A Common Paper For Common People

Independence Day Will Be Celebrated Here 2nd

Business houses of Clarendon will furnish space in their display windows for the school exhibits March second, Texas Independence Day. Songs of Texas and the Southwest will be sung by the school children of the County. Lelia Lake, Hedley and Clarendon Independent Schools will have their program of singing in the auditorium of the Clarendon Junior High School. The rural school program of music will be in the First Methodist Church of Clarendon.

J. D. Wilson, Deputy State Superintendent of District One, will speak on both programs. Paul Baker of the Speech Art Department have a part on each of these programs. Baylor University will also give a program.

The school children will dress as cowboys. Donley is the Cowboy County of Texas for the Texas Centennial next June the thirtieth. Each school will have some phase of Texas History, a Texas Ranch, a Texas City and their own school work from which they may gather information to build their exhibits.

The schedule of exhibits follows: Midway Consolidated, Norwood Pharmacy; Sunnyview No. 1, Little Dry Goods; Giles No. 4, Rieger Dry Goods; Windy Valley No. 6, Clarendon Furniture; Fairview No. 7, Donley County Leader; Goldston No. 8, Thompson Hardware; Jericho No. 9, Goldston Drug; Smith No. 10, Clarendon News; Bray No. 11, Green Dry Goods; Watkins No. 12, Watson & Antrobus; Skillet No. 16, Bryan Clothing Company; Ashtola No. 17, Kerbow Hardware; Martin No. 18, Rathjens Shoe Store; Bairfield No. 19, West Texas Utility; Chamberlain, No. 20, Headrick Hardware; Hudgins No. 21, Taylor Hardware; McKnight No. 23, Alderson's Art Studio; Glenwood No. 24, Stocking Drug; Lelia Lake Schools, Shaver & Whitlock; Hedley Schools, Clarendon Motor Co.; Transportation Booth, Clarendon Tire and Supply Co.; Adult School, Stewart Plumbing; and Superintendent and Trustees Headquarters at Clarendon Hotel.

Immediately after the program at the Clarendon Junior High and the Methodist Church, the school children, trustees, teachers and patrons will parade. The afternoon will be spent in enjoying the inspection of the different school exhibits. Everyone is invited to take part in this celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence of Texas from Old Mexico.

Southwest's Ancient History Studied by Students

Canyon, Feb. 19.—Young people are interested in the world's most ancient history. At the West Texas State Teachers College the Department of Paleontology and Archaeology which is little more than a year old, now has 85 students.

The course having the largest number of students enrolled is historical geology with 68 in the class. An archaeology which deals with the culture of Indians of the Southwest United States has 14 students.

Professor C. Stuart Johnston, who teaches the classes, spends much time among the fossil beds and prehistorical ruins of the Panhandle.

Many Secure Driver's License

Up until Wednesday night, a total of 235 driver's licenses had been issued from the tax collector's office, Joe Bownds stated. The license is free and drivers have until April 1st to secure them in Donley county, it is said. District clerk Walker Lane received the first license to be issued in this county Friday.

GOV. JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor Allred will make the speech nominating Vice President John N. Garner for the same office again when the National Democratic Convention meets in Philadelphia.

NYA Projects Are Approved In Donley

$2530 Allocated for School Ground Improvement; Will Employ 31 People

Approval of his application for National Youth Administration beautification of school grounds of Donley county was announced by Supt. Sloan Baker Wednesday. Twenty-eight youths and three project clerks have been requisitioned by the National Youth Administration for the beautification of school grounds, the repair of school buildings, and the building of playground equipment. Twenty-five hundred and thirty dollars will be expended by the N.Y.A. in Donley County on this project. Allotment for materials was allowed under the rural aid grants by Deputy State Superintendent J. D. Wilson. County Superintendent Sloan Baker is in charge of this project. Work will start as soon as the weather permits.

The January report submitted by State Director Johnson showed that 8,571 youths are at work, with 6,751 of that number on NYA projects and 1,820 on WPA jobs. The report also showed that 467 projects had been approved and $429,530 had been set aside for prosecution of the projects.

"Through the cooperation of the WPA, Texas Relief Commission and state and national employment services we have been able to attain this figure, and we expect to have 12,500 youngsters on the job by Saturday, February 22," Director Johnson said.

Latest totals at NYA headquarters show that jobs have been made available for 19,426 youngsters and that federal funds allocated for approved projects total $447,288.10.

Bert Smith and Senator Clint Small made a trip to the East Texas oil fields over the week. Bert states that farmers in the piney woods are farming, birds singing and every evidence of spring down that way.

Turnbow Family Sells Farm And Moves to Roswell

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Turnbow and son Royce left here today Roswell bound where they will make their home in the future. They sold their farm west of town to John Thomas Friday.

Mrs. Turnbow has a sister living at Roswell where they have visited on a number of occasions. No better folks ever lived in Donley county, and hundreds of warm personal friends will wish them every success in their new home, though their leaving here is regretted extremely.

Smallest Testament On Exhibit Here

The New Testament, the smallest edition ever printed from actual type, is now on exhibit at the Norwood Pharmacy.

The book measures seven-eighths of an inch in length, is three-fourths of an inch wide, and is one-fourth of an inch in thickness.

The book is kept in a metal container made in the form of a book.

The title page is clear, but the printing on the inside pages are barely discernible when looked at by the best eyesight.

The book is said to have been printed from moveable type and is quite a curiosity. It may be seen in a showcase at the Norwood Pharmacy any time this week.

Baby Beeves Keep Boys Going In High

There is a great deal of interest being taken in the calf show as the appearance date nears. The Donley County Fat Stock Show will be held here March the 7th at the Clarendon Sales Pavilion.

Due to the large amount of money offered in prizes, the boys are anxious as to the welfare of their calves. The white face beauties are almost demanding air conditioned quarters with all the attention they are receiving from their enthusiastic owners.

"It is a common sight at this time to note 4-H club boys visiting a bit among the other contestants in an effort to check up on the competition that he expects and will have at the stock show," county agent Breedlove stated Wednesday.

"Interest is the basis of a good show, and likewise it takes competition to get the boys interested," Mr. Breedlove announces.

Donley county has the calf quality, feed and climate to produce kings of the bovine world. They just don't have any better stock anywhere, stockmen of years of experience state in discussing general topics of beef cattle.

Local Teachers to Appear On Canyon Program

Canyon, Feb. 12, 1936.—Superintendent H. T. Burton is a member of the Resolutions Committee of the Northwest Texas Conference for Education which will hold its third annual meeting at the West Texas State Teachers College, March 6 and 7. The Resolutions Committee is considered one of the most important of the conference.

J. M. Hill of Clarendon will appear on the program of the agricultural section.

An attendance of at least 1,500 is expected for the conference since practically all schools of the Panhandle will be closed and many members of men's and women's clubs, ministers and school board members will also attend.

Attend Baptist Conference At Brice Tuesday

Mrs. A. T. Cole, Mrs. A. W. Simpson, Mrs. Ben Hill, Rev. C. M. Brister, and J. Perry King attended the Panhandle Baptist Workers Conference at Brice, Tuesday, Feb. 18th. There was a good attendance in spite of the cold weather.

Rev. D. D. Sumrall of Wellington, Rev. C. B. Stovall, of Goodnight, and O. K. Webb of Memphis were the main speakers of the day.

Man Frozen Last Week Will Lose Toes and Fingers

Wm. F. Ramsey, who was badly frozen while walking from Clarendon west to the R. L. Mason farm several days ago, will lose some of the fingers of his right hand and some of his toes, it is said.

He continues as a patient at Adair hospital where he is slowly recovering from his trying ordeal and narrow escape from death by freezing.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Kemp had business in Pampa Wednesday.

MUSICAL COMEDY IS FRIDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Ira Merchant to Direct Play to Raise Funds For Crippled Children

"A Dumb Waiter," musical comedy to be presented Friday night of this week at 7:45 at the College Auditorium, will be sponsored by the Lions Club for the benefit of the crippled children's fund.

