Torrential Rains Visit Many Parts Of State Taking Eight Lives With Crop Damage of Millions

Rains Over the Week Cover Practically All of State With Heaviest Downpour In The Panhandle Friday and Saturday

Crop damage extending from the wheat belt of the Panhandle to the truck belt of South Texas resulted from wind, rain and hail. Many lives were taken by flood when autos were washed from the highway.

A cloudburst at Wichita Falls early Sunday morning flooded the east section tying up highway traffic only after highway police had dragged several cars across the bridge after the motor had been drowned.

Beginning at Decatur Sunday morning at about nine o'clock, floods occurred over that section served by the Denver west almost to Childress where no rains fell during the week, a rare exception in the widespread distribution of moisture.

Highways were covered with deep layers of mud near Electric and Iowa Park. Crops were washed out or covered up for a distance of two hundred miles more or less. Rivers were out of bank but no lives lost.

Winds in the Amarillo area Saturday tore off roofs of storage buildings and blew down utility poles. Wheat in some sections was left flat on the ground though it is said it may be harvested by the last of the week.

Six and a half inches fell within two hours at Uvalde tying up traffic on highway No. 3 most of the day. One car was washed from the highway and three men narrowly escaped with their lives.

Mrs. Morris Dunham and Mrs. Cota Whitaker were killed by lightning near Lamesa Saturday night and several children injured by the same bolt. A family by the name of Tidwell was drowned in Knox county when Lake Creek went on a rampage.

P. C. Lee of Luling and Lindsey Phillips of Kirwan were drowned Saturday at different places when each of them attempted to travel a flooded highway near towns named above.

Cotton over the black land belt of central Texas just coming up following floods of some two weeks previous, will in many instances, have to be replanted to some other crop as a later planting is said to be out of the question due to ravages of boll weevils.

Big Turtle Race To Be Staged Fourth of July

Boys here is your chance to take part in the Fourth of July celebration and win some cash money. Turtle racing is a big sport and since Donley County can raise almost anything else she should be able to raise racing turtles.

Name your turtles boys. Such names as "Ma" Ferguson, Dan Moody, Herbert Hoover, Slow But Sure, etc., have been suggested as appropriate names for the racers.

The big race will be held during the noon hour at the old school house. A large circle will be drawn and the turtles placed in the middle. Numbers will be glued to the backs of the turtles and the first one to cross the line will be awarded $3.00; the second $2.00 and the third $1.00. Now is the time to start training your turtles. This contest is opened to any kid in Donley County. Be sure to enter your name with Phifer Estlack, chairman of the turtle racing committee, at the Leader office before July first.

Indicted For Theft Clarendon Man's Auto Wednesday

While visiting in Amarillo Wednesday, the auto of L. E. Taylor of Clarendon was taken from in front of the Herring hotel where it is claimed to have been hoisted by a wrecker and removed without attracting much notice.

Troy Blake of that city has been indicted by the grand jury charged with the offense and placed under a $5,000 bond to await trial.

Corpus Christi Host To Press Meet For Three Days

Seaside Resort Makes Hit With Newspaper Folks in Entertaining

The 51st annual convention of the Texas State Press Association came to a close at Corpus Christi Saturday at noon. All parts of the state was represented by men and women representing all phases of the newspaper profession.

Railroads Cooperate

Due to the consideration of W. G. Crush, Passenger Traffic Manager of the Katy railroad, press members became his guests on a special run out of Dallas Wednesday morning. Cold drinks (soft), ice cream and candy and every form of convenience was provided for the comfort of the guests of his road.

Upon reaching Waco near noon, the membership became guests of the city and were shown the large lake, cement plant and the million dollar Borden milk plant as well as parks and other interesting scenes followed by a banquet at the Hilton hotel.

San Antonio Entertains

Press members were escorted to the original Mexican restaurant where a Mexican dinner was served them as a first number on the interesting program of the Alamo city. A theatre party at the million dollar Majestic picture and vaudeville show was followed by a trip through the new Daily Express building as guests of the owner, Col. Frank G. Huntress who provided cars taking the party of inspection from there to the Missouri Pacific depot.

