

BILLIES' APPLE CART FULL TO BRIM; ONLY TWO MORE CHANCES FOR UPSET; HOWARD PAYNE PRAYS

Daniel Baker Hill Billies were very jubilant this week. And why not? With a conference crown so close that they can practically touch it, and with the scalps of the McMurry Redskins in their belt everything looks rosy out on Austin Hill.

Playing under the long range bombardments of "Skipper" Howard, the Billies scored late in the first quarter. Taking the ball on their own 39, the locals uncorked an aerial attack that resulted in pay dirt as the period closed. A heave from Howard to Crane turned the trick and Little converted.

HUNTERS ANTICIPATE HEAVY SEASON; GAME PLENTIFUL IN REGION

Hunters have already started cleaning and oiling their guns in anticipation of a busy season ahead, as game is plentiful this year, according to Game Warden J. H. Wood.

Twice during the third quarter and once in the fourth the Indians were on the Hill Billy 8-yard line with a first down, but the Bakerites tightened the hold.

ASSISTANCE TO AGED WILL BE SPEEDED BY DIRECTOR CARPENTER

"Our definite responsibility is to get assistance to the needy aged, and no deserving applicant or pension recipient in Texas should be afraid that we will overlook him," said Acting Director Orville S. Carpenter, of the Texas Old Age Assistance Commission, explaining re-investigation procedure required by the new pension statute.

Those Not On Rolls

"Of the applicants whose cases have not been investigated, or now are in the process of investigation, we will ascertain those whose applications reflect need and then act to them first. Many of our policies will be determined by the fact that winter is coming and that the needy aged must be taken care of now and not six months from now."

Market Still Quotes 12 Cents On Turkeys

Price for turkeys in Brownwood markets still remains at 12 cents for No. 1 birds, old hens, 10 cents, old Toms, 9 cents, and No. 2's, 8 cents. Although the top price of 12 cents is considerably lower than as any price quoted in Texas thus last year's quotation, it is as high for this season.

BROWNWOOD IS WINNER OVER EASTLAND, 26-20

Showing surprising strength and a passing attack the Lions were unable to break up, the Eastland Mavericks outplayed the Brownwood Lions in the high school Armistice Day game, but Brownwood won, 26 to 20. The game had no bearing on the Oil Belt Conference race, which sees San Angelo firmly entrenched in first place.

Over the hills and through the snow—
Now Grandmother's cap I spy!
Hurrah for the fun—is the pudding done?
Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!
We've always thought that this little verse—which is certainly in the repertoire of every well brought up American—holds a very right and proper attitude toward Thanksgiving. The journey is pleasant and exciting—Grandmother herself is all right, and there's going to be lots of fun—but it's the dinner, ah that dinner, that is the real center of the stage!

Thanksgiving Brings Out the Best In Cooks

There's something inspirational to us all about Thanksgiving dinner. Mediocre cooks turn, almost overnight, into chefs of the first water, and a good cook performs miracles of gastronomical elegance upon her humble stove, until the very air from the kitchen itself will drive a hungry man mad. Thanksgiving dinner just simply MUST NOT FAIL!

To that end, we're giving here getting together a good number of some hints that we've picked up in Thanksgiving dinners—that will help all toward that elegant feeling of stuffed sufficiency that should steal over the family just about 5 minutes after the pudding.

After the Turkey, Then what?
Of course, you'll have turkey. And if you'll remember these suggestions, we'll guarantee that it will be the golden-brown, thoroughly cooked, wonder bird that everybody expects.

Allow 3/4 or 1 lb. of turkey to each person, depending on whether you buy it with feet, feathers, etc on or off. Tell the butcher not to chop off wing tips, but to chop the feet off cleanly and sharply.

Although some people prefer, or claim to prefer, the flavor of a tom turkey, impartial judges have repeatedly assured us that there is no perceptible difference in flavor or tenderness.

Allow one cup of stuffing to every pound of turkey. Baste your turkey securely. Roast your bird at a temperature of 350 degrees. Here is a convenient time table:

7 lbs., 3 hours; 18 lbs. 5 hours; 12 lbs. 3 3/4 hours; 22 lbs. 5 1/2 hours.

A turkey will roast as well in a covered or uncovered pan, although if you use an uncovered one, it is a good plan to cover the bird with a sort of tent of lightly oiled paper.

For the remainder of your dinner, it is wise to have something just a touch unexpected—an old favorite fixed in a new way. Thus your dinner will have that different feeling that will make it one to be long remembered. Here are some recipes that are unusual, but easy to prepare, and will go well with your Thanksgiving feast.

Broccoli au Gratin

1 cup grated American cheese.
1 1/2 cups milk.
1 1/2 tablespoons butter.
1 1/2 tablespoons flour.
Pepper and salt.

Boil the broccoli in salted water in an uncovered kettle until tender. Drain and place in a buttered baking dish. Sprinkle with cheese. Make a white sauce of the milk, butter, flour, and seasoning. Pour over broccoli and bake until cheese melts.

Chestnuts with Brussels Sprouts

Drop brussels sprouts in cold water for ten or fifteen minutes before cooking. Cook in salted boiling water in uncovered pan for 20 minutes. Then combine with boiled chestnuts and simmer for 10 minutes more. Season with browned butter.

Cranberry Pie

2/4 cup sugar.
1 cup water.
2 cups picked over cranberries.
1 tablespoon cornstarch.
1 tablespoon water.

Boil together the sugar and the cup of water 5 minutes, add the cleaned cranberries and cook until all have popped their jackets. In the meantime, make a paste of cornstarch and water, add carefully to the berries, stirring, steadily. Pour this filling into a baked graham cracker crust, and bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes.

