Grant Aspires For Office.

A Columbian paper announces that U. S. Grant, Jr., a candidate for the republican nomination for the vice presidency next year. Mr. Grant has taken more interest in politics than his brothers and is popular on the Pacific Coast. He has lived in California for several years.

U. S. Grant, Jr., son of the late President U. S. Grant, was admitted to the bar in New York in 1876. In 1878 he entered the office of United States District Attorney Woodward. He married a Miss Flood on July 4, 1880. In 1884 the firm with which Mr. Grant was connected failed and he made an assignment.

Ten years later he bought an estate in California and soon after was talked of as a possible candidate for the United States Senate from that State. In the fall of 1899 he lent his attention to a scheme for crossing the Continent with a railroad. In 1900 he was made a national delegate from California by the republicans and was present at the convention which nominated the late President McKinley.

A cement plant at Hannibal, Mo., has contracted to furnish the city of Galveston, Texas, five million barrels of cement to be used in the construction of the great sea wall there. Computing 150 barrels to the car it will take 33,334 cars to carry the big order. At 20 cars to the train it will require 1,666 trains. The shipment is to go over the M. K. & T. railroad.—Palmyra Herald.

It is a fact that the Pullman sells the best cigars in town.

Bad Dozen.

In the Crerar Library, of Chicago, is a book in which five hundred men out of work have written of "the greatest blunder of their life." 1. "Didn't save what I earned." 2. "Did not as a boy realize the value of an education." 3. "If I had taken better care of my money, I would be better in health and morals." 4. "Did not realize the importance of sticking to one kind of employment." 5. "The greatest blunder of my life was when I took my first drink." 6. "One of the greatest blunders of my life was not to perfect myself in one of the lines of business I started out to learn." 7. "My greatest blunder was when I left school in the fifth grade." 8. "The turning point in my life was when, at fifteen, I ran away from home." 9. "Spent my money foolishly when I was earning good wages." 10. "When I let myself be misled in thinking that I need not stick to one thing." 11. "Self-conceit and not listening to my parents." 12. "Was to fool away my time when at school."—Ex.

The Baptist brethren have extended a call to Rev. J. F. Elder Mangum, Okla., to assume the pastorate of the local church, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. A. B. McGee, who had to retire on account of ill health.—Hereford Brand.

No chute was necessary at the court house this morning to keep the prospective land buyers from rushing over one another. The price of the railroad land was enough to stop the rush.—Quannah Tribune.

Twine Shortage.

It is estimated that about 1 million pounds of binding twine were ruined by the flood in the wholesale houses in the West bottoms and there is likely to be a shortage of twine for the farmers of the Southwest. The Kansas state penitentiary is manufacturing 13,000 pounds of twine a day, but this will have to stop soon unless the penitentiary receives 750 bales of sisal, which is lost somewhere between Mobile and Kansas City.

In one day last week the warden of the penitentiary returned to different farmers in Oklahoma $26,000 in cash which had been sent for twine. The 101 ranch alone ordered 30,000 pounds. It is expected that the Twine trust will advance prices now.

Thirty-one cars of Chilean silver ore reached Fort Worth over the Houston & Texas Central road and was transferred to the Rock Island for Denver and Pueblo, Col. The ore reached Galveston by boat and was reshipped from that point to Fort Worth. Each car averaged thirty-five tons of ore.

Postmaster General Payne's ill health is causing much concern among his friends, who fear that he will have to retire, even in the midst of the inquiry. The administration is opposed to his retirement at this time.

Last Saturday nine men were killed in a shaft of Sower's mine near Cambridge, Ohio, by explosion of 3000 pounds of dynamite fired by lightning.

The population of Ireland, which fifty years ago was over 8,000,000, is now less than 4,500,000.

Indian Cattle Tax.

District Revenue Inspector J. L. Jordan, reports that the Indian police have been driving large herds of cattle out of the Territory in the vicinity of Marietta. These cattle belong to stockmen, who, it is alleged, refuse to pay the tribal cattle tax of 25 cents on each head grassing in the Nation. Shortly after the removal of some of the stock one of the owners wired Indian Inspector J. George Wright, asking the privilege of driving his cattle back and paying the tax, but the Indian Inspector replied that he had no authority to permit cattle to return, and said that cattle must be kept out when once removed.

