CLARENDON'S 1918 CHAUTAUQUA PROVES INSTANT WINNER OF POPULAR FAVOR

In spite of the varied demands that have held the attention of our people since the beginning of the war; in spite of a seeming lethargy in regard to the coming of Clarendon's annual Chautauqua the 1918 attractions captured the people of our city from the very first number Sunday evening at 8 o'clock and have gained favor each succeeding day, with the patriotic climax coming today, the last day.

Sunday afternoon after the crowd had gathered an angry looking storm cloud came up from the south and southeast, with the result that the afternoon concert was dispensed with and a longer program was given at night. The Althea Players with Electra Platt were the opening numbers and these splendid violin artists and readers gave the audience a peep into the excellence of this year's programs. Dr. Frank Loveland, special representative of the Government and envoy to the Belgian government delivered his great lecture on "The Soul of Germany," and every paragraph was a revelation to our people that brought home to us the full realization of just how little we actually knew about war conditions and Hun cunning and barbarity. Dr. Loveland is a student ripe in years and experience and handles his subject as a man whose patriotic soul is stirred with the menace which threatens his flag.

Monday brought the American Artists, Mr. Paul Mallory and Miss Gyle, tenor and contralto, who opened the afternoon program with vocal selections in solo and duet. Mr. Mallory has few peers in American concert and Miss Gyle is possessed with a deep, vibrant voice appealing in its earnestness. The second part of the program was a lecture on "Service" by Dr. Dean C. Dutton, a product of the great Northwest, and in short order he convinced his hearers that before them stood a man whose patriotism was not of the usual inherited type but the results of research and profound thinking arriving at the conclusion that a great nation that had so far departed from the ages-old selfishness and greed, adopting a policy of an elder brother among the nations of the earth, proclaiming and practicing the doctrine of unselfishness and service was indeed a nation whose government deserved and commanded the love, devotion and sacrifice of every right-thinking man. He gave a graphic, throbbing history of our government's helping hand extended to Japan, China and Cuba, as well as our present unselfish battle for humanity.

The night program began with the American Artists, Mr. Mallory and Miss Gyle in numbers even more appreciated than those of the afternoon. "The Rosary" sung as a duet by these artists was especially pleasing. Miss Bonny Brook, appearing in place of Miss Ethel Hinton, as a reader, impersonator, and dispenser of folk songs, won her way into the hearts of the big gathering with her first number "When Our Gal Spoke a Piece." Her dialect was true to character and her delineation of character was spontaneous. She is possessed of a sweet voice and face and Ethel Hinton would have to extend herself to supercede her in the hearts of Clarendon people. Again the Chautauqua goers had the privilege of hearing Dr. Dutton in his greatest lecture "The Men of Tomorrow." Something especially good was expected after the afternoon lecture and the people were not disappointed. In an entirely new style Dr. Dutton drove home the ever-increasing call for American leaders and our duty to the boys of today in fitting them for the great responsibilities of the next generation. The content of his lecture could have been evolved only in the brain and heart of a man who has made the matter one of long years' study added to a great, warm parent heart; a heart that loves all the young, seeing in them the infinite possibilities of future greatness. He closed his address with an appeal to men and women, especially business men, to take daily notice of some boy and inspire him by an expression of interest and a cherry word. This was the most constructive address of the entire five days.

Tuesday came Victor's Columbian Band, under the leadership of the youth-wonder director-composer Joseph Pistoia. This is an organization of twelve members, every one a soloist of experience, and their ensemble is wonderful in effect for so small a band. Mr. Pistoia has rightly gauged the demands of an audience so accomplished in music as ours, his program being made up of classic and semi-classic music brightly interspersed with popular music, even to the jazz variety. In the afternoon program the outstanding numbers were "Overture" composed by Mr. Pistoia, "Selections from 'Chimes of Normandy,'" and a cornet solo, "A Perfect Day," by Mr. Pistoia with band accompaniment. No one was ready to go when "The American Patrol," descriptive, closed the program.

The program rendered by the band at night was very enthusiastically received. The overtures from Carmen, Poet and Peasant and Scotch Melodies were played very effectively. The Lost Chord by Sullivan, Mascagni's Intermezzo and Nevin's ever-popular Rosary were played with beautiful shading and tone quality. The drum is usually the heart of the band and in this instance the drummer furnished most of the pep and enthusiasm for the occasion.

The Jazz effects of the Darktown Strutter's Ball with Leonard Petruzzella, trap drummer, probably met with enthusiasm than any of the other numbers. The Spirit of '76 in costume made a fitting close to a delightful program.

Wednesday's programs were presented by the Old Home Singers in the afternoon and jointly with Hon. Granville Jones in the evening. The musical numbers of the afternoon appealed to the old especially, but was

FORMER RESIDENT OF CLARENDON DEAD AT PORT LAVACA

Last week the news was received here of the death of Mrs. Caroline Journeay, former resident of this city, which occurred Wednesday of last week at Port Lavaca. Mrs. Journeay was the mother of Judge A. L. Journeay, a prominent citizen of Clarendon for a number of years and one of the leaders in the legal professions of the Panhandle. Following is the account of the aged woman's death as published by the Port Lavaca Wave:

Early Wednesday morning the angle of death carried with him the spirit of Caroline Journeay, mother of our friend Judge A. L. Journeay.

Mrs. Journeay was born in New Orleans, La., on the 17th of December, 1835, and had reached the age of 82 years, 5 months and 5 days. She had been stricken with paralysis several years ago and was a complete invalid, and during all the weary months was tenderly nursed by a loving son and his faithful helpmate, Mrs. Journeay, and tender hearted granddaughter, Mrs. Stanley Smith, nee Miss Elizabeth Allen.

The Wave in behalf of the citizens of this community extends sincerest sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.—Port Lavaca Wave.

W. M. S. NOTES

On Wednesday afternoon, May 29 Mrs. Story was hostess to the ladies of the Methodist Church in a social meeting. At this time we had the second barrel opening, this was even more remunerative than the first and the plan is proving quite successful. If there is any woman of the church who has no barrel the committee will be glad to supply you. After a very pleasant social hour ice cream and wafers were served.

Mrs. Burton and Miss Bobo are delegates to the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Northwest Texas Conference, attended the meeting in Abilene last week. They will make their report next Wednesday, June 12, when we will have our business meeting. A most earnest appeal is made to every member to be present.

Reporter.

These trucks, known as "Class B Standard," will have a capacity of from 3 to 5 tons, and will be distributed as needed through the various branches of the Army. Ten thousand of these class B standardized trucks have previously been ordered and are now in process of manufacture and delivery.

MAYOR SORELLE CALLS ATTENTION TO CLEAN UP WEEK

Notice has been given and the urgent request made asking everybody to give special attention to this week in the matter of thoroughly cleaning up your respective places of residences and business. The Board of Commissioners after reviewing the flooded condition of the City felt the urgent necessity of this move. So far little attention has been given to this request. The foul odors arising from these accumulated piles of trash and filth is a menace to the health of the community, besides an eye-sore to everyone. But unless the citizens of the town are willing to assist the City Authorities in making our community a decent place to live in, then, to be sure, as it occurs to us, you have very little use for your present Board of Commissioners. Once more, and only once more, am I going to call your attention to this condition of the city, and now I am calling also upon the ladies and mothers of the community to give their moral support and assistance in having the city placed in a sanitary condition. Will you respond to this request?