Cider Frappe

1 cup sugar.
1 cup water.
3 1/2 cups sweet cider.
1 can No. 2 pineapple juice.
Juice of 2 lemons.
Mint cherries.

Cook sugar and water together 10 minutes, cool, add fruit juices and cherries and cider. Freeze in mechanical refrigerator. Remove from tray and whip to a mush with a rotary beater. Serve in sherbet glasses.

As a pleasant variation to time-tested mince pie, add one cup of muscatel wine to every two cups of mince meat. This gives a delightful, tawny flavor.

Vegetables Come Out of the Kitchen! The New Vogue in Table Decoration

Today vegetables rival fruits as table decoration! Especially in autumn, when they are at their glorious best, these formerly humble bedizened of the cooking pot, strut their color and figures upon a damask cloth! Smart hostesses combine the dull rich purple of eggplant with the bright orange of carrots, the crimson of beets, the amazing shapes of yellow and orange squash to achieve unique and fascinating effects. Other vegetables that are used are beans, blue cabbage, cauliflower, red and green peppers. Festooned with ivy or autumn leaves, they produce a centerpiece that looks like the fabled cornucopia of love Ceres herself.

How About Some Tasty After-Dinner Candies?

No matter how riotous the eating at the Thanksgiving festive board, it always seems as though there's room for "nibbling." And if you're having a party of any size at all, about an hour or so after dinner, you'll find guests more than able to munch a bit of tasty, easy-to-make home-made candy.

A rather unusual but particularly appropriate candy for the occasion is apricot marble, a tasty colorful confection that's sure to be popular with the entire gather-

"Mr. Scoggins is one of the finest men I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. He is not only a leader in his chosen profession, but a leader in civic affairs. Our loss is your gain."

Apricot Marbles

1 cup dried apricots.
1 cup shredded coconut.
1/2 cup nut meats.
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind.
4 teaspoons lemon juice.
2 teaspoons grated orange rind.
1/8 teaspoon salt.

These require no cooking. Simply run the washed apricots, coconut and nut meats through a food chopper and mix them with the remaining ingredients. Knead, adding confectioner's sugar if too soft to mold, or orange juice if too stiff. Form into balls measuring from 1 to 3/4 inch in diameter and roll in granulated sugar.

GIVE SKIN REST, TOO

"We always used to tell our customers only what they should do," a Fifth Avenue cosmetician explains, "but we find that a list of 'don'ts' is just as helpful. When a woman signs up for a course of facials and body exercises, we immediately tell her the things she should not do as well as the ones she should."

Here are a few rules from the list:

"Don't slump. One ought to stand so that there is no exaggerated hollow in the center of the back. Stomach ought to be flat. Carry your hips forward and keep your chest high.

"Don't sit on the edge of your chair. The base of your spine and the center of your back—not shoulders—should touch the back of the chair.

"Don't wave your hands madly about when you talk, and don't drum on edges of tables and chairs with fingertips. One who fidgets constantly never looks poised.

"Don't go to bed with makeup on your face. You can't expect even

CROP INSURANCE IS BIG TASK SECRETARY WALLACE TELLS GROUP

Secretary Wallace, discussing a proposed crop insurance program at the 50th annual meeting of the Land Grant College Association, predicted in Houston this week a new era in agriculture.

"A little while back the agricultural problem with which we had to grapple was foremost an emergency problem," said the Secretary of Agriculture. "I believe that now we must be taking stock of programs addressed to the longer time situation. Now it appears that we may be standing upon the threshold of better times, perhaps of something like a new era.

"In this new era, our permanent policy with respect to agriculture, as I see it, must shape itself to give the farmer his fair share of prosperity, having due regard to the long-time interests of the national community as a whole. We no longer have an exploited agriculture because in the long run that means national ruin, neither can we have a crudely oversubscribed agriculture because in the long run people will not stand for it.

"The question is, as we pass from emergency to longer time consideration, how far shall public policy go in one direction, how far in the other?"

Crop Insurance

Tracing the changes the machine age brought in agriculture and citing the droughts of the last three years, Secretary Wallace said the question of crop insurance had appeared in the long-range farm program picture.

"The crop insurance idea does not represent a new field of thought," he said. "It has been talked about among farmers and in Congress for a long time. The Department of Agriculture has been studying it in one way and another for 15 years.

"There is no disposition to rush into any half-baked scheme along this line. The committee appointed by the President to report relative to possible legislation on crop insurance has not contemplated action on more than one or two crops at first. We have been exploring time possibilities in the case of wheat, corn and cotton, but I think it is the feeling of all who are close to the subject that the wise thing is to start slowly with an experimental undertaking in one or two crops.

"At least four definite problems arise in this consideration of a system of crop insurance with payments in kind. First, there is the problem of determining loss rates and premium rates. Second, there is the problem of collecting and assembling such premium payments in kind. Third, naturally the question of storage at once arises; where and how shall the quantities of crops so collected be stored? Fourth, there is the question of the disposition of the stored product; should losses be paid directly out of it or should it be sold and the proceeds distributed in dollars equivalent to the product?

Aid Toward Goal

"On the broader question of national policy, it does seem probable to me that crop insurance is likely to fall within the range of permanent constructive measures. It will be too radical for the rugged individualist; it is too conservative for those who clamor for straight subsidies. For my part, I view it, in any event, as merely one more aid toward the goal, one more auxiliary to strengthen the general farm program."

Secretary Wallace said a definite program had not been worked out, but added that "I am confident we can meet the situation in agriculture because we have come through these years of experience much closer together in terms of objectives and we have reason to hope that in these coming years we will be able to attack a problem that has long been neglected in agriculture. It is the problem of farm tenancy. This is a growing problem and is by no means confined to the South."

