Charley Deyhle Chairman for Reagan-Bush Campaign in County

Governor Bill Clements today announced the appointment of Mr. Charlie Deyhle of Clarendon to be the chairman of the Reagan-Bush Campaign in Donley County.

In announcing the appointment, Governor Clements said, "Mr. Charlie Deyhle is part of the top-notch statewide campaign team we are putting together as we organize all 254 counties in order to carry the State of Texas for Governor Reagan and our fellow Texan George Bush. Each county is vital to our success, and we are waging an aggressive campaign from one end of our state to the other."

The Governor also said, "It's absolutely astounding the way momentum is building in Texas for Governor Reagan and Ambassador Bush. Every day, more and more Texans -- including many, many Democrats and Independents -- are joining in active support of the Reagan-Bush ticket."

Among the many prominent Texans endorsing Governor Reagan and Ambassador Bush are former Texas Governors John Connally, Allan Shivers, and Preston Smith, as well as former Lt. Gov. and former Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives Ben Barnes of Brownwood.

Also other prominent Texas Democrats and Independents are supporting the Reagan-Bush ticket.

Governor Clements said, "Their support is welcomed and I think it is indicative of the thinking of most Americans who have had all they can stand of the Carter Administration's miserable record on all fronts."

The Governor stated, "Jimmy Carter's record -- which he is taking great pains to hide -- remains clear for all Americans who must daily bear the brunt of it. Since he took office, inflation has tripled, the prime interest rate has tripled; federal spending is up 60 percent; and the average family of four will pay $1,050 more in federal taxes."

"What's more," Governor Clements said, "our nation is facing the most serious threat to our national security since World War II because of Mr. Carter's defense cutbacks and his erratic foreign policy which is eroding our respect abroad."

He also said, "As Governor of California, Ronald Reagan showed us what he will do as President. He put the brakes on government spending, slowed the growth in government bureaucracy, and initiated a massive overhaul of the state's welfare system. In short, Governor Reagan brought a run-away government under control and restored fiscal stability, good management, and accountability to the taxpayers."

Joyce Raymond will be Lion's Club speaker

Joyce Raymond, will be the speaker for Clarendon Lion's Club 58th Anniversary Ladies Night banquet to be held, Tuesday, October 21, 1980 at 7:30 p.m. in the Lion's Den.

Mrs. Raymond, is an inspiration to persons whose sight may be restored by surgery. She had her sight back, after years of legal blindness by the miracle of double cornea transplant.

Her story of coping with a young family, seeing the world as an indistinct blur, of the fear and burden of decision for surgery, which might fail and the miraculous outcome of her operation has been shared with many audiences. It is a story of deep emotions and the miracle of modern techniques for saving, restoring and aiding sight.

Joyce began her work with the Lion's Club in 1963 when she was asked by the president of High-Plains Eye Bank to speak at a Lions Convention. She has been a part time secretary for the eye bank since 1979.

Cotton Festival celebration Friday and Saturday

It is very likely that of all the parades in the area, the one held every October in Hedley is the nicest, prettiest and has the most elaborate floats of any parade in any town. The July 4 and Homecoming parades in Canyon never could hold a candle, or a bale of cotton, to the parade the little community of Hedley puts together every year.

The driving force, creative genius and manpower, or, womanpower behind this elaborate beautiful confection of cotton each year is the Hedley Lioness Club. Sue Weatherly is the creative genius for more than one hundred floats! She works on 3 or 4 every year for the past 29 years of this annual festival.

Sue says that it is easier now since the clubs own their cotton wagons. In the past, the floats had to be disassembled quickly so the farmer could get his wagon back to haul cotton in. Now, the floats can be built earlier and stay put together longer. This enables the floats to appear in more local parades.

Sue has taken floats to Shamrock, Memphis and Wellington through the years, always one or more floats brings home an honor. Sue can put a float together, mostly alone, in about three to four hours. She has help building the structure and frame work, then, unless the Lioness Club makes a work project out of it, she does the bulk of the lay our work alone.

This week, the ladies gathered in the dusty barn and worked on the float, making some repairs to it from its appearance in the Wellington parade a few weeks ago. President Ruthie White, Martha Hill, Opal Evans, Lesli Garnett, Mahdeene DeBord, and Katie Dvorak helped work on the float.

The cotton is donated to those in the festival making a float by the good people at the Memphis Compress. They donate sample cotton. Sue makes a trip to a warehouse in Memphis that sells finery to decorate the floats with. She had boxes of purple floral sheeting and gralands to repair the float on the work night.

Putting a float together has its awkward sides as well as its rewards. One year Sue forgot to plan on the height of the float and the ships sails knocked down a power line. Once the girl to ride the float had to be settled in her cotton bote by first climbing the fire truck tall ladder. Recently, when the float was being taken to Wellington, part of the structure supporting the Lioness emblem began to fall away. Marty Tarver had to tie a rope around the structure and ride on the float the rest of the way to Wellington. Marty swears that Sue was driving at least 70 miles an hour since Marty had to hand on to the wagon and the rope for dear life.

The beautiful float, the product of hours of loving labor, boxes of kleenex as the ladies sneezed and coughed, pounds of staples and cotton, can be seen October 11 at 2:00 p.m. The President, Ruthie White will be riding the float wearing a purple gown. Hedley and it's float builders invite everyone to town at 1:00 p.m. to view the kiddie parade and then at 2:00 to watch the loving creations parade for your pleasure. Once again, this little community will surpass itself in its efforts.

New officers elected for Library Board

OUTGOING CHAIRMAN for the City County Library Board (center) Lawrence Neece is shown welcoming new board members (l) Jerry Courtney and (r) Gene Alderson.

Gabie Betts Burton City-County Memorial Library had the first meeting of the new fiscal year on October 2, at 7 p.m. in City Hall.

New officers were elected. They are Dianne Chamberlain, chairman; Jerry Courtney, vice chairman; Karen Simmons, secretary.

