Bulldogs Take 71-57 Win From South Plains

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs had to generate a late rally to beat the South Plains College team from Levelland here last Saturday night by a score of 71 to 57. South Plains has yet to win a conference game in the West Zone Conference in their two years of participation, but it looked for a while Saturday night like the Bulldogs might be their first victim.

Both teams started cold and slow and the Bulldogs managed to gain a 24 to 21 halftime lead. They battled on even terms for the first fourteen minutes of the second half before the Bulldogs could get any kind of comfortable lead. With a little over six minutes to go South Plains held a 44 to 43 lead. At this point the Bulldogs went to work and scored 13 points before the visitors could score again and were never in danger thereafter.

Felix Johnson poured in 22 points to lead the Bulldog scoring. H. D. Yarbrough had 12 and John Alexander scored 11.

1959 Cotton Crop Expected To Reach 11,000 Bales

According to a report from the U.S. Department of Commerce, Donley County farmers have ginned 10,836 bales of cotton prior to January 16, 1960. This figure is expected to grow to the 11,000 mark by the time all cotton from the 1959 crop is ginned. Since the weather has fared some, several bales have been ginned this week.

The 11,000 total will be nearly twice the 1958 crop total which was 6,550 bales. Discounting the big blow Tuesday and considering the fine moisture from rain and snow, local farmers and ginners are looking forward to an even larger crop for 1960.

Scouts Observing 50th Anniversary This Week

All local units connected with scouting here are observing the Boy Scout 50th Anniversary along with over 3,000,000 scouts in America and foreign countries.

There are three active groups here, the Explorers, Scouts and Cubs. This past week end, the Explorers finished a service project in the form of re-setting Clarendon Junior College signs at each entrance to our city. The signs had been repainted by the Chamber of Commerce. Explorers doing the job were Dwight McAnear, Jerry Elmore, Danny Ray, Steve Richerson, Mike Heath and furnishing pickups and assisting were Joe Pfeiffer and Herman Boone.

Scout troops 37 and 38 have an anniversary display in the show window at Greene Dry Goods Co. which consists of many items they have made. Members of these troops will set up a model campsite with tents, etc., on the lot east of the Lions Hall and the entire membership plans to camp there Friday night. Leaders of this group are Hubert Kidd, Wes Knorpp, Delbert Robertson and Billy Jack Land. Visit this camp Friday night and see a Boy Scout campsite in it's entirety. They will welcome your visit.

Next week the Cubs and parents of Pack 37 will have their blue and gold banquet on Thursday night.

Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive wrote the following in an article published in the February issue of Scouting: "As all of us appraise the results of Scouting's first half century, and enter our second half century with vigor and imagination, we can say proudly, 'We are prepared. We are a youthful movement—fifty years young! We have grown strong through helping others. The best years are ahead.'"

Donley Teachers Attend Banquet

The Donley County Unit of the Texas State Teachers Association met last Monday night in the school gymnasium for a dinner meeting and program. The program consisted of one vocal number by Frank Clayburn of Lelia Lake and Mrs. W. W. Pinkerton and two vocal numbers by Mrs. Pinkerton and Sandra and Andrea Pinkerton. Mrs. Velma Weaver accompanied on the piano.

The guest speaker for the program was Mr. Frank Jackson, Director of the Teacher Retirement System. Mr. Jackson explained the several options available to teachers upon retirement as well as death and survivors benefits.

There were 77 people present which included teachers, and some of their husbands and wives.

Moisture Total Still Growing

The moisture total for the year is still growing with 1.01 inch already recorded for February and a total for the year at 2.59.

The rain with some scattered snow on the 3rd and 4th of February netted the major portion of the moisture with .36 recorded on the 3rd, .54 on the 4th and .10 on the 5th. The .01 was recorded Tuesday night after the big blow but the official weatherman said he had to squeeze the moisture out of too much dirt.

Johnnie Blocker of Hereford visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Blocker, last week.

Winds Of Gale Force Sweep Across Donley County Area Tuesday

Bulldogs Meet Odessa Here Friday Night

Coach Roy Young's Clarendon College Bulldogs will meet the sharpshooting Odessa Wranglers in the local gymnasium Friday night beginning at eight o'clock. The Bulldogs defeated the Wranglers in Odessa on Jan. 22 by a score of 91 to 83 and the return game here Friday night promises to be a thriller.

