Broncos Beat Vega 9 to 7

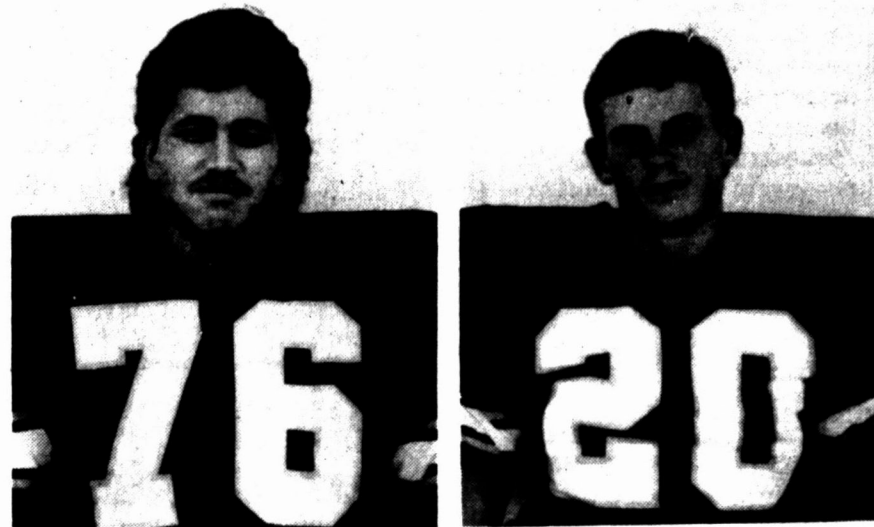

Che Shadle scored a touchdown and kicked a field goal as the Clarendon Broncos beat the Vega Longhorns 9-7, Friday night to snap a 15 game losing streak.

The Broncos received the opening kickoff with Desmond Johnson receiving the kick on the 20 yd line and returned it to the 35 yd line. The Broncos could not move the ball and Michael Adams punted on 3rd down to the Vega 33 yd line. Vega had moved the ball to the Broncos 40 yd line when Michael Adams intercepted a pass and returned it to the Bronco 25 yd line. The Broncos could only manage to gain 6 yds and was forced to punt. Neither team could move the ball and traded punts. The Broncos recovered a Vega fumble on their 45 yd line. The Broncos again could not move the ball and punted to the Vega 5 yd line. The Bronco defense held and Vega was forced to punt from their own end zone. Randy Allen took the punt on the 25 yd line and returned it to the Vega 12 yd line. The Broncos moved the ball to the 1 yd line and a first down. Three tries later Che Shadle ran the ball into the end zone at 8:14 of the second quarter. The extra point kick missed wide. Clarendon led 6-0.

Vega took the kick off and moved from their 33 yd line on 3 first downs to the Bronco 27 yd line where the ball was turned over to Clarendon on downs. The defense held again. Two plays later quarterback Jonathan Stewart passed to Mark Auston who ran the ball to the Vega 28 yd line and a first down. The Broncos moved to the 19 yd line where Vega took over on downs. The Broncos could not effectively move the ball on the ground again. On the second play Michael Lopez ran 79 yds for a Vega Touchdown with 17 seconds left in the half. The kick for the extra point was good. The first half ended Vega 7 - Clarendon 6.

After the half time activities, where Brandie Stroup, daughter of Jean Stroup, was crowned Homecoming Queen, the Broncos kicked off to Vega who in turn was able to pick up a couple of first downs and moved to the Clarendon 41 yd line where they punted to the Clarendon 9 yd line. The Broncos could not get a first down and Michael Adams punted to the Vega 27 yd line, a 57 yd punt.

Vega fumbled on their first play and Chance Fletcher recovered for the Broncos on the 19 yd line. The Broncos picked up a first down at the 9 yd line on a Vega penalty. They moved to the 3 yd line. On fourth down, Che Shadle, kicked a Waldo Vaquera, Clarendon: the 5-10, 160-pound senior sparked the Broncos on Friday night as they ended a 15-game losing streak with a 9-7 win over Vega.

Vaquera, a defensive tackle, made 11 tackles, including a quarterback sack and another tackle-for-loss. He also caused and recovered the fumble with a hit on the Vega quarterback in the third quarter to set up what proved to be Clarendon's game-winning field goal.

"He's been playing great all year long," Clarendon coach Mike Smith said. "This week he was everywhere. He's real quick. He reads the ball well."

21 yd field goal to put the Broncos ahead to stay 9-7 at 2:38 of the 3rd quarter. In the fourth quarter Vega had moved the ball from their 36 yd line to the Bronco 16 yd line. They were penalized back to the 26 yd line and then fumbled with Chance Fletcher recovering on the 30 yd line. The Broncos could not move the ball and was forced to punt. The Bronco defense really dug in now. Chance Fletcher, Jared Estes and Waldo Vaquera each in turn sacked the Vega quarterback to stop a Vega threat. Mark Auston intercepted a Vega pass at the 50 yd line and returned it to the 1 yd line with 10 seconds remaining. However, a penalty took the ball back to the 50 yd line where the Clarendon Broncos ran out the clock, making the final score Clarendon 9 - Vega Longhorns 7.

It was a very impressive victory for the entire team. The defense really played great. Way to Go Broncos! All of you did a great job.

The Broncos host Canadian, Friday, Oct. 13 to start their district play. Game time is 7:30 p.m. We

Local Man Dies in Wreck

SCENE OF RECENT fatal accident on Texas Highway 70 south of Clarendon.