The play is being directed by Mrs. Ira Merchant whose talent and training as a dramatic artist, eminently fit her for that important position.

The plot is light and entertaining. The story is of a widow's trials in trying to operate her summer hotel, and a poor young guest's experiences trying to win her daughter by proving he is willing to work for a living.

The dances will be directed by Miss Mary Cooke.

The cast includes: Mrs. Aurelia Vanderhof, a widow with social ambitions. This part is taken by Miss Rhoda Wiedman. Mrs. Abigail Bates, the landlady of the Summit Tavern, will be played by Mrs. O. L. Jenkins. Prudence Bates, her daughter, who is in love with Jack, is an interesting part taken by Miss Dorothy Jo Ryan.

Professor McNoodle, an eccentric but harmless collector, is none other than Phillips Gentry. Jack Temple, a poor but honest hotel guest, will be exemplified by Ira Merchant in person.

Gloria Martin, a friend and companion of Prudence, is played by Miss Jean Bourland. Billy Hunter, Jack's friend and advisor on all things and matters necessary, is the part of Fred Williams.

Henry J. Bannister, from Wall Street—quite a distance, employs the talent of Jerome D. Stocking. Bert Wilkins, a nobleman by necessity, will be played by James Cornelius.

This carefully selected cast, where special home talent fits into best advantage, has been going through rehearsals for several days. It will be an interesting play with music, thrills and emotions of a varied description. The small admittance fee will enable all to attend the big show who enjoy the best in home talent plays.

The funds will be spent in assisting crippled children to get more out of life, which is a most worthy cause.

Chamberlain Joins 4-H Club Movement

Buster Warrick is President And Bob Wilson Secretary Of Newest Club

It was an enthusiastic bunch of boys who gathered with county agent H. M. Breedlove at the Chamberlain school a few days ago. Ten of the boys enlisted under the 4-H Club banner.

In casting around for their most likely official material, Buster Warrick was chosen president of the Club, and Marvin Salmon was chosen for vice president.

Bob Wilson is secretary-treasurer of the newest club, and will see that a secretary's duties do not lag, or that the exchequer does not become depleted.

Meeting dates are said to be on the second day in each month.

A number of boys of the community could not be present due to illness. Under the guidance of R. W. Moore and G. G. Reeves as local leaders, this should be one of the best clubs in the county.

McMurry College Glee Club To Appear Here

The Glee Club from McMurry College, consisting of thirty young singers are to appear in a program at the First Methodist Church on the evening of February 26, 7:30 o'clock.

These singers are directed by Mrs. Gipsy Tedd Sullivan Wiley, Dean of Fine Arts at the College. There will be no admission charge and a program is promised that will delight all who attend.

Pension Blanks Are Snapped Up

Reports from the office of both county judge and county clerk state that pension application blanks were in demand from the very beginning Friday.

Of the 100 blanks passed out, 57 were taken by men, 35 by women and 8 by colored people, three of whom were women.

Blanks are expected any day. Mr. Word stated Wednesday. Applicants are being assisted in making out these blanks by Judge Lowe, county clerk Bill Word, and J. M. Hill, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Man Arrested Here Wanted At Childress

Acting upon instructions from Childress, Sheriff Pierce took into custody early Monday one Milo Dotson who is said to have been given a suspended two year sentence at Vernon the last of the week. Dotson was found in a local rooming house, Pierce said.

It is claimed that one of the provisions in the suspended sentence was that Dotson was to restore money to a party to cover a dry check. His attorney came here with him Sunday but lost him. Dotson allegedly told his attorney that he could get the money here, but failed to meet the attorney again during the day.

Sheriff Pierce had instructions to arrest Dotson and hold for Childress. Deputy Dick Moore came for Dotson within two hours after his arrest, and returned Dotson to Childress.

According to Sheriff Pierce, he was informed that Dotson is wanted at Hollis, Oklahoma on three felony charges, and is wanted at Lefors and Littlefield, Texas and Tucumcari, New Mexico.

Dotson has figured in a number of local disagreements with the law-enforcement officers and courts of Donley County, but apparently each time came out winner in the argument, so far as the courts were concerned.

Henry Tatum is Employed To Handle Relief Matters

During a session of the Commission's court here Wednesday, Henry Tatum was employed to dispense food and clothing to those seeking relief.

Applications must be made to Mr. Davis at the relief headquarters on Wednesday of each week. Mr. Tatum only has authority to follow the directions of Mr. Davis who works out of the Pampa district office.

Food and clothing will be dispensed out of the stock here now, and which accumulated from the sewing room and cannery operated by the relief project.

This assistance has become necessary for those who are unable to secure employment under the WPA, or who have jobs and have large families and do not earn sufficient to make necessary purchases.

William Conner Dies in Los Angeles Sunday

The body of Wm. R. Conner arrived here Wednesday night from Los Angeles, California where he died following an appendix operation Sunday. Mrs. Jewell Conner, his wife, accompanied the body.

Mr. Conner formerly resided at Lelia Lake until about three years ago. He was 24 years of age.

Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, W. Wallace Layton, at the Church of Christ at 3:30 this afternoon. The Buntin mortuary had charge of funeral arrangements.

COTTON

County agent Breedlove is in receipt of information from Washington that all contracts and obligations made and compiled with prior to January 6, 1936, will be paid.

Martin Funeral Is Held Here Monday

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church at three p. m. Monday for Mrs. J. R. Martin who died at her home in Amarillo Sunday. Rev. E. D. Landreth had charge of the services.

Pallbearers were selected from classmates of her children and were Wesley Powell, Howard Strawn, Jesse Carnell, Ralph Grady, Otis Rolls, and Tuett Holtzclaw.

Flower bearers were also classmates of her children. They were Vera and Eugenia Noland, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Louise Tucker, Edna Thomas, Jean Piercy, Evelyn Murphy and Mrs. Loyd Benson.

Besides her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. R. C. Allison, Mrs. C. B. Melton, Loyd and Verlin Martin all of Clarendon; Mrs. Roy Fletcher, Rule; Don Martin and Mrs. Robert Cook of Amarillo.

Relatives and friends from out of town attending the last rites were Rex Carlile, Arlington; Mrs. Huntsman of New Mexico; H. T. Carlile, Peacock; Mrs. Roy Fletcher, Rule; Mrs. Pearl Towles, Amarillo; T. W. Whately, Borger; Mrs. Bryant, Amarillo.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Martin was born November 22, 1875 and was 60 years, 2 months and 23 days old at her passing. She was of that kindly mother type of christian character, ever ready to make sacrifices for others, regarding it as a privilege rather than a task. She made friends readily and those friends in large number paid a beautiful tribute to a noble character with flowers and tears at her funeral service here Monday.

Mrs. R. S. Moss and son Jack spent Sunday in Childress with Mrs. Moss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meek.

Mrs. E. D. Dawkins and small daughter are both recovering from flu attacks lasting some three weeks.

Daughter of Local Couple Dies at Sudan

Mrs. Mary Cocanougher, aged 38, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bain of Clarendon, passed away at the family home in Sudan Saturday, February 15th. She leaves a husband and seven children.

Mrs. Cocanougher was well known here where she visited on a number of occasions.

Besides her parents here, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Stella Hill of Clarendon, and another sister, Mrs. Zula Didway of Hominy, Oklahoma. Her brothers are Joe, Olin, Reagan and James Bain, all of Clarendon.

At a recent meeting of the Les Beaux Arts club the members voted to sponsor a movement to establish, for the benefit of our children of town and county, a museum to be operated in connection with our Junior College.

Several of the presidents of the various clubs have pledged their support in furthering the project. A number have promised the gift or loan of curios and mementos of historical and educational value.

An appeal is being made to all citizens of the county who can give or lend relics, to call Mrs. L. S. Bagby, Phone 295, who will receive all articles at her home where they will be catalogued.

