ENTHUSIASM GOES ON.

More and more letters, messages of congratulation in the form of postcards and personal compliments are coming to your Donley County Leader for having started the movement that focused more attention on Texas, West Texas and old Donley county since the early dust bowl days. In fact one man most prominent in the development of West Texas wrote: "Your publication has done more in one sweep to call attention to West Texas than all other individuals and bodies have since Gen. McKenzie chased the Comanches off the Plains."

LIMBER-TAILED KING.

Out here we have an expression of "taking the limber tail" when anything splits and it that king of the Belgians didn't "maliciously absquat" we never heard of such a thing before.

Remember that this happened on Belgian soil where French and English soldiers were helping these Belgians hold their country against the Germans. Otherwise, there would today be no army bottled up in that section. In other words, that yellow king simply laid down on his benefactors. There is no instance of greater mass ingratitude in all history. The French and English are now paying a heavy penalty for their loyalty to the interests of a disloyal king. Just another proof that we should stay out. The Germans are butchering everything that gets in their way and gloat over the field of carnage. As stated before, America has no friend among the nations over there except little Finland, and she's helplessly a vassal of Russia.

FRIENDLY ENEMIES.

England today is in the same shape she was in back in 1917. She is unprepared and getting her socks whipped off. Let's recall her condition back at the time she cried to us for help. The British empire at that time had great wealth of money, men and material in Australia, New Zealand, India, South Africa, Canada, Malaysia and hundreds of smaller possessions. Despite all this fact, she called upon the United States to help her win the war with the cry that "Democracy is in danger and you must save us in order to save yourselves." We, or at least our men in official position, urged by international bankers and war profiteers, went into the fray and gave the Allies the whole works. She selfishly held back her own men and resources from her Empire possessions, so much so that in many of them half the population did not know the war was in progress. Coming down to 1939, when the war started again, there can be no doubt but what the English government knew what had been going on over in Germany, just 200 miles away, less than the distance between Clarendon and Wichita Falls. England is an industrial nation depending largely upon her factories. These English industrialists, always in control of the nation and her possessions in many lands even extending inside Germany, were not willing for one move to be made that would disturb the steady flow of profits into the coffers of the English financiers. It has since developed that even old grandma Chamberlain owned factory bonds of a plant in Dresden, Germany. Hitler, shrewd and cunning, likely played upon the greed of the English financiers, assuring them that their interests would be cared for, come what may in his program of expansion. He fooled the German industrialists in the same manner until he had them trapped.

If we stay out of the war, our resources will be intact to meet any emergency from the east or west. Canada will likely have to come in with us to save herself. And staying out, we can devote our resources to building up the most gigantic protective fighting force the world has ever known. That's what we should do. We will have to do that very thing and do it as quickly as possible. We will have to have the champion war footing of the world to protect ourselves no matter who wins in the struggle in the eastern hemisphere. The war will spread into the Balkans any day now. It will continue indefinitely. We have plenty of enemies within our own borders to keep us busy. Lastly, if our men have to die in battle, and our innocents suffer the horrors of war in all its cruel phases, may they be privileged to do all that suffering on their own soil in defense of the home land rather than for profits that might accrue to the few by fighting in a foreign land.

The news thing in oil ranges relieves the homemaker of the necessity of handling oil. Instead of a reservoir on the range, there's a constant level valve for connection to a large outdoor tank, thus providing a continuous supply of oil. Besides being a labor saver this new convenience also is a wick saver. Wicks last for years if they are not "burned dry."

In conjunction with WPA field crews, University of Texas geologists are excavating one of the nation's largest known meteor craters, a 600-foot-wide pit, eight miles southwest of Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie H. Miller went to Temple the first of the week.

GARDEN GLANCES

"America beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners."

The cool damp days have been "first aid" to the gardeners during these high winds. A multitude of small plants are growing rapidly, while the shrubs and trees are bewitching in their delicate green.

Roses continue to predominate in beauty. In the Ed Duncan rose garden a red radiance has displayed a dozen or more long stemmed blossoms at one time, while many other varieties are equally beautiful. Mrs. Clyde Douglas has some profuse bloomers, and a lovely trillium and several hushes have been conspicuous for their beauty at the Howard Stewart home. A talisman of unusual size is a lone sentinel charmingly adorned at the Latson apartment near first street.

Several small lawns are attractively landscaped, and carefully kept, such as the Rufus Dawkins lawn and that of George Wayne Estlack. Frequently there is a series of neat homes and well kept lawns as on first street beginning with the Clarence Whitlock home and extending for several blocks. Having observed the lawns closely for the last two years in Clarendon, it is readily seen that the civic pride of our town is increasing rapidly.

