One is the visit of Prime Minister Winston Churchill to America. The other is the Soviet Aggression against the Western Hemisphere which has exploded into civil war in Guatemala.

At the time this is being written, we are still waiting for Churchill's visit and the civil war is still under way. But regardless of the outcome of either event, there are certain background considerations which must be taken into account in deciding our destiny.

The future of American foreign policy—the issues of war and peace—are being shaped by two separate events.

Prime Minister Churchill is coming to the United States at a time when Anglo-American relations are under the greatest strain in decades. Prime Minister Churchill is a man of great charm and personality. But the American people are properly concerned about the actions of his government in the past few years.

They want to know: Why the British government has persisted in recognizing Red China despite the contemptuous treatment of British diplomats by the communists?

Why the British government has persisted in keeping open certain trade channels to the Iron Curtain nations?

Why the British government has persisted in keeping the Geneva talks going even when they obviously had reached the point of futility? The American government has built up its system of post-World War II alliances for one reason and one reason only—to halt the pattern of communist conquest.

In the post war world, there can be no other objective that deserves such a high priority. These alliances must be a two-way street! If Prime Minister Churchill is well advised, he will bring with him assurances that he personally has that understanding and that his government will act accordingly.

The immediate issue which will be discussed by American and British officials is, of course, Indo-China. But the more basic issues cannot be avoided. They must be faced and faced squarely.

Shortly before Prime Minister Churchill's arrival, I attended a conference at the White House at President Eisenhower's request. It included Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress and ranking members of the Foreign Relations Committees. It was the second such conference called by President Eisenhower since we came back in January.

I attended that conference in full determination of approaching the issues in a non-partisan spirit. The issues before us are issues of life and death for all Americans. We should judge them as Americans and not as partisans.

The Guatemalan situation involves questions more "localized" than the Indo-China war but equally important. The basic issue is communist military penetration of the Western Hemisphere.

There can be no doubt that such penetration is taking place. The communists have shipped arms to the leftist government of Guatemala. The communist delegate to the United Nations Security Council refused to permit the Organization of American States to consider the Civil War in Guatemala.

These two factors taken together represent a clear notice of communist plans for Western Hemisphere conquest. These plans endanger us all—the United States and our neighbors to the South.

There are 21 nations numbered among the members of the Organization of American States. The Soviet veto action does not prevent them from taking jurisdiction over the Guatemalan Civil War. Nor will it prevent them from taking joint action to halt shipments of red arms into the United States.

It is understood that the overwhelming majority of these nations are ready to take joint action to seal the Americas off from communist penetration. A few are not agreed on the type of action to be taken. Only Guatemala—alone of all the members—is opposed flatly to any action at all.

Under any circumstances, the United States must and will prevent communist arms from entering our Hemisphere. But we want as much help from our neighbors as we can possibly get. The fires of communism must be put out in the New World as rapidly as possible.

Wilson - Jones Wedding Vows Read In Baptist Church

Double-ring nuptial vows were read recently for Shirley Faye Wilson and Clarence Edward Jones at the First Baptist Church in Clarendon. Rev. Lemuel Jones of Amarillo, brother of the groom, officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson of Ashtola, Texas. The bride-groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones of Shamrock, Texas.

Decorating the altar was an archway entwined with greenery, white gladioli, and pon chrysanthemums. To either side of the arch were branched candelabra with white tapers and baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums tied with white satin bows.

Candles were lighted by Glenda and Dewey Wilson, sister and brother of the bride.

A prelude of nuptial music was played by Miss Shirley Aten, organist, who also accompanied Mrs. James Moore as she sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Charlotte Wilson was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a dress of blue organza. Bridesmaids were Misses Jo Anne Montgomery, Shirley Barker, and Mary Lou Fitzgerald. They wore dresses of pastel organdy. Gowns were ballerina length with each attendant wearing matching halos and mitts and carrying baskets of daisies with streamers.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white organza fashioned with a mounded bodice buttoning to the front waistline with small self-covered buttons. The three-quarter length sleeves and small collar were ornamented with seed pearls and rhinestones. Her chapel length veil was attached to a cap encrusted with seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of a white orchid and carnations.

Virgil Jones, brother of the groom was best man. Groomsmen were Richard Jackson of San Antonio, Jimmy Hefley of Twitty, Texas, and Joe Landrum of Shamrock. Ushers were Bobby Wilson, brother of the bride, Bobby Johnson, Robert Olin Bain, Allen Ray Graham, and Bobby Philly.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson chose a navy blue silk shantung dress and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Jones, was attired in a navy blue crepe dress with navy accessories. Both wore corsages of red rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church parlor. The bride's table was laid with a white silk cloth and centered with a bouquet of blue and white flowers, flanked by white tapers.