James Allen Ariola of Clarendon was killed early Friday morning in a single car accident south of Clarendon. According to the Department of Public Safety, the driver lost control of the vehicle on a curve about eight miles south of Clarendon on Highway 70. At the second curve, the vehicle crossed back over the road going partially sideways, traveling some 453 feet. The vehicle was then airborne for 65 feet before rolling over five times. The driver was thrown from the vehicle, and died at the scene.

DPS officials estimated the vehicle's speed at 112 mph. They believe that the accident occurred about 1:45 a.m., but the accident on the lightly-traveled road was not discovered until just before dawn Friday.

The pickup was extensively damaged, but the cab interior remained virtually intact. Officer Jerry Morris looked at the wreckage and said sadly, "If the driver had been wearing his seatbelt, he probably would have survived with relatively minor injuries."

In virtually every accident in Donley County this year, seatbelts made or would have made a big difference.

Fire Department Celebrates 85th Anniversary

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department was organized in 1904 and has been manned by volunteers ever since that time, making it what is believed to be the oldest Volunteer Fire Department in the Panhandle area in continuous existence. Two members, Mutt Graham and Lloyd McCord joined the Department when Mr. Trent, the Fire Department's first Fire Chief was still acting Fire Chief, a position he held for over forty years.

The original building, which was built in 1918 has been completely redecorated by the members of the Department and new carpet was laid the past week. The upstairs provides a training center classroom, office, lounge, restroom, two storage areas, and a kitchen and recreation area for firefighters and their families and guests.

The membership would like for everyone to come by and see what has been done to the building facility. The open house will begin at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 15 with the display of Fire Prevention Posters done by local school students and the awarding of trophies to the winners of the poster contest. Rides on the trucks will follow and open house will be held from 1:00 until 5:00 p.m. At 5:00 p.m. Clarendon will host a meeting of the Clarendon, Hedley, and Howardwick Fire Departments as well as any other area firefighters in attendance with a chicken barbecue and training session and an open forum type meeting.

The Clarendon Firebelles Ladies Auxiliary has kicked off the Fire Prevention Week activities with a poster contest and the Volunteer Firefighters will be at the public schools conducting a fire

Seat Belt Laws Will Be Enforced

Justice of the Peace W.W. Lovelady reminded The Clarendon Press Thursday, October 5, that Texas' seatbelt laws are being and will be enforced in Donley County. Such enforcement has made a significant difference in accident statistics statewide, but more important, it has saved the lives of hundreds of people in Texas.

Sergeant Mike Thomson told The Clarendon Press, "There is probably nothing else we can do that would save more lives in Donley County than encourage people to wear their seatbelts."

The day after the Court visited with The Press, the importance of seatbelts was underscored by a fatal accident south of town. But that is not the only instance of seatbelt use or non-use in wrecks covered by the paper.

A few weeks ago the paper carried a story about a train-truck collision near Lelia Lake. The accident victim struck his head on the right door, sustaining serious head and neck injuries. EMS personnel lamented that he had not been wearing his safety belt. They felt that his injuries would have been significantly reduced.

A few days before that accident, two Wichita Falls women were killed when their Jeep overturned near the east edge of Donley County. DPS personnel estimated the vehicle's speed at about 45 mph at the time of the accident. One woman was ejected from the vehicle, and the other was partially ejected. Neither was belted in.

By contrast, a few days earlier, an elderly couple on Highway 287 headed for Mineral Wells escaped serious injury even though their car collided with a pickup in Hedley. Both were wearing safety harnesses.

In view of statewide statistics and recent local events, The Clarendon Press has agreed to cooperate with local law enforcement and court officials to try to encourage seatbelt use. Lovelady said, "We are trying to save lives. Seat belts help. Some people may be too stubborn to believe it, but they save lives." A Justice of the Peace is required by law to make an official ruling whenever a person is killed in an accident. It is not a pleasant duty.

The editor voiced similar sentiments, "I do not enjoy taking pictures of smashed vehicles belonging to my friends or relatives of my friends. But it is even worse when those friends are seriously injured or killed. And the thought that so many injuries are preventable makes it even more horrible."

Beginning this week, the court will send a report of seatbelt violations to the paper. "I hope that this does not hurt people's feelings," said the editor, "but if it does, their feelings will eventually recover. They do not recover from smashed skulls or being ejected and rolled over. I'd rather have them alive and complaining than complacent and dead."

Ode To James Allen

Our Ode To James Allen,
A Youth Of Many Dreams;
Now, All Is Left Behind
Tragic! Yes It Seems.

This Young And Noble Youth,
Taken Quickly, Before His Time;
Forever Seeking Now,
No Answers Can We Find.

A Joy Beyond All Words,
His Father's Only Son;
Proud! Yes, Proud!
Of The Path His Son Had Begun.

To Teach With Love She Knew To Give,
This, A Mother's Skillful Art;
For Yes He Knew, As Well As She,
That She Was Dearest To His Heart.

Sisters, With Their Only Brother,
Each Day, These Children Grew;
Strolling, Hand In Hand,
Their Love, To See Them Through.

Oh, To Carry On His Father's Name,
Forever, A Mother's Love Remain;
His Sisters' Honor To Obtain,
Lost, To Sorrow, What Relentless Pain.

There Is A Time To Live
And Yes, There Is A Time To Die;
To Ponder Now, If We Are Ready,
To Feel Death's Final Sigh.

No! His Memory Shall Not Die,
Always! Alive In Our Hearts Together,
Ode To Our Love For James Allen,
Yes! In Our Minds, He Lives
Forever.