Mrs. E. T. Phares and baby daughter of Berger is spending a week with her father Ray Kutch, and grandparents, S. B. Kutch and wife and other relatives.

Trucks To Help Defend Nation

THOUSANDS OF TRUCKS WILL BE AVAILABLE ON SHORT NOTICE IF NEEDED

AUSTIN.—The Texas trucking industry is being carefully checked to make certain of quick mobilization of the state's trucks in the event of a national emergency.

In case of war, the trucking industry would play an important part in rapid movements of supplies, and the 336,000 trucks in Texas would have a major role. Plans for such mobilization have been worked out in detail by officials of the war department and American Trucking Associations in line with a study of military transportation problems made two years ago.

The study of plans for emergency control of the industry revealed that Texas has one truck for every 17 persons, which is considered a high average. However, one-fourth of the trucks, about 84,000, are on farms and could not be as readily brought into use for military purposes.

7 MAIN REASONS WHY-

"I'd rather have a Ford"

5 Power to Hold the Road

No car in any price field excels Ford in roadability—in keeping "all four feet on the ground" under all driving conditions.

1 Going Power

—the kind of power that only the V-8 engine can give me—instant response, lightning acceleration, marvelous economy, and swift, smooth, faithful performance. 6,000,000 Ford V-Eights—more than all other Eights combined—say this is the power plant for me!

3 Smoothness

Not only in amazing power does the Ford V-8 engine excel, but in the smoothness that gives velvet quiet. Why should I do without the supreme luxury of 8-cylinder smoothness which no car of fewer cylinders can match?

6 Stamina

In staying power, there's no car that can take the rough with the smooth like Ford. There are more Fords on the highway than any other make of car! This sturdy Ford is made to take it.

2 Stopping Power

The big hydraulic brakes of the Ford V-8 are far and away the biggest in the low-priced field—a safety factor I've got to have in the new car I buy.

4 Complete Economy

The combination of low price, low cost of operation, high trade-in value and more extras at no extra cost, makes the Ford the great Economy buy for 1940.

7 Style

Ford set the current modern trend in beauty of lines. And Ford's unequalled paint job makes its beauty permanent.

MORE PET NAMES.

Down in east Texas where the hillbillies are thickest, they have great arguments regarding the merits of their respective candidates. Among the pet names used are Pappy Saddletinch and W. Oleo O'Flannel. Regardless of the sarcastic reference, the race will be close down that way, we are told.

BUM DIAGNOSIS.

Calling the physician to see his wife, the old boy was astounded when the medic informed the husband that his wife was insane. "Why dang it, she aint been where she could get a insane germ. She's been in the kitchen for 25 years."

CAMPAIGN DOPE.

There was a time when the democrats "pointed with pride" when they were in and the republicans "viewed with alarm" when they were out. Pensions came along and was made a campaign issue without anything being done about it. Now the war scare comes along and the "ins" are advising every one not to "swap horses in the middle of the stream." They overlook the jackasses. Quite a few are coming out for America. They say so plainly in the free space

THE TELL-TALE.

All of us are more or less foolish, but it wouldn't be so bad if we did not try to prove it now and then.

FOOLISH STUFF.

Have you heard about the baby ear of corn who wanted to know where he came from. The mama ear told him the 'stalk' brought him. Then the stalk was so 'bored' in the butt that he fell down.

LEGAL STUFF.

Then there is the old Jack county boy who wrote the Attorney General: "Dere Jerry, am I legally married if copy they hope to get printed but do not. With the changing times like this, one may expect new campaign issues to be hatched over night, none of which will amount to anything. Most of them agree on the issue of raising taxes. No one pays taxes anymore and what's the difference.

ANOTHER FOGY IDEA.

Had you fellows noticed that as a man ages he takes more interest in his mattress quality rather than trying to find some place to go at night? Time makes a lot of changes—and vice versa.

The grim reaper generally cuts the wild oats you sow.

RAW STUFF.

Many a young woman is willing to trust her heart with a man the butcher would not trust with a piece of liver.

Farm Girl Wins Spelling Contest

Laurel Kuykendall, 14-year-old farm girl from near Cookeville, Tenn., Tuesday won the 16th annual national spelling bee by spelling "plantain" correctly.

She eliminated 21 other boys and girls from 16 states in the contest sponsored by a group of newspapers and won $500.

Laurel spelled nearly 100 words before defeating her final opponent, Elizabeth O'Keefe of Hoboken, N. J., on "plantain." Elizabeth spelled it "planton."

