USDA War Board Chairman Urges That Egg Crates and Feed Bags Be Utilized And Handled With Care

Egg crates are the latest item to be listed as a vital war material. Handle them gently and don't hoard.

According to Nolie Simmons, chairman of the Donley County USDA war board, the increased production of eggs in the nation has strained the egg crate capacity, as the board has been asked to urge careful handling and rapid movement of all used egg crates.

Chairman Simmons listed six suggestions for helping to keep egg crates from becoming a bottleneck:

1. Open Cases Carefully—take care of the lid so that it will be available to protect the eggs on the next trip. A strip of wood is not enough.
2. Use Care in Removing Fillers—they can be used again. By being careful when you take them out, you are preventing egg breakage.
3. Replace Flats and Fillers in emptied cases. They are hard to obtain. Otherwise put them into a clean, dry place. A wet, dirty filler may damage your next lot of fresh eggs.
4. Don't Drop Cases—they take nails and extra time to repair.
5. Make Every Case Go Another Trip—if care could make every case go to market and back just one more trip, it would help overcome the shortage.
6. Don't Hoard Cases—remember there are poultry producers who have eggs to move with nothing to put them in. Let that extra case go back into circulation and there will be enough for everyone.

Donley County farmers, farm organizations, grain, feed, and seed dealers were asked today by Mr. Simmons to aid in the nationwide bag conservation program, launched recently by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard.

"Every farmer and dealer in this county," Mr. Simmons said, "has an important part to take in the conservation of fabric bags (burlap and cotton) needed for agricultural commodities this year. There is a shortage of bags now, but if we take care of those we have and keep them in use we will be doing much to offset the shortage and a great deal to prevent it from becoming a serious one."

"Wartime expansion in American agriculture means that approximately two billion bags will be needed for packaging farm commodities in 1942. That is roughly 500 million more bags than would be used under normal conditions."

"Our part in the conservation program is to see that every bag now on hand and in use does its full job and a great deal more. War has cut deeply into the imports of burlap from India and the stocks of this material now on hand must be shared with our military forces. We have plenty of cotton in the raw state, but mills having the facilities to making bagging materials are operating to capacity to turn out war orders."

COUSIN DIES IN FALL FROM PLANE

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Hunt and children were in Floydada over the week end to be with bereaved relatives whose son had been killed in a fall from a plane near Grand Prairie Saturday.

The unfortunate cadet was Sidney Douglas Harper, a cousin of Mrs. Hunt. The young man fell from the plane while on a practice flight. It is believed that he failed to fasten the safety belt. When he left the plane he was about a thousand feet from the earth and his parachute did not have time to open. Burial was at Covington, Texas. He was a son of Mrs. Laura Belle Harper of Floydada, and Ensign L. C. Merchant of Amarillo was in the plane as instructor at the time of the accident.

Married 60 Years Last Sunday

Thirty-five years ago, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Skinner came to make their home in Donley County. Sunday they observed their 60th wedding anniversary in a quiet manner, their two sons being unable to be with them.

Mr. Skinner is 90 years young, and very active for a man of his age. He has spent a life time at good clean labor, and only recently retired from active farm work. He keeps well posted on world events, and is very interested in how our armed forces are faring in the present conflict.

Mrs. Skinner is a woman of unusual ability. Not only has she been a housewife and mother of the highest type, but she is also a trained nurse. Her willingness to render aid, not only in time of stress, but also in women's club work, has endeared her in the hearts of all those who know her.

Mr. Skinner spent the major part of his 90 years in Colorado building ditches and working for a surveying concern. He spent many years as a foreman on a ditch crew, and probably owes the greater part of his longevity to this wholesome outdoor work.

"I would have been married a lot longer," Mr. Skinner stated, "but there just wasn't any women around. Girls were scarce and you hardly ever saw one, but when one did show up, I nabbed her. We've been together for a long time and I certainly have no regrets."

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner raised three boys. Harley Skinner was gassed during the last war and died a few years ago here in Donley County. The other two boys live in Colorado, and have made a success at their life's chosen work.

Friends of this grand old pair will join the Leader in wishing them many more happy anniversaries—and that their health and happiness together will continue for years to come as they journey down the sunset trail.

Eight Donley County 4-H Club Boys Receive Sears Roebuck Registered Pigs To Begin Swine Program

County agent H. M. Breedlove announced this morning that the 4-H Club boys of Donley county were going to have a big swine program for 1942-43. Sears Roebuck and Company have just given eight Donley county 4-H Club boys as many registered gilts for the program. The gilts were purchased from Mr. Elba Ballew, well-known Donley county registered Hampshire swine breeder.

The boys receiving the pigs were Buford Holland, Lelia Lake; W. C. Shaw, Hedley; Lloyd Brock, Clarendon; Monte Ray Wolford, Lelia Lake; Bobbie Kidd, Hedley; Jack Lewis, Lelia Lake; Duane Naylor, Hedley, and Raymond Bailey, Hedley.

The boys drew numbers for the pigs and got the pig according to the corresponding number that he drew. This gave all of the boys a fair chance at the pigs. The pigs

Much Needed Rain Covers County

Much needed rain fell over the entire county at intervals this week with the total rainfall amounting to 1.47 inches here in town according to the official reading of Joe Goldston.

