Donley Farm Bureau Membership Drive To Start April 16

Donley County Farm Bureau's big 1953 membership drive will get under way officially with a kick-off steak supper Thursday, April 16, at 7:30 p. m. at the Lelia Lake school house in Lelia Lake, according to W. H. Clay, membership chairman.

The 1953 quota for the Donley County membership drive is 200. This figure represents about one-third of the farmers in the county.

Principal speaker at the kick-off supper meeting will be R. G. Arnold of Auburn, Alabama, organization assistant of the American Farm Bureau Federation for the southern region.

Arnold, whose southern region bailiwick includes 13 southern states and Puerto Rico, is widely known and respected for his organization work with Farm Bureau.

Arnold is in demand all over the South for talks to Farm Bureau audiences. A well-informed, witty and inspirational speaker, Arnold is imbued with the Farm Bureau philosophy.

Membership workers from each organized community in Donley County will attend the kick-off (See FARM BUREAU, Page 8) the southern region, the membership was only about 25,000. At the present, there are almost half a million Farm Bureau members in that area.

Storm Accompanied By Hail, Wind And Continuous Electrical Display

REV. CLARENCE COLLINS

That long-awaited-for drouth breaking rain arrived Saturday night to bring that honest-to-goodness smile back on the faces of thousands of Donley County residents.

A streak of small hail passed over Clarendon, moving south-east in the first major downpour and damaged small fruit considerably and other streaks of hail in varying amounts were reported from different parts of the county.

Some sections of the county reported numerous broken terraces and badly washed fields. All lakes in the Ashtola area were reported full and many stock tanks were running over for the first time in many months.

The entire county received an average of around two inches of moisture with some parts dropping below and some above that amount.

We can all be thankful for this good moisture as it gives us a much brighter outlook for the future growing season.

LES BEAUX ARTS CLUB

Les Beaux Arts Club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Wm. J. Lewis, Jr. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Ruth Kennedy.

Mrs. C. T. McMurtry reported that 9 U.S.O. scrap books had been sent off for use and that a report to this effect had been sent to the Federated Club Women's office to be filed with reports given at the annual meeting of Federated Club Women in Hereford this month. Mrs. W. C. Thornberry will be the Art Club delegate to this meeting, April 9-10-11. She will be accompanied by several other members of this club.

Mrs. Thornberry mentioned the fact that Mrs. Lewis will serve on the program committee for the coming year. Members voted to see what could be done about the fence around the Patching Club House. It was also announced that an Oriental Tea and Exhibit would be held May 1. Mrs. Lloyd Benson was made chairman of the Tea.

Opening the program, Mrs. Carroll Knorrpp gave a review of the life of "Peter Paul Ruben." Mrs. M. R. Allensworth then presented an analysis of the painting "Descent from the Cross" by Ruben. This was most interesting as Easter was approaching.

The remainder of the program dealt with India. Mrs. Charlie Seeds gave a resume of the "Old and New India" pointing out the progress that has been made within the country. Concluding, Mrs. Lloyd Benson painted a word picture of the architectural structure "Taj Mahal" in India. This structure was built by Shah Jehan for his wife. It was constructed by forced labor at a cost of nine million dollars, and was 20 years in the making. The building covers two acres and is of white marble. The Shah intended to build a similar structure for himself using black marble but this was never completed. A miniature of Taj Mahal made by the Methodist women of Amarillo was exhibited to the group by Mrs. Wm. J. Lewis, Jr.

Refreshments were served from a beautifully laid table centered with an arrangement of redbud combined with miniature, highly-colored easter eggs. Underneath the redbud were miniature bunnies. Spiced purple punch was poured by Mrs. W. C. Thornberry. Mrs. Ruth Kennedy served individual cakes decorated with delicately shaded pansies. Twenty one members and two guests were present.

ASHTOLA NEEDLE CLUB

The Ashtola Needle Club met April 2 at 2:30. Sue Rhoades called the house to order and the meeting opened with prayer by Ruby Jewel Hardin.

