Top Swine Breeding Stock Brought To Donley County

Vocational Agriculture Instructor J. R. Gillham, Fred Bourland, and Norman Burton returned Thursday night from a ten day trip into Iowa and Illinois where they visited over one hundred of the top swine breeding firms in the entire nation. Forty top boars and gilts in addition to a large group of barrows were returned to the county to use in the Swine breeding program sponsored by the local agriculture department. Hampshire boars from the herds of C. T. Keene, Lang and Son Prairie-Vue Farms, and Thies Hampshire Farms were returned for service here. The boar brought from Keene was from the reserve-grand champion of the Iowa State Fair and All American Aged Show in 1957, and the other animals carried equally illustrious breeding. Bourland, H. R. Riley, S. M. Fedric, and J. T. Hill are among those receiving hamp boars of nationally known breeding. Berkshire boars were brought for J. D. Duggins, A. G. Alexander, and W. H. Cooke, III. Chester white boars were secured for Edwin Eanes and Bobby Longan. Milton Mann and Jack Campbell secured spotted Poland China breeding stock; Carl Talley secured Poland China breeding animals, and Harold Morris, and Leldon Hudson secured top duroc breeding animals. Burton secured top york breeding animals.

The group of farmers cooperating with the Clarendon Chapter in the swine improvement program have produced more champion barrows in the Texas Shows during the past several years than any combination of groups and this has been made possible by the securing of top breeding stock from the top herds of the corn belt for use here. The work is sponsored by the vocational department as a part of its regular program of working with adult farmers.

Funeral Services Held At Abilene For Relatives Of Local Minister

Tragedy came four-fold to Bro. and Mrs. John L. Davis here Friday when they received word that four of their immediate family had died in a head-on collision near Seminole, Texas and a grandson was seriously injured in the accident.

Those who died in the accident were their daughter and husband, Capt. Paul Allen Dillard and Hester Davis Dillard and their daughter Dana 7, of Dyess Air Force Base, Abilene; and another son-in-law, E. W. Jacobs of Silver City, N. M. The Dillard's son, Randy 8, was seriously injured and at last report Wednesday, remained in a very serious condition in a Lubbock hospital.

The Dillard car was in collision with a car driven by James Orville Ray of Seminole. Ray and a companion Bert Gardner, were not seriously injured. Highway patrolmen said the Ray car swerved into the north lane of the highway and Dillard didn't have time to avoid the accident. The patrolman added that blood alcohol tests had been made on Ray.

Funeral services for all four victims of the accident were held at the Woodlawn Church of Christ in Abilene Monday afternoon with burial in the Abilene Cemetery.

Those from here attending the services in addition to Bro. and Mrs. John L. Davis were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Self, Mr. and Mrs. Wince Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hott, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bobbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gilbert, Mrs. L. M. Smith, Mrs. R. O. Thomas, Fred Bourland and Carl J. Saye.

CJC Comets Elect Captains For 1958-'59

The Comets, Clarendon Junior College's representative girls National AAU Basketball, have been working out daily the last three weeks, and are showing marked improvement. Last week, in order to point out and place responsibilities on the leaders of the team for the 1958-'59 season the members of the team held their election to select the captains. Janice Martin, a regular from last year's squad, and one of the most versatile, in that she was equally as efficient on both offense and defense was elected captain for the coming season. The other three sophomores, Virginia Sellers, from Hawley, Texas, Myrlene Nichols from Bula, Texas, and Nancy Challenor from Plano, Texas were named co-captains.

Virginia was one of our better shooters from the outside, and Myrlene was the high scorer for the Comets during the National Tournament last March. With these four sophomores leading the team this year and the freshman developing rapidly this early, the fortunes of the Comets could take on a much brighter outlook.

Dog Kills 190 Hens For Local Egg Producer

With everything but thanks to a neighborhood dog, Gordon Simpson now has 190 less laying hens and another 30 that probably will be added to the list.

The hen house involved is located at the Fred Russell place. Mrs. Russell heard the commotion about 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and Gordon's grandfather A. W. Simpson rushed to the hen house to see what was taking place. He found a neighborhood dog killing the hens and had to beat it to death to stop the onslaught. The dog had already killed 190 hens and 30 more were disabled and probably will have to be destroyed, Simpson stated. This brought the total to 220 out of 300 hens that were in this particular unit of the building.

Simpson stated that his loss would amount to over $300 loss the potential production from the hens as they had reached the age whereby they were producing the largest eggs.

This is just another example why Clarendon should have an ordinance against dogs running loose at random.

Longan And Talley Show Champions At Fall Pig Show

Bobby Longan and Carl Talley exhibited the grand and reserve grand champion barrows at the annual Donley County Fall Pig Show held at the Clarendon FFA Farm, Saturday, October 11th. Judge Norman Burton, Yorkshire Swine Breeder, from Canadian picked a 230 pound Poland China as the champion and a 230 pound berkshire as the reserve. Other champions were a Hampshire exhibited by Ronnie Tyra, Chester white and duroc exhibited by Gary Mahaffey, Spotted Poland China exhibited by Milton Mann, and yorkshire by Sammy Wells.

Longan also exhibited the grand champion pen of three, a Poland China group. Mahaffey exhibited his chester whites to the reserve grand championship in the pen division. Longan's entry was recently named the grand champion group of three at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo. Johnny Lee Stevens of the Hedley F.F.A. placed third with his group of three Polands.

