Martin School Building Now Being Done

Walter Morrow is foreman of the excavation work being done for the foundation of the new school building of the Martin Community that is to replace that one destroyed by fire a few months ago.

The building will be of brick, have three large rooms and a large basement which is to be fitted up for an auditorium. When completed, this building will compare favorably with any rural school building in the Panhandle.

REVIVAL BEGINS CHRISTIAN CHURCH THIS EVENING

Pastor W. E. Ferrell to Open Revival Services, Vawter To Arrive Tomorrow

The Vawter evangelistic party, who will begin a revival meeting for the First Christian Church, this week, is known as "the most musical evangelistics in America." They carry a large and elaborate musical equipment of instruments that are unique in the evangelistic field. The entire party are musicians and they will be heard in special numbers every night during the meeting. The Notre Dame Chimes which they feature, is the only set of chimes used in the evangelistic work in the world. There is but one other set, and at this present time it is being used by the Chaney Concert Company of Atlanta, Ga. This instrument stand nine feet high and nine feet long. It consists of two floor racks and has 142 tubular bells. The tone is unlike any other instrument. Another instrument used by the party is the rosewood marimba. This beautiful instrument has a soft, appealing tone quality that is very pleasing. These instruments will be used for solos, duets and trios and in combination with piano and other singing.

Dr. C. R. L. Vawter, has been in the evangelistic field for about twenty-seven years. He has held

POSTOFFICE AT LELIA IS ROBBED ON TWO NIGHTS

Two Suspects Are Captured Following Wild Chase With Officers

Awakened shortly after midnight Saturday morning by a noise as of pounding in the postoffice at Lelia Lake, Mrs. John Howard hastily phoned sheriff Pierce, who, accompanied by deputy Ike Rains, made a quick trip to see what it was "all about."

Upon arriving at Lelia, the officers discovered two suspicious characters making a hasty retreat around the building, later entering their Ford sedan and heading west. The officers gave chase only to be met with a fusillade of shots at the front car crossed the railway. The fire was returned by the officers, neither of which took effect.

The race continued toward Clarendon until the sharp turn at the railway crossing was reached and the car of the suspect is said to have turned over two or more times in making the turn.

When the officers came up, they found one man badly injured with the left side of his face and head crushed in. The other, also unconscious, was near the car. A six shooter was found lying near the man badly injured. Both men were rushed to Adair hospital, and later in the day were taken in charge by federal officers and transported to Amarillo. The man badly injured is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital there.

One of the parties resided near Vega, Texas, and the other is said to have come from Oklahoma.

Upon investigation of the buildings entered, the officers found that the knob of the postoffice safe had been knocked off, but not opened. The Moreman hardware store is said to have been entered and a few articles taken.

Again Saturday night, both places were again entered and the postoffice safe opened and the contents scattered on the floor but nothing taken. A few articles were taken from the Moreman hardware store at the same time.

Burglary tools, a six shooter and other evidence has been collected as well as finger prints. A report that a burglary was committed Sunday night is in error.

Mrs. E. A. Thompson and daughters, Misses Ruth and Sarah returned from Ft. Worth Saturday where they bought a home and will move there soon.

meeting all over the United States Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Scotland and England. He is one of the best known and most highly successful evangelists in the Christian church today.

Mrs. Vawter, the soprano soloist of the party, is said to have a very fine voice. She has prepared herself for her life work in some of the best conservatories in America. She has also won wide recognition in the concert field.

W. D. (Billie) Reeves, chorus director, is well fitted for his work. He has had several years of successful work in chorus directing, directing congregational singing, and with children choruses.

Howard T. House, pianist and artist is well equipped for his part of the evangelistic program. He is a brilliant pianist and a very fine crayon artist. His pictures are eagerly sought and his work is in demand before schools, colleges, club and along other lines of entertainment.

FIRST PHOTOS TEXAS GULF STORM!

The mighty blow off the Gulf left hundreds homeless, millions in property damage, scores injured and 32 dead. Here are some poor little boys and girls, lost in the storm, some hurt. The picture was taken in the hurriedly constructed relief station at Angleton. A Red Cross worker is talking to a crying girl.

Upper left shows little Jonnie May Baggat of Angleton, daughter of J. W. Baggat. Though bandaged she isn't seriously hurt, thank goodness, although her daddy is dead and her mother may die and leave her an orphan of the storm. Lower left is Wilma Joyce Pool, who, with her Daddy, took refuge in the Angleton courthouse. She lived after being struck by a whole window, frame and all. Right shows the waterfront at Galveston, where the staunch sea wall held the lashing storm off the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buntin and daughter, Phoebe Ann and Mr. P. A. Buntin are at Carlsbad, New Mexico for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and the girls left Wednesday for a vacation trip through New Mexico and Colorado.

