HIGHEST LIONS HONOR TO BOB HOPE

Comedian Bob Hope accepts the 1971 Lions International Humanitarian Award from Dr. Robert D. McCullough of Tulsa, Oklahoma, President of the world's largest humanitarian service organization.

The award was given to Hope for his continuous efforts and work in behalf of sight conservation and eye research, one of the major concerns of Lions Clubs throughout the world.

The presentation was made recently in Washington, D.C., because film commitments will prevent Hope from attending the Lions world convention in Las Vegas next week.

Farm News

from County ASCS Com.

Listing and Chiseling

Because most tillage done at this time of year is routine farming practices done in preparation for planting crops, the County Committee is no longer accepting applications for the Emergency Tillage Practices.

If you have made application for any of these practices, be sure to check your approval for the final date to report completion of the practice.

Final Planting Dates

June 10 was considered the end of the normal planting period for cotton. If you are unable to plant because of the drought or other disaster conditions, you may file a request for acreage credit after this date. The request must be filed by June 25, 1971.

Certification

As soon as you have planted your crops and know what you will use for set-aside, come to the office and make your final certification. You can begin making payments soon after July 1, and the earlier you certify, the earlier you will receive your payments this year. Remember, as soon as you have made your certification, the farm is subject to spot check, and there will be no opportunity to adjust acreage. Be sure that you have measured the crops carefully. If you are unsure of the acreage you may want to request measurement service which is available.

Non-Participating Farms

If you did not sign up in the 1971 set-aside programs, you will receive a double postcard. If you have any of the crops listed on the card planted, complete it and return it to us. You will then be given history credit where it is needed.

Howardwick Lions Charter Nite June 11, One To Remember

Howardwick — With more than one inch of hard-falling rain splashing down during Charter Night ceremonies, and with the storm warning whistle blowing in Clarendon, and tornadoes all over the Texas Panhandle, the Howardwick Lions calmly received their charter this past Friday evening, June 11, 1971.

In a great show of true Lions' spirit, more than 180 people from 14 cities in the area traveled to Syd Blue's for the ceremonies.

Carl A. Dwyer, Deputy District Governor, was the Master of Ceremonies, and his wit was never more appreciated than on this stormy night. Other notable present, and participating in the presentation of the charter, were: Jack Riley, District Governor; Ed Flood, Past District Governor; and Boyd Meador also a past District Governor.

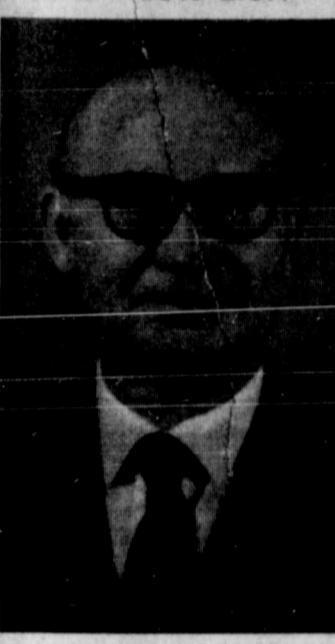

Officers from the Hedley Lions, the sponsoring club for the Howardwick Club, were on hand to see that everything ran smoothly.

Accepting the charter was Glenn Doty, president of the new club; many gifts were presented from the various clubs. The American Flag was a gift from the Clarendon Club, and from the Hedley Club came the gavel and bell.

Although the affair ran over three hours, there was never a dull moment, and the Howardwick Lions surely must have received one of the most stimulating send-offs that would ever be possible.

Each and all members of the Howardwick Club are appreciative to the sponsoring club, the Hedley Lions, and to all of the people from over the district who braved the weather to give this new club encouragement and support.

Guar Meeting Tonight June 17, 7:30 p.m.

There will be a meeting held this Thursday night, June 17th, on production of guar. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Room of the Farmers State Bank and Trust Company.

Mr. Herb Partridge, agronomist with General Mills, will show slides on guar production and will be able to answer any questions concerning production of guar.