Mr. Jordan says that during the year of 1903 the taxes will reach $125,000.

The apple crop of Missouri is estimated at 50 per cent of an average yield. In South Missouri the peach crop is practically nothing. Pears promise about 20 per cent of a normal crop. With pears there are some heavy crops, and over considerable areas the yield will be less than 10 per cent. These estimates are from a circular of L. A. Goodwin, Secretary of the Missouri State Horticultural Society and are compiled from answers to 500 queries sent out to fruit growers in the state. Similar conditions exist in parts of Arkansas and in adjoining states east of the Mississippi.—Farm and Ranch.

The jury failed to agree in the Jett-White case at Jackson, Ky., and Judge Redwine has decided to transfer the case to Cynthia, Ky., for trial.

W. P. BLAKE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Entered February 10, 1903, at Clarendon, Tex., as Second class matter, under Act of Congress March 3, 1879.

Clarendon, Texas, June 24, 1903.

THE new cigarett law of Missouri went into effect last week. It prohibits the selling or giving away to minors under 18 years of age any cigarettes, cigarette wrappers or papers under a penalty of a fine of $100 for each offense. To make it a better law they should have run the age up to at least eighty.

It is claimed that the anti-pool bill is a dead letter, as the bookmakers can change their methods slightly and still go on with their gambling. Between the loopholes left by the law-makers and the writs of injunction issued by conscienceless judges there is little dependence to be put in any of it for good.

Clarendon loses a good citizen and Amarillo gains that much. Surely, if we get enough men of Mr. Baker's kind this will be a good place to locate the Baptist College.—Amarillo Advocate.

O, Clarendon is admitted to be the best place for the college, and if you get enough of Mr. Baker's kind, just trade off your whisky and gambling shops for chicken ranches. Mr. Baker is a prohibitionist and a methodist.

A report from Colorado, Tex., says local cattlemen are predicting a big slump in Eastern market values during the next two or three weeks, unless Texas cattlemen hold back their stuff until the markets have ample time in which to regain their normal condition. They point to the fact that for nearly three weeks two out of the five markets have been out of the commission on account of the flood conditions that have prevailed, and the others have been taxed to the very end of their resources to take care of the offerings. A great many cattle have been held back on account of the general knowledge of these conditions that are now ready to move, and grass fat cattle directly from the ranges are now ready to go forward. If the cattle are shoved out in the threatened numbers now in sight there is sure to be an utter and complete demoralization of prices that will result in loss and disaster to the producer. The advice is freely offered that the men who hold their cattle for the next few weeks are the ones who are going to realize the most money out of the situation.

Nat Q. Henderson has sickened of associating with republicans and extolling the merits of the g. o. p., and has hied himself to the mountains of West Texas, where he will devote his time to developing coyotes and jack rabbits on a cactus ranch. At his leisure he will edit his new paper—The Independent—at Blanco.—Ex.

A fire at May, Brown county, Friday night destroyed the drug store of Ira Connell, Dr. W. E. Wright's office and two warehouses belonging to Robinson Bros. The Woodmen of the World also lost their hall. It is said the fire originated between Ira Connell's store and Dr. Wright's office.

A drastic Sunday law went into effect at Hot Springs, Ark., Sunday. There was not a shop or a stand or store open in the city, not even a newspaper was sold. The law is being rigidly enforced.

Ben Simpson about 93 years old, killed himself near Portales, New Mex., Sunday by shooting himself with a shotgun. He was an old buffalo hunter and Texas ranger for many years.

The College Committee Meeting.

