One of the greatest expenses to municipal entities is crime

One of the greatest expenses to municipal entities today is crime. The cost to the taxpayer is staggering. We all hear victimized citizens loudly demanding something be done to stop criminal activities, give restitution (payment for damage) and punish the offenders. CRIME PREVENTION is at least part of the answer. It is working where nothing else has been of much help such as high crime areas in big cities. Crime prevention to some degree is simple. In fact it is so simple and so cheap it has been overlooked by many of us almost completely.

Here is how it works. You watch your neighborhood for anything out of the ordinary. If there are strangers about a dwelling where the residents are away or working, they should be checked out. If any persons and any vehicles are loading furnishings or clothing etc. from a home which is near you get the license number, a description of the vehicle and persons involved and report it immediately to authorities.

If you are watching and see what is, or could be, going on the chances are the persons with criminal intent will go elsewhere. A neighborhood with 100% participation in crime prevention can do just that, prevent crime.

By doing this watch-dog, cost free, neighborhood service you may be protecting your own valuables as well as someone else's.

Some of the recent victims of lawbreakers are Joan McAfee, whose home was robbed while she was away during the day. Joan lost about $3,000 worth of household furnishings which included a T.V., stereo, microwave oven and coin collection among other things.

Tom Wat

ATTENTION: the Tom Wat show cases are in! This year's show case contains a variety of interesting and practical items for gifts or yourself. There are Christmas cards, stationery, toys, tools and kitchen articles to name a few. If you have not been contacted by an FHA member, call 874-2593 or 874-2562.

Edwin and Mae Jean Johnson and Mable Waggoner of Dallas visited with the B.E. Jones last week.

Labor Day, Homer Bones Garage and Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber were broken into. Lawn mowers, tools, glass and other items from the two businesses were recovered when the loot was discovered and reported to the sheriff's office. The items taken had been hidden near the railroad depot and those involved are believed to be young children from the footprints which were left at the scene.

Earlier this year an afternoon robbery of a downtown business had everyone nervous and understandably so. With the cooperation of persons who saw and reported something out of the ordinary the two men alleged to have robbed the store were apprehended quickly.

Other types of law-breaking are equally costly to taxpayers. Dumping of dead animals and trash on roads adjoining the city-county dump ground is one instance. To remove the animals, some are large ones, it requires heavy equipment to lift, dig a pit and bury the animal. Often there is more than one man needed to complete the removal of animals and trash. Besides being a decidedly unpleasant task, there is the risk of spread of disease from the animal who died. This illegal dumping carries a $500 fine, and costs extra man power, fuel and machinery.

The men who are taken from other tasks to take care of this situation may be laying your water main or paving or repairing your street. To prevent this from happening take the license number of any vehicle dumping along roads and get the number and description of the vehicle to the Clarendon City Hall.

Investigation is continuing on the cases mentioned and others not in the article by police and sheriffs office. There is no way to get total compensation for the lost items stolen or vandalized. Insurance will help some of course but to keep it from happening is the answer.

Help your local law-enforcement to catch law-breakers and prevent it from happening in your neighborhood. Watch for a change of routine in residents and neighbors near you. Report suspicious or unusual activity immediately. Your neighbor may be home on an afternoon off but will appreciate the alertness of someone who could have prevented a robbery such as Joan McAfee had.

Tell friends and neighbors if you plan to be away and have them check your premises. It takes little time, the favor will be returned and your possessions will be better protected.

Do you lock your house or apartment? Do you lock your automobile? Do you have insurance? Check your policy, they may require that you lock up possessions to collect on stolen property.

Good idea. Watch your neighbor and prevent crime.

Emergency numbers to call. City Police-874-3458 day or night or Police Chief Hodges 874-2321 Sheriff's office 874-3533- 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Fire Dept. (to report a fire)-874-3755. For an ambulance 874-3515. For a Doctor 874-3531 seven days a week. Weekends use north door at Medical Center.

These numbers are the ones which will get you the quickest response for your emergency.

Clip and save these numbers, put them near your phone.

Outdoor Entertainment sponsors dance

Watch for New Car showings next week

ACCORDING TO POST Master Bob McCombs, 48 new postal boxes have been installed for patrons at the Clarendon Post Office. For two weeks all boxes were rented before the others were installed. An additional number of college students requesting boxes and an increase in population are the cause for increased demand for the boxes.

Bronchos to Challenge Stinnett

The Clarendon Bronchos travel for the third week in a row. This time to face the Stinnett Rattlers. Kick-off is 8 p.m. in Rattler Stadium.

