people of Texas."

One way to build up highway finances would be to stop diverting road user taxes.

Representative Charles Murphy of Houston has offered a constitutional amendment to require that all taxes on motor fuel and lubricants must be spent on roads.

One-fourth of the gasoline tax now goes to the public schools of Texas. If the schools should lose this revenue, they would have to find other funds.

What's the right way to finance roads, and what's the right way to finance schools? Members of the Legislature would give you a rousing vote of thanks for an acceptable answer to that one.

If you want to see what the road situation is, one source of information would be the 1953 Texas official highway map, now released by the state highway department.

The map is a 100 per cent Texas product. Wood pulp for the paper was grown in East Texas. The paper was made near Houston. The plates were made and the printing done in Austin.

When you buy your 1953 car license you can get a special pre-addressed card that you can use to send for the map. Or you can get one at any highway department district office or by writing direct to the department in Austin.

The maps are free.

Officials of the department are asking people to purchase their new automobile license plates early. The deadline is March 31. Not many county tax assessors will ask for automobile inspection certificates this year.

Members of the House of Representatives have voted for a proposed constitutional amendment which, if approved by the citizens, would raise the pay of legislators from $10 per day to $25 per day for the first 120 days of the legislative sessions.

If approved, the amendment would become effective January 1, 1955.

The proposal, introduced in the House by Representative Murphy of Houston, now goes to the Senate. It provides that after the first 120 days, the pay of lawmakers would drop to $8 per day, the present rate.

LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

We have some memorial books to report this week that are exceptionally useful to the Library. There has often been calls for a "Field Guide for Birds." We have one sponsored by The Audubon Society that is very complete. It was given in memory of Mrs.

Mollie E. Gray. Another memorial book is "The Winged Horse" by John Auslander and Frank Hill. It is an elegant literary study of the poets and their poetry. It was given in memory of Mrs. Cooke, the mother of Mrs. Goodner, and "Tennyson and the Reviewers" was also given in her memory. All three are reference books, but can be used for reading pleasure.

