Panhandle-Plains Museum At Canyon Now Central Point Of Scientific Explorations

Dr. Warren K. Moorehead, dean of American archaeologists, stated recently that from the point of view of archaeological studies, the Panhandle of Texas is a strategic center and that the pre-historic Panhandle culture, the remains of which are found in many different places, is one of extreme interest. He stated further that it is now the opinion of scientists that the Pueblo Indian culture found in New Mexico is a later phase of the same life which had its beginnings in the Panhandle region.

Asked the extent of the country in which this peculiar Panhandle culture existed, Dr. Moorehead and Floyd Studer, Amarillo archaeologist, were agreed that the eastern boundary of the Panhandle of Texas, and the eastern boundary of New Mexico mark the boundaries of the land in which these early peoples lived.

Dr. Moorehead said that no one knew how many of these people there were, that there might have been 20,000 of them, or more, or less than that number, and that it was possible that the remains they left were those of many generations of people.

Houses built by these ancient citizens of the Panhandle were usually one story in height, were sometimes made of stones placed vertically in slab-like arrangements, and sometimes laid horizontally, forming substantial walls. Rooms varied in size from six feet square to twenty-five feet square. Often one floor was super-imposed upon another, although no reason for doing this has been discovered. Most of these ruins are out on the Plains, only two having been found in the shelter of over-hanging cliffs.

It is probable, according to Dr. Moorehead, that the people who built these were dependent upon the buffalo and other game for their sustenance, although some wild plants resembling the sweet potato are to be found near these ruins, and nowhere else in this section of the country.

It is not likely that these early Indians used tobacco, for only two small pipes have been found in an area covering many hundreds of square miles.

The pottery found in these ruins is entirely without decoration. Only two perfect jars have ever been found in the Panhandle, and these now rest in the New York museum.

BIRTHS EXCEED COUNTY DEATHS SAYS JUDGE DAY

Deaths in Donley County For 1933 Total 58 With Births at 167

According to the keeper of vital statistics of Donley county, who is Judge Hubert P. Day, we are gaining in population at the rate of 109 a year, not counting the outsiders who see fit to cast their lot with us.

Heart complications cause the largest number of deaths, 10 having died the past year from heart trouble.

Other causes of death are brain hemorrhages of which there was 3; cancer took off 4; brain inflammation 1; kidney trouble 7; blood poison 1; influenza, abdominal infection, pneumonia, pleurisy, tuberculosis and bright's disease one each.

Influenza complications caused the death of 2. Six died from old age, or what is termed senility. Heart and bladder complications claimed two deaths. Five died at birth.

While we may seldom check upon the list, five died from accident within the county during 1933. Two were murdered. Only one suicide was noted. Some died from unknown causes according to the list kept by Judge Day, who is required to keep the list as it is turned in to him by those required to report births and deaths.

SENIOR SCHOOL PLAY DECLARED BEST ONE YET

Crowded House Sees Pleasing Presentation of 1934 Class Skill Tuesday Night

According to many who have seen senior class plays for the past several years, the effort Tuesday night exhibited more skill and preparation than any shown in years, if ever before.

Much of the praise goes to Mrs. Rita Foster Stocking who directed the play that had no dry moments for the full two and a half hours.

"The Final Ballot" was not without a fitting climax, in which "all's well that ends well" in a series of domestic entanglements of marital relations that constantly kept the audience guessing.

Emma Ruth Burkett playing the part of an old maid played her part well adding at the close a lecture that appealed to the ladies who understood woman's woes. As the modern youth, Robert Nichols produced laughs and reminded parents of personal experiences.

Isabelle Wright playing the part of an old-fashioned mother, suddenly goes modern, and does a bit of diplomatic managing that brings the family back to earth. She fitted into every climax admirably.

O. C. Watson Jr. taking the part of a "judge" maintains the required dignity and displayed exceptional skill as "father of the household" of many perplexing problems that almost baffle "his nibs" at times until fate cleared the skies for his honor.

Marie Underwood and Ruby Dell Scoggins, matronly modernists, take a second "hitch" at their matrimonial alliances when they realize "times and places change conditions and faces" in which both girls make decisions skilfully.

Harry McCracken as grandpa, took in the situation in a manner that would lead one to believe that elders are not always dumb to a modern situation. Harry did finely.

Billy Walker is a "born politician" if nothing else. Wilma Dee Smith is no less Hollywood bound in her superb acting with Wiley Buchanan, both of whom played the part of sweethearts that went a long way in making the 1934 senior class play the best one yet.

Thomas Perkins gave a whistling solo as a specialty number, with Miss Delphia Bones accompanying on the piano.

Miss Delphia Bones and Hubert Reavis supplied music on piano and Sax between acts, in which they were happily applauded.

County Agent Gets Supply Prairie Dog Poison

In the seemingly never ending fight against prairie dogs, it is often necessary to make several trials at the dog town. In view of the fact that only special preparations are both safe from stock, and effective in its work on the dogs, the government puts out through county agents a poison that is highly recommended.

County agent T. R. Brown announces that he has 4,000 pounds of the poison here now, and that the cost is four cents a pound.

Changes Likely on Three Rural Mail Routes

While not official, the Leader has information that is presumed to be accurate to the effect that three rural mail carriers will change with the new mail year beginning July 1st.

The successful bids turned in recently are R. L. Green for Palo Duro route; John Harlan for Naylor route; J. W. Smithey for Silvertown route.

Mrs. Bob Lynch and daughter, Miss Bobbie and Miss Luella Mann of McLean were week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Liesberg.

CALLED SESSION OF LEGISLATURE QUITS ON TIME

Thirty Day Session Ends At 2:05 Wednesday Morning Important Bills Pass

After running the clock back, Texas lawmakers adjourned within the thirty day limit early Wednesday morning with several important bills passed up to the governor for her signature. She has ten days in which to sign, for them to become legal.

Two bills were passed at the suggestion of the Governor. One known as the moratorium law preventing real estate foreclosures under certain conditions until after February 1, 1935. The other bill is that which became famous as the "bread bonds" in which the Governor asked that several million dollars worth of bonds be voted and sold for the relief of the needy seeking employment under CWA and other projects. Voters of Texas authorized a bond issue of $20,000,000 at the last election. $2,750,000 of this amount had been voted at a previous session. This session voted $5,000,000 near the close of the session after several stormy battles.

