ONE KILLED AND TWO ARE HURT IN THE CROWELL SHOOTING AFFRAY LAST WEEK

State Senator W. S. Bell is dead, and Everett Bell, son of the Senator, and J. A. Gafford are suffering from wounds as the result of a shooting affray in Crowell Saturday night.

Mrs. J. A. Gafford is suffering from a bruise on her head, supposed to have been inflicted by being struck with a gun. Senator Bell died about three hours after the shooting.

The tragedy occurred in front of the airplane moving picture show about 10:30 o'clock just as the crowd was leaving the place following the performance. According to the most reliable information, Mrs. Gafford entered the crowd, drew a pistol and attempted to fire at Fred Bell, son of the Senator, who married a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gafford December 8, 1918. The young woman died very suddenly February 10, 1919. The pistol snapped and young Bell escaped unhurt.

An effort was made to overpower Mrs. Gafford, it is said, by Senator Bell and his son, Everett. It was during this that the two men were wounded, the father mortally and the son more or less severely. A number of shots were exchanged. Mr. Gafford was wounded in the hip. Both Mr. Gafford and Everett Bell are expected to recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Gafford and their son Gordon, have been arrested. Funeral services for Senator Bell were conducted Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Baptist church in Crowell by Rev. C. E. Lindsey of Fort Worth, a former Methodist pastor at Crowell. Burial in the Crowell cemetery was under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity. An escort of honor for the remains was made up of Knights Templar from Vernon Commandery.

The dead man is survived by his wife and five children. He also has one brother, J. W. Bell, who is a prominent farmer and business man of Foard county, and three sisters, Mrs. J. T. Gribble, W. L. Ricks and B. B. Brogdon, all of whom live at Crowell.

The funeral was one of the most largely attended ever held in this section. Scores of friends from Foard and neighboring counties were present. About forty Masons and visitors from Vernon attended. Judge S. P. Huff, chief justice of the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo, who was in Vernon attended the funeral. He had known the deceased for years.

Senator Bell was born in North Carolina March 18, 1868. He went to Foard county with his parents and other members of the family when a young man about thirty years old. He and his brother became owners of large tracts of farming land and later engaged in different lines of business, including banking, milling and grain brokerage. They also owned considerable property in Crowell, county seat of Foard county.

Deceased was president of the Bank of Crowell and the Bell Grain Company. His special hobby, however, was raising fine hogs. His entries frequently won prizes in the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth. He was a prominent Mason, being a Knights Templar and a Shriner. He was a member of the Vernon Commandery.

Senator Bell represented the 103rd district in the 34th and 35th Legislatures and was elected to the State Senate from the 29th district last year. The 29th district is the largest in Texas and is made up of more than fifty Panhandle and North Texas counties.

While not a brilliant man, his business ability and familiarity with the problems of West Texas soon won for him a prominent place in the legislative affairs of Texas. He was a member of the Senate finance committee, one of the most important of the Senate committees. He had returned to Crowell from Austin just one week before his death and expected to leave for the capitol Sunday to be present at the opening of the opening of the special session of the Legislature.—Vernon Record.

CAPTAIN SIMPSON RETURNS TO HOME TOWN

After an absence of almost two years, during which he prepared for and fought in the great battle for Democracy, Capt. E. A. Simpson returned home Saturday evening. He was accompanied home by his wife who went to Fort Worth to meet him. He is looking the best and is in fine spirits. He says that he is more than glad to be at home once more. He modestly claims no praise but says the laudation is due to the boys. These figures of how the company, of which he was in command, suffered casualties, speak for themselves: The first time, 173 men and six officers went over the top. Of these, one officer was killed, 24 men were killed, and 97 men were wounded, making a total of 127 casualties. Capt. Simpson is the possessor of the Croix d' Guerre of which he may well be proud. We reprint his citation: "General Headquarters of the French Armies of the East No. 15338. With the approval of the Commander-in-Chief of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, the Marshal of France, Commander-in-Chief of the French Armies of the East, cites at the order of the Army Corps Captain Ethan A. Simpson, 142nd Infantry, an Officer of great bravery. He enthused his men during a long advance, encouraging them by his audacity and courage. They attained all the objectives assigned him. At the General Headquarters the 3rd of April, 1919. The Marshal, Commander-in-Chief of the French Armies of the East, Petain." Any words of praise that we might attempt are useless—he has been cited by those who stw him fighting.

Captain Simpson will resume the practice of law, and, for the present, will occupy the office formerly occupied by the late Hon. H. B. White. Friends join The News in congratulating the captain on his excellent record and on his safe return.

COMMUNITY SINGING ON COURT HOUSE LAWN

As a preparation for the community singing which will be done the fourth of July, a community singing service is called by those in charge, the singing to be on the Courthouse lawn next Monday evening at eight o'clock. Everyone is invited and urged to attend. The band will be there to accompany the singing.