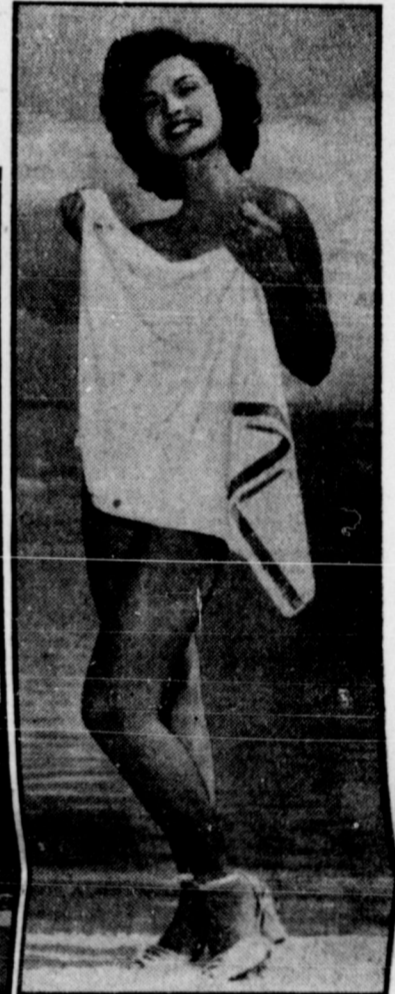

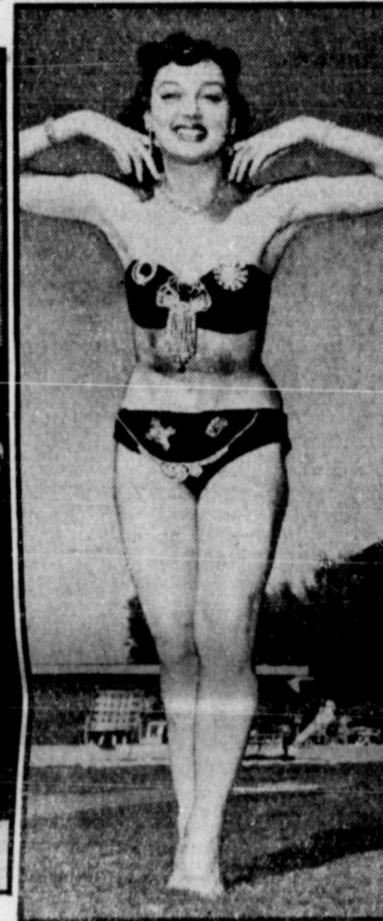

This week we have received several donations of current magazines that are elating our readers. Then our issue of "The Cattleman" is going the rounds. It is surprising how the boys enjoy it, especially two of my periodical readers.

The boys are shorted on reading material and are "fussy" for "Korean" reports. I told them the material would be their actual experiences before we had any publications.

I ordered the "Invisible Man" by Ralph Ellison since it is the Fiction winner of the 1953 Book Award, and not because I judged it a good investment from reading the "short" in the "Herald Tribune Book Review." Yes, and the nice article about the writer who recently visited the Clyde Harris' of Amarillo. His book "The Mountain of Allah" is on our shelves. It was a book of the month from the Double Day Dollar a few months ago. Better read with us.

Andy Rogers Sez!

By ANDY ROGERS
State Senator, District 30

It was your Senator's pleasure last week end to be the guest of the Houston Chamber of Commerce and the Houston Rodeo and Livestock Show directors. The entire Legislature was invited and most members took their families.

We got a kick out of being invited, along with one other Senator and one member of the House, to lead the Grand Entry and Parade with Texas' fabulous Glen McCarthy. Our South Texas pony rode like a mule but we overlooked this and used our Stetson to give the capacity crowd our best version of a real West Texas howdy.

The biggest thrill came from knowing (and being able to brag) that one of our own boys, a young man from Swisher County, exhibited the Reserve Grand Champion steer of the Show.

Speaking of shows, your legislature has begun to put on some of its own. The first and possibly biggest of this session came about the night of Feb. 9. At that time the Senate committee on Education met to take action on the Teachers' $600 Pay Raise Bill.

Usually committees have certain appointed rooms to meet in. But every citizen of Texas has the right to be present and to be heard on any legislative matter; therefore, nearly 1500 school teachers jammed the Senate floor and gallery for this hearing. Naturally, our committee room was too small; the hearing was transferred to the floor of the Senate. Your Senator was picked to preside at the hearing of this very important issue.

The big crowd was orderly and it took less than three hours to hear all citizens who came to speak their pieces. The committee passed favorably on the bill.

The beginning of another big battle occurred in the House of Representative committee on Public Health. Up for consideration was a proposal to change the Optometry laws and give the State Board of Optometry more power in deciding who can practice and hold an optometry license.

The bill sets up more stringent standards for an applicant to meet. The Optometry Board would decide if an applicant meets these standards. The Board would also determine when practitioners violate the code and would cancel the license of those which the Board considers unethical.

Slightly less than 200 "eye-doctors" were present at the hearing. The committee approved the bill.

We will hear a good bit more about this particular legislation.

Merchants of local Livestock Commission barns would have to put up a much higher bond if a new bill by House member Gabe Garrett of Corpus Christi should pass.

A stiff penalty for folks who let their livestock get on the highways has been proposed by a House member from one of the more heavily-populated areas. Another city man introduced a bill raising the charges on impounded livestock.

In an effort to evade opposition with the State of Water Engineers, a bill ing a Canadian River Municipal Water Authority has been introduced. This was asked for by the cities which would be served by the Canadian dam.

Care will be taken to see under no possible guise could new Water Authority supply its water supply with underground water. The cities served have asked for this themselves.

Everyone seems to be worried about the public health. One bill would require sanitary piping for all soda straws.