Scouts Building "Tin Can" Cabin

Most unique among the various projects being carried on by the troops in the Comanche Trail Boy Scout Council, according to G. N. Quiri, is the "tin can cabin" being constructed by Troop 3 Woodland Heights.

The troop, of which Claude Roscoe is scoutmaster, has been collecting the cans from different filling stations in the city. The boys are cutting their own poles and making the framework for the 16 x 24 cabin themselves. Only cost to the troop will be the nails and the cement for the chimney.

The cabin, which is situated behind the Woodland Heights school building, will be used as headquarters for the troop.

RED CROSS WORK IS LAUDED; ROOSEVELT ENDORSES ROLL CALL

President Roosevelt this week issued a statement urging all Americans to assist the American Red Cross in its humanitarian work through taking membership in the organization during the annual Red Cross Roll Call. The Roll Call is being held this week in Brown county. The statement, issued from the White House November 11, follows:

The American Red Cross is close to the heart of every American. Its emblem symbolizes good will and neighborliness and brotherhood throughout our land. Its purposes spring from the deep seated desires of the people themselves, desires for restored orderly living and well-being wherever disaster and calamity strike.

All of us are proud of the work which the Red Cross did this year after the Spring floods and tornadoes. Urban dwellers and rural dwellers alike felt its ministrations in the areas devastated by wind and water as well as wherever disaster struck home in thirty-nine states.

The Red Cross program of service in disaster relief, in health work, in behalf of disabled ex-service men, in leading our children to good citizenship through the Junior organization and in all of its work for humanity, reflects the generosity and spirit of helpfulness of our citizens. The greater the Red Cross grows in membership the better this Nation and world will be. The return of prosperity brings with it an added responsibility on the part of all of us toward our neighbor in distress. We must give in proportion as we have received. When the havoc of storm, flood, accidental injury or war visits men, women, or children, this beneficent agency begins immediately its mission to heal, to mend, to replace.

Again, from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, our people everywhere will have an opportunity to join the Red Cross. By joining, every American has the privilege, through individual membership, of sharing in its great work, both local and national. Membership is an evidence of good citizenship.

Time Out for a Glass of Milk

Strife and turmoil of the campaign over and another four years of the presidency ahead, President Roosevelt took his ease in his home overlooking the Hudson. Here he is shown, reading a telegram of congratulation, as he drank a glass of milk, the picture of perfect comfort and satisfaction.

JUNIOR LEAGUE SPONSORS PACKAGE SALE; MERCHANTS, LYRIC COOPERATE IN AFFAIR

In order to increase its general fund for the support of various charitable activities, the Junior Service League held a package sale Monday night at the Lyric Theater.

Packages were sold at a minimum price of twenty-five cents each. J. Edward Johnson, Glidden Wilson and Manager Mercer Colman spoke briefly.

"We are particularly grateful for the response to our sale," stated I urge that all who can do so respond promptly and generously to the annual Red Cross membership roll call.

Going It Alone

It will be interesting to watch the reaction of Texas cities to the announcement that the Centennial Exposition at Dallas and the Frontier Centennial at Fort Worth will be continued for another year.

The announcement had been anticipated for several months, and were made late only because the leaders in charge of the expositions feared an earlier announcement would curtail attendance during the last days of the two notable events.

Texas has been solidly behind the Centennial. Nothing that has been done in the past hundred years, with the possible exception of wars, has so united Texans for a common cause. And certainly nothing in recent years has done so much good for Texas.

The celebrations this year, however, have been of statewide sponsorship, and for the purpose of celebrating a historical event, and, at the same time, cashing in on the publicity attached to the celebration. Next year will be a different story, for the two celebrations will be going it alone, without the financial support of the rest of the State.

In 1937 the two events will be strictly on their own. If they can present shows that entitle them to paying patronage, they will be successful, and will continue to shower the benefits of favorable publicity upon the rest of the State.

The greatest obstacle to hiking the price of turkeys through an investigation into possible price-fixing is the undeniable fact that it can't be done in time to do much good.

Upping the Turkey Price

The turkey is a perishable product, and obviously the price of Christmas turkeys cannot be increased greatly unless it is done before dressing for the Christmas market begins, and that means within the next ten days.

There can be no question, of course, that the price offered for Thanksgiving turkeys was too low. What caused such a low price can be determined only after a thorough investigation. Possibly it is a result of too many turkeys being offered this year, coupled with the fact that the American family has been educated to consider the turkey a seasonal treat.

The investigation of the cause of the present low price is a good thing, and it should be done thoroughly. Its greatest benefit probably will not be felt this year, but certainly it should offer a safeguard for future seasons when a similar situation probably will face the growers.

Meanwhile, the action of South Texas growers in withholding turkeys from the Thanksgiving market might result in a higher price to the ultimate consumer, and the turmoil which has been created possibly will cause the Government to step in and plug the price of the Christmas offering.

The Coleman Democrat-Voice last week issued its Centennial Edition, a 40-page paper full of interesting historical facts about Coleman and Coleman county.

A Worthy Edition

The newspaper would be a credit to a city of any size, and is a tribute to the newspaper ability of Publisher H. H. Jackson, who is president of the Texas Press Association, and to Editor Joe B. Pouns.

The Democrat-Voice is one of the outstanding weekly newspapers in Texas, and week after week publishes an exceptionally good newspaper. The Centennial gave the D-V an opportunity to show how it can rise to a special occasion, and do things in a big way.

