CLARENDON, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, APRIL 29, 1930

A Common Paper For Common People

Little Theatre Will Present Comedy Friday Night

Benefit Play of Its Kind First to be Shown Under Their Direction

The third performance of the Little Theatre of Clarendon will be given in the College auditorium Friday night May 2nd. The title of the play is "Tons of Money", it is a "Farce in Three Acts" and was written by Will Evans and Valentine. The play was first produced at the Southport Opera House March 20th, 1922, and was withdrawn January 29th, 1924, after a run of 733 performances in several theatres.

The leading parts in the play will be taken by Kelly Chamberlain who will take the part of Aubrey Henry Maitland Allington and Mrs. Manly Ozier will play Louise Allington and Mrs. Aitha Lane as Jean Everard.

The play will be the first real comedy and farce staged by the Little Theatre and is produced for fun only. It is a laugh form start to finish and the characters have been picked with that in view. It is being particularly planned for this performance to be the best of the season in all respects. Tickets will be on sale at the usual price and it is hoped that a large audience will be present. Two payments on the stage fixtures and curtain have been made and it is hoped the entire debt may be wiped before this season of performances is over.

School Art Exhibition Will be Shown Friday

Those interested in knowing what is being accomplished in the lower grades of our public schools will be privileged to see an exhibit of the work being done in an exhibit Friday.

Pupils of the first to fifth grade will exhibit their work in the Art Room of the South Ward building under the direction of Miss Elion Aiken.

Work of the pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades will be on exhibit on the first floor of the Junior High building. Miss Lorena Stegall, instructor in these subjects, will be in charge of the exhibit.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to see the work being done by the pupils. Your presence will lend encouragement to both teachers and pupils.

Bridge Work Is Delayed By Accident To Steel Cutter

Workmen Rushing Completion For Paving of Bridge

Practically all of the ditch work from the Holland Building to the street near the laundry where the old bridge was formerly located, will be completed this week. The paving of the street between the Holland building and the Noble garage is being given attention at this time, the center portion having been laid. Concrete will be used in the street paving job entirely.

Work on the two bridges that are to be constructed across the ditch has been delayed due to an accident to the man who is to get out the steel for the job. It is expected that he will be able to cut the steel patterns by the last of the week according to Chas. Speed contractor on the job.

The steel will be shipped down from Amarillo by rail. Abutments have been placed and it will be a simple matter to complete the bridge work once the materials are assembled.

A. M. Beville will leave soon to visit in Dallas, San Antonio and a number of other good towns, returning to Mineral Wells where he will remain until Miss D'Laurel joins him there after the close of school at Southwestern, when both of them will return here for the summer.

Clarendon Woman is Taken to Huntsville Monday

Crowded conditions not existing in the woman's ward of the penitentiary at Huntsville, Sheriff Mosley delivered Mrs. Helen Bates to "Denver Bob" late Monday evening who will meet Bud Russell at Wichita and will in turn deliver her to the warden at Huntsville. Mrs. Bates was given a two to five year term in the District Court here recently for the murder of H. M. Christianson.

"Denver Bob" known to all peace officers of the Panhandle has long been in the service of the Denver road as a detective, frequently assisting other peace officers in capturing men wanted for a large variety of crimes.

Bud Russell has been transporting prisoners to the state prisons for over twenty years without one escaping, a record that is probably not equaled by any other officer of any state.

Frank Hardin Increasing Truck Acreage

Possibly the largest acreage truck grower in Donley county, Frank Hardin living some six miles northeast of town, will this year increase his canteloupe acreage to 25 and plant another 25 acres to watermelons.

Having had numerous calls for tomatoes the past season Mr. Hardin will grow a variety of this fruit this season.

Sales are made to truck drivers at his farm only. Most of his product is taken to Amarillo and other plains towns.

Odd Fellow Lodge Observes Anniversary With Big Program

Record Breaking Attendance Makes Merry Despite The Rain Man's Efforts

Jupiter Pluvius failed in his efforts to rain out the crowd that gathered in the lodge hall here Monday night of this week to celebrate the 11th anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in Baltimore, Maryland.

The program committee arranged a varied and for the most part, an original program with numbers that would appeal to those who were accustomed to a set program for such occasions.

Following the closing of the lodge session, J. C. Estlack was selected as "master of ceremonies" when the guests and Rebekas had filed into the hall. He asked the crowd to vote on whether they should have "violin" music or just plain "fiddlin'", a large majority being in favor of the latter classic of barn dance fame.

Miss Maude Stewart presided at the piano while Sam Roberts pulled a wicked bow that made one feel it in his bones. C. P. Tippens and J. R. Batson, armed with guitars did their stuff and F. O. Wood chipped in on occasions calling numbers of the old square just to let the folks know he had been some where besides living at Henrietta all his life.