Neither the Bulldogs or the Wranglers seem to be going anywhere in the conference race but both have solid teams capable of giving any team a real battle on any given night. The Bulldogs' conference record is now standing at five wins and four defeats, not counting Tuesday night's game with Frank Phillips and the Wranglers have won only three games while losing five. However, one of Odessa's defeats was a one-point defeat at the hands of the strong Howard County Jayhawks. Howard County, Amarillo and Frank Phillips are all currently tied for the conference lead with only one league defeat each.

Probable starters for the Bulldogs in Friday night's game will be Alva Carter at center, H. D. Yarbrough and Felix Johnson at forwards and Bobby Lesley and either Oscar Bronniman or John Alexander at guards. Other boys who have been showing considerable promise and will probably play include Dee Blevins, Johnny Hudson, John Morrow, Jimmy Humphreys and Marvin Young.

Following Friday night's game the Bulldogs will have only three games remaining on their schedule. They will travel to Amarillo for a game with the Badgers next Tuesday night and will wind up the season with two games at home, one on Feb. 19 with the Wayland College Freshmen and the last game with Lubbock Christian College on Feb. 25. This will end their season unless they are invited to the Region Five National Junior College Tournament at Amarillo the second week in March.

WITHDRAWS FROM RACE

We were informed this week by Mike McCully, County Democratic Chairman, that Carl Pittman has withdrawn his name from the list of candidates for the office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector. This narrows the field of candidates in this race to two, Lonnie "Bill" Cornell and Truett Behrens.

Sixty mile an hour wind with gusts of up to 70 miles per hour swept across this area Tuesday causing considerable property damage and personal discomfort from the thick dust that accompanied the strong blow. Visibility in some areas was reduced to zero and pea size gravel zipped through the air.

Approximately 50 TV antennas in this area went down and repairmen were swamped with service calls Wednesday morning. A number of residents reported roof damage and some damage to small outbuildings, garage doors, etc.

This was the severest blow of the year and official weather stations in the area recorded a record low pressure reading. The barometer dipped to 28.89 over this area, establishing an all-time record for low pressure. If there had been sufficient moisture accompanying the blow it could have created severe tornado conditions, weathermen say. A shower following the hard blow helped settle the dust.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

Beeville, Tex., Bee-Picayune: "The fate of our nation rests upon you and the people you influence. If you want to make a quick buck above all else, if you would trade security for freedom, if you have lost the moral fibre of your ancestors, our nation is in grave danger. For in a free world you do your choosing as to leaders, but they cannot put meaning or purpose or moral standards into your lives. That is up to you. The fate of the world is within each of us."

CANOPY CHARMER—Who'd ever have thought that fishnet would wind up in a bedroom fit to capture the fancy of any young lady? But that's exactly what happened in this peppermint striped doll's house. White cotton Quaker Lace fishnet with Conso trimming forms the curtains and dust ruffle. The matching canopy is draped over "swinging arm" curtain rods and inverted gallops on the valance and bedspread complete the picture.

LOCAL PHARMACY TO SPONSOR TV SHOW

An old favorite story, "The Devil and Daniel Webster," by Stephen Vincent Benet, is being co-sponsored over the NBC-TV network Sunday, February 14, by Bob Moss Pharmacy, your Rexall Drug Store. It will be viewed locally over Channel 4 Sunday, Feb. 14.

Rexall druggists all over the country are using the special television presentation to tell about their storeful of values being offered at this season. The show co-stars Edward G. Robinson as Daniel Webster, defending a man who in a moment of despair traded his soul to the Devil for worldly riches; and David Wayne as the Devil, come to collect his due. With them is an excellent supporting cast.

"We're running a special contest with other Rexall druggists," Mr. Moss said, "offering 8,000 movie cameras free. Customers don't have to buy anything. It's to help people learn about Rexall's multi-vitamin product, Super Plenamins. And we're using "The Devil and Daniel Webster" on television to tell about it and the special values we have in most of our departments."

Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy will host the presentation.

Miss Beatrice Buttrell, who served as Home Demonstration Agent here about 30 years ago, visited the school cafeteria and with friends Tuesday. She is Dist. Supervisor of School Lunch Rooms with headquarters in Lubbock.

DENTON ANNOUNCES FOR CIVIL COURT OF APPEALS

JAMES G. DENTON

Lubbock — Judge James G. Denton has announced candidacy for his first elective term as Chief Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District. Judge Denton was appointed to the office last October following the death of Chief Justice E. L. Pitts.
 He will run in the May 7th primaries as a candidate for the Democratic Party's nomination for the office.