If one Fort Worth legislator gets his legislation adopted, urdays may be a little different for everybody. This bill would put banks on a five-day-a-week closed all day on Saturdays.

Geo. B. Bagby spent the of the week in Dallas and Chicago on business.

Wilson-Bain Nuptials Solemnized Feb. 12

Double-ring nuptials for Frankye Nell Wilson and Buster Regan Bain were read Thursday evening, February 12, at 8 P. M. in the First Baptist Church in Clarendon with Rev. H. E. Scott, pastor, officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson of Clarendon. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Regan Bain, also of Clarendon.

Vows were read beneath an arch covered with greenery and white gladioli. On either side were branched candelabra and baskets of white gladioli adorned with large white satin bows. The bride's dress was draped with white satin streamers and bows. Master Jimmy Bain, cousin of the groom, and Charlotte Wilson, sister of the bride, lighted the candles.

An organ prelude of nuptial selections was played by Mrs. H. E. Scott, organist. J. C. Arthur sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. Scott at the organ. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Miss Shirley Wilson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Fanchon Allred, Scharlean Pyeatt, and Mrs. Wayburn Wilson, sister of the bride. All wore ballerina length gowns of pastel taffeta with matching halos. Each carried bouquets of matching pastel carnations.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white satin with a molded bodice which fastened down the back with small self-covered buttons. The long, fitted sleeves formed petal points over her hands and the gathered skirt fell into a chapel train. Her elbow length veil fell from a small cap secured with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white gardenias.

Sidney Muse of Clarendon was the groom's best man. Grooms-men were Gene Bulman of Clarendon, Wayburn Wilson of Amarillo, brother-in-law of the bride, and Guy Lynn Tatum, Clarendon. Ushers were Robert Olin Bain of Clarendon, cousin of the groom, Nelson Christie of Clarendon, Paul Boswell of Canyon, Hoyt Kenmore of Amarillo, and Bob Clifford of Clarendon.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Wilson wore a steel gray dress of silk shantung with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a wool gray suit. White accessories completed her ensemble. Both wore corsages of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Church parlor. The bride's table was laid with a white cut-work linen cloth and centered with a bouquet of white carnations, yellow rosebuds, and white gardenias with yellow streamers, carrying out the bride's chosen colors. Flanking the arrangement were yellow candles. Mrs. Gene Bulman of Clarendon served the three tiered wedding cake and Mrs. Keith Crawford of Clarendon ladeled the punch.

For the wedding trip to New Mexico, Mrs. Bain wore a yellow and brown wool suit with copper and yellow accessories. Her corsage was gardenias. The couple will be at home in Clarendon in the Salmon Apartments.

Mrs. Bain was graduated from the Clarendon schools and for the past one and one half years has been employed at the General Telephone Company.

The bridegroom was graduated from the Clarendon schools and is completing his senior year at W.T.S.C. in Canyon. He is engaged in stock farming with his father in Clarendon.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baskin and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baskin and Marcia, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Light, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Kenmore, Mr. and Mrs. Wayburn Wilson, Miss Billie Berry, Miss Charleen Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Buck McMahan, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Pickett, and Robert Wilson, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bain, Mr. and Mrs. Murry Baugh of Chattanooga, Oklahoma; Mrs. Elmer Ashmead of Jericho, and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Parker of Memphis.

Johnson - Mays

Mr. and Mrs. Penny Johnson announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Charline, to Mr. Loyd Mays, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Mays.

Vows were exchanged January 22nd at the Baptist parsonage with Bro. H. E. Scott officiating. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson, parents of the bride, were the couples only attendants.

For her wedding, the bride chose a navy blue taffeta dress accented with winter white accessories.

Mrs. Mays finished her High School work in the Clarendon Public Schools at the close of the first semester of this year. She has been employed at the Parker-Perkins Store for the past few months. Mr. Mays, also attended the Clarendon Schools and at the time of his marriage was in the employ of the Blair Trucking Business of Amarillo.