This Poem is dedicated to: Bruce, Kathrine,
Janice, SuLynn.

FEELING GOOD ABOUT ME

STUDENTS IN THE 4TH grade received this gift book which was sponsored by area merchants.

Gift Book Received

Students in the fourth grade at Clarendon Elementary School have received the gift-book entitled "Feeling Good About Me". It is a handsomely bound book of stories about learning traditional values and self-esteem.

"Feeling Good About Me" contains eight stories about realistic problems young people might encounter and how, using traditional values, they are resolved.

Each story has a full-color illustration and teaches such lessons as right and wrong, appreciation of family, what it means to be a good citizen, living up to one's full potential, and why (and how) to stay away from drugs.

In the first story, "A Day With Granddaddy," young Wendy is mad. The most popular girl in school has invited her to a slumber party but SHE has to go to her grandparents house on the lake, a visit she usually enjoys. During a conversation that takes place as Wendy fishes with Granddad, she learns the relative importance of the party and the visit (her values are put into perspective) and she feels good about herself and visiting her grandparents.

Other stories involve the meaning of friendship, family relationships, respect for other, loyalty and the importance of being your own unique self, lessons not always covered in school curriculums. They reflect positive influences that build a child's self-esteem.

Each story is accompanied by a teacher's guide, which covers discussion starters, lesson objectives, and follow-up applications. The purpose of the lessons is to teach young people good values and encourage discussion of values between children, their parents and other family members in a home setting.

In "Real Heroes," a war game among a dozen boys and girls results in several broken windows at school. At the principal's office, the youngsters learn from an Army veteran that being an American hero isn't something that must happen on a battlefield, but also occurs by being a good citizen, doing whatever they can for their country.

In another story that takes place in a video arcade, Brian and Darrick must weigh the chance to get free games dishonestly against the effects of such action. With the help of a lesson learned from Darrick's dad, honesty wins out.

These beautiful books are made to last and are likely to become keepsake editions for the students.

Local sponsors provide this important gift to the children because they know young people are the most precious resource of this community. The local sponsors are: First Bank & Trust, Bivens Pharmacy, and B & R Thriftway.

Spelling Bee Set

AMARILLO-Public, private and parochial students are invited to participate in the Regional National Spelling Bee co-sponsored by the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University.

The date of the 1990 Regional Bee will be April 7 and the site is the campus of WTSU in Canyon.

Each director in the four-state area, including the Panhandle of Texas, parts of Kansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico will coordinate their county contests.

Serving as director for Donley County will be Mike Word, principal of Clarendon Junior High, Clarendon.

The age limit is 16 and a participant must not be in a grade higher than the eighth the end of the current school year.

There are two levels of competition: The Junior Bee is for students in the fifth and lower grades; the Senior Bee is for students and lower grades. In some instances directors combine the two levels. Only Senior winners compete in regional.

The district sponsors will entertain each county Junior Champion and each county Senior Champion at a spellers' luncheon prior to the regional competition on April 7th. Special bee medallions will be given each county finalist.

The 1990 regional winner will receive an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. as a participant in this year's National Spelling Bee, sponsored by the Scripps Howard Newspapers.

The trip to D.C. included expenses for one parent.

Gene Parker, placement director for WTSU, serves as bee coordinator for the Amarillo Globe-News.

"I encourage all students to participate in this educational program," he said. "Those of us at WTSU who work on the Bee are pleased to assist the Amarillo newspaper in making young boys and girls aware of how important spelling is. It is more than memory work if just putting letters in the proper sequence. It is communication."

Schools in the area use the study booklet, Words of the Champions, prepared by the national sponsors.

The booklet, containing more than 500 new words over 1989, is priced at only 50 cents and is available from Jeane Bartlett, Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, Box 2091, Amarillo, Texas 79166.

JUDY MCCULLY presented Misty Longan with the coveted Mike McCully Fighting Heart Award at the 4-H Awards Banquet Saturday night. This award stands for the real meaning behind the K-9 Korp greatest goal. On the plaque is inscribed the saying "It's Not Whether You Win Or Lose, But How You Play The Game."

Parental Delinquents

Some folks seem to make a hobby of criticizing "the younger generation". Yet much of that criticism would be better directed at irresponsible adults.

Adults decry the fact that so many teen-agers get pregnant. Yet it is adults who are making millions of dollars from programs that make casual coupling seem like a routine, harmless activity. And Donley County parents who allow unlimited, unsupervised televisioning simply reinforce the corrupt standards of the broadcasters.

Many "grownups" worry about adolescent drunkenness. Yet young people cannot obtain alcohol without the cooperation of someone of legal age. By their fanaticism, other adults make alcohol seem irresistibly attractive. And children sometimes see local alcoholics who never seem to be jailed, never stopped from driving, indeed, who appear to be getting along just fine.

Most parents worry that their children may be tempted into experimenting with drugs and the inevitable addiction that follows. Yet far too many parents have done nothing to fill the spiritual vacuum in their children's lives. "People [young or old] who have nothing to live for may fall for anything."

If living has no purpose, then what difference does it make if drugs or alcohol or tobacco shortens life by a few years or a few decades?

"Preaching" at kids will not help. Forbidding sex or alcohol or drugs is not enough. There has to be a positive influence that outweighs temptation.

Children cannot have a positive self image if their parents do not care enough to spend time with them. Children find it hard to believe in anything if they see parents who are only concerned with getting another dollar. Parents who never bother to go to church fail to take advantage of the positive peer pressure that their offspring could get from associating with believers.

