

CIVIC EXPANSION IN PANHANDLE RIVALS THAT OF ANY PERIOD IN HISTORY—CLARENDON IN THE VAN

SUMMARY OF PROGRESS IN PANHANDLE TOWNS SHOWS THAT SPIRIT OF WEST STILL PREDOMINATES IN THE FACE OF CONDITIONS WHICH MIGHT INTIMATE LESS HARDY CIVILIZATION.

Reports from all sections of the Panhandle of Texas indicate that an era of civic expansion is at hand. Amarillo, the metropolis of the Panhandle, being the larger of the cities of this area, takes the lead by constructing a brand new round-house for the Rock Island lines. In view of the fact that natural gas is available in an unlimited quantity, factory men are looking toward the establishment of factories of many different kinds. Among that number is the Advance-Rumley interests which, if the site deal is closed up this week, will mean the establishment of a hundred thousand dollar tractor factory right in the heart of the wheat belt. Brick and tile factories also have the matter under favorable consideration. Since the city has settled the fuel problem, the water question looms up in dead earnest. A plan is now on foot whereby Paloduro canyon may be dammed at a level one hundred and forty feet higher than the city. If this project is put thru as it undoubtedly will judging from the parties boosting it—the water problem will be forever solved and that of the best quality.

CANYON.
The beautiful little city of Canyon, the county capital of Randall county, is located in the bed of Paloduro canyon. The West-Texas state normal school is located at Canyon bringing to the town many residents for school purposes. More residence have been built in Canyon the past three months than for several years during the same length of time. Randall county has spent more for good roads the past two years than any county in west Texas. A trip thru the county will convince any one of the wisdom of the investment. Canyon is carrying out a street paving program at present that means much to the prosperity of the town.

MEMPHIS.
The county seat of Hall county, is enjoying her share of prosperity due to bounteous crops, a citizen body second to none imbued with the idea of developing their resources to the limit. At present the rebuilding of the power and ice plant is nearing completion. This improvement was made necessary because of increased business demands. The old plant burned down a few months ago, and owing to a scarcity of materials, rebuilding was impossible until recently. The present capacity will be sufficient to take care of the demands of double the present population.

Realizing the needs of better streets, Memphis will no doubt begin paving within the near future. Many residences have been made necessary the past fall due to an increase in the population. Gins are running night and day to take care of the cotton industry, being located as it is in the best cotton producing section of the Panhandle.

CLAUDE CITIZENS MAKING A BETTER SHOWING

Crops this year in the Claude country are all that one could ask. It is generally understood that they have a small grain country only, but that delusion is shattered by the fact that they have this year a crop of headed stuff—kafir and maize—that will make around fifty bushels to the acre. That means better than a ton, in the head and then some. The new home of the First National bank is nearing completion. This bids fair to one of the prettiest business houses in the Panhandle of its size when the finishing touches are made. Mrs. Wilson, also of the same town, is having a residence constructed that will cost an estimated sum of fifteen thousand dollars. There are many nice homes already in the town but this will probably be the best one when completed. Ground has been broken for the erection of a hundred thousand dollar grain elevator. This makes the third elevator for that little city and is made necessary because of the immense grain crops. The wheat crop now growing never looked better at this time of the year.

Hedley, located in one of the very best cotton growing sections of the Panhandle, is not behind in the way of public improvements. At the present time a brick store building occupying corner lots, is being rushed as rapidly as good workmen can push a good thing along. The property is owned by Frank Kendall. Residences are being built and an air of prosperity is all pervading. Crops are good and much other building is contemplated.

SLATON.
This lively little burg is located on the south plains where a short time ago nothing but cow ranches existed. In fact that metropolis is the division point for that road, has the round house and machine shops with a nice monthly payroll. Blessed with a dandy good cotton crop this season and other crops as well to say nothing of the influx of new settlers buying up land and increasing the number of farms, that section is in an extremely prosperous condition. Some fifty residences are now under construction as well as two churches. Two large business houses and a theatre building are nearing the finishing point. The Methodist church under construction will cost something like forty thousand. The Catholic Church will amount to an expenditure of around ten thousand and the Baptist people are planning a church home to cost approximately thirty-five thousand dollars. The theatre building owned by Williams & Shelton will have a seating capacity of about seven hundred and measures up to the better class of buildings in that line to be found in west Texas. The residences range all the way from the modest cottage up to the twelve thousand dollar home of A. E. Whitehead. In addition to the other buildings, a large store-house is being constructed by a local grain company. As may be surmised, Slaton is endowed with a progressive bunch of business men who go after and get what they want.

LUBBOCK.
Lubbock is considered the metropolis of the south plains area. It is also the county seat of Lubbock county and has three railroads. In addition to a lot of building of business houses, the little city has just finished up a job of street paving that would be a credit to any town. It is said that Lubbock has more modern business buildings to its size than any other town in Texas. Crops this year were never better. Gins are running day and night to take care of the fleecy staple. Threshers are just as busy now with the headed stuff as they were with the small grain crop earlier in the season. The influx of immigrants has boosted land values. Despite this fact, land outside of the towns continue to change hands. The total value of lands called for in deeds, filed last week alone amounted to $147,236.00. The small grain acreage for next year has been increased and is all one could wish. Plenty of rain makes winter grazing of fall grain plantings possible. Lubbock building program is going on continuously. Merchants and farmers co-operate to best advantage making the exploitation of the natural resources of the county possible to the highest degree.

McLEAN.
McLean is located on the Rock Island road some sixty miles east of Amarillo and is the largest town in Gray county. In addition to an excellent working board of county commissioners who are constantly road building, the town has a large trade territory. In order to get that trade, the roads are kept in good condition at all times. The firm of Coffey brothers are putting in a new mercantile stock. The town has a live chamber of commerce with a live secretary. They never let anything get by that is worth stopping. Crops are good this year and the people in general are prosperous.

WHEELER.
Tho an inland town, Wheeler is located on the D. C. & G. highway twenty miles north of Shamrock. No section of the country has better roads than Wheeler county. Bridge

Odd Burial of a Boston Man

Louis S. Tainer, Boston business man and sportsman, when he died last January, requested that his ashes be deposited in the topmost bowlder of "Whiteface," known as the "sportiest" peak of the White mountains. His funeral has just been held. His ashes, sealed in a canister, were placed in a hole drilled in the rock and a bronze tablet was placed over the hole.

DOG OBJECTS TO NAME OF THE "KAISER."

The small mongrel ferrier dog owned by the F. C. Johnson family and frequently seen on the streets, and more often found around the depot where his master is employed is some dog. He will stand for most anything the public may see fit to hand him, but when he is called "kaiser," he immediately protests with whines in no uncertain tones. The dog has been taught many tricks by the small boys of the family and this is one of them.

Miss Flora Silvey of Pampa spent the week end with Miss Cassandra Sims in this city.

bonds to the amount of $58,000 carried by a big majority on election day recently. An up-to-date gin was put in readiness with the harvesting of the cotton crop and is running day and night. The country is in a prosperous condition generally. Land to the value of $38,654 changed hands in that county during the past month. Many new people are coming into the country and very few are leaving.

CLARENDON MEN RECEIVE KNIGHTHOOD AT MEMPHIS

At a regular meeting of Memphis Commandery, Knights Templar, Tuesday of this week, seventeen Companion Royal Arch Masons received the orders of knighthood in due and ancient form. This was one of the largest classes of candidates that Memphis Commanders has conferred the work on and the explication of the degrees lasted from ten o'clock in the morning until eleven-thirty that evening, recesses being taken for lunch at twenty-thirty and a banquet at the White Rose cafe at six-thirty.

A party of seven Knights and nine candidates from Clarendon attended and all were delighted with the profit and entertainment of the day. The Clarendon Sir Knights were C. C. Hill, W. P. Cagle, Henry Youngblood, J. H. Hurn, J. H. Rutherford, Harry Warren and Sam M. Braswell. The nine candidates from this community were O. C. Hawk, W. S. Davis, J. A. Potts, N. H. Headrick, H. M. Parker, O. C. Caraway, J. W. Hunt, J. D. Swift and H. B. Kerbow.

Other candidates were Chas. Jacobs, Will Kesterson, J. R. Martin, E. B. Agington, B. Adkisson, O. C. Franklin, E. M. Dennis, and L. U. May.

To show that Masonry is especially active in Clarendon it will be noted that over half of the class were Clarendon men. The Commandery draws from Childress, Wellington, Clarendon and intermediate points.

