HOW ABOUT IT?

Quite a number appear to think old Donley county has gone "highway," while others simply classify it as "haywire."

HIGHWAY BONDS MAY BE VOTED IN DONLEY COUNTY

County Commissioners Will Meet Friday to Consider Petition For Election

The district courtroom was comfortably filled with highway enthusiasts Monday from several towns and communities of the county at which time the matter of highway construction was brought before the County Commissioners. W. J. Van London, district engineer of the Highway Department, was present to explain matters in which his department was interested. The county was represented by commissioners Hawkins, Beck, Harris and Beverly. Judge Alexander being absent, Sid E. Harris presided.

After some minor discussion, Commissioner J. Less Hawkins of Hedley took occasion to state that his section has been discriminated against in the past in the matter of a bridge across Salt Fork north of Hedley some months ago. He said Clarendon parties blocked the move after the Commissioners had authorized the bridge. He also stated that a few Clarendonites, some three or four in number, had objected to the stand taken by Hedley in wanting the highway through the town, when as a matter of fact the same fellows had been instrumental in securing the routing of the highway through Clarendon. Hawkins said his people had helped build a bridge across the river north of Clarendon, and one across Mulberry, but had no consideration on a bridge of their own on the highway between Hedley and McLean.

M. M. Noble arose to say that he did not know any one opposed the interests of the Hedley people, and was further backed in his statements by Van London. Mr. Noble resides on his farm north of the river. Van London stated that no favors had been asked him by either Clarendon or Hedley, or that he had been requested to discriminate against either place.

G. R. Grant of Goldston speaking for his community, stated that they were for the highway building one hundred percent. D. F. Randle of Ashtola also was of the opinion that his section would vote in favor of highway construction.

A. B. Bynum of Lelia assured the Court of the united support of the entire citizenship of his community for the road issue, and while they wanted it on the south side, the north side would be acceptable.

A. E. Bale of Martin favored highway construction and was of the opinion that the majority of his folks would favor it in that section.

Jeff Pirtle of Hedley was of the opinion that his town had agreed upon a highway route south of the track at a meeting held some time ago. Claude Nash asked him if it was a representative meeting, and Pirtle stated that he did not know. Pirtle then stated that Hedley favored the north side of the track, and that the Denver railway had agreed to pay a third of the cost of an underpass.

Sam Braswell then asked Sam Lowe for an expression. Lowe stated that he had favored highway construction when the people were able to pay for it, and that he believed that the people were able now, and that he favored a highway routed on either side of the Denver across the county.

A. B. Bynum of Lelia wanted the crowd to vote the Commissioners authority to go ahead with the highway arrangements, this vote was taken and a majority favored it. A test vote was then made to determine the number favoring the proposed bond issue. The majority appeared to favor the idea, while several voted against the idea of voting bonds for highway construction at this time.

Petitions asking for a bond election are being circulated, and the Commissioners will meet Friday of this week to prepare an order for the bond election, should a sufficient number sign the petitions.

A sum of $25,000 for the construction of a bridge across Salt Fork north of Hedley is also in-

DONLEY COUNTY MAY DROP OFFICE OF SCHOOL Supt.

Opinions Regarding Saving Of Funds Differ Widely Over New Plan

To have made the race for an office, and to have won by a big majority, may not mean anything to Sloan Baker who received the nomination for Donley's superintendent of schools in the recent primary.

Petitions are being circulated for presentation to the County Commissioners asking that the office be abolished. If a sufficient number should sign such petitions, the Commissioners will then be compelled to submit the matter to a vote of the people, if such a change can be made under the laws of this state.

Those favoring the change see in it a gain of some six hundred dollars for the Clarendon independent school district because of the fact that a district having more than 500 pupils would be exempt from assessment to support an ex-officio office in connection with that of the county judge.

Those opposing the movement state that the rural schools would be neglected as they were before the office of county superintendent of schools was created. Also that the present assessment per pupil in the Lelia and Hedley school districts of 75 cents as it is at present, would be increased to one dollar, as it was under the old plan before the new office was created.

The office of county superintendent is said to be costing the taxpayers a total of $1900 at present. During Judge Link's administration as ex-officio superintendent, it cost the taxpayers $600 a year. Under Judge Porter it cost $1920 a year. The last three months under Judge Alexander's administration just before the offices were separated, it is said to have cost the taxpayers at the rate of $1800 a year.