Pray for you children, and do not hide such prayers. Take advantage of the wisdom, experience and inspiration of the Bible, by studying it and teaching it to your children. And "do not forsake meeting together" with other believers.

Would-be bankers are multiplying like rabbits.

Everybody is hopping to include the word "bank" in their names, but that doesn't mean that they're actually bankers.

"Savings banks," "thrift banks," stockbroker "bank" accounts, and credit unions, etc. all try to pose as real bankers. But they don't always offer you the experience or, in some cases, the security of bankers.

In fact, the only place you'll find a banker is The Bank, where your deposits are Federally insured up to $100,000.

Now, that's the best financial security there is! And a Full Service Bank offers the newest ideas to help your money reproduce.

Colts Stomp Irish

The Clarendon Colt 7th & 8th Grade teams together beat the Shamrock Irish, here in the Bronco stadium, Thursday, Oct. 5. It was an exciting game, with everyone playing hard. Final score was 42-8.

On the opening kickoff, Wesley Smith ran the ball back to the end zone, for Clarendons first touchdown. Ricky Smith made the extra point on a sweep play. Later in the first quarter, Ricky Smith made a touchdown on a punt return. The quarter ended with a score of Clarendon 14, Shamrock 0.

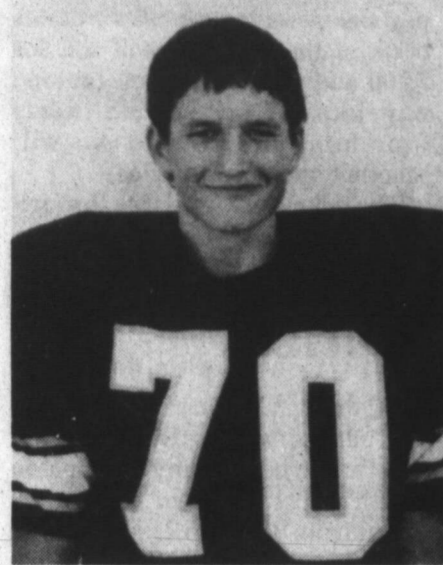

In the second quarter, Chad Campbell handed off to Wesley Smith for a touchdown. Then Campbell scored the extra points on a sneak to make the score at the end of the half, 28-0.

In the third quarter, a reverse from Campbell to Smith to Chris Holland gave the Colts a 25 yard gain. However, Shamrock came back to score a touchdown and the extra points. The Colts replied with their own touchdown by Billy Ray Wilson on a sweep to make the third quarter score 36-8. Corey Fields made a touchdown in the fourth quarter, then Randy Hair threw a pass to Todd Lindley for the extra point. The Colts record for the year is 3 wins and 1 loss. Great Game Guys!

The Colts will travel to Canadian, Thursday, Oct. 12.

PTA Taking Attire Orders

PTA is taking the second and final order for Colt and Bronco T-Shirts, sweatshirts, warmups and jackets! Order forms are available in the Jr. High and High School offices and the deadline for orders is October 20! All orders will be delivered in time to "suit up" for basketball season. The first order was a big success. Don't miss this last chance to order your Colt or Bronco Wear!

Editor's Note:

Due to technical difficulties, the pictures of last week's game did not turn out. We expect normal coverage in next week's paper.

Remember safety first when installing antennas.

