"HEART-SAVER" KITCHEN TO BE FEATURE OF STATE FAIR GAS EXHIBIT

New Heart-Saver Kitchen cuts in half both the time and the energy you spend in your kitchen. Visitors to the State Fair, in Dallas, can see the Heart Kitchen and three other new kitchen designs from the pages of national magazines at Lone Star Gas Company's Natural Gas Exhibit Building. All facilities in the kitchen are within 20 inches, or arm's reach, of the rolling kitchen stool. There is no stooping, no stretching. The kitchen was designed by the Woman's Home Companion, in cooperation with the American Heart Association and American Gas Association, and is featured in their October issue. Lone Star has reproduced it to the last detail for State Fair visitors.

Four Luxurious Kitchens to be Featured by Lone Star Gas Company at State Fair of Texas Oct. 6-21

A "heart-saver" kitchen and three other luxurious kitchens fully equipped with time and labor-saving appliances and projecting ultramodern trends in planning and decorating will be featured at the Natural Gas Building during the State Fair of Texas in Dallas, Oct. 6-21. Other attractions will be display of 30 different brands of gas ranges with automatic features available in dealer stores and a giant "recipe box" where a home economist will prepare individualized recipes and homemaking helps upon request.

Three of the four kitchens are taken from pages of national women's magazines and all are rich in new colors and designing ideas which any woman might like for her own home. The Heart-Saver kitchen is copied from the October issue of Woman's Home Companion which, in cooperation with the American Heart Association, planned the kitchen especially for persons afflicted with heart trouble or high blood pressure. This kitchen minimizes exertion and brings all facilities to within twenty inches of arm's length of the occupant of a kitchen stool equipped with casters to make it easily movable. Secret of this "work-saving" kitchen is that each utility has its own place in cabinets, drawers, etc., and each is returned to place after use. An automatic gas range with oven and broiler at elbow height minimizes stooping and reaching.

A complete new idea is encompassed within the Imperial Maple kitchen featured in September McCall's magazine. This kitchen has become a part of the living room because it has no hall, dining room or pantry to separate it. Colors complement the dining room and the kitchen is actually a part of the living area, following the modern trend to "move the party to the kitchen." The Imperial Maple has a soft-toned green and melon color in line with new decoration ideas. There is a new in-a-wall oven and built-in counter surface cooking unit to complete this modern planning.

Another of the "living" kitchens is copied from American Home Magazine's October issue. This kitchen incorporates a dining area with laundry and sewing facilities making for ultra-convenience. The fourth kitchen, by St. Charles, is a deluxe small kitchen designed for a bachelor apartment.

The Natural Gas Building provides spacious lounges, comfortable chairs, free ice water and clean rest rooms. It is air conditioned by units that use a gas flame for cooling or heating.

Miss John Gilliland spent last week with Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Sims and children in San Antonio. They all made a trip to Austin while Miss Gilliland was there.

TAKE YOUR PICK OF BAIRD PROPERTY NOW WHILE PRICES ARE LOW

All indications show that Baird will soon become a prosperous oil town. It might be wise for you to invest in property before the big demand makes prices go sky high. If you are looking for a bargain in residential property cast an eye at these places:

A six-room house over on the hill, the choicest residential location in Baird. Four lots, two-car garage. House faces east on paved and curbed street. Modern, but needs paint. The new owner can fix it up like he wants it. This place is priced to sell quick as is. $4750, half down, balance monthly at 6%.

Here's another desirable home, located over on the hill, but not on paved street. Three bedrooms, living room, kitchen, bath, car port, two large lots, located on the corner near new subdivision. This is a real bargain at $5600. Part may be financed.

In town within two blocks of the courthouse is another conveniently located home. Three bedrooms, living room, kitchen, porches, bath, garage, nice shrubbery, garden spot, paved sidewalk, just off new highway, not far from school, churches, business district. Owner wants only $3800 cash. This place would make good rent property and would bring at least $50 per month.

For complete details on the above pieces of property, or other property in Baird, inquire at THE BAIRD STAR OFFICE

DON'T BE TOO SURE YOU GOT OFF "SCOTT FREE"

AUSTIN — Remember that last Highway Patrolman who stopped you for a traffic violation and warned you but didn't write you a ticket because you "talked him out of it?" Well, don't be so sure that you got off scott free!