It came at a much needed time as the wind had dried the ground out quite a bit, and was making plowing difficult. Quite a bit of seed has been put in the ground the past week, and the majority of seed that has not come up will suffer, but due to the slow fall of the rain all little plants already breaking through will probably make it without harm.

ALLRED CLAIMS ANTI-STRIKE RECORD

In his literature sent out for publication the past week, candidate Jimmy Allred for the senate seat of O'Daniel stated: "I was the only governor in 48 states to speak out against strikes before it was then popular. I said there would be no sit-down strikes in Texas, and there was none."

There was a sit-down strike in the smelter at Dumas which closed the plant for months and paralyzed the industry that supported in a large measure the town of Dumas. The press reporter evidently got his wires twisted and mailed the copy to the wrong section of the state.

Saturday Is Poppy Day

America's battle dead will be honored here Saturday by the wearing of poppies, the memorial flower of the English-speaking world since the first World War.

Dimes, quarters and dollars dropped into the coin boxes of the "Poppy Girls" this year will aid the victims of the present war, as well as those of the first World War.

The Auxiliary rapidly is completing arrangements for the annual observance of Poppy Day on Saturday, May 23, when memorial poppies will be distributed throughout the city by Auxiliary members.

This year, the poppy not only honors and aids the men who defended America 24 years ago and their families, but also those defending America today and their families. Funds collected on Poppy Day will be used in the work of the Legion and Auxiliary are doing for the disabled of both wars, and for needy families of men in the service as well as those of veterans.

The Legion and Auxiliary have had 20 years of experience in aiding service men and their dependents. They are able to make every dollar do maximum service in this field. Their volunteer workers have had long training and know the quickest and best methods of bringing relief to veterans and their families found in need.

"Victims of the present war are naturally turning to the Legion and Auxiliary for aid," stated one of the ladies of the Auxiliary, "and we want to give them the benefit of our service. The increased burden calls for increased funds. We hope that the public will be generous on Poppy Day this year because from the contributions made for the poppies comes the principal means of support for our work during the entire year ahead."

Poppies were first worn in America in New York City, Nov. 10, 1918, the day before the Armistice. They were adopted as the official memorial flower of The American Legion in 1920, and one of the first acts of the American Legion Auxiliary when it was organized in 1921 was to name the poppy as its memorial flower.

Poppy Day is observed in the United States on the Saturday before Memorial Day, when more than 13,000,000 of the little red flowers are worn by patriotic citizens.

The Auxiliary of the local Legion Post announce that they will decorate the graves of soldiers of all wars, Saturday, May 30, which is Memorial Day. Those having flowers to donate are asked to call Mrs. Clyde Douglas.

THREE NEGRO BOYS GET SPANKING

It was discovered this week that approximately 90 sacks of ground rye stored at the old Clarendon Grain building and about 40 sacks of government mill bran stored in the Caraway building had been emptied and the sacks were missing.

After some investigating by sheriff Guy Wright, three negro boys were found to be the guilty parties. As punishment, the boys had to sack up all the feed and then were turned over some sacks of bran and the fathers of the boys wore out some nice healthy switches and finished up with their hands. After the ordeal the boys were pretty well convinced that they had done the wrong thing and that it wouldn't happen any more.

Commencement exercises will be held the latter part of next week for practically all rural and Independent schools in the county. Goldston, Ashtola, Martin, Huddins, Lelia Lake and Hedley will complete their work May 29, and Bray will finish June 5th.

Head-on Collision Near Hedley

A head-on collision about 9:30 Sunday night five miles east of Hedley resulted in the injury of four Hedley young people and two members of the James A. English family of Lelia Lake. Both cars were said to be a tangled mass of steel.

Officers investigating the accident announced it as unavoidable as English's car lights were flickering, and after some dodging by both machines, they met in the center of the highway.

Occupants of both cars were rushed to a Memphis hospital in Womack ambulances.

Those occupying the Blanks car from Hedley were Jack Blanks, driver, scalp wounds; Wilson Morgan, broken collar bone and cuts; Edith Conner and Jackie Bradford, scalp wounds.

Those occupying the English car from Lelia Lake were James A. English, cuts; his wife, broken leg and cuts; Billie Joe 17 mos. old, broken arm; Jaunita, Donald, Dorris and Dorothy, other members of the family, received minor cuts and bruises.

Hedley Folks Express Their Gratitude

Teachers and pupils who were stricken with ptomaine poisoning Tuesday week ago, after eating lunch at the Hedley school cafeteria, are now fully recovered and the painful ordeal is now a matter of history. However, the memory of the epic struggle, to save the lives of innocent children, has been indelibly written in the minds of Donley County citizens. The fact that no fatalities marred the grand endeavor, is a noble tribute to those who worked swiftly and untiringly to bring the victims past the danger point.

The people of Hedley who had loved ones and friends stricken are very grateful for the splendid help rendered by Clarendon folks when the children were brought to the Clarendon Clinic and the Womack Funeral Home. It was not necessary to call for volunteer help. The multitude on hand was more than enough to meet the emergency.