PLANS LAID FOR NORTH AND SOUTH HIGHWAY ROUTE

Hedley Citizens Planning On Highway Perryton To Lakeview Paving

Meetings the past week have been held in McLean, Miami and Hedley in which citizens have combined their efforts to secure a paved highway from Perryton via of Miami, McLean and Hedley to connect with the paved highway at Lakeview.

The proposed route would give residents of the north plains direct connection with paved highways to Pampa and Amarillo. Highway construction on this plan would give Hedley and McLean direct connection and a bridge across Salt Fork, though this bridge has been embodied in the proposed bond issue in Donley county.

Lakeview citizens have long wanted an outlet to Hedley and Clarendon. Since there is no possibility of a highway from Lakeview via Brice to Amarillo, this new plan renews hopes of a highway to Hedley, thence to Amarillo over No. 5, should Donley not improve Highway 5 within the next few months, much of the travel east of here would be routed over other paved highways.

A highway constructed from Perryton to Lakeview would cross highways 117, 33, 75, 66, and 5. Hedley citizens here for the highway meeting Monday were enthusiastic over the prospects of a north and south highway.

incorporated in the proposed bond issue. The petition is said to provide for a bond issue of $50,000 and will be placed before the County Commissioners Friday of this week for final action of calling an election.

Two thirds of the voters is necessary to authorize a bond issue

This year we intend to have many individuals appearing on the program, giving us some high spot in their long career in the Panhandle. There will be several musical numbers, moving pictures will be taken again this year, and will be placed in our repository at the Panhandle Plains society at Canyon.

"I believe you understand that $1 is the only fee. There are no dues and this one registration will give each member the badge indicating 25 years residence in the Panhandle."

MEN ADVERTISE TRI-STATE FAIR OPENING SOON

More Attractions With More Inducement is Being Offered This Year

Advertising the annual Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, September 19 to 24, a group of Amarillo business men visited here Monday in a sound-equipped courtesy car of the Cunningham Floral Company. During their brief stay here the visitors contacted local school and chamber of commerce officials relative to this city organizing a delegation to attend the big exposition.

Mason King, head of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Trade Extension department, and a member of the Tri-State Fair publicity committee, declared that if Clarendon sends a delegation to the fair its members will be given an opportunity to broadcast over an Amarillo radio station. He especially urged all musicians and singers to attend the territorial attraction and display their talents over the radio hook-up.

With a gigantic galaxy of attractions exceeding those of all previous years, the 1932 fair promises to draw more visitors than ever before. From morning until late at night there will be something going on every minute. No charges will be made to the grounds.

Among the attractions to be assembled for the entertainment of thousands are a rodeo, the Wortham Shows, largest carnival combination in the country, night automobile races, a World War pageant, a theatrical show and a big college football game.

Cash awards totaling $3,300 will be given to contestants in the World's championship rodeo. Not less than 30 racing cars are expected to be entered in the automobile speed classic.

Entries in the dairy cattle, swine, poultry, agriculture, horticulture, boys and girls and women's farm club work departments already exceed those of last year, and some of the divisions have been closed to additional entries for lack of space.

Railroad fares to Amarillo will be the lowest in the Panhandle's history during the fair. For the first two days, Monday and Tuesday, September 19 and 20, round-trip tickets will be sold for 60 percent of the one-way charge. Excursion rates will be in effect during the remaining four days. The visitors from Amarillo called especial attention to the great amount of publicity and good-will Clarendon would derive from sending an organized group to the fair, and expressed hopes that this community will be represented in a big way.

Clarendon Man Shares Part In Radio Program

A musical program of exceptional merit was heard over broadcasting station KGRS of Amarillo Monday afternoon at 8:30.

Past Tense.
Wasn't that depression something awful?

Calgology.
A modern food expert is one who can look at a calf and tell how many chicken sandwiches it will make.

Advantage.
The auto still has one big advantage over the airplane. Any old ditch will do for a landing spot.

Others Say.
Some mothers still wonder where their 16-year old daughters learned the things that she did not find out until she reached forty.

The Difference.
A statesman is one who wants to serve his country. A politician is one who wants his country to serve him.

Scorned.
The latest maps of the Denver railway properly display Lelia Lake and Claude, but evidently decided that Hedley and Clarendon were of too little consequence to be worthy of a place on the rail map.