After the business meeting, Nettie Marshall had charge of the Easter program. She read a chapter from Mathew. Nona Hinders discussed, "Jesus Spoke on the Cross." Ivan Tolleson read, "The Three Crosses," and Ruby Jewel Hardin, talked about "After the Resurrection." It was all very interesting.

April 16, will be an all day meeting for a demonstration on Textile Painting with a sack lunch. All of the members try to present. If you are not interested in painting, bring any kind of work you care to. Laura Mahaffey served delicious refreshments to 15 members.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Risley visited in the Lloyd Risley home Sunday afternoon.

1926 BOOK CLUB

Mrs. Bill Bromley and Mrs. Barcus Antrobus were hostesses to members' of the 1926 Book Club at Patching Club House Tuesday afternoon. Bouquets of spring flowers decorated the entertaining rooms.

In the absence of the president, Miss Loyd Richardson presided at the business session. She opened the meeting by reading the Club Collect. The announcement was made that the next meeting would be the 'Husband's party.' Mrs. Chas. Lowry, chairman of the calendar committee, gave an outline of the programs planned for next year. Mrs. Gordon Bain's resignation was read and accepted. As she was secretary-elect, Lucile Polk was elected to fill this vacancy. Mrs. W. C. Thornberry and Mrs. Clyde Hudson were appointed to represent the 1926 Book Club at the Federated Club meeting to be held at Hereford April 9-10-11.

The program was presented by Mrs. W. C. Thornberry who gave an interesting review of "Bright Procession" by John Sedges.

Refreshments were served from the dining table which was centered with an attractive arrangement of lilac and iris. Miss Loyd Richardson presided at the coffee service.

Present were two guests, Mrs. E. Woody and Mrs. Gordon Stewart and club members Mesdames Loyd Johnson, Frank White, Jr., W. A. Riney, Gordon Bain, Frank Phelan, Sr., R. S. SURPRISE BREAKFAST fast between 2:30 and 4:30 Saturday morning. The girls were dressed in various costumes.

Mrs. Newton Richardson and Margaret Cushing loaded the sleepy girls into their cars but before reaching the ranch, all were fully awake after pushing the cars out of a sand bed. A delicious meal was served the group before, they started a day filled with hiking, listening to recordings and other activities. The girls enjoyed dinner at the farm-most part of the ranch. Several enjoyed exploring while others took snapshots.

Later in the day, Mr. and Mrs. Cushing and Mrs. Richardson took the girls to the Burson Lakes where Mr. Cushing and Keith Hudson took the girls boat riding.

"We would all like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, and Keith, and Mrs. Richardson for showing us such a wonderful time," the girls stated.

Texas Cities Should Have The Right To Levy Taxes

AUSTIN (Special) — Texas Cities should have the right to levy taxes without intervention from the State, according to State Representative Elbert Reeves of Matador.

Reeves made the statement shortly after tossing House Bill 758 into the committee "hopper", which was one of the representative's last bills during the first 60 days of "Free time". Since March 13, all bills must have a four-fifths majority of the House to be introduced.

"My House Bill 758 is not to raise city taxes, but to allow cities to work out their own financial problems," he said.

State Dictates To Cities

During this 53rd Legislature laws have been made that forced cities to raise the salaries of employees, and other obligations have been forced upon them without the State offering any means of financing such actions, the legislator pointed out.

At present, even without the additional obligations forced upon them by the State, cities are having serious financial troubles. This does not only pertain to the metropolitan cities, but to towns and villages as well.

In a report to the 53rd Legislature, the Texas Legislative Council, composed of lawmakers from both the House and Senate, recommends that more taxing power be given to cities. At present the State is forcing a centralized control upon cities by assumption of more and more responsibility for arising taxes to support the local units of government and control of their programs, according to the report.

Would Give Local Power

"I am sincerely interested in returning the power of local taxation back to local people," Reeves added. "And my bill simply offers this power to municipalities."

