Bronchos win season opener

"They made up their minds that they wanted to play, that was the key," stated Bronco head coach Ted Allen. And play they did, as the injury-riddled Clarendon Broncos clipped a tough Sanford-Fritch Eagle team, 12-7.

Indeed, for the first game of the season, Allen said that the Broncos looked sharp. And much of that sharpness came from junior running backs Hosea Hearn (15 carries, 112 yards) and Bobby Weatherthorn (8 for 115). With their performances and Lance Thornberry's 71 passing yards, the Broncos amassed 309 yards total offense in a generally defensive game.

Although both defenses played well (Clarendon's defense allowed only 204 yards total offense), penalties and turnovers hampered the offenses. Clarendon had seven floggings for a total of 60 yards while the Eagles were set back four times for 30 yards. These penalties wiped out several good plays and stifled numerous drives. Other drives were stopped by turnovers. Of the nine turnovers in the game, Clarendon had five, including four fumbles and an interception.

The Eagles also paid in turnovers, losing four of seven fumbles. Because of these offensive errors, Allen cited mistakes and aggressiveness as the weak points of the offense. But he also said that he was pleased with the running backs and the crisp blocking of the offensive line, especially the guards, Mark White and Mike McCowen. They and center Rick Hayes skillfully contained All-District nose guard Doug McCoy most of the game. Randy White led Clarendon receivers with two catches, one for a T.D.

On defense, Clarendon looked tough, yielding only 204 yards and seven points. And that was without regulars Barry Hastey at linebacker and Billy Perry at noseguard. But these gaps were filled, and then some as sophomore Ray Lindley filled Hastey's shoes and Rick Hayes went both ways to compensate for Perry's loss. Allen said that the replacements did an outstanding job. These players included Lindley, Hayes, and Scott Newland. Newland, a regular starter at defensive end, doubled at offensive tackle, where Hastey usually starts. Allen recognized the defensive front and ends as playing well. These included Van Choate and Mark White at tackles, Mick McCowen and Scott Newland at the ends, and Rick Hayes at noseguard. Also the secondary held Sanford-Fritch to only six pass completions for seventy-two yards. All said, however, that this defense must become more aggressive and show better tackling techniques.

Seniors selling Homecoming Mums

4-H Horse Project meets Sept. 16

4-H Horse Project will meet at Rodeo Arena September 16, 1980 at 7:00 p.m. This will be an organizational meeting and new officers will be elected for the coming year. This is a very important meeting.

Lelia Lake

Lelia Lake Community will meet, Saturday, September 13, 1980 at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center for their regular covered dish dinner. Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy the meeting.

Tomorrow, the Broncos face an even tougher challenge, when they meet a lightning-fast Quanah Indian football team that was ranked fifth in the state last week by the Harris poll. Allen stated that to prepare for such a team, his bunch must polish its specialty teams and discard all mental mistakes. And if the Broncos do, Quanah had better be prepared for a Clarendon team that is ready, willing, and able to play.

Bronchos travel to Quanah Friday

The Clarendon Broncos looking for their second victory of the year will be in Quanah Friday night. Kick-off is 8 p.m. Quanah is 0-1 after a Friday night bout with Childress. The Indians dropped that one 26-13. Coach Allen's comments on Quanah:

good passer and runner. He plays cornerback on defense. #36 Barker is also a fine runningback. On defense they will be quick, good tacklers, just a good solid defense. They have good size in their offensive line.

Police activity busy over weekend

Law enforcement personnel were busy over the past weekend with a variety of violations.

City police arrested one for DWI and drunk in the city and transported an OD, also drunk to Memphis. The offender was not jailed due to the liability law, just gone into effect. This law makes the city or county where the prisoner is lodged and the city or county which brings them to the facility both liable for any damages which the prisoner may lodge against the two entities. Therefore other county and city facilities are forced to refuse the use of their facilities in some cases.

Later after a continuing confrontation with the law one person was transported to the Wellington jail. The Texas Highway Patrol transported two persons to jail and two other persons were found needing to be transported but at the time the officer was already transporting. In all cases there were locals involved. City Police, Paul Drager and Chief Hodges worked the weekend cases.

Fish tails

By KATIE DVORAK

It has been said that there is nothing honest about a politician or a fisherman. If that is the truth, then there should be nothing more natural than a fisherman running for a political office. The truth of the matter is that there is indeed such a party in this country, it is called the Independent Fisherman's Party out of Minnesota, and this party has a dually elected Presidential candidate.

Jack Pine Bob Carey is the man elected by the IFP's convention last month. He is the editor of the Elley, Echo, the newspaper in Elley, Minnesota. His favorite place to hold interviews is at the lake nearby. There is much to what this philosopher of the tackle box has to say and there may very likely be a large majority of people ready to back someone with such wisdom and a desire to fish.