Side Talent.
There would not be so much objection to the cheap brand of alleged orchestra music over the radio if that bunch of fools would quit beating tin pans on the side lines.

Moved Headquarters.
When the president made the Alcohol Trust secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement, the boys conveniently passed up the drug store and located the bell-hop.

Extortion.
Not being content with having wrapped up, bound down, flattened out and hog tied, now the benevolent Uncle Sam, slave of the Farm Board, has begun charging a publisher 2-cents every time a reader changes post office address.

Rip Van Winkles.
Old Rip is said to have slept for twenty years. American citizens have not bedded that record, but they have been asleep for twelve years while the big shots of Wall street stole the whole show and tumbled the nation into poverty, destruction and suicides.

Gone Hog Wild.
It is a well known fact that the biggest families live in the smallest houses. And that the smallest families live in the biggest houses. The citizens of this state is a small family, but getting to be a very expensive one. The cost of state government in 1915 was $16,364,780. In 1931 it had increased to $111,776,396.

Changing Politics.
Politics are not what they used to be years ago when men fell out and fought about it. Now the rank and file settles down to business as soon as election day has passed, while the pie counter bunch break into court with some form of contest. Some have sense enough to know when they are whipped, while others can only be convinced by a court decision.

Fastidious Jack.
Our old friend Jack Stricklin of the Brownfield Herald in assuming an attitude of personification of courtliness, rises up on his hind legs in defense of "she editors" after we got off what we did recently about a lady editor not being able to place her tootsie wootsies on top of her desk, etc.

Jack went so far as to intimate that "he editors" were no longer addicted to masculine habits of former years. Well, when a cantankerous old editor attempts to transform himself into a jellybean he finds out that he simply can't jell.

That Silver Lining.
That every dark cloud has a silver lining, is emphasized by the fact that many are of the opinion that the depression has had a certain moral and spiritual value. There has been developed a greater disposition toward kindness and helpfulness. Never before has there been such a degree of solicitude for the unfortunate. There is less arrogance and snobishness; less false pride.

The depression taught us some salutary lessons. As we emerge from it, we find ourselves more thoughtful, more considerate, and more charitable than we were ever before.

Gulling the Gullible.
Five dollars sent by registered mail, or a money order—no checks please—will entitle the sender to "pearls of great price" and which according to advertisements now running in some of the weeklies of Texas, will restore both men and women to that state only encountered in the frisky age of youth. When we were asked to advertise the "pearls," we asked the alleged importing firm to send along cash in advance. To date we have heard nothing from them. All such firms should be reported to the postal authorities at once to make sure that the publisher avoid becoming a party to any scheme that would betray the confidence of the reader.

EDUCATIONAL DIGEST

Donley county's school children lost $3936 this year because the state apportionment was reduced 1.50. Another year the school children of the county will lose $13,453 because the state apportionment will be shorter than they are scheduled this year and they are scheduled to be shorter this time than they were last year.

The pending homestead state exemption amendment will certainly be adopted at the election in november. Homesteads to the value of $3,000 will be exempt from payment of all state ad valorem taxes. Members of the Legislature are estimating that the adoption of this amendment will decrease the available revenues of the state between fifteen and twenty million dollars. If so the state available school fund will suffer a decrease of approximately seven and one-half million dollars.

In this connection there is another fact that must not be overlooked it is that valuations placed on property have been and will be greatly reduced. The 35 cents ad valorem tax levied for school purposes will bring in less revenue from the same piece of taxable property than heretofore.

These two facts cannot be dodged or ignored. They mean that the available school fund of the state of Texas for the year 1933-34 will be so reduced that the scholastic apportionment can hardly exceed $11 per pupil unless other revenues can be found. Governor Sterling and many members of the Legislature promise to do their best to maintain the scholastic apportionment at $17.50, but there is only one power in Texas that can prevail upon the Legislature to provide the necessary funds. That power is public opinion, the opinion of the patrons whose children attend the schools and whose taxes pay the bills. These patrons and public leaders in every community must be made to know the value of education to every legitimate business. They owe it to the State, and to the children and to themselves. We must not allow business to commit financial suicide by failing to provide adequate support for public education. —Texas Outlook

We can build highways next year or five years from now, we can build new public buildings when times are better, we can purchase new automobiles and buy new furniture when times are better; but we cannot provide adequate educational facilities for our children next year and expect to educate the children of this year, because the children of this year will be gone next year; therefore, if we do not provide schools for them they will be deprived of their right to an education.

transportation system of its own. The feet of animals, the wings of the birds, the fins of the fishes, exactly suit their immediate life and movement. Take away our feet and how helpless our bodies would be.