Memphis Knights are well up on the work and know just how to give their visitors a warm Masonic welcome.

HOW ARMISTICE DAY WAS CELEBRATED IN CLARENDON

While no regular program was announced for the celebration of America's most important day of days, several avenues were found by which the patriotically inclined celebrated with a wholesome amount of good.

A benefit football game had been arranged by the local Legionists and the college team for the benefit of Avis Maples who was severely injured here in the game between the college and Decatur several days ago.

A play "Let's all get married," was put on at the high school auditorium last night by talent of the high school. This play was given for the benefit of stage improvements. Every effort had been put forth to make the play a great success and a large crowd attended.

Numbers of our citizens celebrated by gathering at the various homes for a friendly chat and a good dinner. Others made life miserable for the feathery tribes by going duck hunting and a few went to the sand country for prairie chicken and quail.

The local Legion were assisted in a big celebration by invitation of Quanah, the boys left Wednesday night over the Denver. Others went in cars that they might stop in Childress for a short time thus seeing the big show in both places.

RED CROSS DISCUSSED AT TUESDAY LUNCHEON

After being put into the best humor possible by an excellent chicken dinner served by the Christian Ladies' Aid, those present at Tuesday's luncheon went into executive session with Tom F. Connolly acting as chairman by special request of the regular chairman, Fred A. Story. The Red Cross drive being uppermost in the minds of the public at this time, W. H. Foster, chairman of local Red Cross efforts, was called upon for a talk which he did in his usual affable manner. Mr. Foster announced the various captains of the teams and gave a general outline of the method of procedure to be followed during the drive. Interesting talks were also made by Fred A. Foster and Dr. Wilder. Each speaker took pleasure in praising the efforts of Miss Ella Yeaker, county Red Cross nurse, each relating some incident showing the excellent service which she has been rendering, the assistance rendered the school children, etc. Those present were thoroughly in accord with the expressions of the speakers and have not by any means forgotten the services rendered the local boys of Co. H. after their eventful battle before the Hindenberg lines on the Champagne front on Oct. 8, 1918.

MRS. ADAIR AND PARTY ARRIVE HOME FRIDAY

Mrs. Cornelia Adair, owner of the "J A" ranch, said to be the largest in the Panhandle, arrived at her ranch home Friday, the journey being made from New York to Amarillo in her special car as usual. M. K. Brown of Pampa, who is assistant to general manager T. D. Hobart, joined the party at Buffalo Miss Royce, companion of Mrs. Adair and the Countess of Dartrey and four maids make up the party. They were met at Amarillo by Messrs. Whit Carhart, T. D. Hobart and J. W. Kent who conveyed the party to the ranch home. Trucks were used to convey the baggage.

Mrs. Adair stated at the time of leaving here on her last visit that she would not likely return again until spring, but finding conditions changed in England upon her return, she immediately engaged return passage and expects to spend the winter here among her numerous friends who are glad to know that she likes her Donley county ranch home best of all. Everything had been put in readiness at the ranch for her comfort and convenience and that of her party.

PANHANDLE BOY WINS FIRST PRIZE AT DALLAS

The first prize on corn was awarded to Joe Clark of Wheeler in the corn contest entered in the boys club exhibit at the state air at Dallas. The prize was won on the white dent variety. Thus another honor is added to the long list already held by the Panhandle section of Texas.

Miss Marguerite Goode of Canyon visited Miss Patton the last of the week being accompanied as far as Amarillo by Miss Essie on her way home.

Some first-class road building and street grading is being done in the vicinity of the Methodist church this week under the direction of W. L. Crane assisted by Houston Miller.

DONLEY COUNTY FARMERS FACE GRAVE SITUATION

THE HIGH COST OF PRODUCTION WEIGHED AGAINST THE PREVAILING LOW PRICES FOR COTTON IS HURTING.

No doubt the farmer who is on the inside of the facts relative to the cost of producing cotton, views with amusement the various estimates and the different phases of opinion that are being expressed on the subject at the present time by newspaper men, business men and farmers over the cotton growing area. It is no less surprising to the business man to learn how little the cotton grower knows about the actual cost of cotton production even on his own farm.

When the schedule of low prices was in vogue, very few men in any vocation cared to take up their time trying to figure out the cost of producing cotton. The entire public treated the subject in a matter of fact way. Various organizations sprang up from time to time with a view of embracing the south within the Utopian area. Some even went so far as to leave the impression with the naive ignorant that the millennium was at hand. When cotton was selling for six to eight cents the more industrious growers were longing for the day it would bring twenty. That day came, but with it came higher prices of other commodities and it meant very little to the cotton grower.

Former plans for selling cotton were based too much upon hazy conclusions without ascertaining the facts. The present constructive program being worked out in the cotton growing section is radical in the extreme when viewed from a financial standpoint, and yet it is sane and sensible. Radical because it is totally different to that of any other plan yet evolved. The present low price of cotton as compared with other products being sold by the business men is awakening the financial interests of the South because they, too, are vitally interested into getting the money into the hands of Southern people. This idea is based upon the old principle that if the farmer does not prosper, no one may prosper.

Up until four or five years ago it was generally conceded by the general public that the cotton grower was not entitled to a decent living or his family to decent opportunities simply because he was a cotton grower. That idea was arrived at without any process of reasoning and was redolent of the South more than of any other section.

It may be explained that this idea was but a reflection of slavery days, or it might have been due to the fact that cotton growers never demanded a living wage for his labor, or stopped to consider the rights of his family. His home was a mere hovel, the family existed on the scantiest fare and the scrawny, emaciated population bowed to the will of the powers that were. Boys grow to manhood and adopted the same plan of action as their father in keeping the wolf from the door. Daughters, with stooped shoulders and ruined health married men of their class, the union bringing into the world helpless children who were to be fed to the mills of manumission and greed being brought up in a narrow life uneducated and untrained.

During the high price period just passed, a storm of protest was heaped upon the heads of the defenseless grower while nothing was said about the spinner who, buying a pound of cotton at forty cents, returned that thread to the grower at the rate of two dollars and twenty cents a pound. No charges of profiteering were ever lodged against the spinner who made two to three hundred percent without touching the product.

It is interesting to note the amount of criticism heaped upon the cotton grower when he began to come out from under his burden building better homes, better schools, better churches, better roads, and making better citizens of the wrecks of humanity that were for the first time to view the world as their creator intended. The silver lining to this cloud may be found in an aroused sense of justice on the part of the general public when it became known for the first time that cotton growing farmers were not supposed to live according to recognized standards of living.

CLARENDON SHRINE CLUB CELEBRATES

FIRST GET-TOGETHER BANQUET AT MASONIC HALL LAST THURSDAY NIGHT. KHIVA POTENTATE STAPLETON HERE

Thursday night at the Masonic Hall was a scene of gay hilarity and evidences of cordial fraternity among the Novices of the Mystic Shrine, members of Clarendon Shrine Club. The occasion was the first get-together meeting of the local club and special interest attached to the presence of Noble Stapleton, Illustrious Potentate of Khiva Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. Amarillo, who came as the guest of the club.

Noble John Blocker, president of the club, was toastmaster and presided with grace and let no dull moment intrude on the evening.

The banquet menu was one of the best ever served in the city, consisting of oyster cocktail, oyster stew, fried oysters, fruit salad, pies, coffee and cigars. The pies were the special and clandestine gift of the wives of a few local Nobles who desired to add to the epicurean joys of the evening.

At the close of the serving and when cigars were lit the toastmaster called on Noble Tom Connolly to present the guest of the evening, Potentate Stapleton. Khiva's first officer then addressed the club at length on the work and aims of Khiva Temple and the order at large. He complimented the Clarendon club and said that he was much surprised at the number of members in the club and the enthusiasm which showed in every thing the club did. Noble Harwood Beville made fitting responses and assured the Potentate that Clarendon Shrine Club was behind Khiva for everything she stood for and voiced the sentiment that the officers of Khiva might feel at liberty at any time to call on the Clarendon nobility for anything and it would be done.

Every Noble present was called for and several interesting, entertaining and instructive expressions were heard. Hearty laughs and spontaneous applause were continuous and every one present voted it just such a meeting as Shriners alone know how to enjoy.