Local School Districts Facing Serious Handicapp

AUSTIN—Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, said today that plans for easing the critical classroom shortage will be seriously handicapped if local school districts are required to pay a bigger share of the minimum foundation program.
"Local schools already are paying more than 40 per cent of the cost of public education in Texas," Tennyson said, "although those who want to rearrange the school financing pattern cite only the figures showing that local schools pay about 20 per cent of the minimum foundation program cost. They fail to cite the cost of current operations and repayment of bonded indebtedness."
The big difference in percentage lies in the fact that the minimum foundation program does not represent total school costs. Local school districts must pay many additional expenses themselves, including the cost of new buildings and facilities.
Figures compiled by the Texas Education Agency show that the total cost of public education in Texas during the 1951-52 school year was $318,963,078, Tennyson said. Local school districts paid $132,832,708 of that amount, or 41.6 per cent. The state paid $180,918,657 or 56.7 per cent. The federal government contributed 1.7 per cent, or $5,211,713, mostly for the school lunch program.
"Approximately 33,000 children in our elementary schools must attend classes for less than a full day because of the classroom shortage," Tennyson said. "Our local school districts are putting as much money as is feasible into new buildings. Many plans for new school construction may have to be scrapped if local contributions to the minimum foundation fund are increased."
The limit on local contributions to that fund now stands at $45,000,000.
"Many other states grant financial aid to local schools for construction purposes," Tennyson said, "but in Texas the need for buildings and facilities must be met by the local communities themselves."
"Many of the other states help pay school construction costs," Tennyson said. "In recent years, Virginia set aside $45,000,000 for that purpose while Washington appropriated $40,000,000, North Carolina $25,000,000 and Delaware $13,000,000. California recently made available, in two separate moves, $55,000,000 and $70,000,000 to help local school districts meet building costs, in addition to $250,000,000 earmarked for a long-range building program. Massachusetts pays up to 65 per cent of the construction costs for school buildings."
The local school districts in Texas have made no plea for similar grants, Tennyson pointed out. On their own initiative, they are doing their best to alleviate the critical classroom shortage which forces 33,000 students in elementary schools to attend classes for less than a full day.
Tennyson said there is no danger of state control of education.

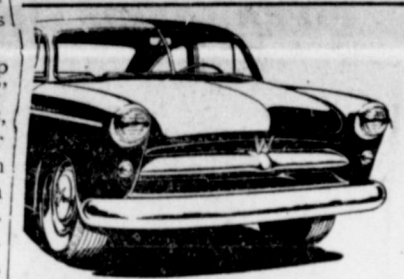

THEY "FLEW" TO PARIS—Two pair of California Valley quail seen above, flew farther and higher than any other quail when they went to the Fourth International Bird Show in Paris recently. They traveled by plane however instead of their own wingpower. J. Ansel Robinson, San Francisco pet fancier and Miss Carol Godfrey of the California Fish and Game Dept. examine the quail.

MAJOR HUDSON ANNOUNCES FOR MAYOR

The first Tuesday in April is the date when voters of our city go to the polls and elect someone to serve as our Mayor for the next two year term. Having served in this office the past 30 months and becoming more familiar with the duties of the office and our city government and being better qualified to perform the duties of this office, I believe I could be of better service to you in the future than in the past.

I am opposed to any tax rate increase or property valuation increase, except in a few instances where the equalization board might make some minor changes in line with corresponding property; the same would apply in regard to decreases. My honest conviction is that we have sufficient revenue to take care of our city obligations and make progress in the way of some city improvements by careful planning and wise spending.

I would like to see the street paving program completed this year. I am pretty busy these days and time will not permit me to see all of you in person. Your support will be appreciated the same as if I did see you in person.

Take an interest in your city government. Go to the polls and vote. It is up to you to make the decision of who and how your city government shall be run.

