DISTRICT JUDGE CHARGES PROBERS MONDAY MORN.

FALL TERM OF DISTRICT COURT OPENS HERE AS SCHEDULED.

The fall term of district court opened here Monday morning with the Hon. Fires, presiding. Members of the grand jury were selected and duly sworn into office.

In the charge to the jurors Judge Fires stressed the responsibility of the office and told the body that the jury commission in making the selection of the list had chosen the representative citizens of the county to look after the enforcement of law in the county.

A juror should guard sacredly the responsibility entrusted unto him in this office, the judge said. "It is with you that the enforcement and respect for the law rests. Guard it well and remember your oath," the judge cautioned. "You have taken an oath that you will probe into the matters that come before you, honestly and without prejudice, fear or favor," see that you keep your oath in your minds and seek diligently to discharge your duties.

The probers were cautioned about the enforcement of the "chicken theft law." The judge said that some offenses had been made in the county and he instructed the jury to make an investigation about the reports. "A chicken thief is one of the lowest kind of thieves, and should be punished, it is a felony in Texas to steal chickens and it should be," the judge said. The jury was cautioned about cattle thefts in the county, the judge told them that "now the means of fast transportation, the thieves could have a cow at Fort Worth or other markets before the owner realized that he had been robbed." The judge deplored the prohibition law in its present state and said that he would like to see it changed. "However it is a law and must be respected and it is in the hands of the Grand Juries of the state to see that it is enforced. Be careful in returning your indictments, and be assured that the evidence is sufficient to obtain a conviction as if you were a member of the petit jury and was trying the case." The expense of carrying on court is immense, Mr. Fires said that this cost could be cut only by the carefulness of the grand jury in returning the bills. The judge cautioned the probers about being lenient with friends who might appear before them. "You have taken an oath and now it is up to you to you to discharge your solemn duty and you have no friends now, you do not even know them. Your personal enemies now are no more and sometimes a juror is inclined to be a little unfair with a person who they do not like. This is not right and the minds of a good jury is free from these petty things."

HAIL DAMAGES CROPS FRIDAY

A very disastrous hail storm hit this section of the county late last Friday afternoon and considerable damage has been reported. On the Jack Hudson place near Goodnight, the crops are reported to have been damaged considerably by the hail. The crops on the Scarborough and the Harrison farms were damaged badly by the storm. The cloud swung toward the river from Ashtola and considerable damage has been reported by the farmers living in this section of the county. Some of the farmers in this section report a complete loss of their crops. Others say that they will be able to save some of the cotton and feed stuff. The storm traveled in an easterly direction and about four miles north east of Clarendon the crops are badly damaged from the result of the hail. The cotton was beaten out of the bolls but the green boll still remain on the stalks and it is thought that they will open. Cotton pickers are in big demand this week and the farmers are anxious to have the cotton picked from the ground where it is beaten out or have it snapped from the stalks where the hail failed to get it. Considerable rain was reported to have fallen in several districts of the county.

The bailiffs were charged to be fair and diligent in their duties, they were warned to be careful and not to talk about their work. Lots of people are not found on account of an officer talking about his work.

The following is the Grand Jury.

T. N. Naylor, Foreman, O. L. Smith, W. P. Cagle, W. T. Hayter, J. H. Hurn, I. M. Noble, O. C. Watson, A. E. Ranson, Bill Bromley, Claude Nash, J. M. Acord, R. L. Duckworth.

The court began at once on setting the cases for the term.

Claude Editor Has Accident Saturday

While enroute to Clarendon to visit relatives, T. T. Waggoner, editor of the Claude News, had the misfortune of an automobile accident, four miles west of town, late Saturday afternoon. The car driven by Mr. Waggoner was thrown into a sand pit and the fender of the Waggoner car was badly damaged. The car striking Mr. Waggoner was driven by a Mr. White of Amarillo. Mariella small daughter of the Waggoners received a severe cut on the face and several teeth were knocked out. Other occupants of the car received bruises and were badly shaken up.

Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner visited Mrs. Waggoner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Behrens, over the weekend, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Melvin Cook was painfully burned Tuesday afternoon when the skillet of grease in which she was frying potatoes caught fire.

HEDLEY TRIMS COLTS WED. IN HARD TUSSLE

In a practice game with the Hedley high school Wednesday afternoon, Stocking's Colts lost to the Hedley Owls by the score of 13-20. The locals went into the game full of pep and confidence and played a splendid game but could not cope with the night birds, who have been making football history this season.

Tucker, Hayter and McCary were the stellar players for the locals while Reins, Blankenship and Bain took care of the Hedley aggregation. Captain Reins won his choice on the flip and chose to receive. Reins kicked off for 50 yards. Fitzgerald returned 10 yards. All during the first part of the play Tucker made excellent gains through Hedley's line. Hayter proved a threat at all times in the game. Clarendon was weak on passes and lost much ground. While the locals played the first quarter on the opponents territory they failed to score.