Master Marvin Warren is visiting at the Davenport farm near Alareed.

PAVING GOING FORWARD WITH RAPID STRIDES

The paving, toward which everyone has been so anxiously looking forward, is now being rushed as fast as it is possible for men to work. The concrete has been laid on the north block of Main street and now the bricks are being laid at an almost incredible speed. It will not be long now until part of our city looks like a real city.

Mrs. G. O. Walker is here this week. She and her sons, Hollis and Gerald, are preparing to move to Wichita Falls, where she will join her husband who is one of the promoters of the Dixie Oil and Refining Company.

INTEREST IN OIL ACTIVITY INCREASES

Just as we go to press, good news comes from the various oil companies drilling or preparing to drill. At the Lelia Lake test drilling is progressing faster than ever before. At the Deep Lake test the well has reached a depth of 900 feet and is drilling in a blue shale with showing of oil.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harrah have received word from their son, Lee stating that he has landed at Camp Mills, New York and that he expects to be discharged soon.

Miss Mary Bourland is visiting in Amarillo this week.

CROP PROSPECTS FOR DIVERSIFYING DONLEY ARE THE MOST FAVORABLE IN YEARS

STATE MEET OF PHOTOGRAPHERS MOST SUCCESSFUL IN HISTORY OF ASSOCIATION

J. R. Bartlett, our efficient photographer, gives an interesting account of the Twentieth Convention of the Professional Photographers of Texas which occurred June 17, 18 and 19th. The meeting place was Dallas and there was the largest attendance this year in the history of the Association. The program was full of interesting and instructive talks by Eastman Kodak Company's best demonstrators and chemists as well as by the representatives of other well known photographic manufacturers. There was one of the best and broadest displays of photographs that the convention has had in years.

The entertainment feature was of the highest standard, the photographers and stack house dealers of Dallas putting forth every effort possible in the way of hotel accommodations. A large banquet on Wednesday evening at the Automobile Country Club was most successful. After supper the dancing, reading, and acts presented by two of the smaller girls were better than ordinary scenes on high class stages. That evening a circuit picture of the association was made, also a moving picture was taken and, on Thursday evening, the photographers had the pleasure of seeing themselves in moving pictures at the Old Mill Theater.

The Association unanimously voted on the union of the Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana associations, this to be known as the Southwest Professional Photographer's Association.

On the afternoon of the last day the election of officers for the ensuing year was held. C. I. Brown of Dallas was elected president, W. D. Orr, of Memphis, 1st Vice-president, and A. L. Blanchard, of Hillsboro, secretary-treasurer. Then followed the awarding of the prizes and the convention adjourned to meet in Dallas next year.

PHILATHEA PICNIC

The Philathea Sunday school class of the Methodist church of which Mrs. W. R. Silvey is teacher spent a very delightful evening Tuesday at the river.

Delicious salads, sandwiches, iced tea, cake and ice cream were immensely enjoyed by the twenty-nine who participated.

After eating of the sumptuous feast games were entered into and much merriment ensued.

Besides class members there were several guests.

Our county is known as Diversifying Donley and the variety of crops grown is limited only by the variety of crops planted. Not only do the farmers feel most encouraged but the travelers through our county speak in the highest terms of the wonderful prospects that are ours. Not only is every foot of soil hitherto under cultivation, being worked this year but much new land is being planted in some crop. Corn is the principal crop being planted on this new land, and prospects are that this year will see the greatest corn yield that Donley County has ever known according to those who are in a position to know. Our county knows not what it is to fail to make plenty of feed but the feed stuff gives promise of a bumper crop. Wheat, although not planted in so large an acreage as other crops, will make a yield that is little short of enormous.

Much cotton has been planted, and is in splendid condition and is growing nicely.

Alfalfa near Lelia Lake will be the usual good crop as in former years. Throughout the Lelia and Hedley sections, crops are in good condition and the abundance of rye that is planted there is at once noticeable.

From about Clarendon and from the north and west sections of the county good reports come. In some sections, the hail and heavy rains have destroyed some of the planting, but the replanting is in fine shape and the farmers are not in the least discouraged. Altogether, our county has never had more encouraging prospects, and ours is the prosperity attendant therewith.

BAND TO GIVE OPEN AIR CONCERT FRIDAY EVENING

The second of the series of concerts to be given by the D. C. P. C. band will be given on the Courthouse lawn Friday evening at eight o'clock. The first concert was given some two weeks ago with a good attendance, and this one will be on the same order. The band has been employed to furnish music for the picnic on "the Fourth," and will give weekly programs during the summer as was promised. These concerts are given at an hour that they may be attended without missing other engagements later in the evening.

GERMANY WILL SIGN

The good news comes that Germany will affix her official signature to the treaty of peace dictated by the allies at Versailles.

The national assembly has so decided by a vote of 237 to 138.