For the wedding trip, Mrs. Jones chose a yellow and white summer cotton complemented by white accessories. Her corsage was the single orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Amarillo at 828 Maryland.

Mrs. Jones was graduated from Clarendon High School and for the past year has been employed in Amarillo. The bridegroom is a graduate of Shamrock High School and has served with the United States Navy. He is now employed in Amarillo.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mrs. Elmer Ashmead of Jericho, Mr. and Mrs. John Hefley of Twitty, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones of Shamrock, Texas, Mrs. Billy Berry, Mrs. Buck McMahan, Mrs. Lee Harlan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sheegog, and Mrs. Jimmy Jenkins, all of Amarillo.

Rev. W. D. Stafford, father of the bride, read the ceremony. Arrangements of baskets of white gladioli and candelabra bearing white tapers completed the decor.

Mrs. Eugene Bell of Sunray, Texas, pianist, played pre-nuptial selections and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Stafford of Lubbock who played "O Promise Me" on the violin and sang "Always" and "The Wedding Prayer". The traditional wedding marches were used.

Candelighters were Virginia McGonagill and Norris Lewis of Del Rio.

Miss Laverna Stafford, sister of the bride, attended the bride as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Ida May Stafford, sister of the bride, and Kathleen Williams of Del Rio. The honor's dress was of blue nylon dotted swiss. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaids gowns were pink nylon dotted swiss with bouquets of blue carnations. They all wore matching head-dress and gloves.

Staff-Sgt. Leon Baldwin, of Del Rio was best man. Ushers were Walter Scantlan and Don Kearly of Del Rio.

Given in marriage by her brother, Rev. Glenn Stafford of Lubbock, the bride wore a gown of white lace over white satin. The waist length gown was designed with a high neckline with the sleeves terminating in petal points. The brides veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and streamers.

The brides mother wore a navy blue lace dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held on the lawn of the brides parents. Laid with a lace tablecloth the bride's table was decorated with bouquet of pink carnations. Assisting with the serving were Mesdames N. E. Lewis, C. L. Williams, Tommy Mosher, and Chester Munyon. Martha Hodges of Wichita Falls, cousin of bride, secured names for guest register.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

WHEAT REFERENDUM BRINGS QUESTIONS FROM GROWERS

As July 23 approaches, the date for the wheat referendum, more and more growers are asking questions about the marketing quotas and the referendum, ac-ording to Chairman Ross Springer of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Pointing out that county ASC office people and all county and community committeemen have the answers to program operation questions, Chairman Springer gave a quick review of answers he is most frequently called upon to give.

The results of the referendum will determine whether or not marketing quotas, with penalties for overplanting acreage allotments, will be in effect for the 1955 crop. They will also determine the level of price support which will be available. These and other basic questions are being studied carefully by wheat growers.

Some have asked, "Who is eligible to vote?" The answer is, any farmer who would be subject to the quotas. Farms will be subject to the quotas if the wheat to be harvested for grain in 1955 is more than 15 acres.

"If quotas are in effect, what will be the penalty for failure to comply with acreage allotments?" The penalty on excess wheat will be at the rate of 45 percent of the May 1, 1955 parity price.

Another frequently asked question is, "How does the referendum affect 1955 price supports?" The answer is: If two-thirds or more of the farmers who vote favor quotas, the full level of price support which is authorized for the 1955 crop — apparently somewhere from 90 to 75 percent of parity—will be available for those who comply with their wheat and other acreage allotments. If less than two-thirds favor quotas, price support will be at 50 percent of parity for those who comply with their acreage allotments. No price support is available for those who fail to comply with acreage allotments, with or without the marketing quotas.

In answer to another frequently-asked question, Chairman Springer states briefly how the farm allotment is determined. First the national acreage allotment is apportioned among States, and then among the counties, according to the acreage seeded to wheat during the latest 10-year period, adjusted for weather trends and other factors. This year the national acreage allotment is 55 million acres, the level specified by law under present supply conditions. Allotments are determined for farms according to past wheat acreage, tillable acres on each farm, crop rotation practices, type of soil, and topography.

Farmers in doubt about their eligibility to vote in the referendum, or any program questions, should see their county ASC office.

Don't forget to vote in the referendum the 23rd of July. COTTON MEASUREMENT: Performance reporters are measuring cotton in all parts of the county. When a reporter comes to your farm, go with him to measure your cotton in order that you can show him the exact plots of cotton. When your farm has been measured you will be mailed an official notice of the measured acreage. If you feel that an error has been made and you want a reporter to make a remeasurement of your farm, you will be required to make a deposit of $5.00 for the first plot plus $2.00 for each plot over one. If you are out of compliance with your cotton allotment and have to plow up some acreage in order to comply, your farm will be rechecked after the plowing up has been done. The fee for rechecking will be $3.00 per farm plus $1.00 for each plot over one. If you feel that an error has been made on the measurement of your cotton, we will be happy to discuss the matter in the county office.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

Just about every third fellow that we meet these days makes this remark, "Say, I hear you are through cutting your wheat, how about loaning me some money." You know, the funny thing about this situation is that after about three wheat failures in a row there is a surprising number of folks waiting for their slice of the returns. Seriously, we know that everyone who made a fairly average crop this year was so very grateful for the blessing. To the many who after surviving the dry weather, the sand storms, and the freezing cold had the misfortune to be underneath one of those awful hailstorms we are with one accord saying we are sorry and hoping it won't happen again to you the same ones any time soon.