At a business meeting before the talk-fest, Noble Allan Beville was elected as secretary to fill the office vacated by Noble Massey when he moved from this city recently to Ecla. The newly elected secretaries for the matter of seat reservations for the Musical benefit comedy, "Khiva Comics," to be staged at Amarillo on Nov. 22, 23, 24. It is expected that many Clarendon people, regardless of Masonic affiliation, will be in Amarillo on the night of the 24th to see this musical show after having witnessed the Shrine parade and antics of the novices during the day.

Clarendon Shrine Club is pleased over its first entertainment and plans will be laid shortly for another at which the ladies will be guests.

CREDITABLE TALENT SHOWN AT HIGH SCHOOL EXHIBIT

In a cartoon contest embracing the pupils of the higher grades at the high school last week, boasting "better speech" week, some two hundred entries were made. Among that number were several showing a decided talent for cartooning, while a large number did creditable work. Prizes of one, two and three dollars were offered for the three best single exhibits. All of the space on the walls of the main hall was taken up with the posted specimens of embryonic skill, the list including everything from the most comic work of the amateur to the ludicrous. At the request of Superintendent J. E. Nelson, Mrs. Frank Pounds, Sam M. Braswell and J. C. Estlack acted as judges. After quite a bit of discussion over a number of special selections of the very best, the judges finally decided that Richard Martin was entitled to the first prize, James Patman second and Lawrence Hayer third prize. All contestants were called into the auditorium where, in a few well chosen words, Mr. Braswell presented the prize money to the lucky boys. Altho a number of girls entered the contest, not a one came within the bounds of winning which was probably due to the fact that cartoons are not made with either cooking utensils or needles. After all, the exhibit was a surprise even to the teachers much less the judges who were loud in their praise of the discovery of so much local talent, of so much local talent.

CREAM SHIPPING OFFERS FARMERS DAILY INCOME

Since there is no local market for cream at present despite the fact that hundreds of dairy cattle are to be found in Donley county, the question naturally arises as to why cream shipping could not be made a profitable industry. There is little satisfaction in keeping cows merely for a calf crop at present prices. As a matter of fact, present prices have driven farmers to selling cream in a number of places greatly to their advantage.

At the present time it is almost impossible to buy country butter in Clarendon. While this fact exists, creamery butter is sold by the hundred pounds by almost every local grocer. It is evidently a fact that the farmer has overlooked a good paying crop—a crop that will bring in a daily income. A daily income at present when prices on farm products are lowest since 1914, hold effects, a burro team and a would bring a much needed relief anda at the present time develop a resource that is now going to waste. If no better market can be found, or no other arrangement be made a creamery in Amarillo will keep a local representative here to buy all the cream produced locally if the amount will justify such a move. There is no question about the market. The demand for butter fat is too great to question the market end of the proposition.

The next question naturally arises, will it pay? Since we profit best from experience of others, we might call to the attention of the reader, conditions that have existed in other localities, the remedy sought, accomplishments and results.

Without organization there would be little to interest a producer of butter fat. That fact has been tested out in a number of places. As all illustration, we might mention Melrose, New Mexico. For some months farmers in that section patronized a local creamery. Cream testew ere altogether satisfactory, the price failed to lend encouragement and it looked like the industry would die out. At the last moment, a few of the more industrious farmers got together and organized a creamery association—for the sale of butter fat alone. They took no stock in a creamery, but did start in to regulate the price and have something to say about the tests of the quality of their product. Did it work? It must have since ninety percent of the farmers and smaller ranchmen within a radius of forty miles of Melrose are now producers of butter fat and are making money.

Up until the three year's drouth in southeastern New Mexico, the small ranchmen and homesteaders kept cattle for the calf crop alone. After the packers' trust put them out of business and there seemed nothing left for them to do but move out, they hit upon the cream sale idea as a last resort. At the present time several hundred pounds of cream daily is being hauled nine-tenths miles to Pecos city by truck and sold at a profit. One John Lanehart who settled upon a claim or homestead near Jal in that section some years ago with a few house-hold effects, a burro team and a large, industrious family as his only resources, want and misery starel him in the face. The family was forced on more than one occasion to seek other fields in which to labor and replenish the family pocket-book. After a time—three years to be exact—Uncle Sam lost his bet and a patent was issued to John Lanehart making him the owner of three hundred and twenty acres of land. He purchased a truck, bought a secure means to buy a small bunch of cattle. After trying out the proposition thoroughly, he came to the conclusion that keeping cows for company and a sixty percent calf crop—his only returns—would not pay. He next turned to the last resort—sell cream. Being sixty miles from the rail-road was a serious handicap but his all was at stake and something must be done.

He purchased a truck, bought a separator and milked every cow he had twice daily. That beginning was last spring. The mortgage was paid last month. He has more cows now than the beginning and his cream sales amount to about one hundred dollars a day. An extreme case you say. Sure it is, but it shows what a fellow can do if he is made of the right sort of stuff. He now has many neighbors doing the same thing. Where once existed a semi-desert, now browse the sleepy-eyed Jersey and the holstein. Milk bred stock is rapidly displacing the Hereford and Durham. The people are prospering and where want was every where in evidence, better homes now are to be seen and the country has assumed an air of prosperity.

The writer is acquainted with the sections before mentioned. There is no comparison in pasture grasses, the natural forage for cows. It is not necessary to feed milk cows here except during the winter months. The country as a whole is better adapted to cream production. Farmers in western Kansas and eastern Colorado ship their milk—not cream—to Denver and make a profit. Farmers of Nebraska with in a radius of one hundred miles of Omaha, ship milk to that city. If the present freight rates are prohibitive, cream shipments alone could be made netting nice profit sto Donley county farmers.

What thousands of others are doing, can be done right here at home. Farmers are urged to see our local secretary of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce who will be glad to assist in any manner possible. If a meeting time is set, representatives of creameries will be present to render any assistance possible.

EDUCATING WITH SIGNBOARDS.

In 1918, Mr. A. K. Short, Agronomist in the department of Extension, A. & M. College, while on a northern trip, saw at Beatrice, Nebraska, some very effective signboards, which had been placed along the roads by the Gage County Live Stock Association. Short doesn't have to be told with a sledge hammer, what to do with a good idea when he gets one. In a few days, he landed back at Belton, Texas, and got the county agent, C. Merwin, and D. T. Kilgough, superintendent of the Extension Station near Temple, about as busy as they ever were, selling signboards. When I was over at Temple Station recently, Mervin was driving several of us around inspecting Belton cotton. I presently saw a flaming signboard loom up, which said, "KILL HIM." I thought it might have reference to the speed fiend, for the roads are very fine in that locality; but on nearing the sign, I saw catalogued in smaller trade from people who read the type, a list of things to be killed, as, example, the scrub rooster the scrub bull, and, for that matter, a long list of scrubs which are reducing the money output of every farm where they live. That sign was subscribed by a progressive merchant of Belton, who had paid for its erection and who was getting sign in passing. Another sign was erected by a large lumber yard and urged the farmers to protect their farm machinery with suitable storage houses.

The point is, that the people are benefited by constant reminders of the many little shifts and devices which contribute to success. Business people are seeking every available excuse for bringing themselves before the farmer as a sort of solicitation of his trade. Short simply put these two pressing needs together and a couple of live wires on the job, and that is why Bell county is dotted from center to circumference, with pert and terse slogans for farm betterment and the tradesmen have cheerfully footed the bills

PROPOSE POOL OF LOW GRADE COTTON.

Corpus Christi, Texas—More than thirty signatures are attached to a call issued to the farmers of Texas to meet in Waco, November 16th, for the purpose of considering a state-wide pool of low grade cotton, to be shipped and sold to Europe.

The following is the call:
November 3, 1920
To Cotton Growers and all others holding low-grade cotton:

"We, the undersigned cotton growers of Texas, hereby call a mass meeting of all citizens of this state who are now holding low grade cotton, to meet in Waco, Texas, on Tuesday, November 16th, at 10 a. m., at the offices of the Chamber of Commerce, for the purpose of considering the advisability and practicability of pooling all low grade cotton in this state for shipment and sale to European countries.

In view of the fact that low grade cotton has been accumulating during and since the Great War, it is absolutely necessary that some effective measures be adopted at once to dispose of this low grade cotton before next year's crop is put on the market. After a careful investigation and conference with leading farmers and cotton growers of this state, it is deemed wise and proper that the course to pursue is the one outlined above.

An investigation shows that Germany alone today needs two million bales of cotton. Bohemia needs half a million bales, and other European nations need at least a million bales. These countries today are idle for lack of cotton.