The Rattlers come into the game at 0-2 with losses to Wheeler (8-31) and last week to Canadian (10-19). This will be Homecoming for the Rattlers. The Bronchos stand 1-1 for the year with a victory over Fritch (12-7) and last week's loss to Quanah (8-35).

Coach Allen's comments on Stinnett:

Stinnett will be led by Sr. QB Willie Dodd. He was a runningback last year moved to QB this year. He is the current class AA state 100 mete dash cahpion. That tells you about his speed. We must control him and not let him loose. They will run some from the shotgun formation. Tim Harris #33 Jr. runningback is another speedy back.

Over all they probably have as much quickness as Quanah but not the size. They try to take advantage of that quickness on defense by using a stunting defense.

Injury Report- We got Barry Haste back for the Quanah game after missing the Fritch game. Also, Steve Nance rejoined the team Monday for the first time this year. He has been recovering from a back problem. Billy Perry is still out for this week (knee) and Brad Thompson is recuperating from knee surgery.

Games Thursday: 5:15-8th grade vs. Wheeler 6:45-JV vs. Vega

Breath of Life Campaign

September 21 thru September 27 is National Cystic Fibrosis Week. During this week there will be a Door-to-Door campaign in Clarendon. Research and care for CF-affected children is made possible through the Cystic Fibrosis Breath of Life Campaign. Your help and contributions will be greatly appreciated.

Cystic Fibrosis is an inherited disease that attacks the lungs and digestive system.

One of every 1,600 babies is born with cystic fibrosis, having inherited the gene for CF from each of their parents, who are carriers.

One of every 20 persons, or 10 million Americans, are unknowing and symptomless carriers of the gene for CF, which may be passed to their children.

There is no cure for CF, but early diagnosis and specialized medical treatment is lengthening and improving the lives of affected children and young adults.

Other lung-damaging diseases, like severe asthma, chronic bronchitis and bronchiectasis affect millions of American children. Many of these diseases can be cured with early diagnosis and proper care.

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation supports

*research seeking a cure for CF and a test to detect carriers of the CF gene

*medical care for children with CF and other lung-damaging diseases in a nationwide network of more than 100 CF Centers

*education and training programs for medical professionals and the general public

*community service providing information and referral services for families of lung-damaged children.

Where CFF money goes: 12% Administrative; 13% fund raising; and 75% Program: research, care, education, and community service.

A child who has any of the following signs of lung damaging disease should be seen by a doctor:

*Recurrent wheezing
*Persistent coughing/excessive mucus
*Pneumonia more than once

*Excessive appetite/poor weight gain
*Clubbing (enlargement of the fingertips)

Cystic fibrosis signs may also include:

*A salty taste to the skin
*Persistent, bulky diarrhea
*Nasal polyps

To volunteer for the Breath of Life Campaign...Please contact Darlene Spier (874-2383) after 5:00. Any and all assistance will be greatly appreciated.

Watch for New Car showings

By MARK NIXON

We are into our second week of school and things couldn't look better. Our enrollment is super and the attitude of the entire institution seems to be at its best, at least since I have been here.

I said in my first column that I was going to be honest and do my best to tell it like it is. Well here we go.

We are beginning our fund raising drive for our scholarship fund. This is one part of my job that I do not really cherish. As a matter of fact I just don't like to do it.

Asking for money is hard for me to do because I grew up knowing where it came from and how hard it was and still is to come by.

But, it is also something our program can't do without.

We have sent letters to a good number of business people in the community and will be calling on them in the next couple of weeks for a contribution to the scholarship fund.

I want to point out some facts that may help you understand why it is necessary that we conduct this fund raising drive.

In a survey of the conference schools conducted by the Amarillo Daily News it was pointed out that our athletic budget was in the neighborhood of $24,000. The budget next closest to ours was about $70,000 and some of the other budgets were $100,000 more than ours. We are able to offer two full scholarships for each of the men's and women's program while the other nine schools in the league offer a minimum of twenty scholarships, ten for the men and ten for the women.

Doghouse review

I'm not complaining about what we have by any means because we try to make up the difference by pinching pennies and working that much harder than the other people.

I believe we can field competitive teams under these circumstances. The point I am making is that we simply would have a hard time making it without the fund raising drive.

We ask for a $120 donation to the athletic program which covers the tuition for one student for the entire year. We sincerely appreciate every penny because we know how important it is to our program.