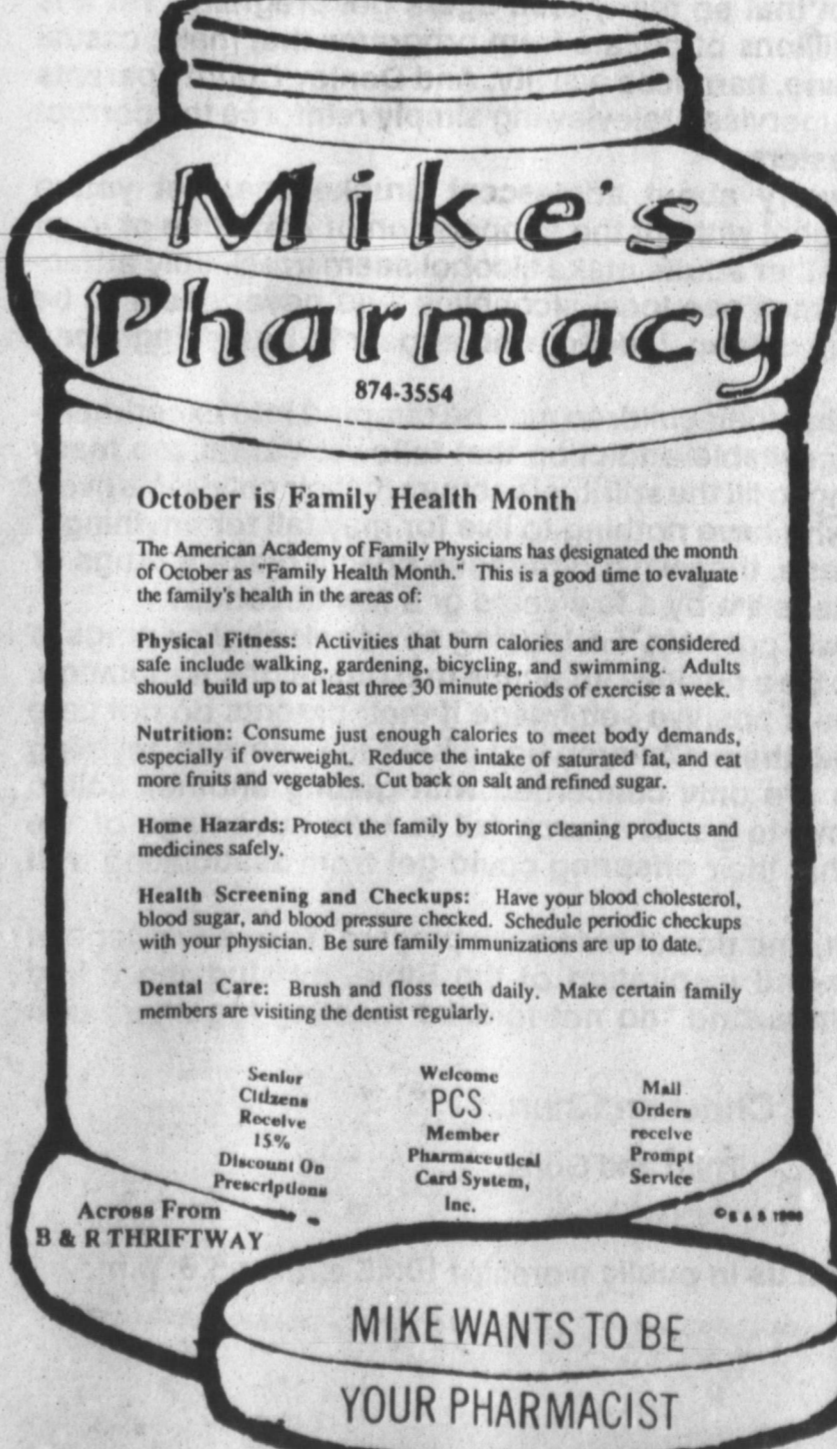

- Stay clear of all electric lines, assume all wires are uninsulated.
- Be sure there's enough distance in every direction so that if your antenna should fall, it won't hit a power line.
- If an antenna does start to fall, let it go and stay clear. Never touch it until you're sure it's not in contact with any wires.
- Work only in dry weather and never on a windy day. Most antennas are top-heavy and difficult to control in the wind.
- Guy wires should be secured so they won't whip around and come in contact with power lines.
- Make sure antennas are grounded properly.

October is Family Health Month

The American Academy of Family Physicians has designated the month of October as "Family Health Month." This is a good time to evaluate the family's health in the areas of:

Physical Fitness: Activities that burn calories and are considered safe include walking, gardening, bicycling, and swimming. Adults should build up to at least three 30 minute periods of exercise a week.

Nutrition: Consume just enough calories to meet body demands, especially if overweight. Reduce the intake of saturated fat, and eat more fruits and vegetables. Cut back on salt and refined sugar.

Home Hazards: Protect the family by storing cleaning products and medicines safely.

Health Screening and Checkups: Have your blood cholesterol, blood sugar, and blood pressure checked. Schedule periodic checkups with your physician. Be sure family immunizations are up to date.

Dental Care: Brush and floss teeth daily. Make certain family members are visiting the dentist regularly.

PTA News

by Jaime Deyhle

The first '89-'90 PTA meeting was held Tuesday, October 3. PTA members and guests enjoyed very informative, interesting and encouraging presentations from Mr. Riley and Mr. Word. PTA would like to thank both men for their genuine enthusiasm and sincere interest in our children and school and the future to come!

PTA is pleased to donate $100 to the beautiful Bronco Inlay Project in the new High School Building. PTA is encouraging other groups and clubs to participate in this community wide effort of which we will all be proud!

The competition of parental participation was very close but Mrs. Nelson's 5th grade class won the Colt Mascot for the month having the most parents present. Congratulations Mrs. Nelson, class and parents.

High School also had a very good representation of parents. PTA thanks and appreciates you, but much more importantly, the students will see and thank you for your example of concern!

PTA is striving for a 10% increase in membership from last year. The '88-'89 membership was 102. PTA would like to have the $3.00 fall membership dues in by October 15. Dues can be turned in to Bobby Thornberry or to Jan Campbell. A recognition award will be presented to the Clarendon PTA if our goal is achieved. Of course, interested persons may join at any time during the year and are always welcome at monthly meetings.

Congratulations to all parents who attend PTA in the name and interest of their children. Any time given in interest, any head turned in concern, any voice expressed in love of and for our children is the continual goal of PTA and our children knowing that is the true award for which we strive!

County Cotton Tour

The Donley County Extension Crops committee invites area cotton producers to the County Cotton tour Thursday, Oct. 12. The tour will start at the Clarendon Gin where the group will assemble starting at 9:30 a.m. We will leave there at 10:00 a.m. to go look at cotton variety plots at L.A. Watson's west on HWY. 287. After that stop we will move to look at cotton that was drilled and is on a pivot system that belongs to Jiggs Mann. This cotton looks very impressive. Around 11:00 a.m., the group will move to just south of Clarendon to look at another cotton variety plot at Ronnie McAneer's. Following this, producers will have an opportunity to look at cotton fields that were sprayed with Pix R and sidedressed with nitrogen around the Lelia Lake area. Hope to see you there.

K-9 Korp Begins Classes

The Donley County 4-H K-9 Korp will begin its new classes in obedience on Wednesday, Oct. 11th at 7:00 p.m. in the Community Center. Children and adults are both welcome to join us. Any child in the 3rd grade or 9 years old is eligible to join 4-H and the K-9 Korp. Also, the classes are open to adults for $25. Beginners are asked to bring current shot records, a chain choke collar and a 6 foot leash. Also, beginning children need to have at least one parent present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Andis will be the instructors in obedience. They have been teaching our 4-H kids for many years and with great success!