The Baptist college committee to receive propositions from the applicants for it met yesterday, with the exception of Mr. Oakes from Channing. Clarendon, Amarillo, Hereford, Canyon City, Canadian and Lakeview, Hall county, were applicants for it. Amarillo made no proposition. Clarendon, through Rev. Skinner, offered $11,000 already subscribed and the ground, a beautiful location. Canadian, through Lawyer Hoover, offered a building they already have, said to have cost $20,000. Canyon City, through J. W. St. Clair offered $10,000 and land valued at $5000 more. Hereford, through A. J. Lipscomb offered in cash $10,000, a 20-acre campus and the alternate 5-acre lots of 200 acres of land. Memphis' proposition was the most indefinite of any. Rev. Cole stated that they would give the land and $10,000, or would increase it to $15,000, but did not say how much was actually subscribed or guaranteed. Lakeview, some 9 or 10 miles south of Memphis, represented by letter, in which was offered $14,200 and 640 acres of land. This was accompanied by the list of names and the amounts they would pay, but stipulated that it would not be binding unless the college was located as indicated.

The speakers all nicely and in a good humor put forth the claims for their respective places without any uncalled for flings at other applicants, with one exception, and this speaker opened by complimenting the others for their course, then cast more reflections than all the rest combined. We are fully satisfied, however, that all those present are too well acquainted with Clarendon to be biased by any such insinuations and statements that were made. We are glad, too, that Clarendon's representative did not reply in kind and refer to Hall county's long standing factional division and that water had to be hauled from Clarendon and Giles, sometimes four trains a day, right through Memphis.

Canyon City was represented by J. W. St. Clair, L. G. Conner and L. C. Lair.

Hereford by A. J. Lipscomb, J. A. Williams, W. B. Beach and C. J. Stocks.

Canadian by Attorney Hoover and Rev. J. W. Whatley.

Llano Estacado Association by Rev. J. W. Winn and Henry Summers, of Plainview, and Red Fork Association by Rev. Hawkins, of Chillicothe.

The Memphis delegation who accompanied Rev. J. B. Cole, the Memphis delegate, was Judge Pardue and wife, Mrs. J. B. Cole, W. A. Johnson, J. C. Montgomery, J. A. Montgomery, S. S. Montgomery, J. A. Bradford, A. J. Kinard, Rev. T. F. Robinson, Rev. S. E. McDonald, J. J. Nickle, C. S. Boykin, J. M. Gist, Sam Harle, W. M. Fore, D. Browder, A. C., A. A. and J. M. Welborn, J. G. Noel, Dr. J. M. Ballew, Judge J. F. Bradley, J. P. Drake, R. A. Dunbar.

There were some other parties present whose names we did not get.

Of course, there is no decision yet as to where the college will be located. That can only be settled when the association meets. The committee says the place getting it should erect the main building, to be worth about $50,000 and turn it over to the board free of debt, and that on the rest of the field money should be raised to build dormitories and other needed buildings.

Brazil expects to spend $600,000 in gold at the World's Fair, the president of the republic having recommended that amount.

At Wichita Falls Wednesday night the residence of the Baptist minister, J. H. Riffe, was entered while the family were at prayer meeting and about sixty dollars worth of jewelry stolen. The burglar has not been arrested.

Attorney General Bell declares that members of the legislature cannot legally be notaries public. This knocks out sixty-eight supposed notaries who are members of the lower-house of the legislature and nullifies their act as such.

Near Maypearl last Friday Flora Buckner, daughter of Acie Bynum, while trying to kindle a fire with kerosene oil, was severely burned, and is in a very critical condition. The residence of Mr. Bynum was also burned, involving a loss of about eight hundred dollars.

Pittsburg had shipped 25 cars of new potatoes up to last Sunday. Prices ranged from 85c to $1.06. Those who shipped potatoes are highly pleased with the result, although the crop was shorter than last year on account of the extremely wet spring. D. M. Wray sold $308.50 worth of potatoes off of three acres. After paying all cost of fertilizing, seed, etc., Mr. Wray netted $83 an acre.

Mr. J. T. McHan, of Rowe, was in town Monday after a lot of sweet potato slips. He says he has a fine place for a market garden and will set out a large crop of potatoes.