Creation of a commission to plan a Texas Centennial for 1936 had the approval of the lawmakers, $100,000 being voted for the initial expense. Voters of Texas authorized $250,000 for this purpose at the last election.

Another bill giving incorporated towns the right to regulate utilities was in response to a demand made from many sections. This law is in sympathy with that law passed by the United States Senate recently in which public utility companies are made to seek their remedy in the district courts rather than the federal courts.

Band Date Designated March 6th at Fat Stock Show

Twenty-four members of the Clarendon band will accompany their instructor, Gus B. Stephenson, to the Fat Stock Show at Amarillo where they will present a special program on the afternoon of March 6th.

Mr. Stephenson has also arranged a radio program which his band will broadcast over WDAG beginning at 5:15 on the same afternoon.

Rain Reported Over Wide Area

The Denver train crew this morning reported that rain was falling from Dallas to this point. Other reports are that a slow rain is falling over most of the Panhandle from Lubbock to Peryton and as far west as Dalhart. Radio reports state foggy weather covers all the lower plains region with snow in the central states today.

CWA BULLETIN

From an enrollment of 502 men and women eligible for CWA work, a total reduction of 234 was made last week. This week there will be another reduction of 42, and similar cuts each week are expected until the CWA is discontinued entirely. The first reduction, due to prohibition of staggering and rotating crews, is perhaps the largest that will be made during any one week. As long as funds are available, direct relief to needy people will be continued.

Pyle Weather Bureau Predicted Rain

Some time back when City Marshal T. M. Pyle took the weather predicting in charge, the winter weather was hot, the sand blowing and not a cloud within a 1000 miles. His first act was to inform the dear public that we would have rain during March and July—plenty of it.

With the advent of March last midnight, rain began to fall. In fact it is falling all over Texas just as the Pyle weather prognosticator predicted though his predictions were met with scorn at the time.

No rain having fallen since back in September, the county and state is due Mr. Pyle an increase in salary as a weather informer to say nothing of his multitude of duties as a City Marshal. Making it rain was no boy's job, and making it rain right on the dot as predicted is worth more to us than anything Col. Lindberg ever did. How are you Colonel Pyle?

CONVENTION OF SINGERS TO MEET AT CHAMBERLAIN

Community Song Leaders and Specialty Numbers Will Be Heard

Those who enjoy singing the hymns, both old and new, and those who like to hear good singing, have made plans to be at the Chamberlain school next Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. when the next session of the Donley County Singers convention will be held.

At the preceding convention held at Martin on February 4th, practically every community in the county was represented by singers, each bringing a song leader. In addition to county enthusiasts, quite a number came from surrounding counties, visitors being noted from as far away as Amarillo.

R. W. Alewine of Hedley, president of the Association, expects each convention to be just a little better than the preceding one, and that means that this one to be held at Chamberlain will be worth going many miles to attend.

One pleasing feature of these conventions is the fact that the young singers are given an opportunity to get before the public. This was especially noticeable at the Martin meeting.

The entire public is cordially invited to be present, according to those who are doing everything possible to make singing more popular in Donley county. Don't forget the date—Chamberlain, Sunday, March 4th.

Four Hundred Crippled Children Benefitted

Homer Mulkey was accompanied to Amarillo Tuesday by Lindel Ragel, aged 6, of Lella, the occasion being a rehearsal of the good deeds accomplished by the Crippled Children's Council at the Lions club meeting there. The Ragel lad, once a hopeless cripple, is now able to walk and attend school.

The Crippled Children's Council is sponsored by civic clubs and individuals of the Panhandle having its beginning seven years ago when Gene Howe, Bob Ames and J. N. Beasley each contributed $100 as a foundation fund. More than 400 crippled children have received benefits during the seven years.

TWO DAY BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT BEGINS FRIDAY

Games Friday And Saturday Will be Played in Big Gym at Hedley

Due to the fact that Friday will be Independence Day and a holiday in practically all if not all the schools of the county, the county championship basketball games to be played at Hedley Friday and Saturday will draw a large crowd.

There will be four divisions. Windy Valley is defending champs of Supt. Sloan Baker's invitation tournament. Lelia Lake girls are expected to come forth to uphold their title of the previous meet.

The director of basketball is expecting this meet to be one of the best of the county. Coaches, teams and fans are expected to display that fine spirit of sportsmanship and cooperation as heretofore.

The officials of the Hedley school district have gladly opened the doors of their spacious gym to promote the tournament. In fact Hedley is expected to stage a school holiday Friday.

There will be some twenty-four games played, and fans should see plenty of action on the hardwood surface. Final games for Juniors will be Saturday afternoon. Senior division in boys and girls will take place Saturday night.

Girls' game starts with the whistle promptly at 6:30.

Hedley girls oppose a visiting team at 7:30.

It is rumored that there will be an "educators" and coach game to add spice to the event. Then the boys' game to follow immediately afterwards.

Roy Stargel, that goal-shooter and no better referee, has been secured to referee boys game. Dave Waldron will work girls game assisted by Stargel, and probably task shifted to Arnold White of McKnight.

Thus far there has been much school interest and cooperation manifested throughout the county schools from athletic events, say the directors.

"Don't miss this tournament," Dave Waldron said Wednesday, "go to Hedley and boost for your boys and girls from your own school."

Announcement is made that there will be a nominal charge of admission Saturday night for the four games at the price of one.

The literary events in the form of an Interscholastic League will have full sway on March 16-17th, a further announcement of which will appear in the Leader.

Meade Haile Purchases Drug Store in Dimmitt

Though the deal was made some two weeks ago, Mr. Meade Haile did not take over the Dimmitt drug store purchased from the Hardwick estate until today.

He is a registered pharmacist and has been in the employ of the Douglas-Goldston drug company here since September of 1929. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Haile and is thoroughly competent in his chosen profession.

Dimmitt is fortunate to secure citizens like Mr. and Mrs. Haile, both of whom grew up here and are numbered among Donley county's best citizens.

