Salt Fork Water Meeting Held

A group of about thirty local and out-of-town citizens met at the Donley County Courthouse on March 17, 1953 to discuss the proposal of a dam-site on Salt Fork of Red River.

Mr. Clifford Farmer, manager of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, gave a short report of the meeting with the Texas Water Board of Engineers held in Austin the previous week. That meeting was attended by Mr. C. B. Morris, Rayburn L. Smith and Jack E. Gray, all of Clarendon. Mr. Farmer reported that in order to hold the water rights that we now have, it will be necessary to obtain the services of an independent engineer to study the quantity and quality of water on the Salt Fork and to select a suitable place for location of a dam.

Judge Jack E. Gray read a letter from an engineer in Austin, stating that he would be willing to work on a per-day basis with the total cost amounting to about $1,500.00.

Mr. C. B. Morris, president of the Upper Basin of Salt Fork and Red River Association, appointed a committee to contact a few more engineers and plans were made to raise the necessary funds, with all interested counties sharing the expense. Although our local water supply may be sufficient at the present time, no one knows what it will be a few years from now and we should certainly take all steps necessary to retain our rights to the water in Salt Fork.

In making this announcement, Miss Ruth Richerson, county school supt., is urging everyone to come out and hear what Mr. Reeves has to say about legislative proceedings dealing with education, taxes and other matters. "Let us all attend and show Mr. Reeves we are interested in these matters and his efforts in Austin," stated Miss Richerson.

Public Will Pay More for Everything If Price Fixing Legislation Passes

An effort is being made to persuade the Legislature that the fair-trade price bill before it (H.B. 42, by Lamar Zivley, styled the "clean competition" bill) is aimed at only one feature of one type of retail business.

But the bill would affect business of all retail firms, from the smallest village to the biggest city. It would prohibit retail sale of merchandise "below cost" plus mark-up, and it applies to all merchandise in all types of stores.

Its effect would be to prohibit a merchant selling as cheaply as he might be able and willing to sell. It would result in increases of costs to the consumer, and would destroy an element of competitive merchandising.

Further, this bill, if enacted, would be a big opening wedge toward the long-sought goal of the standard "fair trade" bill which would enforce manufacturer-fixed prices on all retailers, when one retailer in the entire state contracted to comply with manufacturers prices.

Advocates of legislation to fix or sustain prices have been before every session of the Legislature for two decades with measures in the present form or other all having the practical end effect of raising the price of goods available to the consumer.

The question before the people of Texas, and the Legislature, is how far statutory price-control would be carried if the principle is adopted as law in any form.

Sponsors of the Zivley bill say it is designed to abolish the practice of "loss leader" selling; but its terms are as wide as a merchant's inventory, and it covers the department store, the hardware store, the clothing shop, just the same as it applies to the retail grocer.

The bill has been set for hearing before the House state affairs committee the night of April 1, when opposing business groups will reiterate old arguments for and against legislative price regulation. But left in between is the consuming public of Texas, which would pay the bill; and the fact this would be a big bill is obvious from the intense and determined efforts to secure price legislation.

KFDA-TV is to go on the air April 1st with the strongest station in Texas. The pattern will be shown a few days in advance.

The occasion is the signing of the first thirty-minute live talent show 9:00 to 9:30 each Saturday night. It is to be a human interest program known as the Carl Hare Talent Show. The program will feature talent from the entire territory.

If you know of any good talent numbers who would like to represent Clarendon on this program, please contact Mr. Carl Hare and give him the information you have. His address is 105 Polk Street, Amarillo.

Five Deacons To Be Ordained In Sunday Morning Service

At the Sunday morning worship service in the First Baptist Church of Clarendon, five men who have been elected to the office of deacon by the church will be ordained, according to information given by Howard E. Scott, pastor.

The five men who are to be set apart by their church in this special service are as follows: Wayne McElroy, Carmon Rhode, Bill Lowe, Dale Hill, and F. O. Hodge.

Rev. Scott has indicated that this service, in addition to its original intent, will further serve a two-fold purpose—it will afford an opportunity for many who have never witnessed an ordination service, and it will emphasize the importance and responsibility of the place of service.

The order of service will be as follows: Sam Lowe, moderator of the examining board, will bring his report to the church. Upon unanimous approval by the church to proceed with the ordination, the ordination sermon will be brought by the pastor. O. C. Watson will lead the ordination prayer, to be followed by the laying on of hands by the ordained Baptist preachers and deacons present.