Colonel Huntress began as a two dollar a week office boy thirty-six years ago. He is now owner of a daily plant and brand new building worth several million. After you have met this princely gentleman, you can readily understand his advancement.

Corpus Welcomes Party

The special was met at the depot by the Legion drum and bugle corps and escorted by auto to the Nueces and Plaza hotels. Rotarians and others took advantage of the buffet luncheon following a short session of the Convention.

For the next three days, all the time was taken up with Convention sessions, free theatre parties, fish fry at La Quinta Shrine club, bathing parties, boat rides, etc., all of which was free to the membership.

With a reputation as "the biggest little town in Texas", Robstown did herself proud in entertaining the Convention at a barbecue chicken feast late Friday afternoon. In company with Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Spotts of Richardson, the writer and his son with Col. F. M. Stubbs at the wheel of his brand new Dodge sedan, quickly sped over the sixteen miles of paved road from Corpus to the beautiful little city located in one of the most beautiful and productive sections of the state.

Meeting at the large new school building, the crowd was called to order by Ray Carney, formerly of Clarendon and now editor and manager of the Robstown Record. E. O. Stubbs, farmer, orator and leading citizen welcomed the visitors over three hundred in number. J. H. (Buttermilk Jim) Lowry of the Honey Grove Times-Signal and J. J. (State Press) Taylor of the Dallas News spoke in behalf of the visitors.

Four hundred and twenty-eight chickens of the right age had been barbecued to a delicious brown. These, with all the trimmings, were eagerly devoured by the enthusiastic Convention visitors, a feast and a social visit that will live in the lives of all throughout their lifetime.

After reluctant goodbyes, the visitors were taken back to Corpus where dancing, theatre parties occupied the time of the late evening, and a closing session next day and a final banquet at the Nueces hotel at the noon hour.

Hedley Commercial Club Busy With Road Idea

The Commercial Club of Hedley is working in conjunction with the Donley county commissioners with a view of opening up a graded road from Lakeview to Hedley, a road that has been badly needed for some time according to citizens of both sections.

Hall county's commissioners for some unknown cause failed to meet on the dividing county line Tuesday for a conference which will necessitate a meeting at a later date. Donley county will ask that Hall grade the road from Lakeview to our county line.

This road matter was the principal subject up for discussion at the meeting of the Hedley club Tuesday night, at which time they expressed their appreciation of the assistance of our C. of C. road committee and County Commissioners and County Judge for assistance in helping solve the road problem.

Hays Robbins Finds Demand For Battery Fed Chicks

Hays Robbins, who chose to take up poultry raising in preference to carpenter work the past spring, presented the Leader family with a "mess" of battery fed fryers Monday. We acknowledge our ignorance right here—we had never eaten battery fed roosters before.

These fowls had been raised to a good frying size without being let out of the "battery" which is a skyscraper feed pen tier upon tier where the chicks may eat and drink at will. The meat has a different flavor, is tender and juicy. Four fryers were devoured where two range chickens would have sufficed to feed a hungry bunch of boys. No, he did not skimp, he made it four and they were eaten cheerfully without any bad after effect except that one may want that kind of fowl in preference to any other hereafter.

Rotarians Favor Baseball Clubs For Boys

At the regular weekly luncheon of the Rotary club held at the Hotel Clarendon Friday at noon, D. R. Davis of the Boys' Committee reported that it was his opinion that since the Lions and Rotarians are to cooperate, four boys' baseball clubs could be organized for the season.

The matter of boy's work becomes necessary since Boy Scout work has been abandoned for the present, and the interest being taken by the civic clubs is looked upon with much interest by the boys of the town.

Five visitors were present, four of them making up attendance being members of the Rotary club of Memphis.

Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian church, was elected to membership in the Rotary club. Mrs. G. L. Boykin contributed a number of beautiful violin solos in addition to the regular musical program of the Club.