The 4-H K-9 Korp is a great opportunity for anyone who has a dog. It doesn't have to be a purebred but all dogs are welcome.

Our classes will teach the dog basic obedience, which includes to sit, heel, stand, down and stay. It also teaches the child responsibility in the care of their dog.

So, come and join in the fun on Wednesday nights at 7:00 p.m! We'll See You There!

Hedley News

The Hedley community was saddened by the passing of several friends recently. We extend heartfelt sympathy to each of these families.

Jimmie Hunt passed away Tuesday, October 3. Services were held in Amarillo. Mr. Hunt moved to Hedley a year ago. He was a retired mail carrier.

William Lawson "Dub" Crawford died Monday, October 2. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Grace Gardenhire of Hedley. Mr. Crawford was born in Lakeview and lived in Hedley several years.

Utah C. Sanders of Olton passed away Friday, October 6. Services were held Monday morning in Olton, with burial in Rowe Cemetery in Hedley Monday afternoon. He was a brother of the late Sam Sanders of Hedley. A son, Jimmy Carl, died in 1958 while the family was living in Hedley.

Burford Hinds of Anson, Texas, brother of J. S. Hinds of Hedley, passed away October 1. Mr. Hinds is also survived by his wife, former Hedleyan Virginia Kendall; a daughter, Marjorie Rives; two grandsons; five great-grandsons; and one great-granddaughter.

Yet another storefront in downtown Hedley is being dressed up. Work is progressing nicely on the Moffitt Hardware building. We are anxious to see the finished product.

Jeff Wilkinson has been quite ill recently. He spent most of last week in Hall County Hospital, but was able to return to school this Monday morning.

Adult choir members of First United Methodist and First Baptist Churches will begin rehearsal on their Christmas program this Wednesday evening at the Baptist Church. They plan to practice each Wednesday following regular services—probably around 8:00. Anyone who would like to sing in this combined choir is urged to attend. And, we would remind our children that their Community Choir meets each Wednesday afternoon at four at the Methodist Church.

A large group of Baptist youth enjoyed games, fellowship, and a pizza supper following Sunday evening's service.

The Junior Class of Hedley High School would like to announce its Cotton Festival breakfast on Saturday, October 14, which will be served from 6:30 to 9:00 in the Senior Citizens' building. The class is also having a bingo and food booth at the same location. The booth will be open from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Saturday.

Other classes and clubs will be sponsoring food booths and activities on Main Street. Support these various school groups and civic clubs, and enjoy the Festival!

Rev. and Mrs. Rob Lackey and Leon Ward attended the Annual Meeting of Panfork Baptist Association, hosted by Travis Church, Memphis, this past Thursday. Panfork Association is comprised of Southern Baptist Churches in several eastern Panhandle counties.

Junior and Martha Hill spent Saturday night in Lubbock with daughter Sherrie, Tim, and Jordan McDougal. They went on to Whitharral, where they spent the night with son Jeff and Lori.

We learned recently that longtime Lelia Lake and Hedley resident Mrs. Dennis (Luna) Reed is in a Midland nursing home. Her many friends in this area send greetings and wishes for her good health.

Roy and Dorothy Harris and son Barry went fishing last week at White River Crappie House on the South Plains. They caught about seventy-five fish.

Pauline Kaufman spent the weekend in Amarillo with her children. Shorty Crawford's daughter, Carolyn Blackwell of Amarillo, spent Friday night in Hedley with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Boliver and Angie of Amarillo visited with Joyce Boliver on Saturday. They brought Joyce a beautiful birthday cake and present. Joyce's birthday is October 14.

Others of our community who are celebrating birthdays are Cassie Owens, October 9; Helen Lamberson, Ronald Doherty, Tonya Ward, and Justin Pickard, all on the eleventh; Julia Springer, October 14; and Elmo Kennedy and Bill Talley on the fifteenth.

Burford, Jerry, Darrell, Clara, Rhett, and Scheli Holland, and Michael Moore visited Mark, Stephanie, and Jordy Molloy in Abilene for an enjoyable afternoon Saturday.

Bill and Nita Meador of Clarendon, Glyndol Holland, and Karen and Lisa Hill visited Sunday afternoon with Burford and Jerry.

Burford and Jerry Holland, and Karen and Lisa Hill visited in the Darrell Holland home Sunday night. Calvin and Kristi just returned from an Amarillo Hospital with their new baby Erin. Many thanks for the prayers and calls in Erin's behalf.

Our apologies for misspelling Erin's name in last week's column.

Zora Stephens went to Amarillo this weekend to be with her grandson, Neal Duncan, who had surgery following an accident last week at the peanut plant in Quail. Neal fell some thirty feet, and suffered extensive back damage, but is expected to recover fully.

Deuteronomy 6:7-9

All Things New by Jon Leggett

The house was packed with relatives and friends for Larry and Barry's birthday dinner. It was to be a special occasion, since the identical twins were leaving for college—two different colleges—the next morning. It would be the first time in their lives that they had been separated for any length of time. They wanted to go to school together, but their fields of study dictated otherwise.

But then the most unusual thing happened—unusual, at least, for Larry and Barry. No one remembered what sparked the first angry word. The boys, who rarely argued, glared like wild men at each other. Tongues cracked like black-snake whips. Larry stalked upstairs; Barry stormed to the car and sped away. The guests, bewildered by the fraternal whirlwind, nervously began to excuse themselves, and slink toward the door.