Lawrence Neece, Librarian reported that our local library will receive $2,208.00 as it's share of the budgeted money from state and federal sources. This money is strictly for book enrichment.

It was reported that a meeting of the Library Enrichment Committee, Anton Riggs, chairman would meet Saturday the 4th of October to choose books to buy with the money now available.

Chairman Chamberlain stated that a meeting would be held next week to make plans for a library fund raiser sometime before Christmas.

A scale model of tentative plans for the front of the remodeled library, was examined by members to table approval of the plans until a cost figure was available.

In other business, the decorating committee discussed plans to shop for wall covering. Several different wall treatments were discussed, depending on cost and utility.

Neece reported that the plumbing and wiring jobs are in progress.

Nancy Shelton, Lay Representative to Systems stated that an open house would be held in Canadian on October 26th from 1 to 5. Libby Barker, Canadian Librarian extended a warm invitation to Donley County citizens. They have just finished a complete remodel and expansion project on their facilities.

Present for the library board meeting were, Mary Hazel VanZandt, Nancy Shelton, Lawrence Neece, Dianne Chamberlain, Gene Alderson and Shirley Clifford.

Hedley Lioness Club met

The Hedley Lioness Club held their monthly meeting in the Lions Den in Hedley Monday at 7:30 p.m. A meal of broasted chicken, salad, vegetable slices, lemon bundt cake and ice tea was served at a buffet.

It was decided that candy, cookies, cokes and coffee would be sold at the Bazaar during the Cotton Festival on Saturday. The crafts and potted plants will be for sale from 10 a.m. until 4 or 5 p.m.

The ladies will also sell slices of homemade pie at the barbecue Saturday working schedules were arranged for the festival and the meeting adjourned to the bazaar building where decorations were made.

EMT Graduation
their instructors was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Johnston at their home. Those in attendance had steak with all the trimmings furnished by the EMTs followed by visiting and a presentation of gifts to the instructors by the graduates.

During the 130 hour course the students were required to have 90 classroom hours, 2 emergency ambulance runs, and 40 hours of in-hospital observation in the Amarillo Emergency Receiving Center, Northwest Texas Hospital Intensive Care Unit, Coronary Care Unit, and Respiratory Therapy Department. The students accumulated 900 man hours of classroom time and 500 man hours of in-hospital time.

The students were thoroughly trained in all aspects of emergency medical care including cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), bandaging, splinting, airway, shock management, diabetic emergencies, heat and cold emergencies, heart attack, stroke, bites and stings, seizures, anatomy and physiology, childbirth, extrication and crash management, spinal injuries, patient assessment and evaluation, burn care, suicide and rape management, child abuse, drug overdose, poisoning, etc.

At the end of the class, the students were required to take a written and practical examination administered by the Texas Department of Health. The students were tagged as very exceptional by the Health Department and the instructors in that there were two perfect scores on the written and several near perfect scores on the practical with no failures on any section and no written grade below 80. This was unusual for any EMT class due to the difficulty of the subject matter and the length of the course.

All of the people in the class paid their own expenses and devoted their time to attending classes and doing their hospital work. They are all now certified as EMTs. This is the same course and these people have the same training as the ambulance crews in the larger cities in Texas. Even the cities where there are paramedics, usually a Paramedic and EMT are teamed together on a crew. The EMT certification is the second highest certification in the emergency care field in Texas, second only to the Paramedic certification. It is a prerequisite for the Paramedic course.

The EMT is recognized as a professional under state statutes. These people have devoted a great deal of time, money, and dedication to completing the course and are very capable of handling any medical emergency. Let them know you appreciate their caring for the people in their community. With certification of this class now complete, Clarendon now has as volunteers, 14 EMTs and 2 Paramedics providing good emergency care to the community on a 24 hour a day basis anytime an illness or injury arises.

Support EMS in the community, the life they save could be YOURS!

Medical Center has two Greenthumb workers

Medical Center currently has two Greenthumb Workers working in the facility. Ms. Inez Skinner and Ms. Ruby Lee White work in the nursing department and have been with Medical Center for a number of years. These workers are very deserving persons with a wealth of knowledge in the field they are working. Medical Center has worked with the Greenthumb program for several years and the program is indeed valuable to the residents at Medical Center as well as beneficial to the workers and the county. The Greenthumb program allows the older population to secure jobs when there is a need by the worker or a tax supported or non-profit organization.

Ms. Eula Merrill is the local representative for the Greenthumb program. She works with the Administrator and the Greenthumb workers for a very good relationship between her superiors at Greenthumb and Medical Center.

Our appreciation is extended to the Greenthumb Program of Texas, Greenthumb workers Ms. Inez Skinner and Ms. Ruby Lee White and our local representative Ms. Eula Merrill for the helping hand you are extending to Medical Center and the older population of Donley County.

Congressman Jack Hightower receives award

The National Associated Businessmen, Inc., one of the major national associations that represent the interests of small businesses in Washington, has awarded Congressman Jack Hightower a "Watchdog of the Treasury Award" for voting against unnecessary federal spending during the 96th Congress. He was also named to the same award for the 95th Congress.

This is the second time in as many weeks an award from a major national association representing small businesses has been given to Congressman Hightower for his service during this Congress. The National Federation of Independent Business had already named Hightower as a recipient of the "Guardian of Small Business" award.

In the evaluation of the National Associated Businessmen, the 13th District Congressman was in the upper 20 percent of the 435 members of the House of Representatives in fighting to protect the taxpayers of this country.

In his response to the award, Congressman Hightower stated, "it is gratifying to find that this group, working to represent the interests of small businesses, feels that my work and judgment on issues before Congress points to the same goals. The first and foremost need of small businesses today is that inflation be brought under control. That has been and continues to be first and foremost purpose in my service to the people of this district and our nation."

"To reach a balanced budget, to become energy self-reliant, to develop a positive balance of trade; to end unnecessary government regulation; these are all a part of the inflation fighting process. I am proud that this association believes that my actions have supported my words."