Except for the absence of Judge A. T. Cole, who is health-seeking at the Hot Springs, New Mexico resort, and J. C. Estlack, who was attending the state press convention at Corpus Christi, a one hundred percent attendance was had.

Race Stock Men Should Hurry Entries

The committee having in charge races for the 4th of July picnic should see Frank Whitlock or C. J. Douglas at once and make arrangements to enter the races.

Eroncho busters or "peelers" are at the earliest date, and not later also asked to see either of them than this week, that proper arrangements may be made. This matter is very important and should be attended to without delay.

After a social visit that will live in the lives of all throughout their lifetime.

After reluctant goodbyes, the visitors were taken back to Corpus where dancing, theatre parties occupied the time of the late evening, and a closing session next day and a final banquet at the Nueces hotel at the noon hour.

Rains Benefit Donley County Crops Over The Week

Terraces Prove Their Value Preventing Formation of Ditches on Hillsides

Never before in the history of the county have farm conditions been more favorable than now. Rains of the past week found the farmers waiting with crops planted and ground clear of foreign growth.

Diversification is being practiced more this season than for many years. More feed is being planted and hogs are already in demand due to feed crop prospects. A failure to plant feed crops the past few years practically cleared the county of hogs. Farmers are taking note of the lesson taught them by following the one crop idea which found them with cheap cotton and no feed the past fall and winter.

Terraced land withstood the heavy rains the fore part of the week in fine shape with a very little loss by soil washing over the small plants. While several thousand acres were terraced the past winter, practically all of the sloping land will be prepared in this manner before another crop season due to the proof offered by experiences of the past few weeks.

Cotton is up to an excellent stand. Corn, though limited as to acreage, is growing rapidly and has a fine color. Feed stuff or row crops of the headed variety, is looking as well as one could wish. Farmers as a whole are jubilant over the present prospects, and more especially since a diversified crop planting shows up with equal favor.

European Trippers to Sail From Houston 24th

Five Clarendon ladies will make the European trip this summer sailing from Houston on the S. S. Cuba June 24th at 11 a. m. The vessel will land at La Havre, France from which point the party will visit all the principal countries and cities of Europe.

Those going from here are Miss Mary Howren, Miss Ola Mae Watts, Mrs. Sella Gentry, Mrs. Geo. A. Ryan and daughter Miss Berkeley. The party will return to Galveston September 5th. Miss Beth Stiles of Wheeler is also to be a member of the party.

Miss Ola Mae Watts has promised to keep her many friends here informed as to their whereabouts through the columns of the Leader. Her weekly letters, possibly written in diary form, will prove very interesting.

Sheriff Mosley And Guy Pierce Return Monday

Sheriff Mosley and deputy Guy Pierce returned here Monday from attending a trial of Marvin Shelton, charged with car theft and tried at Sherman. Shelton was arrested here on suspicion several months ago and the sheriff's department connected him with an alleged ring of auto manipulators in east Texas.

Three of this alleged ring were tried at this time and each received six years, Shelton being one of the trio. It is thought that the ring has been broken up.

While down that way, Sheriff Mosley visited his brother at Cooper and friends at Enloe, it being his first visit there for sixteen years. He had the pleasure of meeting with a man of 87 years, his first employer when he came to Texas and a man who has always been one of his best friends.

Deputy Pierce had been in the black mud before and felt somewhat at home. The Sheriff showed him women with whom he had danced "a thousand miles" in his younger days. The same old moss is on the shingles. The same old gourd hangs at the well, but Donley is a far better country say both of these peace officers of wide reputation.

Miss Marne Trostle, who has been attending McMurry college at Abilene, returned home Thursday.

Panhandle Publishers Visit State Convention

The Panhandle section of the state was pretty well represented at the state convention at Corpus Christi last week, though a large number should have been present to benefit from the excellent programs and royal fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCarty of Dalhart, J. D. Merriman of Panhandle, J. C. and Alfred Estlack of Clarendon, Deskin Wells of Wellington, Lyman Robbins of Memphis and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Haskett of Childress were those in attendance from this part of the state.