Donley Red Cross Fund Drive Goes Over Quota

Hedley's generous support of the 1953 Red Cross fund drive put the county over its quota in the fund-raising campaign which has been going on all during March.

Hobart Moffitt, chairman of the Hedley drive, reported this week that his volunteer workers had collected over $250 in that community for the Red Cross. This amount added to the contributions of other county residents brought the total above the $1720 quota set for the county by the American Red Cross.

Mrs. W. J. Adams, county Red Cross chairman, expressed her thanks to all the volunteer workers throughout the county who helped to make the drive successful. "They've really been swell," she said. "Everyone was so willing to work and they all did a grand job."

Part of the funds collected this year by the national organization will be used for the collection, processing, and distribution of blood to be used for plasma for the soldiers in Korea and for gamma globulin, the discovery which prevents paralysis from polio. In connection with this, there will be a Blood Mobile in Clarendon on April 24.

HEDLEY COTTON FESTIVAL OFFICERS NAMED

Officials of Hedley's annual Cotton Festival, to be held October 9-10th, have been named by the Lions and Booster clubs there.

General director for the second straight year will be Bob Harris, president of the Booster Club. He named Charles Raina, of the Lions Club, as festival chairman.

Other key workers in the traditional event will be Clifford Johnson, Alva Simmons, R. M. Saunders, and Ed Boliver. Committee appointments will be made at a later date.

Miss Helen Zoltowski has arrived to start work on the big musical minstrel revue "On Stage America" which will be presented on Thursday and Friday, April 2nd and 3rd at the College Auditorium for the benefit of Children of departed Moose.

The following members, Butch Lane, Noel Cudd Jr. and Cecil Thomas of the Loyal Order of Moose, held a meeting Tuesday, March 25th to make arrangements for the show and to choose talent.

"On Stage America" uses a minstrel setting featuring ten prominent local men who will appear in black face and in special costumes to sing old time melodies, and modern musical numbers as they tell jokes on one another and to the white face master of ceremonies, called the Interlocutor.

Twenty-four ten-agers will be selected to appear as chorus girls and ten to twelve outstanding acts of amateur talent will be chosen by the director. These amateur acts will include musicians, singers, dancers and impersonators and those chosen will compete for a valuable prize. The winners will be selected on show nights by popular audience vote. Anyone in Clarendon or surrounding communities is eligible to compete and there is no age limit, and those who participate do not have to be members of the sponsoring organization. Anyone interested in taking part is urged to contact Amateur chairman, Eddie Forrest, phone 19.

In conjunction with the production "On Stage America", a baby contest will be held for children under six years of age. The entrants in this contest are the small fry of the town to be selected Queen and King of Toyland. The polling places for them will be in the stores of leading merchants. All children will be introduced to the audience of "On Stage America" and there will be a special coronation ceremony on the last night of the show when the winners who have polled the largest number of votes will receive crowns and loving cups. This is not a beauty or health contest; there will be no rehearsals, but a popularity contest. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Basil Smith, phone 87-R or Mrs. Lloyd McCord, phone 369-M.

"On Stage America" has unqualified recommendations of many other towns in the nation where it has played to packed houses. Ticket chairman is Noel Cudd Jr.

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA MEETING

The Gamma Kappa Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met in Clarendon Saturday. This chapter is composed of members from Childress, Collingsworth, Hall, and Donley Counties. The Donley County members are Miss Lucile Polk, president of the chapter, Mrs. Olean Leggett, recording secretary, Mrs. Marguerite Goodner, Miss Edgar Mae Mongole, Miss Ruth Richerson, Mrs. Velma Weaver, and Claudine Todd.

Two guests, Rev. and Mrs. Howard Scott, the members from the other three counties, and the local members enjoyed a luncheon at the Donley Hotel at 12:30. The tables were made attractive with spring yard flowers and other decorations carrying out the Easter motif.

After the luncheon, the entire group went to the First Baptist Church where the members were very graciously entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Scott.

The subject of the meeting was "Arts of the Nations." Rev. Scott had placed a number of his oil paintings, consisting of landscapes, portraits, and still life subjects, on display. In discussing his art work, Rev. Scott stresses the fact that he has never taken art lessons. In his very interesting talk, he related his inspiration for each picture; and in so doing, pointed out the high interest spot or object in each painting.