Early Bird Home Demonstration Club

Beginning their fall meeting schedule, the Early Bird Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, September 3, in the home of Connie Clifford.

A club fund-raising project, a beautiful Dutch Doll quilt, will be given away at the October 1, meeting. This quilt has hand made blocks, is queen size, put together with forest green and white and chances on it are still being sold for $1.00 each.

Every state has a Mrs. America hopeful

The search is on in every state for the woman who may ultimately be chosen as Mrs. America 1981. From each state-level Mrs. America Pageant one woman will be selected to represent her state in the national Mrs. America finals.

Entries are now being accepted. Any married woman, at least eighteen years of age, a U.S. citizen, and a resident of your state for a minimum of six months is eligible.

The state and national Mrs. America is selected predominantly on personality, poise, and beauty competition. Careful consideration is given to family life and participation in community affairs.

Medicare Day at Tri State Fair Sept. 18

There will be something for all ages to see and enjoy at the 1980 Amarillo Tri State Fair, September 15-20. Livestock, poultry, rabbits, textiles, foods, free entertainment, product exhibits, art show, a midway of rides and first class entertainment in the coliseum each day by top western artists.

A special day has been set aside for the elder citizens in the area. On Thursday, September 18, a medicare care will admit any person to the fair free of charge. At 1:30 p.m. the same day, a program of fee entertainment and door prizes have been arranged for the enjoyment of the senior folks in attendance. All citizens of the tri-state area who have a medicare card are welcome to attend the fair and entertainment as special guests of the fair on Thursday, September 18.

Artist Studio Club meets

Donley County will receive sealed bids for precinct #4 on a 1980 or 1981 3/4 ton PU with at least a 292 cu. in. engine, 4 speed trans. power steering, positive traction axle optional, instruments gages, heavy duty radiator, A.M. radio, 950x16.5 or D tires. To be traded in, 1973 GMC 1500 located at Will Chamberlain's 874-2346.

Bids to be opened Sept. 29, 1980 at 1 p.m. in the commissioner's court room in the court house annex. If mailed in send to Donley County Judge, Box 777, Clarendon, Tex. 79226.

The county reserves the right to refuse any or all bids.

AD YOU KNOW? WORKING FAMILIES FIND FAST FOOD ECONOMICAL

The number of families in which both the husband and wife work reached a record three out of every five in 1979, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

With 60 percent of the wives working, many families are finding it more convenient to eat at fast food restaurants. They are also finding it to be more economical.

The cost of eating at home has risen 51 percent over the last three years. According to a recent Agricultural Department Survey, the cost of eating fast food is the same as eating at home.

A meal consisting of a hamburger, french fries and soft drink costs $1.61 at a fast food outlet, compared to $.83 at home. But when the value of time required to shop, cook and clean up is added on, the cost of the two meals is about the same.

There is an increasing demand for larger food and drink portions at fast food restaurants because they cost less per ounce. The Society of the Plastics Industry's Foam Cup and Container Division says many fast food outlets are switching to foam containers to accommodate large size orders. The foam insulation resists moisture so that containers won't get soggy or lose their shape from large food portions.

Excellent temperature holding abilities. The foam insulation keeps food hot, and large size soft drinks stay icy cold.

Mildred Tomlinson, of Bartlesville, Okla. spent a week in Clarendon visiting with her sisters, Nova Mooring and Viola Graham.

While you are out on Greenbelt Lake searching for those "long stringers of blue gill", search your mind for a better party line than that of the Independent Fisherman's Party candidate, Jack Pine Bob Carey from Minnesota. It sure would be grand to have a man in office that did all of his fishing in a lake, for a change.

Possibly the most unusual home run ever was hit by Babe Ruth off Hod Lisenbee, pitcher for the Washington Senators in the 1920s. Lisenbee has claimed that Babe hit a screaming line drive that passed between his legs and then soared over the centerfield fence.

A fascinating story from the archives of American baseball tells how, in July 1931, Joe "Mule" Sprinz of the Cleveland Indians caught a baseball that had been tossed from a blimp stationed 800 feet up in the air. Receiving the ball in an overstuffed catcher's mitt, Sprinz handled the job perfectly, but the ball's impact sent a shock wave through his body that broke his jaw.

YAC DELEGATES Medina McAnear and Spencer Hayes attended the convention in San Antonio this summer.

Daylight hours are getting shorter

The Texas Department of Public Safety wishes to warn the motorist that daylight hours will be getting shorter. It is difficult to see a person on foot during the twilight hours.