W. A. SoRelle, Mayor.

Donley County State Bank

STRENGTH

A BANK'S STRENGTH cannot be accurately gauged by its financial statement alone. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, truthfully published in detail, or truthfully explained in condensed form, furnish a temporary index of the bank's financial condition. BUT FIGURES ARE MUTE—they can neither explain themselves, nor correct any misleading explanations that may be made for them. The real test of a bank's strength, therefore is not its statement, but its management. MANAGERIAL STRENGTH is measured not only by the collective ability of the bank's officers, but, to a very important degree, by their joint and collective experience in managing the bank's affairs. THIS BANK'S AFFAIRS have been continuously directed by practically the same group of officers for a number of years, through times of stress and times of prosperity. The stability derived from such continuity of management, re-inforced at intervals by the additions of junior officers trained up in the same organization, is a source of real strength and an asset of cumulative value, both to the bank and its patrons.

NOTED LECTURER ON TEMPERANCE ENDORSES TANLAC

MRS. MARTHA STONE WAS FOR YEARS ASSOCIATED WITH FOUNDEE W. C. T. U.

One of the features that distinguishes Tanlac from all other proprietary medicines is the large number of prominent people who everywhere are giving it their unqualified endorsement. Among the statements recently received at the Tanlac office, is one in particular that is sure to arouse widespread interest throughout the country, having been made by Mrs. Martha R. Stone, of 7225 Third Ave., North West, Seattle, Wash., noted temperance lecturer who for many years was associated with the late Frances E. Willard, founder of the W. C. T. U. In relating her experience with Tanlac, Mrs. Stone said:

"I think it is the duty of everyone who has been relieved as I have to do what they can to help others; therefore it gives me much pleasure to tell of the benefits I have derived from the use of Tanlac.

"I was a great sufferer for many years with nervous trouble, which became so bad that I had to take to my bed, where I lay for six weeks entirely helpless and unable to move. The least little noise would upset me and I was not allowed to see anyone for fear it would excite me, and I was told that my entire nervous system had suffered a total collapse. You see, I had passed through the great San Francisco fire in which I lost everything I possessed, and the experience was a severe shock to my already overwrought nerves. When at last I was able to get out of bed I would have such awful dizzy spells that everything in my room seemed to spin around as though I was in the center of a whirlpool. My stomach was so weak and my appetite so poor that I hardly ate a thing, and what little I forced down soured and formed gas that pressed up into my throat and in my chest and made me so hoarse that it was an effort for me to speak. I also suffered much pain in the lower part of my body from this same gas pressure. My liver, too, was all out of order and my kidneys gave me no end of trouble.

"When my son-in-law saw that the medicines I was taking were doing me no good, he induced me to try Tanlac, as he said it had done him so much good he believed it would help me too. To oblige him I got me a bottle and the first few doses soon convinced me that it was just what I needed, and my first bottle put me right on my feet. I am now on my second bottle and am in splendid shape, for my nerves are practically in a normal state for the first time in all these years, which I consider a remarkable thing. I have a fine appetite and can eat most anything I want without suffering any unpleasantness afterwards. Tanlac is fast helping me to overcome my troubles, and I feel that I am getting on just fine ever since I began taking it."

Tanlac is sold in Clarendon by Stocking's Store; in Hedley by J. F. Tomlinson Drug Co., and in Jericho by O. C. Brown.

A RIOT OF FUN

What would you do, if after a night at the cabarets you discovered a big bear in your bathroom and it dawned upon you that you had bought the animal for a "pet." This may happen to you—this is the age of surprise—so you are advised to see "Jack Spurlock—Prodigal" at The Pastime Theatre Saturday Matinee and Night where George Walsh the William Fox star, as young Spurlock, solves the problem of disposing of the 400-pound Alaska bruin. Mr. Bear makes it interesting for the Harvard Faculty and his young owner before he is gotten rid of.

"Jack Spurlock—Prodigal" was written by George Horace Lorimer, editor of Saturday Post, published in the Saturday Evening Post in serial form and later in book form. The story made a hit and the book attained the distinction of being the "best seller" on the market.

"Jack Spurlock—Prodigal" is the story of a young Harvard student's experience beginning after he had been dropped from Harvard because of his escapade with the bear. He was a self-reliant chap and when his millionaire father placed him in charge of his business he sought to make a good stroke by buying a few hundred carloads of onions not knowing that his daddy had already bought 500 cars. It works out all right, but before the film story is unfolded young Spurlock has many funny and thrilling experiences.—Admission 10 and 15 cents.

TWICE PROVEN.

If you suffer back ache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Clarendon evidence—doubly proven. L. L. Taylor says: "I had a lame back and it was hard for me to straighten up. I couldn't bend over but what sharp twinges shot through my back. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at McKillop's Drug Store and they removed the pain and lameness from my back and I was able to go to work again."

LASTING RESULTS. Over four years later Mr. Taylor said: "I have never had any trouble with my kidneys since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I believe the cure is permanent."

"A KNOCKER"

After God had finished making the rattlesnake, the toad, the vampire, he had some awful substance left, with which he made the knocker.

A knocker is a two-legged animal with a cork-screw soul, a waterlogged brain and a combination backbone, made of jelly and glue. Where other men have their hearts he carries a tumor of decayed principles.

When a knocker comes down the street, honest men turn their backs, the angels weep tears in heaven and the devil shuts the gates of hell to keep him out.

DON'T BE A KNOCKER

If there is a chance to boom business, boom it. Don't pull a long face and look as if you had a sour stomach. Hold up your head, smile, and hope for better things.

Hide your little hammer and try to speak well of others, no matter how small you may really know yourself to be. REMEMBER, "words and eggs must be handled with care, for words once spoken and eggs once broken are not the easiest things to repair."

When a stranger drops in, jelly him. Tell him this is the greatest town on earth—AND IT IS. Don't discourage him by speaking ill of your neighbors, or of opposition firms. Lead him to believe that he has AT LAST struck the place where WHITE PEOPLE live. Don't knock.

If you have anything disagreeable to say, talk to yourself. Let the pig do the grunting and the jackass all the kicking. When you are in doubt, mind your own business; there is no end of fun in minding your own business. It makes other people like you. No man ever helped himself by knocking other people down in character, or business. No man ever got rich by trying to make others believe he was the only good man in town or the only man in town who knew anything.

Be a good fellow and soon you'll have a procession of followers. Help yourself along by becoming popular, and push your friends with you. Its dead easy.

You can't climb the ladder of success by treading on other people's corns. Keep off their corns. You're not the only pebble on the beach. There are others, ad they have brains as well as you.

IF YOU MEET A KNOCKER, TAKE HIS HAMMER AND HIT HIM WHERE HIS BRAINS OUGHT TO BE AND KICK HIM WHERE HIS BRAINS ARE.—J. A. LAW.

COMES IN IN DUNCAN FIELD

Duncan, Okla., June 1.—Duncan is elated. Oil men believe that the latest big find of the Fort Ring in section 30, 1 south, 8 west, yesterday afternoon makes this the biggest field in Oklahoma. Leases are selling at $1,500 per acre today near the new well. It is the opinion of the oil men that the Fort Ring well will be a better well than the Magnolia Petroleum brought in in section 22 some three months ago.