Mrs. Scott then entertained the group with beautiful organ music. She introduced her part of the program with interesting remarks about the universal language—music. Those present enjoyed hearing her play the following selections:

"Prelude"—Charlotte Ingham Word.

"Morning Mood"—Greig
"Come Sweet Rest"—Bach
"Venetian Love Song"—Nevin
"Deep River"—a Negro Spiritual
"Easter Morn"—Gaul.

In the business meeting which followed the program, it was decided that Clarendon will ask at the State Convention for the next regional meeting. The State Convention will be held in Dallas, April 24 and 25th. Miss Lucile Polk and other local delegates plan to attend the convention. The regional meeting will take place in October.

The next regular meeting will be May 9th at Memphis under arrangements of Miss Esta McElrath. The subject of this meeting will be "The Fight for Human Rights."

MOTHERS STUDY CLUB

Members of the Mothers Study Club entertained their children with an Easter egg hunt at the Park Tuesday afternoon. Hostesses were Billie Jean Moore, Nova Lee Mooring, and Ernestine Mooring.

After the children had exhausted their efforts and found the eggs, refreshments of strawberry and chocolate Sundaes were served by the hostesses to Delene Tyler and Larry Dee, Ann Hommel and Gene, Ira Jean Chilton and Pat, Carol Lane Phillips, Theresa, Billie Carol and Linda, Dorothy Martin and Mitchell, Lea Tyler and Barry, Melba Ruth Vaughn and Linda, Jeanie McKee and James Raymond, Doris Lloyd and Randall, Marsha Kay Maxey, Elaine Seay, Louveta Estes, Terry Moore, Donnie and David Mooring, Larry and Gary Mooring, Danalene Estlack, Melissa McCully, Patsy Sams and Annesse Bennett and Helen Faye.

GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Rayburn Smith and Mrs. John Goldston were hostesses to the Garden Club Thursday afternoon at Patching Club House. Arrangements of Forsythia with double white bridle wreath in a straw basket, and red tulips with pink and cream hyacinths surrounded by blue moss in a low gold container gave the rooms a spring touch.

After the business session which was opened by the president, Mrs. Frank White, Jr., with the Club Collect, Mrs. John Head led the program. The Robin was the subject bird for the study. Mrs. Head gave a very interesting and informative talk on the habits and homes of the Robin, making this much endeared and beautiful bird live before the audience. No picture could be more beautiful than this colorful bird nesting in a lovely tree in a yard. She said one way of enticing this bird to one's home, is to display bits of string and nesting material where the bird could find them and to provide a bird bath. As the Robins go south for the winter, their arrival here is a sure sign of spring.

"Winter Bouquets with Color" was ably discussed by Mrs. Frank Phelan, Sr. She gave names of flowers that dry and hold their color best and discussed the many possibilities of wild flowers on road sides and in the country for drying material. Several arrangements by Marjorie Harlan were displayed. The cornflower, seemingly the most popular, in lovely fall and winter colors, was combined with pussy willow dried in its natural state and placed in a wine colored container. A very unique arrangement was that of drift wood in its natural color, used with painted acorns and an impish figure; another was that of a Mexican dried seed pod and one of a Mexican plover. An arrangement of yellow marigolds and smoke tree foliage, a red rose bud by Mrs. Joe Goldston all showed the possibilities available to any gardener for beautifying their home for the winter and having occasion arrangements in color and beauty.

Mrs. Pete Kunz gave information on a Federation Garden Club meeting to be held in Lubbock soon. Mrs. Lee Holland discussed "The Texas Blue Bonnet Trail," which will be in April. A dessert plate was served by the hostesses to members Mesdames Frank White, Jr., Frank Phelan, Sr., Joe Goldston, M. C. Rumpy, Lee Holland, Léna Antrobous, A. L. Chase, O. C. Watson, Will Johnson, Pete Kunz, Bill Greene, Ralph Porter, and John Head. —Reporter.

Anderson showed several rugs which she had made—one a pretty braided and another made of nylon hose. Mrs. Clyde Butler had with her a stamped quilt which she had made and quilted. These were just a few of the pieces of hand-work shown. Crochet, cup towels, pot holders, pillow cases, sofa pillows, hankies and hot mats were among other work admired.

