County Commissioners Hear Tax Troubles

Could one have experienced what the County Commissioners have heard from taxpayers Monday and Tuesday of this week while sitting as a County Board of Equalization, there would have been no doubt left as to the attitude of the public on the tax question.

A steady stream of taxpayers milled in and out of the room through the session and voiced protests against taxes and valuations. There was little to offer them because of the failure of many to pay taxes and the debts contracted by the county during times far more prosperous. In some instances, valuations were lowered, but only in a very few cases was this deemed possible.

Mrs. L. P. Bones and daughter Deline of Joy, Texas visited in the L. F. Bones home Sunday.

POSTAL RATES TO BE INCREASED AFTER JULY 7TH

Letter Postage is Advanced To Three Cents; Other Changes Made

According to the new tax law passed recently in which postal rates are being increased in several instances increased rates will be in effect under the new law until July 1, 1934.

Those who have been accustomed to mailing a first-class letter at 2c, will now have to put three cents on the envelope to insure Uncle Sam's delivery. Looking over this part of the new law, we read that "Upon all matters of the first class, postage shall be charged at the rate of 3c for each ounce or fraction thereof, and drop letters shall be mailed at the rate of 3c per ounce or fraction thereof, including delivery at letter-carrier offices, and 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof where free delivery by carrier has not been established."

Postage on letters deposited in rural or star route boxes, or mailed to persons served on such routes, will require a 3c stamp. Postmasters are instructed to see that postage is paid in full before forwarding the letter, or stamping it for delivery to addressee.

Newspaper postage has been increased in all zones from the 1st to 8th. In this respect, publishers will be forced to raise their rates outside the county of publication, or simply take the loss.

All parcel post rates are due to take a hike after July 6, 1932, and that is not far off.

Those having government two-cent envelopes on hand will be privileged to suffix 1-cent stamp until the supply of envelopes on hand is exhausted.

Those who would desire further information should confer with Postmaster Chas. H. Bugbee if living in this district. If living in another district, your postmaster will be supplied with all the instructions necessary to give the information needed.

CLEMMONS BALL TEAM PLAYS CATS ON NEXT SUNDAY

Uncle Bob Will Celebrate 68th Birthday Leading His Boys to Victory

The Clemmons ball team, composed of father and eight sons and heralded as the only aggregation of its kind by national press associations, will match their skill against the Alarend Wild Cats next Sunday, June 19th at Alarend.

This is termed an "exhibition" game in which the father of the Clemmons team, Uncle Bob Clemmons, will celebrate his 68th birthday by exhibiting the skill of a man who lives baseball and has implanted that love for the art in sons who will help "Uncle Bob" win the biggest victory in their experience.

This is an annual event with the Clemmons family. Ball fans from all the surrounding country will be present to see the job done. The game will be called right after the noon hour. Everybody invited to see the slaughter.

TAXPAYERS GET TOGETHER TO TALK TAX PROBLEMS

Adopt Resolutions Defining Duties of Committee And Ask Consideration

To be known as the Citizens Economic League, a body of men met at the Legion Hall Friday night for the purpose of discussing tax measures and remedies, valuations and such matters as in their judgment would afford some measure of relief to taxpayers. The next meeting will be held Thursday evening of this week at 8 p. m.

O. C. Watson was elected chairman and T. D. Nored secretary. Others present at these deliberations were W. H. Patrick, H. W. Taylor, Chas. H. Bugbee, Dick Allen, U. J. Boston, Dr. B. L. Jenkins, Ollie Hommel, Geo. Norwood, W. C. Stewart, Fred Rathjen, Roy Beverly, G. W. Antrobus, Henry Toomb, W. E. Davis, H. J. Eddington, Cecil Alexander, Ragan Bain, D. W. Clappitt and Joe Goldston.

F. W. Rathjen made a plea in his talk asking that more attention be given to an equalization of tax values over the county.

Postmaster C. H. Bugbee protested any increase in farm valuations saying that the farmer already had too much of a load to carry.

O. C. Watson called attention to the tax being paid by large property holders of the town, and stated that many were forced to borrow money with which to pay taxes for the past two years.

Dr. B. L. Jenkins stated that taxes could not be reduced so long as some are demanding purchases and investments of tax money where unnecessary. He was followed by W. H. Patrick in a talk in which he said that our present tax rate is our own fault, and that we could expect no relief until we quit spending. He stated that "we had spent public money until it was a shame, and that we must return to a sane basis of business management in county, state and national government."

Dr. B. L. Jenkins, W. H. Patrick and F. W. Rathjen were appointed on a resolution committee, and brought in the following which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved that the Citizens of Clarendon in meeting assembled this 10th day of June 1932, at which meeting O. C. Watson was elected temporary chairman and T. D. Nored was elected temporary secretary, that this body adopt the name of Citizens Economic League.

Resolved further that we recommend that the Chairman of this meeting appoint a committee of six tax paying citizens of which O. C. Watson shall be chairman ex officio to meet with all taxing boards for the purpose of co-operating with said boards with the object in view of more thoroughly equalizing values and reducing all public expenditures to the minimum, commensurate with the actual needs of such taxing agencies.

We further recommend that the temporary officers be made permanent.

Grandma Rodgers of Heald, Texas is visiting friends in Clarendon.

County School Board Has Session Monday

The County School Board definitely outlined the metes and bounds of the Martin school district at their session Monday. This district recently voted twenty year serial bonds in the sum of $500,000 with which to replace the school building which was burned recently. This sum with the $3874 insurance money, will enable them to construct a building of the first class.

W. K. Davis has been elected to succeed Neal Bogard who resigned as trustee in the Sunnyview district. This matter was confirmed by the action of the Board.

Second Story Hour is Held Tuesday Evening

Thirty-two youngsters were present for the story telling hour sponsored by the Pathfinder club at the Girls' Dormitory Tuesday evening, the second of the season that will continue throughout the summer.