Last week we were a guest with the Clarendon Lions Club. They know how to make us visitors feel at home, and we did enjoy the visit and meal a lot.

This week we had a pleasant little visit with Uncle Bob, our good friend up Washburn way. Our Scotchman friend promised us a present if we would behave ourselves. Reckon what this could be? Will it cost him anything, or us? On top of that he gave us the following clipping from what must have been the Amarillo paper way back in about 1903, judging from an ad about some Canyon City school bonds that was on the back. It was called AN EPIGRAM ON WOMEN—

Oh, the shrewdness of their shrewdness, when they're shrewd.
And the rudeness of their rudeness, when they're rude;
But the shrewdness of their shrewdness, and the rudeness of their rudeness.

Or as nothing to their goodness, when they're good.

Oh the gladness of their gladness when they're glad,
And the sadness of their sadness when they're sad;

But the gladness of their gladness, and the sadness of their sadness,

Or as nothing to their badness, when they're bad.

Thanks Uncle Bob, but you are a bad boy sometimes.

It has been a long time since we have mentioned our Ain't Smoking No More Right Now Anyway Club. But during the last few weeks we have had some half dozen requests for memberships. Some of them did not want to be made public for fear it wouldn't last. Among the last ones to quit according to word coming from a mutual friend is Jack Crawford of Goodnight. Anyway, our best wishes to Jack, and we have mailed out the membership. Also, Frank Boggess has asked us to send a card to his brother Dr. J. Lige Boggess of Copper City, Tenn.

MYSTERY FARM NO. 47

Frank comments that it is his hope that the membership will help his brother as much in being able to quit as it has him. H'MM, in this last statement we take exceptions. If the card helps Dr. Boggess only when Uncle Zeb is looking on it is a terrible long way to Copper City, as the smoke flies.

Uncle Bob will never completely forgive the powers that were in doing away with the one cent card. And he remembers way back during Wilson's administration when a Texan named Burlson was Postmaster General and the department showed a profit for one of its few times. And in those days the penny post card was legal tender. My goodness, this Scotchman can remember more than most of us have forgotten.

This farm home was identified by two persons last week as the T. G. Fields place located 3 miles south of Groom. The Donley county line sets just east of this farm. Nath Helton is the tenant on this place and Mrs. Helton came in Saturday to make positive identification and receive the free glossy picture.

This farm consists of 640 acres of which around 300 acres are in cultivation and the remainder is in pasture. Wheat and feed are the main crops and they raise white face cattle.

Mr. Helton has been farming this place for the past nine years. He formerly lived in Donley County and operated a place near Goodnight prior to moving to Groom. He and Bertie Stewart were married in 1938. They have two children, Nancy 13 and Mike 4. They are members of the Methodist Church and Mr. Helton is a Mason.

What's New with Cows?

Catching up on my reading, I noticed three news items you might like to know about.

First, a farmer whose milk had a trace of garlic flavor is feeding his cows chlorophyll to sweeten their breaths.

Next, a college agricultural station has trained a herd to get milked when they are called by number. Seems 75 out of 80 cows learned their numbers in a few days. Guess the "dumb" five couldn't count that high. Final item—cows are getting "nose-printed" for identification.

From where I sit, I hope there is as much progress being made with humans ... especially in regard to tolerance. Whether it's a choice of a political party, a basketball team, or a favorite beverage, let's learn to live and let live more. You may ask for a soft drink after a hard day's work—! I'll choose a refreshing glass of beer. But let's not try to "cow" the other fellow into our way of thinking!