When I come knocking on your door please don't slam it in my face because first of all it is hard for me to knock, and more importantly by contributing you will be helping a youngster get an education who otherwise may have no chance.

We greatly appreciate your support and by running a disciplined program that stresses education and character we are trying to show our appreciation.

Until next week we will be running triple threat drills and seven whistle drills and to find out what they are come by the gym at 3:00 some day.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1980

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to permit banks to establish and operate unmanned teller machines within the county or city where the banks are located and to share the use of teller machines on a basis consistent with anti-trust laws, if it finds such operation will serve the convenience of the public. The Legislature has already passed enabling legislation (H.B. 1510) for this proposed amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to authorize banks to use unmanned teller machines within the county or the city of their domicile on a shared basis to serve the public convenience."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 97 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the State and the accused the right to an interlocutory appeal from the following trial court rulings in criminal cases: pretrial rulings on the constitutionality of a statute; on a motion to quash, dismiss, or set aside an indictment; and on a motion to suppress evidence. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing appeal of certain pretrial rulings of a trial court in a criminal case by either the state or the accused."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 98 proposes a constitutional amendment that would require a single appraisal of all property subject to ad valorem taxation and would provide for a single board of equalization within each county. The constitutional requirement that the county commissioners court sit as a board of equalization would be eliminated, and elected officials of the county or governing body of the taxing unit would be prohibited from serving as members of the board of equalization.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment requiring a single appraisal and a single board of equalization within each county for ad valorem tax purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the conduct of bingo games by certain specified groups for charitable purposes, subject to the limitations that operation of the games must be approved in local option elections and that all proceeds must be spent in Texas.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize bingo games on a local option election basis if the games are conducted by a church, synagogue, religious society, volunteer fire department, nonprofit veterans organization, fraternal organization, or nonprofit organization supporting medical research or treatment programs and if the proceeds are to be spent in Texas for charitable purposes of the organizations."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 86 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of certain appropriated funds, subject to any conditions and limitations provided by law and subject to the approval of a budget execution committee that would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to grant the governor power to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of appropriated funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Governor who appointed a previously confirmed official to remove that official from office subject to the advice and consent of the Senate; and if the Legislature is not in session, to call a special session of the Senate which may last no longer than 2 days for consideration of the removal.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the governor to remove appointed officers with the advice and consent of the senate."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 121 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize counties with a population of 5000 or less to construct and maintain private roads if they impose a reasonable charge for the work. The Legislature by general law may limit this authority. Revenue received from private road work may be used only for the construction, including right-of-way acquisition, or maintenance of public roads.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing counties with a population of 5000 or less to perform private road work."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 36 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the jurisdiction and authority of the State's appellate courts. The amendment would change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals to Courts of Appeal and provide that these courts have intermediate appellate jurisdiction over both criminal and civil cases. The amendment would change titles for the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court to Justices and would require members of the Supreme Court to be attorneys licensed in this state while holding office.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals and the names and qualifications of the Justices of the Supreme Court and to prescribe the jurisdiction and authority of the appellate courts."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment which defines separate property owned by either spouse as all property, both real and personal, of a spouse owned or claimed before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent. Persons about to marry and spouses, without the intent to defraud pre-existing creditors, may by written instrument from time to time partition between themselves all or part of their property. Spouses may exchange a community interest in property owned or to be acquired for a community interest in other community property. The amendment would allow spouses to agree in writing that income or property arising from any separate property is to be separate property rather than as community property as it would be in the absence of an agreement. The amendment proposes that a gift from one spouse to another is presumed to include all income or property deriving from such gift.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment allowing spouses to agree that income or property arising from separate property is to be separate property."

milestones in medicine

Early in the 19th century, a French doctor making his hospital rounds, happened to think about some children he had seen making noises at one end of a hollow tree while playmates listened at the other end. Rene Laennec rolled a sheet of paper into a tube, applied it to a patient's chest—and invented the stethoscope!

The good news now for some 30 million Americans is a new medicine that's been successful in the treatment, relief and control of the symptoms of asthma, emphysema and bronchitis. Phyllocontin Tablets, a prescription medicine developed in England, is being introduced here by Purdue Frederick Company, an international drug research firm. Twice-daily dosage can provide around-the-clock breathing relief.

WE BUY NATURAL GAS THE WAY YOU BUY GROCERIES.

Lone Star shops for the best values. Just as one brand of green beans might be a better value even though it costs a penny or two more, gas that costs the least could prove to be the most expensive.