Larry quietly headed for State U. about seven the next morning. Barry overslept, and headed for Southern Tech shortly after noon.

The boys were usually home briefly for holidays. Sometimes their schedules caused them to almost miss each other entirely. They were always at least civil to each other, and never argued again, but the closeness was shattered.

Four years later, Larry sent Barry an expensive wedding gift, but couldn't find time to attend the ceremony. Twenty-five-or-so years later, Barry happened to be in town on the day that Larry's oldest daughter graduated from college. It was the first time the brothers had seen each other in eight years. And so it went throughout their lives.

"...It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement" (Hebrews 9:27).

Larry could not take his eyes from the Spotless Lamb, but he was conscious of the dim outline of a man just beyond an opal-like wall—an obviously thick partition, but almost transparent. The Beautiful Savior spoke not a word, and Larry saw not a trace of anger in those holy eyes, but he fell to his knees, sobbing so hard that he felt he could literally shake himself apart. "Forgive..." He could say no more.

As if coming out of a fog, Larry's eyes moved across the birthday-dinner table, over the cake blazing with nineteen candles, and into his brother's eyes. Just as their eyes met, Barry cracked a silly joke, somewhat insulting to Larry, although the insult was not intended.

Larry flushed momentarily with anger, then, realizing that Barry was embarrassed by all the attention and had merely spoken without thinking, smiled and said, "Happy birthday, brother. I'm sure gonna miss you when we go to college!"

The Risen Christ touched Larry's arm and pointed to the translucent wall. The shadowy figure was still visible on the other side.

"Touch it," Jesus said. Suddenly, Larry realized that the form visible through the wall was that of his brother. In that moment, the wall became hideously ugly to him, realizing that he had built—or at least had helped to build—the barrier separating himself and Barry.

The gentle command was repeated: "Touch it."

When his trembling hand made contact with the wall, it shattered into a million pieces. There, instead of a dim outline, stood Barry, weeping and quaking at least as hard as had Larry.

Nothing in Glory could ever be painful, but if anything ever came close, it was the intensity of the "...Behold, I make all things new..." (Revelation 21:5).

A misapplication of the verse? Perhaps. I don't pretend to know just how God plans to make Heaven free from all sorrow and pain. Maybe He intends to "zap" us with holy amnesia. And God forbid that anyone would interpret this tale as teaching that our sins do not matter, since God is going to iron out every wrinkle anyway. But God WILL go to any length, I believe, to get us on the right track. Indeed, He has already gone the farthest mile. "For He is our peace...and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us...so making peace...by the cross" (Ephesians 2:14-16).

T for TEXAS

by T. Lindsay Baker

Model T Graffiti

"Little Go-Creep," "Leaping Lena," "Puddle Jumper," and "Public Enemy No. 1"--what are they?

These are all names that Texas teenagers gave to their Model T Fords sixty years ago.

By the end of the 1920's, millions of Model T Ford cars were scattered around the country. Fifteen million of them had been produced from 1908 to 1927, and many of these had been cast aside by their owners in favor of shiny new Ford Model As, Chevrolets, or Dodges. This made the broken-down Model Ts available and within the price range of teenagers--the first generation of American adolescents able to buy cars in large numbers.

No sooner did the teenagers start buying the old Model Ts than did they start covering them with graffiti, including such painted-on names as those above. The spontaneous painting, however, did not end merely with names.

The flivvers often became virtual canvases for their creative owners.

One of the characteristics of the Model T was that its engine often far outlasted its body. Consequently, the cars didn't necessarily look bad, although they didn't look completely disreputable either. For many of the teenaged drivers, the latter state was far preferable to obscure mediocrity, so they began covering their car bodies with painted-on epigrams and graffiti.

The painting usually began with a name. A sophomore at T.C.U., for example, called his car "A Chemical Disturbance." West Texas State University professor Fred Rathjen told me that he remembered a flivver in Corpus Christi named "Bored of Education."

A number of epigrams referred to the sheet iron from which the Model T bodies were made. "Beauty is only tin deep," "The tin you love to touch," "The spirit is willing but the body is weak," and "Don't laugh; you may be old yourself some day," were widely popular. "Fishy Body," on the side of the car, referred to the Fisher Bodies used on General Motors vehicles.

The broad rear body panels on the Model T cars offered a wide canvas for painting. Some of the typical teenagers' comments included "My rear is no bumper," "To pass right, pass left," "Don't rush me, Big Boy," and "If you hit this car, you have gone too far." One of the Model T epigrams which survives on present-day cars is the occasionally seen, "Follow me for parts."

Almost anywhere on a Model T might be seen such inscriptions as "A wreck but nobody killed," "An accident ready to happen," "Don't laugh; I once was the property of a Detroit millionaire," "Almost human," and "Beauty in every jar." If a door refused to stay closed, it might be marked, "Open at all hours." Convertible touring cars frequently bore such inscriptions as "Fresh Air Taxi," "Sun Parlor," and "Sun Tan Special."

By the spring of 1929, the Model T epigrams had grown more and more off-color, perhaps a sign of adolescent rebellion against parental and societal restraints. Some of these taunting words included, "I'm old but I still get hot," "Experienced women wanted," and "Constipated--can't pass a thing."

The situation grew so nettling to local police officers in Fort Worth that they complained to the press of "numerous rickety machines--being driven through the streets--'decorated' and lettered" with objectionable language. "The practice of driving in such cars must be stopped," declared a huffy Police Lieutenant Robert Dysart, who was looking for charges which he might place against the most offensive of the adolescent drivers.