The time is too short to rely upon any export corporation yet to be organized to handle the enormous quantity of low grade cotton now on hand in this country.

We urge the citizens of every county and community who are holding low grade cotton to attend this meeting or send representatives.

If we can succeed in disposing of this low grade cotton through a pooling system, next year's crop will bring cost of production plus a profit, but should we fail to accomplish this purpose, every bale carried over will be a liability against next year's crop to hammer down the price.

This is your business and needs your attention now. We are counting on you to be present at this meeting and to do your part.

COX WILL RETIRE AFTER NEXT YEAR

Governor Cox, defeated presidential candidate, looking forward to the time he will surrender his state office in January announced that he was considering a trip abroad next year to study conditions in Europe. Meanwhile, he said, he planned to work and rest. Leaving here for the state capitol on Friday, and starting the middle of next week for a hunting trip in Mississippi.

Wednesday found Governor Cox apparently in the same mental state as when he watched the returns, bringing in continuous unfavorable returns.

His smile was still apparent and the mass of telegrams seem unanimous in declaring he had made a "good fight."

The governor sent a congratulatory message to Senator Harding in which he volunteered "as a citizen" to support the nation's chief executive in "whatever emergency might arise."

No formal statement was made by the governor over the election result, and his newspaper commenting editorially, did not attempt to analyze the returns. For the first time in the governor's political career, his home county of Montgomery, including this city, went against him, Senator Harding carrying it by about 8,000 plurality.

Middletown, in Butler county, where he lived as a boy, also went to Senator Harding by five votes, but the county itself gave a comfortable edge to the governor.

The governor said he was considering framing a message to the state assembly regarding his observations of conditions in the state which, he said, require constitutional or statutory changes. He did not indicate any changes he considers necessary and the message, if made, he said, will go to the assembly at its regular session in January.

The governor divided his time Wednesday between his home here and his farm at Jacksonburg, the place of his birth. While at the farm he helped the farm workers husk corn. Mrs. Cox was with him during the day.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the administration leader in the treaty, wired "it is better to lose in a cause that is right than to win a cause that is wrong."

Other messages came from cabinet officers and party leaders throughout the country.

ONIONS A WINNER IN PANHANDLE OF TEXAS

Not only is the Panhandle section of Texas a producer of celery as noted elsewhere in this issue, but she is coming forward as an onion producer as well. In fact it may not be long until the Panhandle will compete with the lower Rio Grande section in the production of the tearful tuber. S. J. King, of Muleshoe, down near Plainview, marketed six thousand pounds off a quarter of an acre and received $600 therefor. Mr. King had no previous experience in the raising of onions or he would have likely done better.

RUMOR OF EPIDEMIC IS UNFOUNDED.

That this city has a diphtheria epidemic exists only in the imaginations of those who are unduly alarmed. Only a few cases exist and these are carefully looked after by physicians. There isn't as many cases here right now as there has been at other times and those here now, were brought in. All those afflicted are getting along nicely.

Donley county is placed at more of a disadvantage because his product must be shipped a greater distance and because he is unable to receive competitive bids at selling time. The idea is preposterous because he lives in a section adopted to greater variety than the eastern cotton producing areas. If he be a renter, he is at a disadvantage if his landlord demands a big cotton crop. He should swap landlords. It is conceded by all Texas that our section offers greater opportunities for diversification than any other section. Cotton growing at best is a calamity. It promises much and means nothing.

In order to arrive at a more direct estimate of the value of the statements made in this article, we have but to calculate the cost of producing cotton right here at home. We will take as a basis twenty-five acres. That is about all one man can take care of on an average year. After talking this matter over with a number of farmers and after taking into consideration a wide diversity of opinions, we arrived at the conclusion that an estimate worked out on a basis of hiring the work done would be more accurate. A farmer certainly should be able to produce lint as cheaply as he can hire the work done. Here is the way it figures up:

Int. on land at $75 per acre	$187.80
Listing 25 acres	37.50
Planting	37.50
Seed for 25 acres	25.00
Godaviling one at 60c per A.	1.500
Cultivating twice	56.25
Insurance at $5 per acre	125.00
Ginning at $8.50 per bale	106.25
Picking at $2 per hundred	400.00
	$990.30

Figuring on a basis of a half bale to the acre and that sixteen hundred pounds of lint cotton will make a five hundred pound bale will sell for eighteen cents, we have cotton worth $1125.00, seed that is worth $137.50 or a total of $1262.50. After deducting the cost of production we have left a total of only $272.20. At that rate the land produced a profit of a little better than $10.88 per acre.

It will be noted that no allowance was made for cotton chopping because very few chop their cotton here. The half bale estimate is low, much of it making three-quarters to a bale to the acre. Taken all round we believe this to be a good average.

That the cotton acreage will be greatly decreased next season in Donley county is a foregone conclusion. Some farmers are going to make more this season on a by-product of the farm than on the cotton crop which was the principal dependence earlier in the season.

Just what form of sowing will be handed out to the cotton growers to induce them to make a few more millionaires for the next season is yet to show up. We hardly think they will fall for it and we certainly do not think our local farmers will be foolish enough to bank on cotton as a money crop next year. If we judge by their expressions at present, they will plant a small patch of cotton but in the main make a more determined attempt to raise their living at home and turn their attention to a diversified program.

In Second Recital of Artists Course Eddy Brown Uses Rare Violin

EDDY BROWN, WHO APPEARS HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Undoubtedly the most precious possession of any violinist the instrument upon which he makes music for the public and frequently he takes better care of the violin than he does of more intimate and more personal belongings. Indeed the violin may well be, despite its material nature, the true soul of its owner. The attitude may spring from the fact that excellent violins are perhaps rarer than souls. Therefore happy is the violinist that owns a fiddle that will respond to his every desire for pure tone.

Of living violinists there is none happier in the possession of instruments than Eddy Brown, the young American who will give a recital in Clarendon Wednesday evening, Nov. 12th at 7:15 at the College Auditorium.

In his collection there are no less than four of exceptional value. One of them a Stradavari, he inherited from his grandfather, also a player of distinction in his own time; a second, an Amati of great value, was given him by his father who purchased the violin from Franz von Vecsey. In addition Mr. Brown bought a Guarneri in London just prior to his American debut, while the fourth in the list was picked up quite recently in a little Western town. It is of Spanish origin and of exceptionally luscious tone.

Mr. Brown will not acknowledge preference for any one of the four. "They are all my children and I do not believe in having a favorite child. One day the Amati will suit my mood, another day it may be the Guarneri, while again it may be one of the others. No, I cannot tell which I shall use at my next recital."

Eddy Brown is an American violinist who won fame in his native land only after years of successes in Europe. The best proof of his European reception is to be found in the fact that in the year prior to his American debut, February, 1915, he played in more than sixty cities abroad. Yet that season in particular was no longer in accord than had been Mr. Brown's experience for three seasons before.

Since his American debut the young violinist has marched ahead steadily, never in a spectacular or sensational way for his way of art does not lie along such paths, but rather making haste slowly in the manner of those whose art is for all time. So the present year finds him in the midst of a season that represents the high water mark of his attainments and in his attraction for the public.

It has been suggested to Mr. Brown that if he had appeared under some other name than his own he might well have won an earlier success with the American public. This, however, the young violinist denies. "In point of fact," is his claim, "I would much rather win my way slowly into the affections of the public, for I find that those to whom the public pays instantaneous devotion are frequently the same whom that fickle jade deserts as quickly."

Mr. Brown will appear in recital in the Artists Course at the College Auditorium on Wednesday night Nov. 17.

Ernest Milford and wife of Commerce arrived Sunday to make their home here. Joe M. Warren and John Clark are business visitors in Estelina for the day. Miss Susie Teel of Dallas who has been visiting at the S. H. Lowell home returned home Wednesday. Earl Lovell of Commerce is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. J. M. Erwin went down to Hedley Monday morning to assume his duties as agent for the Denver at that point. Roy Kendall and daughter Miss Grace, will leave Saturday night for an extended visit with relatives in Idaho. W. L. Glass is in town for a couple of days resting up from his road work and by way of celebrating Armistice Day.

F. L. Cotherman of Dallas arrived Wednesday to remain in the city the remainder of the week looking after business interests. L. Ehlinger, state highway engineer was in the city over Wednesday talking over the road situation with local authorities.

Director Taylor of the music department of Clarendon College informs us that there will be a student's recital Monday evening at the College auditorium at seven o'clock. The public generally is invited and admission is free.