W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol, announced today in Austin that every time one of his men stops a motorist and lets him off with a warning the officer makes out a warning ticket which contains the operator's name and address, his driver's license number, the vehicle type and registration, the date, location and nature of the violation. The motorist doesn't get a copy of this ticket, Chief Elliott says, but a copy of it is forwarded to the headquarters of the Texas Department of Public Safety where it becomes a part of his permanent driving record.

And, here's the hitch — too many of those warnings, just like too many arrests or traffic accidents will bring the motorist up on the carpet to see whether his driving privileges should be revoked.

The procedure was placed into effect on Sept. 1, and according to Elliott the best way to avoid having your record catch up with you is to refrain from having accidents, from getting tickets, or getting warnings.

"Safe, sane and courteous driving that comes through observance of the traffic laws is the way to avoid this unpleasantness," says the Chief.

Miss Catherine Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Ford of 22950 Walnut Avenue, Torrance, Calif., became the bride of Charles Russell Bales at the First Baptist Church of Torrance, at 7 o'clock in the evening of September 1st. Rev. M. Northup performed the ceremony. The candlelighted church was decorated with gladioluses and asters.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl O. Bales, of Sigourney, Iowa.

The bride was gowned in a ballerina length white net over taffeta, fashioned with a lace bodice. Her veil was fingertip length. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

The maid of honor, Bette C. Fort, chose ballerina length gown of blue net over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and gerdenias.

Best man was Reginald H. Lewis. Ushers were Ralph W. Leatherby and John J. Elder.

The bride's mother chose a pink crepe dress with black accessories. The senior Mrs. Bales chose navy with black accessories.

Reception was held at the church social hall.

After a wedding trip to Colorado Springs and Estes Park, Colo., they will go to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, where the bridegroom is a student at Iowa Wesleyan College.

The bride and her parents are former residents of Baird. She is a graduate of the local high school.

In Our Home Town
By Atrelle Dill

Ummmm—feel it? When the mercury dives to fifty you know it, but even when it soars to ninety, you still know it—Autumn's here—Indian Summer. It's that time of year when the red people used to scan the horizons, see the haze of fall upon the low-rolling hills, and know that it was time to pack their earthen pots, roll up their furs, and begin the slow trip southward. Summer was over, they knew. He was an old man then, and tired of the heat and toil of planting and harvesting. He had climbed to the top of the highest mountain to rest and sleep. He filled his pipe with tobacco, for his was a job well done, and it was the smoke of the pipe that made the haze on the countryside and told the Indians that Autumn had come.

Have you been out to visit M. L. Hughes' lovely suburban market and food store? It is really a beautiful thing and quite an asset to the town. It's very complete and convenient, and I think we should all share in being proud of it.

And have you noticed "China" Aliphin's display in the City Pharmacy show window? It's well worth a trip to see the splendid handicraft work. There are many smaller items to see, but mainly there is the tiny scale replica of the rodeo grounds—complete to the lighting equipment. It took weeks of work, patience, and intricate skill to create such a perfect work, and you'll enjoy seeing it.

Speaking of rodeos, the Callahan County Sheriff's Posse would have you remember that the annual all-negro rodeo begins next week. This will make the third show here and those who saw it before won't need urging to go again. It's new, and it's novel, and it certainly has proved popular around here.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glibreath's daughter, Nancy Kay, for winning the Theatre-Sponsored Baby Contest and best wishes for further success in the state final.

Congratulations to Butch Waggoner, who is celebrating his fifth birthday this week with a party.

Those "in the know" say Frank Gardiner has one of the best line-ups in entertainment for Baird theatre patrons in this history of the place next month. "Alice in Wonderland" has an early showing date, as well as a great many other looked-forward-to films. Right now, your must-see list probably includes "Samson and Delilah," coming this weekend. That's supposed to be just as good as they say it is.

In signing off, let's send congratulatory cards to Richard and James Dyer Windham, who have a brand new baby brother at their house.

Mrs. Nora Warren accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Dhu Warren to Pontotoc county, Miss., for an extended visit in their home and with her children.