Mrs. U. J. Boston delighted the children as "story teller" on this occasion, assisted by Mrs. Frank L. Bourland.

The Pathfinder club is especially anxious that all children up to the age of twelve be present each Tuesday evening from seven to eight o'clock.

Mrs. V. E. Hargerty of Amarillo is visiting the Naylor sisters.

Hedley Parent-Teachers To Serve Candidates

The Leader has been requested to announce that the ladies of the Hedley Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor an ice cream social at the Hedley high school building auditorium at 7:30 Friday evening June 24th.

Candidates will be asked to make a talk of not more than ten minutes each. Every county candidate is expected to be present and meet the large number of citizens who will be present.

A prize of a quilt will be given. Terms and particulars will be announced at the gathering. The Hedley Rural Club will give away the quilt.

ROAD POLICY OF HIGHWAY COMMISSION

"AUSTIN, June 10.—There are no laws on the Texas stat the books defining or restricting the system or program under which the Highway Commission shall proceed to construct roads. The laws are silent on the subject. The commission can ask of counties a fourth, third or half of the fund required to build a road, or can construct entirely with state money, derived from the gasoline and registration taxes.

Nor is there anything in the statutes requiring the commission to hold a hearing and decide on the evidence prior to granting a designation, allotment, aid or contract. Under the Constitution the commission awards road contracts to the lowest bidder, operating in this respect similarly to other departments.

Obviously, the functions of the Highway Commission differ vastly from operations of the Railroad Commission for there is a multiplicity of laws governing the railroad board's course. This commission can not make out an oil or gas proration order, or give a permit to a bus or truck line without a hearing having been held.

As to railroads, the Interstate Commerce Commission holds hearings on all applications for new lines, but refuses to grant any certificates if the roads parallel or divide traffic extensively. The Forty-second Legislature made this same policy apply to granting permits to trucks and buses.

In highway construction, however, the commission sets up its own policies minus any statutory regulation. For several years there has been discussion among legislators as to the advisability of passing a law mapping out a highway program, determining just what roads should be built, but no bill on the subject ever has been introduced.

The nearest approach to a limitation upon the Highway Commission was the so-called reroute bill, which passed both in the Forty-first and Forty-second, vetoed by Moody in the first instance and Sterling in the second. This measure, offered both both times by Representative Paul Finn of Sunset, provided that no highway could be routed away from a town of 200 or more inhabitants without consent of the County Commissioner's Court.

The measure was offered after a number of towns complained publicly that the commission changed the route of roads away from them, affecting their commercial welfare, while the commission's viewpoint, often expressed, justified the action on the grounds of shortening the road.

The question as to highways has been agitated for some time and at the Capitol it is believed the Palo Pinto injunction hearing will cause a renewal of efforts to put some sort of regulation in the statutes.

For the Weatherford cutoff project has sharply drawn sides, some towns fighting for and others against, but there was neither legislative nor statutory guide for the commission. Sometimes the Highway Commission has rejected pleas for cutoffs to shorten road distance, this being a matter of record, San Angelo and Sweetwater having joined in a long fight for a cutoff, claiming it would lessen the distance to Coleman by 40 miles. Strong opposition developed in the commission. Usually the commission is lenient in granting designations and aid, and on the whole has aroused little resentment.

At no time during the Forty-second Legislature was the work of the commission subjected to questioning of a serious sort. The Forty-first appointed a committee to investigate, but discovered not an iota of wrong doing.

But the highway problem is serious, all legislators agree, since there are 180,000 miles of Texas roads, and since the commission deals with $50,000,000 annually. If county aid is eliminated entirely and all highways built by the State, then the 254 counties, it is expected, will be on the job at each session with pleas that their wants should be looked after first.

Under the present system only those counties look for financial help that put up funds of their own to match. Yet to continue the system of county aid means more bond issues, which both Governor Sterling and W. R. Ely, commission chairman, oppose.

Another thing: With county aid abolished the commission will need more money for road building and improvement, but offsetting this are claims that the system now networks the State and a letup for a while would not be harmful."

The above article is reproduced from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. It gives valuable information for the consideration of the taxpayers of Donley county at this time when they are likely to be called upon to increase their tax burden should the County Commissioners accede to the pressure of those who are backing the highway issue regardless of the opinion or condition of the public.

THE "THIRD" FINAL HIGHWAY OPPORTUNITY

About every so often a self-appointed Moses swoops down on his community with the help of a mere two percent of the population as backers, and with a lot of hip, hip, hurrahing attempts to show the "dear people" how and why they can tax themselves out of the depression into the lap of luxurious prosperity.

In spite of their good (?) intentions, for which they only deserve some credit for creating a bit of annoying excitement, when the bombast clears away, the community or county drops back a little deeper in its gloom.

The reason for this is the fact, that in spite of the oft repeated claim that the depression is largely psychological, the hip, hip hurrah method does not carry with it the proper psychological ingredient to overcome the psychology of the true situation.

Old man highway issue bobs up again in a little different dress, but it is the same old issue just the same. Despite the fact that the County Commissioners by unanimous voice informed the "progressives" that taxes would be increased if the county indulged in the purchase of a right-of-way at this time, the "progressive" shouts are again heard from the housetops warning the public that this is the "final" opportunity to grasp the hand of a Santa Claus in the summer time.

However, for the taxpayers of Donley county to reach an attitude of highway building under present conditions, it is out of the question so long as the "howling of the wolves" of want at the door are heard by so many of our best class of citizens. In fact that wolf has been there so long that she has added pups to the gang making the situation all the more dangerous.

The "first" final opportunity came back about 1929 and was knocked out by public sentiment. The "second" final opportunity came a short time ago and was passed up because approximately ninety percent of the taxpayers did not want an increase in taxes. Here is the "third" final opportunity knocking at our very doors!!!

If it be a fact that the state will offer to let us have enough of "our" tax money back to construct a hard surfaced road if we will furnish the right-of-way, we don't know whether to believe it or not until the offer is put in writing in the form of a legal contract.