Green Belt Union Epworth League Met Sunday

Quite a number of Clarendon Leaguers attended the Green Belt Union meeting at Lakeview Sunday afternoon.

Those attending from here were Mrs. G. H. Gattis, Thomas Clayton, Ruby Dell Scoggins, Dorothy Faye Scoggins, Walter Brady, Geo. Wayne Estlack, Ailene Reed, Nellie Grady, Ardis Putman, Harold Gattis, Aubrey Brady, Sam Barrow, Mary Francis, Dorothy and Wesley Powell, and Vivian Taylor. Memphis and Hedley each had a representative crowd in attendance. The next meeting will be held in Clarendon on April 6th.

H. Beach is spending a short vacation at Millings Sanitarium, Mineral Wells for health benefits.

LEGIONISTS TO OBSERVE ANNUAL AFFAIR OF YEAR

Ex-Service Men Gather Once Each Year to Hold Program Limited to Members

Members of Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion will observe their annual smoker, feed and otherwise Friday night of this week. This is an annual affair, very exclusive and also very noisy, the elders claiming a childhood period "just for the night," as it were according to "Pinky" Price who knows more about less things than anybody, if we believe the Committee.

Each member will be entitled to bring two non-members. They always do that because the son usually brings along the father, or some other buddies' father.

The committee on arrangements is limited to R. W. Moore, L. N. Cox and T. M. Shaver, most of whom have served on contests of the Post on more than one occasion. While this is no contest, there will be put forth the same effort as in the member getting contest of a few months ago.

All members are urged to be present for the smoker, the feed, the games and most anything that might happen on an occasion of this kind.

Alleged Lunatic Handcuffed In Quest For Cash

When an Amarillo deputy stopped on Main street on his way to Wichita Falls with an adjudged lunatic, his party suddenly desired a cash transaction at the First National bank. He hit the deputy's finger as he jumped out of the car on his haste to get to the bank.

One inside, cashier Walter Taylor was attempting to verify the safety of a check for the stranger when Sheriff Pierce entered with handcuffs and made phoning an Amarillo bank unnecessary.

The elderly man continued to the state hospital for the insane minus the cash, but his guard was nursing a badly bitten finger.

N. Dingler and daughter, Miss Gertrude, who have been at Hot Springs, N. Mex. for several weeks for the benefit of Mr. Dingler's health, are to return home this week. He is reported as not having received the benefits he expected.

Utility Man is Transferred To Matador Unit

L. M. (Smitty) Smith, engineer and lineman for the West Texas Utility company, has been transferred to their unit at Matador, in the same line of work.

He began work here in August of 1928. Mr. Smith is well liked by the public here and made friends in every capacity in which he served his company.

TWENTY LODGES HELP CELEBRATE MASONIC RITES

Washington's Natal Date is Celebrated With Barbecue and Speaking

Twenty different lodges and four states were represented at the lodge hall of Clarendon Lodge A. F. & M. Friday night, according to Homer Parsons, secretary of the lodge, in observing the 202nd natal date of George Washington.

R. E. Drennon, principal of Junior high school, was one of the speakers. Lee Nowlin of Hedley was the first speaker from out of town.

The principal address of the evening was made by F. B. Clark of Shamrock, attorney and former member of the Legislature.

Barbecue in plenty of both beef and mutton was served. Frank Whitlock, master chicken barbecue expert qualified in a similar line for this occasion. The hall was filled to capacity and every member served to his fill.

Nolle Simmons is master of the local lodge which has a membership of two hundred and sixteen.

MAURY'S YOUNG DEMOCRATS.

No sooner had Maury Hughes, state chairman of the democratic party, announced as a candidate for the office of governor, than he was accused of fostering the movement of a scheme to organize what is known in Texas as "Young Democrats" who are pledged, among other things, to vote the ticket straight.

Along comes some more political historians who accuse Maury of having lent his endorsement to "Hoovercrats" for appointment to office. This will all have to be ironed out later as the political fires become hotter.

DID HIS OWN ADVERTISING.

A story is told of a merchant who would not advertise in a newspaper. When he got in his fall stock, he advertised in a "phone directory." When his daughter married, he sent out circular letters. When his wife entertained, he had mention made of the matter in a hotel register. When the new baby came, he tacked the announcement on a telephone pole. When the old man finally died—ah! there's where the rub came. His death was duly chronicled in the local paper with no mention made of him out of the ordinary obituary announcement except to say that he was "eccentric," which was hardly necessary as every one knew that already.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

The second day of March is a hallowed date in Texas. History reminds us that 98 years ago on that date, the great Lone Star state declared her independence from Mexico. We read of the noble deeds of men and women in early Texas history and venerate their memory. The writer has stood with bared head before the Alamo and reverently contemplated the scene when Texas' most noble patriots made the supreme sacrifice for a cause that was both noble and just.

During the last election the people of Texas authorized an expenditure of $250,000 for the proper observance of a Centennial in 1936 commemorating Texas Independence.

HONORS COME TO LINDBERG.

Although he was the 67th man to cross the Atlantic in the air, Charles Lindberg became a colonel for having been the first to make the passage alone. Colleges sought to confer upon him honorary degrees, but they were turned down. He accepted nothing in the way of publicity except to have a "colonel" attached to the front end of his name.

During the recent air mail investigation, it develops that he accepted stock in an airways company which amounted to $250,000. Not bad for a beginning in the gift line, you would conclude. During the few months that he owned that stock, he was paid dividends amounting to more than $193,000. No wonder he protested to government authorities when they canceled mail contracts of his company.

SCANDALIZING THE PRESS.

There was consternation among the brethren of the Fourth Estate over the nation the past week when it was announced that publisher E. P. Adler of Davenport had fallen a victim to kidnapers.

This report is true except for two facts. First, Adler is a banker and owns a string of papers by reason of the depression and a failure to meet payments. Second, he was not kidnapped. He was knocked down and skinned up but failed to land in the trunk that was prepared to receive him for the ride to nowhere until the $40,000 ransom was paid.

The record is again clear. No publisher or member of his family has ever been successfully kidnapped to date. They ain't worth it.

CONSTRUCTIVE THOUGHT.