The Fort Ring well is four miles east of the Magnolia gusher and in the same sand which removes all doubt as to the extent of the field.

Mrs. L. H. Mullens is one of the direct heirs to a quarter section of land in one-half mile of this well. They are preparing to drill two wells on this estate.

AMERICAN INFANTRYMAN HAS ADVANTAGE IN AMMUNITION EQUIPMENT

The American infantryman in the Expeditionary Forces carries 200 rounds of ammunition in the pockets of his light canvas web belt and his bandoleers. The German soldier has only 120 rounds, and 30 of these are in his knapsack. To secure them at a critical moment he must lose valuable time.

The American web belts, according to the War Department, are far superior to the German leather bandoleers. They are not affected by prolonged rains nor torrid weather. The manufacture of the belts is one of the most intricate of the operations in the textile field. U. S. Army belts are made almost entirely of cotton.

The exact weight of the 220 rounds carried by the American soldier in France is 12 pounds. With the Springfield rifle 23 aimed shots can be fired each minute. Firing from the hip 40 shots can be fired a minute. The new United States model 1917 (modified Enfield) does even better.

FRANK DECKER WRITES FROM CAMP TRAVIS

Camp Travis, Tex., May 9, 1918
Mr. R. H. Beville,
Clarendon, Texas.
Dear Friend:

Just a few lines to let you know I am O. K. So are the rest of the Donley County boys. We arrived in camp three weeks ago and were put under quarantine until we had been vaccinated and had three inoculations. We had some sore arms and some of the few were rather ill, but not seriously. Last Sunday quarantine was lifted and Monday the men were transferred into different branches of service. Mills went into heavy artillery. Tatum, Wiesendanger, Hinkle and the other man went into the infantry. Adams and Weatherly are still in what remains of the Depot Brigade of which was a large Company, is now composed of about forty men and very likely they will soon be moved. I was transferred into the Baking and Cooking school and am baking at an officers' Mess Hall. I am so busy I do not have time to write and am very behind with my correspondence. I am now at the Y. M. C. A. and I came here to write but got started playing checkers and here I am at supper time and have only started. I'll soon close now for I don't know anything worth mentioning except this is a fine place and a large camp. One who has never viewed it cannot imagine what an immense place it is. Everything is very sanitary and precaution is used to safeguard the health of the men in the service and the very best of food is served. I have been to town twice and have been over the camp a number of times but we in the branch I am in cannot go to town like some branches of service.

I would like to be in Clarendon and see my friends but have no desire to even leave until we have peace, for the men in the service all feel like they want to see it well done before coming home. I have met lots of men in the service that I knew in civil life, some who have been here almost a year.

Well Harwood, guess I'd better close so when you have time to write do so, for I would appreciate a letter from you so here's wishing you good health and a prosperous business, and when you write you may use the following address so at least be careful.

Truly yours,
FRANK L. DECKER,
B. & C. School,
Camp Travis, Texas.

ENROLLMENT OF NURSES

All graduate nurses in Donley County are asked to enlist as Red Cross nurses in the Campaign which begins June 3rd and continuing for ten days.

By the end of the year the department of nursing of the American Red Cross is expected to enroll 25,000 nurses for the Army and Navy. This call comes from the surgeons general of the Army and Navy.

Donley County will launch a Campaign to enroll all nurses in the county. As soon as the director appoints a Red Cross Nurse for the local executive committee to direct the campaign. This committee must consist of the following: The Chairman of the Chapter, a local Red Cross Nurse and a publicity representative.

This campaign is prepared under the supervision of the Southwestern Division of the Red Cross.

The local executive committee appointed by the Southwestern Division will appoint a campaign committee for personal solicitation and enrollment as soon as possible.

The Campaign for the enrollment of nurses June 3rd to 13th, inclusive, deserves your most earnest, serious consideration. The American Red Cross is having stupendous demands made upon its department of nursing. The chief object of the campaign is to awaken the public and physicians as well, to a sense of their responsibility in supporting this department in meeting the needs of our military hospitals. They are asked to release nurses not desperately needed and to aid in every way possible to give this service without too great sacrifice.

The appeal has three district divisions: First, trained nurses to register for army or navy service. Second, nurses to register to take the places of those who go. Third, recruits for the nursing profession.

This puts before every qualified nurse the individual decision as to whether or not she will assume a task of danger and hardship. Yet a task of the highest privilege. Each nurse who offers this service is rewarded in terms of life's deepest satisfaction. She goes as a soldier, trained to her task.

Nursing service is military service and the trained nurse is as necessary to the successful prosecution of the war as the trained soldier—Nurses! you are needed—Enlist for service NOW.

NOTICE

In view of the fact that there has been some damage done to the Y. M. C. A. Building by loafing boys, this notice is given to all boys to stay out of the building until it is finished. Disregard of notice will be matched with prosecution.—Building Commit. 24c

LOCAL RED CROSS NEWS

Our young men are daily being called to take up the fight for home and freedom. As our army grows and takes its place on the firing line doctors and nurses will be called for in increasing numbers. Between now and Jan. 1, 25,000 nurses must enroll from this division. No doubt these women will go cheerfully and willingly, leaving a good income and pleasant surroundings. How is the need for nurses to be filled in our homes? Women and young girls are urged to take the courses in Elementary Hygiene and Home care of the Sick to be given in Clarendon in July. This course will fit you not only to take the place of a nurse in your home, but with 240 hours of training in a Base Hospital you will be able to become a nurse's aid. This course consists of fifteen lessons of half hour each. The maximum cost is only $4.50. Already a large number have decided to take the course. Let's have more.

The auditing committee appointed by the Chapter Chairman, to audit the books of the First War Fund Campaign has satisfactorily completed its work. This closes this whole account.

Master James Knox McClenny brought a bushel of peanuts to the Red Cross Rooms this week to be sold. Anyone wishing seed can get them from the ladies by calling at the rooms. This gift is very highly appreciated.

The ladies want to thank Mr. J. M. Erwin for mending the screen door at the rooms. We hope to be able to defeat our enemy, the fly.

Mrs. Phillips has donated a setting of turkey eggs. See Mrs. L. L. Taylor.

TREES! TREES!!

As I will continue in the nursery business, have contracted with one of the largest nurseries in the north to grow my trees. Therefore I will be able to furnish anything in shades or fruit. Fall or spring deliveries to suit purchaser. If contemplating planting see me or phone 229 3R. All orders appreciated and will endeavor to please my customers.

It is becoming apparent to every thinking member of the various denominations of this land that there is soon coming a time when the unfaithful and disloyal membership must be purged from their rolls. For years it has been quite a popular thing to become a church member and despite the solemnity of the obligations many have come to the altar with little or no real purpose. Such a condition cannot continue without bringing a just reproach upon the churches, with the corresponding result of demolishing what little respect the carnal world holds for the standard bearers of righteousness. A housecleaning must perforce come, and the sooner it does the stronger will be the household of faith and the sooner will come the Kingdom of God on earth as in Heaven. Dr. Loveland pronounced a great truth on the Chautauqua platform in our city Sunday night when he said that while the world always respects religion, pure and undefiled, yet it had about lost its respect for the nominal churches of today. The fault is with the members of those churches and even as a fraud and a sham are despised in the political and business world so must it meet with the just contempt of all people of honest purpose. Set a high standard of Christian conduct, purge the rolls of the "deadheads" and church membership will become a recommendation instead of a distinction without a meaning.