WHAT IS 3-D ?

I have been asked this question quite frequently of late and will attempt to explain it.

3-D is a term used that means third dimension in motion pictures. Motion pictures have always been in two dimension, width and height, the third dimension adds depth.

There are several processes being used to attain the third Dimension effect. The most popular of which is the Polaroid system which requires the use of polaroid glasses to view the picture. It is the opinion of the industry leaders though that this system will not be accepted by the public on account of having to use the glasses.

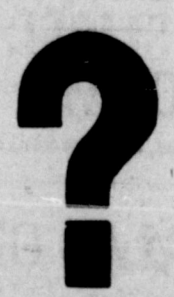

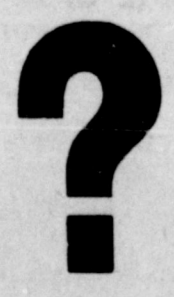

The latest demonstration of the 3-D process was CinemaScope which was demonstrated to the industry leaders in Hollywood last week. From all reports it is the only dimension process that has lasting possibilities. This process uses a system of lenses and a large curved screen. And you do not have to use glasses to view it.

There is no doubt in my mind but what CinemaScope is one of the greatest advancements in the presentation of motion pictures since the advent of sound. Two of the largest production companies are scheduling most all of their productions in this new process at once. They are 20th Century Fox & M. G. M.

If CinemaScope proves to be the best 3-D process we plan to install the equipment as soon as it is available. I am reasonably sure that we will have Third Dimension pictures in Clarendon by the end of this year.

Third dimension has upset our plans to build a Drive-in Theatre at this time. Third Dimension is supposed to be adaptable to Drive-ins but it will call for Circular type screen tower instead of flat, and we are going to await developments before building. Construction details should be available soon.

FARM NEWS
From the County PMA Committee

1952 APPLICATIONS FOR PAYMENT:

All except 30 of the Applications for Payment have been submitted to the State Office. The 30 Applications that have not been submitted are being held in this office for reasons such as; no producer's signature, supplemental conditions that must be completed on earthen dams or diversion terraces, and unreported practice performances on rye and winter legumes. As soon as these thirty producers have attended to the matters concerning the Application for Payment forms, they will be submitted to the State Office. The checks due for the Applications previously sent to the State Office are coming in. The checks will come directly to each producer earning assistance under the 1952 program.

1953 ACP PROGRAM:

As soon as you have completed a practice on your farm, please come to the County Office and make a performance report. If you are carrying out the grass seeding practice, don't forget to bring in the sales receipt for the grass that you purchased to seed under the ACP Program. Another reminder that we would like to stress is that the approvals which were mailed to each and every producer requesting assistance under the 1953 program are good until December 31, 1953.

REMINDER:

The maturity date on any wheat placed under a CCC Loan is April 30, 1953.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Don't speak all you think, but think all you speak.

KNOW YOUR COWS

A young bride approached her neighbor to see if she could furnish her milk. After being told that she could get all the milk she needed, the young bride asked if the cows were kept in a pasture. Being told they were, she exclaimed, "Oh how splendid; I was told not to use any but pasturized milk."

J. C. Ray has just returned from Joplin, Mo. where he attended the funeral of his brother, W. H. Ray. Burial was made in Kansas City.

Cotton Producers Asked To Study Present Situation Before Planting

Cotton supplies have now reached the point where, if another large crop is produced in 1953, the carry-over could further depress markets and bring back control programs. Cotton producers are, therefore, being urged to study the present situation and plant in accordance with the expected demands for their product.

It appears now, says H. M. Breedlove, County Agent, that the demand for raw cotton in the United States this season and next will be only slightly less than used last season, however, exports are expected to drop at least 1 1/2 million bales below last season and maybe even lower next season. The carry-over on August 1, 1953, is expected to be about 4.3 million bales, which will be 1.5 million bales, or 55 percent more cotton than was on hand a year earlier.

Cotton advisory groups have met with Secretary of Agriculture Benson and after careful study and consideration of all factors, the Secretary has asked the nation's cotton producers to make an 18 percent reduction in their 1953 plantings as compared with those for last year.

This reduced acreage should produce between 12 and 12.5 million bales of cotton. Such a crop would meet the estimated domestic and export demands and leave enough surplus to take care of the reserve needs, points out Breedlove.