Citizens of Hedley and vicinity will long remember the speed in which their loved ones were rushed to first aid centers. They appreciate the sympathy extended, and the comforting words spoken while their minds were pressed with hopeful anxiety.

A letter to the Leader from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gunn of Hedley expresses the feeling of the many fathers and mothers of Hedley when they say: "You see our daughter was one of the victims, and we truly believe if it had not been for the splendid service rendered by our doctors, nurses and our friends, there might have been some fatalities. We wish to thank each and every one, with all our hearts."

An alleged car thief, driving pell mell into the dead of night, crashed head-on into a west bound bus four miles east of Claude early Thursday morning, sending two innocent victims into eternity, and injuring at least two others of the bus load.

Those injured were Mrs. Clyde Holtzclaw of Amarillo and Hamel L. Penrod, driver of the bus who lives in Wichita Falls. Penrod's injuries are said not to be as serious as those of Mrs. Holtzclaw who is still in a critical condition at an Amarillo hospital. Others of the bus were treated for minor injuries and dismissed.

Three bodies were found in the burned mass of twisted steel. One of the bodies has been identified as that of Miss Ima Jean Holbert of Amarillo, secretary of Clyde Holtzclaw, owner of the Mexor drug stores in Amarillo. Miss Holbert and Mrs. Holtzclaw were returning from Austin where they had attended a Credit meeting. Mrs. Holtzclaw is a daughter of W. B. Haile, and is a sister of Mrs. Nadine Martin of Clarendon.

The other bodies found in the wreck are the driver of the stolen car and that of a man supposedly to be from Dallas. Conversation gathered from him by bus passengers state that he mentioned several times as being an architect and that he was from Dallas.

So great was the impact of the crash that the stolen car was driven completely under the bus. The momentum of the heavy bus, however, carried the tangled mass some sixty-five feet from the point of impact where both vehicles were burned to a charred ruin of blackened tin and steel.

The tragedy is supposedly to have taken place around 12:45 this Thursday morning. An east bound bus was among the first cars to arrive on the scene, and immediately unloaded part of its passengers to make room for the injured and then headed back to Amarillo. The first ambulance to arrive was one from the Buntin Funeral Home at Clarendon which picked up the three charred bodies about 5 o'clock this morning. Two of the bodies are now at the Buntin Funeral Home and the other is at the Womack Funeral Home.

The car which crashed into the bus was a '39 Chevrolet, allegedly stolen from C. M. Aikin from down town Amarillo. Near the scene of the wreck has been found an identification tag, but to whom it belongs or what part it will play in this holocaust of the highway, has not been learned as yet.

The hero of the bus tragedy was James Johnson, a soldier from Pennsylvania, who was on his way home at Groom. He forced his way past a partly jammed door, broke open a window and freed Mrs. Holtzclaw to safety. Paul Moore, a truck driver from Clarendon, assisted in helping free other trapped passengers.

TRANSPORTATION ALLOTMENT IS APPROVED

more of all the gasoline produced in the United States. At need, it could produce a still larger proportion. Such shortages as may exist elsewhere are due to transportation difficulties and these same difficulties leave Texas with more gasoline than its people can use.

Decreased use of private automobiles and slower driving are already reducing gasoline consumption in the State for other than uses connected with the Nation's war effort.

What Not To Do In Case of Bombs And Blackout

LUBBOCK, May 20 — Among a series of What (Not) to Do In Case of a Blackout instructions posted in a Sub-Depot of the Lubbock Army Flying School here are the following:

- 1. As soon as the bombs start falling, run like hell.
2. Always get excited and holler bloody murder. It'll add to the thrill.
3. If you see a burning incendiary bomb, throw gasoline or water on it. You can't put it out anyway, so you might just as well have a little fun. It'll explode with a helluva crash!
4. Drink heavily, eat onion, garlic, limburger cheese, etc., before entering an air raid shelter. People won't crowd you uncomfortably.
5. Knock down all air raid wardens who try to tell you what to do. They always save the best seats for themselves and their friends.
6. Above all, if you should be the victim of a direct bomb hit, don't go to pieces.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

If a good garden is a "Victory Garden," then old Donley takes the cake this season. Hundreds of folks are boasting of the "best garden ever grown here" this season. More than that. They plan on canning great gobs of good home-grown products to make sure that some regulations does not cheat them out of a favorite vegetable when winter comes.

GOOBERS.
Having heard of a shortage of oil, Georgians are now coming on with their biggest peanut crop in years. The mills will make oil and sell "peanut butter" as a by-product. East Texas, down in the sandy belt, is doing the same thing. They've been at it several years.

MORTAL FEAR.
Do you know that Clarendon citizens will be joined by rural friends in protesting against the establishment of a detention camp in Donley county? Just inquire a bit. Clarendon is a family town. It is a school town. The good citizens of this section will not tolerate a nuisance, and constant fear of the outrages of an escaped enemy from a camp. Besides, the few guards will be supplied with food by the federal government, likewise clothing. Looking over the German detention camp last summer in New Mexico, there was no indication of any one's making money in that section. The so-called prisoners were treated like royal guests, and the federal government footed the bill.