Hightower, finishing his third term, serves on the powerful and influential Appropriations Committee of the House of Representatives.

First grade Brownies will meet every Wednesday

The First grade Brownies are meeting every Wednesday at 2:30. Fourteen girls have registered as Brownies - they are as follows: Toni Breitling, Leshel Callaway, Michelle Delozier, Kelly Edwards, Renee Erdman, Patty Floyd, Taylor-Ann Harbert, Suzette Henson, Cindy Hermesmeier, Kim Hodges, Kim McAfee, Brandi Morrow, Crystal Riley, and Regina Watson. Troop leader is Jondel Moffett with Assistant leader, Burdean Erdman. Teresa Watson has registered as a much needed Committee member.

These Brownies are very enthusiastic beginners in the Girl Scout program - they are doing their introductory activities, such as memorizing the G.S. promise, motto, slogan, etc. plus they are starting to become Ready Helpers, which is going to teach them how to help their family and friends. These young ladies are enjoying becoming Brownies because it is so much fun to learn.

We all would like to thank the parents for their assistance and we hope the community will look forward to seeing fourteen hardworking first graders become part of the worldwide organization of Girl Scouts.

WHAT TO DO IF YOUR LIGHTS GO OUT

We'll do our best to keep it from happening, but let's face it. Even with the miracles of modern technology, it sometimes occurs in the best of systems.

So, if your power goes off, we hope you'll help us get it back on as quickly as possible.

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

1. Check your neighbors. Call them or go outside and see how widespread the outage is.
2. If your house is the only one affected, check your breaker box.
3. If the trouble is not on your side of the meter, call us - your local WTU office - and give us the following information:
 - Your name and address
 - Time of the outage
 - The area affected (as many addresses as possible)

We'll take it from there. Please don't prolong the call with questions that can't be answered. We'll be getting many other calls, depending on how widespread the outage is. And, if you're answered by a recorded message, it means that the dispatcher already has been swamped with calls and that we're working on the problem.

Bronchos lost a hard fought battle to the Childress Bobcats 27-16

HOSEA HEARN #40 and Lance Thornberry #32 in action against the Childress Bobcats.

MIKE McCOWAN #60 and Mark White #70 work at their positions in the Broncho-Bobcat game.

The Clarendon Broncos' record dropped to 2-2-1 Friday night as they lost a hard-fought battle to the Childress Bobcats in Bronco Stadium, 27-16.

Clarendon head coach Ted Allen said he was pleased with his team despite the loss. And the Broncos did play well, going against a much-heralded offense led by junior running back Donald Sims. The Bobcat offense, coupled with a strong defense, has earned them a ranking of 2nd in Class AAA and a 5-0 record.

But Clarendon knew their strength and the Broncos came into the ballgame well-prepared and confident. This showed from the start as the Bobcats took the opening kickoff and gained little yardage. The whole first quarter was a defensive struggle and it ended with Childress driving the ball around midfield. A few plays later, however, Childress broke the ice on a 21 yard touchdown pass to Clifton Cornish. But the Broncos bounced back, scoring on a 60 yard touchdown run by Bobby Weatherton. The two-point conversion of Lance Thornberry to Randy White put Clarendon ahead for the first time, 8-7. But toward the end of the half the Bobcats put together another good drive, scoring on yet another touchdown strike to Cornish. The two-point attempt failed, and Childress went in at halftime with a 13-8 lead.

After the intermission, both teams were fired up and ready to play. Clarendon took the kick-off, and started to drive, but a fumble gave the ball to the 'cats. After fine defensive efforts by both teams, the Bronco defense forced interception by Weathergon on a low-thrown ball. It was the second interception for Clarendon, the first coming on a deep pass and picked off by Drew Thornberry. Weatherton's interception shifted the momentum, and only a few plays later he romped 26 yards for a Bronco touchdown. Lance Thornberry drilled David Weatherton with a conversion pass and the Broncos suddenly held a 16-13 lead. They seemed to be controlling the game with little time left in the third period. The Bronco defense held again and Clarendon had the ball at the beginning of the fourth quarter with good field position. But a Bronco fumble gave Childress the ball. They then relied heavily on talented Sims as he sparked the winning drive, capped by his 14 yard run. The Broncos took the ball after the kickoff and drove to mid-field, but were held on forth down with only five minutes remaining. Childress, once again mainly using Sims, drove in and ensured victory with a TD in a hard-fought game.

Overall, it was probably the Broncos' best-played game. Allen said that the offense executed better than they ever had, and the defense certainly sparkled. The defensive front chalked up five quarterback sacks and pass coverage was almost always there. Bobby Weatherton picked up 133 yards on offense, and on defense, Randy White led in tackles.

Clarendon wound up a very tough pre-season with a record of 2-2-1. They are idle this week before starting district play against Shamrock. Allen said that the Irish have a good team. The game is set for October 17. It will be the District 2-AA opener for both teams.

Colt's Corral

By KIM FORMWAY

Hello! All you Colts out there in Collland. Bringing the Colt action up to date, Thursday, October 2, they held a great Pep Rally consisting of a skit by the Cheerleaders, a double baton routine by the twirlers and a few encouraging words from Lee Smith from the 7th, Carl Cox from the 8th and Mr. Walker for the Colts in general.

The 8th grade won the Spirit Key for the week. Our Colt teams met the Wellington Firecrackers on the Colt field for our 4th game.

The 7th grade played a hard fought game keeping the score zero for the first 3 quarters. During the last few minutes of the final quarter, Wellington scored leaving the score Colts 0, Firecrackers 8. The 8th grade added another big victory, beating the Firecrackers 18 to 0.

Our Colts are great and our spirit is Sky High. Our next game will be against Memphis at Memphis. In classroom news we start our second 6 weeks and report card time is here!

The Fitness Connection

If you're exercising on a regular basis, you're on the way to being fit. The other part of the way is eating right. The two, regular exercise and eating right, form the fitness connection.