The state of Pennsylvania has had similar legislation for some time, and has found that it greatly aided in local problems and their finance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Todd of Haskell, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Todd and Mark of Clovis visited the week end with their mother, Mrs. A. P. Todd.

And, unlike other modifiers, the new plasticizer does not make the final product opaque or hazy. This new utility of inedible animal fats represents a forward step in the battle to find uses for the acute fat surpluses. Animal fats are by-products of the meat packing industry and the surplus has increased rapidly. Hilbert says this burdensome overflow amounted to approximately 700 million pounds in 1953. The discovery also will be useful in case of full-scale war production. Plastics can serve as metal and rubber replacements for many essential military needs. Since the supply of plasticizers is usually low in wartime, modified fats and oils prepared by the new process may relieve this shortage. One thing is certain—in a way, it gives Old Bossy a new lease on life. Reincarnation, so to speak. Relatives visiting in the W. E. Hastings home Easter Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Martain, Bovina, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martain and son, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lee Martain and son, Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Waltman and son, Bovina, Mr. and Mrs. J. New Uses For By-Products

After a lifetime of faithful productivity in the dairy barn, Old Bossy now might wind up as a vital component of the new plastic curtains in your kitchen. And the porker in your pigpen might conceivably be a part of your next tablecloth. It's all because of a new development in which specially treated inedible animal fats and vegetable oils can be used as plasticizing agents in the manufacture of new plastic products. Hence, the garden vegetables of today may be the garden hose of tomorrow. Or today's farm animals can be tomorrow's farm implements. Sounds fantastic?? It's really very simple, according to Dr. G. E. Hilbert, industrial chemist of Philadelphia. The acid portion of the inedible fat is treated with hydrogen peroxide in such a way that a specially oxidized oil results. This oil is used as a softening agent in plastic manufacturing. Some of the final products of this research are plastic floor tile, drapes, tablecloths, table place mats, upholstery material and refrigerator gaskets. In some cases, this new product is superior to previous agents. It is especially valuable

Schools Holding Civil Defense Safety Drills

AUSTIN—A large majority of school systems in the Panhandle are now holding regular civil defense safety drills and are working to perfect other defense measures, a survey recently completed reveals. A total of 39 school systems in the area reported that complete disaster drills are held regularly, while five more reported partial ones. Only six said that no safety drills are held. Also, 37 school systems said that safety education is a regular part of their programs, and another 13 systems reported that partial safety programs are now underway. And with an eye toward the rigors of our atomic age and the world situation, every school which took part in the survey with only one exception reported that some form of citizenship training is being given students now. Many of these include mental hygiene, conservation of resources and other activities aimed at helping the state's civil defense and disaster relief program. A number of the school systems are going even further with their civil defense set-ups by designating safety areas for school buildings, making evaluations to determine what natural disasters are most likely to occur, and by appointing civil defense coordinators. The survey was a cooperative project of the State Division of Defense and Disaster Relief and the Texas Education Agency. It was carried out on a state-wide basis and broken down into 16 districts. Miss Ladelle Cox, an instructor in the Wichita Falls schools, and Inelle Cox, a student at WTSC in Canyon, spent the Easter holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Cox.

FARM NEWS
From the County PMA Committee

1952 APPLICATIONS FOR PAYMENT:

To date there have been 275 Applications for Payment submitted to the State Office for payment. There are still 20 Applications being held in the County Office due to supplemental conditions on dams or diversion terraces that have not been completed. Please try to complete these supplemental conditions at your earliest convenience.

REMINDER ON DEEP PLOWING:

Since this is the 9th day of April, anyone planning to do more deep plowing had better start the work in the very near future. Among the specifications for deep plowing, it states, "All deep plowing must be done at least 30 days prior to seeding in order to meet the specifications." Take note of this and get your deep plowing completed at least 30 days prior to seeding.

PRODUCTION GOALS IN CONSERVATION:

The production goals for 1953 point up again the necessity of also having conservation goals for the individual farms, says Mr. Ross Springer, Chairman of the Donley County PMA Committee. If the farmers are to continue to meet the production needs of this country, more attention must be given to building and maintaining the land.