COMMON SENSE.
If Clarendon cannot get something in the nature of a factory that will be operating after the close of the war, the public will not tolerate any foolishness. The people are fed up on that stuff. Just last week a representative was here to talk about "giving" Clarendon a primary glider school. The requirements were that we provide two plots of land, each a half mile square and furnish the facilities for lighting and the water. The idea included the use of the emergency landing field here, it was stated. See any profit in that?

LOOK BACKWARD.
Yes, look back not so many months ago when the emergency landing field was put here. No one knew anything about it except the parties from whom the land for the field was leased until the thing was well under way. Clarendon and Donley county has something to offer. If presented in the proper form, it will be considered. There is no need of spending money, making trips or anything else. Merely do as other towns have done. Present the facts and let the war department decide the matter. The Cap Rock affords an excellent natural opportunity for a landing field because shelter could be obtained under the Cap Rock. Likewise a bomb and explosive factory in general. Why not exploit the natural assets a bit? Germany has all her landing fields adjacent to mountains and these fields extend under the mountains as a natural barrier against enemy bombings. Looking forward, it is possible that the bluff on the Hermes-meyer land facing southwest would be an ideal landing port or explosive factory site.

SPEED AHEAD.
The big majority of our citizens want to see the town advance, but not backwards, any longer.

This column is dedicated to the welfare of the county of Donley. If you don't agree, that is your privilege. The writer has no personal axe to grind except that he does not want the big public ignored, and the welfare of our boys and girls jeopardized by bringing in something worse than that hobo convention we had here a few years ago that lasted for months. In the meantime, let me say in all candor, our boys and girls mean more to us than dollars and cents if it comes to that. Our peaceful little city is a pleasant place to live. Let's keep it that way. If we go after something to make money, let's get something clean and legitimate, and back it off against the Cap somewhere so that we won't be bothered later if we should wake up and find that we made a mistake.

any club or individual wanting sewing should call at her home or telephone No. 80.

Mr. Frank Hermesmeier of Jericho gave the Red Cross a large box of old clothes some of which are suitable for families in need and the rest will be made into quilt scraps.

The Methodist, Presbyterian, and Baptist ladies have been more than faithful in helping Mrs. Boston with the cutting. The ladies that have given so much of their time include Mrs. J. M. Acord, Mrs. L. H. Skelton, Mrs. Cal Merchant, Mrs. J. A. Warren, Mrs. Fred Cook, Mrs. A. L. Chase, and Mrs. John Potts.

Production Room News
The Hedley workers of the Donley County Chapter of the American Red Cross are opening their new production room today (Thursday) according to Mrs. Clyde Bridges, chairman of that division. Miss Molesworth has gone down for the opening and to take them material.

Mrs. George Norwood and Mrs. Floyd Lumpkin arrived in their uniforms Monday afternoon looking very neat and attractive.

To many of you who live out of town the production room hours are not convenient but if any of you want any material of any kind from the room, call any of the chairmen and they will be glad to come down and open the room for you. Heretofore the room has not been open on Wednesday afternoons but starting this week the room will be open on Wednesday the same as any other day from 3 until 5:30 o'clock.

News Briefs
The following paragraphs are excerpts from the Red Cross News Letter published at St. Louis, Mo.

"Did it seem a trifling thing to you when the WPB took the cuffs from men's trousers to save wool? In total war there are no trifles. Cuffs average about 2 per cent of the total cloth in a man's suit. The cuffs from 19,500,000 pairs of men's and youth's trousers—about 4 months stock—would make more than 300,000 suits.

"Or put the saving in terms of uniforms. There's about 5.18 lbs. of wool in a soldier's uniform, about 24 one-hundredths of a pound is a pair of trouser cuffs. Nine pairs of cuffs would equal enough cloth for a pair of Army trousers, 12 pairs would give the material used for an average Army coat. Twenty-one pairs of cuffs, then, and you have a soldier's uniform."

"Garments made in connection with the production activities are never sold by the Red Cross. These are given to the recipients, i.e., men of the Armed Forces of the United States, ex-service men confined in Government hospitals, civilians of invaded countries, disaster sufferers, chapter Home Service clients, et cetera."

"If a statement is made that Red Cross garments have been sold by the organization, definite proof should be requested and the informant discouraged from repeating the statements unless in the possession of such proof. Recipients of these garments or comfort items have been known to sell or barter them, but these are circumstances over which the Red Cross has no control and should not be construed to represent a sale by the organization."

BOOK CLUB HAS ANNUAL PRESIDENT'S DINNER AND INSTALLATION PROGRAM

The 1926 Book Club ended the Club year 1941-42 with a formal President's Dinner in the High School Home Economics Rooms.

During the new year the club proposes to learn more about our neighbors to the south, to develop a friendlier spirit toward them, and a deeper appreciation for these people.

A South American and Pan-American color scheme was carried out in the room and table decorations. Mexican designed covers, napkins and fiesta dishes were used to carry out this motif. Baskets of colorful spring flowers made lovely center pieces. Artistically arranged on tables around the room were pictures, books, vases, pottery, baskets and various what-nots typical of these countries.