If the state will spend Six Hundred Thousand dollars on this proposed road issue for grade, drainage and hard surfacing, it is too much. Such work has been done for as low as Six Thousand dollars a mile on similar surface ground.

This sum would be paid contractors, and not to local people. Common labor in Gray county is loading trucks at 5c a truck netting a single hand the stupendous sum of six-bits a day for hard labor. Neither Hall, Wheeler nor Gray counties are enjoying an era of prosperity because of highway construction. To hold up this illusion to a laboring man is nothing short of criminal.

We don't know where the highway will be routed until work is completed. We don't know what the right-of-way will cost until paid for. About the only thing that we do know is that it will increase our tax rate.

Why place so much stress on Highway 5 when good citizens on 66, 88 and 52 are asking the same consideration? Why ignore the needs of the people asking for a bridge across Salt Fork connecting the settlements north of the river in the Whitefish and Skillet communities and others, with Hedley, Lelia and Clarendon? Shall we class these taxpayers with the "man whom God forgot" in fiction? Let's take a common-sense, unselfish view of a matter that involves the expenditure of tax money paid by "all" the county before we attempt to favor the "few," however badly that few might want something.

The County Commissioners of Donley county have been asked to meet in special session next Monday for the purpose of hearing a highway committee explain the issue and the necessity of tying up for highway construction right now. The taxpayers will demand a vote on the issue before it is finally settled even should the Commissioners favor the issue, and it is then up to the voters to say whether they are willing to assume further tax burdens for highway construction at this time. Many are opposed to spending tax money for holding an election when they feel that it will be voted down.

Delinquent Taxes.

Approximately 48 percent of the citizens of Donley county paid approximately 58 percent of the taxes for the year 1931.

If the delinquent tax law was enforced at this time, it is said that near half of the property of Donley county would change hands over the public auction block.

After Murray.

State senator I. F. Long of Oklahoma has started out on a platform true to form for that hectic state. His first plank reads, "I believe that Gov. Murray is a detriment to Oklahoma and ought to be removed from office." His second plank of his platform reads, "I believe that the 18th Amendment should be repealed."

Kattle And Kids.

It may look a little strange when we stop to think how carefully fish and game are guarded and cared for in Texas, and that a big howl goes up when a few ticks are found on a cow brute in East Texas while nothing is said about the starving, ragged children of the state. But conditions still permit a calf to be sold at some price, and babies are a drag on the market because of the one more little mouth to feed. What has become of our boasted civilization?

More Foolishness.

Newspapers are being advised by a capitalistic bureau to "refrain from mentioning the depression, balancing the budget, swatting the rich or sympathizing with the laboring class, the effects would be magical." This bureau is authority for the statement that if newspapers will do this, the public will forget the depression before the November election.

One might as well put green goggles on a mule and expect him to fatten on sawdust. Our first relief of note will come when the farmers can grow one or two good crops and get a decent price for it, and not before. About all we can do now is to cut out unnecessary expenses in government and keeping on working along a live-at-home basis.

Good Bad News.

The world today is filled with good news—called bad. The good news is that after floundering through the centuries we have at last reached the stage of overproduction of practically every commodity needed or required to make human beings happy and contented. It is this statement that has us confused. Farmers have produced so much cotton that their families are dressed in rags. The skilled workman who can take your thirty-cent cow hide and create $78 worth of shoes today walks the streets begging for a chance to earn a pittance for his family while the farmer wears shoes that are about as presentable as a 1914 Model T Ford. And that condition exists in a nation that boasts of its high state of civilization.

Railroads.

Due to the fact that gasoline has been increasing in price the past few weeks, passenger traffic on the railroads has again begun to pick up. If present conditions continue, the purchase of new autos will be prohibitive and a large portion of the public will again "ride the cushions" in making trips.

Traveling at any distance may be done by rail at a saving according to those who have made a careful check on the expenses of such a trip. When one considers the depreciation, purchase of necessities such as food, oil and gas, the autoist finds the actual expense of an auto trip to amount to something like ten or fifteen cents a mile.

Reduced rates on most of the railroads has helped to overcome the tendency of those who had become accustomed to auto travel, causing them to choose a straight passenger fare by rail as a more economical method.

Town Taxes.

A recent tax survey shows that the per capita tax in 146 Texas towns rose from $24 in 1915 to $67 in 1932.

Municipal as well as county government must follow the precedent set by business men and corporations, and slash expense and eliminate waste if the operation cost is to be lowered.

We cannot have tax reduction so long as we demand "improvement" costing from thousands into the millions.

The public alone has the power to bring tax rates down. When it exercises that power of public sentiment demanding relief, only that soon will we get back to a basis of reason and common sense.

We must recognize that we can't tax ourselves out of the depression or become rich from voting bond issues. Taxes and bonds are today causing our good citizens more worry and grief than any other factors.

Depression Profits.

Instead of looking upon the depression as a total loss, or a combination of calamities, we are forced to admit that it is bringing to the surface a lot of rottenness and questionable methods in public office that might have remained under cover until we would have reached a point of extinction.

The howl for a lowering of taxes in Dallas county recently called for a private audit that is said to have revealed the squandering of thousands of dollars of tax money, and the involvement of a number of county officials.

In addition to being forced to study out and adopt a more economical scheme in our personal affairs, we have been forced to inquire into public affairs and in a measure discover just "why" our taxes have been mounting year after year.

There is but one thing to do when a public official goes crooked. Jug him for so long that his grand children will forget him. Any man who would violate the confidence of his people is no longer entitled to associate with them. If this rule were to be rigidly enforced, we would have a more decent place in which to live.

National Graft.

When our national law-making body was in action attempting to saddle a bigger tax debt upon our citizens, petitions and protests by the hundreds were sent them to "either reduce expenses or quit and come home."

It is possible that a large number of those fellows sent to Washington to represent the common people have no sympathy for the people they are supposed to represent because they have always lived in luxury and know nothing of hard times or poverty.