Some children do not use their feet as they should. When mothers call to them to come at once, they begin just to walk as though they had chains on their feet, or as though their feet were fastened to the ground.

Do you know that you can speak with your feet? Solomon said of a wicked man, "He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet." Both good and bad people speak with their feet. Our feet often tell the secret of our lives. Your mother can often tell where you have been, and what you have been doing by looking at your boots or shoes. When you are happy you skip and run, when you are sad and unwilling you loiter and drag, when you are angry you stamp with your feet. Your feet will reveal your character.

Habakuk, the prophet, speaks of having feet like hind's feet. He seemed thankful that he had quick feet and not lazy ones. Idle people usually stumble into sin and mischief. In our prayers we should pray for feet to run in the ways of the good. Job once said, "Feet was I to the lame." Ready feet, willing feet, feet anxious to be useful are to be desired.

Remember, your feet will follow your thoughts. If you think beautiful things, your feet will take you into good ways. If you love the things that are true, your feet will be true to your love. If you keep company with Jesus you will walk with Him. If in your heart you love God, your feet will delight in serving God.

In our two sermons for next Sunday, we will give some good advice on walking with God. At the morning hour the subject will be: "Self-Deception." During the evening service we will speak on "The Way that Seemeth Right."

Men are often patriotic because of impressions of childhood. For instance in giving the baby a bath, if the water is too hot, he's red; if too cold, he's blue; when he is clean, he is white. Yep, red, white, and blue.

Oysters are fish that grow like nuts. How about the peanut? Unlike a lot of human nuts, it makes no attempt to start at the top and takes a chance of being shaken in the fall. Instead, it persists in starting at the bottom of the ladder—or rather under the bottom.

A walnut has nothing to do with a wall; a chestnut wouldn't know a chest if it saw one; and a coconut contains no cocoa. But the peanut—ah! here is proof of its sincerity—the peanut slightly resembles a pea pod, only it usually stops at being twins instead of a whole litter, as in the case of peas. The peanut begins its usefulness early in life by becoming the dumbbell or punching bag for fish worms. The plumper round pods have been known to be used for footballs.

Peanuts are of two kinds—red and white. The red variety started from a peanut seeing his uncle coconut in the nude. The hairy appearance of the coconut caused it to blush, thus making for a new variety.

The hulls should be removed before eating. The hulls are used in making breakfast cereals, but should be powdered, rolled in thin layers and baked before eating. When roasted and ground up with cotton seed oil, the peanut becomes butter. This is less trouble than milking a cow and churning, besides a peanut never kicks. Finally, a peanut is no nut at all—it's perfectly sane.

A lady wants to know how to keep her son from playing in dirt. Don't stop him because he is probably a natural born politician.

Only two things in connection with the World War remain a mystery—who started it, and who won it?

A Dallas man and his son beat up the son's wife because she followed him back from Mexico city where he thought he had lost her. Both were fined for not paying an amusement tax before beating.

Some start on a trip to a healthier climate upon the advice of a physician. We've known a few to beat it upon the advice of a lawyer.

When the News at Silvertown summed up the recent losses of merchants at Quitaque to the alleged bandits last week, the paper said "Lot stolen from G. Tunnell." The boys have taken about everything moveable, but when they stoop to take a "lot" from its accustomed abode in a real live city, we can't help but think how sad that "lot" must be moved to the brakes of the Cap Rock, surrounded with bad company.

MARY FRANCIS CARAWAY HONORED

"Farewell to Thee" is the outstanding song at present as we say goodbye to all the Betty Coeds, for they are leaving us now with wild dreams of "frat pens" and maybe a bit of an educational career as a side line.

And so it was last Friday night that the "gang" got together once more when Joyce Link honored Mary Francis Caraway with a farewell dance at the parish house. A rich profusion of multi-colored flowers added gaiety to the young folks and soon everyone was swaying to the rhythmic strains of music.

