NEW SERIES: VOL. 28, NO. 30

CLARENDON GUARD COMPANY ACCEPTED BY ARMY OFFICERS

According to the call the Clarendon Guard reported to Capt. Simpson at the court house in Clarendon Monday at 10 o'clock and after attending a meeting of citizens at the Pastime Theatre marched to the Fair Grounds where they went into camp for training and rounding up to shape before the Federal inspection, which occurred Wednesday morning. The company is one of high physical standard and their fitness was so apparent that there was no hesitation on the part of the regular army officers in accepting them, which made them members of the Regular army and wards of Uncle Sam.

Those who had positions or work to do were released from camp Wednesday afternoon subject to call on or about August 4th, when the entire company will be re-assembled for the purpose of posting such orders relating to further movements as are available at that time. It is supposed that this company will be ordered into training at Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Texas, to make up the 30,000, the quota of that camp and it is very likely that they will not be moved from Clarendon until the latter part of August, although this is merely supposition and army orders are hard to forecast.

Capt. Simpson and his Lieutenants, Nat S. Perrine and John K. Donnan, have a fine bunch of men in the home company and we are sure that they will develop into first-rate fighting men reflecting honor upon themselves and credit upon old Donley, who mothered them.

RECRUITING OFFICER FOR ARMY HERE

G. W. Baumhoff, Jr., arrived here from Amarillo last night to assist postmaster Powell in obtaining recruits for the regular army. Mr. Baumhoff is connected with the regular army recruiting office in El Paso and is vested with the authority to enlist men and transport them there.

At the present time the army offers special inducements to cooks and bakers, according to a letter received by Mr. Baumhoff from headquarters, which states that forty new Bakery companies will be organized on each.

Each company will consist of the following personnel:
1 1st Lieutenant.
1 2nd Lieutenant.
1 Sgt. first class, at $51 per month.
3 Sgts., $44 per month.
15 Corporals, $36.00 per month.
45 Privates, 1st class, $33.00.
15 Privates, $30.00.
2 cooks, $23.00 per month.

In addition to the pay the government furnishes food, lodging and clothing.

Mr. Baumhoff will be pleased to meet any young men who are contemplating enlisting at his headquarters either the Atterberry Hotel or the Postoffice.

A KIND AND THOUGHTFUL ACT

Brother Slover, president of Clarendon College bought a testament for every boy, who has joined the National Guards, and who ever attended Clarendon College. This is a very thoughtful act and will be highly appreciated by the boys.

Miss Pansy Lane went to Amarillo Sunday to make an extended visit.

ATTENTION, DRAFTED MEN!

We have been unable to get an official list of those drawn, and therefore are unable to publish the list. We have tried to give the public all the information we could about the draft, but that has been very little because we knew very little to tell them. We will convene the board for this county tomorrow, Friday.

OVER $300 RAISED TO KEEP GUARDSMEN

At a citizens mass meeting held Monday morning at the Pastime Theatre a committee was appointed following an appeal from Capt. Simpson, to raise money necessary to keep the local military company until they are officially mustered into Federal service. The state only provides thirty cents per day for each man for feed, which amount is pitifully inadequate at the present high prices of all food, so in line with what other towns have done, a committee headed by Mayor SoRelle and manned by Messrs. Sims, McDougal, Rafter, Rutherford and Braswell. Mr. McDougal worked Hedley and Mr. Sims collected at Lelia Lake. In addition to a little over $200 in cash collected, the committee is deeply indebted to J. W. Kent for the donation of a beef on behalf of the JA ranch and another by J. B. McClelland for the Rowe ranch.

Credit is also due to the Girls' Honor Guard for the collection of knives and forks, spoons, towels soap, etc., for the use and comfort of the boys encamped at the Fair Grounds.

This is a worthy cause and The News is proud of the liberal manner in which the people responded. Our boys are not to blame for the short funds of the state and they must be fed until they are regularly enrolled as regular troopers.

PREACHER ARRESTED FOR BEATING WILSON

Snyder, Texas, July 25.—Byron E. Harris, state ranger here today, reported the arrest of an Apostolic preacher and two singers, who were conducting a meeting at Fluvanna Saturday night. The preacher is charged with denouncing President Wilson and all higher officials and praying for Germany.

One of the singers is said to be a German without naturalization papers. Between sermons, it is said, they advised young men not to go to war.

They were placed in jail at Snyder to await instructions from the department of justice agents at San Antonio.

STATE TAX RATE FIXED AT 35 CENTS

Austin, July 25.—The State Automatic Tax Board this afternoon fixed the state ad valorem tax rate at 35 cents on the $100 of property. This is the constitutional limit and an increase of 15 cents over the present rate of 20 cents. The school tax rate was fixed at 20 cents, which is the same as at present. The Confederate pension remains at 5 cents. The question as to whether the university appropriation is included or not does not cut any figure as constitutional limit has been reached.

Insurance Protects Your Estate

It is better to stand a small loss, which is the amount that Insurance cost you, year by year, and which is the price of protection—than to stand, day by day, under the shadow of a great loss, the destruction of your home or business, which might mean your financial ruin.

If you buy Insurance, avoid trouble by having it written by those who know how.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED.

In addition to the few correspondents from nearby points already enjoyed by The News we are asking this week that some one in every community not so represented will volunteer to write regular weekly news letters for the paper. The News will furnish stationary and stamps besides mailing a free copy of the paper. If interested communicate with the office at once, as we will certify the first one reporting from each community.
THE CLARENDON NEWS.

The Red Cross Auxiliary met in regular session last Friday afternoon and the time was spent in the usual routine of work. The Auxiliary will meet as usual next Friday in order to complete her work that is already started.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church Sunday by Pastor Burton. Special music by Miss Bourland and Mr. Romeo.

Hon. Alex Lumpkin of Amarillo was attending course here Monday.

ATTENTION!

Members and friends of The American Red Cross.

Clarendon Chapter of The American Red Cross will be organized at the Pastime Theatre Monday, July 30, at 5 o'clock p. m.

A full attendance of members and those desiring to become members is earnestly requested by those in charge of the organization, as officers and the executive committee will be elected at this time.

One of the nicest gifts presented to the boys parlor at the new Gormito was given this week by Will McDonald, which is a beautiful $250 Edison. We are very sure nothing that would be of more pleasure could have been selected.

TONNAGE LOSSES SHOW INCREASE

London, July 25.—Twenty-one British vessels of more than 1600 tons each and three of less than 1600 tons each were sunk last week by mines or submarines, according to the weekly admiralty report of shipping losses.

One fishing vessel also was sunk. The admiralty statement follows:
"Arrivals 2,791; sailings 2,791.
"British merchantment sunk by mine or submarine, over 1600 tons, including two previously, 21; under 1600 tons, three.
"British merchant vessels unsuccessfully attacked, including three previously, 15.
"British fishing vessels sunk, one."

The announcement of the British admiralty given above shows an increase of seven vessels of more than 1600 tons sent to the bottom as compared with the report of the previous week, when 14 were sunk. In the smaller category the losses are the same as those given in the report of the previous week—three—while there was a falling off by seven in the number of fishing vessels sunk.

O'NEAL-DEAN.

Of interest to many in Clarendon is the marriage of Austin O'Neal and Miss Beatrice Dean of Wellington, which occurred last Thursday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage at Wellington, the pastor, Rev. Marwood, officiating. A number of relatives and close friends were the only witnesses.

Wellington is Dr. Neal's natal home, and he has spent many years of his life there, however, some few have also been lived in Clarendon attending our high school and College. He is very popular with those who know him and is a young man of splendid habits. He owns considerable property in Collingsworth county.

Miss Dean is not known by us personally, but we learn that she is an accomplished lady, and very much loved by all who know her.

The Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed a picnic at Lelia Lake, by courtesy of Messrs. Cothran and Gerner, Tuesday, July 25. There were about fifty participants in the affair and all seemed to enjoy themselves immensely. Especially the bounteous dinner, which was provided by the ladies present.

Dr. S. E. Burkhead, daughter, Mrs. Mary B. Adams and children, Clarence and Jane have returned from a visit with relatives in Marlin, Palestine, Houston and other points.

LADIES READY TO WEAR STORE WILL OPEN IN OUR CITY

The News is pleased to announce to the people of Clarendon and Donley county that this city is soon to boast of the finest exclusive ladies ready-to-wear store to be found in the Panhandle. There will be no necessity for going to Amarillo for the latest modes for even that city will not surpass in style and variety the large and well selected stock to be carried by Harry H. Sitner who will open his establishment here about August 20th.

Mr. Sitner is one of the most enterprising and successful ready-to-wear merchants in the state and was the proprietor of "The Grand" ladies store at Amarillo until he sold out some two months ago. As elsewhere he made a great success and his windows were considered authority by the beau monde. Mr. Sitner is now in New York City, where he is buying his clothing stock for this city and when it turns he will have the great advantage of having a resident buyer at meropolis who will buy ship orders as the new styles are being made.

Ray has leased Mr. Sitner's store and will finish it with modern tile entrance, make place for the elegances to be installed by Mr. Sitner's successor and the elegance will be the feather in the cap of the attractive store.