Admitting that it is a hard matter for us, removed as we are, from the battlefields of France to realize the enormity of the world catastrophe in which we are now beginning to play so prominent a part. It is time that each of us come to a sensibility of what it will mean to us for the next two or three years necessary to fight this war to a victorious conclusion. Right here and now The News wishes to go on record that in the light of all the reading we have been able to digest and in view of the Divine purpose America must fulfill, we must fight and suffer for two or three more years, probably longer. Our personal aims must be accommodated to the larger duty of supporting every call and claim of the Government and we must give, and give, and give, until justice and Democracy is enthroned throughout the world.

Down at Graham where two newspapers have tried to operate for some time, the inevitable has happened and consolidation was effected last week. You may cause two blades of grass to grow where one flourished alone, but it is only possible to make one newspaper thrive where two languished in the financial Slough of Despond.

We must trust to General Foch whether we will or no. After all these weeks of preparation—and you can rest assured that preparation has been made during these weeks of waiting—the world will be astounded at the force of the allied counter blow when it does come.

It may be that the smile your friend wears as he comes down the street is because of a new boy up at his house—and then it may mean that he has been a regular attendant upon the Chautauqua.

Boy Scout organizations are active in locating black walnut trees. Black walnut lumber is needed by the War Department for use in making airplane propellers and gunstocks.

Former Vice-President Chas. W. Fairbanks died the first of the week in his Indiana home. He was a splendid character and the nation suffers loss in his passing.

Any person who would prefer a hasty (and) arrival over a refined chautauqua as an arrival visitor to our city, don't think much of our city.

CLARENDON CHAUTAUQUA PLEASES LARGE ATTENDANCE

enjoyed by all. The opening number was "The Miller's Wooing," an old-time favorite of much musical merit, and then came thick and fast favorites of the long ago that brought many memories again to the hearts of their sympathetic hearers.

After a patriotic prelude of music by the Old Home Singers the main feature of the evening program was a lecture, "The Creed of Democracy" by Hon. Granville Jones. Mr. Jones is a platform man of national reputation and deals intelligently with the reiteration of the doctrines upon which our republic was founded.

Thursday, the last day of special interest because of the trio of Allied warriors who came to entertain and instruct. Sergt. Turley, Piper Millar and Private "Dad" Little, everyone who has faced the Hun in this great war, brought a breath of the trenches in song and story that shall never be effaced from the memories of those who heard them. In the afternoon Miss M. Beryl Buckley thrilled her hearers with a most excellent reading of "Mister Antonio." The great audience who attended the night program which closed the Chautauqua were reluctant to go and it is the general sentiment of all attendants that Clarendon must not forego the pleasure and helpfulness of the Chautauqua in succeeding years.

Ample signatures have been secured to guarantee the 1919 Chautauqua and the committee that put it over this year desire to return thanks to those who have supported it and to voice our appreciation of the work of Mr. W. I. Oliver, who was the superintendent of our programs here. Mr. Oliver is a school man by profession, a gentleman of high qualities and it has been a pleasure to associate with him. We hope he will come to us again next year.

If you look at it through eyes filled with sympathy, co-operation and helpfulness Clarendon is the best town in the entire world. Don't look at it any other way, if you do the sight you behold will be a reflection of what you are within.

After bravely weathering a drouth of two years' duration, Childress has at last been blessed with a great rain. It seems now that all the drouth-stricken plains and panhandle country has been put in clover by recent rains. It makes the Kaiser sore to get news of rains in Texas.

The Panhandle Press Association will meet in Amarillo Friday and Saturday of this week. The members of this organization are live wires to a man and The News editor shall be glad of the opportunity to mingle among them, and in the absence of the black-ball will become a full-fledged member.

"Keeping Our Fighters Fit—For War and After" is the title of an official book issued by the Commission on Training Camp Activities, describing the athletics, mass singing, social life, and other recreations of men in Army and Navy camps. The book tells of the theatres, the work of the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, and other organizations associated with the commission in welfare work, and gives details of life in the camps.

The first Porto Rican laborers to reach the United States under Government auspices will be at work upon Government contracts within a month. The Employment Service of the Department of Labor has already found employment for at least 10,000 of these men as common laborers on construction work at Norfolk, Newport News, Baltimore and vicinity. Arrangements are now being made by the Department of Labor to provide proper housing for these men.

Women between the ages of 21 and 35 who have had a high school education or its equivalent will be eligible for admission to the Army School of Nursing, arrangements for which were recently made by the War Department. It is intended to start several schools in selected military hospitals. Unless otherwise specified, applications should be sent directly to the Army School of Nursing, office of the Surgeon General of the Army, Washington, D. C.

Under a new agreement the Army will handle all mail for the expeditionary forces after it leaves United States ports. The Post Office Department will deliver the mail to military authorities at the port of embarkation in this country and receive it from them at a port in France for dispatch to the United States. The domestic money-order service to the troops will, for the present at least, continue under the direction of the Post Office Department in France.

Have that old watch put to running. It will not cost you much. Goldston the Jeweler.

CLARENCE E. GILMORE FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER

Clarence E. Gilmore, of Wills Point, Van Zandt County, announcing his candidacy for Railroad Commissioner of Texas at the Democratic primary, says he is entitled to be considered as a candidate for reelection. That the Supreme Court of Texas held in the injunction proceedings instituted by him that the name of his opponent had no lawful place on the ticket as the nominee of the Democratic party, the committee had no authority to make the nomination and that he had the lawful right to make the race as a Democrat unopposed by such unlawful conduct. He calls attention to the fact that the opinion of the Supreme Court was not rendered until Saturday before the general election on Tuesday and that in contempt of the injunction his opponent's name had been certified to the various counties as the Democratic nominee, the tickets printed and distributed. Since but two days intervened, only fifty-two counties corrected the error, giving the voters a legal ballot and in these he received nearly two votes to his opponent's one, carrying practically all of them. He says he is sure the Democracy of Texas will not stand for such unlawful conduct and such contempt for the constituted authorities.

Mr. Gilmore is forty-five years of age, born and reared on the farm, owned and edited the Wills Point Chronicle for eighteen years and for the last six years has been actively engaged in the practice of law. He served three terms in the Legislature, during which time he was chairman of the penitentiary investigating committee, which made a searching investigation of the penal institutions of the state and aided in the enactment of wholesome prison reforms.

His practical business experience, his untiring energy and thorough study and understanding of every problem he deals with, and his study of problems which confront the Railroad Commission, equip him, he says, for the duties of this position.

His home people, who have known him longest, vouch for him absolutely.

CANDIDATES MEET

In these days of anxiety and urgent need for conservation in all directions, there is the call of our country for the best there is in each of us citizens and no time nor energy should be given to self-interest that can be given to the government.

Every candidate, if a good citizen can and should, do his bit. The mind of the farmer, the ranchman, the merchant, the mechanic, the professional man, the preacher and all, should center on the one thought of helping to win this war.