Punch was served throughout the evening to Misses Pauline Shelton, Jonnie D. Latson, Hazel Gilbert, Nola Gordon, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Lodi Green, Jean Bourland, Carroll Holder, Elizabeth Kemp, Lucille Andis, Pauline Sanford, Mary Francis Caraway, the honoree, and Joyce Link, the hostess; and to Messrs. Byrum Haile, Bill Wood, Snooks Andis, Henry Wilder, Fred Bourland, James Smith, Mike Stricklin, Bill Word, Sam Cauthen, Carol Hudson, Benton Smith, Steve Green, Kenneth Brown, Tony Watson, Glen Allison, Clayton Powell, and Hollis Leathers; and to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bennett, Miss Lotta Bourland, and Mr. Densil Davis.

Thus ended an evening of fun and gaiety only too soon.

B & P WOMEN The Business and Professional Women's club met Tuesday evening in the club room. The subject for the evening was "research" with unusually interesting talks by Mrs. Ruth Reeves and Miss Mantie Graves.

MUSEUM STARTS CONSTRUCTION OF ON HISTORIC DAY

CANYON, Sept. 8—September 1st, the day on which excavation began for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum, was a day of many anniversaries.

Fifty years ago, on Sept. 1, 1882 there occurred on the site of the building one of the largest cattle round-ups ever held in Randall county. These were the cattle of the T-Anchor ranch and L. Gough of Amarillo, one of the men who helped 50 years ago, was on hand when the basement excavation began this year.

Twenty-two years ago, on Sept. 1, 1910, the members of the first faculty of the West Texas State Teachers college arrived in Canyon to prepare for opening the first session of the school. Among them was J. A. Hill, now president of the college, R. B. Cousins, who recently died at Kingsville, and L. G. Allen, Miss Jennie C. Ritchie and Miss Mary E. Hudspeth, who are still members of the faculty.

The old freight road, over which supplies were hauled from Amarillo and even farther north to the south plains in the days when there were no railroads, passed across the spot where the museum will stand.

The Panhandle Plains Historical Society Museum is being built at a cost of $50,000, half of which was raised by the society and half of which was appropriated by the state. It will be the first state museum in Texas.

Prominent Canyon Ranchman Died There Wednesday

Edward D. Harrell, ranchman in Randall county for the past 42 years, expired Wednesday after a long illness.

He was a leading spirit in the Museum movement and also was a large stockholder in the First State Bank of Canyon. He owned a ranch in Armstrong county, formerly a part of the J. A. pasture.

Mr. M. S. Parsons left for Mineral Wells Sunday for medical treatment.

Too Much Water for Flood Control System

CHEVROLET SALES SHOW INCREASE

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 15—Chevrolet dealers reported the sale of 29,230 new cars and trucks in August as compared with 26,549 in July, H. J. Klingler, vice-president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company announced today.

Every one of the three ten-day reporting periods in August revealed a gain over the corresponding periods of July, Mr. Klingler said. The last ten-day period was the largest for the month, with 12,126 new cars and trucks delivered to consumers, compared with 11,843 in the corresponding July period. Thus the company entered September, normally much better from a sales standpoint than August, on a rising sales curve.

While August was showing a ten per cent gain over July, field stocks of both new and used cars were greatly reduced during the month, Mr. Klingler said, the reduction in new cars amounting to more than 4,000 units in the last ten days alone, and the used car reduction amounting to nearly as many units. The result is that present field stocks of used cars are lower than they have ever been at this season of the year since the Chevrolet dealer organization grew to its present size, Mr. Klingler stated.

Bud Russell Clears Record As Prisoner Agent

Bud Russell's "one way truck" of today is a familiar sight to many in Texas because of the fact that he transfers practically all prisoners from place of sentence to the penitentiary.

After transferring 46,098 prisoners without a single escape, Russell's record received a "nick" at Abilene on August 26th when a Mexican, Carlos Brazil, escaped by sawing the chain from his neck before being taken from the bus cage. He fled as he was being taken to jail for the night, a custom of the agent.

Russell could have captured him by shooting, but that would have endangered the lives of bystanders. He shot Brazil in the heel which only accelerated his speed. Brazil hid in a canyon for six days, hopped a freight and was picked up by immigration officers at El Paso two days later.

Sunday, Brazil was on his way to the pen in charge of Bud Russell. Brazil is said to have escaped from a South Dakota state prison, and several different jails during his hectic career as a law-breaker. Brazil is now to serve 60 years for robbery and assault to murder after conviction in an El Paso court.