The biggest event of the evening was contributed by Rev. W. E. Ferrell, Odd Fellow in all that the honor implies and magician of more than local fame, held the crowd's intense attention for a good half hour while "spooky" stunts were pulled that baffled the imagination of Jim Morgan and other brainy members of the lodge. The menu consisted of everything that one would want, stacked on a long table to which the hungry did justice cafeteria style. Despite the fact that the hall was packed to capacity, there was an abundance of food remaining "long after the way to the table had been forgotten."

Odd Fellows and Rebekas in turn exhibited their skill in team drilling under Drillmaster F. O. Wood who pulled a wise crack that the exercise might save several lives as he was under the impression that exercise was the best remedy for "founder". Sam Roberts came to his rescue at this point by striking up "chicken reel" which probably accounts for the fact that the exercises closed with no casualties.

Rains Improve Farming Conditions In Donley County

Rain is General Covering All of West Texas Past Few Days

Rains of the past few days have put the soil in excellent condition for planting due to the fact that practically all fields had been listened preceding the rains. Crops planted before the rain will come up to a good stand according to statements of farmers Monday. The rain fell gently and even on the tightest land, there was no packing.

Several have roasting ear corn up to a good stand. This product is grown for the early market, most of it going to the plains section. Some early planting of cotton is coming up.

There will be very little of the short staple cotton varieties planted this season according to J. D. Pope and other cotton raisers. M. Noble states that he will not try for the longest staple because of the decrease in production, but will try to grow a longer staple than formerly to get a better price.

Cream receipts are growing as usual at this season of the year. Poultry growers are taking notice of the fact that some are selling eggs at a premium because of a standard breed, while others are getting only sixteen cents a dozen for the common run of eggs.

The local hatchery has paid a premium for the best grade of eggs from flocks of recognized merit all the season. Poultrymen are culling their flock to some extent and practically every one will improve their flocks this season by getting foundation stock from the local hatchery. A large variety is offered and a choice of selection is an easy matter.

Judge W. T. Link is representing clients in the district court at Silverton this week.

T. G. Stargel Has Purchased Pastime Confectionery

Workmen are busy this week remodeling the Pastime Confectionery due to the fact that T. G. Stargel becomes the new owner having made the purchase from Jack Merchant.

Mr. Stargel is adding to the stock a number of new lines and this place of business is due to become more popular than ever.

City Makes Annual Report of Financial Condition

A condensed financial report of the City of Clarendon appears in this issue. In looking over the report one may get an idea of the value of the investments, cost of maintenance and other items in which the public is generally interested.

The audit was made by a certified public accountant and a detailed statement may be seen at the office of the City Secretary.

Senator Small Will Open Campaign Fri. For Governorship

First Panhandle Man to Make Effort to Secure Highest Office in State

Wellington, Texas, April 28—State Senator Clint Small will open a vigorous campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor in Amarillo on May 2 with a full declaration of principles and enunciation of his platform. At that time a giant rally of the Small supporters will be held with delegations from practically every town in the Panhandle-Plains country in attendance. Senator Small's announcement, which has been awaited with keen interest by supporters over the State will be broadcast over the radio.

"At the Amarillo meeting," Senator Small said, "I will discuss the following questions: Taxation, Penitentiary question, Highway Building, State's Policy toward land owners, Court Reform, law enforcement, and other matters of public interest."

Seven towns have already announced their intention of sending delegations. Among those which will turn out in force are Pampa, McLean, Shamrock, Groom, Panhandle, Memphis and Wellington. Numerous other towns and cities are expected to send delegations to hear Senator Small open his campaign.

Following his announcement, on April 22nd, that he was a candidate for Governor, interest in Senator Small's campaign has gained rapid headway in every section of the State. In his preliminary statement, Senator Small said: "In my race for Governor I shall present a short business program. The State needs careful business management a great deal more than it needs new legislation. In fact, I think everyone would enjoy a legislative truce. Texas should be ready for a political armistice."

"My aim will be to bring about a cessation of political hostilities, a period of legislative peace and an era of business administration. The State government can be made to so function as to aid in the diversification of industry in Texas. The development of natural resources should be encouraged and outside capital invited to Texas to the end that additional wealth may be placed on our tax rolls to help bear the expense of government."

"Along with thoughtful business management we must have fearless and intelligent law enforcement agreeable with the State and Federal Constitutions."

Following the Amarillo meeting, Senator Small will leave for Vernon where he will make the second speech of his active campaign in that city on Saturday, May 3.

A large delegation from Clarendon headed by the band will be in Amarillo to assist in doing honor to the Panhandle's gubernatorial candidate.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Chamberlain were Amarillo shoppers Saturday.

Census Results Gives Donley County Tax Collector

Two Candidates Are Said to Have Entered Race For New Office

According to a report emanating from the Amarillo office of the census supervisor, Donley county has a population of 10,438 as compared to 8,305 ten years ago. The same report listed 1,351 farms in Donley county.

Since counties having a population of ten thousand are entitled to a separate collector of taxes instead of a combined office of sheriff and tax collector, there will likely be a number of announcements for the office of tax collector.