Mrs. Virgial Drew and son of Okla. City are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Griggs and other relatives.

RAIN BENEFITS CROP CONDITIONS DONLEY COUNTY

Many Varieties of Crops Are Cut Short by Dry Weather Conditions

Rains of the past week came in the nick of time to save late plantings of corn and feed crops. Early plantings were cut short during a five week dry spell in the north-west part of the county. Some farmers are of the opinion that production has been cut considerably due to the dry spell, and more especially to kaffir and early corn.

Cotton has shown a poor growth and most of it is now blooming in the top which is said to indicate a short crop. As in other years, some parts of the county has been favored with showers to the extent that crops are good. This is also true in the Brice country where crops in the main are up to per.

The melon market has been off this season, growers finding it a difficult matter to dispose of their products on the plains as in other years. Unemployment is said to be the cause of this condition. Dry weather until recently destroyed a greater part of the cantaloupe and water melons, and offerings in both lines will be short until a new crop grows.

In former years, truck crops of peas, tomatoes, etc. have found a ready market in the plains towns, but this market has been short this season also due to unemployment of consumers of former years.

Heavy rains over the county the past several days has helped crop conditions somewhat and some farmers believe that the crop average will be about 80 percent of normal.

Some planting of fall and winter pasturage has been made. With the rise of prices of dairy products, it is believed that this industry will increase considerably during the fall.

More home canning is being done at this time than ever before. Varieties in general are being canned for future use, and for sale should a market develop. The county has far more hogs than last season which will in part furnish a market for grains "on fourfeet."

Donley County Old Settlers' Picnic Announced

The second annual Old Settlers Picnic will be held August 19th, 1932, on the Tom Tate farm, six miles northeast of Hedley, and the Wellington Highway.

Public May Inspect County Budget, Says Judge

"A county budget law was passed for the benefit of the people who care to find out how the taxpayer's money is to be spent" said Judge Alexander Monday. He announced the date as Monday, August 29th.

Official announcement is made in this issue of the Leader. All one has to do to find out what is to be spent for 1933, and how, so far as the county tax money is concerned, can find out all about it by going to the courthouse on the above date.

The County Commissioners and Judge Alexander will give every one a respectful hearing and listen to any suggestions that may be offered. This is the new "budget law" passed by the last Legislature, and which went into effect July.

Judge Earl Cayton of Amarillo is visiting his son Merle Cayton.

Mrs. C. R. L. Vawter, wife of the evangelist who is to conduct a revival here.

Ferguson Supporters Will Speak Here Today

Jim Hair, attorney of San Antonio, will discuss Ferguson, Moody and Sterling on the Courthouse lawn at 8 p. m. this Thursday evening.

Governor Sterling was prevented speaking here last week when he was rained in over at Silverton. Scouts for both sides in the governorship race have been in town this week attempting to get the "low down" on how the race is going in Donley county.

Legion - Auxiliary Picnic On Deep Sandy

A real barbecue will be the big attraction on Deep Sandy camp on the J A's for the members of the American Legion and Auxiliary this evening. Wives and children are to accompany and make up the outing party.

Besides the barbecued beef, there will be plenty of trimmings, hot coffee and other edibles and eatables that go to make up a picnic feast.

COWPUNCHERS OF FORMER DAYS FIND NEW OCCUPATION

Some of Most Successful Farmers Now Once Rode The Range

"You never can tell how an old cowpuncher will turn out" was the statement of J. F. Parker, who owns and operates one of the best farms a few miles northwest of Ashtola.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker have eight children and are schooling them too, both believing strongly in education. Their home is located in a beautiful setting of trees. A large barn and other out buildings makeup the housing for a well regulated farm that is made highly productive by means of intelligent cultivation under the direction of the owner.

They have about all that could be wished except a fair price for their products. Hail did a lot of damage this season, but even at that, they have a wonderful crop coming on, a part of which is maturing at this time.

Mr. Parker, in his younger days, was a puncher on the Turkey Track, San Simon and other ranches in southeast New Mexico when Carlsbad was known as Eddy. He also was a "bronc peeler" for two seasons, but did not like that kind of a job.