Of 3,162 escapes from the various prisons in Texas, Russell returned them all without the loss of a single man.

Years ago, the writer came upon the Russell camp near Ft. Stockton. A number of prisoners were being transferred from an inland town to the railroad by means of a hack. During the noon hour, these prisoners were allowed some freedom by being chained from neck to neck through the wheel of the vehicle.

When prisoners are gotten ready to place in the "one way bus" as Russell employs that method today, they are chained together by their necks. Extra bad boys seldom have a weight on the foot since any one escaping would have to take the whole bunch with him.

He Investigates

Sam McCorkle, district attorney at Mexia, Texas, who says he has in his possession 20,000 names, addresses and ballot numbers of illegal voters, and will use them to prove Sterling the nominee, if the Lubbock convention names Mrs. Ferguson the winner.

As a penitentiary agent, Bud Russell has no equal in the world for safety of delivery, or on point of kind treatment of his charges. Contrary to general belief, Bud Russell is kind-hearted, considerate of the comfort of his prisoners, sees that they are well cared for and never loses his temper.

MELLOWED 80 MILLION YEARS

While brutes grew coats of mail in OKLAHOMA

Today the drills of Sinclair oil men have bitten deep into the soil of Oklahoma and tapped that treasure trove of the ages, the Cambro-Ordovician oil pool—the pool that was already old when the age of dinosaurs came upon the world. Piped into the great Sinclair refineries and carefully refined and blended, this oldest of Mid-continent crudes becomes Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, a product averaging more than 80 million years of Nature's priceless mellowing and filtering. In process of manufacture, Sinclair Opaline is de-waxed and freed from non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Note how Sinclair Opaline lasts in the heat of hard, fast driving—observe at draining time how little oil has been used up. A sure proof of quality! Ask for Sinclair Opaline.

UNEQUAL REGULATION IN TRANSPORTATION CAUSES DISORDER AND CONFUSION

The instability, confusion and disorder which unrestrained truck transportation has brought about is responsible in large measure for much of the distress in which all business finds itself today. Texas has moved to find a remedy and all concerned in the welfare of this state and its institutions should cooperate in the effort to restore stability and order to our transportation systems.

The Texas Railroads, in these advertisements, have endeavored to place before the people of this state some of the reasons why the existing laws, regulating motor transportation, should be upheld and enforced.

1. The railroads are necessary for the successful marketing of the enormous production of this state, which is used and consumed in every other state in the union.

Uniform, published, non-discriminatory transportation service rates are essential to the orderly conduct and welfare of business.

Unregulated truck transportation inevitably results in discriminatory charges and practices, rebating, unfair and unbusinesslike competitive methods, bringing about losses and commercial insecurity.

The wholesaler, jobber, retailer and local merchant suffer from the unfair competition of truckers and peddlers who, for the most part, are non-residents, pay no taxes and contribute nothing to the community welfare.

The farmer and agricultural producer must have at his command facilities adequate to transport crops and produce which move long distances in large volume, at low cost, by rail.

2. The railroads build and maintain their own roadways, pay heavy taxes for the support of state and municipal governments and institutions, and expend millions of dollars for payrolls, materials and supplies. Railroad workers are substantial citizens, home owners, and valued members of their communities.

3. Rail transportation is the most efficient and economical in existence for the movement of traffic in volume by land.

4. Texas highways belong to the people and are built and maintained at heavy cost. Their use for commercial purposes is a privilege, not a right. They should be kept safe for general use and not prematurely destroyed by heavy trucks.

5. The stability, security and orderly conduct of business require reasonable control and regulation of all transportation agencies.

Get Ready Now! Save a Third

Since the panic struck us in 1929, every one has been hard hit for actual cash. Newspapers have "carried on" under an immense strain. The Leader has not been reduced in size or quality through these many, many months of hardship.

When you were handicapped for the price, we came to your rescue and traded with you accepting those articles you could spare best. It was our intention to convince you of our faith in you and our country.

We have carried the load through part of 1929, 1930, 1931 and this far into 1932 without a protest. Good and well. We feel at this time that our many reader friends are willing to help us by paying for the Leader in cash at the rate of only

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR (IN DONLEY COUNTY)

This offer is being made for only a limited time and supplants all previous offers of exchange except where such exchange has not been completed.