Ticket Demand Greater Than Ever Before For State Fair of Texas Attractions

With less than a month before the 1951 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 6-21, opens for its 66th great show, thousands of people throughout the Southwest are already getting excited about the great annual fall festival of merry-making.

That excitement is demonstrated in the orders pouring into Dallas for the fair's great entertainment features "Guys and Dolls" and "Ice Cycles of 1952" — and for the three big-time football games during the fair.

"Guys and Dolls" tickets are selling faster than the ducks to last year's "South Pacific" did in 1950, and "South Pacific" made theatre attendance history.

Entries for the Quarter Horse Show will close Sept. 24, and other livestock entries were to be closed Monday, Sept. 10. Thousands of entries are pouring in for the great 26-breed livestock exposition, headed by the Pan American National Hereford Show, Oct. 6-11.

Hundreds of entries from ten states, Missouri, Kentucky, Kansas, Tennessee, California, Wisconsin, Iowa, New York and Minnesota, as well as Texas, have been received for the Women's Show. Deadline is Sept. 29.

Exhibits are going up fast in the fair's huge exhibition buildings and rapid progress is being made on the new $125,000 livestock judging pavilion.

The trees, shrubs and flowers that make State Fair Park one of the most beautifully landscaped spots in the Southwest have survived the worst drought in Texas history wonderfully. Fair visitors will find the park an oasis of natural beauty bedecked with gay trappings of a manmade fairland.

Hundreds of gallons of colorful paint are being splashed across the face of the fair to give the park a sunny smile to greet its visitors next month.

The State Fair expects its biggest attendance in history for the 1951 exposition—2,300,000 during the 16 fun-filled days of the world's greatest state fair. Last year's attendance was 2,176,519, more than twice that for any other state fair.

Mrs. Myrtle Berry returned to her home Monday of last week from San Angelo, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Aubrey Ground, and family, for a few days.

Mrs. B. B. Hurst and son, Tom, of Abilene, visited in the home of the Max L. Logans, Sunday.

Gonzales Fund Drive Now Under Way

GONZALES — Dates for the state-wide drive to raise funds for Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children, Texas' own treatment center for physically handicapped youngsters, have been set for Sept. 16-30, according to announcement by Ross Boothe, Foundation President.

Governor Allan Shivers is serving as general chairman of the Gonzales Foundation committee, spearheading the appeal for funds to expand the facilities of the non-profit, non-sectarian hospital.

Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation operates a 115-bed hospital, chartered by the state but built by contributions from generous Texans from every corner of the state and dependent upon them for support. It bears the stamp of approval of the American College of Surgeons, emblematic of the high calibre of the treatment program offered to any Texas child regardless of color, creed, or financial condition.

A building program is under way at the Foundation which will add approximately 30 beds to its capacity, providing space for the treatment of about 100 more children each year. Money raised by public subscription during this September campaign will be used to provide these and other facilities to enable the Gonzales Foundation to extend its medical program to many more physically handicapped little ones in Texas.

THIS WEEK IN Washington

SENATE RATIFICATION of the Japanese peace treaty before the tentative adjournment date of October 1 is a possibility, according to administration leaders here. In the meantime, a senate floor battle over the strong recommendation of the finance committee to tax cooperatives, is almost a certainty, much to the surprise of the strong farm bloc in both houses of congress. That the proposed tax bill exempts co-ops under $100,000 in assets, exclusive of inventory, is not much of a satisfaction to the farm bloc leaders, since, if passed, the tax bill proposal would reverse a national policy of 35 years standing to exempt cooperatives from taxation.

While the senate this week is struggling with the over-all tax bill and other legislation, the house is in recess waiting for the upper body to get caught up with its work. The senate has been so beset with investigations that its regular standing committee work has suffered.

For once, the much maligned Voice of America withstood an attack in the senate when that body refused to accept a finance committee recommendation for a $22,000,000 cut in funds for the state department's international information and educational activities agency, which conducts the Voice of America programs. However the agency did not come through unscathed, since budget requests totaled $115,000,000, which the house slashed to $85,000,000.