Charley A. Crowe, a prosperous farmer of near Giles in normal times, is another old-time puncher now settled down to farming. He rode the range for the LFD's near Roswell and knows all the old boys of thirty and forty years ago. Everybody liked him then, and he is just as well liked yet by all who know him, though he has changed his occupation.

Then there is Pink Rodgers and a host of other good men who formerly rode the range about whom we will have something to say later. After all, there is that peculiar sentiment of affection existing between the old boys of the range that you can't find anywhere else.

"HENRY ANSLEY IS GONE"

That sad expression has fallen from hundreds of lips of friends of Henry's in more than one state the past week. Henry created mirth with his ready wit, yet it gave no offense. He wore a perpetual grin of good fellowship. He was a friend of all ages. In appearing before ladies as a speaker, he was a courteous gentleman. In speaking before a body of men, his talk fitted the occasion and his part of the program was one of pleasant recreation. He had a place in every one's affection.

Henry faced eternity sending a message to his wife. He always thought first of those nearest and dearest. We cannot understand why Henry could not have been permitted to continue to live and cheer, but he left behind a shrine of memories of a boyish smile and a manly heart and a remembrance of one of God's noblemen.

Sour Dough.

Political dough today will be stale bread tomorrow. It works fast and sours quickly.

Temporary Insanity.

It's a queer thing that you never hear of anyone who has done a good deed claiming to have been temporarily insane.

Publicity.

Very few people knew of such a place as Wichita Falls until Jimmy Allred, Tom Hunter and Orville Bullington put it on the map.

Just Once.

When you feel that you would rather be dead than suffer a distasteful fate, reflect that you can be anything more than once, except dead.

More Mystery.

The moment a lobbyist can't get his pet plans to working so that he can gather in a rake-off, he gets mad at every one who did not fall for his line of cheap publicity.

Changed Conditions.

The man who wanted to live by the side of the road, of whom the poet wrote, and be a friend to man, would probably want to establish a hot dog joint or a filling station if he were here.

Grasping at Straws.

Every day now our American people are scanning the papers for every item that will lend encouragement to the idea that normal times are returning. Our folks may become ever so downcast during a depression, but that does not kill their ambition to stage a "come-back" at the first opportunity.

Human Craving.

It is not necessary to buy nine easy lessons on "how to become popular" according to a local home spun philosopher. He suggests that it is only necessary to keep the mouth shut and be a good listener. "Thousands of people are just dying to tell you how much they know, whether it is worth a darn or not," he says.

Tame Outlaws.

During the week, Gov. Murray of Oklahoma pardoned twenty-seven men who had been arrested and fined on a vagrancy charge when they accepted left-over food from St. Anthony hospital of Oklahoma City. In a proclamation, the governor announced that he would continue to issue pardons for those persecuted for accepting gifts of food from the institution.

Neighborly Swaps.

Several producers of peas and melons in Donley county have been trading their products for wheat to good advantage recently. In some instances, the wheat is milled before being delivered here, while others expect to feed the wheat to stock. At any rate, a market for two farmers is found every time a swap is made.

More Worry.

P. L. Mosby of Kerrville grew a potato and three tomatoes on the same stalk. But like other great men, his worries began the moment he discovered the freak. His chief concern right now is whether to call it a "pomato" or simply refer to it as a "topato." We suggest "motato" since the tomatoes are in the majority, if that will ease his mind any.

Taxes in Michigan.

According to a statement made by Arthur J. Lacey of Detroit, Michigan as published on page two of the Star-Telegram Monday, 557,000 separate parcels of land has been taken over by the state for delinquent taxes since January 1st. The speaker further declared "that at the present rate, the state would own practically all the land within a few years." Michigan has been on a "bonding

TEXAS REGISTERS WET

It is getting tiresome to have constantly to insist that Texas is dry, when indicator after indicator registers wet. The primary referendum among the Democrats show a 2-to-1 wet result. The State Executive Committee is wet. The delegation that went to Chicago couldn't have voted wetter if it had been chosen in a brewery and primed with the aid of a bungstarter. Precinct conventions were confronted Saturday with the demand that they endorse the wet plank in the national platform and failure of dry majorities to agree resulted in rump conventions of wets who are, on the face of the situation, the regulars.

The referendum total is small in comparison with the total vote. But it will be the voice of the party, notwithstanding, and will be urged for acceptance as the voice of the State. The wets have the Democratic party of Texas exactly where they want it, and the men who have been shouting that prohibition is not the test of party loyalty are now making anti-prohibition the test of it.