A beginning exercise program shouldn't be full of pains and strains. Nor should a good eating program consist of self-denials and unappealing meals. What it should include is a good mix of a variety of foods providing the nutrients needed by the body, with the number of calories consumed no more than the number of calories expended.

According to the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, nutritionists say that Americans consume too many calories, eat too much salt and too much fat. To alter these eating patterns, they recommend that most Americans:

- Eat more fruits, vegetables and whole grains.
- Eat fewer fatty meats and more poultry and fish.
- Cut down on sugar and foods high in sugar content.
- Substitute skim milk for whole milk.
- Eat fewer high cholesterol foods.

Fish tails

Two Clarendon residents had great success fishing in Corsicana Lake near Dallas this last weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Molder of Irving took a flat bottomed boat with just a trolling motor out on the lake about noon and began to fish with vigor and great expectations. There is nothing unusual in fishing like that, lots of Clarendon residents fish with vigor and great expectations at Greenbelt Lake. The major difference here, however, is that they caught fish. From noon until 6 p.m. the trio pulled in 12 big mouth bass ranging from 1 1/2 lbs to 4 pounds. Lloyd Molder caught the largest bass, proving that Clarendon residents are great fishermen, no matter what lake they may be fishing.

Corsicana lake was muddy and still, there was no wind and the weather was cool. Greenbelt was also still and cool, but the water is clear and clean, in spite of the low levels of the lake at this time of year.

We in Clarendon like to hear about the success and conditions of Greenbelt, and the fishermen it spawns. Don't hesitate to call the paper and brag a little about Greenbelt fishing expedition or those exotic trips to "foreign" lakes around about. The people are interested in hearing about fish tales.

Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Molder went to Irving this past weekend to visit her mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong and brother J.O. Armstrong.

FACTS & FIGURES

A lot of people are writing, wiring and calling their legislators protesting regulations that could prevent America's growers from using the crop protection chemicals they need. Without those chemicals, scientists say, we could lose half our crops every year.

The average American grower feeds 60 other people—including 15 in foreign countries.

ASCS news letter

1981 Wheat Program: The major provisions of the 1981 Wheat Program are as follows with some provisions being preliminary and subject to change:

1. Set-Aside - None required for 1981 wheat
2. Normal Crop Acreage - Producers on farms with planted wheat must make sure that the farm NCA is not exceeded to be eligible for program benefits on any NCA crop.
3. Offsetting Compliance - In addition to planting within the NCA on a participating wheat farm, owners and operators must make sure that the NCA is not exceeded on any other farm with wheat planted which they own or operate.
4. Paid Diversion and Haying and Grazing - If conditions change and it becomes evident that wheat supplies will be excessive, a paid diversion will be offered. A final decision on haying and grazing will be made before the beginning of the spring grazing period.
5. Target Price - The 1981 target price will be set at a minimum of $3.81.
6. Loan Rate - The 1981 national loan rate is set at the minimum of $3.00.
7. Payment Limitation - The $50,000 payment limitation is in effect for 1981.

Emergency Feed Program:

If you are having to feed above normal at this time, you could be eligible for some assistance.

1980 Disaster: If you do not harvest a program crop because of a disaster, notify this office and let us appraise the crop before you destroy it.

Also, for low yield payment, you must request the low yield within fifteen days from the date harvest is completed on that farm.

Cotton Loans: Loans on 1980 crop cotton are available through the county ASCS Office. Custody of the warehouse receipts and class cards will be maintained here. The loan rate is 48.40, basis Strict Low Middling, 1-1/16 (micronaire 3.5 - 4.9).

Comments on the 1981 Feed Grain and Soybean Program: Written comments will be received until October 27, 1980, by the Director, Production Adjustment Division, ASCS, USDA, Room 3630, P.O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20013.

Holiday: This office will be closed Monday, October 13, 1980, in observance of Columbus Day.

Common Sense Tips

Hints For Homeowners

AUTOMATIC WASHERS
Modern automatic clothes washers put convenience at the fingertips of homemakers and certainly make wash days easier and faster than ever before. However, to do a really efficient job, they still need some help from you.

Here are some suggestions from Whirlpool home economists to help you get the best cleaning results from your washer:

- First of all, be sure to use enough detergent. Insufficient detergent is a frequent cause of poor washing results.
- Sort and separate clothing items by color, fabric and weight. Also sort lint-givers from lint-receivers. If you are in doubt about how a garment should be handled, check for washing instructions on the garment's label.
- Use your washer to capacity—but don't overload. Clothes must be able to move and flex freely during the washing period for best cleanability and to avoid fabric damage.

The average American grower's efficiency has helped reduce the share of income the average American family spends for food from 23 percent, 30 years ago, to 17 percent today.

PUBLIC NOTICE
BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
GENERAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 4, 1980

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to permit banks to establish and operate un-manned teller machines within the county or city where the banks are located and to share the use of teller machines on a basis consistent with anti-trust laws, if it finds such convenience of the public. The Legislature has already passed enabling legislation (H.B. 1510) for this proposed amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:
"The constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to authorize banks to use un-manned teller machines within the county or the city of their domicile on a shared basis to serve the public convenience."

stitutional requirement that the county commissioners court sit as a board of equalization would be eliminated, and elected officials of the county or governing body of the taxing unit would be prohibited from serving as members of the board of equalization.
The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:
"The constitutional amendment requiring a single appraisal and a single board of equalization within each county for ad valorem tax purposes."

Brucellosis control has two major changes

Two major changes in the Texas brucellosis control program are announced by John Armstrong, Kingsville, chairman, Texas Animal Health Commission.

"Beginning today, a reduced dose of Strain 19 vaccine will be available for all eligible cattle in Texas, and this will also mean a change in vaccination ages for those animals. We believe these developments will have a favorable impact on the Texas plan for brucellosis control," Armstrong said.