Denton was judge for the 99th Judicial District (Lubbock County) at the time of his appointment to the Court of Civil Appeals. He served as District Judge for six and one-half years. Before that he served nearly two years as judge of the Lubbock County Court of Law. He has also served on the Executive Committee of the State Judicial Conference.

Chief Justice Denton was born in Bonham, Texas, in 1917. Following graduation from high school there, he entered Texas Technological College and graduated with a B. A. in Government in 1938. He then entered the University of Texas law school. In 1941 he was licensed to practice law. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy shortly after Pearl Harbor. For more than four years he served aboard minesweepers in both the Atlantic and Pacific. Early in 1946 he received his honorable discharge and began practicing law in Lubbock. In 1950 he was chosen the first judge of the Lubbock County Court.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

GOT WATER PROBLEMS?

Waterways are a much needed practice in the Donley County Soil Conservation District. A waterway is merely a means of conducting water to a place of safe disposal, at a velocity that will not cause erosion. If possible, waterways should be established to permanent grass before water is turned into them. This is usually necessary to keep the waterway from washing out before it is established to grass.

A waterway should be designed to carry the expected runoff from the drainage area above it. Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the Donley County Soil Conservation District are trained to design these structures and would be glad to help you plan what you need.

Waterway installation is cost-shared by both the ACP program and the Great Plains Conservation Program. Because the need of this practice in Donley County appears to be great, the cost share is approximately 80%.

Waterways could serve several purposes here in Donley County. Horace Green, Richard Dingle, and Frank Thomason are building waterways in which to empty diversion terraces. George Bulman is building one to carry outside water through his farm at a safe velocity. They could be used as an outlet for graded terraces. After a waterway is established, it is not wasted land.

It can be a valuable producer of grass seed and can be grazed.

WHAT OTHERS ARE DOING

Terracing — Frank Thomason, Dick Dingle, Rhode and Gould, Henry Mann.

Diversions — Dick Dingle, Rhode and Gould, Horace Green.

So far this year, the Soil Conservation Service has received 62 referrals from the Donley County ACP office for layout of practices. This represents a big increase in application for cost share. From all appearances, this looks like a bumper year for conservation work in Donley County.

Mrs. Jane Bownds and Edna Smith took Mrs. Bownds' mother, Mrs. C. E. Killough, to Mineral Wells Sunday. They returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Corder of Amarillo visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Estlack. Afternoon visitors were Don Tomlinson and children.

Our public schools train the youth of today for citizenship tomorrow. Support your public schools. It's a fine investment in Democracy.

With deepest gratitude we extend this word of thanks for the many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy from our friends at the death of our loved one, Mrs. J. E. Parrish. Our appreciation cannot be adequately expressed.
 Mrs. Bert Smith and family

FACT AND OPINION

Not long ago a New York City Judge wrote to the New York Times saying that in the 17 years he had been on the bench not one Chinese teen-ager had been brought before him on a juvenile delinquency charge.

P. H. Chang, Chinese Consul-General in New York, was asked to comment. He said, "I have heard this story many times from many judges. I will tell you why I think this is so. Filial piety is a cardinal virtue my people have brought over from the China that was free. A Chinese child, no matter where he lives, is brought up to recognize that he cannot shame his parents. Before a Chinese child makes a move, he stops to think what the reaction of his parents will be. Will they be proud, or will they be ashamed? Above all other things, the Chinese teen-ager is anxious to please his parents."

The amazing record of the Chinese children and young people shows that it is in the home that the cure for juvenile delin-