Then the senate committee came along and would have cut it further to $63,000,000, but as was pointed out, action on the floor restored the $22,000,000 to the figure as it came from the house. The senate did, however approve the full budget request of $25,164,655 for the radio broadcast division, the program which handles the "Voice." House reductions were from budget requests in other informational activities.

Two amendments affecting the department of justice were approved by voice vote in the senate, one amendment offered by Senator Kefauver, Tennessee, to increase by $500,000 funds for the anti-trust division of justice department and another Kefauver amendment to increase by $70,000 general administration funds of justice. The latter funds would be used to put into effect the National Youth Correction Act which was passed by the congress last year.

Senator Paul Douglas, Illinois, according to observers here, may be seeking the mantle now worn by Senator Byrd, Virginia, as the official senate cutter-of-funds. Senator Douglas has been particularly active of late, but not very effective in getting his slashing amendments through the senate. He was particularly ineffective in his fight to cut agricultural department funds and he offered four different fund-slashing amendments to cut state department and federal aid to highways.

Douglas tried to cut something like four-and a half million dollars from state department salaries, but was rejected; he tried to cut $2,000,000 out of money for acquisition of buildings abroad, but was beaten down; he sought to cut $175,000 out of fund used for representation allowance abroad, stating he did not think it necessary to "float foreign relations in a sea of cocktails or champagne."

The senate, however, rejected his amendment 40 to 25. Then his last effort to reduce funds this week was to cut $25,000,000 from the federal aid to highways appropriation and he was beaten back by voice vote.

The administration won a victory in passage of the so-called Battle bill introduced by Representative Laurie C. Battle, Alabama, passed unanimously by the house and by a vote of 55 to 16 in the senate after some changes.

The Battle bill is designed to cut off economic or military aid to any nations selling arms or other obvious implements of war to Russia or her satellites, but does not bind the President to an inflexible rule. The bill will replace the so-called Kern Rider, which was attached to the third supplementary appropriation act. Senator Kern, Missouri, author, was supported by Byrd and Wherry.

A delicious dinner was served to eighteen members. The year book committee, composed of Mmes. Lee Ivey, V. E. Hill, B. L. Russell, Jr., W. P. Brightwell, were hostesses for the occasion.

On The School Campus

Atrelle Dill

Can you realize that one-half of the first six-weeks period of school has been completed? Studies are really under way now, and the school term is off to a happy start.

Grade school children are realizing more and more how convenient their new building can be. If you haven't found time to inspect the class rooms and grounds to see just what your dollars have bought, you'll be happy to know that among other things, you are providing plenty of space for your children, well-ventilated rooms, free from draughts and easily heated or cooled. There is also excellent lighting in each room and no danger of eye strain to young students. You didn't purchase a building alone, you know, you invested your taxes in the children and that's a gift-edged security that will pay off double every time.

News from Mrs. Hubert Ross and the first grade is that the class has been issued new work books in phonetics, which promises to make learning "play." It's full of games and things to do that entertains while it teaches.

Miss Sybil Myers' first grade class is well on its way to completion of its reading readiness program and any day now, your first grades will be saying "Listen to me. I can read."

Mrs. John Bowlus' class will tell you proudly when you ask "We have lots of books—we are in the second grade now." The second step up is a big one, but our little folk are doing an able job of it, and they're completely happy with the whole thing.

Latest news item of the week is the picture-taking last Friday. Individual pictures of each student were made for this year's edition of the school annual. They'll probably come out complete with missing teeth 'n bubble gum, but you'll love 'em the more because of it.

Mrs. Webster's sixth grade went partying Tuesday to the ice plant where Artie Mae Stokes celebrated her twelfth birthday. It was almost a "double-header" because Jenice Brown, another sixth grade student, had a birthday Wednesday, and birthday wishes were for both little girls. Mrs. Stokes and her sister, Mrs. George Carlisle, served ice cream and cake to the thirty-five students and their teachers.

Thus far we've limited this column to news from the elementary grades, but if you would like for it to include the high school, you might let us know. O. K.? O. K.!

GMC DIESEL TRUCKS GO 1,000,000 MILES

PONTIAC, MICH. — A trucking company in the Southwest that has used GMC Diesel trucks since 1939 reports that each of its original eight models traveled approximately 1,000,000 miles, it was disclosed today in the second of a series of case histories on trucks by the GMC Truck & Coach Division.