The changes are a significant victory for Texas' livestock producers, Armstrong said. Commission members are also indebted to the livestock producers in this state who volunteered their time in developing the Texas plan," Armstrong explained.
The reduced dose is as effective as the larger dose. Larger dosages of Strain 19 have been blamed for causing some animals to be diagnosed as having brucellosis when, in fact, it was a reaction of the vaccine itself.
Some animals developed persisting residual blood titers after vaccination with the standard dose. Titrers are measurements of antibodies resulting from vaccination or infection of brucellosis.
"Titrers induced by the vaccination using the reduced dose are lower and recede more rapidly although the degree of immunity is not different from that produced by the higher dosage," Armstrong said.

Along with the reduced dosage will come a change in vaccination ages for eligible cattle. Previously, official calfhood vaccination ages were 3 to 6 months for dairy breeds and 3 to 10 months for beef breeds. With the reduced dosage, the vaccination ages are 4 to 12 months for all breeds, Armstrong said.

Dr. John Holcombe, executive director, TAHC, said plans to implement the reduced dosage throughout the state are now in effect.
The state will provide funds for vaccination of eligible cattle. Armstrong and Holcombe urged all livestock producers to contact veterinarians in their area for details of the reduced dose vaccination program.

The vaccine must be administered by personnel approved by the Texas Animal Health Commission. The vaccine is fragile and must be handled under controlled conditions to establish a good immunity.
Official ear tags and tattoos must be applied and official records must be kept and reported. There is some personal danger involved when untrained people handle brucellosis vaccine, Dr. Holcombe explained.

One of the goals of the Texas Animal Health Commission is to raise the immunity level in cattle so that 70 percent of the adult female population will have been vaccinated. This is the level judged by experts to significantly reduce the disease, Armstrong said.
"The implementation of the reduced Strain 19 is the most important step in the Texas plan for brucellosis control and eventual eradication," Armstrong said.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 97 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the State and the accused the right to an interlocutory appeal from the following trial court rulings in criminal cases: pretrial rulings on the constitutionality of a statute; on a motion to quash, dismiss, or set aside an indictment; and on a motion to suppress evidence.
The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:
"The constitutional amendment authorizing appeal of certain pre-trial rulings of a trial court in a criminal case by either the state or the accused."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 98 proposes a constitutional amendment that would require a single appraisal of all property subject to ad valorem taxation and would provide for a single board of equalization within each county. The con-

The term "Gypsy" is a corruption of the word "Egyptian." People mistakenly believed that the gypsies descended from Egyptians. In fact, they are probably the descendants of a nomadic tribe of northern India.

DRUGS AND SPORTS

The use of drugs by athletes in an attempt to improve performance is not new. In 1908 during the London Olympics, an Italian runner reportedly took strychnine to assist him during the last miles of the marathon. His plan backfired and he was disqualified from the race.

Although many drugs have been banned by the International Olympics Committee, three types of drugs continue to be reported as having widespread use in amateur and professional athletics.

Amphetamine is a stimulant used to allay fatigue and disguise pain. These drugs are capable of creating fearful rage in athletes who might otherwise be "played out".

Anabolic steroids are similar to male hormones. They are purported to be of value in improving strength and endurance while at the same time increasing muscle mass.

Pain relievers injected into joints make it possible to play longer on damaged ankles, knees, or other tender moving body parts. Cortisone and xylocaine fall into this category.

The continued use of drugs in sports has caused many people to question our system of individual and society values...to question the prospect of "winning at any cost."

Doghouse Review

By MARK NIXON

Life in the "Doghouse" has been moving just unbelievably smooth. Practices have been going excellent, the attitude of the players is at a peak, and the team's conditioning is the best of any team I've been associated with at this point of the preseason.

The only thing out of the ordinary is that we had two players undergo surgery in the last two weeks. Michael Bell, a 6'4 1/2", 205 pounder from Dallas, had cartilage removed from a knee last week. He will be out of action from four to six weeks. Constine McCarty, a 6'2 guard from Jackson, Mississippi, had a bone removed from an ankle this week. It was a somewhat strange ailment. He had an extra bone in his ankle that put pressure on the tendons and ligaments in his foot. The surgery to remove the extra bone was minor and he should be practicing again in two to three weeks.

It appears that our scrimmage schedule is set. Our first scrimmage will be at eastern New Mexico University on Monday, October 20, at 2:00 p.m. M.S.T. The second scrimmage will be one week later on October 27 at Lawton, Oklahoma against the defending NAIA national Champions of Cameron University.

The final scrimmage is set for Thursday, October 30, here in Clarendon against Lubbock Christian College. It is set for 2:00 p.m.

The reason we are scrimmaging three, four-year schools is that we are trying to prepare our young freshman and sophomores for the very tough schedule we face in the regular season.

I believe the most important thing in the preseason is for our players to learn as much as possible and they can learn more by playing against junior and senior players who have experience.

This is a fun time of the year from a coaching standpoint because you can see improvement every day on the different phases of the game.

Come to practice if you get the opportunity. We would love to have you.

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: At about 13 years of age, my husband's daughter was adopted by the family who raised her. Her adopted parents got her a birth certificate showing her name as theirs, as being born in a different town. She now wants to change her name back to her natural father's name. How does she do this and what does it cost?

A: Since 1903 Texas has had a law requiring births to be registered. If her birth was registered, it is doubtful that the place of birth could have been changed. When a person is adopted, the original birth certificate is sealed and replaced by the new birth certificate reflecting the adoption.

Anyone may petition the court for a name change. A lawyer will quote a fee for this procedure. After the name change is ordered, the Dept. of Vital Statistics should be contacted for information on completing the birth certificate correction.

HEAT'S ON

By KATIE DVORAK
Roxane and Bruce Shields have been married for 4 1/2 years. They have three children, J.W., Kari Michell and Samara. Roxane is currently going to the Clarendon College Beauty School, under the direction of Virginia James. Roxane will complete her course work around December. Being a full time student and mother means there must be a lot of family cooperation in her home. There is. Bruce and the kids all work together like a well oiled machine in the evenings to help Roxane put together a well balanced, nutritious meal.

