DISGRACE AND MURDER—

It appears to be a disgrace to propose a county office salary reduction, and to be willing to make the race for that same office knowing it will be reduced $1020 a year, is little short of murder in the estimation of politicians used to fat salaries.

AMARILLO MAN WINS FIRST PLACE IN GOLF MEET

Ninety-Eight Players From Thirteen Towns Enter Golf Tournament

Elliot Hatch, Amarillo ace golfer was the class of the field of 98 golfers representing 13 towns and won the Annual Invitational Tournament here Monday when he defeated Reginald Greenhaw of Memphis 3-1 in an 18 hole final match. In winning, Hatch displayed the most dazzling exhibition of golf ever seen over the local course. His card for the 72 holes of match play was 13 under par. His best performance came Sunday morning when he carded a 32-34 to set a course record and dispose of Jimmy Gamewell, Canyon 7-6. Hatch's next parade of pars and birdies was against Al Cooke, who succumbed 3-2 and the triumphant march continued against Dick Cooke who earned the right to meet Hatch with a sensational win over R. V. West of Memphis. Greenhaw, the 19 year old sensation of Memphis and runner-up in the recent Green Belt tournament, displayed a brilliant brand of golf and overcame stiff competition to fight his way to the finals. In his match Sunday morning, he eliminated the veteran W. H. Cooke 6-5 and in the afternoon round defeated a fellow-townsmen, Frank Foxall, 4-3. He won his way to the finals with a 7-6 victory over Ira Merchant who had previously defeated Jim Smith of Shamrock and Mark Heath of Pampa.

The other flights provided their share of the thrills for the players and galleries alike as some sensational golf was displayed through out all flights. The second flight honors were awarded to P. B. Gentry who defeated Dick Tucker of Tulla in the finals. M. P. Gen- (continued to back page)

Cows Make High Cream Test On Field Pea Diet

That ordinary peas ground into feed for dairy cows is a decidedly good investment has been amply proven by experiments conducted by Mr. R. W. Fowlkes of the Chamberlain community. Mr. Fowlkes having an extra amount of peas on hand, and finding no ready market for them at a fair price, conceived the idea of converting them into cow feed. He had a quantity ground for a test and was surprised to find that cream from cows fed pea meal tested 60 and as high as 64. He expects to continue the method this season.

This report is given readers of the Leader that others might find a profitable market for peas through the cream sale method rather than dumping them on the market at a price below production costs.

Voters Warned How to Mark Ballot July 23rd

Warning is being given by W. P. Cagle, county chairman of the Democratic party, that voters should not mark an X in front of their favorite candidate on the ballot in voting. He states that it is necessary to mark across or through the names of those the voter does not want to cast his vote for, and that any other method will render the ballot void.

Big Bass Being Taken From Guy Taylor Lake

Dr. C. W. Gallaway is the last disciple of Isaac Walton to report a big bass catch at Taylor lake. His fish measured 19 1/2 inches in length and weighed better than four pounds.

Other large catches have been reported of this toothsome variety, some even larger than that mentioned above by parties from Memphis. All of the lakes near Lelia are attracting attention and most of those trying their luck get a reasonable amount of satisfactory catches.

Miss Naomia Allison is visiting relatives and friends in Dallas.

Windy Valley Citizens Show Candidates Good Time

A. H. Bowling was master of ceremonies during the candidate speaking at Windy Valley school house Saturday. He was assisted by Virgil Morris who kept the 'score card.'

Following the speaking, the ladies served free lemonade and cake of best quality. Contributions of about sixteen dollars were made to the song book and light equipment fund by the candidates and others.

One of the pleasant features of the evening was Bill Walling and his fiddle with his daughter, Mrs. Reed at the piano. Both are talented musicians and the crowd enjoyed the fine music very much.

Despite the rainy weather, a large crowd was present. The building is of such a size as to accommodate most any sized crowd serving the community on most any occasion. There was a fine spirit of wholesome neighborly feeling and this meeting is one of the most pleasant left in the memory of the candidates.

Pie Supper at Goldston Saturday Night

Having been rained out on a previous occasion, the ladies of the Goldston community will have a pie supper at the Goldston school house Saturday night of this week.

This affair is being given for the benefit of the 4-H club girls to pay the expense of a delegate to the Short Course.

All candidates are especially invited to be present and speak to the voters. The public at large is also invited. There will be plenty of old-time music.

LADIES AID OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH BREAK RECORDS

Thousands of Dollars Raised For Church Benefit Over Ten Year Period

The Leader is indebted to Mrs. Eva Humphrey, secretary of the Christian Ladies Aid of the First Christian church for the excellent report in this article.

The Aid was organized in 1897, the year following the construction of the first church building of which Rev. H. M. Bandy, now of Wellington, was pastor. The charter members were Mrs. C. Lee, now of Amarillo, Mrs. Brindley, now deceased, Mrs. Jim Sadler, Mrs. Denson, Mrs. Hartman now deceased, Mrs. W. F. Grant of Amarillo, Mrs. J. A. Thompson of Lelia Lake who is an active worker in the cause to this date.

Officers of the Aid at present are: president, Mrs. W. E. Ferrell; vice president, Mrs. Frank White Sr.; treasurer, Mrs. G. A. Anderson; secretary-reporter, Mrs. R. E. Paxson.

Through the ten-year period, these ladies have served meals at banquets and such other help as they could render in accumulating funds for their church. The record of raising a total of $9,928.57 during the ten years, is said to be a record breaker considering the fact that the number of workers has been very limited.