Mr. Springer urged Donley County farmers in planning their crops to meet the production goals to include in those plans the conservation measures essential to keeping their land productive. He explained that conservation is taking on a much broader meaning than it used to have. It is more than merely stopping gullies from getting bigger. It also is checking erosion, strengthening soil structure as a protective means of keeping erosion from starting, and it is building up the soil so that the land will be more productive.

Conservation farming is planning the whole farming operation in such a way that each year will find the farm in better condition than it was before. That is what each farm needs, better conditions each year.

Donley County Leader, $2.50 year

Farm Bureau-

(Continued from Front page) meeting, which will be a steak supper. Hoyle will provide renewal and prospect cards and membership kits to the workers. Each worker will be given cards on farmers in his community. The renewal cards contain information on expiration dates of present or past members and the other cards are for prospective new members.

A report meeting will be held at the same place one week from the night of the kick-off supper. At that time, the community membership chairmen will report on the results of the drive in their respective communities.

Holly Wood, president of the Donley County Farm Bureau, stressed the need for a strong farm organization—one that the farmers can use effectively to gain a fair share of the national income.

"Our farm prices are on the decline, but the prices of things that we must buy are rising steadily," the local farm leader said. "We can correct that situation only by self-help, and the Farm Bureau organization is the tool that we can use to get the job done. It is a voluntary and independent organization of, by, and for the farmers, and the ranchers. Policies are determined democratically, and every one in the organization has an opportunity to voice his opinion."

To illustrate the value of the Farm Bureau to farmers, Wood pointed to the legislative work being carried on in the state capital. The Texas Farm Bureau Federation is waging a ceaseless battle to save the tractor gasoline refund, H. B. 388, which was introduced by Rep. James W. Yancy of Houston, would take away one-fourth of the refund on the non-highway gasoline tax.

This is but one of the issues where the Farm Bureau is looking out for the interests of the farmers, Wood said. During the last legislative session—two years ago—the Texas Farm Bureau Federation not only defeated an attempt to take away all of the tractor gas refund, but was also instrumental in saving the rural road program and the county road bond assumption monies. Before that hectic session was over, the farmers and ranchers of Texas had also pushed through a natural gas tax bill which is still being fought in the courts.

Farm Bureau also is busily engaged in looking after less controversial problems the county president said. These include better seed, herbicide, insecticide, pink bollworm control laws and many others.

Donley County Leader, $2.50 year

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS
Uncle Zeb
 Anyway, I feel better. Several of the readers have assured me that the expression "Played Whaley" is an old standby with their family as a saying. Also, several have said that they do keep the scrap book suggestions for their collection. This makes me feel much, much better.

Cheat me once; Shame on you. Cheat me twice; Shame on me.

Did you ever stop to think that if we made one person happy each day for forty years we would have made 14,600 human beings happy? Even if we just made them happier for a few minutes; even just while they were in our presence; this could very well be a great goal—to shoot at.

Speaking of our scrap book the following is our suggestion for this week;

If you your lips would keep from slips,
 Five things observe with care;
 Of whom you speak, to whom you speak,

And how and when and where.
 If you your ears would save from peers,
 These things keep meekly hid;
 Myself and I, and mine and my,
 And how I do and did.

The folks who can make the longest talk for liquor, usually is full of his subject.

Mr. Kelley of White Deer tells the following story to illustrate the proportion of us who work for our church, and about the same rule could be applied to our efforts toward our community and civic responsibilities. Anyhow, according to the story, a guide was showing the visitor around over a new skyscraper building.

"My," said the visitor, "This is sure some building. How many people work here?"

"Oh," replied the guide, "Not more than half of 'em." Now don't that just about fit the most of us. If someone else is willing to do the work and carry the load, most of us are willing to let them do it.

I wonder if when someone called us hard-headed did they get the idea from cement. According to one definition of concrete it is supposed to be all mixed up and permanently set.

First words spoken over the telephone were, "Watson, come here; I want you," spoken by Alexander Graham Bell to his assistant.