Mrs. Ida Chitwood will be in attendance at the state meeting of county demonstrators which will be held in Sweetwater Thursday and Friday of this week. T. O. Walton, state director, has insisted that she be present with a full report of her work in Donley county believing that the showing made by her will be of incalculable value to workers in other sections. This opportunity affords an excellent chance for our county to get some real advertising of the right kind.

Joe M. Warren is in receipt of a message from Mrs. Warren stating that her father, J. C. Mullins, passed away at Thrift, Brown county, a few hours before her arrival. Mr. Mullins had been a resident of that county over fifty years and took the lead in organizing the county, such organization taking place in his home. The deceased was over eighty years of age at the time of his death and was one of Brown county's oldest citizens.

Every Drop an Asset

As a dairy farmer you can figure out the penny that your cream is worth. You know that every particle of butter fat has a distinct value to you. You cannot afford to use a separator that misses any cream.

The Primrose Cream Separator gets every drop of cream. The principle on which it operates is as simple as the mechanism. The frame is open and sanitary—the supply can large and low. Every bearing and quiet gear is well oiled by a splash system.

In Primrose separators, good workmanship and materials, close skimming and durable qualities, are the distinguishing points.

No matter what the size of your herd, the Primrose is a money-maker. Two-or-three-cow farmers use them with profit.

The Primrose is the only cream separator that automatically drains out the used oil from the gear case when new oil is added.

Let us demonstrate this and other points. If it is not convenient for you to call, phone us and we will bring a machine out and show you how it operates and what its financial advantages are to you.

News of Interest From The Clarco

Last Friday the Clarendon football team journeyed to Plainview to meet the Wayland team on Saturday, Oct. 30. The boys had a good trip going down and were in fine spirits upon their arrival. The score was 21-13.

Neither team scored in the first quarter. Close opened the game with his famous end run of about fifteen yards for a touchdown, in second. Then a pass to Lipscomb, for about 35 yards, put the ball within 10 yards of C. C.'s goal and Davis pushed over Wayland's first score. Blakemore also scored for Wayland, making the score 14-7 in the second quarter. In the third Matt Noble ran sixty yards for a touchdown after receiving a forward pass.

The fourth quarter was played in darkness and rain. Blakemore made Wayland's third touchdown near the last of the game.

The game was marked, from the very first, with much squabbling and wrangling over rules and downs.

None of the Clarendon boys were injured and the same line fought throughout the game. Wayland made two changes from injury.

Individual stars for C. C. were Close, Noble, Smalley and Zeigler. Close at half continued to make gains on end runs and line smashes. Noble received pass admirably and thrilled the crowd with his long run for touchdown. Smalley, like Noble, stood out on end as he tied on to the passes. Raymond Zeigler played real football at half. His hard hitting was responsible for many gains.

Craighton played his first game for the season, at quarter and handled the team well. Meades at full played his regular line smashing game. The line as a whole hit hard and Thompson continued his sure passing at center.

Clarendon's Line-Up.

Right Tackle Holt
Right Guard McLean
Center Thompson

The Wayland Line-Up.

Full Back Davis
Substitutes Brady for McCaslin, Exum for Lipscomb.

Officials, Referee, Miller (Plainview) Umpire, Rosson (Plainview). Head-lineman, Stocking (Clarendon).

The game was played in the mud, and so much squabbling delayed the game that the last quarter was played in almost total darkness. This makes the games one victory for Clarendon, one for Wayland.

The Game By Plays.

Davis of Wayland kicked off to Smalley on C. C.'s 15-yard line. He was downed on C. C.'s 25. A series of bucks failed to gain much and Meades punted to Lipscomb on W. B. C.'s 40-yard line. A number of line bucks carried the ball some 25 yards down the field. A pass to Blakemore was incomplete. Zeigler broke up a pass behind the line that might have been a touchdown. Clarendon's ball on 20-yard line. Close gained 8 around left end. Close gained 3. Zeigler went thru for 4. Close made 2. Craighton hit for 3 yards. Zeigler failed to gain. Close made 4 on short end run. Zeigler bucked for 2 1-2. Ball went over. Blakemore made 8. Meades tackled for a 6-yard loss. Graves plunged 4; Brazil 1. Ball over a forward pass failed. Meades lost 4. Close made 4 on end run. Meades punted 35 yards to W. B. C.'s 20-yard line. Noble blocked pass. Zeigler blocked pass. Wayland punted to Close.

Second Quarter.

Pass to Noble gained 12. Close made 2. C. C. penalized 5 yards. Meades punted to W. B. C.'s 8-yard line. Line bucking failed and Blakemore punted. Close went thru for 5. Close's left end run gained 5. Zeigler made 2. Close bucked 3; Meades 8; Craighton 3. Close here went around left end about 15 yards for th first touchdown. Close kicked. Wayland penalized 5 yards for false start. Close kicked again. C. C. gained the ball on a fumble. Failing to gain, Meades punted to Brazil on W. B. C.'s 25. A long pass to Lipscomb gained 35 yards. Close's tackle saved a touchdown. Davis then pushed thru for Wayland's first touchdown. Blakemore kicked goal. Score 7-7.

Wayland kicked to Noble on C. C.'s 30-yard line. A series of line smashes and end runs gained about 20 yards. Then Wayland held for downs and the ball went over. A pass went out of bounds. Graves gained 8. Blakemore went around left end for 15 yards. Pass gained 6. Blakemore bucked 2; Brazil 8; Blakemore 4. Blakemore downed on C. C.'s 1-yard. He then pushed over for a touchdown. Blakemore kicked goal. Score 14-7 in favor of Wayland.

Wayland kicked to C. C.'s 18 and regained the ball on a fumble. A series of fine plunges failed and the ball went over. Close made 4. A pass was incomplete. Meades punted 30 yards. Line called. Exum went in for Lipscomb. A pass failed. Graves gained but 2 and the ball went over. Noble ran 60 yards for a touchdown after receiving a pass. Meades failed at the kick. Score 14-13.

Close kicked to Davis on W. B. C.'s 10-yard line. A pass was incomplete. Graves gained 5. Another pass incomplete. Wayland punted to C. C.'s 30-yard line. A forward pass to Smalley gained 25. Pass to Meades gained 10. Pass to Noble made 8. C. C. penalized 7 yards. Two passes to Smalley gained 10 and 8 respectively. Close made 3 on end run. Zeigler failed to gain pass to Smalley fumbled behind goal line. Another pass failed and the ball went over.

Fourth Quarter.

Wayland punted to Smalley. A pass failed. Craighton plunged 5 yards. A pass failed and the ball went over. Just at this point of the game a heavy rain-set in and it was impossible to distinguish further plays. Blakemore ran 15 yards for Wayland's last touchdown. The goal was kicked and the score stood 21-13 in Wayland's favor. The remainder of the time was spent in attempting plays which resulted in many fumbles.

The Clarendon boys won from Wayland here early in the season and this last game gave each team a claim for Junior championship. The home team has challenged the Wayland team for a post-season game at Amarillo to decide the winner. The Challenge will likely be accepted.

Monday evening the girls dormitory, by a touch of the magic wand, became a wonderland of fairies, goblins, sailors, heroes, witches, clowns, and elves. At the word "GO!" the lines met the feminine ghosts coming from above, to walk off one by one with the hoarse voiced goblins from below, and in that Plutoic scene of puzzled enjoyment, the hero of the World War was led away by a ghost, the clown followed the elf, while the sailor seemed completely bewitched by a tall dark figure in black, with pointed cap, and broom; while Lucifer brought up the last of the procession.

The first floor was weirdly decorated with many jack o'lanterns, and Halloween colors of black and orange. This was used as a promenade for the "maskers" post, the judges of costumes for the evening. The parlors and studios were used for rooms into which the apple-grabbing contest, fortune telling, and the studio of Senor Blanco.

The dining room was transformed into a large reception hall, the walls and ceiling of which were cleverly decorated with typical Halloween festoons. Weird old owls perched here and there; witches and goblins stared from ceiling, wall and floor. Here and there a black cat slyly peeped out! Miss Reda Clay and Mr. L. Z. Creighton were awarded the prize for the most original costuming. Miss Clay wore a black and white folly dress, and Mr. Creighton a black and white hoodoo suit.

After the promenade, the visiting of the various places of amusement and futures and talk—the young people were sent down into the dining room. Dainty refreshments consisting of orange and white brick ice cream, cakes, and mints were served. Favors were given to each guest.