It is more possible that the majority cannot realize that their very actions are driving this Nation to destruction by first destroying the confidence of the common people who constitute the very backbone of the nation.

When the time comes that a hungry, outraged population of thousands and perhaps millions demand a reckoning, these ingrates will be only too glad to give up half of what they own to appease the wrath of outraged citizens when it is too late.

The common people, which is the producing class, creates the wealth of the nation and those who possess that wealth depend upon the common people to protect it for those who own or control it.

If there is a spark of patriotism left in our national law-making bodies, they should at once begin to prove to the common people that they are willing to relieve them from all the cost of living possible by cutting government expense instead of heaping up a burden of unbearable tax laws upon the backs of those who toil.

Those who would cry "radicalism" at this protest are either in the employ of those who coerce, or are too dumb to sympathize in favor of their own interests. Those who would corner the money market have destroyed the nation as far back as history records events of other centuries.

There is an apparent effort being made to create two classes in this nation—the ruling class and the peasant. At the rate we are drifting, we will soon be on a parity with the inhabitants of European nations. Aroused public sentiment alone can stop this movement without bloodshed. If every traitor to the nation is unseated in the coming election, there is hope.

Weatherford Man Sees Many Friends in Clarendon

R. B. Hood of Weatherford, and candidate for Congressman-at-Large, visited here Tuesday meeting many of his old friends and neighbors as well as a large number interested in his candidacy.

S. T. Clayton took Judge Hood in charge and escorted him around town. S. B. Kutch, John Potter, M. S. Parsons and Geo. McCleskey joined in as former neighbors and enthusiastic boosters for their esteemed neighbor of former years. And the Judge kept meeting more old friends up until time to leave town.

Judge Hood passed out booklets clearly setting forth his platform and enumerating his ideas and suggestions that appear to be a compendium of common "horse sense" as one voter expressed it.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH

By the Apostle

This new tax law simply knocked our hat off. Instead of cutting down expenses as any sensible men ought to, they heaped a lot more on our old sore backs. We may teach them a lesson by voting after their competitors this time. That seems to be the opinion of a lot of folks if they can find out who voted for the new tax bill.

Here is a notice for Col. R. S. Kimberlin from away out in California complaining that he failed to get this paper last week. We mailed him one and regret that the other failed to reach him. It got lost in the mails somewhere.

Speaking of hard times, what do you know about the telephone operators? They work harder and longer hours and get less than their regular salary all because the phone companies will not reduce their rates in sympathy with other reductions, and the folks just cannot pay war time prices for a telephone now. They are losing money and will keep on losing until the phone rates get down reasonable.

Mrs. Jim Heckman on her round as a practical nurse does a lot of good. These good women who help folks out in a pinch are worth a lot to the world, and much more than most of us can realize.

The Old Settlers are planning on another picnic somewhere in the Hedley country. They don't do things by halves and it will likely be better than last year with plenty of lemonade and eats and the neighborly visiting thrown in for good measure. It is being planned down there to have it the 4th of July.

The boys who have been studying pharmacy got off with a three year course until this year when another year was added to teach them how to salt a sandwich.

The Scotch are said to fry their meat in Lux so that the meat won't shrink.

MARY NAYLOR HONORED

Miss Mary Naylor was the honoree at a surprise miscellaneous shower given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. C. E. Griggs and Mrs. C. W. Galloway at the home of Mrs. Griggs.

Garden flowers and pot plants of various kinds and hues were used artistically in the entertaining rooms to lend charm and attractiveness to the setting.

Soon after the guests had arrived, each was asked to register in a Bride's Book by giving some special advice or favorite recipe to the bride. Following registration, Miss Naylor was asked to search one particular portion of the room for a slip of paper containing instructions whereby a valuable treasure might be found. This began the treasure hunt, which led to various and sundry places throughout the house with small gifts being found along the trail. Upon the discovery of each gift instructions were found for continuing the search until the large treasure was found which proved to be many articles, both useful and ornamental, for the home.

Miss Nova Cook, in her pleasing way, gave an appropriate reading expressing good wishes for the bride-to-be's future.

Sam Barcus, Presiding Elder of the Sulphur Springs District, at the First Methodist church here Monday evening, May 30, at seven o'clock. On account of the long and intimate relations of the bride and her family to Southwestern University, the wedding was held during the Fifty-ninth Commencement of the College. Reserve sections on the main floor of the church were set aside for members of the family of the bride and the families of the wedding party, members of the Board of Trustees and Faculty of Southwestern University and their families. The church was filled with friends and acquaintances.

The above was taken from the Williamson county Sun. Miss Barcus was born in Clarendon where her father, Rev. J. Sam Barcus was pastor of the Methodist church and president of Clarendon College.

Each girl, laden with her plate and cup and other necessary paraphernalia for such an occasion set jauntily forth with bursts of song.

They were greeted by Miss Helen Rogers and they hiked on farther down to a grassy spot despite a feeling of faintness, due to hunger. Soon aromatic odors of boiling coffee and frying bacon filled the air. Sugarless and creamless coffee and saltless eggs combined with doughnuts and jelly made a very satisfying meal.

The return journey was started but was halted again at the house for a rest and for a most enjoyable time to be spent talking and listening to piano music and singing.

The affair was proclaimed a huge success by Misses Evelyn Nix of Amarillo, Mayme Ruth Clark of Wellington, Helen Rogers, Wilma Hukel, Virginia Wisdom, Delphia Bones, Nova Cook, Mary Naylor, and Barbara Smith.

Cyclone Davis Visits Here Over Saturday

Every man or woman above middle age in Texas knows or has heard of that sturdy old "prohi" warrior known as J. H. (Cyclone) Davis. He visited friends here Saturday on his itinerary of vote getting in his race for Congressman-at-Large, Place No. 2.