The years and amounts raised are: 1922-23, $1339.18; 1923-24, $1134.23; 1924-25, $1613.86; 1925-26, $1199.04; 1926-27, $911.93; 1927-28, $1048.24; 1928-29, $859.01; 1929-30, $846.33; 1930-31, $593.53; 1931-32, $353.22, making a total of $9,928.57.

Candidates to Gather At Martin Tonight

The members of the Home Demonstration club of the Martin community are to entertain the candidates at the teacherage this Thursday night. An announcement of this gathering was made in the Leader of last week.

Ice cream and cake will be served and the funds from such sale will be used to pay the expense of a delegate to the Short Course.

Mrs. A. W. McLean of San Antonio is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Powell and also sisters, Mrs. W. H. Condon and Miss Ann Bobo

Picture From Tree-Top of Guadalupe River on Rampage

Here is the swollen Guadalupe river, near Kerrville, Texas, which rose 30 feet, caused half a million dollars damage and latest reports are that four were drowned. Two others were drowned at Frio, Texas, and the body of an unidentified infant was washed up on the Neches river. The picture above shows the Guadalupe a raging torrent. The photographer climbed into a tree to take it.

Naylor Citizens Entertain With Picnic Monday

Among those to celebrate the Fourth Monday, citizens of Naylor gathered on the river in the Rowe pasture where neighbors enjoyed the fellow of neighbor. Candidates also had an opportunity to meet the voters.

Practically all of the county candidates were present though speaking was dispensed with and the time given to eating ice cream and cake prepared by the ladies of the Home Demonstration club of Naylor.

The funds accumulated through contributions of the candidates and other friends, will be used to pay expenses of a delegate to the Short Course at College Station.

Misses Maud and Nina Crawford are visiting in Amarillo this week.

Med Barton of Hall County Found Dead Monday

A verdict of death by gunshot self inflicted followed an inquest over the body of Med Barton, farmer of near Parnell whose body was found beside a gun Monday morning.

He was formerly a county commissioner of that county and owned extensive land interests. The funeral was held from the Methodist church at Hulver Monday afternoon.

Miss Jesse Ingram is visiting in Dallas this week.

Large Crowds Watch Rodeo Performers Both Days

The rodeo boys, Lloyd Shelton and Cleo Norwood, put on a show that drew good crowds and a show that exceeded expectations for the short time the boys had to whip matters into shape.

Quite a bit of skill developed for public inspection in the various events though some of the best talent was unable to deliver due to a difference of the range as compared to performing before a crowd.

Winners and events: Calf roping; first average, 39 & 28 1/2 — Nash Blasingame. Second average, 35 & 38 seconds

Goat roping; first average, 26 & 25 seconds, Leslie Bueh, second average, Johnnie Rex McClellan.

Steer break away; first average, Cleo Norwood, 10 & 10 seconds, second, Loyd Johnson 12 & 9 3-5.

Wild cow milking; first average, George Smith 82 1/2 & 42 seconds, second average, Rex Long 59 -68 1/2

Saddle horse race; Lu McClellan, first; Roy Blackwell, second.

Kid pony race; Hollis Evans, 1st, D. C. Shelton, second.

Steer riding contest, Dale Morris

The best all-round cowboy had not been selected. A list of the winners and prizes may be seen at Norwood's pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Nored and children and his brother Arnold Nored of Walters, Okla. left Wed. for Creed, Colorado where they will spend three weeks in vacation and fishing.

Baltimore Man And Horse Unhappy Pair

Deputy Sheriff Ike Rains had a novel experience the past week in tracing down a fellow who had taken a horse from the Dick Allen farm west of town. The party was traced to an old shack north of Memphis where he had 'stored' the horse out of sight. Mr. Rains returned his man to the local jail where he awaits further judgment on taking a horse that did not belong to him.

The man stated that he had started back to Baltimore astride a bareback steed ornamented with a blind bridle. The officer evidently thought that the man would have been arrested in Baltimore for riding a blind bridle attached to a horse anyway, and he would save him the trouble for a long trip by arresting him in Texas.

Hen Boosts For Roosevelt And Garner Ticket

In bringing to the Leader office two twin eggs Wednesday, Dr. G. W. Shoffitt, local veterinarian, announced that the twin eggs represented Roosevelt and Garner and assured their election by the freak method of prediction.

The hen laying the twin eggs is of the ordinary mixed breed. The eggs were well shaped except that each of the two were joined together 'eggsactly' alike.

Members of the local Legion Post got out a good attendance Tuesday evening with plenty of eats and a good time for every one.

The election of officers was the one big feature. Ralph Kerbow was elected Post Commander to succeed Nathan Cox who saw the membership break all records during his administration.

Other officers elected were: C. Huffman, 1st Vice Commander; Joe Holland, 2nd Vice Commander; R. M. (Dick) Chunn, Chaplain; Sergeant-at-Arms, Tom Tucker; Liaison Officer, Chas. B. Trent; Service Officer, C. J. Douglas.

Committeemen elected were E. R. Andis, E. L. Hunt and C. E. Miller. These boys have about the biggest job of all in that they are responsible for the success of more things in connection with the success of the Post's activities.

A vote of thanks was given the newspapers of Clarendon for the publicity given the meeting in helping to swell the attendance.

Candidates Are to Speak In Clarendon

The candidates for county and district offices will be given an opportunity to meet and speak to the people of Clarendon at an ice cream social at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, July 12, beginning at 8 p. m. on the church lawn.

The candidates are to be the guests of the Woman's Auxiliary, and will not be permitted to make any donations or contributions.

The citizens of Clarendon are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to meet and hear the candidates.