Jack Strickland of Brownfield, publisher of the Terry County Herald was on duty from the west side of the state or lower plains country.

Democratic Executives Have Meeting Monday

At a meeting of the County Democratic Executive Committee Monday, places were drawn for position on the ballot. Places are here given where more than one candidate is in the race.

County Judge: Alexander gets first place. County attorney: Dillard gets first place. Sheriff: Bain, Peabody and Pierce is the way the names will be placed on the ballot. Tax collector: Mosley, Rutheford, Wood and Hurn.

County commissioners: No. 2 Youngblood gets first and Beverly second. No. 3, Smith first, then Mace, Simmons and Hawkins. No. 4, Beck, Pickering and Tidrow.

Public weigher: Thomas gets first in Clarendon, followed by Lafon and Smith.

In the governor's race, Mayfield gets first place and Small second. James Young is the last on the list which is considered about as good as first place.

Lelia Lake School Building Among Best in County

Again was the necessity for a school auditorium demonstrated Thursday night at the community gathering at Lelia Lake. While the auditorium is of copious dimensions, all seating room and standing room was taken.

Citizens of that community are due no little credit for their foresight in planning a structure that will take care of the demands for a building that will meet the needs of a community center.

In addition to a first-class school, Lelia Lake has an unexcelled citizenship that draws from surrounding communities the best class of people who are made to feel welcome at all forms of entertainment. This fact was freely expressed at the meeting Thursday night and several of our readers asked that this appreciation be voiced in this issue.

Federal Farm Board Plans Three Different Classes Of Sales Service For Cotton Growers Of Nation

Plan is Outlined at Secretaries' Meet at Plainview Last Week by C. O. Moser of Dallas. G. L. Boykin of Clarendon Chamber Attends Meeting

Ball Players Will Have Backing Of Civic Clubs

Town to be Divided Into Four Parts; For Boys Under 17 Years of Age

The local Rotary and Lions clubs are sponsoring a movement to organize a boys baseball league in Clarendon. The town will be divided into four parts as follows: Main street running north and south, fourth street (street running between College building and Girls dormitory by Methodist church) running east and west. This will divide the town into four parts each to have a baseball club. They will be named and each will play the other three clubs three games. The games will be run similarly to the Texas league. The two having the highest percent will play a three game series for the championship.

Some suitable award will be given to all of the boys. The southeast team will be coached by Dennis Davis and Iri Smith. The northwest team will be under the coaching of James Grundy and R. E. Drennon. The southwest team will be coached by R. E. Paxson and T. D. Nored. The northwest team will have as their coaches G. L. Boykin and Rev. Robt. McKee. All boys including the age of sixteen years will be allowed to play. The sponsors have purchased three dozen balls for the use of the teams. Other equipment will be furnished to the boys. All the boys have to do is come out and play. Baseball will be taught as well as played.

This afternoon a practice game will be played between the east and west sides of town to encourage the boys to come out. Teams will be organized, captains elected, names selected, and permanent practice grounds assigned. The first real game will probably be played next Friday at the College park.

Another Golf Tournament To Be Staged Friday Night

Friday night at 7:30 p. m. will be the time of the big golf tournament at the Wee-Amus-U Golf Course. An entrance fee of fifty cents will be charged to get into the big game. Players may qualify anytime up until 6:00 p. m. Friday.

Medalist of the low score qualifying rounds will receive a $3.50 golf putter. The winner of the first flight will win a $5.00 pair of summer golf knickers. The runner-up will receive a $2.50 pair of golf socks. The winner of the second flight will win a $3.50 golf cap. The runner-up will receive a $2.50 auto clock. The winner of the third flight will win three golf balls valued at $2.25. The runner-up will receive a doll valued at $1.00. If enough qualify for more flights, suitable prizes will be awarded. These prizes are exchangeable at the store from which they are purchased for other merchandise at the same value.

The ladies will be given the privilege of playing the course Wednesday free of charge.

Al Cooke has taken charge of the course and will give a special prize of $1.00 to anyone who will lower the course score.