Due to the fact that many farmers have lost their cotton in recent rains and the fact that set-aside acres can be planted to guar and harvested this year, guar may have a definite place in farming operations in the area.

Anyone who thinks they would be interested in guar production should make plans to attend this meeting.

Public Schools Are Advised of New Law For Vaccinations

Superintendent Arling Cordell has received notification of a new law recently passed by the legislature in regard to vaccination for all students enrolled in public schools and institutions of higher learning.

The new law requires that Oral Polio vaccine for children grades one through five must have had the last dose since age 4. The same applies to Diphtheria and Tetanus; Measles or Rubella vaccine at anytime and Smallpox within 10 years.

For children grades six and above for Oral Polio vaccine since age 4, for Diphtheria within 10 years, Measles and Rubella through age 12, and Smallpox within 10 years.

All vaccinations should be completed by the time school is entered. However, if this is not possible, all students will be allowed to enter their respective school systems during the summer and fall 1971 terms with the provision that vaccine against at least one of the mentioned diseases will have been started by January 1, 1972 and all completed as soon as medically feasible.

Since many types of personal vaccination records are in use today, any documents the vaccine recipient has should be acceptable during the 1971-72 school year. The signature by rubber-stamp validation of personal records by physicians or public health clinics is recommended but not required until the summer of 1972.

A new standard Certificate of Immunization form is being developed; however compatible documents will always be acceptable.