The size of the figures make but little difference finally as the main thing was to secure the adherence of Germany to the peace pact, thus ending the tremendous suspense hanging over the whole civilized world and affording an opportunity for the nations to begin putting into operation the machinery of peace.

It has taken many months of argument, many weeks of futile wrangling, many days of violent denunciation of disputed points in the treaty to bring to the conquered Huns the realization of the truth of the old axiom, "To the victors belong the spoils," and of the co-ordinate truism that the defeated have no rightful voice in the final settlement of terms.

The world is not so much concerned just now with the awards of the treaty, with how many square miles of German soil that must be yielded to France or to Poland, with how many million marks must be paid as indemnity for the frightful losses sustained by the allies in war, with the severance of control over the colonies from which Germany hoped at one time to secure a harvest of raw material for the continuation of her splendid line of industries; nor so much with the fact that for years upon years to come German industries and German endeavors must be subordinate to German advancement, while efforts and industries are engaged in earning the money that must settle the final reparation to come.

What the world is concerned in is that war and peace have now come to the parting of the ways; that the hatreds engendered by the worldwide conflict shall now be modified and reach final disappearance in that amity and concord which is confidently looked for by the promulgation of the momentous document framed at Versailles.

Peace has not the word a blessed sound? It conjures up the happy homelife of millions of families. It looks out upon the waving fields of grain never to be trampled under the ruthless hoofs of the squadrons of war. It gazes upon a million factories wherein are made raiment and food for happy, contented multitudes. It views with satisfaction the extension of leagues upon leagues of railroads and the building of miles upon miles of lasting highways which shall span the continents and bind the nations together, and all of these

FOURTH OF JULY

Does the Fourth of July have the same thrill for the boy of today that it had for his father and his grandfather? Or, to put it another way, has the modern boy the same capacity for being thrilled?

Fathers seemed much older in those days than they do now: older and graver. To give their sons money to spend for fireworks was quite out of the ordinary; those who did it were looked upon as not unlikely to regret their spendthrift habits in old age. If the boys want Fourth of July money, let 'em go earn it! And so they did—by digging dandelions and working in the strawberry beds and picking berries and doing other simple homely things that lay at hand.

By the middle of June the firecrackers had been bought—always the same kind, "first chop," and always eight cents a bunch, with one yellow and one green cracker somewhere in the package—the "king" and the "queen," reputed, through the glamor that always radiates from royalty, to "speak" a little louder than any of the others; but they never did.

The real preparations for the great day began by the appointment among the boys of a sort of committee on alien property, whose duty it was to discover, condemn and requisition the material for the big bonfire—empty barrels, especially tar or oil barrels, crates, old lumber, packing boxes and anything else that would burn. The committee was expected to be alert and aggressive, and, in considering the matter of old wagons, loose front gates and detachable doorsteps, to err on the side of severity rather than on that of leniency.

It is not necessary to tell how "the crowd" managed to get out together before midnight. Some knowledge the young are better without. Some secrets must remain forever locked in faithful breasts. But Fourth of July began when one by one the boys came slipping silently out of the darkness into the hum and joyous recognition of the meeting place; and it began right there. Church bells began to ring wildly and incoherently; "devil's fiddles" made of a tomato can, a nail and a rosined string, sent forth their infernal music; and by and by, when they had got the anvil out of Ferguson's blacksmith shop, and filled the hardy hole with powder, and tamped wet paper in on top of it, there was a deep, ear-splitting, thunderous roar that teame rolling back in echoes from the hills across the river and made father turn over in bed and say, "Confound those boys! Why can't they wait till daylight and let people sleep!"

What you saw by the dawn's early light was the Antiques and Horribles, that delectable parade of fantasies, on foot, on horseback, and in wagons, at the head of which was the cage with a pig in it and a big sign that said, "The Irish Lion." Then came a hurried breakfast, and after that the real business of the day, which was firecrackers: "fuses" made by breaking a cracker open in the middle; "cat 'n' dog fights," in which the cat hissed frightfully and the dog barked his head off; crackers under straw hats and in bottles under and under tin cans; crackers till the whole air, all over the town, was full of the intoxicating odor of Chinese powder and slow matches, sweeter than anything in Araby the Blest.

Oh, no, it wasn't the best way to celebrate the birthday of our independence. It wasn't safe, and it wasn't sane. We do it better now. But when the great day comes, just notice the retrospective look on the faces of some of the middle-aged men you meet.—Youth's Companion.

THINGS TO FORGET

One of the South's greatest ministers recently said the following in an address which contains some advice worth heeding:

"First of all we should forget our blunders. These we should not brood over, but should cast utterly from our minds. Second, we should forget our losses, especially our property losses. Think how inconsequential these are when compared to divine attributes, such as love, devotion and happiness. I can think of no sight so pitiful or deplorable as that of a man brooding over lost money. Third, we should forget our mental injuries and personal grievances. Life is too short for a man to harbor malice or ill will toward any of his fellows or think seriously or permanently of some personal slight. If a man permits hate to dwell in his heart, his perspective of life is destroyed, his relations with the Divine Master are stained. Hate is a poison; it is ruinous and disastrous to life.