Mr. Davis spent one term representing Texas in the National Congress. His avowed refusal to wear a necktie at any and all times created a furore among his colleagues in Washington.

His stand-pat principles were also vexing and speaking against measures he deemed unjust, rather than for his personal measures, largely was the reason he was not re-elected. No one ever doubted the sincerity or honesty of this sturdy giant of the forest in meeting all comers in debate on his principal theories.

LAST RITES ARE HELD SUNDAY FOR HOLMAN KENNEDY

Was President of Panhandle Bankers Association At Time of Death

Rev. R. S. McKee, pastor of the Presbyterian church, had charge of the funeral services Sunday afternoon at four o'clock held at the home of the deceased in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, many of whom had come from a distance to pay their last tribute to the popular young banker.

Mr. Kennedy, because of his sunny disposition and friendly demeanor, had endeared himself to a wide circle of friends in all stations of life. He grew to manhood in Clarendon receiving his education in the main in the local school and college. He was a member of and the only child of a prominent family and had resided in Donley county for almost twenty years.

He had been in the employ of the Donley County State Bank for a number of years and cashier of that well known financial institution since January of 1925.

He appeared under great strain for several days and had absented himself from town for two days in the J A pasture before firing the fatal shot from a revolver behind his right ear in the Buntin funeral home about 12:55 Saturday afternoon. He died within an hour without regaining consciousness. It was plainly evident to his closest friends that he was temporarily unbalanced from worry, the cause of which is unknown.

As a young banker he took an active interest in West Texas banking circles serving as secretary of the Panhandle Bankers Association, and was its president at the time of his death. Many of the bankers were here for the last rites Sunday attesting the high esteem in which he was held by business associates. At a meeting of the Association at Pampa Monday, the members stood for a moment in his memory.

Besides his widow, a daughter, Jo Ellen and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kennedy, all of Clarendon, survive him.

Those attending the casket were Sam Dyer, Forest Taylor, C. J. Douglas, C. C. Powell, H. B. Kerbow and Meredith Gentry. Interment was made in Citizens cemetery.

COWBOYS GANG TOGETHER FOR ANOTHER FEED

Chuck Wagon And Songs Of Old Days Brings Cheer To Hardy Westerners

SWEETWATER, June 14th.—Some 75 old time and active cattlemen in the Sweetwater area last night around a chuck wagon dinner prepared by an old time wagon cook, with the equipment and box used by the late Jim Newman on his DZ Ranch in Texas and New Mexico, in 1882, formed an organization known as the Sweetwater Chuck Wagon, pledging themselves to perpetuate the traditions of the old cow outfits and to assist the younger generation of cattlemen in their work.

Among old timers present were a number of citizens who came to Nolan County in 1876 as cowboys or buffalo hunters, among them being Judge H. C. Hord, Tuck Focht and Ben Jones. Interesting talks were given by these old timers, and a description of the old R2 Range was given by Julian Moody, who was range boss for Worsham Cattle Company, owners of the R2, from 1882 to 1893.

Another interesting visitor was "Scandalous" John Selman, wagon boss for the SMS Flat Top Ranch in Throckmorton County, who was accompanied by W. G. Swenson, Ray Rector, Harley Stabel and William Owsley, all of Stamford. Mr. Selman made a very interesting talk on the operation of a cow outfit of modern times.

Officers elected were Tom L. Hughes, wagon boss, John M. Hendrix, wrangler, Horace Wade, cook, and Cap Newman, hoodlum.

A local implement concern presented the organization with a new wagon, and various other pieces of equipment that go to make up a complete chuck wagon were tendered by members.

The organization proposes to have a Spring and Fall round-up each year, and will send their wa-

Nature Comes Thru With Farm Relief

C. C. Elliot, whose farm is near Redwater in Bowie county, believes nature is doing double duty to help him beat the depression. Recently Elliot's cow presented him with twin calves. Now his farm mare has become the mother of twin mules, considered a rarity. While one of the twins is slightly larger than the other, both are normal. The picture shows Elliot, the mare and the little mules.

A building to house the valuable collection of Panhandle historical relics appears to be assured with only $2,000 lacking on a fund of $25,000 according to announcement made at a meeting of the Board of Directors held at Pampa Monday.

The state has already set aside $25,000 for the building. This sum is to be matched by popular subscription. The drive will continue until the required amount is obtained. The time limit expires July 1st.

Those attending the Board meeting were T. D. Hobart of Pampa, president; Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian; W. H. Patrick of Clarendon; H. M. Russell of Amarillo and L. F. Sheffey and J. A. Hill of Canyon.

THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS MUST DECIDE THE FATE OF TEXAS RAILROADS

● THE WELFARE of Texas and Texans has gone and will always go hand in hand with the welfare of Texas railroads. Their dependency upon each other is absolute.

In 1929 Texas railroads gave employment to 82,956 employees, to whom they paid annually $126,674,543 in salaries and wages. In 1930 this number decreased to 70,739 while the payroll declined to $109,892,226. In 1931 the number of employees fell to 57,098 and the payroll to $89,505,918.

This represents a decrease of more than $37,000,000 in purchasing power in Texas communities. There has been a corresponding decrease in purchase of materials and supplies by Texas railroads. The ability to have maintained railroad payrolls and purchases would have been a very important factor in overcoming the present trying economic condition.

The decline in railroad payrolls and purchases is due only in part to economic conditions. The revenues of the railroads have been affected not only by business conditions but to a very large extent by loss of traffic to trucks and buses using the public highways in competition with the railroads.

● The time has come when the people of Texas must decide whether the traffic of this state can best be carried by the railroads, using facilities which they built and maintain at their own expense, or by trucks and buses using the highways built and maintained at the taxpayers' expense.

That Soldier Debt.

That a great majority of our National Representatives and Senators have LIED LIKE A DOG regarding the Soldier's Bonus, is a foregone conclusion. They could have passed laws favoring the Soldier boys, just like Congressmen Patman intended that they should, but they listened to the whining of the Central Bank Bosses who told them "Hands Off" and they darn sure followed instructions. —Claude News.