CANDIDATES TO HEAR SERMON BY REV. W. E. FERRELL

Service at Christian Church Sunday Evening, July 17th Something Different

Amid the many calls that have come to the candidates for the various offices in Donley county, comes an invitation from the First Christian Church bidding each and every candidate to be present at a special service which will be conducted for them Sunday evening, July 17th.

The candidates have been conducting meetings and speaking all over the county for the past few weeks, and Rev. W. E. Ferrell, the minister of this church, feels that they are entitled to a special program and is arranging one for their benefit. He believes that the real test of every religious, political or educational system is the man that it grows. His subject will be: "The Duties of an American Citizen" and he promises some very interesting lessons for both "Candidates" and "Voters". There are duties and obligations for all parties to consider, lessons that should be instilled into the thinking of everyone.

Every American citizen should do all in his or her power to perpetuate the civic and religious blessings which are theirs by birth right, and to hand down unimpaired to the latest posterity those free institutions under which it is their privilege to live.

The invitation to attend this service is extended to everyone and the candidates are especially urged to be present.

Candidates Speak Friday Night at Hudgins

The ladies of the Hudgins community are asking the candidates out to a pie supper Friday night of this week. They announce the sale of pies for the purpose of raising funds with which to help purchase a lighting equipment for the school house.

The entire public as well as candidates are invited to be present and enjoy the speaking and music, as well as the pies.

Miss Mamie Price of Canyon visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Price over the week end.

Young Folks Are Growing Melons For Cash Crop

Melons, both watermelons and canteloupes from Donley county, have an established reputation for quality. The soil and climate are admirably adapted to the growing of both.

On the J. N. Riley farm in the Sunnyview community, his daughters Kathleen and Lina are growing three acres of melons this season. Glenn, a young son, has an acre, while Mr. Riley himself has seven acres.

The canteloupe crop on the Riley farm was badly damaged by the recent heavy rains when flooded, but the watermelons promise a good yield at this time. The melon crop of Donley county brings in the cash at a mid-season period and these young people are to be commended for their industry in taking advantage of the situation.

Pioneer Resident Seriously Ill At Home Here

The many friends of the venerable Judge J. C. Killough will regret to learn that he is very low at his home here at this time. His condition is said to be due to advanced age.

Judge Killough has been a resident of Clarendon for more than thirty years, served Donley county as county judge, and has been identified with an abstract business here for a long number of years.

Burglars Make Haul From Goldston Store

Some time during the hours of 9 to 11:30 Sunday night, unknown burglars went through a window and removed from the Hill-Mixon store at Goldston a variety of goods estimated to be worth around $175.

Shirts, silk hose, cigarettes, gum and numerous other articles were taken as well as about $6 in cash. Some shirts were dropped at the window which would indicate that the burglars were scared off. The sheriff's office is investigating and have a description of the two men and the car.

Deception.
Our national lawmakers are heavy on "boneheads" and light on bonuses.

Prosperity (?)
A few years ago a dozen eggs would pay for three gallons of gas. Today it takes nearly three dozen to pay for one gallon.

Equality.
That "all men are created equal" is one of those things that we talk about, few of us believe, and still fewer practice.

Political Lies.
When a man "running" for office has so little to commend him, that he is forced to lie about his opponent to find something to talk about, it is high time for the voters to turn such a fellow down flat, and they usually do.

Are We Civilized?
In all the history of man, dating back 3,421 years, there have been only 268 years of peace, against 3,153 years of war, while approximately 8,000 peace treaties have been concluded during that time, according to the Society of International Law. In other words, we have had war one day out of every three and a half days since the history of the human family began.

Experts.
This world is full of experts. We have experts to check experts and experts to check them. They are thicker than flies around a molasses barrel. We used to be over-awed by experts, but since the depression, we have about to come to the conclusion that most of them are a useless bunch of junk. We need common sense, sympathetic understanding and energy to get the job done.

In Arkansas.
Petitions for the initiation of the proposed constitutional amendment to prohibit further state high way bond issues, except by authority of a vote of two-thirds of the voters of the state, are being circulated in Arkansas to be filed with the Secretary of State by July 8th that the measure may be submitted to the voters in the November election. Forty-two percent of the farm area of that state is being advertised for sale at this time under the delinquent tax law.

Unselfishness.
Of course some might class unselfishness as something radical in this age, but there is more to be considered. It is here that faith steps in and the Sovereignty of God lays hold upon men's lives and true character is born. Character after all, rests first upon the Fatherhood of God. When a man once forgets God, it is not long until he forgets that consideration due his fellow-beings, and then comes the final denouncement in even losing faith in himself.

Nation's Tax Bill.
The entire agriculture farm, ranch and dairy production for 1931 if sold at prevailing prices, would not be enough to pay the cost of government six months. If all of the foreign war debts were paid this nation right now, we would not have enough money to operate the government but seven months at the rate we are traveling.

It is plainly evident to the average citizen that if our nation is to survive, costs must be reduced. Salary reduction from top to bottom, the elimination of political pets and relatives in lucrative positions, the stoppage of useless waste in every avenue, are but a few of the many savings that help.

Preachers vs Robots.
A robot is that mechanical man without life and soul, a product of the inventive genius of this age. Some ministers become in a me-sure ecclesiastical robots arming themselves with a "sermonette" memorized from a book that is wholly without inspiration, force or effect. It is mechanical in its makeup, and falls far short of the purpose for which it is intended. People during these distressing times forsake the "robot" for the shepherd who loves humanity—who has heard the "still small voice" that embodies all the promises and rewards of our Creator throughout the ages. A noted divine who spends his life in daily tasks in the service of humanity has said that "as long as mourners go about the streets, as long as children cry for love and bread, as long as age totters on a crutch toward the setting sun and strong men cringe under the lash of a guilty conscience, as long as hope sings in the dark and human minds clutch at the flaming mysteries of life and destiny, so long will the living herald of Christ be secured of a place of usefulness and esteem among men."