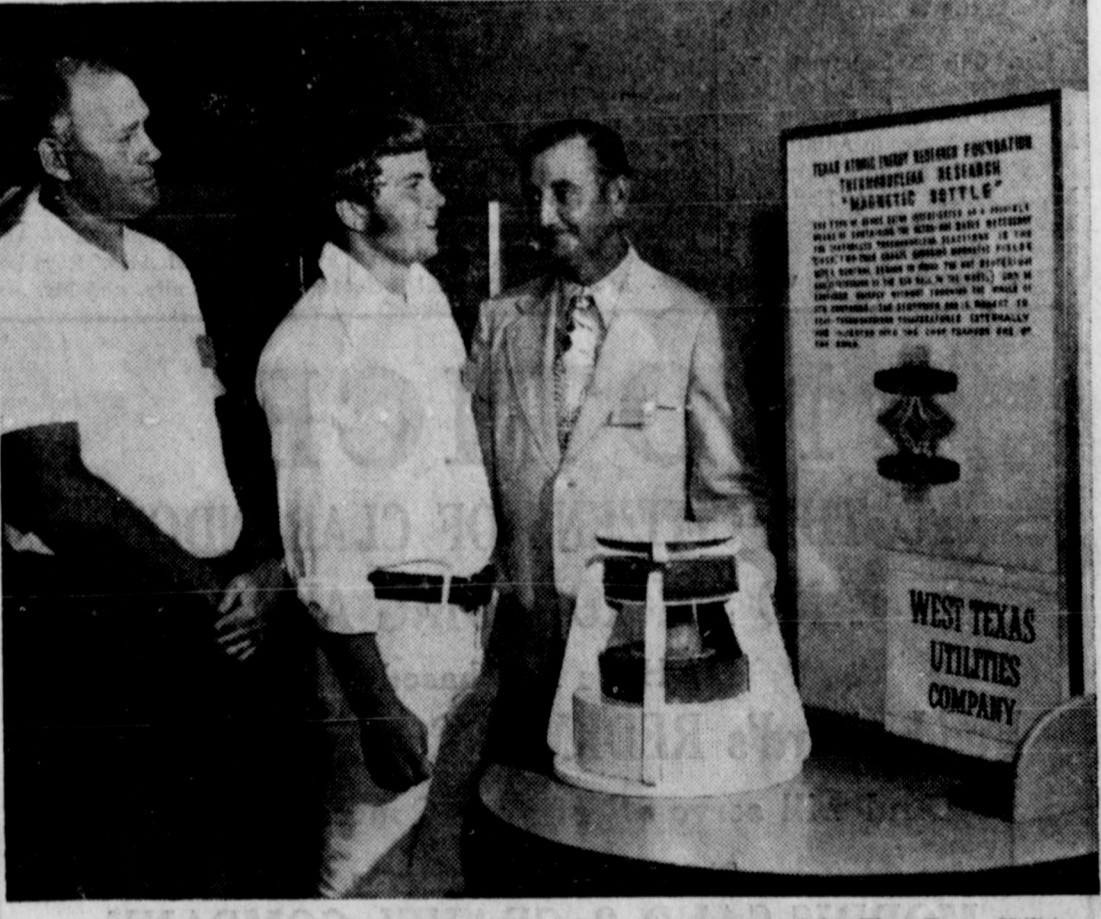

Supt. Cordell stated that the school will be sending out letters to all school patrons explaining the new law and advises that you should be checking your mail for these letters prior to the beginning of school.

Soil Fertility Studies Offers Good Benefits

A wealth of information on soil fertility has evolved from studies at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. And good soil fertility is one of the major contributors to high crop yields on the Texas High Plains.

"With the soil fertility information that has become available in the last 15 years, producers are now able to apply optimum rates of the proper plant nutrients necessary for a given yield goal," points out Herb Sunderman, research associate at the Center.

Sunderman explains that many studies were conducted over the area in the mid-1950's and early 1960's on the effect of fertilizer rates and time and method of application on yields. These studies were conducted for one season at given locations and then moved the following year to obtain similar information on different soils.

Results from these and later studies are the basis for fertilizer recommendations made by Jim Valentine with the Extension Soil Testing Laboratory at the A&M Center. The laboratory serves the entire High Plains area. Information on collecting and mailing soil samples is available from local county Extension offices and from the Center.

"As producers began using greater rates in the mid-1960's soil test values tended to decrease," says Sunderman. "This buildup of nutrients in the soil was shown in several studies where more than 8,000 pounds of grain sorghum per acre was produced on plots that had received no fertilizer. So, we began an intensive study on fertilizer rates that were required for continuous crop production programs.

Research efforts are also continuing to probe into micronutrient and secondary nutrient deficiencies although such deficiencies are of minor importance on the High Plains. Results last year indicated that the proper selection of a grain sorghum hybrid may be a more economical approach to iron deficiency problems on high lime soils than treating with iron.

Thus, research studies continue to move forward and to find solutions that will make for a more prosperous Agricultural industry for West Texas.

"One major improvement that has resulted from these long-term studies has been the calibration of the nitrate electrode," explains Sunderman. "This analytical tool measures nitrate nitrogen in the soil and is much more accurate in predicting nitrogen requirements than the old method using organic matter content."

According to the researcher,

HOSPITAL HELIPAD—A medical evacuation team at Lyster Army Hospital, Ft. Rucker, Ala., carries out a lifesaving mission in transporting a patient by helicopter to another facility for specialized care. The helipad, adjacent to the hospital, enables the medical staff to furnish speedy attention to sick or injured persons.

Homemaking Group Learns Of Work In Human Development

Nine students and their teachers from Clarendon have volunteered their free time this summer to work in the Clarendon Satellite Program for Human Development. These volunteers visited the Amarillo State Center for Human Development last Friday to receive orientation for their unpaid summer jobs.

During the orientation period, students observed three levels of classes conduct regular class activities. Demonstrations of "Listen and Do" activities revealed the learning ability of students who are preschool and postschool retardates. The students were also instructed in reaction programs involving exercises and muscle coordination.

The most valuable lesson from the orientation was that children in Human Development classes have a capacity to learn something if taught with a warm, loving attitude and on a level or by a media they can understand.

Homemaking students regard the opportunity to work in the classes as one of their most valuable homemaking experiences. It helps them become aware of career opportunities and it helps them prepare for special needs of their families and friends in the future.

Those attending the orientation were Kim Newhouse, Sandra Jochetz, Terry Saye, Sheila Smith, Sue Luttrell, Judy Osburn, Becky Deyhle, Betty Hampton and Debbie Holland. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bright Newhouse and Mrs. Bud Hermesmeier, satellite teachers in the Clarendon Human Development Center, and Miss Lynn Bourland, Clarendon Homemaking teacher.

