PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Donley County's Poultry and Club Show on Sept. 17-18, will afford some extra good attractions outside of the show itself, according to the committee having the plans in hand. We should not be satisfied unless ten thousand people come to Clarendon to see the Show.

Lots of new residences are now under construction in Clarendon, which proves the compelling power of our city as a residential town. With the great wheat harvest and other good crops coming along in the Panhandle Clarendon will accelerate into a new high level of growth in the coming months.

Another reason why Panhandle folk should consider the proposed Paloduro Park at this time of the year, is that hundreds and thousands of tourists, potential visitors and customers of the park and surrounding towns, are pouring through our country to and from points hundreds of miles further away. Securing the land and getting the park open is the big job—after the development and enlargement will come of popular demand.

The willingness to work and much of the ability to work hard, depend on the mental attitude. If you can get your mind reconciled to the beauty and attractiveness and desirability of the work you are doing, the battle is half won. A trained mind helps one to adapt himself to his surroundings. The saner you are and the better trained, the more readily you overcome disgust of a given job. In consequence, the ease of doing it increases.—Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

While Secretary John Surratt of the Kessler Plan Association of Dallas was in Clarendon last week, he made this striking remark: "In the development of beauty spots from waste places in our cities, the property owners should pay the cost; not the city government." Mr Surratt believes that towns and cities should provide one or more parks for the recreation of the citizenship, all right, but his argument is that the abutting property owners are the chief beneficiaries of any parking of draws and waste places and should, therefore, bear all or most of the cost. Mr. Surratt is correct. There is a growing tendency for the American people to wait for their city, county, state and national government to make all improvements for them, hence the continued and colossal growth of governmental costs in taxation. A city belongs to its citizenship and that citizenship should recognize, own and bear the obligations of beautification and recreational facilities. Our city is just what we will that it shall be.

SENTENCE SERMONS

By the Rev. Roy L. Smith

You Cannot Make—

- A man jealous by speaking well of his father.
- A man greater by giving him a new title.
- A church successful by giving it crowds.
- A child happy by making it easy for him.
- A town great by paving its streets if there are not great souls in it.
- A book worth while by making it a best seller.
- A man a Christian by making him a church member.

PANHANDLE WHEAT

They can't find cars enough to freight this year's golden grain out of the Panhandle. That part of Texas which was once unfenced, free grass where countless cattle grazed, has become one of the greatest wheat-growing sections of the nation. The 1929 crop amounts to 38,000,000 bushels, according to recent estimate. The year 1926 was previously a record-breaker with 22,000,000 bushels, but this year the Panhandle is still busier.

Last fall one and three quarter million acres were planted to wheat and the average yield will be 30 bushels an acre. That beats Kansas which is supposed to be the banner wheat-growing state of the Union. The commonwealth John J. Ingalls made famous has ten million acres to be harvested by the combines this year. But the hot winds hit Kansas two weeks ago, and the state will probably have to be content with 150,000,000 bushels in its bins.

Railroad officials figure it will take 30,000 freight cars to move the wheat crop of the Panhandle. They have been filling the sidetracks with empties from Amarillo to the Oklahoma line. The elevators are full and the surplus dumped on the ground. And the price of wheat is going up. Not so high as it once was, but still there is a decent profit in sight for Panhandle farmers.

On the broad North Plains wheat is a paying crop, mainly because large acreage and improved machinery for harvesting have decreased the cost of production. And it looks as though the Panhandle will in time become one of the great wheat regions of the world. Over the line in Oklahoma, Texas County boasts itself the banner wheat county of the country with 500,000 acres. And sooner or later, the Lone Star State will have counties rivaling this one.

Wheat has come to stay in the Panhandle.—Houston Chronicle.