Anyone may compete in this tournament whether you live in Clarendon or not. Close competition is expected from Hedley and some of the other nearby towns.

GAS TAKES DROP SATURDAY

For the first time in many months, gas prices were posted by local filling stations here Saturday showing a reduction to 19 cents. Just how long this price will stand, no local agent knows.

Various and sundry have been the explanations given the workings of the Federal Farm Board, and the explanation outlined at the recent meeting at Plainview will no doubt be of interest to farmers of Donley county.

To receive the services of the Bureau farmers hold a membership in the co-operative body at a membership of $10 to join and $2.50 per year. There will be a service charge of 50c per bale on all cotton handled through the body. These charges are for the purpose of defraying local expenses.

The national farm bureau has set aside some $100,000,000 for the relief of cotton farmers and this money will be used in handling any surplus, such as produced last year.

The organization will not handle any cotton under a 7-8 middles grade.

Not To Fix Price

It is not the purpose of the government to dictate the price of the cotton but to see that the farmer gets the full market value of his product.

Should an independent buyer offer more than the government is guaranteeing them cotton will be sold to the independent.

Three Classes Service

There are three different class of service to be extended the first of which is known as the receiving point. At such a point there will be stationed a man to receive the cotton. A community to get a receiving point must guarantee as many as 5,000 bales. At the receiving point the agent will receive the cotton, pay the farmer 85 per cent of the current price and when it is graded will pay him the remaining 15 per cent, should the cotton be delivered for immediate sale.

The second class of service is known as a branch office at which are stationed three men. These are a federal grader, receiver and office man. A community to obtain a branch office must underwrite $7,500 or a guarantee of 15,000 bales. At a branch office it is not necessary to wait for a 15 per cent return on cotton but the seller will get the full value on the spot if he desires immediate sale.

The third class of service will be two in West Texas, one each at Abilene and Lubbock. A community must underwrite $30,000 to obtain such an office. A complete clerical force is maintained at these places.

Not Necessary To Sell

If the farmer should decide not to sell his cotton the receiver will give him the money for 85 per cent of the current value of the bale and balance when sold at his orders.

Should the local farmers and business men desire to obtain a receiving point here it would be well to get together and have a government man from Dallas explain the scheme. There will be no attempt to force the service on any community and the board will absolutely refrain from the communities to which they are not invited.

To Handle Surplus

The purpose of the whole scheme is to handle the surplus. That has been the trouble heretofore. In the past if the world needed 9 bales of cotton and produced 10 then the 10th bale governed the price. It will be the purpose of the government to remove the 10th bale and prevent it from setting the price.

Texas Cotton Two Months Late This Season

Cotton from San Antonio north over central and west central Texas is from one to two months late this season due to early spring dry weather and floods of the past three weeks.

The crop is just now adding the third leaf in most places and it is feared that boll weevil damage will be great as is usually the case with late cotton and wet weather.

WILD FLOWERS.

Did you ever see nature's flower garden any more beautiful than after the recent rains? Flowers of all colors and varieties are to be seen on the hills and plains. When Lowell said, "What is so rare as a day in June", he must have been looking upon one of nature's flower gardens.

ROAD HOGS.

Some fellow was nerved enough to say that women wanted only their half of the road, but they either wanted it in the middle or was undecided just what part they did want. This same fellow should be riding along the highway and meet one of these fresh traveling men with the sporty horns. They will drive along side of you before they sound their horns and then laugh at you when you jump.

HOBBIES.

Everyone has a hobby. Some people may not think that they do, but something or other is more fascinating than the rest of the daily routine. Different people have different ideas. If they did not, this world would be in a bad shape. A man may have a hobby that makes people laugh, but what of it; they just don't know anything about the particular thing. Playing golf is a good hobby. You get out in the open air and take exercise. Meeting and studying people is an interesting hobby. It may sound foolish, but people are funny creatures.

It is especially to watch the actions of a small child. The things they say and the way they do things are amusing. Raising different kinds of pets is an interesting hobby. Some people like dogs, some like cats, some people like to raise gold fish, etc. according to their own desires.