Chief Freight Lines, which operates between Kansas City, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Dallas and Fort Worth, became a pioneer Diesel truck operator in 1939 when it bought eight GMC Model ADF 501 units. With fuel cost then being 4 1/4 cents per gallon, and the new GMCs averaging 7 1/2 miles per gallon the saving realized "more than paid for the cost of the equipment in very short order," according to the case history.

"The first eight Diesel engine models, after operating approximately a million miles per unit, were replaced with 10 new GMC ADCR 753 models in 1948," reported L. M. Bierbrodt, Fleet Superintendent of Chief, who added that the use of tandem trailers and increased payloads had eventually required the larger Diesels.

"One of the things we like about GMC Diesel trucks is that they are never in our shop over two days for any major repair work," Bierbrodt said. "Our last GMC Diesel trucks are over two and one-half years old and haven't had a motor out."

The GMC brochure, which is being distributed by dealers and is available upon request, also revealed that Chief Freight Lines as a pioneer Diesel user had in 1948-50 road-tested 10 of 16 experimental units which were the forerunners of today's popular GMC middleweight Diesel models. Chief's fleet soon will be expanded to 35 GMC Diesels.

Big Street Parade to Open Rodeo on Saturday, September 29 at 6:00 P. M.

The all-colored championship rodeo to be held at the Sheriff's Posse arena here Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, Sept. 29 & 30, will begin with a big street parade at 6 p. m. on Saturday. President Ev Hughes will be in charge and he asks for all who wish to ride in the parade to be ready and at the courthouse by 5:30 p. m.

The negro rodeo will begin at 8 o'clock Saturday evening and fans from near and far are making their plans to see this great western show. Many will witness the "to-do" for the third straight season.

Mr. Hughes reports that many famous colored cowboys have signified their intention to participate in the rodeo this season, and he urges all who enjoy rough, tough, wild western rodeo entertainment to be sure to attend both shows.

GUNS CANNOT BE HELD INDEFINITELY

AUSTIN — The Director of Law Enforcement for the Game & Fish Commission has reminded game wardens that guns of game law violators cannot be held indefinitely in all cases.

Here are recent instructions on this subject:

"Any gun lawfully seized by the game warden may be held and used as evidence in the trial of the person arrested. If, pending trial, the prosecuting authorities decide it will be unnecessary to introduce the gun in evidence at the trial, the arresting officer or the prosecuting attorney should, on his own initiative or upon demand of the owner, return the gun to the owner as soon as it is determined that the gun is no longer needed as evidence.

"If the gun is introduced in evidence, it cannot be returned to the owner pending final disposition of the case without a court order permitting its return. A case on appeal has not been finally disposed of.

"After the case has been finally disposed of, the better practice is to obtain the court's permission for return of the gun which has been introduced in evidence. Permission may be obtained either by the prosecuting authorities, including the game warden or the owner.

"In those cases where the gun is introduced in evidence, it remains in the custody and control of the court pending appeal. Where the gun is not held as evidence, but merely as an incident of an arrest, no court order is necessary to authorize its return to the owner. However, the gun should be returned as soon as necessity for retaining it no longer exists. For instance, if the gun was seized and is being held to prevent escape, as soon as the arrested person is released under bond or otherwise, the gun should be returned."

The Director of Law Enforcement pointed out that getting guns returned might not mean much to violators since abuse of the gun code brings automatic suspension of hunting privileges.

Miss Melba Tyson returned to her home Sunday night, after a week's visit in Midland with her sister, Miss Joyce Tyson.

Mrs. L. A. Shackelford arrived Tuesday afternoon from Dallas to visit her niece, Mrs. Marvin Hunter, and family.

Mr. Webb reported that about the time they got started on their trip, the wind turned out of the north, and at Plainview, attendants with overcoats on came out to put gas in their car. He said that heavy frost covered the rooftops in Amarillo Sunday morning, and then the day turned out to be just beautiful, and that crops up on the plains were in good shape. Then to top it all off, he said, a rain had fallen here at Baird and Clyde, and tanks that were dry had stock water in them when he returned home.