Clarendon is fortunate in having a city commission open and frank in the handling of the city's business and one that seriously endeavors to live up to the promises. Last year the commission announced that with certain re-financing operations, even with the cost of the new water works additions included, local tax-payers might expect a reduction in the city tax rate. A few weeks ago the commission made the levy for the current year and reduced the rate from a dollar thirty-four to a dollar twenty-six cents on the hundred dollars' valuation. The reduction of eight cents will be applauded by Clarendon people more for the evidence it bears of a city commission able to cope with and conquer growing costs of city government, than for the actual savings to the tax-payer. And then, eight cents is eight cents. Down is better than up.

In conversation a few days ago with a Clarendon lady, we were struck with a remark about how friendly and helpful Clarendon people are in the hour of sorrows and adversity, when it might seem at other periods that our people might be a little careless and cold. For the past dozen years we have noted this people we have found that to be the general case, and yet from what we know of other peoples and other communities, we suspect that the attitude here is very like that of the country over. O. O. McIntyre says the New York people are very quick to rush to the relief of anybody in distress—and just as quick to forget and pass on. There is one advantage in a small town community, however the neighborly touch is much more present and instant—something that we should all appreciate much more than we do. There are no better friends and neighbors than right here in Clarendon even if it is a fact that should we be transplanted in other surroundings we would probably be able to say the same thing about our new friends and neighbors. Let us appreciate those about us for the bonds of friendship and neighborliness are of gold—pure gold.

GET COMMUNITY MINDED

What you do, what you say, your attitude toward the place where you live, creates or destroys public opinion, prestige and good will of your community.

Other people look to you for an example—if you do not speak well of the community, if you do not do something for the community, others will do likewise.

No city, town, village or hamlet can expect to become a better, more interesting, more attractive place in which to live, work, play and prosper unless everybody does a little something. It isn't necessary to spend days or weeks on a drive of some kind; you don't have to get out and make a show of yourself; nor is it necessary for you to be one of the big toads in the puddle to be able to do something.

And don't think that when you do anything for the benefit of others, that you are a martyr to the cause; nor that you are donating. Get it out of your head that you are doing something charitable every time you go a little out of your way to perform a little service or dig down in your pocket for a few dollars to make possible something that the other fellow will get some good out of.

You can't make money unless the other fellow does. What profits the community profits you, and there are no "ifs," "ands" or "buts" about it.

Do something! You have a dozen chances every day to do something, to say something that will build. You have as many opportunities to put your foot on what others say and what others fail to do that tears down.

Get Community Minded! It is good business, and plain, everyday, common sense.

W. B. SIMMS BRINGS IN SECOND COTTON BOLL

As the News for last week was being printed Mr. W. B. Simms brought in the second boll of cotton seen thus far this year. The boll was most perfectly developed and was about two-thirds of its full size when seen by the News. Mr. Simms stated that the boll came from early cotton, and that there are many bolls on the stalks throughout the field. The Simms' farm is near Lelia Lake and is one of the best farms in the county. According to Mr. Simms the cotton will begin to open about the last week in August.

Dr. C. G. Stricklin was bitten the latter part of last week by a snake of some sort while wading down a stream in Colorado. Lenode Goldston, who returned from Colorado this week states that the marks of the fangs are clearly visible. Dr. Stricklin is doing very nicely and seems to be suffering no ill effects although his arm is still badly swollen.

GOING AWAY?

When in the next few weeks you yield to the call of the road remember that touring plans should include a Tourist Baggage Policy. A complete protection Automobile Policy and an Accident Policy. This office makes a specialty of the insurance needs of Tourists. The fire of last Sunday morning further illustrates that property will still burn in Clarendon. The only safe way is to have us fully insure you. Never in the history of Clarendon, has insurance been as cheap as now, yet there are people without any insurance and a good many only half insured. Look over your Policies now and have us write you additional coverage.