We have to consider a number of factors. How much gas can we expect from a new field? How close is it to our existing pipelines? How much processing will the new gas need? Is the BTU content high or low?

As a result of this careful shopping, Lone Star's weighted average cost of gas in 1979 was $1.76 per MCF (1,000 cubic feet) of gas — lowest of any major intrastate gas company in Texas.

This savings is passed on to you because your monthly bill is based on our average cost of gas.

WE SUPPORT THE BRONCHOS

Bronchos game against Quanah Friday night

By SPENCER HAYES

The Clarendon Bronchos were plagued by a severe case of fumbleitis, which helped boost the Quanah Indians to a 35-8 victory Friday night in Quanah.

The Bronchos fumbled 7 times in all, losing 5. But the real damage was done when Clarendon lost the ball three times inside their own 20 yard line. A strong Indian football team was able to convert these three mistakes into three touchdowns. This appeared to be the big difference in the game.

Take nothing away from Quanah, however. This was one tough team that Clarendon faced. Quanah barely lost to powerhouse Childress the week before, and was ranked 5th in the state in class AA. Keep in mind, though, that while the Indians dominated the scoreboard, they did not crush Clarendon in statistics. Take first downs, for instance; Quanah barely edged the Bronchos out, 12-11. Also, for having outscored Clarendon so badly, Quanah did not outgain them badly in total offense. The Indians gained a respectable 394 total yards including a 144 yard rushing performance by running back David McGary and two touchdown bombs of 38 and 71 yards by quarterback Zack Choat. Clarendon compiled only 123 yards on the ground but rode Lance Thornberrys strong passing arm to an additional 148 yards for a 271 yard total. Thornberry was true on 15 of 26 passes for the night with only one interception. Bobby Weatheron was Clarendon's leading ground gainer, rushing for 71 yards, including a 60 yard scamper on a well set draw play. Weatheron carried only seven times in the game. Hosea Hearn added 53 yards on eleven carries. The only Broncho score came in the final period. It started as the Broncho defense, still fighting hard, held Quanah for two downs before Barry Haste stripped the ball from an Indian back around mid-field. Then Thornberry guided the Broncho to the Quanah goal line. The drive was climaxed by a 19 yard touchdown pass to Randy White on fourth down. The extra point came on a pass to Hosea Hearn, who also had four other catches for 34 yards. White led Clarendon receivers with five catches and 55 yards.

This week, the Bronchos will face the Stinnett Rattlers. They are 0-2 on the year, losing to the Bronchos district 2-AA foes Canadian and Wheeler. The Bronchos will try to come back against a fast Rattler squad tomorrow at Stinnett. Game time is set for 8:00.

Texas Shorthorn Queen begins activities

With late summer comes the start of school, football games, and stock shows. Miss Jamie McAnear, Texas Shorthorn Lassic Queen for 1980-81 is really getting into the swing of things. The 17-year old Clarendon High School senior shows calves in 4-H, is mascot for the Bronchos, president of the Future Homemakers of America chapter, president of the Texas Jr. Shorthorn Association, and public relations officer for the 5-State Jr. Shorthorn group. Her official job as Shorthorn Lassic Queen is promoting Shorthorn/Polled Shorthorn cattle by presenting awards at stock shows, field days and sales, doing radio and T.V. talks, and visiting with people about the English breed of cattle.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McAnear was crowned Texas Shorthorn Lassic Queen at the association's annual meeting in June. She will represent the state in the national contest in January in Denver, Colorado.

This summer Miss McAnear represented the Texas juniors at the Shorthorn Youth Conference in Rochester, Minnesota. She was also one of several Texas youth who exhibited heifers at the National Jr. Heifer Show in Manhattan, Kansas. She was named top showman at the 5-State Jr. Preview Show, August 9, Guymon, Oklahoma.

Activities planned by the state queen this fall include riding with the National Shorthorn Lassic Queen, Lisa McAnear, in the downtown parade, September 15, to kickoff the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, and presenting awards at the Shorthorn show, Thursday, September 18. Miss McAnear plans to exhibit her heifer at the Tri-State Fair and at the Panhandle Exposition, October 1-4, in Guymon, Oklahoma. She will be presenting ribbons during the junior heifer show at the State Fair of Texas in mid October.

The Texas queen has three sisters and a brother who enjoy working with the cattle. In her spare time, she enjoys sports, cooking, and camping.