An announcement of the store will be found in an early issue of The News.

LIEUT. PERRINE OF GUARDS MARRIES

Lieutenant Perrine very quietly made his departure from our little city last week without letting his friends know why or where he was going. But Sunday morning when he returned with his attractive bride the mystery was solved. Lieut. Perrine has been with the National Guard of Clarendon since its organization, and has won the esteem and confidence of the boys. He formerly lived in Donley county and has many friends here who know him to be a young man with a strong personality. Lieut. and Mrs. Perrine have rooms at the Mann House until the National Guard is mustered into service at Fort Worth.

In the absence of details we copy the following from the Star-Telegram:

"It's just another 'border romance.' "First Lieutenant Nat S. Perrine, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Perrine of Fort Worth saw Miss Gladys Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hall of McAllen at a ball game. "O, no he didn't know her name. But he soon learned it. This wasn't very long ago—we aren't allowed to reveal how long ago.

"Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Corpus Christi, Miss Hall became the bride of First Lieutenant Perrine. They went to Clarendon Saturday night where Lieutenant Perrine's company will be ready for inspection Monday."

Bob and Miss Essie Patton visited friends at Panhandle Sunday.

Information for Men Drawn in Draft

Washington, July 21.—So that young men who have registered and who may be included in the lists of those designed for service with the new national army may know what procedure must be followed, Brig. Gen. E. H. Crowder, the provost marshal general, has issued a pamphlet entitled, "Bulletin of Information for Persons Registered."

The bulletin endeavors to answer briefly and fully, likewise officially, all questions that will be raised. It follows:

I. In every county in the United States and for every city of over 30,000 there are one or more local exemption boards. Each of such boards is in charge of the registration cards of persons registered in the area over which the board has jurisdiction, and has jurisdiction of all claims for exemption except those based on industrial grounds. Find out what board has your card and where the office of that board is.

II. In every Federal judicial district there are one or more district boards having appellate jurisdiction over a number of local boards and having original jurisdiction of claims for exemption on industrial grounds. If you intend to make a claim on industrial grounds, including agriculture, learn what district board to apply to.

III. Every board has numbered the cards in its jurisdiction in red ink in a series running from 1 to the number of cards in its jurisdiction. Lists showing the names of persons in the jurisdiction of each board and the red ink number of such card are open to inspection at the office of each board.

Inspect the list and inform yourself of your red ink serial number.

IV. These red ink numbers are to be drawn by lot to determine the order in which registered persons are to be called by the various local boards. As soon as the drawings are made lists showing the order in which these red ink numbers are to be called will be published in the press and will be posted at the office of each local board.

Go to your local board and find out the order in which you stand for call.

V. As soon as quotas are assigned to each state and each board, each board will call upon persons whose cards are in its jurisdiction instructing them to present themselves for examination. This call will be posted at the office of the local board and papers will be requested to print it. A notice will also be mailed to you, but the posting of the list at the office of the board will be deemed sufficient notice to charge you with the duty of presenting yourself. The law therefore makes it your duty to inform yourself when you are called. The mailing is for your convenience, but if the letter never reaches you, you cannot make that an excuse. Watch the lists at the office of your board and see when you are called for examination.

VI. You must report for physical examination on the day named in your call.

(a) If you are found physically disqualified the board will give you a certificate which will explain to you what your further duties are.

(b) If you are found physically qualified and file a claim for exemption within seven days after your call you will be given ten days after filing your claim for exemption to file proof of your claim for exemption. See (VII) below.

(c) If you are found physically qualified and file no claim for exemption, or if you do not appear for physical examination, your name will be posted to the district board as one who was called for military service and was not exempted or discharged. On the eighth day after call, or within two days thereafter, copies of the list of persons so posted to the district board will be given to the press with a request for publication, will be posted in a place at the office of the local board accessible to the public view, and notice will be mailed to you at the address on your registration card.

Therefore watch the notices posted at the office of the board about ten days after the day you were called and make arrangements for the prompt receipt of mail.

VII. Seven Days to File Claims (Except for industrial or agricultural reasons):

(a) No claim for discharge on account of the industry in which you are engaged can be decided by a local board. (See Par. XV below).

(b) Whether you file a claim for exemption or not, you must present yourself for physical examination on the day named in the notice.

From the day notice that you are called is mailed and posted you have seven days in which you may file a claim for exemption or discharge. The form for filing this claim is simple. If you wish to file such a claim—

(a) Go to the board and get form 116 for exemption and form 121 for discharge. If the board has not the printed forms ask to consult the form pamphlet and copy the form shown there.

(b) Fill out the proper form and file it with the board.

(c) Do this within seven days of the posting and mailing of notice to you to present yourself.

The following are the only grounds for exemption:

1. That you are an officer, legislative, executive or judicial of the United States, a state or territory, or the District of Columbia.

2. That you are a regular or duly ordained minister of religion.

3. That you were on May 18, 1917, a student preparing for the ministry in any recognized theological or divinity school.

4. That you are in the military or naval service of the United States.

5. That you are a subject of Germany whether you have taken out papers or not.

6. That you are a resident alien who has not taken out first papers. In addition to claims for exemption claims for discharge may be made on any of the following grounds, which are the only grounds for discharge by a local board:

1. That you are a county or municipal officer.

2. That you are a customhouse clerk.

3. That you are employed by the United States in the transmission of mails.

4. That you are an artificer or workman employed in an armory, arsenal or navy yard of the United States.

5. That you are employed in the service of the United States (under certain conditions). See paragraph (e) of section 20, Regulations.

6. That you are a licensed pilot regularly employed in the pursuit of your vocation.

7. That you are a mariner actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States.

8. That you are a married man with a wife or child dependent on you for support.

9. That you have a widowed mother dependent on your labor for support.

10. That you have aged or infirm parents dependent upon your labor for support.

11. That you are the father of a motherless child under 16 dependent upon your labor for support.

12. That you are the brother of an orphan child or children under 16 dependent on your labor for support.

13. That you are a member of any well-organized religious sect or organization organized or existent May 18, 1917, and whose then existing creed or principles forbade its members to participate in war in any form and whose religious convictions are against war or participation therein in accordance with the creed or principles of said religious organization.

These are the only grounds for exemption or discharge by the local board.

Another person can file a claim in your behalf, but must use different forms in filing the claim.

VIII. Ten Days After Filing Claim to File Proof

Your claim for exemption or discharge must be filed within seven days of the day on which notice to you that you are called was posted and mailed. But after you have filed your claim for exemption or discharge you have ten days within which to file proof.

The method of proving claims is very simple but rather exact. If you follow the rules given below you will have done what is required of you.

First. Go to the local board and consult the regulations to find out the form number of the affidavits that you must submit for your particular claim.

Second. Ask the board for the blank affidavits that are necessary in presenting your proof; if the board has not the forms, ask to consult the pamphlet of forms.

Third. Have the affidavits properly accomplished and return them to the board within the time limit assigned you—ten days from the filing of your claim.

Remember: (a) You must submit your proof in the prescribed form and the board has no authority to exempt or discharge you unless you submit all the affidavits required by the regulations.

(b) There will be no argument before the board and no proof other than the prescribed affidavits unless the board calls for other proof which it will do in only a limited number of cases.

IX. Every claim for discharge or exemption will be decided by the local board within three days after your affidavits have been filed.

X. If your claim is allowed a certificate of exemption or discharge will be issued to you.

Remember: (a) This certificate may be recalled at any time.

(b) If it is temporary or conditional, it becomes of no effect when the time or the condition named are fulfilled.

(c) You have been drawn for military service and when the condition that has postponed your posting to the colors ceases you may be recalled at any time.

(d) Remember that your case may still be appealed to the district board by the government and on this appeal your certificate may be withdrawn at once. When so withdrawn you stand precisely as though you had been selected for military service by the local board.

XI. If your claim is allowed by the local board your name will be certified and sent by the local board to the district board as one who has been called for military service and not exempted or discharged. Within two days thereafter, if practicable, a list of those so certified to the district board will be given to the press with a request for publication, will be posted in the offices of the local board accessible to the public view, and notice will be mailed to the address on your registration card.

Therefore, if you have filed a claim for exemption and proof in support thereof, watch the notices in the office of the local board beginning about five days after you have filed your proof to see what disposition was made of your case and make arrangements for the prompt receipt of mail.

XII. Claims of appeal may be made by a person within ten days after the day when notice has been posted and mailed that such person's name has been certified to the district board as one who has been called for service and not exempted or discharged.

Therefore if you desire to appeal—

1. Go to the local board and get your copy form 151 or 152 for filing your claim of appeal.

2. Get or copy also form 151 or 152 for notifying the district board of appeal.

3. File your claim of appeal (153 or 154) with the local board.

4. Send your notice of appeal (form 151 or 152) to the district board.

5. Do this within ten days from the day when notice that your name was certified to the district board was posted and mailed.

Remember: You can only appeal the final order of the board exempting or discharging or refusing to exempt or discharge you. You cannot appeal other orders or action of the local board.