The specimens will be placed in showcases in a special room at the College and kept securely for exhibition purposes, advises Mrs. Bagby.

The exhibit will be open to public inspection on March 2nd during the Independence Day celebration here.

For a number of years, many have been of the opinion that Donley county should have a museum. This opinion was probably based upon the fact that the largest museums of the nation come to Donley county for a great part of their material.

At this time material for the Panhandle-Plains Museum of Canyon, and the American Museum of New York City, are being secured west of the Goldston school some ten miles north of Clarendon.

Modern relics and rare specimens of pioneer days of the French, Spanish and English in the Panhandle are possible. Especially is this true of the Spanish explorers. Some relics of early French exploration have been found in Palo Duro canyon.

Most of the early period of white conquest dates from Coronado's visit which is fixed at approximately 1541, according to most historians. Old Spanish relics found in Palo Duro Park and other watering places in the Panhandle would verify this deduction.

The good women of Donley county now take the lead to form the nucleus of a great museum. It is now up to every citizen in the county to help, as one leading citizen stated Wednesday when informed of the new project.

Sloan Baker to Speak Before Wheeler Meet

Among those to appear on the program of the Rural Teacher-Trustee banquet at Wheeler Friday night of this week is Superintendent Sloan Baker. Mr. Baker's subject will be "A progressive county school system."

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

WHEN Mr. and Mrs. Robinson took their Bobette to dinner at the Skinks' house, it turned out that Mr. Skinks had been to a party the night before, and he sat down to the dinner table at his own house that day with a right black eye.

So Bobette was looking and staring at the black eye, and Mrs. Robinson, across the table, gave her a terrible look and shook her head a little.

Bobette spoke right up. "Well, Mom," she says, "I ain't going to say a word about it. Honest, I wasn't going to ask him how it happened. But ain't I got a right to look at it a little bit?"

POLITICAL MUDDLE FINALLY SETTLED.

For some time political leaders of Texas have been up in the air regarding Texas political leadership as it should appear at the National convention at Philadelphia.

Senator Tom Connally had his friends who insisted that the Senator should be the whole show. On the other hand, Governor Allred had just as many, or more friends, who wanted to see Governor Jimmie head the parade.

Had it been left to the voters of the state, the Governor would have come out of the huddle with flying colors. Since it was left to a small group of committeemen, who saw fit to play politics, matters were settled contrary to the wishes of the Panhandle, at least.

As the matter now stands, the Senator will head the Texas delegation, but the Governor will make the speech nominating Vice President John Garner for his second term.

The mere fact that Governor Allred will lend his endorsement to the administration, will go a long way toward keeping Texas in line this year when grave doubts are arising in the minds of political leaders in a number of nominally democratic states. Texas went republican just a few years ago, and there is much discontent over the demise of party alphabets in this state just now. No other man in the state can do more for the party this year than can Governor Jimmie Allred.

DUST BOWL BOGIE EXAGGERATED.

For centuries, West Texas has been blessed with plenty of fresh air. Winds of varying intensity are expected in our section in the early spring, but we do not expect dust storms. Dust storms came over the scene for the first time in 1935.

With the moisture at this time as compared with none a year ago, dust storms will likely not occur this season to any extent. With the aid of the State Extension Service, U. S. Soil Conservation Service and the better methods of farming employed the past twelve months, dust storms will no doubt be out of the picture this season.

Extremely cold weather, such as we have had during January and February, combined with snow that has fallen, indicates moisture for the crop season ahead. This theory holds true in practically every instance in West Texas through the years.

But here is our biggest trouble: We will not suffer so much from dust storms as we will from what the eastern papers have to say about them. A short time ago our section was caught in the whirl of an eastern blizzard. We naturally had a west wind that brought dust from several hundred miles to the northwest. Eastern dailies instantly played up the Texas "dust bowl" in bold headlines across the front page.

That kind of publicity hurts business in West Texas, and consequently in the East as well. West Texas received a dust that settled down and enriched our soil, but we gave up none to the east of us. We were really benefitted but the eastern dailies did not play it up that way.

At this time farming conditions were never better. More preparation is being made and the morale of the farmers is at a high pitch. West Texas is ready to go to bat with adversity, and will win despite any defamation of her character.

ALLRED SHOULD HEAD TEXAS DELEGATION

According to a Dallas newspaper one Percy Rice, a Dallas lawyer who managed Senator Tom Connally's campaign, has gone to Washington to suggest that Connally be the head of the Texas delegation to the National Democratic convention. The article states that Rice expressed opposition to Governor Allred being the chairman on the ground that it "would be lamentable to tie up the National Administration with State politics."

We hadn't given the matter much thought until Senator Connally's campaign manager started this opposition to Governor Allred, but from what people in these parts say it is only logical that the Governor of Texas should head the delegation. We don't know whether Allred wants the job or not, but he is the head of Texas Democracy as well as Centennial Governor, and as such is entitled to every courtesy.

Connally's campaign manager isn't doing him a bit of good by pro-cipitating a fight of this kind. Many of the Senator's friends are warm supporters of Governor Allred, and they see no occasion for any such Party strife, especially since Allred's recent warm defense of the National Administration.

There is no question but that the ringing speeches Governor Allred has delivered in this and other states recently, and the hearty endorsement of the National Administration by the State Democratic Executive Committee under his guidance, has cut the foundation out from under a world of opposition to the New Deal in Texas.

Allred's courageous action in this respect has been perhaps the most influential factor so far as the South is concerned in support of President Roosevelt and Vice President Garner.

We feel sure Senator Connally will not be led into any trap by the over enthusiasm of his campaign manager. For him to permit himself to be dragged into an effort to deny the Governor of Texas the recognition and honor to which he is entitled can't help the Senator one bit. It can hurt however, and Senator Connally should remember he will be up for reelection in 1940. —The Graham Leader.

Accidents Took Lives of 99,000 in U. S. Last Year; One Every Six Minutes

Ninety-nine thousand Americans died in accidents last year—one every six minutes.

That was the tabulation announced recently by the National Safety Council.

The total bill for America's carelessness was added up to approximately $3,000,000,000 in property damage, wage loss and municipal expense.

Council statisticians told the story in these grim figures:

Ninety-nine thousand killed; 365,000 permanently injured; 9,100,000 temporarily disabled; 271 killed every day, 11 every hour, one every six minutes; 25,000 injured every day, 1000 every hour, 16 every minute; 1000 permanently injured every day, 41 every hour. They noted a drop of 3000 from 1934 but pointed out the heat and drouth of the latter year claimed 3250 lives.

Motor vehicle crashes brought death to 37,400, an all-time high, permanent injury to 107,000 and temporary hurts to 1,170,000. Monetary loss in this bracket was set at $1,600,000,000.

There were 31,500 fatalities in home accidents, a decrease of 9 per cent from 1934. Falls accounted for about 44 per cent of them with burns, scalds, asphyxiation, firearms, poison and cuts other leading causes. There were 4,600,000 injuries. Monetary loss was set at $580,000,000.

Occupational deaths totaled 16,500 and injuries 1,400,000. Their cost was reckoned at $620,000,000. This was a slight increase but industrial activity was at a higher level. A duplication of 2900 deaths in the automobile and occupational classes was pointed out.

Public accidents other than those previously listed resulted in 17,500 deaths. Drownings, falls and fireworks and firearms were included in this category.

The council said the death rate per 100,000 population in the United States had declined from 85.5 in 1912 to 77.8 in 1935 due chiefly to the application of safety measures. It expressed confidence the five-year campaign designed to reduce motor vehicle fatalities 40 per cent would force still greater reduction. The drive was started January 1 on a nation-wide scale

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations
BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin. We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice. Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct. Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains... and safe for the average person to take regularly. You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

IT WORKED FOR ME

Women should take only liquid laxatives

MORE people could feel fine, be fit and regular, if they would only follow the rule of doctors and hospitals in relieving constipation.