We Have Served You Faithfully

We served you in utmost good faith when you needed us - - we need your help now. We have no other source to look to except those whom we have befriended. A dollar is a small sum to each individual, but when we look over the list of several hundred readers, you can readily see that it means much to us.

OVER $2000 DOLLARS

We have over that sum scattered over the county held in trust by our loyal supporters. Won't you make an extra effort to pay us that DOLLAR within the next month? We would be glad to do as much for you any time.

If you are paid up to date, a dollar will extend your subscription another year. We are making this appeal to you rather than drop your name from the list. Look at the figures following your name on your paper. If you are not paid up, do for us just what you would want us to do for you if our positions were reversed

Our friends have never failed us in the past - - we await your answer to this appeal with utmost faith feeling that you will show your appreciation at the earliest possible moment.

The extent to which the raging Rio Grande surged through lower valley lowlands is clearly shown in this excellent air photo. The international bridge from Hidalgo, Texas, to Reynosa, Mexico, is shown, the approach on the Mexican side inundated, while the furious water cut a 150 chasm through the road on the American side. "Boy Lincoln" Evolved From Survey of Lincoln Statues

It required an exhaustive survey of all the Lincoln statues in the United States and Europe before the Lincoln National Life Foundation, Fort Wayne, Ind., could find the type that would be new and best-suited to its Indiana surroundings.

The completed bronze—heroic in size—it rises on its plinth and pedestal to a height of 24 feet—and classical in feeling, portrays the Emancipator as a youth of twenty-one when he departed from Indiana after a residence of 14 years. It will be formally dedicated on the plaza of the Lincoln National Life Insurance company's building at Fort Wayne on September 16.

"Since Lincoln had spent his youth from his seventh to his twenty-first year in the state of Indiana, it was our thought," said Franklin B. Mead, author of the outstanding brochure of Lincoln statues, who conceived the idea of giving the world for the first time a monument in bronze revealing Lincoln as he appeared in his boyhood days in Indiana, "that our statue should not be in the proverbial style of the bearded Lincoln in double breasted frock which is in danger of becoming hackneyed, but should present the maturity of boyhood when his mind and personality were just becoming a man's. Consequently we commissioned one of the greatest sculptors in the world, Paul Manship of New York, to create a statue of this type. This was to bear the inscription, 'Abraham Lincoln, the Hoosier Youth.' "It is necessary to enumerate and classify the portraits erected to Lincoln in America, if the work of Mr. Manship is to be set apart from former efforts. Illinois leads with nine, then follow New York, five; District of Columbia, Kentucky and New Jersey, three each; California, Nebraska, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin, two each; Connecticut, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan and Washington, one each. The absence of Indiana in this list becomes very conspicuous when it is remembered that Lincoln spent 14 of his formative years in the Hoosier state.

"The consideration of atmosphere has had much to do with the decision that the Manship bronze should portray Lincoln the Youth as he emerges from the Indiana wilderness at the age of twenty-one. It is appropriate that the bronze statue of Lincoln erected in the state of Indiana should present 'Lincoln the Hoosier.'

"The site to be occupied by a memorial is another influence which has determined the character of some of the more recent reproductions of Lincoln. An attempt to place upon historic ground which visualizes the Lincoln of that time has been put forth, Urbana, Ill., where Lincoln practiced law on his regular itinerary, has given us 'The Circuit Rider,' Springfield, Ill., has placed in front of its state house the Lincoln of 'The Farewell Address,' and Dixon, Ill., has welcomed again 'Lincoln the Soldier.'

"Most of the memorials of the former president portray him during the days of his administration and they have become known as the 'bearded Lincolns.' It is well known that he did not grow a beard until after his nomination to the presidency. The Manship bronze focuses attention on an hitherto unappreciated phase of the Emancipator's life—the formative years he spent in Indiana—tremendously important years, in view of his later accomplishments."

years of age and had lived in and near Lelia for the past 16 or 17 years. He graduated from Lelia Lake High School May 13, 1927. Through all those years Leland numbered his friends by his acquaintances, both among the old and the young. He was converted and united with the First Baptist church. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Knox, his brothers and sisters are Willard, Van, Altha, Isabel, Mrs. J. P. Reynolds and Mrs. Cecil Dodson of Lelia and Hugh of Vega and Noel of Adrain, all of whom were here to attend the last rites of their loved one.