IVY E. DUNCAN

TO THE CITIZENS OF DONLEY COUNTY:
On July 23rd you will again go to the polls to select a man to represent Donley County in the next legislature which convenes in January. I am offering to serve in this capacity.

I am not sure how you feel, but I have come to the conclusion that we have been too lax in the selection of the men whom we have sent to our legislative halls, with power and authority to tax ourselves, who could not appreciate these taxes because they have very little or no taxes to pay. In making this statement I am not casting any reflections on any particular persons or any particular tax-body, but I do know that my taxes have increased from a nominal amount to a sum that is hard to pay, and this does not include the taxes that one pays when he purchases many of the useful and necessary things of everyday life. As far as I am concerned, this reckless spending is at an end and, although we have certain State institutions that must be maintained, I think their expenditures can be held within their incomes as well as a business run on an efficient basis.

Gray County is the most densely populated of any of the four counties of this district. Her oil and gas resources at this time are greater than any other county in the Panhandle. There is much development to take place in each of the four counties of this district. There will be much important legislation concerning these mineral resources and their development at this next session and, unless one has been engaged in this business, he has no idea of the results of his legislative efforts. I think it not unfair or selfish for Gray County to have a citizen as representative at this time. Incidentally, I am a lawyer by profession, interested in oil and gas production, wheat farming, cattle raising and banking, and the owner of real estate and know what an ad valorem tax is. I am chiefly concerned about governmental expense and the reducing thereof and, in particular, am I interested in seeing all state highways paid for out of the gasoline tax rather than being partly paid for out of an ad valorem tax assessed against the property of the citizens of the county.

If elected, will give you a practical representation, and if you care for me to serve you, leave my name on the ballot.

Respectfully,
Ivy E. Duncan

Government Then And Now

"Instead of a government of the people, for the people and by the people, we have a government of the bureaus, for the bureaus, by the bureaus. This has been brought about by the demand we have upon our government for service. Now we think the government should support the people. . . .

"The Interstate Commerce Commission now employs about 2,000 persons. In one year its hearings equaled the total number of words in the Encyclopedia Britannica. One of its investigations, undertaken at the direction of Congress cost $20,000,000 and in addition the railroads had to pay more than $200,000,000, to secure the information it needed in that particular investigation. . . .

"The government undertakes now to tell the housekeeper how to keep house, the storekeeper how to keep store, and the farmer how to farm. Intricate information is given about bed sheets, window shades, the knotty problems of jammed doors, vending machines for hot dogs, the habits of frogs. It would seem useless to have any information concerning frogs, since we have all assumed their habits and are jumping from bank to bank. . . .

"The modern idea is to regulate everything and everybody in professional and business life, and to furnish every medium of service which the individual would furnish himself, and to tax him for such services as might be provided. . . .

"The government at its inception sought to encourage individual effort and to protect the citizen in the enjoyment of his property.

JUDGE A. B. MARTIN

Present Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo and candidate for the nomination to succeed himself at the ensuing Democratic primary.

Now the government is invading the rights of the private citizen by entering into the field of business and professions in competition with him. . . .

"There can be no stability in business until the government has been stabilized. There are three ways in which a budget may be balanced. One is to borrow money and thus postpone the evil day. Another is to increase the income which can be done only by increased taxation. The third is the reduction of governmental expense. . . .

"The financial stability of the federal government has been that to be like the rock of Gibraltar. But it is now, by ever-increasing expenditures, creating a deficit so enormous and startling as to challenge the thought and patriotism of every citizen. It is time to call a halt and return to the principles of government of the people, for the people and by the people. . . .

"The people must get back in the saddle. They must rule. They must do away with useless and unnecessary governmental services. They must return to Individualism and forever banish Communism from our national and state programs. Private property, private business and private effort must be protected. The government must return to governmental functions and retire from business and commercial competition with the citizens. . . .

"Politics And Preachers"
(Baptist Standard)

The Baptist Standard is utterly opposed to preachers frittering away their lives with matters belonging to politics. If a preacher does not consider his ministry higher and more important than to be president of the United States, he should reevaluate the ministry. This does not refer especially to the eloquent and learned pastor of an influential First Church, but equally to the pastor of a small church in a rural district.

There was once a preacher in a poor, rocky country whose ministry was like that of an association missionary among Baptists. He paid no attention whatever to the politics of his day. The government under which he lived was despotic and horribly corrupt. Human life was worth little while corruption, graft, and violence were rampant everywhere. The people had no rights that the government felt bound by any sort of obligation to respect. And still, in the midst of it all, we look in vain in his ministry for a program of reformation of the government. He had ONE THING to do—be an expounder of the divine government; both in its unswerving justice and unflinching mercy towards sincere, penitent believers. He changed the governments of the world—by being a preacher.

The churches have no business in politics. They should stay out of politics. Those seeking the same office in different political parties should be made to feel at home in any church service anywhere, on any Lord's day. Protestants and Baptist object to Roman Catholic priests in politics. Then let Protestant and Baptist preachers stay out. They are "citizens," surely, as individuals, but not as ministers. Let them vote or express their opinions as citizens, but not involve their religion with their citizenship in the minds of those to whom it is their duty to minister the eternal things from God.

Bad men are not going to be good in politics. Only religion can change bad men's hearts. Revival meetings will do the country more good than political campaigns. The thing for preachers to do is to keep on preaching. Just preach the Good News. Tell of salvation and how well men ought to live every day. Keep making individuals good through their surrender to Jesus Christ and consequent change of heart. By this method lives will be reformed, homes revolutionized, commerce transformed and governments made better. Religion works social betterment, not political revolution—and does it indirectly through spiritual life from God, regeneration of individuals, the new birth.