Members of the Clarendon Future Farmer Chapter dominated the show winning all first and second places in the annual event. Other first place winners included Gary Longan 1st light hamp, Ronnie Tyra 1st heavy hamp, Sam Wells 1st in both york divisions, Bobby Longan 1st on lightweight chester, Gary Mahaffey 1st on heavy chester white, Gary Mahaffey 1st on both light and heavy durocs, Mahaffey 1st on light berkshires, and Talley 1st on heavy berkshires, Wells 1st on light Poland Chinas, and Bobby Longan 1st on heavy Poland Chinas.

Cross, a missionary to the Philippines; Mrs. B. W. Orrick, a missionary of Uruguay; Roe R. Beard, a missionary to the Cherokees; Dr. Ernest L. Ackiss, missionary to the mountaineers; and Ben J. Powerful White Deer Bucks To Invade Clarendon This Friday Night

Hedley Cotton Festival Great Success

This year's Hedley Cotton Festival which closed Saturday night, was termed one of the largest in the history of the celebration.

A large crowd gathered Saturday night to watch Patti Patton, 16, receive the crown of 1958 Festival Queen. Patti is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Patton of the McKnight community. She was named queen from a field of 19 candidates. In second place was Brenda White of Quail, followed by Jo Nan Woods of Hedley in third place. Patti will reign over the 1959 Cotton Festival. Mary Baker reigned as Queen of the festival this year.

Approximately 5,000 people viewed the parade Saturday which was termed the largest and best in the festival's history. Dorothy's Beauty Shop entered the first place float, second was the Security State Bank and the Hedley Lumber Co. float was named third.

Three bands were on hand for the parade, Clarendon, Memphis and Wellington. Memphis placed 1st, Clarendon 2nd and Wellington 3rd.

The Hedley Lions Club served an estimated 600 pounds of barbecued buffalo during the two-day event.

Before the festival came to a final end Saturday night, you could hear Hedley residents already planning a bigger and better event for 1959.

Colts To Play Lefors Here Tonight

The Jr. High Colts will take on the Lefors Villains here in Broncho Stadium tonight at 7 o'clock and will be doing their best to get back on the winning side of the ledger again.

Last Thursday night they were defeated by the Memphis Whirlwind 14-2. Memphis scored in the first and third periods and the Colts 2 points were acquired when they blocked a Memphis punt.

The Colts will end the season on October 23rd when the Claude Colts come to Clarendon. This game was originally scheduled to be played at Claude but will be played here instead.

The undefeated, and almost untested, White Deer Bucks, currently ranked as the number one Class A football team in the state, will come to town Friday night for what shapes up to be their fifth one-sided victory in six starts this season. Their intended victims, the Clarendon Bronchos. Kick-off will be promptly at 7:30.

The Bucks have every reason to believe they will have no trouble with the Bronchos. White Deer won their district last year, defeated Lefors in the bi-district, and was defeated by Ralls by the slender margin of 27 to 26 in the regional play-off game. This year the Bucks have been switched to District 2-A and are returning with most of their regulars from last year's fine team. The only close game the Bucks have played this season was their second game of the season when they were tied, 6 to 6, by the Stinnett Rattlers. In other games they have defeated Groom 36 to 0, Spearman 56 to 0, Shamrock 72 to 12, and Lefors 36 to 6. That comes to a total of 226 points to their opponents' 24.

In Allen Harmon and Herschel Powell, the Bucks have two of the best backs in the Panhandle. Powell alone has scored more points this season than has the Clarendon team. Clarendon, finally breaking into the win column for the first time this season last Friday night against a weak Memphis team, has scored only 46 points this season as compared to 68 for their opponents and 34 of those points came in the game last week.

Clarendon and White Deer have played two neutral opponents this year. Stinnett defeated the Bronchos 14 to 6 and tied the Bucks. However, in the other common foe, the Spearman Lynx, the Bronchos were defeated 8 to 0 while the Bucks ran at ease over the Lynx to the tune of 56 to 0.

The Bronchos will have to rely on their best known weapon to hold the score down Friday night. Clarendon has been known for several years as a fighting team. They never give up. Even in suffering five defeats in a row this year, the team never quit. Coach Jinks stated that that is what he is most proud of in his boys. The coach says that "if the boys play their best, then I will be satisfied regardless of whatever the score may be."

Friday night's game will probably see about the same starting line-up as last week's game with Memphis. This includes Ronnie Tyra and Wayne Mann at ends; Lynn Spier and Ted Weatherly or Jerry Gray at tackles; Milton Mann and Dennis Bradshaw or George Mays at guards; John Richerson at center; Neel Carter at Quarterback, Darrell Leffew and Dewey Wilson at halfbacks and John Morrow at fullback. Both Charles Percival and Bill Hermesmer are sure to see some service. Also, a possibility, will be the switching of Richerson to fullback and Morrow to halfback. Coach Jinks experimented with this combination last week and Richerson made the coach look good with two long gains although both were nullified because of penalties. Also, Morrow hit his stride last week and the big bruiser may give the Bucks some trouble this week. Carter has proven that he can take it with the big boys and the gritty little quarterback is gaining confidence and improving with every game. Wilson looked good last week and Leffew, along with a line headed by Milton Mann and Richerson, are ready to slow down the high-g geared White Deer offense.

PHI THEATA KAPPA SPONSORING CAKE DEAL AT FOOTBALL GAME

The Phi Theata Kappa will sell tickets for a cake at the football game Friday night. The money will be used for a scholarship fund.