The Shields have lived in Lelia Lake only one year, moving there from Amarillo. They both like the slower pace of the small town and prefer it to the rush of the city. Roxane remarked that "It is safer here than in Amarillo." Bruce said he moved to Lelia Lake because they both had families and because "You can't make a living in Amarillo." Roxane hopes to one day open a shop in her home to serve Lelia Lake.

Southern Coconut Pie
1 C sugar
1 C Kayro
3 eggs slightly beaten
1 C coconut
1 tsp vanilla
3 TBS melted oleo
1 tsp salt

Mix sugar and kayro until blended. Add eggs, salt and vanilla. Add oleo and coconut. Pour into a 9" unbaked pie shell. Bake at 450 for 15 minutes. Remove the pie from the oven and leave the door open for 2-3 minutes to allow the oven to cool as you turn it down to 350. Return the pie to the oven and bake for 30 minutes at 350. This prevents the crust from getting too brown. The edges of the pie will be firm, but the middle will be soft and "undone", but will firm up as it cools.

Freezer Jam
Crush 2 C ripe berries (may use strawberry, blackberries, peaches or apricots). Stir in 4 C sugar. Mix fruit and sugar thoroughly. Combine 3/4 C water and 1 pkg sure gell. Bring to hard boil for one minute, stirring constantly. Add to fruit and sugar, stir well to dissolve. Put in jars, set 24 hours. Leave lids off until frozen.

No Fail Roll Recipe
1 C water, lukewarm, not hot
1 pkg dry yeast
2 TBS sugar
2 TBS soft shortening, NOT liquid
2 1/2 C sifted flour (makes nicer if sifted)
1 tsp salt
1 egg
Dissolve yeast in warm water. Stir in sugar, 1/2 of the flour and salt. Beat until smooth. Add egg and soft shortening, beat in rest of flour until smooth. Cover, let rise 30 minutes.

Either drop spoonful of dough on cookie sheet for dinner rolls. Or, flour hands mold dough into shape desired such as a square, top with melted oleo. Bake at 425 for 25 minutes.

"Ohhh, are they good! I swear that anybody can do it. It takes exactly ten minutes to put together, 30 minutes to rise and 25 to brown and you've got dinner rolls." Roxane really likes this recipe and this writer does too, they are easy to make and delicious.

Fantastic Lasagne (for those that don't like tomatoey taste)

1 lb ground beef, use a ground chuck or lean meat

2 C tomato soup
2-3 C mozzarella cheese, grated
1 pt cottage cheese, grated
1 pt cottage cheese (Roxane says she used a little more for a really cheese flavor)
2 garlic buds chopped
1 TBS oregano
salt and pepper
1/2 box lasagne noodles

serve with parmesan cheese
Brown the meat. When brown, add onion and garlic. Add soup, oregano, salt and pepper. Simmer 30 minutes. Cook noodles according to package directions. In a rectangle pyrex dish, layer cooked noodles, meat mix, cottage cheese, mozzarella and bake at 350 for 25 minutes or until cheese is bubbly. Serve with parmesan cheese on top.

Ava Naylor celebrates 92nd birthday

Miss Ava Naylor celebrated her 92nd birthday on Saturday, October 4, and for her it was a red letter day all day long.

It began with a lovely luncheon which she spent at noon with Mr. and Mrs. Simon. After noon she was lured away to view so many things she began to wonder about it.

At 3 p.m. when she was taken to her own home she discovered Mrs. Simon had been at the Naylor home helping with the table centered with garden flowers and a beautifully decorated angel food birthday cake. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tisdale, Evelyn Eanes and the Simons. They had a lovely visit with cake and punch and looked at the cards galore which Miss Naylor received.

In the evening there was a steak supper for Miss Naylor at the T.E. Naylor home with everyone but Tommy and Steve present. Neva McAfee, of Amarillo had baked and decorated the gorgeous two-tiered cake decorated with red roses and green leaves. On the cake were the words HAPPY BIRTHDAY and 92.

All the assembled group sang Happy Birthday and helped Miss Naylor with many lovely presents and cards. With all the candy she received she was sure to gain many pounds, Miss Ava declared.

Another memorable experience was the visit Friday in Wellington which she had with a friend of many years. This friend will be moving soon to Lubbock, because of failing health and the two ladies made the most of this visit.

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A New Testament Church following the precepts of God and the teachings of the Apostles.

Wilbert Bernabe, Pastor

The Bookworm

It is June 18, 1960—the eve of "June Teenth", Emancipation Day in the south. Liah Palmer, the beautiful young wife of a respectable local doctor, has just mistakenly murdered the wrong person trying to protect a shocking secret: she is really black.

Passing Through a fascinating first novel that is reminiscent of Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird. The novel was written by Amarillo resident, Guida Jackson.

Guida was born in Amarillo and received her BA in journalism from TTU. This is her first novel. The book, an autographed copy, was a gift from Guida with this note inside: "As I have relatives and friends in the area who have expressed an interest in this book, published last fall by Simon and Schuster, I would like to donate this signed copy to your library."

Lawrence Neece has donated several new books to the Gabe Bettes Burton Memorial Library. One of them is "The Windsor Story" by J. Bryan III and Charles J. Murphy, published by William Morrow and Co., Inc. If you thought you knew everything there is to know about the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, you are in for a shock.

Through interviews with those closest to them, we observe their marriage not as the sentimental love story of legend, but as the nightmare it really was, including its near dissolution when the Duchess took up with the notorious braggart homosexual, Jimmy Donahue, who once kicked her and eventually died under suspicious circumstances.

Also donated was a Victoria Holt novel, "The Spring of the Tiger", published by Fawcett. It is a mystery romance full of twists and turns that give a seasoned reader the thrill of riding the trickiest roller coaster.