Never take any laxative that is harsh in action. Or one, the dose of which can't be exactly measured. Doctors know the danger if this rule is violated. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why it should be a liquid like Syrup Pepsin. Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if it doesn't give you absolute relief, if it isn't a joy and comfort in the way it overcomes any sluggishness, or biliousness, your money back.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
 By the Apostle

The only time a woman can be proud of her age is when she gets ready to qualify for a state pension.

About the worst thing that can happen to a man is to get a bad case of political ambitions. The only thing that could be worse, is for his wife to get them for him.

In this age of autos, there are just two types of pedestrians—the quick or the dead.

The Sandhill Sage allows as how "conceit is a poor substitute for brains."

Member back when you cut the fire wood in the timber; walked beside the wagon in bitter cold weather bringing it in? Had the lines tied together over your shoulder and whammed your arms around your body to keep your fingers from freezing? Of course you do! Perhaps today you have a son who thinks he is "roughing it" if he rides in a sedan without a heater.

Verde Morris' little son Jimmy is a smart boy. He wanted to take his nose to pieces to see what made it run.

The honesty of a bank depositor is unquestioned, but the pencil is securely tied to the bar by the cage window.

As we understand it, the Liberty League seems to think that Roosevelt burned up the democratic platform making his fireside talks.

Probably the reason the English are giving Lindbergh a wide berth is that they think he is over there to collect the war debt.

Kidnapping was practiced among the ancients of biblical times. Read Exodus 1:6. There is very little new in the way of crime. Human nature changes little, if any.

Tune in at 8 p. m. tonight and hear the special Texas program over any NBC station. 1500 voices will sing Texas songs. The battles of the Alamo and San Jacinto will be dramatized. It ought to be a dandy program.

Thank you, R. W. Miller. I'm picking bald-headed guys to help in that debate at the next press convention because I understand the opposition will attempt to take "hide and hair off", and I just thought it would be handy to start into the fracas minus the hair. Has any one seen one Hop Graham of Farwell lately? How about it, Hop?

The Clarendon "Centennial Celebration and Pioneer Roundup" is getting quite a lot of publicity down state already. The fracas comes off July 4th, and believe you me, it will be some humdinger.

Washington Modernized
 Finding one of his favorite cherry trees cut down, the old man approached his son and said: "Bill, did you cut down that tree?"

With downcast eye and quivering lips, Bill said: "I can't deceive you father. Jack cut down the tree, but I bossed the job."

Tears of joy sprang into the old man's eyes. "Bless you, my boy. You will never be president, but you may be postmaster general and chairman of the party, and that's worth a darn sight more."

Heathenish Habits
 A man will bum a chew of tobacco and bite off the plug where others have bitten, but at home he would not think of eating off a piece of pie where his wife or children had bitten. At home he will not drink out of a glass where others have drunk just before him, but he will ram the neck of a bottle down his gizzard after a dozen bootheels have had a swig at it. If he eats in a public place, he chooses the highest stool and eats off a naked board. At home he demands a clean tablecloth and a comfortable chair. Great is man. (P. S. This is being written for the benefit of the women who requested that we give some of the inside antics of the nature of man.)

A beautiful poem-tribute to the memory of Wilbur C. Hawk appears in this issue through the courtesy of Mrs. Blanche F. Pumphrey. Mrs. Pumphrey is what I would term manager of the Amarillo Paper Company. I heard her give Mr. Pumphrey orders while I was in the office, and that was enough for a veteran of 30 years on which to base an opinion. Thank you Mrs. Pumphrey. All of Mr. Hawk's friends will appreciate the tribute.

In sending in the price of his subscription, H. B. Rhodes of the Ben Hill-Rhodes grocery firm of Tell, Texas allows as how the winter weather is doing its stuff down that way, but business is good.

It's wonderful how bad news travels. Here comes Nina E. Babcock, editor of the Cedar Springs, Michigan, Clipper after the red flannel article appeared in this column some two weeks ago. She says: "Cedar Springs merchants stock red flannels and our folks buy and wear them. They are worn outside during the deer season in the fall." At this time they are doubled on the inside with the thermometer stagnated around 20 below and snow seven feet on the level. The Panhandle climate would have never changed, neither would you be having dust storms today had your folks stuck to good old red flannels."

All we have in rebuttals is that we did not know before that nature and red flannels were so closely linked.

Case workers in the snow belt who can sing are in demand. While the highways are blocked so the folks can't get into town for the cabarets, the case workers go out and sing for them.

To the thin-skinned who can't take this column, I can only say that I will forgive your crudeness if you will forgive my ignorance.

TRIBUTE TO WILBUR HAWK
 "Not how did he die,
 But how did he live?
 Not what did he gain,
 But what did he give?"

These are the units
 That measure men's worth;
 The yardsticks of man,
 Regardless of birth.

Not what was his Church,
 Or what was his creed,
 But he was a friend
 To the fellow in need.

Not what did the sketch
 In the Newspaper say,
 But how many were sorry
 When he passed away?"

WHAT SAYS THE CLOCK

(Poem written by Will Frits shortly before his execution at Huntsville December 18, 1931.)

What says the clock when it strikes one?
 God loved the world and gave his son.
 What says the clock when it strikes two?
 O glad, good news, he died for you!

What does it say to sinners at three?
 When, O when will you serious be?
 Come to Christ, it says at four,
 Enter at once the open door.

I hear it urge as it strikes five,
 To enter life's strait gate now strive.
 It speaks at six of y... fading day,
 Your life's a vapor that passeth away.

What says the clock as it strikes seven?
 Born again you must be to enter heaven.
 Hear its solemn chimes when striking eight,
 If you longer wait, you may come too late.

Then louder still it warns at nine
 No longer slight God's love divine.
 With pleading voice it now strikes ten,
 Why will ye die, ye sons of men?

Sad words it utters as it tolls eleven,
 Almost too late to enter Heaven.
 Hark! it tolls twelve—the die is cast.
 It's Heaven or hell for your soul at last.

Each tick of the clock,
 Says come to me,
 Soon your soul will be,
 In etern-i-ty.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Couch are in McAllen, down in the Rio Grande Valley, this week.

QUIET WOMEN
 There be quiet women,
 Those who listen well,
 Those who wrest from caution
 Everything they tell.

There be quiet women,
 Women in whose eyes
 Many a half-seen story
 Holds its breath—and dies.

GOLDSTON SCHOOL NEWS

The eighth and ninth grades are working on their Spanish pageant for March 2nd.

We are still working on our program for Friday night, February 21st. Come, bring your change, and have some fun. We are giving the play "Doughnuts." No charges for the play.

The sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth grades spent Friday afternoon visiting the Ashtola school. We stopped at Martin and the boys played a game of basketball with the Martin Bunnies with a score of 13-10 in Martin's favor. We enjoyed the game and the exhibit at the Ashtola school.

Friday night, the bus took a group of boys and girls to Groom, where our girls defeated the Groom girls 19 to 15. We are looking forward to the Goodnight tournament the 29th of February. Folks remember Friday night.

LET AN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR SERVE YOUR HOME THIS SUMMER
 once you've enjoyed its many conveniences ... you would never, never do without one!

The Spring and Summer months bring greater demands in refrigeration. High and excessive temperatures require a dependable source of refrigeration in order to properly preserve foods.

Electric refrigeration will meet these demands! Regardless of how hot the Spring and Summer weather, you have a constant temperature automatically maintained. Consequently, milk products, meats and other hard-to-keep foods are kept fresh and pure in your electric refrigerator.

Electric refrigeration will always keep food within the safety zone and give the added convenience of plenty of ice, frozen desserts and salads.

Plan now to enjoy the many conveniences that a modern electric refrigerator adds to the home. Once you have enjoyed them, you will never do without one.

PATHFINDER CLUB

The Pathfinder Club turned to romance for the theme of their Valentine meeting Feb. 14. Mrs. A. T. Cole was leader for the day and each member answered roll call with the love of a famous lover.