Henry Edwards

Newspaper men throughout Texas were saddened this week with the news of the death in Tyler of Henry Edwards, dean of the East Texas newspaper publishers.

Mr. Edwards was one of the best known newspaper men in Texas. He had served as president of the Texas Press Association and had been honored in many ways by his newspaper men. In civic affairs he was a recognized and efficient leader.

His passing is a personal loss to those throughout the State who earn their livelihood in the business he loved so well, for to them all he was considered one of the finest characters among many noblemen of a passing generation.

Pictures and statues of mythical characters, heroes and heroines of antiquity, are consistently shown with curly locks, many with hair arranged as modern women wear it.

PEEP SHOW For Ladies Only

BY MIGNON

Now, Landon, Knox and Hamilton Are singing "Three Blind Mice," But tish, I can't be catly, I don't think it is nice.

I think November is about the nicest month in the year. I may have melancholy days as one poet has written, but of all the red letter days it contains... the election... Armistice... Thanksgiving... Home coming for all and everybody... Though we can't all be on the side lines rooting for our Alma Mater we can get much of the spirit by listening over the radio...

I bought my pet a nice guitar I turned the lights quite low 'Til surely keep him home at night He'll sing to me, I know... I thought... but did that work one bit "The nerve of you," says he, "You've bought that fool guitar I'll bet And charged the thing to me.

The December Household Magazine is here... Opening the first page I saw that smiling face of Jennie Harris Oliver, standing at the Lily Pool in her famed garden. That is the picture we all have framed in our hearts. Then another page and I was reading the opening lines of one of the tenderest Christmas stories I ever read.

WHEELER—The kitchens of 137 farm women of Wheeler county are more pleasant and efficient work shops as the result of remodeling during 1936, according to Miss Viola Jones, home demonstration agent. At a total expense of $1,800.48, or less than $14.00 for the average kitchen, the walls and woodwork of 51 kitchens have been refinished, 22 kitchen stoves have been replaced, 17 storage closets built, 28 working surfaces adjusted to health, 35 floors have been improved, six ice boxes installed, and a great number of other improvements made.

DECATER—The shoemaker's children may go without shoes, but some wool-growers' families will not sleep under cotton quilts this winter. The Newton family of the Greenwood community of Wise county boast two light weight tacked comforts made from home grown wool at a cost of $2.00 each, according to Miss Ora Stone, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Newton attended a wool washing demonstration in the spring and went home to make her comforts, as well as to pass on the art to her neighbors.

QUITMAN—The Roberts family of Cartwright, Wood County, can face the winter without fear since Mrs. Roberts completed her goals as club demonstrator in home food supply plans. The 12 shelves in her pantry are filled with containers of fruit, vegetables, pickles, relishes, and jellies, all from her three-quarter acre garden and quarter acre orchard; in addition, she has dried beans, peas, peaches, apples, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, and onions sufficient for the family needs.

FLOYDADA—D. W. Burke of the Harmony community contour-listed 30 acres of pasture last February and found that the listing saved enough moisture to permit him an additional 40 days grazing during the summer, according to D. F. Bredhauer, county agricultural agent of Floyd county.

GLEN ROSE—Terraces kept a mortgage off my farm," Joe Smith of the Oden community told J. R. Surovik, agricultural agent of Somervell county, as he harvested a field which averaged 25 bushels of corn to the acre. Before the field was terraced five years ago it was LIBERTY—An average of 241 pounds of lint cotton per acre on 28 acres is the record made by 21 Liberty county 4-H club boys. Meanwhile the average crop in that section did not greatly exceed 100 pounds per acre. Insect control, careful cultivation, and the application of 200 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate per acre accounts for the increased yield, according to W. L. David, agricultural agent.

CENTERVILLE—When an overflow destroyed his bottomland cotton field, Clyde Robeson of the Middleton community replanted with hegar, according to J. B. Short, agricultural agent of Leon county. When frost threatened the feed crop, Robeson dug a trench silo and filled it with hegar bundles.

The demonstrations were given at the Bob Low farm, where 204 goats were dipped, and at the J. D. Nabors farm, where 345 goats were dipped for Mr. Nabors and 317 for C. H. Grady.

GLEN ROSE—Terraces kept a mortgage off my farm," Joe Smith of the Oden community told J. R. Surovik, agricultural agent of Somervell county, as he harvested a field which averaged 25 bushels of corn to the acre. Before the field was terraced five years ago it was

HOWARD PAYNE SEWS CONFERENCE CROWN IN BAG AS BILLIES LOSE TO ABILINE CHRISTIANS

Brownwood's high school Lions Thursday concluded preparations for their inter-district game with Waco Friday afternoon. After a long rest, the Caslemen are in excellent condition for the game. Both teams are fairly evenly matched.

Waco is purported to have one of the strongest teams in Texas, having suffered only one defeat in district playing, that being only a one-point loss in a 14-13 score with Hillsboro. The Friday game will be the second time for the two schools to play each other.

Friday the thirteenth proved to be a traditionally unlucky day for the Daniel Baker Hill Billies. In fact, the number 13 prevailed throughout the game. It was a C. C. 13th game, and the score was 13-7.

ACC's unexpected victory dealt the knock-out blow to the Billies' championship hopes, and literally handed the conference crown to the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets. The Billies are assured at least second place in the conference.

"Beat us as much as you can, because this is your last chance," Coach McAdoo Keaton told officials of Hardin-Simmons University last week. "We have nothing to gain by playing Hardin-Simmons," Keaton continued. "They point for us while on the other hand we have all competition we want with confidence."