Chester, common ending for English town names, comes from the Roman word castr meaning camp, since many were originally Roman camp sites.

Rep. Elbert Reeves Explains H. B. 16 and Senate Bill 7

AUSTIN (Special)—In an effort to clear up some misunderstandings of House Bill 16 and Senate Bill 7, which were proposed to place a minimum natural gas price at the wellhead of producers in the Hugoton and Panhandle Field of northwest Texas, State Representative Elbert Reeves of Matador, pointed out the following:

1. The two bills are definitely not tax measures; of course, there is at present a 5.72 per cent tax on production valuation, and if a uniform price was set, comparable to Oklahoma and Kansas which are located in the same field, it would increase the tax—but only as much as the valuation of production was increased.

2. These bills were designed to aid the small producer and royalty owners; this legislation would simply require pipeline companies (most of which are out of state) to pay a reasonable price to producers and royalty owners.

3. House Bill 16 and Senate Bill 7 are definitely not price-fixing measures. They propose a conservation plan that would guard against loss and waste of West Texas natural gas. Oklahoma has had a similar law for sometime and since it raised the price of natural gas to approximately 10 cents per thousand cubic feet, pipeline companies bypassed part of the Hugoton and Panhandle Field and came on down to West Texas where they could buy natural gas as low as 2.6 m.c.f. In doing this the out-of-state companies are virtually draining the Panhandle field of its natural gas—at a ridiculously low price.

Also, the two bills are definitely not contract breaking, as they would only authorize the Texas Railroad Commission to place a minimum price on natural gas comparable to that of Oklahoma and Kansas, who share the same Hugoton and Panhandle Field. This, at present, could be classed as an acute emergency.

"I believe that H. B. 16 and S. B. 7 are truly local bills, which if passed, would benefit our people. Some consumers have become unduly alarmed over the proposed minimum natural gas price. They seem to believe this would skyrocket gas prices they are now paying, but what they don't realize is that setting a minimum natural gas price at the wellhead would not necessarily raise the present consumer price—and even if it did it would be very slight. Another fact that these consumers overlook is that West Texas exports about 96 per cent of all of its natural gas in this field—meaning that consumers would only bear about 4 per cent of the increase," Reeves said.

Faced with its largest budget in history, the Texas Legislature cannot turn its eyes from any source of revenue, and especially one that rightfully belongs to its people, he added.

Reeves stated that the legislators who are sponsoring the passing of the bills are interested only in getting West Texas producers and royalty owners a reasonable amount of money for their natural gas.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — This is about the time when it seems that the Legislature is all bogged down in so many different bills that it will never get anywhere. But the truth is that the lawmakers are making very good progress and may finish their business in the prescribed 120 days.

What clouds the picture is the variety of subjects before both houses. First and foremost, there's the appropriations bill. Then there are the subjects of four-year term for county and district officials, water conservation, stream pollution, preferential primaries, modernization of colleges, and so on at great length. Lets not forget taxes.

—tpa—
Maybe there won't be any new taxes.

It seems that economy forces are in control of both houses, and that they will keep the appropriations bill down to the amount of revenue the state can expect to receive during the next two years.

The House and Senate differed on the amount that should be appropriated. The House said $160 million, while the Senate put the figure at $166 million.

The bill approved by the senate would include pay raises for state employees and college teachers.

When House and Senate failed to agree, the appropriations bill went to a conference committee, composed of economy-minded members representing both houses.

—tpa—
Hope for a quick stack of blue chips faded when three pipeline companies appealed to the State Supreme Court their case against the gathering tax on natural gas. The tax was passed by the last legislature and has been in the courts ever since. The Third Court of Civil Appeals ruled last month that the tax is valid. If the supreme court rules against the pipeline companies, it is expected that they will carry the case to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Governor Allan Shivers and others had urged the companies to drop the suit and thereby permit the state to use the tax money already paid under protest, as well as the million dollars plus that is being collected monthly.