Early in the second quarter Clarendon scored when Tucker and Hayter brought the ball down the field from the fifty yard line to Hedley's six yard line and McCary carried it across. During the second quarter, Clarendon failed to complete but a low percentage of forward passes, partly due to poor blocking of the team. The locals rallied when Tucker intercepted a forward pass and returned 10 yards and with a series of line bucks by Hayter and Tucker they put the ball over. Hayter kicked a perfect goal and the half ended with the ball on Hedley's forty yard line.

The third quarter started with a series of end runs by Blankenship and Bain who were able to circle the end practically at will which resulted in Reins making Hedley's first touchdown. The Colts held down well through the line at this stage of the play and Hedley was unable to gain Stocking sends in five substitution and Blankenship circles the end for a touchdown. Reins passes to Owb for extra point. The quarter ends with a big advantage to the Owls.

In the fourth quarter, Blankenship circles the end for 15 yards and makes the third touchdown but Webb fails to make the extra point. Tucker rallies and makes stellar plays the rest of the game. The locals were going strong at the end of the game and time was called with the ball on Hedley's 25 yard line.

Score, Hedley 20, Clarendon 13. Lineups:
Hedley: Everett, c; Cooper, rg, Bain, re, Armstrong, re, Caldwell, lg, Whittington, lt, Watkins, lb, Reins, (c), qb, Webb, lb, Heffner, rb, Blankenship, fb.

Clarendon-Pampa Road Being Worked

The Clarendon Chamber of Commerce has been instrumental in getting some much needed road work started on the Clarendon-Pampa highway. Requests from the chamber to the state highway department were made several times and last week when a representative from the engineers department was in Clarendon a visit as made over the road which resulted in a promise to have the work started at once. Workmen started Monday moving back a fence that was responsible for a 'blind' corner and when the work is finished it will make the highway much safer for traffic. A hill on the river will also be given attention and will eliminate another blind corner on the road. Other minor work will be done by the department while they are at work on the highway.

Attendance on the Lions Club luncheon continues to increase as the local club swings into line with the International play for an attendance contest that is to last for the coming thirty-four weeks. Four Lions wore their caps at the Luncheon Tuesday of this week until they made sufficient explanation as to why they should be excused from the luncheon of a week past.

CLARENDON BOY ON STATE U. PAPER

PROPOSES OFFER RIGHT OF WAY TO DEPARTMENT

COMMISSIONERS TAKE ACTION AT REGULAR SESSION HERE MONDAY.

One of the greatest steps taken by Donley County in the past few years was taken Monday of this week when the Commissioners' Court of Donley County signed the only contract tendered by the State Highway Department. This contract is found in another part of the News and is found to state that the roadbed will be ready should the county or state decide to put down paving.

Donley County is required to secure a right-of-way through the county on the line as designated, deeding this to the State Highway Department for their use. This done, the Highway Department contracts to grade this route, install such bridges and other drainage structures as may be needed, placing the bed in first class condition to receive a top coating at some date in the future.

Active work in this connection has been done in this county by W. A. French, Division Engineer for the State Highway Department, Gibb Gilchrist, member of the Highway Board and many others in the county who have been interested in the movement for a hard surfaced road through the county. The contract as presented to the court Monday of this week was signed by all the commissioners of the county, with no exceptions. A number of interested citizens of the county were present to witness the presentation and reception of the contract.

Widespread interest has been manifest in the paving situation in Donley County since this and Armstrong Counties are the remaining two between Fort Worth and Amarillo without some form of permanent road that will allow travel under all conditions. The possible solution to the problem has met with the approval of the entire Panhandle section and it is expected that Armstrong County will soon fall into line and put her roads in condition in the immediate future.

According to P. S. Bailey, District Engineer, who presented the contract to the Court since W. A. French removed to another district, the work on surveying the right-of-way will be started in the very immediate future and the ownership maps will be ready for work in approximately sixty days. Officials of the county state that no difficulty is expected from this quarter as the people of the county are ready for the definite location of the road. The expected cost of the route through the county may be definitely set at from $15,000 to $20,000, with the latter figure being the maximum cost. In many instances it is thought that the location of the road will be given the county.

The route is to be placed on the South side of the railroad through the county and will connect with the present route as now found at the railroad crossing near Goodnight. In Donley County alone, six railroad crossings are eliminated, with several more just outside the boundaries of the district.

The Fort Worth & Denver City Railroad is co-operating with the movement and will remove all objectionable features and stockyards without cost to the county. W. D. McCoy, Right-of-Way man for this road was here Monday and stated that the disposition of the yards at Ashtola would be attended in the immediate future. No others will need removal.

The road is to be 100 foot width at all points through the county with the exception of the places of Hedley, Lelia Lake and Clarendon, where the roadbed width will be limited to the width of the designated streets through these towns. The new designation of the road will cut six miles from the length of the road in the county aside from removing the other objectionable features that have been a bone of contention with the Highway Department for some years.

PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Now the Santa Fe seeks permit to build a new line from Amarillo to a point in Colorado, and thus the fight for rail lines in the Panhandle and Southwest becomes still more complicated. Truly, there's aptness in the slogan advertising this section, "Where railroads still fight for New Lines."

Another Texas State Fair is in progress down at Dallas and again the story of the wonderful growth and potential progress of our state is being heralded to hundreds of thousands who pass through its gates. That Texas enjoys the distinction of having the greatest state fair in the world is certainly in keeping with the size, and possibilities of Texas, and the aggressive character of her citizenship.

Jakie Atz has signed to manage the Dallas Steers in the Texas League next year. For years Dallas has coveted Atz as a manager, and there's great rejoicing at the head of navigation on the Trinity. Those Dallas fans feel that they have put one over on Fort Worth in getting Atz, and the chances are that a new and more intense rivalry will burst into flame between the two North Texas cities. The rivalry will mean a big increase in the cash customers in the grandstands of both cities.

Former Governor Pat M. Neff has been appointed by Governor Moody as chairman of the railroad commission to fill the post of Hon. Clarence E. Gilmore, deceased. Pat Neff is well fitted for the duties of the commission and Texas is fortunate in securing his services. His appointment clarifies the political atmosphere quite a bit, too, and the ten or a dozen prospective candidates for governor will certainly applaud his acceptance of the place. Mr. Neff is still a strong figure in Texas politics.

Senator Sheppard would bring us a law that would make the purchaser of illicit liquor equally guilty with the bootlegger. In theory he is absolutely right, and we are not prepared to say that he is in error from a practical standpoint insofar as the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment is concerned. Some seem to think that in order to secure evidence to convict bootleggers it will be forever necessary to leave immune the purchaser. We don't know about that, but we would like to see a trial of the law with both guilty before the bar of justice. If it didn't work, it could be changed back to the present status with little trouble. Morally the purchaser is equally guilty. Why not legally?

The unanimous action this week of the Donley County commissioners court in accepting the generous proposal of the highway commission in the matter of grading and building the concrete drainage structures through the county on highway No. 5, seems to The News to usher in a new era insofar as highway development in Donley is concerned. The citizenship of the county is to be congratulated on having a commissioners court of the vision and wisdom to recognize the advantages of the present proposal and the courage to accept it. Circumstances and opportunity will probably mark the present commissioners court as one having done the most constructive task ever performed for Donley County.

Came the past week to the fraternity of the Texas Press Association an especial feeling of loss in the sudden death of Hon. C. E. Gilmore, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission. Clarence Gilmore had made a success of the country newspaper business at Wills Point before he entered politics and for the past ten years he stood out as a signal success in his service to the people of Texas on the rail commission. Mr. Gilmore was a lovable character and aside from the loss to the state in a first-rate citizen and an able public servant this editor, along with scores of other Texas newspaper men, has lost a real friend. Peace to his ashes!

Over the radio last Sunday afternoon multiplied thousands of listeners over the nation heard Dr. James Durkee of New York City deliver an address of unusual logic and appeal. We don't know just who Dr. Durkee is, but no listener could hear him without being impressed with the greatness of soul as evidenced in his address which proclaimed him possessed of a great brotherly heart and a man full of the love of God and his fellowman. Dr. Durkee made a thrilling appeal for men and women, Protestant, Jew and Catholic, to come together in greater unity in exemplifying the life and teachings of Christianity; to minimize differences of race and creed; to magnify the Christian virtues of brotherhood and toleration. It was a mighty and touching appeal for more daily exemplification of Christian brotherhood and sounded an advanced note in the relation of those of different faiths. There is an ever-increasing urge and impulse to greater unity and co-operation between denominations in America and it isn't too far fetched to visualize the day somewhere out in the future where Christians will follow the lead of giant commercial enterprises in mergers which will eliminate duplication of effort and render more effective the work of evangelization of the world. Speed the day!

Bill Feather, one of the best paragraphers in the nation, says "At twenty-five the average man sees the need of better laws; at forty-five he sees the need of better men." That's the smartest thing we've read this year.

BRIDGE

It was Samuel Johnson, we believe, who remarked that a certain proficiency in billiards was the mark of a gentleman, but that too great a skill in it was simply the sign of a misspent youth.

The recent national convention of teachers of bridge reminded us of that remark. A reasonable amount of proficiency in bridge is necessary, these days, to one's social standing. To be known as a "shark" at the game carries implications that are somewhat derogatory. The same is true of anything that one allows to become an obsession rather than a diversion. It is especially applicable to bridge because that pastime becomes more enjoyable, up to a certain point, the more studiously one partakes of it. But after that point has been attained, bridge is apt to become a soul-destroying thing.