When you get a little time for reflection, what do you think about? Probably along some of the following lines: The injustice that appears to prevail in the world. Political corruption that is apparent. Disregard for the law that, on the surface, seems to be growing. Murders, robberies, divorces, scandals and similar evils.

These are some of the multitudinous thoughts that come to the average person, with their long trail of dissatisfaction and disgust.

This is the black side—the unusual side of life that breaks into print. The usual, the commonplace things are too often overlooked. Try a change of thought and see if it isn't beneficial. Think of some way to build up your home life making it more attractive.

Devise more plans to be of assistance to the school teacher—who labors diligently to make better men and women of the future out of the raw product of today.

a little thought to developing the proper spirit of amity and good will among those with whom you come in daily contact.

Make a special effort to become a booster for everything at home, instead of a critic. Thoughts frequently come unbidden, but it is not a difficult matter to divert them along wholesome lines. Don't take too many things for granted because of the apparent truthfulness on the surface. Remember that many an innocent person has been hanged on circumstantial evidence.

ANTI WAR MEASURE.

Representative Terrell of Texas has introduced in Congress a measure that is designed to make those supplying war material a bit more cautious. An amendment to the Constitution is proposed whereby Congress would be shorn of the right to declare war unless the nation was actually invaded, or the declaration approved by a majority vote of the people.

Another provision that has long been advocated by Legionists is that "if war is declared, the country's wealth shall be drafted through tax laws, which may be supplemented by treasury notes not bearing interest. No interest bearing bonds could be issued and no profits allowed on the manufacture of war supplies."

BANKERS AND GOVERNMENT BONDS.

In discussing the sale of government bonds to finance the many avenues of government that must be supplied, has been pretty well summed up by Arthur Brisbane who speaks out as follows:

"The government borrows 800 million dollars more, "for refinancing," announces proudly an oversubscription, and the books are closed.

Government financiers are cheered "by the willingness to absorb" this second big offer, for they will borrow 10 billion dollars more by the end of the fiscal year.

Nobody really paid in 800 millions. The banks pay 5 per cent on the amount of bonds allotted them and may issue their own paper money against bonds that they hold.

The fact interesting to taxpayers is that borrowing 10 billions on interest bearing bonds means paying not only 10 billions in principal, but more than 10 billions in interest before the debt is canceled. Paying the 10 billions in interest could be avoided if the government would issue currency and call it at leisure instead of redeeming bonds. Ten billion dollars could be saved."

Canyon to Become Central Meeting Place

Canyon, Feb. 22—Canyon is to be a city of conventions, conferences, and meets during the next two months, the first big conference beginning on March 9 when the International Relations Clubs of the Southwestern Region will hold a two day conference here.

Eight colleges, with a total of about 60 delegates, will be present at that time.

On March 23-24 will be held the Northwest Texas Educational Conference which is expected to bring at least 1500 representatives of men's and women's civic clubs, county superintendents, class room teachers, and superintendents.

The Tri-State Music festival will follow just after this with contestants from Oklahoma, New Mexico and Northwest Texas. This meeting is April 5, 6, and 7.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, which always brings from 500 to 1000 visitors to Canyon will meet on Friday, April 13, and plans are already under way for the program.

The southwest district of the Kappa Omicron Phi, a national honorary home economics fraternity will hold its biennial convention here April 12, 13, and 14.

The Regional Texas Intercollegiate League meet, successor of old District Number One will be held on April 20 and 21, with 45 counties sending the pick of their high school boys and girls to enter the contests.

A conservative estimate indicates that 2000 people will visit the city during the spring convention series.

Why Doctors Favor a Liquid Laxative advertisement with a spoon icon.

A doctor will tell you that the careless use of strong laxatives may do more harm than good.

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys. Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you needn't take a "double dose" a day or two later.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gently helps the average person's bowels back to regularity. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is little "inconvenience" in any cathartic which is taken so frequently, you must carry it with you, wherever you go! *Its very taste tells you Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is wholesome. A delightful taste, and delightful action. Safe for expectant mothers, and children. All druggists, ready for use, in big bottles. Member N. R. A.

While in the office Saturday,
Mrs. A. O. Holt and her sister, Mrs. Roy Roberson discussed sweet potatoes. Mrs. Roberson says Roy still has over 300 bushels in the curing plant that he expects to sell for a dollar a bushel. When she mentioned sweet 'taters, the old Apostle suddenly thought of something to eat, the same being sweet 'tater custard, and she is to bring or send in a batch during the week.
There's nothing that he likes better or gets less of than 'tater custard.

When lard becomes rancid, boil slices of Irish potatoes in it and the potatoes will absorb all the odor. A potato the size of a hen egg will purify a gallon of lard.

An Italian schoolboy in defining "paradox" said they were like chickens only they made fun in the water.

Candidates who order their cards from a mail order firm would naturally be expected to get votes from the same source. There are three printing plants in the county of Donley and it is not expected that any cards from a distance will be necessary.

We often make the mistake of thinking the one who helps us is our neighbor, but it's wrong. The one we help is our neighbor. The first idea is selfish, the other is generous.

Of all the physical requirements of all the exercises, nothing is any more important than sleep. Exercise and physical training without a proper amount of sleep is worthless because it cannot last. At least that is what a mighty good doctor told me Monday, and I believe he is dead right. We need more sleep.

Coming with a message of confidence, the seed catalog, gayly bedecked with the brightest flowers and most luscious vegetables, is a welcome visitor. This is seed catalog time. Seeds should be gotten before planting time. It will soon be time for the bulbs to be planted, and those in the ground all winter will have to be separated to do their best. This depends upon variety. We of the west have learned long ago that the old time flowers are the hardiest, and it takes a hardy variety to stand the hot winds and still hotter weather.
Some things that make women happy look foolish to men, and flowers is one of them. Men, as a rule, care little for flowers. Personally, I prefer flowers to most anything grown out of the soil.

Speaking of flowers, we might as well start a flower seed exchange. If you have something to exchange, let me know. There will be no charges so long as it is an exchange of variety for variety.
I would like to have some of the double and fluted peepies in as many colors as possible. I have cosmos and passion flower to exchange. If one prefers, they may have jujube, the Chinese date that does well here.