AUSTIN — Completion of the Interstate Highway System, including 3,033 miles of topstand-ard expressways, may save as many as 300 Texans a year from traffic deaths. State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer says that accident records show that controlled access expressways are three times safer. Also, he said, they move three to four times as much traffic. Greer estimates that the Interstate Highway System, when completed, will have one life a year for each 10 miles of road. Target year for getting Texas highways to desired standards is 1975. By that time, said the state highway engineer, the state probably will have 70,000 miles in the state highway system compared to the present 60,000. There will be 5,500 miles of multi-lane highways compared to 2,168 today. MORE SPEED? — Whether speeds in excess of 60 miles per hour should be legalized for some of the state's top-notch highways will be subject of study between now and the next Legislature. Committees of the Texas Good Roads Association are to consider this and whether gasoline taxes should be upped to gain school funds. Governor Daniel has suggested the possibility of raising money for school improvement and teacher salaries through a higher gasoline tax. TGRA, made up of people interested in road building, has, in the past, opposed draining taxes paid by road users for non-highway purposes. Higher speed limits have been proposed before for four-lane highways, but have failed to pass the Legislature. DEFICIT GROWS — Deficit in the state's general revenue fund has reached $78,647,301, an all time high, says State Treasurer Jesse James. Things should look better after May 1, when corporation franchise taxes will be paid, he adds. APPOINTEES — Appointed by Governor Daniel to the Texas Commission on Educational Standards are Mrs. W. D. DeGrassi of Amarillo, Horace K. Jackson of Gatesville, Reynaldo Garza of Brownsville, Cullum Greene of Fort Worth, and Mrs. E. P. Lamberth of Dallas. To the Educational Commission, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey names Everett Collier of Houston, Joe Anderson of Lufkin, Sens. William Fly of Victoria, Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford, and Ray Roberts of McKinney. House Speaker Waggoner Carr designated Mrs. Harry Patterson of Houston, John McKee of Dallas, Reps. C. T. Matthew of Yonkum, Leon Thurman of Anson and Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville, as his appointees to the Educational Commission. NEW GAME HEADS — Frank M. Wood of Wichita Falls has been elected chairman of the Game and Fish Commission to succeed Herb Frensley of Houston. New members of the Commission are Carl L. Dupuy of Lufkin, H. A. Walsh of El Paso, J. F. Corley of Houston and W. O. Reed of Dallas. BUG DELAYS DECISION — "Flu bug," besides felling Texans by the thousands, contributed to a delay in deciding one of the state's most talked about issues, the new Safe Driving Insurance Plan. With the other two State Insurance Board members ill, Chairman Penn Jackson said it would be at least several days before the board would announce changes, if any, in the plan. Board Member Robert W. Strain was in bed with the flu, and Joe P. Biggs, other member, was convalescing from a heart attack. Under the merit plan, the Board set auto insurance premiums lower for drivers with no record of accidents or traffic violations and proportionately higher for those who have accident and violation records. Gov. Daniel has said that he hoped the Board would make "some changes" in the plan, but declined to elaborate. Some legislators declare that, unless non-accident causing violations and the three-year retroactive features are taken from the plan, it will be so unpopular the Legislature will have to change it if the Board doesn't. But most Texas insurance men declare that, given a fair chance, the plan will grow in favor with the public. They believe there will be an over-all drop insurance costs as the driving public learns the relationship between bad driving habits and high insurance premiums. ANTI-NARCOTICS AID PROMISED — Governor Daniel has promised El Paso every possible help in combatting its problem of being "a major distribution point of an international narcotics ring." In response to a telegram in which El Paso Judge Woodrow Bean cited the city's "major" problem, the governor conferred with state and federal authorities. Daniel said he was assured after talking with Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, that DPS men were and would continue to work with local law enforcement officials in El Paso in fighting narcotics traffic. Also, said the governor, he has been told by the Federal Narcotics Commission that eight federal customs agents in El Paso also do anti-narcotics work. Federal Commissioner H. J. Anslinger promised the governor to survey and consider the request for a special federal narcotics agent in El Paso. Lower Train Fares Sought — Railroad Commission has set a hearing Feb. 9 on a request by Texas railroads to reduce passenger fares between Houston and Dallas and Fort Worth. Railways want to reduce the round trip fare from Houston to Dallas from $13.05 to $9 and the fare from Houston to Fort Worth from $14.80 to $10. A spokesman for the Railroad Commission said that no opposition was expected from rail companies not making these runs. A renegade rider in the Old West was one who was employed to visit distant ranches, gathering up any stock branded with his employer's brand and returning the stock home. There are 9,025 weekly newspapers in the U.S., 332 semi-weeklies, and 33 papers publishing three times a week.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

The Preservation of the History of the Farm Allotment is Important to County and State

The use of 75 percent of the allotment by planting, diversion, or release is important to the farm in subsequent years. In most cases the meeting of the 75 per cent use requirement for 1960 will preserve the 1960 history of the farm allotment.