Her victory gave the girls the national championship among elementary school children for the 16th consecutive year. It was the 13th feminine victory in the 16 years of contests.

Farm Tenant Problem Under FSA Will Be Discussed

Farm tenancy, one of the major problems facing American agriculture, will be discussed in an open forum broadcast over Radio Station KGNC at Amarillo, Friday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock, according to John E. Burch, county supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

As one approach to the solution of America's tenancy problem, Congress passed the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act in 1937 to provide loans to help competent tenants, sharecroppers, and farm laborers purchase their own land. Various phases of this program are expected to be discussed on the open forum.

John L. McCarty, editor and associate publisher of The Amarillo News-Globe, will direct the open forum broadcast.

Mrs. Joe Bownds and Sandra Jo of near Lakeview spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Killough.

Burlington Lines Offer Escorted Tours From Texas

Texas vacationists planning a trip West this summer will have available to them the services of the Burlington Escorted Tours, according to announcement made by F. D. Daggett, General Passenger Agent, Fort Worth and Denver City Railway Company, Fort Worth.

A program of escorted tours has been set up, according to Mr. Daggett, offering all-expense vacations in Colorado, Yellowstone Park and California, itineraries ranging from seven days to two weeks in length. All tour passengers are to be accommodated in air-conditioned train equipment for the entire journey. Between Houston and Dallas travelers will be handled on the Sam Houston Zephyr and Texas Rocket, streamline trains making direct connections at Dallas and Fort Worth with the Advance Texas Zephyrs and Gulf Coast Special.

All of the features which have been associated with Burlington Escorted Tours since 1924 will be available to Texas patrons. Cost of each entire trip, which is paid in advance in a lump sum before departure, includes round-trip rail ticket, accommodations on trains, hotels and motor sight-seeing trips at stopover points, and meals.

"The attractive, deferred payment plan of the Travelers Credit Corporation may also be used in purchasing Burlington Tours after it becomes operative on May 20th," said Mr. Daggett.

Under a plan originated by the Burlington Tour organization, tour passengers are not restricted in their choice of meals. They may order anything they want from the various menus offered, on trains or at hotels, except while in Los Angeles on California tours.

Gonorrhea will be virtually stamped out in the United States within the next five years, predicts Dr. R. A. Vonderlehr, head of the venereal diseases division of the U. S. Public Health Service. To support his prediction, he cites tremendous successes in treating gonorrhea with such new chemicals as sulfapyridine and sulfathiazole.

BAZAAR PREVIEW

Designed for the fair and younger set, this demure dress of white cotton pique highlights the May Harner's Bazaar, the "casual life" number. The bodice is embroidered with airy eyelets.

Alas! how easily things go wrong! A sigh too deep, or a kiss too long. And then comes a mist and a weeping rain. And life is never the same again.

—George MacDonald

Happy the man who can endure the highest and the lowest fortune. He, who has endured such vicissitudes with equanimity, has deprived misfortunes of its power.

—Seneca.

Contrary to popular expectation, the largest airport on this side of the Atlantic Ocean is not to be found in the United States. It is the new British-built transatlantic landing field in Newfoundland, about 150 miles from St. John's. Located on a high, dry plateau 500 feet above sea level, this airport contains 1,000 acres. Its landing areas and approaches cover 350 acres, while the paved runways will eventually cover 254 acres—three times the runway area of any airport in the United States. Four 1,500-yard runways are already paved.

Island Folks Buy Our Flour

UNCLE SAM'S CARIBBEAN POSSESSION IS GOOD CUSTOMER OF FARMER

Puerto Rico is buying record breaking quantities of wheat flour from Texas and other wheat producing states, the Puerto Rican Trade Council announced here.

The island's purchases during the first nine months of the current fiscal year totalled 369,600 barrels, a gain of 39 per cent over the same period a year ago, the Council reported. Puerto Rico produces no wheat and obtains practically its entire requirements from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Normally the island is one of the five largest buyers of wheat flour shipped from the United States mainland.

Sales of all foods to the territory from continental United States were valued at $20,650,000, an increase of 27 per cent as compared with the same months of the preceding year.

The increased buying power of the Puerto Rican people was attributed to heavier Federal spending on the island, together with a sugar harvest larger than that of last year.

Texas Leading Defense Area

AUSTIN, May 28.—Texas has a big stake in the current international situation. Just how much larger is this stake than the average citizen realizes is stressed by Robert Lee Bobbitt, member of the Texas Highway Commission, in an article in the May issue of Texas Parade.