For the table program, Mrs. John Knorpp sang "Down Argentine Way." Then Mrs. Knorpp and Mrs. Frank White Jr., dressed as Spanish Senoras led the group in singing three well known Mexican folk songs, "El Rancho Grande," "Tahitian Love Song," and "La Golondrina." Mrs. Allen Bryan accompanied at the piano.

Mrs. Knorpp as out-going president, very charmingly expressed her thanks to the Club for the loyalty and cooperation shown throughout the year and presented each of her officers with a badge, a Mexican designed table mat tied with a red ribbon, in appreciation of their services during the year. The incoming president, Mrs. Frank White Jr., was presented with a miniature gavel. She took charge and the new officers for the year 1942-43 were duly installed.

The officers assisting Mrs. White are Mrs. L. B. Penick, Vice president; Mrs. John Gillham, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Kenny Lane, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Maurice Berry, Parliamentarian; Mrs. W. E. Ray, Treasurer and Mrs. Chas. Lowry, Federation Counselor.

The Club voted to contribute $5.00 to the USO, and to purchase new books to be used for the library and future programs.

The hostesses, Mesdames W. C. Thornberry, Carl Bennett Jr., George Bagby, Paul Smithy, J. R. Porter and C. V. Gatlin, served a delicious three course dinner consisting of Peruvian cocktail, Chilean tamales, Uruguayan corn, Brazilian beans, Cuban salad, Paraguayan bread, coffee and Mexican pralines, to the following members:

Balanced Food Supply

COLLEGE STATION—Success of the Food for Victory program depends upon abundant production to provide a balanced food supply. B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA War Board, declared.

"We need more—much more—of some commodities such as peanuts, dairy products, poultry products, and certain meat products," he pointed out. "At the same time, the thinking public and the thinking farmers realize that we have an over-abundance of wheat and an over-supply of the shorter staple length cottons. Certainly, there would be no logic in expanding the production of crops of which we have more than enough."

The board chairman explained that "it's going to take every available acre of good soil to produce the foods needed to win this war without wasting acreage on production which will not contribute to that victory."

Vance cited the two-year supply of American wheat which will be available for use this year as ample evidence that the consumer has no need to worry about "wheat and flour rationing."

Reminding farmers that the Department of Agriculture is urging the full planting of cotton allotments, Vance emphasized, however, that the increased demand is for longer staple length cottons, and that the supply of short staple cotton is adequate to meet the nation's needs.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Miller of Canadian spent the week end visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Eula Cox who returned home with them to visit her brother Houston Miller and wife.

Many Iron And Steel Articles Curtailed

The recently issued War Production Board order outlawing the use of iron and steel in more than 400 civilian articles and products after a brief tapering-off period, applies to used and scrap iron and steel as well as to new material, according to WPB priorities field service officials.

Although the order is drastic, by virtually stopping the manufacture of most of the articles listed, its effect "is not nearly so drastic as the need for iron and steel in the manufacture of fighting equipment for the Army and Navy", officials said.

Listed articles for which iron and steel are forbidden after August 3 include a wide variety, from attic fans to weather stripping, and such things as bath tubs, bird and chick feeders, building ornaments and ornamental hardware, corn cribs, grain storage bins except for strapping and reinforcing materials, culverts, feed troughs, fence posts and ornamental and chain link fencing, gutters, spouting, conductor pipe, and fittings for single-family dwellings, novelties and souvenirs of all kinds, parking meters, sign posts, manicure scissors, tweezers, etc.

Where listed articles are considered essential—such as culverts, corn cribs, or feed troughs—those articles should be made out of wood or non-metallic materials hereafter, the WPB official said.

GET READY

If this country is attacked, a start will undoubtedly be made with incendiary bombs. The most common type of these bombs—and the most effective type—is light, small and safe for an enemy to handle. A single bombing plane can carry 2,000 or more of them. And each of the bombs is capable of starting a major fire.

The moral of this is clear: one of the first and most essential steps to be taken in defense of this continent is to perfect our fire defense. London and other English cities would not exist today if their fire-fighting organizations, professional and volunteer alike, had not produced miracles. Experts are convinced that it is perfectly possible for an enemy to reach and attack our principal industrial centers from bases located in Europe and the Far East.

Here, then, is a real civil defense job. Relatively few American cities and towns have sufficient fire-fighting equipment to deal with a big attack. Relatively few communities have as yet developed adequate fire prevention and fire-fighting forces. The improperly prepared community is wide open to tragedy and utter disaster.

There is no time to lose. In every town, no matter how small, fire-fighting training should be given to civilian groups. Additional equipment should be purchased as fast as possible. German fire raids on English cities have slowed to a standstill for just one reason: The British have learned to cope with them and rob them of their terrors. An enemy does not waste materials and energy when it becomes obvious that the results obtained are not worth the price paid.

In short, fire—whether it comes from within or without—can be licked. It need hold no terrors for an informed, prepared, equipped people. Let's get ready!

University of Texas officials are setting up a new defense training course at Houston. The short course is in the field of tool engineering. This is the first offering of this type in the Southwest.

Farmers — Ranchers

County War Boards of the United States Department of Agriculture will cooperate with the War Production Board in handling applications for authorization to begin construction work on farms, the War Production Board announced May 4th.