Let the preachers and churches stay on the gospel job faithfully, and all life, both individual and social, will be more and more conformed to the will of God.

WHAT THE NEW TAXES MEAN

A recent Associated Press dispatch from Washington gave an interesting insight into what the new revenue bill will mean to the wage earner.

A married business man with one child, having a net income of $6,000, will pay an income tax of the Federal government of $124 as against $23.63 in the past. If he buys a $600 automobile he will have to pay a new tax of $18 plus 60 cents for taxes on tires, etc. If he uses 700 gallons of gasoline during the year and 30 gallons of lubricating oil, he will pay a tax of $8.20, in addition to state gas and oil taxes. If his wife gets a $200 fur coat the tax will be $20.

If he makes home brew he will pay about $3 in taxes on malt. His wife's perfumes, powder, etc., will cost another $3. If he buys a $75 radio and pays $100 for an electric refrigerator, the taxes will be $3.75 and $5, respectively. He will pay increased taxes on cameras, electricity, matches, the telephone and a hundred other commodities and services. If he spends $2 a week for shows and movies, the Treasury will get $10 from him by the end of the year.

His total direct taxes will be about $310, as against about $174 under the old rate—an increase of $236.

It looks as if the new bill will fatten depleted Treasury—but it's going to make a deep hole in the public pocketbook. And these taxes are only beginning unless definite steps are taken to curb the expense of government, the cost of which increases like compound interest as the number of public employes grow.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH By the Apostle

And here's the old Apostle as he listened in on the Chicago Democratic convention, only he did not stay up all night. Well, they had to nominate Roosevelt on a Smith platform to make peace. To further insure McAdoo's support, they arranged to let him rub it in on Smith for what Smith did in blocking the nomination of McAdoo eight years ago. They let Garner have the nomination to keep Texas from going Republican again. It looks like a perfect political arrangement all round. Politics is a great thing.

We'll please rise and sing, "It ain't Garner rain no more."

H. E. Hoover of Canadian claims to have a police dog that helps out a lot on his fishing trips. When his owner dozes off on a nap, and the cork bobs, the dog yelps to warn his owner that there is something doing. In fact the louder the yelp the bigger the fish. Some dogs just naturally have more sense than some men. That's why most dogs won't take to fishing.

The GW arrived home the glorious Fourth expecting to catch the old Apostle on one of these famous campaign story drunks. Instead, he was on the river eating ice cream and cake with the Naylor folks. She won't ever believe it, but it's a fact.

While down there she took in one of the old-fashioned fruit suppers in Jack county. The kind where they serve elder berries in a saucer and the folks kneel around the table. I can't say much for the berries, but they do have fine rich cream down there. Some use rocks for chairs but most of 'em use boxes or go without. Well, they went without where she saw the fruit supper. She was the last to leave the table on account of it taking her twenty minutes to kneel down, and never would have been down yet but they moved the table.

Her nine brothers and sisters have been having more trouble. Her brother's wife, affectionately known as "Aunt Dynamite" because of her explosive disposition, was trying to tighten a lid on a can of corn and what that corn did to her was something pitiful. The corn exploded in her face and

$300,000 El Paso Fire Injuries 14 Firemen

More than $300,000 damages was done when this quarter of a block of downtown El Paso was destroyed by fire, and 14 firemen were injured fighting the blaze. It took nine hours to completely subdue the flames. Police and fire authorities are investigating, believing the fire might have been of incendiary origin. A clothing store, photo shop, jewelry and paint stores and many offices went up in smoke.

when she had time to spit out the corn, Aunt Dynamite exploded. Her old man roosted on the woodpile for a week because she accused him of framing her with the can of corn to collect life insurance.

When the GW made peace in the corn explosion family, she beat it home to take a look at her own reckless brood. After being gone about two weeks, some of the family kinda acted like they were glad to see her come back. There's one thing the Apostle is glad about, and that is that he ain't Aunt Dynamite's husband if her face looks anything like what the GW says it does.

KEEPING "HOME FIRES BURNING"

Prospects for a good crop of feed and food products at this time are most encouraging. There is every evidence that our citizens recognize the importance of "living at home" by producing more of life's necessities on the farm.

Feed for the stock and foods prepared and stored for future use is the best idea for protection against want.

ZONE S. S. and B. T. S. PICNIC AT LELIA LAKE
Monday evening, a happy group of some 175 people from Hedley, Lelia, and Clarendon met on the lawn of the Lelia Lake school house for a picnic celebrating the 4th of July.

The workers at Lelia planned and directed the entertainment. When all had arrived, the crowd was divided into three groups, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior-Adult with leaders in charge of each group.

With the Senior and Adult group the autograph hunt banished all stiffness and resulted in a number of new acquaintances. If there was still any lingering memory of the depression the pillow relay banished it. In that and the succeeding contests, the Senior and Adults were pitted against one another. Needless to say, an intense rivalry soon appeared.

One of the high points of the evening was the bear race between the preachers as their supporters cheered them.

With appetites whetted by the out-door exercise, the group needed no second call when the picnic lunch had been spread.

J. H. RAMSEY

Another of Donley county's and one of the Panhandle's oldest settlers slipped away Friday July 24, when Joseph Henry Ramsey died here at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. A. Toomb. Harry as he was called by intimate friends was born in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, March 30, 1857.