XIII. You have five days after the district board receives your notice that you have filed a claim of appeal in which to file evidence additional to that filed by you in the local board, but all such evidence must consist of affidavits.

XIV. The decision on your appeal must be made within five days of the closing of proof, and you will be notified by mail of the action of the board on your appeal.

XV. Only the district board can receive claims for discharge on the ground that you are engaged in industry, including agriculture, found to be necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment, the effective operation of the military forces, or the maintenance of national interest during the emergency.

Such claims must be filed with the district board on or before the fifth day after the mailing and posting of notice that you have been certified by the local board as one who has been called for service and not exempted or discharged.

If you desire to file such a claim—

1. Get a copy from the local or district board of form 161 or 161a.

2. Fill the form out properly.

3. File it with the district board within five days after the mailing and posting of notice that your name has been certified from the local board to the district board.

See section 44, Regulations.

XVI. Only affidavits can be used in filing proof before the district board of a claim for exemption on industrial grounds. All such affidavits must be filed within five days after the filing of the claim.

XVII. Within five days after the closing of proof in any industrial claim the district board must decide on the claim.

If the decision of the district board is in favor of the claim the board will issue a certificate of discharge. If the decision is against the claim the district boards will so notify you.

Remember that you have been called for military service and that the certificate of the district board is only conditional on your remaining in the kind of industrial service on account of which you were discharged. No such exemption shall continue when a cause therefor no longer exists and your certificate of discharge may be withdrawn or modified by the district board at any time that the district board shall determine that the circumstances require it.

XVIII. Only decisions of district boards on industrial claims for discharge can be appealed.

If you desire to appeal the decision of the district boards to the President, you may do so within seven days of the date of mailing to you of the decision of the district board. To perfect your appeal—

1. Get or copy from the district or local board form 163.

2. Fill out the form and file it with the district board.

3. Do this within seven days after the mailing of notice to you of the decision of the district board in your case.

As soon as your case is finally disposed of, the adjutant general of your state will notify you by mail that you have been selected for military service.

Your local board will post a list of all persons selected for military service in a place at the office of the local boards accessible to public view. The local board will also give lists of persons selected for military service to the press with requests for publication.

XX. Notice that you have been selected for military service will not necessarily order you into service.

The notice to report for military service will come when the government is ready to receive you.

E. H. CROWDER, Provost Marshal General.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prime, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child... I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time... I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People... about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble,' so he got me 5 bottles... After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved... before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it.

DEFEAT OF GERMANY INDICATED IN PLANETS

New York, July 21.—The news of the last few days which has filtered to America from Germany would indicate that portentous events are at hand in the empire, and this recalls the remarkable prediction made Oct. 22, 1916, by Stuart Armour of Field, B. C., in which he said the beginning of the end would come in the summer of 1917, followed by a revolution and the dethronement of the kaiser. In view of present events it is of interest to recall the prediction, which was as follows:

"The kaiser was born with the sun in opposition to Saturn, and this is a very heavy affliction. In 1917 and 1918 the evil will be stirred into action by the transit of Saturn over the place of Saturn in the kaiser's nativity. It will be a very evil time for him. In all records of men born with such an affliction disaster has come with mathematical certainty. The kaiser is now under such an affliction and defeat after defeat is portended for him.

"As the benefic Jupiter comes to a stationary position on the sun of King George V and favorable aspects of important points in Poincare's horoscope, as well as that of the King of Belgium and others on the side of the allies in 1917, I would by all means consider that peace will come next year, most likely in the summer or early fall. The kaiser will be compelled to make an ignominious peace, which will be followed by a revolution in Germany and the loss of his throne. As has been predicted by the best astrologers in the United States and Great Britain, the royal house of Germany is doomed to be shorn of its power, and these two years—1917 and 1918—will see the dynasty of the Hohenzoellerns in the dust of domestic revolution."

It is a remarkable coincidence that the evil aspect of Saturn to the sun, to which Mr. Armour referred in his prediction in October, is now taking place, and as Saturn is a slow-moving planet, the evil influence will continue through this month, August and September. Commenting on the prediction, a New York astrologer yesterday stated that Mr. Armour's conclusions were now working out and within the next few weeks great happenings would come in Germany.

COURT HOLDS THAT SUBSCRIBER MUST PAY UP BEFORE HE CAN STOP

The right of a publisher to collect for newspapers taken from the post office has been upheld in the circuit court in the suit brought by H. F. Staple, publisher of the Atchison County Mail against Charles Traup.

When a bill was sent Traup for sixteen years' subscription to the Mail he refused to pay it, asserting that he had refused to take the paper from the post office and mail box a number of times. The plaintiff proved by postmasters and others that Traup did take the paper during all of the sixteen years.

It was shown that even if a subscriber does occasionally order a newspaper discontinued or refuse to accept it, he cannot get out of paying for what he owes the paper, and must pay the arrearage before stopping the paper.

The jury was only out a short time and brought in a verdict for the entire account—sixteen years' subscription at $150 a year, or $2400. The costs in the justice court amounted to $100, besides the attorney's fees.

A similar case has been decided by the Court of Appeals, where it was held that anyone taking a newspaper must pay for it as long as he takes it from the post office.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO HANDLING OF COAL

Reports just completed by the Railroads' War Board show that the railroads of the country, in their co-operative effort to realize in the interest of National defense the minimum of transportation efficiency, have already effected an extraordinary improvement in the amount of coal handled.

As its first important official act, the Railroads' War Board directed that railroads should give preference to the movement of coal. The Board announced April 26th, as a reason for this ruling, that "The welfare of the Nation and the Nation's defense are absolutely dependent upon an adequate supply of coal for all purposes."

In this emergency when the railroads are making the utmost effort to give the maximum freight service, it is gratifying to the Railroads' War Board to be able to report the fine co-operation they are receiving from regulating bodies and shippers in all parts of the country.

IN THE WEB OF GERMAN INTRIGUE

Ambassador James Watson Gerard was the spider in the web of German court intrigue for a long time before the United States broke with Kaiser Wilhelm's government. Germany plotted against the United States then. Germany paid little attention to the United States' protests against her war of ruthlessness.

But now the people are to know. Ambassador Gerard is to reveal the whole diabolical plot.

Since his return from Germany he has been at work on a story covering his experiences with the German court. Every big publisher in the United States has been bidding for this story. The rights have been obtained by the Philadelphia Public Ledger and The Star-Telegram has obtained the rights for this territory.

Ambassador Gerard's thrilling story will be told in daily installments in The Star-Telegram beginning August 6th.

(On account of the print paper shortage the Star-Telegram regrets to announce that it will be impossible to accept subscriptions from all who wish to take the paper in order to read this most remarkable of all war documents. Regular subscribers are therefore urged to carefully save the copies containing these articles and pass them on to their neighbors.)

Regardless of whether you think a mistake was made in the locating of the West Texas A. & M. at Abilene with its attendant mysteries, three is one matter difficult to explain. It is hard to conceive why the people of Abilene, elated though they are over their success, are willing to accept the school with a cloud on its title. If the title is clear, then there is nothing to be lost by joining with others in asking the reassembly of the board and a canvas of the vote, or even another vote. That would be an extremely fair proposition and would dispel all other claims of fraud, and should it be found that Abilene did not win the school, even Abilene ought to join in seeing that the will of a representative board be carried out. What we think, personally, of the matter does not alter the shape of the controversy and Abilene or any other West Texas town ought to win the school in a manner without question. For the prospects of the school in the years to come this matter ought to be settled fairly, squarely and for all time.

It is a genuine pleasure for The News to reproduce the telegram from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram on the first page, announcing that Donley county had executed her quota for the army by fifteen men and for the present would not be liable for any more men. It is very probable that those drawn will have to appear before the exemption board for physical examination just the same, for the government intends to collect all available statistics and data for further use should necessity demand it. In an agricultural and stock raising section like this we need our young men and since we have already done our part, our best wish is that the war may close so speedily that the government will not need to ask us for any more recruits.

This editor believes in frankness. Since that is the case he ought to practice frankness. In all candor we frankly state that in spite of the hard work and discomforts of moving into a new place and getting acquainted, we are more than pleased with Clarendon and her good people. Since we have cast our lot among you we want to become a part of you as speedily as we can. Personally, and in the conduct of The News we want to be of service to Clarendon as a city, Donley County as a whole and each citizen as individuals. We like you and hope that the milk of human kindness wells up strong enough in your hearts to make you like us.

The new editor of the Clarendon News received this week a very pleasing letter of welcome to this part of the state from our good friend, Jesse Adams, successful publisher of The Plainview News. We are happy to be numbered one of the Northwest Texas Press and sincerely aim to be of service to this section of the state. Thanks for the welcome, Jesse.

If Donley County gets credit for credit for all those who have volunteered from her borders the selective draft will get very few of our boys. There is no county in Texas with so small a population who can boast of such a record. It's a proud tribute to the patriotism of our people and a legend worthy of transmission to succeeding generations.

Several of our contemporaries issued extra editions Saturday with the lists of those drawn in the selective draft at Washington. The News issued a small sheet carrying those drawn up to 4,500 which practically covers all from Donley County.