Merely write me what you have to offer in either plants or seeds, tell what you want in exchange,
and I will run the advertisement without charge. This is an offer to get more flowers, brighten more homes and make for more happiness. Do it to day.

expected. About half have been sent a personal reply. Others will follow.

Dear Mr. Estlack:

In these birthday greetings, we of mature years realize that these occasions come around all too often. First, they remind us that Father Time is making inroads on our lives, and with the passing of years, we are made to wonder if we have done our best to relieve the pangs of disappointment in the lives of our fellow travelers. We may not all have material things to offer, but we can all give a smile or word of cheer, and that will help a lot.

I am glad that you practice the methods of brightening the pathway of your fellow travelers, not only in personal contact but through the columns of the Leader as well. Please accept this as a deserved flower for the living, and that there may be many more years of usefulness in store for you.

Happy birthday and may you live to a ripe old age. We need more editors who stand for something.

A Minister.

Happy Birthday:

The first time I ever saw you was when you came to my house visiting around among "your folks" as you called them. You bragged on my ham gravy and I think of that every time I see you. You not only bragged on it but you ate enough to show that it was not all brag. You are no doublecrosser and my husband thinks you get out the best paper in the state. We both wish you a very happy birthday.

ANTIQUITY OF MAYAN CULTURE INDICATED BY ORNATE PYRAMID

Mexican Archaeologists Find New Evidence of Early Indian Civilization in Yucatan to Dispute Previous 'Periodic' Theories

MEXICO, D. F.—A pyramid ornamented with eight giant masks of six feet across, has been discovered in Acanceh, Yucatan, by Mexican government archaeologists. Not only is the ancient building a work of art, unique in Yucatan, but it is important new evidence of the antiquity of Mayan culture in the Yucatan peninsula.

Until a few years ago, archaeologists spoke of "new" and "old" Mayan empires, for it was believed that this Indian civilization had two great periods, one during the last few centuries before America's "discovery," and the earlier during the first five centuries of the Christian era. The center of the "first" empire was thought to be in Guatemala and Chiapas, and that of the "second" in the peninsula of Yucatan which lies farther north.

But decipherable hieroglyphic dates and other evidence found in Yucatan in the last few years have begun to indicate that Maya civilization was probably as old in one place as in another, and had not been divided into distinct periods as had been thought.

The newly-discovered pyramid of Acanceh adds fresh evidence to this. A strikingly similar pyramid was found several years ago by American archaeologists of the Carnegie Institute in a very ancient Maya city buried in the jungles of Guatemala. This city was called Uxactun, and what is said to be the oldest date ever found on any monument occurs there—the first century of the Christian era.

Mexican archaeologists excavated in Acanceh only because time and weather had damaged ruins of the ancient Maya city dispersed through the modern Indian thatched hut town of that name. The former terraces and pyramids with temples on their tops are now rounded mounds covered with earth and vegetation. They would look like natural hills except for their regular forms, and portions of masonry walls and carvings that protrude here and there.

Inspectors of the Mexican department of archaeology make the rounds of the 1200 or more archaeological sites known in Mexico, and any damage by weather or other causes is repaired, against the time when archaeologists will be able to make regular investigations.

It was while walls of one of the half-buried Acanceh mounds were thus being mended that the giant stucco figures were noted, and the important character of the ruins for the first time disclosed. Further excavations are being made on the pyramid and on other mounds there.

Interscholastic League Has Change of Rules

Canyon, Feb. 28.—W. E. Lockhart, Director General of Region No. 1, Texas Interscholastic League is calling the attention of all schools of the Panhandle to the new organization of the Texas Interscholastic League which converts old district of this section into several new districts with centers at Amarillo, Childress, Lubbock and Pampa. This plan is being tried for the first time in 1934.

Mr. Lockhart states that as a general rule the winners in each of the districts come to Canyon to compete in the Regional Met on April 20 and 21.

The Regional Director goes on to say:

"A few exceptions to the above should be noted. There will be no district or county contests in Art, the students in each school may enter the Regional contest direct. There are no county contests in Typewriting, but there will be district contests; and the best five typists in each district will enter the regional meet.

"In Basketball, each District must determine its championship not later than Feb. 24; and then the winning teams, four in number come to Canyon for a Regional elimination on March 2 and 3. This tournament will be conducted on a "Double-elimination" basis, requiring two defeats to put a team out of the tournament, before reaching the finals. The drawing by districts will be published on February 25.

"There is an entirely new plan this year in Essay Writing. The writers must attend each meet from county to Regional and actually write their essays in the contest. This is regular—the winners in the county entering the District, and the district winners entering the Regional Meet.

"In the One-Act Play contest the "Double-elimination plan will also be used, the cast from Childress playing against Pampa; the one from Lubbock playing against Amarillo; then losers play losers and winners play winners, etc., until the Regional Championship cast is determined and entered in the State Meet. This tournament will be held in Canyon on April 20 and 21. Correspondence should be addressed to Mr. C. W. Batchelder, Canyon.

"The regional Meet for Tennis and all other athletic contests—track and field—will be at Canyon on April 20 and 21. Mr. Carl York, Canyon, is Regional Director for all athletics.

"An effort will be made to pro-

MORE cotton but less money from it. Farmers know this, but heretofore there has been no method by which they could be assured of full cooperation by all growers all over the Belt in reducing acreage. The Agricultural Adjustment Administration offers such a method now, and the grower who will cooperate will be paid for his cooperation. As a result, the whole Cotton Belt will benefit, the surplus will be reduced, and the outlook for the future will be brightened. A study of this graph should naturally cause the farmer to pause before he produces cotton in excess of consumption requirement.

MOON LADDER

I built a ladder,
A tall one, last night,
Ran up the star-steps,
Bright flight after flight,
To take down the moon
We had hung in the sky
One gay night last summer
When love drifted by.

One gay night not knowing
(We loved and were young!)
How crooked, how fragile
The lantern we swung.

The moon I unfastened,
But I left the tack—
I might find a new moon
And want to go back!