Other delegates were Mrs. H. Rombe, Mrs. T. Carlson, Mrs. Karl Moore, Mrs. J. N. Weatherby, Mrs. J. W. Jennings, Mrs. J. H. Kowley, Mrs. J. M. Cooper, and others.

Foreign missionaries made their reports to the convention. Included in that group were Rev. and Mrs. Wilson Fielder, at home in Brownwood during their furlough from foreign missions.

SCS Completes Work On C. Jacobs' Farm

Channel and gully work on the C. Jacobs farm three miles southeast of Brownwood was completed Thursday by CCC workmen under the supervision of the Soil Conservation Service.

Their project included a terrace outlet channel strip soddied with Bermuda grass into which five field terraces empty.

Mr. Jacobs plans to plant soil erosion control strips of oats, hairy vetch and one strip of sweet clover, a mixture of bur clover, black medic, Italian rye grass, and rescue grass.

The crew used 70 bags of Bermuda sod in constructing of sod-bag dams across small gullies in the Jacobs pasture.

Reading Material For CCC Enrollees Needed

Persons who have used books and copies of current magazines are asked to contribute them for the entertainment of enrollees at the CCC camp at Lake Brownwood State Park.

Reading material at the park is greatly needed, and all donations will be appreciated. R. G. Stevenson, educational advisor at the camp pointed out.

Books and magazines may be left at the Chamber of Commerce office in Hotel Brownwood, where representatives of the camp will call for them.

BROWNWOOD HEIGHTS WINS FIRST IN CITY CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

Brownwood Heights emerged as winner in Brownwood's Centennial Cleanup and Beautification Campaign which was carried on over a period of five months. South Ward District, winner of second prize, was a close contender for the championship laurels, failing to win the highest honors by only a very small margin. Coggin Ward District, the only other entry in the first annual cleanup derby, was awarded third prize.

The cleanup and beautification contest was conducted with each of the three school districts sponsoring this work in their respective areas.

Both the highest ranking districts report that practically every home in their respective area cooperated in this campaign to make Brownwood a cleaner and more beautiful place in which to live. A total of 127 homes participated in Brownwood Heights amassing an average number of 331 points per home, while the South Ward area had the cooperation of 335 homes with an average of 284 points per home.

Final tabulation of campaign statistics revealed that most of the work this summer was centered in keeping the front and back yards clean and lawns well mowed and kept, according to Mrs. Carl A. Blasig, General Chairman of the Centennial Cleanup and Beautification Campaign. "However, a number of new lawns were planted and a number of buildings painted. Of particular significance was the planting of flowers to enhance the beauty of the landscape at no less than 75 percent of the homes in the two winning districts," Mrs. Blasig states.

The campaign chairmen and their assisting officials in each one of the two winning districts are gratified with the "marvellous cooperation" according to them by the people in their respective area. They believe that most of the pioneering work in this new civic enterprise, as far as the homes are concerned, has accomplished and that continuation of this campaign next year would result in a very tangible success.

The contest closed on October 29, but it required additional time for officials to complete tabulation and for the judges to check the work of each district.

Mormon Church Provides Relief for Its Members

Needy members of the Mormon Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will not be hungry or cold this winter as long as contents of church storehouses hold out. Through the summer, church workers, operating apart from governmental agencies, crammed depots in Utah and Idaho with food, clothing, and fuel. Above is pictured a scene in a Salt Lake City canteen as the Mormon relief program went forward. Supply centers were opened with the advent of cold weather. Jobless church members also were being given work.

Cotton Market Is Lower This Week

The cotton market is about 10 points lower at this time last week following a week of fair activity. The price advanced a bit the early part of the week and lost about half this advance in the late trading Wednesday.

Reports indicate that ginning made fair progress over the cotton belt and is nearing actual completion in many sections. There are 2,554 cotton gins in Texas. During this season, 3,335 were active while 29 gins did not operate.

Weather conditions have been fair. Weeks reports stating that cotton had better than an even break, generally fair weather, prevailing over entire belt with moderate temperatures. However, Tennessee, Alabama and the eastern belt report considerable frost. As a whole picking and ginning made excellent progress. Forecast Western belt fair except Arkansas' East Texas partly cloudy, central and eastern belts mostly partly cloudy.

The movements of the American crop was good. Spinners last week took 422,000 bales against 418,000 the previous week, 374,000 same week last year and 339,000 the year before. Takings for season, 4,269,000 bales vs. 3,903,000 vs. 3,434,000. Cotton brought into sight week 581,000 bales vs. 563,646 last week, 586,791 last year and 378,578 year before. Season 8,043,252 vs. 7,468,154 vs. 4,971,221.

WPA CLOSES GAP BETWEEN FARMS, MARKETS WITH 403 MILES OF ROADWORK IN DISTRICT

Approximately 403 miles of roadwork are included in the Brownwood district WPA program, according to District Director K. E. Wallace.

WPA records show that workers in the Brownwood District have completed repairs and improvements on 315 miles of lateral roads and that work is progressing nicely upon an additional 88 miles.

"In addition to providing work for needy unemployed persons in this area, the road program has been one of the most beneficial types of public improvement undertaken by this organization," Wallace declared. "In many instances, these all-weather roads established by WPA workers replaced roads formerly impassable in rainy weather. Farm people living along these routes are no longer dependent upon the weather in getting to market. School buses and mail carriers are able to maintain schedules with less difficulty. City and rural dwellers alike will realize gratifying returns for years to come from the investment which WPA and the counties have made on these roads."

All Worsted Fabrics In 'New Yorker' Suit 100% Laboratory Tested

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—100 percent laboratory tested all-worsted fabrics and NEW YORKER suits are synonymous. Only the finest worsteds go to make up this finest $35 suit, was emphasized by the fabric expert of Michaels, Stern & Co.