Another thing we like about Clarendon is the regular daily clean-up by the garbage man. It's sanitary and is the surest sign of a high state of citizenship.

Acknowledgement is hereby made to Mr. J. M. Warren, the former owner of The Clarendon News, and his estimable family for the kind assistance rendered in getting us acquainted with the citizenship and other services in taking hold of the reins of the office. They didn't have to do it, but they did it willingly and voluntarily.

When you read The News act just as if you were eating at a friends table. You eat what you like and courteously push back what you don't care for. Read what you find and forget what you don't like. That's fair, for what you don't like some one else may enjoy, and vice versa.

Quanah is just as proud of the Tex-O-Kan highway which may be destined to become a military road to the border, as Clarendon is of the Ozark Trail. There is glory enough for all of us in this great Northwest and we congratulate Quanah upon its success.

SIGNIFICANT AERIAL ATTACK.

New York Evening Post: At last the allies have done the thing that has been obviously crying to be done, if they wanted to detach Turkey from Germany. They have made an air raid on Constantinople and attempted to destroy the German cruiser Goben. The Turkish capital is a fortified city if there ever was one. It is the fortress of the German-Turkish alliance, because, in the harbor of Stenia, a little way up the Bosphorus, lies the German battle cruiser Goben, which figured so largely in bringing Turkey into the war, and which at present constitutes one of the mainstays of the Teutons in the Ottoman empire. The Goben holds the city of Constantinople under its guns. These guns hold a shell for every public building and they are the only big guns in the vicinity. In the face of this menace Turkish statesmen who regard their city with its noble monuments as essential to the Empire must remain true to their Teutonic connection. It is not beyond the range of possibility that the entente planes have smashed the Goben, although this would be doing rather well for the first try. The Germans have only a few flyers near by at San Stefano. With these they have frustrated however, the Russians' weekly attempts to bomb the Derkos waterworks, upon which the city depends for its supply. The British are not much over a hundred miles from the Goben, on the islands at the mouth of the Dardenelles. If they did not succeed this time, they may the next. It should be a case of try, try, try again.

GERMAN RUSHES AT FRENCH LINE FAIL WITH LOSS.

On the French Front, Tuesday, July 24.—The furious attack of the Germans along the Chemin des Dames sector of the Aisne front has brought them nothing but death and complete failure of their plans to obtain possession of the rights of the ridge and the observation places.

At daybreak today the French launched a counter-attack with such vigor that they turned the Germans out of the few hundred yards of trenches they had succeeded in occupying in the first onset and pushed them back to their old lines.

The California plateau was the scene of the most furious fighting. Germans who gained a footing there at the beginning of the offensive were driven out everywhere except at one small point, which is of small importance. At almost every point the French compelled the retirement of the Germans who attempted to organize the territory they had gained.

The artillery tonight is at work most vigorously. The front line is almost as light as day from the flashes of shells.

It is charged that the patriotism of some of our "big business" heads begins in one pocket and ends in the other.—Hedley Informer.

It has been our observation that "big business" is just about as patriotic, just about as good, and just about as mean as just plain folks. It's reasonable, too, because "big business" is conducted by men—and men are about the same the world over.

However, we note with anything but pleasure, that the University of Texas alumni are sending the page display ads to the big dailies and the free plate to the country papers.—Floyd County Hesperian.

It was ever thus. They knew the righteousness of their cause would appeal to the country editor, who is too ready to give space without the cash. No set of people under the sun render as much service "pro bono publico" as the country newspaper man, or gets less cash for it.

It is said that a certain minister of the gospel took into his pulpit in Texico last Sunday a broad-ax that cut like a two-edged sword; that he used it with a vigor characteristic of that divine, and didn't seem to give a picayune where the chips fell.—State Line Tribune (Farwell).

Hats off to that style of a minister. A minister or a newspaper who doesn't occasionally stir up things has very little influence. A positive stand for the right never fails to bring a yelp from some quarter. Give us more straight shooting and more yelps.

Sam Braswell has sold the Venus Express to George W. Bowman of Godley and J. W. Gay has been placed in charge. Thanks for your kind wishes, Sam. Drop by to see us, and if Joe Warren won't take you out hunting we'll "hunt" for him.

The average girl nowadays shys from a buggy like the average tramp does from a bath. The young men of today have a poor chance of entering into the realms of matrimony unless they possess an automobile.—Kirklind American.

And yet the automobile doesn't offer half the facilities for courtship as does the h. m. t. buggy. Shady lanes, dropped lines, browsing horse, sweet whispers and entwined arms are no more. The dash, the roar and the swirl of dust following the car have beclouded the sweet realities of romance. Nor is the world richer.

The Coleman city council has adopted an ordinance prohibiting carnival companies from showing in that town. Let's see, wasn't it the Plainview News that made the first fight against carnivals? Quite a number of towns in West Texas have since outlawed them.—Plainview News.

A good case in point. Carnivals are not town builders. They are town demoralizers. Practically every town now has a picture show of sufficient class to afford ample amusement for its citizenship. Occasional tent shows are bad enough, but there is no argument for the existence of the usual riff-raff carnival. We hope they pass Clarendon by.

For ages military authorities have looked upon the tall soldier as the ideal fighting man, but it was up to the United States authorities to determine the fact that a runt can fire a gun just as well as a giant and has the advantage of not being such an easy target to hit. Hereafter men not over five feet one inch, and weighing 110 pounds are going to be accepted into Uncle Sam's army, and we predict that a number of these lightweight will be classed among the best soldiers of the army.—Quanah Tribune-Chief.

A small American trooper is about the average of many European soldiers in size. Americans, large and small, cannot be equalled in dash and cool courage. They make a specialty of shooting straight and always look where they are shooting. Give the lightweights a chance.

Many of the West Texas towns are dissatisfied with the way Abilene was chosen for the location for the West Texas A. & M. College. The day delegates from these towns held their indignation meeting at Sweetwater the governor gave out a statement to the effect that he was chairman of the locating board, that there would be no further meetings of the board and that everything was already settled. Governor Jim several months ago said he was governor and didn't have to make explanations. He's right, too; ask Spur, Crosbyton, Ralls, Goodnight and Clarendon—or Floydada.—Floyd County Hesperian.

THE PORK SITUATION IN TEXAS.

Every few years Texas has experienced a crisis in pork production which caused a large number of farmers to "cash in" on all breeding stock and quit the business.

This has formerly been caused by periods of low prices coincident with drought conditions. We are now faced with one of the worst droughts in our history. Added to this, is the probable inability to buy corn and other grains from other sections, on account of the need of feeding armies. Along with this, has come the highest prices in history, which with the high feed prices, has induced farmers to ship everything that could find a classification on a packer's market. To determine whether farmers are quitting the business, we have but to examine market statistics showing that although last year the Fort Worth market had the largest receipts ever; the first six months of this season has seen an increase of over 130,000 hogs on the Fort Worth market.

There is a danger in the industry due to the shipping in of brood sows and small pigs, which fact is evident from an inspection of the Fort Worth market receipts.

The production in large numbers of straight corn-fed hogs for the Fort Worth market seems to be a thing of the past. Farmers have found that by using pasture crops and the more drought-resistant grain crops, such as peanuts, that the hog business is placed on a more stable foundation. The packers have found however, that peanut fed pork kills out "soft" and they have been inclined to encourage the production of peanut pork by heavy penalties in the way of a two-cent reduction in price. Since packers threaten even a heavier dockage for peanut fed hogs, there seems to be almost two irresistible forces working against each other. To disinterested parties, this situation is one which seems to call for a getting together of both sides for wise counsel before an industry is crippled.

If history is to repeat itself, the next few years will be a good time to be in the hog business because of the sacrifice in these abnormal times, of the breeding stock. Every effort should be made to keep a sufficient number of the best breeding sows. For a cheap maintenance of this stock, thought should be given now to winter pastures in order that they may be carried through to the next period of normal feed supply without costing more than they are worth.

CALLS SPECIAL SESSION TO IMPEACH GOVERNOR

Houston, Texas, July 23.—In addition to issuing the formal call for the house to consider impeachment of Governor James E. Ferguson on numerous grounds, including his alleged actions with reference to the University of Texas, Speaker Fuller has made affidavit to the fact that Governor Ferguson deceived him in the West Texas A. & M. matter while Lieutenant Governor W. P. Hobby has made an affidavit to the same effect.

Houston, Texas, July 23.—F. O. Fuller, speaker of the house of representatives, today issued this call—To the Members of the House of Representatives:

The people of Texas, by Article VXX of the constitution of this state, provided for the establishment, maintenance and support of a university of the first class to be known as the University of Texas. This is expressed the will of the people of this state and until recently no one denied the right of the sovereign people to have such a university. The constitution further provided, by the amendment of 1912, known as Section 30-A of Article 16 for a board of regents who should hold their respective terms for six years each.

By Articles 2639 and 2640 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1909, the board of regents are given the management of the affairs and control of the University of Texas with the right to remove the members of the faculty when in their judgment it is deemed advisable.

Terms of Regents.