Breedlove advises cotton producers to think in terms of balancing cotton with other farm crops and pastures. He points out that under the 7-step cotton program, fitting cotton into a balanced farming program is the first recommended step in making production of the fleecy staple more profitable. The present situation, he explains, calls for this balance.

Unusually heavy demands for feed caused primarily by the drought and to some extent by increased livestock numbers, has reduced the amount of feeds and forages to a very low level, and the acres left out of cotton this year could be profitably used, says Breedlove, for producing grain and forage for rebuilding the supply of these needed feeds.

Consideration, he adds, should also be given to increased plantings of soil improving crops in the areas where spring and summer planted legumes are adapted. Temporary pastures for livestock or for the production of hay crops might also be used on the diverted acres.

It all adds up, says Breedlove, to this fact. The nation needs only 12 to 12.5 million bales of cotton this year and the shift to other crops will pay in two ways. A smaller 1953 national crop should bring in more net profit and the grain, forage or soil improving crops grown on the diverted acres will help rebuild depleted feed supplies and the soil building crops will aid in keeping future production high. Plans should be made now to plant crops for silage if you plan a trench silo. Trench silos are the best way to store feed so it will keep for a long period of time, says the County Agent.

Farmers Advised On Current Fertilizer Situation

A situation, says H. M. Breedlove, County Agent, for the Texas Extension Service, has developed in the fertilizer field which is causing concern among farmers. Ammonium nitrate, he says, is in short supply but farmers should not fail to use a nitrogen fertilizer if one is needed to boost crop and pasture yields.

Breedlove's recommendation for overcoming the existing shortage is to use ammonium sulphate. He says the supply of this material is plentiful and readily available. It contains 21 percent nitrogen as compared to 33 percent for the ammonium nitrate. To get the same amount of nitrogen in the soil, Breedlove says, just apply one half more of the ammonium sulphate. In other words, 150 pounds of ammonium sulphate would contain the same amount of nitrogen as 100 pounds of the ammonium nitrate.

The County Agent adds that results from the use of the substitute should be just as good or better especially on neutral and or slightly alkaline soils.

Finally, he says, don't let the short supply and high price of ammonium nitrate curtail the use of a good one that will do the job is available.

BLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

By Uncle Zeb

We received the following telecard from Uncle Bob:

To Uncle Zeb, "The top of the mornin' to you and yours"

The dear little Shamrock,

The Sweet little Shamrock

The dear little, sweet little Shamrock of Ireland."

And also this to our old home town;

The dear little Shamrock,

The sweet little Shamrock,

The dear little, the sweet little Shamrock of Texas.

Anyway, "The top of the mornin'" to this Scotchman from us all.

Last week we had a story in Southwestern Crop & Stock to the effect that our good friend Foster Whaley worked real hard helping another fellow build an ensilage wagon. Foster denies doing any of the work, and he is right. It was all a mistake on the part of the editor. Actually Foster was only listening to the fellow tell about it when we snapped the picture. Anyhow, our apologies because the thing was mis-quoted.

Also, in our mail this week was another good supply of clippings from Mrs. Boone, who lives way up in Columbus, Ohio. What on earth would we do without friends to help us out with something for the column. Thanks to everyone for every help.

We sent out membership cards in the Ain't Smoking Society to the following during the week. R. E. Westbrook and Smith Ridley both of Rt. 1, Claude. R. E. had been an abstainer for about five years but had never received a membership card. Smith is off cigarettes, but I have it on good authority that he is breaking over with a cigar occasionally. Glad to have them both, as members.

The following is a sample of some of the clippings that we received:

- Daffy Definitions;
- Borrower—One who exchanges hot air for cash.
- Confidence—The girl so used to getting her own way that she wrote her diary two weeks in advance.
- Egotist—A person who is always me-deep in conversation.
- Engagements—A period in which a girl is put in solitary confinement.
- Pessimist—One who looks at the world through morose colored glasses.
- Reformer—A member of the meddle classes.
- Memory is a treasure chest, and one that we ought to be careful how we pack it.

The perfect husband said to his wife: "Honey, every day you become lovelier and lovelier, and today you look like tomorrow."