Comanche District's Annual Election Of Officers

Members of the Comanche District Committee will elect their officers for 1959 at their meeting of October 21. The men chosen will lead the Districts Scout activities and program, on a District basis, for all Cub Scout Packs, Boy Scout Troops, and Explorer Posts in the District. The District Committee works primarily with the adult leaders of the Units.

The Election Meeting will be conducted on October 21, 1959, at 7:30 P. M. in the basement of the First Methodist Church of Wellington. Institutional Representatives, District Members at Large and Executive Board Members are urged to attend and cast their votes. Particularly the Institutional Representatives are urged to participate. While doing so they can full-fill one of the most important duties and obligations to which they owe the Scout Sponsoring Institutions.

Some of the Foundation Planning for the Second Annual District Meeting and Banquet will be made at this session of the District Committee. Another grand event for the Leaders of Scouting is expected this year.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Texas State Dept. of Health
Henry A. Holle, M. D., Com.

With the blanks unfilled, Form Number 68-R573 is nothing but rows of cold and impersonal lines of type on a printed page.

It is only when a doctor enters a boy or girl's name, or a man or woman's—an age—an address—a telephone number—that Form 68-R573 relates its story of personal tragedy and human error.

Form Number 68-R573 is impressively titled "Polio-myelitis Surveillance Case Record." More simply it is the State Health Department's way of keeping checks on victims of the disease which by all right of reason should be practically a thing of the past.

Seventy-two times so far this year the form has lost its impersonal character and become grimly personal. At first blush you may think 72 cases of polio among some eight million Texans is an insignificant number.

But is it really? Can even a single case be "insignificant" when it costs an active youngster the use of arms or legs, or an adult the ability to support a family?

The thing that heightens the tragedy is that it might have been avoided. That's where the human error, or "apathy," or "ignorance" comes in.

Like a 37-year-old North Texas man who firmly insisted that all four of his children be properly vaccinated, while at the same time complacently considering himself too old to be in danger. Now his name, age, address, and telephone number fill blanks on Form 68-R573. There is also a check mark in the "bulbar" square on the form.

Or like the 13-year-old Little League infielder and his 3-year-old sister, neither of whom had had a single shot of vaccine. It would have added hurt to injury to ask their parents why.

This human error—and that is the charitable name for it—has caused one major manufacturer of Salk vaccine to discontinue production of the vital fluid for which parents all over the nation were piously praying just a few short years ago. The reason: vaccine stocks simply are not being used. By the literal gallons, vaccine is growing old and impotent on drug store shelves.

It is a sad thing to see the polio surveillance forms come in each week. It is sadder still to reduce people to numbers for publication and mailing each Thursday to city and county health officers of Texas and to the Federal government.

Somehow it makes you think of those famous lines by Whittier—"Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: 'It might have been!'"

During the Spanish-American War, the first landing in Cuba was made by Huntington's Battalion of Marines at Guantanamo Bay.

John Philip Sousa, the march King, was for sometime leader of the Marine Band.

MRS. CLIFFORD EUGENE ODOM

Skelton - Odom Vows Solemnized

Marriage vows were solemnized for Miss Paula Skelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Skelton, and Clifford Eugene Odom, son of Mrs. Marvin Land, Alamogordo, New Mexico, at the First Methodist Church here at 7 o'clock last Saturday evening.

The Rev. Conrad M. Ryan officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Mantie Graves played the pre-nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Ray Moore as she sang "Because" by Guy D'Hardelot. The bridal couple knelt at the altar while Mrs. Moore sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Albert Hay Malotte. Traditional wedding marches were used.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums interspersed with palms of emerald banked the altar rail and white satin bows marked the aisle pews. White cathedral candles in wrought-iron candelabra were lighted by Sandy Skelton, brother of the bride, and Mike McCleskey.

Flower girls, Candy Skelton, the bride's sister, and Christina Moore, wore turquoise taffeta dresses with matching headbands embroidered with seed pearls. They carried baskets containing rose petals.

Miss Mary Frances McCully of Dallas, maid of honor, wore a turquoise taffeta dress fashioned with a scoop neckline and back fullness ballooning from an empire bow to the hem. Her half-trimmed and haloed with net. She carried a cascade of shasta mums with white satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Bettie Odom, Alamogordo, New Mexico; Mrs. Wayne Moore, Canyon; Miss Sandra Oswald, Clinton, Oklahoma; and Miss Tommy Short, Amarillo. Wearing dresses and hats identical to those of the maid of honor, they carried crescent bouquets of shasta mums with satin ribbons tied in love knots. Miss Odom and Mrs. Moore are sisters of the groom.

Wayne Moore, Canyon, was best man. Sharing ushering duties were Walton Crain, Robert Bell, Richard Vallance, and John Payne.

The mother of the bride wore a sheath of mauve lace over satin with a matching hat. Mrs. Land, mother of the groom, was dressed in flight blue lace with accessories of the same color. Both had corsages of pink roses.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with a sculptured bodice and wrist-tapered sleeves of imported Alencon lace flecked with iridescent sequins. The hem of her cone-shaped skirt was appliqued with Alencon lace and flowed to a chapel train. The bride's chapel length veil of imported illusion was caught by a bandeau of encrusted iridescent sequins. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Sandra Johnson and Miss Janice Oswald, Clinton, Oklahoma, from a table covered with a hand-made Irish linen cut-work cloth. White and Hebbard roses in a crystal epergne on a silver stand centered the wall-side of the table which was light-

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

We received a book recently that I've searched my mind to see if I ever knew him. The donor was just "signed Williams" with a New York City address. I'll write a card of thanks. This is a $6.50 book "And There Was Light" written by Rudolf Thiel a German scientist now living in Darmstadt. The book was translated from German by Richard and Clara Winston. It is a detail-study of the universe. Our library received quite a number of gifts that we could not possess otherwise.