Article 6027 provides for the removal of the board of regents, among other officers, for "good and sufficient" cause. The Thirty-fifth legislature passed an appropriation, which in their judgment, was necessary for the support and maintenance of the University of Texas.

The governor has at no time advised the legislature that he considered the proposition excessive or improper, but has made some objection publicly to what he considers its misuse, and he has vetoed the entire appropriation, except one salary of $3,500 per annum. The University of Texas cannot be maintained and supported on the support of one man, and no deficiency can be used on such an item. The attorney general has held that the veto was not effective, but before a test of that action can be had in the court the fall term of the University will be passed, and the governor has declared that the University of Texas will not open its doors until every member of the faculty to whom he objects has been expelled.

Charges Made by Ferguson.

He has charged the faculty, generally, of being grafters, liars and traitors, and, in my judgment, without reason. He has sought to substitute his own will for the judgment of the board of regents, demanding of them that members of the faculty be discharged even without a hearing, thus seeking to override the law. He has removed members of the board of regents without good and sufficient cause in order to appoint someone who will carry out his own wishes, and has sought to substitute only his unbridled will in place of their lawful judgment. By section 28 of the Bill of Rights no power of suspending laws is lodged in the governor. But he has sought to suspend them and have them set aside to suit his own pleasure.

West Texas A. & M.

The Legislature provided for a committee to locate an A. & M. College. When the committee met three votes were announced for Abilene, when only two were cast for Abilene, according to affidavits filed. When the members of the five of the board called for a reconvening and a recount, the governor stood alone against it.

Finally a statement was given out by the members of the board. That statement was based upon absolute misrepresentation by the governor to at least two members of the committee who would not otherwise have signed. If the governor was not guilty of fraud in the original meeting to locate this school, his acts in refusing to reconvene the committee are a fraud upon the people of Texas, and upon the committee.

During the investigation by the legislature of the governor's acts he testified that he would refund the money to the state which he had taken without lawful authority, in case the court so decided. He has failed to do so, and the courts have long ago decided against his contention.

Realizes Gravity of Charges.

I realize that these are previous charges against the governor; but I realize also that they mean more to the people of Texas than to any individual.

The people of this state have a right to have their university maintained, the West Texas A. & M. located without a suspicion of fraud or corruption, their treasury protected by their representatives and their laws honestly enforced without fear or favor; and all good citizens should see to it that the rights of the public are protected.

Meet August 1.

Owing to the seriousness of charges that are here made and other charges which I am assured will be filed, as the presiding officer of the House of Representatives, I hereby call the House of Representatives to meet in session in its hall in Austin, Texas, on the first day of August, 1917, at 12 o'clock, noon, to consider whether or not the House of Representatives will present a bill of impeachment against the governor of Texas; the charges to be thereafter tried by the Texas Senate.

F. O. FULLER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
July 23, 1917.

DO YOU OWE US? DO WE OWE YOU?

TWO AUTOMOBILES BURN AS HOUSE IS DESTROYED.
Two automobiles were burned probably beyond repair and two or three outhouses were badly damaged in a fire which had its inception in an outhouse at the rear of the 900 block on Polk street at noon Wednesday. The origin of the fire is unknown, for when discovered the outhouse used for a garage at the J. D. Thompson place was almost entirely enveloped. Both the Central and Sixteenth street station fire departments responded to the alarm. The total loss including autos, may reach $1,500.
Fire Chief Bank Jones figured the loss to the R. B. Newcomb garage at $35, mostly the roof and south wall, and $400 to the J. D. Thompson barn just to the south. The garage of Buck Owens across the alley was damaged somewhat, and a corrugated iron building just south of the Thompson garage, owned by Mr. Thompson was damaged slightly.
The two autos which were in the building in which the fire originated belonged to J. D. Fine, a traveling salesman. One of the cars was a Chevrolet and the other was a Ford. Both of these cars were badly burned.
When the fire was burning briskly the electric transmission wires in the alley were burned through and dropped to the ground over the whole alley. It was with difficulty that officers kept lads and others out of the alley.
It was stated that practically no insurance was carried on the burned structures. Whether the autos were insured could not be learned. The fire was put under control shortly after the fire companies arrived.—Amarillo Daily News.
CHILDRESS BUYS PHONOGRAPH FOR COMPANY C.
Monday J. H. Owen had on exhibition the special army Edison phonograph that he ordered for Co. C, and was trying it out. It is a special machine built by the Edison people for use in the army and is sold at less than cost of manufacture. Owen ordered it by express and let the boys have it for less than cost also. While the machine is built in a rough, strong case to withstand the rough usage of army life, it has all the fine qualities of the regular Edison Diamond Disc machine and plays just as well.
Best Leslie and Albert Hilliard carried around a list one day and soon collected the $55 required to pay for this splendid machine. It is donated to the boys of Co. C as a token of appreciation from their many friends in Childress and with the hope that it will serve to enliven many a dull day in camp that lies before them.
Right here The Post would suggest that anyone who would like to donate a record, a new one that may be purchased at Mr. Owens' or one that they have used, and which is in good condition, can add much to the value of this gift, as the more records sent along with it the greater the diversion. If you care to aid in this way send the record to Mr. Owen at once or to Captain Drake.—Childress Post.

Afraid of Work

If you are afraid of honest labor, unless you are unusually fortunate, you have a hard row ahead of you.
Success comes to the man who is willing to work; who buckles down to the task at hand until something better comes along. It comes to the man who does not shy a pair of bib overalls. Who doesn't have a fit if his hands are not soft and white. It comes to the fellow who has grit enough to do even a little more than he is paid for doing. That's the kind of fellows who go higher. These traits combined with the saving habit in some good bank will surely open the door of success in time; possibly slow but nevertheless sure.

NEED NOT GO HOME FOR EXAMINATION.

Persons subject to early call by their respective exemption boards for physical examination, in the next step in selecting the first increment of the new national army need not return to their original districts for such examinations if they will be elsewhere at the same time such examinations are held. In such cases application should be made to the board having jurisdiction over the district in which such persons registered, for a transfer to the board in whose district they will be at the time the examinations will be given and exemption claims heard.
The information was given out yesterday by local exemption boards in response to many inquiries on that point. Many persons, whose numbers are near the top of the list have gone elsewhere or will be out of the city for some time at about the time they should appear for examination. Many are in distant states.
Thus, if a person who registered in the South Dallas District is now living in Chicago, or some other distant point at the time he probably would be examined, he should make application to the South Dallas board for a transfer to the board having jurisdiction over the section of Chicago in which he now resides or will be temporarily at that time.
Such applications for transfers will be granted just as soon as the local boards receive a supply of the proper printed forms furnished by the War Department for making transfers. Persons who will be in large cities, that is, cities of 30,000 population, or over, where there are separate exemption boards for the city, should give their street addresses in making application for transfers. When the transfers are granted they will be mailed direct to the mayors of such cities by the boards granting the exemptions, and the mayors, with the street addresses as guides, will refer the transfers to the proper board. In cities and towns of less than 30,000 where the county exemption boards have full jurisdiction, the transfers will be mailed direct to the county boards.

A PERSONAL WORD TO FRIENDS

I have tendered my resignation to the Farmers' State Bank, of Clarendon, after some five years active service as cashier and have accepted the position as cashier of the Tulla Bank & Trust Co., of Tulla, Texas, at which place my address will be after August 1.
And I wish to thank my friends and patrons for their loyal support and kindness to me and mine during our stay in Clarendon.
Yours very truly,

TYPHOID VACCINE
IMMUNIZING TREATMENT

Typhoid vaccine is harmless. It causes no open sore as does vaccination against smallpox. As a rule it scarcely causes discomfort.
If you have been vaccinated against smallpox you should be vaccinated against typhoid fever, for in this country typhoid fever has become more prevalent and even more fatal than smallpox.
We have a supply of the genuine anti-typhoid vaccine. It is not expensive.
Ask your family doctor to tell you of the wonderful way in which nature responds to the treatment, making your body germ-proof, and of the remarkable statistics collected by the United States Government proving the value of vaccination against typhoid fever.
Typhoid vaccine is sold to and administered only by physicians.
You owe it to yourself and your family to consult your doctor at once before leaving for your vacation.

NEW LAW ON THE KILLING OF ANTELOPE IN TEXAS

The Thirty-fifth Legislature passed a new law, or rather an amendment to an old law, on the killing of antelope and Rocky Mountain goats or sheep, which will prove of general interest, and possibly be worth some thing to the people of Donley county and West Texas in general. The provision of this act, as amended, reads: "It shall be unlawful for any person to kill, take or destroy any wild antelope or Rocky Mountain sheep or Rocky Mountain goat for the space of twenty-five years, and any person violating the provisions

HOW GUARDSMEN IN TRAINING WILL LIVE

No Visitors to Be Received After Taps—Are Welcome At All Other Times

The following is taken from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram relative to soldier life at Camp Bowie, located in that city:

Although no regulations will be made for the conduct of Camp Bowie until the camp is established here, local militia commanders expect it will adopt rules much similar to those in use at other army posts.