Major C.W. Bell, Regional Department of Public Safety Commander said, "Children will be attending school and this will cause an increase in pedestrian traffic. Human life is the most precious commodity we have, more especially our school children's lives."

Look for the pedestrian and the big yellow school bus. It's easier to see something when you are looking for it. When you see a child in the street, expect him to do anything, and be ready to give him the right-of-way. Back to school time is a good time of the year. Let's make sure all the children enjoy it all year long!

PREPARE FOR PREPPY DRESSING

The campus crowd is going for the preppy look. Their mothers, the original "preppies," are looking as elegant but come under the category of "classic."

The impression is the same. Clean lines, conservative taste, grey flannel finesse from head to foot. Preppy, or classic, dressing focuses on madras, solid (IFI), the worldwide association of blazers, shetland crewneck sweaters, oxford button-down shirts, plaid kilts, argyle socks and trench-coats.

The effect, when all the pieces are put together, is clean, tidy and traditional. To maintain the look requires meticulous care of the pieces. If you are expanding your wardrobe to include the classic look, make sure you have enough shaped hangers and drawer space to accommodate this handsome clothing.

You will find the slacks, blazers and skirts are highly constructed. Maintaining with the lines built into them requires careful storage in shrinkage and color bleed-roomy closets on heavy hangers when the items are not being worn.

These stylishly designed items also do better when cleaned by a professional drycleaner who can steam and press them back into their original shapes after good design in manufacturing.

Careful washing of the cottons in the preppy look at home.

There are very few true ladies left in this modern world of fast paced living. When you run across a genteel lady with Scarlet O'Hara speech and qualities, it is a rare gem in a rough setting. Such a great treasure was found in Betty Williams of Hedley. She will have been married to a professional baseball player, high school coach and maker of machine parts; Royce Williams, for fifty years in November. Betty said that "Years pass in a hurry if it's been a good marriage."

house. With Royce recovering from surgery and being unable to drive or do much in the way of heavy labor, Betty set aside her lovely manners and put up sheet rock, build bookcases, and did nearly all of the interior work on their home. In spite of hard work and manual labor, this refined lady has time to do some truly wonderful cooking.

FAY VARGAS-Texas Saddlery Employee of the Week

Texas Saddlery Employee of the Week

Fay Vargas, a nine year resident of Clarendon, has been an employee of Texas Saddlery for some 17 months. Fay does clerical work with her principal responsibility being accounts receivable. She also uses the calculator, NCR, Posting machine and typewriter. A relatively new machine for her is the computer. This efficiency equipment, among other things, is used for an End-of-Month print off, a means of recordkeeping.

Although the work is routine, Fay enjoys it for there is enough variety to make it interesting. Working in the office Mrs. Vargas has a chance to see, meet and converse with a variety of persons who come to Texas Saddlery. Another advantage is that even though she works in the clerical division of the business, she is able through an exchange of conversation and ideas in the process of her work to learn much of the routine of the other departments of the firm.

Fay spends her lunch hour either at home or perhaps eating out and her off the job time is filled with the interests of her eight year old daughter, Brandy, and her husband Phillip Vargas, a mechanic with a local motor company and a member of EMS.

Hobbies include a wide variety of plants, four cats, and two dogs in addition to her family.

Working at Texas Saddlery is both interesting and fun. A lot of good natured kidding, when there is time for it, gives a feeling of belonging to the Texas Saddlery 'family'.

True Fay is not among the oldest term employees at the

Doghouse review

By MARK NIXON

The first week of school has been extremely exciting. Getting all of our players here and in school has relieved a tremendous amount of anxiety that builds up over the summer.

We have a total of 26 players currently out for the team. Based on our early practices it appears that the physical talent is relatively good this year. Now the work turns toward getting the squad trimmed down to a more realistic size of 16 or 17 players.

Our practices are at 3:00 p.m. each day and I would like to do so and take a look for yourself at what is going on in the "Dog House".

Our program received a big boost this week when we confirmed a scrimmage with the defending NAIA National Champions, Camerson University. The date has not been confirmed but it will be sometime in October at Lawton, Oklahoma.

Anytime you have the opportunity to go against a national champion I believe you have got to jump at it. It is a situation where our freshmen and sophomores get to match up against some top quality juniors and senior and learn some things.

One of our big projects the next couple of weeks is to get our student adoption program going again.

What this program is intended to do is give you a chance to meet our players on a personal basis and also help them with a meal on Sunday since our cafeteria is closed and the chance for them to be in a family situation since they will not be able to go home until Christmas.

This is not an every week commitment by any means but only when you invite the students that are assigned to you at your convenience.

Last year was the first year of this program's existence and just like anything that is new there were a couple of minor problems. Also there were some very good relationships established between our players and families in the community.