"Fourth, we should forget our successes. Success is a touch stone which tests the true metal of a man. If a man can stand success, he can stand anything. But many men can not stand success; it perverts their better natures, making them greedy and materialistic. All our worldly gain and winnings should be placed on the altar of humanity to be used in harmony with the will of God.

"Fifth, we should forget our sorrow. When life's black Friday comes—and it will come to all—do not despair, but, like the oyster, seek for a pearl with which to fill the void in your hearts. Last, we should forget our sins. Sin is a blunder; sin is moral madness. We must remember that God has in His power to cleanse our sins, irrespective of how flagrant they may be."

"OWN A HOME FOR YOUR CHILDREN'S SAKE."

Ambitions may be realized in your children, if you have the home environment which transmits to them the ambition. The basic need is a home and the sense of shelter and security which goes with ownership. If there were no other arguments worth while men would be more than justified, in building and owning their own homes for the children's sake.

Like father like son! The next generation will not be a home-owning one if the present generation doesn't show the benefits of home-owning and inculcate the home-owning ambition. If you are determined that John and Mary shall have a fair show to make good on your ambitions for them, get them tucked away in a good home—a home that is all yours and theirs. It will become to them the very hub of the universe; a very sacred spring of inspiration and a very tangible example of the prudence of thrift. White, deceased, to then and there appear in said court and offer their objections, if any they have, to the Probate of said will and to the appointment of Mrs. Flora G. White as independent executrix thereof.

This summons you will make by causing a copy hereof to be published for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in Donley County, Texas.

Herein fail not but this writ together with your return hereon written before said court at the first day of the next term thereon endorsed.

Given under my hand and seal this 21st day of June, 1919.

W. E. Bray, County Clerk, Donley County, Texas.

D. W. Elliot is among the soldiers who returned home Saturday morning. He was with the 144th, Thirty-Sixth Division.

CROP PROSPECTS AND GENERAL PANHANDLE NEWS

Frank R. Jamison of Canadian, recent editor of the Record has accepted the place as secretary of the Panhandle Chamber of Commerce, with headquarters at Amarillo, with office at the Board of City Development rooms, so a news despatch reports. Mr. Jamison will call a meeting of the directors of the organization and proceed to organize for active campaigning for the Panhandle.

The Panhandle Chamber of Commerce could never secure a better man for the place than Mr. Jamison, and we know that there will be something worth while accomplished as long as Jamison is Secretary of the organization.—Miami Chief.

Panhandle has been getting more than its share of moisture for the past two weeks. Scarcely a day has passed without a sprinkle or a down-pour.

The wheat is at the stage now where it is needing some warm dry weather and these frequent rains are also coming at a time when the putting in of the row crops is being hindered.—Panhandle Herald.

The movement of 1919 wheat to market has commenced. The Kell Milling Company has received from 4,000 to 5,000 bushels at the Vernon plant and their eight other elevators. About 2,000 bushels have been delivered at Vernon. Two threshing outfits were in operation near Oklaunion yesterday and three more started this morning. With favorable weather the movement of the crop to elevators will be in full swing next week. The crop will be marketed in an unusual short time this year, due to the fixed price, which removes all speculation, and scarcity of money among farmers.—Vernon Record.

Miami above all things just now needs a commercial organization of some kind. If we will take notice to what Commercial Clubs of other towns are accomplishing, we can readily see that Miami should and must have some kind of a Commercial Club. There never was a lack of funds in our town to support a club it has always been a lack of attendance among the business and professional men. We can't remember the time when such an organization could not get all the funds needed for its work, but we can remember when we could not get half a dozen men to spend thirty minutes in a meeting. Attendance to the meetings are equally essential as money, and until our business men are willing to give a little time, as well as money we cannot have a successful club.—Miami Chief.

OLD POSTAL RATES WILL GO INTO EFFECT JULY FIRST

On July 1, the old postal rates of 1 and 2 cents for letters and 1 cent for postal cards, the same as before the war, will go into effect. Orders have been sent out to the postmasters advising discontinuance of the sale of the 2-cent cards and 3-cent envelopes. The following are a few of the paragraphs giving advice and which will be general information to the public.

Postmasters shall redeem from the public all unused and undamaged No. 9 and No. 10 2-cent cards and 3-cent stamped envelopes, printed or unprinted at full value, provided they are convinced such cards and envelopes are presented by the original purchasers.

Postmasters shall furnish in exchange for such cards and envelopes, postage stamps, postal cards or stamped envelopes of other denominations or varieties to be selected by the owner, or may apply them in payment or part payment for 2-cent special-request envelopes.