This week we had several small donations. Then a generous donation of books. There were about thirty books of fiction, and those that were duplicated sent to the Claude Library as we are quite limited in space. The Library has had a Doubleday Dollar Book Club membership until recently and we dropped it. We had held a membership for three years previous to 1958. Then for over a year we have had a Literary Guild membership. The books are cheaper in this way.

The Guest Book Reviewer for "The Speaking of Living Club" in Amarillo Thursday, reviewed "Face Toward Spring" by Faith Baldwin. We have possessed a copy of this several months. If you have not read it do so.

Fred Gipson's "Old Yellow," is bringing him fame, publicity and cash. We have all his books.

We have a collection of many most recent books, and it is only 25c for three months reading with the Library.

LELIA LAKE SCHOOL NEWS

When school resumes there will be a new selection of books from the Teen-Age Book Club from which to choose. Eleven junior and senior high students took part for the first month, and it is expected that several more will get in on the November volumes. The previous books may be secured, this time only. Students in the upper elementary grades take part in the Arrow Book Club. Both of these fine clubs are operated by Scholastic Magazines, which publish World Week, used by freshmen and sophomores, and other excellent publications.

The seniors have selected and cast their play, "Here Comes Charlie", which is a long-time favorite. They have been busy, along with others, in a number of other activities. One senior, Jean Fox, and one sophomore, Lena Ivey, were contestants in the queen's race at the Hedley Cotton Festival on Oct. 11. Lena rode on the second place float, sponsored by the Security State Bank. Also in the parade were Jerry and Buster Shields.

Many activities beckon in inviting fashion, including the basketball games and the general atmosphere of autumn weather, when cotton sacks are thrown aside once more and leisure time is at a premium. In the meantime, autumn winds blow toward Christmas. Melvin R. Mathis

Upon the establishment of the Marines by Congressional resolution in 1775, Captain Samuel Nicholas was ordered to recruit two battalions of Marines.

Bronchos Finally Win One; Beat Memphis 34-6

The Clarendon Bronchos, led by their power-house fullback, John Morrow, deflated the Memphis Cyclones at Memphis last Friday night with a decisive 34 to 6 victory. It was the first win in six starts this season for the Bronchos and leaves Memphis still winless for the season.

Morrow paced the Broncho attack with three touchdowns, one a 69 yard run, and one conversion. He piled up a total of 151 yards rushing on 12 attempts. Dewey Wilson, fleet little halfback, added 84 yards on 13 tries, and the mighty-mite, Neel Carter, completed four of six passes for 85 yards and two touchdowns. The Bronchos completely dominated the game, rolling up 372 yards from scrimmage to 180 for Memphis and making 19 first downs to 11 for the home team.

The Bronchos were jittery at the start and it looked like it might be another long night for the Clarendon followers. Morrow received the opening kick-off and fumbled with Memphis recovering on the Broncho 18 yard line. However, two plays later the Bronchos returned the compliment and covered a Memphis fumble on the 20 and from there they marched 80 yards for their first score with Carter throwing 18 yards to Wayne Mann for the score. Morrow's attempted run for the conversion failed, but the Bronchos were ahead for the first time this season.

Early in the second quarter, the Bronchos put on another 80 yard drive with Morrow going the last six for the score. This time Wilson made the extra points. The next time the Bronchos got their hands on the ball, they rolled 57 yards for the score with Morrow again making the final 5 yards to pay-dirt. Darrell Leffew's try for the extra points failed and the Bronchos were leading 20-0 at the half.

Soon after the third period began, the Bronchos took over on downs on their own 31 yard line and on the first play, Morrow broke through the middle of the Cyclone line and outran the Memphis defenders for a nifty 69 yard scoring jaunt. Carter skirted left end for the conversion, making the score 28 to 0. At this point, Coach Tom Jinks began juggling his line-up, alternating both Morrow and Leffew at quarterback, and moving center John Richerson to fullback. The big center looked good at the new post. He made a 33 yard run but had it called back because of a holding penalty.

In the fourth period, Coach Jinks cleared his bench. With Carter the only regular in the line-up, the young Bronchos scored with Carter hitting Bill Hermesmeier with a touchdown pass on a play that covered 25 yards. The Cyclones finally scored on the Broncho second unit. With but 26 seconds left on the scoreboard clock, quarterback Dick Morgan hit his right end, Don Deaver in the end zone for the only Memphis score.

Defensive standouts for the Bronchos were Richerson, Milton Mann, Lynn Spier, Ted Weatherly, Morrow and Leffew.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitlock of Amarillo visited Friday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Whitlock.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

by Uncle Zeb

It seems that most everyone who reads this column wants me to report on our trip to Big D and the State Convention. As all of you know like unto the way some folks want to talk about their operation we like to talk about our last trip or for that matter any place we have visited. Dallas being the last we will get it off our fingers, perhaps we should say or chest.