If any part or all of the allotment is voluntarily released and accepted, the acreage so released will be considered planted acreage on the farm and in the counties and state, except that, if all of the 1958 and 1959 cotton allotments for the farm were voluntarily released and all of the 1960 allotment is released, the farm will lose eligibility for an old farm allotment in 1961, and the 1960 allotment acreage so released will not be considered as planted acreage on the farm.

If any part or all of the 1960 allotment (after release and before reapportionment) is not planted, such acreage will be considered to be diverted to the Conservation Reserve (regular rate) to the extent of such Reserve, and taking into account the underplanting of other allotments (after release and before reapportionment) for the farm. In those counties where the GPCP operates, unplanted allotments (after release and before reapportionment) will also be considered to be diverted to the extent of the GP designated acreage of cropland on the advice of the Work Unit Conservationist.

The 1961 allotment base will be equal to the 1960 allotment if as much as or more than 75 per cent of the 1960 allotment is planted, diverted, and/or released temporarily.

If the sum of the planting, diversion and release is less than 75 per cent of the allotment, the 1961 allotment base will be reduced to the average of (a) the 1960 allotment and (b) the sum of the three uses. This reduction, however, may be waived by the county committee upon proper application by the farm operator in which he shows to the satisfaction of the county committee that conditions over which he had no control prevented his planting as much as 75 per cent of the farm allotment. The application shall be filed not later than August 1, 1960.

If no use is made of the 1958 and 1959 farm allotments, eligibility for an old farm allotment will continue at least as long as the year 1959 is the three base period.

If there are any questions concerning the above, please come to the Donley ASC office and we will help you with these questions.

An investment in the public school is an investment in Democracy.

459 ARRESTED FOR GAME LAW VIOLATIONS

AUSTIN — Many hunters and fishermen are still trying to get by without buying a license, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. During December 98 persons were arrested for failure to possess licenses. For the month there were 459 arrests.

He warned that all persons fishing outside their home counties, or anyone fishing with a rod and reel must have a license, unless they are under 16 or over 65 years of age. The license costs $2.15 for either resident or non-resident and includes saltwater as well as fresh water fishing. Headlighters also figured heavily in the December arrests, according to the report. There were 67 convictions for headlighting at night. There were 28 charged with killing spike bucks. Exceeding the bag limit on quail brought fines to 22 persons. Ten hunters were fined for killing doves out of season.

Automobile hunters accounted for 19 fines. Fines were paid by 14 for killing turkey hens.

The 459 arrested persons paid fines and court costs amounting to $19,446. There were 18 cases dismissed, three served time in jail, four appealed, there were two suspended sentences, and one person found not guilty.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

You probably have been reading where Internal Revenue is cracking down on expense account gouging. The tax officials in Dallas protest the use of the word "crackdown". They say they are just taking a closer look at travel expense deductions. Most of us would like to have a hunting lodge, a seashore vacation, a yacht and some of the other expense account items. Unfortunately, it looks like we can't put them on the expense account if and when we ever do arrive.

memories of yesterday, the blessings of today, and the hope we have for tomorrow.

When as children we ask our earthly father for a dime to buy some candy we can rest assuredly that we will receive it. Of course, if candy should be the very thing that we shouldn't have then of course we would be denied our request.

Our Little Prayer:
Lord we thank Thee for the We can have the same assurance that our prayers, which in reality are only wishes sent Heavenward, will receive the same wonderful and kind consideration. According to the Bible our Heavenly Father will show us the same type of kindness but with a perfect knowledge of what is both good and bad for each of us.

Someone has said that God answers all prayers. That sometimes the answer is yes, sometimes no, and then again it is to wait awhile.

Roger Babson said recently that the three hopes for America are our churches, our schools and our praying parents.

The instinct to pray is a natural one in the hearts of both old and young. The child sees danger or feels some great need and will instinctively call out to mother, father or to God if it has been so taught. As we become older we search for that assurance which comes from our turning to a higher and stronger power than our own self. Even the most uncivilized of people turn to some object or being as their symbol of that needed source of help.

The Family has been described as being somewhat like a book; with the children making up the pages and the parents being like the binding that would hold it all together into one of the most precious of all earthly ties.

Thinking about it in this light we could well say that love would be the substance that would make it all stay together in a happy and worthwhile way. When the parents cease to love each other and are torn apart then likely as not the leaves will soon be scattered and apart one from another.

Most of the trouble within families seems to come from the fact that they never had that close bond of family love holding them tightly together along the way.