Five Texas Women Honored Monday at College Station Short Course As Master Home-makers

GREENVILLE, TEXAS

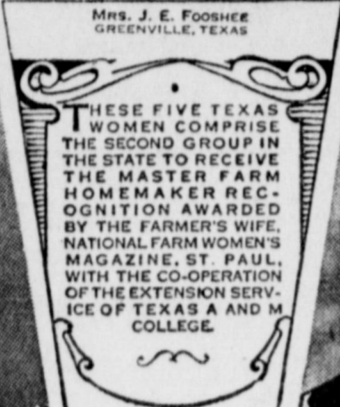

Mrs. O. W. FRY

Mrs. A. F. ERNST

Mrs. R. W. FENTON

THESE FIVE TEXAS WOMEN COMPRISE THE SECOND GROUP IN THE STATE TO RECEIVE THE MASTER FARM HOMEMAKER RECOGNITION AWARDED BY THE FARMER'S WIFE, NATIONAL FARM WOMEN'S MAGAZINE, ST. PAUL, WITH THE CO-OPERATION OF THE EXTENSION SERVICE OF TEXAS A AND M COLLEGE.

College Station, Texas, July 29—Texas paid tribute to its farm women here Monday at the annual Farmers Short Course at the A. & M. College of Texas when five of them were honored as Master Farm Homemakers in a public recognition ceremony attended by farm folk from all parts of the state.

The five women are: Mrs. R. W. Fenton, Tahoka; Mrs. Nevil Felty, Celeste; Mrs. J. E. Foose, Greenville; Mrs. A. F. Ernst, Bonham; and Mrs. O. W. Fry, Lockney.

They received the gold pin and title of Master Farm Homemaker in a ceremony sponsored by the Farmer's Wife, national farm women's magazine of St. Paul, Minn., and the Extension Service of the A. & M. College of Texas, and later were guests of the magazine at a luncheon attended by sixty rural leaders of the state.

"We honor these women for their own achievements but more especially because they represent thousands of other successful rural homemakers," said Miss Beas M. Love of The Farmer's Wife in awarding the honor. "This is recognition for all farm women and an acknowledgment of their job as a profession worthy of the highest respect."

Mrs. Fenty's chief ambition is to be a wise mother, a wife who is a real help mate, a neighbor to be loved and a real homemaker. She plans meals a week ahead to save time and money. She is president of the Lynn County Council of home demonstration clubs.

Mrs. Felty has been president of her home demonstration club for two years and vice-president of the County Council, a 4-H club leader and in charge of the club exhibit at her community fair. She hopes to "retire" on the farm.

Mrs. Foose has two daughters and wants most for them that they will become well educated, Christian women. There is no question in her mind as to the merits of "homemaking or a career." She thinks they can be the same thing and says that "being a real homemaker is the biggest job any woman ever undertook." She has been active in the home demonstration work for her community and county, a 4-H girl's club leader and vice president of the Hunt County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Ernst lives in a well equipped home on a 350-acre farm. She has served on the school board several times, helped organize a parent-teacher association and is president of her home demonstration club. She has helped build up her club's membership from five to sixty-five.

Mrs. Fry made $2,435 with butter and poultry last year. This took approximately three hours a day but by good management she spared the time without

"UP IN THE AIR IN TEXAS"

By United Press

A proposed transcontinental railroad-motor bus-airplane line passing through Texas has been announced by Erle P. Halliburton, president of the Southwest Air Fast Express. The schedule as planned would transport passengers from the Atlantic Coast to St. Louis by rail, from St. Louis to El Paso, through Dallas and Fort Worth, by airplane, from El Paso to Tucson, Ariz., by motor bus and from Tucson to Los Angeles by airplane.

Plans for Fort Worth to send an organized good will aerocade to Sweetwater and intermediate points in West Texas Aug. 11 and 12, for the opening of Sweetwater's new airport have been made. The aerocade will leave Fort Worth the morning of Aug. 10 and stop en route at Breckenridge and Stamford. One of the Southwest Air Fast Express' new 14-passenger Ford tri-motors will be sent on the trip.

One thousand dollars is being offered by the Fort Worth Association of Commerce to the flyer entered in the Santa Monica, Cal., to Cleveland, Ohio, women's air derby, who makes the fastest time as far as Fort Worth. The race starts Aug. 18 and it is expected 25 to 30 flyers will be entered. Official timers, starters and judges for the overnight stop of the derby at Fort Worth Aug. 22 have already been chosen.