In the last four years we have attended all of the Conventions which we were entitled to take part. This added up to a total of eight and has taken us to every part of the state and a lot of criss-crossing back and forth. This has been the grandest opportunity to know our great and glorious Lone Star State better. We know now how big it is and we can't even imagine how Alaska could claim to be larger.

Of all the towns in which a Convention has been held since we have been attending Big D is by far the largest. They boast the slogan that 642,000 happy Dallas folks can't be wrong about the best place to live. We believe they are all there; not at home but on the streets and highways. Most of them must of had country cousins visiting with them while we were there. The Convention, the Fair, the ball games, and the big time shows helped to over-pack every place.

Speaking of the towns in which we have attended Conventions we say this; the smaller towns roll out the carpet, so to speak. They put out the welcome mat and try to make you feel like somebody come. It takes quite an effort to take care of the folks. Big D and like towns scarcely know that you are there. You are just a part of the usual.

But we did have fun, and we saw so many things that were

Swank Impala hardtop sedan NEWEST IN '59 CHEVY MODELS

In 1959, Chevrolet offers a complete Impala series in its array of 14 passenger cars. The top-flight member of this new series is the smartly styled sport sedan. Additional models in this line include the convertible, sport coupe and a four-door sedan. This luxury model is more spacious with an exciting new wrap-around rear window, a sleek flat top and de luxe interior appointments. New paint retains brilliance up to three years. Mechanical advancements of improved brakes, new suspension and easier handling point to a luxury liner that is marked for top popularity.

new to us. Just the bigness of the place was something to behold. As Tennessee Ernie Ford would say, "You could shore stack a lot of hay in that place." By the way, among other things, we saw Ernie and his show in person at the Cotton Bowl. That was sumpin'. But even though we never saw any hay stacked around we pretty well took in the place. We made lots of wrong turns in the wrong places and a few right turns in the wrong places and you can get hit quicker by doing the un-expected than for any other thing in this traffic.

Everybody seems to be going someplace, I hope they all know where, but when you try to get information as to where you are going none of them seem to know. Everyone seems to know what street to use to and from the places they go regularly but they know little and care less about the rest of town. We learned one thing for sure; there are lots of places that you just can't get to from where you are. You have to drive blocks to find a new beginning. But, after we stored the car and rode taxis we made it fine till we ran out of money.

We enjoyed the Broadway play The Music Man on complimentary tickets from the Publicity Department and the folks we write for. This was especially good as a show and much much better on the free ticket as our seats were selling for $4.95 each. Good seats and right down front. It was beautiful and pleasant to listen to. Never having seen or heard a broadway musical we liked it real special.

Speaking of Dallas we understand that the town started way back in the Indian days and that a Mr. Somebody whose name we did not remember built a log cabin down on the Trinity River banks and started selling perfume, soap and whiskey to the Indians. Although there are few Indians around the place nowadays there is still a thriving business being done in the same commodities; especially the latter. I was surprised to see beer sold all over the fair ground itself. This made me appreciate my West Texas Fair all the more.

We enjoyed the Fair from the unbelievable Automobile building to the fantastic freaks on the Midway. On one day which was Youth Day it was hard for your feet to touch the ground for the push, but it was fun. We were really proud of our own panhandle girl Miss Paula Obrecht who went all the way to the finish to win the state wide 4-H Club Dress Revue. We even got to see this show and to go back stage and greet this fine young lady.

To go back to a Convention and meet all the friends we have made is the best of all. New friends from all over the state who come each time to share their joys and problems and to enjoy the occasion together. It seems that always we have good speakers. Like this time we had both senators Yarbrough and Johnson. Also Gov. Daniel, Marshall Formby, John C. White and others from our state set-up. These along with many others made a good program.

Personally, we think that Conventions are a good thing. There is lots and lots of help for anyone who goes to learn something. There are good times and enjoyable fellowship for everyone. Of course you have the low and the bad in all such occasions. As for us, we think that each group should strive for habits and ideals that fit its profession. But good and bad averaged out we have loved the Conventions.

Pecos Redfish Shows Success Of Transplant

AUSTIN — Indications of success in transplanting a salt water fish species into an inland river came with a recent report of a redfish being taken from the Pecos River, according to the Director of Inland Fisheries of the Game and Fish Commission.