Protein Needs In Daily Diet

Of the four groups of food nutrients essential to your daily diet — including calories, protein, vitamins and minerals — protein is the most costly, says Dr. David Meller, Extension poultry marketing specialist.

The average working man requires 65 grams of protein daily, he explains. A pound of club steak, which yields 59 grams of protein, or half a pound of cheddar cheese, which yields 56 grams, will supply this requirement.

If you eat steak, you are paying about $10 per pound of protein, making the daily protein requirement cost $1.30. With cheese, you are paying about $4 per pound, making the daily requirement 50 cents.

But you can cut the cost of protein consumption by combining different foods, as in a meal of two eggs, two glasses of milk, two ounces of peanut butter and three ounces of hamburger. This combination will cut your protein cost down to 32 cents per day.

However, if broilers are substituted for the hamburger, the cost is even less. Dr. Meller reports. Broilers and eggs are two of the best sources of high quality protein, as well as among the most economical choice.

For more information on the costs of protein in various foods, contact your local county agent

Individuality In Home Accessories

It's the age of individuality, especially in home accessories, announces Mrs. Jan Slabaugh, Extension housing and home furnishings specialist. By using a few well-chosen accessories, Mrs. Slabaugh says that you can spark a room with personality.

Several trends are showing up in home accessories. Ethnic and handcrafted items, as well as chrome and plexiglas, remain popular, the specialist notes, while bronze, brass and pewter finishes are focusing into attention. Wall tapestries and hangings which create a focal point in rooms and entries, are also gaining popularity. Candles continue to be popular, especially with the young.

To retain an individual look, Mrs. Slabaugh suggests mixing the old with the new — combine antiques, vinyls, plexiglas, chrome and other new finishes. For example, mount original wooden plates, which were once used for printing wallpaper, in chrome frames for use in picture groupings.

Creating harmony in a decorative scheme requires careful planning, she cautions. Choose and place your useful accessories first, then add others. Use only accessories that serve a purpose and are of good design.

To determine if an accessory has a good design, study the lines of the item. They should be simple and relate to the object's overall shape. The lines should carry the eye easily from one part to another, and the various shapes of these different parts of the item should be in good proportion to one another.

Antique shopping often helps the consumer find unique accessories. But one visit isn't enough; search in several antique shops and flea markets for that special object which stamps your personality on a room, Mrs. Slabaugh adds.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kulaka of Hollywood, Calif. and Mrs. W. C. Scott visited Tuesday and Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Scott and Connie at Plainview.

Highlights and Sidelights

From Your State Capitol

By Vern Stanford

Major changes in election laws for voters and candidates were approved by the 62nd Legislature. All are contingent on final federal court action upholding lower court decisions invalidating old requirements.

Gov. Preston Smith has signed into law a new voter registration act and filing fee bill.

Earlier the Texas Legislature enacted a resolution ratifying the federal constitutional amendment extending full voting rights to 18-year-olds. Federal amendment may not be finally cleared in time for the 1972 elections, but young voters can participate in presidential and congressional voting and the national nominating convention series.

New voter registration provides for year-around sign-up (with temporary cutoff 30 days before any election) and automatic renewal for three years by voting in any primary or general election. First registration under the new system will begin October 1. March 1, 1972, is the earliest voting date for new registrants. Voters will continue using present registration certificates for elections through next February.

A federal court invalidated the old Texas annual registration requirement, which was unique in the nation. Texas' new automatic registration law would be repealed if appellate courts reinstate annual registration.

Under a bill passed by the 62nd Legislature, in response to another federal ruling that presents filing fees are excessive, candidates would pay a maximum of four per cent of the term of office salaries to get on the ballot.

Bill also permits "filing fees by affidavit" stating the candidate cannot pay the prescribed fee, or by a "petition" signed by 10 per cent of the voters in the general election within the area (state, county, precinct) served by the office sought. If the Supreme Court invalidates this act, a special legislative session may be necessary to provide a method of paying primary election costs in 1972.