NEW YORKER suits, he said, are made of a fine wool that gives the silky "handle." These full shrunk fabrics drape well and have been proved by test to be color fast to sunlight, dry cleaning and perspiration. In comparison with other fabrics of similar type, the NEW YORKER shows from 12 percent to 20 per cent greater strength . . . another proof of the serviceability of these 100 percent laboratory tested suits.

There has been a great deal of discussion in the trade about fabric values, but while mills and manufacturers make claims, verbal claims to be sure, about the fabrics they produce, and make into garments, it remained for Michaels Stern & Co. to subject fabrics submitted to them to the most rigid tests, and then selected only those which were able to stand up and deliver the goods.

Attention Of State Already On WTCC Meet

Business-Like Program Of Annual Convention Here Is Being Praised

Interest in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention, to be held in Brownwood May 10, 11 and 12, has increased since the announcement that Flood Control, Land and Water Conservation will be the convention theme for the 1937 meeting.

The November issue of West Texas Today, received in Brownwood this week, carries as its lead story an article by Chester Harrison, secretary of the Brownwood chamber of commerce, in which the damage done to West Texas in the Colorado river watershed, is outlined, and the importance of the discussions planned for the Brownwood convention, is stressed.

The article drew favorable editorial comment in the San Antonio Express, which gave endorsement to the program planned for the Brownwood convention, and predicted much good from the discussions.

The magazine, West Texas Today, which is the official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, also carried two pictures on its cover of flood conditions in September along the Colorado river. The pictures showed the highway bridge between Brown and McCulloch counties, and the Frisco railway bridge upstream being carried away by the flood waters.

Indications already are that attendance at the Brownwood convention will reach a high mark, according to J. A. Rix, organization manager of the WTCC. Mr. Rix is in Waco this week, where he has found interest keen in the Brownwood convention. Because the convention is being held near to Waco, that city has returned to membership in the WTCC, and will be represented at the convention.

The convention will not be without color. Already two school bands, which have not previously been attending the WTCC sessions, have been promised for the Brownwood convention. Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, stated this week that he is planning to bring his band to Brownwood, and Dean J. Thomas Davis of John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville stated his band would be on hand.

WPA AUTHORIZES 14,733 JOBS ON 198 NEW PROJECTS

Jobs for 14,733 workers have been made available by the authorization of 198 new WPA projects during the past month, it has been announced by Texas Works Progress Administrator, H. P. Drought.

"We intend that these projects will absorb workers who are released from completed WPA projects and those who are returning to our rolls as seasonal agricultural work ends in various parts of the state," Drought explained.

Federal allocations of $2,542,210 and sponsor's funds amounting to $1,103,510 will make possible the operation of the newly-authorized projects. More projects are being approved in the state WPA office as the need for them becomes apparent in various parts of Texas.

Farm to market roads led newly-approved projects with $1,167,830 allocated by federal officials to be used in the prosecution of 71 such jobs. Extending into 61 counties, the new lateral road program encompasses improvements to 943 miles of roadway and will employ 6,457 workers.

CIVIC COUNCIL ELECTS DR. W. H. PAIGE FOR CHAIRMAN; MAPS PLANS

Representatives of Brownwood's business, professional and service clubs elected Dr. W. H. Paige chairman of the recently formed Civic Advisory Council, permanently organized last Thursday night at Hotel Brownwood.

Other officers named are J. N. Weatherly, vice chairman, and Mrs. Carl Blasig, secretary. These officers, with four other representatives from civic clubs, will form the executive committee of the Council. The other members are Dr. C. C. Bullard, Dr. M. W. Armstrong, Dr. H. B. Allen and Rev. Karl H. Moore.

Committees A by-laws committee for the Council was also named, and consists of W. Lee Watson, chairman, and Dr. H. L. Lobstein and C. V. Conlisk. A committee on Christmas decorations for the business district includes Glenn Hutton, chairman, and Eva Millsap, W. Lee Watson, Mrs. G. F. McKay and Lon K. Smith.

As was pointed out at the preliminary meeting held two weeks ago, the purpose of the Council is to promote all phases of civic work. Its members will study municipal and county government problems and suggest movements to improve conditions of the vicinity.

Members of the Council, chosen by their respective clubs, are as follows:

Business and Professional Women's Club: Mrs. M. W. Armstrong, Mrs. Tex Worsham, Miss Eva Millsap.

Kiwanis Club: Dr. W. H. Paige, Dr. H. L. Lobstein, Glenn Hutton, Lions Club: Dr. C. C. Bullard, C. A. White, T. E. Denman.

Employees' Security Office Established Here Last Tuesday

Registration of employees under the Social Security Act started Tuesday, with distribution of blanks to be properly filled out and returned to the Post Office Department immediately.

A temporary office will be established Wednesday in the council chamber at the City Hall, where the blanks will be prepared for transmission to Washington.

Every employe must answer all the questions on the blanks. Questions that cannot be definitely answered should be answered with "unknown" or some similar phrase but not ignored.