I learned from last year's experience and am very confident that the program could be very successful this year as I will know how to better counsel our players in the program. I also believe we have better quality in our new players as far as their character is concerned.

If you would be generous enough and like to get involved in this program please call me. We really need your help in this program and I feel both you and our players can benefit greatly from it.

Until next week the ball will keep bouncing in the "Dog House".

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF SHOOTING SAFETY

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.

2. Guns carried into camp or home must always be unloaded, taken down or have actions open; guns always should be encased until reaching the shooting area.

3. Always be sure that the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.

4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble. Keep the safety on until you are ready to shoot.

5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.

6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.

7. Unattended guns should be unloaded; guns and ammunition should be stored safely beyond reach of children and careless adults.

8. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.

9. Never shoot at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water.

10. Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: My six-year-old child was born out of wedlock. Her father is married to another woman. I have various proof that he is the father including pictures, letters, and witnesses. Can I legally make him pay child support? I've never tried before.

A: The United States Supreme Court has ruled that fathers have a legal duty to support their children whether those children are legitimate or not. If the father denies paternity, you must prove, through a paternity suit, that he is the father. The Texas Family Code, however, requires the paternity suit be filed before the child is one year old. The one year statute of limitations does not, however, apply to a child born prior to September 1, 1979.

Q: I feel my attorney has been negligent in handling a legal matter for me. Where do I go to complain and get something done about this?

A: If you feel that your attorney is not properly handling your affairs, you can contact the local Grievance Committee in the area where you live. To find out whom to contact and how to file a complaint, call the State Bar of Texas in Austin. They will supply you with the name of the chairman of the grievance committee in your area. It will not be necessary for you to have a lawyer to represent you before the grievance committee.

Diane L. Parrish of Waco has been appointed state director of Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb employment program. She replaces former state director David Hartwig who left in order to become Green Thumb's Regional Coordinator of the Western Region in Idaho.

Mrs. Parrish has worked with Green Thumb since 1976, as office manager, area supervisor and district director prior to her promotion.

The club was saddened by the death of Mrs. Lois Hutchins who has passed away since our last meeting. She was a Charter member of the club.

The next meeting will be October 4.

Bookworm

Is there an empty wall in your house? Why not fill it with a print from De Goya. "The Bull Fight", or maybe a cool looking picture of snow forests, Viaminik's "Winter Landscape" or perhaps a dark picture of a heart warming theme, Champney's "Boon Companions". You can have a large quality print with a lovely frame for a month in your home simply by using your library card. Miss Cline suggests that these prints be circulated.

Isla Smith donated several books that might be of interest in todays current high prices. Hurdle "A Country Doctors Common Sense Health Manual"; Kadans "Modern Encyclopedia of Herbs"; Stephens "A Doctors Guide to Helping Yourself with Homeopathic Remedies"; and Adams "Miracle Medicine Foods".

All donations of books would certainly be welcomed. If you don't have a book but wish you could help the progress of our new library, why don't you donate something like cash? Money? A Check? An endowment? A memorial? Or, if you want to see what you donate, how about something to be used for the furniture in the new library? They need tables, chairs, lamps and comfortable sitting down pieces. If you have some cassettes you would like to donate, the library has several already and can easily file yours away in their list of tapes to loan out.

Here is a brief list of some of the new books received from the library lease in the City Library: "Thy Neighbors Wife" by Teles; "Assignment on Embassy Row" by Landau; "Falling in Place" by Beattie; "Girl in a Swing" by Adams; and "House of Prophet" by Auchincloss.

"Random Winds" by Belva Plane is a story of three generations of doctors. "Animal Days" by Morris is an entertaining account of the wondrous ways of creatures of the earth, sea, sky. It is hilarious and heart-warming. "Return of the Star of Bethlehem" by Boa speculates both scientifically and spiritually in the evidence of the star of Bethlehem, what is it?

State funding allocated to public schools

At a State Capitol news conference at 10 a.m. Tuesday, September 2, 1980, the executive director of the State Property Tax Board (SPTB) released preliminary findings of the agency's just-completed study of 1979 market and index values of school districts.

Kenneth E. Graeber, head of the state's property tax administration agency, said the study provides the basis on which state funding will be allocated to public schools throughout Texas in the 1982-83 biennium. The study, mandated by Sec. 11.86 of the Texas Education Code, is conducted every two years to afford greater equity in the funding distribution.

"Our results are preliminary and school districts have a right to appeal the findings," Graeber said. Appeal petitions, which must be filed before October 1, will be reviewed by an impartial appeals panel and the panel will hold a hearing for any school district upon request.