Donley county is the first county in the Panhandle to complete her count. The enumeration by precinct is as follows: Precinct 1, 1,481; No. 2, 4,065; No. 3, 2,599; No. 4, 748; No. 5, 1,357.

Family Suffers From Auto Collision With Heavy Truck

Truck Driver Claims Lights Blinded Him as Cause of Serious Accident

When returning from Mobeetie by way of Pampa late Sunday evening after dusk, a car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brown and three children and Mrs. Ray Couch, was side swiped by a large truck loaded with rock.

The impact threw Mrs. Brown from the car causing her to receive lacerations and bruises of a minor nature. Mr. Brown's face and nose was badly cut by glass and he also received injury to ribs on the left side.

Of the two daughters of the Browns, Lelia received wounds on the arm and was otherwise injured not regaining consciousness until Monday morning. Pauline received wounds on the forehead and was otherwise bruised in a number of places.

The baby escaped unhurt in the lap of his sister on the back seat. Mrs. Ray Couch received a serious injury to the left limb near the hip, four of her upper front teeth were broken and numerous bruises on the body resulted from the impact.

The accident occurred about twenty miles south of Pampa. The driver of the truck who recently came from New Mexico, claimed that the lights of the Brown car blinded him and in an effort to stop applied the brakes causing the truck to swing around directly in front of the Brown car which was badly wrecked.

The family had been to Mobeetie to attend the funeral of Rev. Rufus Park, aged 84, who reared Mrs. Brown.

The injured will recover barring complications. All of them were brought to Clarendon about midnight by Earl Naylor and Marvin Warren who happened to be passing soon after the accident.

Les Beaux Art Club Will Exhibit Pictures

An art exhibit sponsored by the Les Beaux Art club will be on exhibit at the Club Room in this city Saturday and Sunday.

These pictures are the product of the skill of Mrs. C. E. Palmer of Amarillo, Art Chairman of the 7th District of Federated Clubs. Her pictures have been shown over the state and have won recognition from some of the best painters of the nation.

Members of the Pathfinder, 1926 Book, Home Demonstration, Mother's and McDowell clubs are invited to visit the Club Room Saturday during the annual reception day of the Les Beaux Art Club.

The Club Room will be open to the general public from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday. This collection of art is above the average and the local club members feel that they have been most fortunate in securing them on this occasion.

Mrs. W. T. Hayler returned home Saturday after a visit with friends in Amarillo.

Dees Assumes Management Mitchell Barber Shop

J. M. Dees of Panhandle has assumed management of the Mitchell barber shop and has moved his family to Clarendon. He will keep two barbers in addition to his own efforts that the public may get all the service that could be had in any shop of this kind.

Mrs. Mitchell will continue her beauty parlor and there will be no change in this department.

Parsons Brothers Extend Odd Fellows Courtesy

Drillmaster F. O. Wood is taking special pains to display the well cleaned lodge paraphernalia to his fellow members. The bright, new finish is due to the skill and unexcelled service of the Parsons Brothers cleaners. The job was turned out as a courtesy to the membership, no charge made for the work.

Economics Department Held Style Show Friday Nite

A style show was staged by the girls of the Home Economics department of the public schools Friday night at the College Auditorium under the direction of Miss Helen Beck, their instructor.

Dress styles made by the pupils were on display illustrating the most appropriate dresses for the ages from infancy to the adult age.

Pupils of Miss Mary Cooke gave exhibitions of dancing and included Maxine Ellis, Dorothy Kerbow, Ethelyn Drennon, Francis Morris, Eleanor Morris, Geraldine Clayton and John Hewy Jay.

A small admission was charged to defray the expenses of representatives to the state clothing contest which is to be held at Houston. The attendance was fairly good as little previous publicity was given the public.

W. H. Morrow Believes We Need More Mules

Walter H. Morrow, residing on the old Barker place seven miles northwest of town recently received a registered jack purchased from a Comanche county stockman and breeder.

The animal is of an exceptionally fine type with plenty of size and will be used for breeding purposes this season. Mr. Morrow is of the opinion that a whole lot of fellows need some good mules and he is helping raise the standard by importing good breeding stock.

Cotton Grades Shown by Government Are Very Low

Report on Local Ginning Should Interest Those Now Planting

According to information given out by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, April 21st, after passing on the grades of samples of 950 bales ginned by a local gin in Clarendon, the total untenderable cotton was given as 77.7 percent.

Further along in this report is found that white, middling and better grades totaled 9.8 percent. Strict low and low middling amounted to 49.9 percent. Spotted and yellow tinged graded a total of 30.2 percent.

Cotton grades included in the 950 bales ginned here are: Under seven-eighths, 613 bales 64.5 percent; seven-eighths to twenty-nine thirty-seconds, 33.7 percent or 325 bales; fifteen sixteenths to thirty-one thirty-seconds, 1.7 percent or 16 bales, above one inch a total of 0.1, or one single bale is shown by government grade.

In this connection, the Ginner's Journal has the following to say:

"The bread and butter of Lancashire workmen was once earned spinning cotton grown in the fields of Texas. There was a time when English mills, centers of the textile industry, were to a large degree dependent on the Texas staple. That time has long since passed.