C. L. Stocks, the genial editor of The Searchlight at Hereford accompanied the Hereford delegation down to work for their place for the college. He made us a pleasant call while here.

Simpson & Erwin and Dubbs & Beville have rented the Borchert building and the club will go out of business. The Pullman firm will use the basement for a kitchen, the rear of the ground floor to serve meals and rent furnished rooms up stairs. Dubbs & Beville will use the front of the ground floor for a confectionery store. Being thus run, all should have a good patronage.

We had two heavy rains late Sunday evening, some hail, considerable wind and an unusual amount of thunder and lightning. The house of uncle Mac Elbon was struck by a bolt of lightning and a hole knocked in the floor and himself and a boy of Mr. Cowser's were badly stunned for a little while. A small house of Mr. Hilderbrand's was slightly damaged by lightning, also. The hail did some damage on Mr. Bourland's and Mr. Talion's places.

Mrs. Wedgworth will teach a limited number of piano pupils at the home of Mrs Talley during the summer months. Class will begin Monday, June 8th.

The Summer Normal Opens.

The Summer Normal opened here yesterday morning with prayer by Presiding Elder Sherman followed by an address of welcome by Rev. Story of the Presbyterian church, who in a pleasing way referred to Clarendon's hospitality and her appreciation of educational undertakings. He was followed by Rev. Hardy pastor of the Methodist church and Rev. Sherman who made pleasing talks, the latter referring to Clarendon as being the center of both religion and education. Rev. Allan also spoke of the advantages of education, etc., and Rev. Barcus of the Clarendon College made a fine talk on the duties and privileges of teachers, and Captain Carhart made a timely talk and suggested some concerted plan of inducing the legislature to exempt active school teachers from the requirement of settlement on school land purchased by them.

Prof. Kennedy closed the speech-making, after which the teachers went into organization for the work.

Some speaker referred to the unequal number of the sexes represented and intimated that the term might not result in many matrimonial matches from this cause, but we wish to suggest that there are a good many Clarendon young men who are not school teachers, but who are candidates for a venture of that kind and who think a school teacher makes a model wife.

The school organized with Prof. T. E. Kennedy as conductor, Prof. Silvey as teacher of Mathematics and Miss Mary Stout as teacher of Methods and management, physiology, political and physical geography and spelling. The roll at the opening was:

From Clarendon, Towne Young, J. W. Harper, J. A. Barrett, B. G. Harding, H. W. Craig, Etta Stevens, Bertha Graham, Lula Ward, Allie Ward, Hattie Donnell, Kittie Kimbrough, Elise Coulter, Elizabeth Stevens, Maude McLean, Effie Ferguson, Mary Peebles.

The school board finally passed the matter of plans for the new school house last Saturday and the plans are now well advanced toward completion. The building will be a square building about 60 feet each way, with a belfry on the front and four hip gables on the sides. The rooms will be 22x24 feet with eight foot halls. All rooms will be 12 feet ceiling in the clear. Two of the rooms of the upper floor will be separated by a rolling partition which will permit making a good sized lecture room for the building.

More About Gold Dollars.

A report, quoting numismatic authority, that the Louisiana Purchase dollars are of silver, has considerable circulation. It emanated, rather strange to say, from Washington. It is coupled with the criticism that the price of three dollars in currency for a souvenir dollar in silver is excessive, and the prediction is made by the numismatist quoted that the silver dollars, although of distinctive coinage, cannot command this premium. The Louisiana Purchase Centennial dollars are of gold. No gold dollars had been coined in this country since 1890, until Congress authorized the Louisiana Purchase Centennial dollars. The coinage of gold dollars began in 1849. Between that date and 1890 there were coined 19,399,337 gold dollars. In 1890 Congress repealed the Act authorizing dollar coinage from gold, so that it was necessary to have a specific Act of Congress for this Louisiana Purchase Centennial issue.

It is the testimony of the leading numismatists of the country that the standard price of any one of the ordinary gold dollars, in good condition issued before 1890, is $2.00, as a minimum. There are gold dollars of years when the coinage was small which commanded a much larger premium. Some of those gold dollars sell from $25.00 to $50.00 each.