One of the study's key findings was that taxable property values statewide increased 41 percent from 1977 until 1979.

"We found property values on January 1, 1979, of $418.4 billion as compared to $297.5 billion at the same time in 1977," Graeber said. Both figures exclude intangibles and household goods, property categories exempted from taxation by the legislature.

Actual values reported on school district tax rolls as of January 1, 1979, were $254.3 billion according to data compiled by SPTB.

Graeber said it is presently impossible to determine how study results will impact individual school districts due to the fact that the legislature will use the study in conjunction with a new school finance bill.

"The ultimate local fund assignment for a given district will depend on costs of the Foundation School Program, the amount of the costs the state will pay, and the formula selected for allocation of funds to districts," he noted.

The SPTB executive director said key questions which must be addressed by the legislature related to the study include:

1. How to handle vehicle values? While the study includes estimates of vehicle values with a statewide total of $14.8 billion, local districts have an option as to whether to tax vehicles or not.

Graeber said there are several alternatives for handling the vehicle value question, with the final determination to be made by legislators.

2. How should productivity values of open space land be handled? Graeber noted that the law specifically required that an index value be calculated for each district which gives consideration to productivity valuation on land.

The problem, however, was that productivity valuation was not mandatory in 1979. "Therefore," Graeber said, "Two methods were utilized by the study to provide the legislature more complete information."

One method, identified as "Index 1," gives credit only for land which was actually qualified by school districts in 1979. "Index 2" gives credit for land which could have been qualified had the system been fully implemented.

A baking contest judge's life isn't a piece of cake

When Lesli Garnett, the Home Demonstration County Agent, invited me to be a judge in the 4-H whole wheat muffin and cinnamon roll contest, I was delighted! I had always wanted to be the judge in a baking contest because I imagined sitting down with a cup of Postum, a napkin and a huge plate of samples to eat leisurely and entirely. In anticipation of such a feast, I didn't eat breakfast on Saturday so I could do justice to those culinary treats.

Noni Nixon and I were the judges. We were given two pencils and some forms instead of a plate and fork. Suddenly, it dawned on me that I would be giving decisions! Critiques! Ribbons! Oh no! How could I possibly enjoy the rolls knowing I would have to give a score on every bite I took?

We sampled ten whole wheat muffins that ranged from good to super delicious and then we had to decide which one was the very best. It was a difficult thing to do when all of the muffins were so much alike and when, after biting ten different kinds, they all tasted so much alike. But the cinnamon rolls were the most difficult task of all.

Sweets are my downfall and I wanted to devour those cinnamon rolls and walk away rather than give a decision on the best one. We ate and licked our fingers and finally regretfully turned away to give some lucky person the blue ribbon.

However, that isn't all a 4-H baking contest judge has to do. We were given a stack of booklets in which each contestant had written a brief statement on what they were supposed to learn, what they hoped they would learn and what they actually did learn. One eager young baker said "I want to make better cinnamon rolls than my mother," and then concluded with this statement under "What did you achieve?" "I did make better cinnamon rolls than my mother!"

One eager chef watched the process of making cinnamon rolls and wrote that "I want to make cinnamon rolls because it looks like fun". But under the "What did you learn?" section, the truth of the matter was revealed. "It isn't easy to roll the dough out evenly and cut them straight."

But the experience seemed to have been worth while to all of the contestants and it certainly was to the mothers. Now they won't have to make whole wheat muffins or cinnamon rolls any more because one young person wrote "I want to be able to make muffin and cinnamon rolls for my family, friends and church."

I believe that 4-H is a terrific experience for everyone involved and am eagerly looking forward to judging any more baking contests. Next time, however, I'll bring my own plate and fork!

O.E.S. honors 50 year members

On September 4, 1980, at a stated meeting of Clarendon Chapter No. 6, Charles E. Bairfield, Past Grand Patron, and his charming wife, Thelma Bairfield, resolutions Committee, Grand Chapter of Texas, O.E.S., were presented 50-year pens and 50-year membership certificates. On hand to make the presentations was guest speaker, Mrs. Beulah Speer, Grand Examiner of District II. Sister Beulah made a delightful speech and brought it to the attention of everyone present that the presentations were being made on the exact anniversary date of the Bairfield's initiation into our Order.

S.S.G. BUSTER W. EMMONS

Son of Clarendon couple receives commendation

SSG Buster W. Emmons, Co. D, 386th Engr. Bn. recently received a commendation from the Department of the Army for performance in a totally outstanding manner in the Texas Army National Guard from March 1975 to June 1, 1980. His citation reads in part: he has developed exceptional leadership, tactical and technical expertise totally on his own initiative without active service or military training Basic or AIT.