The full 30,000 soldiers, if that many come here, will not be allowed to come to town whenever they choose. Only 5 per cent will be permitted to visit the city each night. But the 1,500 will give the town plenty to do in entertaining them.

All soldiers must be back at camp by 9:45.

During the day it is expected strict hours will be kept at the camp as thousands of the troops will be "rookies" and thousands of others but little better trained, and the army executives expect to keep the men constantly drilling.

After reveille and breakfast the maneuvers will start, beginning with the simple manual of arms, then squad, platoon and company drills. Later on battalion and regimental drills will take place if there is room. It is not expected that larger units than a regiment can be put through maneuvers. Each company in field artillery, cavalry and infantry will probably hold a daily school of instruction besides the drill, so by the time the rookie is through with his work he will be more ready for his cot than a big time down town.

Study French at Night

At night, if plans are carried out, there will be classes at camp for the instruction in French, for the troops expect to go to France and already are trying to get a smattering of the language. If the army has not enough French experts to teach, civilians will be called upon.

There will be one hour's rest at noon, after which will come drills until 4 or 4:30. The camp grounds will be large enough for company drills, but larger units may have to be taken northwest of the road, beyond Lake Como, for plenty of space is needed for skirmishing. After the men are well trained and efficient in the usual drills, long hikes and mimic trench warfare will come. The soldier will be given his rifle, cartridge belt and fifty-pound pack to carry through the hot sun for ten miles. This will be increased to twelve, twenty and twenty-five miles gradually, so that he will become hardened to the work.

Will Welcome Visitors

Visitors, it is expected, will likely be allowed at the camp any time, except after taps, of course. They will not be allowed to crowd the camp streets or in any way hinder movements, but Fort Worth and Texas people will have no trouble in watching the maneuvers or seeing relatives and friends at the camp. No one will be allowed to visit the camp after taps at 10 o'clock.

But there will be plenty of interest at Camp Bowie besides the drilling. How and what the soldier eats, where he eats, how it is cooked, how he cares for his tent and how he sleeps will be a novelty to most people. The mess halls, of which there will be 250, will have kitchen and dining room. Food will be brought daily in wholesale quantities to the camp and unloaded at each hall. Whole bees, hogs and sheep, crates of vegetables, barrels of coffee, big boxes of bacon and buckets of butter will be delivered, prepared and eaten in the course of one day. The soldier at mess-call lines up with his mess kit in hand, consisting of plate, lid and cup. The lid is an auxiliary dish and the whole can be folded compactly. The cook and his assistants fill the plate and lid with meat and vegetables as they pass, besides filling his cup. Then he takes his seat.

Usually he is his own dishwasher, and immediately after eating dips his utensils into tubs of boiling water and scours and cleans. No dirty kits will be permitted any more than dirty guns.

Discipline Outside Camp

When away from camp discipline is relaxed in a great measure, but the men will not be allowed to forget they are soldiers. They can go and do what they please—only they must not make trouble for the civilian authorities, they must not drink, they must not gamble, they must not visit places of ill repute, they must salute superiors and conduct themselves as gentlemen.

While at work the soldier is not expected to salute an officer, and if one is across the street from the other the salute is foregone. It is a military etiquette that when an officer enters a tent or house where an enlisted man is, the latter shall rise with hat off until the officer acknowledges him.

Guard mount and retreat are the two most interesting events at any camp. The public is more or less familiar with "retreat." It comes at sundown, and as the buglers begin their call every soldier, no matter in what part of the camp he is, turns and faces the colors, standing at salute until the bugles cease and the flag is lowered. Civilians will be expected to honor the flag in the same way.

The soldier at Camp Bowie will make his own bed. His bed consists of a cot and two heavy woolen blankets. There is no pillow. Therefore the "making" is a simple procedure. He will sleep with the sides of the tent folded up so that he can get plenty of fresh air. When on a hike or campaign no cots are used, the trooper finding the softest piece of ground, where he stays for the night.

"Policing" the Camp

The "police" of the camp are not like the police of the city. Policing the camp means cleaning it every day of all trash, rubbish and scraps until it is as clean as "spotless town." The different commands have their turn at policing. Usually the soldiers go in squads over the ground, picking up every piece of paper and every stick they can find.

The camp police do not make arrests. Each soldier will have in his tent two pairs of trousers, two shirts and one coat, his socks, shoes, underclothes and hat, gun, pack and poncho. But besides this he has a "housewife," which will contain needles and thread, mirror, buttons, thimble, scissors, razor, shaving mug and tooth brush. This completes the guardsman's outfit. It he carries any more he is burdening himself and usually officers do not let him have more than this. What burdens one will burden a whole company.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION BY HOUSTON CHURCH

Resolutions Adopted by Church in Houston When Rev. Burton Leaves for Clarendon

This is not an ordinary resolution; the relations referred to herein are too dear to us for a cold and formal resolution common in churches and similar assemblies; it is a sacred one.

Inasmuch as our pastor has just resigned and he and his family have moved from our church and city, we desire to express our sincere appreciation of their services, and our regrets at his going.

Bro. Burton is a zealous preacher, a faithful and efficient pastor, possesses the shepherd heart and needs no further recommendation.

Mrs. Burton is quiet and gentle, not saying much, but her few words and beautiful life rendered a wholesome and telling influence on our church and community.

They shall be missed by the boys and girls on the streets, by the sorrowing in their homes, by the Sunday congregations, but most of all, they will be missed by us who knew them best.

Going with them their baby boy, Howard Avery, will leave a vacancy that will be hard to fill.

To know them is to love them. There is one scripture that stands out above all others now: "What I do thou knowest not now, but shall know hereafter."

Based alone on the fact that they have answered the call of the other church and have taken their departure, we believe this is the will of God. While we are sad for a little while, we pray the divine blessings upon them in their new field.

Therefore, be it resolved that a copy of this resolution be placed upon our minutes, a copy be sent to the local papers and one to The Clarendon News.

AUTO NUMBERS CANNOT BE TAKEN FROM CARS

Owners of autos bearing state registration numbers selling their cars lose all right to the old number, the right to the use of the number remaining with the car sold. It cannot be taken off and placed on another car. If the car burns the owner loses the fee he has paid out for his license and cannot apply it on another car. Such is the holding of the secretary of the state highway commission. The following agent the matter has been received here locally for information of autoists:

When an automobile has been registered with the state highway commission and number issued no refund of the registration fee can be obtained.

"The number passes with the car if it goes into the hands of another owner," says D. E. Colp, secretary of the commission. "Should the car be destroyed the number is destroyed also and the registration fee paid for the current year goes into the scrap heap.

"When a car owner sells a car the number may be made a part of the consideration, but in any event it passes with the car or else becomes an absolute loss. The highway department provides a blank form on each registration certificate for transfer of the number when a car is passed to new ownership. Such transfer certificate, after being properly filled out, should be sent to the state highway department with $1 for transfer fee and a new registration certificate will be issued."

SAYS TANLAC SAVED HIM FROM THE GRAVE

Father of Sixteen Thought End Was Near and Told Wife to Put the Children in Odd Fellows Home When He Died

What is probably the most remarkable endorsement ever given a proprietary medicine was the statement made recently by H. J. Williams, a coal miner at the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co., mine No. 8, near Fairfield, Ala., in the Birmingham district.

The story of his wonderful restoration to health was told in his own words, and is profoundly interesting. His statement follows:

"I am the father of sixteen children, eight living and eight dead. I came to Birmingham from East Tennessee, and have followed mining for a good many years.

"About two years ago I took sick. The doctors at first thought I had tapeworm, then hookworm and finally decided it was pellagra. I took treatment from a well-known Alabama palsy 'cure,' but got no benefit. The doctors finally told me they couldn't do me any good, and I quit going to see them.

"I suffered from a sort of numb feeling all the time in my back, and was dizzy-headed. I couldn't stoop over, or stand on my feet for any length of time, and I couldn't hardly eat anything and nothing tasted good. In fact I was slowly starving to death.

"I lost all my strength and fell off forty-five pounds in weight. I used to weigh when I was well one hundred thirty-three pounds, and got down to where I only weighed ninety pounds, and was almost a walking skeleton.

"I finally decided that there was no more hope for me in this life, and I gave my ring to my wife and told her to put the children in the Odd Fellows' home when I died.

"This is just the shap I was in when, one day my little daughter said: 'Papa, why don't you try that new medicine everybody is talking about?' It has helped so many people, it might help you. Of course I had no faith in anything, but just to please the family, I made one more trial and got this Tanlac. May the good Lord bless the day I got this medicine, for it was my salvation.

"I got relief from the first bottle, and I began to eat and pick up right from the start. I am now on my fifth bottle, and have actually gained back twenty-five pounds, and now weigh one hundred fifteen. It just looked like the more I took the better I got, and I keep on picking up every day.

"I went over to the mine yesterday and made arrangements to go back to work. I am strong enough to walk around wherever I want to go, something I have not been able to do for over a year, and that is a fact. Tanlac 'mighty nigh' raised me from the dead, that's what it has done for me. If you don't believe what I have told you, just ask any of the men around mine No. 8, and they will all tell you the fix I was in, and how much better off I am now.