THE LAXATIVE HABIT
Laxatives and other nonprescription medicines for the relief of constipation are widely used by the public. One publication reports that approximately 225 million dollars were spent for such preparations during a recent year. But do people really need this quantity of laxative medicines? Some authorities and medical experts feel that many products are being abused . . . some could be causing harm.
All laxative use is not based on true need. Take, for example, the conplusive individual who equates an "empty large intestine" with "cleanliness". Such persons may use laxatives for years to simply "clean" their bodies and achieve a sense of wellness.
Is this dangerous? It is with stimulant-type laxatives that cause the intestine to contract and expand. When used for a long period of time, this type of laxative will truly become habit forming. The individual may become physically and psychologically unable to have normal bowel movements without the presence of a stimulant-type laxative in the bowel.
Laxatives are fine medicines when needed. There appears to be a great overuse of these products, however. Consult your pharmacist or physician for information on safe and effective alternatives to the "laxative habit".

HEATS ON

If you would like to eat pork chops but don't want to make dressing, or potatoes, Rhonda has this "Delicious" idea.

Pork Chops

Fry 4 or 5 chops in hot grease on low until tender. While they cook, make a pan of rice using 2 C cooked rice, add 1 can of onion soup. Pour the rice and soup over the pork chops and simmer 10 minutes.

Since Rhonda works, she has several quick meals to fix when she gets home. This one can be done in a microwave oven, but if you use the stove, it doesn't heat up the house or take very long to prepare.

Hamburger Patties a la Cream of Mushroom
Fry, or boil the number of patties you desire, seasoning to taste. Pour a can of cream of mushroom soup on top. Add sliced mushrooms. Cover, simmer.

Rhonda says that this is "A quick summer meal if you fix a salad and it doesn't heat up the house."
Speaking of cool and inviting meals for these still and hot days, Rhonda has a jello salad that sounds great.

Jello Salad

Large box strawberry jello sliced, frozen strawberries sliced bananas chunk pineapple
Mix jello as on directions, then stir in sliced fruit. As the jello begins to thicken stir again to mix fruit through jello.

"It's so good and refreshing, I sometimes eat it for breakfast!" Rhonda loves her breakfast and what a good fruity treat in the morning that sounds.

This recipe can be used as a casserole or as a dip for a party treat.

Mexican Casserole or Dip
2 lbs ground beef (use only 1 lb if making a dip)
1 can cream mushroom soup
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 can enchilada sauce
1 small onion, diced salt and pepper to taste
2 C grated cheese (omit cheese if making dip)
1 large bag Dorito chips (making the dip, don't use chips in sauce, use them to dip it with)

Layer chips, meat, and cheese in casserole dish. Pour the sauce mix over this. Bake at 250 for 1 hour.

Rhonda also has a great suggestion for all of those fruit pies you are making this time of the year. Add a little almond extract and the fruit flavor will be greatly enhanced.

Western Art Show in Amarillo Sept. 18-26

An important collection of contemporary western art will be on display at the First National Bank of Amarillo September 18th through the 26th.

The collection, on loan from the National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center in Oklahoma City, features the works of 20 well-known contemporary western artists. The exhibit contains 25 award-winning paintings and sculptures from the permanent collection of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame purchased from exhibits held at the Hall since 1966.

Among the artists represented in the showing in Amarillo are John Clymer, winner of the prestigious Prix de West award presented annually by the National Academy of Western Art; Tom Lovell, whose well-known painting "The Hand Warmer" will be on exhibit; Tom Ryan, with his famous work, "Sharing an Apple"; the late Charlie Dye, whose "Through the Aspens" depicts a day in the life of a cowboy; Robert Loughheed and Robert Kuhn, whose works portray the North American wild animal; and Clark Hulings and Morris Rippel, whose different techniques show the beauty and precision of watercolor in the hands of talented artists.

These paintings are seldom seen outside the Hall of Fame, due to the hazards of travel and the ever-increasing value of the art. Hall officials accepted the exhibition at the First National Bank due to the great support for the Hall from the people of the Texas Panhandle. J.A. Whittenburg, III, of Amarillo, and William Arrington, Joe Gordon, and Mrs. D.D. Payne, all of Pampa, are members of the Hall's board of directors.

"We have had more than 4 1/2 million visitors and many of those have come from the Texas Panhandle," said Rich Muno, Hall of Fame managing director. "We fly the Texas Flag every day at the Hall, and we know the Cowboy Hall of Fame has many friends in this area."

The collection will be on display on level two of the First National Bank building, Eighth and Taylor, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays, 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, and from 7 to 9 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The show is free to the public.