If the pipeline tax should be declared invalid, the Legislature will doubtless pass another one, inasmuch as it has already demonstrated its intention of levying this kind of tax.

Pay Scale Heart Of This Problem

By Charles H. Tennyson
(First in a series of three articles on the needs of our schools, written by the executive secretary, Texas State Teachers Association.)

BECAUSE OUR SCHOOLS have been gaining pupils and losing teachers, the No. 1 need of public education in Texas at the moment is more teachers. Conservative estimates indicate that by 1960 we will need 11,000 more teachers than we have now. At the same time our enrollments are growing, the number of teachers is actually decreasing. About 4,000 teachers quit the profession each year.

Texas colleges and universities are training about 4,000 teachers a year. But the public schools actually get about 2,000. What happens to the other 2,000?

Our present schedule says the public schools must pay the beginning teacher with a college degree a minimum of $2,403 a year. Business and industry offer these same people from $3,000 to $3,600 a year.

If you were just graduating from college with a degree in education, would you go into teaching for $2,403 or into business for $3,600? About half of the college graduates who are trained to teach go into business.

OUR SCHOOLS ARE NOW using a number of substandard teachers. Some classes have had as many as five different teachers during this school year. Qualified commercial teachers are especially hard to find in many areas. Many typing teachers have quit teaching to take jobs as civil service typists — at beginning salaries of $2,750 usually, with automatic raises of $80 a year every eighteen months. Civil service stenographers usually start at $2,950 even though no college training is necessary for these positions.

You would be surprised at how many former school teachers are doing common, ordinary jobs that require no college training. We know of some who are delivering milk, driving bread trucks, working as waitresses and doing manual labor. They would rather teach school but they can not make enough money teaching to maintain a reasonable standard of living.

Some schools had to delay the opening of their fall terms last September because they were unable to get enough teachers. In a recent survey, many school superintendents explained why they had been forced to employ substandard teachers. A typical comment: "We had no choice. We took the first available teachers."

EDUCATION is the cornerstone of democracy and teachers are the backbone of education. If our democracy should eventually crumble, what would we say? That we had no choice and took the first available teacher? A $3,000 minimum salary for college-trained teachers, with a $600-a-year raise for all teachers, has been proposed in Senate Bill 24 and House Bill 216.

That would not solve the problem entirely, but it would go a long way toward attracting young people into the teaching profession and holding the teachers we have now.

We've never yet seen a boy crawl under a tent to a revival meeting.

We're getting closer to the time when America will be famous for articles made in America.

Schemes rarely take the place of good, hard work in the lives of those who succeed.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Chip Pulls a "Pip"

Chip Hanson is a clever commercial artist. Beside doing cartoons on our paper, he picks up "free lance" drawing jobs. Right now he's whipping up posters for the Safety Campaign. They all have headlines like "PLAY IT SAFE! . . . OR, "A LIVE WIRE CAN START A FIRE!"

Chip looked a bit sheepish yesterday. Didn't want to tell me why. Finally he blurted out, "I feel like a dope. Here I am on this safety program and the fire inspectors tell me my own studio's a fire trap. I've been storing paint there for years . . ."

From where I sit, what happened to Chip could happen to anyone. He was just too busy informing everyone else about safety — not realizing his safety was threatened. Like those who fret about their neighbors — whether they can afford a new house, whether they should have coffee or a glass of beer with lunch — Chip simply forgot to "draw" some obvious conclusions about himself!

West Texans Fight For 10c Tax on Gas Piped to Other States

AUSTIN—State Representative Elbert Reeves, of Matador, has joined other West Texas legislators in a fight to place a 10-cent minimum natural gas price at the well-heads of West Texas' fabulous number of producers. The price would be on the natural gas piped to other states that is now in the main being used for industrial purposes.

House Bill No. 16, which includes the price-raise, was created by West Texas legislators Guy Hablett, Granger McIlhany, Bill Andis, Sam Wohlford and Leroy Saul, and will be a companion bill to Sen. Grady Hazelwood's gas price bill, S.B. 7.