There is much enjoyment in skillful play, but when you reach the point where you know that because an opponent led the four of diamonds and later discarded the nine of clubs, it means he holds the ace of hearts and the guarded king of spades, it is time to give up cards and devote your evenings to movies, reading Liberty and other diversions involving no mental strain.—Wichita Falls Daily Times.

BUSINESS GOES WHERE IT IS INVITED

Merchants who bewail the fact that "business isn't what it used to be," yet fail or refuse to profit by the example of those with whom business is better than is used to be, have no "business" to complain if their business goes elsewhere.

Merchants who spend time crying about new or outside firms taking their business away from them, but shut their eyes to the very evident cause and reason for it, can't blame anyone but themselves if their business goes "floopy."

If business isn't good with you, "beefing" about it all the time won't improve it. Who wants to do business with a constant calamity howler anyway?

Business is good—there is more business today than there ever was—the only difference is there are more and keener concerns after it.

Everybody knows that—your customers included. If you are not getting the business, it's not your customer's fault.

You can get the business if you will rid yourself of old superstitions and prejudices; if you will take away the nickel you are holding so close to your eyes that you can't see the ten dollar bills on the other side of it; if you will recognize that modern buyers don't and won't do business with old-fashioned sellers, unless they have to—and then do something about it, instead of standing around, wringing your hands and crying about it. If you don't invite people to do business with you, don't give them, consistently and persistently, every reason why they should do business with you, you surely won't get their business, but the fellow that does, will.

Now, you don't have to do this—it's your business and you can run it to suit yourself, but if you won't do it, don't blame anything or anybody but yourself if your business goes on the rocks and your customers forget you.

Don't get sore at your newspaper, either, if it accepts outside advertising copy. If you don't want the business bad enough to ask for it, don't kick if others, who know how to sell, ask for it, and get it.

COLLEGE HEAD URGES FARMERS TO RAISE HOGS

At the Master Dairy Farmers' banquet held in Amarillo recently, the statement was made that hogs were essential to the dairy business. At the Canyon College Dairy, over one hundred dollars worth of hogs are sold per month. According to F. R. Phillips, head of the Department of Agriculture of Canyon College more money is cleared on hogs than from the dairy proper. Cows certainly require more labor than hogs. It is the plan to put more land under hog fence and to double the number of hogs next year. It is expected to do this without buying any additional feed unless it be tankage.

Recently Walter Barlow, manager of the Great West Mill and Elevator Company, said:

"The thing I do not understand is why farmers do not raise more hogs in the Panhandle. Is there not money in hogs, with all the grain sorghum that we have?" The answer was that the College Farm at Canyon showed a greater net profit from hogs than it did from the dairy enterprises. Attention was then called to the value of hogs in West Texas, when Colonel C. T. Herring of Amarillo remarked that the reason we have no greater packing industry located here is that the packers claim that they cannot get enough hogs; that cattle alone do not make a packing plant profitable.

Last week a Randall County farmer stated that there is more money in selling grain sorghum at twenty dollars per ton than in feeding it to hogs. The reply to such statements is that experiments in Kansas and in Texas stations contradict his figures. Perhaps one reason why few hogs are produced in West Texas is that farmers here have not kept up with the modern hog feeding experiments, but have accepted their father's belief that corn is required to produce profitable pork.

Danish dairy farmers owe much of the progress made in their farm enterprises to their hogs. The Panhandle farmer has now reached the point where he needs to give more attention to the marketing of his products in a finished condition. Grain sorghum fed to hogs offers a simple plan whereby this desirable marketing step may be taken.

Mrs. Will Martin and little son of Amarillo, came down Friday night for a visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clampitt.

Fire Prevention

Much of the millions of dollars worth of property destroyed and the thousands of lives lost each year by fire could be prevented if every one would learn to be more careful about the handling of fire.

Oct. 7th to 12th has been designated by the President as Fire Prevention Week—but why not extend it for the whole year. Fire is the greatest economic waste we have and while safety measures have been taken and prevention is being taught in our schools the daily loss by fire is staggering. The only real safe way is to keep fully insured in good, sound Stock Companies such as we handle. Fire Insurance is one commodity that is cheaper today than before the War.

Every town makes its own fire rates, so let's all be careful about fires in Clarendon and we can have a cheaper rate next year. Consult us at any time about your insurance needs.

The purposes of this was supposed to be to select the best conversationalist, but the competition was too intense for a decision to be reached.

Then the following numbers were given:

Welcome—Rev. S. R. McClung. Violin Solo—Mrs. G. L. Boykin, accompanied by Miss Fray Stallings.

Reading—Mrs. Frank Stockings. Piano duet—Misses Evers and Stroder.

Piano solo—Miss Mildred Sparks.

Reading—Mrs. Rolle Brumley. Piano solo—Miss Stroder.