It is said that we always hurt the ones we love. Whether this is always true or not we would not argue but it is a fact that we expect more from those near and dear to us than we would from just a friend. Too, we often expect that they be more patient and understanding with our

Aminotriazole and Stilbestrol

These two words have been in the news in recent months almost as frequently as Castro and Khrushchev. Incidentally, they too strike a note of fear in the minds of many. Aminotriazole is especially obnoxious to the National Cranberry Association. It is the name of the chemical which was used by cranberry growers for spraying purposes as a weed killer. Ample evidence was in the hands of the Food and Drug Administration that aminotriazole was a carcinogen and that it was a highly potent anti-thyroid drug. In other words, it was a chemical known to have produced cancer in rats and to have caused abnormal growth of the thyroid gland, as well as thyroid tumors in rats. These facts were also established by producers of the chemical seeking to market it. The producers of the chemical had requested that its use be allowed so long as the tolerance was such as not to be dangerous. That is, a request was made that a tolerance of one part per million of aminotriazole on apples, pears, and cranberries should be established. However, this was not allowed, because the compound had been determined to be a carcinogen and the tumors which resulted from its use on rats had been diagnosed as various types of adenoma and carcinoma.

It was only after extended faults than we would ask from a neighbor.

Parents never tire of doing things for their children if in return they receive a generous portion of love and appreciation. Children do not mind being held down or controlled a bit by the parents if they know without a doubt that love is the moving force behind the restrictions.

Yes, the family might well be called a book, and if it is to be a lasting book it must be knitted and cemented together with a generous mixture of love and consideration.

Trouble comes in many sizes. Some to fit us each and all. Our own seems great, mighty weighty. The other fellow's oh, so small.

One cotton farmer remembering the "Thirties" said that back then cotton was so cheap that even the rats wouldn't build a nest in it.

Always, the worst kind of trouble is our own, and the simplest problems to figure out are the other fellow's.

Maybe we can't be thankful for the trouble and the bad things which come our way, but we can always think of a lot of trouble which we do not have, if we will just look about us.

One of the easiest ways of getting bogged down in trouble is to be wading around in self pity.

Usually we have to move into the sunshine, a shadow can pass over us without our effort.

As a rule we have to get up early to find the good things in life but the bad things will always wait until we get there.

Sometimes it is less trouble to do right than to explain to everyone why you didn't.

conferences between representatives of the National Cranberry Association and the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare that the announcements concerning cranberries were made. There was of course a great furor because of business interruptions, but in all fairness it should be pointed out that all of the facts concerning this entire problem were known to the National Cranberry Association and, according to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, this organization was fully advised of the decision that the factual situation should not be withheld from the public. It might also be pointed out that the Food and Drug Administration has tested and cleared a total of 33.6 million pounds of cranberries found to be free of aminotriazole. It had instituted seizure action against 30 lots totalling 325,800 pounds as of January 26, 1960. Authorization has been given packers and distributors to show on the approved lots that the same have been certified "safe" by the United States Government.

Our next word, "stilbestrol," is short for the proper word "diethylstilbestrol" and is a synthetic hormone-like substance. Hormones are chemical substances created inside the animal's body and secreted into the blood stream. They help regulate such bodily processes as growth, rate of gain, and milk secretion. On January 30, 1947, after two years of study, the Food and Drug Administration authorized the use of stilbestrol pellets in poultry. It was known at that time that stilbestrol had been shown to produce cancer in test animals by oral administration. In treating poultry, the pellet was implanted immediately behind the skull of the bird with the thought in mind that the removal of the head would remove all traces of the stilbestrol. However, during investigations in 1950 and 1951 it was developed that minute amounts of stilbestrol remained in the liver of the treated birds. This residue was thought to be about 20 to 40 parts per billion, which was considered for all practical purposes the same as zero. Subsequently, stilbestrol was authorized for addition to the feed of beef cattle and later the Food and Drug Administration permitted the marketing of stilbestrol for implantation in the ears of beef cattle and sheep with directions that the ear not be used for food for man or animal. A subsequent development of assaying stilbestrol in animal tissue revealed that there was no residue in beef, but confirmed the presence of 20 to 30 parts per billion in the liver of chickens and 35 to 100 parts per billion in the skin fat of chicken. In 1958 Congress enacted a food additives amendment which in effect prohibited the Food and Drug Administration from approving new applications for the addition of stilbestrol to animal feed or drugs which leave residue in the edible part of treated animals. The Food and Drug Administration thereafter, working in coordination with poultry raisers, worked out a satisfactory policy whereby treated poultry, which was only about one percent of all the chickens on the market, could be removed. Therefore, it was possible to assure the public that poultry on the market could be purchased with confidence and that it was safe and wholesome.