The following highlight the important phases of the order and the attached interpretation concerning Farmers and Ranchers:

1. Farm residential construction or remodeling costing less than $500.00 per farm during a twelve month period may proceed without authorization. There is no cost limit or authorization needed for repair and maintenance for the farm residence.
2. Farm homes destroyed by fire, flood, earthquake, tornado or enemy action after December 31, 1941 may be rebuilt without permission.
3. $1000.00 may be spent without permission on each farm for production buildings during a twelve month period. There is no restriction on the ordinary maintenance and repair of these buildings such as re-roofing, painting, structural repairs, etc.
4. If a farmer does a building or remodeling job himself, or if the labor is supplied at no cost by his family or neighbors he does not have to figure labor costs into the total cost of the building.
5. For all farm building projects exceeding the cost limitations outlined herein, the farmer should consult his County United States Department of Agriculture War Board and follow its instructions to obtain authorization for the work. Application forms PD-200 will be furnished by County Boards.

The order defines Maintenance as "the upkeep of a building, structure, or project in sound working condition."

"Repair means hte restoration, without change of design, of any portion of a building structure, or project to sound working condition when such portion has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, or other similar causes."

Recruiting Station At Abilene To Interview Skilled Workers

Skilled construction men who would like to aid in the nation's war effort and receive pay based upon their abilities will be given an opportunity to be interviewed for positions in the Navy's construction regiment at the Navy recruiting station at Abilene, June 2, it was announced today.

Ensign A. T. Gaffney will make his first trip to this district to interview the applicants. A man is under no obligation when he is interviewed, but learns at what rate of pay and position the Navy offers him to go to work for Uncle Sam.

Before being interviewed applicants must apply in person at the nearest recruiting station and take a preliminary physical examination. They must also present letters of recommendation from former employers outlining the type of work they have done, or submit other proofs of skill.

Ninety percent of the men joining the construction regiments are enlisted as petty officers with beginning monthly pay ranging from $60 to $39, plus a 20 percent raise when serving outside the continental limits of the U. S. Married men in the $72, or above, pay grades receive an additional $34.50 per month as housing allowance.

Naval Construction men are enlisted for overseas service and are trained in the use of defensive weapons before going to work with the tools of their trade.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS

By John Craddock

Production is climbing, again. Maybe you didn't know it had even paused, but there was a period recently—right after the auto industry pulled up its assembly lines by the roots and swung 100 per cent to war production—when the nation's total employment, payrolls and industrial output showed signs of sagging. But actually the low point of that particular—and biggest—conversion was reached and passed almost before even the economic pulse-takers could notice it. The index kept by Business Week magazine hit an all-time high of 175.2—which is 16 per cent higher than at the same time (mid-March) last year, and a full 40 per cent higher than for the best week of 1937.

Safety razor users will have to get along on one blade a week (in 1941 three billion blades were produced)—so right away there was a small stampede for blades in New York, sales jumping 20 per cent overnight.

War-hit auto dealers are going in for "conversion," too. They're opening skating rinks and bowling alleys, insurance agencies, selling bicycles and scooters, fertilizers, jewelry. A big beer company and a big feed company each have courted the dealers with offers. One former auto maker, Willys-Overland, has gone ahead and acted as intermediary between dealers and one of the largest window-shade firms in the country, arranging for dealerships for blackout shades and other civilian defense supplies. The program evolved as one result of the company's survey of the nation's dealer shops which showed, among other things, that 96 per cent of the dealers responding were eager to take on new lines, preferably of defense items, and had ideal floor and display facilities.

Uncle Sam's soldiers are getting around these days. As an indication of the magnitude of this job take a look at the record of the past year: There were 1,957, 200 U. S. soldiers carried in specially assigned sleeping cars during 1941, and each car traveled an average distance of 1,500 miles.

Bait mixture of 2½ pounds bran, two ounces paris green, one cupful molasses, one orange or lemon, and about two quarts of water should be scattered in areas infested by cutworms as soon as they appear. If the bait dries make three applications at four-day intervals.

Fertilizer a year old is as good as that newly made, say Extension agronomists. It may cake in storage and have to be broken before use.

OPA Studies Plans to Buy Excess Tires

DALLAS, May 20—Correcting erroneous reports that have been published, Max L. McCullough, region OPA administrator, said today that local rationing boards will not be asked to take in or resell tires under any plan by which the OPA may offer to purchase consumers' excess supplies.

"The OPA is studying plans to offer to buy excess tires in consumers' hands, but the details are not completed as yet," Mr. McCullough said. "Regardless of what mechanism is provided for the purchase of excess tires, the boards will not be requested to take in or resell tires as part of their function."

Local boards, however, probably will be called upon to ration any new tires and serviceable tires that might be collected under the contemplated voluntary sale plan, Mr. McCullough said, adding that this, however, would be no departure from their ordinary duties.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sims of near Pampa were here Monday.

ON THE HOME FRONT

With over-all price control becoming a reality in the Southwest this week, the regional OPA administrator, Max L. McCullough announced that its administration would be on a Home Front basis.

Each state will have a state office and director working under the region OPA office at Dallas, and in each state there will be OPA field offices in certain key cities. In addition, the local rationing boards are taking on greater importance and will function as "War Price and Ration Boards," to handle all OPA matters on a local basis.