The young people enjoyed themselves from 6:30 until 10 o'clock. Then (as it always does) the bell rang, and the spell was broken, Presto! The fairyland folk began to vanish. By 10:15 there were only common folk who walked up and down the halls of the girls' "dump." Fairyland was again populated. Spirits again descended for the underworld, and the boys' hall was again itself.

Clarendon College defeated W. T. S. N. C. last Saturday, making four touchdowns and kicking goal every time, to Canyon's three touchdowns, kicking goal once. Clarendon made two touchdowns in the first four minutes of play.

Smalley starred for Clarendon

Saturday, October 30th valiant Scrub foot-ball team of C. C. journeyed to McLean for no other purpose than to give to McLean's team of cow-punchers, farmers, outlaws, and what-not, a thorough trouncing. They felt fully capable of doing this in spite of the fact that the first team had confiscated "Big Peop" and Doc Pill and carried them off to Wayland. The boys left about 11:30 a. m., with prospects of a fine day before them. The day was overcast with clouds and it was misting heavily. Incidentally, it might be added that it was not altogether "ice-cream trousers" temperature. The team members went immediately to a cafe and consumed "several" bowls of chili.

The game began about 2:45 on an unlined, wet, muddy, slippery field and in a "gentle" rain which continued throughout the game—sometimes heavy; sometimes light but mostly heavy. It was accompanied by a "cooling" zephyr from the north.

Things went along fine for a short time. The Clarendon boys bucked the ball to within 15 yards of the goal line before they were held for downs. Passing was almost prohibited by weather conditions.

The ball went up and down, crosswise and others, in and out of the approximate field until the second quarter, the ball was advanced to within two or three yards of the goal line when some mistake of the head linesman permitted McLean to buck the ball over in some seven downs. They kicked goal and the score stood 7-0 throughout the game. Continued squabbling characterized the game. The Scrubs tackled especially good in this game, but the back field was hastily formed, its two best men being taken that day as first team substitutes. Most of the time the line held splendidly, and bucked fine on the offense. The backfield did excellent on the defense, but was unable to run interference, when attempting end runs, hence the best gains were on line plunges. All the players fought hard to the whistle, and are anxious for a return game. The team was for the most part hastily thrown together, and the backfield was especially unused to each other. After the game the fellows, immediately left for home, and to make a long story short, they arrived all the way from 9:00 until 11:00 o'clock that night.

Saturday evening, October 30, Mrs. Braswell's Sunday School class of girls entertained with a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McMurtrey. Spooks and ghosts of all sorts and descriptions foregathered early in the evening and held convalescence until a late hour, deciding the fates of earthly mortals and brewing good and ill for friend and foe. Not all present were of the mysterious past, however. Backwoodsmen conversed freely with Little Red Riding Hoods, and sailors spun yarn of the Seven Seas for the edification of credulous Bo Peeps and Miss Muffets, while Pierrot pivoted with Martha Washington, and Evangeline's consorted with reckless Harlequins.

The guests on arrival were ushered into the parlor, dimly lighted with demoniacal grinning Jack o'lanterns, and were mysteriously bidden to draw from a big bowl of sawdust a written alphabetical letter hidden therein. This letter was the initial of the surname of one who should that night become enarmored of the drawer.

A period of excited speculation followed the selection of the bits of paper, after which couples were formed, and the gaily commenced in earnest Games peculiar to the great occasion of goblin-time went on, indulged in by clowns, Empress Eugene, Puritan John Alden, and His Satanic Majesty, himself.

Near the end of the merry-making the guests all unmasked, and refreshments were served, after which they departed regretting the end of another joyous, irresponsible, thoughtless, Halloween party.

Mr. Tony Pratt, former student of Clarendon College, is now at Trinity University, and has, according to our expectations, made the Tiger football team there, starring in their recent game with T. C. U.

Mr. Harold Ketne, graduate of C. C. '20, is now taking an engineering course at the State University. We noticed in a Daily Texan issue that Keen was used as substitute in a short-horn game with San Marcos Normal. The plays tackle for the Engineers.

Mr. Charles Ferguson, graduate of C. C. '20 now at S. M. U., is connected in a contributory way with "The Campus." Mr. Ferguson was editor of the Clarco last year.

TO THE PUBLIC

I have resigned from the County Attorney's office and will hereafter do a general practice instead of limiting my practice to civil cases only.

This step has been in contemplation for several months, but I have been unable to be released from the office on account of some unfinished business which the officers of the court desired me to finish before resigning, and I have arranged to take care of all such business now on hand.

I desire to express my appreciation to the good people of this county who have supported me during my tenure of office, and who elected me to the position.

Very truly yours,
—R. H. Beville, Attorney. 46c

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Fachache is sign you have Been eating too much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and lorgy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, also you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

FREAKY FACTS AFFECT THE PRINTING INDUSTRY

When a child is born in the community, the editor hastens to give the loud-lunged youngster and the "happy (?) parents" a send-off, the doctor gets $25, the nurse probably $15 and the editor gets $00 for his trouble. When he is christened, the minister rakes in $5 and the editor writes up the affair only to receive $00 for his part of the proceeds. When the lad grows up and is married, the minister gets possibly $10, and an invitation to the feast, the editor lies like the dickens about the wonderful business ability of the culprit and gets $00 for his pains. After the editor boasts for him for a considerable number of years, he finally dies, the doctor reaps in $25 to $100. The editor hastens to gather the particulars at the expense of his own time, writes up an obituary notice, prints the invitations to the funeral and runs a card of thanks and charges the account amount to $6.50. The widow moves out of the country and never pays the bill. No wonder newspaper men get rich.

Arthur Wallin who formerly lived here, was down from his place near Guymon the last of the week. Arthur says the wheat outlook is great due to the recent rains. The acreage has also been increased due to a low price of headed crops.

AUCTION SALE

AMERICA'S GREATEST PERCHERON HORSE DISTRIBUTORS WILL HOLD THEIR Semi-Annual Clearance Sale

We will offer at Public Auction from our surplus of horses and mares, some of the very best that grow, ranging in age from 4 to 8 years and in size from 1,300 to 1,800 pounds, all well broke and good blood and breeding. Among these are many matched teams such as dapple grays, blacks, bays and roans.

50--Head To Be Sold--50

The increasing appreciation of the horse as an economical power unit has encouraged us to bring this stock to a vicinity where the requirements demand a flexibility of power such as is furnished only by the horse and where the residents realize the saving and earning capacity of high grade stock as opposed to costly mechanical power. Your attention is called to the following item from the New York Sun:

The Horse an Important Factor in Fighting H. C. L.

"Wherever the horse has been taken off the ice, milk and grocery routes the cost of these commodities to the consumer has been increased. The horse saved thousands from death last winter during the coal shortage by performing faithfully when trucks could not be moved. Thousands of farmers have been led to believe the horse is being crowded out of industry. This is a mistaken impression. Trucks and tractors have their part to play but that part is not on the farm of less than 200 acres or for short hauls in cities." Also Mr. Wayne Denamore, the foremost authority on agricultural necessities, states: "The economy of home raised power and fuel is indisputable. Fertility, maintenance of the farm and self perpetuation double the interest to the farmer on his investment for horses."

YOU BE THE JUDGE: Remember the importance of good brood mares as the foundation of our future horse power especially now in view of the price of all classes of mules. Each of these mares will do an ordinary year's work plus the production of a big heavy boned mule colt. The geldings are a fine assortment suitable for public work or wherever heavy hauling is needed. We have taken particular care in selecting only such stock as will satisfy the most critical inspection for bone substance, conformation, stamina, endurance and work quality. View this stock carefully and remember that same will be sold at your own prices, under an absolute guarantee and must be as represented. Sale will start

Beginning at 1 P. M.

Monday, November 15th

Under Supervision of Auctioneer

This stock will be sold under any weather conditions regardless of price. Further announcements will be made at the sale. You will find it profitable and instructive and are cordially invited to attend the sale.

A TALK WITH A CLARENDON MAN

Mr. W. H. Martin, Retired Merchant of Fourth and Park Streets Tells of His Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a Clarendon man:

"I found Doan's Kidney Pills very good for pain and lameness in my back," says Mr. Martin. "I got Doan's at McKillop's Drug-Store, and was pleased with the results they gave right away. They are certainly a good remedy." (Statement given January 24th, 1911.)