ASHTOLA SCHOOL NEWS

(The Log of A Pirate)
The Ashtola Pirate Crew met in Council on Wednesday night, with every active member in his place. D. W. The Pirates and our sister, Piratas are soon to attempt the production of an operetta, "The Pastry Cook and the Pirates," a rather ambitious undertaking;

MARTIN

Mrs. Jim Baker

All the moving has been done and everyone located for the coming year, so we have our permanent enrollment in school for the year. Despite the sore throat and cold epidemic which seems to have gone through the community our attendance has been good this month. Following is the honor roll for the fifth month:

- 1st grade—Clyde McCrary, Ivan Watson, Helen Bulman, Charlie Spier, and Raymond Martin.
- 2nd grade—Ray Pittman, Ralph Morrow, and Josie Davis.
- 3rd grade—Jr. Hartzog, John Murray Peabody, Jimmie Goodman, Bernice Spier, and Elby McCrary.
- 4th grade—L. B. Hartzog, Maggie Lee Davis, Billie Ruth Bulman, and Kitty Ruth Bailey.
- 5th grade—Clyde Peabody, Willie Nell Shannon, Christine Pittman, Oleta Marshall and Doris Bailey.
- 6th grade—Rex Shannon.
- 7th grade—Billie Goodman, Ira Sutton, and Juanita White.
- 8th grade—Margaret Easterling.
- 9th grade—Winston Wood, Louise Patterson and Johnnie LaFon.

We are very sorry to report that Earl Shannon, who has been confined for a week or so in the Adair hospital with pneumonia, is not improving as we had all hoped that he would. He has developed pneumonia in the other lung. Lee Singletery of Carter, Okla. Melvin Morris of the Chamberlain community and Emily Davis were guests in the Dave Patterson home however we are fortunate in having some exceptional musical talent in our school.

Strange to say, the usual six-weeks exams we are having to undergo this week are not the bug-a-boo they might be, if we had been less studious these past weeks.

A great interest is being shown in Interscholastic League work this year. We are planning to have entries in most all the literary and athletic events.

We are counting on our Pirate and Pirata crews acquitting themselves creditably in the annual class B tournament at Hedley this coming week end. Of course we would like very much to win in each division, but our motto is: "Sportsmanship, then Victory."

The tournament will conclude the basketball season this year and we are looking forward to beginning baseball practice.

We take a great pride in our new work-shop, and with the hundred dollars which the state has granted us for additional equipment, we hope to accomplish great things. Our barbers are doing excellent work and keep busy; the mechanics turned out a first-class paint job on a Chevrolet coupe and have several other jobs contracted.

The paint is blown on with a gun, and satisfaction is guaranteed. The expense to the owner, including paint runs about $5.00. A hot-bed has been constructed from which we hope to get some early plants. In the blacksmith department, some expert workmen are being developed in sharpening sweeps. Several articles of furniture were repaired and repainted last week. The tailors did quite a volume of work this past week. Regular cleaning days are Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Prices on suits are 25c
Trousers 10c
Dresses 20c
The Ashtola Pirate Crew wish to extend greetings to our brother Pirates through out this section.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kavanaugh and little daughter went to Frost this past week end to attend the wedding of Bilden English, Mrs. Kavanaugh's youngest brother. Rev. English of Borger accompanied them to perform the ceremony for his brother. They were in a big rain storm down there and brought some mud back with them to prove it to us.

Miss Della Wood spent Sunday with her brother J. D. Wood and family.

Mrs. Bob James of McLean is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Floyd Shannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall and little son of Stratford and Mrs. Carl Naylor and two children of Naylor were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker Sunday.

Lelia Students Carry On in Other Schools

Since the Lelia graduates are progressing so nicely in college and other places, we decided to devote a column of our school paper to their work. We have some late data on some of our graduates.

Cynthia Mae Eller has begun work at Clarendon college now. She had all of her credits except three. We are glad to report that she took the three entrance examinations without any trouble at all. We wish her much success.

Sam King, who is attending Abilene Christian College, was on the honor roll the first month. He was regarded highly to his parents.

We secured data on Richard Finch, who is also attending Abilene Christian College, by one of the Abilene papers. We might just print this in the paper as we have it.

The James A. Garfield Society.—This new but outstanding organization is a local unit of the Scholarship Societies of the South. Very high scholastic standing and character are the qualifications for membership.

SCHOLARSHIP BODY PLANS INITIATION FOR NEW MEMBERS

Graduate, Junior and Senior Members Added

The James A. Garfield Scholarship Society met Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of selecting new members.

Graduate members named were: Elbridge Lynn, Aubry Lee Rorset.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you. *But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and

Mrs. R. H. Robertson, Fred Crabtree, Epsa Wells, Mrs. E. W. McMillan, and Mrs. Paul Simon, Annabelle Stanfill.

These students made an average of B plus or above for the last three years of college work and were among the highest 10 per cent of the class.

Senior members are: Camilla Browning, Vera Lee, Jack Pope, Herschel North, Edith Wolf, and Margaret Wolf.

Junior members are: Oma Bell Bixler, Richard Finch, Roxie Norton, and G. B. Shelbourne. The junior and senior members made an average of B plus or above during one year of their college work.

Plans are being made for the initiation of new members.

We will print more news next week on our Lelia Lake ex-students.

Boy's Basketball
 The Lelia Lake Zebras met Lakeview Thursday night on Hedley's court. The game was won in their favor, as Reynolds and Finch fouled off in the first of the last quarter.

With much delight we saw Hedley's second string win over Lakeview.

On Thursday night we also found out that some ball players had not learned how to be good sports. We have been wondering if someone taught them this way. We want to play good clean basketball and hope the other teams agree with us.

On last Tuesday night we won a double header over Giles and the Hedley All-Stars.

Rev. Lawson Speaks to School Friday

The student body was greatly honored Friday afternoon by Rev. Lawson, pastor of the Methodist church, when he spoke to them. The main point of his talk was that no matter how well you are doing always strive to do better. Everyone enjoyed his talk very much and hope to have him with us again soon.

The Juniors and Seniors showed their ability in writing songs when Mrs. Thomasson signed that as an English lesson a few days ago. The following are some of the best ones:
 (Tune—Tramp, Tramp, Tramp)
 By Moody Aten and Aledamae Richardson.