With consumers and retailers cooperating in the battle against the cost of living, this program of decentralized administration of both price control and rationing will make the problem easier for all, Mr. McCullough said.

While consumers and business men were getting used to such terms as ceiling prices, cost-of-living commodities, and services sold at retail, rationing took on greater importance as war necessity.

At first glance, Southwesterners might think the newly ordered gasoline rationing is strictly a headache along the East Coast and in the states of Washington and Oregon, but actually it is only one aspect of a national transportation problem. It's true that there is plenty of crude and gasoline available from the Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma fields—where holding down production is a problem. The difficulty, however, lies in getting it from the Southwest to the shortage areas.

In addition to the gasoline problem, all of us—and the Southwest is included—must save all of our transportation facilities for essential uses, just as we must save our rubber, our materials, machinery and manpower. Without transportation, the whole war effort would fail. Men and munitions must be moved to embarkation points and raw materials must stream toward the factories. That's why it may even be necessary to ration travel by civilians.

The war necessity of stretching our goods to make them last and to distribute them equally dipped further into Southwestern kitchens during the week. The War Production Board cut the flow of cocoa products to retail outlets on top of similar action on green coffee and spices—black and white pepper, allspice, cinnamon, cloves, ginger, nutmeg and mace. These reductions resulted from lack of transportation and enemy action.

The OPA Consumer Division is asking cooperation in this program to save and conserve. The latest request is an appeal for women to buy practical outfits of clothing, to mix them up for variety, and to make them last as long as possible. There will be plenty of attractive clothes—but none to waste.

On the sugar stretch-out, Stamp No. 1 in War Ration Books is good no longer, if it wasn't used. Stamp No. 2 in each book is good for the purchase of one pound until midnight of May 30, when it also becomes void.

SPRING CLEANING

One way to "get in the scrap" on the Home Front is to have a good spring house-cleaning. That is the suggestion of the State Salvage Committee which points out that such a housecleaning probably will uncover things considered worthless or too old for further use, but which may be salvaged now for critical materials they contain.

Made In Japan

Of course you remember those words. They were printed, painted, stamped, stained, cut, marked or engraved on a million things we bought from them.

Slave labor made it possible to sell them to us for absurdly low prices. Yes --- the stuff was cheap, but it could be used --- so easy-going America took it.

Why, we even bought millions of American flags from them.

Sure—we sold them oil and scrap iron and cotton. They are now driving their warships against us, using the oil we sold them. Bombs are dropping on our men --- bombs made from the scrap iron we let them haul away.

As a nation, we have come to learn that Made in Japan means cheap imitation. We are now paying the price for believing barbarians garbed in the clothing of civilized men could be other than imitators of decency.

American brands have always been good enough for our customers. We like such names as Certain-teed, National Brass, Glidden Paint, Penn Hardware and other good American brands.

It is now, more than ever, a pleasure to sell things that were made in Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Bridgeport, Schenestady, Los Angeles, Chicago and a thousand other American towns large and small.

YEARS AHEAD... by Our Calendar

Natural Gas in the Gulf South today was planned and provided for years ago. Fortunately this farsighted planning has made possible this efficient fuel for war production now.

It's a big undertaking to locate, produce and deliver a continuous dependable supply of Natural Gas for more than three hundred cities and towns and to industries in the Gulf South. It takes careful planning in advance to anticipate the needs of the future. It takes, too, the fine skill and knowledge of engineers, draftsmen, surveyors, prospecting and drilling crews and many other workers. All of these men work YEARS AHEAD of today's needs.

This has been made possible by seasoned management—men with vision—men with the ability to measure tomorrow's requirements today. Because of this preparedness your Natural Gas Service is not only DEPENDABLE today, but is efficiently serving industry with a minimum use of critical materials—materials vitally needed for production of guns, battleships, and other implements of war.

CANYON, May 21.—About 130 seniors and graduate students will receive degrees at West Texas State's 32nd annual commencement on the evening of May 24, when they will hear one of their number, Editor John McCarty of Amarillo, in the main address. McCarty left college before finishing in order to enter newspaper work in Amarillo. Later he won honors with the Dalhart Texan, which he published. But after returning to Amarillo as editor and associate publisher of the News-Globe, he resumed his studies in his spare time. Many of his course reports have been valuable studies of Panhandle life and economics. Commencement is set for 8:30 p. m. on Sunday evening, May 24. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached at 11 o'clock of the same day by Dr. A. D. Foreman, Jr., of Amarillo, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Cotton Stamp Program To End

AUSTIN, May 20.—The Cotton Stamp program will be discontinued on May 30, 1942, the Department of Public Welfare has been advised by the Agricultural Marketing Administration. Executive Director J. S. Murchison explained that this action was made necessary because the government finds it imperative to release all manufacturing facilities of the cotton industry.

A Summer Without Hay Fever

The Importance of Circulation It is from the blood that nasal tissue derive their nutrition, moisture and heat. It is the blood stream that takes away wastes. Thus, the conditions which determine the irritability of tissue are, in turn, dependent upon the circulation of the blood to that tissue.