On April 21st, 1919, Mr. Martin added: "I have not had any signs of kidney trouble for some years. I believe the cure that Doan's Kidney Pills gave me is permanent. I am always glad to say a word in praise of Doan's."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

The State of Texas. In the District Court, Donley County, Texas, January Term, A. D. 1921.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Donley County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, That, by making publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the County of Donley four weeks previous to the return day thereof, you summon: Mary Waller Rea and husband B. M. Rea and Charles Molter who are alleged to be non-residents of the State of Texas to be and appear before the District Court, to be holden in and for the County of Donley, at the Court House thereof, in the City of Clarendon, on the Second Monday in January A. D. 1921, the same being the 10th day of said month, then and there to answer the petition of Kimbrough, Underwood & Jackson, a partnership firm composed of W. H. Kimbrough, R. E. Underwood and M. J. R. Jackson as plaintiffs, filed in said Court on the 29th day of October A. D. 1920, against Mary Waller Rea and husband B. M. Rea, John A. Rea, Henry Holmes, P. M. Dickey, Mrs. P. L. Luce and husband R. G. Luce, A. F. Luce and Charles Molter as defendants, said suit being numbered 1106, the nature of which demand is as follows, to-wit: Suit on promissory note for $1500.00, dated October 30, 1917, executed by Mary Waller Rea and B. M. Rea, payable to the order of Kimbrough, Underwood & Jackson one day after date, and to foreclose deed of trust on Lots Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, Block 19, and Lot 7, Block 18, Original town of Shamrock, Wheeler County, Texas, and Lots Nos. 5, 6, 7 and 8, Block 1, Grant Addition to Original Town of Clarendon, Donley County, Texas, securing said note; that on September 14, 1917, Mary Waller Rea and B. M. Rea executed a deed to John A. Rea conveying the property in Wheeler County, Texas, to him for the sole and only purpose of placing same beyond the reach of their creditors; that in Suit No. 1094 in District Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas, Mrs. P. L. Luce, R. G. Luce and A. F. Luce, plaintiffs vs. Mary Waller Rea and B. M. Rea, et al defendants a writ or attachment issued and placed in the hands of the sheriffs of Wheeler and Donley counties, Texas, and was levied upon the property above described except that no levy was made on Lot No. 7, in Block No. 18, in Shamrock, Wheeler county, Texas; that in the County Court of Potter County, Texas, F. R. Carl secured judgment against Mary Waller Rea and B. M. Rea for $205.68; that writ of attachment issued out of said cause to the sheriffs of Donley and Wheeler counties, Texas, and was levied upon the property above described except that no levy was made on Lot No. 7, in Block No. 18, in Shamrock, Wheeler county, Texas; that in the County Court of Potter County, Texas, F. R. Carl secured judgment against Mary Waller Rea and B. M. Rea for $205.68; that writ of attachment issued to the Sheriff of Wheeler county and was by him levied upon all of the property in Wheeler county above described.

Plaintiffs pray for judgment against defendants for their debt, principal, interest at the rate of 6 per cent from October 30, 1917, to date of payment of same, and attorney's fees, for foreclosure of their deed of trust lien against the above described property; that said property be decreed to be sold in satisfaction of said debt, principal, interest and attorney's fees; that the deed to John A. Rea be cancelled and held for naught; that the writs of attachment lien in favor of Mrs. P. L. Luce, R. G. Luce, A. F. Luce, and F. R. Carl be cancelled, set aside and held for naught, and declared secondary to their deed of trust lien; that the deed to the defendant Henry Holmes be declared void and of no effect; that the sheriffs deed and attachment lien in favor of Charles Molter be declared void, and no effect, cancelled, and set aside; that the claim of T. M. Dickey (who is asserting some sort of claim to said property, in Wheeler County) be declared to be inferior to their deed of trust lien; that the claims of all the defendants be declared to be inferior to their deed of trust lien; that said lien be declared to be a first and valid lien against said property; that in case the court may determine plaintiffs' mistaken saying that the sheriff's deed to Charles Molter and Henry Holmes are void, then plaintiffs say they have a right to have their deeds of trust lien foreclosed and tender to Charles Molter and Henry Holmes the amount which they paid for said property, and offer to redeem said property from the claims of Molter and Holmes, for costs of suit and general relief.

Herein fail not, but have you then and there to said Court, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness W. E. Bray, Clerk of the District Court of Donley County, Texas.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court in Clarendon, Texas, this 29th day of October, 1920.

W. E. BRAY
Clerk District Court, Donley County, Texas.

RED CROSS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

In Italy 155,000 children were kept from want and starvation through the assistance of the American Red Cross in 1918-19.

In Serbia during the winter of 1919-20, 150,000 war orphans and lost children were fed and relieved.

In France 200,000 children were treated in American Red Cross hospitals and dispensaries during the year 1918-19.

In Holland, during the spring and winter of 1919-20 half a million war orphans were given assistance in the way of food and clothing. Orphanages have already been established by the American Red Cross capable of caring for 800 children. During the same period 4,000 children's garments and shoes were distributed.

In France and Belgium 600 institutions and societies have been aided in caring for the children. In one year 20,000 baby outfits were furnished these children by the American Red Cross.

In Belgium the American Red Cross took 20,000 children out of the country early in the war, thus saving them from capture by the Germans.

In Albania 200 sick babies were treated in the Infant's Hospital at Elbasan and 700 children were given clothing and schooling by the American Red Cross during the winter and spring of 1919-20.

In Montenegro last winter and spring three orphanages were established at each of which 175 children are being fed, clothed and educated.

In Roumania early in 1919, out of every 100 children born 50 died. Through the assistance of the American Red Cross conditions were so changed in Roumania that in June, 1920, the infant mortality was normal.

Jones County Oldest Citizen.
Grandpa A. Biggs, Jones county's youthful lad of 104 years, came in last Saturday from Weatherford, where he had spent two months visiting with relatives. On Tuesday he departed for Quanah, where he will assist his daughter, Mrs. Frank Crow and family, in moving back to Jones county to again make their home.

Grandpa Biggs makes his trips alone and the only "Jonah" to his travels seems to be his little trunk which he has taken along. For the second time in succession his trunk has been lost in transit, but our good and accommodating agent, Mr. Mayo, has speedily traced it up and brought it home safely. On his present journey, Grandpa Biggs decided to send the trunk ahead two days, in order that it might have ample time to get lost and found again by the time he arrived at his destination.—Anson Western-Enterprise.

Mr. Darnell of Mobeetie was over spending the day Sunday with his relatives. His principal mission was to look out for a location with a view of moving over here.

This Xmas let it be a Furniture Aristocrat

Get this Xmas guide-book to Period Furniture

Come in and let us give you a copy of "Edison and Music". Tells about the chief period designs—what they look like, what they stand for. Pithy descriptions. Beautiful illustrations. Just the information you want.

Let us show you what an exquisite thing a phonograph cabinet can be.

Every New Edison on our floor—no matter what its price—is encased in a genuine period cabinet.

Period Furniture is the world's most exquisite development of furniture. It originated in the 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries. Europe was ruled by a Gorgeous Aristocracy. Fine living was the ideal of the day. An unparalleled race of artists, architects, and designers built palatial living-places for kings and nobles, and furnished them. The palaces of the nobility became treasure-houses of fine furniture. It was called the "Golden Age of Furniture."

So Mr. Edison had his designers go back into the manor houses of England, the chateaux of France and the castles of Italy. They adapted 17 designs from historic masterpieces. They preserved entire "the character and feeling of the best periods" in these superb phonograph cases for the modern American home.

No matter which Edison cabinet you choose, you get both the arts that make your house a cultured home—music perfectly RE-CREATED and furniture of purest period source. What finer gift for all the family?

COTTON ASSOCIATION REDUCED ACREAGE IN 1921

The campaign of the American Cotton Association is proving wonderfully successful. From all parts of the state letters and telegrams are coming in, announcing county and precinct organizations being formed.

At the Cotton Conference held in Dallas October the 21st, more than one thousand Texas Bankers pledged themselves to put over the Acreage Campaign in their county. County Chairmen have been appointed for each county in the cotton producing belt of the state, with a representative from each local bank as a Local Captain. The campaign is being aggressively pushed. Reports reaching this office from over the entire state show that farmers, both land owners and tenants, are signing the pledge for a reduction of next years cotton acreage.

The sales of wheat and other winter grains are reported unusually heavy and thousands of acres usually devoted to cotton are being sown in grain.