After enlistment and rapid promotion to Sgt. he refused a promotion to SSG E-3 in spite of repeated recommendations, in deference to others he considered to be more deserving because they had more time and grading in service. This attitude of professional humility and integrity is typical of SSG Emmons concern for his unit and his fellow troopers.

Emmons has developed his subordinate NCO's to become such diligent and skillful leaders that they have earned recommendations also for the AG Individual Award. These are just some of the reasons for the commendation awarded SSG Emmons.

SSG Buster W. Emmons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Emmons of Clarendon and is a 13 year veteran employee of the Houston Fire Department where he serves as an arson investigator.

PROPOSITION NO. 1
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to permit banks to establish and operate unmanned teller machines within the county or city where the banks are located and to share the use of teller machines on a basis consistent with anti-trust laws, if it finds such operation will serve the convenience of the public. The Legislature has already passed enabling legislation (H.B. 1510) for this proposed amendment. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to authorize banks to use unmanned teller machines within the county or city of their domicile on a shared basis to serve the public convenience."

PROPOSITION NO. 2
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 97 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the State and the accused the right to an interlocutory appeal from the following trial court rulings in criminal cases: pretrial rulings on the constitutionality of a statute; on a motion to quash, dismiss, or set aside an indictment; and on a motion to suppress evidence. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing appeal of certain pre-trial rulings of a trial court in a criminal case by either the state or the accused."

PROPOSITION NO. 3
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 98 proposes a constitutional amendment that would require a single appraisal of all property subject to ad valorem taxation and would provide for a single board of equalization within each county. The constitutional requirement that the county commissioners court sit as a board of equalization would be eliminated, and elected officials of the county or governing body of the taxing unit would be prohibited from serving as members of the board of equalization. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment requiring a single appraisal and a single board of equalization within each county for ad valorem tax purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 4
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the conduct of bingo games by certain specified groups for charitable purposes, subject to the limitations that operation of the games must be approved in local option elections and that all proceeds must be spent in Texas. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize bingo games on a local option election basis if the games are conducted by a church, synagogue, religious society, volunteer fire department, nonprofit veterans organization, fraternal organization, or nonprofit organization supporting medical research or treatment programs and if the proceeds are to be spent in Texas for charitable purposes of the organizations."

PROPOSITION NO. 5
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 86 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of certain appropriated funds, subject to any conditions and limitations provided by law and subject to the approval of a budget execution committee that would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to grant the governor power to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of appropriated funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 6
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Governor who appointed a previously confirmed official to remove that official from office subject to the advice and consent of the Senate; and if the Legislature is not in session, to call a special session of the Senate which may last no longer than 2 days for consideration of the removal. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the governor to remove appointed officers with the advice and consent of the senate."

PROPOSITION NO. 7
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 121 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize counties with a population of 5000 or less to construct and maintain private roads if they impose a reasonable charge for the work. The Legislature by general law may limit this authority. Revenue received from private road work may be used only for the construction, including right-of-way acquisition, or maintenance of public roads. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing counties with a population of 5000 or less to perform private road work."

PROPOSITION NO. 8
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 36 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the jurisdiction and authority of the State's appellate courts. The amendment would change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals to Courts of Appeal and provide that these courts have intermediate appellate jurisdiction over both criminal and civil cases. The amendment would change titles for the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court to Justices and would require members of the Supreme Court to be attorneys licensed in this state while holding office. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals and the names and qualifications of the justices of the Supreme Court and to prescribe the jurisdiction and authority of the appellate courts."

PROPOSITION NO. 9
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment which defines separate property owned by either spouse as all property, both real and personal, of a spouse owned or claimed before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent. Persons about to marry and spouses, without the intent to defraud pre-existing creditors, may by written instrument from time to time partition between themselves all or part of their property. Spouses may exchange a community interest in property owned or to be acquired for a community interest in other community property. The amendment would allow spouses to agree in writing that income or property arising from any separate property is to be separate property rather than as community property as it would be in the absence of an agreement. The amendment proposes that a gift from one spouse to another is presumed to include all income or property deriving from such gift. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment allowing spouses to agree that income or property arising from separate property is to be separate property."

proval of a budget execution committee that would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to grant the governor power to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of appropriated funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 9
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment which defines separate property owned by either spouse as all property, both real and personal, of a spouse owned or claimed before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent. Persons about to marry and spouses, without the intent to defraud pre-existing creditors, may by written instrument from time to time partition between themselves all or part of their property. Spouses may exchange a community interest in property owned or to be acquired for a community interest in other community property. The amendment would allow spouses to agree in writing that income or property arising from any separate property is to be separate property rather than as community property as it would be in the absence of an agreement. The amendment proposes that a gift from one spouse to another is presumed to include all income or property deriving from such gift. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment allowing spouses to agree that income or property arising from separate property is to be separate property."