He moved to Texas with his parents when he was twelve years of age and located near Austin. It was there that he secured the job to drive a stage coach from Austin to San Angelo and then to El Paso. From El Paso Mr. Ramsey piloted a stage to Tascosa for a number of years. He worked on several well known ranches and finally was coachman for a Mr. Whitman on the L. S. Ranch until the owner's death.

While a young man, Mr. Ramsey's mother bought several lots on the new Clarendon townsite and established one of the first businesses ever in the new city. The firm was established in a tent and was operated by the deceased. Mr. Ramsey also worked for the

MY PLATFORM

I believe in the strictest economy in county government, and for the reduction of operating costs to an absolute minimum.

I shall, if elected, oppose all expenditures under existing conditions that are not absolutely necessary.

I am opposed to the issuance of warrants of any kind unless authorized by a vote of the people.

I am opposed to the issuance and sale of county bonds under any circumstances so long as the farmers, who are the largest taxpayers, are compelled to sell their products at starvation prices.

If elected your county judge, I pledge to you my independent and unprejudiced judgment, and that my actions will not be dictated by any individual, or group of persons, and that in all matters I will be guided by what I believe to be the wishes of the majority opinion of the citizens of the county.

I shall not be bound by the conduct of, or precedent set by any previous county judge or administration, except as my policy may be directed by economy and common sense.

I believe that the taxpayers of Donley county are entitled at all times to full and accurate information concerning county affairs.

I believe that a complete audit should be made of all county records yearly that the taxpayers may know the condition of county funds and how county officials have discharged their duties.

I believe that Donley county taxpayers should be given the right of a competitive bid on all county purchases, and given the preference over foreign bidders.

When cotton was selling around 40 cents in 1919, the salary of the office of county judge of Donley county was raised from $1100 to $1500. In 1929, when cotton was selling around 10 cents, the salary was raised to $2100. This raise was said to have been made necessary as the county judge was also ex-officio county superintendent of schools. On January 1st, 1931 the office of county superintendent of schools was separated from that of the county judge. Although cotton was selling around 5 cents, the salary was raised another $120 and the office has been paying $2220 since that date despite the separation of offices and the depression.

Believing that the taxpayers are paying too much salary in this office, I pledge myself to the voters of Donley county that, if elected, to ask the County Commissioners to reduce the salary to $1200 per year thus saving the taxpayers $1020 on that one item alone.

If conditions do not improve during the next few months, the salary should be reduced even more in proportion to the income of the taxpayers and their ability to pay.

During times like this, citizens must do team work. There should be a closer cooperation between the officials who serve and those who pay the salaries.

As publisher of the Donley County Leader, I have at all times published facts regardless of the consequences. I have told you the truth when I was not always making friends of every one who read it. I believe in dealing fairly with the public in all matters however distasteful it might be to a few.

More Views of Kerrville Flood

The airplane view above shows the city of Kerrville, built on a hill by the Guadalupe river. The swollen condition of the stream, which took four lives and did $500,000 damage over the week-end, is plainly shown. The lower photo, taken two miles below Kerrville on July 3 shows how the water spread out for miles, inundating everything. At this point the water had to be 40 feet above normal to reach the windows of the house in the foreground, according to its owner, M. Meadows.

"Humility"

Humility is a flower of a plant set by divine hand. The heathen world knew nothing about this virtue. God delights in this outstanding virtue—humility. He is; "nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit" Psa. 34:18.

Our divine Master frequently taught and exemplified this fine virtue. He said: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" Matt. 5:3. He frequently commended humility, and said: "Every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted" Luke 14:14. Except ye turn and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven" Matt 18:3. He took a towel, girded Himself, poured water into a basin and washed His disciples' feet, John 13:4,5. Peter wrote: "All of you gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another; for God resisteth the proud but giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time. I. Pet. 5:5,6.

It is to be feared that, oft time, humility is sadly lacking, and instead, there is much contention for place, desire for pre-eminence. Many would far rather stand receiving the plaudits of their followers, than, like the Master, bend at their feet as a slave.

To cultivate this virtue, men need to fix their thoughts upon the Lord. Not that there is much virtue in the recognition of our littleness. "It is no great humility for a fly to esteem itself nothing in comparison to a mountain; nor for a drop of water to hold itself nothing in comparison of the sea; nor for a spark of fire to hold itself nothing in respect to the sun." Yet it is well to place ourselves along side of Omnipotence, for thoughts of God's greatness leads to a deep consciousness of our nothingness.

Sunday morning, our subject will be: "HUMILITY" and we hope to bring a lesson regarding this great virtue that you will long remember. Sunday night, our subject will be: "NEGLECT" and this is a very interesting lesson for everyone.

RICHARD WISCHKAEMPER

TO THE VOTERS OF DONLEY, GRAY, WHEELER, AND COLLINGSWORTH COUNTIES:

"The farmer knows about as much about politics as a jackass." The man that said that is engaged in business in a nearby town. I felt he was taking his mouth rather too full. But this is a free country, and free speech is vouchsafed especially its citizens.

But give the devil his due. The farmer and the ranchman represent the basic industry in Donley County. There would be no living or making of a living if they were suddenly wiped from the map. Coyotes and prairiedogs would once more take the field. The farmer and the ranchman are the sole producers of new wealth. They are not swappers of wealth already produced. They are producers of NEW wealth.

And yet, 80 percent of every tax dollar paid in is paid by them. Who'll tell the reason? Anyone still having the sense that he was born with will know that land that you can't fold up and put in an envelope and put in strong box, is only too easily made to bear the burden and does bear the burden. Maybe the farmer doesn't know more about politics than a jackass. If he did know more it is possible the fellow who undertook to catalog us farmers wouldn't be quite so mouthy, and he would be bearing somewhat more of the tax burden; and we would have a somewhat better stake in the game of making a living.