While the flow of blood in the body is dependent upon the heart activity, the volume and rate of flow to any given tissue is dependent upon the size of the vessels leading to that tissue. The size, under the influence of nerves, can vary from time to time in accordance with the varying needs of the tissue. When the nerves that control circulation to the nose are acting normally to re-adjust the circulation to the nose to suit the conditions created by the presence of pollen in the atmosphere, then the solution of the problem lies in restoring normal action to these nerves thru Chiropactic care. And when Chiropactic care has had opportunity to restore normal circulation, the conditions necessary for a return of normal sensitivity to the nose are created.

Field Workers To Aid Selective Service Boards

AUSTIN, May 20.—The services of the local field workers of the State Department of Public Welfare have been placed at the disposal of the local Selective Service Boards, J. S. Murchison, Executive Director of the State Department of Public Welfare, said today. Brigadier-General J. Watt Page, State Director of Selective Service, said in a letter to Mr. Murchison that the local boards had made a practice in the past of calling upon the local welfare offices for assistance in ascertaining certain facts necessary for the proper classification of registrants. The information usually desired bears upon the dependency of other individuals on the registrant. General Page complimented the Welfare Department on their past cooperation, saying no complaints had reached him concerning the willingness of the welfare offices to assist the Selective Service Boards.

TO THE PRODUCERS OF DONLEY COUNTY:

By Walter J. Flynt
LOCAL AAA SUPERVISOR

This week I will try to tell Producers how soil building practices are set up, and how this allowance may be earned.

The allowance, or what may be earned by carrying out soil building practices, is determined by subtracting the special allotment, cotton or wheat, from the 1941 measured cropland and multiplying the result by .70c per acre and adding to this amount the allowance created by pasture land at the rate of 8c per acre. The total of this is the soil building allowance for the farm.

This allowance is not paid unless earned by anyone of a number of the 35 practices listed in the "Texas Handbook", some of which I will try to explain in this article.

There is payment of .50c per 100 linear feet (1 ft. deep and 4 ft. wide) for ditches dug for the diversion of flood water from cropland, pasture land or hayland. These ditches are to be laid off by the Operator with the help of the Range Inspector.

Strip cropping on the contour pays $1.00 per acre provided all specifications are met, that is, strips are not over 200 ft. in width (about 56 rows) or under 10 ft. in width (about 3 or 4 rows), and at least 25% or 1/4 of the land is covered by erosion resisting crops.

(maize, kaffir, hegari, sweet sorghums, sudan or small seeded crops).

The payment on acreage Summer fallowed has been increased from 35c per acre to 70c per acre. This practice means land that is plowed before June 15th and clean tilled throughout the year and seed a Winter cover crop in the fall so that the land will not blow.

The practice that has become applicable to this County since the "Handbook" come out is the practice of leaving on the ground the stalks of maize, kaffir or other grains usually headed or combined, and if cut with row binder leaving a stubble at least 10 inches high. This practice will pay 35c per acre.

The practice of leaving on the land, as a protection against land erosion, the full stalks of Summer non-legumes (sudan, millet and cane) pays 75c per acre. The leaving on the land of Winter non-legumes (rye, barley, oats or mixtures of these crops, and wheat) and summer legumes (peas or other legume crops) will pay $1.50 per acre.

If peas are planted in combination with intertilled row crops (2 rows feed and 1 row peas, or 2 and 2) will pay 30c per acre.

The renovation of pasture by mowing weeds will pay 25c per acre per mowing not to exceed 50c per acre of two mowings.

The other practices by which money may be earned as a soil-building practice, are well enough known and used so that they will be self explanatory.

If there is any question as to the amount that may be earned, or how it is possible to earn the money the County Office will be glad to help out in any way possible.

Funeral Held For Hall Pioneer

MEMPHIS, May 17—Funeral rites for George M. Thompson, 77, pioneer Memphis business man were conducted Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the First Baptist Church by Rev. Sid F. Martin, pastor. Interment was in the Fairview Cemetery.

Death came suddenly late Thursday afternoon as Mr. Thompson was working in the flower beds at his home here.

Mr. Thompson first came to the Panhandle-Plains area in 1884 and was employed as a cowhand on the LX Ranch near Amarillo. He was one of 16 hands making a drive of cattle for that ranch on the long overland trail to Dodge City, Kan., when that roaring frontier town was the cattle market and shipping point for a vast territory.

He first came to Hall County in 1901, purchasing land near Memphis and engaging in farming. Disliking farming, he returned to his former home town, Alvord, and opened a drug store. He sold the store in 1906 and loading his family and possessions in a covered wagon, again set out for Memphis.

Shortly after his arrival he opened a hardware store in a building constructed of native stone and located on the northeast corner of the public square. The store has been in the same location since and is now operated as Thompson Brothers by his sons. In 1927, Mr. Thompson and associates erected a modern three story building, which now houses the hardware store and the Memphis Hotel.

Surviving relatives include his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Grover C. Wilburn of Dallas, Mrs. Bryan Baldwin of Memphis and Mrs. J. G. Brown of Mineral Wells; four sons, E. P. and Geo. M. Jr., of Memphis, L. E. of Clarendon and C. O. of Burkburnett and several grandchildren.