Very truly yours,
Major B. Hudson.

Those visiting in the D. C. Williams home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams and son from White Deer, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Lindley and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fricks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Terry, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Mays and Earl Burton.

FARM NEWS
From the County PMA Committee

The next practice in line to be discussed in the PMA weekly news article is Practice 21, "Drilling or digging wells for better distribution of grazing on range land."

A. Artesian wells—$1 per linear foot.

B. Wells, other than artesian wells, with casing less than 4 inches inside diameter, and uncased wells with a bottom hole diameter of 4 1/4 inches—$1 per linear foot.

C. Wells, other than artesian wells, with casing 4 inches, but less than 6 inches inside diameter, and uncased wells with a bottom hole diameter of 4 1/4 inches but less than 6 1/2 inches—$2 per linear foot.

D. Wells, other than artesian wells, with casing 6 inches or more inside diameter, and uncased wells with a bottom hole diameter of 6 1/2 inches or more—$3 per linear foot.

SPECIFICATIONS: No assistance is offered for any well dug or drilled within one-fourth mile of farm or ranch headquarters or for the use of headquarters, or within one-fourth mile of any feed pen or dairy barn. Approval will not be given for a well to furnish the first water on the farm or ranch.

Wells that are not cased to the formation producing water will be considered uncased wells. Wells will be approved only for better distribution of grazing on noncrop pasture and range land. Wells must be cased sufficiently to prevent caving. Except in the case of artesian wells, the farmer is required to erect or install a windmill or power pump, together with adequate equipment and storage tanks. A dry hole will not qualify. An artesian well will qualify if sufficient water is made available and is carried to one or more adequate tanks or troughs. Artesian wells must be provided with automatic cut-off to be used when available storage is full. An inadequate well may be deepened at the rate and under the specifications for drilling a new well.

DROUGHT EMERGENCY HAY PROGRAM:

Another 1,077 cars of hay was shipped to Texas last week under the Drought Emergency Hay Program, according to B. F. Vance, Chairman, State Agricultural Mobilization Committee. This leaves orders on file for about 5,000 cars to be shipped to Texas. Vance says he has been notified that all orders will be shipped by February 17. This would indicate that about 5,000 cars of hay would be shipped to Texas during this week and next week.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson announced on February 9 that an additional $1.5 million has been made available to him for the Hay Program. Just how much additional hay Texas will get from this additional fund is not known, according to Vance. It is our understanding that additional shipments will be made only to regions of most drastic need.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

George Washington's Birthday, February 22, falls on Sunday this year. Regulations provide that when a "National Holiday" falls on Sunday, the following Monday will be observed. Therefore, Monday, February 23, will be a National Holiday. The PMA Office and County Offices will be closed that day.

POST OFFICE COOPERATES IN HEART FUND DRIVE

The Post Office Department is cooperating with the Texas Heart Association and its affiliates throughout the state by accepting contributions to the 1953 Heart Fund campaign addressed to "HEART, care of local post office."

Contributions received in post offices anywhere in the state for the $408,000 drive will be channeled by local postmasters to a central accounting office, which will then remit them to authorized representatives of the Texas Heart Association.

This is the third successive year that the Post Office Department has cooperated in this way with the Heart Fund, which makes possible the research, education and community service programs of the Heart Associations.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

He who stops to look each way Will drive his car another day. But he who speeds across the "Stop" Will land in some mortician's shop.

The above was handed me by Mrs. C. H. Brown Jr. and is a clipping from her old home town paper, when she was a little girl, way back in I believe South Carolina. Also, in this same column was some items that sort of fit in with our Ain't Smoking Society. Anyway, he tells about one fellow who up and plain quit his wife because she kept nagging at him about his smoking, and this reminded the writer of the fellow who hobbled around for two weeks with a broken ankle and wouldn't see a doctor because that everytime he complained about anything his wife blamed it on his smoking. Ladies, please don't be this hard on the old man. Remember you took the Old Nick for better or for worse, and your better judgment told you then that he probably wouldn't get any better -- What am I saying? Excuse me while I go wash off the keyboard to my typewriter. Anyhow, glad to get the clippings.