No postal cards nor stamped envelopes shall be redeemed from the public in cash.

The public will be allowed one month from July 1 in which to present their 2-cent cards and 3-cent envelopes for exchange at full value. After the expiration of that time postage value only shall be allowed for the envelopes and three-fourths of postage value for the cards, except as provided in Sec. 11 of these instructions.

FORMER NEWS OPERATOR AWARDED CROIX DE GUERRE

Last week a notice came from the War Department to Mrs. Sarah Baird of Childress informing her that she had been posthumously awarded the Croix de Guerre by the French government on account of the heroic action of her son, Chas. W. Baird, who was killed in action in France October 12, last.

As yet no information has come stating just what conduct or act of deceased brought about this coveted distinction, but it is certain that some unusual act of heroism or daring was the cause. This will probably be known when the decoration arrives.

Charles Baird was a printer on The Post for more than a year and as he was doomed to forfeit his life in the great war, we feel much grieved to know that he died the death of a real hero and congratulate his mother, brothers and sisters on the great honor that has come to the family as a result of the heroism of their dead loved one. Charlie sleeps in a foreign land but he has left behind an imperishable memory.—Childress Index.

Mr. Frank Cobb and Miss Crane decided to quit the walks of single blessedness, and to share the Counsel of Solomon, "He that findeth a wife findeth a good thing." "Rejoice Oh! Young man in the wife of thy youth."—Tulsa Herald.

DAYLIGHT SAVING PERIOD WILL END OCTOBER 26

Washington, June 18.—Doom of daylight saving, inaugurated as a war measure was pronounced today by congress, both senate and house adopting by overwhelming votes measures to terminate operation of the law when the period of summer vtime ends next October 26.

The house by a vote of 233 to 132 passed a bill to repeal the law on the last Sunday in next October, but rejected an amendment to make the repeal effective at once.

The senate by a vote of 56 to 6, added a rider to the agricultural bill providing for repeal of daylight measure on the same date fired by the house bill.

The senate measure goes to conference with the agricultural bill and the house bill is to be sent to the senate. It is considered likely the senate amendment will be finally substituted for the house measure.

At the session of the Commissioners' Court Monday of this week, Mrs. L. E. Craig offered her resignation as county clerk of Roberts County, which resignation was accepted and the application for the appointment of M. M. Craig was also accepted and Mr Craig appointed county clerk filling the unexpired term of his wife. Mr. Craig qualified Monday and assumed the duties of office immediately.—Miami Chief.

It is interesting to know that a gallon of kerosene, used to run the Delco-Light plant, will give you four times as much light as if you burned it in lamps in the ordinary way.

Besides that, it is better light! It's electric light, bright, radiant, cheerful. And you get it just by pressing a button, an abundant flood of it, instant and reliable. There are no lamps to fill, to clean or to carry about the house. There is no danger from open flames. Little folks can play about it with absolute safety.

Then the evening time—that time of the day that is intended for rest and enjoyment, can be spent in greater comfort and satisfaction because of bright light that can be turned on everywhere—plenty of light for everybody. Nobody's good time can be spoiled by reason of dim, gloomy lights or the failure of a faulty lighting system where Delco-Light is used.

You and your family will be interested in learning all about the possibilities of Delco-Light for lighting homes. You will be interested to know what the experience has been in other families where Delco-Light is in use. Let us bring you the testimony of other users and show you how easily you can have it to light your home.

K. C. STOCK MARKET REPORT

Kansas City Stock Yards, June 23, 1919—Hog prices today were 50 to 75 cents higher, mostly 75 cents up, the largest advance in any one day reported this season. The $21.00 quotation which disappeared last Tuesday was returned and packers and shippers were in a wild scramble to get the offerings. Cattle sold slowly at lower prices because of large receipts at all markets. Sheep were lower also. Live stock receipts today were 13,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs and 6000 sheep, an increase of 3000 cattle and a decrease of 2500 sheep, and 6000 hogs, compared with a week ago, and about the same number of cattle, 4500 fewer hogs, and 3300 fewer sheep than a year ago. The decrease in hog receipts is attributed to the rush of farm work. Liberal receipts at all the principal markets added dullness and lower prices to fat cattle today. The market now is the lowest of the season, and demand is unable to find any expanding outlet for beef product. In many cases steers were 25 cents lower today, and $1.00 under a week ago, and buying was extremely slow. A few choice heavy steers sold at $13.75 to $14.40 and the bulk of the offerings sold at $11.25 to $13.50. A few car loads from Colorado and Arizona were the only far western cattle here. Cows were 10 to 15 cents lower. Goods cows are quoted at $8.50 to $10.50 and prime grades up to $11.50. Heifers are selling at $8.00 to $14.00. Bulls $7.00 to $9.50 and veal calves $10.00 to $15.25. Country demand for stockers and feeders today was limited and while some early sales were steady the bulk of the offerings were down 25 to 35 cents and trade dull. Thin cattle have declined $1.00 to $1.50 in the past two weeks. Feeders are quoted at $10.00 to $12.50, stockers $8.50 to $11.50 and stock cows and heifers $7.00 to $9.50. The hog market today was the most sensational of the season. Prices were advanced 75 cents compared with Friday. The top price today was $21.05, and the general market was fully $1.00 higher than last Thursday. Shippers and packers were in a scramble to get the offerings and packers paid the top price. The bulk of hogs sold at $20.50 to $20.90. Pigs sold up to $20.25. Big declines in Chicago last week and further declines there today set sheep prices down at other markets. Here the decline was about 50 cents, and the market went into a new position for the year. Lambs are quoted at $15.00 to $16.75, ewes $8.50 to $10.00, wethers $9.25 to $11.00 and goats $6.00 to $7.75. Prices for farm mares, seasoned work animals, and big mules remain firm, but green kinds, misfits and southern grades sell slowly. Range horses at last week's auction met a slow demand. Chas. M. Pipkin, Correspondent.