Gas substitutes could mean easier auto maintenance

COLLEGE STATION — Use of ethanol or methanol as a substitute for gasoline may result in cheaper car maintenance, believe Texas A&M University engineers.

Neither produces carbon in significant amounts when burned in an engine, and alcohol fuel offers the possibility of much less engine wear, they say.

Development of gasohol — 90 percent gasoline and 10 percent alcohol fuel — could be the opening that leads to increased use of ethanol and methanol, said researchers.

A Closed Mind

By REV. WAYNE NAYLOR

A closed mind will never lead to an open heart and a saved soul. Jesus said in Revelation 3:20 "Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." The communication of this verse must pass first of all through an open ear, into an open mind in order to open up the heart. Lawyer Greenleaf of England was a atheist but not with a closed mind. He decided that he had to prove the Bible untrue before he could close out what it said, and so he made one of the first Harmonies of the Gospel to find the errors in the Bible. In the lawyers study and open minded approach to what the Bible study said came a victory in his own life and he became a believer in Christ and the message of the Bible.

What are some of the things that will help to close our minds? Prejudice is one of them. Prejudice is a prejudging of the case before the facts are in. A prejudicial mind is a closed mind, and there is more hope for the most ignorant than for the man who will not open up his mind for a new truth. The hatred of the Jews toward Jesus, and later toward Paul and the other Christians, grew largely out of prejudice. When it was a matter of ignorance Paul often succeeded in winning his Jewish brothers to Christ; but where prejudice was deep-seated he found himself almost invariably turned aside.

Paul's preaching brought a twofold result - some believed and some believed not. Those who rejected the message turned away, hardening their hearts against the interest that they must have felt, and refusing to listen further. In spite of the very people of God closing their minds and hearts to the gospel, Paul still had a gospel to preach and he took it to the Gentiles. Where he should have gotten an audience and a hearing with an open mind he didn't, and where he shouldn't have gotten an open mind he did. God works in wondrous ways His marvels to perform finding hearers for willing preclaimers even in the midst of the no hearers.

Don't close up your mind to God so Jesus Christ can't get into your heart, and save you, for whatever else happens to you in this life being saved is the most important.

Delta Kappa Gamma meet

Gamma Kappa Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met in Childress September 13, 1980 for the first meeting of the 1980-81 year. This was a noon picnic in the Childress City Park. The invocation was given by Mary Kate Holland, of Childress.

After a delicious picnic lunch the president, Hazel Brandon, called the meeting to order and the members read the collect in unison. Roll call and reading of the minutes of the May meeting were given by Joyellen Wilson.

During the business session, the President announced that area XI workshops will be held in Seminole, Texas on October 11, and Pampa, Texas on October 18th. Members may attend either of these workshops.

A very interesting and informative program on "Communication" was given by Joellen Wilson, Chairman of Publication and Publicity Committee.

The next meeting will be in Childress on December 6, 1980.

Those attending from Donley County were: Evelyn Messer, Hazel Brandon, Ivy Dee Hinkle, Zola Donald, Inez Blankenship, Mabel Mongole, and Edgar Mae Mongole.

Bookworm

Officials for the museum said that they were pleased to be able to share the programs of the museum, as represented by the books, with such a large number of libraries.

The books cover a wide range of American art, history, and photography. All chronicle exhibitions that appeared at the museum and other institutions throughout the country. The Amon Carter Museum opened in 1961 and is devoted to the "westering" of America. It has published over 70 books in its twenty-year history.

The books given to the library are: "The Bison in Art" by Larry Barsness, "Cities on Stone" by John Reys, "Dorothea Lange Looks at the American Country Woman", "The Track Going Back", "The Democratic Art" by Peter Marzio, "American Art from the Worcester Art Museum", "American Impressionist and Realist Paintings from the William Marshall Fuller Collection", and "Todd Webb".

Sharlotte Redwine, the library aide working with Mrs. Justice and Miss Cline, has earned her money this week by being the Gabie Bettles bat killer. While cleaning the vault where all of the Texas books are kept, Sharlotte found a dead bat in the vault. Later that day, while sweeping near the air conditioner, a bat tried to sneak away, but hardy Sharlotte took the broom to the varmit and quickly dispatch-

Railroad industry helps Texas economy

Texas ranks fifth in the nation in terms of the number of people employed by the railroad industry, according to the American Railroad Foundation (ARF).