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

July 2, 1954

OPERATION IVY

The first full-scale thermuclear explosion in history took place at the Pacific Proving Ground of the Atomic Energy Commission in November 1952, and was designated as "Operation Ivy." During this operation a series of colored motion pictures were taken, both for the historical record and for information and educational purposes. This film was highly restricted until April 1, 1954, at which time it was released, in black and white copies only, to television, radio and press. Further restrictions on the colored version of the film have been released in part, and I have been able to purchase one of the colored versions. This will be made available to any of the groups that desire to view the film. It is 16-millimeter size and requires approximately 28 minutes to screen. It occurred to me that many of the people in the 18th Congressional District would want to have a first-hand view of this explosion. I will be happy to loan the film which has a sound track, to any groups desiring it if you will write me. Just address your communication to Walter Rogers, Member of Congress, 1712 House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Foreign Aid and The Farmers

The House of Representatives considered two bills during the week of June 28. The first was the Foreign Aid bill, which involved an expenditure of approximately three and a half billion dollars. The second was the Agriculture bill, having to do with the continuance of the agricultural program in this country. I was somewhat amazed at the ease with which the Foreign Aid bill sailed through the House. A bill providing three and a half billion dollars, in addition to the nine billion plus already appropriated but unexpended, to be spent overseas. I voted against this bill, as I have similar bills in the past, for the reason that I do not believe that this country is getting value received or near it for the dollars being spent under this program. I have long contended that this money could and would produce ten times the results if it were operated on the basis of exchanging the products of this country in which we are in over-supply for the use of the manpower in many of these countries in which they are in over-supply. Such procedure would, in my opinion, furnish the most effective weapon in the battle against Communism. It would enable many an American boy to remain on his home shores to help produce the goods, wares and merchandise needed in this fight, and it would also enable the manpower of these recipient countries to stand up and be counted against Communism and do something about it. In addition, it would furnish the economic aid more effectively, because the funds for the services rendered would reach the individual citizens. In many instances in the past it has been definitely shown that tremendous amounts of these foreign aid funds paid over to the governments of these countries suffered a terrific evaporation loss before they reached the people in the every-day walks of life. Such a process would also remove from any of the funds, goods, wares or merchandise, any taint of charity.

Just after the House had increased the funds available for foreigners to some twelve billion plus dollars, the agriculture bill was brought before the House. Immediately the tune changed. The picture became one of tragedy, wherein the American farmer had grown foodstuffs in excess of our demand to the extent of about six and a half billion dollars. That is, six and a half billion dollars worth of foodstuffs are in the pantry, ready to be used and consumed by the American people, or our allies, as the need may be. Why this is a tragedy, I have never been able to understand, but there seems to be a great propaganda campaign on to convince the American people that it is a sin and a crime to have a backlog of food and fiber, both of which are indispensable in the life of man. When the smoke had all cleared away at the end of the week, the result was that the foreigners got three and a half billion more, the farmer got his price supports cut. I voted against the foreigners and for the farmers. Sorry my side didn't win.

President John Quincy Adams was known as "Old Man Eloquent."

Al Smith called the old New York Fulton Fish Market his "alma mater".

Honey on Wheels

—and only a few dollars more than the low-price cars!

HAVE you been thinking you can't afford a new Buick? Listen:

If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick — and a look at the figure on the price tag proves it.

Look again, and you'll see that this is the local delivered price of the new Buick SPECIAL 2-door, 6-passenger Sedan. Compare, and you'll learn that this price is just a few dollars away from those of the so-called "low-price three."

But — dig a little deeper if you want the real clincher. That's when you find that those few dollars more you pay for a Buick buy you a lot more automobile.

They buy a whale of a lot more power — Buick V8 power — plus the new economy of Power-Head combustion.

They buy a lot more luxury and comfort and solidity — more room, more glass area, more frame strength, more tread width, more ride steadiness — including the million dollar "feel" of all-coil springing and torque-tube stability.

They buy, too, the most advanced styling of the time, and the great panoramic windshield, and the surety that such fresh-looking beauty will stay in the style parade for seasons to come. (That means a better deal for you come resale time.)

Is it any wonder, then, that Buick now outsells all other cars in America except two of the so-called "low-price three"?

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — Texas' campaign trails are sizzling as figures in the quest for the state's top political job enter the speech-making home stretch.

Governor Allan Shivers' bid for re-election was boosted by the announcement of State Senator A. M. Aikin that he would support the governor. Aikin, champion of public education and co-author of the Gilmer-Aikin laws, said he has never doubted the sincerity, integrity, or ability of the governor.

In a string of campaign speeches broken by a brief personal visit to the Rio Grande flood area and a request to President Eisenhower to designate five hard-hit counties as disaster areas, Shivers:

1. Charged that opponent Ralph Yarborough does not have the interest of the state's old people at heart. The governor said that his opponent has "never lifted a finger to help increase old-age assistance," but has worked to boost pensions for retired judges.

2. Received support from an Austin union barber who said that charges made against the governor in a Corpus Christi labor convention were "unjust". G. O. Eddleman said that the governor had always been helpful to the laboring people and that the "anti-labor" accusation brought against Shivers was the work of labor's "would-be bosses."

3. Reiterated his stand against changes in segregation laws and hit out at Yarborough for "mud slinging."

4. Cited industrial gains and the fact that more people are working and making more money in Texas than ever before. "Is this what Yarborough wants to change?" Shivers inquired.