AID THE FATHERLESS CHILDREN OF FRANCE

One of the most appealing of the after-the-war campaigns will be launched this month, asking for foster parents for 60,000 little war orphans of France. Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, wife of the Romanian Consul to Chicago, Chairman of the Chicago Committee and Vice-President of the National Committee of the Fatherless Children of France, has charge of the promotion of this campaign.

Mrs. Brewster has just returned from a tour of investigation through the devastated regions of France. The highest French officials provided her with military escort and bestowed upon her every courtesy during her visit to the war zone. She lived with the appalling conditions of these children and their mothers—she knows that thousands of children "over-there" are undernourished, starving and succumbing to sickness.

"In all the northern country," says Mrs. Brewster, "there is no village untouched, and scarcely a house with a roof. There is not a bridge that has not been dynamited, a factory that has not been ruined. The tales that are told of the boche invasion are unthinkable—shocking. Still the people of the north tell them dispassionately. They have borne so much they have no energy to show excitement over their suffering. They are coming back into these terrible towns as soon as they are allowed. They bring their possessions with them in two string bags, usually. Possibly they have enough to fill a red cotton tablecloth knotted at the corners. To Cambria, 17,000 out of a pre-war population of 29,000 have returned. They live ten and twelve in a room, and many of the rooms have no roof. "For two days we motored over this northern country before we saw a cow, a chicken or a horse. The country is stripped bare of everything that makes it liveable. But to the French it is still lovable. As you ride through it your pity for France is infinite. But in your mind are no words to express your feelings toward Germany. There are miles and miles of grayish-brown dust where were fertile farms, pleasant villages, forests and orchards. About Verdun as far as you can see, are heaps of sand, no sign of life that was, no promise of any life to come.

"Here and there is a cross where some soldier, killed in the last days of the fighting, is buried.

"Those who died in the frightfulness of the earlier battles lie somewhere beneath that awful heap of dust. All along this strip of dead country are soldiers' graves, singly in the middle of plowed fields, in groups along the roads, or row after row in some cemetery.

The fathers of many of the little children for whom we are seeking to care are buried there, and more have left no trace."

Every day of her stay in the war zone it was made vividly clear to Mrs. Brewster that "we must work harder and faster than ever before for thousands of children are perishing in France."

Under the plan of the campaign being undertaken, each American foster parent pledges ten cents a day, which makes $3 per month, or $36.50 a year, and this added to a tiny allowance of the same amount allowed by the French Government, means saving grace to a French child, allowing it not only to remain in its own country, but with its widowed mother instead of in an institution. Thus are the broken remnants of the little war families kept together. Each foster parent is put in direct touch with the child for whom she has pledged the necessary 10 cents a day, and with its mother through correspondence. Every cent subscribed goes to the child. The expenses of this philanthropy are borne by generous friends of the organization. To adopt a child or to make a donation, large or small, write for information to Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, Room 634, 410 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., with whom all local chairmen of the Fatherless Children of France, in every community, are co-operating.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Otis Naylor, who was suddenly taken ill Saturday, is recovering nicely.

Carl Parsons departed Friday evening for Weatherford and other points on a visit.

THE AFTER-THE-WAR PROBLEM SOLVED BY THE PEOPLE

There is a need today of a great many manufactured articles, of goods which we were not able to manufacture during the war. Two years have entirely depleted the surplus stock in nearly every line except war munitions.

Then, Government economists, thru the medium of the Department of Labor, state frankly that the American people are in excellent position to buy. Wages were high during the war and means of expenditure were limited.

Today we have the proper conditions for a demand that will lead to large production, the revival of business and the end of any serious unemployment.

As a result of which Roger W. Babson, Director General of the Information and Education Service of the Department of Labor, is urging the people to buy now in order that business may receive this needed stimulus.