A chorus directed by Mrs. J. H. Howze sang "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mrs. A. T. Cole gave an interesting history of Valentine day. The chorus gave another appropriate number, after which Mrs. J. T. Patman quite cleverly resorted to rhyme in giving the loves of great men.

The concluding number was a solo by Mrs. E. D. Landreth, "Love Me and the World is Mine." The hostesses, Mrs. Chas. T. McMurry Mrs. T. S. Barcus and Mrs. John Bass served lovely refreshments to twenty-seven members and Mrs. E. D. Landreth, Mrs. Van Kennedy, and Mrs. M. A. Allensworth, invited guests. Each plate contained a charming original Valentine, the club members and guests being the subjects.

MRS. RICHMOND BOWLIN ENTERTAINS BIRTHDAY CLUB

Thursday, Feb. 13, in prettily decorated, the Birthday Club was royally entertained, Mrs. Bowlin as hostess. Mmes. Walter Scott, K. C. Reed and E. V. Quattlebaum, honorees, having birthdays in Feb.

Writing round table letters to absent members and interesting conversation furnished entertainment. At the noon hour a grand luncheon was served to Mmes. E. V. Quattlebaum, K. C. Reed and Walter Scott, honorees; Mmes. John Chamberlain, Hugo Reamer, A. A. Pierce, Rhea Bowlin, A. O. Hefner and Miss Jaunita Granger and Mrs. R. Bowlin, hostess.

After luncheon the Valentine box was opened. Mrs. Reamer presided. Many were the valentines received by each present. Everyone was required to read her valentine. At a late hour good byes were said and every one felt a jolly good day had been spent.

Next meeting will be March 12, Mrs. E. V. Quattlebaum, hostess.

1926 BOOK CLUB

Pauline Webster and Blanche Howze were hostesses to the 1926 Book Club Tuesday afternoon at the Club Rooms.

Following a short business session Nell Norwood gave a sketch of the life of Doris Leslie. The book "Full Flavor" was reviewed by Gladys Hill in a most interesting manner.

Delightful refreshments were served to twenty members and two guests.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. Perry King, Pastor
There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

A good investment is the time spent in God's house. It gets one ready for the problems of the week. It enlarges ones vision and heightens his ideals. Men are measured by the height of their ideals, the depth of their convictions, and the breadth of their interests and sympathies. It isn't ones position but his disposition that makes him happy or unhappy. Going to church gets one away from himself and gives him a happy disposition. Cheerfulness may sometimes be difficult, but it always pays dividends. Church going will change your ideals, your disposition, your relationship to your fellows and God. He who is too busy to think of religion is too indolent to know his loss. The greatest loss that any

The Way of Inflation

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN

National Chairman Sentinels of the Republic

If a merchant, or a farmer, or the average householder persistently spends more than he earns, he goes broke. He pays for his folly in the wreck of his business, his property, and, perhaps, his career.

With governments it can be different. From time to time various nations have indulged in continued reckless expenditures, yet escaped immediate collapse. How? By resort to the desperate remedy of inflation—whether of currency or of credit.

The difference is that the individual bears the brunt of the blow himself, while governments pass it on to their citizens.

History has demonstrated this on many occasions. Perhaps the best remembered example of recent years is that of Germany, where post-war inflation brought hardship and hunger to millions of workers. Records do not show that the clever politicians who brought it all about, or the very rich, went hungry. That was reserved for the average run of citizens, who saw prices rise so swiftly that neither earnings nor savings could keep pace with them.

For a while the situation grew so serious that workmen found it necessary to demand pay for their services at the end of each day's labor. They knew that if they waited, prices might mount so rapidly that even a week's pay couldn't buy one bowl of soup.

Germany's experience was not an isolated one. It has been duplicated to a lesser degree in many countries and in many periods of history. It is because of the evidence such experiments offer, that an increasing number of thoughtful Americans oppose the course of reckless government expenditure that causes inflation.

The concern of such citizens is not for the very rich and the very shrewd—who know just when to buy and sell, or how to rig or play the stock market. It is rather for the average family that depends on a weekly or monthly wage for income, and a savings account or life insurance policy for security. Those are the people who shoulder the burden and suffer the hurts of inflation.

And those are the people who can stop its course.

They face a great responsibility. Under our Constitution the conduct of national affairs rests ultimately in their hands. If they insist on reasonable economy, the men who represent them in government must obey the mandate. If they remain indifferent, they encourage either the burden of increased taxes, or the still heavier toll of inflation with all its golden opportunities for the speculator, and its grim penalties for the worker.

We started to work last week with a good will, determined that we will do as much as "Miss Betty" did this last term and not have to take finals.

We drew names for Valentine's last Friday and plan to have a Valentine box on St. Valentine's Day February 14th.

The new see-saws even furnish amusement for the older pupils. It really is a rodeo when the "bronks" break loose. You have to be a good rider to stay on when a Midwayian is on the other end.

The seventh graders have been borrowing money and mortgaging their farm (in arithmetic). Will the depression ever be any better; we wonder.

The Midway Literary Society, having tried most everything else, decided on a banquet for the Midway community to be February the twenty-first in celebration of George Washington's birthday (the person who never told a lie.)

Quite a number of pupils have been absent lately, due to colds. The seventh grade will take up the study of Junior Science within a few days after finishing their Geography.

Your Sausage or Hot Dog Meat May be Spoiled

During the past month the Food and Drug Inspectors of the State Department of Health have collected a total of 133 samples of ground meat, and of this number 48 were found to contain illegal preservative. So far, twenty-three convictions have been secured—the fine and court cost averaged about forty dollars per case. Other cases are yet to be filed.

The most common illegal preservative is sulphite of soda. This acts as a deodorant, preservative, and color restorer. Meat treated with this sulphite may look invitingly fresh even though stale, and its effect as a deodorant is such that man can suffer is the loss of his soul. Keep your Sundays for the good of the soul and live a large life on a small capital. Do not allow yourself to stay or go spiritually blind. Go to church on Sunday and let the light of God's Word shine into your heart. It is a good investment.

Regular services at The First Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening. You are welcome to worship with us. We had some distinguished visitors last Sunday that made our hearts glad. We will be just as pleased to have you.

AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
SERVICES AT 10:50 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. SUNDAY

At the five o'clock service the pastor will observe the sixteenth anniversary of his entering the ministry by preaching from the same text which he used in his first sermon Feb. 29, sixteen years ago. Splendid congregations are attending these five o'clock "Family Circle Hours," and we hope to have even a larger number Sunday. The pastor will preach at both the Sunday services.
E. D. Landreth, pastor.

RESEARCH FINDS WAY TO KEEP PARASITES OUT OF FARM PROFITS

"Feeding worms and other parasites is almost as big an industry today as feeding livestock and poultry," says E. B. Powell, manager of the Purina Research Farm at Gray Summit, Mo. "But it's a mighty unprofitable business for the man who does the feeding! Every year a fortune is literally eaten up by intestinal worms, lice, mites, flies, and similar parasites. These are the things which cause immense loss of life, slow growth, unthrifty gains, and low production in flocks and herds. This is a needless waste."
According to Powell, much of the money that now goes to parasites can easily be turned into clear profits for the farmers of this country. It is for this reason that years of research have been devoted by the Purina Laboratories to work out a far-reaching program that will put a halt to the annual raid of parasites. The outcome has been the development of a line of sanitation products available at any store where Checkerboard feeds are sold. Through them every American farmer has the means of preventing costly livestock and poultry diseases. This research and its resultant development of disease preventive products give added support to the old adage, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Dairy Expert Says Nature's Way Best in Growing Heifers

Once again there is an unusual amount of interest in growing out heifer calves. This has been brought about primarily through the higher prices dairy cows are bringing. As is usually the case when dairy farmers find it cheaper to raise heifer calves than to buy cows, the question arises as to which is the best way to grow them out.