The braves having finally been driven out of ambush and captured. They were brought to the campfire where all united in making war on an enormous supply of weiners and marshmallows which a few took time to toast. Recent studies by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the best temperature for potatoes in storage show that for the ordinary storage period of about nine months, a temperature of about 37 degrees is best. This is sufficiently low to prevent germination and also to keep to a minimum losses in weight from shrinkage, which range from 4 to 30 per cent during a storage period.

Lelia Lake Girls

Twelve Lelia Lake Club girls met at the school October 15th, 1929. Their demonstration was how to improve home grounds. An outline was also given of the interior home improvement club girls would be expected to do during 1930.

By diagraming home grounds good plans were made for yard beautification and girls were urged to make fall plantings of rose cuttings and shrubs.

Care of the yard with particular attention to:

Cleanliness, stressing the point that cleanliness is the first principle of beauty, and encouraging the girls to see that garbage, dishwater, discarded cans, manure and waste products of all kinds are carefully disposed of. Emphasis was placed on the fact that water standing in low places or in utensils offers a breeding place for mosquitoes. A cleanup campaign was started with the motto, "rubbish should be burned or buried."

Neatness and order were considered as necessary before any attempt at beautification is made.

Things that do not belong in the yard, such as discarded automobile casings, and rims, boards, and the like, are to be removed. The girls, knowing that articles should not be stored under the house, porches, or other buildings, are going to see that such tools as rakes, hoes, spades, lawn mowers, etc., are kept in an accessible orderly place set aside for the purpose. Their wood piles are to be orderly so as not to detract from the appearance of the yard.

They are to plan the planting of the yard and put only grass and shade trees and walks in the public area or the front, where their friends are supposed to see and freely enjoy the space provided. Flowers are to be in borders around the house and in beds at the side of the house.

Shrubs and vines are to screen the back or utility grounds from public view so that when the girl is working she will have a chance to roll her sleeves down before receiving callers.

This was the beginning of a series of demonstrations to be given to all club girls in Donley County during the next 15 days.

PREDICT MANY MORE HIGHWAY SEPARATIONS
TWENTY-EIGHT GRADE CROSSINGS ELIMINATED IN VICINITY OF DETROIT.

By E. E. Duffy
Were it not for the highway accomplishments of some communities there might be some fear that mere man will never be able to cope successfully with automobile traffic needs.

Whenever the Wayne County (Michigan) Board of County Road Commissioners issues its annual report there is always mentioned some forward looking achievement that should stir the heart of him who would have highways wide, safe and conveniently designed. This time the report tells the world about a super-highway elevated grade separation nearing completion. This separation, at the intersection of two important arteries, each consisting of two strips of concrete each 40 feet wide, pretends the elimination of ground level crossings of busy highways.

Optimism on this point is indicated by the report itself: "We believe it is the forerunner of thousands of such separations that will be ultimately constructed well over the nation for it is built to fill a demand and not to create one. It is in itself proof of need."
The Michigan-Southfield Super-highway grade separation is but a part of the Master Plan adopted some years ago by Detroit and vicinity. Aside from the construction of lengthy mileages of highways 40 feet and wider, the Master Plan takes into consideration all factors that have to do with ease of traffic flow.
Wayne County has 28 grade separations completed, of which 26 are railroad and two highway. Nine railroad separations are under construction and plans are being made for the building of 11 more.
From this it may be seen that the Detroit area is recognizing that the automobile is a factor in economic life that must be served.

"The Eyes of Texas"

Kenneth Fink
Austin, Texas, Oct. 13—Construction of the new gymnasium is going on at a rapid gait. The foundation has been finished; one of the three sections of framework is nearing completion. But meanwhile all classes held on the east side of the campus are learning how trip-hammers sound while instructors squirm and then yell to drown out the racket.

Numbers of students have asked why the steel beams and girders have been painted with a flaming orange-red, instead of—say, a nice conservative gray or dull green, or even black. One of the latter colors would be much more artistic and certainly less glaring, they point out. Imagine their astonishment when they are told that the only reason it is painted at all is to prevent rusting and red lead is best for that.
Enrollment in the University, Saturday at noon, was 5,267. It has been predicted that there will be 6,000 students in the University next year. Without a doubt the new buildings under construction will influence a great many students to come to U. T.

The local golfers plan to return the match on the Memphis course at early date.

Business Slump is Reported in Whiskey Sales by Doctors

Although it is rumored that prohibition has proved a financial boon to many physicians by giving them authority to write prescriptions for liquor, one Palo Pinto County has been doing a surprisingly slack business along that line. This is surmised by the following report submitted to the State Comptroller:
"No whiskey prescriptions written in this office since last report, July 1, 1929. It is proper to send blank reports or should I keep silent until business in this particular commodity picks up? Answer quickly."