The leadership of the dry side since the death of William Jennings Bryan and that of Wayne B. Wheeler has been deplorably weak. In Texas it looked as if Dan Moody would step in and assume the responsibility until Al Smith took him in at Houston in 1928. Since then Jim Ferguson has kept him busy. Tom Love and his conscience decision, Atticus Webb and his debate challenges, and Alvin Moody and his biennial press notices have done their best, but there has been no flaming sword to flash in the sun, no tall white knight in the thick of the fray, no piercing bugle call to command the ear of the wavering. Meanwhile the sainted W. C. T. U. has been getting sailer and fewer as the reaping time goes relentlessly on—and the generation that knows not Joseph, the bartender of the old-time saloon, is running for Congress and the Legislature and getting the votes, too. The dries need action, to be sure; but they need most of all somebody to tell them what to do.

UNEQUAL REGULATION IN TRANSPORTATION CAUSES DISORDER AND CONFUSION

● The instability, confusion and disorder which unrestrained truck transportation has brought about is responsible in large measure for much of the distress in which all business finds itself today. Texas has moved to find a remedy and all concerned in the welfare of this state and its institutions should cooperate in the effort to restore stability and order to our transportation systems.

The Texas Railroads, in these advertisements, have endeavored to place before the people of this state some of the reasons why the existing laws, regulating motor transportation, should be upheld and enforced.

1. The railroads are necessary for the successful marketing of the enormous production of this state, which is used and consumed in every other state in the union.

Uniform, published, non-discriminatory transportation service rates are essential to the orderly conduct and welfare of business.

Unregulated truck transportation inevitably results in discriminatory charges and practices, rebating, unfair and unbusinesslike competitive methods, bringing about losses and commercial insecurity.

The wholesaler, jobber, retailer and local merchant suffer from the unfair competition of truckers and peddlers who, for the most part, are non-residents, pay no taxes and contribute nothing to the community welfare.

The farmer and agricultural producer must have at his command facilities adequate to transport crops and produce which move long distances in large volume, at low cost, by rail.

2. The railroads build and maintain their own roadways, pay heavy taxes for the support of state and municipal governments and institutions, and expend millions of dollars for payrolls, materials and supplies. Railroad workers are substantial citizens, home owners, and valued members of their communities.

3. Rail transportation is the most efficient and economical in existence for the movement of traffic in volume by land.

4. Texas highways belong to the people and are built and maintained at heavy cost. Their use for commercial purposes is a privilege, not a right. They should be kept safe for general use and not prematurely destroyed by heavy trucks.

5. The stability, security and orderly conduct of business require reasonable control and regulation of all transportation agencies.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

The Apostle is headed back to make a second inspection of Tom Messer's okra. The chief of the United States veterinary department has reported that Tom's okra is nothing more than a dishrag gourd. If that department knows as much about plants as the weather bureau does the weather, it may be a watermelon. They may know gourds, but they simply don't know their okra.

There is trouble brewing ahead for husbands and I don't mean maybe. When the Apostle got home from church Sunday, the GW was holding a secret meeting with a strange young lady by the name of Miss Ella Vator who is district manager for the "Association of Overworked Wives" and who is out looking for joiners. If these women folks ever get organized to the point where they can demand their rights, it's Katy bar the door for the rest of us. What are we 'gonta' do about it?

Member way back when the family album was the chief source of entertainment? Thousands looked at the pictures and strangers marveled that we got by at all after looking over our ancestors. They don't use that old relic any more because the old men no longer wear whiskers. The old album used to be termed the 'family zoo'. Often behind a flock of whiskers was hidden the face of a man whose character was untraced, and whose life was spent in unselfish service to mankind, but you couldn't convince a stranger or a smart alec of this fact when he could only see the whiskers. The family album went the way of the custom of whiskers.

Recently a man became tired of some one raiding his grape patch. He loaded up old Betsy Jane and made an inspection late at night firing at the first object he saw move. Not knowing that he had a kindly tenant also watching, he shot the tenant. When the gun fired four boys ran out of the north side of the patch, but the tenant stopped to inquire why he had been shot instead of the other fellow. Nobody has been in the grape patch since, not even the owner.

Member when some little fellow would push open the swinging doors in front of a well known establishment and inquire, "anyone seen my papa?"

Cotton may be going up, but that won't keep a lot of folks from planting a salad patch for winter. Mustard, turnips, rape, spinach and lettuce is being planted. Get the patch ready for the good wife, don't wait on her to do it because some women are slow about their farm work, and more especially when the old man has nothing to do but play checkers.

The little red school house may be out of date but it wasn't covered with bond issues.