A SMILE

A smile costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive without making poorer those who give. It takes but a moment but sometimes the memory of it lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it. None is so poor but that he can be made rich by it. A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters goodwill in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature's best antidote to trouble. Yet it cannot be bought, borrowed or stolen, for it is something that is of no value to anyone unless and until it is given away. Some folks are too tired to give you a smile. Give them one of yours, as there is no one who needs a smile so much as he who has none to give.

The above definition of a smile by an unknown author is our selection for our scrap books for this week.

If a drunken person were to remain permanently in that soured condition he would be taken before a court and judged insane, and committed to an institution. This being true could we say that it is smart to drink.

Someone has said: "If you would soften a sorrow, tell it to a friend. If you would double a joy, share it with others. If you would solve a worry do something about it."

definite limitations upon the expansion of classroom and laboratory facilities, dormitories, and other aspects of physical plant.

That is why modern educators can't be "ivory tower" academicians. They should be among the most practical people we have.

It is why I am so optimistic about a special committee, composed of several presidents and board members of our State colleges, which I appointed early this month at the request of the Texas Legislature. This group of 16 outstanding men has agreed to make a preliminary study of the problems of coordinating State-supported higher education in Texas and to report its findings by April 1.

Thus the advice of the people who know most about the subject is being asked.

The Legislature's resolution has empowered the committee to "formulate a plan whereby the role and scope of each State college and university may be determined; whereby ways may be found of increasing the effectiveness and the economy of a truly Statewide system of higher education, and which will afford effective means for coordinating the academic programs of State colleges and universities with one another and with the realistic needs of the citizens of Texas."

That is a big undertaking but one that grows more urgent every day.

I have been pressing for the formation of such a group since the 52nd Legislature convened in 1951. As I said at that time, we need to find realistic solutions that will involve no crippling of essential functions and no short-range token economies that might prove to be handicaps later on.

I expressed the same recommendation again when the 53rd Legislature started its current session January 14 and pointed to the need for "coordinating our program of higher education for greater effectiveness, greater dollar value and improved conditions for staffs and faculties."

Nature sure pulled a boner when she made prunes more healthful than strawberries.

Having too much money not only goes to a woman's head, but finds its way to her back.

General Revenue Picture Facing 53rd Legislature

(NOTE: Continuing his discussion of State finances, the Governor of Texas has prepared this article concerning the problems of coordinating the State-supported system of higher education.)

By ALLAN SHIVERS
Governor of Texas

College education can't be bought.

But it has to be paid for.

The paradox is that State-supported higher education, like all learning, is difficult to measure in dollars and cents—yet it costs our citizens in hard cash.

Texas do not object to paying for the operation of their colleges and universities. They have long accepted this obligation as an important part of their heritage.

As the higher educational system grows and becomes more and more expensive, however, our citizens are entitled to some assurance that the money they are contributing is well spent.

The cultural values we prize so highly cannot be obtained without investment of financial resources. I say investment rather than spending because the returns for money used in this way are considerable.

Who is in the best position to evaluate our program of higher education?

Who can tell us how to avoid costly overlapping and duplication among State colleges and universities?

Who is qualified to say where and to what extent some duplication is desirable as a stimulant to healthy competition?

In my opinion, the answer lies at least partially with the educators who continually work with such values and think in these terms.

Our college and university administrators, in addition to dealing with academic matters, necessarily devote a great deal of attention to budget problems.

These financial questions have a direct bearing upon the maintenance of academic standards. They determine what salaries our institutions can offer in order to attract and hold outstanding faculty members. They also place

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The children's section has "Broomtail, Brother of Lightning." This is third grade reading level, and written by Miriam E. Mason. It is one of several memorial books given for the children's section in memory of Mrs. Mollie Gray.

We have "Jubal Troop" by Paul Wellman. It has been published in book form in 1953, but was copyrighted in 1939—evidently a serial. "Thunder Hill" by Elizabeth Nichols is the warmly humorous story of four women who found excitement, contentment and a little profit on a goat farm.

"Fort Concho and The Texas Frontier" by J. Evetts Haley, was given by the J. R. Porter's in memory of Mr. W. H. Patrick. This book has been asked for by several of our readers, but we had not purchased it, so the gift in his memory will supply a useful addition to our library. Another book that we desired is "Trails Plowed Under, Stories of the Old West" by Charles M. Russell. This is a very attractive volume given in memory of Mr. Casper Geyer by the Bob Moss family.