When Sarah Ashington's actress mother dies after a devastating scandal, Sarah is left at her long lost father's rambling, ancestral estate, to face the disturbing questions of her own past. Then her father's death draws her to his Ceylon plantation into the shadows of his strangely beckoning life, into a marriage of thwarted passion and danger and finally to a legend from which there may be no return.

Texas Library Assn to meet in Amarillo

From 25 Panhandle counties and 4 types of libraries, area members of District II, Texas Library Association will gather in Amarillo October 17-18.

Jointly sponsored by the district and the Texas Panhandle Library System, Alice B. Ihrig will speak at a Friday evening dinner open to the public and will hold two workshop sessions Saturday for the annual district meeting.

Topics for Saturday will be "What's So Great about the Library?", the viewpoint of a user; and "Selling the Library's Story". The Friday evening topic will be "Knowing Who Your Friends Are".

Not a professional librarian herself, she frequently addresses professional gatherings of all types of libraries: public, college and university, public school, and special.

The Friends of the Amarillo Library are sponsors for the dinner meeting. Jerry Hollingsworth, president, requests reservations to be made through the Amarillo Public Library office by October 16. The dinner will be at 7:30 p.m. October 17 at the Hilton Inn.

District II chairman for TLA is Mary Kay Snell, assistant librarian of the Amarillo Library. Saturday sessions will also be at the Hilton Inn.

Miss Lesli Garnett, Donley County Extension Agent, represented the Texas Tech College of Home Economics at a reception given for the State Fair of Texas Award winners, Friday, October 3 in Dallas.

The State 4-H Council members and officers, FHA State Officers and FFA State Officers were honored with the reception followed by a banquet. The banquet was held at the Sheraton Hilton.

Who goes out of this world for you?

We do... General Telephone.

This is one of our earth stations. It beams 18,000 phone calls at a clip to a satellite hovering more than 20,000 miles above the equator. It gathers in the same number of calls, and sends them out over our regular telephone network.

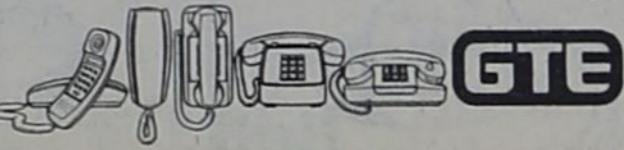

It's part of the incredibly complex system that's just about the world's most efficient communications system.

And it has reliability built in, whether it's an earth station talking to outer space, or a cute little phone built like Mickey Mouse. Because we realize how important it is to keep you in touch with your world.

We spend hundreds of millions of dollars every year, making sure that when you pick up your phone... It works.

We keep you talking.

COMMANDER DAVID L. BOURLAND, USNR-R

Bourland family has proud tradition

Another family for which Clarendon and its educational resources had an attraction was the William Bourland family.

Mack Bourland and Bessie Witt were married January 18, 1900, in Duncan, Indian Territory. Mrs. Bourland had come to Collingsworth County and settled on a ranch there in 1897.

There were nine children in the Bourland family, two girls and seven boys. In September 1913, the family moved into Clarendon so the children could attend schools here.

All nine attended Clarendon schools and graduated or attended Clarendon High School and Clarendon Junior College. Three of the nine finished at A&M University, two at the U.S. Naval Academy and one at North Texas State.

As a family the Bourland children were intelligent, and scholarly.

Two of the Bourland sons distinguished themselves in the service of their country. Joseph Bourland graduated from Clarendon High School with the class of 1927 and attended Clarendon College 1927-28, its first year as a municipal institution. After one year at A&M University he attended the Naval Academy and graduated with the class of 1933.

While he was at the Naval Academy he was Regimental Commander of his class and business manager of the year book "Lucky Bag". He finished 4th in a class of 432 members. Joseph Bourland served two years aboard the battleship Maryland before going to submarine school. He was assigned to submarine duty in the Philippines in January 1936.

Joseph Bourland and Geraldine Peppard were married in Shanghai, China on May 1, 1937.

He was doing duty on the east coast when his brother, Lacy Bourland, of the United States Air Force was lost in October, 1942. At Lacy's funeral, Joe saw his family for the last time, November 2, 1942, before leaving for duty in Pearl Harbor on his third mission. He lost his life there in service to his country.

His son, Commander David L. Bourland, USNR-R, is continuing the proud Naval tradition of his father.

Commander David L. Bourland, USNR-R, nephew of Fred W. Bourland of Ennis, relieved Commander Milburn J. Holmes, USNR-R as commander of the Fighter Squadron Three Zero One at NAS Miramar, Calif., August 17.

For the impressive Change of Command program, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Bourland flew to San Diego, accompanied by Mr. Bourland's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David White of Bryan. Mrs. White is employed at A&M in the extension department and Mr. White, a former faculty member at A&M, is now a student there furthering his education. While visiting in San Diego to attend the Change of Command program they went to Los Angeles to visit places of interest including Universal City, NBC studios where they visited the studios of Johnny Carson and Bob Hope.

Biographical sketch of the much decorated Commander Bourland who assumed Command of Fighter Squadron Three Zero One, NAS Miramar, Calif., 17 August, 1980, follows:

Commander David L. Bourland, USNR-R

Commander David L. Bourland was born in New York in July of 1940, the son of Commander and Mrs. Joseph H. Bourland. The family lived along the eastern seaboard and Honolulu, Hawaii, until July of 1943 when commander Joseph Bourland was killed in action while commanding the submarine "Runner" on war patrol in the Sea of Japan.

Shortly after World War II was over the family moved to Pleasant Hill in northern California where his mother, Mrs. J. A. Fink and sister still reside. Upon completing grade school and high school Commander Bourland received a congressional appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy from which he graduated in June of 1962 as did his father before him. After graduation he reported to Amphib Force San Diego for a short tour abroad the LSD Thomaston while waiting for orders to Pensacola and flight training. Completing advanced jet training in 1963 and F8 "Crusader" Air Crew training in VF-124 in May of 1964, he reported immediately to Fighter Squadron 53. The "Iron Angels" deployed to Vietnam. After serving three cruises with his squadron he amassed some 212 combat missions, a Distinguished Flying Cross, 21 Air Medals, the Navy Commendation Medal and various campaign ribbons.