"Many dairymen give their heifer calves a good start," says W. R. Arends of the Dairy Department of the Purina Mills, "then, thinking that a good start will carry them through, turn them out to rustle for themselves. They are allowed to drift along until it is thought they are old enough to breed. After being bred, they are again turned on pasture, and are not given extra feed and care until possibly a month or so before freshening. The result is an undeveloped heifer at freshening time and, naturally, a great portion of her milking ration the next year or two is used to continue the growth which she should have made before she first calved. Sometimes, it's as late as the third calf before this heifer is fully developed and grown out into a profitable cow."

"The ultimate aim of any dairy farmer growing out heifers," says Arends, "should be to grow them and develop them fully before freshening time. This, of course, is the most economical way to do it. Nature is not going to cheat them out of their growth. They either grow before or they continue to grow after freshening, when they should be giving all of their efforts to turning feed into milk. Whenever first-calf heifers have to use part of the milk-making feed for growth and development, they materially cut down a dairyman's opportunity to make money on them through first lactation period."

"Experiments run at the Purina Research Farm at Gray Summit, Mo., show that heifers can be grown out and fully developed and brought into production from two to three months earlier than the normal for the breed and because they are fully grown and fully developed, they make profitable heifers in their first lactation period. The program followed and recommended at the Purina Farm not only gives the calves a good start, but keeps them coming and growing until they are fully developed, at which time they are brought into the milking barn as full-grown cows."

A recent bulletin, compiled by Purina Mills, tells of the plan worked out by the Purina Research Farm for developing calves into profitable first-calf heifers. It's obtainable by writing to the Dairy Dept., Purina Mills, St. Louis, Mo., or at any store where Checkerboard feeds are sold.

had the traffic blocked up. It was one above then.

The mercury is a fickle servant. At 6 p. m. Jan. 17, 1930, it was five above and at 9 p. m. somebody's thermometer read two below. It was 11 above Jan. 16, the same temperature four days later and eight above at 6 a. m. Jan. 22. That was the coldest January in 32 years and the birth month of Texas' worst blizzard in three decades. Wartime low was four above on Jan. 11, 1918, when the city population was augmented by 27,000 soldiers and the influenza epidemic was at its height.

Yet people brred right over the telephone yesterday when they were told it was 14 degrees. Pooh, it's been 14 lots of times. The only thing they seemed to be thankful for was that they didn't live in Amarillo. It played around below zero.

History of the So-Called Soldier Bonus

The deferred soldier payment, more popularly known as the "soldier bonus," has had a wonderful history over devious paths in which bond speculators are said to have played the most important role. Below is given a short history of the "bonus" fight for rewarding the human machines that made it possible for a few to become millionaires while they got nothing but the experience.

1919—Congress voted $60 discharge bonus to all veterans.

1922—The first big bonus bill passed both houses. The House over-rode President Harding's veto by a 5-to-1 vote but the Senate sustained it by a 3-to-2 vote.

1924—Both houses overrode President Coolidge's veto of a bill to pay the certificates in 1945.

1931—Both houses overrode President Hoover's veto of a bill authorizing veterans to borrow up to 50 percent of the face value of the certificates.

1932—The Patman inflationary bonus bill killed by the Senate after passing the House.

1933—Senate refused to attach soldier bonus payments to AAA bill.

1934—House passed and Senate rejected Patman bill.

1935—House overrode President Roosevelt's veto of Patman bill 322 to 98. Senate sustained veto 54 to 40.

1936—House again passes bonus bill 355 to 59 in which the Senate concurred by a large majority. The bill was passed to the President only to meet his veto.

Friday, Jan. 24th, the House again approved the Bill by a majority of 324 to 61 and the Senate then voted 76 to 19 overriding the President's veto.

The battle ended with a bond payment of $2,491,000,000 after 16 years of faithful service on the part of Wright Patman, the only member of the national lawmaking bodies who stood his ground from start to finish.

INTERESTING FACTS REGARDING TEXAS HISTORY IN AN EARLY EXCITING EPOCH

Texas independence from Mexico came about through a fortuitous chain of circumstances, the time for revolution being "ripe," as it were, it is pointed out by Juan Haggard-Villasana, translator of the Bexar Archives in the University of Texas Library. Capable, Ambitious, industrious Anglo-Americans settled Texas at a propitious time, when the Mexican inhabitants of Texas were sorely victimized by the lack of statesmanship and political economy of their Mexican rulers, and when Indians swooped down on their little colonies and made their wretched existence even more precarious.

"From the earliest colonization of Texas Spain had been compelled to repeal foreign aggression," Mr. Villasana pointed out, in explanation of the long trend of circumstances which culminated in Texas independence from Mexico.

"First among foreign invaders of Texas was La Salle, who, in 1685 established a temporary settlement on Garcitas Creek. Then came St. Dennis in 1715. These two invaders were French. The Anglo-Americans, with a varied selection of excuses—hunting wild stock, exploring for scientific purposes, losing their way, and even attempting to impart their treasured "liberty or death" doctrines to the oppressed Mexican—had made several attempts to wrest Texas from Spain. Spain had met acts of war with acts of war and economic duress with stern discipline. When, at last, the Austin gentlemen in a friendly manner requested permission to settle Texas, they were taken into the province wholeheartedly. Nevertheless, Spain was wary. She was going to control colonization in her ancient but effective paternalistic fashion. Suddenly, however, the bloodless revolution of Augustin de Iturbide permanently separated New Spain from her mother. The new regime, boasting of liberty and equality—since fraternity was practically unknown—with inexperienced and rude hand took the infant republic into its custody.

"While Mexican politicians were blundering their way into power in Mexico City, the industrious and energetic Anglo-Americans were digging a new future into the virgin soil of Texas. The Bexar Archives in The University of Texas reveal that, besides the unceasing toil of the Americans, and the selfish quibbling of Mexican misrulers, there were several other factors which paved the road for Texan independence. Chief among these factors was the perennial Indian enemy. The relentless red man waged an unceasing war on Spaniards, Americans, and Mexicans alike."

The following translation of an original letter found in the Bexar Archives, dated Bexar, April 30, 1824, and addressed to Don Juan Quzman, secretary of the interior, by Jose Maria Zambrano, soldier-priest, shows in part the desperate situation of the helpless Texans:

"My Dear Sir: "The pitiful and decadent conditions of this province is due to the lack of armed forces with which to command the respect of the savage Indians infesting it. This need has given rise to the extreme annoyance which the residents here, those of La Bahia, and those in the settlements on the Brasos and Colorado rivers have been suffering from the Indians. Nearly all the horses of the settlers have been stolen. On the 24th of this month, as a climax, a resident of this city was killed near here.

"The perpetrators of these outrages, so this government office has been informed, were from the tribe known as the Tahuayans, whose fierce chieftans have always been obstinate about making peace with this government. Although they have already committed many crimes, they never miss an opportunity to commit as many more whenever the occasion arises.

"The Comanche Indians are considered friendly because of some peace treaties which were made under a former governor of Ex-Emperor Don Augustin de Yturbe by one of their principal chieftans, who represented his tribe in that capital. For this reason the same Comanche chief had the insolence to demand the fulfillment of one of the stipulated articles. Because of the war his tribe is carrying on against the Lipans he insists that peace no longer be maintained with the Lipans. Furthermore, in conformity with the provision of the aforesaid article he asks to be aided by this district with troops until the enemy have been destroyed. Such a proposal could not help but amaze me. What amazes me even more, however, is that such a treaty was ever made with the Comanches since the government know that it was dealing with savages who have no other ideal than that of exterminating their fellow creatures. Their tribe will never be able to forget the aforesaid agreement. This is the way the matter was recalled, for, in order to settle it definitely, we hunted for two copies of the treaties which were supposed to be in the archives of this office, supposing that we might have a copy but it was impossible to find one. I was able to satisfy the chief only by promising him that I would inform Your Excellency so that the matter might be referred to His Serene Highness, the supreme executive head, for his final decision.