These revelations were a part of the testimony of Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Arthur S. Fleming, before our Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. The hearings are in relation to bills designed to protect the public health. Other testimony will be taken with relation to color additives in lipsticks, as well as other additives to other foods, cosmetics, and drugs. The great ravages of cancer in recent years makes it most important that every safeguard be established to protect the health of Americans. The people should know all of the facts about the food that they consume and the cosmetics and drugs they use.

"Why have a complete soil and water conservation plan?"
Once, I watched the building of a small business house. The owner, hoping to cut corners, didn't get an architect to draw up a plan. As a result there have been many times when such things as doors and windows had to be re-located, new electrical outlets installed, or old ones moved.

A farm or ranch plan is even more important. Damage to the land can be very costly before a man catches up with the mistakes of doing the right thing at the wrong time.

A complete farm or ranch plan is the way a farmer or rancher, truly wanting to do a conservation job will go about it.

A complete farm or ranch plan will do these things that you can be sure of any other way!

1. It sets up a sequence of projects so as to get the most out of time and materials.

2. It gives the operator a goal toward which he can work, knowing that when he has reached it he will have accomplished something worthy of his best.

3. It gives a farmer or rancher a chance to grasp the full meaning of soil and water conservation to understand the reasons behind every step he takes in getting his plan done.

4. It gives him a finished product with all the parts fitted together for best in land production and efficiency in operation that modern know-how, both from a scientific and experience standpoint, has been able to come up with.

Like the fellow and his building, you may sometime be able to achieve a high degree of soil and water conservation on your land without a complete farm or ranch plan, but it probably will be at a price you can't really afford. And it won't have been the best deal for your land either.

For a complete conservation plan on your farm or ranch, contact the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Donley County Soil Conservation District.

ROY L. TAYLOR OF MATADOR ANNOUNCES FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Roy L. Taylor of Matador this week announced his candidacy for State Representative from the 88th District, consisting of Childress, Donley, Hall and Motley counties, and declared the major pledge in his campaign would be strong and unwavering opposition to a state personal income tax or retail sales tax.

Taylor, a life-long resident of Motley county, is a graduate of Matador High School, attended Texas Tech, and is presently completing work at the University of Texas in public accounting and business. He has been active in civic work, especially in youth work, having served as a district leader in Boy Scout work and having devoted many hours to service as a unit leader.

At the University of Texas he was president of the Men's Independent Campus Association and a member of Alpha Phi Omega, a national service fraternity, Intramural Council, Goodfellows and the "T" Association, the association of lettermen of the University of Texas.

Taylor, 26 years old, served two years in the U.S. Army from 1953 to 1955 and was released with 30 per cent disability. He is still a member of the United States Army Reserve.

While working his way through the University of Texas, Taylor has made an intense study of governmental affairs and is well acquainted with the work of the Legislature.

In his statement announcing his candidacy, Taylor declared:

"Many matters of great importance will come before the next legislature. These matters call for Representatives with deep convictions. They call for Representatives who can be trusted to stand firmly by what is right and honest in spite of pressure from political groups.

"Our state and nation is taxing our people beyond all reason. Too much of the taxpayer's dollar is being lost through waste, extravagance, inflation and corruption. We must put an end to this and to the parade of higher and higher taxes.

"Taxes at all levels of our government are too high, a condition which can be corrected only by a careful and complete examination of governmental operations, followed by positive action designed to give us a more efficient, economical and business-like system.

"This can be done only by legislators who will not be influenced by economic ties or special interest groups and who are free from political entanglements. If elected, I will work for the following ideals and proposals:

1. Opposition to a general retail sales tax and a personal income tax.
2. Support for the general recommendations of the Hale-Aiken School program with local control of schools guaranteed.
3. Elimination of inequities in the new auto insurance plan which the present Insurance Commission and the last Legislature failed to remedy.
4. Adequate pensions and medical care for our aged citizens.
5. Support for a progressive state highway program, including a continued expansion of the Farm-to-Market road system.

6. Retaining and improving the state cotton research program to find more commercial uses of cotton and its by-products.

7. Adequate legislation to insure conservation of our precious natural resources, with emphasis on soil and water conservation.