And another thing, a fellow can wash his own car without the neighbors yelping about his going broke. They already know that every one is broke for the present.

The Apostle was asked this week not to mention the name of the party living here who kindly 'hauled' a hitch-hiker to Memphis. That would not excite suspicion except for the fact that the 'hiker' took the valuables from the coat on the back seat when his benefactor was out talking to a Giles man on the way. No, the hiker was not a woman.

Following a lengthy illness, this brave and noble spirit winged its way to her heavenly home Friday, August 12th. Her pastor, Rev. E. B. Bowen said the last words at a service conducted at the Methodist church at 3 p. m. Saturday.

Those attending the casket were H. Mulkey, J. T. Patman, J. H. Hurn, W. W. Taylor, Eugene Holland, W. S. Bagby, Ira Merchant, Frank White Sr.

Besides her husband, the following children survive: Mrs. J. H. Cooper, Ft. Worth; Mrs. Mary E. Cox, Ft. Worth; T. J. Buntin, Amarillo; Fred A. which we live. We learned that the mouth was one of the most important of these doors, and that the mouth was the broad-casting station, and that great care should be used in broadcasting. Today we will study about the receiving stations, the ears.

The ear is divided into two parts the external and internal ear. What we see is the external part, the porchway or the vestibule of the ear. It is shaped and arranged that sound may be collected by it. Some of the passages are full of air. There are membranes in them that form the drum. If these threads or nerves are destroyed, we lose our hearing.

Our ears may bring us sadness or they may bring us gladness, for by them we hear both unpleasant and pleasant things. Jesus said to His disciples, "Take heed how you hear." It is said of some that they let things in one ear and out the other. The ear conveys what it hears to the mind and heart; therefore you should guard what you hear, for there are some spoken words, some noises, that should never pass into the mind.

Sin makes deaf ears. It is when your heart is in tune with God, that you will hear and heed His voice. Hear God's voice is very important: "For faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." Without faith it is impossible to please God, for he that cometh to him must believe that He is and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him."

There are many voices today drawing people away from the pathway of righteousness. It is a sad thing to be deaf, it is even a calamity, but it is always a good thing to refuse to listen to the voices it is best not to hear.

We have invited one of the great est Evangelistic teams in the country to bring to you some messages from God and His Word. We hope you will be present at the services to use your receiving stations, your ears. There will be Great Preaching, Matchless Music and Gospel Singing to inspire you and to assist you in obtaining perfect peace and eternal life.

"He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Board of County Commissioners of the county of Donley, and State of Texas will meet on August 29th, 1932 at 10 a. m. in the Courthouse at Donley county, Texas, in the City of Clarendon, at which time the budget outlining the expenditures for Donley county, Texas for the year 1933 will be officially approved.

This notice is given in keeping with legal requirements as required in Section 18, of Article 688 and 689, Chapter 6, Title 20, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended by the Forty-Second Legislature in regular session convened January 13, 1931, and adjourned May 13, 1931.

J. J. Alexander, County Judge

WARDLAW POPS STERLING RECORD

Louis J. Wardlaw, Fort Worth attorney, ranchman and former candidate for Governor, who is making a state wide speaking campaign in behalf of Mrs. Miram A. Ferguson stated in Clarendon today that the statement of Governor Ross S. Sterling that the budget of the State of Texas compares favorably with the budget of other states, is not supported by facts.

"At the time Mrs. Ferguson went out of the office of Governor in 1926, she left a net balance of $5,396,951.00 to the credit of the general revenues; and $276,081.00 to the credit of the pension fund. These statements are supported by the Comptrollers report of 1926, page 31.

Governor Sterling has been occupying the Governor's office for the past 18 months. During this time the Legislature passed the Gas tax, the cement tax, and the Cigarette Tax, as the result of which $5,000,000.00 additional taxes have been collected from the people and placed in the various funds of the State.

The sum thus collected is more than that collected by any other previous administration, yet there is today a deficit in the general fund of approximately $4,000,000; The Pension of more than $2,000,000.00; and in the school fund of more than $5,500,000.00. Thus it is seen that the costs of governments for the 18 months of Governor Sterling's administration has been increased by approximately $17,000,000.00. This statement is supported by the report of the Comtroiler made to the State Tax board, July, 1932.

In an effort to keep the credit of the State of Texas in a respectful condition the legislature authorized the State Highway Commission to lend to the general Fund $3,000,000.00. This the Commission did; despite that loan, warrants drawn on the general Fund have gone unpaid; warrants against the pension fund have gone unpaid, and warrants against the school funds have likewise gone unpaid, or in many instances have been discounted.