CARNIVALS AND SHOWS.

The city 'dads' should have some reward for their actions taken with the carnival that recently tried to show in Clarendon. They were forced to set up their shows and rides out of the city limits. People naturally want something new and exciting. But what is so exciting about a small cheap carnival? If you have seen one, you have seen them all. We have home amusements that are much better than most of the ones you see at a carnival. There is no use to expect to win playing the gambling games that they have. If people could win, they would soon go out of business. It is much better to patronize the home show, golf courses, croquet grounds, etc. and take a chance on the money staying at home than to spend it where it has no chance of coming back to town.

VOTING SCHOOL TAXES.

Saturday, June 7, 1930 is a day long to be remembered in the Ash-tola, Chamberlain, Martin, Fair-view, Pleasant Valley, Hackberry, Hudgins, Sunnyview, and Goldston communities. All of these communities voted taxes of twenty cents on the one hundred dollars to gain the privileges of free tuition for their pupils who will want to take advantage of this opportunity to further prepare themselves for later life. Before this tax was voted the country students were handicapped for a higher education. They had to be contented with the schooling that their school gave them or pay tuition to go to college. By this special arrangement they may stay at home and go to college thus saving the expense of staying away from home and paying tuition. Students of the rural communities should be proud of their fathers and mothers and neighbors who would take this step to provide them for the future.

CHICAGO'S LATEST.

The boys are warming them up in Chicago. Tough men were disappearing from the scene until some boy decided that the best riddance would be the newspaper reporters and started out by killing one of Chicago's oldest crime reporters, Alfred Lingle, Tribune reporter. This killing is considered a "challenge to the press." The newspapers of Chicago have editorially accepted the challenge by offering $55,000 for clues leading to the conviction of the guilty party or parties as it may be. Some fellow should be tempted to talk for that little sum, but it would all probably depend on how much he valued his life. No matter who did it or what his grievance he should not have picked on a newspaper reporter. They are not so tough, but some are rather persistent at times. If everyone killed every reporter that they did not like, this country would soon be rid of reporters.

Printer's Lament

By Son of the Apostle

Schmeling won the decision, but we still firmly believe that Jack Sharkey is the better man of the two. We lost our bets of course, but that is nothing compared to the fact that a "furner" has won the world's heavyweight championship. He may not be recognized by the commission after all and especially if Tunney has anything to do with the awarding of the championship trophy. I should worry; it wasn't my eye that got the damage.

It seems that some people are objecting to even considering the name of "Soapy" as a future governor. I don't know anything about the man, but if he knows what soap is good for, and I suppose he does, he can use it in several different ways if he does land in the governor's chair.

"Red" Kent, the tall insurance salesman (I can't say high powered because he makes your mind build up a strong resistance by his first speed,) made the Bide-A-Wee golf course in 35 the first round and 33 the second round with 11 aces during the two rounds. "Slim" Parsons will swear to this he said. As you receive one free round for every stroke under par of 41, "Red" immediately began to commercialize on the proposition by offering rounds on his card at reduced rates. "Pinkie" put a stop to this immediately by stamping "Not Transferable" on the card.

Now about this fruit contest, it is not so good. The "samplers" are too numerous. Of that nice, big, ripe peach I was lucky to get one bite. The best plan that I can work out is for the contestants to slip the fruit to me on the sly and not let the machinist know about it until it is too late for him to "classify."

The "big boys" are down at Corpus taking in the State Press Convention and enjoying the cooling effects of the Gulf while we flunkies are sweating it out here in the shop.

Contestants please take heed to the above statement concerning bringing in fruit to the office. E. V. Quattlebaum came into the office while G. L. Boykin was here fixing up the turtle race. He laid a sack of peaches on the counter and before the Son of the Apostle could thank him, Boykin was saying these are sure fine eating; I wonder if a man could find them in the dark. T. R. Brown was next door at Holland Bros. about asleep, but you know these County Agents they have a nose for business. He was on hand in a second. He lost his hog because I saw his wife feed it. Joe Holland scented them next. He asked the price by the bushel, stating that he would be out for some Monday.