Developments of the last few days have seriously brought very near to our door the submarine and attendant horrors.

It is therefore urgently requested that each and every candidate in Donley County, meet in the office of the County Judge at the court house Saturday, June 8th at 2:30 p. m. for the purpose of discussing and planning a campaign that will detract as little as possible from the present duties of voter and candidate alike and yet do equal justice to all. Come let us talk over the matters.

J. H. O'Neall.

RECITAL

The Commencement Recital given by students in the Marquis Conservatory last Friday evening was heard by a very appreciative audience. The entire program was a beautiful one and was played with remarkable precision and ease. Miss Oressa Teague played several piano numbers and in her last selection Peer Gynt by Grieg she was accompanied by Mr. Larson and Miss Owens on violins. The ensemble of this number was splendid and the perfect intonation and phrasing made it one to be long remembered for its artistic rendition. Miss Rhoda Wiedman played La Campanella by Liszt and Ballade in Ab by Chopin very brilliantly and with good expression. Violin selections by Miss Annis Owens were of an unusual high order and were splendidly executed. All the young ladies had their pieces perfectly memorized and finished in detail. Miss Marquis and Mr. Larson are to be congratulated upon the artistic work of their students and steady growth of their Conservatory of Music.

General Haig said to his men, just before the last great German offensive: "I call upon every man to conduct himself as though the result of the battle depended upon his personal efforts alone."

No deeper or more significant message was ever delivered to men entering a life and death struggle. This was the philosophy of the Soldier—it must be the philosophy of the Civilian. It is impossible to over-emphasize the very real and deep personal responsibility of every man and woman in the great National crisis. Every American faces a lifetime of satisfaction or regret for the part that he plays in this war. Experts in figures assure us that the average American is called upon to set aside about one-fifth of his income for the use of the Government, the money to be handed over to the Government in the form of taxation or the purchase of Liberty Bonds. It is not only one-fifth of your neighbor's income, but your's, that is called for. Have you done your share?

The board appointed by the Secretary of the Navy to examine the system of buoyancy boxes installed on the Lucia has reported the installation not advisable for general adoption because of its questionable efficacy as a preventive against sinking, the reduction in cargo-carrying capacity, and the length of time required for installation.

Tom F. Connally returned the latter part of last week from Galveston where he presided over the annual meeting of the Texas Grain Dealers Association. Mr. Connally has made a most efficient president of this organization and has reflected honor upon Clarendon in that capacity.

Hugh Brown and wife left Monday of this week for Bowie and points south on account of the latter's health, it being thought advisable to seek a lower altitude. Mr. Brown and family have been residents of Donley County for the past sixteen years and have many friends here who will regret to see them go, but will wish them the greatest health and happiness.

The Food Administration has sent out through all State administrators a warning to corn, barley and oats millers and to wholesale and retail dealers in the products that at the present price of these grains corn meal and oat meal should be selling at least 20 per cent below the price of wheat flour and that corn flour and barley should be selling at least 10 per cent below wheat flour.

Dr. Frank Connally of Waco was called here Monday of this week to perform a delicate operation on his nephew, Duke Connally. Dr. Connally enjoys a large practice in Central Texas and expects soon to give his services to the government for the duration of the war. While here he called at The News office and renewed acquaintance with this editor dating back some fifteen years ago. We are glad to report that Duke Connally is recovering rapidly after the ordeal.

Let Music Brighten the Lives of Your Children

After all, it's not the school training but the home atmosphere which molds the child. Children brought up in a cultured home betray that fact during their entire lives. It leaves a lasting imprint.

A home with any claim to culture is a home in which good music is enjoyed and understood. A child whose interest in music is fostered will become a man or woman who possesses a resource which makes for lasting happiness.

You want to give your children every advantage. That is just one reason why you want

MANY OPPORTUNITIES OPEN FOR SPECIALISTS IN WAR DEPARTMENT

There is a list of 137 occupations where the demand for men in the War Department constantly exceeds the supply.

A pressing need exists in the Army for men experienced in handling of mules, and before all future needs are met a recruiting campaign may become necessary. No difficulty has been experienced in getting men who can buy and handle horses, but blacksmiths are scarce.

There is a constant demand for butchers and cooks are greatly needed. In several technical branches, particularly the Engineers, men for the higher positions are plentiful, but the workers for the ranks are scarce. Experienced mechanics, especially those familiar with automobiles are always in demand.

More interpreters than can be used have applied for positions with the War Department, and applications for commissions as Army chaplains are also in excess of the need. The excess totals thousands in each case. Clerks for general work are plentiful, but there is demand for specialists. At present there is a surplus of dentists and pharmacists.

MEN IN TRAINING CAMPS HAVE EQUIPMENT FOR SPORTS

At every training camp in the country plans of the Commission on Training Camp Activities have been carried out to provide athletic facilities for the men. Baseball heads the list in popularity, and full equipment has been placed in the camps. More than 70,000 baseballs and 3,000 bats have been sent. At Camp Lewis, Washington, there are 16 baseball fields in use. Practically every company in each camp division throughout the country has its team, and there are company, battalion, regimental and inter-regimental leagues.

Every form of track athletics occupies the attention of men training at the camps. As many as 800 men have taken part in divisional contests, and track meets have been witnessed by more than 20,000 spectators.

Where facilities permit, instruction in swimming is given. Men are first given land instruction and then sent into the water. Tennis courts have been built in every camp, one having 40 courts, and the sport is rapidly gaining in popularity. Through the generosity of golf clubs located near the camps, the demand for golf courses is partly met. Polo matches are frequently held, and competition for places on the teams is keen.

NURSES TO THE FRONT

Nurses your country calls you—You are needed.

Enlist to alleviate suffering—Enlist to save lives.

As our Army grows and takes its place on the firing line, nurses and doctors are being called for in increasing numbers. Trained men and women are needed and needed at once. Registered nurses are urged by the Surgeons General of Military Service. We have taken our young men from their vocations—forced them to forsake their private interests. They have been prompt and cheerful in their sacrifice; eagerly submitting themselves to the arduous of military training. Nurses already trained now find an opportunity for service such as never before has offered itself to women.

TROOPS ARE BEING EQUIPPED WITH BROWNING GUNS

Enough heavy Browning machine guns for instruction purposes have been shipped to every National Guard training camp and National Army cantonment in the country where troops are in training. Heavy Brownings for overseas training have been shipped.

Light Browning rifles sufficient in number to equip the machine-gun units of more than four army divisions have been manufactured, and overseas shipment of one-half has begun. The other half of the output goes to Army divisions in this country.

AMERICAN AIRMAN TELLS OF FIGHTING EXPERIENCES

A committee on Public Information representatives in London says:

There are no better sportsmen in the world than the allied aviators, and American aviators now fighting in Europe always play a fair game, as they learn it from the allies. F. P. Magoun a former Harvard student, now a member of the Royal air force, recently wounded, tells how the lives of German observers escaping from balloons have been spared.

"We caught three Hun balloons above the allied grounds in a mist, which prevented their gunners seeing us," said he. "It was a cinch. You should have seen them hustle out their parachutes and abandon the balloons. As they came falling down through the air we circled about closely but, of course, didn't open fire, as that's against the rules of the game. As soon as they touched ground they took cover like rabbits."