Commander Bourland reported to Fighter Squadron 126 as a Flight Instructor. In the summer of 1968 he departed active Naval Service and commenced his career as a pilot with Western Airlines.

In November 1968 Commander Bourland joined VA-174 and the Naval Reserves at Los Alamitos, Calif. The reorganization of the Naval Reserves in the summer of 1970 found Commander Bourland back at Naval Air Station Miramar on Special active Duty ordered to assist in the formulation of Fighter Squadron VF-301. He is the last of the original founding "Plank Holders" still in the squadron, having served in a variety of positions during the last ten years.

Commander Bourland is married to Sandra Bandelin Bourland, formerly of Chula Vista and the father of Kristin and Trisha. The family lives in Villa Park, California where Commander Bourland is actively engaged in various community interests and antique automobile restoration.

Gary Ivey to exhibit watercolor paintings

Gary Ivey, has been accepted by the selection committee of the Fine Arts Association to be an exhibitor during the 14th Annual Pampa Fine Arts Festival to be held October 11 and 12.

Ivey is a Pampa native and the son of Wayne and Maggie Ivey and has been drawing since he was very small. His mother would take paper and pencil to church, draw some animal or object and Gary would fill in the details.

His grandmother Ivey, who lived in Clarendon kept every drawing he ever created, Ivey said. There are many of them still in a big container that she put away.

Art was not the job Gary Ivey chose after High School although he received instruction under the direction of Janice Sackett there. At the time he liked it a lot but considered it so so.

After attending Amarillo College, working as a welder for Cabot and in the oilfield he took a serious look at his obvious talent. Encouraged by Mike McCollough, a watercolorist, whose lesson sessions he attended for five times, he attended Texas Institute of Technical Training. There he attended commercial art classes and drafting courses. He sold the work he finished and the proceeds helped to keep him in school.

Currently employed as art director for KAMR-TV in Amarillo he works with watercolor on subjects with which he is familiar, western wildlife and landscapes- the subjects which he knows best.

Watercolor appeals to him because it is fast and time is of the essence. He has not accumulated enough works to enter a major show before because he has always let his work go not keeping enough to make a showing.

The selection committee of the Fine Arts Festival believe this young and as yet not well known artist's works belong in this show which includes the names of artists who are familiar to southwest art lovers.

Ivey is the grandson of A. B. Ivey of Clarendon and a nephew of Janie Finch, also of Clarendon. Janie recognized the appeal of Gary's work some years ago and displayed a number of them in her shop in Clarendon.

A Moment for Meditation

By INEZ G. LAWRENCE

"Two are better than one" Eccl. 4:9

My grandmother used to say, "Misery loves company." I suppose she was paraphrasing a Bible truth, but I was not aware of it. The verse above states the principle rather cryptically and there are many other places in the Bible which teach the same truth. Whether in joy or in sorrow, it is much better to have someone to share it than to experience it alone. Early in Genesis God said, "It is not good for man to be alone", so He created Eve thereby setting up the first family on earth. Years later during the reign of king Saul, David and Jonathan had the type of friendship that made Jonathon risk his own life to save David's. Jonathon talked with his father, the king, while David hid in the nearby woods. After the conference Jonathon stepped out apparently to do target practice with his bow and arrow. If the news were good, the arrow would hit the target. He drew his bow and sent the arrow flying far beyond the target, and where David was hiding in the woods. David who would become king later was spared the vengeance of Saul because two were better than one that day.

Two brothers have an advantage over a lone son also. Our own two sons often fought like deadly enemies, but dropped all differences and closed ranks if either one was endangered by an outsider. They became a team with no quibbling about who had started the fracas. It is a good thing to have the deep loyalty of someone who does not qualify his loyalty on our good or bad behavior. We need this kind of love and acceptance even if we have failed in some area of life.

Those who have this kind of support become well adjusted persons and are able to cope with life. A loner is rarely able to cope by himself. Jesus knew this truth when He sent the apostles out to minister to the two and two. They helped each other simply by being together. The task became easier when both were involved and when the mistakes occurred both of them could bear witness to the facts. The churches have not improved upon the plan that Jesus used and it still works today. Paul, the world missionary, never went on a journey alone. He always had a partner or helper. The principle still works today. Two are better than one in almost any activity. Take conversation, or watching television, or a sports event, or church services, or rearing children. Problems seem less in the presence of a family member or friend because as the next verse explains if one falls down the other is there to raise him up. The topping on the principle though, is the verse that says, "There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." Prov. 18:24

LIKE YOU, THEY'LL HAVE ALL OF THE NATURAL GAS THEY'LL NEED.

Just as you do today, your children will have a dependable supply of natural gas for their homes — if they're served by Lone Star Gas Company.

In other words, we aren't about to run out of natural gas. The facts are strong and very reassuring.

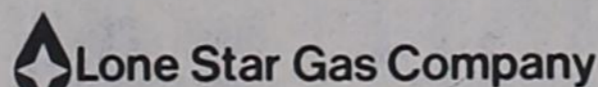

Our supply is based on purchase contracts for the gas from more than 19,000 wells in Texas and Oklahoma. And because no well lasts forever, we prepare for your future needs by steadily buying new long-term reserves.

The fact that we're well established in Texas and Oklahoma also works in your favor. Nine basins in these two states are estimated to contain 50% of the nation's remaining onshore gas reserves.

And Lone Star's pipeline system gives us excellent buying opportunities in eight of them.

Producers drilled thousands of wells in these major basins last year. They're drilling more this year. And we'll be shopping hard, just as we always have, for the best energy values for your future.

GAS. IT'S PLENTIFUL, EFFICIENT AND RIGHT FOR THE TIMES.