I
 On the ball court now we come, thinking, Lelia dear, of you, and our victory not so very far away; and the yells they fill the air, that's the best that we can do, now cheer up, old Lelia and be gay.
 Chorus:
 Ha, Ha, Ha, Ole Lelia's winning, cheer up Lelia don't be sad, and beneath Lelia's sky, we shall conquer O'er and O'er and gain victory for our own beloved school.

II
 So within the old ball court, we are waiting for the day, when old Clarendon will play another game. Let your hallow eyes grow bright, and your poor heart almost gay, when you think that you can beat old Lelia's team.
 Chorus:

III
 Onward Lelia High School
 (Tune—Onward Christian Soldiers)
 By Beatrice Hardin and Ruth Davis.

I
 Onward Lelia High School
 Marching through the years
 With the love of Lelia always bending near.
 Fair play always being the banner and the rule,
 Forward on the ball court see her banner go.
 Chorus:
 Onward Lelia High School
 Marching through the years
 With the love of Lelia always bending near.

II
 We are always working for a higher goal.
 Literature and field events we have always tried.
 We are always striving to be the winning side.
 So that our own death knell they will never toll.
 Chorus:

III
 Zebras, Zebras, Zebras, we will always be Faithful to you everywhere we will be.
 Lelia, you are always going to be our home
 In the years to come every where we roam.
 Chorus:

IV
 Onward then, dear Lelia, fling your banner high.
 Blend with ours your voices in the triumph cry.
 Glory and your honor unto people show
 That through countless ages men may always know.
 Chorus:

Lelia High
 (Tune—Hot Time)
 By Inez Wood

I
 Lelia High, they have a winning team,
 Lelia High, they have a fighting team,
 And when they play a game, They always play the same,
 There'll be a ball game in Lelia to-night.
 Boys, play ball and do your very best,
 Boys, play ball and we will do the rest,
 And when you make a goal, We'll watch the scores roll,
 There'll be a ball game in Lelia to-night.

Frances Johnston Entertains
 A group of young people were entertained in the home of Frances Johnston Saturday night.

After music and singing furnished by Lucille Hamm and Billie Admire was enjoyed, games were played that proved to be successful. At a late hour those reporting a good time were Misses Vernelle Leathers, Maxine Tomlinson, Margaret Gerner, Juanita and Ruby Jones, Lucille Hamm, Billie Admire, Loree, Hamm, Effie Dean and Ruby Bullard and Frances Johnston.

Coming Sophs

Oh yes, we are: We'll be Sophs next year. That is if we pass. Our science grades range from one or maybe two r's to several e's and f's. If these grades were all that counted, there would be very few Sophs next year. We will have to admit that Dot Holland knows the stuff when it comes to science. She can rattle off science like Laura Mae Gerner can spell. Jane Williams gets the prize for neat writing. Warren Hardin knows his English and Millard Cruse doesn't know his history. Erma Lee Penninger is our actor and actress. While we're speaking of the subject you ought to have seen our chapel program February 16. The program consisted of the songs, "When You and I Were Young Maggie" and "No John," acted out with Erma Lee Penninger acting as a man in both and Jane Williams acting the lady's part. Next came Jane Williams reading, "The First Call on the Butcher." This reading was acted out and enjoyed immensely by all. The next and last number was the play "Washington's First Defeat." The characters were Camellia, buxom negress—Erma Lee Penninger.

Lucy Grymes, a young girl—Laura Mae Gerner.
 George Washington—Millard Cruse.
 Each character was dressed according to the style of 1700. Both Lucy and George had white hair. Some of our pupils are dumb—some of them are smart, but we'll say for them all that they are good old pals to us.

The Climber's Club Meets Again
 Amid much confusion and hammering, the Climbers club met February 15, 1934. For our next club program the president appointed Lottye Maye Holland, William Hardin and Billie Howard as a committee to make one. We hope that the school house will be remodeled by our next club day so that we may enjoy our program in peace.

For the program, the committee had made out a program dealing with imported men born in February. Although we could not understand all that was said, we enjoyed the program very much.
 Much to our surprise, we found that Longfellow and Dickens were nearly the same age! Many of us thought that they were separated by a number of years.
 —oOo—

Golden Sandstorm Club Report
 The ninth grade furnished our program for this time. The program was unusual, each telling a parable and explaining it.
 Parable of the vineyard—Bernice.
 Parable of the talents—Fern.
 Parable of the sowers—Marie.
 Parable of the tares—Ruth.
 Parable of the fig tree—James.
 The foolish virgins—Winston.
 The good Samaritan—La Nelle.
 Parable of the laborers—Maxine.
 Parable of the hidden treasure—Frances.
 The ten virgins—Billie.
 The prodigal son—Jeff.

Mrs. Thomasson was forced to tell some of us the exact verses to read, because she was afraid we would get so interested that we would read the Bible and not get our English lessons.

Jokes
 Prof.—If there are any dumb-bells in the class please stand up.
 A long pause and then a lone freshman stood up.
 Prof.—What, do you consider yourself a dumb-bell?
 Freshman—Well, not exactly that sir, but I hate to see you standing alone.

The boy had been fishing for four hours when the inquisitive man came along and inquired what he was doing.
 "Fishin'" was the boy's terse reply.
 "Got anything?" asked the man.
 "Yes" came the reply.
 "What?"
 "Patience," said the boy, still more tersely.

Mr. Thomasson—"I never told lies when I was a boy."
 Russell—"When you start then, father?"

C. W. A. WORK UNDERWAY

The C. W. A. workers have been working on the school building for three weeks under the supervision of Mr. Bullard, president of the school board. Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church
"Three Tests of Religion."
John 5:39-47.

The man who had been ill for thirty-eight years made a remarkable recovery. It aroused the antagonism to Jesus. What an indictment Jesus brings against his enemies: "I know you, that you have not the love of God in you." He has applied three tests to their religion and finds them all failing in each one.

I. Whom do you accept as spiritual authority? "I am come in my Father's name and ye receive me not; if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." His coming in His Father's name should have opened every heart. They were more interested in what to believe than in whom to believe. In matters of the heart, the soul must answer not to man but to God. Jesus must become for us the Lord of life. Today, as it was hundreds of years ago, men do not accept the authority of Christ. They are seeking advice and assistance from those who come in their own names and not the "Truth" as it is presented in Christ's name. All authority has been given unto Him and we should accept His word as final on any subject.