"Will you walk into my parlor", said the spider to the fly. "Well hardly", said the insect as he winked the other eye. "Your parlor has an entrance, but of exits it is shy. So I'll stay outside in safety, and remain a little fly."

The above came from our faithful friend and reader from Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. R. E. Boone. What would we do without the help of our readers sometimes, and what would we do all the time without our friends??

We hope many of you have been reading our column in Southwestern Crop & Stock. We are also writing feature articles for this paper from many parts of the Panhandle. Look for an article about your county or let us know about a possible story. If you do not take this farm paper and wish to do so, we will be glad to send in your subscription, if this would help.

Our state legislature is now in session and judging from the bills that are pouring in, this session appears to be one of the most important in many years. Be sure and make your voice heard. There are many bills that are terribly important, but there are two that have been presented by our own new senator that I would like to call all our attention to and ask each of you to write your opinion into his office at once. One is a bill to prohibit bad literature from being sold to our children on our newsstands, and the other is one to let our servicemen vote. On this latter let me quote two statements from Sen. Rogers: "Present law classifies regular armed service personnel with imbeciles, paupers, and criminals, and denies them their right to vote." Quoting further from Mr. Rogers: "I can see no reason why a man who dons the uniform to serve his country should be denied the privilege of voting." I say amen and amen to these statements from the Senator, and I would like to go one step further and let eighteen year olds vote too. I believe that if they are old enough to die for their country they are old enough to vote for or against the people who send them to this death. If you feel a strong conviction along the above lines on either side; sit right down now and write a letter; even if it is your very first. These evils exist today because We The People have not made ourselves heard. Write to Sen. Andy Rogers, Senate Chamber, Austin, Texas. At the same time you can express your wishes on the Pari-mutual betting bil and gas refund bill;

the teachers pay bill or the higher local school tax bill. All these and many more important bills are to be decided in this session. Please don't say, I Can't Write A Letter. Sen. Hazelwood told me one time that when he received a letter written in perfect form he always checked it for evidence of a form pressure letter of some kind, but when one was written with a pencil on plain paper he knew that this person had some earnest conviction on his heart that urged him to write and he read it with deep concern. Be sure and write Sen. Rogers. If you wish send your letter to me and I will forward it, but better still, just mail it to Austin.

Thanks to Edwin Baley for the nice card and for the kind words about this column. Also, for taking time out to send us a new Ain't Smoking member. He is S. A. Cousins. Glad to hear from Mr. Baley and to have S. A. for a fellow member.

fifth annual observance of Children's Dental Health Day.

The day has been set aside in an attempt to call public attention to these startling facts: Ninety-eight percent of all 15-year-old boys have one or more teeth missing, decayed or filled.

Over 284 million cavities are afflicting the teeth of American children, with teeth decaying six times faster than they are being filled.

One-half of the children between the ages of three and nine have never in their lives had dental treatment.

"One of the biggest hurdles to be overcome," State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox says, "is the seemingly widespread attitude that baby teeth are insignificant." He believes the attitude stems from the fact that baby teeth are only temporary, with most people thinking there is no need for concern until the child gets his permanent set.

But dental scientists say that the care given baby teeth has a direct and vital bearing on the condition of permanent teeth, Dr. Cox points out.

The Texas State Department of Health and the State Dental Society are sponsoring the state observance of the day.

They are appealing to all parents to pay attention to the plight of youngsters' teeth. And they make this prediction:

"The children will be grateful—especially when they are no longer children."