"Thank God, I will soon be able to earn a living for my family, and I will owe it all to this medicine, Tanlac. I have just written to a daughter of mine at LaFollette, Tenn., who needs a medicine like this, and I want her to take it and get well.

"I don't believe now I ever had pellagra, because I never did have any breaking out of any kind. I don't believe I had hookworm either, but whatever it was, this Tanlac has certainly fixed me. I don't reckon there was ever a medicine on earth like Tanlac. I will always bless the day I bought this medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Clarendon by Dr. J. D. Stocking, in Hedley by J. F. Tomlinson Drug Co., and in Jericho by O. C. Brown.

Ross Anthony, who is attending the officers' training camp at Leon Springs, was in town Monday and Tuesday to visit home folks. He reports to Camp Funston again the 26th inst., from which place he will be sent with a detachment of twenty-five men to Toronto, Canada, to attend the Royal Flying School. He will probably remain there in training as an aircraft pilot for about six months.

CONFISCATE 208,000 EGGS UNFIT TO EAT

More than 208,000 dozen eggs have been confiscated in Texas in slightly less than a month and destroyed as unfit for human consumption, 1,140 dozen being confiscated in Dallas Wednesday and yesterday. D. F. Fisher, Federal Food and Drug Inspector, and W. H. Minton, Deputy Commissioner of the State Food and Drug Department, announced last night. Mr. Fisher and Dr. Minton have completed a round of inspection of the central egg concentration points of Texas. Last night they finished their investigation of egg stocks held in Dallas cold storage plants, commission houses and other dealers' storage plants.

"The main reason for this wholesale sacrifice of food is that Texas farmers will not adopt methods of producing infertile eggs," Dr. Minton said.

"Unlimited information dealing with the method of producing infertile eggs which will keep in good condition indefinitely if properly stored, has been disseminated over the state to farmers, but the supply of fertile eggs, the germs of which soon render them unfit for human food, has not been appreciably diminished. Most Texas farmers underrate the importance of their hens and consequently refuse to take heed of advice designed to improve the quality of the eggs produced. The roosters are allowed to mix with the chickens throughout the year and eggs are indiscriminately sold to the country merchants. Usually these men keep them in hot rooms until they have assembled several crates, at which time, a week or more after they are laid, they are sold to commission men and cold storage plants. The week of exposure to heat tends to incubate the egg germ and it grows and develops into what is known as a hatch spot, and very frequently into a blood ring, indicating that the germ advanced in its development quite far before dying. The blood ring disqualifies an egg for classification as No. 2, although we discovered numerous instances that this class of egg was being sold as a No. 2 egg," Dr. Minton said.

Other classes of eggs cased up for sale with No. 2 are added, part were moldy and some had partial rot. These were always confiscated and in many instances the holders thereof were fined. In Fort Worth 2,480 dozen eggs were confiscated and destroyed.

A No. 2 egg may be heated, have a heavy yolk, be shrunken, have an enlarged air space, be stale, be small and offsize, have partial cracks, may show a very small hatch spot due to incubation, but not sufficient to show a blood ring, or may be a watery or weak egg. These defects are not deemed sufficient to render the egg unfit for human consumption.

Many cases of cracked eggs and eggs which had undergone a period of decomposition and putrefaction due to heat and incubation were discovered throughout the state, Dr. Minton said.

If Texas farmers should adopt the practice of Kansas farmers of raising infertile eggs, they would find a much more ready market for their product and obtain better prices, Dr. Minton said.

HALF OF AUTO FEES FOR HOME ROAD USE

Austin, Texas July 20.—The Attorney General's department has rendered an opinion to the State Highway Department that the one-half of the registration fees remitted by the State Highway Department to the respective counties is to be expended by the counties upon highways of the counties, after the submission to and approval by the State Highway Commission of the plans of the contemplated expenditures.

To the commissioners' courts of the various counties is given the direction and control of the expenditures of the fund, but in such expenditures they are limited by the further provision of the act, that the same must be upon plans approved by the Highway Department. "Any other interpretation of this section of the act would be to defeat the general scheme and purpose of the same to-wit: A co-ordinated system of highways, together with the local and market roads leading thereto," says the opinion.

"This allotment from the State Highway Department does not become a part of the general county road and bridge fund, but remains as a special fund, to be expended in the manner set out by the act creating same. When the Commissioners' Court desires to make an expenditure from this fund they should designate the roads, the character of maintenance desired and submit the plans in detail to the State Highway Department and upon their approval or disapproval would depend the right of the Commissioners' Court to proceed with the work."

FARMERS OF PANHANDLE WILL MEET IN AMARILLO

The Panhandle Farm Congress will be held in Amarillo September 12-14-15 under the auspices of the agricultural bureau of the Amarillo Board of City Development. Ford Brøndenburg is chairman. The committee are: Jas. Logue, Claude; D. H. Park, Canyon; O. H. Loyd, Vega; William T. Dudgeon, Amarillo.

The congress will have the cooperation of the State Department of Agriculture under Commissioner Fred W. Davis. This department has announced that it will furnish a line of speakers for the main portion of the program. It has assigned D. C. Dove, rural agricultural extensionist, to spend three days in the Panhandle territory to attend farmers' institutes and meetings to urge delegations to attend the congress in this city.

At the congress Fred W. Davis will be present, together with Miss Margaret Landrum, state domestic science commissioner. The entertainment features of the congress include a barbecue and picnic to be conducted at Chalk Hollow on the Palo Duro canyon.

Details are now being worked out for the congress. Dairying and poultry raising will be stressed. Out of state speakers will include Hon. John Fields, Oklahoma City, who is editor of the Oklahoma Farmer, and considered one of the best informed speakers on sorghum grains. One of the special features will be the domestic science department.

STICK, YOU SON-OF-A-GUN

When you take a riding course Aboard a bucking horse, And you're thrown on the count of one, Don't get up and go away— Climb on again and stay— Just stick, you son-of-a-gun.

When you're drilling on parade And your muscles all seem frayed, And your rifle is weighing a ton, Don't fall out, my son, and quit— Just you do your little bit— Just stick, you son-of-a-gun.

When you're on a gruelling march And your backbone's lost its starch, And you're wanting to chuck your gun, Grit your teeth and keep right on— That's the way that fights are won— Just stick, you son-of-a-gun.

When you're on the battle line, Amid the shrapnel whine, And you're feeling you'd like to run, Just remember, son, and wait: Shake hands with Old Man Fate— Just stick, you son-of-a-gun.

When you're charging at a trench, With your nostrils full of stench, A'cutting and a'slashing at a Hun, If the Prussians seem the stronger, Make your bayonet a little longer— Just stick, you son-of-a-gun.

When you're wounded on the wire, And the sun is mounting higher, And you say to God, "I bet That I ain't a dead one yet!"— Just stick, you son-of-a-gun. Basil Dillon Woon.

Ship me west of Kansas City And considerable south Saddle up my western mustang Put a snaffle in his mouth. Let me ride those balmy prairies Where the air is pure and bright. 'Round the ranch house on the mesa With its cow boy's song at night. I am longing for West Texas, Where the world is big and clean; For its distant frowning hillsides And the valleys in between. I can see those broad plateaus Where irrigation reigns; I can see the wheat a waving In the breezes of the plains. Yes, a ticket please, for Texas; With its valleys and its hills; With its cactus and mesquite I'd forget all other ills. For I've drunk the river water And I'm "alkalied" for fair; I'm a longhorn pure and simple And I belong right there. I love the state of Texas With its fields of wheat and corn; I love the Texas sunset And the Texas dewey morn And, speaking metaphoric, I grow fat on Texas crops, And never mind the absence Of the yield of rye and hops. I like the Texas porker And the Texas top-notch steer, I like the Texas zephyrs And the Texas atmosphere— I like the Texas spirit And I like the Texas jokes, But the greatest Texas product Is Panhandle style of folks. —Selected.

THE LESSON OF THE CRISIS.

New York World: There is no Government in Germany except a military dictatorship for which Ludendorff furnishes the brains and Hindenburg the popularity and prestige.

The Reichstag does not count. The Chancellor does not count. The ministers do not count. The Kaiser himself is more or less a figurehead.

Germany is divided into military districts, each ruled over by a General who makes his own laws. Only such civil acts and ordinances are in force as he permits to remain in force, and his responsibility is to the General Staff alone.

From the day that the military autocracy decreed this war, the civil authority has been a rubber stamp. German diplomacy is the creature of the autocracy, and its blunders have been military blunders.

Whether the Chancellor is Bethmann-Holweg, whether the Foreign Minister is Zimmerman or whether this minister or that Minister goes will make no difference with the German policy or German procedure while the dictatorship is supreme.

There is nobody that German military autocracy would not sacrifice in order to maintain its power. If it saw anything to gain for itself by forcing the abdication of the Kaiser and putting the Crown Prince on the throne, it would not hesitate, even at that.

Nominal political changes that take place in Germany now are a sop to public clamor on the part of a military autocracy which can no longer appease popular unrest by empty promises of victory. Therein lies their significance.