II. What do you seek? "How can ye believe which receive honor one from another and seek not the honor that cometh from God only." It is a worthy thing to be well pleasing to your community, but it is more worthy to be well pleasing to God. Jesus weighs men's motives as well as their deeds. Man honors material achievements. God honors the spiritual. Which do you seek? Read John 12:42. Gal. 1:10. Rom. 2:29. Many people today will not accept "truth" and obey "It" because they desire honor from men.

DOROTHY DARNIT

By Charles McManus

III. What do you believe? "For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?" How can we expect to believe him, unless we believe the truth concerning him? We need faith in a person in order to have faith in his words. Christ fulfilled the highest ideals of the past.

IV. Apply these tests to your religion. Love to and for God is determined by them. Are we willing to let the Bible be our guide in our religious life?

SANDSTORM LAST SATURDAY WORST FOR MANY YEARS

Contrary to Public Opinion Wheat Did Not Suffer Serious Damage

The second sandstorm of the season came on Saturday evening and for a short period is said to have been worse than the preceding Saturday. Each storm preceded a cold spell and could not be classified as a regular sandstorm, both being in the nature of a dust storm.

Neither one was of more force than one on March 21st, 1932. That date is yet fresh in the memory of a number of housekeepers who have mentioned the fact the past few days.

According to newspaper reports, the storm was much worse on the upper plains, but for some mysterious reason, wheat did not suffer from the dust storm as much as it usually does in a regular sandstorm.

The cold low for Sunday following the storm is said to have been eleven above, and nine above on Monday morning. This is the lowest temperature of the winter so far. On the other hand, this has been the warmest and driest winter in the Panhandle for forty years according to a careful check on weather records and the memory of the first settlers.

There had been some uneasiness upon the part of farmers due to the fact that the warm weather had permitted hoppers and other insects to live right through the winter in the open. Heel flies had been a nuisance in the dead of winter. It is now believed that the cold weather has been of incalculable value in destroying insect pests.

T. E. Trostle is Arrested In Amarillo

There has been times when our former townsman journeyed to Amarillo on business in connection with his church, and on other occasions with his family to do shopping. He has served on federal juries there doing his bit for his country but Saturday was his "red letter" day in the "Argone of the Plains."

He was arrested! T. E. Trostle was. Being his first after spending most of his sixty years in this section, he naturally was not in a position to appreciate the alleged joke, because it was not a joke.

He paid a fine of $38.00. It all came about because he was hauling the household effects of a tenant from near Shamrock to a point near Levelland. In addition to hauling the truck load a distance of approximately 225 miles, he paid $38 for the privilege.

He did not have a trucker's permit from the Railroad Commission. Despite explanations, he was haled into court by a constable, and fined. He was refused the privilege of moving his "own" truck until he had made affidavit that he was not charging his tenant for the hauling. After making the affidavit, he was permitted to depart on his way with his load, but was refused a refund of the $38.

Samuel Anderson Dies From Heart Failure Tuesday

Death came to Samuel Anderson, former resident of Clarendon, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earl George, in Tucumcari while asleep.

He was 85 years of age and was well known to old-timers of this section of the Panhandle. His wife died less than six months ago.

Mrs. J. M. O'Neal and her daughter Miss Frances of Ft. Worth visited her sister, Mrs. Harry Ruddell last week.

PANHANDLE PLAINS

is now the opinion of scientists that as the Indians slowly moved west, they progressed in civilization, their culture culminating in that high type found in the ruins of the Pecos, New Mexico region.

Although he has been engaged in archaeological study for more than fifty years, Dr. Moorehead finds his work as interesting as at the beginning. This is his fourth trip to the Panhandle of Texas, his time on this expedition having been spent in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, and with Floyd Studer in trips over the region.

The eastern scientist highly commended Professor L. F. Sheffy and the builders of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society for the fine work which is being done in this region. He stated also that the American Museum Society has recently voted to have work done by local trained men, and to have valuable specimens stay in the museums of the section in which they are found. It is likely that under this new policy, at least some of the treasures which have gone out of the Panhandle will be returned to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

"It is to be regretted," said Dr. Moorehead, "that untrained people attempt to make excavations, that amateurs destroy materials of great value which can never be replaced."

He suggested that a far better proceeding would be for the amateur who thinks he has discovered a ruin to get in touch with a well-trained investigator, and then assist him in securing the treasures to be found in the ruin.

Dr. Moorehead declared that he had never found any buried treasure, and that he had never personally known anyone who had personally secured anything of monetary value by digging for treasure.

Besides being America's foremost archaeologist, Dr. Moorehead has been for 27 years a member of the Board of Indian Affairs in Washington, and has written a comprehensive study called "The American Indian." He hopes to return to the Panhandle for further study in the future.

Fires Former Law Partner Dies Suddenly Monday

E. E. Diggs, pioneer Childress attorney and a law partner of Judge A. J. Fires for more than 30 years, suddenly expired while addressing the civil appeals court at Amarillo Monday.

The aged attorney had been speaking for about 10 minutes when he suddenly sat down in a chair and expired within a moment. Cerebral hemorrhage was given as the cause of death. He was 77 years of age, and had resided at Childress for more than 40 years.

BOTH CHAINS TO CARRY ROOSEVELT'S ADDRESS

Full network facilities are to be cut into Washington for a coast-to-coast broadcast of President Roosevelt's address before conference of NRA code authorities next month. Both NBC chains and the CBS group will be hooked on.

The broadcast, to last an hour, will open at 10 a. m. March 5, and will include a talk by Dr. Wilson Compton, administrator of trade practices.

The Fault Finder

When you hear a man finding fault with his local newspaper, says an exchange, investigate him. Ten to one you'll find that he has not an advertisement in it; five to one he never gives it a job of printing; three to one that if he is a subscriber he is delinquent; even odds he never does anything to help the publisher run a good paper, and forty to one he is the most eager to see the newspaper when it comes out, and borrows it from his neighbor before he gets time to read it.

On top of that, we would like to give these odds: Fifty to one that he grips at any public improvement; 75 to 1 he never belongs or joins any civic organization for the betterment of his community, and 100 to 1 he will be always found nosing around in someone else's affairs.