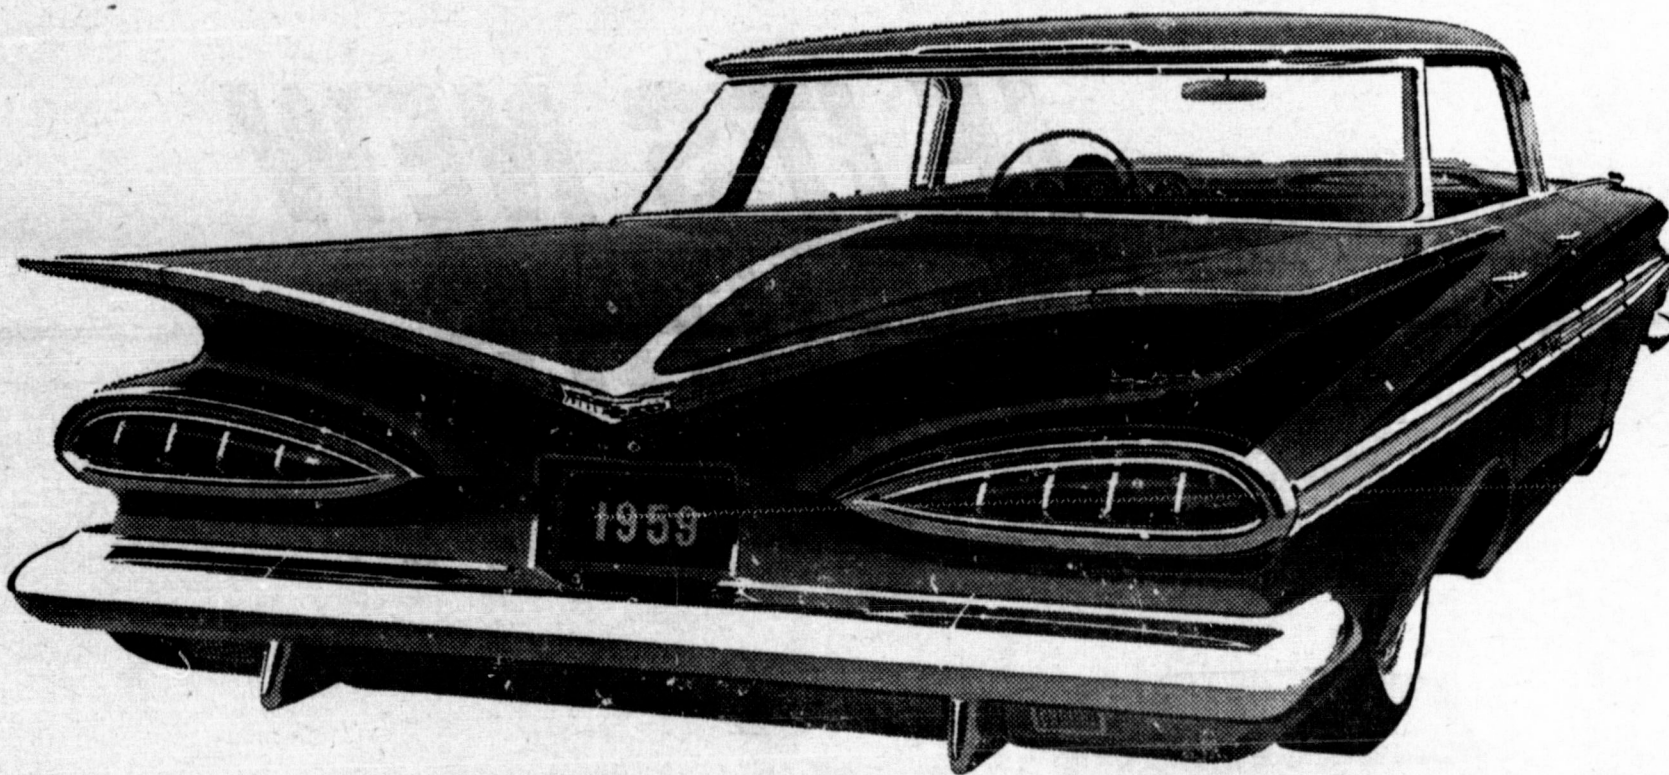

Caught by Bill Russell of Midland, the redfish weighed three and one-half pounds and was 21 inches long. This is one of a large number of fingerling redfish placed in the Pecos River near Imperial in 1956 to learn if a salt water fish could adapt to this inland body of water. The Pecos River has a high salt content due to the nature of its watershed.

"These fish have shown amazing growth," the director said. "It is doubtful that there will be reproduction because of improper habitat."

Federal aid project plans call for more transplants of redfish, but no fry have been found in any numbers along the coast as yet, the director said.

"Agriculture is the most helpful, the most useful, and the most honorable employment of man."

TRAFFIC SAFETY
Few people realize the terrible toll being exacted by traffic accidents in this country. Last year 38,500 human lives were lost because of traffic accidents. During the first 6 months of 1958, 16,240 people had given up their lives to the highways and roads. This pace for 1958 did reduce the total casualties for the year by some seven percent. However, the chances are that the annual number of fatalities will not be measurably reduced below 1957. One of the high traffic death months is yet to come. It is December. Unless the people become more alert and more vigorous in their efforts to avoid further fatalities, the number of traffic deaths for 1958 could very well increase over 1957.

Last year $55,000,000 was lost in wages by persons killed or injured in traffic accidents. Medical expenses of $150,000,000 were incurred. Eighteen million drivers were involved in 10,200,000 accidents.

Automotive traffic killed more people last year than all communicable diseases put together. What is to be done about it?

This is a question that has plagued every community, every state, and the federal government, and it will continue to plague them unless some answer is found. It is true that percentage-wise the deaths and injuries have been reduced. That is, our population has been increasing and we also have more motor vehicles on the highways; yet, there has not been a corresponding increase in the number of deaths. However, regardless of the number of automobiles on the highways and the number of people in this country, it is inexcusable that approximately 40,000 lives must be sacrificed each year in this manner.

The federal government had not taken any active steps concerning this problem because it was considered to be a matter solely within the jurisdiction of the states. And, it can be said that this was at least one facet of states' rights which the federal government had been willing to leave to the states. But the traffic toll continued to increase, and the federal government decided to try to be of assistance in solving it. The Congress created a Subcommittee on Traffic Safety to look into the problem. This we did in an effort to uncover some means by which the over-all problem could be attacked, effectively.

