CROP MEASUREMENTS

As you know, Donley County will again use the producer certification method of determining crep acreages for 1967. It is very important that you measure your diverted acres out before you plant your row crops. If your farm is fully allotted and you plant all of your permitted acres to row crops, you may come up short on diverted acres (due to turnrows, ditches, etc.) Be sure to allow enough for diverted acres and you shouldn't have any problem.