Lieutenant Dysart undoubtedly would have been equally upset had he gone thirty miles south of Cleburne, where my father, Garnell A. Baker, was a teenager at the time. There one of his good friends scandalized the town with his Model T emblazoned on the side, "Girls who smoke, throw your butts in here."

The Lions Tale

by Gene Alderson

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Lions Hall with 33 present. Following a very delicious meal, Boss Lion Todd Knorpp called the meeting to order and the regular opening ceremony. Liantamer Henson introduced Ray Burch with the Texas Department of Public Safety who was the guest of Lion Thompson. Several regular guests were present.

One of our members, Delbert Robertson, who is also the Chief of the Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department brought our program today. Delbert brought a video presentation of the training which is available at the Fireman's School at Texas A & M University. It was very interesting. Several of our local firemen attend each year for valuable training and also to allow each of us to receive a reduction in our fire insurance premium. This school, the largest Fireman's School in the world, is staffed by 800 support personnel and attended annually by 3000 fireman (mostly volunteer) from all 50 states and several foreign countries. Firemen present for our meeting included club members Jim Sharrar, Delbert Robertson and Jim Aveni. Visiting firemen included Fire Marshal Duane Garman, Mutt Graham, Mike Williams, Bryan Leeper, Jay Gage and Phillip Vargas. Fire Chief Robertson stated that the Fire Department was having an Open House this Sunday from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. celebrating their 85th anniversary. It will begin with the awards for the posters made by our school children and will also feature tours of the newly remodeled facilities. Our local fire department has 41 members. Many thanks to them for the good work. Meeting adjourned.

How Not To Prepare For An Electrical Fire

prepare one to remain sane when the smoke alarm jars one from an afternoon snooze—but no, I looked at my smoke filled kitchen and sort of went scare crazy. My stove was not the source of fire; the utility room was not the source, but there was smoke "a plenty", and when there is smoke, there is fire, and when there's fire, you call for help, and when you've lived in Hedley thirty-five years and need help quick, you call O'Neil Weatherly. (He's not the fire chief, he's not the city manager anymore, but calling him is effective.)

As I turned away from the phone, I saw the flame of fire behind the refrigerator I yanked the cord from the outlet, and ran to look for anybody on the street. And then I remembered there was a fire extinguisher in the garage. I ran for it. Now we know every family needs a fire extinguisher, and we are proud of having a good one—so proud that we have been taking care of it; it was still in the cardboard packing box.

Now I know that being scared is commonly cause for greater strength. Well, when you have a bit of arthritis in your fingers, that is not necessarily true. I did get the gadget out of the box. Then I had to read the instructions three times before I could understand them. They said "Pull the plastic ring to free the pump." That plastic ring was tough—twenty mule team tough, I think. But after a number of yanks and an eternity later, I broke the little plastic thread. I began to pump the "volcanic ash or whatever the dust is" onto the flame and then for good measure over everything else in the kitchen. It worked! About that time, the fire truck arrived. In fact, two fire trucks arrived along with Bob White, Bryan Hill and Steve Mullins and I don't know how many others. O'Neil came in and our son Lyndon arrived. They all looked like knights in shining armor to me. After that—Well, I started out to tell you how not to prepare for a fire.

1. Do not install a smoke detector. You can't depend on them anyway! Some of them go off every time you fry bacon.

2. Fire extinguishers are not for decoration; be sure to stash yours away somewhere out of sight. Keep it in the carton it is packed in. Someone might play with it and use all the "filling" just for fun.

3. Do not hang it up on the bracket that comes with it. Probably never will need it anyway.

4. Assume that the fire (if there ever is one) will occur when your husband is at home. No point in anyone else knowing how to use the extinguisher.

5. Wait for the house to be on fire before you read the instructions for using the gadget. They are much more difficult to read and understand when smoke surrounds you.

6. Be sure to continue to use three-prong adapters if you have them even though you have new outlets and do not need them any longer. After all, you paid good money for those adapters.

7. Do not bother to learn where the master switch is. The purpose of it is for the utility man to read the meter and you know from your monthly bill that he knows where the meter is!

If anyone has read this far (I flatter myself that someone just might) think about the "ridiculous" tips I have given, and see how many of them fit your situation—and take action!

Some time ago—more than a year—I made some comments and posed some questions about fires—one of which was whom to call in case of fire.

Having attended school as a pupil or teacher for some three generations, I have become rather familiar with fire drills. For a dozen years, I've had a fireman son-in-law; for some thirty-five years I've lived with a very safety conscious husband; I have a nephew whose roommate sells fire extinguishers. As a part of my "fire background" my sister's home burned to the ground because of faulty wiring; my brother's home burned to the ground from faulty wiring.

One would think that background would to some degree

Thank You

We have never felt such love shared as we have experienced these past days.

For every prayer, to everyone who came by, and so many did. For every word of encouragement spoken, for every hug, for every dish of food, for every single flower, for the wonderful women who served our food, for those who took care of the needs of the fish farm, for every dollar given, we offer our most sincere gratitude of thanksgiving.

Our prayers are that God will repay each of you in the same abundant way in your time of need.

The Family of James Allen Ariola

Thank You

Thank you to those of you who called, visited, brought food and the cards I received when I was in the hospital and after I came home. Thanks to those of you who gave to the Love Fund for us.

We appreciate your love & concern.

A special thank you to Billie Ashcraft and to the E. M. S. God Bless You All James, Bea, Ron, & Doug Burleson