We found, among other things, that there was a great deal of confusion with relation to the different laws, rules and regulations prevailing in the several states, as well as within the several communities within the states. Realizing that the matter rests primarily within the jurisdiction of the states because most of the traffic is intrastate, we did not make any effort to pass federal legislation to supercede and override the laws of the several states. The Congress did pass a law authorizing interstate compacts to be entered into, hoping that this would provide a means by which the states could work together toward a degree of uniformity in the laws, rules and regulations. This would serve measurably in helping to curtail accidents. I sincerely hope that the states will take some affirmative action under this compact authority. I have always been a strong advocate of states' rights, but I do realize that unless effective action is taken by the states, there will be a great clamor for the federal government to move in and adopt traffic legislation on interstate highways that would constitute a further encroachment on states' rights. Once this is done, it can be expected that further centralization of power concerning vehicles will follow. I have reference to title certificates, registrations, driver's licenses, etc.

The cause of eighty percent of the fatal accidents is being charged to the operators of the vehicles, and only twenty percent to the vehicles, the road conditions, bad weather, etc. The federal government already has the power to make certain requirements concerning safety standards to be met relative to vehicles being transported in interstate commerce but, being confronted with the figures indicating that defects in the vehicles themselves constitute only a small percentage of the cause of accidents, it would probably be assumed that safety legislation as to the vehicle itself would not be much aid in the solution of the problem. The point is that if the operator is responsible for eighty percent of the accidents, something must be done to effectively deal with that part of the cause. Some do not believe that eighty percent of the accidents are the result of the operator's fault, but that argument is really beside the point. What is needed is some action to halt the march of the Grim Reaper. Unless the states do take some action to provide uniformity in the operation of these vehicles, it can be expected that the people will do as they have done in several other instances. They will come to Washington and demand that the federal government take over. It is for that reason I hope the states will act without delay.

100 Years Ago in Texas

October 12-18, 1858
The Dallas Herald thinks that if the Houston Convention to be held next May, is to make a proper selection for Governor, it is time the people should begin to talk about it. A little "tickling" by the press would no doubt set the wire pullers in motion.

The Gonzales Enquirer says business is looking up, and thinks the planters in that county will invest liberally in Railroad stock before the close of another year.

ON FORAGE CROPS AND GRASSES IN TEXAS

The culture of forage plants is an essential part of a good system of improved independent agriculture, without which really no perfection in this latter is possible. It is very properly remarked, in the Patent Office Report of 1855, p. xii, that already in old times, Cato declared the best system of farming to be "bene pascere," translated to graze well, or to procure food for cattle.—This may indeed be called the good part of farming.

The last three years have shown that even the natural sources of food for cattle in Texas—the prairies, were not sufficient to keep cattle from starving and perishing, particularly where the free range for cattle was overstocked, as in the more settled parts of the country; and the complaint in such parts was frequently heard, "the range is getting too bad for cattle."

Of the numerous convictions for the Penitentiary, at the present term of our District Court, not a single one was a citizen of Bexar

County. They were either all brought here for trial, or were transient persons here, when they committed the crimes for which they are to be punished.

The Houston Telegraph of the 6th inst. says, there are about twenty cases of fever in that city, nearly all doing well. Three deaths had occurred up to that time.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC
After several years experiment in the manufacture, of Gin, I fortunately succeeded in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture, by which it was deprived of its acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the title of WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS.

Plymouth Adds New Line of Luxury Cars

Plymouth's new line of luxury cars, the Sport Fury models, will be shown to the public for the first time October 16 in dealer showrooms throughout the country. This new Sport Fury 2-door hardtop has styling innovations from the massive front bumper and the smart grille all the way to the new, outward-canted tail fins. The new compound windshield curves into the roof as well as wrapping around the sides. The Sport Fury models introduce to the low-price field swivel front seats as standard equipment. Swivel seats are optional on four other models. All Plymouth models have improvements which reduce operating costs and at the same time improve performance.

PETROLEUM—basic to the needs of our time

Oil and natural gas have powered most of the great technological advances of modern times; petroleum hydrocarbons have transformed the dreams of inventors into the realities of engineers . . . Today, in the United States, oil and natural gas provide about 75% of the country's energy requirements; and large quantities of oil, available for production beyond immediate need, are necessary to the national security.

An obvious example is the gasoline that powers our automobiles; another is the diesel fuel burned by post-war railway engines. But do not overlook electric power plants, the airplane, whether jet or propeller driven, factory power plants, farm mechanization, and the revolution since World War II in home heating devices. Oil provides the energy that moves the trucks, airplanes, ships and tanks of our Armed Forces.

But petroleum as a source of energy is only part of the story. In the past two decades, the petrochemicals have supplied the country with a vigorous new industry: already most of our rubber is made from petrochemicals . . . the ubiquitous plastics derive from petroleum products . . . paraxylene, a petrochemical, is the raw material for one of the most useful of the new fabrics. In this area, wonders never cease; the petrochemicals contribute more each year to the efficiency, comfort, and convenience of modern living.

Thus, oil's progress has made other progress possible all along the front of American industry . . . Petroleum is the American resource that is basic to the needs of our time . . . that is essential to our national security.

The Humble Company, established in 1917, has developed with the industry.

Humble's exploration activities extend from Florida around the rim of the country to California, Oregon and Washington, and beyond to the new State of Alaska . . . The Company is a leader in the production of oil and gas in the United States . . . Humble Pipe Line Company is a public carrier transporting not only Humble's oil but that of many other companies and independent producers to Gulf Coast terminals . . . Baytown refinery is one of the nation's great manufacturing plants . . . And Humble is a marketer in the Southwest, supplying the needs of motorists in modern service stations.