"The aforesaid Indians have forced me to designate a date when they may learn the result of the inquiry. I have prevailed upon them to wait three months, beginning today. As it stands to reason that this request can not, under any condition, have the effect that they expect, I fear that if by the expiration of that time a sufficient number of troops is not stationed here, the discontent that they are bound to feel will bring about disastrous consequences, especially when the fund for Indian gifts has been completely exhausted. This fund is the only weapon upon which the province has relied for its defense. The various orders that His Serene Highness, the Supreme executive power, has dispatched to the Intendant of San Luis Potosi so that the sum of two thousand pesos should be placed at the disposal of this office for Indian presents, have been completely ignored.

"I am reporting this matter for the information and guidance of Your Excellency. "May God guard Your Excellency many years."

USED CAR SALE

Special low prices will apply all this week on the stock of used cars at the Clarendon Motor Co., G. G. Kemp, Manager of the firm, announced today.

The company is holding a sale to reduce its inventories, at present exceptionally high because of the large number of sales of the new Chevrolets. Noteworthy savings can be effected by buying during the sale, Kemp asserted.

"Every car in the stock has been carefully reconditioned and will deliver many miles of dependable transportation," said Kemp. "We have a wide variety of makes and models, some of them priced very low, and all at figures which will result in real savings for the thrifty buyer.

"Among the stock are several almost-new cars whose owners have taken splendid care of them, intending to drive them for several Carrying a 10,000-lb. cement block from Los Angeles to New York, a 1 1/2-ton Chevrolet truck—one of the new 1936 models just introduced—demonstrated that safe driving means economy. Speed limits were observed in every community, with 35 m. p.h. the maximum on the open road. The 3511.4 miles were completed on two quarts of oil and 308.6 gallons of gasoline, at a cost of 01.6 cents per mile, or one-third of a cent per ton mile. The entire run was completed without any mechanical failure, repairs, or even a scratched fender. The illustrations show the test truck and features of the new 1936 models. Coupe type cabs with solid steel roof, full-floating rear axle, and full-length water jackets, are some of the improvements. In the lower right, Harry Hartz, who drove the cross-continent test, is seen beside the 10,000-lb. block. The test was officially observed by the American Automobile Association.

Chevrolet Sales Break All Records

Sales by Chevrolet dealers continued throughout January at a rate which broke all January records in the history of the company, besides rounding out the greatest 90 days after announcement that Chevrolet has ever known.

This fact is revealed by figures released by W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager. New records were established both for new cars and trucks and for used cars, Mr. Holler said. An important contributing factor, he added, was the used car disposal program, under which thousands of old cars were destroyed and forever removed from the streets and highways of America.

January sales of new cars and trucks totaled 75,412 units, an increase of 103 per cent over January 1935. New unit sales for the period since the 1936 model announcement totaled 247,666 as compared with 130,867 for the best corresponding period in the past, in 1929-30. This is an increase of 104.7 per cent.

Used car sales for January were 166,966 units, the second-highest used car month in Chevrolet's entire history. Sales of used cars for the 90-day period since introduction of the 1936 models totaled 400,717 units, 247,003 in 1934-5 being the highest previous total for a corresponding period.

"We regard it as significant that the combined sale of new and used cars by Chevrolet dealers in January totaled 242,378 units and, further, that the combined sale by Chevrolet dealers of new and used cars during the three months' period reached the tremendous total of 648,383 units.

"The fact that record sales in January were not confined to any one section of the country, but on the contrary were general throughout the United States, is a splendid business indication," said Mr. Holler. "It supports our belief that the Spring buying season will be the best the country has seen for a number of years."

Extension of the used car junking program through February was announced last week. This program, in which Chevrolet is recompensing its dealers for scrapping unsafe cars, is meeting with the unanimous approval of safety authorities in all parts of the country.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY

In speaking of a person's faults, Pray don't forget your own; Remember those with houses of glass Should never throw a stone. If we have nothing else to do But talk of those who sin, 'Tis better we commence at home, And from that point begin.

We have no right to judge a man Unless he's fairly tried; Should we not like his company, We know the world is wide. Some may have faults—and who has not? The old as well as the young; Perhaps we may, for aught we know Have fifty to their one.

Then let us all, when we begin To slander friend or foe Think of the harm one word may do To those we little know. Remember curses some times like Our chicken "roost at home," Don't speak of others' faults until We have none of our own.

Ginger Rogers in Debut as Solo Star In a Spirited New Comedy-drama, "In Person"

Fred Astaire's Peppery Screen Mate Takes George Brent for a "Romantic Ride" When He Refuses to Succumb Too Readily To Her Glamor as Pampered Screen Favorite

Ginger Rogers, the titan-haired star of Fred Astaire in "Top Hat," "Roberta" and others, achieves the goal of every Hollywood player—solo stardom in a niche ideally suited to her distinctive talents, "In Person," which will be shown at the Pastime Theatre Sunday and Monday, February 23-24th.

Her opportunity to star alone comes as a climax to an extraordinary rapid rise from modest natured dramatic and dancing roles through co-stardom with William Powell in "Star of Midnight," with Francis Lederer in "Romance in Manhattan," and with Astaire in the sensational musical. In all, she displayed dramatic skill and a penchant for comedy.

"In Person" provides Ginger with a rich light comedy-drama role and enables her to sing three original popular songs and to execute several striking dance routines. She portrays a temperamental screen celebrity who falls in love with a gentleman, annoying him so thoroughly that he determines to take the egotism out of her, forcing her to go to extraordinary lengths to trap him into marriage. The romantic difficulties culminate in what has been adjudged one of the funniest climax to come to the screen this season.

The three popular melodies, by Oscar Levant and Dorothy Fields, are "Got a New Lease on Life," "Don't Mention Love to Me" and "Out of Sight, Out of Mind." The music finds logical introduction in the story, as do the two dances which Miss Rogers performs. The final musical scene is an ensemble number created by Hermes Pan, who worked on the dance numbers in "Top Hat," in which a chorus of twelve men forms a background for Ginger's routines.

George Brent, who has won his popularity appearing as leading man for some of the most important feminine stars on the screen, among whom are Kay Francis, Bette Davis and Greta Garbo, has the featured male lead opposite Miss Rogers. He is said to be at his best in "In Person," light comedy being his forte. Alan Mowbray, who played Miriam Hopkins' lead in "Becky Sharp," has a prominent role, as have the eminently capable veterans, Grant Mitchell, Samuel Hinds and Louis Mason.

Worthy of note is Miss Rogers' wardrobe, consisting of nineteen outfits created by the nationally famous designer, Bernard Newman, couturier for "Top Hat," "Roberta" and other pictures.

Another outstanding feature of "In Person" is the photography by Eddie Cronjager. The film employs the new Eastman Polar screen, an instrument which controls direct and reflected light in a way heretofore impossible, affording the scenes a depth which frequently give a third dimension illusion.

Pandro S. Berman, supervisor of three Astaire-Rogers musicals and others, guided "In Person." William Seiter directed from a screen play by Allan Scott, adapted from the Motion Picture Magazine serial, "In Person," written by Samuel Hopkins Adams, whose comedy "It

ASK HIM HOW HE GOT THERE

If you dream of owning your own business, why don't you ask the boss how he managed? No doubt he'll tell you that, like many successful men he started with a small savings account. He didn't wait until he was earning a lot—he saved regularly as soon as he began to earn money, and when the first opportunity came his savings gave him his start.

America is full of men who achieve varying degrees of success from small beginnings. If you want to be ready for your opportunity when it comes, keep your money in a savings bank. For years this bank has been helping depositors build their accounts.