Mr. Babson asks pointedly: "What are you doing, Mr. Manufacturer; what are you doing Mr. Merchant; and you, Mr. Everyday Working-man?" He then urges them to get together, to co-operate, to keep industry going.

He admonishes them to adjust their business, to adjust themselves to the after-the-war conditions. He urges them to renew selling, renew producing on the peace-time basis, and thus create jobs for our returned fighters.

He says: "You who have work, you who have money, BUY NOW—for your plant, your store, your own little home. Get going. Full speed ahead. BUY NOW!"

RELIGIOUS WORK ON THE BORDER

State Secretary L. A. Coulter has just received at his office at the State Headquarters of the Young Men's Christian Association, a report from the Departmental Office at San Antonio, showing that during the month of April there was a total attendance of 13,360 at the religious services of the Y. M. C. A. conducted in the camps along the Mexican border.

The report further shows that during the same month there were 120 religious meetings and 71 Bible Classes held, and 1977 Scriptures and 6335 pieces of Christian Literature handed out. There were 1802 religious interviews, with many suggestions of interest, and requests for prayers and 22 Christian decisions.

Mr. Coulter expressed satisfaction with the report, since it was on the strength of a report of his two years ago that this work was begun. About half of the Y Secretaries in border service are ministers, able men from substantial charges, and he considers the attendance sufficient proof of the appreciation of the men. For obvious military reasons the number of posts and number of men at each post cannot be made public.

PUBLIC NOW TOLD ALL ABOUT TANLAC

Authorities Now Show Just What This Medicine Really Is.

In a recent issue of this paper announcement was made that Tanlac now has the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world, and that more than twelve million bottles had been sold during the past four years.

These are unusual figures, and the question naturally arises in the mind of the reader why this phenomenal success and why this preparation so far out-stripped all other medicines of its kind. It is only natural therefore that the manufacturers should offer some explanation to satisfy public interest.

In the first place, Tanlac is manufactured in one of the largest and most modernly equipped laboratories in this country. Its formula is purely ethical and complies with all national and state pure food and drug laws. Altogether there are ten ingredients in Tanlac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value.

Many of these ingredients have been individually known and used since civilization first began, and some of them have been used and prescribed by leading physicians everywhere, but until they were brought together in proper proportion and association as in Tanlac formula, humanity had not heretofore realized their full value and effect.

In referring to one of the more important ingredients of Tanlac, the Encyclopedia Britanica says: "It has long been the source of the most valuable tonic medicines that have ever been discovered." In referring to others of the general tonic drugs contained in Tanlac the 13th Edition of Potter's Therapeutics, a standard medical text book, states that—"They impart general tone and strength to the entire system, including all organs and tissues."

This same well-known authority in describing the physiological action of still another of the ingredients of Tanlac which is of value in treating what is commonly known as "a run-down condition" uses the following expression: "It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

There are certain other elements in Tanlac which because of their influence upon the appetite, digestion, assimilation and elimination improve the nutrition and vital activity of all the tissues and organs of the body, and produce that state of general tonic which is called health.

In discussing another ingredient the Encyclopedia Britanica says: "It is one of the most efficient of that class of substances which act upon the stomach so as to invigorate digestion and thereby increase the general nutrition. It is used in dyspepsia, chlorosis, anemia and various other diseases in which the tone of the stomach and alimentary canal is deficient." Concerning still another ingredient this same standard authority says: "It causes dilation of the gastric blood vessels, increases secretion of the gastric juice, and causes greater activity in the movements of the muscular layers in the walls of the stomach. It also tends to lessen the sensibility of the stomach, and so may relieve gastric pain."

The United States Dispensary makes the following comment regarding another ingredient: "It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required. Dyspepsia, atonic gout hysteria, and intermittent fever are among the many affections in which it has proven useful."

There are certain other ingredients described in the Dispensary and in other standard medical text books as having a beneficial action upon the organs of secretion, whose proper functioning results in the purification of the blood streams passing through them. In this manner objectionable and poisonous ingredients of the blood are removed, and the entire system is invigorated and vitalized.

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time, however, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder, for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and the thorough elimination of the waste products must therefore have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

Although Tanlac's claims for supremacy are abundantly supported by the world's leading authorities, it is the people themselves who have really made Tanlac what it is. Millions upon millions have used it, and have told other millions what it has done for them. That is why Tanlac has become the real sensation of the drug trade in this country, and that is also why it is the most widely talked-of medicine in the world today.

Tanlac is sold in leading drug stores everywhere.

Sold 'For Keeps'

It is a pleasure to sell Goodrich Silvertown Cord Tires. When one of our customers tries one Silvertown, it isn't long before he wants them "all around." Satisfied customers keep us in business. The Silvertowns we've sold around this town are piling up thousands of miles without a come-back. And Silvertowns cost little more than fabrics, which makes them a pretty good buy. Every Silvertown we sell, stays sold. You are sure a tire is RIGHT only when you know the manufacturer habitually means to make good tires and has the resources to do it. That's what we know about Goodrich. Make our store your store. Every motorist needs advice and help at times. Our knowledge and experience are your for the asking.