Reeves pointed out that, at present in the Panhandle and Hugoton fields located in 10 Panhandle counties, gas is bought, to be piped to other states, at a price as low as 2.6 cents per thousand cubic feet, while in the same fields, which extend into Oklahoma and Kansas, the same companies have to pay approximately 10 cents m.c.f.

It is not just the fact that Texas is losing millions of dollars by not already having a higher natural gas price, but thousands of gallons of hydrocarbons are wasted, which could be used in this time of emergency, the representative declared.

"Some states are buying and storing our 'cheap' natural gas that we will buy back in the future if we don't create some means of conservation immediately," Reeves said.

"Another fact concerning our natural gas is that these other states export 90 per cent of all of the gas West Texas produces, and a mere 2 per cent is used by the consuming public here in our area, which means that by placing a minimum price at the well-heads, Texas would gain thousands of dollars of tax money that rightfully belongs to our people," he added.

Of course, we, who are favoring the minimum price increase, know that the consuming public will have to pay their share of the gas they use, but this change would be slightly noticed. And at the same time, companies from other states who are buying our natural gas would also pay their "fair price" thus allowing a high increase in State revenue that could be used for various needed projects in West Texas, Reeves commented.

West Texas legislators favoring the bill also are aware of the fact that they are going to have a real battle to ever get the proposed bill through the House, and are requesting the people in West Texas to write as many representatives and senators as possible to support its passage.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The first book to be reported is "The Great Frontier" by Walter Prescott Webb. This book presents a new theory of the history of the Western World since 1492 when Columbus opened the frontier lands to a static European society. The writer is one of America's most distinguished historians, honored here and abroad. This book was given in memory of Mr. Patrick by the Bob Moss family. Since Mr. Patrick enjoyed the historical novels of F. Van Wyck Mason, the C. B. Morris family have placed "Golden Admiral", his new book concerning Sir Francis Drake and the Armada here in his memory. This will be read by numerous readers who enjoy this author.

We have a replacement of "The Circle of Foot Prints" by Carolyn King. Our other copy was too mutilated to read.

We have a recent Bliss Lomox Western—Riders of the Buffalo Grass. This is the first recently written western we have had in sometime. Usually use paper back editions that are gifts from somebody who exchanges them here.

Animals with long legs also have long necks in order to reach their food without bending their knees.

United States President John Tyler was the father of 14 children.

Bro. and Mrs. Edwin Lane and daughter of Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ewing and Mary Ann of Borger, and Mrs. Horace Dunlap and Tommie Mac were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Todd Saturday night. Other guests Sunday were Mrs. A. P. Todd and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Todd of Haskell, Texas.

State Approves Three National 4-H Food Programs For 1953

4-H Club members in this State who have the highest rating record of achievement in either of three national programs relating to food production, utilization and conservation, will receive a gold-filled 17-jewel watch signifying that they are 1953 state winners, the National 4-H Committee has announced. The programs and awards donors are Dairy Foods Demonstrations, Carnation; Frozen Foods, International Harvester and Meat Animal, Thos. E. Wilson.

In the 4-H Frozen Foods and Meat Animal programs, eight sectional winners will be given an all-expense trip to the 1953 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November. In the Dairy Foods Demonstration program, which has no sectional awards, eight national winners will receive a trip to the Chicago Club Congress. Gold-filled medals will be awarded to county winners in each of the programs.

Some idea of 4-H Club members' achievements in the three programs may be gained from 1952 figures of participants. In the 4-H Meat Animal program, members raised more than 800,000 beef cattle, sheep and swine; 6,500 individual and team members demonstrated how to prepare dairy products for nutritious dishes before 85,000 people, and 115,000 4-H boys and girls froze 1½ million quarts and 2 million pounds of food.

Full information regarding these programs may be obtained from the County Extension Agent. All three programs are conducted under the supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service.

15 People for Dinner

A farmer today has to feed himself and fifteen other people. Back in 1930 he had to supply food for 11 other people. By 1975, experts predict, for each farmer there may be 25 at the dinner table.