The deteriorating staple quality of Texas cotton has all but closed to it markets in which it once commanded a premium. Cotton from Egypt, cotton from Brazil, from India, from China, has been replacing, if slowly none the less, the cotton of Texas. When Texas cotton is bought, the highly competitive condition of the market in which it sells forces down the price; for foreign cottons can be raised for less than the American crop.

The cotton farmer of Texas, if he is to regain his preeminence in world markets, must produce cotton with a better staple length and he must produce it at a lower cost per acre. He can do this by planting good seed on a limited acreage of his best land. Otherwise, foreign competition makes it impossible for him to prosper, to maintain, even, the decent American standard of living to which he is entitled."

Rotary Club Is Stressing Boy Work In School Visits

Local and Rural Schools Will be Included In Itinerary of Visits

A one hundred percent attendance was noted at the Rotary luncheon Friday noon at the Antro. Leon O. Lewis attended as a guest of the president, Dr. B. L. Jenkins.

Congratulations on the formation of a club in Clarendon were read from the Rotary club of Orange, N. J.

The committee on Boys Work reported a number of school visits the past week. Rotarians will continue their visits to schools the coming week making talks to the pupils with a view of being of general help to the boy and proper contact that he may be convinced of this fact.

Dr. E. L. Jenkins and Judge A. T. Cole spoke to the Junior High school pupils Tuesday morning. R. E. Paxson, Judge A. T. Cole and R. E. Drennon spoke to the pupils of Lelia Lake Thursday.

Jack B. Jones and J. Marvin Warren each addressed the pupils of the Goldston school Thursday. Speakers and visitors were warmly received and their visits appreciated in each instance.

Densil R. Davis called the attention of the Rotarians to the Scout training course that will be conducted by I. E. Jolly and Rev. Robt. S. McKee. This school of instruction in Boy Scout work will be conducted from May 5th to 9th inclusive.

Clarendon Florist Grows Famous Blue Bonnets

The Blue Bonnet, state flower of Texas, is native of the southern part of the state and grows in profusion over a wide section. In the Panhandle, few are seldom grown and then only in the yards of flower enthusiasts.

Mrs. J. R. Leathers of this city has quite a number of clumps of the famous state flower that have been in blossom for some time. It might not be an exaggeration to say that she also has a hundred varieties of beautiful flowers among which she toils daily for the mere pleasure of an association with dumb friends who reward her for her patience.

Mrs. J. W. Harris of Dumas is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paul Reeves of this city.

Pastor Christian Church Delivers Odd Fellow Sermon

Special Services Are Held Celebrating 111th Anniversary of Order

Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian church delivered a special sermon Sunday night for the benefit of Odd Fellows and Rebekas. The main theme of his sermon was based on the cardinal principles of the Order, friendship, love and truth, chart illustrations were also used in bringing out the salient points of his sermon.

Some forty Odd Fellows and Rebekas enjoyed the sermon, the number being limited by a heavy downpour of rain which began falling near church time. Lodges in nearby territory had no representation as had been planned due to heavy rains.

The McDowell club assisted in the song service and Mrs. Herbert Warner of Amarillo sang "The Old Rugged Cross." Miss Christine Stroder presided at the piano and Gus B. Stevenson's violin accompaniment was especially pleasing.

Members gathered at the lodge hall and marched double file to the church where they occupied a section of pews reserved for them.

Members of the order are greatly appreciative of the kindness of the pastor, those who contributed music and song and those who otherwise helped to celebrate the 111th anniversary of the Order.

WEIGHT REDUCTION.

The young lady who complained that she weighed one hundred and twenty-two pounds dressed for bed, weighs one hundred and sixteen dressed for the street.

CONSOLATION.

After looking over the list of some thirteen gubernatorial candidates of Texas, one may find consolation in the fact that only one can be elected.

THANKS.

We acknowledge with much appreciation the kind invitation of Col. W. E. Easterwood, Jr. of Dallas and complimentary tickets asking us to attend the Educational Week for the Blind program there on the 27th.

Col. Easterwood, one of the leading millionaire philanthropists of the nation, is a heavy contributor to the cause of the blind in this state as well as a large number of other worthy projects.

LIVING ADVERTISEMENT.

Boosters for the Ozark region of Missouri point to the fact that H. B. Koch, census supervisor of Butler county, found a man 118 years of age who was hale and hearty, doing his regular farm work and as a side line, made cross ties.

Making cross ties in that section is just as essential to longevity as eating poke salad in this section. In fact the cross ties had far more to do with the brother reaching that ripe age than did the climate.

BUILDING GOODWILL.

That the Rock Island road was given the preference over the Denver in the building of the new line through the Wellington country, is generally accredited to the fact that the Rock Island develops territory through which the road passes.

The public at large in the Shamrock country had the cooperation of the citizens of the Wellington country in asking that the Rock Island be given preference because it meant more in the development of the agricultural resources.