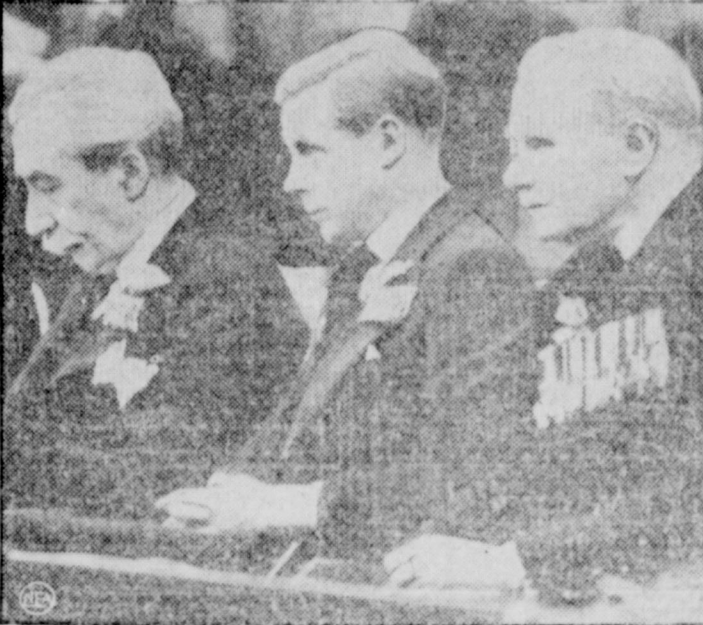

Not Compulsory Employees are not compelled to fill out the slips and return them, but all employes are included in the Social Security Administration, and deductions will be made from their pay under the act regardless of whether or not they are registered.

All workers under the age of 65 may fill out the blanks, whether they are employed at the present time or not. Personal identification numbers will be given the employes after the information is filed in Washington.

Offices in the City Hall will be maintained as long as it is necessary to complete the work in this vicinity. Employes may call at the office for information upon any point on the blanks not clear to them.

A good part of the earth for the meek to inherit quickly would be Spain.

King Pays Tribute to War Dead

It was a serious King Edward VIII who attended the recent annual Festival of Remembrance for British soldiers killed in the World War. As the king center, sat with Baron de Cartier de Marchaine, left, Belgian ambassador, and Field Marshal Lord Milne during the program, he revealed himself in an unusually solemn mood. The festival, in Royal Albert Hall, London, was climaxed with the release of more than a million money orders, one for each British subject killed in the war.

DEDICATION OF MONUMENT TO PIONEER BAPTIST FEATURE OF HPC HOMECOMING

Senator Tom Connally will be one of the principal speakers on the extensive three-day program of the annual homecoming at Howard Payne College, which opened Tuesday.

Activities will be climaxed Thursday with the dedication of a monument to Rev. Noah T. Byars, pioneer Baptist preacher at whose blacksmith shop at Washington-on-the-Brazos, the Texas Declaration of Independence was signed on March 2, 1836. The monument will stand near the corner of the college campus at Austin and Flek avenues. It is of Llano blue granite, 15 1/2 feet high.

Byars, who is buried in Greenleaf cemetery, founded more than 60 churches in Texas, including the First Baptist churches of Brownwood and Waco.

Other speakers on the program include R. C. Campbell, Dallas, secretary of the Baptist General Convention; Rev. Ben David, pastor of Field Street Baptist church, Cleburne; Rev. Karl H. Moore, pastor of First Baptist church, Brownwood; and Rev. J. M. Dawson, pastor of First Baptist Church, Waco.

Governor Urges All Texans to Cooperate in Drive Against T. B.

Texas' first citizen, Governor James V. Allred, endorsed the 30th annual Christmas Seal Sale to fight tuberculosis in a statement to all Texas citizens this week as Christmas Seals go on sale throughout the nation.

Governor Allred said, "The declining death rate from tuberculosis is ample demonstration that the state and national tuberculosis associations are accomplishing their purposes. Texas has been generous in contributing to the Texas Tuberculosis Association by the purchase of Christmas Seals each year. The thirtieth such sale in the nation presents a challenge to good citizens everywhere. As your Governor, I earnestly hope that the citizens of Texas will contribute to this cause this year to the limit that their means will permit."

Texas who purchase Christmas Seals this year will assist their state and local tuberculosis associations in a concerted drive planned for 1937 to reach more people between the ages of 15 and 45, where tuberculosis is still the leading cause of death, with those methods of diagnosis, prevention and cure which have reduced the death rate from tuberculosis more than two-thirds in the past thirty years.

According to records of the Secretary of State's office, 123 new charters were granted to corporations in Texas during October, an increase of 23 per cent over October, 1935. Capitalization totaled $6,277,000, an increase of 482 per cent over the like month a year ago. This decided increase in capitalization was mainly the result of the incorporation of a few large loan companies which in itself suggests further important expansion of industry in the State, it was stated.

Groups showing the greatest increases in the number of new charters granted were banking-finance, public service, and transportation.

Scandal is the sin humanity loves to touch. An unenforceable law is one that hasn't even false teeth in it.

SOIL ASSOCIATION PLANS OPEN MEETING HERE ON DECEMBER 19

Directors of the Brownwood Soil Conservation Association made plans for an open meeting of the organization at a session held Saturday in County Agent C. W. Lehmburg's office.

The open meeting will be held at the local soil conservation camp on December 19. Tentative plans for the program include an inspection of the camp, luncheon, short business meetings and a tour over the camp area.

New directors will also be elected at the December meeting. A nominating committee was appointed by President W. R. Chambers, and consists of the following: County Agent C. W. Lehmburg, Gerald Morrison, teacher of vocational agriculture at May, and T. O. Hurst, Winchell.

The present Board of Directors is composed of the following: W. R. Chambers, May, President; L. W. Garmon, Brownwood, vice president; Glen Strange, Bangs, treasurer; J. R. Shelton, Brownwood, and Fred McCormick, Santa Anna. O. J. Orton, technician in charge at the local camp is charging for the Board of Directors.