"There are 29,900 railroad employees whose annual payroll of $619.3 million generates $12.3 million in state and local income taxes," according to Warren Fox, chairman of ARF and director of sales and service for the Electro-Motive Division of General Motors in La Grange, Illinois.

"In addition, taxes levied on railroad property in Texas equal the annual cost of educating 9,098 public school children. These figures show the magnitude of the railroad industry's contribution to the state's economy," according to Fox.

Railroad supply companies located in the state employ an additional 650 Texas residents, bringing the total rail-related employment in the state to more than 30,000. Nationally, the rail industry employs approximately 1 million people.

The state ranks first in the nation with its freight railroad track mileage of 12,924, according to the ARF.

Key classes of manufactured products shipped are food and kindred products, pulp, paper and allied products; primary metal products; and chemical and allied products.

Non-metallic minerals (except fuel) rank No. 1 in railroad freight shipments, both originating and terminating in the state.

"Railroad statistics are being released on a state-by-state basis as part of the ARF's program to make the public aware that railroads are the lifeline of America," Fox said, "and certainly the Texas figures substantiate the fact."

ARF, a non-profit organization, was established in late 1978 to promote broad public understanding of the railroad industry and its importance and contributions to the nation's economy. Leading railroad supply companies comprise the ARF membership.

ed it. A gift of several paper back books has been made to the library.

Gabie Bettles Burton Memorial Library is one of over 300 public and school libraries in the state chosen to receive a gift of eight books from the Amon Carter Museum in Fort Worth.

The gifts were made possible by a grant from a private Dallas foundation. The museum undertook a similar program in the mid-70s under a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities.

SBA adds more counties for disaster assistance

Russell R. Berry, Lubbock District Director of the Small Business Administration (SBA) announced today eight more counties have been declared disaster areas due to the drought occurring during the 1980 crop production year.

The declared and adjacent counties handled by the Lubbock Disaster Office are: CARSON COUNTY and adjacent counties of Roberts, Hutchinson, Moore, Potter, Randall, Armstrong, Donley and Gray-drought July 1, 1980; Hail storm June 18, 1980.

Anyone who suffered disaster-caused property or crop losses in the counties declared a disaster area and in all counties bordering or adjacent to the disaster area within the state are eligible to apply for a SBA business disaster recovery loan. Any crop loss resulting from a declared physical disaster are considered eligible for a SBA disaster loan and must be verified or certified by ASCS, FmHA, other USDA agencies or by a SBA verifier. The formula used in computing the amount of eligible loss is: ACRES PLANTED X ESTABLISHED NORMAL YIELD X PERCENTAGE OF LOSS X MARKET PRICE (minus) RECOVERY = ELIGIBLE LOSS. The SBA accepts ASCS established normal yield on program crops. On other crops, SBA will accept the Statistical Reporting Service county average for that crop or figures from USDA or state agricultural units or land grant universities and colleges.

"Our administrative limit generally restricts business disaster loans to the actual amount of an applicant's replacement costs or losses, up to a maximum of $500,000. SBA loans are only for losses not already covered by other disasters or deficiency payments," stated Berry.

Berry added, "Loans of $5,000 or less require only the signature of the applicant. Loans over $5,000 require the pledging of collateral to the extent available." "An applicant must show reasonable assurance of repayment ability," continued Berry, "and loan terms will be based on repayment ability. If an applicant farms on a cropshare basis, they may file for their share of the crop only but if they farm on a cash-rent basis, they may file for the entire loss. In the same respect, landlord's are eligible for their share of the crop only if they rent on a crop-share basis but not if they rent on a cash-rent basis."

Loans over $5,000 require the pledging of collateral to the extent available."

In the same respect, landlord's are eligible for their share of the crop only if they rent on a crop-share basis but not if they rent on a cash-rent basis."

50% of the eligible loan amount may be used to pay outstanding current obligations. At least 50% of the loan must be held for planting and operating expenses in the new crop year.

The District Director said, "Loans are made for specific and designated purposes. Therefore, it is recommended the applicant keep receipts and good records of all loan expenditures."

For more information regarding the SBA Disaster Program, interested persons may call the SBA Disaster Office in Lubbock (806) 762-7481.

SALEM II

Fred Russell continuing growing up years

Continued from Russell's recollection of his days as a cowboy on area ranches. Among the memories which have become friends of Freds over the years is the one about the last buffalo hunt held about 1916 at

Charles Goodnight's ranch. A herd of the buffalo were at the ranch and among the hunters was an old Indian chieft who brought his buffalo down with a bow and arrow, from the back of a horse he was riding bare back.