Nepotism Practiced At Austin.

That the law against nepotism is being made a nullity by evasion is said by Representative Cox, of Lamar county, who made this charge in a speech before the last session of the legislature, may account for the probe that is now being conducted by the state efficiency committee. Representative Harry Graves, of Georgetown, member of the committee, says the committee is checking the records of the 14,000 employees of the state at Austin to ascertain to what extent nepotism is practiced by state officials. Graves states that it is not expected to find relatives of heads of departments employed directly by them, but it has been openly charged that the law against nepotism is violated by evasion. Just an exchange of courtesies—"you give my son, nephew, wife, or cousin a job in your department and I will employ yours in mine." This practice is not rare, according to reports from Austin, and a few convictions would be wholesome.

It seems that honesty among officials has become a lost art. We elect men to uphold the law, and for filthy spoils they brazenly violate their oath by evasion, if not directly.

But there will be a day of reckoning some time, and those officials who think more of money, gained by violating statutes, they have sworn to uphold, will be brought to an accounting. Disclosures in the federal congress of relatives of senators on the payroll of the government is a disgrace to the nation. The Scripps-Howard newspapers are turning on the light and exposing this system of petty larceny practiced by congressmen and senators, is causing the people to give more thought to these criminal practices. Even Senator Joe Robinson, whom the democrats nominated for vice president in 1928, was shown to have at least two of his relatives on the federal payroll, who render no service to the government; (and he is the democratic leader in the senate). One of Senator Robinson's beneficiaries is his brother-in-law, a banker, at Little Rock, who is drawing $2,500 annually for no service rendered. Another is his 50 year old mother-in-law, whose salary is $2,550. She is said to never be in Washington except when she visits the senator's family, but lives in Little Rock. It is said that the custom is general, and permissible under the federal laws, but it is a steal, nevertheless. So far as The Citizen is informed we have no federal anti-nepotism law, but we do have a law in Texas, and it applies to state, county, and municipal subdivisions of the state government, and even city officials who employ their relatives in other departments of the city are not immune from prosecution.

The state anti-nepotism law prohibits an official of the state, county, municipal or a district, employing, voting to confirm or voting pay for a person related to him within the second degree of affinity or third degree of consanguinity. The same bounds apply to trading in appointments of employees. The penalty is $100 to $3,000 fine. —Clisco Citizen.

AND YET—Joe Robinson, actual democratic leader in the national senate, says to "pay the soldier boys their remaining bonus would inflate the American dollar and bankrupt the national treasury." So says, also, Rainey, democratic leader in the house. If those two "guys"—not senator and congressman—were soured, head first, into a barrel of the bitterest gall, they would both come out unspotted from its effects for they are so completely nothing else but "gall"—they'd be immune!

—Leader, Henrietta, Texas

Freedom of Criticism.

The Constitution of Texas guarantees freedom of the press, but the libel laws and the libel policy of the courts are such as to rob the State of much of the benefit of that guarantee. That this is true is illustrated by the revelations of the audit of the affairs

Senator's Daughter

Miss Susan Sheppard of Texas, daughter of Senator Morris Sheppard, who was maid of honor to the Queen at coronation ceremonies at Greenbrier College, Lewisburg, W. Va. She has also been awarded a loving cup as the most representative student of the county of Dallas at this time. Conditions are now coming to light which Texans are accustomed to associate with the practices of a Tammany Hall under its worst leadership. Yet, when the newspapers began to insist upon an audit, they were compelled to advance their proposal in the most guarded language to avoid libel suits.

Under our unlovely system of jurisprudence a libel suit which the newspaper successfully defends is almost as costly to the newspaper as one which it loses. The monetary outlay, that is to say, is heavy, whether the suit is unjustly brought or not. If Texas journalism were free to level vigorous criticism against public officials the latter would be more circumspect in their conduct and Texas would be better served.

The News stands for responsible journalism. It is not inclined to muckraking and never has been. It does not feel that exposures are a proper method of building up circulation and reaping journalistic profit. It has in times past condemned the Pulitzer and Hearst standards of journalistic ethics and does not commend them now. But scorching criticism of the public life and official integrity of officers and candidates for office can be highly useful and at times is necessary. The News does not believe the doors should be thrown wide open for lying defamation, nor does it pretend that it is easy to strike a just balance between the law of libel and the law of free press; but it is clear that the public is not getting the protection of an alert and unshackled press. The value of that protection is the only real justification for any such constitutional guarantee to publishers of newspapers. —Dallas News.

Chorus Girls Jailed for Scant Costumes

After arresting six girls one time, and eight girls another, on a charge of indecent exposure at the Hippodrome Theatre, the City of Dallas finally fined one of the girls $5 and left the matter of whether "three gauze butterflies and a string of beads was sufficient clothing" still undecided. One officer testified that it wasn't the lack of clothes, but the way the girls danced that made the show indecent. Above are Lillian Scott and Alice Gregg, two of the Hippodrome girls, wearing considerably more than they had on the night they were arrested, if the officers' testimony was correct.

A World's Record

MORE than three thousand births without a single loss of either mother or child! That is the official Platt County record of Dr. W. B. Caldwell, in fifty years' family practice in Illinois.

No wonder mothers have such entire confidence in giving little ones Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin!

If you have a baby, you have constant need of this wonderful preparation of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs. A child who gets this gentle stimulant for the stomach, liver and bowels is always healthier. It keeps children's delicate systems from clogging. It will overcome the most stubborn condition of constipation. It builds them up, and is nothing like the strong cathartics that sap their strength and energy.

A coated tongue or bad breath is the signal for a spoonful of Syrup Pepsin. Children take it readily, for it is really delicious in flavor. Taste it! Take Syrup Pepsin yourself, when sluggish or bilious, or you are troubled with sick headaches and no appetite. Take some for several days when run-down, and see how it picks you up.