Edward Clark

Appointment last week by Governor James V. Allred of Edward Clark, San Augustine attorney, brings into prominent official circles one of the State's most dynamic young lawyers. Clark has served as first secretary to the Governor for the past two years and as such has gained a very comprehensive knowledge of State affairs. Increasing importance of the functions of the Department of State caused the Governor to draft him for the place. The appointment becomes effective January 19, 1937.

TWO-YEAR CASE OF E. B. GILLIAM IS ORDERED DISMISSED

Case of E. B. Gilliam, Sr., charged on three counts of embezzlement of $2,300 of funds of Daniel Baker College was dismissed Thursday by Judge E. J. Miller in 35th district court on motion of District Attorney A. O. Newman.

Gilliam was tried three times, and in the first and third trials was found guilty and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, but the case each time was reversed by the Court of Criminal Appeals. The second trial resulted in a hung jury.

Three Trials

First trial of the case was held in February, 1934, the second in December of the same year and the third in July, 1935. Congressman C. L. South, then 35th district attorney, handled the prosecution in the first trial, while Frank Sparks of Eastland, was prosecuting attorney in the second trial. A. O. Newman, present district attorney, handled the last trial.

The counts on which Gilliam was indicted were: 1. Charging embezzlement of money as an officer of Daniel Baker College. 2. Charging embezzlement of funds as chairman of the finance committee of the college, and 3. Charging embezzlement of funds as a trustee of the college.

Dismissal Order

Judge Miller's dismissal order on the case is as follows:

"This day came on to be heard the written statement and motion of the State's attorney, filed herein asking permission of the court to dismiss this criminal action for the following reasons to-wit, because a former trial, the State of Texas elected to rely for a conviction upon the first count of the indictment thereby eliminating for all intents and purposes the second and third counts of the indictment; that the defendant was convicted upon the first count of said indictment, which judgment was reversed by the Court of Criminal Appeals, and by virtue of the opinion of said court, there is now no evidence upon which to convict the defendant on the first count of the indictment, which, having been heard by the court, the court is satisfied that the reasons so stated are good and sufficient to authorize such dismissal.

"It is therefore considered, ordered and adjudged that this criminal action be, and the same is dismissed, and that the defendant, E. B. Gilliam, be discharged.

"It is the further order of this court that the State of Texas be in all things denied the right to further prosecute in this case in so far as it relates to the offense set forth in said indictment."

Lights, Evergreens Will Decorate City Through Holidays

Brownwood will celebrate the Christmas season gaily attired this year. A committee of local business men is busy making plans for the most elaborate decoration of Brownwood's streets ever made here. Gaily colored lights and garlands of evergreens will decorate all of the main streets and many of the side ones. Work of putting up the decorations will begin the week after Thanksgiving.

The committee in charge of the arrangements is comprised of G. F. McKay, chairman; Mercer Colman, Dave Knobler, J. Turner Garner, Sam Sullivan, Gus Rosenbergs, and Wendell Mayes. Other committees are being formed by the Lions, Rotary, and Kiwanis Clubs and the Brownwood Merchants Association.

Thanksgiving Observances Quiet Here

No Deviation From Usual Routine Of Feasting, Football Anticipated

Thanksgiving observances in Brownwood and the surrounding vicinity will be comparatively quiet this year, with nothing out of the ordinary from the usual routine of Thanksgiving worship, football games, and feasting.

All city schools and both Daniel Baker and Howard Payne Colleges will observe holidays starting on Thursday and continuing over the week-end. As usual, football will occupy a large share of the day's interest. Two of the local schools have games scheduled. Brownwood High School plays Cisco at Cisco and Howard Payne meets Southwestern here.

HPC Homecoming

Howard Payne will also conclude their three-day homecoming celebrations tomorrow, with the principal feature of the day the dedication of a monument to the memory of Rev. Noah T. Byars, pioneer Baptist preacher who was instrumental in establishing the Pecan Valley Baptist Association. Other homecoming events for the day include an address in the morning by R. C. Campbell, of Dallas, secretary of the General Baptist Convention, a barbecue at 12:30 noon and the football game with Southwestern.

Special Thanksgiving dinner will be served at the CCC camp at Lake Brownwood to staff members and enrollees who did not obtain leave to spend their Thanksgiving elsewhere.

Church Observances

All churches in Brownwood will co-operate in the union Thanksgiving service to be observed Wednesday night, November 25, at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. D. A. Chisholm, pastor of Central Methodist and secretary of the Ministerial Association, which annually sponsors the service, will direct the worship hour.

Complete program for the observance has been announced as follows:

Hymn No. 342; Prayer, Rev. Ben H. Moore, Reading President's Thanksgiving Proclamation, Rev. L. Jeffery; Offertory, "Thou Crownest the Year," by the choir; Scripture reading, Rev. A. N. Todd; Hymn No. 483; Sermon, Rev. A. W. Anderson; Hymn No. 77; Benediction, to be pronounced by Rev. J. M. Cooper.

Teachers' Convention

Many of the teachers in the local public schools will attend the fifty-eighth annual convention of the Texas State Teachers Association in Fort Worth on November 26, 27 and 28. According to County Superintendent F. D. Pierce, a large number of teachers in the county schools also plan to attend. Included among the various distinguished speakers at the meeting is Governor James V. Allred. Prominent educators from other states will also be present at the sessions.

CONVENTION VOTES $10,000 GRANT FOR HOWARD PAYNE DEBT

Howard Payne College will be out of debt in 1938 as the result of an appropriation by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, voted at its recent meeting in Mineral Wells. The allotment totals $10,000.

Major portion of the money will be used to pay the last installment on a $25,500 debt held against the institution by the First National Bank of Galveston. The money will be paid to the college in monthly installments through 1937, enabling final payment on the Galveston note early in the year.