That was still in an era when the cowboys came into town to celebrate only two or three times a year. It was the wisest and best policy all the way around for the marshall to go home and let the boys celebrate themselves out of money and into unconsciousness in some instances during the wee hours of the morning.

Such a celebration followed the buffalo hunt which had brought interested spectators to the sight from miles around and from the east coast.

The years were full of hard work roping, branding, working the cattle and rounding up for shipment. Feeding was done in bitterly cold winter weather and when the heat of the summer began to take its toll of men and beasts alike the work stopped for a while to give the cattle and horses a breather. It was also a welcomed break for the tired men.

Although it was accepted as a matter of course, the life of a cowboy was a hazardous occupation and Russell fell victim to the perils of the occupation a number of times. Once he got a cut about three inches long across the palm of his hand. The weather was hot and Fred had been helping work cattle when the accident occurred. The heat and loss of blood worried the boss who promptly put a large chew of tobacco into the wound, sent Fred with his wife and her sister to the house for medical attention. This was a concoction of turpentine and sugar which is not replaced by stiches, antibiotics, disinfectant and a sterile dressing.

A direct result of the cut palm accident was a situation born out of the boredom which came with his restricted activity while the hand healed. Russell decided to see how he could rope with one hand, so to speak. He roped a calf all right, but dropped the coil of rope in the process and scared his horse. This had Fred in the saddle with two ropes around him and very little breath left in his body when Allen Wilson, who was also practicing his roping noticed the perdicament and cut the rope. Not all the happenings were preventable. During the winter he was working for Cliff McDowell, north of Clarendon, he became ill. There had been a big snow and they were feeding between 150 and 200 cows. After the cattle were fed Fred decided since he had been sick three or four days and was still running a fever he should go to town to the doctor.

Dr. Ellis, examined him and said, "Kid, you have the measles and have had for a week. You just haven't broken out." Dr. Ellis told him he had to go to the hospital. Russell had a different idea about the hospital and went to Mrs. Blake's, who owned a rooming house and told her his problem. He wanted to stay in the storage house where the cowboys kept their trunks. The little house was in the back yard of the boarding house. Mrs. Blake, sent him upstairs in the boarding house where he stayed for six weeks.

Dr. Ellis came to see his very ill patient every day for a while and could not figure how the boy was alive after the snow, fever and not breaking out. He also had the mumps during his cowboying days.

He woke one morning with his jaws sore. He had been breaking a young horse and the job is a tiresome one. When he quit work and went back to the ranch house his jaws wee swollen and his head hurt. They would not let him in the house but put him in the buggy and took him to town to the hotel.

At the hotel he stayed in a small house in the hotel back yard where the parents of the hotel owner lived. He stayed in bed for several days and got up. It was too soon and after a day or two he had to go back to bed for several more days. He could not work for several weeks after that.

After the mumps Fred got a job with Bob Turner, on the Wine Glass Ranch southwest of Childress. It was here that he and some other cowboys and a freighter planned a dinner one night after work with quail, canned peaches and a cake that Fred baked. The first one he had ever tried. He found an old cookbook and used a recipe from it and although it looked like a pan of cornbread it was sweet and the boys thought it tasted good. It was midnight when the meal was finished and they had to be up at 4 a.m. but the dinner was delicious and they went to bed well satisfied.

Because of the heavy demand periods for man power and the times when few were needed most of the young fellows worked numerous times for the same ranches. The cowboys were a group of workers well known to each other and to the ranch owners. When they hired out to one of the area ranches most of them were familiar to the ranch and to the men they were working with.

'Chock', as Russell was known, was an enterprising young man and always had a little money put back in the bank at McLean. Some times it sure was little, he says, but even then there was enough for food for Fred and his horse. A horse was the most important thing a cowboy owned. It was his job in most instances and a good one let him do a better job than someone whose horse was just ordinary.

Sweetheart, was a small three year old which came into Russell's possession during one of his trades. He traded horses a lot and came to be a fine judge of horseflesh. This particular pony had only been ridden a few times when Fred traded for him and he liked the way it handled. Sweetheart and Fred Russell became a team and during the 29 years he had him Russell and the fine little animal weathered some hard and dangerous times together.

"I heard Roy Rodgers say one time that if there was a heaven for horses old Trigger would be there. I think old Sweetheart will be there with him." Russell said. After the time he had no interest in being saddled to run (and after he had been retired some time) Russell never tried to ride him again. He was just allowed to roam the pasture for the rest of his days.