The Pathfinder Club gave "A Hymn Is Born" by Clint Bomer. This book is in memory of Mrs. Mollie Gray, and a well chosen edition. It is inspiring, authentic, and non-sectarian.

Two childrens books were given in memory of Mr. Walker Lane, whose daughter Patti is a dear playmate of the Lawrence Neece children. These books are "Moko, the Circus Monkey" and "Spoodle's The Puppy Who Learned." They are sturdy, attractive and cleverly written.

There are several other memorial books ordered, but some times it takes weeks to secure them.

Eight to ten weeks is the average life of the housefly.

YOU don't expect polo-pony agility from a truck in traffic—but the new GMC's have it.

You'd like to have passenger-car pace and economy on the highway—and you'll get it from the 1953 GMC's.

For there are two great advances that step the new GMC's ahead of all previous truck performance:

One: Dual-Range Hydra-Matic Drive*—the fully automatic shift with 3 speeds for traffic, 4 for the open road—available on 19 models through the 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton capacity range.

Two: a new line of engines of progressive design, with compression ratios of 7.5 to 1 and 8.0 to 1—the highest of any gasoline truck engine ever built. Here's pile-driver power behind every piston stroke—flashing response and better mileage are squeezed from regular fuel.

Many chassis advances, too, add to the extra-value features that make GMC's, point for point, the biggest dollar's worth in the light-truck field as well as in the heavier lines.

We confidently tell you—these great new GMC's will do your job better, easier, and at the lowest over-all cost. They have stamina beyond their size, because they're "built like the big ones"—the heavy-duty GMC's that lead the world in sales.

That's saying a lot. But just come in—and we'll prove it.

Highlights and Sidelights from your State CAPITOL

By VEHN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—It's either trim or tax, now!

Speaker Reuben Senterfitt stunned the House with word that the state had enough money in sight to maintain the present level of spending - - "and no more."

He deviated from the usual by taking the floor himself to lay all the cards on the table.

Said Senterfitt, "If any additional appropriations are made, the Legislature will have to pass some new tax bills."

The State Constitution prevents any appropriation bill from becoming law unless the money it spends is available. Comptroller Robert S. Calvert estimates how much revenue the state will receive and returns to the Legislature any bill authorizing expenditures in excess of anticipated income. The Legislature must then make the appropriation conform to income, or increase taxes to pay the cost, or let the bill die.

Max C. Smith of San Marcos, chairman of the House appropriations committee, said his group is planning a budget that calls for expenditure of about $162 million from the general revenue fund during the next two years. According to Comptroller Calvert, that is the amount that the general revenue fund will receive by August 31, 1955.

The state spends about a billion and a quarter per biennium, but the greater part of the money comes out of special funds—not the general revenue fund. Appropriations made by the Legislature come out of the general revenue fund.

The difficulty now is there are strong demands for more spending. Powerful groups are calling for better roads, higher salaries for teachers, and more money for old age assistance.

Recommended by Rep. Joe Pyle of Ft. Worth, as his answer to the highway problem, is a toll road bill. It passed the House 122 to 8 and is now ready for Senate consideration. The bill would set up a Dallas-Ft. Worth Turnpike Authority which could issue revenue bonds and use the proceeds to build an expressway between the two cities.

Although the turnpike authority would be composed of three members of the state highway commission and three others appointed by the governor, the property would not belong to the state until after the bonds were paid off. A 35c per trip charge, or thereabouts, is anticipated for use of the 31-mile road, the total cost of which is estimated at $30 million. Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola said the proposed management would give the toll road a state flavor without state jurisdiction.

Dewitt C. Greer, state highway engineer, doubted the wisdom of the toll road proposition. He said that taking tolls from motorists, who already pay road user taxes, amounts to double taxation.

Some members of the legislature feel that if bonds were issued, the Highway Department should be the authority to do it. These members reasoned that the Highway Department bonds would pay a low interest. Also the department could provide the roads quicker and better than a private agency. Then too, the roads would belong to the public and no tolls would have to be paid by the motorists for their use. Furthermore, private property holders would get the benefit of increased values along the right of way.