Identity of the N. T. Church Article VII

NICENE CREED — At first Christ was the only creed the church had. Christ and his teachings as well as that of the Apostles, who were guided by the Holy Spirit in all that they proclaimed, is the only creed that men should have. But as time went on there arose doctrinal agitations, and in order to crystallize certain beliefs, and bind them on the hearts and consciences of men, a council was called by Constantine, Emperor of the Roman Empire, in the year 325 A. D. This council met at Nice, in Asia Minor, and there a document was drafted, wherein was set forth the rules and regulations which the bishops were to bind upon their respective congregations. This of course placed the inspired writings in the back ground, and accounts largely for their absence today in the original manuscripts. This creed (for such it was of the deepest dye) was called the NICENE CREED, and it marks the BEGINNING OF HUMAN CREEDS; it is the mother of them all. The Nicene Creed is adhered to now by the Roman Catholic Church as well as many of the Protestant churches.

GOVERNMENT — The other phase of this general apostasy was relative to government. Elders, also called Bishops, and deacons were the only permanent officials in the Church of which we read in the Bible. Nothing is said of "presiding elders", "Circuit riders", "Cardinals or Popes." Also, we learn that each congregation in N. T. times had a plurality of elders and deacons, (Phil. 1:1) (Titus 1:5) But this simplicity did not long remain. It came to pass that the chairman of the board of elders often took to himself exclusively the title of Bishop. If a mission church were established and a preacher placed there to work, he was made subject to the Bishop of the "mother congregation." The preacher also assumed the role of "priest" and wore that as a title. His charge by way of identification was called a "Parish." Later all the Parishes with their respective priests were known as a "Diocese", which ensued because of a territorial division in the Roman Empire. These groups of Parishes, set off as a result of the territorial division, were placed under one Bishop who usually resided in the chief city of the Diocese.

T-Anchor Cowboys' Program Feb. 28th

Benefit of Aubyn E. Clark Post American Legion To Be Shown at Auditorium

A musical program of interest to both old and young in which will be included old-time cowboy melodies, fancy rope throwing and a stage camp fire depicting scenes of the old ranch days is assured those who avail themselves of the cowboy show on the 28th.

The T-Anchor Cowboys, a troupe of college men, organized at Canyon, Texas in 1931 for the purpose of helping keep alive the traditions of the famous old T-Anchor Ranch on which they live. These young men furnish clean high class entertainment at banquets, lyceums, community gatherings and thereby help pay their expenses while in college.

A small admission charge will be made, but so small that you will never miss it. And it all goes for a good cause to help those who are unable to help themselves just now, but are being helped by the local Legion boys.

Fires Announces For Re-Election

The Leader is authorized this week to make the announcement of Judge A. J. Fires for re-election to the office of district judge to which he was first appointed in 1928, and to which office he has consistently been returned each election since.

Judge Fires came to Childress county five months after graduating from a Louisville, Kentucky law school in 1886. Since that date he has spent 42 years in the practice of his profession before becoming a district judge. Along with his law practice, he has engaged in farming, ranching and the banking business.

One lone ranch house dotted the prairie of Childress county in 1886, the rest lived in dugouts, among them Judge Fires. Of the eleven lawyers in the district at that time, Judge Fires alone is living today.

As a judge, he has practiced economy in office and has established a reputation for fairness to both the state and the accused alike. He has stood for a sane law enforcement, and has exhibited that stern character when occasion demanded, in the best interests of his people and his country.

He has paid high compliment to the citizenship of Donley county on more than one occasion, and was able to give his reasons at the same time. In discussing the matter of his race, the Judge said: "I hope in this race that I may continue to have the good will and support of the good citizens of Donley county, and in return for which I will still give them the best there is in me. It will be impossible for me to make a canvass of the district and see all of the voters in that all of my time every week from now on until the 25th of July will be taken up in the various courts of the district."

Condron Writes Magazine Article on Farmers

An article written by Prof. S. H. Condron on the subject of "Look to the Future, Mr. Farmer," appeared in a recent number of the "Producer-Consumer Magazine."

This article received special recognition in the current issue of Rural America, a leading farm journal.

Former college dean here, Mr. Condron has been head of the Department of Government in the West Texas College at Canyon for a number of years.

Frank S. Peterson, district supervisor of the tax survey with offices in Amarillo, was in Clarendon Wednesday.

TEXAS SPEAKER

HILL McALISTER

Huntsville's Centennial observance on March 2nd of Texas Independence Day and Sam Houston's birthday will bring to Texas the Governor of Tennessee who, together with Governor Allred of Texas and Governor LaFollette of Wisconsin, will participate in patriotic ceremonies at the old home of the "Savior of Texas". The event is significant in that Sam Houston himself was Governor of Tennessee more than one hundred years ago before resigning to lead the struggle for Texas freedom. Governor McAlister returns a visit made to Tennessee last month by Governor Allred.

SENATOR TOM CONNALLY

The Senator will head the Texas Democratic delegates to the National Convention at Philadelphia.

OUR WEEKLY HONOR ROLL

Once each month a list of the renewals is given for that one week. A large number are renewals, in fact most of them are such. The list is shorter than usual this week due to the cold weather. At that the number shows an average of about three each day.

We appreciate your loyalty, folks, just as much as if the list was a foot long. Please look at the figures on your paper. If the last two figures do not read "36", you are behind. We don't want to drop your name from the list but we can't carry one without carrying all. There is a large list constantly expiring, and just as constantly renewing each week. Then the new readers come on, mostly through the recommendation of our regular readers, and we appreciate any suggestion either of you have to make for improvement in the Leader's reader interest. Don't forget that our advertisers carry the heavy load. Buy from our advertisers. Thank you.

Panhandle History Topics Are Needed

May we ask your help in getting materials for the Federal Guide Book? We wish to learn every fact possible about each locality, and you can help us not to forget anything. Please turn your report over to your demonstrator who will in turn send it to our office. In the counties where is no demonstrator, we would appreciate the cooperation of some person interested in the promotion of his neighborhood. Please offer your aid. Following are topics for your report: Plants and animals peculiar to your territory; native and introduced trees; prairie dog towns; full interviews with pioneer women; the same with pioneer men; locate any family records; diaries; ledgers of old businesses; landmarks; points of historic interest; any medals and coins in family; battlefields; Indian trails; old forts; old houses; Indian relics, legends, and landmarks; authors in district or born there, their works; same of artists and musicians; unusual instruments invented in your territory; actors and playwrights; special educational systems; any school facts not reported by children; clubs and societies; public and private libraries; fossils and relics suitable for museum; churches, parks, health work; folk customs and festivals; streams and falls; railroads and bus lines; factories; or mines or oil wells; newspapers, local fairs, public markets, mineral springs; game preserves and bird sanctuaries; flying schools.

Please direct all communication to Federal Writers' Project, Room 438, Amarillo Building, Amarillo, Texas.

Continental Again Proves Its Faith In Newspaper Ads

Ponca City, Okla., Feb. 20.—During 1936 Continental Oil Company will spend nearly 75 per cent of its total consumer advertising appropriation for newspaper space, it was announced here today by Wesley I. Nunn, advertising manager.

Nunn also stated that the Leader has been selected to carry Canoco advertising this year, and that his company has again approved one of the largest sales promotion budgets in its history.

"Continental's faith in the dividend earning power of newspaper advertising is founded upon sales increases directly traceable to this medium," said Nunn. "Last year, for example, there was a marked improvement in Company earnings, despite excessive gasoline taxes and other adverse factors. Sales of Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil also reached an all-time high. "Business is definitely on the upgrade. And we are confident that aggressive newspaper advertising, quality products and a high standard of service will make this the most outstanding year in our history."

There is a big demand for rooms, apartments and residences here at this time, possibly greater than since 1929.

Mrs. J. L. McMurtry was called to Cordell, Oklahoma Friday to be with her mother, Mrs. J. G. Dodson, who was suffering from pneumonia. Mrs. Dodson is greatly improved and Mrs. McMurtry returned home Monday.

Jim L. McMurtry will spend the remainder of the cold weather period in Tucson, Arizona. He left here Monday, and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McMurtry who will remain for a week before returning home.