The German Government as it is constituted today rests upon military success, and only upon that. The German people have accepted it solely as an instrument of military success, and when it has failed there it has failed in everything. There will be little of German solidarity left when the nation is face to face with irretrievable disaster and public opinion begins to fix responsibility for the calamity that has befallen the empire.

The Evening Post suggests that the German crisis presents an auspicious occasion for a restatement of the allies' peace aims. It would be more correct to say that it presents an auspicious occasion for a more vigorous and determined prosecution of the war all along the line. The general endorsement and acceptance of President Wilson's note to Russia leaves little to be said on that subject until Germany herself asks for terms. A restatement at this time would inevitably be interpreted to the German people by a Government controlled press as a confession of weakness on the part of the allies.

Defeats in the field and increasing economic pressure at home can alone destroy the prestige of the German autocracy. When the prestige is gone, the power is gone and the war is ended.

ENLISTMENT CREDIT GIVEN UP TO JULY 1.

Houston, Texas, July 20.—Texas will not receive credit for the men who have volunteered in the National Guard and Regular Army since July 1. From the draft quota required of Texas will be subtracted the number who volunteered in the guard and regular army up to and including June 30. This information was secured from headquarters of Brigadier General John A. Hulen, commander of the Texas National Guard today.

Approximately 8,000 men had enlisted in the National Guard up to June 30 and together with the number which volunteered in the regular army up to that date will be subtracted from the number required of Texas under the selective conscription act.

If it is found that any exemption district has furnished as many volunteers prior to July 1 as is called for under the draft act no man will be called from that district. Of course, those enlistments must have been secured after the draft act became a law.

General Hulen has instructed all guard recruiting officers to continue to enlist men regardless of the draft until the men themselves have been notified officially of their selection and called before the exemption board. It is expected that it will be fully five days before men of the draft age will receive their notification. The Texas Guard units in some instances are short a few men of being at war strength and the enlistments will be invited and urged until all units are filled with accepted men.

Although no figures could be secured from General Hulen's office, it is known that the number who have enlisted in the National Guard in Texas since the call is approximately 14,000, probably a few more than this number. Not included in this number is nearly 4,000 men who went to the border and who now are in the Federal service. These men may not go into the camp with the others.

Captain W. L. Howe, regular army recruiting officer in Houston, estimated that Harris County would be called upon to furnish 2,274 men, 875 coming from Houston for the Federal draft. It is required that exemption boards call before them twice the number of men needed. The county has been divided into five districts, four in the city of Houston and one for the rest of the county. According to these figures 880 men from each district must appear before the exemption boards. The highest number in any district in the city or county is 5,628.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Donley, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon R. E. Montgomery and unknown claimants under Jim of Lot Four in Block one hundred and forty-six in the city of Clarendon, Donley county, Texas by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Donley County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Clarendon, on the 3rd Monday in July, A. D. 1917, the same being the 16th day of July, A. D. 1917, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 21st day of July, A. D. 1917, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 982, wherein Mrs. Rose Van Horn is plaintiff, and R. E. Montgomery and the unknown claimants under him to Lot 4 in Block 146 in the city of Clarendon, Donley county, Texas, are defendants, said petition alleging that on or about the 8th day of June 1907 she came into lawful possession of the following described lot or parcel of land situated in Clarendon, Donley county, Texas, to-wit: All of Lot No. 4 in Block 146 as shown by the map of said city recorded in Vol. 2 page 640 of the deed records of Donley county, Texas, that plaintiff came into possession of said property by virtue of a warranty deed executed and delivered to her by J. D. Van Horn on said last named date conveying to her said property, which deed is recorded in Vol. 24 page 39 of the deed records of said county and state, that continuously since said last named date and up to this time she has had peaceable, adverse possession of said property using and enjoying the same and paying taxes thereon, Wherefore plaintiff claims title to said property under the statute of ten years possession of same.

Plaintiff further alleges that she has had and held the quiet, peaceable and uninterrupted possession of said lot of land above described for the space of ten years before the commencement of this suit, that she has for the time aforesaid been using and enjoying the same, that her claim has been adverse to that of said R. E. Montgomery and all persons claiming under him, the defendants aforesaid, for more than ten years before the filing of this suit.

Wherefore plaintiff claims title to said property under the statute of ten years possession of same.

Plaintiff further alleges that she has made valuable improvements on said lot that defendants have set up some claim adverse to plaintiff which casts a cloud upon her title.

Wherefore plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to answer this petition that she have judgment removing cloud from her title to said land, that title to said property be vested in her and she prays for general relief, legal and equitable.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, J. J. Alexander, Clerk of the District Court of Donley County, Texas, this 28th day of June, A. D. 1917.

RUSSIAN COLLAPSE IS NO SURPRISE TO AMERICAN OFFICIALS

Washington, July 25.—No attempt is made here to minimize the seriousness of the situation in the war theatres in Europe. The United States is in the war and will go through with it.

The Russian development was not unexpected by many army officers. When the offensive was started by the Russian forces, the most frequent comment heard was it was but the dying kick of the old Russian machine.

For the United States the Russian collapse may have an immediate and direct bearing. It will, if the German general staff presses its advantage, release additional German forces to bolster up the Western front where American troops are to be engaged. The German line in the west has not been seriously impaired at any point, officials here believe.

Right Flank Vital Point

It has been noted, in fact, that the one strategic advantage gained in recent fighting was gained by the Germans. Many officers here believe that when a small sector of the British line in Belgium was overwhelmed the Germans improved the weakness point. That view is based on the opinion that the only hope of decisive attainments for the allies in the west lies in rolling up the German right flank where it reaches the sea in Belgium.

If that could be done, it is argued, the U-boat bases could be stamped out and the only offensive instrument of the Germans to be eliminated entirely or made effective.

Navy Must Help.

It would require combined army and navy operations for it would be necessary to force a landing behind the German line had forced the whole right flank back from the sea as a result.

The price of such a victory against the U-boats and German shore batteries probably would be appalling, and there is nothing to indicate that the effort is being seriously considered. Reports from France, official and unofficial, so far as known, give no cheering picture of what must be done. There appears no doubt that the allied line can stand against any force Germany can bring against it. Even the Russian disaster does not affect the situation. But to gather the necessary strength for a successful offensive will take time and transportation facilities if the United States is to furnish the surplus of men.

More Railways Needed

The transportation problems before the United States on land and sea are increasing in scope. It seems

REAL SWIMMING.

I saw him in the distance as the train went speeding by. A shivery little fellow, standing in the sun to dry. And a little pile of clothing, very near him I could see. He was owner of a gladness that had once belonged to me.

I have shivered the way he shivered, I have dried the way he dried, I've stood naked in God's sunshine with my garments at my side, And I thought as I beheld him, of the many weary men Who would like to go in swimming as a little boy again.

I saw him scarce a moment, yet I knew his lips were blue, And I knew his teeth were chattering, just as mine I were won't to do; And I knew his merry playmates in the pond were splashing still, I could tell how much he envied all the boys that never chills; And throughout that lonesome journey I kept living o'er and o'er, The joys of going swimming when no bathing suits were wore; I was with that little fellow, standing chattering in the sun, I was sharing in his shivers and a partner in his fun.

Back to me there came the pictures that I never shall forget, When I dared not travel homewards if my shock of hair was wet, When I did my brief undressing under fine and friendly trees In the days before convention rigged us up in b. v. d's. And I dove for stones and metal on the mill pond's muddy floor, Then stood naked in the sunshine till my blood was warm, once more. I was back again, a youngster, in those golden days of old, When my teeth were wont to chatter, and my lips were blue with cold.

certain now that whole railroad systems will have to be set up in France to give the Americans the flow of war material they must have to press home an attack.

It is the belief of some military men here that no breach can be made for many months through the German line of sufficient width to permit such operations in the rear as would force a rolling up of the entire German front.

Admitting all these points, however, there is no sign of discouragement among American officials.

President Wilson's declaration that the nation, not merely an army, must be ready for war, is being carried out determinedly and apparently with confidence that in time men and supplies can be got to France in sufficient force to make certain the result.

HURLEY TO HEAD SHIPPING BOARD.

Washington, July 25.—Confirmation by the senate today of Edward N. Hurley's appointment to the shipping board as successor to Wm. Denman who was forced out by President Wilson, forecast an early start on the government's ship building program. Mr. Hurley probably will meet with the board tomorrow. He will be elected chairman at the request of the president.

The nomination of Bainbridge Colby to replace Captain White was not acted on today. No active opposition to his confirmation is looked for, however, by administration leaders. He is one of the founders of the Progressive party, but in the last campaign made speeches for President Wilson.

Rear Admiral Capps, named by President Wilson to take charge of ship building as general manager of the emergency fleet corporation, conferred today with Major General Goethals whose resignation the president accepted yesterday and will start to work tomorrow or Friday.

Neither Mr. Denman or General Goethals has announced their plans for the future, but Mr. Denman probably will resume the practice of law in San Francisco. General Goethals is a member of a firm of consulting engineers in New York, but it is said he may seek active army service.