Childress asked that the Denver road be given the preference from a town financial standpoint and lost. The Denver through all these years it has been serving northwest Texas, has done very little to assist in the development of the country. They neglected to build a foundation for future progress. They may have saved money in the years ago, but they paid dearly for it in 1930.

SOLUTION OF WARS.

It cost the United States the huge sum of 51,400 millions of dollars for the part taken in the World War and its aftermath according to a statement of figures compiled by the treasury department on the anniversary of the declaration of war by this country, April 6, 1917.

The country is paying about 1,162 million dollars this year as a result of the war. Included in this expenditure is interest on the public debt and provision for its retirement, upkeep of the veteran's bureau, war risk insurance and compensation and the settlement of the claims of German and other former enemy aliens for property seized by this government during the war period.

It cost this government an average of $35,011 per man for every one of the enemy killed to say nothing of the flower of manhood lost by our side. Chicago thugs will bump a man off on a contract basis at $50 per head, which would be a much cheaper method to use in case of another war than using a drafted citizen.

Should the crop of thugs run low, we would at least get rid of a very undesirable class before throwing the regulars into the battle front, and the government is apparently unable to manage the thug element except by bribing them with a cash donation anyway.

CONGRATULATIONS.

We offer sincere congratulations to our good friend L. E. Haskett of Childress on having rounded out a half a century of service as a printer. He is now editor of the Childress News, one of the sanest weeklies in the state.

Mr. Haskett, with his good wife, attended the recent press meet at Memphis. It was the pleasure of the writer to spend much time in listening to the brilliant conversation of this man whose mind has become rich in knowledge, and who keeps thoroughly abreast of the times.

Somehow there is something about the old "war horses" of the profession that instantly begets keen admiration, a veneration, a keen sense of appreciation. His trend of thought leads one upward. It steadies the mind tottering in doubt. It leads one out into broader fields where the view of life is clearer, better and more tolerant of the shortcomings of our fellow man.

May the field of journalism be enriched by another half century of his unselfish service. His issue of April 25th was filled with congratulatory ads. It is great to know that one's efforts are appreciated by the business men of the town where one has labored since 1889—forty-one years of unselfish devotion to duty in making his home town a better place in which to live.

Preacher Qualifications.

In response to our editorial on "Editors and Preachers" in our issue of last week, an old ministerial friend of the writer than whom no better man has ever lived, and who has served humanity faithfully for almost half a century, writes me as follows: "I heartily agree with your statements in your article on 'Editors and Preachers' in the main, and would add further that a preacher in this day needs the skin of a hippopotamus, the endurance of a camel, the agility of a greyhound and the patience of a donkey." And I believe he is right.

Another Panhandle preacher concludes his letter with the following: "Christianity is now passing through its greatest crisis. In the Reformation, traditions and man-made authority were being questioned, but today the very foundations of faith are assailed. If believers do not wake, arise and defend their faith, soon there will be none to defend." This is the opinion of one of the leading ministers of the Panhandle, and he doesn't live in Clarendon either.

"I heartily agree with you in your statement that some of our churches have been commercialized, but they have also been ostracized by many of our leading business men which is worse." That is the opinion of a young man who has been doing ministerial work for the past two years in Ft. Worth.

A FEMALE REVOLUTION.

A revolution is a revolt against the present or existing order of things, and a revolt is in process right here in Clarendon. Civic club women of the town with a strong possibly of the Pathfinder club leading, are preparing to revolt against a number of things.

The first and foremost contaminating nuisance that will receive attention is said to be the public dumping ground stock that has been accumulating for a number of years.

Whether this fomenting stench was parked on the highway at the north edge of town as an advertisement of industrious habits, or was placed there to make the visitor to better appreciate the odorless city after having sniffed his way through the stench, has never been satisfactorily explained.

At any rate, cleanup days for several years have been celebrated in great style with a resultant dumping of more filth on and near the highway north of town and not very far north at that.

A part of this filth has found its way into the lake waters giving off a stench that would disgust a buzzard. The argument that the stench came from the lake because of the fact that sewerage was dumped into the lake is in error if the septic tank is properly cared for at all times. Filth passing through the septic tank has little or no odor and certainly does not possess any of the repulsive "whangs" permeating the atmosphere such as is encountered in the vicinity of the lake. There is more "wolf bait" going to waste out there than in any other place in the Panhandle.

The pet project of some one is bound to be moved say these wolf men folks who have waited many, many years for the men folks to do the job only to be disappointed year after year.

Another thing. They do not seem to appreciate the fact that the lake is maintained as a mosquito breeding place. They even go so far as to declare it a nuisance and propose to see that refuse transmission oil is hauled from the garages and dumped into the lake.

The only thing that may be said in defense of the lake is the fact that it produced one alligator in forty years, though the 'gator was leaving the lake when caught and finally died, never having recovered from the effects of having encountered the lake "aroma".