Student Body Have Rev. Preston for Chapel Speaker

The student body of Clarendon High School welcomed Reverend T. W. Preston as the speaker in chapel last Thursday morning. Two years ago Rev. Preston spoke here in the school on "Things that are Worth While," but he tells us that only on things is worth while and that is life. The most important part in one's life is in its making and if not properly trained now it will be too late to mend it after awhile. "The bird with a broken pinion shall never soar again." He then made an appeal to all the students to live a better, cleaner and more useful life and the response he received was inspiring to everyone. It is hoped that Dr. Preston will be with us again soon because we do need a few sermons sprinkled in with our fun.

Roast stuffed breast of lamb is an appetizing and economical meat. Have the butcher crack the bones so that the meat may be served between the ribs, and also make a slit under the ribs close to the rib bones for a pocket to hold the stuffing. Fill this cavity with any savory stuffing you prefer. Force meat, or ground meat, makes a good stuffing, or bread crumbs with poultry seasoning, or with spinach, or cress. Sew up the cavity and bake the roast slowly in an uncovered pan without water.

Doctors Plan Advertising To Elevate System

Medical advertising, long banned by ethical physicians, is now to be used as a means of elevating the profession in the public esteem.

The Chicago Medical Society in its official bulletin issued Thursday, proposed an advertising campaign which is looked upon in the profession as a significant departure from the old time ethical rules. This move is regarded as particularly significant because the society just six months ago in a case which revealed nationwide attention ousted a famous physician, Dr. Louis E. Schmidt, because of his indirect association with the Public Health Institute.

The institute is a philanthropic one treating social diseases and has always engaged in extensive advertising campaigns to tell the dangers of social diseases and to offer medical services. Dr. Schmidt has appealed his ouster to the judicial council of the American Medical Association which will consider his appeal at its next meeting.

"Publicity of various sorts received by the Chicago Medical Society during the last few months has put the society in the limelight," the bulletin states in explaining one of the motives for suggesting the advertising campaign. "The public and the profession are wondering what we will do next."

"Now in the psychological time for our members to determine to lead a constructive up-to-date campaign of education of the profession, of the public and especially of the philanthropists in the economic and scientific problems before us. It will strengthen our position so that we will have more influence in their solution and return the profession to its former enviable position."

MORE THAN GLAD TO TESTIFY HESAYS

NOBODY HAS GREATER CAUSE TO BE THANKFUL TO ORGATONE THAN HIMSELF SAYS AMARILLO MAN.

"You can tell them it helped my wife, too, and of all the people who have made statements about being helped by Orgatone none have greater cause to be thankful than we have," said W. G. Street, residing at 1207 Lincoln St., Amarillo, Texas, in a conversation with the Orgatone representative.

"For four years," he continued, "my wife suffered from one of the most severe cases of chronic constipation I have ever seen. And was never able at all to find anything to relieve her until she got Orgatone. Nothing she would eat agreed with her but it would just stay in her stomach and made trouble for her. She would bloat up after eating until she could hardly breathe. Her kidneys finally got to bothering her and she would have terrible sick headaches. This pain was almost unbearable, she suffered so, especially at night, she could hardly sleep at all and it was hard for her to get around during the day. "Orgatone has been a wonderful thing for her and the results she has gotten from it have been astonishing. She is now on her second bottle and the stomach and kidney pains are already gone. Her appetite is good now and she can eat heartily without any trouble afterwards. I am more than glad to tell about Orgatone for I have spent many a dollar for other medicines that were of no benefit to my wife and I can appreciate a good one like Orgatone." Genuine Orgatone is sold in Clarendon by Stocking's Drug Store who are direct laboratory agents.

Between 1866 and 1928, inclusive, Texas produced 154,256,204 bales of cotton, valued at $11,244,000,000. Four of the 58 active gypsum operators in the United States have plants in Texas, which now stands fourth in gypsum production. Total value of gypsum produced and sold in Texas in 1928 was $3,094,145.

DONLEY COUNTY MAINTAINS RECORD ON NON-CROP FAILURES FOR THIRTY NINE CONSECUTIVE YEARS 1890-'29

The slogan of Donley county has been upheld for another year with the marketing of the 1929 crop at this time. The county has long held that it has never had a crop failure and since the beginning of farming here the county has added a mark to its slogan each year until the string has now reached 39 years without a crop failure. There have been short years when a full crop was not evident but never a failure and feed for cattle and other stock has always been on hand.

The cotton crop of the county is beginning to move in earnest and at this time promises to be an average yield in quantity and a little below normal in quality on account of weather conditions and the hail that fell in some sections of the county. An abundant feed crop is reported and grass is said to be excellent, giving fine prospects for the cattle over the winter. Cotton picking is in full sway and increased amounts are reported each day. Weather has been ideal for the past two weeks and pickers from other sections of the state are beginning to come in the county to assist in the gathering.

The dairy and poultry industries of the county are said to be in excellent condition. Turkeys are reported to be threatened with cholera and rump but prompt attention has been given them and it is thought that the disease will be halted before very much damage is done in the county. There has been a large number of turkeys raised in Donley county this year and a big revenue will be realized from the sale of the birds.