Plans for improving Kinsolving Field, Abilene municipal airport, so as to make it one of the best equipped aid depots in the Southwest, prepared by the B. Russell Shaw company, airport engineers of St. Louis, have been accepted and approved by the Abilene city slight—home duties. She is president of her home demonstration club.

All of the women are active in church work and three are Sunday School teachers. All of them voted in the last national, state and county elections.

commission and actual work of making the improvements will be started the first week in August. The city is spending $50,000 on the improvement of its field which is being used daily by the T. A. T. flying service and the Brainiff Airlines. The women's division of the 1929 National Aid Races, which starts from Cleveland, Ohio, August 19, will use the local port for one of the night control stops.

The aviation future of Breckenridge is an all important question at that city right now. Civic club leaders have been discussing the proposition of building a large airport there and several meetings in the interests of aviation have been held. It is possible that a plant costing approximately $10,000 will be built there.

Air-rail passenger service over Southwest Air Fast Express and Illinois Central lines between Fort Worth and Chicago will start Aug. 1, it has been announced. The service will enable passengers to leave Meacham Field at 8:55 a. m. and reach Chicago at 7:28 a. m. the next day.

Acceptance of a government proposition to establish an emergency landing field near San Benito is expected to become a reality following action of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors there recently which recommended to the city commission that land be purchased and warrants issued to pay for the same.

Under the plan offered by the government San Benito would furnish the land and the Department of Commerce would make all improvements and maintain the field. Further action is expected shortly.

Negotiations are under way for purchase by Curtiss Flying Service of New York of a 295-acre flying field between Grand Prairie and Dalworth, Dallas County, near Hensley field, Dallas, for the establishment of an advanced school of flying and an airplane assembling plant. Advance information is that the flying school would be in charge of the famous aviator Art Goebel. The flying field would be one of a chain of 25 such airports of the Curtiss Flying Service.

The first air passenger ticket and information office in the Southwest will be opened in Fort Worth in the next few days.

FITZHUGH LEE'S HAND-TO-HAND TO FIGHT WITH INDIAN

In the fighting fifties Gen. Fitzhugh Lee was a young military graduate at Camp Colorado, Texas, on Jim Ned creek, in Coleman county. He was hated by Indians who raided the settlements around Camp Colorado because of his vigorous campaign against them, and they had repeatedly sought to take his life. A certain springtime evening Lee was out several hundred yards from his quarters engaged in a study which rendered him practically oblivious to everything. Suddenly there was a rustle in the brush behind him, indicating that someone or something was approaching, and he wheeled around just in time to see a powerful Indian buck advancing upon him with a knife in hand.

A deadly combat followed between Lee and the Indian. Read the outcome of this fight in the Monthly Magazine Section of the Clarendon News to be issued Aug. 15.

A pearl button factory is to be a new Texas industry at Brownsville where the Automatic Pearl Button Co., Muscatine, Ia., has contracted with the Cameron County water improvement District No. 5 for the right to go into all irrigation canals and reservoirs and take out clam shells, paying at the rate of $1 and $2 a ton. The plant is expected to bring 50 or more families to Cameron County. Mercedes has a plant already in operation employing 25 workers with a total of 55 expected to be at work soon.

The greatest tire of them all!

ONCE you use Kelly REGISTERED Balloons you'll never be satisfied with any other tires. Size for size they are even larger and sturdier than the regular Kelly line. The tread is much thicker and is carried further down the sidewalls so that the possibility of puncture is negligible. There is more rubber between the plies, and the seven-inch size has two extra plies of cord. Furthermore, for your protection, each is individually REGISTERED by the Kelly-Springfield Tire Co. At the present time we have a full stock of these tires, but they are going faster than the manufacturers can replace them, and we may not have your size long. Come in and let us quote you an allowance for the unused mileage in your present tires. You may find that after deducting this allowance from the price of a set of REGISTERED Balloons the cost is even less than you expected to pay for regular balloons.