Yarborough Essay
Candidate Yarborough continued his campaign, aided by a chartered airplane that shuttled him to more than 30 towns for brief speeches.

He promised to "clean out" the Texas Insurance Commission if elected.

He also demanded an audit of the books of John Van Cronkhite, a former Shivers campaign manager whose name came up in the bankruptcy case of Lloyd's of North America.

Yarborough declared against third terms, saying that "when politicians become fixtures their crories become fixers."

The candidate promised an administration dedicated to quick aid for farmers and ranchers, better roads and highways, better schools, and expanded veterans land, health, and state welfare programs.

Holmes Is Active
Covering the crossroads is J. J. Holmes of Austin. He is making a grassroots search for votes, spending little time in the big cities. It is his first race for Governor.

Insurance Business
Texas insurance companies' charter amendment applications are receiving close examination before being approved, says Attorney General John Ben Shepperd.

He announced that his office has returned 10 to 27 applications in the last two months because of failure to meet insurance law requirements.

Draft Call
Letters calling for 2,416 Texans to be examined in August for military duty have gone out to state draft boards, according to Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state selective service director.

Texas boards will induct 1,092 men during the month who have received previous examinations. Wakefield said that draft calls for both July and August are running above previous months. The August call asked for men 20 or older, but authorized boards to call men below 20 if necessary to fill quotas.

Now non-existent, the Texas Navy will be honored September 1-7, designated as "Texas Navy Week."

Governor Allan Shivers credited the one-time Republic's small fleet as playing a big part in winning independence from Mexico. "It was their fighting spirit that made the difference," stated the governor in his proclamation.

During Governor Allan Shivers' administration more money has been spent for schools than ever before.
The result? — better schools, more and higher paid teachers, and better guidance for your children.
Since Allan Shivers became your governor, school funds have increased from 145 million to 211 million dollars per year. Teachers get $1000 a year more. Your child receives individual attention from 15,000 more teachers.
This educational climb is your child's guarantee of a profitable and happy future. For you it means assurance about his growing-up years. It means a better Texas for everyone.

IN DONLEY COUNTY
$220,032.59 was spent for your child's education during the last fiscal year. He got better teachers with higher salaries and an administration that had more money to spend for his needs. Texas veterans received more educational aid.

Legal And Political Battles Threatening Family Dynasty

On the dusty plains of South Texas where the cattle graze between the oil derricks, there is being fought this election summer one of the fiercest legal and political battles in Texas history, Harold H. Martin reports in the current (June 26th) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

"Pistol-toting rangers patrol the sun-baked towns, and national guardsmen stand ready to move in if violence should flare between the trigger-tempered factions," the author continues in an article entitled "Tyrant in Texas."

After eighteen months of gathering evidence, the administration of Governor Allan Shivers is challenging, at the polls and in the law courts, the power of a family dynasty that has held oil-rich Duval County in political thrall for more than forty years, Martin states.

Commanding the battalions of lawyers, auditors, handwriting analysts and undercover investigators that Shivers has thrown into the fray is a resolute young state attorney general named John Ben Shepperd, a man of such unbending rectitude a Methodist bishop might feel unworthy in his presence, it is reported.

The man whom Shepperd has vowed to lasso, hog-tie and brand as a rascal before the electorate is George Berham Parr, the so-called Duke of Duval, a millionaire rancher, oilman, banker and deputy sheriff, who once served a term in Federal reformatory for evading his income tax, the magazine says.

Mr. Shepperd is said to charge that, as a political boss whose rule was absolute, Mr. Parr has been guilty of even greater crimes against the democratic process. For two decades, the attorney general alleges, Mr. Parr has driven the Latin American citizens of his county to the polls like docile cattle, there to vote them as he pleased.

Martin relates that Mr. Parr, a dapper, confident little man of fifty-three, does not strongly demur to this allegation, claiming that the voting loyalty is an expression of the Mexicans' gratitude for their unflinching benefactor.

Such statements by Mr. Parr are called "purest balderdash" by Attorney General Shepperd, who contends—and these charges have been made in court—that Mr.

Parr is a man of violence who rules by blows and threats, by economic boycotts and by maintaining a private army of some 200 gun-toting "pistoleros" who, masquerading as special deputy sheriffs, terrorize the electorate.

It is true, Mr. Shepperd admits, that Mr. Parr has been generous with those who pleased him and kept his commandments. He could afford to be. It was not his money he was passing out, Mr. Shepperd maintains, but tax funds drained illegally from the county treasury and the coffers of the school districts.

Governor Shivers is reported to concur in this harsh judgment of Mr. Parr's activities. "For many years," Shivers says, "the Parr regime has been a cancer. The light of freedom has been snuffed out in Duval County. There was no law there, no liberty, no free elections. It is our purpose to put some of these people down there in the penitentiary."