Rep. Pyle contends that building the pay-as-you-ride thoroughfare would not diminish the state highway department's program in the area—that two free highways already connect the two cities—and that few residents would be displaced because the road would run mostly along the Trinity River—and that 90 per cent of the property along the right of way is owned by persons who live in Dallas and Ft. Worth.

interest in this legislation. There was one group at the meeting the other day that were not primarily interested in the Hawaiian statehood, but were more interested in the mechanics of the United States Congress. These men came from Germany. The delegation was from the legislative body of Western Germany. The delegation consisted of Mr. Hans Trossman, Director of the Bundestag (Lower House), Mr. Albert A. Pfitzer, Director of the Bundestag (Upper House), and Mr. Frederick K. O. Schramm, Assistant to the Speaker of the House. They found the proceedings most interesting and informative. At the time of their visit there was extended debate in the subcommittee concerning proposed amendments to the bill concerning the constitution that has already been adopted by Hawaii. One point that was discussed at length was the possibility of a tidelands controversy should Hawaii be admitted to statehood. Incidentally, I warned the representatives of Hawaii to nail down their boundaries so that there could be no question should they be admitted as a state. I called to their attention that Texas thought she had her boundaries fixed until some Federal bureaucrats decided they wanted the tidelands. During this discussion the former Attorney General of Hawaii, a Mr. Tavares, pointed out that there is practically no possibility of oil and gas along the shores of the Hawaiian Islands because of the fact that the islands consist of volcanic ash and coral deposits. He pointed out that in the Islands television beams go through the mountains, which of course indicates the lack of mineral deposits therein. It was also pointed out in the hearings that should the water area between the islands be used as constituting a part of the islands, Texas might lose her place as the biggest state in the Union. The former Attorney General assured us that Hawaii would yield that position to the State of Texas.

THE TIDELANDS: You of course realize that nothing yet has been done on the tidelands bills. This legislation is presently before the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives and the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee in the Senate. Frankly, I think that these committee hearings are wasted time because this is an issue that has been more thoroughly scrutinized than perhaps any other issue in the past two decades. Lengthy committee hearings have been had in both Houses of Congress and the reports are available for new Members. The present administration is committed to tidelands legislation, and I personally feel that no delay should be occasioned in returning the products of that attempted legalized theft to the respective states who rightfully own them. The new Secretary of Interior stated before my committee in the House that he was for returning these tidelands to the States. He has recently been quoted in the newspapers to the effect that these tidelands should be returned to the States, but that all properties outside thereof should be decreed to be in the Federal Government, indicating that the states bordering on the ocean should have no interest in the continental shelf. I believe that Secretary McKay was in some degree misquoted in this statement as it is my understanding that he favored the bill that passed the House of Representatives last year. This bill not only quietclaims the tidelands strips to the states, but goes into great detail to fix interests of those states in the continental shelf. This issue has caused quite a bit of comment here and has prompted some of the news columnists to say that Texas and some of the other states now want to extend their boundaries several miles farther to the seaward. This certainly is not the case. Texas has always asked for what was rightfully hers and is not trying to encroach upon anybody. She is trying to keep from being encroached upon. Incidentally, one of the leading newspapers in the East, the Washington Post, has carried several editorials underwriting Federal ownership. Further delay in considering the matter could serve no good purpose and the bills should be brought to the floor for an immediate vote.

REP. FLOYD BRADSHAW has introduced a middle-ground teacher-pay bill, to cut the $6.00 per month increment to $4.00 after seven years, to $5.00 from four through six years; and to raise it to $8.00 for the first three years.

security for loans and would apply when collected; Rep. Marshall Bell's bill would require public schools and colleges to label library books written by persons "with communist or subversive connections and background"; and Rep. Joe Chapman's bill which would vest sole authority in independent school districts that sell their school building and land. Since March 13 marked the deadline for introducing bills without the four-fifths majority of the House-from now until the 53rd Legislature adjourns bills coming of the committees will have a harder fight to pass the House. Of course, the House is sometimes cooperative with lawmakers wanting to introduce new bills, but the main idea is to clean up all of the proposed bills now pending House hearings, so it "ain't easy" to get a bill introduced at present.

THE STAGE IS ALL SET for one of the most mammoth budgets ever to face the House-one which skyrockets into the multi-million-dollar figure. Sources of revenue are still one vicious circle.

PREDICTIONS OF THINGS TO COME: Cities will have the power to levy own taxes; cross-filing of candidates will be retained, leaving it to the decision of the party; teachers will get a raise-but probably not as much as expected, at least not without an all-out House fight; and Wag-