IMMUNIZATION REQUIRED—Texas students must begin an immunization program by Jan. 1, 1972, under legislation just signed into law, says the Texas Department of Health.

Students will be allowed to enter schools during the summer and fall terms with provision that their immunizations against at least one of six diseases will be started by Jan. 1 and completed as soon as medically possible.

Required immunization for grade school level youngsters includes diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles, rubella and smallpox. Measles immunization is not required if there is a history of measles illness.

Exceptions may be granted on religious grounds or to those who may be harmed by immunization (on written certification by a physician). However, exemptions would not be permitted in a time of emergency or epidemic, the Health Department adds.

COURTS SPEAK—Third Court of Civil Appeals has ruled that the Ector County Commissioners Court had no authority to spend county funds to purchase a 280-acre tract as the site for the University of Texas of Permian Basin, Odessa. Court decision said the rest of the campus tract, 308 acres, was properly acquired for the new state university as a gift.

State Supreme Court upheld the "spoke" annexation of a narrow strip of territory by the City of San Antonio and noted that the new law banning such annexation does not apply to past city actions.

High Court refused to place on the June 29 charter election ballot in Pharr a committee-proposed recall amendment.

On July 7 arguments will be heard by the Supreme Court as to whether a minister can be held in contempt of court for refusing to move his church.

Reversing a district court ruling, the Third Court of Civil Appeals said that an Austin area teacher whose contract was not renewed deserves a full trial on merits.

U. S. Supreme Court vacated a three-judge federal court finding in San Antonio that the Texas safety responsibility act is valid and sent the case back for reconsideration in view of an earlier ruling that a Georgia law provides no proper method of determining fault of drivers in accidents.

AG OPINIONS—Non-resident archery hunters in portions of Sabine and San Augustine counties must qualify for the regular non-resident hunting license, plus a special license for five-day periods, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that: Griffin and Brand of McAllen are entitled to 435 acres of water right acreage under a section of the Rio Grande Valley water rights case judgment on re-hearing.

Southwest Texas (Uvalde) Junior College Board is without authority to issue a district note of $100,000 payable over 15 years and secured by pledge of district bank stock to finance faculty housing on campus.

HOSPITAL FUNDS AWARDED—Health facilities last week received $647,135 in additional Hill-Burton funds to complete projects.

Receiving funds for existing projects were: Dallas County Hospital District, $34,000; Goodall-Witcher Foundation Hospital, Clifton, $95,000; Campbell Memorial Hospital, Weatherford, $100,000; Youens Memorial Hospital, Weimer, $27,151; Teague Methodist Hospital, San Antonio, $11,000; M. D. Anderson-Pavilion, Houston, $130,000; Christian Home for Aged, Houston, $225,984; and Childrens Rehabilitation Center, Amarillo, $4,000.

Mercy Hospital at Jourdanton was awarded $50,000 and Texas Medical Center Hospital Laundry Cooperative, Houston, $40,000, for new construction.

The family of Noel Clifton Patsy and Vickie Mr. and Mrs. Noel Clifton, Jr. Rev. and Mrs. William Morgan

Visiting in the home of Mrs. H. Clyde Gilbert this past week were her four children: Mr. and Mrs. John Plaster of Pampa; Mrs. Lyle E. Whitman and daughter, Carolyn, of Ocean Spring, Miss.; John Howard Gilbert of Decatur, Ark., and Mrs. Billie Lou Edlin of Odessa, Texas. Others visiting were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson and Mrs. Billie Wolford of Claude, Texas.

NEWS FROM Congressman Bob Price

18th District, Texas

U. S. Representative Bob Price (R., Tex.) today led a bi-partisan group of over 35 Congressmen in introducing legislation providing new tax relief to the nation's home owners.

Price's bill, the Home Owners' Tax Relief Act of 1971, gives individuals who own and reside in their own homes tax depreciation allowances similar to those now enjoyed by those who own income property such as rental houses or apartments. Owners of cooperatives and condominiums will also benefit from this proposal.