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

THE FORMOSA QUESTION:

Many news articles and columns have been written and many words have been spoken over radio and television in an attempt to analyze the statement of the President that he was issuing a directive withdrawing the 7th Fleet from its present assignment between the island of Formosa and the Red China coast. Many of them have concluded that the end result will be an attack on the Red China coast by the Chinese Nationalist forces. As all of you know, I have long been a strong advocate of a policy of employing the Chinese Nationalist forces to the utmost of their abilities and to increase as much as possible their potentialities for operations against the Red legions. I sincerely hope that the forces of Chiang Kai-shek can mount a major onslaught in the nature of an invasion force against Red China. However, I doubt that under the present circumstances such result will be realized within the near future unless a tremendous amount of aid is furnished by United States naval and ground forces. The chances for a successful invasion by the Chinese Nationalist forces would have been much better had such invasion attack been a surprise attack. Many people here are wondering why advance notice should be given to the Red Forces as to possible or probable military movements of the UN forces. Certainly the Red Chinese would lose no time in setting up a formidable defense against a possible invasion force if they are given advance notice as to the general locality in which such invasion might be attempted. The setting up of such defenses would require less manpower and less withdrawal of troops from Korea than would be necessary if the Reds were forced to defend against a surprise attack. If the Reds are going to be informed in advance of the possible or probable strikes of the UN forces, their need for espionage service will be reduced to a minimum. There have been suspicions that the Red forces have been obtaining vital information on troop movements through their member of the UN, to wit, Russia. The recent uncovering of personnel in the UN with definite Red leanings would indicate that there might be some basis for some of the suspicions. I recently called upon the State Department for an explanation of certain charges made in a magazine article to the effect that troop movements in Korea were being cleared through a division of the UN in which one Constatine Zinchenko, a Soviet citizen, occupied an important desk. The State Department advised me that such was not the case and that the United States is in control of the actual conduct of operations in Korea in accordance with the general United Nations' principles and objectives; and further that the United States Government has not cleared and does not clear any proposed military movements or any directions to the troops with any organ of the United Nations or any person on its Secretariat. My question to the State Department and the State Department's answer received wide publicity and headlines in a number of Eastern papers. The matter was also treated in a Paris, France, newspaper, a clipping of which was recently forwarded to me by some friends of mine in the Canary Islands.

REEVES REPORTING
Eibert Reeves
Representative 88th District

The Shivers plan, which would shift the cost of a salary hike to local property owners, won't be tested by Monday's Senate committee hearing. But a favorable vote for S. B. 24 would indicate that the $240 a year won't satisfy the Senate. As in 1949, when the Gilmer-Aikin bills went through, the pro-teacher bill is starting in the Senate, where Aikin's big influence can assure a proper start. No hearing is yet scheduled on H. B. 3.

Rep. Harold Parish, author of a statewide congressional redistricting bill which would put Galveston County in a new district, got it sent to House sub-committee. Four regional sub-committees will try to work out their areas for placement of the 22nd Congressman. The member with the real problem on this bill is Rep. Grady Hogue, who represents Rains, Van Zandt and Henderson Counties, and thus has three Congressmen (Rayburn, Dowdy, Gentry) in his district. Dallas-Fort Worth members will try to snare the new congressional district between them. Since North and East Texas are now over-represented, changes are relatively certain there, and Hogue could be excused for being present, not voting.

A state utilities commission to take over rate-making on gas, electric and telephone utilities from the city councils, is proposed in H. B. 238, by Rep. Robert Patten, Jasper. The three-member body would first be appointed by the governor, then starting in 1954, elected for overlapping si-year terms. Municipal, political subdivision and co-op utilities would be exempt from regulation by the proposed PUC. Appeals to the Austin Court of Civil Appeals from PUC would regulate all utility rates and services sold or delivered to the consumer. It carries no clause repealing present laws on rate-making by Cities and Railroad Commission. Sen. Joe Russell is expected to introduce the Senate version, with a charge to put the rate-making as a division of the Railroad Commission.

It might be a good idea for somebody to get up a poll to see how much attention people pay to polls.