The issue of exposition gold dollars is limited by Act of Congress to 250,000; one half of which bear the head of Thomas Jefferson and the other half of William McKinley. The first of these dollars were received from the mint just before the holidays last winter. The experience of the Exposition management in the disposition of them has afforded interesting information in regard to coin collecting. There was considerable local curiosity and demand for these coins when they were received, and some thousand of them were taken immediately. Since the supply of the first demand there has been a steady call for the coins, nearly every mail bringing applications for them. The call is not confined to this country. It shows no decrease. Most collectors wish the coins in pairs, so that practically 125,000 purchasers will exhaust the supply. The heads of McKinley and Jefferson, from which the McKinley and Jefferson gold dollars were made, were taken from two of the best medals in possession of the Directors of the Mint. The Jefferson medal used, according to the medallic history of the United States was engraved by John Reich, who was, for a time connected with the mint at Philadelphia. He died in 1833. The McKinley medal, which is considered by the late President's friends to be the best portraiture of Mr. McKinley, was engraved by the present engraver of the mint, Charles E. Barber, who had sittings for the purpose given him by the late President.

Superintendent Scott of the Denver is before the City's equalization board this evening. The railroad's property in town has been raised from $16,000 to $20,000. Probably they will compromise on $18,000.—Quannah Tribune.

Of the 41,000,000 people in England more than half of them live on an income of less than $12 a week and the earnings of 7,000,000 of this number do not exceed $6 a week for the family.

At Van Alstyne Saturday lightning struck the barn of William Baker, burning the barn and a separator and some feed, barley and oats. The loss on barn and contents is $1,000; insurance $200 on barn and $400 on separator. Lightning also struck the barn of William Carruth north of town. The rain fell so fast that the fire was extinguished before much damage was done.

Wheeler County Crops.

S. L. McDonnell writes to the Dallas News from Mobeetie as follows: Having traveled over most of Wheeler County and seen the wonderful growth of alfalfa, I believe it will interest some of the readers of The News to give a brief account of its production in the Panhandle. Alfalfa is comparatively a recent production in Wheeler County, having been grown only about three years. T. A. Bailey made the first experiment with alfalfa in 1899. He at first had only an acre or two, but it did so well that he increased his acreage to more than a 100 acres. Others, profiting by his experiment, began planting alfalfa until now there is hardly a stockman in the county but grows it. After the ground is once set with the plant it is not necessary to cultivate it, nor does it have to be planted from year to year, but the plant grows from year to year for an indefinite time. The first crop is ready to be harvested during the month of May and with favorable weather can be harvested each month until frost.

Farmers last year harvested from four to six crops, with an average yield of one-third ton per acre for each cutting. Alfalfa is very nutritious and there is always a ready sale for all that can be produced, at from $10 to $12 per ton. Alfalfa comes nearer filling the requirements as an all-round feed than anything yet tried by stockmen of the Panhandle. It at once takes the place of both grain and hay. Stockmen have also found that it is an excellent food for hogs and most farmers allow a drove of hog to remain on their alfalfa fields the entire year. This county is fast becoming famous for the growth of this excellent plant, and at no distant day the very land that a few years ago was thought to be worthless for agricultural purposes, will be as valuable as the famous black lands of Texas.

Texas World's Fair Fund.

As the Legislature could not make an appropriation for the purpose, if Texas is to be represented at the World's Fair the fund necessary for the erection of a building must be subscribed by her citizens, and in order to achieve satisfactory results, the funds must be subscribed and paid in at an early date.

The Texas World's Fair Commission at a recent meeting adopted a resolution declaring that unless $100,000 shall be subscribed by July 1, the project will be dropped and all subscriptions which have been paid in will be returned. The Commission also asked the newspapers of the State to take up the matter and receive subscriptions, and feeling that Texas will miss a great opportunity if not represented at the great Fair, we willingly open our columns for this purpose, and will in this column acknowledge all receipts for this laudable purpose and see that it reaches the Commission's treasurer.