Lloyd Bentsen US Senator

The Senate Finance Committee, working with unprecedented speed and in unprecedented harmony, has finished work on a tax cut.

The committee completed in one week a process that usually takes over a month, approving a tax reduction that will amount to $39 billion in 1981 and rise to $75 billion a year by 1985.

Many people are amazed that committee Democrats and Republicans would cooperate on a politically volatile issue like a tax cut, especially in the middle of a national election campaign.

Recently we saw Democrats and Republicans on the Senate Finance Committee work hand-in-hand to craft just the kind of tax cut that Democrats and Republicans on the Joint Economic Committee have been advocating for several years.

I believe this indicates a broad agreement in this country on the need to stabilize our economy through bold, innovative action.

The Senate Finance Committee's tax bill reduces the so-called marriage tax "penalty" and it helps compensate people whose Social Security taxes will be increased next January.

The measure also would enlarge the "zero bracket amount" -- what used to be called the standard deduction -- from $2300 to $2400 for a single taxpayer and from $3400 to $3600 for a married couple filing a joint return.

The committee also included in this tax legislation the Bentsen bill to encourage investment by allowing accelerated depreciation on equipment and machinery and on commercial structures.

This bill permits investors to depreciate equipment and machinery roughly 40 percent faster than they now can and should go a long way in helping to lift our country's sagging rate of productivity.

And the bill would increase the capital gains tax exclusion for individuals from 60 to 70 percent. Back in 1978, I sponsored legislation which was enacted to raise this exclusion from 50 to 60 percent.

In short, the Senate Finance Committee has approved a carefully targeted, non-inflationary tax reduction designed to help restore prosperity and stability to our economy.

All this was achieved during an unusually heated election year, not by Democrats on the Finance Committee, nor by Republicans on the committee -- but by members of the United States Senate working together in the best interests of their nation.

7th Annual Institute on Alcohol and Drug Abuse

Plans are now complete for the Seventh Annual Institute on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, co-sponsored by the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission and several other area agencies. The institute is scheduled for Thursday, September 25, in the West Texas State University Activities Center.

Featured speaker for this year's institute is Father Martin is especially well-known for his famous "chalk talks" and inspirational messages about recovery from Alcoholism. He divides his time between a round of international speaking engagements and work on his own treatment center in North Carolina. Father Martin will be presented at 3:30 in the afternoon during the institute and at 8:00 at night in the First Presbyterian Church in Amarillo. The 8:00 p.m. session is open to the general public.

Another prominent feature of the institute will be presentations by a number of regional and state experts in alcoholism and drug addiction. Included are workshops on family communications, teenage drinking and alcohol education, the doctor's approach to alcoholic recovery, and the role of confidentiality laws in protecting the family, the client, and the treatment program.

Robert Schenk, the manager of Owens-Corning Fiberglas' Employee Assistance Program, will talk about his industry's response to employees' personal problems. Others on the program include Monsignor Francis Smyer, Judges Howard Warnick and David Gleason, Reverend Allen Connally of Houston, and Dr. James Carroll, minister of Amarillo's First Presbyterian Church.

The day-long institute begins at 8:00 on the morning of the 25th with registration and runs through 3:15. Most of the sessions will be repeated once for the participants, counselors, and volunteers in drug and alcoholism programs. Members of the medical community and others involved in alcoholism and drug areas are invited to the institute. Last year 250 persons from across the region and the state attended. This year, over 400 are expected.

Glen Reid has Faith that Heals

Glen W. Reid, the son of Frank and Gertrude Reid of Clarendon, has a unique and special kind of faith and love. He suffers from cancer of the lymph glands since 1972. Yet Glen hasn't given up to what the doctors predicted, nor has he allowed this to make his life a misery. In fact, Glen says that "It's like a Christmas feeling, but I feel it all the year round. The most important thing that carrying this burden has given Reid is a closer and deeper understanding and belief in Jesus Christ. He speaks at many churches and goes to cancer wards in area hospitals to talk to those suffering from cancer, his unique experience. He makes it a point to tell them about Christianity.

The experience has made Reid say that the life he has lived since the discovery of his cancer has been "better than in all the years before I learned I had cancer."

"I get more of a blessing than they do", said Reid of other cancer patients and congregations he has spoken to. "But you really have to be a Christian to feel as I do."

Frank and Gertrude hold a special feeling in their hearts for a son who has such love and faith in Jesus Christ. He helps others so much and they are so proud of their son and all that he does. The Reids have a great feeling of gratitude to the people who help the Cancer Association because of what they have seen happen in their own family.