And still another thing. The unsightly cables and poles on the main street are not exactly an ornament in the estimation of the ladies who have always had the best interests in the town at heart. The poles were a safety haven to him who had imbibed too freely in days past, but since these fellows now find a warm welcome at the jail, there is little public use to be found for the poles and they must go.

Those who viewed with alarm the passing of the mudholes on the streets are not in favor of this movement. Most of the folks who rebelled at the thought of being fined for allowing his cows and hogs to run over town at will, will regret the further curtailment of his personal liberty. They might also advance the idea that if the lake "aroma" were canceled, trappers would become eager buyers using the "dope" for wolf bait.

MISTAKES AT DIFFERENT VALUES

When the plumber makes a mistake he charges for it.

When a lawyer makes a mistake it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.

When a carpenter makes a mistake it's just what he expected.

When a doctor makes a mistake he buries it.

When a judge makes a mistake it becomes the law of the land.

When a preacher makes a mistake nobody knows the difference.

But when a printer makes a mistake—Good-night!

LIBERTY?

A Japanese employed by an old importing firm was instructed to write a lady customer who had owed the firm for a long time. The letter was written and on the following day the check came back. The letter which brought home the bacon ran thus:

"Dear Madam: If you do not send at once the money which is owed here, we will immediately take such liberties as will cause you the utmost astonishment."

Temple of Truth

By the Apostle
T. R. Broun, county agent, says you never can judge a man by outward appearances. He was once mistaken for a stock gambler after gambling his chances of beating a bull to a fence.

Ora Liesberg bit into a plug of tobacco Monday that contained a campaign card bearing this inscription: "Vote for me and I will keep you out of war". The plug was evidently manufactured way back in 1916.

Pictures of W. K. Henderson displayed around town are said to bear a striking resemblance to Frank White, Sr. Now Frank wants to buy a radio station.

New Mexico sheep men are said to be dipping their sheep in tanks of "jake" sold them by the sheriff from confiscated stocks. Creosote and ambler kills lice.

Dry weather is causing bootleggers to leave western Kansas, the people having become too "hard-up" to buy any luxuries.

Glasses that fit the eyeball taking the place of spectacles is a late invention. Bill Robison has placed an order for enough to fill two eyes that he may see in the dark.

Telegram!
Yeh! That's the way he headed the letter. Here is what he said: "Hope, N. M., April 20th, 1930. Page Zane Grey. We got a range war on. No casualties. Lots of fun. Particulars later. J. P. Parks.

Now we are waiting for the particulars. The Apostle went through a range war in that section of the state from 1909 to 1915. It's no boy's job either but I'll bet a coon cap to a baby cradle old J. P. holds his ground.

About all they did to the Apostle was to steal his cattle, cut his fence, steal wire and posts, break up his furniture and dishes, break up three-cornered files and drop them in by the sucker rod, fill up his wells, try to railroad him into the penitentiary on a fake felony charge, turn in stock at night and eat up the crop in six hours and poison his dog. At that the Apostle got off light because some homesteaders were shot down before their families resulting in a suspended sentence being given the murderers. Stay in there Parks!

C. F. Bogard wants to know what can be done to counteract these elephant-eared hats for women the republicans are putting out.

When a marriage scene was thrown on the screen at the Pastime recently, three men jumped suddenly and one later sobbed through the show. He was a traveling man and had three wives. He said it was a weakness with him as some men were just naturally born a glutton for misery. T. W. Welch got that off—don't blame me.

Dad (O. S.) Anderson, who hauls rubbish to the highway north of town, is said to wear a gas mask while on the highway.

Wanted: Second hand baby or drawing room grand piano. Ad in Bridgeport, Conn. Post. Better take the piano, lady. Neither new nor second hand babies are allowed in most apartments these days.

Are the preachers? Yes, they are! The Apostle is, strenuously pleased with the response to our article "Editors and Preachers" in the Leader last week. Six out-of-town ministers had a say from which we print excerpts in the editorial column in this issue.

That whole-souled, likeable, all-around good preacher and man among men, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Robt. S. McKee by name, came in and talked and later returned with two good books on the subject. He knew and knows more on that subject than the Apostle will ever know. Thank you, preacher, and I'm enjoying your books immensely, and especially the one entitled "The Church and Printer's Ink."

OUR WEEKLY CHURCH CHAT

Every few miles along the Trans-Continental Air Route you will find a great beacon light. The aviator sees it from afar and is drawn toward it. He knows that there is safety, something to guide him along the right way. Every true Christian is a beacon light. The grace and power of God in the soul cannot be hid. Through rain and sunshine, through joy or sorrows, steadily gleams the radiance of a Christian life. It lights the way for the weak and the doubting, and guides the wanderer back to the straight and narrow way. "Let your light shine". Let it shine widely, brightly, and steadily.

The world will become more interested in the Church, when Christians at large demonstrate Christianity. The pulpit seeks to interpret the Voice of God in order that the pew may know how to live the life of God. When the great Beecher was asked why his ministry at Park Street was so successful, he replied: "I preach on Sunday but 450 men and women go out every day in the week to translate into life and service the message which I have sought to lodge in their hearts." Let us, pulpit and pew together think of ourselves as being "Living Epistles". More people will read our daily lives than will read the life of Jesus from the printed page.