Range cattle and dairy herds are in splendid condition for the winter season. Grass on the range is good and cattle are fat. The market on dairy cattle is stiff and quite a bit in demand. Beefers remain about the same.

Local merchants report that business conditions are better at this time than they have been in a year. Business is good and is increasing every week, according to statements made by Clarendon merchants.

The statements of the banks in the county indicate that they are

GLAD TO TELL HIS FRIENDS ABOUT IT

If you have any of the following symptoms, I have the remedy no matter what your trouble has been diagnosed: Nervousness, stomach trouble, loss of weight, loss of sleep, sore mouth, pains in the back and shoulders, peculiar swimming in the head, frothy-like phlegm in throat, passing mucus from the bowels, especially after taking purgative, burning feet, brown, rough or yellow skin, burning or itching skin, rash on the hands, face and arms resembling sunburn, habitual constipation, (sometimes alternating with diarrhoea) copper or metallic taste, skin sensitive to sun heat, forgetfulness, drowsiness and thoughtless; that you might lose your mind, gums a fiery red and falling away from the teeth, general weakness with loss of energy. If you have these symptoms and have taken all kinds of medicine and still sick, I especially want you to write for my booklet.

Mrs. Katie Carmel Stroud, Box 479, Pittsburg, Texas, whose picture appears here, writes: "In the Spring of 1927, my hands, arms and legs broke out with something and I went to see the doctor and he treated me for some time, but did not do me any good. A friend of mine told me about you and your wonderful treatment. I only took two treatments and I haven't been bothered with that sickness any more. I can eat and drink anything I want and it does not hurt me. I wish everybody could know about your wonderful treatments and know what relief they would get after taking them."

"Since taking Sargon, I'm in better health than for years. I eat like a hungry school boy and can digest anything. There's not a pain in my body and I sleep good all night. Sargon Pills toned up my liver and ended my constipation. Now my skin has a good healthy color and I feel like a new man." Wm. D. Vaughn, 1910 S. Akard St., Dallas, Douglas & Goldston, Agents.

INOCULATE VETCH

Inoculation is necessary for the successful growth of vetches where they are grown for the first time. Many failures of this crop are due to lack of inoculation. In the Pacific Coast States vetch is nearly always naturally inoculated, the necessary bacteria being present in the soil, but elsewhere in the United States the soil must be inoculated. The surest method of inoculation is to scatter soil from a field where vetch has previously been grown successfully. The soil should be broadcast at the rate of 500 or more pounds to an acre and harrowed in at once. The same germ produces nodules on both common and hairy vetch, so that soil from either will inoculate the other. Where inoculated soil is not available, pure cultures may be used.

SEED LAWNS HEAVILY

A mistake commonly made in starting a lawn is that of using too little seed. A thick stand of grass is essential at the beginning. A good mixture for northern laws is 4 parts Kentucky bluegrass, 1 part redtop, and 1-4 part white clover. This should be sown at the rate of not less than 3 pounds to 1,000 square feet. Sowing should be done in early fall in the North, where this mixture is adapted.

If it is necessary to make silage from corn fodder, it may be done successfully if enough water is added to make it pack well in the silo. Water may be added by letting a stream from a hose flow into the blower or the top of the blower pipe while filling. It is also well to sprinkle the surface of the cut material as it is distributed in the silo.

HUTTON'S MEN OUT CLASS WELLINGTON FRIDAY IN SECOND CONFERENCE GAME FOR THIS SEASON SCORE 15-6

Dillard, Noble, Estlack Combination Too Much For Enemies.

Mudyd Ground Fails To Halt Locals In Fast Play.

The Clarendon Bronchos invaded the Wellington Skyrocks gridiron last Friday with a feeling of "too much superiority" and only came out victorious by the score of 15-6. The boys felt that the game was theirs for the taking and this feeling almost spelled disaster for the locals.

Hutton's bunch found out after the first few minutes of the game that they had met more than they expected in the Skyrocks and they rallied to hold the foe to a lone touchdown which came in the last quarter of the game.

Clarendon's first touchdown came in the third quarter when Estlack covered an overthrow from center on Wellington's ten yard line. This gave the Bronchos encouragement and they ploughed thru the muddy field and held their safety throughout the rest of the game: Dillard, Behrens and Estlack were the favorites while Noble and Nichols hit the left end for much gain. Baird was responsible for the second and last touchdown.

Hutton ran in a bunch of the second string on the last part of the play, these boys played real football and promise much for the future of the Broncho rating.

Roland, was the outstanding player for the Wellington aggregation with several good gains to his credit.

The muddy field may have been responsible for the failure of the backs to score, perhaps was the cause of the slow start in the first part of the game, however after the boys got accustomed to the field they regained their teamwork and held the Skyrocks to a lone touchdown.