Howardwick partyline

By NORMA CORGILL

Howardwick got a nice little rain Friday afternoon. I'm sure everyone enjoyed it very much. It just didn't last long enough. It ranged from 1/2 to about 1 inch in different parts of our town.

The City Aldermen had a called meeting Sunday afternoon at 3:00. The topic of discussion was our law enforcement. There were some pro and cons and whether we needed a lawman out here all the time or not. Most everyone felt that we did. Al was given $100.00 more amonth and was kept on to keep law and order.

Mr. Patton resigned as mayor, his resignation was accepted.

Lawrence Whitehead resigned as Alderman. So there will be two new offices to fill the next meeting of the City Aldermen.

More people should be interested in their city government. Come out to the meeting and see what is happening in our town.

Al Burleson wishes to express his sincere thanks to the interested citizens of Howardwick who attended the meeting Sunday afternoon and gave him a vote of confidence as Chief of Police. He pledges to continue to enforce the law as state law and city ordinance demands if allowed to do so.

The Laker Homemakers Club had their 1st meeting of the summer vacation time Monday afternoon. We had 20 present including four visitors and Lesli; also met with us. We had a very good meeting, caught up on what everyone had done through the summer.

Evelyn Burleson brought some good points on making yeast breads, whole wheat, wheat germ, plain white bread, fruit rolls, breads for gift giving. Lesli presented us with cookbooks of different kinds of bread. Margaret Wells served refreshments, a very delicious punch.

Jim and Thelma Corgill went to Logan, New Mexico last Tuesday. Thelma has 2 sisters living there. Jimmie McCreary, Rita and husband W.J. Smith, a nephew Joe and Linda Smith and son, a brother Royce McCreary wife Louise, a son Royce Dale and daughter Charlotte McCreary from San Jose, California. They all met together for a family reunion.

A Moment for Meditation

By INEZ G. LAWRENCE
"Thy will be done in earth."
Mt. 6:10

Perhaps no passage is more familiar than the so-called Lord's Prayer. It actually is the MODEL prayer that Jesus gave His disciples when they were discussing prayers. They had asked Him to teach them as John had taught his disciples to pray. Jesus responded with a set of guidelines we call the Lord's Prayer.

It is interesting that the first section deals with our attitude toward God it must be a father-child relationship to begin with. A woman said to me once, "I only pray when a crisis comes. I don't think God wants to be bothered with petty things."

Her relationship was not one of a father-child concern. Perhaps it was just as well she seldom prayed, for her attitude was all wrong. Yet our attitude is often wrong when we pray also. Perhaps we wish for God's will on earth in a general sense, but we are not so sure about it in our own lives. That would mean right here where we are - in our homes, in our businesses, in our churches, even in our social circles. That could be drastic, we feel. It might be time consuming as well, and we already have our schedules arranged. To say the least it would require a more self-discipline than we care to try today. Besides, what could one person do to bring about God's will on earth?

God uses individuals before He uses groups or masses. He began with Jesus - one person. Jesus called His disciples one or two at a time. Peter was the preacher at pentecost. Paul became the world-wide missionary. Martin Luther called the people back to the Bible and revitalized the church. Billy Graham has preached to more people than any man who has ever lived. Each individual receives or rejects God's will in his own life. Each one of us has his sphere of influence, and who knows to where it may spread if God's will is done in it? Peter Marshall said, "It does matter to God where we are at any given time." That sounds positive to me.

ON THE INCREASE

It has been called a "disease of the twentieth century" . . . a problem that is increasing in virtually all economically developed countries. The disease is called diverticulosis.

Diverticulosis is a disease of the intestine. In weak areas, small sacs or pouches form. The condition is common in people over age 40. Past age 70, as many as half of the population will have some degree of diverticulosis.

In diverticulosis, the sacs or pouches formed may become inflamed or infected or both. When this occurs, the condition is known as diverticulitis. These words, diverticulosis and diverticulitis, are very similar but have different meanings.

With the formation of sacs, there may be no symptoms of disease. With inflammation and/or infection, however, stomach pain may occur. Diarrhea, constipation, or rectal bleeding are also not uncommon. Since these symptoms are seen in many other diseases, x-rays and other tests are required to determine if any individual has diverticulosis, diverticulitis, or another problem.

Diets high in vegetable fiber are universally acceptable in the treatment or prevention of diverticulitis. Wheat bread, certain cereals, and many raw vegetables are excellent sources of fiber. In some instances, antibiotics and even surgery are required to control inflammation and infection.

This health is on the increase. An improved diet...high in fiber...may be the key to preventing serious problems.