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The first book to be announced this week is "The Mature Heart" by Helen B. Emmons. This book was placed in the Library by Mr. and Mrs. David B. Brown from Brown's House of Books—placed in memory of Mr. W. K. Davis who died recently. The book consists of 150 inspiring meditation that are inspiring to those who seek increasing spiritual strength to enrich the maturing years. All will appreciate this book.

We have some novels that are not too recent, but apparently good. These are "Unconquered" by Neil Swanson. I have had this in a paper back edition last year. "Three Roads to Valhalla" by Catherine Stewart, "Blaze of Noon" by Ernest K. Gann.

We were given about forty pocket editions this week. These were assorted—mystery, western, and historical novels.

We were given a copy of "The Velvet Doublet" by James Street recently. We had a copy but ours is rather worn. Our Library friends have been rather thoughtful to help us with books and magazines.

Si Richardson of Hedley was a visitor in the W. F. Barker home Sunday. Odell Barker and son of Martin were visitors also.

— Political advertisement paid for by Donley County friends of Elbert Reeves —

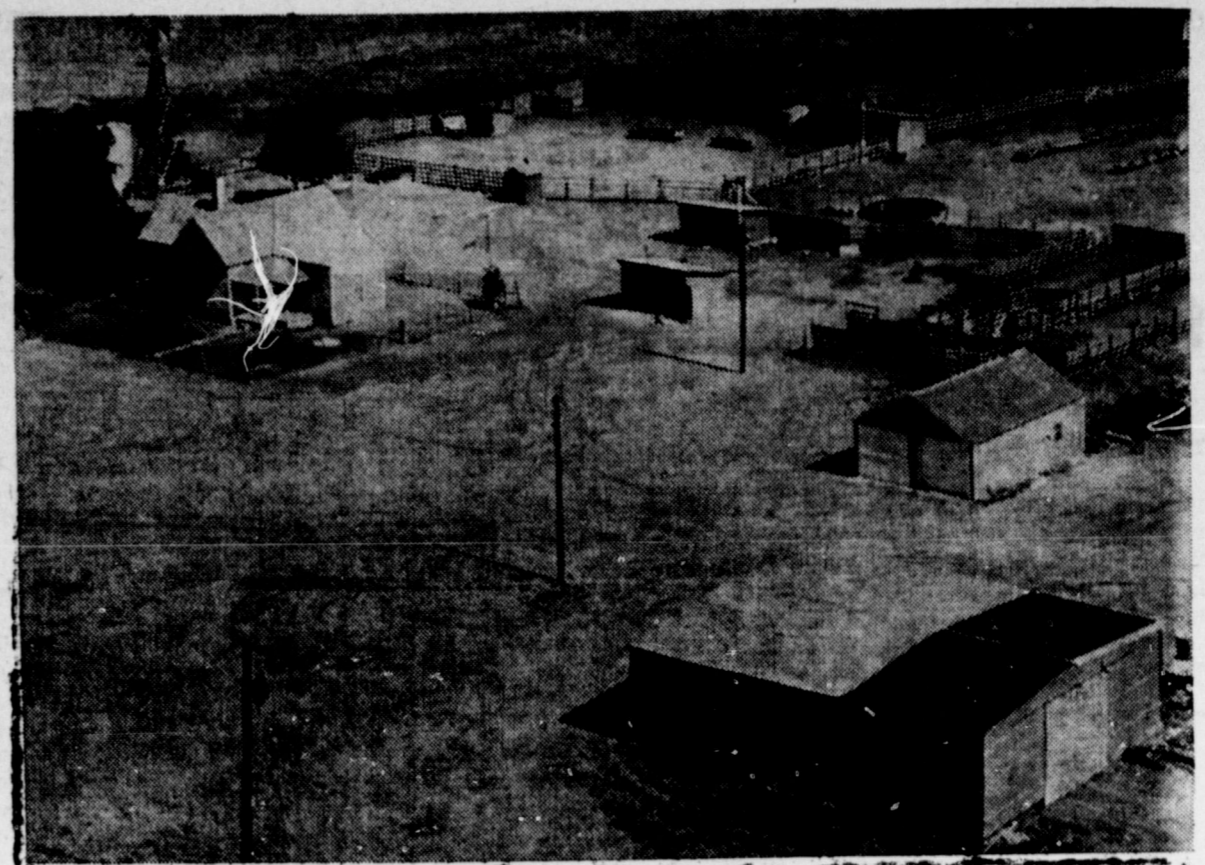

The body of Admiral George Dewey of Spanish-American War fame, was transferred from Arlington Cemetery to a crypt in the Washington, D. C. Cathedral on March 28, 1925.