Savings Campaign Is Boon To Women

The average family in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico is not wealthy enough for the "lady of the house" to have all the little conveniences she wants. Through Thrift and War Savings Stamps, however, the Government has provided a way for the housewife to fit up her kitchen, paint the house, furnish her spare room or embellish the parlor.

Those women who were so wise as to begin saving systematically early in 1918 have nice little sums invested in War Savings Stamps by this time. Eleven War Savings Stamps, some of which cost as little as $4.12 apiece, will buy a first class kitchen cabinet. In many instances, the housewife would not have saved anything to speak of, had it not been for the War Savings Stamps.

Some of the banner Savings Societies in the Eleventh District are in women's clubs or church societies. Women are quick to grasp the benefits from habits of Thrift. Numerous reports have been received at District Headquarters of the Savings Division at Dallas of women who have started in by putting quarters in Thrift Stamps and who have been enabled to buy desired articles to brighten up their homes. As soon as a War Savings Stamp is bought, it begins earning more money. War Savings Stamps are ready money. They are redeemable with accrued interest at the post-office on ten days' notice, but the longer they are held, the more money they make for their holders.

The First Thousand Is Hard To Get

When a man gets $1,000.00 saved up there are always opportunities for a good investment. It is hard to place much less than that. That is why wealthy men who are self-made advise young men to begin early and save the first thousand.

Until we went to war, it was hard to get started toward that $1,000.00 unless at least one dollar could be put away at a time. Small change was restless and acrobatic and kept jumping out of our pockets into somebody else's.

Now, however, there is an easy way to get that first thousand. The answer is Thrift Stamps. They cost only a quarter apiece and can be converted into War Savings Stamps. The Government of the United States backs these War Savings Stamps with a guarantee of 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly. Save and Succeed.

Here is what one man did. If you don't know him you know someone just like him in your home town.

Twenty years ago he owned the clothes he stood in and that was about all.

He saved fifty dollars the first year, with a little better wages, seventy five.

One thing with another—a wife and family included—he has saved an average of five dollars a week for the twenty years.

What he saved in twenty years was about five thousand dollars. What he has is twice five thousand dollars—like the man in the parable:

His dollars working for him bring him now more than his yearly savings.

Making a "wealth heap" has two processes—addition and multiplication.

Saving is addition—a dollar and a dollar and a quarter. It comes easier as one goes along but the increase is no faster next year than now.

When you set the dollar to work—that is multiplication. Your pile grows slowly this year, a little faster, still a little faster, then faster, and faster, till interest outruns savings.

War Savings Stamps do more than add dollar to dollar. They begin to multiply.—Ex.

All Abroad For Clarendon

July 4th 1919

The time for Clarendon's Annual event is almost here again and of course you will be here this year. Never in the history of our Celebrations, have we had as much to celebrate for, as we have this year. In addition to our National Independence Day, Germany has just accepted the League of Nations Peace Terms, which is the final act in the world's great war, and our own boys—our heroes—have just returned and we are to formally welcome them home on this day. The first on the program is a parade of all Soldiers and Sailors and all the boys and girls clubs of the county. This will be a sight worth coming miles to see. This will be followed by community singing on the Court House lawn by the various clubs of the county, together with all who attend the picnic. Then after an address of welcome to the soldier boys, Captain E. A. Simpson will deliver an address, giving the history of Co. H, and the part they played in the great war, from their organization in Clarendon two years ago, until their return home.

This will be the most interesting part of the program and will be just what all of us, especially the mothers and fathers, are longing to hear. Captain Simpson is a most able speaker and will interest you from start to finish. After this comes the dinner. Plenty of tables will be supplied and every family in Donley County is expected to bring a well filled box or trunk (baskets are too small) and all will spread their dinners on the table, so that all will feel that they are welcome to it.

Let there be no "Slackers" in Donley County on July 4th. The boys went "over-there" or were preparing to go to do their part and its asking a small thing of you to bring a large box of dinner on this occasion.

At 1:30 the racing program will begin. The committee has arranged a nice program for your amusement, consisting of horse races, slow mule race, potato race, goat roping contest, and a baseball game between the Colored team of Amarillo vs. Clarendon. This will absolutely be the funniest event ever staged in Clarendon, and if it hurts you to laugh, you had better not see it.

The committees are all hard at work and all will soon be ready for this long to be remembered 4th of July. Begin now making your plans to come and you mothers begin catching those yellow legged chickens and those big hams you have been saving until your boy came marching home. Let's all pull together to make this the best time in Clarendon's history. All Soldiers and Sailors requested to wear their uniforms and join in the parade at 9 a. m.