It is a prescription preparation which every drug store has ready; in big bottles, just ask anywhere for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Pain

Passes Off

When your head aches; when Neuralgia tortures you; when Muscular Pains make you miserable—take a Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pill.
Mr. Smith is one of millions who have found this easy way to prompt relief. He says:—
"I keep Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills in my pocket and when I get a dull heavy feeling in my head, I take a Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pill and the pain passes off."

OUR WEEKLY CHURCH CHAT

"Christ, Our Example"

It is highly important and desirable that our great High Priest should not only obtain for us the heavenly inheritance, but also go before us, in the path that leads to it. That He should not only describe Christianity in His discourses, but exemplify it in His life and conversation. This our blessed Saviour has done. In Him we see pure and undefiled religion embodied. In Him, Christianity lives and breathes. And how amiable, and how interesting does she there appear. How convincing, how animating is our Saviour's examples. How loudly, how persuasively does His conduct preach. How would you learn submission to parental authority? See Him, notwithstanding His exalted character, subjecting himself to the will of his parents, and laboring with them as a mechanic, for almost thirty years. Would you learn contentment with a poor and lowly condition? See Him, destitute of a place where to lay His head. Would you learn active beneficence? See Him, going about doing good. Would you learn to be fervent and constant in devotional exercises? See Him, rising for prayer before the dawn of day. Would you learn in what manner to treat your brethren? See Him, washing His disciples' feet. Would you learn filial piety? See Him, forgetting His suffering, while in the agonies of death, to provide another son for His desolate mother. Would you learn in what manner to pray for relief under affliction? See Him, in the garden. Would you learn how to bear insults and injuries? See Him, on the cross. In short, there is no Christian grace or virtue, which it was proper for a perfectly innocent being to possess, which is not exemplified in His life; and there is no situation, however perplexing, in which the Christian, may not derive sufficient instructions from the example of His divine Master.

The Master was interested in the souls of the people around Him and He gave His life that souls might be saved, and established the Church to carry on the program of soul winning. The church of today should follow His plan and evangelize the world for Him.

Sunday morning our subject will be: "Traveling for Souls." Sunday night our subject will be: "The Christians Hiding Place." Come, learn of Christ and His program.
W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church, Clarendon, Tex.

LOYALTY

Grant me the privilege of loyalty—
The grace to stand
Undaunted when my friends are needing me,
To hold the hand
Of him whom others doubt—and may I throw
Aside the darts
That travel carelessly from gossip's bow
And sever hearts.
Within my soul let understanding grow.

I would not be a friend when skies are blue
And turn away
To place devotion on an altar new
When skies are grey,
Quite humbly let me walk beside the friend
Who's needing me—
Content that I my sympathy might lend
That's loyalty—
To walk with friends on trails
when roses end.

DRY LAW REPEAL QUESTION APPEARS ON JULY BALLOT

State Democratic Executive Committee Met At Austin This Week

The voters in the July primary are to be permitted to express an opinion on whether Congress should submit a proposal to repeal the 18th Amendment according to the actions of State Committee-men in action at Austin Monday. The vote was 16 to 13 in favor of submission.

It is stated that separate ballots will be provided for voting on the "repeal" problem that members of other parties may participate in the election without binding themselves to support the Democratic candidates. An effort was made to bind voters in the primary to "support the nominees of the Democratic party this fall", but this pledge was declared to be in conflict with the statutes which prescribed a pledge that the voters agree only "to support the nominee of this primary."

The question of permitting colored citizens voting in the Democratic primary was passed up as the recent ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court precluded and possibility of excluding the colored voters from the white man's primary according to chairman W. O. Huggins of the State Committee.

Mrs. M. E. Bell Buried Here Saturday

Funeral services were conducted at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. B. Gentry Saturday for Mrs. Mitchell E. Bell who died at the Bell ranch the preceding day after a long illness. Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor of the First Methodist church was in charge of the services.

Mrs. Bell was first known as Tillie Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Nelson, born in Rhome, Wise county, Texas on September 11, 1873.

In 1892 Mr. Nelson moved his family to his ranch in the Panhandle where Mrs. Bell resided until her marriage to M. E. Bell in 1895. Since their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Bell have made their home in or near Clarendon.

Mrs. Bell is survived by her husband, Mitchell E. Bell, one daughter, Mrs. P. B. Gentry of Clarendon, and five sons who are Charles, Richard, Houston, Walter and Jack, all of whom reside in or near Clarendon. Other close relatives are two sisters, Mrs. John Grady and Mrs. Harry Weatherly. Mrs. Bell was a devoted Christian and led a quiet home life devoting her time and talent to the best interests of her family. To help the less fortunate and administer to the sick or distressed was considered a privilege by this noble woman whose many deeds of kindness will long be remembered by her legion of friends.

Famous Fishing Lakes Are Attracting Many

For many years disciples of Isaac Walton steal away to the famous fishing lakes near Lelia at the first intimation of the opening of spring. This season has been no exception. Nimrods have been on the job except for the time the lakes were closed for the spawning season.

The Johnson lake has been having a good run with plenty of luck for those who find joy in chasing the finny tribe. This lake is located west of Lelia and has always been a popular resort, with plenty of cat, croppie and bass.

Guy Taylor announces the opening of his choice lake next Sunday. His fishing resort has bass in abundance along with the well known varieties of croppie, perch and cat. The highway will be lined with eager fishermen and fishermen for the next several days. Cooking the lunch, and enjoying the out-of-door camp fires has been one of the pleasant experiences of hundreds.

Have You Read Exchange Column This Week

If you do not read the excerpts from other papers printed in the Leader each week under the heading of "With Our Exchanges," you are overlooking a fund of information on topics of interest to every citizen.

Turn to that column on page 6 in this issue right now and give the opinion of others a careful hearing. Petty graft is aired by a writer who revolts at the idea of legalizing a "drag" on the taxpayers by those who are supposed to serve us at Austin.