Following is the play by play record of the game:

Memphis Game Promises Real Tussle Friday

BRONCHOS IN SPLENDID CONDITION FOR GAME IS REPORT

TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED

CLARENDON LEADS CONFERENCE TEAMS FOR THIS SEASON.

Friday when the Bronchos meet the fast Memphis eleven week they will enter the field after a weeks hard practice, confident of victory but realizing that they will have no "walk over" on the visitors. This will be the third conference game for the Bronchos and they are leading the conference, having won every game so far in the season. The Wellington game Friday left the locals all in good condition and Coach Hutton has been giving strenuous workouts all the week, showing the Bronchos some new things in passes and getting a splendid team work started in the weaker places of the team.

Memphis Plans to Win
The Memphis team is also in excellent condition this week, according to information learned from there. Their defeat last Friday by the Estelline team has not taken the fight out of them and they plan to invade the local gridiron and carry home the honors. It is reported that they will bring a large crowd of fans with them to the Clarendon game.

Band To Play
Director Stephenson plans to have the chamber of commerce band at the game and furnish music during the plays. It was not learned if a parade would be held before the game. The band will be composed of about thirty pieces.

About The Teams
The weights of the players are about the same, according to figures given out by Coach Stocking, Tuesday of this week. Clarendon will out weigh the visitors very little.

Shamrock-Clarendon Game Now Slated For November 6th

Superintendent H. F. Burton and Coach Hutton were in Amarillo Monday afternoon, conferring with executives of the interscholastic league about the Clarendon schedule and other matters relative to high school athletics. Other schools represented at this conference were: Childress and Shamrock who had matters to bring before the board.

The re-setting of the Clarendon Shamrock game was made at the meeting and the game will be played here Friday, November 6 instead of Nov. 1 as announced at the beginning of the season. Erby Carruth district executive presided over the meeting.

BACK THE BRONCHOS TO DISTRICT CHAMPS

Ruth Price

The Clarendon High Bronchos will clash on the gridiron with the Memphis Cyclones Friday afternoon at C. G. Park. The Memphis team will be here ready to fight and with plenty of good boosters. A very few of the citizens or business men of the town attend our games. Are you backing your home team like you should? Do you expect them to be District Champs without your support?

Citizens! Business men! and High School Students! Why won't you back our team? You must all admit that it is a grand ole game. This is going to be a hard game and the Bronchos are working hard for the District Championship. Why not back them on to victory?

The citizens and business men are not the only ones that are not backing the Bronchos. The high school students are not backing them as they should. Although there were a great many at the last game there should be more. The others would feel more like backing the Bronchos if the high school would start it. The pep squad girls are only to lead the others and not to do all the yelling for the entire town. Students! back the Bronchos! Help the pep squad. Pep up and show your interest and be at the pep rallies and games one-hundred per cent strong.

Bronchos the pep squad is still backing you, waiting and hoping for a victory from you. We will fight on to victory with you although the rest will not. Fight 'em hard Bronchos and beat the Cyclones. Show the people what you can do and make them want to back you. Beat Memphis and the 'ole Maroon and White will wave in victory for you ever.

PEP RALLY

A group of high school boys and girls met in the college auditorium Thursday night for a pep rally preceding the football game with Wellington Friday. In spite of the stormy weather there were about thirty-five backers of the football team present. Is this not the way to show the football team whether or not it is receiving the backing of its fellow classmates? It surely is. The students certainly have a penny and loyal spirit to come out on a stormy night to help cheer the football boys on to victory.

The pep squad aggregation was accompanied by Miss Evers at the Piano, on the football songs. Many peppy and cheerful songs and yells were given for the football team, led by the yell leaders, Bernice Andis, Willie Vineyard and Betty Walker. If everyone had as much pep and enthusiasm as Betty Walker, the football team could be assured of a "onward fight" from the side line.

The rally adjourned early, much to the disappointment of everyone, because of a supposedly approaching storm. Each individual made his way homeward assured

More Than 350 High School Teams Start In Football League

More than 350 high schools have filed their acceptances of the interscholastic league 1929 football plan, according to Roy B. Henderson, athletic director of the interscholastic league at the University of Texas. Oct. 1 was the last day for accepting the plan, and schools that have not accepted will be ineligible for the league football race. The 1929 plan is fundamentally the same as that used last year, but there are two new rulings.

Games will no longer be counted as tied in inter-district competition. In case of a tie, 20-yard penetration, the number of first downs and the yardage gained will be considered one at a time and in order until the tie is broken.

Spring football games will not be permitted between member schools. This rule, however, does not prohibit spring practice and is in accord with the vote of member schools taken at the interscholastic league state meet last May.

Miss Mary Lowe spent the week-end in Wellington visiting Miss Flay Raror.

Kitty Speed and Lucille Andis visited in Wellington over the week-end.

that the football team had the backing of the student body and pep squad, and that the backers on the side line would do their part in cheering the team onto victory.

Let's back the football boys for district championship! They want our support! Give it to them!