The shades of night were falling fast
When through an Alpine village passed
A youth who rode with might and main

To get across before the train—
A crash — He died without a sound—
They opened up his head and found—

Someone has said that experience is what we get when we are looking for something else. I guess we could well say that this is true. Most of us started out when we were young with no thought but that of doing things up in a big way. The world and the way thereof looked simple and we felt equal to any task. But, on the one hand we would meet some failure and on the other a disappointment and we would wind up a long way short in our accomplishments but all the time we were accumulating experience that if we would take it could be valuable to us all through our lives. Guess this is the way things have to be. Actually, the trouble with even raising wheat out here in this dry country is that about two years out of three we just get experience. Oh well, we shouldn't fuss anyhow.

MYSTERY FARM NO. 48

had a love for cake we would trade it in and soak all our loose change for another year in the deal.

Wonder where the nearest place would be that one could catch even a small fish. Just a little catfish with enough life to make us think we had been fishing would do. Will someone send in a suggestion. We promise not to brag about any that might get away.

It is also said that the ideal wife is the one who thinks she has an ideal husband. Honestly, I guess this is true with all of us humans. If someone is nice to us and makes us feel that they think pretty well of us we are almost sure to think they are about the stuff. Anyway, we can't change our own human nature anymore

A man without any convictions is said to be a tramp on the road leading to nowhere. The more we think about this the more it does seem true. If we are just a go-easy, slow-easy, don't stand for anything, or against anything it can well be said that we are going nowhere fast. The Bible deals very harshly with the luke-warm, go-along with every thing kind of a fellow. On the other hand we can be too much on the fighting side of a lot of things. I guess if we could remember to watch the old quote: "Be sure you're right, then go ahead" we would be walking on solid ground.

The trouble with most breadwinners is that we want too much cake. Anyway, one of our readers sends us this saying. Sort of makes us feel guilty as we read it. How many times have we known that we ought to drive the old car another year, but just because we than a leopard can change his spots.

It's a queer thing sometimes how we pass over all the good qualities of a man with just a casual glance but when we get down to his weak points sometimes we dwell and dwell on them. I guess we would have our old human self pretty well licked if we could make ourselves look all the time for the good in the fellow next to us.

It takes such a little sometimes to make most of us so much happier. For instance someone may tell us that we certainly don't look that old. Or they may say that on us our extra weight looks like full-fledged muscles. Then too, some little youngster may want us to write a page in their memory book. Such small things one could say, but big things in the effect they have on our happiness for the moment.

YOUR SENATOR REPORTS
 by Lyndon B. Johnson
 U. S. SENATOR

WHAT THE BILL DOES:
 In all, the bill provides, for the 1955 fiscal year, tax relief to individuals totaling $652,000,000. Here are some of the most significant items:
 The first $1200 of retirement income received by retired employees is not subject to income tax.
 Working mothers, widows and widowers who pay for the care of their children under 12 years of age will get some tax relief. Up to $600 paid for this purpose in any year will be free of tax.
 The bill provides more liberal deductions for medical expenses. Under present law, the taxpayer can deduct only those medical expenses amounting to more than 5 percent of his income. Under the Senate bill, he can get a deduction for all medical expenses totaling more than 3 per cent of his income.

 Exemptions for dependents under 19 years of age, or who are students, are permitted even though they earn over $600 a year—provided the taxpayer furnishes over half their support. The bill provides that foster parents and foster children may be claimed as tax dependents.
 Farmers can spend up to one-fourth of their farm income for soil and water conservation purposes and not pay taxes on income spent in that way.
 You have been filing your income tax return not later than March 15. Under the Senate bill, you will have until April 15.

TAX BILL SIDELIGHTS:
 Efforts were made in the Senate to reduce the 27 1/2 per cent oil depletion allowance, so important to Texas. Both Senator Daniel and I opposed these proposals and spoke against them. They were defeated.
 The 52 per cent tax rate on corporations, scheduled to drop to 47 per cent this year, was continued for another year. This will result in the Government receiving $1,200,000,000 more from corporations than would have been received under the lower rate.
 This is the first comprehensive revision of the tax laws since 1939.

RIO GRANDE FLOOD:
 As soon as news of the Rio Grande flood reached me, I wired city officials of Langtry, Eagle Pass, Del Rio, Ozona, Sheffield and Laredo, as well as county judges of Maverick, Val Verde and Webb Counties, offering the facilities of my office for any aid we could give.
 After receiving word that a number of Mexicans were stranded in Villa Acuna, across the river from Del Rio, I obtained necessary clearance from the State Department and arranged with the Army to fly across the river with food and medical supplies provided by the Red Cross.