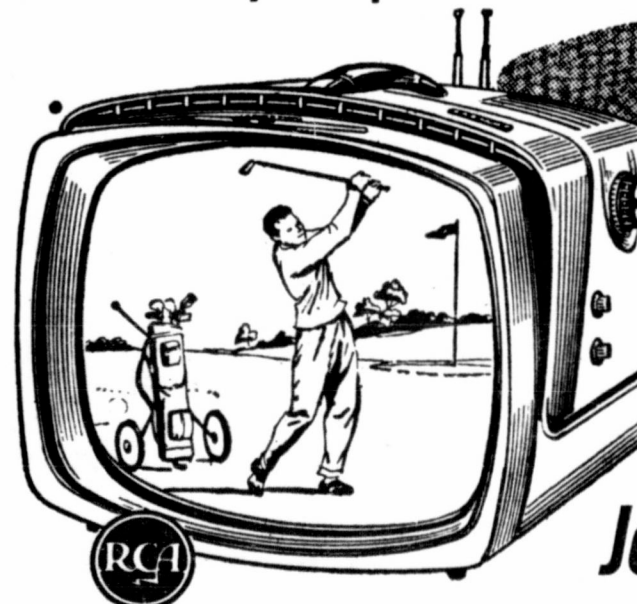

The Humble Company believes strongly in research, maintains two outstanding research facilities, and annually budgets considerable sums for this activity . . . Humble research has made substantial contributions to the discovery, production, and utilization of petroleum.

The time to order trees for farmstead windbreaks will soon be here in the Donley County Soil Conservation District. Several persons in the area have indicated a desire to plant tree seedlings early next year. Mrs. Ora Bray whose farm is located in the Goldston Community is planning to plant a farmstead windbreak.

Farmstead windbreaks protect the farm home from cold winds, blowing dust and will make the home look more attractive, convenient, and comfortable.

A good stand of trees and shrubs on the north and west sides of the home will greatly reduce hazards of blowing dust.

Cooperators who are interested in getting windbreaks established should contact their County Agricultural Agent or local Soil Conservation Service Technicians within the next two months. Application forms may be obtained from these offices.

AUSTIN — Into and out of the State Supreme Court flow many of the most controversial issues of the day. Public officials, large corporations and important persons frequently are affected by the decisions.

After a two-months summer recess the high court reconvened this month and waded into a stack of disputes. Among interesting cases either decided or due to be decided are these:

WATER RIGHTS are involved in a case filed by Southern Canal Co. of Houston against the State Water Board. Southern Canal wanted a permit to take 280,110 acre feet of water per year from the Trinity River for industrial use in the Houston area. Water Board refused the request, and the company appealed to the courts.

Upstream cities such as Dallas and Fort Worth had opposed the Houston company's request when it was before the Board. Oral arguments were centered on whether the courts have the right to review Water Board decisions. Supreme Court's ruling will have implications for every person interested in the course of Texas' water development.

KEEPING ROOMERS and setting up a church in a residential area were the cause of contention in two cases from Houston. In both cases certain property owners in university neighborhoods argued that other property owners were violating deed restrictions.

Lower courts ruled in favor of the room renters and church builders. Supreme Court agreed to review the roomers' case and denied a motion to force the lower court judge to move the student religious center.

IFICE-SEEKERS had their inning in the usual contests arising out of the year's elections. George Parr, a familiar figure in the courts, won the right to a new trial in his effort to be certified winner in a 1956 election for Duval County sheriff.

Laredo Attorney William Wright lost out in an attempt to force Sec'y of State Zollie Steakley to place his name on the general election ballot as a Constitution Party candidate for district judge. Steakley had refused on grounds Wright voted in the Democratic primary.

Myron Love, choice of Houston liberals, won out in a dispute over the legality of his selection as Democratic nominee for district judge. Harris County Executive Committee had ruled that no candidate filed in time for this office, and Love was nominated by the one-man District Executive Committee. Conservative forces had contested this method.

DAMAGE SUITS, labor-management controversy also commanded judicial attention. A gas explosion in the basement of Dallas' Baker Hotel, back in 1946, is the basis for one suit in which 83 petitioners ask some $1,000,000 for deaths and injuries. High court sent it back to district court for new trial.

In Houston 311 workers of the AFL-CIO Office Employees Union picketed a construction project to protest the firing of one man. A lower court granted an injunction against the picketers, and the Supreme Court refused to interfere.

BETTER TRAVELING DAYS AHEAD

Holding promise of better traveling days ahead is the 1961-62 interstate advance planning program announced by the State Highway Commission.

Commission authorized the preliminary engineering studies for 285 miles of new interstate highways, consisting of 45 projects in 22 counties. Included in the advance planning will be completion of the gaps in the interstate highways between Dallas and Houston, Dallas and Texarkana

WATER SAFETY LAW DUE
Some 280,000 Texas boat owners will have to obtain licenses for their craft if a proposed Uniform Water Safety Act is enacted by the 1959 Legislature.

Representatives of sportsmen's organizations, trade associations and safety groups drafted the measure. It is to be introduced by Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas.

State Highway Department would have responsibility for registering boats. Enforcement of safety regulations would be the job of the state's various peace officers and game wardens.

Zoning—the restriction of skiing, racing, fishing, etc., to various areas—was omitted from the bill.