When West Coast Bonus Marchers Called Halt at Sweetwater

Travel-weary, hungry bonus marchers, 1,000 strong, broke their long trek from California Friday and Saturday when they stopped at Sweetwater, Texas, to rest. About 500 arrived on a fast freight train and an additional 400 or more came in 150 automobiles. Here is a large part of the bonus army leaving the train in the station at Sweetwater.

It has been ascertained that 51 1/2 percent of the wealth of the state consists of intangibles and that in 1930 only 1 1/2 percent was rendered for taxation and in 1931 less than 1 percent was rendered. Do you see how it is that land is bearing 80 percent of the tax burden? The farmer's taxes since the war have gone up 172 percent.

Let us give the devil his due. As I go thru the country in the interests of my campaign as candidate for state representative, I find men seventy years old sitting on the godewill all day trying to make a go of their business during this desperate year. They tell they haven't paid their taxes and that this is the first time in their lives that such a compromising inability has come upon them. These seventy year old grad head farmers and their younger successors did not bring on this galling depression. It was other men, and other forces that did that. And yet it is these men who now for first time in their long and useful lives can't pay their taxes—it is their land that bears 80 percent of the tax load. For a comparison, in a news dispatch it was stated the other day that Silas H. Strawn, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce and multimillionaire, paid a personal tax of $120. It may be that some men know right smart more about politics than the farmer and couldn't well be compared with a jackass. And that explains probably also why 504 of our multimillionaires could have bought up with their income the entire wheat and cotton crops of 1930. I say with their income, not with their capital wealth. What 2,332,000 wheat and cotton farmers produced in 1930, 504 millionaires could have bought up with their income. Maybe that business man of the nearby town was right.

But it cannot go on that way. We talk about the Mexican peons and sympathize with those poor mortals living in want and squalor and ignorance and disease. We are headed for the same condition if what I have related above is to continue to be our lot. The question is, will the American farmer allow that sort of conclusion to come on? Like his forefathers he has untold pluck; he is long suffering and slow to anger. But those qualities can't be capitalized indefinitely without peril.

The man who lives off the farmer and ranchman, I mean the business man, is ordinarily a man of common sense. He knows a good thing when he sees it. He can distinguish. He knows, if he stops to think, that what the farmer and ranchman produce is the only commodity that he can thrive by and thus pay his insurance and buy his home and his automobile and die in the consciousness that his family is not left destitute. He will appreciate, in conclusion, that a successful effort to equalize the opportunity of these producers with that of other business interests thruout the state will mean not merely prosperity to them but will mean the same thing to himself. He knows that the agricultural producer has always been and still is a handsome spender.

I am in the race for state representative from this legislative district. I am a farmer. My sole income is derived from the farm. I have felt on my own hide what it means to own a farm, to produce from it, to make a living on it, and what it means to be called on to pay the taxes from the income from it, and to school my children from it so that they may be more than their long-earred friend of the barn yard, when the time comes for them to take the oars from my hands.

I am a farmer, I say. Think of

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

it what you please. But I have been thru two kinds of schools—one, the school of books where I got a considerable amount of formal education; the other, the school of hard knocks where I got a considerable amount of practical education. Between the two I have nothing to apologize for. Those that know me are handing me the compliment that I can be trusted for ability and for resoluteness in the Texas House. They are confident that I will effectively stand for a shift of taxation from ad valorem to income in such a manner as to equalize the tax burden; that I will advocate a law requiring stocks, bonds, and notes to be recorded within a reasonable time or become null and void; that I will also advocate a law that will give the unfortunate fellows whose farm is foreclosed an opportunity to redeem it within two years.

They know that my hand will be seen in an effort to have the business of the state conducted in all departments and in whatever way in line with the most stringent economy.

CANDIDATE'S GRIEF

Now that campaigns are winding up, it may be as good a time as any to republish the experience of an Arkansas candidate for sheriff which has been going the rounds for several years.

The story has gathered various and sundry additions in its march down the corridors of time, the latest version being as follows:

"Lost four months and 20 days canvassing; lost 1,360 hours of sleep thinking about the election; lost 40 acres of corn and a crop of sweet potatoes; lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in personal combat with an opponent; donated one beef, four shoats and five sheep to barbecues; gave away two pairs of suspenders, five calico dresses, five dolls and 13 baby rattles, kissed 126 babies; kindled 14 kitchen fires; put up eight stoves; cut 14 cords of wood; carried 24 buckets of water; gathered seven wagon loads of corn; pulled 475 bundles of fodder; walked 4,060 miles; shook hands 9080 times; told 10,001 lies and talked enough to make 1,000 volumes; attended 26 revival meetings; was baptized four times by immersion and twice by sprinkling; contributed $50 to foreign missions; made love to 9 grass widows and got dog bit 19 times-- and then got defeated."

try was winner in the third flight with a 2-1 win over Daly Vandegriff of Tulla. The fourth flight found two fellow-townsmen Fred Buntin and Wesley Knorpp in the finals. The flight was won by Buntin 1 up. Bill Osborne overcame all opposition to win the fifth flight from A. C. Hallmark, Shamrock 3-1 and T. M. Shaver was declared winner in the sixth flight when C. E. Duke of Tulla defaulted in the final match.

In the consolation matches, W. H. Cooke was winner of the first flight with a well earned 1 up victory over Jimmie Gamewell. A. N. Woods won the second flight consolation from W. A. McCleskey won from Forrest Taylor in the sixth flight consolation.