8. Business-like conduct of all the state activities, with faithful and diligent representation at all times.

"I feel that our ranchers and farmers are entitled to fair prices and fair treatment without being hamstrung by unnecessary state or federal interference and controls.

"Every citizen has a responsibility to choose carefully the men who will represent him in the operation of our state government. I will sincerely appreciate your serious consideration of my candidacy. I am campaigning in an effort to meet and talk with each and every person between now and election day, Saturday, May 7."

GEORGE'S WIFE

By "Sarah"

We get all tied in knots around this time of year, trying to figure out our reading material for another year. Since around Christmas time these specials have been coming to our mailbox from about every magazine that is published, seems like, to act now, send no money and you will receive their magazine, book, report, or whatever, for half price. We bit on a goodly number of them, now comes the bill, with rates for a year or more which are pretty steep for a farmer.

For example: Readers Digest, for so many weeks only $2.97. The weeks are not near up, but the bill is here, with an invitation to go ahead and take it for a year. Also you just have to join "Readers Digest Condensed Book Club." Otherwise, how can busy people who cannot take the time to read the book, be intelligently informed on the gist of the plot, in the best sellers.

U.S. News and World Report wants to know, before they extend our sub, just what we do for a living, what we build or make, and where our home office is located. Don't know if we will be able to get this one any more, after we fill out their blank.

Doane Agriculture Digest, say they can prove it to us. Show us how to make more money farming, that is, for only $12.50 per year. George won't take orders from nobody he don't have to any way, besides their deal wasn't a bargain to begin with.

"The Crown and the Cross" by Frank G. Slaughter, and a memorial fund have been given to the library in memory of Mrs. Ella McDowell.

Books for our teen-age readers have been bought with a memorial fund given in memory of Mr. Jim McMurtry.

Another of our library friends brought in five books, like new, and gave them to us.

The Pathfinder Club gave us a generous check. I know that all of you, who have read out of our library for years and have enjoyed every minute of it, join me in saying a heart felt "thanks" to this fine club. Without them we might not even have a library because as most of you know they started this one way back in 1923.

We have new books for our youngest, teen agers, both boys and girls and our adults fiction and non-fiction. It will not surprise you that non-fiction is read very little. Although some of it is much more interesting and better written than fiction.

For some reason most of us resist reading non-fiction like it was something to be avoided at all cost. Reading purely for enjoyment is fine but it wouldn't hurt to slip in something that taxed our brain once in awhile.

I am sure that Jack Parr fans, and they are legion, have heard a lot about Alexander King's "May This House Be Safe From Tigers." It is the same King. No, not quite, as he says he has mellowed since writing "Mine Enemy Grows Older." You can be the judge. He is still pointing up some evils that do need looking into. It would be nice if someone looked into our Federal Hospital at Lexington and checked just to see if he knows what he is writing about, and if he is right maybe some of us should write a letter or two. However you may feel about author King, everyone agrees on one thing, he is never dull.

Mr. Watts from the social security office left number of booklets that will answer about any question that any of you are in doubt about concerning your social security.

DISEASES COST COTTON FARMERS $147 MILLION

College Station — Diseases took a $147 million bite out of the 1959 Texas cotton crop, report 15 cotton specialists located throughout the state.

"Cotton diseases kept at least 879,000 bales of cotton from being marketed," said Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist, who compiled the information for the Cotton Disease Council. Besides the $147 million cash loss to producers, there were losses of business to farm labor, railroads, trucking companies, suppliers, compress companies, storage facilities and other phases of the industry. Diseases also were a major factor in grade reduction as well as a limiting factor in yield.

This loss occurred even though 1959 growing conditions were generally good as near record yields were harvested in many areas, Smith said.

Major diseases and estimated loss due to their effect on yield were bacterial blight, 5.91 percent; root rot, 4.43 percent; verticillium wilt, 1.85 percent; seedling diseases, 1.75 percent; and root knot, .50 percent. Other diseases causing losses were boll rot, fusarium wilt and ascochyta blight.

These average figures don't give the true picture because in areas where diseases struck the hardest losses ran into ruinous figures, pointed out Smith. For example, root rot was estimated to have caused a 25 percent loss in the Central Blackland area. The amount of root rot increased in many areas compared to 1958 losses. Ascochyta blight, a minor disease in past years, was a problem in several areas for the first time. Root knot, caused by nematodes, appears to be on the increase.