If you have wondered just why newspapers don't tell "more" about public men, that too, is fully explained under "With Our Exchanges" by the staid old Dallas News. It is a shame that rottenness cannot be exposed, but the libel law made by crooked politicians won't let us. There is only one way that this may be done; Go ahead with the exposure and depend on the Governor for a pardon because the newspaper men who dares to expose graft will be sentenced under the unjust libel laws that were made to protect rascals.

H D Club Needs Funds For Short Course Trip

Lions Hear Lengthy Report On State Convention

What Ira Merchant forgot in giving his version of the state convention of the Lions clubs at Dallas last week, G. L. Boykin and O. C. Watson made up for what was lacking.

Local delegates regard as their greatest achievement the fact that they secured the endorsement of Sam Braswell Sr. as a Texas candidate for a place on the national board. The election will be held at the national convention in Los Angeles in July.

Bankers Contribute Money To Historical Society

One thousand dollars was contributed to the Panhandle-Plains historical society Tuesday by the Panhandle Bankers association in session at Pampa. The bankers were thanked by T. D. Hobart, president of the Historical Society.

Tom F. Connally of Clarendon in speaking to the bankers deplored the fact that while premiums were paid on Panhandle wheat at Minneapolis, is so cheap in price that farmers cannot afford to produce it. He predicted a 411 million bushel crop over the nation as compared to 780 last season. He predicted a half crop for the Panhandle.

Those attending the bankers convention from Clarendon were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Swift and daughter Anna Moore Swift, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain, Miss Anna Moores, Miss Mary Jo Chamberlain, W. H. Patrick, Geo. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain, Wesley and Carroll Knorpp.

Suit is Filed Against Wheat Board

Suit was filed in the Federal Court at Amarillo Tuesday, the first of series in behalf of the wheat growers against the Chicago Board of Trade in which it is charged that the Board has entered into a conspiracy against the government and the wheat growers.

This suit was filed at the suggestion of Judge L. Gough, president of the Farmers Protective League and the expense is being born by free-will offerings of wheat growers and other farmers.

The case is styled L. Gough et al versus Ullman Grain Company, an Illinois corporation said to be a member of the Chicago Board of Trade. Relfer is asked for the farmers, and the names of the eight men alleged to manipulate the grain prices. Attorneys for the farmers in the prosecution of the suit are M. J. Baird of Plainview, Texas and Clayton & Bralley of Amarillo.

Narrow Escape in Accident Near Hedley

While driving on the highway near the D. Franklin farm east of Hedley Thursday night, J. B. Reed, constable of Hedley and two other men in a Ford sedan were struck head on by a Buick occupied by Fred Thompson and James Ware of Pampa.

Reed was driving on the right side and the collision in thought to have been caused by a muddy windshield on the Buick. Both cars were destroyed. The Pampa parties paid all damage Friday morning. Only slight damage was done the occupants of either car which is regarded as a near miracle by those who saw the wreck.

Frank Jackson, deputy sheriff of the Smith community mixed with friends here Wednesday while Mrs. Jackson was busy with the ladies of the H D clubs in a dress contest.

Flour is Received Saturday By Red Cross

Four hundred and twenty sacks of flour of forty-nine pounds each were received here Saturday from a Wichita Falls mill to be distributed by the Donley County Chapter of the Red Cross under the direction of the county chairman, Homer Mulkey.

Half of the flour was allotted to precincts Three and Four and will be distributed from Hedley. J. Less Hawkins furnished the truck and Chas. M. Lowery hauled the flour to Hedley. Louie Thompson and Chas. Lowery will have charge of the distribution of Red Cross flour at Hedley.

Distribution over Precincts One and Two will be made from Clarendon under the direction of Ralph Andis, J. H. Hurn, W. P. Cagle and Homer Mulkey.

Those in need are directed to apply to the above named gentlemen of their respective precincts when their wants will be cared for promptly.

Misses Nova Cook, Mary Naylor, Mamie Ruth Clark, Evelyn Nix, Delphia oBnes and Ina Naylor were Pampa visitors today.

Miss Lottie E. Lane of the J A ranch represented the Business and Professional Women's club of Clarendon in a state convention at Dallas recently.

Denzil R. Davis in Charge Of Rotary Program

A short but snappy program was carried out by Rotarians at their regular weekly luncheon hour Friday noon at Hotel Clarendon.

Denzil Davis had charge of the program that had many interesting points when each member related the benefits derived from Rotary. The experiences related added enthusiasm to the gathering resulting in increased benefits in an exchange of ideas.

Plans were completed for the presentation of the program before the Rotary club of Pampa Wednesday night.

The meeting was presided over by vice president Dr. Oscar L. Jenkins in the absence of the president.

The Vocational Service committee of which Dr. J. W. Evans is chairman, will have charge of the program for Friday of this week. Visiting Rotarians always invited.

Rev. L. L. Swan filled his regular appointments at Childress and Quanah Sunday reporting crop conditions unusually favorable throughout that section.

Soldier Payment Bill Is Approved by Congress

By a vote of 209 to 176 Congress approved the payment of $2,400,000,000 to the veterans of the World War Wednesday.

The Bill was immediately referred to the Senate for the approval of that body and the Senate Finance Committee of which Reed Smoot is chairman, is giving it consideration today (Thursday).

The supporters of the bill expect a harder fight in the Senate than in the House. Hoover has all along declared that he will veto the bill. In that case, it will have to make the rounds again and secure enough votes to carry it over his veto.

Every Congressman from Texas voted in favor of the passage of the bill except Lanham and Sumners.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemons of Amarillo visited relatives in Clarendon Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Matthews of Ft. Worth is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. L. Boykin and family this week.

Well Defined Plans

Fortunately for them and for us, our citizens are learning the value of diversification. The one crop plan has been succeeded by poultry and dairy products that bring in a weekly pay check.

Experience has taught us that the most successful farmers are those who plan to have something to market all through the season.