Magoun is the only American in his squadron, having joined in February of last year. He has bagged five German planes. While carrying bombs for low attack in the recent offensive he received a bullet through his left arm, but managed to return to his own lines. Magoun tells of a companion in his squadron who had one of the luckiest escapes during the war. He was put out of action a 1,000 feet in the air when a bullet perforated his gasoline tank. He was rendered unconscious by the fumes and his machine took a nose dive to earth, but he escaped without a scratch.

A section of the Royal air force operating in the Ypres salient has lost its only American member, who had been with the squadron only 10 days when he went on a bombing raid at low elevation. He was hit by a machine-gun bullet and his plane fell in flames. He was taken prisoner.

The efforts of newspapers to promote good feeling between the people of England and the thousands of Americans received official backing when Sir Randolph Baker, member of Parliament, offered to take charge of the American troops welfare department of the British Government. His plans contemplate a continuous program of healthful recreation in every American rest camp and training camp in England. Special London theatrical companies will be sent out. An organization known as "Sammy's Blighty League" is being formed.

GIRLS' NATIONAL HONOR GUARD

Do you know for what spirit the National Honor Guard is strong today? It is for the spirit that makes the giving of some service toward a worthy cause each day just as essential to our peace and happiness as some trifling pleasure of yesterday.

The girls of America who today are abandoning self-interests and are working with hand and brain to do their part in this struggle for peace and humanity are not making a sacrifice rather it is their privilege to be granted even a small part in such a tremendous undertaking.

Girls, you are needed for work at the Red Cross rooms, not by twos or fours, but by tens and twenties. The regular Honor Guard workdays are Mondays and Wednesdays. We might add Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

There is valuable work to be done for the Red Cross by each and every Honor Guard Member. Let us remember our pledges of service and strive harder to live up to them.

Miss Lila McClelland, Captain.

How Uncle Sam runs the Nation's Wheat Business

Out delay in getting this wheat started across the world was occasioned by the uncertain judgment of the manager. He sent a sample on to the St. Louis zone agent for test, which verified his judgment as to grade. He then went about his usual duties, cleaning the grain, filling his bins, and shipping out as regularly as he could in maximum carload quantities, in order to economize the use of cars in time of congestion. He was careful to keep his records very straight as to dates and quantities of wheat purchased, on hand, and shipped out, for the Grain Corporation requires weekly reports and full details of transactions.

Selling Wheat to Government.

ABOUT 29 days after the farmer brought in his wheat there came a request to this elevator for a carload to be purchased by the Grain Corporation. So one of our wheat bushels was poured into a car which miraculously had appeared on the siding at a time when car shortage was troubling the entire commercial world. Inquiry might have shown that direct supervision. The corporation charges each miller 1 per cent of the value of the wheat he grinds to cover the costs of administering the corporation; for the $50,000,000 capital is to be returned to the United States Treasury, unimpaired.

The agreement has its compensation, however, for the policy of Uncle Sam is to provide each mill with all wheat possible. To do so, every mill signing up was required to furnish an estimate of its possible milling capacity for the season. This nation-wide survey of milling capacities, when balanced against the available supply of wheat, enables the Grain Corporation to equalize supplies in a way never done before. In fact, the schedule of prices arranged for the primary markets had for an object this equalization. For instance, if the proprietor of an elevator at Maryville, Mo., 46 miles northeast of St. Joseph, and 456 miles from Chicago, desires to market wheat he has available these markets: St. Joseph, Mo.; Kansas City, Mo.; St. Louis, Mo.; Chicago, Ill., and New York City, N. Y. To ascertain the most advantageous price for him, he would work it out on the basis of the following table:

From this table you can see what the Grain Corporation was making a large purchase for the Allies and was utilizing its knowledge of available stocks by having on the job a transportation strategist—Edward Chambers, vice president of the Santa Fe. Mr. Chambers was assisting the Food Administration and has a remarkable "way with him." Even before he was called to assist Mr. McAdoo, the Director General, his suggestions to the railroads had a wonderful effect in discouraging their hesitancy as to finding available cars and in clearing up congestions that looked as though they never could be uncongested.

How Uncle Sam Keeps the Whip

Ease in getting the needed cars was one of the advantages enjoyed by this particular elevator after signing the voluntary agreement which ceded to the Grain Corporation the right to control storage and direct shipments and sales of all wheat bought by the proprietor.

While voluntary, this agreement is almost compulsory since railroads give priority recognition to Grain Corporation requests for cars; and elevators or mills outside the official fold must "rustle" for themselves. In return the Government guarantees the elevator proprietor against losses and protects him in every way as to price and pays him rentals for all storage space requisitioned by it.

All elevators, local and terminal, must take out licenses or face a shutdown. What is the power of the license? It requires the operator to lay all cards on the table as to his business dealings. For the time of the war the elevator becomes a public utility and its proprietor must furnish information as to his business at any time when required by the Grain Corporation. Each week he must make and mail reports showing the amount of wheat, rye, or their derivatives, purchased, stored, and shipped.

Under present license terms, the licensee can keep on hand for only 30 days, unless he obtains a special permit, any stocks of these grains or their derivatives. He is also forbidden to contract for the sale of any product which can not be delivered within 30 days after the contract is made.

How the Wheat Was Milled.

Away went our bushel of wheat on its journey to the terminal, where it met other bushels of wheat from all parts of the territory that fed this market. There it was regarded for special requirements, marked for immediate milling and rolled on to a large mill in Illinois. The miller bought the wheat from the Grain Corporation, for each miller in the United States is under license also, and most of them have filled out another voluntary agreement which binds them either to purchase all supplies from the Grain Corporation or under its di-wheat would bring at five different markets if shipped from Maryville, Mo.:

F. A. G. C. markets	St. Kansas St.
	Joseph, City	Louis, Mo.
Base price	$2.15	$2.15
Rate per 100 pounds	.085	.095
Rate per bushel	.039	.055
Net price	2.111	2.095

F. A. G. C. markets	Chicago, New York
	Ill. City	City
Base price	$2.20	$2.25
Rate per 100 pounds	.1475	.3006
Rate per bushel	.0885	.1893
Net price	2.1115	2.0997

Under these conditions the proprietor would probably sell at St. Joseph or Chicago, according to his inclination.

The table further illustrates the equalization of prices and indicates to what extent the miller is protected when buying wheat in any territory. Through this plan discriminations against the producer, the miller, and the consumer are eliminated so far as it seems humanly possible under a plan of such tremendous proportions.

THESE schedules arranged for the various markets are veritable "price dams" to prevent the overflowing of the stream of wheat at any single market. They also tend to correct many abuses prevalent in the past, such as cutthroat methods adopted by mills to secure supplies and indiscriminate moving of wheat to terminals. For all practical purposes the wheat business of the country is apportioned, and whenever possible mills are supplied from wheat in the territory nearest them. This policy has for an object the saving of waste in transportation. In another way saving is made: Formerly large quantities of undergrade wheats have been difficult to dispose of on account of unco-ordinated purchase of the competing mills; but under Uncle Sam's domination each bushel of wheat must now go somewhere and the poorer wheat will move just as freely as the more desirable grades.

Limiting Millers' Profits.