Other provisions of the Act enable the taxpayers to deduct up to $1,000 for his home repairs; permit those who move frequently for job or other reasons to deduct up to $3,000 in losses sustained if they sell their home within 3 years of its purchase; and give special tax benefits to home owners 65 and older.

Price commented that state and local real estate tax rates have soared in recent years and the mobility of Americans has dramatically increased to meet changing job markets. "To offset these unattractive features of home ownership and to help revitalize home building and repair industries, the Federal government should provide tax incentives to encourage individual home ownership."

The Texas Republican declared, "Individual home ownership provides underpinning to the nation; those who own their own homes tend to have a greater interest in local affairs and community life than do renters and transients."

Mrs. W. C. Scott and Mrs. Charles Kulaka of Hollywood, Calif. visited Mrs. E. V. Quattlebaum in Hall County Hospital Monday afternoon.

Veteran News

Q—How may I use my dividends to prevent my National Service Life Insurance from lapsing or to pay my premiums in advance?

A—You have the choice of a "credit option" or a "premium option."

If you use the former, you must notify the VA before your next dividend is due, and request it be held as a credit. Then, whenever needed to prevent a policy lapse, one monthly premium at a time will be deducted from the credit, and you will be notified.

If you use the latter option, your dividend will be applied to pay your premiums as far in advance as possible, and you will be notified.

If you use the latter option, your dividend will be applied to pay your premiums as far in advance as possible, and you will be notified. You will not be billed for premiums again until at least one month in advance of the date your next premium is due.

Q—I am a veteran who receives compensation from VA. Are my children eligible for educational assistance?

A—Yes if you are 100 per cent permanently disabled from a service-connected cause. If less than 100 per cent disabled, no.

Q—The VA guarantees 30 per cent of a $9,000 loan for a mobile home. If a veteran pays off the loan and desires to buy a conventional home, how much guaranty is available?

A—Under provisions of the Veterans' Housing Act of 1970, if the original mobile home loan is paid in full, a veteran is entitled to the standard conventional home loan guaranty of $12,500.

Q—My first husband was killed in action during World War II. I remarried in 1950, and my payments from the VA were terminated. My second husband died in 1960. I am receiving a small pension from the VA, based on his nonservice-connected death. Can the VA pay me anything on my first husband's service, now that I am a widow?

A—Legislation effective Jan. 1, 1971, permits the VA to again pay death payments on your first husband's death. VA cannot pay you for the death of both husbands, but you can elect to receive the larger payment. The minimum payment to a widow for a service-connected death is $167 monthly. A greater amount may be payable, depending on the pay grade of your first husband. You should contact your VA office immediately.

Q—I plan to attend college under the GI Bill, and understand that I must submit, at intervals, a certificate of attendance card. Is this true?

A—Yes, veterans attending college under the GI Bill are required to return a certification card to the VA during the last month of each enrollment period. Students studying under the GI Bill below the college level must submit a certificate of attendance card every month.

Q—I have read that some national cemeteries are filling up, and will soon close. Will VA pay an additional allowance toward purchasing a plot in a private cemetery?

A—There is no provision for VA to pay anything upon the death of a veteran except a statutory $250 burial allowance, unless he carries insurance administered by the VA. Also, the Army, not VA, is in charge of the National Cemetery System.

Q—Will the increased Social Security benefits cause me to have to pay back money to the VA if I go over the income limitation?

A—No. Your VA pension will be continued through the end of 1971. On receipt of your annual income questionnaire at the end of the year, your pension will be adjusted as appropriate.

DPS REPORTS SIX RURAL ACCIDENTS

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated six accidents on rural highways in Donley County during the month of May, according to Sergeant Vernon Cawthon, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and two persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first five months of 1971 shows a total of 19 accidents resulting in no persons killed and 13 persons injured.

Johnnie Bryson and Adgar Williams visited Quata Phillips Wednesday afternoon of last week.