"Christians are the only Bible most men read." Let the world know how you stand toward Christ and His program. What this nation needs today more than any things else is more Christians. Men and women who are not afraid of their CONVICTIONS. O that you who hear me; you who read these lines could also have a conviction concerning the Christ of God. Does it cost to be a Christian? Yes. It costs obedience to the gospel. It takes time. It takes service. It costs money to keep the light of Christianity burning. But hark ye—it costs more not to be a Christian. If knowing that Jesus is the Saviour and the only Saviour, and you refuse to accept Him, it cost you the loss of your-self; respect; it cost the loss of your moral back-bone; it costs the burial of your conviction; it costs the loss of your soul; it costs the loss of Heaven the City of the Soul.

Our ideas of personal service have changed some in the last few years, so Sunday morning our subject will be: SERVICE or THE IMPORTANCE OF PERSONAL CONTACT. "We hope to help you find your place of service. Sunday night we wish to speak about: THE MAN WHO WAS AFRAID OF HIS WIFE." This man was afraid to obey God, Are you? You are invited to these services also to the Mid-Week service, at which time we will show another wonderful Chapter of Bible pictures.

MATRIMONIAL VIEWS

I would not marry a widower, To have my happy life Tormented by the virtues Of his late lamented wife. I will not wed a bachelor, With heart of solid stone, To spend his evenings at the club And leave me all alone. I will not wed a millionaire, To be accused of crime, If he should chance to pass away A bit before his time. A poor man's wife I'll never be, To bake and stew and broil, With half a dozen little ones To add to all my toil. I will not wed a handsome man, A "sport" would not suit me— They're bound to have another wife and sometimes two or three; A homely man is not my style— A "dude" I would detest— I could not love a solemn man Or one who's prone to jest. I will not wed the man who seeks For years my love to gain; The very slowness of his suit Would always bring me pain. I will not wed the man who claims To love me at first glance— In fact, I will not wed at all Until I get a chance. —Anon.

Dashes from Pulpit to Fire!

Up in New England there is a preacher with a zeal for fire-fighting. He is an honorary member of the regular fire department, which called him from his sermon one Sunday, as the apparatus went rushing by.

"Fire," he says, "is synonymous with the subtleness of sin. It eats at the heart before it breaks out. We must fight both."

Forewarned against fire is to be tormented. Adequate, sound stock insurance will assure your safety from fire loss.

Caraway Cafe is Being Worked Over

Workmen the past week were employed to change up the general interior of the Caraway Cafe to good effect. The walls received a new coat of paper and the ceilings were done in white adding much to the better lighting effect and clean appearance of this popular eating house.

This cafe, now under the management of Mr. A. J. Dyer, has been operating in Clarendon for a quarter of a century.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Tax Collector of Donley county subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July. Having served the county as tax collector, I feel that I am amply qualified for the office and will appreciate the support of the voters in this race.

Does Your Subscription Expire With This Issue?

When you subscribe for the Donley County Leader, we regard it as a compliment and strive to give you the very best paper possible.

We are also pleased to note the promptness with which renewals are being made right along daily. This fact alone makes us feel like we have really accomplished something. Look at the figures following your name on your paper. If the first figure is a "4", and the last figures "30", your sub has expired.

It is the policy of the publisher and his force to be of real service to each reader, of each section, without special favors or consideration. "A common paper for common people" means just that and nothing more.

Job Department Has Extra Good Spring Run

The Leader's job department has had an exceptionally busy run of book and general job work the past month as compared to the same period of last year.

Booklets have been printed for the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church, Home Demonstration club Year Books for the county demonstrator's use, Year Books for the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, year books for the 1926 Book Club and several others.

We make a specialty of book jobs and pamphlet printing.

In the regular job printing line, our job department turned out 50,000 laundry tickets for the local steam laundry. Walter Wilson, manager of the laundry, could have purchased these laundry slips cheaper from a specialty house, but found he could get better paper from us and naturally wanted to give the home man the preference.

An order for 5,000 statements Friday, and similar orders, are of almost daily occurrence. We merely mention these facts to show that business men here are not experiencing the depression here as they are in most other towns.

Grapes, peaches, pears, plums, cherries, tomatoes. Beef as roast, steak, chilli, soup. Pork, poultry. Jelly made from grape, plum, blackberry, dewberry, a p p l e, strawberry.

Maralade made from blackberry, dewberry, peach, apricot and plum. Pickles: cucumber, onions, beets, green tomato, watermelon rind, peach, sweet pickle peach and pear. Preserves: Peach, pear, watermelon rind, apricot and cherry.

Relishes: Red pepper hash or relish, chopped pickle bermuda onion, apple relish, chow chow, chilli sauce, catsup.

These foods must be prepared by standard pack methods. Information may be had of Miss Nora Smith, County Home Demonstration Agent.