The Illinois miller who received the carload containing our bushel of wheat milled it promptly and shipped its flour to a port for exportation. The miller was permitted by the Food Administration to make a fair profit, not exceeding a maximum of 25 cents per barrel on the flour and a maximum profit of 50 cents per ton on the feedstuffs left over. All mills, however, must furnish at regular intervals to the Milling Division full statements of manufacturing costs, which are scrutinized carefully. The derivatives of this wheat the miller sold for domestic consumption, as the policy of the Government is to keep in the United States all available feedstuffs in order to encourage live-stock production.

Milling Canadian Wheat.

WHILE our bushel was being milled a carload of wheat reached this mill from Canada. Importation of Canadian wheat without special consent being forbidden, the mill operatives became curious and made inquiries. This wheat was part of a large supply which the Grain Corporation had brought into the United States to aid in keeping the American mills running.

There was another reason. Domestic wheat was not moving from the farms as freely as the millers needed it, and shortage forced the mills to operate at a great disadvantage and, according to them, at higher costs.

The last journey stage of our first bushel, although considerably changed in its form, was to go as flour to port under rush orders. It now had right of way over all other classes of freight except other munitions of war. Consent of the War Trade Board being obtained, it was loaded on a ship and passed safely through the submarine field to France, where it succored the hungry.

We started out to follow the travels of two bushels of wheat from the farm to their points of consumption under war condition with the U. S. Food Administration in control of the marketing. I have previously discussed the journeys of these two bushels from the farm to the elevator at the country point. Here they parted and one of them passed on to a terminal, and from the terminal to a mill and from the mill to seaboard. There it went to France for consumption.

The Other Bushel of Wheat Starts Traveling.

AS to the other bushel of wheat. A certain Georgia miller, in need of supplies, notified the Grain Corporation and received permission to buy on the open market.

About the same time our co-operative elevator manager had listed a shipment with his terminal representative—a highly reputable commission firm, also under Grain Corporation license. This firm caught wind of the Georgia order and secured permission to sell the Missouri wheat. The second bushel was among those poured into a car and hustled along to its destination. This shipment did not pass through any terminal market. It moved straight to Atlanta, where it went between the rollers of the mill.

Controlling the Jobber by License.

Now, the flour which came from our second bushel of wheat was rolling serenely along in another direction, but the car was diverted by special order of the U. S. Food Administrator and received by a large wholesale jobber in New York City. This jobber also does business under a Food Administration license, but administered by the distribution division. Under license terms the jobbers must sell at a fair profit only, although the exact amount of this profit is not determined, the Food Administration reserving the right in each case to call a halt when a licensee has gone "the limit."

means of control of the retailer by making the jobber a voluntary policeman to his customer. The jobber is licensed to sell only to traders who deal fairly, and if it should turn out that a jobber persists in doing business with retailers guilty of profiteering in staples under control the Food Administration has and may exercise the right to revoke the license of the jobber.

The other part of this shipment contained our second bushel of wheat and went over to the East Side into a small bakery, which quickly made it into creamy loaves. These loaves were placed in groceries and delicatessens and the next day were eaten by hungry little boys and girls with dark eyes and big noses and quaint ways.

Brings Out Startling Truths.

Government control has brought out these startling truths: More people unnecessarily make their living out of wheat distribution than was suspected. Thousands and thousands of little speculators have had to turn elsewhere for a livelihood. A number of commission men have had to close shop. There are places where elevators should be built and other places where there are too many elevators. The Government, dominating the wheat market, carries its own marine insurance. Wheat handlers at terminals have had their activities restricted.

But most of all it is interesting to see how the price of flour per barrel tumbled from the time Uncle Sam took a positive hand in the matter. The Food Administration has recently completed an interesting chart on the prices of wheat and bulk flour at Minneapolis. In a statement of November 28, the Food Administration says: The farmer received for the 1918 harvest between $1.45 and $1.50 per bushel for the harvest, taking the country by large and small. Last year he received under 30 per cent of the price of the loaf. Today he is receiving over 40 per cent of the money paid for the cash loaf, this being the result of the stabilization of prices and the total elimination of hoarding and speculation in this industry.

The statement reports that farmers on November 26 were receiving with freight charges included from the territory represented to Minneapolis, approximately $9.50 for 4½ bushels of wheat. The price of bulk flour at the Minneapolis mill is about $10.25 per barrel, showing that the miller is now receiving about 75 cents per barrel, which must include both his operating expenses and profit.

URING last July and August, while Congress was wrestling with itself to produce a food administration, and there was no Grain Corporation, flour production in the principal centers was 75 per cent under the same period in 1916. In September, October and November, under the supervision of the Food Administration, flour production was 114 per cent of the same period in 1916. What this means in the great national situation, with depleted domestic flour reserves and clamoring foreign buyers, can hardly be over-emphasized, when movement of wheat into primary markets has been hardly Success in This War Depends Largely on America's Next Wheat Crop.

The New York jobber took for his own, in this case, a profit of 50 cents per barrel. He sold part of this shipment to a retail merchant.

This merchant did a small business and was not licensed, but even here was another social check. For the retail merchants of the large cities and those of many small cities and towns find each morning and afternoon in the daily papers a price list for flour and other commodities which are considered fair by the Federal Food Administrator for their State. These prices are usually arrived at through the machinery of the wholesalers' and the retailers' organizations.

The retailer also discovered that the jobber who sold him this flour was keenly interested in the prices paid by the consumer. For the Food Administration has discovered an indirect half that of a year ago, or 100,000,000 bushels less. It was nothing short of master strategy.

The total number of bushels purchased by the Grain Corporation from the time it commenced activities to February 1 is 97,276,145.59. Arranged by months, the purchases in bushels were: September, 7,841,209.20; October, 19,350,646.59; November, 30,920,074.26; December, 21,453,249.06, and January, 17,698,993.08.

During July and August our flour exports were about the same as in the same two months of 1916; but in September, October, and November, the exportation was 50 per cent larger than a year ago. So the Grain Corporation has discharged our obligations to the allies, and restored our flour reserves, which is the larger aspect of the question.

The Story That Private Leach Told

"I say, there," called Private Leach, sitting up weakly, "where you goin' with me blinkin' at?"

The dog cast a look back across his shoulder, wagged his tail pleasantly and continued to trot away, carrying Private Leach's cap in his jaws.

"E's got a bloomin' cheek, not 'alf!" observed Private Leach and lay down again. What difference did it make? He had clicked a bullet in his right thigh, and, what with the loss of blood and pain and hunger and all, a chap might as well "go west" without a cap as with one. Now that he'd managed to get a dressing on the wound and a bandage to hold the dressing in place, the bleeding was less, but the end of the smashed bone was grinding in the torn flesh. It wasn't a bit cushy, out there in No Man's Land, six hours in a shell hole with a busted leg.

The dog had popped up from nowhere at all, with his alert eyes and sensitive, searching nose. Girt tightly about his body was the broad white band bearing the flaming sign of the Red Cross. He stood quite still while Private Leach painfully unfastened the first aid package from his back and, still more painfully, applied the disinfectant, gauze pads and clean cotton tincture. Looking up, he whined a friendly, sympathetic whine, and the soldier patted him gratefully.

"Good old chap," said Private Leach. "You've been knocked about a bit yourself, eh?" He touched the dog's ear where a recent hurt had left a scarcely healed scar.