It would be nice if there were more land. But last year there was only 1% more land under cultivation than prewar.

What's more, there are fewer farmers. 17% fewer man-hours were spent in agriculture last year.

Yet the farmer in 1952, with less help and about the same acreage, managed to produce 40% more livestock, vegetables, cotton, grain, milk than before the war.

Who helps the American farmer in a spot like that?

Electricity for one thing, and of course, more tractors, trucks, farm machinery, pesticides, chemical fertilizers, and a lot more.

One big clue to productivity is his increased use of electricity. Farmers today use 500% more electric power than in 1940.

Electricity pumps water, dries hay, keeps chicks warm, grinds feed, milks cows. In fact, the "electrical hired man" can do more than 400 farm jobs.

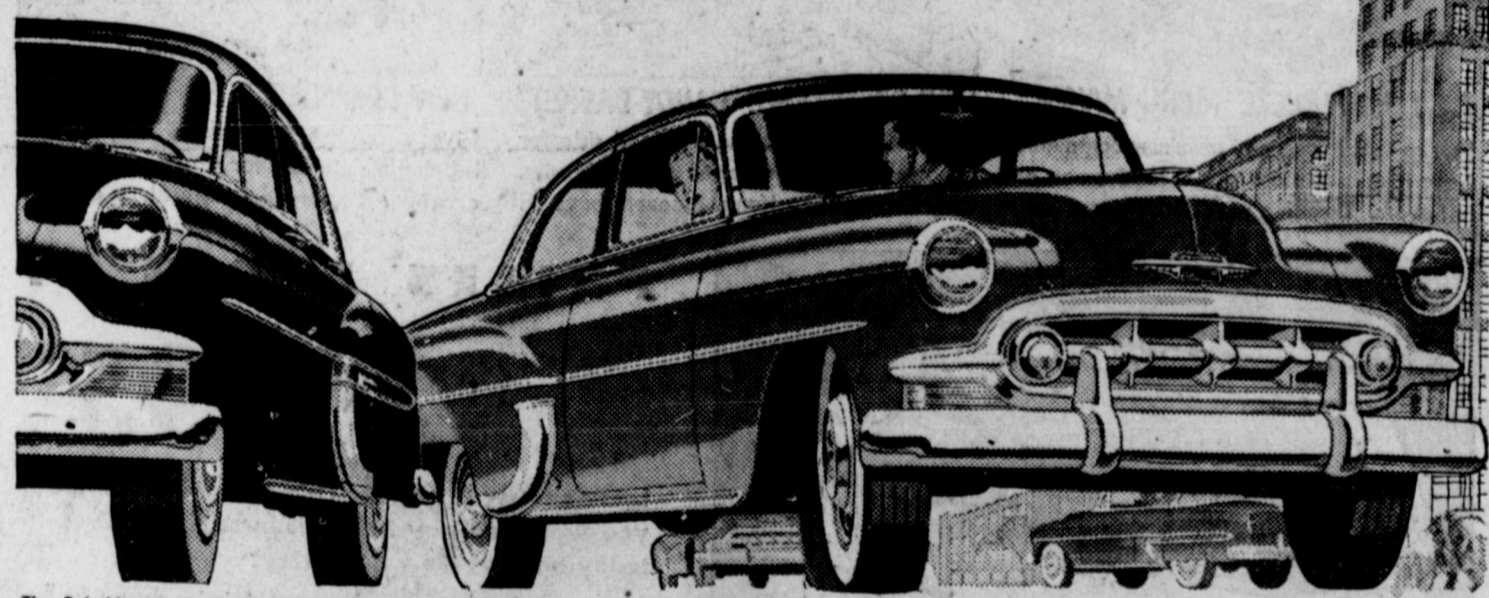

But the important thing is that there need be no empty plates tonight, and that this was done in a typically American way.

Many people and many companies, General Electric among them, developed labor-saving ideas and products. The best were tried and chosen. They have helped to make the American farmer the most productive in the world.

You can put your confidence in—