J. H. Hurn.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

There were two fine services at the Baptist church Sunday. At the morning hour Miss Lillian Hundley, Missionary to our Interior China Mission, home at Claude on her first furlough, brought a soul stirring message. Miss Hundley from her experience showed us the fields indeed white unto the harvest. Our minds were recalled to the command of Jesus to reap those fields, together with the promise that we should have the heathen for our inheritance, provided we would claim that promise. At the close of Miss Hundley's address a fine offering was taken for Missions. This being in addition to the regular provision for Missions in our budget.

At the evening service, despite the rain, there was a loyal enthusiastic group present. The number of young people present was noticeable—these having come for the B. Y. P. U. service and, of course, remaining through the preaching service. Bro. Shepherd brought a fine message, stressing God's gift to man, and the gifts man should give to God.

TEXAS' FIRST GOVERNOR

James Pickney Henderson was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina on March 31, 1809. He was admitted to the North Carolina bar before 21 years of age, and at 22 years had been appointed a major in the state militia. Moving to Madison County, Mississippi in 1835, he settled down to the practice of law. The struggle for freedom in Texas attracted him. "He at once resolved to make the Lone Star the star of his destiny."

In the Spring of 1836 he raised a company of volunteers in Mississippi for Texas service. President David G. Burnet commissioned him to return to the United States recruit for the army. He sent one company from North Carolina at his own expense. On his return to Texas he was immediately appointed Attorney General. Later he was made Secretary of State to succeed Stephen F. Austin. As an envoy and minister plenipotentiary he obtained recognition for the infant Republic in foreign countries.

F. B. Sexton said of his work: "His success as minister is one of the strongest evidences of the native superiority of his mind. He was only in the 29th year of his age when he negotiated commercial treaties between two of the governments of the world (France and England), and the then infant Republic, without money, resources, armies, or navies; in short, with nothing but the justice of her cause and the favor of Heaven".

He met Miss Frances Cox of Philadelphia in Paris. They were married in London in October, 1839. Retraining from France in 1840, he was met with ovation everywhere and urged to run for President, but declined because he was not old enough. Practice of law called him again. It is said that no man understood better than he the great fundamental principles of the common law. In 1844 he went to Washington to negotiate the treaties for annexation.

In November, 1845 he was elected the first governor of the State of Texas. The war with Mexico began in 1846. He turned the affairs of State over to the lieutenant governor and sent four regiments to the war. He personally led the famous Second Texas Regiment in the attack on Monterrey. After a years absence, he resumed executive duties. He declined a second nomination as governor. Later he was unanimously elected to the Senate by the Legislature. He died while in the Senate and was buried in the Congressional Cemetery in Washington.

HE KNEW THEM

A well lubricated young man in evening clothes stood on the curb and hailed a taxicab.

"Home, Jamesh!" he shrieked gaily as he sank into the cushions.

"Be yourself, gay boy. Where do you get that James stuff?" demanded the driver. "This here's a public taxicab."

"Ver (hic) well—then it ish Home, Jeshe James."

M. O. L. Fink and daughter, Miss Florence, attended the Demonstration Club exercises at Canyon Monday and also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pierle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Turner and daughter, Miss Inez, who have been visiting his sister, Mrs. John Clark and other relatives in the Panhandle, returned to their home at Mineral Wells Thursday.

The Preference for Sixes is Growing Every Day

Back in 1925, less than 40% of all cars produced were sixes. Then year by year this proportion increased until today, as shown above, the public is buying more six-cylinder cars than any other type. And this preference for sixes is growing every day!

Why? The answer is perfectly clear. The six operates with a smoothness that it is impossible to obtain with fewer cylinders—and smoothness is one of the big things that buyers have learned to demand in motor car performance.

Six-cylinder smoothness means enjoyable motoring. It means no vibration in the steering wheel—no rattling in the floor boards—no disturbing body rumble or "drumming." Six-cylinder smoothness means longer car life and higher resale value—because it saves the chassis and body from the harmful effect of continuous vibration.

When you buy a low-priced car—buy a Chevrolet Six and get the modern performance you have a right to expect.

The Chevrolet Six costs little to buy—

just a few dollars more than the cheapest car. The down payment is low—the terms are easy. And it costs no more to operate for gas, oil and upkeep!

And think of the other quality features you get! A big, roomy Body by Fisher with low, smart, graceful lines, genuine Duco finish, adjustable driver's seat, non-glare windshield and hardwood-and-steel construction. A deep, rugged frame that supports the body throughout its entire length. Four semi-elliptic springs mounted in the direction of car travel and controlled by four Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers. A safety gasoline tank located in the rear outside the body. A banjo-type rear axle that need not be taken apart in order to clean or inspect it. Big, non-locking, internal four-wheel brakes—and many other features that indicate up-to-date design and quality construction.

When you buy a low-priced car, buy a modern car with modern features—buy a Chevrolet Six. Come in—get a demonstration—and bring in your present car for our appraisal!