And then the rascal had seized Private Leach's cap and made off with it toward the lines, paying no serious attention to the wounded man's remonstrances.

"Rum little bloke!" remarked Private Leach and frowned.

Private Leach sat on a sunny bench in the small courtyard of the convalescent hospital and explained matters to a compatriot, likewise recovering from the effects of boche courtesy.

"And the bloomin' surgeon, 'e says them dawgs is trained like that. The one that found me, 'e don't mind bullets no more than buns, 'e don't, a-wizzin' past 'is 'ead. And when 'e finds a wounded chap 'e tykes 'is cap or anything that's loose 'e can get 'is teeth in, and away 'e goes to report to 'is K. O., like a good soldier. So then the stretcher bearers, they goes out and brings in the chap, same as they did me, d'ye see? Red Cross trains dawgs by 'undreds. Great, eh, wot?"

"Righto," agreed Private Leach's companion. "Spect you'd like to meet that fellow again. Dawgs'll look a bit different to me when I gets back to Bilgity. Bil-me, I awlways 'ated dawgs, but not now I don't."

"Look!" said Private Leach. "'Ere comes one of the little beggars."

A wiry, short haired dog with a deal of bull in his makeup came limping along on three legs, the fourth held stiffly in front of him by an ingenious arrangement of sling and bandage.

"Clicked a bit o' Frits's lead 'is bloomin' little self, 'e did, eh, wot? 'Ere, Bill. Nice old blokey."

The dog went and laid his head, friendly fashion, on Private Leach's knee and looked up into the soldier's face, whining sympathetically.

"'E knows 'ow it feels," observed Private Leach. Then, "I say, there, old timer, look at that ear!"

"Scar," said his companion. "'Been fightin', like as not."

"'Bl-me!" cried Leach. "'E's the syme chap. 'Ere, now, where you goin' with me blinkin' at?"

The dog, holding Private Leach's cap at a provoking distance, viewed the two convalescents with a mischievous eye.

"'E's a cute un. Wish 'e was goin' back to Bilgity wif me, not 'alf. Eh, wot?"

"Sure," agreed the other. "I always 'ated 'em, but not now I don't. Red Cross dawgs is bloomin' humans Strafe me if they ain't!"

ARE YOU DOING YOUR PART

WORK OF RED CROSS IS DESPERATELY NEEDED

It is Up to the Civil Population to Determine Length of the War, George W. Simmons Says.

It is right up to the civil population of the United States to determine the length of the war.

This is the stirring message sent to this country and particularly to the people of the Southwest by George W. Simmons, manager of the Southwest Division of the American Red Cross, who is in France on a tour of observation for the War Council of that organization.

Simmons has been at the front with the American forces; he has seen what the boys from the Southwest and other portions of the country are doing; he has seen the work of the Red Cross "over there" and he sends back the message that if the people of the whole United States only will realize that this is a war of nations, not of armies; remember that the American army and navy will do their part, then we can make sure of a victory for America and her allies by acting as a nation, thinking as a nation, fighting as a nation. If we do that, Simmons says in his message to the Southwest Division of the Red Cross, America will be the deciding factor in the war.

Nothing else matters if we do not win the war, Simmons says in a final appeal for harder Red Cross work and more ships with which to transport our men and supplies and munitions.

WHAT RED CROSS GIVES TO HOSPITAL PATIENTS

The following are the contents of a Red Cross "patient equipment" and a Red Cross comfort bag. These are given each patient upon his entrance into a Red Cross hospital:

Patient's Equipment—Six shirts, four pillow cases, two hot-water bags, three suits pajamas, two pairs bed socks, four hospital shirts, four pairs socks, one pair slippers, one bathrobe, three washrags, four face towels, two bath towels.

Comfort Bags—One tube tooth paste, one toothbrush, one cake soap, three shirt studs, one spool black thread, one spool white thread, one package needles, one thimble, six clothes buttons, 16 pins, four safety pins, one handkerchief, one pipe, one pencil, one pad paper, six envelopes.

RED CROSS HOME SERVICE WORKERS GUARD SECRETS

Home Service workers for the Red Cross naturally learn much of the private affairs of those whom they assist. They guard these secrets closely and never talk or gossip about matters that concern them only in an official way. Instructions on this point are explicit and emphatic. A recent communication says:

"How long would your physician last in your community if he told even one person the confidential, private information his patients had revealed to him? As a Home Service worker you are, in a sense, a physician to your families; therefore, take heed and reveal not a thing! Keep the trust they give you and hold sacred the intimate family matters they tell you about. You absolutely must do it!"

FINGER PRINTS TO BE TAKEN IN REGISTRATION OF GERMAN ALIEN FEMALES

The registration of German alien females, to begin Monday, June 17 and end Wednesday, June 26, will be conducted in cities or municipalities having 5,000 population or over by the police officials. In communities having a population of less than 5,000 the registration will be handled by postmaster.

In general the plan of registration is the same as that followed in the registration in February of German

JUNIOR RED CROSS IS DOING SPLENDID WORK HELPING TO WIN WAR

Hundreds of Thousands in Southwest Division Are Telling for Men in the Trenches.

Hundreds of thousands of children in the Southwest are helping to win the war for America and her allies. There are not better patriots in the United States, in the whole world.

In cities and towns the children, a majority of whom are members of the Junior Red Cross, are working in thrift gardens, knitting sweaters, socks, etc., for our soldiers, turning old paper, rubber, metals and bottles into cash and investing the returns in thrift stamps and liberty bonds, making refugee activity of the Red Cross in which they can be of service.

In the country the children, who also generally are members of the Junior Red Cross, are raising pigs, sheep, rabbits, chickens, making gardens, doing general farm work to aid in the production of foodstuffs, canning and preserving, and like their city cousins they are buying Thrift Stamps and Liberty Bonds, knitting and making refugee garments.

Schools Close to Aid Juniors.

Many rural schools already have suspended until next fall and thousands of children have begun Spring and Summer campaigns which have for their purpose the doing of everything possible to win the war. In a majority of the towns and cities of the Southwest the schools still are in session and the children are taking their knitting to school with them and working on it at recess time and the noon hour, then doing other Red Cross work after school hours.

The pupils of 3,500 schools in the Southwest division of the Red Cross have joined the Junior Red Cross since the membership campaign started early in February.

More than 100,000 children of the St. Louis schools are on the Junior membership rolls and 225,000 will have enrolled before the end of the campaign. This will make St. Louis 100 per cent Junior Red Cross. In other words, every child of school age who is in school soon will be a member.

Counties Use Unique Plans.

Tens of thousands more children will be enrolled outside St. Louis in the Southwest division within the next few weeks.

Many counties in the division have enrolled every school, and many unique methods have been employed to raise the required membership fees.

In Johnson County, Kansas, for instance, 5,000 children were enrolled as members of the Junior Red Cross in order to raise money with which to pay the enrollment fees of the children, a cherry pie making contest and auction was staged. Hundreds of the good women of the county baked cherry pies. The pies were auctioned at a social, and $2,500 was raised. A committee decided that the most delicious pie was the product of a woman 85 years old, who is ardently interested in Red Cross work. Her pie was bid in by a man, also 85 years old, for $12.50.