Confederate Veterans and Confederate widows have for months been unable to cash their warrants in the face of these facts, Governor Sterling and his cohorts have made, and are now making, the statement that the State's budget is balanced.

If Governor Sterling could have done so, he would have had the Tax payers of the State of Texas burdened with a $350,000,000.00 bond issue, and the Tax payers would now be paying $17,500.00 Ad Valorem Tax. That Tax burden was prevented, by the efforts put forth by the Fergusons.

The 18 months of Sterling's administration has cost the Tax payers approximately $17,000,000.00 more than that of any other administration of two years.

LOST 20 lbs. of FAT IN JUST 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

Benefits Are Widely Spread with Widespread Power

The power line which carries electricity over the countryside is bringing the benefits of industrial development to small communities as well as large cities.

When an equal power supply is commanded by both, the production efficiency of small, decentralized establishments matches that of the large metropolitan factory. Moreover, with its freedom from the high costs imposed by congestion, the small community factory can even surpass the large city factory in economical manufacture.

This is the opportunity which the widespread distribution of electric power has opened - - - an opportunity which the West Texas Utilities Company has made available to 125 progressive West Texas cities and towns served from its 2,500 mile transmission line system.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

THE CANNING SEASON

Thousands of dollars have been saved during the past two years by a judicious use of the canning method of preserving a food supply in Donley county.

Supplies are more abundant at this time, and the thrifty farmer is taking advantage of this fact.

Storing up food and feed helps to make the farmer more independent—it makes him money.

Probably the most valued family relic in the county is an old German Bible owned by J. L. Giesler who resides near Alanreed. The book was brought to this country over a hundred years ago.

Just before the outbreak of the World War, the book had been sold to a book collector of Germany for $5,000. The war prevented delivery after it had reached New York City. Since then the fortunes of the purchaser have vanished and the sale is still pending a man with the ready money.

Donley County Leader, $1.50 a year

PLAIN STATEMENT OF FACTS

Let me say in the beginning, that I have offered free space in the Leader to my opponents to give expression to their views. I have made this same offer in the run-off. If it was not accepted, that is no fault of mine. I simply wanted to be fair, believing in fairness in all dealings as the more honorable method.

I have not appealed to prejudice. My church or fraternal affiliations have not been mentioned in my campaign as a means of getting votes. I do not think any church or any lodge alone can make a man what he should be unless he has that strength of character as a foundation upon which a church or lodge influence can build.

Every citizen of the county is a partner in our county government, and should share in the management. That citizen is entitled to know the facts in regard to how the candidate views matters of county government, also how county funds are being handled by county officers. The voter is entitled to a direct statement of facts rather than vague promises.

In stating my position at this time, basing that opinion upon an investigation of conditions and wishes of our people, taxes must be lowered. There is only one way to do it, and that is to cut the cost of county government. There must be no new contracts calling for expenditures that can and will increase the tax rate. The salary of the county judge will likely be set at $1500 according to the new budget law, but it should be $1200 and may be set at that or less if it looks like tax collections are to be lower than last year. Crop prices will determine the amount of tax payments.

My position is clearly known from the large number of readers of this publication who have kept up with county affairs. You have been made acquainted with facts as they existed, not mere guess work. Should you see fit to elect me as your next county judge, you will have every opportunity to become better acquainted with your county affairs at no extra expense to the taxpayers.

Your vote will be appreciated August 27th. County affairs should be run by all the people of the county rather than a small faction. It is now up to the public to make a choice, and whatever that choice may be, I shall continue to assist in every possible manner for the betterment of our people.

The total expenditure per capita of population for education in Texas is only $13.42 per year—less than 4 cents per day.

—U. S. Office of Education

School costs for public, elementary and secondary education in Texas have increased from $14,497,750 in 1914 to $65,917,564 in 1928.

Reasons for the increase are (1) longer terms and increased attendance, especially in high school, (2) depreciation of the dollar, and (3) increased services, such as better-trained teachers, better equipment, and expanded curriculums.

—J. L. Duflot

The cost of all public education, elementary, secondary, and collegiate, in Texas is 34 per cent of the amount spent annually for the construction of buildings; 13.1 per cent of the annual expenditures for the purchase and operation of auto mobiles; 40.3 per cent of the annual expenditures for certain luxuries including tobacco, soft drinks confections, admission to theaters and other amusements, jewelry, perfumes, cosmetics, and sporting goods.