"Texas occupies a long stretch of the southern international boundary of the United States," writes Gen. Bobbitt in "Texas and Military Highways." "Texas also has a long and exposed coastline whose stretches are dotted with refineries and other industries vital to the successful prosecution of any major military maneuver.

"A map prepared by the Texas Highway Department depicting the military highway system of Texas shows that the state has 6,180 miles of highways of military importance and 15 Army posts, forts, flying fields and harbor defense points. Located on the Mexican border is Fort Bliss at El Paso, Fort Russell at Marfa, Army airdrome at Dryden, Army airdrome at Midland, Fort Clark at Brackettville, Fort McIntosh at Laredo, Fort Ringgold at Rio Grande and Fort Brown at Brownsville. Fort Crockett at Galveston serves as the headquarters for various strategic harbor defense units.

"Inland military posts of great value include Fort Sam Houston, headquarters for the Eighth Corps Area at San Antonio, Normandy Quartermaster Depot of San Antonio, Hensley Field at Grand Prairie, the Army Air Corps training schools at Randolph Field, Kelly Field and Brooks Field and Army target and training ranges at Camp Bullis, Leon Springs and various other points.

"From a military viewpoint, Texas is strategically located. It is bordered upon the south by the Rio Grande, which separates the United States from Mexico and is bordered on the southeast by the shore line of the Gulf of Mexico. The hundreds and thousands of miles of open borders make Texas a buffer state between possible enemy attacks and the remainder of the United States.

"The War Department of the United States has selected Texas for the location of Army training posts, permanent forts, and flying fields—having invested hundreds of millions of dollars in the various military facilities in our state. The Texas Highway Department has had many conferences and much correspondence with the Army authorities in the past relative to the highways in Texas as a medium of defense. Thousands of miles of Texas highways are included in the Army's plan for movement of troops, supplies, etc., in case of war, as well as the constant movements in training during peace times.

LONGER LIFE FOR MILLIONS OF FENCE POSTS

Fence posts are an important use for wood on the farm, but one does not realize that by far the greatest use of all wood in contact with the ground is for this purpose, says the U. S. Forest Products Laboratory, Madison, Wisconsin.

Cheap and effective preservation treatments now make it possible for the farmer to use kinds of wood for posts that were formerly regarded as worthless, the Forest Products Laboratory points out.

One of the simple treatments is the tire-tube method. In this treatment a section of a discarded auto tire tube is stretched over the butt end of the post that has been placed with the butt end higher than the other end. The tube is then filled with a solution of zinc chloride and this soaks through the sapwood. This chemical will give a fence post that will last three to four times as long as the untreated one.

In this particular case it will be five. Regardless of what the volunteer thinks of, his final answer will always be just half of the number you tell him to add. As an illustration: suppose the volunteer thinks of 25. You tell him to double it and then add 10. This will make a total of 60. Have him take away half of it, which leaves 30. Then have him take away the number he thought of, which was 25. His answer will be five, which is just half of the number you told him to add.

If you told him to add six, his answer would be three. If 14 was the number you told him to add, seven would be the result. This same trick can be worked out in fractions. If you told the volunteer to add seven, for instance, the result would be three and a half.

Texas is not only the largest producer of natural gas but also the largest consumer. Three-fourths of all the marketed gas production in Texas is consumed within the state by Texas homes and industries.

Number Trick

Request someone to think of a number, but caution him to keep it to himself. Then have him double it. When this is done, ask him to add, say 10. Then tell him to take away half of the total. When he has done that, tell him to take away the number he thought of in the first place and, as quick as a flash, you tell him

WILLIAM RICHARD WATKINS Former Resident In State Race

"A lawyer's lawyer" is the phrase which has been applied to William Richard Watkins of Fort Worth, who has formally announced for Associate Justice of the State Supreme Court, as his principal service during more than 20 years has been briefing or aiding in both State and Federal appellate courts.

Best known of his cases were the Archer County road bond suit, in which $150,000,000 of road bonds were invalidated, and the Isaacs-Hobbs case, which has reputedly been cited over a thousand times. Watkins also is noted as a frequent contributor of articles to law journals.

Watkins was born 43 years ago and he lived in Amarillo, Clarendon and Memphis, foregoing a formal education to work on the farm and in his father's plumbing shop. At 19, he had been a court reporter, studied law and became a lawyer, practicing in Amarillo, Wichita Falls and Fort Worth, residing in that city for the past 15 years. He is married, has five children and is a member of the Christian Church.

"I know nothing of politics and do not intend to learn," Watkins states. "Neither am I obligated by ties of friendship or otherwise to extend favors to anyone. The science of law is my life."