Interment was made in the Citizens cemetery. The pallbearers and honorary were Dell Losson,

TEXAS TECH & TEXAS A. & M. FOOTBALL GAME

AMARILLO, Sept. 14—Interest in the Tri-State Fair sponsored college football game to be played in Amarillo on Sept. 24, the last day of this year's exposition, is mounting daily and not without sufficient cause. Both of the teams, the Aggies of College Station, and the Matadors of Texas Tech, promise to be among the Southwest's greatest this season.

The Matadors are pointing for this game. Pete Cawthon will fire his men up to the highest possible pitch, for a victory over the stalwart Aggies would brighten Tech's chance to some day become a member of the Southwest Conference.

Matty Bell and his team will put out their best because they will be playing before a strange audience and in a new part of the state for them. The stigma of defeat from the hands of the Matadors would cause nearly as much grief in Aggie land as to lose to Texas, for the Bullfighters are an "outside" outfit, and the Farmers do not intend to do anything to lower the prestige now enjoyed by the Southwest conference.

Hundreds of ex-aggies are planning to attend the game, and watch their favorites in action. Likewise, several hundred exes and present students of Texas Tech will be on hand to cheer for the West Texans.

Avery Rush, secretary and Bill Lampe, President, of the Tri-State Fair Association have left nothing undone to make this game the feature sports event of the year. Prices are $1.10, $1.65 and $2.50 for boxes. The game will be played at Butler Field.

Out-of-town orders for reservations should be sent to Lyman E. Robbins, Globe-News, Amarillo. Mr. Robbins wishes those who care to sit in the special reserved section for ex-aggies to so specify when sending in orders. The Aggie section seats are $1.65.

A special train will be run from Lubbock for the game.

How One Woman Lost 10 lbs. in a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.

COUNTY AGENT TELLS ROTARIANS ABOUT FARMING

Poultry Production Profits And Bee Feeding Methods Explained by Broun

President Oscar L. Jenkins presided at the Rotary luncheon hour Friday in an effort to maintain his one hundred percent record during his administration.

County agent T. F. Broun came as guest speaker taking up the allotted time in a discussion of his line of work. His references to poultry production for profit, the care and attention of fowls of all ages, elicited a number of inquiries and appeared to interest his listeners.

He covered the subject of beef production in an efficient manner, and in this instance was piled with even more questions, a number of those present being directly interested in feeding cattle for market as well as dairy stock.

An invitation to join the Childress club in sponsoring a program for the Memphis club came up for attention, and final arrangements were made to share in the program.

Mother of Mrs. Grant Dies Wednesday Night

Mrs. Mary W. Churchwell, aged 87, mother of Mrs. G. R. Grant of the Goldston community, passed away at the Grant home Wednesday night of the 14th near midnight. She had been making her home with this daughter for the past three years.

Much of the history of Mrs. Churchwell was given in the Leader recently when the Clarendon band visited her that she might enjoy band music for the first time in over thirty years.

Her living children are Mrs. G. R. Grant of Goldston, Mrs. W. L. Meek of Amistad, New Mexico and one son, George Churchwell of Long Beach, California.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Grant home by Elder Morgan of Mobeetie at 3 p. m. this (Thursday) afternoon, with interment in the Citizens cemetery.

Sunnyview Pie Supper Nets Seventeen Dollars

Neal Bogard acting as auctioneer at the pie supper at Sunnyview Friday night stirred to fever heat those burdened with "mazuma", and made them buy toothsome wares prepared by the ladies. His wit and humor added to the delectable flavor of the pies made every one happy and contented "long after the price was forgotten."

There was spirited opposition in deciding the prettiest girl, the honors finally falling to Miss Jane McWhorter, a champion built cake being her prize.

Donald Ballew having just come out from under the eclipse of a strenuous day in a cotton field of rising prices, was somewhat handicapped as a beauty specimen, and was awarded the prize of being the ugliest man present.

The proceeds from the sales amounted to about $17, this sum to be expended for school equipment.

Ed Boliver, editor and publisher of the Hedley Informer, and best known as the "Sage of Salt Fork," was visiting relatives in Clarendon Monday.

Mrs. Churchwell, mother of Mrs. J. R. Grant of the Goldston community, is reported as being seriously ill. She received a severe injury in a fall several months ago from which she has not been able to recover.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile—Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of fluid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. ©1931, C. M. Co.