My office was in immediate and constant contact with the Civil Defense Administration, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Labor, State authorities in Texas—doing everything possible to help arrange for emergency food supplies, medical supplies, water purification equipment, and anything else needed.
 We worked with the military on a project for establishing temporary pontoon bridges to replace bridges put out of commission at Laredo, Del Rio and Eagle Pass.
 I introduced in the Senate a resolution expressing the sympathy of Congress for the people of Texas and of Mexico stricken by the flood and stating the desire of Congress to be that the United States should offer every aid possible for emergency relief and rehabilitation. The resolution swept through the Senate within 10 minutes after its introduction.
 The office of your Senator is always at the service of the people of Texas. We try to act promptly at all times—and especially so in the case of emergencies involving the lives and welfare of individuals.

Yes, coil springs on all four wheels. And a full-length torque-tube drive for true tracking. And a massive X-braced frame for solid steadiness. And specially calibrated shock absorbers, V-braced struts, wide-rim wheels, a unique front-end geometry—plus a host of other betterments too numerous to mention.

You feel the result of this advanced engineering every mile you drive—in what is literally and figuratively a Million Dollar Ride.

You feel it in the superb and buoyant cradling. You feel it in the serene levelness of your going over ruts and ridges. You feel it in the precise snubbing of jars and jounces. You feel it in a new kind of steadiness, handling ease, curve control.

AUSTIN — Texas politicians turned to the grass roots trails, trying to swing undecided votes, as the campaign wound into its final days.

cover up his tie-in with the CIO-PAC which was trying to take over the government of Texas." That Yarborough campaigners had spread rumors to the effect that Shivers wanted to abolish the orphans state home at Corsicana. That Yarborough has promised George Parr to call off the clean-up campaign in Duval County.

Yarborough Retorts
Yarborough came back with these accusations: That Shivers had tried to suppress an FBI investigation of the Gatesville school last year. That Shivers is a "hyphenated Democrat-Republican." That Shivers had not reported all of his campaign expenditures.

Both candidates, stump speaking in the villages and towns, also had their positive statements to make, in addition to charges against each other, although the latter phase made the most headlines. Shivers, saying that he was drawing surprisingly good crowds emphasized his record in office, pointing to more money spent for roads, schools, and welfare programs.

Yarborough pledged improvements in the state government and more money for state services. He also expressed interest in a state youth program to combat juvenile delinquency, and was critical of the slash in appropriations which wiped out the Community Services Division of the Youth Development commission. "The field representatives of the Commission who worked with local government and groups, and also as parole supervisors for youngsters released from state schools on parole, were eliminated," Yarborough commented.

Delegate Ruling
Texas' Supreme Court has been asked to determine how Democratic delegate strength shall be counted this year. Significance of the question is that its solution will have a strong bearing in deciding control of party conventions. Previously the State Democratic Executive Committee had called for computation of delegate strength by considering both Democratic and Republican votes that Shivers received as a cross-filed candidate in 1952.

Anti-Shivers loyalists, backed by two lower court decisions, have argued that the convention strength should be based only on Democratic votes recorded in the last state election year.

It is the first time in Texas political history that the question has arisen.

Drought Aid
John C. White, the state commissioner of agriculture, went to Washington and asked that federal assistance be given to 27 Central Texas counties, hard hit by drought. White told federal authorities that Central Texas people face possibly the worst crisis in history unless help—in the form of money or rain—comes soon.

Red Law
Texas' new anti-Communist ruling that outlaws membership in the Communist Party or any organization attempting to overthrow the government by force may not hold up in court, says Attorney General John Ben Shepperd.

Shepperd, who called the legislation the "most inclusive and far-sighted anti-Communist law in the nation," warned state lawyers that a former court ruling holding that control of sedition belongs exclusively to the federal government might render the law invalid.

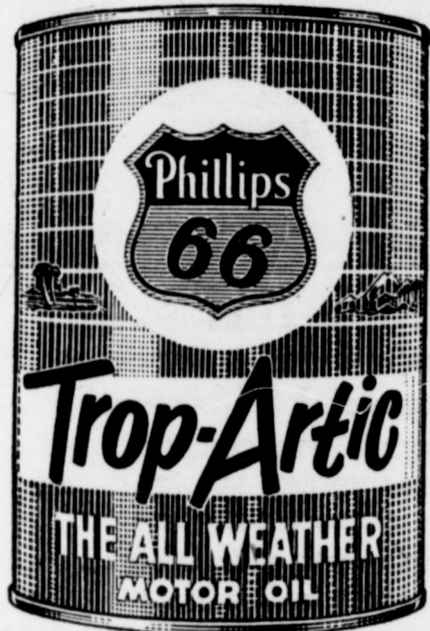

Shepperd added that the ruling handed down by a Pennsylvania court, might "knock out all state sedition and treason laws."

Duval County
Suspended by the Supreme Court was an order halting the prosecution of Duval County political boss George Parr and several of his associates. Attorney General Shepperd, hailing the ruling which clears the way for action on 28 indictments returned by a special Duval County grand jury, said it "clears the decks for prosecution of the indictments."