The tournament this year was the most successful ever attempted by the local club. Ninety-eight of the sections choicest golfers representing thirteen towns participated. The weather was ideal for perfect golf; the course was in perfect condition and attired in holiday dress, and every player seemed to catch the holiday spirit and seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest in the face of victory or defeat. Not a single protest or request for interpretation of a rule was registered by any player. Officials of the club declared they were well pleased with the tournament.

Hampshire Gilt is Making Good Breeding Record

While not the first instance on record, a gilt owned jointly by R. S. Moss and W. O. Butler gave birth to eleven pigs on July Fourth. This gilt will not be a year old until in August. Mrs. W. A. Armstrong Has Extra Good Garden

Among those to achieve success this season as gardeners, none can excel that of Mrs. W. A. Armstrong. From 9 rows of beans 15 yards long, she has already canned 142 quarts besides what the family consumed, and what was given to friends.

She also has an abundance of tomatoes, peas, okra, beets and onions. Her black eye peas have been ready for the table for several days. This is another evidence of the value of back lot gardening.

Leader Force Receives First Roasting Ears Wednesday

W. F. Shannon, residing west of town, and better known as the man who "discovered a good farm in a Johnson grass patch", brought the first roasting ears to the Leader office Wednesday.

The corn variety shows a small cob, fine flavor and well filled. This beats all the records of last season by seven days.

Mr. Shannon purchased his farm a few years ago at a bargain because it was a dense growth of Johnson grass. He has a good farm today and grows a diversified variety of products on an equal with that of any other man in the county.

Big Demand For Absentee Ballots This Year

Reports from the office of the county clerk is to the effect that the demand for absentee ballots is much greater this year which would indicate a heavy vote.

Five ballots were cast since July 3rd, and many have written in for ballots. The last day to send in absentee ballots is July 19th. Those desiring to vote while absent from the county, should write the county clerk requesting absentee ballot. Be sure to enclose your poll tax receipt if possible.

Esca Trostle spent the week end and 4th with Homer Estlack.

THE UNPOPULAR CAUSE OF RIGHT

In all past history, those who have championed the cause of right and justice, have been made to pay a penalty. This is true today, and the greater the cause, the greater the penalty exacted.

If one chooses to defend the rights of the working class of people, he becomes unpopular over night. Unpopular with those who belong to that class of leeches who gain their living by legalized methods of defrauding the producer out of a just monetary return for his labor. The ignorant 'lickspittles' of the poorer class that "do the bidding of their masters" and help to condemn their benefactors, do so for a mere pittance and the glory of serving a 'high-collared' master. They are born peons and don't know it.

When any man sympathizes with the class who labor, he becomes the target of lies. The enemies of justice seek to ruin his good name; ruin his business; stop his income and starve him and his family or force them to seek other fields of labor.

The average taxpayer is a forgotten cog in the machinery of government except at taxpaying time. Should he survive, he is recognized twice on election years—when he pays taxes, and when his vote is solicited.

Just at this time there is a mania for increasing taxes. It appears to have become a crime for one to want to own a home, to accumulate property and live in the peaceful possession of the fruits of one's labors, if we are to listen to those who would vote us into bondage. Highway issues in Texas are a favorite pastime because those who do not own property can vote bonds on those who do, and a big class of others who do not care.

Shall we have happy homes, or shall we have easier methods of travel? Or shall we exercise what little brains God gave us and make those who use the highways pay for them through a gasoline tax? This will not appeal to the two classes most in favor of heaping more taxes upon the property owners. The first pays little or no taxes, and the second class lives off the labor of others and are thus enabled to put in a lot of their time "coming from some place headed for nowhere," riding in a fine auto which they own but did not earn.

Little more than a month ago, the writer became a candidate for the office of county judge of Donley county at the request of a number of farmers and others who liked our ideas over the past four years as expressed through this paper.

My first thought was that salaries should be reduced from president to constable. But making a race for the office of county judge, it looked like $2220 a year was a swell salary for times like this. I proposed that this salary be reduced to $1200 where common decency and fair play would better meet with the approval of the taxpayers who foot the bill.

Instantly a howl went up from those who would maintain high salaries for political gain. The political ring that has more or less governed county politics for a long number of years, got into action. Their first gun fired in behalf of their candidate, was a whispering campaign of lies against the writer of this article.

Although I have been a resident of Donley county for 13 years, and have never been accused of anything more serious than that of refusing to belong to gangs or factions, when I became a candidate, it was suddenly discovered by my enemies that I was the meanest man running loose. Their big trouble was the fact that I could be neither bought nor bribed, and today I can say in all seriousness that I am proud of my enemies. A clean conscience and the large number of loyal friends are my priceless possessions and a source of satisfaction at this time when the people are to decide between gang rule for the benefit of a few, or a square deal for every one alike without special favors.

Where Does She Get Her "Pep?"

She doesn't look seventy. Nor feel that old. The woman who stimulates her organs can have energy that women half her age will envy!

At middle-age your vital organs begin to slow down. You may not be sick, simply sluggish. But why endure a condition of half-health when there's a stimulant that will stir a stagnant system to new life and energy in a week's time?

This remarkable stimulant is perfectly harmless. It is, in fact, a family doctor's prescription. So, if you're tired of trying every patent medicine that comes along, tell the druggist you want a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a bit of this delicious syrup every day or so, until you know by the way you feel that your lazy liver is again active, and your bowels are poison-free.

Men, women, and children who are run-down, who tire easily, get bilious spells or have frequent headaches, are soon straightened out when they get this prescriptive preparation of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh laxative herbs. (Syrup pepsin is all the help the bowels need, and you do not form the very bad habit of always taking cathartics.)

Keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin in the house, and take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. It is all that a great many people ever take to keep strong and vigorous, and absolutely free from constipation.