The sentiment against the gathering of extreme low grades and "bolly" cotton is almost universal. From every section some reports of cattle being turned into the fields to graze the late maturing scattered cotton, every pound of which would ordinarily be picked. It is apparent that the Texas crop will be very considerably reduced from this cause.

The holding movement is becoming general. The cotton trade and the government bureaus report a constant and rapid reduction in the number of bales being offered for sale, and the refusal to sell is so universal as to attract attention in New York and Liverpool.

In a recent statement issued by Secretary Herter, of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, he shows that the mills both domestic and foreign, had on hand October the 1st, 788,000 bales of cotton less than that on hand for date July 1, 1920. This shows that instead of the mills stocking up at this period of the year as is customary, that they have used their reserve supply, thereby creating a vacuum in demand, which unquestionably must be filled in a short time.

The key to the situation is—hold for the next sixty days as we have for the past twenty days, as there will be a demand for every bale produced, at prices much higher than now prevailing. Gather no extreme low grades and "bollies;" prove to the world that the acreage will be reduced, which will have a good influence upon present prices, and bring about a system of diversifi-

Build permanently a system of bonded warehouses covering the entire state that will protect the cotton from country damage and permit the financing of same by member and Regional Reserve Banks, while in the hands of the producer, thus enabling our people to protect themselves from the annual recurring slump in prices.

Annual Red Cross Roll Call, Nov. 11-20

Aunt Jane Briscoe, colored woman of the good old time type, who has many friends among the white population of this city, has been beset with many trials the past week. It all came about when Aunt Jane took it upon herself to collect subscriptions for the rebuilding of her church which was blown down some time ago. Her efforts were rewarded in a substantial manner when she related her tale of woe to the white folks. Now some sorry, good-for-nothing nigger claims that she did not turn the money over to the proper authority. Aunt Jane collected $179.00 and has a receipted bill from a local lumber firm to prove it. If some of her accusers had done as well as she, the entire debt would have been paid. The trouble probably arose over the fact that she turned the money over to the company instead of her accusers.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Liesberg went to Claude Sunday taking their daughter, Mrs. Bob Lynch home. Mrs. Lynch has been visiting relatives and friends here for the past week or more.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE APPOINTED AT CITIZENS' MEETING TO MAKE INVESTIGATION OF AFFAIRS OF THE CITY OF CLARENDON.

We, your committee, selected to meet with the City Commission and inquire into the affairs of the City, beg to report as follows:

Finance.

We did not go into the matter of bond and sinking fund accounts as the City and Bank records show that these funds have been set aside in accordance with the requirements of the bond issues and laws governing same.

We considered the general sewer maintenance and water works funds and find that at the time the present City Commission took charge in April 1919 there were outstanding warrants against the City in the amount of $5,021.48 with practically all 1918 taxes collected and operating expenses for the month of March 1919 unpaid.

We find that on October 31st, 1920, with practically all current expenses paid to date, the City had outstanding warrants amounting to the sum of $6,707.54, making an increase in the outstanding indebtedness over a period of 20 months of $686.06.

We find that on October 31st, 1920, the City had on deposit, subject to check, as follows:

General fund	$1,620.49
Sewer Maintenance fund	1,199.55
Water Works fund	651.85
Total	$3,471.89

We find that the City has made the following permanent improvements paid for to October 31st, 1920:

Material and part installation of White Way	$1,093.93
Office Fixtures	650.00
Total	$1,743.93

We find that the City invested $1,100.14 in a well drilling machine for the purpose of water works improvement. This equipment to be taken over by well contractor at "cost less freight, after completion of City well which will return to the City approximately $1,000.00.

Taking into consideration the above figures and the fact that the expenses of the City have been paid for twenty months with only tax receipts of one year (1919) collected, we feel that the affairs of the City have been economically administered.

On account of criticism of the action of the City Council in hiring a City Clerk and the seeming misunderstanding of the matter of salaries paid, your committee made careful investigation of the necessity of hiring a Clerk and find that the amount of work required of the City Marshall in making tax assessments, tax rolls and other office work, in addition to his regular duties as City Marshal, made the action of the Commission in appointing a City Clerk advisable and necessary.

The duties of this Clerk also include the reading of water meters, collections of water works accounts and outside inspection and supervision of the water works. This reduces the water works operating charge $50.00 per month, leaving the balance of $150.00 per month to be paid from the general fund, out of which the Clerk pays the salary of any additional office help.

We find that the present Clerk has made a house to house inspection of water consumers and has raised same in accordance with the published rate, adding to the water works revenue from $150.00 to $180.00 per month.

That he is preparing a map and abstract of the taxable property and to date has found City property not paying taxes of a taxable value of $150,000.00.

That he has opened a clear and complete set of records to account for the City's affairs.

That the City Clerk relieves the City Marshall of office work permitting him to give more attention to the duties of his office as Marshal and street work.

We find that the Mayor receives a salary of $300.00 per year, two commissioners $150.00 each per year, and the City Marshal $1,800.00 per year.

It is the belief of your Committee that the affairs of the City are being economically operated and that the Commissioners are making an honest effort to place the affairs of the City on a business basis and that the citizenship should co-operate with them, or at least, inform themselves as to the affairs of the City and the plans of the Commissioners before criticizing them and we sincerely trust that the Commissioners will be allowed to try out their plans until the end of their term of office April 1921.

Respectfully Submitted,

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open classes of the system each morning and wash away the poisons, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans, cuts all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.

Information Given Out by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Traffic Department Oct. 9th, 1920

Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, Clarendon, Texas.

"In your circular of May 1, 1920, we give you information with reference to the 12 1-2 percent increase in express rates of the American Railway Express Company, which became effective September 1st, 1920, for application to state and interstate traffic.

In our circular letter your attention was directed to the fact that the 12 1-2 percent increase referred to did not take into consideration the enormous increase in wages recently granted express employees by the Federal Wage Board; that the state and interstate commissioners would at a later date take under advisement the question as to what additional increase it would be necessary to make in the express rates to take care of the increases brought about by the advance in wages to express employees.

The Commission has since given this subject full and thorough consideration, with the result that an additional increase of 13 1-2 percent has been granted for application to interstate traffic. This additional increase is published by the Express Company, effective October 13th, 1920.

The question of making the same additional increase upon Texas intrastate traffic is now being given consideration by the Railroad Commission of Texas, and it very probable that the State Commission will at an early date authorize the same increase, 13 1-2 percent, upon Texas traffic.

NOW IS BEST TIME TO PLANT FLOWERS AND TREES

Attention of our citizens is called to the fact that now is the best time to put out shrubbery and to plant bulbs for blossoming during late winter and spring. Clarendon is known as "The City Beautiful." The beautiful flowers and trees earned for us that name and we should keep it up. The cost is little and the value added to the average home is great.

Bulbs of the jonquil and narcissus class should be put out in pots using good rich soil and about one-third well rotted manure. Keep them damp—not wet—and warm during the growing months and you will be rewarded with large bright flowers for your trouble. Tulip bulbs may be kept over and planted the second year, but other bulbs grown in this country do not do well after the first year. The best bulbs those grown in Holland.

In early spring flowers are desired, now is the best time to plant the bulbs in the yard where they are to stay undisturbed. During the warmer days of the winter they will take root and be ready to put up the flowering stem at the first sign of spring. Plant pansies and daisies in boxes and propagate the plants during winter. They make much nicer plants than planted in the open in the spring. Transplanting after the high winds are over or else protect them from the winds because a wind will bruise the plant and do greater damage than frost or hot sun.

One of the most successful flower growers in our city suggests that sweet peas be planted any time now. She states that the plants will take root during the winter but will not appear above ground until after danger of freezing is over. Give it a trial.

This is also the best time to start rose cuttings. Cut the stem with three buds. Bury two down in sand. Several may be rooted in a bunch—not tied together—in this manner. Keep a fruit-jar over the plants and do not disturb them until next spring.

In the shrubbery class, nothing seems to be of more value in this climate (beauty and hardiness considered, than the althea. The varieties at present include several colors whereas a few years ago we had only white, pink and purple.

After occupying the attention of the justice court all of Monday and Tuesday of this week, the jury returned a verdict of guilty late Tuesday evening in the R. S. Moss case assessing his punishment at a fine of ten dollars and costs. This case grew out of the accident on Kearney street on September 7th when a car alleged to have been driven by Moss struck a lad by the name of Arthur Price compelling the victim to remain in the hospital for several days.