This goes to show that farmers have only to bring their products or samples of their products to town and they will sell themselves. Bring on your fruit and vegetables.

We will let the people know about it.

Now about this turtle race that the Son of the Apostle has in charge. You boys feed your turtles on plenty of eggs and buttermilk. If this does not seem to be conditioning them, see your county agent and have him fix you up a balanced diet for your racing turtle. Six dollars in prizes are to be offered. Three dollars for the first turtle crossing the line; two dollars for the second turtle crossing the line and one dollar for the third turtle crossing the line.

Now if Greer Cottingham is right, he has some turtles on his place as big as wash tubs that give the hogs a run for the milk. Philip Smith will have the lead on the rest of the boys for he has a turtle that has been running from rocks for several years. Boys teach your turtles their names so that you can have a pep squad to cheer for them. Bring in your name and your turtles name before July first.

CAPITAL WEEKLY PRESS

Vann M. Kennedy

Fifteen political warhorses go to the post in the gubernatorial derby, with all of the usual handicaps—to the voters! And it looks as if they were to be off on a muddy track.

C. C. Moody, who drives a laundry truck in Fort Worth, seems the most interesting addition to a cluttered primary. He is "running to vindicate the family name," he says.

Big medicine is being made for Ross Sterling of Houston, Chairman of the State Highway Commission. His entry into the race was a surprise. Governor Moody had intended to announce, but remains silent, hesitating to oppose a close political friend. Sterling is in the multimillionaire class, having arrived by hard work and unusual acumen. But you remember that one in the Bible about a rich man getting into Heaven as easily as a camel through the eye of a needle. The same goes for a rich man getting to the Governor's chair.

Jim Young of Kaufman, a former congressman, and a candidate of extraordinary ability, calls on Sterling to resign from the Highway Commission "in order that this important function of our government may be kept free from political controversies and entanglements". Sterling makes no reply. Then Young points out to Governor Moody that it is his duty to call for Sterling's resignation. He is also mum.

Lieutenant Governor Barry Miller of Dallas is running but has no platform. He will announce a platform on June 15, he says. A year ago the political dopesters had Miller in the Governor's office by their prognostications. But now they are not nearly so certain; in fact, they don't name him among the first four.

Former Lieutenant Governor T. W. Davidson, refusing to enter the scramble for Governor, sees a real threat to the Democratic party in Texas. "Mr. Love admits that he will not support either of the Ferragons; they and their following would be less than human if they do not return the compliment", said Davidson.

"We have two extremes entered into the Democratic primary; that they are not going to be bound by the result". He concludes that "if either extreme wins, the Democracy is due to a deserved defeat for allowing itself to be shackled by a law that denies it the right of self-control."

Gross mismanagement and inefficiency in the administration of the General Land Office is charged by Jockie W. Burks, who became a candidate for Land Commissioner this week. He is from Commanche County. Had the public school lands been managed as well as those of the University, the State would have been saved millions, Burks declared. He was born in a log cabin with a dirt floor and a stick-and-dirt chimney, he says.

J. H. Walker, appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Commissioner J. T. Robinson, is seeking an elective term.

A committee of Wisconsin business men will come to Texas about June 23 for a trip of inspection through the Rio Grande Valley in response to insistent invitations from Governor Moody. The junket was arranged to restore goodwill between Texas and Wisconsin. The Real Estate Brokers' Board of Wisconsin refused to license agents selling Rio Grande Valley lands several months ago.

The Yankee state was uninterested in the protests from Texas of this unjust action until Wisconsin manufacturers were threatened with a boycott by Texas business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sloan and children, Helen, Sue and George of Clifton, Arl., visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sloan Thursday night.

Mrs. Edwin Forrest and Miss Helen Cook who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cook left Saturday. Miss Helen will attend summer school at Canyon and Mrs. Forrest for Ft. Worth.

Mrs. Ralph and daughter, Miss Wanda of Farmersville is visiting Mrs. C. G. Stricklin.
